East Congo Initiative

Angela Overstreet, Coordinator of Missional Engagement

I believe in a vibrant church. A church that believes that our neighbors are in neighborhoods around the globe.

If you will remember, at the 2013 Annual Conference, Bishop McAlilly challenged our annual conference and the Memphis Annual conference to raise $87,000 to build a bishop's residence (1) and conference offices for Bishop Gabriel Unda in the East Congo Annual Conference. Now Bishop McAlilly, in partnership with Bishop Unda, is asking the Nashville Episcopal area to support the construction of a women's center in the East Congo. The center will be not only for those women who have suffered physical and sexual violence in the war in the Congo but for all women. In Bishop Unda's words, "Women are the most vulnerable and dependent in our communities. But at the same time the burden of families lies on their shoulders. Our intention is to have a center where women can receive some training on small trades to be self-supporting. The land will be next to the bishop's residence and conference office. We will have a large piece of land where women can do other activities"

Two summers ago, in August 2014, a team travelled to the East Congo Annual Conference, at the invitation of Bishop Unda. According to Randy Cooper, the pastor at First UMC in Martin, "I haven't missed a single day of praying for the people I met on that pilgrimage. I now look at the world differently."

Bishop McAlilly believes the time has come to make another journey to the land where Bishop Unda lives and serves. In support of Bishop McAlilly's East Congo Initiative, and with the encouragement of John Collett and Joe Geary, Randy Cooper will lead a Nashville Area mission team to the East Congo Annual Conference in July 2017.

As many as twenty persons from across the Nashville Episcopal Area will travel to East Congo. We will meet United Methodist Christians and talk with them. For a few days, we will work alongside women, men and young people to help construct the women's center. We will travel to a few communities blessed by a United Methodist presence. When our travels are over, we will return to our churches and districts to spread the good news of all that God is doing there.

Since 2013, Martin First in the Memphis Conference has been the leader in the Nashville Episcopal Area for the East Congo Annual Conference. Martin First has raised much needed funding, built three churches, and provided scholarships for education. If we increase the number of churches who commit to this work, we will be able to multiply our support of our brothers and sisters in that land of beauty and poverty, a land of both suffering and hope.

The mission is open to clergy and laity. Our prayer is that some young adults will be a part of the team. Scholarships will be available for young adults who are eighteen or older. Please speak with John Collett, Joe Geary, Randy Cooper, or me if you wish to know more.

And before I leave you today, I want to most importantly share WHY we go. We do not go to bring God there; we go where God is already so that we may join Him in His work there. Thank you.

Lay Members were encouraged and mentored in how to share the workings of Annual Conference with their congregations, working closely with the pastor.

Plenary Session: Board of Ordained Ministry Report Bryan Brooks (text as follows)

Bishop McAlilly, members of the Tennessee and Memphis Conference cabinets, fellow members of the Annual Conference, and guests, I am Bryan Brooks, and I am the current chairperson of the Tennessee Board of Ordained Ministry.

This year, we have a lot to do but not a lot of extra time. So I propose we get right to business.

Deaconesses are professionally trained laywomen who have been led by the Holy Spirit to devote their lives to Christlike service under the authority of the Church. Today, we are pleased to welcome Deborah Byrd, who serves as the Church Coordinator at Andrew Price Memorial UMC in the Nashville District: and Jane Murray, who is out of Rehoboth UMC and serves as Executive Director of Gallatin C.A.R.E.S. They will be commissioned at worship tonight. We are pleased to recognize both of you. Today, I am pleased to recognize 19 candidates for ministry who will be licensed as local pastors for the first time at this conference. Their names will appear on the screen. As I read them, I invite these folks to stand, and we'll recognize them once I've named them all.

Next, I am very pleased to introduce to you this year's class of candidates to be commissioned tonight as provisional members of the Tennessee Conference. Their pictures will be displayed on the screen as they come forward.

- Stephanie Ann Dodge—deacon
- Mary Allison Fasig—deacon
- James H. Hendricks, Jr. —elder
- Merrilee Meehan Wineinger—deacon

Now, this is the traditional time for the Bishop to ask the historic questions of ordinands.

Each year, persons serving as Licensed Local Pastors pursue continuing pastoral education called the Course of Study. Once they have completed twenty courses, they are recognized as Course of Study graduates. This year we have eleven graduates to honor and present with their certificates.

The role of the Certified Lay Minister was created several years ago as an extension of the ministry of laypersons who felt called to particular needs within the church. They partner with a local church, the district committee on ordained ministry, and the district superintendent to craft a covenantal ministry in a specific setting. Today we have 4 new CLMs to recognize:

- Dianne Draper Holland
- Gloria Jones
- Cynthia McGowan
- Bill Wheeler

With the beginning of a new quadrennium, we will welcome new members to the Board of Ordained Ministry and many others will continue their service. Anniversary Celebrations

Now, to shift gears slightly. This year marks two important anniversaries: the 20th anniversary of the establishment of the Order of Deacons AND the 60th anniversary of the ordination of women in our church. At this time we have presentations in celebration of both of these milestones. Celebration of the 20th Anniversary of the Order of

Deacon: A team led the conference in a celebration of the 20th anniversary of the establishment of the Order. of Deacon. A video presentation shared the history and role of deacons. All deacons were recognized.

Celebration of the 60th Anniversary of the Ordination of Women: A team of clergy women led the conference in a celebration of the 60th anniversary of ordination of women including a video of the history and role of women in ministry. All ordained women were recognized. Great applause and a standing ovation helped celebrate these two important milestones

Friends, this nearly completes the report of the Board of Ordained Ministry. I do want to take just a moment to say a word of thanks to the all members of the Board of Ordained Ministry and District Committees on Ordained Ministry. This extraordinarily dedicated group of clergy and lay people give a great deal of time and energy every year in the work of recruiting, evaluating, certifying, discerning, and recommending persons for special ministries in the church. Would members of the Board of Ordained Ministry and dCOMs, please stand so that we may express appreciation to you and for you?

I also want say a special word of thanks to my colleagues, the Rev. Tommy Ward and Ms. Meredith Day in the Office of Ministerial Concerns. Tommy and Meredith carry out the important work of the office and facilitate the work of the Board of Ordained Ministry on a daily basis with professionalism, grace, and love. And I'd ask your indulgence to recognize them.

Bishop McAlilly, this concludes the report of the Board of Ordained Ministry.

Next Gen Discipleship Moment

Emma Sanders, CCYM President, Speaks

Bishop and members of the Tennessee Annual Conference, I would like to first start by thanking you for giving me this opportunity to address you all today. My name is Emma Sanders and I am the current President of the Conference Council on Youth Ministries. I am a recent graduate of Loretto High School, and I will be attending Union University in the fall.

Ever since I can remember, I've been extremely active in the church. My parents have been heavily involved United Methodists for years, which means I spent my childhood running through church hallways multiple times a week. I cannot express how much of an impact my church family has had on my life. Preachers, Sunday school teachers, choir directors, and everyone in between have molded me into who I am today. I would not like to imagine where I would be today without these people, and I am aware that I am extremely blessed to have had the upbringing that I did.

While I love almost every aspect of the church, I have noticed something more and more as I get older. Recently it seems as though we are focusing on young people in the wrong way. Instead of seeing the endless amount of talent, leadership skills, and potential they possess, we choose to only see the ones who are walking away from the church. We have become too focused on the quantity of youth that are in pews each Sunday. Rather than evaluating and trying to develop the individual's gifts, we view them as only a number or a statistic. And while it is true that dwindling numbers are something to be concerned with, it distracts us from helping the young people of our church discover God's calling for their lives. When we begin to focus on equipping young people instead of regaining the attendance of the ones who have left, we are giving those youth present in our ministries the tools to go out into their communities and recruit their friends themselves. We, as missionaries who are friends, welcome friends into the Body of Christ.

This week you've gotten to see first-hand some of the outstanding young people in our conference. They include the talent of a wide range of ages from children to young adults along with the members of the CCYM that you've seen helping throughout the conference. They are great examples of what young people can accomplish when given the opportunity. We as young people strive to be given the chance to use our gifts to help lead and serve in our communities. We are mindful that we are the Next Generation. We know that what we're learning now will impact what will happen in the future. Personally, as one who will be transitioning to campus ministries in the coming year, I am also aware that a generation even younger than myself is already having a large effect on the world around them. The children, youth, and young adults in your church are leaders today, and we will be tomorrow's leaders then as well.

A prime example of youth being given an opportunity is the CCYM. Over the past few years I have been constantly pushed to learn new things and to step out of my comfort zone in order to become a more effective leader. I have accomplished more things than I could have ever imagined, and I know that my experiences in CCYM has equipped me to go forth into campus ministries and beyond for the years to come.

The events that the CCYM coordinate not only benefit themselves; they are transformative for every person that attends. We focus on the experience of the event first, and worry about the number of youth attending later. This approach has been extremely successful, and as of this year we have outgrown the space that we were in for Warmth in Winter. Beginning in 2017, Warmth in Winter will now be held at the Opryland Hotel in Nashville. This change is proof that when you don't stress about the numbers, they will take care of themselves. However, Warmth in Winter is not our only event of the year. We hold multiple events that all work towards identifying and acting on one's spiritual gifts.

An example of this is EMPOWER: Leadership and Worship Arts Camp. At this event youth explore and share talents such as singing and playing an instrument or dancing, to learn not only how to be better at what they do, but also to learn how to use their talent to honor God. The participants then go back to their home church to share what they learned.

Now I'd like to take this opportunity to lift up some of the members of the CCYM that are here today. I'm sure you've seen them around sometime helping out behind the scenes. A few of them have also been helping out with our amazing NextGen production team. We have no idea how much effort they put into this conference and we should be very grateful for all they do to make this event run as smoothly as it does.

Please join me in thanking them for the work they have done this week.

You have seen children, youth, and young adults share their gifts through worship, through sharing God's word, and through spoken word. Shortly you will see Christianos, from Homestead United Methodist Church in Crossville share through dance. Just as all of you have been gifted, NextGen Disciples have also been given gifts to share. Whether they be children, youth, young adults or college students, we need your prayers, your mentorship, your encouragement. We also need you to open up opportunities for us to lead in your congregations and communities.

You received a NextGen Disciples button when you entered today. If you didn't they will be available at the information station in the narthex. Please wear this button as both a symbol of your support but also as a reminder that we have much to offer in ministry when we can serve with and alongside you. Everyone here is or has been a NextGen Disciple!

Before I close, I would like to share a Facebook post from Carey Nieuwhof just yesterday — "I think there's more hope than there is despair for the future. The radical ethics of grace and truth found in Jesus is more desperately needed in our world today than ever before.

Is the path crystal clear? No. But rather than being a set back, perhaps this can move the church yet another step closer in realizing its true mission.

Take a deep breath. You were saved by grace. Your sins are simply different than many others. And honestly, in many respects, they are the same.

People don't line up to be judged, but they might line up to be LOVED.

So love people. Especially the people with whom you disagree."

Thank you all for letting me speak today and I hope that if you remember one thing that I've said that it is the phrase "today first, tomorrow then."

Thank you and God bless.

The conference received the offering of interpretative dance from Christianos of Homestead UMC.

General Conference Briefing

Jim Allen and Rev. Harriet Bryan

Video prepared by United Methodist Communications

Jim Allen: It was a wonderful fun-filled experience. We didn't agree with everyone but there was lots of love and incredible worship.

Harriet Bryan: One of the fascinating things is the conversations you have on the ground. I was in conversation with a man from Africa, who said, "You have never addressed this issue I have. My mother is a second wife. In my culture only first wives can take communion."

Jim Allen: Within our delegations, we chose different topics to educate ourselves. A year ago $600 million for the coming four years—changes to $599 Million. We found that there were many, many pet projects. In addition:

- There was acknowledgement of The Nashville Episcopal Area's participation in the campaign Imagine No Malaria, recognizing the work of Holly Neal.
- "The Way Forward"—Many were upset because General Conference delayed making a decision. But Harriet is hopeful that the Bishop's Commission for The Way Forward will provide space in which the Holy Spirit will have room to work to help us discern an opposable solution. If we can figure out how to stay together, we can offer love and healing and hope to a broken world. Harriet asked that we spend less energy criticizing the decision and more time praying the Holy Spirit finds a way to guide our next steps. Pray for the commission that is being formed.
- Recognition of Tennessee delegates.
- Diana DeWitt—elected as an alternate to the Judicial Council.
- Debbie Byrd and Jane Murray were consecrated as deaconesses.
- Holly Neal was one of four laity chosen to give the laity address.
- Connie Clark chaired the General Administration legislative committee.
- Jim Allen chaired a subcommittee for the Financial Administration legislative committee.
- Lynn Hill served on the Commission on General Conference.
- Debi Tyree helped play a part within the worship services. Jackson Henry did as well.
- Heather and Ryan Bennett had a booth for Blessed Earth.
- A special thank you for Bishop McAlilly for being available to the delegates.
- All of these delegates will be going to Jurisdictional Conference in July—we will be electing five Bishops this time.

Harriet Bryan feels it was an honor to have served as a clergy delegate to the 2016 General Conference and thanks the conference for the honor and asked for us to pray.

Bishop asked for a point of personal privilege: Bishop McAlilly expressed his appreciation for their work and commitment.

Pam Hawkins: "Could there be some word to us in addition to our prayers how else might you guide us in how to be in ministry with LGBTQ members who also join us in prayer but who need more than prayer. We are looking for guidance. What else can we be doing?"

Bishop McAlilly clarified that there is a tension that we are living in. The tension is that the Book of Discipline has not changed in reference to how live together. The General Commission, adopted by the 2016 General Conference to study and make recommendations regarding how we are to live together in the midst of tensions and disagreements regarding sexuality and same-gender relationships, has not yet been formed nor has the make up been decided. Bishop McAlilly said that as he learns more he will share with the conference. There have been many who have offered to help. As we live in this tension, we will try to be fair to all people.

Cynthia Hopson expressed that she was proud to see the work of Rev. Ingrid McIntyre of Open Table lifted up at the General Conference as well as the work of Rev. Jodi McCullah of the Wesley Foundation of Austin Peay State University, working with soldiers and their families related to Ft. Campbell, KY, home of the 100st Air Assault Division.

Bishop reflected on the 2016 General Conference and his presiding during the debate on The Way Forward discussion. Bishop said he was not sure why God put him there. But that is the way it works; the path of discipleship is not easy. It was a very tense time for the church. No one intended it to be hard for that two-hour block of time for the church. Bishop McAlilly said he was at peace during those two hours: proof the Holy Spirit was at work. He said he got through it because of our prayers. "God is bigger than General Conference. God will show us through this way and time." Bishop McAlilly appealed to the conference to find within our spirit to trust the leadership of the church. "We lived to love another day. That is the take away for that time."

Kay Voorhees: expressed, hopefully on behalf of the whole body, that she has never been more proud or thankful for the episcopal leadership during those two hours (of General Conference).

Bishop shared about the African delegation beginning to sing during that tense time. It is what they do when they hit a tense time to invite the Holy Spirit back.

Microphone # 6—Mike Guertin offered a prayer

Act of Repentance for Native American Harm at Sandy Creek

Bishop McAlilly emphasized the Act of Repentance regarding the harm done to Native American indigenous people on the American continent, and invites all to Forest Hills UMC, Nashville, on Saturday, November 12, 2016, at 2:00 pm for this service of repentance and visitation of historic Native American sacred sites.

The Commission on Religion and Race

Bishop McAlilly: We have had a challenging season in race relations in America. We need to have some conversations about a way forward. We need to have some vital conversations. We need to enter into a deeper past in light of the number of black persons who have been murdered. He is inviting us to join them in these vital conversations.

Marilyn Thornton: How do you have vital conversations? Some people think they are not racist and this sheet gives us the full picture. (Faces form)

Michael Williams—Introduces, Giovanni to lead in conversation and process.

Giovanni Arroyo from the General Church Commission on Religion & Race. Giovanni stressed the importance of these ongoing "vital conversations." He shared that many resources were available to help conference and communities have these conversations.

The conference adjourned into a time of Worship for Healing.

Through the leadership of the Conference Commission on Religion & Race, interested persons were convened from the various districts to learn more about how to proceed with these "vital conversations."

CFA Report #2

John Vaughan

The annual budget is before the conference for discussion and approval. The total budget is $13,063,231 and with no discussion was approved by voice vote.

The CFA has been in conversation with the Board of Camp & Retreat Ministries and endorses their efforts in an ongoing Development Plan to raise funds for facility and program advances over the next quadrennium.

The Annual Conference asked for a report on reserve funds. John Pearce chaired the sub-committee of CFA to study and make recommendations regarding conference reserve funds.

John Pearce reported that the conference has approximately $34 million in assets, with $4 million in building assets and around 30 million in net assets. John Pearce explored the four primary uses of reserves. (See report for more information.)

Assist with funding the programmatic life of the Annual Conference

Lower cost to congregations through reduced apportionments

i.e. Apportionments have been reduced while the pensions fund has been strong.

Health care costs have not radically fluctuated in the last few years.

New Ministry Developments

These often require more than the annual budget can support year to year.

i.e. CF&A approved $2 million for new church development

Future needs of the Annual Conference.

Designated reserves were reviewed.

A greater attention was given to explaining pension funds. As of January 1, 2015, the TN Annual Conference Pension is overfunded. John Pearce presented reserve rationales, specifically exploring the ways that reserves can be utilized

John Vaughan—thanked John Pearce for the work of the subcommittee on Conference Reserves. The report was informational and not action was asked for or required.

Standing Rules Report #2

Chris Haynes

There were two standing rules that are before the Conference for discussion and vote.

The first standing rule is from Safe Spaces entitled TNUMC Sexual Misconduct. This set of recommendations represents an update and revision of policies related to sexual misconduct.

The new policy was approved by a voice vote.

The Conference Commission on Archives & History requested a suspension of the standing rules to allow the nomination of new classes of members to the commission.

Permission granted.

Cabinet Resolutions

Max Mayo, Cookeville District Superintendent, asked for a suspension of Standing Rule #4 in order to address the Cabinet Resolutions. The rules were suspended by a voice vote.

Max asked that the Conference allow the Cabinet to remove the resolutions entitled Limited Service and Preaching Station from consideration at this annual conference. Max shared that the intent of these resolutions requires greater conversations.

There are 11 charge-line changes, of which Max suggested they receive as one action.

Bishop McAlilly asked if the conference was willing to receive the charge line changes as a block, and the conference raised no concern.

There was one editorial change: The Brooks/Braden Charge in the Nashville District.

Resolution Regarding the Brooks-Braden Charge of the Nashville District:

"Be it resolved that Braden United Methodist Church be removed from the Brooks Memorial and Braden charge, and be it further resolved that Brooks Memorial United Methodist Church become a stand-alone church and Braden United Methodist Church become a stand-alone church."

The charge-line changes were approved by a voice vote.

There Are Nine Resolutions for Discontinuance

Max shared appreciation of the ministry of these congregations, acknowledging the heavy heart with which these must be considered. All discontinuance resolutions were reviewed and approved by voice vote.

There was one question raised regarding the discontinuance of the Oak Hill congregation in the Cookeville District.

James Johnson, Clergy, asked where the membership of those of the Oak Hill congregation might be held/transferred. Max Mayo, District Superintendent of the Cookeville District, is still in conversation regarding transfer of membership.

Regarding Nashville District Discontinuance Inglewood

Editorial change: closure as of December 31, 2016. There was a witness by David Calvo, lay delegate, about Inglewood UMC's role in starting Dalewood UMC.

West Nashville

Ed Crump, Ret. Clergy, gave a personal witness of West Nashville UMC's impact on his life as a child. Ann Cover, clergy, was a member of the West Nashville UMC, and gave a personal witness of its role in shaping her as a pastor. Sheri Kimble, lay delegate from West Nashville, asked that we consider revitalizing older buildings as we develop vital congregations, being mindful of the neighborhood church as an essential consideration. She recommended assistance in helping transition members from discontinued congregations.

Discontinuance

- John Williams, Clergy, gave witness to the impact of the discontinuance of congregations.
- Zach Moffatt, Clergy, gave thanks for the ministry of Project Transformation at Tulip Street UMC.
- The Bishop asked for all those who have been impacted by the ministry of the churches affected by discontinuance to stand and be represented.
- Leland Carden, Chairperson of the Conference History & Archives, asked for the assistance of the District Superintendents in collecting historical documents from the discontinued churches.
- Max Mayo presented the Cabinet Resolution to Reduce Number of Districts of the Conference from seven to not less than five.
- Abigail Overstreet, At-Large Member from the Columbia District, offered an amendment to the resolution, striking:

"Be it further resolved, that if determined feasible, the Bishop and District Superintendents be empowered by vote of the 2016 Tennessee Annual Conference to form the number of districts at a minimum of five or a maximum of six for the 2017-2018 conference year."

To then read (Amendment):

"Be it further resolved, that the Bishop and the District Superintendents will then present a report to the 2017 Annual Conference outlining a plan for redistricting, and be voted on by the 2017 Annual Conference legislative body."

- Don Sensing, Clergy, asked a question if the amendment was in accordance with the Discipline.
- Ryan Bennett, Clergy, spoke against the amendment.
- Following a voice vote, a standing vote was called in an effort to discern the decision. Following a standing vote, the amendment failed.
- John Hill, Clergy, asked for a point of information to address the financial implications of reducing the number of districts.
- Jim Allen shared what has been experienced in other conferences, though did not have exact figures.

- Stewart Orell, Clergy, asked for a Point of Personal Privilege. Stewart thanked the Cabinet for pulling the Limited Service and Preaching Station Resolutions, and gave witness to the ministry of his small congregations.
- Pam Hawkins, Ret. Clergy, gave witness to the powerful ministry of Brighter Days at Edgehill UMC and the Nashville Freedom School at Gordon Memorial UMC.

A special word of thanks was given to Rev. Michele Morton, who serves as chair of the Episcopal Residency Committee, for the overall work of the Episcopacy Committee. A review of Bishop McAlilly's first quadrennium among the TN Conference was shared. The work and gifts of Lynn Taylor and Brandy Earheart were celebrated as well. For a fuller accounting of this celebration, please see the report submitted by Lynn Hill, chair of Episcopacy Committee.

Bishop McAlilly reminded the conference that we have 1538 days until Sept. 1, 2020. We are on this journey together. Bishop McAlilly gave a witness of his love of the church, and of Christ, the head of the church. "Please be patient with the United Methodist Church. God is not finished with us."

PACTO (Covenant with East Mexico Conference)

Angela Overstreet

Good Afternoon, I am Angela Overstreet, Coordinator of Missional Engagement for the conference, and I am here to share with you about the Pacto/Covenant between the Methodist Church of Mexico in the East Mexico Annual Conference and the Tennessee Annual Conference.

In 1998 the first team from the Murfreesboro district went to Rio Bravo. (1) In 2000, construction teams from the Tennessee conference began coming to Matamoros. In 2004, a program called "Bless the children" began in order to provide uniforms and (2) school supplies for children in Matamoros. In 2006,

The East Mexico Annual Conference sent the first Hispanic missionary to our conference. We celebrate that, by the Grace of God and the Power of the Holy Sprit, we have been given the opportunity to grow in love and friendship as Brothers and Sisters in Christ.

The goals and programs for this covenant/pacto are:

- 1. (3) To collaborate on the support and development of Hispanic Ministries on both sides of the border.
- To support short-term missionaries in ministry that could include: Pastoral exchange, exchange student programs, exchange of potential missionaries for short and long-term mission.
- 3. To develop joint mission opportunities.
- 4. To link mission teams from the sending conference with a partner team from the receiving conference as much as possible.
- 5. To exchange delegates for Annual Conferences.
- 6. To develop understanding and sensitivity of the culture of the conference being visited in the context of the Christian Experience.

WHY? Why a Pacto/Covenant

The East Mexico Annual Conference and the Tennessee Conference (4) sustain the same purpose of Establishing God's kingdom in human hearts through the making of Disciples for Jesus Christ.

- 1. Because, there already exists a history of fellowship and cooperation between the two conferences that has born much fruit and demonstrates a call to work together in a more official way.
- 2. (5) Because, we believe that the two conferences have valuable gifts to share with one another and we desire to continue exploring these opportunities.
- 3. Because, we believe that this covenant must be based on reciprocity and cooperation.
- 4. Because, we desire to increase awareness of the needs of migrant workers and create opportunities to address those needs.

As a part of the covenant, each annual conference shall appoint, a small group that will function as a covenant committee whose purpose is to give continuity to our relationship. Enrique Hernandez is our chair for this committee. (6)

On April 28, 2016, a meeting of members of the East Mexico Annual Conference, including, (7) Bishop Fuentes, the Memphis and Tennessee Annual Conferences took place. In that meeting we were able to spend time articulating our strengths, weaknesses, championing successes and defining our frustrations and shortcomings.

We have a covenant; a covenant/pacto is not a list of projects that we are to complete or a list of task that we check off. A covenant is an agreement between two or more persons to do or not do something. We have as I have described agreed to do something to make a difference in both Annual Conferences, and as our Bishop has explained – (8) the vision of this ministry has always been to strengthen ministry across conference lines both in TN and Mexico.

We have churches in Mexico that need construction completed, we have children in both conferences who need shoes, uniforms and school supplies, we have scholarships for higher education that need funding, we have relationships that need to be strengthened and made, we have much prayer that needs to be lifted up and we have a world to transform together between both annual conferences as we work to Honor God in all we do to glorify Him.

We invite you to be a part of this Pacto/covenant. Please reach out to your district superintendent, Enrique Hernandez, or myself to learn more and to get involved.

I leave you with scripture. Psalm 133:1: "How very good and pleasant it is when kindred live together in unity!" (NRSV)

Report of the Orders of Ministry Annual Conference, 2016

Bishop McAlilly, members of the BOM and clergy in the TN Conference,

I am pleased to share that the Team for the Order of Elders, Order of Deacons, and the Fellowship of Local Pastors and Associate Members has been actively at work this year around our covenantal living together as clergy.

We continue to urge our brothers and sisters in ministry to remember that ...

We have a sacred calling as United Methodist clergy. By virtue of our baptism and ordination or licensing, we have entered into a covenantal relationship in a community of clergy (active and retired Elders, Deacons, Associate Members, Provisional Members, and Local Pastors). Our mutual covenant seeks to create a community marked by and lived into with respect, honesty, integrity, compassion and encouragement. In all interactions with one another we seek to offer mutual support and care as friends in ministry.

As clergy in set-apart, representative, accountable leadership ministry, we must continually commit to grow in holiness, in faithfulness to our calling to make disciples of Jesus Christ and in trusting relationships with each other. We rely upon the grace of God to maintain our covenant with each other.

(from the Tennessee and Memphis Conferences Clergy Covenant Living)

Our primary task over the past year has been to plan the Clergy Sabbath Retreat at Montgomery Bell State Park, April 18 -20. Having heard the desire for more time to rest through evaluations from the 2015 retreat, we planned "The Case for Sabbath – Ministry over the Long Haul" to offer true Sabbath rest with opportunities to worship together as a body along with a couple of plenary sessions with leaders, Billy Vaughn, Lee Ramsey and Bishop Bill McAlilly. Feedback has been positive regarding the many creative Sabbath opportunities offered. We will once again involve interested persons who would like to help with planning for next year's worship experiences. Put May 7-10, 2017, on your calendar for our next gathering to rest and be revived at Montgomery Bell State Park.

In an effort to encourage clergy to form and/or join a Covenant Group with colleagues, eight of our clergy brothers and sisters in the TN and Memphis Conferences are in training with Billy Vaughn and Lee Ramsey of the Methodist House of Studies at Memphis Theological Seminary to be Covenant Group leaders. A second class of leaders will be trained this fall. If you are interested, please contact one of the co-chairpersons of the Orders or Fellowship Team to register.

