Dear Brothers & Sisters in Christ,

I want to share exciting news about the Tennessee & Memphis Conference Area Goal of saving 100,000 lives through Imagine No Malaria. This far we have saved 36,188 lives, which is an amazing work of God.

I want to remind you that last year the leadership of the Conference asked every congregation to participate. The challenge was for each congregation to set a goal of at least $1,000 above and beyond your normal budget.

Many congregations have already sent the money raised into the Conference office to immediately begin saving lives and we hope many more will before Conference. There will be two offerings for Imagine No Malaria during Annual Conference where YOU have the power to save lives and change the world.

We will celebrate the lives that are being saved through our faithfulness to God and to our brothers and sisters in Africa on Wednesday, June 10th. As part of the celebration we are asking everyone to wear your Imagine No Malaria shirt or a red shirt.

Malaria is a transmitted disease through the bite of a mosquito. It claims a life every 60 seconds. In 2010, when the campaign began, a person was dying every 30 seconds. It is not too late to help by making a decision now to be part of making a huge difference in the world!

Let's raise $1,000,000 for Imagine No Malaria.

Charles Poole

Perhaps it was love at first sight; at least it came very early. Our recipient of this year's clergy award fell in love with his high school sweetheart, and he always felt that no one could have shared his love and his ministry more beautifully. His ministry through the years included his beloved wife, for she was a committed partner in everything he did.

The Second World War called our recipient into the infantry, where he served until his discharge in 1946, enabling him and his wife to enroll at Martin College in Pulaski, Tennessee as Freshmen students. Since not many married students were enrolled at that time, this couple had an apartment at one end of Tennessee Hall (which was the Women's dormitory). They often served as counselors and confidants and sometimes encouragers of "courting couples" who treasured their friendship. They were a happy presence on the Martin College campus and, joyfully, this was not their only residence time at Martin; years later they returned to Martin College where he served as Dean of Students.

Martin College, which today is an exciting, growing 4 year college, in early years was a 2 year, Junior College. Upon completion at Martin our recipient attended Peabody College and then Vanderbilt Divinity School, where he earned the MDiv Degree.

His vocation fulfilled every meaning of that word - it was God's total "calling", and it has been lived out faithfully in his ministry. He is a true disciple of Jesus Christ, with a deep commitment to the life and ministry of the United Methodist Church and he always made a positive impact on every church he served. Those who know him are always impressed by his warm spirit, happy smile, and gracious words.

Today's honored pastor served appointments during a period of 6 decades. Many of his earlier appointments were during those days when pastors moved more frequently than today. On occasions moves even caused a reduction in remuneration, but he never expressed unhappiness nor made complaint. He said, in fact, "Every church I served was wonderful, and they were all filled with beautiful people."

With a very diverse ministry he served as pastor of small rural churches, town churches, growing urban churches, a campus ministry, and district superintendent of the Cookeville District. When he left the Cookeville District he was appointed as Associate Pastor at Belle Meade Church in Nashville, where he was an essential leader and valued colleague in that church's ministry team. He was so endeared to that congregation that, years later, when he retired, he returned to be active with that congregation - teaching Bible studies, visiting, serving communion.

Speaking of retirement- - Our recipient has served in so many positions since retirement that many don't believe he has ever retired at all, though the conference journal shows 1992. Soon after retirement he became part of the staff at McKendree UMC in Nashville. His work there in evangelism and visitation was "like paying a kid to eat candy." But, then, that described his nature and his effective ministry.

His recent years have been surrounded by pain. His beloved wife suffered from Alzheimer's Disease. As, together, they struggled with her dementia, he was her caregiver. That care was always embraced by the love, which drew him to his high school sweetheart, underscored by more than 70 years together.

We can think of no more deserving pastor to be honored with this Journal Dedication, than our friend and colleague Reverend Charles Poole. We are happy and honored to nominate him.

Martha felt her calling as a nurse during her childhood when she would extend nursing care to the animals in her neighborhood. Martha has a love for people, a love of helping people and above all a love for God. As a Christian minister, Martha is led to do Kingdom building by being the hands and feet of Jesus as a Faith Community Nurse/Parish Nurse.

Martha is a Cardio-Pulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) Instructor, is a member of the Faith Community Nurse/Parish Nurse Network, a Stephen Minister and previous member of the Tennessee Nurses Association (TNA). Martha is very active in health ministry on the Cumberland District and the Health and Welfare Committee of The Tennessee Annual Conference.

Martha has served as the coordinator and facilitator of the First Aid Station for Annual Conference since Annual Conference at Volunteer State Community College. Each Annual Conference since then, Martha continues to dedicate her time as the Parish Nurse presence for the First Aid Station each day of the Tennessee Annual Conference.

Martha currently serves as the Faith Community Nurse/Parish Nurse with Grace UMC (merger of St. Paul UMC and St. Mt. Juliet UMC). In a 1996, Tennessee Conference Reporter article, St. Paul's UMC announced the beginning of their Parish Nurse Ministry with Martha Wilson, RN, being selected to fill the part-time position. Martha continues to serve as the Parish Nurse with Grace UMC. Martha looks to retiring from the active ministry of Parish Nursing and is preparing her congregation for the next Faith Community Nurse/Parish Nurse to continue this vital ministry.

Jesus took the long way back to Galilee, through a land whose inhabitants were despised by the Jewish people. The woman at the well is the epitome of the souls that Jesus wants US to reach—so hated by those in her own community that she had to sneak to the well at mid-day to get water, comfortably certain no one would spot her and demean her. There she meets a man who knows what she is feeling—the fear and trembling deep inside. She is so moved by the encounter with Jesus that she becomes his evangelist. This passage from John deserves deep study as we enter deep inside a woman’s heart . . . and deep inside Jesus’ heart as well. Persons attending the 2015 Tennessee Annual Conference can understand WHY three study sessions and a great deal of discussion time were spent looking at the deeper meaning and implications of John 4: 1-42.

The Woman at the Well

John 4: 1-42

4 1-3 Jesus realized that the Pharisees were keeping count of the baptisms that he and John performed (although his disciples, not Jesus, did the actual baptizing). They had posted the score that Jesus was ahead, turning him and John into rivals in the eyes of the people. So Jesus left the Judean countryside and went back to Galilee.

4-6 To get there, he had to pass through Samaria. He came into Sychar, a Samaritan village that bordered the field Jacob had given his son Joseph. Jacob’s well was still there. Jesus, worn out by the trip, sat down at the well. It was noon.

7-8 A woman, a Samaritan, came to draw water. Jesus said, “Would you give me a drink of water?” (His disciples had gone to the village to buy food for lunch.)

9 The Samaritan woman, taken aback, asked, “How come you, a Jew, are asking me, a Samaritan woman, for a drink?” (Jews in those days wouldn’t be caught dead talking to Samaritans.)

10 Jesus answered, “If you knew the generosity of God and who I am, you would be asking me for a drink, and I would give you fresh, living water.”

11-12 The woman said, “Sir, you don’t even have a bucket to draw with, and this well is deep. So how are you going to get this ‘living water’? Are you a better man than our ancestor Jacob, who dug this well and drank from it, he and his sons and livestock, and passed it down to us?”

13-14 Jesus said, “Everyone who drinks this water will get thirsty again and again. Anyone who drinks the water I give will never thirst—not ever. The water I give will be an artesian spring within, gushing fountains of endless life.”

15 The woman said, “Sir, give me this water so I won’t ever get thirsty, won’t ever have to come back to this well again!”

16 He said, “Go call your husband and then come back.”

17-18 “I have no husband,” she said.

“That’s nicely put: ‘I have no husband.’ You’ve had five husbands, and the man you’re living with now isn’t even your husband. You spoke the truth there, sure enough.”

19-20 “Oh, so you’re a prophet! Well, tell me this: Our ancestors worshiped God at this mountain, but you Jews insist that Jerusalem is the only place for worship, right?”

21-23 “Believe me, woman, the time is coming when you Samaritans will worship the Father neither here at this mountain nor there in Jerusalem. You worship guessing in the dark; we Jews worship in the clear light of day. God’s way of salvation is made available through the Jews. But the time is coming—it has, in fact, come—when what you’re called will not matter and now isn't even your husband. You spoke the truth there, sure enough."

19-20 "Oh, so you're a prophet! Well, tell me this: Our ancestors worshiped God at this mountain, but you Jews insist that Jerusalem is the only place for worship, right?"

21-23 "Believe me, woman, the time is coming when you Samaritans will worship the Father neither here at this mountain nor there in Jerusalem. You worship guessing in the dark; we Jews worship in the clear light of day. God's way of salvation is made available through the Jews. But the time is coming—it has, in fact, come—when what you're called will not matter and where you go to worship will not matter.

23-24 "It's who you are and the way you live that count before God. Your worship must engage your spirit in the pursuit of truth. That's the kind of people the Father is out looking for: those who are simply and honestly themselves before him in their worship. God is sheer being itself—Spirit. Those who worship him must do it out of their very being, their spirits, their true selves, in adoration."

25 The woman said, "I don't know about that. I do know that the Messiah is coming. When he arrives, we'll get the whole story."

26 "I am he," said Jesus. "You don't have to wait any longer or look any further."

27 Just then his disciples came back. They were shocked. They couldn't believe he was talking with that kind of a woman. No one said what they were all thinking, but their faces showed it.

28-30 The woman took the hint and left. In her confusion she left her water pot. Back in the village she told the people, "Come see a man who knew all about the things I did, who knows me inside and out. Do you think this could be the Messiah?" And they went out to see for themselves.

It's Harvest Time

31 In the meantime, the disciples pressed him, "Rabbi, eat. Aren't you going to eat?"

32 He told them, "I have food to eat you know nothing about."

33 The disciples were puzzled. "Who could have brought him food?"

34-35 Jesus said, "The food that keeps me going is that I do the will of the One who sent me, finishing the work he started. As you look around right now, wouldn't you say that in about four months it will be time to harvest? Well, I'm telling you to open your eyes and take a good look at what's right in front of you. These Samaritan fields are ripe. It's harvest time!

36-38 "The Harvester isn't waiting. He's taking his pay, gathering in this grain that's ripe for eternal life. Now the Sower is arm in arm with the Harvester, triumphant. That's the truth of the saying, 'This one sows, that one harvests.' I sent you to harvest a field you never worked. Without lifting a finger, you have walked in on a field worked long and hard by others."

39-42 Many of the Samaritans from that village committed themselves to him because of the woman's witness: "He knew all about the things I did. He knows me inside and out!" They asked him to stay on, so Jesus stayed two days. A lot more people entrusted their lives to him when they heard what he had to say. They said to the woman, "We're no longer taking this on your say-so. We've heard it for ourselves and know it for sure. He's the Savior of the world!"

2015 St. Andrew Award

Opal Ransom

Opal Green Ransom left the ministry of Jesus Christ on earth on January 27, 2015 to rest in the arms of the same Jesus Christ who called her into that ministry.

Those who knew and served with Opal saw the personification of grace, the epitome of a servant leader, and the inspiration of a life of faithfulness and love in action!

The Order of St. Andrew is named for the apostle who brought the young boy with the five loaves and two fish. Before Jesus feeds the Five Thousand, it is Andrew who says, "Here is a lad with five barley loaves and two fish". Andrew was known as "the bringer". He brought people to Jesus. We have seen 'another St. Andrew' in Opal in so many ways.

She was a dedicated and committed member of Gordon Memorial United Methodist Church for 52 years, and she worked and served in many capacities of the United Methodist Women and the local, district and conference levels of the United Methodist Church. At Gordon UMC she served as the Chair of Finance, Building Committee, Pastor Parrish Committee and Lay leader.

She served as President of the District and Tennessee Conference United Methodist Women; and on the conference level, she served as Chairperson of the Conference Council on Connectional Ministries, the Board of Laity, the Tennessee Conference Personnel Committee, the Conference Common Table, Religion and Race, and Finance and Personnel Committee. In 2012 she served as a Tennessee Conference Delegate to the General Conference, and to the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conferences in 2008 and 2012. And at the time of her death she was serving as the President of Hannah Link, Lay Leader to the TN Annual Conference, a voting member of the General Commission of the Status and Role of Women [COSROW], and chair of the TN Conference COSROW, Vice Chair of the Conference Committee on Congregational Development, a member of the Conference Council of Connectional Ministries, a member of the Academy for Spiritual Formation, and Certified Lay Servant.

Opal's passion to make a difference in the lives of children with special needs led to her employment for 30 years with the Heads Up Child Development Center, and she retired from the State of Tennessee in 2012 as a Quality Assurance Surveyor with the Department of Intellectual and Development Disabilities.

May we all honor her legacy of love and light of Jesus Christ in our lives!

2015 Tennessee Annual Conference Clergy Denman Award

Charles Kevin Marston

Kevin Marston was born in Dandridge TN to Charles and Roxie Marston on October 4, 1964. His infant baptism was celebrated in Dandridge First UMC in Dandridge. The family moved to Franklin TN in 1968. Kevin has fond memories of childhood and Christian nurture at Friendship UMC.

Upon graduation in 1983 from Hillwood High School in Nashville, Kevin began pursuing a music education degree education from Tennessee Tech University. However, he heard the call to pursue Special Education and graduated in 1989.

Kevin taught special education for eleven years, ten years in Metro Nashville and one in Robertson County before hearing the call to ministry. During these years, students and their families taught Kevin the importance of faith in life.

Kevin and PJ (Beavers) were married in 1994 and began attending City Road Chapel UMC in Madison TN, where their oldest son, Daniel was baptized. A few years later the family became members of Springfield First UMC in Springfield TN, where their next son, Michael was baptized. Kevin lists these two churches, along with Braden UMC, as important in helping to hear and answer his call to ministry.

In 2002, Kevin and family moved to Kansas City Mo, and Kevin began working toward a Masters of Divinity at Saint Paul School of Theology in Kansas City Missouri. The family began to learn about life in the rural mid-west. While in Missouri, Kevin served as student pastor of the Burlington Junction/Wilcox charge of the Pony Express District. John Arlin was baptized in the Kresge Chapel on the Saint Paul campus.

Upon graduation in 2006, Kevin and family returned to the Tennessee Annual Conference to serve three years at New Chapel UMC in the Clarksville District. In June 2009, Kevin was appointed to Decherd UMC in the Murfreesboro District. Kevin currently serves with the people of Waynesboro First in the Pulaski District where his ministry of missional excellence continues to make tremendous strides toward congregational vitality and outreach. He exemplifies the qualities of moral integrity, prayer, Christian service and outstanding leadership in the church and community. Charles Kevin Marston—in celebration of your commitment to Christ's Church and service, with a generous heart and a Christ-like spirit—we present to you the 2015 Harry Denman Evangelism Award for Clergy.

2015 Tennessee Annual Conference Laity Denman Award

Judy Waggoner

At Grace UMC in Mount Juliet, we have a fish fry on the first Saturday of every month in our Family Life Center. I have been organizing and coordinating the monthly event for about 10 years. We have over 50 volunteers that dedicate their time each and every month to helping with procurement of food and supplies, setting up tables and chairs, preparing and serving the food, preparing and donating homemade desserts, and cleaning up afterwards. We also get help from a local Boy Scout troop, Troop 911, which has adopted our fish fry as one of their missions.

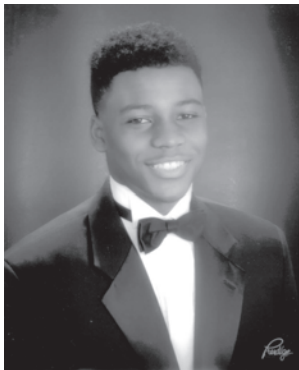

Our menu consists of fried catfish, fries, cole slaw, white beans and hush puppies, beverage, and desserts and we usually serve about 275-300 people in only 3 hours!

The proceeds benefit the Gifts of Grace, our church's benevolence ministry that helps members of our church and our community with expenses incurred as a result of a serious medical condition. This fundraising effort began 25+ years ago and we have donated about $375,000 to people in need.

It's quite the production, but all of us involved feel very blessed and honored to be able to be the hands and feet of Jesus by helping and serving our brothers and sisters.

2015 Tennessee Annual Conference Youth Denman Award

Welton Pride

Welton has been a church going young man, as embedded into him since his birth, seventeen years ago. Since his conception while still being carried by his mother, his faith journey started. His parents were in Discipleship I class, which consumed most of his development prior to being born. This was the start of his strong roots within the church and knowing about our heavenly father. His loving parents, along with members of Clark Memorial United Methodist Church nurtured and raised him in the way God would have it, and has started to mold him into a true man of God.

Upon being born, he has participated in many church school programs and productions from being baby Jesus, being one of the three wise men, or even being the narrator of the Easter story. He has sung in the children's choir and in the youth choir. He was also served as an acolyte and an usher. He has played in the hand bell choir and played the piano during services.

When he grew older, he became a member of the youth group filling several roles such as treasurer and currently the presiding president. He was a member of the homecoming committee in 2012. He has assisted the United Methodist Men with their annual fish fry as well as helping them in and around the community. In addition, the youth group has participated in many church events spreading their service through mission trips to New Orleans post-Katrina, and New York.

Also, he has inspired the youth members to participate in every area possible to assist the community and spread God's word such as volunteering for Room in the Inn, a very popular agency to help Nashville's indigent population. Through his church in conjunction with the Nashville's mission shelter, the youth would conduct a mini fellowship service, provide a warm delicious meal, care packages and provided hospitality and shelter for an evening.

He attends functions at local and district levels such as Warmth in Winter, Harambee, and Summer Sizzler where he was selected as a BMCR representative. He regularly attends Church school. He has assisted with the sound system since 2011, has been involved in the photography ministry, continually is a worship leader, and lastly, he preached a sermon for Clark's Youth Day titled; "Train Up the Child", which he states has proven to be his most rewarding accomplishment.

One Matters Discipleship Ministries Award

Porter's Chapel United Methodist Church

In the past year there were several churches in the TN Conference that had significant increases in Professions of Faith. One of those churches is Porter's Chapel in the Columbia District, having gone from one Profession of Faith in the past ten years to thirteen in the past ten months. Rev. Ed Brennan gives credit for the new energy at Porter's Chapel to God and the power of the Holy Spirit.

This past year they have opened their doors and invited everyone in the community in to make church a part of their lives, not just something they do on Sunday. They introduced a Discipleship bible study program, drive in movies and other outreach events. These new connections have led to adults and youth hearing the Gospel and giving their hearts to Christ.

J. Richard Allison Social Holiness Award 2015

The Reverends Nelia J. Tripp Kimbrough & R. Calvin Kimbrough, Jr.

The Kimbroughs were reared in faith-filled homes/churches: Calvin at South End and CrieveWood UMC's in Nashville; Nelia in Coleman UMC in Lawrenceburg. Both families were strong Christian role models of active Christian service.

During college days, both Kimbroughs were extremely involved in the Wesley Foundation at Tennessee Tech under the guidance and profound influence of their mentor, The Rev. Robert H. Lewis, Jr. The social milieu of the mid-late sixties captured the prophetic consciences of each of these leaders and sensitized them to the need of the least the last and the lowest of our society.

Both Kimbroughs attended Emory University's Candler School of Theology pursuing both their education and the clarification of the "callings" into social justice ministries. During seminary each became convinced that living in "intentional Christian community" in urban, under-served neighborhoods was God's calling for them, and they launched out on what has become a forty year sojourn of service with the urban poor and disenfranchised.

Through over 25 years in Evansville IN with the Patchwork Central Community and over 15 years in Atlanta GA with the Open Door Community they have literally spent and given their lives to multifaceted, innovative, faith-generated and empowered, intergenerational and inclusive ministries of social justice. Each of these uniquely talented and variously gifted servants have fulfill numerous roles of leadership over the years ... including direct benevolent services of hospitality such as hot meals, foot clinics, showers, clothing, etc. but also advocacy and community organizing roles around issues of hunger, poverty, homelessness, health-care and criminal justice issues.

They have been vital leaders of daily and weekly corporate worship and spiritual guides and mentors for other servants. They utilized their musical and artistic abilities in creative ways of engaging others in ministry. They have taught and mentored many, many young people in the nuances of inner-city, justice ministries and Christian communal life patterns.

Throughout their lives ... both personally and corporately ... both Kimbroughs, though often working in inter-faith settings, have maintained their United Methodist clergy identities and followed the United Methodist tradition of strong social witness. Their intentional communities are based in daily Christian spiritual disciplines (holiness) and are clear expressions of God's justice and righteousness. Calvin and Nelia literally embody many of our United Methodist Social Principles with much grace and dignity.

The Kimbroughs have maintained a vital connection not only to United Methodism in general but especially to their "home" conference here in Tennessee. They have always both cherished and nurtured their relationships with The Tennessee Annual Conference and always attend and participate in our annual meetings of the Annual Conference in June. Furthermore, they have remained closely associated with the United Methodist Candler School of Theology in Atlanta where they are well respected and called upon from time to time in various educational ventures.

Rev. Dick Allison would assess the exciting and faithful life stories of both Rev. Nelia and Rev. Calvin Kimbrough and see that they have surely manifested in exemplary ways blessed social holiness patterns of our Wesleyan tradition.

Mike Sanchez and Wanda Sears

FellowshipUMC-Murfreesboro

While traveling to speak at a Gospel Crusade in Uganda, Mike Sanchez discovered an orphanage that was going to be closed. In its closing over 30 children would have become homeless on the streets. There was a small window of time that the orphanage could be purchased. Mike Sanchez and Wanda Sears led a campaign to purchase the land and establish the Hope for the Hurt orphanage. Mike raised over $75,000 to save the orphanage. Wanda established a system where people could sponsor a child. This sponsorship enables a child to have clothing and attend school. They both initiated the purchase of items to upgrade the orphanage. Things as simple as metal pots and pans were needed. Over the years, money has been raised to purchase additional land and to build another building.

Wanda became aware that children in our school system were going without food over the weekends. She and Mike's wife Erika developed a program called, F.U.E.L. Each week volunteers fill bags with food that are taken to the local schools. The guidance counselors discretely place these bags in the children's backpacks. F.U.E.L. now serves six schools in Rutherford County. Over 110 bags are made and delivered weekly.

Mike began a ministry called the G.A.P. People with this ministry go into the community, where they hand out food boxes to needy families and to local motels that house people. Each week small groups deliver food and spend time with these families. Recently one small group organized an Easter egg hunt for the children.

Mike once took food and prayed with a woman who was pregnant. After she gave birth, the state was going to remove the child because of the mother's drug use. She asked the state if the person who brought her food could adopt her child. The state notified Mike and Erika and they adopted a little boy who was born addicted to crack. He is now five and excelling in kindergarten.

Wanda helped organize our church to help with a program called, "Way of Hope." Homeless women and children spend the night in different churches each week. She coordinates the meals and arranges when the women and children spend the night at the Fellowship Church. Wanda encourages the people who bring the food to stay and spend the evening with the women and children. One woman who stayed had a teenager daughter who planned to drop out of school. The teen was living a promiscuous lifestyle and using drugs. Her mother was also having major issues in her life and couldn't handle her daughter. Mike reached out to her and the young lady moved into Mike's home and became a part of his family. Two years later she graduated with honors.

Wanda and Mike recently initiated a twelve-step program called Celebrate Recovery. Wanda also helps to organize mission trips to Nicaragua. She organizes a Mission Team to ensure that the missions that God has called us to do gets done. Mike also helps with the supervision of our weekly prayer team.

Both Mike and Wanda see the world through the eyes of Jesus. When they see a need in the community they pray for guidance so the Fellowship UMC can meet that need. In both their lives they pray daily for wisdom to better serve.

Rufus McAdoo

Nearly 50 years of attendance at the Tennessee Annual Conference

Rufus McAdoo, son of Thelma and Talitha McAdoo, born in 1932, delivered by midwife Molly Lee, in a rural community outside of Lebanon, Tennessee, called Cross Roads. Rufus is the oldest of four siblings (a brother and three sisters). He was married to the former Betty Neuvle. Of this union, they had three children, two girls and one boy. Unfortunately, Betty passed during childbirth in 1960. In 1984 he married the former Pearlie Patton. Their blended family shared five boys and three girls. He attended Wilson County Training School, obtained a GED, and attended Tennessee State University. In 1950, he voluntarily joined the United States Air Force. He was stationed in Texas, New York and Okinawa, Japan. After proudly serving during the Korean War Era he was honorably discharged in 1954. He has worked at the Veterans Administration, City of Lebanon, Wilson County, and the State of Tennessee.

While serving in the United States Air Force in Geneva, New York, Rufus joined the Methodist Church. Upon returning home to Lebanon, he took on an active role in Pickett Chapel Methodist Church (Central Jurisdiction, Tennessee/Kentucky Conference). He attended his first Annual Conference in 1954, held at Tennessee State University. At Pickett Chapel (later named Pickett-Rucker), he has been an integral part of the life of the church. At Pickett-Rucker, he has actively engaged in the following roles: Trustee, Choir Member, Sunday School Teacher, Church Search Committee Member, Pastor Parish Committee Member, Administrative Board Chair and Lay Member to Annual Conference for 50 consecutive years.

He enjoys cooking, family entertainment, fishing, traveling, and all sports. He utilizes his cooking talents to enhance the food ministry of the church. In his word he is a “workaholic”. For the majority of his life, he has always had two and three jobs. Through all of this, Rufus always found time to give his time to the church. He especially appreciates the trust that was bestowed upon him to represent them at Annual Conference. As a member of Annual Conference Committees, he gained knowledge that enhanced various ministries at Pickett-Rucker. He always shared his understanding of the “larger scope” and expressed this through action, faith, accountability, and compassion and living in the Wesleyan Doctrine of “doing all the good you can, in all the places you can, as long as you can”.

A DOUBTER'S PRAYERS

O God of fish and furry things,
Of all that creeps and flies and sings,
Creator of all life that be,
I hope that you remember me.

O God of energy and sound,
And stars and planets whirling 'round.
Creator of all worlds that be,
I hope that you can still find me.

Creation is so vast and far
From sea-sand to the farthest star,
I wonder in my reverie
That you have made a place for me.

O God of peace and power and love
In earth below and heav'n above,
Source of all good and truth and light,
I hope that you love me tonight.

Tennessee Conference. Died November 13, 2014

Ben Cooper Alexander

March 10, 1920 – March 7, 2015

Rev. Ben Alexander passed away March 7, 2015, four days short of his 95th birthday. He is survived by his daughters, Mary Cay Koen and Margaret Feasley; their husbands, Tommy Koen and Bill Feasley; grandsons, Robert and Ben Feasley, Thomas and Michael Koen; nephews, Charles and Brent Alexander and their families; and niece, Beth Davis and her family. Ben was preceded in death by his wives, Gerry Sorrells Alexander and Betty Masters Alexander.

Ben Alexander was the eldest son of Erskine and Margaret Alexander. He had a sister Mary and a brother Buddy. Growing up in Corinth, Mississippi, he was active in his church, sea scouts, and DeMolays. Summers were spent at “Grandma and Grandpa Butts” farm in Shelbyville, TN where his family came to live after his father lost his shoe store to the financial turbulence of the Great Depression. Growing up during the Great Depression had a profound effect on Ben. He always said his family was rich in all things but money. The potential of Ben must have been recognized early on in that small Southern town. When money was so scarce, one of his father’s friends paid for him to have braces and another loaned him money to go to college saying “Ben should go to college.”

Ben graduated from Bowling Green Business School with a degree in accounting. During his collegiate days, he worked part time as a youth director and was very involved in the Caravan movement. The budding accountant realized that God must be calling him to the ministry when he was spending more time on his part time job than he was his accounting books. Even though he graduated as the business school’s outstanding student, he went back to school immediately following graduation to Candler School of Theology at Emory University. In those days, the Southern Association of Colleges and Universities didn’t recognize the best business college in the Southeast; so Ben had to spend four rather than two years to achieve his goal and become a Methodist minister. He worked all night as a night manager at a hotel to pay for his education. As he was finishing his degree, the United States was drawn into World War II. Both Deacon and Elder status were conferred on Ben on the same day, and he became a Chaplain for the U.S. Navy. Stationed in the Pacific Theater, Ben served in Shanghai, China, and Hawaii. Growing up in a loving Christian family didn’t prepare this young lieutenant for the horrors of war, especially the baby girls who had been cast off on garbage heaps. While still ministering to his military flock, Ben questioned his faith. How could a loving, all knowing God allow this to happen? A young, former “baby on a garbage heap” (who had been adopted by a missionary couple and, consequently, started an orphanage for babies who began life like her) showed Ben how God uses us to help heal our imperfect world...that he is present and actively loving us. The small but powerful book, The Will of God by British theologian Leslie Weatherhead, explained how the will of God cannot ultimately be defeated even though he allows us the free will to make a real mess of our lives and our world. Ben’s faith emerged stronger and deeper from this time in the “valley of the shadow.” Those who know him well will recognize two very strong themes of his life and ministry that came from this time in his life.

Once the war ended, Ben returned to Tennessee to pastor a small campus side church in Murfreesboro, St. Mark’s Methodist. The church flourished and he built a sanctuary and met and married his wonderful wife Gerry who graduated from MTSC. Their girls are so glad that their mother broke two of her cardinal rules: never go out on a blind date; and do not marry a preacher!! Soon the Korean Conflict called Ben back into the Navy, where he was stationed on a heavy cruiser off the coast of Korea, the USS Helena. Ben enjoyed his ministry aboard ship and also functioned as the “recreation” director for his men. He even hosted General Dwight Eisenhower on the Helena. At the end of the war, he and Gerry were sent to Columbia Riverside Methodist where both of their girls were born.

Ben spent nine years at Belle Meade Methodist where he and the church experienced terrific growth. It was also a turbulent time in our country. Ever the lover and advocate of all people, Ben was able to lead his congregation successfully at a time when true brotherhood was sometimes called into question, even by people of the church. Gallatin was the next stop for Ben, Gerry, and the girls. They enjoyed four wonderful years there and then went on to Cookeville for five years, where the girls graduated from high school. During those years, Ben was often called “Super Preacher” by the youth of that community. Many years later, the girls discovered from one of their friends that their daddy had conducted what were called “Rap Sessions” in the 70’s with teens struggling with varying issues. The girls said, “That is so like Daddy. He was able to connect with everyone of any age. We knew nothing about the sessions at the time and will never know who all he helped, but are always glad to share our sweet daddy.” Ben was always a calm, reassuring presence to all who sought out his counsel. Also, he was the best father any child ever had.

Calvary was the next stop where Ben and Gerry enjoyed two years of service. Ben was then made District Superintendent of the Cumberland District. For four years he was a “pastor to the pastors” then became senior pastor of Hendersonville First United Methodist Church. He served there until his official retirement at 68. He also retired from the Naval Reserve where he had been attached to Nashville’s Marine Rifle Company. In the intervening years, Gerry passed away with breast cancer and Ben married Betty Masters. Betty was a vital part of our conference on her own merit, whose husband, a United Methodist minister, had also passed away due to cancer. Ben and were married until Betty’s death in 2012.

Ben, of course, never retired. His family used to tease him that now maybe he would cut back to a 40-hour workweek. Visitation was one of Ben’s true loves. To see him knocking at your front door or walking down the hall toward your hospital room was to feel that the presence of the Holy Spirit was there bringing comfort. Ben’s gentle manner, wonderful sense of humor, and words of practical faith were so welcome. Many young couples started their lives together with the counseling Ben insisted on prior to the wedding. As testified to by many of these couples later on, Brother Ben was incredibly thorough leaving no topic off the table for discussion. He liked to “tie a strong knot” and offered 50-year guarantees! Also, no one could conduct a more consoling “Life Celebration.” The transition of loved ones from life on earth to life eternal was made so much easier if Brother Ben was involved. He always knew just what to say.

What a blessing to be able to live fully and serve until the last breath on earth. That is exactly what God granted our beloved Brother Ben. The last week of his life he was in the pulpit thanking God for our gifts as the offering was taken. He was present greeting and sharing with his congregation. He even commented to one of the members who had stopped to tease him about behaving himself during the service, “Better keep an eye on me, I’m going to stir things up!” That wonderful sense of humor was still intact. Ben was able to spend extra time with Mary Cay and Margaret as Margaret was in town to celebrate his 95th birthday. As always, he expressed his gratitude to have been able to live such a full and long life. In a casual recording made about two years ago, following a birthday dinner where Ben was “holding court,” he was discussing how he wanted his four grandsons to deal with his death. “I want you to remember me as I am in the photograph in the CLC at the church, not at the cemetery. I have had a full life. I will have just made a transition to life in heaven from life on earth. I have always believed in life after death. I will be finding out about things I’ve just been talking about! I have had two wonderful wives, two beautiful daughters and four fabulous grandsons. Wow! I have had a wonderful life. Thank you, thank you, thank you, God!” Brother Ben was an incredible minister who loved God, country, his church, and his family as Christ loved...unconditionally.

Brenda Love Cameron

February 13, 1948 – December 8, 2014

Brenda Love Cameron, wife of Rev. Willie L. Cameron, went to be with the Lord while a patient at Saint Thomas Midtown Hospital in Nashville, Tennessee, with family members and friends by her side. She departed this life peacefully, Monday, December 8, 2014. She was born to the late Sam Love and Ruby Kate Love in LaGrange, Georgia, on February 13, 1948. She was a 1966 class member of Ethel W. Kight High School. She was preceded in death by three brothers and one sister.

She met her husband Willie Cameron at Ethel W. Kight High School. Willie, when reflecting on Brenda's life and on the marriage, noted "I found not only the love of my lifetime, but also my very best friend. Throughout the years, I discovered how much it meant to be able to share hopes and dreams, good times and bad times. Brenda was the apple of my eye. We were devoted to each other and married for 49 years until death did us part. All I know of love begins and ends with her."