There are several reasons to celebrate this year.

2016 marks the 20th anniversary of the establishment of UM Clergy Deacons in full membership. Representatives from our Order of Deacons have a special presentation to make at this time in recognition of this important milestone in UM history. . . .

At this most recent General Conference, a petition passed that allows Deacons to contact their resident bishop directly to ask for permission to administer sacraments. Previously, the pastor-in-charge or the district superintendent had to make the request on the deacon's behalf.

Sixty years ago, on May 4, 1956, the former Methodist Church granted full clergy rights to women. After a day of back and forth legislation (perhaps not unlike that which occurred at the 2016 General Conference), it was finally voted that "women will now be welcome to apply for full membership in the Annual Conferences and will have Full Clergy Rights, rights equal in every way to the men." It was 20 years later when clergywomen were elected to General Conference for the first time. (from the General Minutes of the 1956 Methodist Church General Conference)

Two hundred years ago, the 1816 General Conference mandated the creation of a course of study for all aspiring clergy. From that point forward, a standard of learning had to be achieved, in addition to mentoring, for leaders to be ordained or licensed by the Methodist church...Today, through Methodist seminaries, extension sites and satellites, the Course of Study provides education and formation for 30% of pastors in the United States, and as much as 70% of pastors outside the U.S. This educational process has created an affordable, empowering pathway for licensed pastors across the globe, expanding the numbers of those who are equipped for ministry. (from the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry)

We are especially appreciative of the leadership and support of Bishop Bill McAlilly along with the leadership and guidance provided by Tom Laney for the work of the Orders and Fellowship Team. Many thanks also go to Jackson Henry and Nan Zoller for their work over the past quadrennium as Co-Chairs of Order of Deacons. Trey Carey is one of the new Co-Chairs for Deacons for the next four years. New Co-Chairs for the Order of Elders will be named soon by the BOM. The Fellowship of Local Pastors and Associate Members will be Co-Chaired by Phoebe Jowers and Josh McClurkan for the next quadrennium.

It has been a privilege to work as a team along with our counterparts from the Memphis Conference these past four years to explore ways to deepen our covenantal connection as Methodist clergy. Team members have lived in covenant with one another as we have worshipped together, prayed together, shared "how is it with your soul" check-ins, planned together, and closed with Holy Communion regularly. We covet for all our clergy brothers and sisters the support of being in covenant relationship with colleagues as a way to sustain and nurture faithfulness in ministry.

CHAPTER 6 REPORTS & RESOLUTIONS

A. REPORTS

AUSTIN PEAY STATE UNIVERSITY WESLEY FOUNDATION 2016

Rev. Jodi McCullah, Campus Ministry & Director of Soldiers and Families Embraced (SAFE) Rev. Katie Woodard, Associate Campus Minister at APSU Wesley Foundation

It has been a great year of transition at Austin Peay State University Wesley Foundation. We have welcomed Rev. Katie Woodard as the Associate Campus Minister, and she is overseeing the traditional student ministry.

Our goals for this year were in the areas of Faith and Leadership Development, Connect, and Send. Our goals were to develop a leadership team and help them grow in grace and in ministry. Another goal was to connect and build relationships with students, groups, faculty, staff, and churches in the community, engaging with at least 150 students one-on-one this year. Finally, we sought to have our students participate in community life as well as in service to the community.

We have greatly surpassed our goals! In Faith and Leadership Development, we had a leadership retreat in January, which solidified the vision and goals with our students. The students have requested to repeat this experience in the fall with new members we have already added to our team. Our Bible study has grown by almost fifty percent this semester alone. For Connect, we have partnered with several student groups and university offices to bring in speakers, including the African American Cultural Center, African American Studies Program, and the Gay Straight Alliance. We also held a Cookie Drop in March to give cookies to students on campus. We engaged over 1,000 students through this outreach alone. Cookie Drop allowed our involved students to participate at a greater level and connected us with the churches who baked the cookies. For Send, we have participated in several hands-on service opportunities in Clarksville, raised awareness for suicide and self-harm, and sent students on a spring break mission trip to New Mexico. We are exploring ways to partner with Project Transformation as well.

Soldiers And Families Embraced (SAFE), which began as an outreach to military students at APSU, is beginning the second year of a three-year transition. SAFE is already a separate 501.c.3 which provides as many as 300 free counseling sessions a month to service members, veterans and family members affected adversely by more than 15 years of war. The program already pays rent to the Wesley Foundation to use offices in the building. The plan is for SAFE to become a stand-alone program by June of 2018.

We will continue to move forward in all areas and look forward to what God will continue to do at Austin Peay State University.

BELMONT WESLEY FELLOWSHIP

Rev. David Brent Hollis, Campus Minister

In our second year as a full-time campus ministry of the Tennessee Annual Conference, we remain thrilled at all the new life God is bringing in our work and throughout our sister campus ministries.

When I share our stories, I always try to start with why we exist as I feel this reminds us all of our vital purpose. After meeting with students and our board of directors, Belmont Wesley Fellowship believes we exist to share community, communion, and Christ's love with all. We think this purpose represents our overall conference mission of offering Christ's love to a hurting world one neighborhood at a time.

Our neighborhood is primarily a thriving college campus in the heart of a booming city where there is much to celebrate. But still many hurts exist. Some of the main hurts our students feel are loneliness, despair, and apathy.

And so we focus on being a community open to all and free from judgment. We offer small groups called Wesley Wellness Groups that focus on wholeness and healing of mind, body, and soul. We know God doesn't only care about where we go when we die, and so we want to share with students the importance of living into the wellness of God here and now. These groups also focus on spiritual practices that will help students develop the faith habits they will hone throughout their lives.

We share Holy Communion together each week, and of course the table around which we gather is open to all who seek more of Christ's love in their lives. Through the powerful experience of sharing the bread and cup together, we connect our lives and stories with all those who surround us in Jesus' Church universal.

We do not see ourselves as a separate church, and we strive to connect students with a church home which will nurture them and offer them opportunities for service and growth. We have been intentional about partnering with churches in our conference and our connectional ministries (such as Miriam's Promise, Project Transformation, and Cedar Crest Camp to name a few) in order to strengthen our overall connection as we work together to discover, equip, connect, and send lay and clergy leaders.

Here are a few highlights of the ministry we have been able to accomplish due to support and connectional giving in the last year:

- More than 100 students have participated in workshops on spiritual gifts and vocational discernment.
- Students attended a fall break spiritual life retreat focused on healthy relationships with God and others at Lake Junaluska, NC.
- We have partnered with Project Transformation and Edgehill UMC to participate in weekly tutoring.
- One of our students, Casey Enright, has started her own ministry called "The Word Wagon" which collects age appropriate books for children in low-income neighborhoods.
- Two students attended Exploration to discern their call to ministry, and several of our graduates are currently attending seminary or serving in ministry settings.

Again, everything we do is made possible by the generous connectional giving which recognizes the necessity of connecting our students and young adults with experiences that will transform and shape their lives through God's love. We offer our deepest thanks for your generosity and prayerful support. Please continue to let us know how we can better serve in ministry together.

BOARD OF CAMP AND RETREAT MINISTRIES

Dickie Hinton and Russell Casteel

Introduction: Who We Are

"The mission of the Tennessee Conference is to discover, equip, connect and send lay and clergy leaders who shape congregations to offer Jesus Christ to a hurting world one neighborhood at a time." Tennessee Conference Camp & Retreat Ministries, through ministries at Beersheba Springs Assembly and Cedar Crest Camp, aim to help our conference fill this Conference mission in specific ways.

Camp and Retreat centers were initially created to offer places of education, discipleship, and spiritual formation and transformation. Cedar Crest and Beersheba remain committed to this identity, through now offering hospitality and discipleship to a rapidly growing and changing Nashville Area. Through these ministries, we are able to provide sacred space away from the ordinary and offer our guests radical hospitality while providing opportunities to discover God. Leadership is discovered as children, youth, and adults develop deeper spiritual connections with God and each other so that they may go into the world, serving God and making new disciples for Jesus Christ. Gifts for Christian service, and the equipping of those gifts, happen each time groups gather in retreat to interact in community. Focusing on learning and doing creates rich experiences in Christian growth and maturity.

The ministry at Beersheba Springs is an assembly and retreat center rooted in Christian discipleship and relationship, offering churches, families, conference groups and individuals an opportunity to retreat, learn, and grow in faith on the peaceful Cumberland Plateau. Cedar Crest is a camp and retreat center rooted in Christian discipleship and faith formation, offering churches, youth, and children the opportunity to continue in their faith journey in the midst of being outdoors in hilly Middle Tennessee.

Accomplishments 2014-2016

Cedar Crest and Beersheba are excited about the growth taking place on our campuses. We believe this is not only a result of the growing Nashville Episcopal area but also a return of church culture and generations to camp and retreat as a means of spiritual renewal and discipleship. More campers and more guests mean we continue our valuable role in faith formation, creating a culture of call, and we continue to grow the church in leadership and membership. Most importantly, it also means we can continue to operate financially successful ministries in the midst of challenging financial times.

Beersheba Springs Assembly Milestones

In 2015, Beersheba Springs Assembly hosted 35 local church family retreats, which represented almost half of the groups we hosted for the year. Also:

- Beersheba Springs Assembly remains a vital conference partnership with important events, including: the Cookeville District Ministry Academy, Summer Sizzler, the Conference UMW Retreat, Board of Ordained Ministry Evaluation Conference (BOMEC), Licensing School as well as several other events that directly help cultivate leaders in our conference and in our churches.
- Beersheba Springs hosts community children for the Annual Christmas parade and gives stockings to each child. We offered 175 in 2014, and 200 in 2015.
- Partnered with Blessed Earth TN to create Creation Care retreats for clergy and laity alike.
- Expanding programming to include a women's retreat, which has practically doubled in attendance from 35 in 2015 to 63 registered for 2016.
- Sponsored the Eighth Annual Christmas at Beersheba, which hosted over 400 guests for the first time in 2015, and will expand to five midday dates in 2016 and an overnight.
- Expanded hospitality and maintenance staff.
- Celebrated a "paint and power wash" year in 2015 and constructed new picket fencing around the perimeter of the property.
- Continued growth in 2015 by hosting 75 different groups, up from 70 in 2014. Of these groups, eight were single groups that occupied near 100% of our facility and six more weekends were at that same capacity with multiple groups in attendance.

Cedar Crest Camp Milestones

- Received accreditation from the American Camp Association, standard-bearer for best practices in camping in North America.
- 33% summer camp growth in 2014; 28% growth in 2015.
- Two weeks of 100% capacity; four weeks of 90% capacity.
- Largest week of campers in over 10 years in 2015.
- Two counselors from summer 2014 have discerned a call to ministry and seminary, and will start seminary in Fall 2016.
- Two counselors from summer 2015 have discerned a call to ministry; one now serving as a youth minister and another discerning a call to seminary to start in Fall 2017.
- Expansion of staff to hire full-time maintenance director/head cook, full-time housekeeper and cook, and program intern.
- Will hire full-time Program Director in Spring 2016.
- Continued renovation of camp lodges, camp office, and infrastructure.
- New cabins are being built for Cedar Crest for Summer 2016.
- New climbing tower and high ropes course begins construction for Summer 2016.

Immediate Future Plans (2016-2020)

As Beersheba and Cedar Crest continue to grow in guests, campers, and church use so must our facilities, staffing, and annual budgets. However, our Camp and Retreat Ministry sites are hampered by long-deferred maintenance, which in turn affects not only the state of our facilities but our lack of progress in providing new and vital programming and formation for our campers and guests.

As such, we desire a partnership with the TN Conference CFA, who has been a pillar of financial support and maintenance stability for Camp and Retreat Ministry these past few years. What follows is a plan of action including programming (spiritual mission and vision) and financial (stewardship) initiatives.

Cedar Crest Camp

Cedar Crest has been a part of the formation and transformation of thousands of people over the course of its 45 years of existence, and we celebrate the new day in which we find ourselves, where camping ministry can be more vital than ever to empower our local churches and young people to follow Christ in a more intentional way. Brad Fiscus often shares that at best, the average youth attends an hour a week for a year, or 52 hours of discipleship. As such, discipleship in increments is challenging but necessary; during a camp week, we get almost twice as many hours of direct mentoring and discipleship. The camp experience is still relevant because it offers us the opportunity to live intentionally and simply, relying on the grace of God and example of Christ to go forth and carry our cross in a deeper way. Investing in Cedar Crest must start philosophically, programmatically, and above all spiritually. But it cannot end there, for the Holy Spirit will not get in the way of good planning. As we keep growing in campers—which means we grow in discipleship opportunity—we will continue to grow in facilities, staff, and programming to serve the call of our Conference and Church to disciple more people, more young people, and more diverse people.

Cedar Crest Program Development Goals (2016-2020)

- Grow full-time staff in order to meet needs of growth
- Create and implement year round programming including: children and youth retreats, call to ministry retreats, backpacking and camping trips, creation care retreats, and Sabbath opportunities for lay and ordained
- Establish farm/sustainable garden infrastructure
- Expansion of year-round programming. Repairs and remodeling of lodges, new cabins, and new programming opportunities will allow for this.
- Begin intentional fundraising and sponsorships in order to develop sustainability in camperships, program initiatives, and discipleship with campers and retreat groups
- Launch environmental education program in order to share the gift of creation with classrooms, and create stewardship of the camp space during the week.
- Grow summer camp program to include more campers from unreached churches as well as campers from non-UMC backgrounds. Cedar Crest currently serves a campership of roughly 35% non-white campers.
- Grow scholarship funds to expand diverse and new camperships for low-income campers

Cedar Crest Development Projects (2016-2020)

- Build new cabins to accommodate new growth and projected future growth; old cabins are no longer usable
- Restructure lodges to accommodate new growth, potential future programming; both Cecil Lodge and Nickell Lodge are now more than 40 years old.
- Build worship center/chapel; currently the only indoor space large enough to hold all our campers is our dining hall. A chapel also gives opportunity for year-round programming and activity in the non-summer months
- Environmental Education teaching center, program materials; Currently there are zero overnight Environmental Education experiences within a 150-mile radius of downtown Nashville
- Staff Housing for Maintenance Director and Environmental Education staff; Cedar Crest has little infrastructure to support our need to grow staff housing.
- New program offerings, including: high ropes course, day camp, expanded camp garden, star gazing tower, pottery wheel, and much more.

Beersheba Springs Assembly

As Beersheba Springs moves into the next quadrennium, the program vision is dedicated to following the mission statement of the Tennessee Conference. All ministry begins with offering Christ to a hurting world, and we seek to join with Conference churches and groups wishing to grow in faith and service. We offer sacred space for those seeking both community and solitude with space for worship, celebration, contemplation, and meditation. We seek to be a welcoming, restoring, and transforming ministry within the life of our Conference.

Beersheba Springs Program Development Goals (2016-2020)

- Designed, staffed and operated to serve primarily adults and family groups.
- Create and implement year round programming including older adult retreats, spiritual formation retreats, confirmation retreats, family and intergenerational retreats, and church planning retreats.
- Supporting groups wishing to program their own events and retreats.
- Providing quality hospitality ministry for all guests.
- Offering great food service.
- Providing a hospitable, welcoming presence.
- Providing clean space prepared for the purposes of our guests.
- Being available as needed.
- Expanding ministries by partnering with other groups and churches.

Beersheba Assembly Development Projects (2016 – 2020)

- Renovate Log Row by adding bathrooms/new entrances from the rear.

 This allows us to maintain the historical look on the quad side while offering modern rooms.
- Renovate the upper Historic Hotel by adding private bathroom, updated plumbing, electrical, and new furnishings.

- To provide an elevator for better access for older and handicapped guests to both guest rooms and the Renovated Assembly Hall.
- Renovate the Assembly Hall area to be a group conference/meeting space.
 Our current conference spaces are designed for groups 40 or less or 200 plus. The Assembly Hall renovation would give us space we do not have right now for 100-125 guests to gather in a modern meeting facility.
- Upgrade our walkways and outdoor lighting. Our current walkways are dangerous and lighting is in need of aesthetically pleasing upgrades.
- Set aside funds for repair/replacement of HVAC systems as they need to be replaced. New units will convert to single room controls in order to meet the needs of our guest more efficiently. (20 units are 15+ years old)

The Camp and Retreat Ministries Development Plan (2016 – 2020)

The Board of Camp and Retreat Ministries hopes to accomplish all of the projects of this development plan during the next quadrennium. Our vision of how we can proceed does not require a traditional Conference-wide Capital Campaign, but rather is a creative approach of fundraising that we, as an Extension Ministry and Advance Special Ministry, have already been authorized to do. (Please see Paragraph 656 in The Book of Discipline 2012).

Funding the Development Plan will be designed as follows:

- CF&A: Because our properties are owned by the Annual Conference, and because we are expanding usage through program additions and creating more demand, and through a variety of reasons have places of deferred maintenance which now require substantial resources to address, we are proposing to partner with CF&A for an up-front grant request to help fund this initiative. We would also desire an ongoing relationship with CF&A in order to be better stewards of the conference properties we have been asked to care for, and to provide quality program in the future.
- Individual Donors: The Board of Camp and Retreat Ministries will develop individual donors to help fund the work at both facilities.
- Church Partnerships: Without the use of campaign pledges or church-wide campaigns among the memberships of churches, we will work with local church leadership to form partnerships suitable for the local church. This would include anything from memorial gifts to sponsorship of a particular project within the scope of the initiative. As an example, a large church might wish to cover the cost of the renovation of one room at Beersheba Springs or build one cabin room at Cedar Crest, while a smaller church might wish to furnish those rooms or cabins. We will create a way to recognize all churches and individuals who participate as partners.
- It will be the responsibility of the Executive Director of Camp and Retreat Ministries to provide oversight of this Development Plan.

Conclusions

William Bridges, in Managing Transitions, states, "Renewal must begin with re-dreaming the dream on which an organization is based." In the case of Tennessee Conference Camp and Retreat Ministry, re-dreaming the dream entails a recapturing of the original intent and a re-visioning of the ministry in today's world. Those who obtained and created the spaces we have today did so in the belief that Christians needed a place to assemble in a sacred outdoor setting to learn and grow in their faith. While that dream has not changed, the methods of providing for that dream have certainly evolved over the years. Rustic rooms must be modernized, meeting rooms must have modern technology, outdoor space must have modern program facilities, and program must relate to a more diversified society than ever. Making these happen requires partnering in ministry and raising resources in order to provide upgraded ministry and facilities.

Jesus sought continually to find places of beauty and solitude to spend time in prayer with God. These places didn't just appear out of nowhere, but were places that someone had intentionally provided. The Garden of Gethsemane was such a place that Jesus sought to gain strength to do God's Will. "Come away to a quiet place, a lonely place and rest with me for a while" (Mark 6:31) was his invitation to his disciples and all disciples throughout history to answer. This is why we offer sacred spaces in today's world, and as such we should expect them to be the best spaces possible for growing new disciples and hearing the call of Jesus.

BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

Angella Current-Felder Chair TN Conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry

We celebrate the ministries of our eight Wesley Foundations and the commitment of our campus ministers and chaplain who touch the lives of a multiplicity of students enrolled at: Austin Peay State University (Rev. Jodi McCullah and Rev. Katie Woodard), Belmont University (Rev. David Hollis), Fisk University (Rev. Marilyn Thornton), Martin Methodist College (Rev. Laura McMasters), Middle Tennessee State University (Rev. Tyson Ferguson), Tennessee State University (Rev. Michele Morton), Tennessee Tech University (Addison Shock), and Vanderbilt University (Rev. Heath Bradley). While all of our Wesley Foundations seek to connect and build relationships with young people as they transition to life after high school, we recognize that racial and/or age diversity and life experiences of students, i.e. veterans and their families, require different approaches and models of campus ministry. We are excited about the variety of programs and activities utilized by our Wesley Foundations in their efforts to enhance the spiritual life of its students, develop their respective leadership and relational skills, assist with their vocational discernment and provide counseling support to those needing assistance.

We are grateful for the ministry of Rev. Heath Bradley at Vanderbilt Wesley and Rev. Tyson Ferguson, MTSU Wesley; both are leaving their Wesley Foundations. We will miss Heath as he returns to the Arkansas Conference and Tyson who returns to the Detroit Conference. We congratulate Rev. Nancy Hawthorne on her appointment as the new Campus Minister at Vandy and look forward to new and exciting ministries as they partner with West End UMC. A national search to identify and appoint the new Campus Minister at MTSU is underway with the expectation that he or she will be assigned by July 1, 2016. We are grateful to Rev. David Lowes-Watson, a member of MTSU's Wesley Foundation Board of Directors, for serving as the interim Director and to the participation and leadership of the Cabinet, MTSU's local Wesley Board, and the TN Conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry and staff in facilitating the transition.

BOARD OF LAITY

Lay Leader Report – Holly Neal

Offering Christ to a Hurting World One Neighborhood at a Time Laity and Clergy in our Conference have listened to God and have responded in various and unique ways to offer Christ to a hurting world one neighborhood at a time.

Pulaski District – Dick Sailors, District Lay Leader

The Laity Clubs and local laity are alive and well. They are in ministry with their local neighborhoods in the following ways:

- Laity from across the district arrived in Wayne County to minister to the needs of people of the Lutts UMC and the community who had their church and homes destroyed by a tornado on December 23. They provided care with food, blankets, clothing, etc.
- An after school program is run by laity for low-income children in the surrounding area. They help with homework, teach Bible lessons, furnish snacks, and with the help of the district hunger program furnish food for their families at holidays.
- Several churches pack and distribute backpacks containing ready-to-eat food for needy children to take home on Fridays to eat over the weekend.
- Many ministries meet the needs of the people in their communities with food, hot meals, clothing, utilities, community gardens, loaning library, "paper ministry" (giving away paper products plus cleaning and personal hygiene items), and knitting/crochet/needlework ministries (making blankets and hats for all babies in area hospitals, prayer shawls, blankets for dialysis centers, gowns for patients and special burial clothes for stillborn babies at the hospital).
- Monthly a Mountain Top team does repairs, cleanup and small building projects.
- Ministry to students at Martin Methodist College.
- Card ministry every year sends 1500 to 2000 cards to any and all that need "a lift."
- A ministry called CAAM (Coldwater Autism Awareness Ministry) helps any child "under the Autism umbrella."

Nashville District - Cliff Steger & Rick Quinn, District Lay Leaders

- Nashville District Creation Care Team is a team of laity and clergy from the Nashville District of the Tennessee Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church committed to working toward appropriate care of God's creation.
- Another initiative comes from one of own local churches Gordon Memorial UMC, called "Brother's Keepers." The ministry was launched to reach out to men in the local community, both churched and unchurched men, who had a need to relate to someone who would listen to their stories; someone to talk to about everyday life issues they may be facing. The church was a safe and confidential environment where they could freely discuss whatever was on their minds. The gatherings/meetings are "Christ" centered with a devotion, prayer and scripture. The ministry started in 2015 with a handful of weekly participants. Today, that number has grown to an average of 25-to-30 men each week. There appears to be a powerful need for this type of ministry, and it offers an opportunity to send a powerful message to a hurting world.

Murfreesboro District - Lila Beasley and Linda Malone, District Lay Leaders

- Fall 2015 provided the Murfreesboro District Laity an opportunity to showcase the ministry of their respective churches. This simultaneously took place at Charge Conference clusters. Each lay group prepared a tri-fold showcasing their outreach ministries. I was overjoyed and inspired by the unsung work of both the small and large congregations.
- A small congregation in rural Grundy County has a passion for young people. Knowing the area has little to offer teenagers, the church developed a "Bicycle Ministry" which goes beyond normal expectations. The youth, under guided supervision, restore bicycles. The community response is overwhelming. The young people take pride in their work. A lesson is taught reaching much further than the bicycle shop. What is the role of the church? Look around, see the need, minister. In other words: Discover, Equip, Connect, Send.

Other outreach movements in the District spearheaded by Laity include:

- Jail ministries for both men and women.
- Offering free breakfasts on a regular basis for the entire community.
- Outstanding children's ministries.
- Thrift stores to assist those in need.
- Supporting Project Transformation.
- Supporting safe havens for women and children living in fear.
- Hosting a weekly time of prayer focusing on persecuted Christians.

Cumberland District – Gwen Sales, District Lay Leader

During each of this year's Charge Conferences, there was a time of loving, learning, and leading. There was a brief reflection and prayer time with the churches to set the atmosphere and fill us with the presence of the Holy Spirit among us. The learning and leading time reflected on the ministry of the churches.

- Many churches sponsor programs to raise funds, awareness, and ministry to people in their neighborhoods and communities.
- One church has a program called Feed the Need bringing hope, peace, joy and love by being the hands, feet and heart of Christ in their community.
- Gallatin Shalom Zone was begun in 1996 by a small group of Methodist pastors to discuss solutions to the growing problem of crime and drugs in Gallatin's Clearview Community. Since then the group has expanded to include Clearview residents, lay people from area churches, and members of the wider Gallatin community. Today they provide:
 - o Affordable day care for working parents
 - o After-school programs for school-age children and youth
 - o An internal library and study space for tutoring, homework and reading
 - Free medical screenings by volunteer health providers
 - o Enrichment classes for children, teens, and adults

Cookeville District – Jeran Tenpenny, District Lay Leader

- There are many ministries providing food and meals to people in local neighborhoods and communities offering hope and Christ's love.
- Several churches partner together to dish up meals once a week that nourish the soul and spirit.
- Laity are providing leadership through jail ministries, Partner Today in local schools and weekend backpack programs in the local schools providing kid friendly meals.
- The Cumberland Hispanic Health Committee members are expanding health screening and prevention education clinics into other areas in our district.

Columbia District – Eddie Watson, District Lay Leader

The most important thing going on concerning laity is the vision of offering Christ to every person in the Columbia District. The objectives are clear:

- Identify and train clergy and lay leaders.
- Look for candidates for ministry.
- Help churches identify the mission field in their community.
- Build connections within the district.
- Claim every child for Christ!

Clarksville District – Bruce Myers District Lay Leader

Urban Ministries & Safe House

- Sponsored by the United Methodist Church, Urban Ministries serves as the clearing house for Montgomery County in identifying and addressing the needs of the poor throughout the region. Volunteers serve as receptionists and staff the food pantry. Safe House is a safe haven for women and children who are victims of domestic violence.
- The F.U.E.L. Program has undertaken the mission to provide some food for these children on the weekends and to help stem the gap on hunger. School counselors and teachers identify the needy children. Then they discreetly put a sack of snacks in their backpacks for the weekends to help keep them from being hungry.

BOARD OF PENSIONS

Steve Curry, Chair

Most of our full-time active and retired clergy participate in defined benefit (DB, or traditional pension) plans. Our plans were funded by the Annual Conference and are administered by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits. The Tennessee Conference's retirement plans are projected to be funded at 109% - 113% in 2017.

The Annual Conference, this Board and their predecessors have been good stewards of the funds entrusted to us. As a result, the Tennessee Conference has pension reserves that should protect our retirees well into the future.

We are blessed we can fund part of our current pension obligations from earnings on our reserves. For 2017, we have requested apportionment funding to cover only 35% or our expected pension obligations. The remaining 65% will be funded through withdrawals from the Conference's Pension reserves. This is part of a 10-year plan being developed by CFA to reduce the church's apportionments by drawing down accumulated reserves.

The 2017 Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan has been prepared and submitted to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits as required by the Book of Discipline (2012), ¶1506.6. We have sufficient projected revenues and reserves to fully fund all the Conference's benefit obligations for the foreseeable future.

Years ago, the Conference Board of Pensions set a goal to maintain our Pre-82 Plan past service rate (PSR) at a minimum of 1.0% of conference average compensation (CAC). We recommend a past service rate of $692 for pre-1982 service years for 2017. This represents a 1.5% increase over the 2016 rate ($682) and is 1.045% of the CAC.

The board expresses its thanks to the hard work of Jim Allen and Melinda Parker, who ensure the smooth working of our benefits plans and support of our retirees. Assistant Benefits Officer Melinda Parker organized the Board of Pensions' annual Pre-Retirement Planning Seminar at Blakemore United Methodist Church on February 25, 2016, and at First UMC in Jackson TN on February 26. All clergy who were eligible to retire in the next five years were invited to attend. Jim Allen led a workshop on Clergy Taxes Using TurboTax, sponsored by our United Methodist Foundation.

Finally, let me express my thanks to the members of the Board of Pensions whose terms will end this year. You have all been fair-minded individuals who assured our retirees were cared for appropriately. Let me add a special thanks to Garland Honeycutt, who preceded me as Chair of the Board of Pensions. His passion and excellence were an inspiration; his guidance will be appreciated by this board for years to come.

REMINDERS

- 1) The General Board of Pension and Health Benefits offers a long term care plan and optional (additional) life insurance for qualified participants.
- 2) The Conference can provide grave markers for deceased United Methodist clergy. Requests should be made to the Office of Administrative Services.

REQUEST FOR ACTION BY ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The Board of Pensions recommends the annual conference approve the following:

- 1. The 2017 Tennessee Conference Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan.
- 2. A past service rate of $692 for pre-1982 service years, effective January 1, 2017.
- 3. Should General Conference approve changes to the clergy benefit plans, which could take effect prior to our 2017 Annual Conference, authorize our Conference Board of Pensions to consider and approve those changes on behalf of the Tennessee Conference.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

James R. "Hap" Hewgley, President

Standing Rule POL 9 authorizes and empowers this Board of Trustees to care for the corporate existence of the Conference under Tennessee state law. With the assistance of attorneys Ken Young, Lisa Carson, and Jim Allen, we substantially completed a major project to terminate or consolidate all our obsolete and extant corporations into one, now known as Tennessee Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc. (incorporated 2003). Former corporations were:

- Tennessee Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South (1870) (merged)
- Board of Trustees of the Tennessee Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc. (1940) (merged)
- Tennessee Conference Board of Camp and Assembly Grounds, Inc. (1958) (terminated)

Legal title to all real property formerly titled to those corporations has been deeded to the single corporation, which will make oversight more efficient. Those real properties include the Conference Office (Davidson County), Beersheba Springs Assembly (Grundy), Cedar Crest Assembly (Hickman), MTSU Wesley Foundation (Rutherford), and APSU Wesley Foundation (Montgomery).

The Trustees also approved corporate bylaws for the corporation. The approved bylaws follow this report.

The Board continued the work from the previous year required by ¶2517 to approve relationship agreements with organizations officially related to the Tennessee Conference. Many nonprofit organizations do great work to share the love of Jesus Christ to a hurting world, one neighborhood at a time; but these officially related organizations can also advertise their relationship to Conference, use the term "United Methodist" and the cross and flame logo, and otherwise share with the world their United Methodist affiliation. We approved an agreement submitted by Community Care Fellowship in Nashville. This brings our officially related organizations to five:

- Miriam's Promise
- Project Transformation Tennessee
- Golden Cross Foundation
- McKendree Village Foundation
- Community Care Fellowship

The Board developed a Request for Proposal, and reviewed bids from four insurance companies concerning the Conference's property and casualty insurance. We learned much about the opportunities and developments in the area of insurance and risk management. We agreed to renew our coverage with Church Mutual Insurance Company for another three-year term, and continue our participation with over 100 of our churches in the Church Mutual Safety Dividend Group.

I would like to thank Administrative Services (Jim Allen, Melinda Parker and Susan Lindeman) as well as Chancellor Lisa Carson for their support of the work of the Board of Trustees, and all of the members of the Board of Trustees for their continued presence, prayers, and service to the Tennessee Conference. To God be the Glory!

- Section 2. A Trustee or Officer is not liable for any action taken, or any failure to take action, as a Trustee or Officer, if he/she performs the duties of his/her office in compliance with the provisions of this Article, or if he/she is immune from suit under the provisions of Section 48-58-601 of the Act.
- Section 3. No Trustee or Officer shall be deemed to be a fiduciary with respect to the Corporation or with respect to any property held or administered by the Corporation, including, without limitation, property that may be subject to restrictions imposed by the donor or transferor of such property.

ARTICLE IX

Indemnification And Advancement Of Expenses

- Section 1. To the maximum extent permitted by the provisions of Sections 48-58-501, et seq., of the Act, as amended from time to time (provided, however, that if an amendment to the Act in any way limits or restricts the indemnification rights permitted by law as of the date hereof, such amendment shall apply only to the extent mandated by law and only to activities of persons subject to indemnification under this Section which occur subsequent to the effective date of such amendment), the Corporation shall indemnify and advance expenses to any person who is or was a Trustee or Officer of the Corporation, or to his/her heirs, executors, administrators and legal representatives, for the defense of any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal (any such action, suit or proceeding being hereinafter referred to as the "Proceeding"), to which such person was, is or is threatened to be made, a named defendant or respondent, which indemnification and advancement of expenses shall include counsel fees actually incurred as a result of the Proceeding or any appeal thereof, reasonable expenses actually incurred with respect to the Proceedings, all fines, judgments, penalties and amounts paid in settlement thereof, subject to the following conditions:
- A. The Proceeding was instituted because such person is or was a Trustee or Officer of the Corporation; and
- B. The Trustee or Officer conducted himself or herself in good faith, and he/she reasonably believed
- 1) in the case of conduct in his/her official capacity with the Corporation, that his/her conduct was in its best interest;
- 2) in all other cases, that his/her conduct was at least not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation; and
- 3) in the case of any criminal proceeding, that he/she had no reasonable cause to believe his/her conduct was unlawful.

The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent is not, of itself, determinative that the Trustee or Officer did not meet the standard of conduct herein described.

- Section 2. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article IX, the Corporation shall not indemnify or advance expenses to or on behalf of any Trustee, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, or such person's heirs, executors, administrators or legal representatives:
- A. If a judgment or other final adjudication adverse to such person establishes his/her liability for any breach of the duty of loyalty to the Corporation, for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, or under Section 48-58-304 of the Act; or
- B. In connection with a Proceeding by or in the right of the Corporation in which such person was adjudged liable to the Corporation; or
- C. In connection with any other Proceeding charging improper personal benefit to such person, whether or not involving action in his/her official capacity, in which he/she was adjudged liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by him or her.
- Section 3. Nothing in these Bylaws shall limit or otherwise affect the power of the Corporation to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a member of the Board of Trustees, employee or agent of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation, against any liability asserted against him/her and incurred by him/her in any capacity or arising out of his/her status, whether or not the Corporation would have the power or would be required to indemnify him/her against liability under the provisions of these Bylaws or any applicable law. To the extent that insurance operates to protect any person against liability, the Corporation's obligation to indemnify shall be deemed satisfied.

ARTICLE X Conflicts Of Interest

Section 1. The purpose of the conflict of interest policy is to protect the Corporation's interest when it is contemplating entering into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interest of an Officer or Trustee of the Corporation or might result in a possible excess benefit transaction. This policy is intended to supplement but not replace any applicable state and federal laws governing conflict of interest applicable to nonprofit and charitable organizations.

Section 2. Definitions:

- A. Interested Person: Any Trustee, principal officer, or member of a committee with governing board delegated powers, who has a direct or indirect financial interest, as defined below, is an interested person.
- B. Financial Interest: A person has a financial interest if the person has, directly or indirectly, through business, investment, or family:
- 1) An ownership or investment interest in any entity with which the Corporation has a transaction or arrangement,
- 2) A compensation arrangement with the Corporation or with any entity or individual with which the Corporation has a transaction or arrangement, or
- 3) A potential ownership or investment interest in, or compensation arrangement with, any entity or individual with which the Corporation is negotiating a transaction or arrangement.

Compensation includes direct and indirect remuneration as well as gifts or favors that are not insubstantial.

A financial interest is not necessarily a conflict of interest. Under Article X, Section 3A, a person who has a financial interest may have a conflict of interest only if the appropriate governing board or committee decides that a conflict of interest exists.

Section 3. Procedures:

- A. Procedures for Addressing the Conflict of Interest:
- 1) An interested person may make a presentation at the governing board or committee meeting, but after the presentation, he/she shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement involving the possible conflict of interest.
- 2) The chairperson of the governing board or committee shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement.
- 3) After exercising due diligence, the governing board or committee shall determine whether the Corporation can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest.
- 4) If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the governing board or committee shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested Trustees whether the transaction or arrangement is in the Corporation's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination it shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement.
- 5) If the governing board or committee is unable to approve or disapprove of a transaction or arrangement through the procedures set forth in this Section 3A(1)-(4), then the Corporation may seek approval of the transaction or arrangement from the Attorney General of the State of Tennessee, or from a court of record having equity jurisdiction in an action in which the Attorney General is joined as a party.
- B. Quorum Requirements: For purposes of this Section 3, a conflict of interest transaction or arrangement is authorized, approved or ratified if it receives the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the governing board or committee, who have no direct or indirect interest in the transaction or arrangement; but a transaction or arrangement may not be authorized, approved or ratified under this Section 3 by a single Trustee. A quorum is present for the purpose of taking action under this Section 3 if a majority of the members of the governing board or committee, who have no direct or indirect interest in the transaction vote to authorize, approve or ratify the transaction or arrangement.

ARTICLE XI Fiscal Year and Audit

The Corporation's fiscal year shall begin on January 1 and close on December 31. The Corporation's books shall be audited annually.

ARTICLE XII Parliamentary Authority

The rules contained in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised shall govern the transactions of the Board of Trustees in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with The Discipline, these bylaws, or any special rules the Conference or the Board of Trustees may adopt.

ARTICLE XIII Amendment of Bylaws

Section 1. These Bylaws may be amended at any meeting of the Board of Trustees by the affirmative vote of a two-thirds majority of the total membership of the Board as then constituted, provided that notice of the proposed amendment shall have been sent to the members of the Board at least ten days in advance and the notice of such meeting clearly sets forth the proposed changes which are to be considered.

Section 2. No bylaw may be amended or adopted if such amendment or adoption would be inconsistent with Tennessee law, The Discipline, or the Standing Rules of the Tennessee Conference of The United Methodist Church.

CHILDREN'S & FAMILY MINISTRIES

Patty Smith, Children's & Family Ministries Director

Increasing Children's Ministry Leaders' Capacity to Make Disciples

Stories from Our Friends in Ministry

"I have been blessed to serve two different UMC church's over the past 16 years. I have attended countless conferences, workshops, read a ton of books, and watched numerous webinars. Recently, though, I felt my ministry was getting stagnant and I needed inspiration. I reached out to our TN Conference Children's Ministry team and have gotten a wealth of encouragement and support. They were genuinely concerned and wanted to help. I now have goals set and a new vision of what God can accomplish through me. I am extremely grateful!"

Brenda Gentry Smith, Children's Director Fayetteville First UMC, Fayetteville TN

"I have had the opportunity to serve at events and see the effective teaching of God's love and grace to children. Through this, I have learned skills to help me share God's love in a way that truly impacts the children I work with at Antioch UMC."

Caitlyn Adams, Project Transformation Fellow Antioch UMC, Antioch, TN

"I have been able to brainstorm creative ways to utilize hands-on techniques to help the children more easily grasp and understand what it truly means to be a disciple. With these creative ideas the children have been able to share life in community with others who desire to follow Jesus as Lord. The children actually desire to witness to the Lordship of Jesus in relationships outside the church.

Partnering with the Conference Children's Team not only impacted the children but the entire family as well. We were able to teach families that worship is coming together as a community where all generations are welcome.

When we teach children that their worship matters, we teach them that they are members of the church community.

Because of our partnership, Nolensville First UMC equips our children and families to go forth and bless others."

Tyra Neftzger, Music Director
Nolensville First UMC, Nolensville, TN

"Since tapping into these conference resources, I have grown in competency and confidence in my ministry. I have been equipped to be a better leader and, through individual coaching sessions, larger training events, and group facilitation in the local church, have been enabled me to construct ministry settings and systems that empower the children and adults in my congregation(s) to be in ministry to and through each other, reaching out in love to the world around them."

Nancy Speas Hill, Director of Children's Ministry Forest Hills UMC, Brentwood, TN

"Partnering with the children's ministry team for the last few years has made a tremendous difference in the way I view my role in the local churches I have served. I have increased my ability to create new ministries and challenge the status quo. I have learned that children's ministry is focusing on equipping leaders who equip children with the tools for a faith that lasts. As a result, we are increasing our capacity to make disciples not just of the children, but their parents, friends, immediate families as well as their church family and congregation. Finally, I know that I am not alone on this journey in children ministry. I have a team to support, coach, and pray with me 24/7! God is good."

Mia Miller, Director of Children's Ministry Gallatin First UMC, Gallatin, TN

"The help we have received in the launching of a Hispanic ministry to reach children, youth and adults find healing and hope through Jesus Christ has been invaluable. The children's ministry team has also provided our church with strategic coaching to help facilitate greater cohesiveness of ministries at Manchester First United Methodist Church. We have been better equipped to serve people of all ages and provide guidance in making disciples for Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world."

Randa Brown, Director of Youth Ministries Manchester First UMC, Manchester TN

CHURCH VITALITY TEAM

John H. Collett, Jr., Chair

The mission of the Tennessee Conference is to discover, equip, connect, and send lay and clergy leaders who shape congregations that offer Jesus Christ to a hurting world one neighborhood at a time. (adopted AC 2014)

On behalf of Bishop McAlilly, John Collett began leading the Church Vitality Team in mid-2015. During the later half of 2015, the Church Vitality Team met on two half-days in the fall of 2015 – September 28 and November 5 and conducted conversation in smaller groups via conference call. (Notes from these meetings and conversations are available.)

The September 28 meeting was aimed at focusing the team on its vision, mission, and strategy. The main take-away from the meeting was that the team needed to (1) access all the "tools" available for its use with congregations such as Healthy Congregations, 72+U, Spiritual Leadership, Inc (SLI), Natural Church Development, Small Church Youth Ministry Initiative, to name a few; (2) put in place a "first step" of consultation with pastors and congregations about mission, vision, values, and missional strategy. The team determined that more conversation was needed around these key elements and organized conference calls in smaller groups on October 5.

The conversations on October 5 emphasized the need to develop a "facilitating" process to come alongside pastors and congregations to help them with visioning and becoming missional.

The November 5 meeting was facilitated by Rev. Beth Crissman of Plowpoint, Inc. Beth guided the group in analyzing how our congregations in the present context have become less than vital and disconnected from the neighbors in its context. Beth also illustrated two methods for congregational planning: (1) to work with a pastor/congregation from four disciplines: subjective information gathering, objective information gathering, assessment, and planning. (2) Another tool for team building is the process of forming, storming, norming, and performing.

Again, the November 5 meeting stressed (1) knowing how and when to use the "tools" available to us to help congregations and (2) the need to "walk alongside" pastors and congregations through a visioning and strategic planning process.

Skip Armistead convened a task team to assess our various "tools" and recommend those most useful to us now. The list includes 72+U, Spiritual Leadership, Inc. (SLI), Healthy Congregations, Small Church Youth Ministry Initiative, and Natural Church Development, and 16 other potential ministries. These recommendations are not intended to exclude the use of any other valuable tools.

Following this work, John formed a steering team to distill the ideas and focus the direction of the Church Vitality Team. (Steering team members: Skip Armistead, Angela Overstreet, Michelle Chaney, Joe Bowers, Susan Groseclose, Jeff Steszoff, and Gail High)

The steering team met for two hours on December 10. The team again reviewed all the work across the fall of 2015 and assessments of the "tools" we have.

The steering team determined the following in order to increase the potential of congregations to offer Jesus Christ to a hurting world and to disciple persons in Christ and the church:

- The specific mission of the Church Vitality Team (CVT) is "to make disciples of Jesus Christ by increasing the potential (or capacity) of local congregations."
- The steering team recommends that more work needs to be done around the definition of words such as mission, missional, facilitation, potential, capacity, and fruitful.
- CVT will enlist and equip facilitators to "walk alongside" pastors and congregations to help them assess the current realities of the congregation and community and plan toward missional engagement with the neighbors. A budget to provide a stipend and cover expenses for the facilitators is being developed (2016, 2017)
- The team will develop an "intake" system whereby pastors will know who to contact for help in missional planning. The conference Website will also be a source of information.
- CVT will work with District Superintendents to enlist pastors and congregation leaders to form cohort learning communities that will focus on how to become a missional congregation, engaging neighbors, offering Christ, and discipling that others might be "sent."
- CVT will work with the cabinet in selecting congregations for this process. Selection could be based on the readiness of pastors and congregations and the strategic potential of particular congregations.

The steering team identified characteristics of persons to be enlisted and equipped as facilitators.

Characteristics and roles of facilitators:

- Grounded in pastoral/congregational experience
- Has "lived it" helping congregations be in relationship with neighbors
- Strives to be "Christ" to the congregation and the pastor
- Possess emotional intelligence
- Adaptive leader
- Good listener
- Resists the impulse to try to "fix" the congregation
- Cannot assume to be an "expert"
- Able to ask good questions
- Person of prayer
- Has good sensibilities for the health of congregations
- Capacity to do contextual assessments
- Able to relate to a variety of persons

- Knows own limitations/boundaries
- Genuine, credible, trustworthy
- Knowledgeable of the use of tools such as Healthy Congregations, etc.
- Understands of deep change and family systems
- Desires to help develop the leadership potential within pastors and congregations

Equipping facilitators would involve:

- Cohort learning about visioning, mission, strategy, and tools
- Assessing the facilitator's particular experience with types of congregations and contexts
- Apprenticeship with experienced facilitators

The Church Vitality Team also approved a grant to Small Church Youth Ministry Initiative (Brad Fiscus) for 2016 for $21,000. This grant provides facilitation and coaching from Youth Ministry Architects to work with the cohort groups and training our own youth ministry coaches.

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

George L. Jensen, Chair

The Commission on Equitable Compensation has worked to establish a minimum standard of compensation for appointed clergy. We strive to ensure each pastor of the Annual Conference will receive a fair and just compensation for his/her full-time professional services in devotion to the Lord. We are guided in these efforts by The Book of Discipline (2012) and the policies established by the Conference.

We recommend the following to the conference for action:

I. MINIMUM COMPENSATION LEVELS:

The commission recommends the following minimum compensation levels for 2017, which are 2% higher than 2016. "Compensation" includes salary, utilities, and any other benefit paid by the local church. It does not include housing, which is the obligation of the charge, ¶252.4e. Also note this does not include the local church's fund for reimbursement to pastors for expenses incurred in the fulfillment of their professional responsibilities ("accountable reimbursement"). That reimbursement is in addition to the pastor's salary ¶ 627.

Full Conference, Provisional	$39,393	$40,180
and Commissioned Members:
Associate Members:	$35,755	$36,470
Full Time Local Pastors:	$34,373	$35,060

II. QUALIFICATION PROCESS FOR EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

To qualify for an Equitable Compensation Grant, a charge must submit an application to the Commission on Equitable Compensation through their District Superintendent. The application will explain in detail why conference funds should be used for this charge, and what efforts have been made to raise the funds needed to pay the pastor's salary. Additionally the application must explain the goals for the charge and pastor, and how it is engaging in its mission field. The following information must be included with the application:

- 1. Proposed 2016 compensation for the pastor, including Equitable Compensation Grant and housing.
- 2. Printout of most recent full year Table 2.
- 3. Charge or church budgets for the most recent year, with most recent audit if any
- 4. Balance of all funds on hand, including operating, reserve and endowment funds.
- 5. Schedule to move off of Equitable Compensation within four years, or progress if this is not first year

The application must be signed by the SPRC or Council Chair, and District Superintendent, and recommended by the Cabinet to the Equitable Compensation Commission. If a grant application is approved by the Commission, Administrative Services will be instructed to forward the funds monthly to the church's bank using ACH (direct deposit)

III. 2017 APPORTIONMENT REQUEST: $200,000

At the date of this submission the appointments for 2016-17 have not been finalized. Therefore, the Commission on Equitable Compensation will meet with the Bishop and Cabinet during the spring to determine the amount that will be awarded to various charges from this budgeted amount based on justified need and availability of funds. This schedule will be included in the final Journal.

IV. Arrearage Policy

According to The Book of Discipline (2012), ¶¶624.1-.2 and 625.2d, the Commission on Equitable Compensation is to submit "an arrearage policy to be adopted by the annual conference." This policy is to address the situation where a church is slow or unable to pay the agreed upon compensation of its pastor. Following this report is the Arrearage Policy approved by the Annual Conference in June 2014.

Tennessee Conference Arrearage Policy

1. In the event the local church treasurer becomes aware the church will be unable to provide to the pastor full payment of a regularly scheduled payroll or housing allowance installment, the church treasurer shall immediately notify both verbally (within 24 hours) and in writing (within three days) the Pastor, the Lay Leader, and the Chairs of S/PPRC, Finance, Trustees, and the Administrative/Church Council of the impending arrearage. Upon receipt of such notice, the Chair of S/PPRC and/or the Pastor shall immediately (within three days) notify the District Superintendent of the impending arrearage.

If the pastor does not receive an agreed upon payment and does not receive written notice from the local church treasurer required above, the pastor may initiate this process by notifying the District Superintendent within 30 days of the missed payment.

It is the pastor's responsibility to keep copies of all such written notifications, and to provide additional written confirmation (see #8 below) to the District Superintendent when an arrearage has taken place. Failure to document salary or benefit arrearages may result in a loss of compensation and/or forfeiture of benefits.

2. Upon receipt of notice of a pending arrearage, the Chair of S/PPRC shall immediately (within three days) call a meeting of the Pastor, Lay Leader, and Chairs of Finance, Trustees, the Administrative/Church Council, and the District Superintendent to discuss the financial situation and seek remedies to prevent an arrearage from occurring.

Such remedies might include:

- a. Drawing from invested funds, including short-term borrowing from designated funds.
- b. An emergency appeal for special giving from the congregation.
- c. Emergency grants or loans from the District or Conference.

 According to The Book of Discipline ¶624.1, such remedies cannot include a reduction in the Pastor's compensation until the beginning of the next Conference year.
- 3. If, after consultation among the Lay Leader and Chairs of S/PPRC, Finance, Trustees, the Administrative/Church Council, and District Superintendent, it becomes apparent the church may be facing a long term financial crisis, the Chair of S/PPRC shall notify in writing the Pastor and District Superintendent that:
- a. An Equitable Compensation Subsidy Grant may be necessary to maintain compensation for the remainder of the Conference year, or
- b. A change in pastoral compensation or appointment may be necessary at the beginning of the following Conference year.
- 4. If the local church becomes delinquent in the pastor's compensation (i.e. more than 30 days delinquent), then the District Superintendent shall notify the Commission on Equitable Compensation, which on its own initiative may do any or all of the following, but not limited to:
- a. Sending a representative from CEC to meet with the local church and pastor to seek resolution of the issue, and
- b. Developing with the local church a payment plan so that the pastor receives full payment of compensation by the end of the conference year.

The District Superintendent shall be invited to participate in this process.

- 5. If the local church is already receiving a subsidy grant from the Commission on Equitable Compensation, the Commission may also:
- a. Examine the original subsidy grant application to determine if the amount requested to meet minimum compensation was reduced,
- b. Require an outside audit of all church funds in compliance with GCFA Guidelines (gcfa.org), and
- c. Notify the District Superintendent of its findings and recommendations in writing.
- 6. ¶ 2542.1 of The Book of Discipline (2012) makes clear that no real property on which a church building or parsonage is located shall be mortgaged to pay for the current or budgeted expenses of a local church (including arrearages), nor shall the principal proceeds of a sale of any such property be so used. This provision shall apply alike to unincorporated and incorporated local churches.
- 7. In extreme and unresolved circumstances, the local church and/or pastor may petition a session of the annual conference, following proper procedures, for assistance in payment of the arrearage not to exceed the minimum conference compensation standards. However, it is the responsibility of the local church to provide a minimum compensation for its appointed clergy (¶624).
- 8. It is the responsibility of the pastor to provide evidence of an arrearage by providing documentation such as: Treasurer's Reports, Charge Conference reports of adopted salary and compensation, check stubs, W-2 forms, and a Certification of Payment Form signed by the Pastor, S/PPRC Chair, Trustee Chair, Treasurer and Administrative/Church Council Chair. If such persons are not making themselves available to sign, the information will be provided with the signature of the Pastor and the District Superintendent.
- 9. The statute of limitations for filing a claim for funds from the Annual Conference (i.e. notification to the District Superintendent of the arrearage) for any salary arrearage is one year from the date of the initial arrearage. Once an appointment ends the Pastor no longer has claim on the local church for compensation funds (¶342.4).

COMMISSION ON THE STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN

Rev. Lanita H. Monroe

Formally established by the General Conference in April 1972, the General Commission on the Status and Role of Women set out with some very specific hopes:

- Support for women in ordained ministry
- Recognition of women as competent
- Women leaders at all levels of the church
- Pioneer humanizing process and liberation of women and men
- Free women in church and society
- Broaden women's vision in local congregations
- Equal pay for equal work
- Accept without stereotyping
- Sharing images and feelings as sexual persons
- Expose places in the church where hurt because of sexism (These ten items can be found on the GCSRW website in presentation on their history.)

At its inception, the ideals and goals of GCSRW brought to light the role women had and were playing in the local church without having representation or (in many cases) equal rights. It was a time when culturally we needed to make significant changes in who we were becoming as a denomination. GCSRW continues to hold an important place in helping local churches and our denomination to be healthy across gender lines as we work together in both clergy and lay relationships.

My hope for the coming years for GCSRW and the Tennessee Annual Conference COSROW is that we will recognize the importance of being inclusive without being exclusive. I have often watched our Annual Conference exclude faithful, gifted clergy from places of leadership simply because they are white men. How can we hear the voices and see the representation of all people, if we exclude ones who historically have enabled us to obtain our place as "competent" colleagues? It is my hope that we move into a new era in which COSROW focuses on both competency and inclusiveness; that we see one another first as colleagues working together for God's kingdom. For by our baptism "there is no longer Jew or Greek, there is no longer slave or free, there is no longer male and female; for all of [us] are one in Christ Jesus" (Galatians 3:28).

COMMITTEE ON NATIVE AMERICAN MINISTRIES (CONAM)

Mary T. Newman, representing Native American & Indigenous Peoples Ministries

Per The Book of Discipline, ¶ 654, CONAM is charged with promoting and providing resources for Native American Ministry Sunday, one of our six Special Sunday offerings. One of our primary goals is "understanding through education." We provide the local churches a short "job description" for representing Native American Ministries on the local church level, as it is a "shall have" position for the local church. In this report, we also share with the annual conference how our Special Offering funds are used.

- In 2015, our 12th annual Native American Resource Day was held at Blackman UMC in the Murfreesboro District. A Sunday afternoon provides the local church the opportunity to come together and view audio/video resources, displays, reproducible printed materials and welcome speakers who address specific topics. We also share a traditional Native American meal. This is an afternoon of presenting reproducible materials to the local church to resource Native American Ministry Sunday.
 - *Speakers are available and we are able to share the displays and resources created or collected from other sources.
- Our partnership with Native American Services of Tennessee and Native American Indian Association continued. We are present at Red Clay Historical area and the Chattanooga festival/pow wow.
- At N.A.I.A. we strengthened our sponsorship of the health fair at their pow wow, the largest in the state of Tennessee. More than 400 school children took home bags with our logo and resources such as healthy activity coloring sheets, bookmarks, crayons and more. Eleven schools got a packet of books for their school libraries. Over 12,500 went "through the gates." Meharry Medical College brought seventeen students and doctors to supervise testing for blood pressure and blood glucose. Family and Children Services was there in shifts to talk about affordable health care and referrals. Our main tent was full of materials to give away. Packets were created intentionally for the dancers and vendors. At our tables, everyone was welcome to take materials. There was also a focus on "Rock the Vote", encouraging Native Americans to register to vote.