Brenda had a strong faith and was a true believer. She joined Mount Beulah Baptist Church at an early age where she was a faithful member. After her marriage, she became a member of Springfield Baptist Church and active member in the choir. She also served on the usher board, was active in Bible study, and served as a deaconess. Later on, 1995, her family moved to McMinnville, Tennessee, and in 1997 Brenda became a member of Clark United Methodist Church. Always graced with a lovely voice, she sang in the choir – her favorite song was "O Lord, How Excellent." She also served as an usher and communion steward. Shortly thereafter, following the ministerial appointments of her husband, Brenda became the First Lady at Braden United Methodist Church and Ballard Chapel United Methodist Church in Carthage, Tennessee. On ten different occasions she was an at-large delegate from the Cookeville District to the Tennessee Annual Conference. She was a member of the Eastern Star of LaGrange chapter #474.

She worked at Dunson Mill for many years and did light housekeeping. A woman full of grace and dedication to her family, she did not meet any strangers, always smiling and laughing. Brenda had a heart for people. She had a passion and love for gardening, collecting and receiving greeting cards, and was a big collector of angels that always surrounded her. She collected churches, apples, baskets, and birdhouses. Brenda enjoyed cooking meals and entertaining her family.

Brenda was a wife, mother, sister, aunt, grandmother, and friend. As we celebrate and honor her life, we will be consoled by the thought that our love for her will forever be in our hearts.

Brenda touched so many lives with her loving kindness, laughter, and humble sweet spirit. Brenda leaves to cherish her memory, a devoted husband of 49 years, Willie Lee Cameron; her children: Katrina (Roger) Jones of Conyers, Georgia; Sebrina (Charles) Brown of Conyers, Georgia; Dechane (Anita) Cameron of McDonough, Georgia; Sidrick (Katina) Cameron of LaGrange, Georgia; Brandon (Kayla) Cameron of Murfreesboro, Tennessee; and grandchildren: Dr. Brianna Cameron, Eric Jones, Erika Jones, Taryn Brown, Damaris Brown, Tyler Brown, Camille Cameron, Sidney Cameron, Sidrick Cameron, Jr., Sean Cameron, Alexis Cameron, Jasmine Cameron, Marcus Cameron, Elijah Cameron, and Adrian Cameron. A host of aunts, cousins, and friends also survive her.

The funeral service was held on Friday, December 12, 2014 in the McMinnville Funeral Home Chapel with Pastor Albert Strawther officiating. Interment followed on Monday, December 15, 2014 in LaGrange, Georgia.

Larry G. Campbell
November 3, 1947 - April 28, 2015

Larry G. Campbell, a part-time local pastor in the Tennessee Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, died at the Cookeville Regional Medical Center on Tuesday, April 28, 2015. Funeral services were held on May 1, 2015, at the Jennings Funeral Homes Chapel in Jamestown, Tennessee. Burial was May 2, 2015, at the Woodlawn Memorial Park in Nashville, Tennessee. Larry was the son of L.D. and Billie Ruth Campbell.

He is survived by his wife, Joyce Beaty Campbell, whom he married December 26, 2000; and by four children: John, Billie, Angelia, and Maria; eight grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. Mother, Billie Ruth Campbell, and brothers, Steven Campbell (wife Betty) and L.D. Campbell (wife Shellie), also survive. His father, L.D. Campbell, and brother, Louis David Campbell, have passed on before him.

In his ministry, 2005-2014, Larry served Martins, Travisville, Shady Gove, and, finally, Mt. Pisgah United Methodist Churches.

Joan Elizabeth Corey
July 27, 1926 - November 7, 2014

Joan Corey, widow of Reverend Charles Corey, died on November 7, 2014, following an extended illness. She was 88 years old. A memorial service for Joan E. Corey was held at Belmont United Methodist Church on December 5, 2014.

Joan Elizabeth Corey was born July 27, 1926, in Chicago. Her parents were Swedish immigrants and she grew up loving everything Swedish. Consequently, there were painted Dalarna horses and Swedish crystal displayed throughout her home. There was also the aroma of delicious Swedish baked goods that permeated her kitchen, such as coffee cake, caramel rolls, or rye bread, and on special occasions, Swedish pancakes, which are the Scandinavian version of crepes. Joan loved cold weather and looked forward to winter, noting that her appreciation of the cold must be in her Swedish DNA.

Joan loved music. She trained to be a singer when she attended Wheaton College, where she graduated magna cum laude. Music was an integral part of the family culture. Classical music was played at every meal and all of the children were expected to play an instrument, sing, and perform. Any child who practiced their instrument after dinner was exempt from doing dishes, so all of the children fervently practiced viola, piano, organ, and trumpet. Joan was a natural storyteller and would explain stories of foreign language operas; then, the whole family would attend these operatic performances at nearby Cornell University. Later, when she was a grandmother, she wrote stories for her grandchildren, continuing the storytelling tradition.

She met her husband of over 50 years, Charles Edwin Corey, when they were both counselors at a church camp. He was an American Baptist minister and served churches in New York and Chicago. After becoming a United Methodist minister, he pastored churches in Middle Tennessee for over 20 years. They married on June 10, 1950 and together they had 5 children, including a set of twins and a little boy who died in infancy. She enjoyed being a mother and took her children to zoos, the library, museums, or just strolls along the creek. She encouraged pretending and her children often held carnivals with neighborhood pets as the "wild animals." She would join in pretending to take trips to the moon, complete with "moon food" (moon pies).

Since her husband was a busy pastor, she always kept a picnic basket ready and would put together impromptu picnics if he had a free hour. When Charles passed away in 2001, she grieved intensely, noting that she had lost the love of her life.

At various times throughout her life, she worked as a director of Christian education, classroom teacher, preschool director, and administrative assistant. In 1992, she retired from Belmont University where she had been administrative assistant to the Dean of Students. Joan had a long, rich life filled with laughter and tears. She will be missed, but her stories and her songs will be carried on in the hearts of those who loved her.

Faith Martha Cornwall

December 13, 1917 - November 13, 2014

The Rev. Dr. Faith Martha Cornwall, 96, passed away November 13, 2014 at McKendree Village Retirement Home in Hermitage, TN. She was born in Rupert, Idaho, December 13, 1917, but moved to Florida when she was 11 where she received her call to the ministry at an evangelistic service. At 14, Faith was teaching Sunday school class and visiting shut-ins for her Methodist Church. In college, she pursued a social studies degree, because, at that time, Methodist Churches were not ready to ordain women. She attended Scarritt College, where she received a Masters in Christian Education. At Vanderbilt Divinity School, she received a Masters in Divinity and, later, a Doctorate in Divinity. Her initial ministry within the Tennessee Conference was as an assistant chaplain, and later, the chaplain at Central State Mental Hospital, which became the Middle Tennessee Mental Health Center. Prior to retiring, her full title became Director of Pastoral Services. She was a member of the Association of Mental Health Clergy and of the Board of the Nashville Mental Health Association.

Faith was ordained an elder in the United Methodist Church in 1973—the first woman to be ordained in the Tennessee Conference. One of the highlights of her career was in 1980 when she was invited to be one of the chaplains for the Winter Olympics at Lake Placid, NY. Another was when she was invited to preach at the chapel at West Point Military Academy. When she retired from her work in Pastoral Services at Central State, she was determined to accept an appointment as a local church pastor. For four and a half years, she served the Summertown Circuit until fully retiring in 1986.

She was preceded in death by her father, Chester Orlando Cornwall; her mother, Grace Boyer Cornwall; her brother, Chester William Cornwall; and a nephew, Chester William Cornwall, Jr. Faith is survived by her nephew, Col. Charles Cornwall and Jeannie; niece, Cheryl Cornwall Burwell and Tom; Great-nephews, Mike Cornwall and Ashley, Thomas Burwell, Jr. and Camille, Todd Burwell and Kelly; Great-niece, Tami Cornwall and Aaron; Great-great-nephews Keegan Burwell and Braden Burwell; and Great-great-niece, McKenna Burwell; and lifelong friend, Joanne Keyes.

Niece Cheryl Cornwall Burwell notes that her aunt Faith was an avid writer of poetry. “We were her only family so she tried to spend as much time with us as she could. She and my dad, her brother, would meet in Ashville, North Carolina, where their mother lived on a small farm with cows, chickens, and lots of crops. We loved going because Aunt Faith always made the visit more exciting. She joined us at five in the morning to milk Queenie, the cow, and showed us how to collect the eggs from the chickens. She even comforted us after we watched our grandmother wring a chicken’s neck for the first time. One of our favorite things to do with her was go blackberry picking and then make a pie from scratch. Also, she was the only one in the family who had the patience to teach my brothers and me how to drive a stick shift car back in the 1960s and she used HER car to teach us. As kids, we enjoyed every minute we had with her and after our parents died she became the family matriarch.”

In a lengthy article about her ministry in the July 5, 1970, Nashville Tennessean, Faith Cornwall reflects on her role as chaplain as a reporter follows her through the day:

“In the Hauk Building, she (Faith Cornwall) goes searching for a newly arrived woman patient who has asked to see the chaplain. The woman isn’t in her ward. The patients are out getting sunshine and fresh air. So she and the woman are sitting alone on a bench in the shade deep in conversation. ‘Their problems are human problems,’ Miss Cornwall says later. ‘We all have them. They take on added weight here. The problems of chaplains are no more difficult than those of the average minister, if you are trained and have a feeling for the job. We think of ourselves as members of a healing team. Coming here is a traumatic experience. We try to see each newcomer as quickly as we can to let them know we are here and that we care. We are here if they need us.’

Lois Lorene Austin Decker November 12, 1923 – January 1, 2015

Lois Lorene Austin Decker, age 91, of Dover, passed away Thursday, January 1, 2015, at Manor House of Dover. She was born November 12, 1923, in Stewart County, Tennessee, daughter of the late Alonzo and Ruth Wilson Austin. A graveside service was held on January 2, 2015, at Wyatt’s Chapel Cemetery, with Bro. Bob McCabe officiating.

Who was Lois Decker? Lois was the wife of the late Silas Decker, a fulltime Local Pastor in the Tennessee Conference of the United Methodist Church. She was part of her husband’s ministry at Standing Rock, Waverly, Yellow Creek Circuit, Indian Mound, and Cedar Hill.

Lois Decker was the mother to Ronnie, Ricky, the late Sherlon Decker, and the grandmother to Amy, Hayden, and Silas Decker. For those of you that may or may not have known her, she was a wonderful wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend. While she loved everyone, her family was her world. We were so blessed to call her our mother and “granny.”

She was a very simple woman, who loved her Lord and family and who lived her life more for others than for herself. On most days, before she became unable to do so, you would find her outside working in her garden and flowers. We can still see her now, with the long shorts she had cut off from a pair of jogging pants, old cut-out sweatshirt, and that big straw hat—what a sight! It was just part of the simple person she was. We often wondered how she could stay out in the hot sun and work so lovingly with that garden. Now it is clear that she was working that garden with the same love as she provided to her family, raising it from just a seed and watching it grow until it had blossomed into something beautiful.

As her own family grew and blossomed, along came the grandchildren. Amy was the firstborn and it was no secret that this little girl was the apple of granny’s eye. One of our fondest memories of her was how she would make her “special” pancakes that only she could make. “No one could make them like granny,” Amy would say, and that would just make mother’s heart swell up with joy. Several years later, Hayden and Silas came along. In many ways our hearts ache that these two grandchildren, especially Silas, did not get the chance to enjoy the things with their granny as much as her first grandchild did. Our mother’s mind and health began to deteriorate and she was not able to enjoy and do the things that she once did.

If the secret to living a long life was hard work, love, and dedication, that was our mother and grandmother. As we cope with losing her, we take comfort in knowing that, while her spirit soars with God, her heart remains in each of us and her values and example will live on.

Naomi Hinkle Fryer

July 5, 1923 - August 21, 2014

Naomi Fryer was born on July 5, 1923 into a simple farm family in Robertson County, Tennessee. She had two sisters and two brothers. She was the middle child. During her high school years she met her husband of 72 years, Jeff Fryer. They were married on January 3, 1942. They had two children, June Jackson who now lives near Seattle, Washington, and Randall Fryer, who is a resident of Nashville, Tennessee.

She shared a ministry with her husband who retired after forty-six years with the United Methodist Church. She had a passion for the study of the Word of God and became a very prolific Bible scholar. She continued this love for teaching and ministry by leading or founding a class in every pastorate which she and her husband served. Over the years she became active in the United Methodist Women and even served as District President for several years.

Of the many stories that could be told that would be an example of her compassion and grace, one stood out in the mind of her husband, Jeff. She had been asked to serve as the keynote speaker at a very large gathering of the United Methodist Women. The lady who was given the task of introducing her was no doubt a little nervous and did her best to come up with the appropriate words of introduction. Her introduction was glorious and somewhat lengthy and when the end finally came she said, "I now present to you RUTH Fryer." Needless to say that reaction across the house was varied. There was some laughter, some moans, but, undoubtedly, it was a most embarrassing moment in the life of the person doing the introduction. But in a way that only Naomi Fryer could accomplish, with her quick wit and loving grace she simply said, "Right story . . . wrong character." That simple phrase brought laughter across the house and relief to one very embarrassed presenter.

Personal friends Ann and L.C. Troutt said of her, "Naomi was a beautiful, talented and unassuming person who had a knack of making others comfortable and helping them to feel at home. She devoted her life to the church by supporting Jeff in every possible way, at home, and in the churches where he was appointed. We attended a Cumberland District Christmas party in Hendersonville while Jeff was District Superintendent. Jeff was ill, so Naomi took over and led us through a lovely evening without a bobble."

Eulogist and grandson Jeffrey Fryer expressed what he felt about his grandmother.

"To some she is Mother, Naomi, Nonie, or maybe even Ms. Fryer; but to all she is love. I cannot stand up here and give a so called eulogy, because all of you know her well enough to know the work that she performed here on earth. Words cannot describe a woman who devoted her entire life to everyone but herself. Many of her friends would ask her 'why do you give up all of the summers of your golden years to keep your grandchildren?' She would simply reply 'Because I want too.' Ever since we were little, our free times would be spent under her roof, doing all the wonderful things that grandchildren and grandmothers did. Her rules were simple—no arguing, wash your hands before eating, pick up your toys, be a good disciple of the Lord, and don't make her late for church because she had to be out that door by 9:00 a.m. (I am guilty of breaking that rule; okay all of those rules). She was a person that was easy to follow and do right by. She never raised her voice, and the thought of raising her hand in anger never crossed her mind. She could make you feel the pain of not doing the right thing simply by looking at you with continued admiration and love, because you knew that hurting her feelings was the worst punishment that you could received.

“For those who have had the pleasure of eating a meal with Nonie you know what I mean when I say that if the World had her at the table and a good cup of coffee, then all our problems and indifferences could be solved. She made this Earth a better place to be. I, for one, have traveled this Earth; spent weeks, months, and even years away from her table, but every time I would return to her I knew that I was home. Even in her final hours she was only concerned about everyone else. She was not scared to go with the Lord—she only wanted to ensure that everyone else would be taken care of. Nonie was one of those individuals who, while being extremely intelligent, never gloried in the spotlight, instead opting to stand backstage and pull the curtain cord so that others could be seen and heard. Everyone has heard the phrase ‘I can forgive, but I can’t forget.’ Well, Nonie had the very special ability to do both. There were people in her life who may not have always done right by her, but she never held a grudge and there was never even the tiniest murmur of a cross word about that person. How was one woman able to love everyone even in the face of adversity? Because she lived God’s word and practiced it every day she walked this earth! I, for one, do not have this superpower that she held, and I don’t know of anyone else who could honestly say that they do either. But she issued a challenge to all of us in her final days: ‘make your choices, but make sure in doing so that you follow the Lord, and love each other.’ She continued to teach her lesson of love even as her strength slowly withered away, because she emulated love in life, and she knew that love was the greatest legacy she could leave behind. I accept her challenge of love because I have asked her to save a place at her table in heaven, and when I am able to sit down and eat with her again then I will truly know that I am home.

“Remember, Gee, that Nonie only ever told one untruth in her life and that was to you during her marriage vows. She promised you ‘until death do us part.’ But she knew that her love and devotion to you would not end at death, but would last for all eternity. Nonie asked us in some of her final days, ‘Did my heart stop?’ No, Nonie, your heart did not stop, and it never will because your heart will eternally live on in everyone who has ever had their life touched by you, and in all of those who continue your legacy of love.

“Today, we will lay to rest one of the world’s very few true saints; a woman whose (as Shellie Sanders put it) crystal blue eyes sparkled and were most definitely a window to her soul, a soul that can never be replaced. Though we are at turmoil with her loss, and the grief, and sadness of her not being here runs oh so deep; we can glorify in God’s mercy and love because she no longer hurts, no longer cries for her family, and she has finally received her reward for such a long life of following in God’s footsteps. Rejoice for she is young again and she is finally home with all of those that she has seen go before her. There are days ahead that will turn dark, because the comfort of her presence and wisdom can no longer be voiced in an earthly tongue. But listen close in your times of need and you will hear her soft southern tone on the wind that rustles through the trees, in the song of the Red Birds that sit outside your window, on the keystrokes of the piano as it plays her beloved hymns, and in the laughter of our children as they play in days of youth. Her soul may be in heaven, but her loving arms still surround us in the warmth of the sunshine upon our faces. Just when we think that she is no longer here, slow down and wait, because when you need her most, take comfort in knowing that she is on her way.

“Remember that Robert Frost said it best that ‘We love the things we love for what they are,’ and Nonie loved all of us simply for who we are. No one will ever be able to fill her shoes, because there isn’t anyone big enough to handle the job that such a small woman gladly undertook.

“We miss you, Nonie. Our lives will no longer be complete without you. We know that you are not far. ‘When we all get to heaven what a day of rejoicing it will be, when we all meet Jesus, we’ll sing about the victory.’ ”

Willa Mae Bass Gillespie

February 27, 1941 - October 12, 2014

Mrs. Willa Mae Bass Gillespie, age 73, passed away at her home surrounded by her family and friends on Sunday evening, October 12, 2014, after fighting a long battle with cancer. Mae was born in the Beech Hill Community on February 27, 1941. She was preceded in death by her husband, Larry Gillespie, who served as pastor of Diana United Methodist, Friendship United Methodist, Friendship United, and McBurg United Methodist churches in the Pulaski District. She was a member of the Olivet United Methodist Church and a retired schoolteacher in Giles County.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Owen and Mildred Boyd Bass; her husband of 32 years; along with their grandson, William Lance Norton. She is survived by her three children, daughter, Velena Newton and husband Tim of Pulaski, daughter, Missy Norton and husband Lance of Pulaski, son, Lauris Gillespie and wife Angie of Pulaski. Her mother-in-law, Clara Gillespie of Cornersville; sister, Jane Guinn and husband Burgess of Pulaski; grandchildren, Jessica Newton of Hartsville, AL, Elaina Hawkins and husband Cody of Pulaski, Olivia Newton, Hunter Gillespie, Lauren Gillespie all of Pulaski; great-grandchildren, Kailynne and Cayston Hawkins; two nieces and numerous friends also survive. Burial took place on the farm at the Mighty Oaks Cemetery.

Mae and Larry were united in marriage while attending college. Larry was a graduate of Vanderbilt University and Mae a graduate of George Peabody College. Larry became principal of Elkton High School at the age of 25 until his death at age 50. Mae was a Home Economics major, but decided to place her career on hold in order to raise a family. After her children were older, she decided to return to teaching where she taught math at Bridgeforth Middle School in Pulaski for many years before her retirement. They made their home in the Olivet community and attended Olivet Methodist Church. After several years of teaching the Adult Sunday School class at Olivet, Larry responded to the calling of ministry. Mae was always by his side supporting him in his ministry. After her husband's death, Mae continued to be very active at her home church, Olivet.

Mae was deeply faithful, very active and instrumental in the growth of the Olivet Church. She began the "Wednesday Night Fellowship" meals that contributed to the funding of the CLC building for the youth. Her chicken and dumplings always drew a large crowd. She served as Historian and supported the Giles County Laity Club. She loved to sing in the choir and would also play the piano at times. Her home was always open to family, church members, and church socials. During her battle with cancer, her pastor, Reverend Bill Moss, commented that he would always drop in to cheer her up, but instead, he was the one who left feeling encouraged. Mae believed that if she put God first, everything else would fall into place. Her favorite scripture, Joshua 24:15, was her motto to live by, "Choose you this day, whom you will serve—but as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord."

Mae was a very giving person. She loved teaching and encouraging others. She loved her church and was a person of high moral values. She loved to sew for her children and grandchildren. Having her children reside on the family farm was a blessing to her. Upon her death, her life was celebrated by family and friends at Olivet United Methodist Church with Reverend Bill Moss officiating. Her niece, Lisa Vincent, played the harp during the beautiful service. Mae made such a positive impact on her family and friends that she will forever be missed and thoughts of her will continue to fill our hearts.

January 29, 1945 – October 11, 2014

Ray Hawkins died on October 11, 2014 at his home in Nashville, Tennessee. Born in Frankfort, Kentucky, on January 29, 1945, to the late Raymond and Martene Hawkins, he is survived by his wife, Pamela Hawkins; sons, Philip (Heather) Hawkins of Louisville, Kentucky and, Erick (Hailee) Hunt-Hawkins of Nashville, Tennessee; and grandchildren, Tyler, Harper, Hayden, and Emerson Hawkins of Louisville, Kentucky.

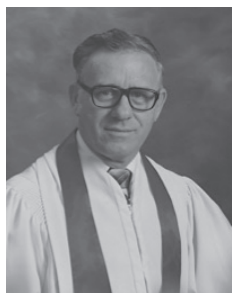

The first member of his family to complete college, Ray received his undergraduate degree from Transylvania University, and later completed a graduate degree in Social Work from the Kent School of Social Work at the University of Louisville. For much of his working life, Ray dedicated his energy and talent to helping persons who are underserved, in need, or under-represented in the community. Over the years, Ray worked for and with children in foster care; families and children impacted by incarceration; women and children who are abused and neglected; refugees fleeing violence in Laos, Cambodia, and Vietnam; members of the LGBT community who experience prejudice and violence; and persons who, for any reason, are in need of shelter, food, and comfort both at home and abroad. Later he worked in the corporate sector in human resource services, continuing to assist and equip individuals to claim their gifts and vocations. In the years before retirement, Ray was especially proud to work at Indatus of Louisville (formerly Planet Telecom of New Albany, IN), a company in which his son, Philip, is President and co-owner.

A life-long member of the body of Christ, Ray was baptized and grew up as a Disciple of Christ in Frankfort. He transferred his membership to the United Methodist Church after his marriage to Pamela, and when she became an ordained elder in the United Methodist Church, he faithfully ministered in each congregation she served.

A Memorial Service for Ray was held in the Sanctuary of Belmont United Methodist Church in Nashville, Tennessee, on Sunday, October 19.

Franklin K. Holbrook, Jr.
October 11, 1921 – October 13, 2014

In many ways it was a typical Eastern Kentucky family. In the early years, Daddy's father broke horses for farmers. Mother, Stella, was a conservative Christian who began everyday sitting by the window reading scripture. There were seven children. Frank was the baby of the family.

The Holbrooks always seemed happy. If there was a piano around, one Holbrook was playing, and the rest were singing. Frank was no exception. He sang in a quartet in the army, one in college, and a gospel group in Middle Tennessee.

He met his future wife Alice, who lived in the same community and was a Baptist preacher's daughter, and they married. He was drafted by the Army for World War II and left a very pregnant wife to board a ship for England, then with the infantry to France, Belgium, Germany, Austria, and Luxembourg. Their only child, Linda Kay, was born the next week. The Army apparently decided a tall, strong hunter and fisherman from Kentucky might be a marksman. On the first day of sniper training, he said he hit a chest-size target seven out of 10 times at 900 yards (a bit more than half a mile). Training complete. He served with the 89th Infantry Division in France, Belgium, Germany, and Austria, sometimes as a scout or sniper. His advance unit was among the liberators of the Ohrdruf concentration camp, a sub-camp of nearby Buchenwald.

Ohrdruf was the first such camp in Germany to be liberated. Generals Patton, Bradley, and Eisenhower immediately went to the camp to see its horrors for themselves.

Another time, he was one of a scouting party of 26 when it encountered about 600 German soldiers. The Americans, brave or foolhardy or both, gave the Germans a couple of hours to surrender or be overrun. Meanwhile, Holbrook commandeered a civilian motorcycle and rode it at night back to the front lines to get help before the Germans realized they were being bluffed by a handful of lightly armed Americans. About four decades later, as he neared retirement, the Reverend Holbrook received a Bronze Star, presented by Sen. Al Gore of Tennessee.

When he returned from Europe, like many from Eastern Kentucky, he moved to Detroit to work in the steel mill. But then there came a call from God to the ministry. Frank moved to Nashville to attend what is now Trevecca Nazarene University on the G.I. Bill. The faculty advised him that, based on his high school transcript, he didn't have much chance to make it in college, but he obtained his degree in 3 years while working 40 hours a week.

He pastored two Nazarene churches in Michigan. "Although we didn't know it, we were poor. Frank always made us seem rich. We ate good fish he caught and more pheasant for Sunday dinner than most multi-millionaires. Frank often borrowed a horse to give us wonderful rides in a one horse open sleigh." He helped members of his church put corn in the Silo, fix flats, paint the church, and whatever needed to be done. When his daughter was in the 3rd grade, after a full year of accordion lessons, he took her to the county jail to play hymns for his services there. (That may have constituted cruel and unusual punishment.)

After serving the two churches, he changed denominations and went to Emory University in Atlanta to be "Methodized." The rest of his formal ministry was served in the Tennessee Conference of the United Methodist Church. He served the Barnhill Circuit in Savannah, built the church in Linden while there, and served as pastor of churches in Nolensville, Lebanon, Cedar Hill, and Woodbine in Nashville.

Of course, he participated in his share of pranks. As youth, the Holbrook boys created mud holes and got people's cars stuck so they could earn money pushing them out. They stole watermelons, and, maybe worst of all, tried to turn over the outhouse while their Dad was in it.

When Frank became an adult, there was his driving. Members of his churches who rode with him agreed that nothing had done more to increase their prayer life than being his passenger.

Then there was his drinking. As a minister, he never touched alcohol. But he did consume large quantities of Pepsi. In Linden, the Pepsi truck regularly stopped at his house to make deliveries. His dog, Melody, always drank the last few sips of Pepsi from the bottle.

And he questioned redemption for the referees who called plays against University of Kentucky basketball players.

In the early, poor communities where he pastored, Frank filled paper lunch bags with an apple or orange, a few nuts, and a piece of candy for each person who attended the Christmas service. He wanted to be sure each of his congregation received a gift, however small. He prayed over each family. He trusted God to supply his and their needs.

In the early years, he worried that his worn tires might not make it to a graveside service he was to conduct. He said he'd been praying about it. And then a man came to the door and said, "Preacher, I don't know why I'm here, but I'm supposed to give you $100." It was enough then for four new tires.

As a husband, he spent their 66 plus years together showing his love. The first years were spent raising a family, being an active part of the ministry, and fishing at every opportunity. Frank spent the last eight difficult years of his wife's life sitting at her bedside. A cousin suggested that maybe it was to give the nursing home staff the opportunity to see what a Christian marriage looked like.

Like wife Alice, his daughter, whom he called Jackie, became a nurse. When she received her degree, Frank was in the orchestra pit, pronouncing himself the new drummer and making photos of the event. When Jackie married, it was to Rev. Lexie Freeman's son, Harold. The trip Lexie and Frank made to Israel may explain at least some of their troubles. Frank's goal in Egypt was to get a photo of Lexie as D.S. with a belly dancer.

When Frank became a grandfather to twin girls, Barbara and Diane, it was clear that no one else could compete with Granddaddy's famous toast recipe or match the treats that came with Granddaddy's goodie time. The twins sang for the 11:00 service when they were five. Parents were relieved he was out of the prison business.

More recently, Frank was thrilled to become a great-granddaddy to Kenneth Franklin Brock, age 4, and Johnathan Will Koprowski, age four. The cousins were happy to visit him, and were especially fond of Frank's Hoveround.

Saying goodbye hardly seems possible. Yet who would call him back. The great-grandsons seemed to say their goodbyes so naturally. Kenny whispered, so as not to wake him. Johnathan gave him a final caution not to let the bedbugs bite.

Family and friends are grateful for the blessing of knowing him, thankful for your prayers and support, and thankful to God for His steadfast love.

The following poem was written by Frank.

My Life

I have often wondered what my life would be.
But living off gets in the way. We forget eternity.
My life is not important, not like sun and sea and sod.
And yet a life so poorly lived has something still of God.
The needless driving on my part to make my life complete,
I know now all is not in vain. T'will end at Jesus' feet.

She served as a Sunday school teacher, director of music, choir director, and soloist. She was also a published author and is included in Personalities of the South. In the many years at Denton's Chapel UMC, Wanda's love of people was obvious. She always appreciated the many pictures displayed throughout the church, but at her funeral many pictures were displayed which Wanda held dear and uniquely framed herself. She also framed memories, which were pictures she painted in the telling of stories about her parents, the early days of their two daughters' lives, and recently, of the joy experienced through her six grandchildren. Wanda shared her love of God in the beautiful pictures of a life well lived.

The funeral was held on Saturday, December 20 in the chapel at First Presbyterian Church, 4815 Franklin Pike, Nashville, Tennessee 37220. Pastors Dr. Todd B. Jones and Dr. Jeff Fryer officiated at the ceremony. Interment followed at Harpeth Hills Memory Gardens, 9090 Highway 100, Nashville, Tennessee 37221, with Rev. Bill Smith officiating.

Comer Dallas McGuire

September 3, 1923 - May 5, 2015

A true Southern country preacher has died at the age of 91. Retired United Methodist Minister, Bro. Comer McGuire, died at 3:20 a.m. Tuesday morning May 5, 2015 at his Long Hollow Road home in the Indian Creek Community with his two daughters by his bedside.

Funeral services were conducted Thursday afternoon May 7th from the Wartrace United Methodist Church with his pastor and close friend, Bro. Jeff Burton, officiating. Burial followed in the Wolfe Family Cemetery on the family farm.

Born Comer Dallas McGuire on September 3, 1923 in the Haydenburg Community of Jackson County, he was one of seven children of the late Luke Smith McGuire and Nova Belle Lee McGuire.

He was preceded in death by five siblings: three sisters, Clellie McGuire Dixon, Gladys McGuire Gentry, and Jean McGuire Hawkins; and two brothers, Jessie McGuire and Ellie McGuire.

On February 1, 1947 he was united in marriage in Rossville, Georgia to the love of his life, the former Sally Wolfe of Indian Creek. Mrs. Sally preceded Bro. Comer in death on June 16, 2005 at the age of 80 and died from a broken heart. She had been told that Bro. Comer lay dying at Cookeville Regional Medical Center and would never return home. She lay down on the den couch and died.

Of course the Lord gave this God fearing man almost another ten years, but had Mrs. Sally lived she would not have had the health to care for him like his loving daughters had. Mrs. Sally was very supportive of Bro. Comer's ministerial labors and was a great asset to all his endeavors in life.

Bro. McGuire was licensed by the United Methodist Conference in September of 1963. His first circuit assignment was the Rickman Circuit. In 1970, he was moved to the Granville-Maggart Circuit. In 1973 he returned to Rickman, where he ministered to the saints until 1977 when he was assigned to the Smithville Circuit. After eleven years at Smithville, in 1988, he was assigned to the Gordonsville-Temperance Hall-Lancaster Circuit. In 1992 until his retirement from the conference in 1994, he was at the Dodson-Zion Hill Circuit.

Following his retirement from the Conference, he became the full time pastor of Maggart United Methodist Church, a position he occupied until he retired from the ministry in 2002. He was succeeded by Bro. Jeff Burton at Maggart. Although he pastored for over forty years, he preached many years before being ordained by the Methodist Conference. His total time committed to preaching about God and Jesus Christ spanned over fifty years.

Bro. McGuire was saved at the age of 31 in October of 1954 and was united with the former Indian Creek United Methodist Church. Following the closing of the church and his retirement, he attended the Wartrace United Methodist Church.

He proudly served our country with the United States Army during World War II. He served from May 4, 1943 when he was inducted at Camp Forrest, Tennessee until he was honorably discharged on April 10, 1946 with the rank of Corporal at Fort McPherson, Georgia. Bro. McGuire served as a medic with the 141st General Hospital unit in Eastern Europe. For his meritorious service, he was awarded the American Service Medal, World War II Victory Medal, European-African-Middle Eastern Service Medal, and Good Conduct Medal. His total foreign service was one year and fourteen days.

Second only to his ministry was his love for being alongside Mrs. Sally on the family farm. There they gardened, raised cattle, and did much canning and freezing of the fruits of their labors.

Surviving are his two daughters, Jan McGuire Sutton and husband Phil of Mt. Juliet, Kay McGuire Whitson and husband Dillard of the Shiloh Community; and his only grandchild, who he absolutely adored, Matthew Whitson, a student in Dentistry at the University of Kentucky in Lexington and Matthew's wife Kali; his only sister, Irene McGuire Deering of Carthage; sister-in-law, Frances Hicks McGuire of Indian Creek Community.

Gordon Garner Meadors

June 16, 1937 – May 3, 2015

Gordon was born in Macon County to the late Charles V. and Dottie Schoemake Meador. In addition to his parents, he is preceded in death by his brother, Arnold “Happy Jack” Meador. After graduating from Sumner County High School in 1955, he was a graduate of Tennessee Tech, MTSU, the Nashville School of Law, and the Vanderbilt Divinity School.

Gordon was a retired United Methodist Church minister, having actively served churches in the Middle Tennessee area for nearly 40 years. He served appointments from the mountains of Grundy County to the urban streets of Nashville. In retirement, he served interim appointments at both his home church of McKendree Memorial in Portland and at Westland United Methodist in Lebanon.