- Our 14th annual retreat, Native Moccasins Rock, was held in August. The theme in 2015 was "Learn it from the source, not the internet."
- We average 12 tribes/nations as participants or leaders. One of our goals is diversity with inclusiveness. This event is open to the secular community, the local church, and the Native American communities. Our leadership is internationally and nationally known and they devote much of their time to one on one conversations. This is an interactive weekend based on fellowship; sharing our Wesleyan connectional system and our great Creator God through Jesus Christ. This weekend is intergenerational with areas for children, youth and adults.
 - *As an ongoing effort to introduce Native American children and youth who want the opportunity to attend, we pledge scholarships as part of our resources.
 - We now have one attending business college. He has been attending 10 out of 13 years of Native Moccasins Rock! In 2015, we celebrated that a brother and sister have been coming 10 years and will be seniors. We are encouraging attendance at Martin Methodist.
- We encourage recognition and celebration of Native American Ministry Sunday any time of the year. This "Offering Sunday" is on the calendar after Easter and is in the calendaring time of Mothers Day and Golden Cross Sunday. This creates a challenge among individuals and congregations to celebrate and support this Special Sunday offering. We had 37 churches give to NAMS. This is down from previous years. We received $5767.00. The total giving is lower than 2014. We are blessed though by churches recognizing the 'Special Sunday' and still have their own projects or programs working with Native Americans. That is an average of $10.00 per church. When we look at the facts in this manner, we know there is much to be done. One half of the monies collected stay in the TN Annual Conference and one half is dispensed through GCF&A. Global Ministries-Native American and Indigenous Peoples Division is able to use monies from the Special Offering for educational endeavors and scholarships for Native Americans to attend seminary are available.
- CONAM voted to purchase an enclosed cargo trailer. We are 'out in the community' and through a grant from GBGM, Native American Ministries, we purchased tables and a tent. The trailer purchase will be studied and when purchased will have our logos on the sides and inside will be racks with materials, tables, tent and more.
- The Tennessee Conference Committee on Native American Ministries strives to continue the resolution at General Conference mandating an Act of Repentance service at each annual conference. Much is to be learned, not just of the past, but also of the present in order to live into the future. In 2015, Bishop McAlilly began the scheduling for the joint service with Memphis for The Act of Repentance service.
- The Tennessee Conference CONAM is diverse and inclusive in the make up of the committee. Presently, we have Native American, Pacific Islanders, Caucasian and African American in our membership. We represent YOU.

COMMUNICATIONS

Amy J. Hurd, Director of Communications

Overall, the TNUMC Communications goals include:

- increase engagement at all levels in the mission field;
- ensure consistent, attractive and effective communications that increase awareness of ministries and beliefs;
- speed the adoption of the strategic plan and 72+U training resources among the conference;
- provide conference and local churches tools to communicate with local churches, clergy, laity and those unclaimed by the church; and
- develop an organization capable of carrying out the strategic communications plan effectively and efficiently.

The work of the new communications director, in connection with the conference communications committee, has focused on: redesigning and relaunching the conference website and newsletters, developing positive relationships with local and institutional media, and building stronger communications relationships within the conference.

Launch of New Conference Website at tnumc.org

On April 10, the new conference website was launched after a thorough seven-month research and design process, Contractor, Big Heart Creative, worked with the staff to build the foundation for the site. Currently, staff are populating and updating pages under the direction of the communications director.

The page with Annual Conference information, tnumc.org/AC2016, can be bookmarked on mobile device browsers to serve very much like an "App" where all things Annual Conference are easily accessed.

The website is constantly being updated. District administrators, clergy, and churches now have the ability to upload jobs, news & photos, and events (that are of conference-wide significance) to the site. Uploads are reviewed for appropriateness before made "live" on the site.

Quarterly Connector Print Newsletter

Quarterly Connector newsletters were printed and mailed in November and in February. Content highlighted how our churches are being "connectional" and how Connectional Ministries staff are increasing the capacity to make disciples at conference churches.

- The publication reflects the conference vision to "discover, equip, connect, and send."
- This print publication is mailed to all clergy and to designated leaders in each church. It is designed so it can easily be reprinted and distributed by churches in addition to being available electronically on the new website
- The publication schedule is November, February, May, and August with the submission deadline on the 15th of the previous month.

The E-Connector (email newsletter)

The conference email newsletter was redesigned when the website was launched. We now can link to longer stories, event notices, and news on the website. This ability to include relevant, substantial information hopefully will make this e-newsletter a more useful tool for our target audiences—clergy, district staff and church laity.

Media Relations

The communications director has worked with the bishop, district superintendents, and clergy to prepare for several potential media crises, sometimes bringing in outside assistance. This forethought and preparation has, on the most part, helped us to manage and/or avoid unwanted media attention.

- Staff members also were prepped for media interviews related to Disaster Response and Insure Tennessee activities.
- At Christmas, the communications director worked with the disaster response coordinator to keep the media informed about tornado damage at Lutts UMC and what needs could be addressed in that community.

Building Relationships

The communications director is involved with the Religion Communicators Council, an interfaith communications organization, and with professional groups Public Relations Society of America (PRSA), the United Methodist Association of Communicators (UMAC), and Southeast Jurisdiction (SEJ) communicators.

In the coming months, efforts will be made to strengthen relationships with TNUMC Communications Committee members, district administrators, conference church communicators, and communicators at related "sister" organizations.

The communications director will continue to support and publicize the activities of the bishop and the TNUMC delegations at General Conference in Portland and the SEJ Conference at Lake Junaluska.

CONGREGATIONAL DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE

John Hill, chair

By the year 2020, we will have a mission field of approximately two million people across Middle Tennessee who will not be actively involved in a local church. Currently, Middle Tennessee is growing by 50,000 people annually, with many communities within Davidson and surrounding counties growing 5-10% or more each year. On any given Sunday, only 1.8% of Middle Tennesseans worship in a Tennessee Conference United Methodist church.

As the Tennessee Conference seeks to "discover, equip, connect and send lay and clergy leaders who shape congregations that offer Jesus Christ to a hurting world, one neighborhood at a time," we see the role of the Congregational Development Committee as working with others to help start new churches, transform and revitalize existing churches, and offer resources and training for church leaders to aid in this mission.

Our work has continued to grow, and in many ways we have outgrown the ability of a large committee to do all the work effectively. We had already divided the committee into a few teams to work on particular areas, and this year we decided to give those teams more authority and autonomy. Rather than bringing all decisions back to the larger committee, we have empowered the teams to make decision on their own within the scope of their work. This will enable us to be nimbler as we try to address the challenges the church faces today and in the future.

We are grateful for the support of and collaboration with Bishop McAlilly, the Cabinet, CF&A, the Board of Ordained Ministry, various local churches, and our conference staff. This year, we have had two fabulous individuals out of the Bishop's office providing staff leadership to our area on an interim basis: Rev. John Collett as Director of Congregational Excellence and Lynn Taylor as Director of New Church Development. While both continued their work in the Episcopal office, they took on these added responsibilities and did an exemplary job. We give thanks for them and for the Conference's recognition of the importance of this work and willingness to fund it. There remains a need to find a long-term solution for the staffing need of this important work in our Conference.

New Church Starts

The New Church Starts Team is focused on starting new faith communities in the Tennessee Conference. We are working together to birth 20 new churches or innovative ministries by 2020 to further the mission of the Tennessee Conference. Through prayer we will Discover Places, Equip Planters, Connect Partners, and Send Passionate Disciples to reach thousands of new people with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. These "New Places for New Faces" will particularly focus on connecting with those in our communities who have never known the saving grace of Christ or have become disconnected from the life of discipleship in a community of faith.

Discover Places: In this quadrennium, we have partnered with others to help start several new churches or ministries including Home Church (Nashville), The Village Church (Nashville/Nolensville), Ebenezer Hispanic Ministry at 61st Avenue UMC (Nashville), THRIVE Church of Good Shepherd UMC (Hendersonville), Celebrate Recovery at Hermitage UMC, Egyptian Ministry at Hamilton UMC (Nashville/Antioch), East Bank UMC (East Nashville), Fresh START of Craft Memorial UMC (Columbia), First UMC Manchester Hispanic Ministry, Mercy Street UMC (Smyrna), Emanuel Bell Buckle UMC Hispanic Ministry, Torre Fuerte New Providence UMC Hispanic Ministry (Clarksville), Trinity Community Ministry (Nashville), and Gallatin CARES Worship Center. Additionally, we have identified over 20 potential places to explore in the coming years.

Equip Planters: We have worked collaboratively with Path1 (Discipleship Ministries), the Cabinet, and the Board of Ordained Ministry to identify potential church planters. Path1 has previously led our discernment efforts for potential planters, but we are in the process of developing a system to be able to do this within our Conference. Once appointed by the Cabinet to a new church start, a planter will attend one or more training events and receive ongoing professional coaching. We continue to work on developing a pool of potential planters who have been vetted by others and equipped for this work.

Connect Partners: One key component in being able to start more and healthier churches is partner churches. Whether they provide some administrative support (fiscal agent, copying machine, etc.), financial support, meeting space, or serve in some capacity to "mother" a new congregation, partner churches give new churches a much higher probability of success. We are grateful for the many churches already serving as partners in this work. If you or your church are interested in becoming a partner, please let us know.

Send Passionate Disciples: The development of each new project involves months of collaboration and conversation among many partners, all centered on prayerfully considering whether this is the right planter(s), in the right place, at the right time. Once a viable strategy has been developed, the full New Church Starts Team makes the decision regarding funding, pending appointment and approval of the Cabinet. At the beginning of a project and once annually afterward, stakeholders will meet to develop mutually agreed upon goals and reporting, which will then be used to periodically evaluate the success of the project and its funding going forward.

Church Vitality

The Church Vitality Team is focused on increasing the health and vitality of each church in the Tennessee Conference. The team continues to offer a variety of approaches in these efforts, including Healthy Congregations, Spiritual Leadership Incorporated (SLI), Strengthening the Black Church for the 21st Century (SBC21), 72+U, resources from the Evangelism Committee, DiSC assessments, and Natural Church Development (NCD). Dozens of churches across the Conference are already involved in one of these processes. If your church is interested in engaging in a process for revitalization, please contact your District Superintendent or the Conference Office. Additionally, the team is developing a process of coming alongside a church who desires to increase its vitality, serving in a consulting fashion, and walking them through steps toward greater faithfulness and fruitfulness.

We have continued to partner with Conference and District efforts to increase the vitality of local congregations by providing funding for churches to participate in Spiritual Leadership, Inc. (SLI) groups and in the Small Church Youth Ministry Initiative. We continue to offer the MissionInsite demographics service for all churches in the Tennessee Conference. This is an amazing resource to help church leaders learn more about their communities, plan and strategize for outreach, and set new vision or direction for ministry focus.

Missional Faith Communities

A new area for our committee is Missional Faith Communities. These are expressions of church that do not necessarily look like our traditional picture of church. One example of this is a matching grant to provide Resource Navigators shared among six churches in the Nashville District. These Resource Navigators will work with people experiencing homelessness and poverty to help them find the resources needed to obtain housing, employment, benefits, and other sources of support and stability. We are just beginning to scratch the surface of outside-the-box ways to be the church in the world.

COOPERATIVE MINISTRIES COMMITTEE

Dr. Joe E. Bowers, Consultant/Chairperson

The Cooperative Ministries Committee served this past year as part of the Conference Church Vitality Team and as such purposed to identify, develop, and/or support congregations that work together cooperatively in intentional ministries. This committee continues to seek ways to educate, encourage, and support churches/organizations that work in partnership ministries.

The committee works with local churches/organizations in the Tennessee Conference in two ways:

- 1. To educate congregations and train leaders, by defining partner ministries, identifying and sharing examples (stories) of such in the Conference communication venues.
- 2. The administration (granting) of the "Helping Hands Seed Grant" program. Grants are given to groups that are beginning or continuing a partnership ministry that reflects the mission of the church and committee. Grants are annual, with information, deadlines, and applications available on the Conference Website.

The following ministries recieved grants this past year (2015):

- Bethel UMC (Clarksville District)
- Bon Aqua UMC (Columbia District)
- Neely's Bend UMC (Cumberland District)
- Monterey UMC (Cookeville District)
- Nashville Freedom School Partnership (Nashville District)

The committee wishes to express gratitude for the support of the Tennessee Conference Church Vitality Staff and extends an invitation to anyone to participate in the opportunities offered by the committee.

COUNCIL ON CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES

John H. Collett, Jr., Acting Director of CCOCM

During the conference year 2015-2016, the Tennessee Conference Council on Connectional Ministries continued to pursue the mission of the conference "to discover, equip, connect, and send lay and clergy leaders who shape congregations that offer Jesus Chris to a hurting world, one neighborhood at a time." The pursuit of this mission has four focus areas: (1) investing in young people, (2) growing fruitful and faithful congregations, (3) engaging the mission field, and (4) creating transforming lay and clergy leaders. The CCOCM and its staff have sharpened the focus on this mission: to help increase the capacity of local congregations to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

The beginning of the conference year saw several CCOCM staff changes with three members taking appointments in local churches and two other key administrative support staff leaving for either other employment or moving to another part of the country. John Collett was on assignment from the Bishop's office to help the conference develop a center for fruitful congregations, working with the Church Vitality Team of Congregational Development. Lynn Taylor, also from the Bishop's office, began a process of visiting and assessing all the sites where Congregational Development is investing resources in new church starts or new missional communities. By early fall, the CCOCM Director, Rev. Bettye Lewis, announced her retirement effective February 1, 2016. In November, Bishop McAlilly and the CCOCM Personnel Connection assigned John Collett as Acting Director of the CCOCM and staff. John worked alongside Bettye Lewis December 2015 and January 2016, and began leading the staff February 1.

Staff transitions continued into 2016. The CCOCM Personnel Committee employed two new assistants, Jullie Meyer and Izzie Zimmerman. Acting Director John Collett began working closely with individual staff members to assess gifts and passions for ministry and to build a team spirit and a common sense of direction. As a result, Mary T Newman will now coordinate ethnic minority and Native American ministries, faith-based health initiatives, and interfaith relations. Patty Smith is now deployed from the CCOCM as director of learning and innovation for episcopal initiatives and district leader development. Brad Fiscus now heads Next Gen Discipleship that includes ministry with children, youth, young adults, and campus ministries as well as family systems. Brad serves as the lead trainer for the conference in Healthy Boundaries and Sexual Ethics in partnership with the Office of Ministerial Concerns. Additionally, he serves as a teacher and consultant to the Certified Lay Ministry Academy at Martin Methodist College. Angela Overstreet focuses on mission and disaster response. Merrilee Wineinger relates to ministries of social holiness and wholistic living.

The CCOCM Executive-Personnel Committee coordinated several focus groups during the year including four in the districts. The desire was to listen to the "grass-roots" about the role and direction of conference Connectional Ministries. Patty Smith designed and facilitated a 3-pronged approach of focus groups, a survey, and CCOCM input. The input has proven very valuable and is guiding missional alignment of the CCOCM structure and staffing. The CCOCM body, meeting in October of 2015 and April of 2016, has encouraged a process of envisioning how its program entities would better align with our mission. Efforts toward that end are underway. We are living out of the old structures and into the new. As Bishop McAlilly often reminds us, "We are building the bridge and walking on it at the same time." Structural alignment will become clearer during next conference year. Many of the members and leaders of our committees will continue through this year as we navigate toward a new alignment and renewed leadership enlistment. A more complete report will be presented to the 2017 Annual Conference. As to future personnel, the committee continues discerning what kind of leadership is needed to advance our mission.

Meanwhile, much advancing is occurring. Amy Hurd, our new director of communications as of July 1, 2015, has enhanced our communications methods and channels through improvements in regular print and electronic feeds to the conference and through the building of a new website. The website debuted the first part of April of this year and has been widely hailed. As we continue to add content, resources, and links to the website, we want it to represent a one-stop shopping center for resources and connections. Amy will continue to help us tell our stories of what God is doing through our congregations and in the lives of people.

The key to our work is the efforts of our Congregational Development Committee. CDC supports the starting of new churches and missional communities. The team is on track to have launched 20 new churches by 2020. Many new expressions of "church" are springing up as missional communities, often supported by CDC resources. The Church Vitality Team deploys assistance by way of Healthy Congregations workshops and missional facilitators who "walk alongside" pastors and congregations in engaging their neighbors in the mission field of our congregations.

The work of the CCOCM team and staff include investing in young people through major gatherings such as Warmth in Winter, attracting 2,400 participates, and Summer Sizzler, maxing out our facilities at Beersheba Springs Retreat Center. Another significant investment in young people continues with the fourth year of the Smaller Church Youth Ministry Initiative led by Brad Fiscus, involving teams from about a dozen churches each cycle engaged in a year-long process involving cohort learning one Saturday each month and individual coaching to implement youth ministry development in each local church. Thus far, 42 congregations, including those currently participating, have displayed clear gains in fruitfulness.

Patty Smith continued giving conference leadership in children's ministries including NRG for preteens that drew over 200 people. She has equipped conference initiatives such as 72+U and Spiritual Leadership, Inc. plus many training events in the districts. Patty produces learning and innovation videos and Power Point presentations of high quality. She has worked with the Cookeville District in developing the District Ministry Academy.

Angela Overstreet's skill in managing our response teams in the midst of a natural disaster was on display on Christmas Eve in the aftermath of a series of tornadoes that touched down across southern Middle TN. Angela guided our first-response efforts and long term recovery work with the people of the Pulaski and Columbia Districts. Disaster response preparedness is an ongoing effort led by Angela. She represents our conference and our disaster response capacities in many local and regional bodies. Additionally, Angela coordinates our connectional mission work across the conference, nationally, and internationally.

Merrilee Wineinger guides our works of social holiness, mercy, justice, advocacy, and wholistic living. These efforts are seen in numerous facets of life in Middle TN. We strive in many ways to advance the health and well being of persons, households, and communities across the conference.

Adult and Older Adult Ministries is a strong component of our ministry. The Council plans and implements major conferences each year to increase the capacity of congregations to maintain active ministries with older adults of the congregation and community. The Golden Cross Foundation, supporting senior ministries across the conference, provides assistance to Adult and Older Adult Ministries. The Golden Cross Foundation has also initiated Encore Ministries, led by Dr. Rick Gentzler, to help congregations and communities build capacity to minister with and on behalf of older adults. Encore Ministries wants to help congregations and communities tap the talents and energies of aging baby boomers and encourage the development of systems to assist seniors with food security, transportation, and affordable housing.

With the leadership of Administrative Services, a new phone system was installed with a much more effective automation and call-direction as back up to the personal touch of our receptionists. All departments at the conference center – CCOCM, Administrative Services, Ministerial Concerns, UM Foundation – are cooperating to improve the function of the building and to refurbish common areas.

The current 2016 budget for the CCOCM is believed to be sufficient for the work, given that some program staff positions are yet to be filled. The CCOCM is proposing to this annual conference a 2017 budget of $1,252,861, an increase of $9,200. Anticipated income from events reduces the demand on budget even further.

The staff of the CCOCM has again been indispensable in assisting the Conference Nominating Committee and in the planning and implementation of this annual conference session. Your Conference Council on Connectional Ministries is evolving to be sure we focus our time, energy, and resources on helping local congregations increase the capacity to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. We will further connect our efforts, congregation to congregation, to be a voice in middle TN for the well being of our members, neighbors, and communities. We will continue to learn how best to equip leaders that shape congregations to be our mission stations to offer Jesus Christ to a hurting world, one neighborhood at a time.

COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

John W. Vaughan, President

PART I – Action Items

The Council on Finance and Administration reports and recommends to the Conference:

- 1. A total apportioned budget for 2017 of $13,063,231, as provided in the Table in Part IV and described later in this report.
- 2. That the total budget adopted at the Annual Conference be apportioned to the churches, plus the amounts approved by the seven district conferences, using the method most recently approved as modified by Annual Conference in 2012.
- 3. That the approved travel expense for staff and members of committees, boards, councils, agencies and other entities of the Conference be reimbursed at a rate set by the entity not to exceed the maximum amount allowed by the Internal Revenue Service for business travel.
- 4. That the expenses for at-large members of the 2016 Annual Conference be reimbursed at a rate not to exceed $150 per day ($450 maximum) plus mileage not to exceed the IRS rate for the owner of a vehicle used for transit to and from the conference (Standing Policy 44).
- 5. That the base compensation of the District Superintendents for 2017 be unchanged from 2016, at $102,000.
- 6. That the housing allowance designation for clergy conference staff pursuant to Internal Revenue Code § 107 as listed in the Table in Part IV of this Report be approved.
- 7. That CFA be authorized to study the capital expenses of the conference, and prepare for 2017 Annual Conference a Capital Budget, if such appears to be useful to understanding the ministry of the Conference.
 - 8. That a Strategic Plan be developed for consideration at the 2017 Annual Conference.
- 9. That Jim Allen be nominated to continue to serve as Treasurer, Director of Administrative Services, Conference Benefits Officer and Statistician for the coming quadrennium.

PART II – Discussion

The Council on Finance and Administration was pleased the Tennessee Conference was able to pay 100% of its general and jurisdictional church apportionments for 2015. This is our fourth year of achieving this goal, and we intend to work with the churches and the cabinet to meet that goal in future years.

After carefully considering all requests for funds, line by line, the Council on Finance and Administration recommends to the Conference a total budget for 2017 of $13,063,231. Although the Budget includes increases on some lines, CFA proposes to balance the budget by withdrawing up to $2,232,396 from Pension reserves and $196,550 from Health Plan reserves, for a total reserve drawdown of $2,428,946. We were blessed with the benefits of substantial market growth in 2013 and 2014; but the market was decidedly indifferent if not specifically unkind to us in 2015, so the funds being used to balance 2017's budget are withdrawals from the corpus of our savings, and not earnings.

The breakdown of the budget by fund is at the end of this report, and the breakdown of each fund budget is posted on the conference website.

All requests made to the Council were approved consistent with our ministry, and were forwarded to you for approval. At the same time, the Council has requested greater oversite by some boards of the use of your apportionment dollars, and instructed our Treasurer not to disburse funds to organizations after this year until an audit has been received, as required by the Discipline ¶617.2.

The Council also addressed the 2014 audit of the Conference. For the fourth straight year, that report was fully GAAP-compliant, and included no significant matters, internal control deficiencies, or audit exceptions. At the time this CFA report to Annual Conference was prepared, the 2015 audit by Parker, Parker and Associates, CPAs had not been completed, but it will be printed in the Journal. The Council approved continuing Parker, Parker and Associates as the Conference's CPA firm.

Finally, the Council has worked on a comprehensive reserves policy, which will guide our budget and apportionment recommendations in future years. We understand that having too much tied up in reserves can be as destructive to ministry as inadequate reserves to support cash flow during financial droughts. It is our goal to describe an adequate, but not excessive, range for our reserves which will guide our work in the future.

PART III – Administrative Services

The Office of Administrative Services offered retirement, financial planning, and personal tax workshops for pastors; rolled out a new remittance program that allows districts to have immediate access to remittances; and responded daily to requests for church treasurers and pastors for information and assistance. Jim Allen provides staff support to CFA, Pensions, Health Plan, Equitable Compensation, and Trustees boards. Melinda Parker has primary responsibility for all matters related to health and retirement benefits. Susan Lindeman is primarily responsible for accurate and timely reporting and handling of receipts and disbursements which resulted in our outstanding audits.

The Council continues to affirm the service of Jim Allen, Susan Lindeman, and Melinda Parker, and the support of the Office of Administrative Services to the ministry and mission of Christ's church and the Tennessee Conference.

DISASTER RESPONSE MINISTRY

Angela Overstreet, Coordinator of Missional Engagment & Disaster Response

Engaging the Mission Field

Conversations

Conversations and presentations with local churches, districts and Disaster Response Coordinators within the SEJ to continue to discover ways we can be engaging in and inviting others into Disaster Response Ministries, including domestic and international disaster. Conversations were held with Robert Craig from the Memphis Conference as we strengthen our connection and collaborate on Disaster Response Ministry, trainings, the Disaster Academy for 2016 and more within the Nashville Episcopal Area.

Equip

Leadership of Disaster Response Ministry

We have identified and met with individuals with the gifts to serve as District Disaster Response Coordinators (DDRC) in each District. Six of the seven Districts have a DDRC; all DDRCs have been trained as Early Response Team Members. Meetings with DDRCs are held to serve as connection between the Districts, equipping with trainings and resources, information sharing and to have collaboration within the Ministry.

Trainings

Angela Overstreet scheduled, taught, and completed six trainings for Early Response Teams, trained 85 New ERT members, and recertified 15 ERT members. She completed all logistics, trainings, background checks and paperwork required for trainings. She maintained certification to teach ERT and other disaster-related trainings. UMCOR gave its first score of 100 on the 2015 evaluation. Purchased and completing all credentialing "in-house" by way of new badging machine. The paperwork and required documentation still being processed with UMCOR. She attends along with our UMVIM Coordinator, Sarah Matthews, the annual UMCOR Disaster Academy at Sager Brown in Baldwin, LA for a week of learning, sharing, leading and serving.

ERT Exploration Trip with Russell Casteel, Camp Director, in October was taken so we could observe the Florida Conference format for ERT training and how they partner with Camp and Retreat in order to work collaboratively and increase awareness and participation of both ministries. Russell and Angela worked together to create a format for the training at Cedar Crest Camp. New ERT Training format was rolled out and implemented. Two day overnight training includes hands-on chain saw safety, tarping, ladder safety, team building. and classroom instruction. DDRCs are engaged in leading parts of the training.

SEJ Disaster Academy

Angela led design team for the 2016 Academy as TNUMC hosted the conference at Franklin First UMC. Bishop McAlilly, Rev. Vona Wilson, and Rev. David Lay provided leadership in nightly worship. Members of FFUMC Youth Praise Band and Home Church Nashville Worship team provided worship music. Scripture readers and prayers were offered by a variety of leaders through the SEJ connection. Eight learning opportunities were offered along with the Foundations of Disaster Ministry. Five UMCOR Consultants were present to lead and/or teach. Experiential Learnings were fruitful and well received as three conferences currently in different stages of recovery shared about their best practices and challenges. Rev. Jason Brock offered closing Communion. The academy was attended by clergy and laity, representing 17 conferences, two outside of our jurisdiction, 18 participants from the Tennessee Conference and seven from the Memphis Conference. The Memphis Conference assisted in offering hospitality by providing morning refreshments. Eight individuals in the SEJ completed the Train the Trainer program from UMCOR.

Connect

UMCOR Kits

We coordinated collections of relief supplies; many kits came in for South Carolina, Mississippi and Louisiana's flood relief. We maintain inventory of a shipping container – currently have on hand: zero Birthing Kits, zero Cleaning Buckets, 300 Health Kits, zero Layette Kits, zero School Kits, zero Sewing Kits. An Early Response Team (ERT) from New Chapel United Methodist Church in Springfield, TN, transported relief supplies collected by churches in the Tennessee Conference for flood-devastated areas of Louisiana and Mississippi. The team, headed up by District Disaster Response Coordinator, Jim Rogers, and New Chapel UMC Pastor, Ed Coy, filled four trailers with 669 flood buckets, 2,739 health kits, 680 school kits, and 15 sewing kits. They drove these donated supplies, valued at $77,413, to the United Methodist Warehouse in Decatur, AL. Only a portion of those supplies stayed at the warehouse as God diverted the team and the supplies on into Mississippi to complete direct distribution to survivors.

Cookeville District Support

Equipped Cookeville District Disaster Response Ministry with trailer and funding to assist with start up of Ministry.