He was an active member of the Highland Rim Historical Society, where he is lovingly remembered for his portrayal of Thomas Buntin, founder of Portland. He was a member of the Sumner County Master Gardener’s Society, where he took pride in giving more volunteer hours yearly than were required. He also loved his local Portland Library, which he supported physically and financially. Gordon was an avid reader who kept six or seven books going at one time. He was a charming teller of stories both in the pulpit and out.

Gordon is survived by his wife of 53 years, Carolyn Short Meadors; daughters, Wrenea Farrar and Janan Anderson; grandchildren, Michael G. (Olga) Farrar, Logan A. Farrar, Sarah Anderson; great-granddaughter, Alissa “Lissy” Farrar; a host of loving cousins; sister-in-law, Thelma (Robert) Vaughan.

Gordon’s life was one of tolerance and acceptance. He often quoted Isaiah where it reads, “Let justice roll down like rivers of water.” He also liked to quote one of his Vanderbilt teachers who said, “In your future work, it will be easy to love the lovable, but you must learn to love people when they are unlovable.”

A service celebrating his life and ministry, and praising his God, was conducted on May 8, 2015, at McKendree Memorial United Methodist Church in Portland, Tennessee. He was laid to rest in Maple Hill Cemetery in Portland.

Goodbye, my friend, my husband, my lover, my teacher, my partner. It’s hard to say goodbye “when all the birds are singing in the sky, and pretty flowers are everywhere ... We had joys, we had fun, we had seasons in the sun.” We will be together again!

and the Rev. Kenneth Wallace, pastor.*

Helen Jean Wolfe Noffsinger March 6, 1935 - November 19, 2014

Helen Jean Wolfe Noffsinger, age 79, passed away peacefully surrounded by her loving family on Wednesday, November 19, 2014.

Helen is survived by her husband of 58 years, Gerald E. Noffsinger; their children, Nanette Noffsinger Crowell (Brooks), Noland Noffsinger (Jeanette), and Natalie Beckman (Chris); and grandchildren, Mackenzie, Kaitlyn, and Garrett Noffsinger, and Spencer and Madison Beckman; brother, Archie Wolfe of Savannah. She was preceded in death by her parents, Lura and Joe Wolfe.

The celebration of her life was held at the First United Methodist Church, Murfreesboro on Sunday, November 23, 2014. Burial was held on Monday, November 24, 2014.

Helen was born in Savannah, Tennessee, the youngest of 11 children. Her family ran the Wolfe Brothers Café. As the youngest child, she and her mother were inseparable, and attended the East End Methodist Church. She studied at Martin Methodist College where she met her husband, Gerald. When they moved to Nashville, she worked at the Life and Casualty Insurance Company. Gerald was called to the ministry and the family moved to Georgia. There, she began her career in teaching elementary school.

Upon their return to Tennessee, the family lived in Adams, Clarksville, Lebanon, Goodlettsville, Nashville, Portland, Smyrna and Murfreesboro. As the “preacher’s wife,” Helen shared her faith by doing mission work, teaching Sunday School, and holding leadership roles in the United Methodist Women’s groups. She chaired two Tennessee United Methodist Annual Conferences in Murfreesboro and served the Conference in many positions. She was president of the Gallatin Rotary Club and recognized as a Paul Harris Fellow.

Professionally, Helen worked in the Sumner County School System for almost 25 years, from teaching classroom Remedial Reading to rising to the position of Assistant Superintendent of Schools.

She was a devoted wife, mother and grandmother, who loved spending time with her family. Her greatest joys were entertaining the grandchildren, teaching both at school and at church, supporting everyone, helping people in need without seeking recognition, traveling with the family, and watching sports events with Gerald.

Family and friends served as Pallbearers. Honorary Pallbearers were the United Methodist Women, Tennessee Conference Clergy and spouses, co-workers and friends.

Charlotte Lasley Nunnally August 22, 1938 – March 9, 2015

Charlotte Nunnally was a United Methodist Minister’s wife, serving the Tennessee Conference with her husband Stuart from the 1950’s until his retirement in 1995. They were married for 52 years. She was a native of Nashville, graduated from Hillsboro High School and attended The University of Kentucky. She was born August 22, 1938, and, after Stuart died May 29, 2011, she moved to Macon, Georgia to be with her daughter’s family. She died from complications of a stroke and rheumatoid arthritis on March 9, 2015 at the age of 77 in Macon.

She and Stuart met while she was working at a Cokesbury Bookstore and Stuart was just starting his ministry in Middle Tennessee. They were married shortly after, and the day Stuart proposed, she said “yes,” but felt obligated to break a few previous dates she had already made. She was not a typical “preacher’s wife,” and as such didn’t really become involved heavily in church politics. She was always supportive of the church and especially of Stuart and his ministry. They served Hillcrest UMC, Smithville First, Arlington UMC, Franklin First, Belmont UMC, Forest Hills UMC, Gallatin First, Tullahoma First, Woodbine and Dalewood United Methodist Churches. In addition, they served the Conference as District Superintendent of the Clarksville District.

Charlotte’s family was always amazed at how she balanced being a great mother, wife and a near 20-year career as a teacher of children with special needs. She always looked out for others and put them before herself. She greatly enjoyed her time working in a retail store co-owned by Beth, her daughter, and valued the friendships she made while working at Rebecca Vaughan’s in Green Hills.

Stuart and Charlotte have two children, Beth and Jack. Beth married Vaughan Smith and they live in Macon, Georgia. Jack married Anita, and they live in Nashville. Charlotte has four Grandchildren: Will and Mary Stuart Smith of Macon and Alexandria (Alex, currently living in Central Texas); and Jackson Nunnally of Nashville. Sister, Suzi Sittel and husband, Dick, of Nashville also survive Charlotte. In addition, many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends throughout the United States will miss Charlotte.

A Memorial service was conducted at First United Methodist in Franklin by Rev. Peter van Eys. Van Eys is a longtime friend of the family and was a member of the youth group at Belmont when Charlotte and Stuart were there. Van Eys was assisted in the service by Regina Proctor. A graveside burial and service will be held this summer at the family cemetery in Monroe, Ga. where her ashes will be interred with those of Stuart.

When Stuart and Charlotte were married, Stuart thanked Charlotte's father for giving her to him, to which her father said "I am not giving her to you, I am loaning her to you, just like the good Lord loaned her to me." The family will be forever grateful for such an amazing "loan".

—Lovingly prepared by Charlotte's son, Jack Nunnally.

Clara Ruth Coggin Poole October 6, 1925 - December 6, 2014

Clara Ruth Poole, age 89, passed away on Saturday, December 6, 2014.

Ruth was born the youngest child to Conner E. and Lillian Hardison Coggin on October 6, 1925. She grew up on a farm in Giles County and was a high school sweetheart with Charles H. Poole. They married September 6, 1944. While Charles served in the Army Infantry during WWII, Ruth helped her widowed mother pay off the farm, then moved to Pulaski and took a job at the shoe factory, where her exceptional productivity set the pace for others.

After the war, both Ruth and Charles enrolled at Martin College in Pulaski, completing one year there. Then, they enrolled at Peabody College in Nashville. Ruth put her college education on hold as they began a family. As a pastor's wife, she willingly packed the household periodically and refurbished parsonage after parsonage, beautifying the grounds of each with her beloved perennials and flowering trees.

Over the years, as mother of three, she served as Cub Scout den mother, nurse, cheerleader, arbiter, life coach, vacation planner and wardrobe designer while juggling gardening, canning, household finances and volunteerism.

At the age of 38, Ruth re-entered college and graduated from George Peabody College with a B.A., majoring in elementary education. Upon graduation in 1964, she began teaching at Haywood Elementary School in Nashville. Later, she taught at the Tech Campus School and public school district in Cookeville, and finally at Lockland and Kirkpatrick Elementary Schools in Nashville. In all, Ruth's teaching career spanned 28 years before she retired in 1992. Mostly, she taught first grade. Regardless of the grade, she was there to instill a love of learning in her young students. While teaching, she returned to Peabody to complete her Masters Degree, and a master she was at experiential teaching. She loved to immerse the children in projects like campus gardening that would become the laboratories for learning science, doing math, reliving history, writing stories and exploring teamwork. She was thrilled when the most improbable class bested the school, city and state averages on tests. Recognized often for her teaching accomplishments, Ruth's greatest reward was seeing a child get hooked on reading, develop self-esteem in public speaking, or reach out to help a struggling classmate.

Always an accomplished seamstress, patternmaker, milliner and avid crafter, Ruth developed a strong passion for quilting in retirement. She made bed quilts, throws, wall hangings and baby quilts. These graced her own home while others are counted as treasures in the homes of family and friends. Many of her quilts became donations to charities (sometimes as many as 20 a year to agencies such as Miriam's Promise). She coordinated major fundraising projects for church bazaars.

Ruth loved God and loved others. Generous in every way, she served wherever needed. As President of the United Methodist Women at McKendree United Methodist Church, she inspired mission and ministry and growth. She challenged the UMW to become a 5-star unit, which they did year after year. Regularly, she cooked meals for Nashville's homeless persons through Room in the Inn, and was highly regarded for her dishes of pinto beans and cornbread, and turnip greens from her garden. Throughout their marriage, Ruth was an active member of the Methodist Church wherever Charles was appointed. In retirement, they have been fully associated with Belle Meade United Methodist Church.

She enjoyed traveling and achieved her goal of visiting all 50 states. Ruth especially enjoyed the beauty of the U.S. National Parks and discovered the intrigue of attending World's Fairs. A real thrill was going to Ireland, the homeland of her great-grandfather.

Ruth's last years surely must have been a challenge for her as she struggled with dementia. It was sad to see her lay down her sewing, to see her unable to read the books she had taught many kids to read, to see her creative mind at rest. In recent years, many who met her never knew the force for good that we knew. We will always remember the sparkle of her blue eyes, and the squeeze of her hand, as she said, "I love you".

Her parents and all her siblings: brothers, George, Robert, Thurman, and Fred Coggin; and sisters, Louise Whitworth, and Frances Coggin, preceded Ruth in death. She also was preceded in death by her older son Charles H. Poole Jr. Surviving are her loving family: husband, Charles Poole; daughter, Dian Volkmer; son, John Poole (Tania); and daughter-in-law, Trish Poole; three grandchildren, Sam Poole (Tracy), Krista Carpenedo (Mike), and Aaron Poole (Christa); and six great-grandchildren, Jay and Reese, Emmy and Kaia, and Ashlynn and Addie; and two sisters-in-law, Willa Mae and Lizzie Coggin.

Memorial gifts may be made to Martin Methodist College, The Poole Family Scholarship, 433 West Madison Street, Pulaski, TN 38478, or to Belle Meade United Methodist Church, 121 Davidson Rd., Nashville, TN 37205.

A memorial service was held on Sunday, December 14, 2014 at Belle Meade United Methodist Church.

John Mitchell Sawyer

May 6, 1922 - February 20, 2015

Rev. John Mitchell Sawyer was born in the Lois Community in Moore County to the late Zery Norman Sawyer and Byrd Alice Mitchell Sawyer. He served his country in the United States Navy During World War II and preached his first sermon at Pearl Harbor in 1945. Rev. Sawyer continued his education at Tennessee Tech University, Middle Tennessee State University, and Emory University Seminary. He became licensed to preach on July 1st, 1948 and received ordination as a deacon on July 1st, 1952. On July 1st, 1955 he was made an elder in full connection. He served many United Methodist congregations, including, The Pelham Charge, The Rickman Charge, Wartrace/Normandy Charge, Elkton, Shelbyville Whiteside Church, Wesley Heights Church in Tullahoma, Hillsboro/Prairie Plains Charge, Forrest Mills, Coffee County Cooperative, Forest Street Church in Clarksville, Cannon Church in Shelbyville, Bethel/Farris Chapel Charge, Clarkrange Church in Fentress County, Lynchburg Parrish, and Fredonia Church in Manchester. Rev. Sawyer also served one Presbyterian congregation at Hillsboro Cumberland Presbyterian. He retired on June 15th, 2009.

Rev. Sawyer was a member of the Order of Masons, the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, Royal Arch Masons of Tennessee, Order of the Eastern Star-Winchester Chapter 196, Oddfellows Lodge, The Navigators, United Daughters of the Confederacy, American Legion-Manchester Post 78, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and the Disabled American Veterans.

In addition to his parents, Rev. Sawyer is preceded by his wife of 59 years, Etta Lois Stewart Sawyer; one daughter, Carolyn Sawyer Damron; two brothers, James "Jim" Sawyer and Billy Earnest Sawyer; and one sister, Lucille Stewart. grandchildren, Dewayne Damron and his wife Jennifer of Lynchburg, Cindy Damron Goodwin of Tullahoma, Dr. P. Brent Nichols and his wife Tanya of Spokane, Washington, Dr. Carrie Nichols Elkins and her husband Michael of Heflin, Alabama, and John Paul Damron and his wife Darla of Shelbyville; 11 great-grandchildren, Cory Damron and his wife Chelsee, Reagan Damron, Callie Goodwin, Thomas Mitchell Goodwin, Hannah Nichols, Chloe Nichols, Seth Elkins, Sawyer Elkins, Lucy Damron, Katherine Damron, and Jeanna Damron; one great-great-granddaughter, Alyssa Walls; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Funeral Services were held on Saturday, February 28th, 2015 at the Kilgore Funeral Home Chapel with Revs. AJ Alderman, Bob Case, and J.C. Stewart, officiating. Masonic Rites were also held at the funeral home to conclude the funeral service. Burial with military honors followed at Rose Hill Memorial Gardens in Tullahoma. Nephews served as pallbearers, and Methodist Ministers and their spouses served as honorary pallbearers.

The dash between the above dates create the many, many wonderful memories for all who knew him.

His parents were Norman and Byrd Alice Mitchell Sawyer. He was the third of four children. As a young child and youth, he worked on his family's farm, growing up in the Lois Community of Moore County, Tennessee. He met his wife, Etta Lois Stewart when he was 16, and they were married at the age of 18. He often told the story of how he would ride his bicycle to see her during their dating days - a 16 miles round trip! They were deeply involved in each other's lives, and served the Lord together for the next 59 years, until her death in 1999.

Mitchell was not only a soldier of the cross, but he was a soldier for his beloved nation. While he was serving his country in the United States Navy at Pearl Harbor during World War II, Mitchell answered the call of God to be a soldier in his Army. He preached his first sermon at Pearl Harbor.

As a Navy veteran, he continued to serve his country even after his discharge from active duty. At the age of 68, he became a "Veteran's Service Officer" for Coffee County, Tennessee helping veterans and widows receive their benefits. Serving 17 years in the Veterans Administration was more than a position, it was a labor of love for his fellow patriots.

One of his favorite Bible verses was, "Be still, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the heathen. I will be exalted in the earth." Psalm 46: 10 KJV.

Mitchell wore pink before "real men" started wearing pink. His little granddaughter loved pink and would dress him up in pink. Being the wonderful grandfather he was, Mitchell did anything to please his grandchildren. And appropriately, he was buried wearing a pink necktie and pocket hankie. All kids loved and cherished him. He was "Papa" to many grandchildren.

Some will remember the slogan about "drinking Coke and bringing a smile to life." Mitchell took that quite literally. He loved "Classic Coke." In his last days, when food no longer tasted as he thought it should, there would days he would drink as many as six.

It is said that one could tell how hungry Mitchell was by the length of his table grace. His family and all those sitting around the table, were always glad to hear him use a short version.

Mitchell was a Christian, who tried to be Christ-like. When his children and grandchildren were growing up and would be upset with someone, he would tell them to "Kill them with kindness." Never would he allow them to be mad or upset.

In his final months, he loved to go through the mail. He could hardly wait for it to be delivered, and would spend hours looking through the catalogs (he sent off for every free catalog that was available). He ordered everything from seeds and plants for the upcoming gardening season, and trinkets to give away. He once ordered a pair of red double knit pants in size 38/34. When Sandi asked why he ordered those red pants, he simply stated that was the closest size available to his size. By then, he wore about a size 30/28.

"Amazing Grace" and "The Old Rugged Cross" were Mitchell's favorite hymns. Throughout his life, after he was saved, he did indeed "cherish the old rugged cross." A rather meaningless symbol to the world today, it was a beloved emblem to Mitchell. He "clung to the old rugged cross" and has now "exchanged it for a crown."

Everyday, Mitchell is missed by his family and loved ones, but we have the assurance that we will see him again “just inside the Eastern Gate.”

“Grace unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ. I thank my God upon every remembrance of you.” Philippians 1:2-3 KJV

Enith Gibson Sessoms

August 25, 1927 - July 23, 2014

Enith Gibson Sessoms, age 86, of Lenoir City, Tennessee, passed away July 23, 2014 at Park West Hospital, Knoxville, Tennessee.

Enith Grace Gibson was born August 25, 1927 in Gilberttown, Alabama to the late Robert Ruddell Gibson and Eula Sullivan Gibson. She was preceded in death by her husband, Rev. John B. Sessoms, Jr., and brothers, Robert Gibson and Ed Gibson. She is survived by son, David Gibson Sessoms and wife Sandy of Hendersonville; daughter, Mary Sessoms of Knoxville; son, John Mark Sessoms and wife Julie of New Orleans; sisters-in-law, Eska Garrison and Joyce Tallent; brother-in-law, Henry Sessoms; grandchildren, Landon and wife Alice Sessoms, Johnny and wife Candice Sessoms, Sarah Stone, Angela Sessoms, Caroline Sessoms Howard and husband John, Patrick Evans Sessoms, Mary Evans Sessoms; great-grandchildren Haley and Hope Sessoms; and other devoted family and friends.

A biology degree graduate of Montevallo College in Alabama, Enith moved to Atlanta and began work as a medical technician at the Catholic Hospital. There, she met her husband, John, while he was attending Divinity School at Emory University. They met at church! They married on June 2, 1950 in Gilberttown. They have three children, David, Mary, and Mark, seven grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren. John was a Methodist pastor, and they spent their lives serving in churches in Middle Tennessee. Enith was a stay at home Mom until their youngest child graduated high school. Then, she went to work for the Methodist Pension Board in Nashville. Her husband John passed away in 2010 after over 60 years of marriage. She enjoyed sports, especially tennis and golf, and was very good at both!

The Rev. Miriam Seyler, who officiated at the funeral service, reflected on Enith Sessom's life:

“Death, and its ensuing grief, are often referred to as a sad time which most of us would rather avoid, but this dying and loss is a part of our humanity. And today we come together not only to grieve the loss of our friend, but also to celebrate her homecoming to heaven.

“At Morning Point facility in Lenoir City, Enith lived out her last years. The staff and residents there loved her. Like us, they grieve her passing.

“Some of you have known Enith Sessoms far longer than I, and you will know of Enith's career. She was biology major and also had great mathematical skills. She began her career in Atlanta at the Catholic Hospital as a lab technician. While in Atlanta at church one Sunday, she met a graduate student from Emory University, John Sessoms, who became her lifelong companion.

“Enith served the UMC through the Board of Pension and Health, working with Rev. L. C. Trout and others who placed great faith in her skills. She somehow managed to keep up with all the latest appointments and inner workings of the Conference. Perhaps it was Enith who invented networking or early social media.

“Many of us remember Enith as a decisive person. Her children describe her parenting that way. She loved fiercely, but she also expected people to follow the rules.

“Throughout seven different appointments in the Tennessee Conference, and even a part time job in retirement, Enith served alongside her husband John. I understand that she diligently protected her children from the life of living in the glass house of ministry that offers so little privacy. She rebelled against the stereotypical clergy spouse roles, choosing, instead, to be involved in what she wanted to do.

“Enith was one of the most loyal people I have ever known. If she loved you, she would defend you to the end. Always faithful and trustworthy.

“A friend here in Murfreesboro says, ‘Feisty is a word I would use for her, but never to the point of creating a conflict or a scene. She was truly committed to Christ and the church. She believed we ought to be Jesus in the world, first and foremost. I just loved her so much.’

“Before Enith moved from her house in Regency Park, a friend was at her house trying to help her fix her TV. The company had been called and Enith and her friend tried to follow the directions about how to repair the service, but they couldn’t seem to get it to work. Enith looked at it a while and then began pushing and turning things, and she fixed it. Enith was a woman of many talents.

“Enith was not one for sitting still, resting, or contemplative meditation. She was a doer, well connected, a person who thrived on a vital life, including bike riding around the neighborhood to remain healthy until John took the bike away from her.

“When I first had opportunity to meet Enith and John, I was invited over for soup and cornbread one cold winter day. I treasure that conversation and their friendship, although I confess to being a little wary of getting another one of John Sessom’s Marine-strength, bone crushing hugs.

“I witnessed their partnership in ministry, and came away thinking, ‘Enith’s job as clergy spouse must have been as difficult as John’s job as shepherd and spiritual guide for thousands of people.’

“Living a frugal lifestyle was important to them. Family members tell me that John and Enith never borrowed a penny, not even for a mortgage once they finished their parsonage days.

“Many years ago, John took out LTHC policies on them. Enith’s policy was due to expire in two weeks. So it came as no surprise when Enith’s health began to rapidly decline last week. Mary said, ‘This is just Dad saying, “Enith, you better get on up here. Money’s running out.” ‘

“But today, Enith has completed her work of repairing TVs, sharing meals around her table, and being a loyal mother, grandmother, and steadfast United Methodist. Today she’s home with God who gifted her with those skills in the first place; she’s home with John who is saying, ‘It’s about time you got here.’

“To the family I say in closing: Today is an opportunity to remember and to review the gift of Enith Sessoms to you and to those of us who were privileged to call her friend. Those memories will be filled with a variety of thoughts, some humorous, some poignant, but all are a part of the life we shared with this remarkable woman.

“We will remember that during her 86 years, she changed her corner of the world—through faithfulness, loyalty, and living out her personal conviction: simply being Jesus in the world.

“Scripture teaches us that there is to be a delineation between workdays and Sabbath. Workdays bring us meaning and purpose, but also exhaustion. Workdays wear us out, literally. Sabbath, on the other hand, renews and heals us. On Wednesday of this week, Enith finished her workdays and is now living in eternal Sabbath with her heavenly Father. She is now complete; she is healed. She is home. Thanks be to God for this gift.”

The funeral service for Enith was held on July 25, 2014 in the chapel of Jennings and Ayers Funeral Home, Murfreesboro, Tennessee, with Rev. Miriam Seyler officiating. The family also wanted to give special thanks to the staff at Morning Point Assisted Living Facility, Lenoir City, for their compassionate care of Enith during her last four years.

Lorraine F. Snell
October 13, 1923 - December 26, 2014

Funeral services for Lorraine F. Snell were held Monday December 29, 2014 at 2:00pm at First United Methodist Church Gallatin, Tennessee.

Officiating the service was Rev. Carlton Thackston assisted by Dr. Ted Hill.

Burial followed at Sumner Memorial Gardens, 420 Albert Gallatin Road, Gallatin, Tennessee 37066.

Lorraine F. Snell was born October 13, 1923 in Bedford County, Tennessee. She was united in marriage to Rev. Felix M. Snell and was his devoted companion until her passing.

She is survived by her husband; Rev. Felix M. Snell, children and spouses: Beverly (David) McKenzie, Gallatin, TN; Michael (Kim) Snell, Murfreesboro, TN; Denise (Mike) Branch, Hendersonville, TN; Jody (Diane) Snell, Nashville, TN; 8 loving grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren; brother James Faulkner; sisters Dorothy Tucker, Betty Pankey.

She was preceded in death by loving grandson, Michael Shane McKenzie and her sister Nell Smotherman.

Mrs. Snell was the consummate devoted preacher's wife, loved singing in the many choirs of which she was a part. She loved her family and enjoyed cooking and caring for them. When husband, Felix, felt the epiphany of his call to ministry, he went to tell Lorraine wondering how she would react to his leaving his job and becoming a preacher. What he received from his wife was a wonderful affirmation of his calling—and her loving support every step of the way

She loved sports, especially following and supporting the Green Wave program.

Mrs. Snell enjoyed her service as a substitute teacher for many years at Gallatin High School. She was a devoted member of the choir and a Sunday School teacher at the First United Methodist Church, Gallatin. The family requested memorial donations be offered to Salvus Center, Gallatin, Tennessee.

Ted Hill, Director of the Salvus Center and one of the persons officiating at Lorraine's funeral, noted, "I think of Felix and Lorraine's devotion to each other when I hear this poem and the promise our reunion in the place God has prepared for us."

How Do I Love Thee? (Sonnet 43) Elizabeth Barrett Browning

How do I love thee? Let me count the ways.

I love thee to the depth and breadth and height

My soul can reach, when feeling out of sight

For the ends of being and ideal grace.

I love thee to the level of every day's

Most quiet need, by sun and candle-light.

I love thee freely, as men strive for right;

I love thee purely, as they turn from praise.

I love thee with the passion put to use

In my old griefs, and with my childhood's faith.

I love thee with a love I seemed to lose

With my lost saints. I love thee with the breath,

Smiles, tears, of all my life; and, if God choose,

I shall but love thee better after death.

Bobbie Neely Spencer

June 4, 1931 - January 7, 2015

Bobbie N. Spencer, age 83 of Winchester, passed away Wednesday, January 7, 2015 at Southern Tennessee Regional Medical Center.

A native of Franklin County, she was a 1949 graduate of the Central High School (now Clark Memorial). She ran the Marble Plains Grocery Store from 1955 to 1960, at which time her husband was called into the ministry. As a "Preacher's Wife" she totally supported him in every church to which he was appointed. During the time of their ministry she also worked as a Licensed Practical Nurse. Following retirement, she became a member of the Winchester First United Methodist Church. She was a member of the Friendship Sunday School Class and very active in the United Methodist Women. She will be best remembered as always loving to meet people and learning about them. She never met a stranger and on this day, January 7, 2015 she met God and was no stranger.

Mrs. Spencer is preceded in death by her mother, Mary May Neely and her father, Will Neely; sisters, Willie Mae Neely, Lou Addie Henderson and Minnie Harris; brothers, Alvin, James, Cherry and Burnie Neely. She is survived by her beloved husband of 65 years, Rev. J. D. Spencer of Winchester; her son, Rev. David N. Spencer and wife Melanie of Columbia, TN, and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.

The funeral ceremony was held in the sanctuary of Winchester First United Methodist Church on Saturday, January 10, 2015 with the Rev. Dr. Steve Angus and Rev. Jerry Mayo officiating. Interment followed at Franklin Memorial Gardens with friends and family members serving as pallbearers. Honorary pallbearers were members of the Friendship Sunday School Class.

For those who so desire, memorial contributions may be made to the Winchester First United Methodist Church Building Fund.

In his reflection on Bobbie and her life Jerry Mayo shared the following thoughts:

"Bobbie was a good and kindly person. She loved God, her greater family—the church, J.D., David and Melanie. She left life better than she found it. The world is a better place because she passed through it, and we are all bettered and blessed to have had her pass a little while by our own lives. . . . My wife and I became close friends with J.D. and Bobbie from the first days of our ministry—not because we reached out to them but because they sought us out. They came to see us in Viola, Tennessee. Their showing up at our house was the beginning of a lovely and joyful friendship. Their way with us was their way with others. They went to visit people in their homes and received folks in their own home."

"Most of you may remember the television series Everybody Loves Raymond. In one episode the family is gathered in Raymond and Debra's kitchen. Raymond's parents Marie and Frank, who lived across the street, are there as is Raymond's brother Robert, who must have been considering marriage.

"Raymond was never very sensitive or smart but was expounding on marriage. He was saying, 'When you get home from work she's there; as you eat dinner, there. When you go to bed, there. When you roll over at night and look across the bed, there. When you eat breakfast, there. When you leave for work, there.' About this time Raymond sees the expression on his wife Debra's face. He looks up at Robert and quickly adds, 'And that's a good thing.' "

It truly is a good thing – it is god-like thing called faithfulness—from running a country store and supporting J.D.'s work at General Shoe in Tullahoma, to picking up and packing up to go with J.D. to all his pastoral appointments in the Tennessee Conference, living in houses provided by other people, to these last years back in Franklin County. Bobbie was always there—and that is a good thing—a God thing of immeasurable value and goodness.

Enoch Edward Spiva

February 14, 1934 - September 17, 2014

Rev. Enoch Edward Spiva departed this life on September 17, 2014 to begin his new life in Heaven. As a United Methodist minister, he served appointments in Conway, Arkansas, and Josephine, Texas, before returning to the Tennessee Annual Conference. He served appointments in Baxter, Williamsport, Pulaski (St. Andrew), Jamestown, Green Brier, Waynesboro, Clarksville (Madison Street UMC, Associate), Erin, and Carthage.

As an accomplished pianist, Ed used his musical gifts throughout his service to the church. During his 42 years of full time ministry, he served the Conference on several committees, including, the Board of Ordained Ministry and as treasurer of the Ministerial Fellowship. Rev. Spiva was a graduate of Martin Methodist College in Pulaski, Tennessee; Hendrix College in Conway Arkansas; and Perkins School of Theology at Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Texas.

Enoch Edward Spiva was born February 14, 1934, in White County, Tennessee, to Lem and Lillie Spiva. He was the fourth child born to their union and the second to live. His mother prayed, when she realized that she was pregnant, to beg for his survival. She told God that if He would allow her baby to live she would give the child back to Him. When Ed was born, his ten-year-old brother, James, had no preparation for his birth. Perhaps his mother didn't want to risk breaking his heart since she had already buried two daughters. We will never know. James came home from his Valentine's Day party at school excited to show off his cards. He had been allowed to ride his pony to school as a special treat. Imagine his reaction when his mother said, "Son, I have a surprise for you, too." Her promise was never mentioned until twenty years later when Ed revealed that God had called him to preach. Only then did she reveal her promise to God made so long ago as an anxious young mother.

Shortly after he accepted his call to preach, Ed married the love of his life. He and Bettie met while he waited at the elementary school for his bus to the White County High School. At some point, he came to Frazier's Chapel to play the piano and their relationship blossomed. Ed's visits to Bettie's home were chaperoned by her sisters and brother, who adored him nearly as much as their oldest sister. Their marriage began on August 30, 1955 and produced three children—Beverly, Priscilla, and Philip. Throughout their 59 years together, it seemed that one of them could not exist without the presence of the other. They lived and worked diligently to honor each other in their words and actions.

Ed was a graduate of Martin Methodist College in Pulaski, Tennessee, Hendrix College in Conway, Arkansas, and the Perkins School of Theology at Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Texas. He was a humble man. In mid-life, SMU contacted him, informing him that he could exchange his master's degree for a doctorate because they had re-evaluated their program. Ed declined, saying the degree he had was sufficient and had gotten him this far, so he would keep it. Besides, he could use his $35 for something more important.

As an active member of Lions Club International, Ed received the Melvin Jones Fellow Award for Dedicated Humanitarian Services and served as President in Waynesboro and Carthage. He was also a member of the Rotary Club. His love for God's creation was visible in his commitment to soil conservation, gardening, woodworking, beekeeping, and growing grapevines. His award winning soil conservation sermons, submitted to the Tennessee Association of Conservation Districts, were an important part of his commitment to preserving God's creation for future generations. Ed and Bettie lived and worked on the family farm on Lost Creek Road in Sparta during their retirement. They sang in the choir and Ed taught Sunday School in the Smithville United Methodist Church. Meeting a group of fellow retired ministers and their wives for lunch was a special pleasure in their lives each month.

Ed is survived by his wife, Bettie; daughters, Beverly Spiva and Priscilla (Randall) Dale; and son, Philip (Celena) Spiva. He leaves four grandchildren: Brian (Ashley) Dale; Jennifer (Jamie)

Irons; Heather Spiva; and Erica Spiva. Great-grandchildren include Jacob, Malachi, Grant, and Logan Irons. His devoted poodles, Pierre and Rosie also survive.

Bishop William W. Morris, Rev. Frank Smith, Rev. John P. Williams, Rev. Jay Archer, Rev. Louis Johnson, Rev. Dave McIntyre, and The Honorable David Bass conducted the service at First United Methodist Church, Sparta, Tennessee, September 22, 2014. Ed was laid to rest in Lost Creek UMC Cemetery.

—Lovingly submitted by wife, Bettie Spiva, and the Spiva family.

Elizabeth Chipley Stephens December 2, 1926 – May 18, 2015

The Reverend Elizabeth Chipley Stephens, 88, died Wednesday, March 18, 2015 at NHC, Hillview.

A memorial service and a Christian burial of ashes were held at Williamsport United Methodist Church, April 1, 2015, with the Rev. Donna Higginbotham officiating.

Reverend Stephens was born on December 2, 1926, in St. Louis, Missouri, the daughter of the late Glen Baldwin Chipley and Marguerite Carreras Chipley. Following her graduation from Washington University, she married John J. Stephens in 1951. She and Mr. Stephens traveled extensively abroad during his tenure with the Central Intelligence Agency. Following his death in 1967 in the service of his country, Mrs. Stephens accepted a position with the Central Intelligence Agency in overt operations. She then pursued several additional academic degrees and graduated from the University of South Florida. She received a Master of Divinity from The Episcopal Theological Seminary of the University of the South and became an Episcopal deacon. Later, she became an ordained minister in the United Methodist Church. During her ministry, she served the following United Methodist Congregations: Salem, Farriss Chapel, Old Lebanon, Hayes Chapel, Cedar Grove, Shady Grove, Williamsport, Mt. Nebo, Santa Fe, Goshen, Union, Godwin-Chappell and Theta. She officially retired in 1997.

She is survived by her nephew, Robert Chipley of Vienna, Virginia; and her nieces, Mrs. Anne Playe of Chicago, Illinois; Mrs. Louise Slavicek of Dublin, Ohio; and Mrs. Joan Hart of Waukeeshaw, Wisconsin.