Partner Organization Involvement

Metro/Davidson County OEM (Office of Emergency Management)- We are working on revisions to CEMP (Comprehensive Emergency Management Plan) and Memorandum of Understanding with City in regards to our ESF (Emergency support Function) of Case Management in Disaster. Mayor's office invited us into conversations around other ESF's. We are currently are the only faith based organization invited into these conversations. We attend monthly meetings, trainings and fellowship opportunities.

Middle Tennessee VOAD (Voluntary Organizations Active in Disaster) – We assist in providing counsel and leadership as this body continues to develop, we will be hosting meetings in the future and providing leadership in trainings. We participate in monthly meetings.

State VOAD - Working with FEMA on Disaster Case Management Plan for State of TN. We participate in monthly meetings typically sponsored by TEMA.

Sending Teams

Deployment of teams to: Lutts, TN; Decatur, Alabama, warehouse; Mississippi; Oklahoma; North Carolina; and South Carolina.

Response

Lutts, TN – On the evening of December 23, 2015, an EF-3 tornado destroyed over 20 buildings in the Lutts community, including Lutts United Methodist Church and the United States Post Office. The UMC is temporarily relocated to the fire hall, with intentions to rebuild. We applied for and obtained an UMCOR grant for $10,000 for the Lutts recovery. We coordinated volunteer teams and recovery efforts. Assisted four families in proving permanent housing on their properties.

Other Areas of Ministry:

Angela serves the areas of Disaster Response, Mercy and Mission (See Mercy and Mission report). Other areas of ministry for 2015 included providing administrative support to the office of Congregational Development, coordinating Mission Possible – Annual Conference Event 2015, attending UMW Mission U, leading a UMW study for the Pulaski District and serving the UMVIM SEJ Executive Board as SEJ Disaster Chair.

GOLDEN CROSS FOUNDATION

The Golden Cross Foundation is here to assist Tennessee Annual Conference congregations in offering Christ to a hurting world—especially the world of hurting older adults.

The purpose of Golden Cross Foundation is to fund expansion of older adult ministries and services in the Tennessee Conference. The Foundation does not conduct programs or minister directly to Older Adults. The Foundation provides funding and strategic direction. We work in partnership with the Adult/Older Adult Committee and the Conference Council on Connectional Ministries to expand older adult ministries.

Also we are proud that the Golden Cross Foundation is an extension ministry of the Tennessee Annual Conference. Our charter, by-laws and the election of board members is approved by the Tennessee Annual Conference. Even though the Foundation is an extension ministry of the Conference, we are self-funded with no apportionment to local congregations. We receive financial support from individuals, grants, and groups interested in serving the needs of older adults.

The Golden Cross Foundation provides financial grants to congregations, districts and the conference to meet the challenges of Older Adults for spiritual growth, health, fellowship, transportation and the list grows....

With some exceptions, these grants are all matching grants in order that more ministries can be funded.

ENCORE Ministries is a new, valuable resource now available in the Tennessee Conference to help congregations meet the needs of the fastest growing demographic group in our conference. And, because this ministry is funded by a grant from the Golden Cross Foundation, there is no cost to congregations or districts for its service.

What is ENCORE Ministries? Under the direction of the Rev. Dr. Richard H. Gentzler, Jr., ENCORE Ministries provides training and support, resources, and networking opportunities to equip church leaders in the Tennessee Conference for intentional ministry by, with, and for midlife and mature adults. Prior to becoming the director of ENCORE Ministries, Dr. Gentzler was the director of the Center on Aging and Older Adult Ministries for the General Board of Discipleship. He has over 40 years of experience in ministry with The United Methodist Church as pastor, teacher, and seminar leader. He is author of numerous books and hundreds of articles on aging, midlife and older adult ministries and he has traveled internationally helping church leaders capture a new vision for congregational ministries with midlife and mature adults.

Dr. Gentzler states there are eight reasons why our denomination and local congregations should be intentional in ministries by, with, and for older adults

1. More older adults in US population

As a result of medical/dental discoveries, scientific advances, job safety, lifestyle choices and a host of other variables, more people are living longer lives than ever before. In 1900 there were 3 million people in the United States aged 65 and older. Today, that number is closer to 48 million and by 2030 (according to the US Census Bureau) there will be more than 72 million people in the US who are 65 years of age and older. Our aging population is a result of two major developments: lower birth rates and more people living longer. The prolongation of average life expectancy and the decrease in the birth rate have given rise to an unprecedented demographic transition.

2. More older adults in our congregations

As a result of an aging population, The United Methodist Church has many older members. In 1900 nearly 1 in 25 Americans was 65 years of age or older. Today, roughly 1 in 8 people are older adults. A church in the early twentieth century was filled with children and youth. Today, a typical United Methodist congregation is filled with older adults. Perhaps the most shocking reality is not that our population is aging but that many churches have done virtually nothing to understand or prepare for this change in demographics. With growing numbers of older adults in our pews, congregations have an opportunity to be blessed by the gifts, prayers, presence, service, and witness of their older members. A church for all ages is a multigenerational congregation committed to creating the conditions of life able to fulfill the great potential that older people still have.

3. Aging is changing

Today people 65 or older are generally healthier, wealthier, and more active than was true of previous generations of older adults. Our new aging culture is replacing aging stereotypes of decline, disease, and dementia with empowering values of independence, activity, well-being, and service. Unfortunately, ageism in our society may exist in the life of our congregations, often as stereotyping. This happens in many ways but let me identify two. First, positive images of aging in our society are often lacking, thus growing older is viewed as something to be denied, avoided, and kept hidden. Ageism is compounded by the negative stereotypes many older adults hold about themselves. As a result, older adults may not take full advantage of opportunities presented to them because of self-imposed ageism. Second, ageism can cause church congregations to neglect the spiritual and emotional needs of older adults. This is especially true if church leaders do not listen to the needs of older adults but assume they know what older adults need.

4. Living longer also offers other challenges

The longer older adults live, the more apt they are to experience health and financial challenges. The "golden years" are not always so bright and uplifting for older adults. The process of aging is not always positive. Aging is also about physical decline; lost relationships; and loss of roles, income, and housing. Older adults may face the difficulty of managing their own or a spouse's chronic conditions and they may experience grief caused by the death of loved ones, limitations in mobility and their increasing dependence. It is helpful to remember that aging is a natural process of development that includes both gains and losses. Congregations are often composed of older adults who are experiencing both the positive and negative attributes of aging. Older adults want to serve and feel needed. They want to be in relationship with God and others. They want to feel safe, respected, and loved. As they age, the challenges of life may become magnified.

5. The search for meaning and purpose as we grow older

As more and more people are living into old age, questions relating to meaning and purpose take on a greater importance. One reason for this concern is because there is a good deal of evidence that old age can be an isolating and depressing time for many people. This may be due to physical circumstances or the failure of our society (and church?) to provide care and direction. Work comes to an end, children leave home, marriage relationships change, friends move away, spouse becomes ill or dies, community and social activities may be curtailed, and health deteriorates. Well-being involves something more than good physical health, financial security, and social support; well-being also involves meaning and purpose. Often feeling they have outlived their usefulness, many older adults struggle to find meaning and purpose in life. Intentional ministry with older adults involves congregations helping adults find meaning and purpose in the later years. Helping older adults to continue using their skills, expertise, and knowledge can enrich the life of the whole community and all ages.

6. Need for spiritual growth and faithful aging in the later years.

Bette Davis is often quoted as saying, "Old age is no place for sissies." Some older adults live in a world of fear and denial. They naturally fear the coming of old age with advancing frailty and cognitive decline, the fear and worry about being a burden on their children and others, and the fear of outliving their wealth. The struggles and fears that often come with age can challenge even the most faithful of Christians. For some older adults, religious change and different styles of worship and music can be bewildering. Older adults may feel isolated within their own place of worship, and at odds with the pastoral staff and other members. Indifference to the spiritual needs of older adults will not help them grow in faith and spiritual maturity as they age. Older adults who are home-centered or residing in nursing homes or assisted living facilities also need the presence of familiar religious symbols, hymns, and rituals to support their continuing identity as members of the church. While the church's attention and commitment to older adults is nothing new, it has to be recognized that the growth in numbers of older adults invites congregations to new forms and methods in helping older adults grow in faith and to opportunities for expressing and witnessing their faith to future generations. Faithful aging means knowing and trusting God throughout our later years. It involves the capacity to help build the body of Christ and to serve the needs of the community.

7. God loves older adults

Nowhere in the Bible does it say that God takes away God's blessing when a person reaches 65. God loves God's creation, including older adults. As a church, we emphasize the priesthood of all believers, not the superiority of any particular age group. However, there are many wonderful passages of Scripture concerning aging and old age. Below are just a select few:

- "I have been young, and now am old, yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken or their children begging for bread" (Psalm 37:25).
- "Do not cast me off in the time of old age; do not forsake me when my strength is spent" (Psalm 71:9).
- "So even to old age and gray hairs, O God, do not forsake me, until I proclaim your might to all the generations to come" (Psalm 71:18).
- "Gray hair is a crown of glory; it is gained in a righteous life" (Proverbs 16:31).
- "The glory of youth is their strength, but the beauty of the aged is their gray hair" (Proverbs 23:29).
- "Better is a poor but wise youth than an old but foolish king, who will no longer take advice" (Ecclesiastes 5:13).
- "Listen to me, O house of Jacob...even to your old age I am he, even when you turn gray I will carry you. I have made, and I will bear; I will carry and will save" (Isaiah 26:3a,4)
- "Do not speak harshly to an older man, but speak to him as to a father....to older women as mothers" (I Timothy 1, 2).
- "Tell the older men to be temperate, serious, prudent, and sound in faith, in love, and in endurance. Likewise, tell the older women to be reverent in behavior, not to be slanderers or slaves to drink; they are to teach what is good" (Titus 2:2-3).
- "For old age is not honored for length of time or measured by number of years; but understanding is gray hair for anyone and a blameless life is ripe old age" (Wisdom of Solomon, Apocrypha).
- "My child, help your father in his old age, and do not grieve him as long as he lives; even if his mind fails, be patient with him; because you have all your faculties do not despise him" (Sirach 3:12-13, Apocrypha).

8. Intentional ministry with older adults invites us to come to grips with our own feelings about aging and growing old

Intentional ministry with older adults means we are willing to grapple with our own attitudes about older people and old age. Unless we see ourselves in the older adults around us, we will never truly accept the fact that we will someday be old ourselves. Getting past the wrinkles and seeing the soul of older persons is necessary for ministry. As we engage in ministry with older persons we not only learn what old people are like (which is quite simply, they are like everyone else) we also learn something about ourselves. Many people think of becoming old as becoming a problem. Because we fear old age, we fear contact with older adults because they show us our own futures. God's love for all people is creative and unconditional. People have dignity and worth not because they have achieved success or the esteem of the world, but because they are made in the image of God. Just being with older adults allows God to use us as channels for God's love. Older adults have much to teach us. Our learning is not only about aging and the aging process, but about life and faith.

This year we have provided grants to the Tennessee Annual Conference Adult/Older Adult Committee for Training and Spiritual Growth for Conference Older Adults.

Local churches with grants from the Golden Cross Foundation are offering Christ to the hurting world of older adults in their communities and across this conference during 2015-2016.

- 1. Gordon Memorial UMC ministers to disadvantaged elderly in their community through the Best Years Club.
- 2. First United Methodist Church in Winchester member Pat Brandenstein saw a need to assist widows and widowers in the transition after the death of a spouse. With support from the church, Wings of HOPE was born. It is a bible-centered program to assist those who have lost a spouse through death, divorce, desertion or imprisonment.
- 3. The Foundation made a grant to the New Providence Church in the Clarksville District for handicap-accessible restrooms in the church. This grant will enable the 12% of their older adults who need accessible restrooms to return to church. With your help there is no limit to what the Golden Cross Foundation can do to assist local churches in expanding their older adult ministries.
- 4. 61st Avenue UMC received a grant to help fund a van for transportation of community elderly to church and other functions.
- 5. McMinnville First UMC received a grant for expansion of its older adult ministries in remodeling of restrooms to accommodate the elderly with wheelchairs and walkers.
- 6. Martin Chapel Church in Cookeville District received grant to assist in purchase of van to transport persons to worship and other community activities.

Here's how you can help the Golden Cross Foundation:

- Observe the Golden Cross Offering on any Sunday of your choosing
- Give personally by going to the website goldencrossfoundation.org and giving online
- Expand your church's Older Adult ministry to those outside your church who may be alone and hurting
- Have a program about the Golden Cross Foundation in Sunday School or Wednesday night. We will be happy to come to your church.

Lastly, will you pray for this ministry? The Golden Cross Foundation needs your prayers that this ministry might grow to offer Jesus Christ to a hurting world, one neighborhood at a time.

HEALTH AND WELFARE COMMITTEE

Rev. Marie C. King, Chairperson

The Health and Welfare Committee has been involved with voicing support for Insure TN/Medicaid Wavier. Governor Haslam's Insure Tennessee plan would provide health care coverage for thousands of Tennesseans who cannot afford other means of affordable healthcare coverage. Insure Tennessee would also create jobs, keep hospitals open—hospital that serve smaller communities, lower the rates of uncompensated care, and would enhance our economy, without requiring an increase in the State budget. Without Insure Tennessee, at least 280,000 Tennesseans will continue to realize the effects of living without access to health care coverage.

We have advocated for Insure Tennessee for qualifying Tennesseans, by attending discussions, planning meeting, rallies and candlelight vigils at Legislative Plaza and the Tennessee State Capitol, and conference calls, to lift the voices of the people so the legislatures will know the faith community is speaking out for the healthcare rights of all human beings. All God's children have a right to affordable health insurance coverage.

The Health and Welfare Committee, along with Faith That Heals, has supported Tennessee Justice Center to be a voice for the people.

The Health and Welfare Committee collaborates with the Disability Concerns committee to address accessibility concerns that overlap with Health and Welfare Committee concerns.

The Health and Welfare Committee continues to work with the Conference office to plan for First Aid and emergency needs for Annual Conference. This year we have Emergency Medical Technician(s) that will be on site throughout Annual Conference.

HEALTH PLAN COMMITTEE

Ann Cover, Chair

GOALS FOR THE QUADRENNIUM (2017-2020)

- 1) To provide for our full time clergy, their dependents and Conference staff the most comprehensive and cost effective health plan possible in a rapidly changing health care system.
 - The committee continues to evaluate our self-funded health care plan as being the most cost effective plan for our conference at the present time. We celebrate the $300,000 reduction in apportionment request for 2017.
 - Our Health Plan is in full compliance with the Affordable Care Act of 2010, and our claim administrator remains UMR, a subsidiary of United HealthCare.
 - We will continue to assess the changes to the health insurance market over and their implications for our health plan.
- 2) To promote an increasing commitment to healthy living on the part of our clergy, our clergy families and the people of our congregations -- for the sake of ministry and mission in the name of Jesus Christ.
 - What is beneficial for the vitality of our clergy members is also beneficial for the people in our congregations!

REQUEST

We encourage all participants on our plan to review the "Summary of Benefits and Coverage," the "Summary Plan Document," and other resources found on the website tnumc.org.

As leaders of your congregations, please explore ways to address the health and emotional/spiritual wellness of your pastor(s) and of your laity – in ways that are well informed and build each other up.

For starters, become familiar with a free set of resources: Center for Health (see website of General Board of Pensions and Health Benefits gbophb.org/cfh). For example:

- Find informational resources such as WebMD or National Women's Health Resource Center and stories of life changing successes.
- Remember that health is a broad concept and read the Five Dimensions of Health, and 13 Factors that Influence Clergy Health.
- Use the reproducible content for down-to-earth recipes and ideas on how to impact good eating behaviors for all ages via the USDA link ChooseMyPlate.gov

THANK YOU

As an annual conference, we owe a debt of gratitude for the breadth of healthcare expertise and ministry insight that the members of the committee bring to this work, and especially to Jim Allen and Melinda Parker who coordinate our efforts.

LAY SERVANT MINISTRIES

Betty Jo Forkner Tennessee Conference Director of Lay Servant Ministries

Lay Servant Ministries (Leading, Caring & Communicating) continue to offer studies to empower our lay servants and lay speakers through training that equips them to go forth offering Christ to their communities serving as witnesses for Jesus Christ in word and in deed. Lay servants and lay speakers throughout the TN Conference are enthusiastically involved in:

- Leading in the ministries of the church such as leading Bible study, leading Sunday School, leading small groups, leading in worship settings and leading in missions within community and globally.
- Caring ministries, inside and outside the church, including nursing homes, trailer parks and prison ministries, participating in school reading programs and back pack ministries, organizing and participating in mission trips, soup kitchens, food pantries, visiting sick and shut-ins, etc.
- Communicating by witnessing through spoken words, by actively participating in God's work wherever they are called, serving as Supply pastors and filling in as pulpit supply preaching as needed by pastors, etc.

Tennessee Conference was honored to serve as host to the Southeastern Jurisdictional Gathering of Directors of Lay Servant Ministries on July 23-25, 2015 at Hermitage United Methodist Church. Ten Southeastern Jurisdictional Conferences were represented. Our theme was "Equipping Laity as They Answer God's Call to Witness and Serve."

The Association of Conference Directors of Lay Servant Ministries Convocation was held at the Board of Discipleship's Offices on February 11-13, 2016. The theme was "Shifting the Paradigm (Ephesians 4:1-16) Going Back to Our Historical Roots."

It has been an honor and privilege to serve with dedicated and Spirit-Led Tennessee Conference District and Associate Directors who continue to offer Spring and Fall Lay Servant Ministries Schools. I would like to extend my appreciation to Dr. Bruce Myers & Denise Skidmore, Clarksville District; Dianne & Joe Holland, Columbia District; Jackie Elliott, Cookeville District; Gail High & Jamie Wallace, Cumberland District; Ruthan Patient, Murfreesboro District; Carl (Bud) Whipple, Nashville; and Sarah Matthews, Pulaski District.

MEMPHIS THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Dr. Jay Earheart-Brown, President, Memphis Theological Seminary Dr. G. Lee Ramsey, Jr., Foster Professor of Pastoral Theology and Homiletics, Interim Director, Methodist House of Studies

Memphis Theological Seminary (MTS) highly values our longstanding partnership with the United Methodist Church. At MTS, we are committed to foster a vital Methodist ethos where persons and congregations are formed by the Wesleyan tradition through theological education, support of local Methodist clergy, laity, and congregations, and maintaining healthy connections with five surrounding Annual Conferences in the Mid-South (Memphis, Tennessee, Mississippi, Arkansas, and North Alabama). Both in and out of the classroom, we assist our Methodist constituents to seek the fullness of the Christian gospel through "lives devoted to scholarship, piety, and justice," as the Seminary's mission statement holds. Or, in the words of Charles Wesley's hymn coined for the opening of the Kingswood School, to "Unite the pair so long disjoined, knowledge and vital piety."

We are pleased to report to the Tennessee Annual Conference that academic year 2015-2016 has been a notable one for our work with United Methodists.

Our Methodist House of Studies provides a strong "community within a community" for all students who identify with the Wesleyan tradition. In May of 2015 upon graduation, we awarded our first Certificate in Wesleyan Studies to those students who had completed five or more courses that focus upon Methodist history, theology, and practice of ministry. UMC students who attend MTS find in our course offerings and interaction with Methodist faculty a firm foundation within the rich Wesleyan tradition. Under the leadership of Dr. Lee Ramsey and Rev. Billy Vaughan (ordained elders in the Memphis Annual Conference) The House of Studies actively cultivates relationships with the surrounding Annual Conferences and develops the House of Studies as a bridge to the local churches, pastors, laity, and judicatories we serve.

We are excited about the recent hiring of Dr. Michael Turner, who will begin serving as Associate Professor of Wesleyan Studies on August 1, 2016. Dr. Turner holds the Ph.D. in Church History from Vanderbilt University, is a scholar of 19th century American Methodism, a dynamic classroom instructor, and a committed leader within the United Methodist Church.

Enrollment remains strong among UM students who comprise 25% of our student body (total enrollment 250) within three separate degree programs: Masters of Divinity, Masters of Arts in Youth Ministry, and the Doctor of Ministry degrees. This year the Association of Theological Schools approved MTS to initiate a Masters of Arts in Christian Ministry degree. This will be a 42 credit hour general degree in theological education tailored to the interests of laypersons who seek solid theological and practical training for Christian ministry. It begins Fall 2016.

Of particular importance to all of our UMC candidates for ordination, in early 2016, the University Senate of the United Methodist Church approved Memphis Theological for listing for the preparation of candidates for ordination in The United Methodist Church. This endorsement of the University Senate undergirds our commitment to provide the best of theological education to all United Methodist Students who seek preparation for ministry at Memphis Theological Seminary.

MERCY AND MISSION COMMITTEE

Rev. David Lay, Chair

We, as your Mercy and Mission committee, are still praising God about the turnout for the hands on mission at Annual Conference in 2015. Mission Possible offered an opportunity for participants to experience a Christ-centered and adventurous mission, while never leaving Brentwood UMC. Participants discovered opportunities to serve, were equipped to bring back missions to their local churches, connected with others, and were sent into a hurting world to bring Christ's Love and Hope. The Event began with a lunch hosted and sponsored by the TN Conference Board of Laity. The missions, which remained secret, allowed travel into the mission field (on-site) and provided four handson mission challenges. In an hour and a half, 278 Disciples prepared 800 books for Project Transformation Tennessee's elementary participants to take home over the summer, 45 teacher appreciation gift bags and 100 books prepared for a lending library fro Trinity Community Ministry's summer camp through working with Partner Today, 200 school kits and 200 health kits for Disaster Response and 42 blankets were made with Mission Dolly to share with Children and Youth experiencing life challenges. Additional uncompleted blankets were taken by local churches to be assembled. All items were prayed over and sent into local neighborhoods to offer Christ to a hurting world. If you would like information on how to bring these missions to your church, contact Angela Overstreet at angela.overstreet@tnumc.org or 615-329-1177.

We appreciate all those who gave of their time and resources to share God's love. I thank all our churches for their support of mission work within the bounds of the Tennessee Annual Conference and around the world and ask that you support both Conference Advance Specials and General Church Advance Special. In 2015, the Tennessee annual conference provided $504,111.48 in funding to the General Church Advance. If you or your church is looking to support missions you can find all kinds of missions around the world and when you give to Advance Specials, 100% of that giving goes to that mission work or missionary for his or her work. If you need information about Advance Special please let myself, Reverend David Lay know and I would love to share with you about it (outreach@tnumc.org).

Through your generous apportionment giving to Connectional Ministries, we continued the commitments, of mostly small yearly grants through 2015, for the following ministries: Bethlehem Centers of Nashville, Brighter Days Ministries - Edgehill UMC, Christ UMC Prison Ministry, Community Care Fellowship, Ebenezer Hispanic Ministry, Feed America First, Gallatin Cares Worship Center, Gallatin Shalom Zone, Interfaith Dental Clinic, Light in the Nations, Mountain TOP, Open Table, Project Transformation, Tennessee Justice for Neighbors, The Spot Teen Program, and UM Urban Ministries - Clarksville District. CAS's that don't receive grants (61st Avenue UMC After School Program, Joelton Hope Center, Luke 14:12, Salvus Center, Soldiers and Families Embraced and Society of Saint Andrews) are able to share through our conference news opportunities to support their ministries through service and financial gifts. In addition, as new ministries are born or find special needs of support, the team can provide a few small, one-time grants each year.

We partnered with the Youth Ministry Team to offer a mission experience for those attending Warmth In Winter. 180 Prayer Blankets and 1000 UMCOR Health Kits were completed. We also offered a workshop including handson mission as we shared on the "Why" we serve in mission.

In addition, we were able to provide 39 small scholarships for people to serve on a Volunteers in Mission trip, many for the first time. We provide scholarships quarterly, so contact us if someone is going on their first trip, is a young adult, or has a severe financial need. We plan to host UMVIM Team Leader trainings in 2016 and find ways we can collaborate more among our churches so more people have the opportunity to serve. We thank Sarah Matthews for her leadership as our Conference UMVIM Coordinator.

I personally want to thank those who serve on this committee for their time and input into our work and thank Angela Overstreet for what she does in the Tennessee Conference Office of Connectional Ministries that makes our work easier.

MIRIAM'S PROMISE REPORT

Deborah H. Robinson, Executive Director

Thank you, Bishop McAlilly, John Collett, and members of the Tennessee Conference, for allowing us to report today. I'm Debbie Robinson and I have the honor of serving as Executive Director for Miriam's Promise. This year, our Conference is recognizing the theme: Offering Christ One Neighborhood at a Time.

In Luke 10, Jesus commands a young scholar to "Love the Lord your God with all your heart, your soul and your mind," but Jesus goes on to say, "Love your neighbor as yourself." The Scholar replies, "But who is my neighbor?" Jesus answers him with the parable of the Good Samaritan.

At Miriam's Promise, we answer and respond to that question every day: Who is our neighbor? Who are we called to serve? How do we become "Neighbor" to those who are hurting?

Our definition of neighbor extends to people who aren't normally considered the "typical" neighbor. They don't invite us over for a glass of tea, or a piece of pie, or ask us to sit under the shade of the tree. Our neighbors are those who are in need. They're very much like the man left on the side of the road. We are the neighbor who must treat those in need with love, with care, with compassion, and a response. The neighbor for Miriam's Promise could be the pregnant woman, the child, the mom in jail, the family who longs for a child, or even a child who has come all the way across the world to join a family and is having a hard time with attachment.

Several months ago, we received two calls on the very same day. In less than 24 hours, we were asked to respond to dire situations that required immediate responses. Both of these calls were about young women with many needs, but I want to tell you most about the second call.

Kelly was in her 20s. She was first exposed to drugs at a very young age, age 11, by her own mother. She spent most of her childhood in and out of various homes, most of them chaotic, but she was always the forgotten child, left with unresponsive adults. Now Kelly was a mom. She had a baby born addicted to multiple drugs. The baby went immediately into the NICU and Miriam's Promise was called to meet the needs of both mother and baby. Need upon need was stacked one upon the other. Mom had nowhere to go: she had no food, no family to step in and help and she had a very, very sick baby. The baby would go through weeks of withdrawal and needed intense care.

Have you ever held a baby who is suffering from that kind of withdrawal? They're hard to hold. They sneeze, they hiccup, they have this keening cry that cannot be comforted, they don't feed well, they don't sleep well, their reflexes are on high alert and they don't calm. They don't allow themselves to be comforted. Then there were the legal issues that Mom also faced. Mom and baby both needed an advocate. Our counselors went into action. There were no easy answers. We were dealing with homelessness, addiction, domestic violence, poverty, unemployment, sexual abuse – and then there was the hope of rehabilitation. And there was this beautiful little baby who needed somebody to step in and hold her through these months of withdrawal and to care for her. Our work with Mom and baby lasted for several months, meeting multiple needs and helping find answers for them.

We want you to know this is not an unusual story for us. When I first began this work years ago, it was not a typical story. Now it is. Our clients have need upon need upon need. And on this particular day with these two calls, we received direct or indirect support not only from the Conference, but from particular congregations: Belmont, Murfreesboro, Bethlehem, West End, Lavergne, Calvary, Providence, Epworth, Belmont, and Franklin First. That help was critical for us in meeting these needs. For our entire ministry, the Tennessee Annual Conference and local churches have had our back, making it possible for us to respond to these babies, to these moms and to these families.

We define "Neighbor" as Jesus did. We do this work because Jesus told us to. And because you called us on your behalf to respond as "Neighbor." I pray every day that you will continue to support us and partner with us through your prayers, your support and through your invitations to come and be in your congregations. Come play golf with us. We have a new event called the Mini Cooper; it's a "Putt for Kids." Come bring your kids to play with us, tell others about us, but most importantly pray. Pray every day for these babies, for these moms in jail, for these ladies we serve, for the children who are coming across the world to families, and pray for our staff and board as we work into our future, trying to discern where God is leading us and how we continue to be "Neighbor" in a very non-typical neighborhood.