Friend, Lenoir Culbertson, reflected on the life of Elizabeth Stephens:

"I first met Elizabeth in 1988 when she came to the Columbia District to serve the Williamsport Circuit. I was the pastor at College Grove. I was a parent with young children and a pastor newly transferred into the TN Conference still trying to find my way around. I first saw Elizabeth at a district ministers' meeting in Columbia. All I can recall is that the DS made a presentation and Elizabeth's hand shot up and she asked 'Why?' The DS explained. Elizabeth asked, 'Why?' The DS got a bit red in the face, but Elizabeth eventually got an answer, that in the long run, was helpful to us all. Through the years as I worked along side Elizabeth, you could never be sure exactly what might come out of her mouth, but you could be certain that the results would be an honest, helpful, clearer response. Her commitment to Christ was so genuine. Her honesty was at times painful, but ultimately valuable. Her view of the world was delightful. And her sense of humor was refreshing. I also recall her generosity. When Elizabeth was preparing to retire, she brought her beautiful pulpit robes to a meeting. 'Who can use these?' she demanded to know. 'I sure won't need them! I am retiring!' She truly delighted in making a gift of these symbols of her faithful service to another up and coming female pastor. I am so thankful that our paths crossed. My journey was made brighter by her presence."

Donna Higginbotham, who officiated at Elizabeth's funeral, noted:

“She was a minister that reached out to many people. She was riding down the Williamsport Highway one day, several years ago, and saw that a little pick-up truck had gone off a small bridge and was in the creek. She crawled down the embankment to help the young man. She prayed as she tried to stop his bleeding. The young man didn't make it that day, but she did all she could to make sure he wasn't alone. Unfortunately, she was alone the night that she went to be with the Lord.”

In addition to her parents and husband, she was preceded in death by three siblings.

The family extended their gratitude to NHC Hillview, Mr. Edward Moore, and all of the nursing staff and techs who cared for Mrs. Stephens during her stay there.

Dorothy Prew Strother

February 27, 1920 - June 30, 2014

Dorothy Prew Strother, widow of Dr. W. Bruce Strother, died quietly at her home in Gallatin on June 30, 2014, having lived 94 remarkable years.

Dorothy was born in Kirkham, a village in northwest England. She completed her secondary education at the Park School for Girls, where she served as captain of the hockey team and demonstrated her capacity to excel academically. After completing her studies at the Park School, she was selected for a job she always recalled with pleasure and deep satisfaction—designing coats of arms.

When World War II broke out, many of the country's women went to work on the nation's farms and in its industries. Dorothy volunteered for the Land Army and was assigned to a farm in the beautiful Pennine foothills, taking care of pigs—caring, breeding, up all night when they were birthing—and out to the fields to work during the day.

As the war continued, she made the decision to enter nurses training at Preston Royal Infirmary, at one point working in a ward of wounded German prisoners of war. One evening when she finished her shift at the hospital, something happened that forever changed her life. It was Sunday, and though tired after a day of work, she “felt constrained” to go to church. An American chaplain by the name of Bruce Strother happened to be preaching that night. After the service, Dorothy helped serve tea, and her charm and vitality quite captivated Bruce, whom many thought was a confirmed bachelor. They started dating and a year and a half later on June 19, 1945, they married in the nearby seaside town of Lytham.

A year later, when the war was over, Dorothy made a huge leap of faith leaving her family and home country and joining Bruce in America, where his family had deep roots in Kentucky Methodism. In 1952, at the invitation of fellow Kentuckian, Bishop Roy H. Short, they moved to the Tennessee Conference. Together, they served churches in Cookeville, Pulaski, Columbia, Nashville and Gallatin. Blending their considerable talents, they made a wonderful team.

Dorothy was a gifted and well-known public speaker in churches, at district meetings, Annual Conference retreats, schools of mission, and secular clubs in various communities. Dorothy taught Sunday School for over 50 years, the longest tenure being with the Martha Estes Class at McKendree UMC in Nashville. People enjoyed hearing her British accent, but it was much more than that! She had the capacity to challenge, encourage, and inspire.

Described as a beautiful person inside and out, she was a role model who influenced many people. With a vibrant personality, quick wit, and sense of playfulness, Dorothy combined a deep sense of responsibility and British propriety with an unquenchable freedom of spirit and love of life. She was at once gracious and charming, stylish and elegant. She never encountered a challenge she didn't think she could take on. She lived life with positivity, creativity, and courage. A good and generous friend, Dorothy was a Barnabas who graced the people in her life with frequent letters of appreciation, loaves of her famous banana bread, and words of encouragement. A gifted artist, creativity and flair were evident in every facet of her life—from the way she dressed and the clothes she made for her family to the sketches she drew, the talks she gave, the cakes she decorated, and the poems she could make up on the spot. Her life exhibited a beautiful and humble faith, a generous and gracious spirit, and a loving heart. Dorothy trusted God and took every concern and thanksgiving to the throne of grace. In her struggles and losses, she steadfastly counted her blessings.

At the core of her being, Dorothy was a loving mother and faithful helpmate always wholly devoted to family. She is survived by her grateful children Rev. Lynn Hinkle (Dee) and Beverly Beam (John); sister Alice Prew (of England); grandchildren Allison Kirkpatrick (Tommy), Strother Hinkle (Beth); and great-grandchildren Katie, Will, and Ally.

Mary Pat Sessions West November 27, 1919 - July 23, 2014

Mary Pat Sessions West, age 94, died Wednesday evening at Westside Terrace following a long illness. She was born November 27, 1919, in Enterprise, Alabama, to the late Lew H. Sessions and Mary B. Sessions. She attended Brenau College, Gainesville, Georgia, and was a graduate of the University of Alabama. She was a member of Delta Delta Delta Sorority with a degree in social work. She married Sam Carroll West, Sr. in 1942. She served as a social worker for the Red Cross in New York City during World War II, while her husband pursued his education in the ministry. They subsequently lived in Nashville and Atlanta, where she was an invaluable support to her husband in her role as wife of a Methodist Chaplain as well as actively involved with him in providing ministry to the students of Vanderbilt University in the Student Christian Association. Mary Pat had an active involvement as a pastor's wife during her husband's service in Methodist churches in Atlanta and Nashville. She took an active role in campus life and academic environment while he served on the faculty at Candler School of Theology at Emory University.

She participated with him in his national study of best features of Christian education programs across the country. She was involved in various capacities in local United Methodist churches and taught a three-year-old Sunday school class for many years. Once she was unable to physically work with the youth, she continued her support in every way she could. Mary Pat was always intrigued by the medical field and was the inspiration and driving force leading to both of her sons pursuing medical careers. From early childhood she provided them with toy doctor kits and biographies of famous physicians. During their training, she enjoyed reading their textbooks and studying their medical journals. She relished providing much sought after "medical advice" to friends and relatives. She and her husband retired to Dothan, Alabama, in 1980, where she was actively involved in the community until her illness.

Mary Pat was a life member of the Eclectas Club and Scottie Frasier Study Club. She attended First United Methodist Church. She was confined to nursing home care for the last several years where her devoted sitters, Josephine Allen and Jean Boyett, remained by her side. She was preceded in death by her husband of 56 years, Dr. Sam Carroll West, Sr.; her parents; one sister, Gloria Ventress. She is survived by her two sons, Dr. Sam C. West, Jr. and his wife, Judy, and Dr. Lew Sessions West and his wife Sandra; her brother, H. Moultrie Sessions of Enterprise; her grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews. Funeral services were held at First United Methodist Church, Main Street, Dothan, Alabama, on July 26, 2014. Officiating were Dr. Jim Sanders and Dr. Jerry Dooling with Robert Byrd directing. Serving as pall bearers were Tom West, Jack Hughes, Moultrie Sessions Jr., Bill Ventress, Michael Ledford, and James West.

Vernell White

April 1, 1933 - January 14, 2015

Vernell White, widow of Rev. Bobby G. White, was born in Decatur County, Tennessee on April 1, 1933 to Arlie and Verna White. She was the youngest of four children and had one brother and two sisters.

Vernell, my mother, was born and raised in a Godly country home. Her family members worked side by side on the farm to raise the crops and cattle to provide almost everything they had to eat. Some of mother's chores growing up were: milking the cows, feeding the chickens, gathering eggs, hoeing in the garden, drawing water, bringing in firewood, and ironing clothes. She took piano lessons and was very competitive when playing basketball in High School. She continued to love sports and was a big fan of The Tennessee Vols.

Mother was taken to church from the time she was born. They helped clean the church and fed their pastor often on Sundays. Mother was led to Christ by her Mom (the Godliest woman I have ever known) at the age of thirteen. In my mother's own words, "I joined in with the Lord that night and Mom had to do some shouting."

Grady Kennedy, my dad, married Vernell just out of High School. They were married for 26 years. They lived for a few years in Decaturville, Medina, and Nashville, Tennessee before moving to Savannah, Tennessee for the remainder of Mom's life. They had three children: Randy, Johnny, and myself (Paula Estes). Mom was a wonderful, loving, Christian mother. We were members of East End United Methodist Church in Savannah. We were in church (as a family unit) every time the doors were open. Mom took an active part in teaching (Sunday School, MYF, VBS), helping in church activities, and singing in the choir.

Mother worked in Savannah as a teacher's aide at South Elementary while we kids were in school. She later worked at Walmart as a Dept. Manager for over 15 years and then a few years at Dollar General.

While at Walmart, Vernell met my stepdad, Bob White, as she helped him to find some socks. They were married on February 12, 1994. They began serving the Robertson Chapel, Trinity, and Mt. Carmel United Methodist Churches in 2001 and served until 2005. They loved serving the Lord together and they loved their congregations! Bob passed away on August 1, 2005 after battling cancer.

Vernell departed this life on January 14, 2015, at the age of 81 years after her fight with lung cancer. She is survived by her children, Randy Kennedy, Johnny Kennedy, Paula Estes and her husband Jason; two step sons, Mark and Michael White; six grandchildren, Randy Kilby, Kristen Ross, Ryan Kennedy, Courtney Kennedy, Grant Qualls, and Rylan Kennedy; and nine great-grandchildren. She is also survived by two sisters, Wilma Gilbert, Irene Bourne and her husband Dudley; and one brother, Paul White and his wife Emodine; and one step-sister, Carolyn White.

Funeral services were held in Savannah at Shackelford's Funeral Home and at Concord United Methodist Church in Decaturville, TN, where she was buried. Rev. Jason Estes, Rev. Bob Sadler, and Rev. John Snow officiated at her services.

- b. Propose needed amendments to existing policies and standing rules;
- c. Provide guidance to the Annual Conference at any point where Conference action may be at variance with a policy or standing rule.

A. STANDING RULES (SR)

Definition: Standing Rules establish the procedure by which a deliberative body (e.g. the Tennessee Conference) conducts its business sessions.

Procedure

SR1. The Conference shall follow the latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order except where it is in conflict with the current Book of Discipline.

SR2. All motions and resolutions shall be supplied to the Conference Secretary in writing on a form provided for this purpose by the Conference Secretary.

SR3. Any entity planning to present a report at any Annual Conference session shall submit the report to the Office of Connectional Ministries at least ten weeks prior to the opening day of Annual Conference for inclusion in Pre-Conference Journal.

SR4. All resolutions not printed in the pre-Conference booklet shall be submitted to the Committee on Resolutions at least thirty days prior to the first day of the Annual Conference Session. The chair of the Resolutions Committee shall submit to the Annual Conference, in their original form, all resolutions so submitted. In addition, the committee may present to the Annual Conference for consideration a revised version of any such resolution.

SR5. The roll call of the Tennessee Annual Conference shall be taken from the registration.

SR6. The agenda of the Conference shall be that as it is corrected, printed, and distributed at registration with the understanding that the Bishop may adjust the agenda for the good of the order.

SR7. All speeches other than reports shall be limited to three minutes.

SR8. Voting cards given out at registration shall be the means of identifying who is eligible to vote on all issues requiring a vote.

Election of Delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conference

SR9. Clergy and lay delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences shall be elected as provided in the Constitution of The United Methodist Church (paragraphs 34-36 of The Book of Discipline [2012]).

SR10. Ballots

A. Ballots will be provided by the office of the Conference Secretary.

B. 50% plus one valid ballots cast shall be necessary to elect.

C. Ballots with more or less than the number to be elected shall be rejected as invalid.

SR11. Candidacy of persons eligible to serve as delegates, whether clergy or lay to General and/or Jurisdictional Conference may be established either by declaration or nomination.

A. To declare candidacy for election to serve as a General or Jurisdictional Conference delegate, the eligible person must submit to the Office of Connectional Ministries, no later than ten weeks prior to the opening day of Annual Conference, for inclusion in the pre-Conference materials a statement concerning

1. His/her activities at the local church, district, and annual, jurisdictional, and general conference levels;
2. An assessment of the principal needs of the General Church and how those needs should be met, and
3. Any other information felt pertinent to introducing himself/herself to those members of the Annual Conference who may not be familiar with his/her views on issues confronting the Church.

B. To nominate a person for candidacy to be elected to serve as a General or Jurisdictional Conference delegate and have the nomination printed in the Pre-Conference booklet, the nominator(s) must,

1. Determine the eligibility of the person to be nominated.
2. Secure from the person to be nominated and submit to the Office of Connectional Ministries the proposed nominee's written consent to accept the nomination.

  - a. The activities of the nominee at the local church, district, and annual, jurisdictional, and general conference levels,
  - b. An assessment of the opinions of the nominee regarding the principal needs of the church and how those needs should be met, and
  - c. Any other information (such as age and ethnicity) felt to be pertinent to introducing the nominee to those members of the Annual Conference who may not be familiar with that nominee's views on issues confronting the church.
4. Statements submitted in the establishing of candidacy, whether by declaration or nomination, shall be limited to 200 words, and shall be submitted via e-mail.
5. Persons do not have to declare candidacy or be nominated for candidacy in order to be eligible for election to serve as a General or Jurisdictional Conference delegate.
6. The initial ballot for election to General Conference will have a ballot number assigned only to those who, by declaration or nomination, have expressed their desire to be considered as a candidate. All subsequent ballots will assign numbers to write-in candidates during the election process.

SR12. Reserve delegates: After the Jurisdictional Conference delegates are elected, on the next ballot reserve delegates shall be elected (the number of General Conference delegates) in order of the highest number of votes received without regard to majority. The delegation's budget will include funding for one lay and one clergy reserve delegate to attend General and Jurisdictional Conferences.

Suspension and Amendment

SR13. Any standing rule, with the exception of SR 14, SR 15, and SR 16, may be suspended at any session of the Annual Conference by a two-thirds majority vote of those present and voting.

SR14. Any Standing Rule, Policy, or Parsonage Standard may be amended at any session of the Annual Conference by a two-thirds majority vote of those present and voting, provided that notice of the desired amendment shall be given to the Conference at least twenty-four hours in advance of a vote being taken in regard to it.

A. Whenever it shall occur that the person serving as the Director of Administrative Services, Director of Connectional Ministries, or Director of Ministerial Concerns is a lay person, then each person so serving shall be an at-large lay member of the Annual Conference. The Conference Secretary shall determine annually the number of laypersons needed to equalize lay and clergy members of the Annual Conference. The at large members are to be allocated as nearly as possible on an equal basis to the districts. When the number of members to equalize cannot be distributed evenly between the districts, the members shall be allocated to the districts in alphabetical order of districts. The at large members are to be elected by each District Conference.

B. Each District Conference shall elect two youth (ages 12-17) and two young adults (ages 18-30) as at large members of the Annual Conference.

POL11. The Tennessee Conference Personnel Committee shall be responsible for personnel procedures and policies that apply to all offices and employees of the Tennessee Annual Conference. The Committee on Nominations shall publicize by November 30 the list of vacancies for conference entities.

POL15. When a minister is appointed District Superintendent, he/she shall vacate any office or membership held on any conference board, commission, committee, or agency. The newly formed Cabinet shall then appoint District Superintendent(s) to each board and agency of the Conference except where required by the Book of Discipline, and to the Council on Connectional Ministries.

POL16. No person shall serve as a member of the same Conference board, council, commission or agency, or on a committee, which has as its parent body a Conference board, or agency, for more than eight years in a period of twelve. Exempted from compliance with this rule are: Cabinet members; lay persons serving as ex-officio members; lay members of the Board of Directors of Campus Ministries at A.P.S.U., M.T.S.U., T.S.U., Vanderbilt, Fisk and T.T.U.; McKendree Village; Board of Trustees of Martin Methodist College; lay members of the Board of Directors of the United Methodist Foundation for the Memphis and Tennessee Conferences; officers of U.M.W. and U.M.M.; the Conference Lay Leader; and members of the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry.

Replacement shall be nominated by the Conference Committee on Nominations, or other appropriate nominating source, and elected by the Annual Conference, except as may be otherwise stipulated in The Book of Discipline. Replacement members of various boards, councils, and committees of the Conference Council on Connectional Ministries shall be affected by the council, according to its procedure.

POL19. No person shall serve as a member of any entity of the Annual Conference when there is real or potential conflict of interest that is of an ongoing and thoroughgoing nature. When such conflict arises, that person shall be replaced immediately by the appropriate nominating committee, provided, however, that when a real or potential conflict of interest arises on a single issue, the person affected shall withdraw from the meeting until the discussion of and voting on that issue is complete. Should it arise that there is a difference of opinion as to which of these remedies is appropriate to any given situation, it shall be the duty of the chairperson of the entity, in consultation with the District Superintendent assigned to relate to that entity, to determine which remedy is appropriate.

POL20. The Committee on Nominations shall nominate persons to entities as authorized by the Annual Conference. It shall also nominate the officers of the Conference Council on Connectional Ministries, as well as the Conference Lay Leader, Conference Secretary, Editor of the Journal, and Conference Statistician at the session immediately following General Conference.

POL21. The fiscal year of the Annual Conference shall be the calendar year.

POL22. Persons elected by the Annual Conference shall take office upon the adjournment of the Annual Conference session at which they were elected unless The Book of Discipline provides otherwise.

POL23. Persons elected by the District Conference may take office at the time they are elected.

B. Every board, commission, committee, council, or other entity of the Annual Conference shall be inclusive in its membership in relation to lay/clergy, gender and ethnic minorities unless otherwise stipulated in The Book of Discipline.

C. Committees or other entities pertaining to the Council on Connectional Ministries that do not meet these inclusiveness guidelines (lay/clergy, gender and ethnic minority) may be filled until the next Annual Conference by the Conference Council upon nomination from the Conference Council Committee on Personnel.

D. WHEN EVERY MINUTE COUNTS

Tennessee Conference Media Crisis Response Plan

A Media Crisis in the Tennessee Conference is:

An event or emergency associated in some way with the Church but beyond its control, which can be expected to become public. It presents potential for damage to individuals, or the image of the Church, and hinders the ability to be in ministry. In other words, a media crisis is anything that could cause the public to lose faith in Tennessee Conference leadership or in the United Methodist Church.

Media Crises come in several packages:

1. Personnel crisis (clergy, church staff or lay member's misconduct, death, illness or injury)
2. Threatened criminal or legal action
3. Violent acts, demonstrations
4. Corporate crisis (lawsuits against the conference, an agency or institution)
5. Positive crisis (Donations exceed what can be handled, etc.)

Purpose of Crisis Response Plan

1. Provide compassion for victims
2. Meet needs of the media
3. Project positive image of the Tennessee Conference and the United Methodist Church.

Immediate Crisis Response Team (ICRT)

The Immediate Crisis Response Team will consist of five persons:

1. Tennessee Conference Bishop
2. Area Assistant to the Bishop
3. District Superintendent of the affected area
4. Connectional Ministries Director
5. Conference Director of Communications.

Media Crisis Management Team (MCMT)

1. The Media Crisis Management Team will include:

5. The Tennessee Conference treasurer
6. Other leaders as deemed appropriate by the bishop.

Actions - Media Crisis Management Team

  - a. develop a strategy for dissemination of information
  - b. determine how much and what kind of information can be released
  - c. decide when and to whom the information will be released
  - d. develop an official statement regarding the situation (brief, confirmed facts, the Church's response, and an expression of compassion for all concerned).
3. The bishop or alternate spokesperson and local church pastor* or agency director* must be thoroughly and regularly briefed before making any appearances or statements. The spokespersons may refer news media to others who can speak with authority on a particular subject. *If the local church pastor or agency director is intimately involved in the crisis, s/he will not be a spokesperson.
4. The MCMT will determine whether the spokesperson should leave immediately for the location of the crisis (such as a church camp or church building). This may be necessary if reporters are already on site and there is no spokesperson present.
5. The bishop or alternate spokesperson must establish a schedule for regular briefing sessions of team members for the purpose of updates and discussion during the first few days of the crisis when media interest will be most intense.
6. The team is authorized to engage other professionals as needed. The bishop or his/her designate and the team should determine who receives information, updates and copies of all statements and releases.
7. The team agrees to provide 24-hour availability and access to one another.

  2. Who knows about the situation? What do they know?
  3. What can we expect to occur during the next few hours/days?
  4. What information can we release to the media and public immediately?

Crisis Communications Telephone Log for Media Calls

1. Duplicate this sheet so a new page is available for logging every media call related to the crisis.

- C. Telephones with jacks be available in each room.
- D. An adequate amount shall be carried in a parsonage account or in the annual budget for the charge to maintain, repair, or upgrade parsonage and furnishings when necessary.

Video: Monica's Tips for Voting

Clergy get an orange card. Laity will receive a purple card. Must use blue or black pen or pencil. Fill in the entire bubble.

Clarification that voting members do not need to fill in the place at the top to indicate General or Jurisdictional Conference.

Bishop declares Laity Ballot 1 closed.

Miriam's Promise Report: Debbie Robinson celebrates 30 years of service in working with a hurting world. Almost 1000 children born into chaos have ended up in a forever family. Almost 400 women in jail have been supported by a therapist. Almost 900 women have had a place to come that was safe to explore what they could do about their unborn children. They have a place to come and someone to talk to.

Debbie presents video: Stories about families and individuals touched by Miriam's Promise. Every adoption is a miracle.

Debbie notes that Miriam's Promise does much more than adoption. They can support mothers as they turn the shame of having a baby into joy.

Dietz Ozburn presents the Bishop a cape and a painting of children wearing their capes painted by Debbie Robinson. Thank you to the TN Conference for being true heroes. Bishop expresses thanksgiving for his first grandson, who was adopted, and expresses gratitude to Miriam's Promise for what they do.

Chris Haynes presents Standing Rules Resolution submitted by the cabinet of the TN Conference: That policy #7 of the Standing Rules be removed altogether and that the annual moving date shall be established annually by the bishop and cabinet. This must sit for 24 hours before being voted on.

Standing Rules Committee would like to work over the next year to make sure that the TN Conference Rules are in alignment with the mission of the Conference and bring changes to the 2016 Annual Conference.

TN Conference Council on Finance and Administration Report by John Vaughan, President of the Committee. Auditors affirm the work done by Jim Allen. Recommend for consideration the budget presented in the pre-conference packet to be voted on Wednesday. Represents a reduction of $1 from 2014. Discussion of health plan by CFA. Sub-committee has begun work to determine a policy for the use of reserve funds. CFA recommends a budget of $12, 635, 972. Offers recommendations of numbers 2-7 on page 32 for consideration.

Recommendations approved by the conference.

Jim Allen gives Treasurer's Report: TN AC reported an increase in conference membership in 2014—the only conference in the US. The 2015 report is discouraging as we show a decrease from last year. Membership, worship attendance, Sunday School attendance is down. Other constituents (those who visit occasionally but are not members) numbers are up 4.02% from last year. This perhaps reflects a change in how we do business in the church. Persons engaged in missions up 38% from last year.

Jim sings a variation of Lord of the Dance.

Budget vs. Received: About 89% received means that churches paying 100% of apportionments has increased. Amount collected to pay for pensions has gone down from what is needed. We are taking money out of our pension reserves to help churches who can't pay for them all. There is an excess of money in reserves. Health plan does not have many reserves. Health plan is expensive because of the older population. We pay about half of what providers charge. Affordable Care Act changes caused premiums (average non-profit plans) to go up in TN; reporting health insurance to IRS; Cadillac tax beginning in 2018; Employer Payment Plan no longer allows churches to pay for pastor's non-group insurance without penalty. Health plan predictions: plan will cost more or we will need to cut benefits; prescription drug costs are rising 20%/ year; Congress will change ACA but not repeal.

Action items from Board of Pension: 1. Pre-82 plan PSR: Increase from $672 to $682 (+1.5) 2. Accept comprehensive benefit funding plan.

Both items approved by Conference.

Equitable Compensation Report by George Jensen, chair. They are rearranging the policy Pg. 42-43. Minimum Compensation for 2016 Pg. 41: Full Members: $39, 393, Associate Members: $35, 755, Fulltime Local: $34, 373.

United Methodist Foundation Report: Phil Jamieson brings greetings from the United Methodist Foundation. Foundation serves as a custodian for endowed funds for churches.

Endowed funds are over 56 million dollars and grew approx. 4%. Foundation Development Fund accepts endowments from individuals to loan money to groups. Foundation offers a stewardship grant program to give $1000 grants to churches and clergy willing to embrace best practices for stewardship. This year another 50 grants will be offered. United Methodist Publishing House Report: Connie Clark brings greetings from the Publishing House, Cokesbury, Abingdon Press, and the CEB. The Publishing House takes no money from the general church but is self-funded. They are currently moving to a new location in Nashville in order to re-create themselves in the 21st century. The new building allows them to meet the new technological needs of the time.

Their mission: Reaching more people in more places with quality services and resources that help them come to know and deepen their knowledge of God...

Publishing House Video: 1789: John Dickins founded the Book Concern. Video discusses the history of the Publishing House.

Connie invites Conference members to visit the Cokesbury store downstairs.

Bishop affirms our relationship with the Publishing House.

Bishop introduces Amy J. Hurd, new Director of Communications for the Conference, who will begin on July 1, 2015. Amy is married to Bob and they have two college-age children. Amy is a life-long Methodist with more than 20 years of experience in communications. She has a Masters in Communications from the University of Tennessee.

Bishop invites the Conference to welcome Amy Hurd.

Enrique Hernandez introduces and translates for Rev. Marco A. Gonzalez Cortez from the United Methodist Church in Mexico. On behalf of his Bishop, he sends a word of Thanks for our work in Mexico. He is blessed to see how we in Tennessee express our living faith in Jesus Christ. We need to make an extra effort to keep our unity in Christ. In Mexico they have moved from fear and have a new freedom to express the gospel. They give thanks to God.

Golden Cross Foundation Report: Kent McNish, Executive Director of the Golden Cross Foundation introduces Charles Hewgley who chairs the Foundation. Charles is an active lay person at Belmont UMC. Charles reports that the Foundation is here to assist congregations in sharing Christ to the hurting world, especially older adults. In 2012, a resolution of the Conference funded expansion of older adult ministries and services provided by churches. They work through the CCOCM to provide support and funding for ministries to older adults. They are self-funded with no apportionment support. They are an extension ministry funded by individuals, and special offerings. Grants are most often matching grants to congregations. This year they offered funding through the Conference to: Best Years Club at Gordon Memorial UMC—nourishing the whole body through the Body of Christ; Wings of Hope at First UMC Winchester—widows ministry; handicap accessibility grant to New Providence UMC to help them make it possible for older adults to attend church. Churches are encouraged to observe Golden Cross Offering on Mother's Day and expand their ministries to older adults. Charles introduces officers who are present today. The Board of Directors must be approved by the Annual Conference. Charles presents that name to the Conference for their approval.

Conference approves of names before them.

In 2011 McKendree Village was purchased by a private company. The McKendree Village Foundation makes it possible for those who have lived there for 10 years or more, they will never have to move because of lack of funding. The Board of Directors hoped to partner with the Golden Cross Foundation. McKendree Village Foundation presents a check of 1 million dollars to the Golden Cross Foundation for the expansion of Older Adult Ministries in the Tennessee Conference.

Report of Partner Today: Lynn McAlilly requests prayer for the Memphis Conference as they explore launching Project Transformation there next summer. When we save children, we save ourselves. Churches across the Conferences are seeking to save children. 66% of 4th graders are not proficient in reading. In serving the interests of children, we serve the interests of ourselves. A church can form a partnership with a school. Woodbury First UMC provides backpacks of food for over 400 children in their county each week. They started a thrift store staffed by volunteers. Sales of the thrift store provides funding for the backpacks. They have also been able to provide funding for a number of projects at schools throughout the community. Ross UMC adopted an alternative school that helps at-risk children. UMM and UMW joined together to make a difference. Good Shepherd UMC started offering backpacks, coats, shoes, school supplies, bikes, water bottles to children in the community. Donations and funding from their consignment sale enabled them to be able to offer these things. They are offering Christ, not only to the students, but also to the teachers. All it took was a phone call—ask teachers and principals how you can help. 2015 would be a great year to partner with a school. Go to www.partnertoday.org for ideas about how to support children. In a partnership with a school, we're not able to give them Jesus with our words, but we are able to give them Jesus with our actions.

Bishop suggests that we set a goal of 1 million books that we could distribute across the Memphis and Tennessee Conferences. Fred Craddock said that every child needs a new book to read and a song to sing. Help us make a difference in the lives of children.

Paul Purdue moves that line 4400 of the 2016 budget be amended to reflect the March 25 CFA action wherein CFA authorized the release of $594,072 from Conference Reserve Funds to cover projected expenses for the 2016 Congregational Development expenses, and that the 2016 Budget amend lines 1100 to reflect the March 25 CFA action whereby we authorized the use of $2225.357 from the Conference Reserve Funds to Fund the projected 2016 Pension expenses (costs).

Motion Seconded.

Paul Purdue speaks to this motion.

Jim Allen respectfully disagrees and believes that the motion confuses the issue rather than clarifies.

Bishop confers with the Chancellor, Lisa Carson. They believe that the motion is out of order and would like a copy of the motion.

A copy of the motion was already submitted to Jim Allen and James Johnson.

Bishop suggests that the motion be amended to state that what you are asking would be reflected in the conference journal.

So moved.

Jim Allen would like to know exactly what would be printed in the journal. Bishop clarifies that Paul Perdue is not asking to amend the budget, but that the reporting actually reflect the action that CFA actually took.

Bishop suggests a motion to refer this action so that it can be put on the screen so that everyone can understand what we are trying to decide.

Jim Allen moves to refer this motion to CFA.

Motion Seconded

Paul Purdue's concern is that CFA won't meet until after the journal is published. Jim Allen affirms that CFA will not be able to meet before the journal is printed.

Skip Armistead suggests that the individual amounts be marked.

Renee Franklin asks for clarification. Bishop clarifies.

Bishop asks for a vote. Tellers requested to count people standing to affirm the motion.

Clarification for motion requested. Bishop clarifies that the motion is to refer the matter to CFA.

Tellers requested to count people standing in opposition to the motion.

Camp and Retreat Ministries Report: Dickie Hinton, director of Beersheba Springs, celebrates over 55 years of ministry at Cedar Crest Camp and Beersheba Springs Assembly. Camp and Retreat Ministries would like to offer all of the new church starts beginning this year, free lodging for two years. They still to pay for food. They are conducting a feasibility study which indicates that they can meet their financial goals with a combination of conference campaign, individual donor gifts, and building stronger relationships with churches in the conference.

Dickie shares a video about Camp and Retreat Ministries: Significant faith formation, sacred space, radical hospitality, connecting with God and one another, equipping disciples. 65% occupancy rate over the last year. The Old Hotel at Beersheba will be updated to provide hotel-like setting. 30% growth over last year at Cedar Crest Camp, which was a 30% growth over the year before. With that current growth rate, they will not have any openings in 2016. Cedar Crest is seeking American Camp Association certification.

Russell Casteel, director at Cedar Crest Camp, brings greetings. Russell has listened and shared at over 50 churches and meetings with individuals. Historically, people have found their call to ministry at Beersheba. Children and Youth have found Jesus Christ for the first time at Cedar Crest. That remains the same today. There are no unsacred spaces. There are only sacred spaces and desecrated spaces. Christ is doing a new thing. At Cedar Crest, campers grew in their faith and had conversation about how they can change the world. Congregations are sending multiple campers for the first time in a number of years. Over 30% of the campers last year were non-white. Nationally at camps, only 9% are non-white. They no longer use the old cabins because they don't meet the safe sanctuary standards of the conference or of the American Camp Association. Improvements to the buildings are taking place. $20,000 in scholarships have been requested and $7,000 have been awarded. They are looking for $13,000 in funds for scholarships. 3 staff members answered a call to ministry last year. They want to be in conversation with us about how they can help us.

Jonathan Carle attests to the importance of Cedar Crest providing space for students in the UM Student Association at Vanderbilt University.

45 teacher appreciation gift bags were prepared so we can be in relationship with our schools;

230 books prepared for lending library at Trinity; 100 school kits for children and 200 health kits; 48 blankets made for children in all of our districts

Jim Hughes takes a point of personal privilege to say that people are denied health care in Tennessee because our legislature is willing to pass legislation that will help people access health care early on. UM Social Principals are quite clear that health care is a basic human right—not a privilege. Medicare and TennCare don’t cover everyone and so people fall into the gap of not being able to find insurance. Course of action: call legislators; collect “gap” stories so the legislature can hear stories of those who fall into that gap (goal is 100 by Labor Day); attend listening sessions around the state sponsored by the TN Justice Center. Imagine a state in which every citizen has adequate health care—and make it so.

Merilee Weiniger would like to “up” that challenge: if every church found one story, we would have over 600 stories.

Standing Rule Report: Chris Haynes presents the report. Jim Allen presents the budget in a spreadsheet form which is an edited version of the entire document. The total proposed apportionment budget is $12,635,972; the total projected expenses are $17,131,106. We currently have about 19 million in pension reserves. A reserve committee will meet to determine what an appropriate amount of reserves is for the conference from year to year. About 869,000 will come out of health plan reserves. Congregational Development is planning to spend about 1,378,000 to start new churches, and much of that will come out of reserves. 2 million dollars was set aside ahead of time in prior years for congregational development.

Jim Beaty asked the congregation to thank Jim Allen for his report.

Paul Perdue says that in light of the clarification from Jim Allen, he is satisfied with the report from CFA and does not need to take it off the table.