Thank you, Bishop, and thank you all for being a part of this ministry.

Debbie Robinson Miriam's Promise

NEW CHURCH STARTS

Lynn Taylor, Congregational Development

Since July of 2015 when I was asked to fill the role of Interim Director of New Church Development and Missional Faith Communities, we have continued to expand our ministry into new mission fields. There are currently 17 diverse ministries receiving funding and they reach people from all walks of life. Our faith communities are welcoming neighbors who are Hispanic, Egyptian, Asian, African American, all socioeconomic levels including persons experiencing homelessness, incarcerated people, men and women in recovery, those who are beginning the first steps of their faith journey as well as brothers and sisters who have been encouraged to reignite their faith. Our leaders include men and women ranging in age from their twenties to over 60. We have sent elders, local pastors and laity to lead congregations and ministries that encompass multi site plants, church with in a church models, parachute drops, partner church ministries, and missional models. In July of 2016, we will add our first church within the walls of a prison, Circle of Grace. All of these ministries are geographically spread throughout the Conference crossing the boundaries of five different districts.

Continued efforts are in progress to equip our leaders with coaches. We also have taken steps to train people within our conference who can help us assess potential new planters. This year we are piloting an intern program designed to assist us in discovering potential leaders. New connections and partnerships have emerged between six churches and ministries collaborating to share and fund two Resource Navigators who are developing relationships with our friends living at or below the poverty level. We have people gathering to share the love of Christ in schools, coffee shops, homeless encampments, soccer fields, public parks, and other non-traditional venues.

The passion of these leaders and their ministry teams to reach those not currently connected to our traditional churches is inspiring. If you have an interest in connecting with and/or supporting one of these ministries, you will find more information listed on the Tennessee Conference website.

OLDER ADULT MINISTRIES

Shirley Vaughn, Chair

Mission Statement

The purpose of the Tennessee Conference Older Adult Ministries is two-fold:

- To serve as a resource for growing and sustaining vital Older Adult ministries in the local church;
- To provide ministries for Older Adults in the Tennessee Conference that are inspirational, informative and missional.

Older Adult Ministries Tennessee Conference

Adopted March 2013

Thanks to the Golden Cross Foundation Board for envisioning ENCORE Ministries and hiring Rick Gentzler as the Director. We, the Committee, are excited about working with Rick and ENCORE Ministries.

The Conference Older Adult Ministries sponsored a seminar "The Church Responds to the Abuse, Neglect and Exploitation of Older Adults," on March 10 at Brentwood UMC. The presenter was Dr. Richard Gentzler, Director of ENCORE Ministries and a Resource Member of the Older Adult Ministries Committee. We were pleased to have 55 attendees and from that number 21 CEU certificates were given. In one of the three sessions - Why Learn About Elder Abuse? - we learned that church leaders should be interested in learning about Elder Abuse because the church leaders may be the victim's first stop for help; the church leader may be the only person (except the abuser) in the victim's life; the leader will be better prepared to help; church may be required to report; the leader, by knowing the warning signs, may save a life.

At the Committee meeting on January 28, a motion was made that we have a "time of remembrance" at the March 10 seminar for memorializing two individuals who meant so much to Older Adult Ministries in this conference and the SE Jurisdiction. At the seminar Jim Robinson led us in a hymn and a "time of remembrance" for Dr. Ellsworth Kalas and Bishop Morris – two special friends of Older Adult Ministries in the Tennessee Conference and in the SE Jurisdiction.

Annual Spring Retreat at Beersheba Springs Assembly Grounds

Thursday, April 28 – Friday, April 29, 2016

Spiritual Leader: Barbara Bruce, Christian Educator Theme: Leaving a Legacy

Attendees will learn how to write their ethical will, Or how to leave a legacy to their family members and friends. Leaving a legacy is a way for older adults to share the qualities of life that have brought meaning and happiness to them. While an ethical will is more about blessings, joys, hopes for the future, love, forgiveness, and memories, it may contain acts of service that expressed values, lessons learned in life, funny or instructive memories, or items for which a person is grateful. Writing an ethical will helps older adults understand they still possess gifts of value in their lessons, memories, and service.

Adult/Older Adults in Action and Service, Thursday, October 27, 2016, at St. Mark's United Methodist Church in Murfreesboro. The Theme is: Growing Bolder, Not Older. The Leader will be Missy Buchanan, noted author and lecturer. This seminar is intended to help older adults develop a deep attitude of gracious acceptance of the life God has given them and to know what it means to live out a life that has a strong spiritual foundation.

Some of Missy Buchanan's books include: Don't Write My Obituary Just Yet; Talking with God in Old Age; Aging Faithfully; and Living with Purpose in a Worn out Body.

Seminar partly funded by the Golden Cross Foundation. Registration details will be available by September 1.

Christmas at Beersheba

Scheduled dates: December 2 –December 3 (overnight); Monday, December 5; Tuesday, December 6; Wednesday, December 7; Thursday, December 8; and Friday, December 9. Registration information will be available by September 15.

A special thank you to the Rev. Bettye P. Lewis for all the work she did for the Conference Older Adult Ministries while serving as the Director of the CCOCM. We wish for her many wonderful years in retirement.

We are looking forward to another great year working with the older adults in the Tennessee Conference. A list of the Committee members is attached to this report.

SAFE SPACES MINISTRY

Cynthia A. Talley, Chair & Brad Fiscus, CCOCM Staff Liaison

"The Safe Spaces Ministry [made up of the Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics Team, Safe Sanctuaries Team, and Conference Response Team] serves to insure that policies and procedures necessary for keeping ministry safe in order for sacred space to be created are developed, reviewed, appropriately presented and training provided for members of the Tennessee Annual Conference. The work of the committee is funded through apportionment giving as allocated through the Conference Council on Connectional Ministries budget on an annual basis. The CCOCM, the Nashville Episcopal Area Office of Ministerial Concerns and the Tennessee Conference Board of Ordained Ministry work collaboratively to guide this vital ministry."

This year the Safe Spaces Ministry was charged with the task of revising the Conference's Sexual Misconduct Policy for Church Professionals. It is to be submitted to the 2016 Annual Conference for approval and adoption to replace the existing policy.

An initial meeting was held on February 25, 2016, to begin working on the policy revisions based on suggestions from Becky Posey Williams, Senior Director for Sexual Ethics and Advocacy for the General Commission on the Status and Role of Women. Included in that meeting were Cynthia Talley, Safe Spaces chair; Lanita Monroe, Conference Response Team Coordinator; and Brad Fiscus, CCOCM Staff Liaison. A second meeting was held on April 5, 2016, to share the suggested revisions with and get feedback from the members of the Safe Spaces Ministry.

Based on the feedback from the April 5th meeting, additional revisions were made and the policy draft was submitted to Bishop McAlilly, the Cabinet, and Becky Posey Williams for their approval. Also created was a Sexual Misconduct Quick Response Card, which provides information about what to do should someone become aware of suspected sexual misconduct by a church professional. The card is to be distributed to local churches and is to be displayed in a prominent place in the church building.

To date, we have received approval of the revised policy from the Bishop and six members of the Cabinet. One of the Cabinet members did not respond to our request for approval. A majority vote has been received in favor of approving the policy revision and it is being presented as an action item from Safe Spaces Ministry Committee to the 2016 Annual Conference.

In keeping with the ministry's responsibility "to insure that policies and procedures necessary for keeping ministry safe in order for sacred space to be created are developed, reviewed, appropriately presented and training provided for members of the Tennessee Annual Conference," Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethic and Safe Sanctuaries training sessions were conducted on April 29-30, 2016. Participation in these training sessions is required for new persons being appointed. As clergy and appointable persons are to have a "refresher" training each quadrennium, in the upcoming year the Safe Spaces Ministry will be working to develop a second level training course.

UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION FOR THE MEMPHIS & TENNESSEE CONFERENCES Dr. Philip D. Jamieson, President

"So neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but only God who gives the growth. The one who plants and the one who waters have a common purpose, and each will receive wages according to the labour of each. For we are God's servants, working together; you are God's field, God's building." (I Cor. 3:7-9) It continues to be my privilege to serve the United Methodist Foundation for the Memphis and Tennessee Annual Conferences. This significant ministry in conjunction with the United Methodist Development Fund for Kentucky and Tennessee is helping further the work of God in our communities. One of the most important ways we do that is by joining in partnership with you in your ministries. We are committed to helping you reach out to the world by being "God's field and God's building.

The Foundation is here to empower you to make faithful and new ministry initiatives. We do that in several important ways. First, we serve as a custodian for endowed funds on behalf of local churches and other United Methodist ministries. As of March 1, 2015, our holdings are $55,560,679. Last year, in spite of the great volatility of the markets, the fund remained almost flat. We are thankful that by way of partnership with you, $1,669,716 were withdrawn in order to strengthen existing or to begin new ministries.

We help by means of the United Methodist Development Fund of Tennessee/Kentucky. Accepting investments from individuals, churches and organizations, we are able to loan money at a competitive rate to United Methodist churches and ministries for building projects. Currently, the Development Fund is loaning money at 3.99% and paying 1% to share holders. With $21,192,490 in assets, the Development Fund is ready to serve you.

In 2014, we launched a new initiative to partner with you. In 2014, 23 churches in the Tennessee and Memphis Annual Conferences took advantage of our Stewardship Grant Program. These churches said "yes" to the challenge to embrace best stewardship practices. In doing that, they became eligible for $1,000 grants. The program continued this year and we made an additional 15 grants. In the winter of 2016, we are beginning a new program in partnership with the Lake Institute of Indiana University. Watch for more information about this program called Creating Congregational Cultures of Generosity.

If you have questions regarding the work and ministries of the Foundation, the Development Fund, or stewardship; if you would like to have one of us to come to preach and/or speak to a group in your church; or if you would like to learn more about ways to create and leave a financial legacy for your church or ministries, give us a call (615-259-2008) or visit our website at umfmtc.org.

UNITED METHODIST MEN

Dr. William C. Bowen, Sr., Tennessee Conference UMM President

The Tennessee Conference of United Methodist Men in 2015, since our last Annual Conference, and SEJ Conference has been actively involved in the establishment of and revival of men's ministries across the conference. The Tennessee UM Men's key goals for this past year were to organize UM Men District Leadership, local unit development and the chartering and EMS (Every Man Shares) registration increases across our conference. Another benchmark is to enhance our Scouting Ministry by identifying leadership for this very strong Ministry and continue to lead the way with our Disciple Bible Study of Men (DBOM), Big Brothers and Big Sisters and SOSA (Society of St. Andrews).

Leadership Development and Growth

The Tennessee Conference of United Methodist Men has had success this year in the continued development and growth of United Methodist Men's Local Units. Despite the lack of desired interaction and connection of District Units with the Conference team, there is considerable stability and additional growth around or conference through our men's ministries. Our units are leading our Southeast Jurisdiction in the number of active units, continued charters and newly developed charters as well as men in our conference becoming EMS members. We thank God that He continues to touch the hearts of Men in our Conference through their extravagant care for others and our mission.

NACP (National Association Of Conference Presidents) Meeting

The NACP met in March in Nashville at the Andrew Price United Methodist Church and Conference Presidents from all Jurisdictions across Methodism met. The Tennessee Conference was well represented with Bill Bowen, TN Conference President, Ingram Howard, SEJ 3d Vice-President. Dr. Bowen, at the 2015 NACP meeting was appointed to the Board of Directors of the UMM Foundation and sits on the By-Laws Committee.

Scouting

As mentioned in our overview, the Tennessee Conference continues to seek a Conference Coordinator for our five District Coordinators. The ministry is still very active, strong and among the most effective across The Conference and Jurisdictions' United Methodist Churches.

Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Middle Tennessee (BB/BS) and Amachi Programs

The Tennessee Conference continues to have an active program in these areas that serve several hundred children through the efforts of over 50 churches of which approximately 20 are United Methodist Churches. Ingram Howard and Cliff Steger serve as mentors and also serve on the Ambassador Board.

Charters and EMS (Legacy Builders and Circuit Riders) Enrollments

The Tennessee Conference has approximately 85 local churches chartered with local units and more than 120 EMS Members along with 60 Legacy Builders and five Circuit Riders. Our total membership still continues to be over 2,925 men.

Conclusion

The Tennessee Conference of United Methodist Men have plans of an Annual meeting for the summer 2016. The UMM Conference team is developing a program that will involve men across our conference in fellowship, training and development. Please visit our website https://sites.google.com/a/tnumc.org/tn-ummen/news for updates and postings.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

Margaret A. Fisher
Tennessee Conference UMW President

The United Methodist Women's theme this year is "Growing in Blessedness" and the goals we have set for the year of 2016 in the TN Conference are:

- 1. Increase Membership Growth/Development
- 2. Climate Justice
- 3. Meeting/Exceeding Our Pledge
- 4. Racial and Gender Justice (All Equality)

The TN Conference United Methodist Women did exceed our 2015 pledge to UMW National of $111,597.55. Thanks to all for experiencing freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ, developing a creative supportive fellowship, expanding concepts of mission through participation in the global ministries of the church, and for "living the vision" of the United Methodist Women not only in the TN Conference but also in each of the seven districts and in each local unit. We continue in 2016 with a very busy year.

Some of our Conference highlights this year include: Intergenerational Event at Lebanon First with the theme of "Climate" on April 9; our hands-on work day and mission outreach with Bethlehem Centers of Nashville on May 14; the Southeastern Jurisdiction Quadrennial meeting in Charleston, SC on June 3-5; Mission u at St. Marks UMC, Murfreesboro on July 14-16; Spiritual Retreat at Beersheba Springs September 9-11; and the annual meeting at Centertown UMC, Centertown, TN on October 15 in the Cookeville District.

The 2016 Mission u studies this year are: The Bible and Human Sexuality; Climate Justice; Latin America (second year); and Climate Justice for Youth and for Children. We have registration forms at the UMW display table and are also giving two scholarships (one laity and one clergy) at Annual Conference. Come sign up for a scholarship.

I am going to challenge each of you to reach out and invite a friend to attend the events with you this year so we can "Grow in Blessedness." Some of the most treasured verses in scripture are the Beatitudes, Matthew 5: 1-12. The Gospel that contains the Beatitudes also ends with commissioning each of us as disciples to go into the world (Matthew 28: 16-20). The blessing Jesus talks about is not one that you keep to yourself, but rather it is one to be shared.

Our theme this year is "Growing in Blessedness." United Methodist Women have been offering the gift of comfort and hope through service and advocacy for 147 years. As United Methodist Women, we know God has blessed us so we might be a blessing to others in our communities and in our world and fulfill our purpose by turning faith, hope, and love into action on behalf of women, children, and youth.

It is common to think of a blessing from God as a benefit (such as prosperity). However, the primary way to understand "blessing" is as relationship—valued and favored by God. Any benefit flows from this relationship, and the relationship itself is rewarding. So, the Beatitudes show whom God favors and these people may be happy in the blessed relationship they have with God.

We do ask for God to move through each of us, nurturing our strengths and healing our damaged places that we may be made whole and allow us to reach out to others. We ask that God open our eyes that we may see Him in every person who shares this world with us and not allow our prejudice to blind us, divide us, and prevent us from caring for one another.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S MINISTRY

Brad Fiscus, Director of Young People's Ministry

Young People's Ministry includes ministry with youth who are in grades 6th through 12th, college students, and young adults ages 18 years to 30 years. This ministry strives to help churches increase their capacity to build disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. As one of the four areas of focus for the Tennessee Conference, Investing in Young People, Young People's Ministry is focused on the formation of Christ-centered leaders for the church of today and tomorrow. We do this by providing opportunities for leadership development, faith formation, ministry development, missional opportunities, fellowship opportunities, as well as coaching and training in the best practices of ministry with young people. We are committed to fostering a culture of call so young people have the opportunity to discover how God is calling them to live out their faith in the world, be equipped to follow that calling, be connected to others and places where they can further understand their calling, and then be sent into the world to live out that calling.

This has been exciting year for Young People's Ministry in the Tennessee Conference. Throughout the year, ministries with young people offered opportunities for worship, discipleship, mission and fellowship. We elected a new Conference Council on Youth Ministry at Summer Sizzler. Our President Emma Sanders has provided tremendous leadership throughout the year. Young Adults gathered at Beersheba Springs for a 24-hour retreat filled with scripture, conversation, hiking and swimming. Our Wesley Foundations and Campus Ministries engaged in ministry with a diverse group of college students while providing opportunities for discipleship and mission. In September, young people served throughout Lebanon and Nashville during two different Hands & Feet Mission Retreats. Servants shared in ministry with food pantries, nursing homes, and neighbors in both cities. In Nashville, members of the Open Table Nashville staff provided training and opportunities to learn about serving with our homeless neighbors. Throughout the year, preparations began for the biggest Warmth In Winter in history as we celebrated its 35th anniversary. It was an amazing weekend with 2,400 youth and adults in attendance as we explored our journey of faith. Throughout the weekend testimonies from those who attended Warmth In Winter in the past were shared. Those videos can be viewed at warmthinwinter.com. Planning has begun for Warmth In Winter 2017 as we move to our new location in Nashville at the Opryland Hotel and Convention Center. WnW2017 will take place January 27-29, 2017.

But we are more than Warmth In Winter! While Warmth In Winter is an amazing gathering of young people from across the conference, Young People's Ministry is more than just this event. One of the most transformative things we do is the work with smaller membership churches. The Smaller Church Youth Ministry Initiative is now training and coaching its fourth group of churches from across the Tennessee Conference. Including this year's group, SCYMI has helped 42 churches explore how to build team-based Christ-centered ministry with young people. During 2016, SCYMI has developed a team of local coaches who partner with a consultant from Ministry Architects to provide input and direction for cohort churches during the year-long commitment. Each church attends four training days with a team consisting of the lead pastor, the youth ministry leader, and at least one other key leader from the congregation. Each team also commits to participate in the coaching calls that are provided by phone as well as onsite with their local coach. Over the past four cohorts, churches who have fully engaged and implemented the training and coaching learnings into their ministry have seen an increase in not only the number of youth in their ministries but also in congregational involvement through both volunteers and financial support. As a result, the youth ministry teams have increased their ability and confidence in teaching and proclaiming the Gospel.

Thank you for the support of this ministry as you invest in young people as they are transformed by the Holy Spirit and the Gospel of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

ILIFF SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Rev. Dr. Thomas V. Wolfe President and Chief Executive Officer

Greetings from the Iliff School of Theology in Denver, Colorado. We wish you blessings as together we share the work of strengthening the Church and offering a compassionate presence to the world.

The Iliff School of Theology's commitment to the Wesleyan ethos of providing hopeful, intellectually alive, and spiritually grounded theological education for each and every student over the course of their lifetime. Iliff's identity is focused on educating leaders for three primary publics: the world, the church, and the academy. At Iliff, we refuse to choose between being a training home only for ministerial candidates, a center only for activists and scholar-activists, or a school only for academics. We believe all three are inseparable and enhance one another as we deliberately situate ourselves in the world and critically operate out of the world's complexities.

As such, we recognize the world's religious landscape is changing and there is much at stake. Iliff recently completed its strategic plan, revised its curriculum, transformed its library, and initiated new relationships with other institutions. In collaboration with the people of Africa, we've started a discussion with Africa University (AU) to foster an educational alliance that will benefit Iliff and AU students. We have also joined a multi-institutional collaboration facilitated by the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry and the HANA Scholarship to create a pipeline for Hispanic students from United Methodist related secondary schools and historically black colleges leading to graduate level theological education.

Iliff's enrollment continues to be strong with 365 students joining us this academic year, 60% female and 40% male, 35% Methodist – all actively engaged in a host of ministry contexts. Their interest continues to be strong in Iliff's online and hybrid classes. A concerted move by Iliff to reduce student debt and grow the ability of students to lead financially sound, engaged communities continues with many MDIV students participating in the Spiritually-Integrated Financial Resiliency Program, funded by a $250,000 grant from the Lilly Endowment.

Iliff's numerous events for area clergy and supporters remains part of our foundation. Via forums and conferences on social justice, food justice, the role of faith in politics, environmental stewardship, theology and disability inclusion, and more. Campus speakers included Rev. Gerald Durley, nationally known civil rights leader and this year's Jameson Jones Preacher, Heather Jarvis, student debt reduction advocate, and more. Our efforts were duly noted by McCormick Theological Seminary's Center for Faith and Service when we were named as one of the nation's "Seminaries That Change the World" and our Master's of Theology Program was ranked seventh in the nation by OnlineColleges.net.

We welcomed two new scholars to our faculty this year: Rev. Dr. Jennifer Leath, Assistant Professor of Religion and Social Justice and ordained in the African Methodist Episcopal Church, and Rev. Michelle Watkins-Branch, Gerald L. Schlessman Professor in Methodist Studies and Assistant Professor of Theology and ordained in the United Methodist Church.

We continue to look forward with a courageous theological imagination. We are sincerely grateful for your support of theological education and the Ministerial Education Fund.

One in three full-time MTSO master's students receives a full-tuition scholarship, and our average non-load aid award is $8,600 per year.

Working for sustainable justice

This year offered continuing evidence that social justice and the care of creation are core values for MTSO. We hosted "Faithful Justice: Confronting Mass Incarceration" in February and the Institute on Organizing and Preaching for Social Justice in April. A newly installed solar array began providing energy to Gault Hall, our main academic facility. And the Interfaith Center for Sustainable Development identified Methodist Theological School in Ohio as one of 25 exceptional North American seminaries (out of 231 surveyed) for faith and ecology. MTSO courses addressing ecotheology and sustainability include Ecological Religious Education; Food, Land and Faith Formation; and Dialogues in Faith and Science.

Celebrating 30 years of educating counselors

Over the past three decades, hundreds of men and women have earned graduate counseling degrees with unique depth from MTSO. Our Master of Arts in Counseling Ministries degree integrates psychological and behavioral sciences with wisdom from religious tradition. The second most popular MTSO degree, the MACM offers tracks in Pastoral and Professional Counseling, Pastoral Care and Counseling, and Addiction Counseling.

Master's degree programs comprise approximately 53 percent male and 47 percent female students. The D.Min. program includes students from southern Asia taking classes in Singapore and Dallas. Our Ph.D. program has 32 students.

Please note the following faculty additions:

- Dr. O. Wesley Allen Jr. (Ph.D., Emory) joined the Perkins faculty as the Lois Craddock Perkins Chair in Homiletics in August 2015.
- Dr. Evelyn L. Parker (Ph.D., Northwestern), Associate Dean for Academic Affairs at Perkins, was appointed to the Susanna Wesley Centennial Chair in Practical Theology at Perkins.

The Center for the Study of Latino/a Christianity and Religions at Perkins was awarded a $500,000 grant by The Henry Luce Foundation's Theology program. The three-year grant will significantly expand the Center's work in promoting an understanding of the different religious expressions within the Latino/a communities in the United States and in Latin America.

Perkins unveiled a new degree option, the Master of Theology (Th.M.), which began enrolling students in the Fall 2015 semester. The Th.M. degree is a second master's and requires 24 term hours within one of four divisions of study: The Biblical Witness, The Heritage and Context of Christianity, The Interpretation of the Christian Witness and The Theology and Practice of Ministry.

Additionally, Perkins revealed it will begin offering a Spanish-language Master of Theology (Th.M.) degree beginning in fall 2017. The degree, the first of its kind among the 13 United Methodist-related schools of theology, will be a nonresidential program designed for experienced full-time pastors or church/academic leaders.

Perkins also announced the creation of a first-of-its-kind degree, the Doctor of Pastoral Music, which will begin enrolling students in 2016. Areas of focused study will include liturgy, congregational song, worship leadership, performance skills and the theological basis of church music.

Perkins thanks our many colleagues, friends, and alumni/ae across the connection for generous support in many ways, including referrals of prospective students, as we continue our vital mission of preparing women and men for faithful leadership in Christian ministry.

I will retire as Dean of Perkins School of Theology on May 31, 2016. It has been my privilege to serve in this capacity since 2002. In our mission to prepare women and men for faithful leadership in Christian ministry, the students who have passed through the halls of this school and into the world of ministry are the focus of our work. I am honored to have been a part of their journey.

UNITED THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Dr. Kent Millard, Interim President

United Theological Seminary in Dayton, Ohio continues to educate a significant number of pastors and local church leaders for the Tennessee Conference of the United Methodist Church.

United has always focused on developing faithful, fruitful, inspired and inspiring pastors and local church leaders. 83% of the 2015 graduates of United are now serving in local congregations. 53% of the 2015 graduates from all other seminaries affiliated with the Association of Theological Seminaries are serving in local congregations.

Furthermore, 44% of the current 449 students at United are African American, which makes United one of the most racially diverse seminaries in the United States. An average of 12% of the student body at most seminaries in the United States are African American. 43% of the students at United are female compared to an average of 33% at other United States seminaries. United is one of the most racially and gender diverse seminaries in the United States and produces a higher percentage of local church pastors than most other seminaries in the United States.

United is also in the process of leadership transition. In November 2015, President Wendy Deichmann resigned as resident and, after a well-deserved sabbatical, will return to serving as a Professor of History and Theology. Under President Deichmann, United was listed as one of the 12 fastest growing seminaries in the Unite States largely because of the growing Doctor of Ministry program and our on line degree programs. 44% of United's students are in the Master of Divinity program, 41% are in the Doctor of Ministry program and 15% are in other degree or certificate programs.

In January 2016, The United Board of Trustees selected Dr. Kent Millard, former pastor at St. Luke's United Methodist Church in Indianapolis, as Interim President while they search for a new President.

St. Paul wrote to his young friend Timothy these words of advice: "I remind you to rekindle the gift of God that is within you through the laying on of my hands" (2 Timothy 1:6).

United Theological Seminary, along with the other 12 United Methodist Seminaries in the United States, is committed to helping persons "rekindle the gift of God that is within" to provide educated, inspired and inspiring spiritual leaders for the United Methodist Church throughout the world.

United Theological Seminary 4501 Denlinger Rd. Dayton, Ohio 45426

WESLEY THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY, WASHINGTON D.C.

Rev. Dr. Wm. D. Aldridge; Jr., Associate Dean of Admissions

Called. Answered. Sent.

Wesley Theological Seminary has been equipping and sending forth prophetic preachers, teachers, and leaders into diverse ministries throughout the church and around the world. Near and far, our alumni point to God's love even as they join the Spirit in making disciples and shaping healthy communities.

- With more than 410 master's-level students preparing for leadership in the church and the world, Wesley remains one of the largest and most diverse theological schools in North America.
- The Lewis Center for Church Leadership informs more than 17,000 pastors and lay leaders on trends and ideas through its e-newsletter. The center has influenced more than 5,600 church leaders through leadership assessments, sexual ethics trainings, and fundraising trainings.
- The new Institute for Community Engagement is forwarding Wesley's mission of raising prophetic leaders in the public square through classes, partnerships, conferences, and resources.

Wesley Students Are Answering God's Call

Wesley provides more than $2 million dollars annually in scholarships to our students thanks to the consistent support of alumni, congregations and friends of the seminary. The Ministerial Education Fund and conference partners help us equip a broad range of students to serve the church as pastors and leaders. These include:

- Two Master of Divinity students who are exploring ordination in the UMC that have created outreach opportunities for people who ordinarily would not consider going into a church. Zach Spoerl and Matt Wilke, working with three United Methodist Churches and Wesley, have started Pub Theology in downtown D.C., drawing spiritual-but-not-religious young adults into Christian community.
- Master of Theological Studies student Jane Adams is working with denominations and congregations on issues of poverty and hunger in the U.S. As an intern at the Center for Faith-Based and Neighborhood Partnerships at the U.S. Department of Health & Human Services, she provides tools for building on charitable activities such as food pantries and backpack ministries. As a member of a local United Methodist congregation, she's putting her knowledge to work in her local church and neighborhood, too.