Kent McNish moves that CFA send a report to the conference about reserves that could be used for ministry so that Jim Allen doesn't need to feel embarrassed about the amount of reserves we have as a conference.

Clarification that a committee has already been formed to discuss that.

Ron Lowry suggests that Jim Allen is off by $1, and would like to offer to pay that dollar so that no one is concerned about it.

Skip Armistead offers a caution about using the reserves for ministry because social security is in jeopardy and wants to make sure that we don't spend the reserves too low. Recommended that the apportionment budget put on the floor on Monday be approved.

Committee on Episcopacy Report: Lynn Hill says that the committee is grateful for the accessibility and effectiveness of Bishop McAlilly. Each AC Conference on Episcopacy meets quarterly with the Bishop and their dialogue has proven to be fruitful. The Bishop is doing a good job, however, they have one concern: he should do a better job of taking care of himself physically. Expressed thanks to Lynn McAlilly for her commitment to children. Thanks to Rev. John Collett who represents the Bishop and helps clergy live more effectively in their churches and strengthen the ministry of the TN Conference.

Saying good-bye to Admin. to Episcopal Office Welcome Brandy Earheart. Commit to do their best to see that God's vision for us becomes a reality. Thanks to Bishop McAlilly.

Bishop thanks the body for their affirmation of their life together. He is speechless. He has never known anything other than this life, anything but the life of Christ and the people called Methodist. We won't do it perfectly, but we will do what we believe God is calling us to do. Three things that he is seeking: to lead toward unity, faithfulness, and fruitfulness. He's not terribly worried about the future of the UMC; we have to keep stepping forward and trust that God is with us. We may grow smaller before we turn it around, but we have the best chance in TN and KY to turn it around because we have people who love the Lord and are seeking to lead faithfully in their congregations. We are in this together, and we will keep loving each other. Love is the way. We will hold each other accountable. There is no reason he needs to be evaluated 4 times a year; they need to cut down on the number of meetings.

Pam Hawkins speaks about her gratitude to the Bishop because we are here to watch over each other in love and to bring Christ to a hurting world. She adds a word of gratitude for the LGBTQ people who are here, even though it is not easy for them. She appreciates how we watch over each other in love.

REPORTS, BUDGETS AND RESOLUTIONS

CHAPTER 10

A. REPORTS

72+U Updated Report

In Luke 10:2, Jesus told the disciples, “The harvest is plenty but the workers are few.” In the Nashville Area, the workforce is growing through the 72+U movement and resource.

72+U began with an initial invitation from Bishop McAlilly at the 2014 Annual Conference to join the 72—people and congregations willing to adopt a new mission to offer Christ to a hurting world. After subsequent interactive teaching sessions led by Bishop McAlilly and others, awareness and understanding grew of what it meant to be part of the 72. By the end of the Annual Conference gathering, people accepted the invitation and said, “Yes!” to the challenge. Through personal interaction and written evaluations, many of these individuals expressed a desire to share what they had experienced at the Annual Conference with their local church. Both lay and clergy leaders wanted an engaging, easy way to help congregations explore and embrace the new mission in the Nashville area to, “discover, equip, connect, and send lay and clergy leaders who shape congregations that offer Jesus Christ to a hurting world, one neighborhood at a time,” just as they had.

Because of that need, the content taught at the Annual Conference was developed into a customizable resource delivered online via the 72plusyou.com website or as a printed notebook with DVDs. Over the past year, many congregations have used the resource successfully in various settings, including Wednesday night Bible study, weekly small group curriculum, Sunday school curriculum, and even as a one-day, church-wide event. People who experienced the resource enjoyed the interactive experiences in each lesson and found the specific application challenges inspiring and relevant. As a result of their participation, they understood the role of one of the 72!

Since its release in October of 2014, the 72+U team has measured the use of the resource and how people obtain it. As of April 1, 2015, the website has had 13,908 visits with 8,099 in 2014 and 5,809 in 2015. There was an average of 55 visits per day in 2014 and 66 visits per day in 2015. Based on current usage, it is predicted that site visits will surpass the 2014 numbers in a matter of months. In addition to visits to the website, the resource has been downloaded from Dropbox (an online file sharing system) and distributed as a printed notebook. Nearly 1,400 electronic files have been downloaded and over 300 notebooks distributed.

As well as tracking website and resource usage, the 72+U team has documented stories of God at work through the “We Are One of the 72” stories on the 72plusyou.com website. By sharing these stories, visitors to the site have been inspired and informed to begin similar ministries in their communities. The team continues to receive stories from local congregations eager to celebrate what God is doing through 72+U.

Leadership training has been an integral part of implementing of 72+U. Over the past few months several training sessions were held to give lay and clergy leaders an overview of the resource as well as tips and techniques for implementing it in the local church. As a result of these training sessions, lay leaders have presented the training in their local churches or Districts. Sarah Matthews, Lay Leader in the Pulaski District, has visited over thirty churches ranging in membership from 10 to 300 people. To lead these 72+U trainings, Sarah has traveled to Waynesboro, Tullahoma, the Alabama border, Clifton, and Nashville. Sarah is grateful for the opportunity to visit churches to talk about 72+U. She says, "Talking to congregations about 72+U has been such a blessing. Many times I have hoped to bless others and received a greater blessing." Sarah is one of the 72.

In an effort to create more workers for the harvest, another 72+U resource will be released after the 2015 Annual Conference. Like the 2014 resource, it will contain the content from the teaching sessions led by Bishop McAlilly, inspiring videos, and practical tools to offer Christ to a hurting world, one neighborhood at time.

Children and Family Ministries

Maximizing Every Ministry Moment

Throughout 2014-2015, The Children's Ministry Team has equipped local churches to maximize ministry moments by creating dynamic children's ministries that engage children and families in a growing relationship with Jesus. Through training sessions in local churches, one-on-one mentoring, conference calls, onsite visits, and 24-hour e-mail support, children's ministry leaders and volunteers have learned and adopted the key characteristics of a dynamic children's ministry to their local church setting.

To maximize their efforts, The Conference Children's Ministry Team has helped local church children's ministries to become:

Child-Focused

We are trying to reach children! To do that, we helped leaders explore and understand the culture of children today, and use those insights to design ministries that are age-appropriate and engaging to children. By viewing everything they do through a child's eyes, children's leaders created ministries that reach, teach, and love today's children.

Relevant

Every lesson, example, and activity must be relevant and applicable to kids in their lives today. We've encouraged ministry leaders to examine the relevance of their ministry efforts by asking, "How does our ministry apply to our culture and world today?" "Are we meeting the physical and spiritual needs of children in our community?" and "How can Biblical truths be relevant in the life of a child today?" By ensuring children's ministries are relevant, ministry leaders and volunteers help kids grow in their relationship with Jesus. God's Word becomes a living tool children can use on a daily basis to shape and transform their lives.

Jesus-Centered

We know children's ministry leaders and volunteers wear many hats in the local church. As they fulfilled multiple responsibilities, we helped children's ministry leaders build and focus their ministry on Jesus, making sure that ministry activities always provide children and their families with the opportunity to discover how to know, live, share, and grow in a relationship with Jesus.

Safe

Safety and security are among a child's highest needs. That's why safety is a must. As children learn about Jesus, they need to feel spiritually, emotionally, and physically safe. To help children's ministry leaders create safe ministries, we conducted onsite, interactive training sessions that focused on the best practices for keeping ministry safe. These trainings resulted in the development of clear policies and procedures for specific to each church.

Creative

God is creative! He created the world and everything in it. To reach today's kids, our ministries need to embrace the four C's—Creativity, Critical Thinking, Collaboration and Communication! In an effort to make God's Word come alive for children, we worked with children's ministry teams to recommend curriculum and programs that teach Bible truths creatively and interactively using the 4 C's. As ministry teams partnered with us, they learned how to teach children in ways that they learn best so that children's ministry is never boring, but filled with fun, dynamic experiences.

By maximizing their ministry moments, local churches were able to refine existing programs, develop new ministries, and say "goodbye" to ministries that were no longer effective. By strategically focusing their efforts, many leaders and volunteers experienced a deep sense of renewal and commitment to their call.

Congregational Vitality Report

The past year has been filled with building a foundation. As Interim Director of Congregational Vitality I have received or given a number of workshops. I hope to complete training as a Healthy Congregation Facilitator. The premise that the congregational vitality committee and I worked under was to revitalize congregations through workshops that either strengthened or maintained congregations. Our Conference diversity is matched by the different states of growth of our congregations. In an effort to reach those different levels Congregation Vitality served as a conduit for SLI, CAAST, DISC, 72 + U, Healthy Congregations and the Tennessee Conference.

With the guidance of the evangelism committee and the congregational vitality committee five basic workshops were developed: 1. Vitality of Mutual Support and Accountability (Targeted CAAST Churches) 2. Formula 4 RACE: Transforming Congregations with Deliberate Speed and Urgency (Targeted Ministers and Small Groups) 3. Healthy Relation in Groups (Targeted Ethnic Churches) 4. Vitality of the UMC Brand/ R<sup>2</sup>=Ux18=72+U (Targeted All Congregations) 5. Vitality of 72+U/Discover, Equip, Connect!? (Targeted All Congregations) Rev. Skip Armistead and I reached approximately 400 congregational members. Approximately 215 churches have been using CAAST and SLI. One hundred-fifty lay servants attended the 72 + U workshop at Hillcrest UMC. It has been a productive year with at least 75% of all congregations being impacted by 72 + U training. A big debt of gratitude goes to the Bishop and Cabinet for making resources and time available to reach all seven districts of the Tennessee Conference. Let us continue to Discover, Equip, Connect and Send in the name of Our Lord and Savior.

Disaster Response Coordinator

I provide leadership and administrative support to the area of Disaster Response. This past year we have led multiple disaster trainings. I receive invitations to share in worship, UMW's groups, small groups and Wesley Foundations about Disaster response, UMWIM and UMCOR. When disasters strike, I coordinate volunteers and relief supply distribution when needed and partner with local communities to develop long-term recovery. I maintain UMCOR relief supplies and coordinate with our Network Warehouses. I provide leadership to the Southeastern Jurisdictional (SEJ) Disaster Response Team and am a member of the Executive Board of UMWIM for the SEJ. In July 2014, we closed out our 2013 Flood/Storms disaster recovery, having at some level been able to help in one way or another approximately 150 families. We covet your prayers for a quiet spring and summer so we can follow through with our vision to build local church and district capacity to provide relief and manage recovery in Jesus' name.

My additional responsibilities include providing leadership and support to these conference ministries: Congregational Development, Mercy and Mission, Church and Society, Health and Welfare and Disability Concerns. The Congregational Development area includes Full Committee, Sub Committees, Church Planting and Grant Review Teams. The Mercy and Mission area includes the ministries of Global Ministries/Missionaries, UMCOR, local ministry support, Volunteers in Mission, Hunger, Disaster, and Prison Ministries. I work closely with these ministries to promote opportunities to support and serve. I produce a weekly Mercy, Mission, and Disaster email news. In addition, I support Annual Conference session planning and execution. For more information or if you have questions about these ministry areas, please contact Angela Overstreet, Disaster Response Coordinator, at 615-695-2758 or by email at disasterresponse@tnumc.com.

New Church Starts

In July 2014 my ministry role was refocused to cover only New Church Starts and work with our demographics resource, Mission Insite. The Congregational Development report outlines the activities and outcomes of the work in this area, part of which includes the potential to have started 9 new churches or ministries from 2014-2016. A large part of my time was spent in conversation with potential planters, potential partner churches, our New Starts Team, and with District Superintendents. These conversations centered around discernment and strategy for who might be called to lead, partner, or support new churches or ministries that would reach people in Jesus' name. My work involved attending specialized training in church planting, including School of Congregational Development, New Start Bootcamp, Exponential, and Path1 Multiethnic Church Planting Conference. In addition, I worked with our team to organize two discernment and assessment experiences for potential church planters, in coordination with the Memphis Conference and Path1 (UM Discipleship Ministries). Path1 has provided regular support from their staff, one who has been a constant coach in helping our team develop and implement strategy. I have also lead several District and Conference trainings with our demographic resource, trying to “move from numbers to mission intelligence.” Several pastors or church leadership teams have invited me to spend time with them individually to better understand their mission field with the resource.

Youth and Young Adult Ministry Report

MISSION: The Young People’s Ministry of The Tennessee Conference is actively engaged in carrying out our mission to discover, equip, connect and send lay and clergy leaders who shape congregations that offer Jesus Christ to a hurting world, one neighborhood at a time.

DISCOVERing new leaders, new ministries, and new opportunities for service drives all that we do. The Conference Council on Youth Ministry is an active group of leaders from all 7 districts. These student leaders are middle and high school students who are actively involved in their local youth ministries while offering their gifts and talents in service throughout the districts and across the conference. This group is elected in the summer at Summer Sizzler. Another pivotal way that new leaders are discovered is through the Warmth In Winter Design Teams. These teams consist of adults, youth and young adults working together to create the ministry that takes place at the largest worship gathering in the Tennessee Conference.

We’ve also been blessed to serve with and see the impact of Young Adults in service through word and deed with Project Transformation Tennessee. PT TN is doing transformative work throughout the Nashville area during the summer and will be expanding to a year-round after school ministry in the Fall of 2015. Check out <http://pttennessee.org> for ways to connect and serve.

We are excited to share that the Young Clergy Initiative from the General Board of Higher Ed has awarded TNUMC YPM a grant of $40,000 to develop and implement a ministry discernment program for youth and young adults in the early stages of their call to ministry.

We strive to EQUIP youth, young adults, youth ministry leaders, and clergy with the best practices in faith and discipleship development. We offer a variety of training opportunities as well as learning and coaching cohorts to help deepen the impact of the information and training shared. The Smaller Church Youth Ministry Initiative has become a model for equipping and coaching the smaller congregations throughout the Tennessee Conference through year-long cohorts.

Youth Ministry Institute has been a strong model for training and coaching youth ministry leaders since 1999. YMI utilizes retreats and one-day trainings as well as technology to connect youth ministers who have entered into the cohort with the latest best practices, organizational skills, ministry development tools, and ongoing coaching.

God’s Got Talent and EMPOWER are both summer youth ministry camps that take place in June on the campus of Martin Methodist College. GGT is a worship arts development camp which provides opportunities for youth in grades 7-12 to explore a variety of arts and talents utilized in worship. Students are engaged in honing their skills while working together to prepare a final program that allows each to share their gifts. EMPOWER is a leadership development and exploration experience for high school age youth. Students spend the week exploring their gifts of leadership, conflict resolution and problem solving from a Christ-centered perspective.

We are about CONNECTing youth, young adults, and their ministers to each other and the world. Youth have the opportunity throughout the year to connect with friends at the variety of events our teams develop. We have developed our calendar to provide opportunities such as Warmth in Winter, Nashville Shores UMC Day, Nashville Sounds Faith Night, Summer Sizzler, and Hands & Feet Mission Retreat. Each of these gatherings provide times of teaching and fellowship.

Additionally, ReConnect: Young Adult Retreat provides a meeting place for young adults to reunite with their friends as well as new ones. We are blessed in the Tennessee Conference to have 8 active Campus Ministries that CONNECT young adults in their communities and campuses. At Austin Peay State University, Belmont University, Fisk University, Middle Tennessee State University, Tennessee State University, Tennessee Tech University and Vanderbilt University the Wesley Foundations serve to connect college-age students to each other and the world. At Martin Methodist College, students have the opportunity to grow spiritually through involvement in religious life clubs and mission opportunities.

However, we're more than just an event driven ministry. We connect ministry leaders to each other, to the latest research, to the best practices and curriculum as they connect young people to the life-changing message of the Gospel.

All that we do through the Young People's Ministry of The Tennessee Conference is developed with the intention of SENDing our young people out into a hurting world in need of God's love. We are intentional in equipping and empowering them to be missionaries for Jesus Christ. We have a unique opportunity to help local ministries send young people in mission through the Youth Service Fund. This fund receives contributions from local churches and youth ministries. Each spring, the CCYM gathers to review grant applications from local youth and young adult ministries who are sending teams into service during the summer or fall. In 2007, Hands & Feet began with the goal of giving young people the opportunity to serve locally in transformative ways. Now 7 years later, Hands & Feet has served hundreds of families while sending thousands of young people and their youth ministers into service.

COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

PART I – Action Items

The Council on Finance and Administration reports and recommends to the Conference:

1. A total apportioned budget for 2016 of $12,635,972, as provided in the Table in Part IV and described later in this report.
2. The amount to be apportioned to the churches be 100% of the budget adopted at the Annual Conference, plus the amounts approved by the seven district conference, using the method most recently approved as modified by Annual Conference in 2012.
3. The approved travel expense for staff and members of committees, boards, councils, agencies and other entities of the Conference be reimbursed at a rate set by the entity not to exceed the maximum amount allowed by the Internal Revenue Service for business travel.
4. The expenses for at-large members of the 2015 Annual Conference be reimbursed at a rate not to exceed $150 per day ($450 maximum) plus mileage not to exceed the IRS rate for the owner of a vehicle used for transit to and from the conference (Standing Policy 44).
5. The base compensation of the District Superintendents for 2016 be set at $102,000.
6. The housing allowance designation for clergy conference staff pursuant to Internal Revenue Code § 107 as listed in the Table in Part IV of this Report be approved.
7. That the Conference's undesignated reserves (Contingency Fund) be reimbursed from the Camp Fund held by the Foundation for the unbudgeted repairs to the camps estimated to cost $113,690 as described in Part II of this report.

PART II – Discussion

The Council on Finance and Administration was pleased that the Tennessee Conference was able to pay 100% of its general and jurisdictional church apportionments for 2014. This is our third year of achieving this goal, and we intend to work with the churches and the cabinet to meet that goal in future years.

After carefully considering all requests for funds, line by line, the Council on Finance and Administration recommends to the Conference a total budget for 2016 of $12,635,972. This represents no increase from the 2015 budget. Although the Budget includes increases on some lines, CFA proposes to balance the budget by withdrawing up to $2.2 million from growth on Pension reserves, $196,550 from growth on Health Plan reserves, and $818,899 from undesignated reserves, for a total reserve drawdown of $3,240,786. We were blessed with the benefits of substantial market growth in 2012 and 2013, and will be using those funds to balance 2016's budget.

The breakdown of the budget by fund is at the end of this report, and the breakdown of each fund budget is posted on the conference website.

The Council also considered and approved requests for special funding over and above previously approved budgets, to be provided from the current balance of the Conference Contingency Fund. At meetings in February and March, the Council approved special funding for repairs to the Episcopal Residence ($12,591); and Wesley Foundations [staffing at TSU ($12,500) and an HVAC unit at TTU ($72,000)].

The Council also approved requests for capital improvements up to $113,690 at the Camps. The Cedar Crest costs consisted of $55,000 for roads, $12,000 for windows, and $23,040 for Nickell Lodge, for a total of $90,040. The Beersheba costs consisted of $6,000 for Gill Hall HVAC and $23,650 renovations to the director's house.

The Council also addressed the 2013 audit of the Conference. For the second year, that report was fully GAAP-compliant, and included no significant matters, internal control deficiencies, or audit exceptions. At the time this CFA report to Annual Conference was prepared, the 2014 audit by Parker, Parker and Associates, CPAs had not been completed, but it will be printed in the Journal. The Council approved continuing Parker, Parker and Associates as the Conference's CPA firm.

Finally, the Council has begun work on a comprehensive reserves policy. We understand that having too much tied up in reserves can be as destructive to ministry as inadequate reserves to support cash flow during financial droughts. It is our goal to describe an adequate, but not excessive, range for our reserves, which will guide our work in the future.

PART III - OAS

The Office of Administrative Services through Melinda Parker began providing support for the Memphis Conference's pension program (at Memphis Conference expense). OAS offered retirement, financial planning, and personal tax workshops for pastors; rolled out a new remittance program that allows districts to have immediate access to remittances; and responded daily to requests for church treasurers and pastors for information and assistance. Johnathan Rose oversaw upgrading of IT functions and kept the digital services flowing for the benefit of the Conference. Jim Allen provides staff support to CFA, Pensions, Health Plan, Equitable Compensation, and Trustees boards. Susan Lindeman was primarily responsible for accurate and timely reporting which resulted in our outstanding audits.

The Council continues to affirm the service of Jim Allen, Susan Lindeman, Melinda Parker, and Johnathan Rose, and the support of the Office of Administrative Services to the ministry and mission of Christ's church and the Tennessee Conference.

Board of Camp and Retreat Ministries

For over 55 years, Cedar Crest Camp and Beersheba Springs Assembly have served a vital role in the Tennessee Conference. Today our ministries continue to impact young people in discovering their call to the ministry; they serve congregations in renewing their spirit, equip campers and youth with a stronger faith, and send forth individuals and churches to transform a hurting world. Over the years, we have not always given Cedar Crest the attention it needs as a vital place of relational and camping ministries that it is. Also, as needs and expectations of our groups change, we realize that Beersheba continues to need updating in program offerings and facility improvements in order to provide the radical hospitality its guests deserve. As an indispensable part of the Tennessee Conference, Camp and Retreat Ministries seeks to build on our rich history in order to serve Conference needs in every possible way.

By action of the 2014 Tennessee Annual Conference, the Board of Camp and Retreat Ministries was charged with the responsibility to return in 2015 with a Comprehensive Study that included the needs of both Cedar Crest Camp and Beersheba Springs Assembly. This was requested in order to provide the Annual Conference enough information to make a decision about giving Camp and Retreat Ministries permission to conduct a campaign designed to meet the growing needs of both facilities.

In response to this action, the Board employed the services of Horizon Stewardship Company to conduct a Feasibility Study to determine the level of support within the Annual Conference for such a campaign. To date, their findings indicate that The Board of Camp and Retreat Ministries needs to be well prepared for its campaign authorization presentation. In the view of Horizons this would entail having both campaign leadership and initial lead gifts in place to ensure the confidence that a Conference-wide campaign would succeed. Horizons has advised that more preparatory work with the Conference and other potential donors needs to be done. As a result, we will bring a comprehensive request to the 2016 Annual Conference. In the meantime, we will be actively engaged in talking with groups of clergy and laity concerning how we might partner with local churches to assist in meeting their ministry goals and needs. If you would like to be in conversation about how we can connect with your congregation, please contact Reverend Dickie Hinton or Russell Casteel.

In addition, the Board has been involved in examining our governance structure, and feel that some changes might help us be more effective support for each of our facilities. We have realized that it is difficult for a large board to give each facility the detailed attention it deserves. To be more effective we are developing a site team for each facility within the larger board and enlisting addition persons who have keen interests in a particular site.

We have also developed a master plan for Cedar Crest, outlining a plan of ministry and program for the next several years. We have developed an area plan for the Quad at Beersheba Springs, and will continue to answer the call to be a place set apart for generations to come.

As we work diligently toward 2016, we would like to share the following highlights of this year's accomplishments for each of our facilities:

Cedar Crest Summer Camp 2014

- 245 Summer Campers: 33% increase of 60 campers from 2013, 140 first time campers
- Helped campers grow in their faith in Christ in order to meet the needs of a hurting world
- Awarded $28,000 in camping scholarships
- Celebrated a diverse campership: roughly 35% of campers in 2014 were Hispanic or African-American
- Renewed youth camping, offering junior high and high school camps
- Created "outpost camping," a new hammock camp option for summer campers
- Extensive renovation and refurbishing of all facilities
- Completion of a new Director's residence
- Became a member of the American Camp Association (standard bearer of best practices in camping across the United States)

Cedar Crest Camp 2015:

- 7 weeks of Summer Camp, from June 14 to July 3, which are filling up fast.
- Scholarships for children of all ages
- Working toward accreditation by the American Camp Association, marking best practices of safe sanctuaries, facilities management, health and camper safety
- Already booking retreats for the Fall 2015 and Winter 2016 retreat season. Our programming amenities include: canoeing, low ropes, team building, archery, field games, basketball courts, and disc golf. Call or email to book lodges and experience our excellent foodservice!

Beersheba Springs Assembly 2015:

- Ensuring we provide attractive facilities by improving lighting, amenities and details in guest rooms and beyond

- Expanding our program offerings throughout the year and continuing to work with the Adult/Older Adult Committee to develop new ministries for older adults
- Continuing to offer quality partnerships with churches for program and retreat events
- Welcoming our guests with radical hospitality, making sure their experience exceeds expectations
- Improving accessibility for reservations and inquiries by expanding hours and office staff

We will continue to focus on making program and property improvements in 2015. We welcome the assistance of any individual or church group wishing to help with these two priorities.

Every church in the Tennessee Conference is invited to come to the mountain for a safe, welcoming, restoring and transforming experience in this sacred place! For information, contact Rev. Dickie Hinton at:

Congregational Development Committee

2015 Annual Report

By the year 2020, roughly 2 million people across Middle Tennessee either won't identify as being a Christian or will not be actively involved in a local church seeking to grow as a disciple of Jesus Christ. Currently, Middle Tennessee is growing by 50,000 people annually, with many communities within Davidson and surrounding counties growing 5-10% or more each year. Any given Sunday, only 1.8% of Middle Tennesseans worship in a Tennessee Conference United Methodist Church.

As the Tennessee Conference seeks to "discover, equip, connect and send lay and clergy leaders who shape congregations that offer Jesus Christ to a hurting world, one neighborhood at a time," we see the role of the Congregational Development Committee as working with others to help start new churches, transform and revitalize existing churches, and offer resources and training for church leaders to aid in this mission.

We are grateful for the support of and collaboration with Bishop McAlilly, the Cabinet, CF&A, the Board of Ordained Ministry, various local churches, and especially our conference staff. This year, we have had two staff people in interim positions, Rev. Willie Burchfield as Director of Church Vitality and Rev. Jason Brock as Director of New Church Starts, who have helped us to greatly expand our work. We give thanks for them and for the Conference's recognition of the importance of this work and willingness to fund it.

New Church Starts

The New Church Starts Team is focused on starting new faith communities in the Tennessee Conference. We are working together to birth 20 new churches or innovative ministries by 2020 to further the mission of the Tennessee Conference. Through prayer we will Discover Places, Equip Planters, Connect Partners, and Send Passionate Disciples to reach thousands of new people with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. These “New Places for New Faces” will particularly focus on connecting with those in our communities who have never known the saving grace of Christ or have become disconnected from the life of discipleship in a community of faith.

Discover Places: Over the course of this past year and looking to the next conference year, we are partnering to potentially start as many as nine new churches or ministries: Home Church (Nashville), The Village Church (Nashville/Nolensville), Ebenezer Hispanic Ministry at 61st Avenue UMC (Nashville), Good Shepherd UMC (Hendersonville), Egyptian Ministry at Hamilton UMC (Nashville/Antioch), East Bank UMC (East Nashville), First UMC Pulaski, Craft Memorial UMC (Columbia), and First UMC Manchester Hispanic Ministry. We continued to support several recently started new churches and ministries: Mercy Street UMC (Smyrna), Emanuel Bell Buckle UMC Hispanic Ministry, Torre Fuerte New Providence UMC Hispanic Ministry (Clarksville), Trinity Community Ministry (Nashville), Gallatin CARES Worship Center. Additionally, we have identified over 20 potential places to explore in the coming years.

Equip Planters: We have worked collaboratively with both the Cabinet and the Board of Ordained Ministry to identify potential church planters. This year, we hosted two events focused on discernment and assessment around a call to plant new churches. The first was called “Speak, Lord, Your Servant Is Listening.” It was hosted in conjunction with the Memphis Conference and Path1 at Paris Landing in November with around 60 in attendance. We followed this up with an assessment clinic called “Here I Am, Lord. Send Me” in January at the Conference Office in which we evaluated the potential of about 20 individuals for church planting. Once appointed by the Cabinet to a new church start, the planter will attend one or more training events and receive ongoing professional coaching. We continue to work on developing a pool of potential planters who have been vetted by others and equipped for this work. Additionally, Rev. Erica Allen served as a Large Impact Church Resident at Providence UMC this year, learning from this vital new start and growing in her ministry and sense of calling in preparation for planting a church. This opportunity was a partnership among Providence, the TNUMC Annual Conference, and Path1 (UMC Church Planting)

Connect Partners: One key component in being able to start more and healthier churches is partner churches. Whether they provide some administrative support (fiscal agent, copying machine, etc.), financial support, meeting space, or serve in some capacity to “mother” a new congregation, partner churches give new churches a much higher probability of success. Twenty churches are already involved or interested in partnering with projects.

Send Passionate Disciples: The development of each new project involves months of collaboration and conversation among many partners, all centered on prayerfully considering whether this is the right planter(s), in the right place, at the right time. Once a viable strategy has been developed, the full Congregational Development Committee makes the decision regarding funding, pending appointment and approval of the Cabinet. At the beginning of a project and once annually afterward, stakeholders will meet to develop mutually agreed upon goals and reporting, which will then be used to periodically evaluate the success of the project and its funding going forward.

Church Vitality

The Church Vitality Team is focused on increasing the health and vitality of each church in the Tennessee Conference. We are using a variety of approaches in these efforts, including Healthy Congregations, Spiritual Leadership Incorporated (SLI), Strengthening the Black Church for the 21st Century (SBC21), 72+U, resources from the Evangelism Committee, DiSC assessments, and Natural Church Development (NCD). Dozens of churches across the Conference are already involved in one of these processes. If your church is interested in engaging in a process for revitalization, please contact your District Superintendent or the Conference Office.

We also award grants to churches who are seeking to engage in innovative ministries that will better enable them to connect to their communities. Over the past year, we have awarded grants to Young People's Ministry for the Small Church Youth Ministry Initiative, Key Memorial UMC in Murfreesboro to enable them to host Project Transformation this summer, Nashville District for churches to participate in SLI, Centertown UMC for a revitalization project, and Tracy City First UMC for youth outreach.

We continue to offer the MissionInsite demographics service for all churches in the Tennessee Conference. This is an amazing resource to help church leaders learn more about their communities, plan and strategize for outreach, and set new vision or direction for ministry focus.

Disability Concerns Report for Annual Conference 2015

The Disability Concerns Committee continue to meet in person and via conference calls, which gives all of the committee members to attend. We continue to be a resource to the members of the Annual Conference in promoting disability awareness and activity. The Health and Welfare committee and Disability committee are now meeting together to be sure there is a coordinated dialogue between the two since many concerns overlap these two entities. The Disability and Health committees still have separate budgets and agendas and concerns but the personnel resources are complementary. It should be noted that not only are there monies in the Conference Budget supported by Disability Sunday offerings, a portion of the Golden Cross offering is also designated to these committees for their work as well.

The committee is anxious for all districts to provide persons to serve on this committee to represent their respective parts of the Annual Conference. Budget requests for the coming year have already been processed and approved and grant applications will be available at the Annual Conference joint display table for Health and Welfare and Disability Concerns. Healthy snacks will also be available. There will also be a first aid station available in case of need. The applications have been "tweaked" in order to be more user friendly and hopefully will be available as an online editable PDF file and will have the ability to sign the application online to help shorten the time frame for processing applications. Grant receipts include $1500 to Woodlawn UMC and $541.86 to Cedar Crest Camp. The Health and Welfare Conference Committee also contributed $525.26 to increase accessibility for campers with special needs.

Any questions concerning these issues or other questions, can be forwarded to Rev. Merrilee Wineinger at the Conference Office for action by the committee. God Bless and thanks for your support of the efforts of the committee on behalf of these concerns of our Conference.

Respectfully,
Rev. Dr. Ted Hill
Chair Tennessee Conference Disability Concerns Committee

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

The Commission on Equitable Compensation has worked to establish a minimum standard of compensation for appointed clergy. We strive to ensure that each pastor of the Annual Conference will receive a fair and just compensation for his/her full-time professional services in devotion to the Lord. We are guided in these efforts by the Book of Discipline (2012) and the policies established by the Conference.

We recommend the following to the conference for action:

I. MINIMUM COMPENSATION LEVELS:

The commission recommends the following minimum compensation levels for 2015-16. Please note that “compensation” includes salary, utilities, and any other benefit paid by the local church. It does not include housing, which is the obligation of the charge, ¶252.4e (2012). Also note that this does not include the local church’s fund for reimbursement to pastors for expenses incurred in the fulfillment of their professional responsibilities. This reimbursement account is not to come from the pastor’s salary ¶ 627 (2012).

Full Conference, Provisional and Commissioned Members:	$38,246	$39,393
Associate Members:	$34,714	$35,755

II. QUALIFICATION PROCESS FOR EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

To qualify for an Equitable Compensation Grant, a charge must submit an application to the Commission on Equitable Compensation through their District Superintendent. The application will explain in detail why conference funds should be used for this charge or person, and what efforts have been made to raise the funds needed to pay the pastor’s salary. Additionally the application must explain the goals for the charge and pastor, and how it is engaging in its mission field. The following four items must be attached to the application:

1. Proposed 2016 compensation for the pastor, including Equitable Compensation Grant and housing.
2. Printout of most recent full year Table 2.
3. Charge or church budgets for the most recent year
4. Balance of all funds on hand, including operating, reserve and endowment funds.

The application must be signed by the SPRC or Council Chair and District Superintendent.

III. 2015 APPORTIONMENT REQUEST: $ 233,000

At the date of this submission the appointments for 2015-16 have not been finalized. Therefore, the Commission on Equitable Compensation will meet with the Bishop and Cabinet during the spring to determine the amount that will be awarded to various charges from this budgeted amount based on justified need and availability of funds.

IV. Arrearage Policy

According to The Book of Discipline (2012), ¶¶624.1-.2 and 625.2d the Commission on Equitable Compensation is to submit “an arrearage policy to be adopted by the annual conference”. This policy is to address the situation where a church is slow or unable to pay the agreed upon compensation of its pastor. Attached to this report is the Arrearage Policy that was approved by the Annual Conference in June 2014.

Respectfully Submitted,
George L. Jensen, Chair

Tennessee Conference Arrearage Policy

1. In the event the local church treasurer becomes aware that the church will be unable to provide to the pastor full payment of a regularly scheduled payroll or housing allowance installment, the church treasurer shall immediately notify both verbally (within 24 hours) and in writing (within 3 days) the Pastor, the Lay Leader, and the Chairs of S/PPRC, Finance, Trustees, and the Administrative/Church Council of the impending arrearage. Upon receipt of such notice, the Chair of S/PPRC and/or the Pastor shall immediately (within 3 days) notify the District Superintendent of the impending arrearage.

If the pastor does not receive an agreed upon payment and does not receive written notice from the local church treasurer required above, the pastor may initiate this process by notifying the District Superintendent within 30 days of the missed payment.

It is the pastor's responsibility to keep copies of all such written notifications, and to provide additional written confirmation (see #8 below) to the District Superintendent when an arrearage has taken place. Failure to document salary or benefit arrearages may result in a loss of compensation and/or forfeiture of benefits.

2. Upon receipt of notice of a pending arrearage, the Chair of S/PPRC shall immediately (within 3 days) call a meeting of the Pastor, Lay Leader, and Chairs of Finance, Trustees, the Administrative/Church Council, and the District Superintendent to discuss the financial situation and seek remedies to prevent an arrearage from occurring.

Such remedies might include:

- a. Drawing from invested funds, including short-term borrowing from designated funds.
- b. An emergency appeal for special giving from the congregation.
- c. Emergency grants or loans from the District or Conference.

According to The Book of Discipline ¶624.1, such remedies cannot include a reduction in the Pastor's compensation until the beginning of the next Conference year.

3. If, after consultation among the Lay Leader and Chairs of S/PPRC, Finance, Trustees, the Administrative/Church Council, and District Superintendent, it becomes apparent that the church may be facing a long term financial crisis, the Chair of S/PPRC shall notify in writing the Pastor and District Superintendent that:

- a. An Equitable Compensation Subsidy Grant may be necessary to maintain compensation for the remainder of the Conference year, or
- b. A change in pastoral compensation or appointment may be necessary at the beginning of the following Conference year.

4. If the local church becomes delinquent in the pastor's compensation (i.e. more than 30 days delinquent), then the District Superintendent shall notify the Commission on Equitable Compensation, which on its own initiative may do any or all of the following, but not limited to:

- a. Sending a representative from CEC to meet with the local church and pastor to seek resolution of the issue, and
- b. Developing with the local church a payment plan so that the pastor receives full payment of compensation by the end of the conference year.

The District Superintendent shall be invited to participate in this process.

5. If the local church is already receiving a subsidy grant from the Commission on Equitable Compensation, the Commission may also:

- a. Examine the original subsidy grant application to determine if the amount requested to meet minimum compensation was reduced,
- b. Require an outside audit of all church funds in compliance with GCFA Guidelines (www.gcfa.org), and
- c. Notify the District Superintendent of its findings and recommendations in writing.

6. ¶ 2542.1 of The Book of Discipline (2012) makes clear that no real property on which a church building or parsonage is located shall be mortgaged to pay for the current or budgeted expenses of a local church (including arrearages), nor shall the principal proceeds of a sale of any such property be so used. This provision shall apply alike to unincorporated and incorporated local churches.

7. In extreme and unresolved circumstances, the local church and/or pastor may petition a session of the annual conference, following proper procedures, for assistance in payment of the arrearage not to exceed the minimum conference compensation standards. However, it is the responsibility of the local church to provide a minimum compensation for its appointed clergy (¶624).

8. It is the responsibility of the pastor to provide evidence of an arrearage by providing documentation such as: Treasurer's Reports, Charge Conference reports of adopted salary and compensation, check stubs, W-2 forms, and a Certification of Payment Form signed by the Pastor, S/PPRC Chair, Trustee Chair, Treasurer and Administrative/Church Council Chair. If such persons are not making themselves available to sign, the information will be provided with the signature of the Pastor and the District Superintendent.

9. The statute of limitations for filing a claim for funds from the Annual Conference (i.e. notification to the District Superintendent of the arrearage) for any salary arrearage is one year from the date of the initial arrearage. Once an appointment ends the Pastor no longer has claim on the local church for compensation funds (¶342.4).

Golden Cross Foundation

Report to 2015 Tennessee Annual Conference

The establishment of the Golden Cross Foundation was approved by Tennessee Annual Conference action on June 12, 2012. The purpose of Golden Cross Foundation is to fund expansion of older adult ministries and services in the Tennessee Conference. The Foundation provides funding and strategic direction while the implementation is provided by the Adult/Older Adult Committee and the Conference Council on Connectional Ministries.

The Golden Cross Foundation is an extension ministry of the Tennessee Annual Conference. The charter, by-laws and the election of board members is approved by the Tennessee Annual Conference.

Initial funding came from the McKendree Village Foundation, which has made a gift of $50,000. The McKendree Foundation matches all gifts to the Golden Cross Foundation dollar for dollar to an additional $50,000. The endowment fund of the Golden Cross Foundation is held by the United Methodist Foundation for the Memphis and Tennessee Conferences.

The first official meeting of the Golden Cross Foundation Board of Directors was held on May 6, 2013. The Charter and By-laws were approved at the May meeting.

The Golden Cross Foundation does not receive any apportionment dollars from the Tennessee Annual Conference. The Golden Cross Foundation receives funding through the Golden Cross Sunday offering. By action of the 2012 Annual Conference, the Golden Cross Sunday offering will be disbursed to the Golden Cross Foundation (75%) and to the Health and Welfare Committee (25%) for ministries to those with disabilities. The Golden Cross Foundation solicits and receives individual gifts.

In 2014, the Golden Cross Foundation has funded training programs to establish and expand older adult ministries at the conference and local church level. The Golden Cross Foundation has provided a grant to Wings of Hope, Inc., a ministry based in Winchester, TN, to minister to widows both in Franklin County and in other counties within the Tennessee Conference. The Golden Cross Foundation has also provided a grant for a community feeding ministry for older adults through Gordon Memorial United Methodist Church in Nashville, TN.

Golden Cross Foundation Report to TAC Tuesday June 9 2:15 PM)

Good afternoon, My Name is Charles Hewgley. I am chairperson of the Golden Cross Foundation Board of Directors. I am also an active layperson at Belmont UMC in Nashville. Bishop McAlilly, we come today to say that the Golden Cross Foundation is here to assist Tennessee Annual Conference congregations in offering Christ to a hurting world—especially the world of hurting older adults. In a moment I will share specifically how the Golden Cross Foundation has been reaching hurting older adults in the conference during the past year. First I want to share briefly information about the Golden Cross Foundation. The authorizing resolution for the Golden Cross Foundation was approved by Tennessee Annual Conference action on June 12, 2012. The Foundation began in May, 2013. The purpose of Golden Cross Foundation is to fund expansion of older adult ministries and services in the Tennessee Conference. The Foundation does not do program or minister directly to Older Adults. The Foundation provides funding and strategic direction. We work in partnership with the Adult/Older Adult Committee and the Conference Council on Connectional Ministries to expand older adult ministries.

Also we are proud that the Golden Cross Foundation is an extension ministry of the Tennessee Annual Conference. Our charter, by-laws and the election of board members is approved by the Tennessee Annual Conference. Even though the Foundation is an extension ministry of the Conference, we are self-funded with no apportionment to local congregations. We receive financial support from individuals, grants, and groups interested in serving the needs of older adults.

The Golden Cross Foundation provides financial grants to congregations, districts and the conference to meet the challenges of Older Adults for spiritual growth, health, fellowship, transportation and the list grows.... With some exceptions these grants are all matching grants in order that more ministries can be funded.

This year we have provided grants to the Tennessee Annual Conference Adult/Older Adult Committee for Training and Spiritual Growth for Conference Older Adults.

Now I want to share how three local churches with grants from our Foundation are offering Christ to the hurting world of older adults in their communities and across this conference.

First, Gordon Memorial UMC through the Best Years Club ministers to disadvantaged elderly in their community. Each Tuesday the church bus picks up neighborhood residents and brings them to the church. Some 30 people are served each week. These persons gather for exercise, nourishment through breakfast, a mid morning snack, a wholesome hot lunch and to go containers to take food home. They also have time of fellowship through games and the prizes are useful items for home use. Prior to lunch is a worship service with singing, praying and inspirational message. Promptly at 1 PM the bus arrives to take people home. Our foundation is so proud to partner with Gordon Memorial on this ministry to their neighborhood. (Would persons from Gordon Memorial, please stand so we can recognize your service to God's hurting world.)

At First United Methodist Church in Winchester, a member Pat Brandenstein saw a need to assist widows and widowers in the transition after the death of a spouse. With support from the church, Wings of HOPE was born. It is a bible centered program to assist those who have lost a spouse through death, divorce, desertion or imprisonment. Wings of Hope have chapters in Franklin and Cheatham Counties. We are proud to support Wings of Hope through a grant so chapters can be created across the conference. (Would persons from Winchester First Church and Wings of Hope, please stand so we can recognize your service to God's hurting world.)

Finally, the Foundation has just made a grant to the New Providence Church in the Clarksville District. The need is for handicap accessible restrooms in the church. The Church was losing worship attendees because the elderly in their church with walkers and wheelchairs could not access the facilities and would just stay home. This grant will enable the 12% of their older adults who need accessible restrooms to return to church. With the growing population of older adults in all of our churches, this will be a growing need. (Would persons from New Providence, please stand so we can recognize your service to God's hurting world.)

With your help there is no limit to what the Golden Cross Foundation can do to assist local churches in expanding their older adult ministries.

Here's how you can help the Golden Cross Foundation

- ❖ Observe the Golden Cross Offering on Mother's Day or another Sunday of your choosing
- ❖ Give personally by going to the website goldencrossfoundation.org and giving online
- ❖ Expand your church's Older Adult ministry to those outside your church who may be alone and hurting
- ❖ Have a program about the Golden Cross Foundation in Sunday School or Wednesday night. We will be happy to come to your church.

Lastly, Will you pray for this ministry? The Golden Cross Foundation needs your prayers that this ministry might grow to offer Jesus Christ to a hurting world, one neighborhood at a time.

Now Bishop, I would like to introduce our officers who are present today: Cliff Steeger; Vice Chairperson and Finance Chair; Newtonia Coleman; Secretary; Glenda Head, Treasurer, Rev. Jim Robinson, Vision Committee Chair; Kent McNish, Executive Director. And if other board members of the Golden Cross Foundation, would you please stand.

To conclude our report, Bishop, in accordance with our bylaws, the Board of Directors must be approved by the Annual Conference. With their names on the screen, Bishop I present these persons for approval by the Conference as board members of the Golden Cross Foundation. Now Bishop would you join me here for a special presentation by Kent McNish, who is also the Executive Director of the McKendree Village Foundation.

(Kent Makes presentation)

Health and Welfare Committee
Tennessee Conference of The United Methodist Church
Annual Conference Report
June 2015

The Health and Welfare Conference Committee assisted the Native American Ministries Committee with hosting a Health Fair at the Native American Indian Association (NAIA) Pow Wow, October 18, 2014. The Native American Ministries Committee provided free printed health information, for men, women and children, that addressed health needs specific to the Native American community. The Health and Welfare Committee provided blood pressure screenings and information about healthcare resources in the Tennessee area. Dr. Ted Hill provided medical oversight and Marie C. King, RN provided the blood pressure screenings.

Each Annual Conference, we continue to provide a First Aid Station. This is coordinated by Martha Wilson, Faith Community Nurse, Grace UMC.

The Health and Welfare Conference Committee continues to partner with the Disability Concerns Committee and the Committee of Church and Society on ministries and programs that overlap in the area of health, advocacy, and justice under the ministry heading of “Faith that Heals”. The main area of advocacy we have focused on during 2014 and 2015 is Insure Tennessee. Insure Tennessee is Governor Haslam’s health care plan that would offer health insurance for hundreds of thousands of Tennesseans who have limited or no options for health care. The plan would help military veterans, working families, and other Tennesseans while supporting our State’s rural hospitals and our health care system.

We continue in prayer, sharing ‘God’ stories, dialogue, and standing united to be a voice for justice in healthcare.

Respectfully Submitted,
Rev. Marie C. King Chairperson, Health and Welfare

Health Plan Committee

DID YOU NOTICE the increase in the funding requested for the 2016 Health Plan?
The 2014 Annual Conference approved $2,700,000 of apportionment funds for the 2015 Health Plan. This year the Annual Conference will be asked to approve $3, 350,000 for the 2016 Health Plan.

WHY THE INCREASE?

- 1) Each January the Health Plan Committee sets the new budget and the request for apportionment dollars using the actuarial estimates based on the real costs of the claims from the completed year and the history of claims use by our conference participants. For example, we met in January 2015 to set the 2016 budget and revising the 2015 budget to fit our actual claims reality.
- 2) The biggest single factor was a 24% increase in the actual cost of claims in 2014 for prescription drugs (both generic and specialty drugs). Over the same time period the rise in all other medical claims as only about 6.7%. The increase in these drug costs appears to be a function of changes in the drug industry rather than a sudden increase in utilization of prescription drugs by our clergy/participants. (See article, "High Cost of Generic Drugs: Implications for Patients and Policymakers",

New England Journal of Medicine 2014; 371:1859-1862 November 13, 2014DOI: 10.1056/NEJMp1408376)

Thus, we were faced with revising the 2015 health plan budget and setting the 2016 numbers upwards for prescription claims by an estimated 20% from the 2014 budget.

- 3) The second factor in this year's increase is the decision to include, for the first time, the clergy who are under  $\frac{3}{4}$  time appointments. The reasons for this move are a) to remain in compliance with the ACA, which defines full time employees as those working a minimum of 30 hrs/week; b) the precedent of covering  $\frac{3}{4}$  time appointed clergy coming from other Annual Conferences, including the Memphis Conference; and c) most importantly, the acknowledgment that clergy under a  $\frac{3}{4}$  time appointment work more than 30 hrs/week!

LET'S ADD MORE BACKGROUND INFO:

- 1) As a reminder, our Conference Health Plan is a self-funded plan whose third party administrator is UMR, a subsidiary of the large company United Health Care. We also purchase secondary insurance ("stop loss insurance) independent of UMR and UHC to protect us against catastrophic claims in any given year. On the other side of the equation, the monies not used by costs of claims (surplus) each year are kept by the TN Annual Conference as reserves. (If we were part of an insurance network, any annual surplus would be absorbed by the network.)
- 2) The projected costs of the health plan for 2016 are really $3,900,000, but roughly $500,000 of reserves will be used to cover the difference ($3,900,000 vs. $3,350,000).
- 3) The increase for 2016 seems great over the original apportioned funding of $2,700,000 for 2015. But here is a short review of the funding levels for the health plan from the recent past: $4,300,000 (2011); $3,650,000 (2012); $3,350,000 (2013); $3,000,000 (2014); $2,700,000 (2015).

REQUEST:

While it is difficult to compute changes in lifestyle toward more healthy living and actual costs of health care and prescription drug use in the short term, we do know that the physical, emotional and spiritual health of our clergy and their families and our laity are vitally important to the effectiveness of our ministry and mission in the name of Jesus Christ.

As leaders of your congregations, please explore ways to address the health and emotional / spiritual wellness of your pastor and your congregation. For starters, become familiar with a free set of resources: Center for Health (see website of General Board of Pensions and Health Benefits www.gbophb.org/cfh).

THANK YOU

As an annual conference, we owe a debt of gratitude for the breadth of health care expertise and ministry insight that the members of the committee bring to this work, and especially to Jim Allen and Melinda Parker who coordinate our efforts.

Ann Cover
Chair, Health Plan Committee

HISPANIC/LATINO ACADEMY FOR CHRISTIAN FORMATION AND CHURCH LEADERSHIP

Report to Tennessee Annual Conference 2015

For I am not ashamed of the gospel, because it is the power of God that brings salvation to everyone who believes ... Romans 1:16

This conference year 2014-15 has been a year in which this verse has been lived out through the conference vision of offering Christ to a hurting world, one neighborhood a time.

The Hispanic ministry in the conference has also been involved in the preaching of the gospel and we have seen people being saved by the power of God manifested through His church. This report is a witness to the transforming work of the Holy Spirit in our fellowships.

Lay Missionary Planting Network (LMPN) Path 1: Last year we reported that 18 people graduated from this program. As a follow up, this year, we have started two outreach efforts with two of these graduates. Estela Sanchez has been visiting the Hispanic community in Springfield, TN and with the help of FUMC they have a bible study every Friday and evangelism on the streets. The plans this year are to visit two additional days each week, and to expect more results. Ivett Gale has started visiting Cookeville FUMC food ministry, and is making new contacts with Hispanics that are already part of that outreach. The goal there is to get to know them, pray with them, and eventually start bible home groups so they come to salvation in Jesus Christ. We would also like to share the LMPN program this year in two areas of the conference. This time the facilitators will be these leaders that are working in the new projects and others that are helping their pastors in their local fellowships.

Center for Church Leadership MMC and H/L Academy training courses: We are excited to report that this year's Evangelism program exceeded our expectations. We expected 30-35 participants. Our actual participation was 50 Hispanics and 5 Anglos. Dr. Eddie Fox did an excellent job and everyone was pleased with the rich experience he brought to the training. Many of those participants are using their newly acquired skills to reach others in their neighborhoods with the good news.

Legal Issues, JfoN: With the new announcement from President Obama that 5 million people would be benefited from a two-year work permit, not only for the children that qualified, but also for their parents (DAPA), many people were excited. Currently, the initiative has stalled in Congress, but once this passes, we expect to do a lot of work in this legal area. We also want to do what we can to be in ministry with our Hispanic sisters and brothers of our community.

We want to thank The Reverend Joaquin Garcia for his coordination work in the next three areas of ministry:

Martin Methodist College: In the past six years of working in partnership with our United Methodist College, Martin Methodist, he has developed a recruitment program for Hispanic students coming from the United Methodist Hispanic Congregations in the Tennessee Conference. Sixteen students have been recruited, and nine students have already graduated.

Hispanics in M Div. programs: Six students from Hispanic United Methodist congregations have completed their Bachelor's Degree, and enrolled in the Masters of Divinity, seeking ordination. Three students enrolled at Vanderbilt Divinity School, one at Garrett Evangelical Seminary, who graduated in three years and has received an appointment in The United Methodist Church, and one at Drew School of Theology.

Course of Study: Nine Hispanic pastors have been licensed and are taking the Course of Studies at Garrett Evangelical Seminary, and all are now clergy voting members in the Tennessee Conference. Five have completed the five year Basic Course (20 courses), and plan to continue their theological education through the Advanced Course of Studies. Four are in the process to complete the Basic Course of Studies (COS).

72 + TU: This is the Spanish version of 72 + U, Rev. Enrique Hernandez has been working in the translation of the updated material and before Annual Conference will have a day of training for the pastors and lay leaders of the fellowships.

Youth work: Along with the TN Conf. Youth, Project Transformation, GBHEM and the National Plan on Hispanic ministry, we are working to include our youth in all the training opportunities there are both in and outside our Conference.

Hispanic Women Conference: At the filing of this report, we continue to plan for our women's retreat. We would like to thank COSROW for their financial support and St. Marks UMC in Murfreesboro for hosting the conference. We expect about 80 participants (including 20 children) and this time the theme will be "God's call for UMW" and they will learn more about the important work UMW are doing in the USA and other countries around the world.

Covenant with CAO: Here is part of the recommendations that Rev. Rickey Wade (Chair of the Committee on Hispanic Ministry and delegate from the Tennessee Annual Conference) makes in conjunction with the C.A.O. 2014.

1. Relationships should be strengthened such that churches will partner with churches. The partnership between districts is good, but direct communication between congregations would greatly strengthen our relationships and build a mission spirit within the covenant.
2. We should work harder to have mission teams from Mexico in our local areas. Missionaries from Mexico would bring a strong spirit to our churches.
3. We should invest in more teams to Mexico.
4. The delegate from Mexico and our Missionary from Mexico, should have full voting privileges at our Annual Conferences to the extent allowed by The Discipline.
5. We should have at least one meeting each year with the leadership of the three conferences in the covenant.

We thank everyone involved in this ministry, but above all to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, all honor, power and glory to Him, now and forever more.

Respectfully,

*Rickey Wade
Chair, Hispanic Ministries*

Enrique Hernández-Vigil Director, Hispanic/Latino Academy

LAY SERVANT MINISTRIES REPORT

Lay Servant Ministries continues to reach out to all laity of the United Methodist Church providing training to help them discern God's Call of ministry for their life; to help them find strength in community by connecting with others; to equip them through specific courses to answer that call; to send them out as ambassadors for Christ to a hurting world.

Tennessee Conference District Directors are actively working with their lay servants/lay speakers by reaching out to youth and adults encouraging them to find opportunities to go out into their communities seeking to make other disciples by sharing God's love and their resources with those in need, seeking to welcome and invite them to come and be part of the body of Christ. Spring & Fall Lay Servant Ministries Schools in districts and Retreats at Beersheba Springs Assembly and Cedar Crest Campground offer courses that train, equip and provide skills needed for spiritual growth and service. Times spent in fellowship and sharing together provide community. Led by the Holy Spirit the areas of service that Lay Servants/Lay Speakers are joyfully and enthusiastically serving in are:

- 72+U training and teaching, reaching out to all churches in their district
- Promoting "Imagine No Malaria" Campaign to help eliminate malaria
- Teaching Bible Studies in their homes
- Serving as Pulpit Supply & Supply Pastors
- Participating in Laity Revivals, Laity Sunday – providing leadership and history
- Teaching Sunday School, leading Bible Studies, serving in Leadership Roles in churches
- Involved in mission work both in their church, community, prison ministry, schools (Back Pack program), nursing homes and in mission fields wherever the need

I would like to express my gratitude to Clarksville District Director, Dr. Bruce Myers; Columbia District Director, Dianne Draper Holland; Cookeville District Director, Jackie Elliott, Murfreesboro District Director, Ruthan Patient; Nashville District Director, Carl Bud Whipple and Pulaski District Director, Sarah Matthews for their service and dedication to their youth and adult lay servants/lay speakers. Special thanks to the dedicated staff in the TN Conference Office of Connectional Ministries who supports us in every way making possible our ministry.

Betty Jo Forkner, TN Conference Director of Lay Servant Ministries

2015 Conference Lay Leader Report

The mission of the Nashville area is to discover, equip, connect and send lay and clergy leaders who shape congregations that offer Jesus Christ to a hurting world, one neighborhood at a time.

This past year the laity of the TN Conference have embraced the mission statement through the four areas of focus that we learned about during the 72+U training; Discover, Equip, Connect and Send.

Discover - We have discovered new leaders through Imagine No Malaria, 72+U and (a Partner Today church/school partnership) as we have listened and obeyed God's call to be involved.

Equip – the conference has provided many training opportunities for us to learn more about connecting mission and evangelism together. District Lay Leaders were provided “What is a Lay Leader” books to distribute to church Lay Leaders to increase their knowledge and effectiveness.

Connect - Increased opportunities by instituting a Lay Leadership Facebook page. The TNUMC web page now has a listing of District Lay Leaders & Lay Servant Ministry Directors and has updated info with tools to stir the imagination. It is one way of connecting our church with our neighborhoods saving lives physically and spiritually through Imagine No Malaria.

Send - Go in glory to God who is able to do far beyond all that we could ask for or imagine by His power in us – GO DO SOMETHING !!!!! Yes! May this be our motto as we offer Jesus Christ to a hurting world, one neighborhood at a time.

With Gratitude to God,
Holly Neal, Conference Lay Leader

McKendree Village Foundation Report 2015

The Tennessee Annual Conference has an affiliation with the McKendree Village Foundation. The McKendree Village Foundation has kept the promise of benevolent care to eligible McKendree residents through the extravagant generosity of its donors including the Tennessee Annual Conference.

The McKendree Village Foundation is self-sustaining receiving no funds from the Tennessee Annual Conference or from the Golden Cross Sunday offering. Funding for its mission comes from the income of the donor designated endowment for this purpose.

The current donor designated endowment for benevolent care is now approximately $5.1 million. Endowment is kept with the United Methodist Foundation for the Memphis and Tennessee Conferences.

The McKendree Village Foundation affirms our past-shared heritage with McKendree Village and the Tennessee Annual Conference and continues the benevolent commitment that the Tennessee Conference made over 50 years ago to eligible residents of McKendree Village.

Mercy and Mission, Committee 2015 Annual Conference Report

We as your Mercy and Mission committee are still praising God about the turn out for the hands on mission activity at Annual Conference last year. For the second year everyone seemed to have a good time as we prepared meals for Feed America First at the Tuesday dinner break. We packaged 8 tons of rice and beans to be distributed in Middle Tennessee and participants were able to take back a portion for the local churches hunger Ministries. We appreciate all those who gave of their time and resources to share God's love.

We also celebrate the first fruit offering at Annual Conference that kicked off a year long campaign to support Imagine No Malaria. Malaria is transmitted through the bite of a mosquito and is preventable, treatable and bearable. We are looking forward to celebrating at Annual Conference 2015 the campaign to raise $1,000,000.

In 2014 Mercy and Mission was asked to disperse a gift for mission that was given of just over $11,000. It was given through Advance Specials to support Missionaries in the United States and around the world and towards world hunger ministries as per the estate's wishes.

I thank all our churches for their support of mission work within the bounds of the Tennessee Annual Conference and around the world and ask that you support both Conference Advance Specials and General Church Advance Special. If you or your church is looking to support missions you can find all kinds of missions around the world and when you give to Advance Specials, 100% of that giving goes to that mission work or missionary for his or her work. If you need information about Advance Special please let myself, Reverend David Lay know and I would love to share with you about it. Outreach@tnumc.com

Through your generous apportionment giving to Connectional Ministries, we continued the commitments, of mostly small yearly grants through 2016, for the following ministries: Bethlehem Centers of Nashville, Brighter Days Ministries - Edgehill UMC, Carthage UMC Becomers Circle and Nutrition Outreach Program, Christ UMC Prison Ministry, Community Care Fellowship, Ebenezer Hispanic Ministry, Feed America First, Gallatin Cares Worship Center, Gallatin Shalom Zone, Interfaith Dental Clinic, Light in the Nations, Mountain TOP, Open Table, Project Transformation, Tennessee Justice for Neighbors, The Spot Teen Program, and UM Urban Ministries - Clarksville District. CAS's that don't receive grants are able to share through our conference news opportunities to support their ministries through service and financial gifts. In additional, as new ministries are born or find special needs of support, the team can provide a few small, one-time grants each year.

In addition we were able to provide 8 small scholarships for people to serve on a Volunteers in Mission trip, many for the 1st time. We provide scholarships quarterly, so contact us if someone is going on their 1st trip, is a young adult, or has a severe financial need. We plan to host UVMIM Team Leader trainings across the conference in 2015-2016 and find ways we can collaborate more among our churches so more people have the opportunity to serve.

In July 2014, we closed out our 2013 Flood/Storms disaster recovery, having at some level been able to help in one way or another approximately 150 families. Through TN Conference donations, $50,000 in UMCOR grants, and $58,000 in local area foundation grants, we have worked with several other organizations to provide emergency relief and recovery assistance. We provided cleanout volunteers (Disciples), school kits, case management, emergency financial assistance, gift cards for personal items, and furniture/home furnishings. Once more our plans to focus on preparation for new disasters was derailed by spring tornadoes in 2014, which affected many families in surrounding counties. Through TN Conference donations and $10,000 in UMCOR grants we were able to provide emergency relief. We covet your prayers for a quiet spring and summer so we can follow through with our vision to build local church and district capacity to provide relief and manage recovery in Jesus' name.

I personally want to thank those who serve on this committee for their time and input into our work and thank Angela Overstreet for what she does in the Tennessee Conference Office of Connectional Ministries that makes our work easier.

We publish a weekly Mercy, Mission, and Disaster email news blast, which features our Conference Advance Specials and other mission news from the conference and around the world. Send us your email address to Outreach@tnumc.com if you would like to receive it.

Rev. David Lay, Chair

Committee on Native American Ministries (CONAM)

Report to the TN Annual Conference per The Book of Discipline, ¶654.

The Committee on Native American Ministries is known as CONAM and will be the reference in this report. CONAM is chaired by Wes Bryan. Coordinator of Native American Ministries (per CONAM) is Mary T Newman. The committee is inclusive. Membership is approximately one half Native American heritage. We also have Pacific Islander, African American and Caucasian representation.

This past year was considered a blessing and a success. Although approximately 40 churches gave a monetary offering to the Native American Ministry Sunday, one of our six "Special Sunday Offerings", we count that as fruitful for God's Kingdom. The total was $6,863.00. One half of money received stays in the annual conference and one half is used for seminary scholarships and other educational endeavors.

Recognition and celebration of Native American Ministry Sunday is a challenge. On the church calendar year to follow Easter, it also is in the time frame of Golden Cross and Mother's Day. You will see our statements that it can be celebrated any time of the year. We acknowledge that there are individual churches with their own personal ministries with Native Americans. We gladly offer the resources, displays, and scheduling of speakers to all churches. CONAM has developed or gathered resources that are available to the local church. They can be used for services, study groups, youth and children groups, or as part of an ongoing opportunity for understanding through education.

Native Moccasins Rock is our annual weekend of learning. Gratefully, we received support from the Native American and Indigenous area of Global Ministries. 2014 was our 13th year. Our leadership is internationally and nationally known. Held every August, we will have an age span of babies to grannies. This is a very intergenerational event. There is a focus for children, youth and adults. There is a break out of sessions per the age group. Everyone comes together for speakers and the evenings of music and dance. We end with a powerful prayer circle. Tears of joys, sadness and lifting up of the ones who have crossed over. Native Moccasins Rock is based on fellowship and friendship. The members of CONAM share who we are in Christ, our connectional system of the UMC and celebrate opportunities to form relationships. Understanding through education remains one of our primary goals.

A relationship with the TN Health Department Faith Based Initiative Program was developed this year. This program reaches out through the local church and organizations to the community. They have realized that their work with ethnic groups is not up to standards and we were able to bring them into relationship with CONAM as we partnered with N.A.I.A., Native American Indian Association.

N.A.I.A. has the longest running charter with the state. We formed a relationship to sponsor a health fair at their powwow. This is the largest powwow in the state. If understood correctly, we are the first denomination to have this relationship. Their words are “someone always wants something for themselves”. Our reassurance was “we just want to share”. We were blessed with materials from the health department and materials from Indian Health.

We have dedicated committee members who have been committed to the work of CONAM. Individuals on the committee have personal ministries. Wes and Pat Bryan have contacts across the U.S. and during their travels, they plan stops at reservations and churches. They drop off school supplies and new coats, etc. We continue to send off crocheted or knitted stocking hats made by an ecumenical group from Hohenwald.

The TN CONAM is known as one of the top 5 strongest CONAMS in the U.S. Members of CONAM continue to participate nationally in leadership training opportunities. We are also blessed to be part of the leadership teaching teams for Native American Comprehensive Plan (NACP) and the Southeastern Jurisdictional Association for Native American Ministries (SEJANAM).

We continue to walk the red road of ministry. We have relationships within the Native American community and the secular community. Claiming Acts 17:26, we know that God as we know Him understood the concepts of tribes. If Jesus was, is and always will be a tribal man, how better to say, “we know a tribal man who would love to know you”.
Respectfully submitted by Mary T Newman

OLDER ADULT MINISTRIES REPORT TO 2015 ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Mission Statement

The purpose of the Tennessee Conference Older Adult Ministries is two-fold:

- To serve as a resource for growing and sustaining vital Older Adult ministries in the local church;
- To provide ministries for Older Adults in the Tennessee Conference that are inspirational, informative and missional.

Adopted March 2013

The Committee is composed of persons from the seven districts who serve as district representatives and at large members of the Committee. In addition, there are 4 Resource Leaders who enjoy working with older adults. Bettye P. Lewis, the CCOCM Director, is the Conference liaison for Older Adult Ministries.

The Committee members have a compassion for older adults and feel there is great need for conference-wide ministries, inspirational, informative and missional that speak to older adults who have given so much to the Church through the years. It is important to the older adults and to the Church to help them continue to live a fruitful and productive life and remain active and feel needed in their local church.

2015 Older Adult Leadership Development Training and Luncheon

On March 17, 2015 we celebrated with approximately 115 in attendance at the 3rd annual Leadership Development Training and Luncheon, held at Brentwood UMC. After hearing Bishop McAlilly speak last fall on becoming one of the 72, the Committee chose 72+U & Me as its theme for the meeting. The event began with music and Bettye P. Lewis giving a short meditation “Are You Ready?” Using the 4 key verbs in the Tennessee Memphis Conference Mission Statement – DISCOVER, EQUIP, CONNECT and SEND, the presenters told the attendees how to discover qualities of leadership for older adults, equip older adults for ministry, connect and lead older adults to grow closer to Jesus Christ and to send older adults to reach out in the community to offer Christ to a hurting world. The Presenters were Jim Robinson, Kent McNish, Susan Groseclose and Will Randolph. At this writing there has not been time to read all the evaluations, but a sampling of the evaluation results are:

“Excellent, Excellent, Excellent, Excellent, Excellent”

“This event is an outstanding effort to encourage us older adults to ‘keep going’”

“Good Music; Down to Earth; Easy to Follow; Loved the videos; Great Points; Excellent Resources”

“Well organized; Good length of time; So much for older adults to think about”

The meeting had a wonderful ending - a 1-2 minute excerpt from the DVD 72+U with the attendees hearing the booming voice of Bishop McAlilly saying “ARE YOU READY?...”

We are excited about other events that are planned for 2015:

Golden Cross Foundation

The GCF is an extension ministry of the conference for ongoing ministries and services with older adults. We are appreciative of the Golden Cross Foundation’s partial funding of some of the Conference leadership training events. A brochure, Expanding Older Adult Ministries in the Tennessee Annual Conference is available from the Golden Cross Foundation upon request. At every OAM Conference event, Kent McNish is asked to speak to the attendees about the work of the Foundation. We look forward to the opportunity for all the older adults in the conference to hear and see firsthand what the Golden Cross Foundation means to the older adults in this Conference.