Christian leadership must innovate for greater faithfulness and be able to engage the full diversity of people within our society even while holding true to the foundations of our faith and tradition. The people named above – as well as so many more of our students – exemplify these aims. Read more about our students at wesleyseminary.edu/stories.

Mourning the Loss of a Christian Leader

The Rev. Clementa Pinckney was a Doctor of Ministry student at Wesley in the Leadership Excellence track. He was working on a research project on the combined role of pastor and statesman, when his life was taken along with eight others at Mother Emanuel AME Church in Charleston, S.C. Rev. Pinckney exemplified the spiritually powerful and prophetic leadership that is at the core of our mission.

To ensure Pinckney's legacy continues, Wesley has established scholarships in his name for Doctor of Ministry candidates seeking to empower their congregations, engage their communities, and influence public discourse. Additionally, Wesley has developed a Doctor of Ministry track exploring the intersection between public life and church leadership. This degree focus amplifies Wesley's mission and location and, we hope, will raise up leaders to continue Pinckney's legacy. wesleyseminary.edu/doctorofministry/

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance that may be excluded from a Clergyperson's gross income in any year for federal (and, in most cases, state) income tax purposes is limited under Internal Revenue Code section 107(2), and regulations thereunder, to the least of: (a) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the Clergyperson's employer or other appropriate body of the Church (such as this Conference in the foregoing resolutions) for such year; (b) the amount actually expended by the Clergyperson to rent or provide a home in such year; or (c) the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances (such as a garage), plus the cost of utilities in such year. Each clergyperson or former clergyperson is urged to consult with his or her own tax advisor to determine what deferred compensation is eligible to be claimed as a housing allowance exclusion.

CONFERENCE ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

PROPOSED MOTION

As the current chairperson of the Tennessee Commission on Archives and History (TNCAH), I respectfully move that we suspend the Standing Rules, so we might define and establish the method whereby the membership and terms of office for the Commission on Archives and History shall be set.

Supportive Statement: Since the 1968 merger creating The United Methodist Church, The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, has stated: Para. 1411.1 (1968) and currently: Para. 641.1 (2012) that, "In each annual conference there shall be a conference commission on archives and history. The number of members of the commission and their terms of office shall be as the conference may determine..." (the duties and responsibilities of the commission on archives and history are thereafter defined in this paragraph).

The Standing Rules, Policies, and Procedures of the Tennessee Annual Conference, insofar as can be ascertained, does not contain specific policies and procedures for determining the number of members and their terms of office* for the Tennessee Conference Commission on Archives and History (TNCAH). (*except for general stipulations in Policies 16 and 18).

Historically, according to conference journals for the past several decades, the membership of the TNCAH has included 6-8 clergy members, and 6-15 lay members, and honorary members, nominated and elected by the annual conference, and as ex-officio members - an assigned CCOM staff member and a cabinet representative appointed by the Bishop. Often there were resource persons named by the TNCAH.

Due to unforeseen and unavoidable circumstances brought about by the existing unwritten policy for determining tenure and participation since 2008, the TNCAH in 2016 was left with only one member; thus, following the statement found in para. 641.1 of The Book of Discipline, we recommend the following description be entered into the record of the annual conference:

The membership of the Tennessee Conference Commission on Archives and History shall be set as six (6) Lay Persons and six (6) Clergy, elected annually in classes of two each, to serve no more than the allowable terms of office set by the Standing Rules of the annual conference. Additionally, there shall be named as ex-officio members: an assigned CCOM staff member and a Cabinet representative appointed by the Bishop; and the following ex-officio members: the currently elected conference historian, the curators of the Asbury-Babb House and Strother Meeting House (United Methodist Heritage Landmarks in the Tennessee Conference), and any members of the Tennessee Conference currently elected or appointed to positions at the jurisdictional or general church level in the area of Archives and History.

The officers of the TNCAH shall be elected annually at the first meeting of the commission. The Conference Archivist shall be employed by the TNCAH, and serve under the direction of the commission.

Note: Persons elected as District Representatives, and other persons trained in/or experienced in archival history may be invited to participate as resource persons.

I further move that the following persons be placed in nomination for election to the Tennessee Conference Commission on Archives and History, and added to the report of the Conference Committee on Nominations, at this, the 2016 session of the Tennessee Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church.

CHAPTER 7

MEMOIRS

We celebrate the lives of individuals who are saints!

Some of them, with us, are a part of the whole body of living Christian believers, and others have finished their lives here on earth are a part of the church triumphant! Some have touched us compassionately so we could experience the love of the LORD while others have reminded us to be faithful and avoid drifting into life away from God.

They have all shaken our being--all have been faithful examples of lives of wholeness, working for justice.

O God of both the living and the dead...
... who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

LORD, you have examined me.

You know me.

You know when I sit down and when I stand up.

Even from far away, you comprehend my plans.

You study my traveling and resting.

You are thoroughly familiar with all my ways.

There isn't a word on my tongue, LORD, that you don't already know completely.

You surround me—front and back.

You put your hand on me.

That kind of knowledge is too much for me;

it's so high above me that I can't fathom it.

Where could I go to get away from your spirit?

Where could I go to escape your presence?

If I went up to heaven, you would be there.

If I went down to the grave, you would be there too!

If I could fly on the wings of dawn, stopping to rest only on the far side of the ocean—

even there your hand would guide me;

even there your strong hand would hold me tight!

If I said, "The darkness will definitely hide me;

the light will become night around me," even then the darkness isn't too dark for you!

Nighttime would shine bright as day, because darkness is the same as light to you!

REMEMBRANCES

Betsy Bird Anderson

December 26, 1926 - July 4, 2015

Betsy Bird Anderson, 88, resident of Mt. Pleasant, Tennessee, and retired Maury County teacher, died on July 4, 2015. A fifth-generation Floridian, she was born December 26, 1926, at Treelawn Plantation in Monticello, Florida. Her parents were the late Preston Brooks Bird and Louise Rast Bird; her stepfather was Sloan Morris, all of Monticello.

Betsy graduated from Monticello High School, the oldest brick school building in the state of Florida. After high school, she entered Florida State University in Tallahassee. At FSU, she was a member of Alpha Gamma Delta social sorority and Zeta Phi Eta speech and drama honorary fraternity. She was quite active in college: member of the college senate, president of her sorority, in drama department productions, and elected by the student body to be in the May Court. She graduated in 1948 with an AB degree in Speech and Theatre.

After graduation, she married George Hilliard Anderson of Monticello on September 15, 1948. George had served in the Pacific Theatre of World War II. After he graduated from FSU in 1949, they moved back to Monticello to live. Betsy taught seniors in drama and speech at Leon High School in Tallahassee, produced and directed the first two of many plays in her teaching career. Betsy said of George that she never dreamed she was marrying a politician (serving in the Florida Legislature) who would later become a minister (in The United Methodist Church).

In 1963, the Andersons moved to Murfreesboro, Tennessee. Betsy attended Middle Tennessee State University and earned a Masters Degree. George entered Vanderbilt University Divinity School and became an ordained minister in The United Methodist Church. Betsy taught speech and drama at Central High School in Murfreesboro. This was the first of three high schools where she taught as well as produced and directed plays. While in Murfreesboro, she was asked by the Board of Education to teach a new kind of English class. This was the beginning of the Title I program, designed for students who were struggling. Beginning in ninth grade, two classes that Mrs. Anderson taught for all four years achieved much success in their reading skills. These classes were observed by teachers from all over the state. Betsy spoke of the program in many in-service training days as well as on educational television.

In 1971, Betsy moved to Hendersonville High School. While there, her students won many awards at the Smokey Mountain Forensic League and at other high school competitions. She produced a medieval banquet each year. Her senior English classes researched the period thoroughly. The unit ended with an authentic banquet with food, costumes, and pageantry of the era.

Moving to Columbia, Tennessee, in 1976, Mrs. Anderson began teaching at Columbia Central High School. She taught there until retirement in 1990. While at Central, many of the plays she directed and produced are fondly remembered by the many students who took part in them. Portia Lea and Kirk Whiteside contributed to the success of the musicals.

Betsy was in the first group of teachers to be evaluated for the Master Teacher program for the state's better schools. She was the first female teacher to attain Level Three of the Career Ladder with six male teachers named as Master Teachers. While at Columbia Central High School, she was named Teacher of the Year and later as Maury County Teacher of the Year in 1979.

In addition to drama in school settings, Mrs. Anderson wrote and directed many church plays. The Homecoming '86 play was revised and produced by Betsy, utilizing over one hundred residents in Mount Pleasant. At age 85, she directed a re-enactment of the Last Supper for the Maundy Thursday service at the First United Methodist Church in Mount Pleasant. She produced over 275 school, church, and community plays in her lifetime. In her eighties, she was telling Christmas stories at the Students Club each year.

She was a member of the First United Methodist Church and was active in all aspects. Community affiliations include: James K. Polk Association, the Association for the Preservation of Tennessee Antiquities, the Students Club (oldest book club in Tennessee), Alpha Delta Kappa honorary teacher sorority, and the Maury County Retired Teachers Association.

Betsy enjoyed traveling to foreign countries, assisting Marise Lightfoot in various trips, taking students to both Europe and Australia. She wrote poetry and often read the eulogy at friends' funerals. She also wrote numerous plays and stories.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Rev. George Hilliard Anderson, November 16, 1989; daughter Carolina Preston Harlon; and sister Maria Bird Chamberlin; eight aunts and ten cousins. Betsy was the last of the Bird family. She is survived by her daughters and sons-in-law, Cindy (Richard) Anderson of Nashville; Susan (Woody) Wiggins of Lake Junaluska, NC; Ed Harlon of Columbia; grandchildren, Eli (Sara) Wiggins of Seattle, WA; Rebekah Wiggins of Asheville, NC; Rebekah (Nathaniel) Wright; and Caroline (Jonathan) Holt of Nashville; Katy (Taylor) Clement of St. Louis, MO; U.S. Navy Lt. Andy (Meghan) Harlan of Bloomington, IN; Caroline (Steven) Castellaw of Greenville, SC; great-grandchildren, Anna Walton, Olivia, Isaac, and Caleb Wright; Felice Wiggins; Anderson Clement, Brooks Holt,; her only nephew, Lloyd William (Rindy) Chamberlin of Tampa, FL, and his children, David (Lori) Chamberlin; and Elizabeth (Ryan) Schengold. Her extended family includes Vance Brummal of Mt. Pleasant and wonderful friend and helper, Patricia McClanahan of Mt. Pleasant.

The Memorial Service was held on Tuesday, July 7, 2015, with Rev. Gary Wedgewood and Rev. Woody Wiggins officiating.

Wanda Marie Jones Barrett

November 25, 1926 - March 2, 2016

"The next Saturday night after all had gone to bed, I got my Sunday school book out to study my lesson for the next day. I read that lesson for July 9, and as I read I could feel that Christ was speaking to me and saying, "You follow me as Andrew was asked to follow me also."

I thought to myself something is wrong; so I read it over again; and still the same voice said, "Follow me."

The third time I knew this was truly Christ speaking to me. I fell on my knees and asked him to lead me. The next morning I awakened my wife early and told her of my experience. She said, "If you feel God is leading you, then I want us to go with him."

(Excerpt from Bible Lessons For Adults, July-September 1961)

Born the second of four daughters to Joe Bradley and Colleen Estelle Jones on November 25, 1926, in Princeton, Kentucky, Wanda Jones and Eugene Barrett's lives were almost destined to be together. He, a self-professed country boy from the Dulaney community, and she, a city girl from Princeton, met as teenagers. While in high school, they had their first date at the senior prom, and married 18 months after high school graduation while he was serving in the U.S. Army during World War II.

Like many of their generation, family life started after the war ended, with daughter Rebecca Susan, and sons Bradley Lynn and Robert Redd Barrett coming over a period of nine years. Life for the Barretts was very church-driven. Wanda was a lifelong member of Ogden Memorial United Methodist Church in Princeton, while Gene was raised by his grandparents, active members of the Liberty Baptist Church in nearby Lyon County. He always credited his preaching ability to being "raised a Baptist."

While at Ogden, the Barrett family was active in all aspects of the church - literally attending every Sunday morning and evening service, along with Wednesday night church. Gene was a Sunday School teacher and MYF leader, so the youth of the church were frequent visitors to the Barrett home, where Wanda was known for her cooking skills, particularly at Christmas time when she and Gene would make cream candy for gifts to neighbors and friends. Wanda was a true homemaker in every sense of the word, tending to the children and home, while Gene was active in the church and a variety of civic activities. When a career change took the Barrett family to Tennessee, church life moved to the New Providence United Methodist Church. While Gene was busy working 12 hours a day, 6 days a week job, Wanda kept the home life going.

Then the Lord came calling for Gene, and life changed dramatically for the Barrett family. The family that had been active church members all their lives suddenly became the "preacher's family." The first assignment from the Bishop was the small, four-point Enterprise Circuit, comprised of Enterprise, Sandy Hook, Dry Creek, and Porter's Chapel. Suddenly, Wanda's piano/organ skills were needed, as three of the four churches had no pianist. The piano lessons as a child were now put to good use.

As Gene moved to larger appointments, Wanda was relieved of those duties, but the life of a minister's wife is not stress-free. As only minister's families can attest, different churches have different personalities, and while Gene was blessed to only have four appointments in his 35 years in the ministry, lively dialogue over building programs, church finances, occasional "hurt" feelings among the congregation, along with family tragedies, deaths, funerals, weddings, and such require the minister's family to live through the lives of those they serve. While God comforts and sees the families through such trials, over time it can take its toll. Wanda persevered with Gene until retirement arrived, and they returned to Maury County and Mt. Pleasant.

When Wanda's health deteriorated in her later years, Gene took great care of her until he was called to his heavenly home in December 2012. Their love, devotion, and care for each other lasted through 68 years of marriage, and after his death, life was not easy, physically or emotionally for Wanda. The beauty of the Christian faith was fulfilled on March 2, when she and Gene were reunited in Heaven.

Wanda's Memorial Service was held on March 4, 2016, with Brother Bob Mullenix and Reverend Gary Wedgewood officiating. Burial was in Polk Memorial Gardens.

The calls, the cards, and the outpouring of Christian love after her passing will always be remembered by the family of Wanda Barrett.

Joseph Fred Cloud, Jr.

April 6, 1925 - January 21, 2016

Fred was born in Little Rock, Arkansas to J. Fred Cloud, Sr. and Dolia Owens Cloud. He was an only child, and as such, he was always eager to have others be his honorary brothers and sisters. His parents divorced when he was five. When he was 11, his mother became ill with tuberculosis. She was sent to the state sanitarium in the Ozarks for the rest cure. Fred was sent to live with his grandparents, Aunt Fanny, and an adopted son Curtis, on a subsistence farm, in Center Ridge, AK, about 60 miles north of Little Rock.

There he experienced the various activities of farming in that day, from plowing with mules, milking cows, churning butter, and picking cotton to more fun and creative activities like making the bat and ball so he and his friends could play baseball.

After four years, his mother recovered from TB, Fred graduated from high school and the two of them moved to Little Rock. She got a secretarial job and Fred got a scholarship to Little Rock Junior College. After LRJC, he received a scholarship to Hendrix College. At Hendrix (1942-1944) he got his meals by working in the dining room and had his room in the Infirmary, so he could take meals to sick students. He majored in English, wrote for the school newspaper and edited the Hendrix Chief (a literary magazine), debated, sang in the chorus, and played clarinet in the marching band.

Church had always been a major part of his life, beginning with Winfield Methodist in Little Rock, where he was baptized at age nine and where he sang in the children's choir from age eight. At college he was active in the Christian Student Organization, and at 17 the Little Rock District licensed him to preach.

After only one year at Hendrix an unexpected offer of a job led to a move to Nashville. He worked as an assistant night clerk at the Sam Davis Hotel and attended Vanderbilt University. He continued at Vanderbilt for divinity school. While at Vanderbilt he was assistant editor of Motive, the national magazine for Methodist college students. In 1946 the TN Annual Conference ordained him as a Deacon, admitted him "on trial" and asked him to form an interdenominational church in Vine Hill, a housing project in south Nashville, largely occupied by veterans from World War II. There was no guaranteed salary, so he supplemented "plate offerings" by selling women's shoes at Harvey's Department Store. Also at that time, as a leap of faith, considering the shaky finances, he married Betty Jo Shepherd, a Scarritt College student from North Little Rock.

Two years later, he was ordained as an Elder and admitted into "full connection" in the Tennessee Annual Conference. He served pastorates in Clifton, Bell Buckle, and New Providence. As a sideline, he taught Bible at the Webb School, and later English at Austin Peay, and wrote a number of study units for Methodist youth publications. Three personal highpoints were the births of Amanda Karen and Joseph Laymon and David Bliss.

In 1953 Fred became the first editor of college-age curriculum for Methodist students, a position he held for 14 years. During these years Fred had several opportunities to travel to teach curriculum writing, including in Europe and the South Pacific.

In the 60s Betty went to Nashville Law School and graduated with honors. About this time Fred and Betty divorced. In 1967, at a time of much social ferment, Metropolitan Nashville formed a Human Relations Commission, which hired two staff persons, one of whom was Fred. They worked to secure laws to guarantee equal opportunity for all our citizens. Fred was also very active in the national human relations organizations and edited the Journal of Intergroup Relations from 1990 to 2000.

In 1967 Fred joined (as an associate member) the rather newly formed (1966) Edgehill United Methodist Church. It was there in 1969 that he met Barbara Dickerson, who was studying at Scarritt, on furlough from mission work in Japan. They married that year.

Music was always very important to Fred, especially classical and jazz. It fed his soul. He enjoyed singing in the Nashville Symphony Chorus and in the choir at Edgehill UMC. In preparation for his retirement he received a D.Min degree in pastoral counseling from Vanderbilt Divinity School. In retirement he taught various sociology courses at American Baptist College and on military bases for the University of Maryland.

Fred is survived by his beloved wife Barbara, and his daughter Amanda Karen Cloud. He was preceded in death by his sons Joseph Laymon and David Bliss.

A memorial service was held at Wightman Chapel, at Scarritt-Bennett on February 21.

Gail Wynn Dixon

Eagerly Rising Up to Call Her Blessed
On this sixth month anniversary of the final transition of our precious Gail Dixon, the Hobson United Methodist congregation sighs heavily and remembers the blessing and example of one lent to us by God. Since 1999, Gail had been a member of Hobson; she valued the dynamic relationship of sisters and brothers and children and—no surprise—the congregation adored her.

Gail Cunningham Dixon was married for 41 years to Vernon "Sonnye" Dixon and that union produced Sonja Michelle and Vernon "Trey."

For 30 years, Gail was one of Nashville's impressive Metro Public School teachers, a nurturing, edifying instructor and a supportive colleague, giving all the way. Her life was centered around family. In the final days of their lives, Gail cared for her mother, Olivia Cunningham, and enjoyed sitting with her mother-in-law, Henrie Dixon.

Although her health did not permit Gail to be the traditional first lady, she showed our congregation how a caring Christian woman moves and loves within a church and community. She did this in her own way and in spite of her challenges. For us, she was the exact "preacher's wife" we needed. Each person in our group had her or his own connection with Gail, and we valued that connection whenever she was able to be with us. Whether in the building or not, we felt and celebrated her support. That support included naming "adoptive church children," especially Crystal Doss; these children brought her joy and cherished her like a mother.

Gail embraced everyone, regardless of age, race/ethnicity, marital status, economic circumstance, sexual orientation, physical or mental ability. Some visitors who came would automatically connect with her because she welcomed them like family. She loved fearlessly, greeting early arrivers to worship and engaging them in conversation, especially at the former building.

Often she would ride with Pastor Sonnye to pick up members in the church van. Gail always greeted them with a smile. At other times, she encouraged Pastor Sonnye to grant the requests for additional assistance from the riders. She understood that if people needed rides to church, they probably had other needs and she saw no reason not to help in any way they could. Gail was especially attentive to those members who were housed at the church. One of the telling qualities about Gail is that when she attended special events, programs or weddings, she always asked about who was missing. That inquiry meant that she was thinking of others, cared, and was concerned about their wellbeing.

In worship services, Gail loved receiving Communion, especially when she was able to walk to the table. She believed in making an effort to receive the grace offered by our Lord and Savior. Often, for her, it was a huge and painful effort, but she received that grace with gladness.

She was especially moved to see the children participate in the worship service—a beautiful, celebrative and redeeming practice at Hobson. Seeing children kneeling and praying at the altar spoke volumes to her and soothed her soul. As we celebrate the memory of Gail Cunningham Dixon, we count the blessing of her life and the example she patterned for us. She genuinely loved everybody—no disagreements at all, always and ever a part of the community. We all strive to imitate her example, living for God, loving like Gail.

Finally, brothers and sisters, good-bye.

Put things in order, respond to my encouragement, be in harmony with each other, and live in peace—and the God of love and peace will be with you.

Lena Marie Grabaum Edens was born October 4, 1928, to Ewauld & Amanda Bodlin Grabaum in Vernon, TX. Her mother was an American born German. Her father was a German immigrant, immigrating to the US in 1925 as a blacksmith's apprentice. She was educated through the Lutheran church in Vernon.

At age 17, she met and married James Gordon Edens from Westmoreland, TN. They had three living children, two daughters and a son, one daughter who died in infancy and a set of twins lost to miscarriage. In addition to caring for her home and family, Lena worked for many years in a shirt factory. Then, when James received the call to preach, she chose to leave her factory job and committed to serve as his helpmate in his ministry in the United Methodist Church in whatever capacity she was needed.

James's first full-time appointment was the Dale Hollow Charge in Monroe, TN., serving four churches in the charge. After settling into their new home and ministry, Lena and James signed up to be foster parents taking several foster children into their home. Lena loved being a foster parent and loved the children she cared for. She especially loved making new clothes for the little girls in her care.

Lena was an accomplished seamstress. In addition to making clothes for her foster children, she also made clothes for her own children and making and altering suits for her husband after he became a minister. She also enjoyed piecing and hand-quilting quilts in her spare time. Lena was never one to sit idle. She loved working in her garden and canning or freezing the vegetables and fruits she harvested. And she always had flower gardens and potted flowers she cared for. Then when the daytime chores and the supper dishes were done, if she wasn't sewing or quilting, she would relax in the living room with James and while he was working on his sermons or watching TV, she was working on some other kind of craft such as crocheting afghans, working on plastic canvas projects, or crocheting hundreds of cross bookmarks to give away. She loved giving the things she made to family, friends, acquaintances and even strangers.

Even after her husband's retirement from ministry and his death, Lena continued to serve her church. She helped prepare meals for the sick & shut-in and for special fellowship meals. She served on the pastor parish committee and was church secretary, keeping minutes for all the meetings. She was diligent to call, visit, or send cards to the sick and shut-ins.

She remained active, caring for her home, driving, caring for her flowers and small garden and loving her children and grandchildren until her death on August 31, 2015. She is greatly missed by her family, church and community.

Alton Ray Gilliam

October 18, 1936 – January 27, 2016

My father was born in a tiny little house in Cumberland Furnace, Tennessee, in 1936, in the midst of the Great Depression.

In the early 1940's he and his family moved to Detroit, Michigan. They were very poor and lived in a small upstairs flat with another family. He said when he was young he played a lot under the Ambassador Bridge, the bridge that crosses the Detroit River to Canada.

He was bullied a lot because he was a small kid, and the kids in the inner city school he attended were rough city boys. So he got brave one day and decided to fight back. It didn't take long for the bullies to realize he wasn't going to run away anymore, so they left him alone. He eventually acquired the fierce reputation of a tough kid and was never bullied again. He also instilled this tough mentality in his kids.

In the early 1950's he and his family moved to the suburbs. He graduated high school in 1954 and became an apprentice printer for a typesetting company in Detroit. He earned his journeyman's card a short time later. He said that was one of his greatest accomplishments. He was now a skilled tradesman! Some years later he would take his typesetting skills and become a salesperson for a new computer company and along with selling the computers to newspapers and universities, he also trained everyone how to use those computers. This was long before there were desktops, laptops or smartphones. The computers he sold were huge mainframe computers that were the size of a truck and filled up a whole room.

My dad had the greatest sense of humor. He would play jokes on us kids all the time, and act silly in public and embarrass us to death. He would pretend to stumble around and walk funny when we were all together in a store. Or he would talk in a weird silly way just to embarrass us even more. When we went out to eat at a restaurant he always teased the servers, asking them things like "do you take Federal Reserve Notes for payment?" Then giggle at their dumbfounded reactions.

He taught us new unusual words all the time. As a small child, he taught me the word "antidisestablishmentarianism" over and over until it was a part of my vocabulary! He taught me to be tough mentally and emotionally. He always told us "adversity builds strength and character," and "life is tough, you have to always keep fighting."

He was an amazing role model and a pillar of strength. One of my sisters had Cystic Fibrosis and her illness made all of us a little stronger because my dad stayed strong for us and never let us know he was as afraid as we were. He knew if he fell apart, we would fall apart, too.

He moved back to Tennessee in 1984 to help take care of his parents. He was so generous, and had such a soft heart, that he would give anyone the shirt off his back if they needed one. He had a huge soft spot in his heart for stray dogs, small children and people less fortunate than he. If a stray dog came around, he would feed it and talk to it and play with it. Then of course, the dog would fall in love with him and would stay and become his new buddy. He teased his grandchildren, who called him Granddaddy, and always asked them "who's your daddy?" and they would always reply "you are." They fell for it every time and that made him laugh a lot.

My dad had a strong faith in God, even though that faith had been tested time and again. He always told me "everything you always wanted to know about life is in the Bible," and as I got older and studied the Bible, I realized there again, what an intelligent and amazing man my father was!

He lost two daughters and two wives over his lifetime, so I believe he practiced what he preached when he told us that adversity builds strength and character, because he had strength and character greater than any other man I've known. He was the happiest I had seen him when he was married to Sandy and was so proud of her for becoming a minister. He was devastated when she was killed in a car accident and never got over the grief of losing her.

He was his aunts' and uncles' favorite nephew, he was his grandparents' favorite grandson, he was the favorite uncle to many of his nieces and nephews and he was an amazing man. He had the respect and admiration of everyone he met in his life. I miss him every day. The last words he spoke to me were, "I sure do love you and I'm so glad you're here with me." He smiled right before he took his last breath, and I immediately knew he was crossing the bridge and saw Jesus welcoming him into heaven.

JoAnn Aylor McCord

July 13, 1934 – September 1, 2015

JoAnn McCord, 81, died September 1, 2015, with her daughters, Sabrina and Danielle, and family by her side. She was born July 13, 1934, to Emmett and Theresa (McFarland) Aylor in Monteagle, TN; where she was raised. JoAnn graduated from MTSU, with a BS in Education. It was here that she began her lifelong courtship with her husband and partner of 50+ years, Rev. Durward McCord. They began dating while at MTSU after Durward yelled across the commons, "Hey, JoAnn, will you marry me?"

While JoAnn was still attending undergraduate school, she would accompany Durward to youth groups and church related activities that were already under his direction at his young age of 19. She excitedly graduated, Durward finished schooling at Vanderbilt University and they began serving the Lord, each other, their girls and their church families.

After graduation, JoAnn became an integral part of the church families that she and Durward served. She was always a willing, supportive and an encouraging part of the service to their church home and the Lord that she served. During their many moves while serving the United Methodist Conference, JoAnn was known to be outspoken (never having to guess where she stood on an issue), strong, and a role model for many, as she did much more than the typical role of a minister's wife. Durward and JoAnn were champions of the less fortunate and worked for the equality of all. She took to heart her supporting role in the Stephens' Ministries and cared deeply in its mission. JoAnn taught many children from third grade through high school throughout her teaching career. She did an amazing job at teaching others and taking care of her family.