Task Force Committee

At the January 24 meeting, the Committee voted to establish a Task Force to strategize ways to staff and financially support a center for older adults across the 7 districts of the TN Conference for the purpose of informing and educating churches regarding the older adult population in the Conference. This Task Force, the center and paid part-time staff person, would serve as an adjunct to the Conference Older Adult Committee. Nominated to serve on the Task Force from the OAM Committee were: Jim Robinson, Rick Gentzler, Susan Groseclose, Dickie Hinton, Bettye P. Lewis, Kent McNish and Shirley Vaughn, and from the Golden Cross Foundation, John Collett.

Older Adult Charge Conference Form

At the request of the Cabinet in the fall of 2014, the Older Adult Ministries Charge Conference Form was removed from the list of reports required by the local Church Charge Conference. Per their request, a revised Older Adult Ministries Charge Conference Form was emailed to all the OAM Coordinators and pastors in January, 2015, requesting the completed form to be returned in 10 days. At this writing, CCOCM has heard from fewer than 75 churches/coordinators across the conference. It is our hope that this form will again become a part of the local Church Charge Conference as it was originally designed, i.e., local church OA Ministries will report to the Charge Conference/Annual Conference just as other age level ministries, e.g., Children and Youth report.

In developing the form, the Committee reviewed models used by conferences in other jurisdictions and then drafted the form to fit the needs of the OA's in the TN Conference. Dr. Richard Gentzler, former Director, Center on Aging and Older Adult Ministries, GBOD, stated that many Annual Conferences request this type of reporting from Older Adult Ministries. The completion of this form by the churches is important for both the CCOCM and the Golden Cross Foundation. The data will be used to determine the areas where churches may be weak in ministering to older adults.

As the Committee makes plans for 2016, we will be looking for new ways of reaching more churches and older adult groups, creating an OAM Web page and in time developing a Conference OAM Newsletter.

It is a privilege for us to serve on the Conference Older Adult Ministries Committee.

BOARD OF PENSIONS

Most of our full-time active and retired clergy participate in defined benefit (DB, or traditional pension) plans. Our plans were funded by the Annual Conference and are administered by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits. The Tennessee Conference's retirement plans are projected to be funded at 107% - 112% in 2016.

The Annual Conference, this Board and their predecessors have been good stewards of the funds entrusted to us. As a result, the Tennessee Conference has pension reserves that should protect our retirees well into the future.

We are blessed that we can fund part of our current pension obligations from earnings on our reserves. For 2016, we have requested apportionment funding for approximately half of our current obligations. CFA has recommended, and we have agreed, to reduce that funding to $1,250,000, or approximately 38% of our anticipated expenses for 2016. The remaining 62% will be funded through withdrawals from the Conference's Pension reserves.

The 2016 Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan has been prepared and submitted to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits as required by the Book of Discipline (2012), ¶1506.6. We have sufficient projected revenues and reserves to fully fund all the Conference's benefit obligations for the foreseeable future.

Years ago, the Conference Board of Pensions set a goal to maintain our Pre-82 Plan past service rate (PSR) at a minimum of 1.0% of conference average compensation (CAC). We recommend a past service rate of $682 for pre-1982 service years for 2016. This represents a 1.5% increase over the 2015 rate ($672) and is 1.06% of the CAC.

Thanks to the organizational skills of Melinda Parker, Assistant Benefits Officer, the Board of Pensions hosted our annual Pre-Retirement Planning Seminar at the Conference Office February 26, 2015. All clergy who were eligible to retire in the next five years were invited to attend. We also hosted a quadrennial financial planning seminar for new clergy on September 29, 2014.

As a result of personnel changes in the Memphis Conference, our benefits staff began assisting that conference with pension issues and transactions last year (at their expense). We have received very positive feedback from clergy in the Memphis Conference for the services provided by Melinda Parker and Jim Allen. Melinda and Jim also organized a Pre-Retirement Planning Seminar in Jackson for their clergy on February 27, and provided support and retirement planning for their clergy.

REMINDERS

- 1) The General Board of Pension and Health Benefits offers a long term care plan and optional (additional) life insurance for qualified participants.
- 2) The Conference can provide grave markers for deceased United Methodist clergy. Requests should be made to the Office of Administrative Services.

REQUEST FOR ACTION BY ANNUAL CONFERENCE

1. The 2016 Tennessee Conference Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan.

2. A past service rate of $682 for pre-1982 service years, effective January 1, 2016.

Respectfully submitted,
Garland Honeycutt, Chair

2016 Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan

Summary: Sufficient funds have been apportioned, restricted or designated to fully fund all of our current obligations and accrued benefit liabilities at or above the 100% level.

General Conference 2012 agreed with a recommendation by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits (GBOPHB) that every annual conference should have a formal written and approved plan for funding its benefit-related liabilities. The Discipline, ¶1506.6 (2012). This expanded requirement grew out of the financial meltdown of 2008, that left many annual conferences unable to meet their current liabilities, and with no plan for covering their long term liabilities. We of the Tennessee Conference continue to benefit from the foresight that led us and our predecessors to raise the funds necessary to fund our pension plans fully, and to limit our health plan benefits for retirees to an amount that we could reasonably afford.

This 2016 Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan prepared by the Conference Treasurer is recommended to the Annual Conference for its approval. The full plan summary will be posted on the conference website in the Conference Administration tab, Conference Financials tab.

Defined Benefit Corridor Funding (comprised of Clergy Retirement Security Plan-Defined Benefit, and MPP Annuities): The Funded Ratio for Contributions for 2016 has been calculated by the GBOPHB to be 112% (up from 108% the prior year). Since this exceeds 100%, the Tennessee Conference has no current unfunded liability, and none is forecast for the foreseeable future.

Pre-82 Plan (Supplement One to CRSP): The PSR is set each year at an amount expected to exceed 1.0% of the Conference Average Compensation (CAC). Based on a PSR for 2016 of $682 (106% of CAC), the Pre-82 Plan will have a funded ratio of approximately 107%. Since this exceeds 100%, the Tennessee Conference has no current unfunded liability, and none is forecast for the foreseeable future.

Post-Retirement Medical Benefits are provided only to persons who are eligible and take full retirement at age 62, and continue only until those persons reach age 65. Assets set aside for this benefit exceed the liability by 20% (120% funded ratio). CFA has recommended drawing this reserve down to 100% through the 2016 budget.

Conference Health Plan (Active) is a self-funded plan. It was projected to receive 95% of its funding through apportionments in 2014, but because of higher than expected costs and claims, the Plan received only 92%, for a net loss of <$265,528>. That loss was funded through reserves accrued in previous years. In addition to paying current expenses each year, the Health Plan seeks to have reserves on hand equal to at least 25% annual expenses. Projected reserves for 2016 are 21%, down from 35% the previous year.

Other benefits: The Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) (for full-time clergy) and the UMPIP 403(b) retirement plan (for less-than-full-time clergy, and conference lay staff) are fully funded each year from a combination of Pension apportionments, and from reserves.

Project Transformation Tennessee

Launched in 2012 with the support of the Tennessee Annual Conference, Project Transformation Tennessee seeks to engage young adults in purposeful leadership and ministry, support underserved children and families, and connect churches to communities in need.

We praise God for Project Transformation's growing impact:

- 37 college-age young adults served internships with Project Transformation in 2014, representing 10 states and 22 college majors. Our interns served more than 17,400 hours while planning and implementing summer programs through local churches, exploring vocational ministry opportunities, and living in intentional Christian community. At the end of their service term with Project Transformation, 100 percent of interns reported that as a result of their PT experience, they would continue serving their community; 71 percent reported confidence in their knowledge of what vocational opportunities exist in ministry; 46 percent reported an increased understanding of how their faith is connected to their vocation; 46 percent reported a likelihood that they will pursue a ministry-related field after their PT experience; 23 percent reported a likelihood that they will pursue theological education, and 17 percent reported a likelihood that they will pursue ordained ministry.
- Of our graduated alumni, more than half are serving on staff at United Methodist churches or agencies; 14 percent have attended or are attending seminary; and 7 percent are serving in other service-related vocations.
- In 2014, 394 children and youth participated in our eight-week summer program that operated at five site churches in the Nashville area. Of these participants, 99.5 percent of children improved or maintained their reading level through our summer literacy program. Participants invested 4,704 hours in one-on-one reading with Conference and community volunteers. In partnership with Metro Action Commission, Project Transformation provided more than 14,823 meals to our participants. Other highlights for children (grades 1-6) included a Bible lesson, enriching art and wellness activities. Our youth program (grades 6-9) focused on team-building and leadership development, book clubs, a Bible study, and service projects.
- Project Transformation could not exist without our ministry partners. They read with our participants, serve meals to our interns, and fund our programs. Investing in these young lives are 700 volunteers from 46 partnering churches and 54 businesses and community organizations. We are grateful that 100 percent of volunteers said they had a positive experience at Project Transformation.

It is with great joy that we celebrate all that God already has done through Project Transformation Tennessee, and it is with great anticipation that we prayerfully look to the future, embracing new opportunities to grow and impact our community. Project Transformation Tennessee is expanding its reach for 2015.

Murfreesboro Satellite

In partnership with the Murfreesboro District of the United Methodist Church, Project Transformation Tennessee will launch our first satellite site in the Murfreesboro community in June 2015. Here, eight young adults will invest their summer to serve approximately 60 children with the support of church and community partners in Rutherford County.

Year-Round Program

With support from the Young Clergy Initiative of the United Methodist Church, Project Transformation Tennessee will expand its programs beyond summertime to serve our community January through December. As part of our year-round program, Project Transformation will engage nine young adults in a year-long experience of hands-on ministry exploration and leadership development. Working with local churches, these young adults will provide afterschool programming for approximately 75 children.

Responding to the ways in which God has moved during our three years of ministry, Project Transformation's Board of Directors continues to lead through a strategic growth plan. This summer, 46 young adults will grow as Christ-centered leaders as they explore ministry, live in intentional Christian community, and mentor more than 450 children and youth in underserved neighborhoods in the Tennessee Conference. As we continue to lean into God's growing vision for Project Transformation Tennessee, we invite your continued support of this transformative ministry.

2014-2015 CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

During the 2014-2015 conference year, the Board of Trustees disbursed monies that had been bequeathed to the Tennessee Conference of the United Methodist Church from two estates. We received a request from the Cookeville District Superintendent requesting funds to make improvements to the parsonage assigned to the Director of Campus Ministry at Tennessee Tech University. We were able to provide monies for those improvements (with the caveat that accessibility concerns are addressed) from the Anna Hensley Fund.

The Board of Trustees acted upon a gift to the Tennessee Conference from the Will of Ms. Marianna Meek. She requested that $22,842.24 be used by the conference for 1) Missionary support, 2) World Hunger, 3) Golden Cross, and 4) Children's Day Offering (Miriam's Promise). The Trustees made provisions to equally divide the bequest and send to the appropriate agencies within the Conference.

The Board of Trustees executed a Quit Claim Deed to Joelton Baptist Church for property that was formerly Barren Plains M.E. Church in Springfield, TN. This conveyance was authorized first by Annual Conference in 1983, and most recently by conference trustees in August 2013.

I would like to thank all of the members of the Board of Trustees for their continued presence, prayers, and service to the Tennessee Conference. I would also like to celebrate the life and legacy of Mr. William (Bill) Cloud, Jr. for his dedication to doing God's work as a member of the Board of Trustees. To God be the Glory!

UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION FOR THE MEMPHIS & TENNESSEE CONFERENCES

Dr. Philip D. Jamieson, President

"For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, whom we proclaimed among you, Silvanus and Timothy and I, was not 'Yes and No'; but in him it is always 'Yes.' For in him every one of God's promises is a 'Yes.' For this reason it is through him that we say the 'Amen', to the glory of God" (II Corinthians 1:19-20). It continues to be my privilege to serve the United Methodist Foundation for the Memphis and Tennessee Annual Conferences. This significant ministry in conjunction with the United Methodist Development Fund for Kentucky and Tennessee is helping further the work of God in our communities. And the most important way that we do that is to keep stewardship front and central to our life together in the Church. As a ministry connected to the United Methodist Church structure we take that ministry of stewardship very seriously. In particular, we are committed to being stewards of God's promises in Christ. We are committed to helping you help others embrace the reality of God's "yes" in Jesus.

The Foundation is here to help you make faithful responses to God's "yes". We do that in several important ways. First, we serve as a custodian for endowed funds on behalf of local churches and other United Methodist ministries. As of March 1, 2015, our holdings are $56,309,929. Last year, the fund grew by approximately 4%. We are able to help you secure current ministries and to reach out into the new places where Christ is calling you.

We help by means of the United Methodist Development Fund of Tennessee/Kentucky. Accepting investments from individuals, churches and organizations, we are able to loan money at a competitive rate to United Methodist churches and ministries for building projects. Currently, the Development Fund is loaning money at 4.5% and paying 1.75% to share holders. With $17,345,233 in assets, the Development Fund is ready to serve you.

Last year we launched a new initiative to help you help others embrace God's "yes". In 2014, 23 churches in the Tennessee and Memphis Annual Conferences took advantage of our Stewardship Grant Program. These churches said "yes" to the challenge to embrace best stewardship practices. In doing that, they became eligible for $1,000 grants. The program is continuing this year and we will make available over 50 $1,000 grants. Working with the Foundation, we will help you strengthen your stewardship practices in order to help the world better understand the glorious generosity of our Triune God.

If you have questions regarding the work and ministries of the Foundation, the Development Fund, or stewardship; if you would like to have one of us to come to preach and/or speak to a group in your church; or if you would like to learn more about ways to create and leave a financial legacy for your church or ministries, give us a call (615-259-2008) or visit our website at www.umfmtc.org.

TENNESSEE CONFERENCE OF UNITED METHODIST MEN

The Tennessee Conference of United Methodist Men in 2014 since our last Conference, has actively involved in the establishment of and revival of men's ministries across the conference. The Tennessee UM Men's key goals for this past year were to organize UM Men District Leadership, local unit development and the chartering and EMS (Every Man Shares) registration increases across our conference. Another benchmark, is to enhance our Scouting Ministry by identifying leadership for this very strong Ministry and continue to lead the way with our Disciple Bible Study of Men (DBOM), Big Brothers and Big Sisters and SOSA (Society of St. Andrews).

Leadership Development and Growth

The Tennessee Conference of United Methodist Men has had success this year in the continued development and growth of United Methodist Men's Local Units. Despite the lack of desired interaction and connection of District Units with the Conference team there is considerable stability and additional growth around or conference through our men's ministries. Our units are leading our Southeast Jurisdiction in the number of active units, continued charters and newly developed charters as well as men in our conference becoming EMS members. We thank God that He continues to touch the hearts of Men in our Conference through their extravagant care for others and our mission.

NACP (National Association Of Conference Presidents) Meeting

The NACP met in March in Nashville at the GBOD Denman Building and Conference Presidents from all Jurisdictions across Methodism met. The Tennessee Conference was well represented with Bill Bowen, TN Conference President, Ingram Howard, SEJ 3d Vice--President, Bob Cate, TN Conference Prayer Advocate, Rodney Diggs, Leadership team member and Nashville District UMM President, Gary Johnson, Murfreesboro District UMM President. This gathering of national presidents sets the agenda for the General Commission on United Methodist Men and shares connectively ideas and concerns. Dr. Bowen was appointed to the Board of Directors of the UMM Foundation.

Scouting As mentioned in our overview, the Tennessee Conference continues to seek a Conference Coordinator for our 5 District Coordinators. The ministry is still very active, strong and among the most effective across The Conference and Jurisdictions' United Methodist Churches

Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Middle Tennessee (BB/BS) and Amachi Programs

The Tennessee Conference continues to have an active program in these areas that serve several hundred children through the efforts of over 50 churches of which approximately 20 are United Methodist Churches. Ingram Howard and Cliff Steger serve as mentors and also serve on the Ambassador Board.

United Methodist Men's Life Membership Award

The Tennessee Conference of United Methodist Men last year at Annual Conference presented the prestigious Life Membership Award and pin to Minister Rodney Diggs, who is now in the process of completing his Doctorate in Divinity, serves on our Conference Leadership team, Nashville UMM District President and serves on the Ministerial staff at McKendree United Methodist Church, Nashville, Tennessee.

Charters and EMS (Legacy Builders and Circuit Riders) Enrollments

The Tennessee Conference has approximately 85 local churches chartered with local units and over 120 EMS Members along with 60 Legacy Builders and 5 Circuit Riders, our total membership still continues to be over 2,925 men.

Conclusion

The Tennessee Conference of United Methodist Men have planned an Annual meeting for the Fall and UMM Conference team is developing a "Prayer Advance" program that will involve men across our conference in fellowship, training and development. Please visit our display table along the corridor's and our website <https://sites.google.com/a/tnumc.com/tn---ummen/news> for up---dates and postings.

United Methodist Women Welcomed by GOD - Welcoming ALL

The United Methodist Women theme this year is "Welcomed by God – Welcoming All". Romans 15: 1-7 is the scripture this year and the song "Help Us Accept Each Other" from the UMH, p.560.

United Methodist Women has always been an organization of welcome. When women, children and youth around the world were treated as less than humans, members raised resources and their voices to bring a change. United Methodist Women members do understand the importance of welcome not only in their meetings, but also to every woman, no matter her culture, race, language or phase in life. The focus here will be on the positive act of hospitality of welcoming those whom we do not know well or who are newcomers. We all need to be more like Jesus.

We ask our Saviour Jesus Christ, to give us the grace and the love to stretch out our arms wide and embrace in His name all those whom we love and especially those persons with different abilities. Help us to be welcoming and accepting of all people as we learn to see an expression of Christ's presence in everyone and give us the courage to be lights of welcome in the darkness of exclusion, a voice of gentleness in the wilderness of the unheard, and an outstretched hand of love to those who long for community. Help us to share the good news of God's love through living out the PURPOSE of United Methodist Women.

Purpose: The organized unit of United Methodist Women shall be a community of women whose PURPOSE is to know God and to experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ; to develop a creative, supportive fellowship; and to expand concepts of mission through participation in the global ministries of the church.

We want to be a group of women who not only want to get to know each other in deep ways but who act on what we learn and our purpose. We need to examine our own actions and patterns and then act differently. The changes we make are different for each of us. Some of the changes are personal-perhaps recycling more, perhaps driving less or ridesharing more often, praying and reading the Bible every day, thinking differently about the strangers in our town or about how women are referenced in the news. Some of the changes we make will involve things that we do together. We make plans to reach out to new people and we experiment with new ways of learning to that our meetings are fresh and engaging. We come together to work on issues that are important to how women, children, and youth are equipped to flourish in the world today.

The TN Conference United Methodist Women goals for 2015 are:

1. Meet and/or exceed our pledge to mission
2. Increase our membership -especially with the younger women and to help revitalize and reactivate the inactive units.
3. Encourage all to meet the timelines and deadlines that are set.
4. Welcome all by both giving and receiving.

All of these programs involve so much more within each of them. Our social action items for 2015 are:

1. Immigration and civil rights
2. Humantrafficking
3. Domestic violence
4. Climate justice

One of the things that is complicated about bringing new knowledge and growing faith to the things that we do together is that those things have to be talked through. We need to invite others to journey with us and know that they too are in their own processes of learning and growing. As United Methodist Women, our pulse has been beating with love for women, children and youth around the world since God called us to this mission in 1869 and we are already working on our 150th Year Legacy. The love and fellowship at a United Methodist Women's meeting is like none other. It is written on each other's faces with smiles and cheerful eyes that light up the world.

All women are invited to join United Methodist Women and each United Methodist Church shall have a unit according to the Book of Discipline. We are an organization that thinks outside the box to get the job done. Our hearts are beating steady with faith, hope and love in action on behalf of women, children and youth as we "offer Christ to a hurting world".

In Sisterly love,

Margaret Boyd Fisher,
TN Conference President

Young People's Ministry

Youth Ministry (2014 Budget $20,000; 2015 Budget $21,200)*

The youth ministry of the Tennessee Conference seeks to encourage, engage, equip, empower and energize the local church, her youth ministry leaders, her pastors, and the youth to build sustainable ministries that connect youth to the life-changing message of Jesus Christ.

The Director of Young People's Ministry works closely with the Conference Council on Youth Ministry consisting of youth and youth ministry leaders from throughout the Tennessee Conference to accomplish its mission. The Director and CCYM help create opportunities for youth and their leaders to connect with others from throughout the Tennessee Conference and beyond. This is done through intentional planning, ministry development, leadership development, and serving in mission.

Encourage - (2014 Budget - $2,000; 2015 Budget -$2,000)

These funds are utilized to help create promotional information as well as connect youth and youth ministers to the information needed to know about upcoming ministry events. Additionally, this area provides funding for website development, video development and outreach to new ministry opportunities, partners, and congregations.

Engage - (2014 Budget - $3,000; 2015 Budget -$3,000)

This area helps provide funding for meetings, purchasing of resources and supplies for training opportunities at local churches as well as at conference events. This enables the ministry to have access to current research, youth ministry publications, and curriculum to enhance the knowledge base of the youth ministry leaders in the conference. The Director spends a large amount of time developing new training curriculum through utilizing current research on faith development, adolescent development, and leadership. These training areas are then provided to church leaders, youth ministers, parents and youth.

Equip - (2014 Budget - $7,000; 2015 Budget -$8,000)

This is the largest portion of the youth ministry budget. The youth ministry of the Tennessee Conference is actively involved in creating opportunities to equip all ages of the Body of Christ for ministry. These funds are used to develop current events such as Warmth In Winter, Summer Sizzler, Hands & Feet Mission Retreat, EMPOWER, God's Got Talent, and the CCYM Retreat. Additionally these funds help provide opportunities for national leaders in adolescent faith development to come and share their expertise with the conference ministry leaders.

Empowering youth and youth ministry leaders to lead is a core value of the youth ministry of the Tennessee Conference. These funds help support training and resources to help local churches build confidence in leading ministry to reach youth in their community and congregation. Youth serving on the CCYM, design teams, and the Youth Service Fund participate in training opportunities, leadership development, and missional outreach all supported by funds from this area of ministry.

Energize - (2014 Budget - $4,800; 2015 Budget -$5,000)

This funding helps provide resources for ministry innovation. Such innovation help develop the Smaller Church Youth Ministry Initiative (SCYMI). SCYMI has become a national model for ministry coaching, consulting, and training for youth ministry leaders from churches who worship 130 or less and are engaged in youth ministry. SCYMI focuses on developing youth ministries that have sustainable systems and structures, strong volunteer teams, a plan for discipleship development, an understanding of adolescence and effective teaching methods, leadership development, and missional excellence while encouraging connectional excellence

This initiative has been generously supported through grants from the TNUMC Congregational Development Committee and the GBOD Division on Ministry with Young People. The TNUMC Young People's Ministry contracts with Ministry Architects' Smaller Church Division for consulting, coaching and training.

The conference Director consults the District Superintendents to select at least two churches from their respective districts to participate in this year-long cohort. Each church commits the attendance of their pastor, their youth ministry leaders, and at least one other congregation member not involved in the youth ministry. The teams from the churches in the cohort attend a one-day training each quarter. Each ministry team participates in a monthly coaching call with the Ministry Architects consultant. The conference Director visits each church during their youth ministry gathering time to observe and consult on the implementation of the skills being taught at the one-day trainings. In 2013, 11 churches participated in the cohort. 10 of the 11 showed significant growth in their confidence for ministry with youth, their ministry plan, the participation of the congregation in their ministry, as well as the number of regular attending youth in their ministry. In 2014, 12 new churches are participating. Each has shown commitment to utilizing the skills and coaching provided during their training cohort.

As a result of the success of this model, 6 other United Methodist conferences have developed similar cohorts in their context. The TN Conference Director of Young People's Ministry has helped provide the framework and structure for these 6 conferences to build successful models for coaching, consulting and training with their congregations. Additionally, even more conferences have asked for consultation from the TN Conference Director about starting this model in their area.

Exciting things are happening across the conference in Youth Ministry. Ministries are growing stronger, becoming more connectional with each other and the conference, new ministries are being developed by churches without previous youth ministries, and youth ministry leaders are receiving and utilizing the most current research and training. Youth are hearing and responding to the call to ministry and to utilize their gifts for ministry in the Body of Christ. Ministries are being built that are creating disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. If you have specific questions about this ministry, please contact Brad Fiscus, Director of Young People's Ministry at 615-200-7976 or by email bfiscus@tnumc.com.

*The Youth Ministry works to stay inside its budget. We have an extremely active ministry that works to generate additional income to cover expenses through participation fees, t-shirt sales, and partnerships from other ministry resource groups. Warmth In Winter has grown to more than 2200 youth and adults. The budget for this event is approximately $160,000. Summer Sizzler has a budget of $38,000. Nearly 350 youth and adults participate in this weekend event at Beersheba Springs. The SCYMI program utilizes grant funded of nearly $15,000 along with $5,000 from the youth ministry budget to do this important area. We are grateful for all funding received.

Young Adult Ministry (2014 Budget $4,150; 2015 Budget $4,250)

The young adult ministry of the Tennessee Conference is working to provide opportunities for young people to continue their connectedness after graduation from high school. This is one of the most difficult age groups to reach and minister with. The needs of young adults are as diverse as they are enhanced by their life stage experience. For example, young adults are those who have just graduated from high school, those who are post high school in the workforce without college, those who are in college, those who have graduated college, they are single, they are single with children, they are married, they are married with children. Each of those listed life stages have specific and often very different needs requiring new and different methods of ministry. With that in mind, the young adult ministry seeks to partner with other ministries who are working to serve and minister with young adults. Ministries such as Project Transformation Tennessee, campus ministries like those at Martin Methodist College, our Wesley Fellowships and Foundations to name a few. Each serving groups of young adults with diverse abilities, diverse spirituality, diverse upbringings and diverse needs for healthy productive lives.

The funds in this area are used to provide ministry innovation grants for those ministries as well as other ministries in the conference. The funds in this area are utilized to help provide opportunities for conference leaders and local congregations to connect to the resources and training specifically created to address ministry with young adults. The funds are utilized to help provide a retreat in the summer for young adults to return to Beersheba Springs Assembly for a time of renewal, rest, and reconnection.

There is a great need in developing this area of ministry. This area could grow to become a source of new leadership development for the Tennessee Conference. This area could become a source of ministry innovation for the conference. This area could become a place that helps young people find their place and space to worship and grow as disciples of Jesus Christ. These are our goals; we appreciate the continued support for ministry received from the Tennessee Conference. If you should have questions about this ministry area, please contact Brad Fiscus, Director of Young People's Ministry, at 615-200-7976 or by email at bfiscus@tnumc.com.

Warmth in Winter – 2200

Summer Sizzler – 350

Nashville Shores - 450 at worship

Nashville Sounds - (estimate - 400 at worship)

MPOWER/God's Got Talent - 20-30

Smaller Church Youth Ministry Initiative - 23 churches from 7 districts (over 2 years)

Youth Worker Retreat - 20

Youth/Adult Lay Servant Retreat – 30

Over 5,000 people will be reached by conference youth ministry. That's a $4 per person investment.. Countless numbers of local ministries and churches that I have consulted with over the years

INTERNATIONAL, NATIONAL & JURISDICTIONAL REPORTS

AFRICA UNIVERSITY REPORT TO THE 2015 TENNESSEE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Africa University is blessed and privileged to celebrate a 100% investment in the Africa University Fund (AUF) apportionment by the Tennessee Conference in 2014.

Tennessee was one of 31 annual conferences—the highest number to date—to invest 100% of their asking in the AUF. We thank you for your prayers and for affirming the impact of this ministry by being consistent, faithful, and generous with your investment.

As you gather for the 2015 Tennessee Annual Conference, we pray that you will remain steadfast in your efforts to invest 100% of the asking to the Africa University Fund, and to other shared ministries, for years to come.

Thank you for embracing and journeying with Africa University in transforming individuals and communities and bringing new people into relationship with Jesus Christ.

Strategic Priorities: Professor Munashe Furusa took the helm in July 2014 as the fourth vice chancellor in the university's 23-year history. He was formally installed in March 2015 and has put fiscal accountability, student quality of life, and support for academics, at the top of his agenda. Under his leadership, the university is reviewing its academic programs and service delivery in order to enhance the students' potential for life-long success.

Student Enrollment: Full-time student enrollment at Africa University held steady in 2014 with 1,478 young men and women from 25 African countries. Female students were a record 53.4% of the total enrollment in a context where women consistently lag behind men in access to higher education.

Graduation: In June 2014, 480 young people were awarded degrees from Africa University at the 20th graduation ceremony, bringing to total number of alumni to just under 5,300. Without your support, a college education would have been unattainable for the majority of these students.

Training and Research: Africa University is addressing critical skills and capacity gaps in sub-Saharan Africa. A collaboration with the Raoul Wallenberg Institute in Sweden supports a new master's degree program in Human Rights, Peace, and Development. Africa University is also preparing to launch its first PhD program, which links issues of Peace, Leadership, Governance, and Development, and targets policymakers.

Leadership and Service: Africa University graduates are answering the call to serve, heal, and uplift communities. Currently, more than a dozen graduates are helping 'the least of these' to experience God's love through service as Global Mission Fellows and missionaries in Africa, Europe, and Latin America.

Together, we give thanks to God for this Ebenezer moment (1 Samuel 7:12), founded in the generosity of local congregations in Tennessee and across the connection. But the work is not yet finished. For every individual who has been touched by the ministry that is Africa University, there are many others—tens of thousands, in fact—who are awaiting the miracle of an answered prayer.

Please continue to pray for Africa University.

Encourage your local church to become an annual scholarship donor.
Bring fellow leaders in your church or district together to explore the possibility of investing in an endowed scholarship which can support one student a year in perpetuity.

Remember to include Africa University in your will as you make your personal estate plans.

And thank you, Tennessee United Methodists, for your amazing outpouring of love and support. May God bless and keep you always in abundance.

BOSTON UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Dear Colleagues in the Tennessee Annual Conference:

Greetings in the Spirit of Jesus Christ! In this anniversary year, Boston University School of Theology (BUSTH) celebrates 175 years of seeking God, building knowledge, and equipping leaders for the church and society. We especially celebrate our students, alums, and church partners, with whom we seek to serve God as transforming leaders in a multitude of local and global communities.

BREAKING NEWS

- The Doctor of Ministry in Transformational Leadership is well underway with outstanding students and eager teachers. In its first year, the program has attracted two cohorts of students from three countries, eight faith traditions, and a variety of church, educational, health care, and other faith-based contexts.
- BUSTH celebrated art and creativity with four major art exhibits and receptions: James Crane's motive cartoons; Robin Miller's "African America in Art and Poetry"; John August Swanson's poster art; and Beth Neville's paintings.
- The STEWARDSHIP program, funded by a grant from the Lilly Endowment, is preparing students for stewardship of all of life, including spiritual, physical, and financial life.
- Raices Latinas, funded in part by the United Methodist Church Young Clergy Initiative, has begun! It invites and supports Latino/a young adults toward a life-giving journey in ministry. BUSTH also works closely with the UMC in leadership of the Hispanic Youth Leadership Academy. Both focus on education, mentoring, service learning, and spiritual formation.

MILESTONES

- 175 Years: The founders of BUSTH were abolitionists, pastors, and lay leaders who envisioned a school to carry the spiritually rich, socially transformative, leadership-forming legacy that centered their own lives. Our annual theme, Leading in Transformation, honors that vision and reflects on how to reshape it in response to changing social realities.
- Women in the World: This year, the Anna Howard Shaw Center celebrates 30 years of its Women in the World Conference, a witness to women's leadership in the church and a celebration of their brave, audacious ministries.

PARTNERING FOR TRANSFORMATION. Preparing students for ministry means meaningful partnerships with the local spiritual community.

- Partnering in transformational learning through courses in congregations with church leaders and students together.
- Serving the church through workshops and mutual projects, especially in church renewal, mission, and the cultivation of difficult conversations that enhance dignity and justice.
- Traveling across the globe through seminars where students engage with diverse cultures and traditions. In this year, students and faculty have explored the Arizona-Mexico Border, Israel and Palestine, Ephesus, and Mexico.

CELEBRATING JUSTICE: From Selma in 1965 to the Arizona-Mexico border and the streets of U.S. cities, we celebrate transformational leadership and explore paths to just peace.

- Retracing history by commemorating civil rights milestones with: Walter Fluker, Martin Luther King, Jr. Professor of Ethical Leadership; and a panel of alumni and faculty on “Selma at 50, Ferguson Today.”
- Moving forward to understand and build justice, engaging with Cornell William Brooks—BUSTH alumnus and President of the NAACP—and with our students, faculty, and alumni who seek to build justice in Boston, Ferguson, Hong Kong, Indonesia, Uganda, and beyond.

As we look back on the last year—and the last 175 years—we celebrate transformational leaders who have loved God and cared mightily for God’s world. Their living legacy gives us hope and courage for the future.

Blessings and gratitude,

Mary Elizabeth Moore, Dean

Candler School of Theology—2015 UMC Annual Conference Report

For 100 years, Candler School of Theology at Emory University has prepared real people to make a real difference in the real world. Since our founding in 1914, more than 10,000 students have graduated from Candler, where they have been shaped as Christian leaders who put faith and love into action, transforming the world in the name of Jesus Christ. Here, students are challenged academically, encouraged spiritually, and immersed in Christian service from the first day they arrive on campus. This unique approach ensures that our graduates are ready to serve wherever God leads.

One of 13 official seminaries of The United Methodist Church, Candler is grounded in the Christian faith and shaped by the Wesleyan tradition. We are one of seven graduate professional schools of Emory University, a top-tier research institution offering extensive resources and a rich context for study. Our location in the city of Atlanta offers a learning environment that reflects the highly diverse communities of the 21st century world. There is no better place for ministry preparation that addresses our major denominational priorities: developing leaders, starting and growing churches, ministry with the poor, and improving global health.

During the 2014-2015 academic year, Candler celebrated its Centennial, marking our 100th anniversary with a series of commemorative events highlighting memories of the past and visions for the future. The yearlong celebration began in the fall of 2014 with the dedication of the final phase of our new LEED-certified building and the premiere of Religion and Reason Joined: Candler at 100, a new book on our history. The commemoration continued through the spring of 2015 with guest lectures, exhibits, and “Prophetic Voices,” a major academic conference addressing the challenges and opportunities facing theology in the 21st century.

Not only has Candler expanded its physical space this year—we have expanded degree offerings as well. In response to the changing needs of the church, Candler introduced five new degrees to equip Christian leaders: the Doctor of Ministry, the Master of Religious Leadership, the Master of Religion and Public Life, and two dual degrees with social work and development practice.

Candler's student body reflects the diversity and breadth of the Christian faithful. Our enrollment stands at 447, with 320 seeking the Master of Divinity, 43 the Master of Theological Studies, 14 the Master of Religious Life, 20 the Master of Theology, 29 the Doctor of Ministry, 10 the Doctor of Theology, and 11 enrolled as Non-Degree students. The student body is 52 percent women, 35 percent people of color (U.S.), and the median age of the entering class is 27. Students represent 42 denominations, with nearly half identifying as United Methodist.

Candler draws considerable strength and inspiration from its relationship with The United Methodist Church. Our ability to fulfill our mission of educating faithful and creative leaders for the church's ministries in the world depends upon your support, gifts, and prayers. Thank you for the countless ways you advance this vital ministry in the life of our denomination. Visit us in person in Atlanta or online at candler.emory.edu to see firsthand how Candler prepares real people to make a real difference in the real world.

Annual Report from Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary

Greetings from Garrett-Evangelical!

Early in the calendar year, I met with various constituencies of Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary, including alums, faculty, staff, trustees, and students regarding their hopes and concerns for the school. As a result, we began the 2014-2015 academic year with the following priorities:

- To prepare and equip our graduates as public theologians,
- To nurture a more diverse community at Garrett-Evangelical so that the entire community develops cultural competency,
- To value and promote inclusivity at Garrett-Evangelical, and
- To construct a sustainable model for theological education.

Public Theology

This year we launched a Public Theology Lecture Series to help the Garrett-Evangelical community understand more about the intersection of theological perspectives and shared values held in the public arena as persons in ministry work with others toward the common good and the wellbeing of all persons and creation. The lecture series included:

- October 15, 2014: Rev. Janet Wolf, Director of Haley Farm and Nonviolent Organizing for the Children's Defense Fund, lectured on various Children's Defense Fund programs including restorative justice, mass incarceration, cradle to prison pipeline, and freedom schools.

- December 3, 2014: Dr. Mark Lewis Taylor, Maxwell M. Upton Professor of Theology and Culture at Princeton Theological Seminary considered structures of the global orders and everyday living which public theologians may claim to engage and where “the powers and principalities” are always in contestation in “public” life.

In the fall, we will offer a course, “Public Theology in the City,” taught by Dr. David Frenchak, former president of Seminary Consortium for Urban Pastoral Education (SCUPE). The class will collaborate with the mayor’s office in Evanston on an anti-violence initiative. Dr. Frenchak will also provide a Public Theology lecture this spring.

Cultural Competency & Inclusivity

As part of the commitment to nurturing a more diverse community, we welcomed a new Vice President for Academic Affairs, Dr. Luis R. Rivera, our first Latino Academic Dean. Our current ethnic/racial profile is:

- 20% black; 6% Asian; 3% Hispanic/Latino; and 54% White; 14% International
- More than 33 religious traditions, four continents, 15 countries and 36 states are represented in the student body
- 232 students are United Methodist with 25 additional students from other Pan-Methodist denominations
- 94 new students began their studies at Garrett-Evangelical this fall, raising total fall enrollment to 365 (FTE of 305)
- The average age of the entering Master of Divinity student is 31
- 52% of the study body is women

Consistent attention to issues of inclusivity, justice, and grace within the seminary setting are critical for preparing future leaders to enter an increasingly diverse world. To respond to these concerns, Garrett-Evangelical will offer a number of Circle of Trust conversations this spring for trustees, faculty, staff, and students. Our goals are: 1) to provide safe space to discuss difficult topics, 2) to reduce any gap between stated values and actual behavior, both personally for participants and institutionally; and 3) to update our 1997 statements of inclusivity.

Sustainable Theological Education

Garrett-Evangelical is beginning work on a Sustainable Theological Education Model for the school. We are guided by a commitment to generational stewardship of our resources and to maintaining a thriving seminary for the future. We will attend to the areas of business, academics programs, and external programs.

Our priority continues to be making seminary education affordable. To this end we award more than $2.5 million in scholarship aid to students each year and we lead all United Methodist seminaries in the Dollars for Scholars program with 45 recipients. In October, the seminary publicly launched The Final Lap of its $100 million Forging Our Future campaign, and announced that $88 million has been received to date. Much has already been accomplished, but more remains to be done (expanding the number of new leadership scholarships from 80 to

Thank you for your continued interest in our work. We are dedicated to serving The United Methodist Church and the church at large. For more information about Garrett-Evangelical and our work, I encourage you to visit our website, www.garrett.edu, and to visit us on campus.

Cordially,
Lallene J. Rector, President

About Us

Garrett-Evangelical is the result of the interweaving of three institutions:

- Garrett Biblical Institute, the first Methodist seminary in the Midwest, was established in 1853 by largely the same church people who founded Northwestern University.
- Chicago Training School, established in 1885, was an important force for women in ministry and for developing service agencies throughout Chicago. Chicago Training School merged with Garrett Biblical Institute in 1934.
- Evangelical Theological Seminary, located in Naperville and founded as a seminary of the Evangelical Church (later the Evangelical United Brethren) in 1873, joined with Garrett Theological Seminary in 1974 to form Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary.

ILIFF SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Rev. Dr. Thomas V. Wolfe, President and Chief Executive Officer

Greetings from the Iliff School of Theology in Denver, Colorado. We wish you blessings as together we continue the work of strengthening the Church and offering a compassionate presence to the World.

The Iliff School of Theology's commitment to the Wesleyan tradition of providing intellectually alive and spiritually grounded theological education for our students continues. From Tanzania to Texas, Denver to Delhi, Missouri to Mexico, Iliff students and graduates are holding constructive tension with the human condition as it is and courageously standing with those who seek justice.

This past year saw one of Iliff's largest enrollments since its founding by the United Methodist Church in 1892 - 333 students, 60% female and 40% male, 35% Methodist – all actively engaged in both the classroom and a host of ministry contexts. Some are leading congregations toward revitalization while others are doing ministry by establishing new forms of community.

Interest in online and hybrid classes continues to grow from across the nation in our Journey MDIV Program - one of the first to bring quality theological education online. As a concerted move by Iliff to reduce student debt and grow the ability of students to lead financially sound, engaged communities, many MDIV students are also participating in the Spiritually-Integrated Financial Resiliency Program, funded by a $250,000 grant from the Lilly Endowment.

We welcomed participants to our first Spanish-Speaking Local Pastors Licensing School hosted in partnership with the Rocky Mountain Conference and participated in healing events for commemoration of the Sand Creek Massacre. In addition, Iliff students participated in an immersion trip to Africa University and are planning an additional experience this year. We look forward to continuing these vital relationships.

Iliff created numerous events for area clergy and supporters. Via forums on leadership, policing, the role of faith in world events, and more, campus speakers included: Amy Goodman, Garry Kasparov, and the Rev. Dr. Rebecca Chopp, this year's Jameson Jones Preacher. Bridging theological education to new arenas was further cultivated through Iliff's Authentic Engagement™ Program with trainings for civic and non-profit groups. Our efforts were duly noted by McCormick Theological Seminary's Center for Faith and Service when we were named as one of the nation's "Seminaries That Change the World." We continue to look to the future with courageous theological imagination. We are grateful for our denominational connection.

Methodist Theological School in Ohio 2014-15 Report

Thank you for this opportunity to bring you an update from MTSO, where two members of the Tennessee Conference are preparing for ministry.

The care of creation

MTSO continues to seek opportunities to foster and encourage the care of creation. In January, we were the primary host for a multi-site Climate Conversation, jointly presented by the Theological Commons at MTSO and Ohio Interfaith Power and Light, a group offering a religious response to climate change. We also released a recent video sharing the story of Seminary Hill Farm and the ways it fits within the school's broader commitment to ecotheology. You'll find a link to the video at seminaryhillfarm.org. We invite you to download the high-definition video from its Vimeo page and share it in any context you believe will be constructive. We also would be happy to provide a speaker in person or via Skype to discuss this initiative.

Schooler Institute on Preaching

A very hands-on 2015 Schooler Institute on Preaching was led by Jorge Lockward, director of global praise for the General Board of Global Ministries of the United Methodist Church, and Valerie Bridgeman, recently appointed associate professor of homiletics and Hebrew Bible at MTSO. We were pleased to offer the wisdom of this dynamic duo to our students, alums and other participants.

Conference Candidacy Summits

We were pleased to be the host site of the West Ohio Conference's Candidacy Summits for those exploring ordination. MTSO provided our campus facilities for these two-day events, held in August and January. Among other activities, candidates participated in worship, mentoring and coffee with district leaders.

MTSO prepares Christian leaders for lives of lasting significance in service to the church and the world. In addition to the Master of Divinity degree, we offer master's degrees in counseling ministries, theological studies and practical theology, along with a Doctor of Ministry degree. We invite you to stay in touch with us at mtso.edu, on Facebook and @MTSOedu on Twitter.

Wesley Theological Seminary

At Wesley, we are a church-based seminary committed to multiplying the number of people who love God and love their neighbor locally, nationally and globally. Our degrees and programs – traditional and new alike – reflect our dedication to the Great Commandment and Great Commission. We ask you to pray for us, hold us accountable, and join us in this Kingdom work.

Equipping Faith Leaders through Degree Programs

In fall 2015, our new master of divinity curriculum launches. We thoroughly redesigned the M.Div. to prepare leaders for both church and society. This 81-hour degree offers flexibility and an excellent core curriculum focused on empowering passionate, mission-focused leaders.

Wesley also offers a 36-hour Master of Arts and a 60-hour Master of Theological Studies to equip those called to ordained deacon ministries or a wide range of ministries.

In our doctor of ministry program, we continue to offer the most practical and spiritually renewing tracks in theological education. These include leadership excellence, pastoral counseling, arts, and new mission-focused tracks. Wesley is accepting applications to two tracks based in Cambridge, England. These tracks, Transformative Leadership in Wesleyan Perspective and Creative Ministry for Church Renewal in a Changing World, are each limited to 20 students.

Wesley provides more than $2 million dollars annually in scholarships to our students thanks to the consistent support of graduates, congregations and friends of the seminary.

Talk to someone at (202) 885-8659 or admissions@wesleyseminary.edu about how Wesley's degree programs equip people to lead others to loving God and neighbor.

Providing Resources to Faith Communities and Leaders

Wesley's Lewis Center for Church Leadership continues to be the go-to resource for actionable best-practices for clergy and laity. The center's free Leading Ideas e-newsletter provides well-researched, discipleship-growing ideas to more than 15,000 people. Visit www.churchleadership.com for resources in: Taking Church to the Community, Doing Good Well, Funding Your Congregation's Vision, and Reaching New Disciples. Also, learn about the newest book by the Rev. Tom Berlin and the Rev. Dr. Lovett Weems Jr., High Yield: Seven Disciplines of the Fruitful Leader.

In early 2015, we developed the Institute for Community Engagement at Wesley Downtown to help the church turn itself inside-out. The institute encompasses the existing Urban Ministry Program and the Missional Church Program, which includes Heal the Sick, an initiative to congregations for public health work in their parishes.

The third component of the Institute for Community Engagement is Wesley's emerging Center for Public Theology. Under the leadership of Distinguished Professor of Public Theology, Mike McCurry, we are developing this center to provide churches and their leaders, and seminary students tools to help navigate the connection between faith and public policy.

The Luce Center for Arts and Religion remains the only seminary-based program uniting arts and theology. The center celebrated the 25th anniversary of the Dadian Gallery in late 2014.

Wesley faculty members are continually development resources to the faithful, including books by Drs. Carla Works, Deborah Sokolove, F. Douglas Powe Jr., Cedric Johnson, and Lovett H. Weems Jr.

Throughout the academic year, Wesley hosts Second Mondays – a series of lectures on campus and streaming live. This year we explored “Living Matthew 25 – Focusing on the Big Things.” In this chapter of Matthew's Gospel, Jesus challenges us to heal the sick, feed the hungry, and welcome the stranger. In their lectures, Wesley's faculty unlocked the Holy Scriptures and the church's history, traditions and theology to clarify these Gospel imperatives. These presentations are available at www.youtube.com/c/wesleyseminaryedu and via live stream at www.ustream.tv/channel/wesley-seminary. ## Young People's Ministry

Youth Ministry (2014 Budget $20,000; 2015 Budget $21,200)*

The youth ministry of the Tennessee Conference seeks to encourage, engage, equip, empower and energize the local church, her youth ministry leaders, her pastors, and the youth to build sustainable ministries that connect youth to the life-changing message of Jesus Christ.

The Director of Young People's Ministry works closely with the Conference Council on Youth Ministry consisting of youth and youth ministry leaders from throughout the Tennessee Conference to accomplish its mission. The Director and CCYM help create opportunities for youth and their leaders to connect with others from throughout the Tennessee Conference and beyond. This is done through intentional planning, ministry development, leadership development, and serving in mission.

Encourage - (2014 Budget - $2,000; 2015 Budget -$2,000)

These funds are utilized to help create promotional information as well as connect youth and youth ministers to the information needed to know about upcoming ministry events. Additionally, this area provides funding for website development, video development and outreach to new ministry opportunities, partners, and congregations.

Engage - (2014 Budget - $3,000; 2015 Budget -$3,000)

This area helps provide funding for meetings, purchasing of resources and supplies for training opportunities at local churches as well as at conference events. This enables the ministry to have access to current research, youth ministry publications, and curriculum to enhance the knowledge base of the youth ministry leaders in the conference. The Director spends a large amount of time developing new training curriculum through utilizing current research on faith development, adolescent development, and leadership. These training areas are then provided to church leaders, youth ministers, parents and youth.

Equip - (2014 Budget - $7,000; 2015 Budget -$8,000)

This is the largest portion of the youth ministry budget. The youth ministry of the Tennessee Conference is actively involved in creating opportunities to equip all ages of the Body of Christ for ministry. These funds are used to develop current events such as Warmth In Winter, Summer Sizzler, Hands & Feet Mission Retreat, EMPOWER, God's Got Talent, and the CCYM Retreat. Additionally these funds help provide opportunities for national leaders in adolescent faith development to come and share their expertise with the conference ministry leaders.

Empower - (2014 Budget - $3200; 2015 Budget -$3200)

Empowering youth and youth ministry leaders to lead is a core value of the youth ministry of the Tennessee Conference. These funds help support training and resources to help local churches build confidence in leading ministry to reach youth in their community and congregation. Youth serving on the CCYM, design teams, and the Youth Service Fund participate in training opportunities, leadership development, and missional outreach all supported by funds from this area of ministry.

Energize - (2014 Budget - $4,800; 2015 Budget -$5,000)

This funding helps provide resources for ministry innovation. Such innovation help develop the Smaller Church Youth Ministry Initiative (SCYMI). SCYMI has become a national model for ministry coaching, consulting, and training for youth ministry leaders from churches who worship 130 or less and are engaged in youth ministry. SCYMI focuses on developing youth ministries that have sustainable systems and structures, strong volunteer teams, a plan for discipleship development, an understanding of adolescence and effective teaching methods, leadership development, and missional excellence while encouraging connectional excellence.

This initiative has been generously supported through grants from the TNUMC Congregational Development Committee and the GBOD Division on Ministry with Young People. The TNUMC Young People's Ministry contracts with Ministry Architects' Smaller Church Division for consulting, coaching and training.

The conference Director consults the District Superintendents to select at least two churches from their respective districts to participate in this year-long cohort. Each church commits the attendance of their pastor, their youth ministry leaders, and at least one other congregation member not involved in the youth ministry. The teams from the churches in the cohort attend a one-day training each quarter. Each ministry team participates in a monthly coaching call with the Ministry Architects consultant. The conference Director visits each church during their youth ministry gathering time to observe and consult on the implementation of the skills being taught at the one-day trainings. In 2013, 11 churches participated in the cohort. 10 of the 11 showed significant growth in their confidence for ministry with youth, their ministry plan, the participation of the congregation in their ministry, as well as the number of regular attending youth in their ministry. In 2014, 12 new churches are participating. Each has shown commitment to utilizing the skills and coaching provided during their training cohort.

As a result of the success of this model, 6 other United Methodist conferences have developed similar cohorts in their context. The TN Conference Director of Young People's Ministry has helped provide the framework and structure for these 6 conferences to build successful models for coaching, consulting and training with their congregations. Additionally, even more conferences have asked for consultation from the TN Conference Director about starting this model in their area.

Exciting things are happening across the conference in Youth Ministry. Ministries are growing stronger, becoming more connectional with each other and the conference, new ministries are being developed by churches without previous youth ministries, and youth ministry leaders are receiving and utilizing the most current research and training. Youth are hearing and responding to the call to ministry and to utilize their gifts for ministry in the Body of Christ. Ministries are being built that are creating disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. If you have specific questions about this ministry, please contact Brad Fiscus, Director of Young People's Ministry at 615-200-7976 or by email bfiscus@tnumc.com.

*The Youth Ministry works to stay inside its budget. We have an extremely active ministry that works to generate additional income to cover expenses through participation fees, t-shirt sales, and partnerships from other ministry resource groups. Warmth In Winter has grown to more than

2200 youth and adults. The budget for this event is approximately $160,000. Summer Sizzler has a budget of $38,000. Nearly 350 youth and adults participate in this weekend event at Beersheba Springs. The SCYMI program utilizes grant funded of nearly $15,000 along with $5,000 from the youth ministry budget to do this important area. We are grateful for all funding received.

Young Adult Ministry (2014 Budget $4,150; 2015 Budget $4,250)

The young adult ministry of the Tennessee Conference is working to provide opportunities for young people to continue their connectedness after graduation from high school. This is one of the most difficult age groups to reach and minister with. The needs of young adults are as diverse as they are enhanced by their life stage experience. For example, young adults are those who have just graduated from high school, those who are post high school in the workforce without college, those who are in college, those who have graduated college, they are single, they are single with children, they are married, they are married with children. Each of those listed life stages have specific and often very different needs requiring new and different methods of ministry. With that in mind, the young adult ministry seeks to partner with other ministries who are working to serve and minister with young adults. Ministries such as Project Transformation Tennessee, campus ministries like those at Martin Methodist College, our Wesley Fellowships and Foundations to name a few. Each serving groups of young adults with diverse abilities, diverse spirituality, diverse upbringings and diverse needs for healthy productive lives.

The funds in this area are used to provide ministry innovation grants for those ministries as well as other ministries in the conference. The funds in this area are utilized to help provide opportunities for conference leaders and local congregations to connect to the resources and training specifically created to address ministry with young adults. The funds are utilized to help provide a retreat in the summer for young adults to return to Beersheba Springs Assembly for a time of renewal, rest, and reconnection.

There is a great need in developing this area of ministry. This area could grow to become a source of new leadership development for the Tennessee Conference. This area could become a source of ministry innovation for the conference. This area could become a place that helps young people find their place and space to worship and grow as disciples of Jesus Christ. These are our goals; we appreciate the continued support for ministry received from the Tennessee Conference. If you should have questions about this ministry area, please contact Brad Fiscus, Director of Young People's Ministry, at 615-200-7976 or by email at bfiscus@tnumc.com.

Warmth in Winter – 2200

Summer Sizzler – 350

Nashville Shores - 450 at worship

Nashville Sounds - (estimate - 400 at worship)

MPOWER/God's Got Talent - 20-30

Smaller Church Youth Ministry Initiative - 23 churches from 7 districts (over 2 years)

Youth Worker Retreat - 20

Youth/Adult Lay Servant Retreat – 30

Over 5,000 people will be reached by conference youth ministry. That's a $4 per person investment.. Countless numbers of local ministries and churches that I have consulted with over the years.

Brad Fiscus, Director of Young People's Ministry

Resolution #4 Moving Day for Pastors and Churches

Whereas Policy # 7 of the Standing Rules found on page 288 of the 2014 Journal was designed to alleviate confusion about moving day for pastors and churches and confusion about the annual start date for moving pastors in new appointments,

And whereas Policy # 7 of the Standing Rules has caused confusion, especially in years when there are five Tuesdays in the month of June,

And whereas The TN and Memphis Conferences are trying to align the appointment making process across the entire Nashville Area to fit the needs and calendars of both conferences,

Be it therefore resolved that Policy #7 of the Standing Rules be removed altogether.

Be it further resolved that the annual moving date shall be established annually by the bishop and cabinet.

Independent Auditors' Report

To the Council on Finance and Administration of the Tennessee Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Tennessee Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church (the "Conference") (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statements of financial position as of December 31, 2014 and 2013, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Tennessee Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church as of December 31, 2014 and 2013, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

TENNESSEE ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2014 and 2013

Note 1. Nature of Organization and Significant Accounting Policies

A. Nature of Organization

The Tennessee Annual Conference ("the Conference") is a regional body of The United Methodist Church comprised of the lay members, clergy, and 600+ churches in 42 counties in middle Tennessee. The Conference is primarily responsible for all the ministries that are jointly provided by and for the United Methodists in its geographic area. The Conference administers Conference operating and program funds that are received from churches, boards and agencies, and individuals of the Conference, in accordance with the budget and other directives of the Conference, the respective boards and agencies and donors.

B. Basis of Accounting

The financial statements have been prepared using the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

C. Financial Statement Presentation

The Conference follows the recommendations contained in the Presentation of Financial Statements, Not-For-Profit Entities topic of the FASS Accounting Standards Codification. Under those provisions, net assets and revenues, gains, and losses are classified based on the absence or existence and nature of donor-imposed restrictions as follows:

Unrestricted net assets - Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed stipulations.

Temporarily restricted net assets - Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that can be fulfilled by actions of the Conference pursuant to those stipulations or that expire by the passage of time.

Permanently restricted net assets - Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that may be maintained permanently by the Conference. Generally, the donors of such assets permit the Conference to use all or part of the income earned on the assets.

D. Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

E. Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Conference defines its cash, designated cash and cash equivalents to include cash on hand, demand deposits, and commercial paper and other investments with initial maturities of three months or less whether those amounts are unrestricted or restricted.

F. Investments

Investments in marketable securities with readily determinable fair values and all investments in debt securities are reported at their fair values in the statement of financial position. Unrealized gains and losses are included in changes in net assets. Investment income and gains restricted by a donor are reported as increases in unrestricted net assets if the restrictions are met in the reporting period in which the income and gains are recognized. However, if a donor contributes an investment required to be held in perpetuity, gains and losses on the investment are subject to the same permanent restriction unless the donor explicitly states otherwise.

G. Fair Value Measurements

The fair value of financial assets and liabilities is measured according to the Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures topic of the FASS Accounting Standards Codification. Fair value is required to be evaluated and adjusted according to the following valuation techniques.

Level 1 – Fair value is determined using quoted market prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities.

Level 2 – Fair value is determined using quoted market prices in active markets for similar assets and liabilities.

TENNESSEE ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE

Level 3 – Fair value is determined using unobservable market prices in a market that is typically inactive.

H. Income Taxes

I. Apportionments Receivable

Apportionments receivable represent apportionments received after year-end for the budget year ended December 31, 2014 and 2013. No allowance for doubtful collections has been recorded.

J. Fixed Assets

Fixed assets are carried at cost if purchased and fair market value if donated. Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, excluding land, which are 5 to 30 years. Depreciation expense for the year ended December 31, 2014 and 2013 was $215,753 and $219,095. Property and equipment include land, buildings, improvements, equipment, vehicles and furniture and fixtures at the following locations:

Conference Headquarters	Nashville, TN
Beersheba Springs Assembly	Beersheba Springs, TN
Cedar Crest Camp	Lyles, TN

K. Donated Services

Contributed services are reflected in the financial statements at the fair value of the services received only when those services either (a) create or enhance nonfinancial assets, or (b) require specialized skills that are provided by individuals possessing those skills and would typically need to be purchased if not provided by donation. Unpaid volunteers make contributions of time in various administrative and program functions. The Conference has not valued these donations.

L. Revenue and Support

Contributions are received and recorded as unrestricted, temporarily restricted, or permanently restricted support depending on the existence and/or nature of any donor restrictions. Contributions received and unconditional promises to give are measured at their fair values and are reported as an increase in net assets. The Conference reports restricted gifts of cash and other assets as support for future periods. When a donor restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions. Donor-restricted contributions whose restrictions are met in the same reporting period are reported as unrestricted support.

The primary source of support is Apportionments received from the local churches in the Conference. Apportionments expire at the end of each calendar year and, therefore, have been recorded as unrestricted support. Contributions and Other Revenue are primarily receipts by programs that have external sources of revenue such as registration fees or reimbursements.

M. Functional Allocation of Expenses

Expenses are charged directly to program, management and general, or fundraising based on a combination of specific identification and allocation by management.

N. Advertising Costs

Advertising costs are expensed as incurred and are included in program expense.

O. Reclassifications

Certain reclassifications have been made to the 2013 financial statements to conform to the 2014 presentation.

The Conference has $2,640,685 and $3,028,855 invested with the United Methodist Development Fund of Tennessee/Kentucky, Inc. (a related party) in unsecured participation accounts (see Note 2) as of December 31, 2014 and 2013.

Note 5. Related Party Transactions

The Conference is a related party to the United Methodist Foundation for the Memphis & Tennessee Conferences (the "Foundation") and the United Methodist Development Fund of Tennessee/Kentucky, Inc. (the "Fund"). The Conference pays routine expenses of the Foundation and Fund including salaries, retirement and insurance and is reimbursed by the Foundation. The total amount paid to the Conference by the Foundation and Fund for these routine expenses was $425,207 and $410,750 in 2014 and 2013 respectively. The Conference has investments with both the Foundation and the Fund (see Note 2).

The Foundation and Fund lease office space from the Conference for $1,399 per month. The lease expires June 1, 2016.

Note 6. Retirement Plans

The Conference provides pension benefits for clergy serving churches in the Tennessee Conference under Episcopal appointment, and full-time permanent staff of the Conference through various retirement plans. All plans are multi-employer plans administered by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits of The United Methodist Church ("GBOPHB"). GBOPHB operates under the authority of the church's General Conference, and implements the plans in accordance with the plan documents. Pension benefits for clergy are a combination of defined benefit and defined contribution plans. Pension benefits for Conference lay staff are all defined contribution plans. Total Conference contributions to all plans for the years ended December 31, 2014 and 2013 were $3,076,737 and $3,614,045. The various retirement plans are listed below:

TENNESSEE ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE

Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP):

CRSP is a multi-employer 403(b) retirement plan that provides pension coverage to eligible clergy. CRSP is both a defined benefit plan, which provides benefits based on years of credited service, and a defined contribution plan, which provides a retirement account balance established and funded by the Conference. Contributions to the defined benefit plan are actuarially determined and contributions to the defined contribution plan equal 3% of the clergy's monthly compensation.

Effective 1/1/2014, contributions to the defined benefit plan are actuarially determined and contributions to the defined contribution plan equal 2% of the clergy's compensation, plus a matching contribution of up to 1% of the clergy's compensation, for a maximum of 3%.

Supplement One to CRSP (Pre-1982):

Pre-1982 is a multi-employer 403(b) defined benefit plan for Conference clergy entering service prior to January 1, 1982. General Conference 2000 required each annual conference to adopt a formal funding plan to retire the conference pre-1982 pension obligations. The Conference's Pre-1982 plan has been fully funded since the mid-1990s. The Conference approves a minimum distribution (past service rate) each year for participants in the Pre-1982 plan, based on a recommendation by the Conference Board of Pensions. The PSR for the year ended December 31, 2014 and 2013 was $662 and $649 for pre-1982 service years, which is 1.07% and 1.05% of the Conference average compensation respectively.

United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP)

The UMPIP is a multi-employer 403(b) defined contribution plan providing eligible clergy and employees of the Conference with retirement savings. Conference employees and clergy may contribute up to the dollar limits set by current Internal Revenue Service regulations under both pre-tax and after-tax elections. The Conference makes no contributions to this plan for full-time clergy, who participate in CRSP. Effective 1/1/2014, the Conference contributes 12% of part-time clergy's compensation into UMPIP. The Conference matches non-clergy contributions of 3% or more of compensation with a fixed 12% matching contribution. No matching contribution is provided for employee contributions less than 3% of compensation.

Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP)

CPP is a multi-employer health and welfare plan that provides death and disability benefits as well as other supplemental benefits to eligible clergy and their beneficiaries. CPP is funded by the Conference at a rate of 3% of compensation.

Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP)

MPP covers clergy who served from 1982 through 2006. It is a multi-employer defined contribution plan, but differs from a true defined contribution plan in that upon retirement, participants must annuitize 65% of their account balances, and the Conference is responsible for funding the annuities should the need arise. Upon annuitization, the monthly benefit becomes a defined benefit.

Amounts designated for pension contributions that have been transferred to the legal title of the GBOPHB multi-employer plans are not included as net assets of the Conference. As of December 31, 2014 and 2013, the remaining GBOPHB multi-employer plans were valued as follows:

The Conference also has individual deferred compensation plans with former employees. The other investments and compensation payable accounts reflect the assets and liabilities of those total plans.

Note 7. Health Care Plan

The Conference sponsors the Tennessee Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc. Health Benefit Plan (HBP). The HBP is open to all eligible plan participants including clergy, full-time Conference staff, designated students who are part-time local pastors and their respective eligible dependents. The Conference director of administrative services is the plan administrator. The plan administrator uses a third-party administrator for processing claims and other duties but retains responsibility for benefits payable. The HBP is a self-funded plan paying covered benefits out of Conference assets. Plan participants help cover some costs of covered benefits through contributions, deductibles and out-of-pocket expenses. The Conference has been operating on a pay-as-you-go system. Conference payments to the HBP for the year ended December 31, 2014 and 2013 were $2,724,684 and $2,922,648.

Participation in the HBP can continue upon retirement under the Conference's formal retirement plan provided the participant makes required contributions to the plan. This coverage can continue until age 65 with stipulations. The Conference uses the fiscal year as the measurement date for its plan.

A liability (Unfunded Postretirement Healthcare Benefits) has been recognized representing the underfunded status of the Conference HBP in the amount of $1,638,339 and $1,563,533 as of December 31, 2014 and 2013 are as follows:

TENNESSEE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

THE BUSINESS OF THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE 2014

PART II PERTAINING TO ORDAINED AND LICENSED CLERGY

(Note: A (v) notation following a question in this section signifies that the action or election requires a majority vote of the clergy session of the annual conference. If an action requires more than a simple majority, the notation (v 2/3) or (v 3/4) signifies that a two-thirds or three-fourths majority vote is required. Indicate credential of persons in Part II: FD, FE, PD, PE, and AM when requested.)

17. Are all the clergy members of the conference blameless in their life and official administration (§§604.4, 605.6)?

The clergy of the Tennessee Conference all serve by the grace of God, and their ministries are appreciated. The character and conference relations of all clergy members have been reviewed by Bishop William T. McAlilly, the Cabinet, and the Board of Ordained Ministry. At this time in the Tennessee Annual Conference, there is one active complaint and related supervisory response underway seeking a just resolution. Otherwise, our clergy are in good standing. May God's grace forgive us when we sin, strengthen us in the face of our weaknesses, and perfect us in our role as servants of the gospel.

The Rev. Bryan L. Brooks, Chair
Tennessee Annual Conference Board of Ordained Ministry

Report of the Orders of Ministry Annual Conference, 2015

The past conference year has shown continued growth in the shared work of the Orders of Ministry and The Fellowship of Local Pastors and Associate Members. Along with our colleagues from the Memphis Conference, we have gathered to move forward on exploring and deepening our covenantal connection as Methodist clergy. We are grateful for the people of Buffalo UMC and Dickson UMC for providing us space to meet. We are also grateful for the guidance of Bishop Bill McAlilly, Reverend John Collett, and Reverend Tom Laney.

Under the guidance of Bishop Bill McAlilly, the combined Orders and Fellowships hosted a one day clergy gathering around covenant conversation. The event was held in both conferences; October 13, 2015 at Northside UMC in Jackson TN and October 14, 2015 at Brentwood UMC in Brentwood. Dr. Anne Burkholder was the convener for both days.

The large event planned for the Orders and Fellowship was a Spiritual Life Retreat entitled, “Creating Covenant Communities”. Leadership was provided by Dr. Anne Burkholder, Dr. Luther Smith, and Bishop Bill McAlilly. Dr. Burkholder is the Associate Dean of Methodist Studies and Professor in Practice of Ecclesiology and Church Leadership at Candler. Dr. Smith is Professor Emeritus of Church and Community at Candler School of Theology. The retreat was held at Montgomery Bell State Park from March 9-11, 2015. The Orders and Fellowship are grateful for the many volunteers who helped with this successful retreat.

The Orders and Fellowship, along with our colleagues from the Memphis conference have begun working toward the 2016 Spiritual Life Retreat. The retreat dates are March 17-20, 2016 at Montgomery Bell State Park. We covet the prayers of all clergy as we move toward those dates.

We are most appreciative of Bishop McAlilly’s leadership and support in this important work, as we live into our connection as Christian leaders called Methodist. The Orders and Fellowship will continue to live and work together in this covenantal manner. As Tom Laney encourages, “We are seeking to nurture the culture of covenant community.” It is our prayer all clergy will seek covenantal life with each other.