JoAnn and Durward were forever golf buddies. They enjoyed the time that golf gave them together as well as being with great friends. Her many championships and "Hole in One" at Callaway Gardens made her happy, but she was always on the lookout for a better game. They enjoyed traveling together to play different courses, and JoAnn looked forward to her surprise Thanksgiving trips Durward planned for her each year.

JoAnn showed her family unconditional love and encouraged each of them to do the same. She gave her family all of herself. Even from afar, she took such good care of her girls, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. When birthdays and Christmas came around, gifts were always given from both Durward and her (never wanting the great-grandchildren to forget him). "Mama Jo" had a very close, personal, and energetic relationship with each of her grandchildren and was blessed to have the same with her great-grandchildren. In late July, the entire family (from TX, CO, GA, NC, NE and TN) celebrated her 81st birthday at home. At the celebration, JoAnn wore her glow stick bracelets and crown proudly as lanterns were lifted off into the moonlit sky celebrating her glorious life and how lucky we all were to be a part of it.

Survivors who miss her dearly are: Daughters, Sabrina Settle and Danielle (Brent) Vandiver; Grandchildren, Ryan (Dwayne) Essl, Haley (Jon) Owens, Zachary (Paul Craig) Settle, Taylor (Mat) Walston, E. J. Kreis, Cash Vandiver; Great Grandchildren, Emily and Jacob Essl, Wyatt and Sadie Walston, Nathan and Nolan Owens; Sisters, Peggy (Richard) Partin, Ruth Aylor; along with numerous nieces and nephews.

JoAnn was preceded in death by her husband, Rev. Durward McCord (2005); Granddaughter, Kennedy Kreis, Parents, Sister, Katherine Crick, Nephew, Lionel Partin; Brother-in-Law, John McCord.

Dorothy Mae Sawyer Moon

September 29, 1935 - April 12, 2016

A Life of Love

On September 29, 1935, Dorothy Mae Sawyer was born in rural Arlington, Tennessee to James Griffith Sawyer and Oswald Tucker Sawyer. She was the fourth of seven children born to this union. She accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior at the age of 12, becoming a member of Hammond Grove Baptist Church. This officially began a long life of faith. At an early age, Dorothy showed a high aptitude for learning. Her father was especially proud of her academic accomplishments and would tack her papers to the wall to show visitors to the Sawyer home. The school librarian once praised Dorothy for having read every book in the library, and her teachers sometimes called upon her to teach the class in their absence. Dorothy enjoyed singing, acting, writing essays and poetry, sewing and playing basketball throughout high school. She was well liked and was voted "Most Dramatic" by her Senior class. It was no surprise when she graduated from Barrett's Chapel High School in 1954 as the Class Valedictorian.

Amongst other honors she received were full academic scholarships to Fisk University and LeMoyne College. Because of continued family hardships following her father's sudden death, she decided to enroll close to home at LeMoyne College in Memphis, Tennessee, where she majored in English and worked part-time jobs to assist with family needs. Dorothy was fiercely protective of her family. During this time she married her high school sweetheart, William Branch. To this union a daughter, Melva Lisa, was born.

After graduating and obtaining her teaching certification, Dorothy taught in Shelby County Public Schools. Although she could make her own clothes she enjoyed being able to afford the latest in professional fashions with her new income. She also insisted on wearing high heels every day. She felt they helped her to have greater authority over her students because of her small stature. While she was a stylish Southern belle on the outside, she had the heart of an activist evidenced when she refused to move to the back of a Memphis city bus. She was arrested and booked, but bond was soon posted for her. Throughout her life Dorothy protected and fought for justice for oppressed and underprivileged persons—speaking out, writing letters, going to court and other acts of service and support.

When the family moved to Nashville, Tennessee, Dorothy began an exemplary 33-year career with Metropolitan Nashville-Davidson County Public Schools as a K-12 teacher. She influenced many little lives at John Early, Ford Greene, Cole, Amqui, Morny, Joelton and Tom Joy schools. Dorothy was a nurturing and imaginative teacher who often used music and creative writing to encourage optimal results from her students. She taught them invaluable life skills through discovery in reading, story writing, and taking care of rabbits, goldfish, chameleons, and birds. She happily accepted additional roles as a music teacher and taught handbells, recorders and xylophones to so many of her students. She took great joy in presenting the children in concerts. She was a gifted leader who was often asked to assume administrative roles, but her primary love was teaching students—particularly first graders. She later earned a Master's Degree in Early Childhood Education and additional certification as a Reading Specialist from Vanderbilt University's George Peabody College for Teachers. A committed lifelong learner, Dorothy received additional training in child development at Austin Peay State University and Atlanta University. One of her fondest experiences was studying literary arts abroad in Greece and Turkey.

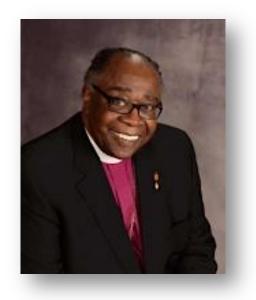

Life dealt Dorothy some tough blows but she was always resilient and faithful to God. Like the apostle Paul, she had learned to be content with her life as an educator and mother to Lisa, but God had even more in store for her than she could imagine. In 1976, she married a United Methodist minister and widower, Reverend James Lawrence Moon, Sr., and became a very proud stepmother to his seven children, William (Billy), Linda, James Jr. (Burt), Edward (Chet), M.P., Fletcher, and Shirley Renee. Within their union, Joy and Jessica (Lynne) were born. Dorothy continued to express her creativity in the United Methodist Church, where she played piano and organ for services and cooked for bereaved families at Seay-Hubbard UMC and the Springfield Parish until her husband retired. Then they joined Clark Memorial UMC in Nashville, Tennessee, where Dorothy sang in the Sanctuary Choir, organized Lenten services and established programs and choirs for children and youth.

In 1992, the family moved to Cincinnati, Ohio and joined Calvary UMC. Dorothy accepted a position at Cincinnati Union Bethel as the director of a child development center. Under her leadership a new center was opened and the handbook she created became a model for other centers within the agency. She was later promoted to Director of Head Start Programs, where she remained until her retirement in 1999. Yet Dorothy continued her life's mission-organizing programs for children, teaching Sunday school and Vacation Bible School and remaining active with the United Methodist Women at Calvary UMC. In 2015 she joined Eden Chapel United Methodist Church under the pastorate of her spiritual son, Peter Edward Matthews. Although her health often prevented her from attending Sunday services, she stayed connected by reading the newsletters and bulletins, supporting church projects, making calls and asking her daughter Lynne (the Minister of Music) lots of questions.

Dorothy was proactive about her health and always encouraged others to be the same way. She was well-known at her dialysis clinic because of her classy style, smile, kindness, generosity and diligence with her treatment regimen. Dorothy will be fondly remembered by those closest to her as an advocate for children and a passionate lover of music, literature, art and entertainment. She was a superb culinary chef and her home was always the center for family gatherings, especially Sunday dinners. Her love for her grandchildren was unapologetic and fierce as she spoiled them with love and other tokens of affection.

Dorothy was preceded in death by her parents, five of her siblings—Albert, Barbara, Sadie, Ruby and James; her husband, Reverend James L. Moon Sr.; beloved daughter, Joy Lianne Moon; granddaughter, Thema Moon; and great-grandson Cain Gray. We are here to uplift her memory and continue to love one another—her Sister, Elder Nettie Lester; Her Children, Jessica Lynne Moon, Lisa (Michael) McGee, Renee (Victor) Franklin, Fletcher (Marilyn) Moon, Edward (Chet) Moon, M.P. Moon, James (Carolyn) Moon Jr., Linda (James) Ealy, and William (Paulette) Moon; Her Grandchildren, Kamilah Aisha Moon, Niya Evonne Moon, Lakie Moon, Jamil Moon, Alexander McDonald, Jianne Dorothy-Lynne McDonald, David Ealy, Phillip Ealy, Barbara Hopkins, Gwendolyn Gash, Mailakia (Kia) Moon, Victor Leon Cyrus-Franklin, Christopher Franklin, Linda Furtado, Catherine Cain, Cheshire Moon, Najja Moon, and Imani Moon; two spiritual grandchildren, Ellen Catherine Pierce and Justice Dunn, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and many dear friends that included Dr. Ernestine Pickens Glass, Mrs. Betty Otey, Mr. & Mrs. Tony Hall, Rev. Joe and Mrs. Bettye Shelton, Mrs. Mary Oglesby and Dr. Shirley A. R. Lewis.

William Wesley Morris

August 7, 1937 – January 14, 2016

William (Bill) Wesley Morris was born in Baltimore, Maryland on August 7, 1937 and transitioned to heaven on January 14, 2016. His parents, the late William and Daisy Franklin Morris, raised him to value education; therefore, following graduation from high school in Baltimore, he furthered his formal education obtaining his Bachelor of Arts degree in Pre-Theology and Philosophy from Ohio Wesleyan University in 1957 and the Bachelor of Divinity degree from Garrett Evangelical Theological Seminary in 1960. He continued his education and earned a Master of Arts with Distinction from Scarritt College for Christian Workers in 1969 and the Doctor of Ministry from Vanderbilt University in 1973.

Bishop Morris was in service for the Lord for over 55 years in a number of different capacities. Fulfilling student appointments, he served Bethany Methodist Church, Union Avenue Community Methodist Church, and Christ Methodist Church, all located in Chicago, Illinois. He was ordained as a Deacon in 1959 and as an Elder in 1961. He served as pastor of several churches, including Stanley UMC in Chattanooga, Tennessee (1962-1967), John Wesley UMC in Nashville, Tennessee (1967-1971), and First UMC in Gallatin, Tennessee (1990-1992). He worked diligently as Clarksville District Superintendent from 1974-1980, and as the Murfreesboro District Superintendent from 1983-1988. Additionally, Bishop Morris was the Associate Council Director for the Tennessee Conference from 1971-1974, and served twice as the Conference Council Director from 1980-1983 and 1988-1990.

William Wesley Morris was consecrated as Bishop in the United Methodist Church on July 18, 1992. Elected to the Episcopacy during the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference, he was assigned to Alabama-West Florida Episcopal Area from 1992-2000. He served the Nashville Episcopal Area as Bishop and president of the General Board of Pensions and Health Benefits from 2000 until 2004. Post retirement, Bishop Morris was called back into service as the interim General Secretary, General Commission on United Methodist Men for one year. He stepped down from this position in June 2006. Additionally, he served as interim pastor for Bethpage United Methodist Church in Bethpage, Tennessee and Gordon Memorial United Methodist Church in Nashville, Tennessee.

In addition to holding many significant positions, Bishop Morris was the recipient of a number of honorary degrees and awards. He was awarded an Honorary Doctor of Divinity degree from Birmingham Southern College, Huntingdon College, Martin Methodist College, and Tuskegee University. Known for his inherently evangelistic character, in June 2004 he was awarded the Clergy Denman Award from the Tennessee Conference. Bishop Morris served as Vice-chairperson of the Appalachian Development Committee and Co-Chair of the Religious Leaders for Fisk Steering Committee, and was Chairperson of the SEJ Town and Country Fellowship, and SEJ Fellowship of District Superintendents.

An Emeritus member of the Board of Trustees of Emory University, he was a past member of Board of Asbury Seminary, Birmingham Southern College, and Huntingdon College. With a sincere passion for preaching, teaching, missions, evangelism, and stewardship, Bishop Morris's vast service extended beyond the many committee memberships, delegate responsibilities (both Jurisdictional and General Conferences), Board of Director duties and other administrative talents. He served as the Martin Luther King, Jr. Day speaker at both Hendersonville's Community Pastors Association in 2012 and at Fisk University in 2013. Additionally, William taught in UMW Mission Studies for a number of years.

In addition to his busy professional life, William Wesley Morris also had a personal life. A man who loved people, he had a contagious smile, and unending support and love for his family. He was knowledgeable about many topics and gave wise advice to those who would listen. Although not easily swayed by others, his goal was to be fair and Godly in decisions he made. And by the way, was it mentioned that he loved to sing! His voice was baritone and smooth. You knew the sermon had ended when he put his watch back on and started a melodic tune that praised God and soothed the souls of those under the sound of his voice. Although many people would mistake him for James Earl Jones, Bishop Morris did not seek the bright lights of attention for himself. When complimented, he would respond: "You are kind."

Reflecting on memories of Bishop William Morris, one remembers a Christian servant who had passion for God and his Church. One remembers a family man who demonstrated an unconditional love for family and friends. One remembers an intellectual who stood fast to personal convictions, executed decisions based on research, mercy and fairness. One remembers a man willing to listen, although he may not have changed his mind. A man, full of life, gregarious in nature, who enjoyed a good "discussion of opposite opinions," William respected a person's right to express their thoughts. Although we loved him, God loved him best. We shall miss this man of God.

William (Bill) Morris was preceded in death by his father, William Morris; mother, Daisy F. Morris; sister, Elizabeth Morris Williams; nephew, David Williams and wife, Mary Virginia Head Morris, and leaves to mourn his transition his wife, Princilla Evans Morris, a blended family of six children; Elder Loretta Morris, Janine Eva Morris (Atlanta, GA), Michael Wesley Morris (McMinnville, TN), William Mark Morris (Montgomery, AL), Bryson Thomas Evans (Melyssa) and Shawnda Evans Hollie (Oba); twelve grandchildren; Lartikeya Reshay Morris, Kaitlyn Elizabeth Morris, Brooklynn Nicole Evans, Markizeya Kenyatta Morris, Ayah Naeemah Hollie, William Mark Morris, Jr., Emma Maeann Kern, Nalia Elon Hollie, Alana Sanaa Hollie, Wesley Donell W. Alma was a direct descendent of the early Methodist circuit rider John McGee. And when Marvin accepted God's call to the ministry in 1953, she began to live the life of a 20th century circuit rider with him.

Following a fruitful ministry across Middle Tennessee and Southern Kentucky, Marvin retired in 1988. He and Alma made their retirement home in Dowelltown, Tennessee, and she remained there after his death on February 3, 2001.

Alma died on Sunday, February 14, 2016, at NHC in Smithville. In addition to her husband, she was preceded in death by her daughter, Judy Elaine Napier Bryan, who died on July 11, 2008. She is survived by three children: daughter Patsy D. Napier, Hickman, Tennessee, son Marvin L. (Elizabeth) Napier, Dowelltown, son Charles Napier of Dowelltown, and son-in-law Randall Bryan, New Middleton. Her four grandchildren are Joshua (Rachel Grimsley) Bryan of Brush Creek; Amanda Bryan (Jeffery) Mason of Gordonsville; Sarah Napier (Judson) Bailey, Huntsville, Alabama; Lora (Stephen Lee) Napier, South Orange, New Jersey. She also had eight greatgrandchildren. They are Maggie Bryanne Mason, McKenzie Grace (Lou) Mason, Jax Randall Mason, John Morgan Bailey, Mary Elizabeth Bailey, Clayton Bundy, Nathaniel Isaac Bryan, and Iris Napier Lee.

Graveside services were conducted Friday February 19, 2016, at 1:00 at Bethlehem Cemetery, Wilson County, with Rev. Dickie Johnson and Rev. Lee Neal presiding.

Among several friends who contacted the family immediately after Alma's death was a childhood friend of the Napier girls. She recalled staying with the family after school every day while her mother worked. She said that she always felt at home and that Alma always treated her like her own daughter.

Another lady, who sat in front of Alma at the Dowelltown UMC, talked about Alma bringing her small children pennies and candy every Sunday she was able to attend. These comments brought to mind Jesus' statement to "let the little children come to me, and do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of heaven belongs" (Matthew 19:14 NRSV).

Among other comments made were several referencing her generosity to others by sharing her garden. And she was considered by her neighbors as the best pickle-maker. That would have made her very happy!

Summing up a life of nearly 86 years is very difficult, but Alma's favorite scripture says it all:

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not be in want.

He makes me lie down in green pastures,

he leads me beside quiet waters,

he restores my soul.

He guides me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me.

You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies;

You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. Surely goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Marie Nicholson Rogers

May 9, 1918 - March 20, 2014

Marie Nicholson Rogers was born in Moss, Mississippi, on May 9, 1918 (to Maude and Milton Nicholson). She received her BA from Scarritt College and her MSW from the University of Tennessee School of Social Work.

Marie married Frederick DuRant Rogers on June 2, 1941. Fred had been her clinical supervisor during her studies at Scarritt. Marie began service as a home missionary in 1946 where she served with her husband, Fred, at Wesley House, Louisville, KY, 1946-49; Bethlehem Center, Nashville, TN, 1949-67. She always stood firmly in her efforts to effect positive change in the lives of all she encountered. In 1967 she served at the Metropolitan Board of Education, Nashville, Tennessee.

Marie retired on June 6, 1983, and was credited with 37 years of home missionary service. Following her retirement, she and Fred moved to Florida and later to New Jersey.

Marie died peacefully in Randolph, New Jersey, on March 20, 2014, and Memorial Services were held at the Church of the Redeemer in Morristown, New Jersey, and at West End United Methodist Church in Nashville. She was buried in Morrow Memorial Cemetery, in Dixon, Mississippi.

Carrie Marler Sides

October 24, 1924 - June 3, 2015

Carrie Marler Sides was the surviving spouse of Rev. Jack Sides, who died in 1997. She was living in Macon, Georgia, at the time of her death.

She had been a member of Morton Memorial United Methodist Church in Monteagle during the time her husband served that church as pastor.

Sims, Sadie Harding

July 20, 1919 - May 18, 2015

In Loving Memory of our mother Sadie Harding Sims, Sunrise, July 20, 1919, Sunset May 18, 2015. She was preceded in death by her loving husband, Rev. Samuel R. Sims, Sr.

Sadie was the eighth child of nine children born to the late Edward and Emma Harding and was educated in the Davidson County School System. She was united in Holy Matrimony on December 4, 1937, in Williamson County, the State of Tennessee. They were married for 52 years.

To this union three sons were born: Jewell, Larry, and Samuel R. Sims, Jr. It wasn't easy for her raising three boys while my father was away working for weeks at a time. However, we knew when he returned she would always give him a report of our actions, which we dreaded most of the time.

Our mother accepted Christ at Seay Hubbard United Methodist Church. Her favorite hymn to sing was "I Know It Was the Blood." She loved the Lord, her husband, family, and those with whom she came in contact. She was a very sweet, kind, polite, mild mannered and beautiful mother. Although she was quiet and didn't have a lot to say, if you crossed her she would put you in your place, with a smile.

Our mother loved to read magazines and newspapers and to look at pictures. She loved cooking and taking care of her house, but the thing she loved and looked forward to most of all was her birthday celebration, of which we had many, many years to celebrate because she was blessed and highly favored to live a long life. "Thank God for the blessing!"

In the years to come we will be thinking of her on her special day, but also knowing that she will be in heaven with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ celebrating at the welcome table with the love of her life, Rev. Samuel R Sims, Sr. When daddy sees you he will probably say: "Girl, what took you so long to get here?"

We cherish the precious memories of Our Mother!

Lovingly provided by son, Rev. Samuel R Sims, Jr.

CHAPTER 10 AWARDS & ELECTED DELEGATES

THE ORDER OF ST ANDREW AWARDS FOR 2016

The Order of Saint Andrew award honor ministers and laity of the Memphis and Tennessee Annual Conferences of the United Methodist Church who have been "Andrews" to countless souls by giving faithfully and blessing the lives of individuals in the churches they have served.

IVIE P. BURNS, II

The Order of St. Andrew takes its name from the Apostle, one of the first twelve of Jesus' disciples. Andrew is most famous for his quiet, unassuming service. He recognized one of the most important aspects of being a follower of the Lord: the main thing is to bring people to Jesus. Ivie P. Burns, II is a deserving recipient of this award in that he too shows people to Jesus.

Ivie does that in a number of ways. He is deeply involved in his local church, Murfreesboro First UMC. There he serves on the Board of Directors and teaches Sunday school for middle schoolers. He also volunteers with the Boy Scouts of America and Journey Home, which is a Christian Outreach Center for the homeless and at-risk individuals and families in Rutherford County.

Ivie also serves on the Board of Directors for the United Methodist Foundation for the Memphis and Tennessee Annual Conferences, which he chaired from 2006-2007 and again from 2012-2016. He is married to Stephanie, and they have two children. Always willing to give of himself, Ivie is a gift to all those who know him and a person who can show others to Christ.

BETTYE LEWIS

In 1989 Rev. Bettye P. Lewis entered ministry with the Tennessee Conference and from there went on to serve in a great variety of settings during her illustrious 27-year career.

Bettye has been a pastor, associate pastor, the campus minister at Austin Peay State University for five years, Superintendent of the Pulaski District from 2000 to 2008, Associate Director of Conference Connectional Ministries for two years, then Director for the balance of her career.

In addition to leading our conference staff for these last years, Bettye contributed untold hours to Older Adult Ministries and was instrumental in the creation of the Golden Cross Foundation in 2014, benefiting seniors across the entire conference.

For a number of years Bettye's behind-the-scenes organizational abilities help us plan and implement these annual conference sessions. Bettye has also served on many conference, jurisdictional, and general church committees.

Last fall, Bettye announced her retirement effective February 1, 2016. She gave herself to a smooth transition of leadership.

Our conference's highest recognition for influencing the life of the church is The Order of St. Andrew, a fund and an award within the United Methodist Foundation for the Memphis and Tennessee Conferences, the income of which supports Ministerial Scholarships. In gratitude and recognition for Bettye's service in the ministry of this conference, significantly influencing the life of the church, the Personnel Committee of the CCOCM awards to The Reverend Bettye P. Lewis The Nashville Area Order of St. Andrew.

MARY LOU MOORE

Mary Lou Moore is noted as a true "servant leader" of Jesus Christ for her commitment to the Church and the Kingdom of God.

Since retiring as the Librarian at Scaritt Bennett College, she has served as a Volunteer/Administrative Receptionist for the Conference Office for more than 12 years! Her commitment to the task of ministry is exemplary. She offers the wonderful gift of hospitality and affirms all persons as being valuable in the sight of God. She is a true treasure!

Mary Lou has a strong passion about any work that she is asked to perform, from answering conference calls and questions, directing visitors to designated offices, filing reports and sending out mailings. She often surprises the Conference Staff with her homemade goodies, desserts pleasing to any palate's delight.

She is greatly loved and admired for her respect for others, for her commitment to the church and the conference office. She is always willing to give time and energy to her ministry in ways that exceed all expectations.

Mary Lou embodies servanthood and continues to seek opportunities to "give of her best to the Master" and to lend a helping hand as a committed follower of Jesus Christ.

Notification Process - The First 60 Minutes

If you learn of the crisis through a media contact (not unusual), you have 60 minutes to make your first formal response. If you learn of the crisis through another contact, be prepared to be contacted by the media. Your immediate responsibility is to contact your District Superintendent. This will activate the Immediate Crisis Response Team (ICRT) to prepare an initial statement.

Instruct staff to follow "Media Procedures for Church and Conference Staff" guidelines.

• If notified by media outlet requesting information, use the Hold Response and complete the Crisis Communications Telephone Log for Media Calls. (see "Media Procedures for Church and Conference Staff" guidelines)

Use this "Hold Response" to respond to requests for information. "I want to make sure we give you the most accurate and up-to-date information possible. Our spokesperson can best help you. If you will give me your contact information, deadline and the topic that you're calling about, I'll have that person return your call as soon as possible."

• First person aware of crisis contacts his/her district superintendent. (TNUMC Cabinet 2015-2016) (If this person cannot contact his/her district superintendent, then call must be placed to bishop's office.)

- District Superintendent calls bishop's office, speaks to Bishop or Bishop's Area Assistant, explaining the crisis in a 5-minute or less conversation.
- Bishop or Bishop's Area Assistant makes decision whether or not to contact ICRT. If the decision is made that a media crisis might occur, ICRT will immediately assemble via conference call.
- ICRT will assess the nature and extent of crisis by asking the following questions:
 - 1. What is known about the situation? What is not known?
 - 2. Who knows about the situation? What do they know?
 - 3. What can we expect to occur during the next few hours/days?
 - 4. What information can we release to the media and public immediately?
- Quickly uncover as many FACTS as possible before calling together the Media Crisis Management Team.
- The ICRT will prepare a one paragraph statement to be distributed as soon as the facts are known. The statement will include facts (no suppositions) about what happened and what the church intends to do. The statement will express compassion for all persons involved. This IS the church!

Crisis Communications Telephone Log for Media Calls

- 1. Duplicate this sheet so a new page is available for logging every media call related to the crisis.
- 2. Every call from the media related to the crisis is to be noted using a log sheet. An electronic log may also be used, but it is recommended that a paper log be maintained for convenience of those returning logs AND for possible court cases.
- 3. Copy the completed log sheet before giving it to the spokesperson. Place the copy in a file to be maintained for several years.
- 4. Never transfer a call to voicemail OR to the spokesperson before completing this log.
- 5. Support staff must not answer the reporter's questions. Decline politely and refer the reporter to the spokesperson.

E. PARSONAGE STANDARDS

Parsonage standards provide uniformity so that ministers and churches may know what to expect of each other and to minimize moving and storage expenses. It is understood that some churches provide a housing allowance in lieu of a parsonage.

In order to provide an atmosphere that enables clergy to care for their families, and to provide economy, convenience, and good will for both parsonage families and churches, we propose the following standards:

- A. Energy efficient heating and cooling facilities.
- B. Stove, refrigerator, dishwasher, washer, and dryer.
- C. Furniture for living room, dining room, and one bedroom.
- D. Shades or blinds and curtains or draperies for all windows.
- E. Suitable floor coverings.
- F. Adequate lawn mower or adequate hired care for the parsonage yard, the choice of which shall be provided to be negotiated with the pastor.
- G. Proper insulation, storm windows, and storm doors.
- H. Garage or carport.
- I. Dead bolts for all exterior doors.

We further recommend that:

2. The age and condition of appliances

- A. Storage of the items listed above, should the parsonage family wish not to use them, shall be provided by the parsonage family, and that storage of items not listed above shall be provided by the charge.
- B. All parsonage furnishings shall be bought new, with worn out furnishings being replaced in a timely manner.
- C. Telephones with jacks be available in each room.
- D. An adequate amount shall be carried in a parsonage account or in the annual budget for the charge to maintain, repair, or upgrade parsonage and furnishings when necessary.
- E. Any charge buying, building, or renovating a parsonage shall select either a house plan or a house that:
 - 1. Provides accessibility to persons with handicapping conditions and keeps steps to a minimum in accordance with 2543.3b of The Book of Discipline (2004);
 - 2. Offers at least three bedrooms, but preferably four bedrooms;
 - 3. Includes at least one and one half bathrooms, but with two bathrooms or more being preferable;
 - 4. Includes both a living room, and a family room or den;
 - 5. Provides adequate closet or storage space for the parsonage family;
 - 6. Provides a garage or carport;
 - 7. Includes the trust clause required by 2503.2 of The Book of Discipline (2012).

As required by 2542.4 of The Book of Discipline (2004), the Parsonage Committee, the Trustees, or a committee of the Chairperson of the Trustees, the Chairperson of the Pastor Parish Relations Committee, and the pastor shall schedule an annual review of the parsonage in cooperation with the parsonage family, and report their findings to the Administrative Board/Council, and include their report as part of the Pastor Parish Relations Committee report at Charge Conference. Said report shall include at least the following:

1. A declaration that the parsonage meets the standards set forth by the Tennessee Annual Conference or District Youth Coordinator: a member of the District Youth Leadership Team. The District Youth Coordinator develops and organizes fellowship and training opportunities at the district level.

Host Mission Family: This refers to the mission site (home) that the youth group is serving. It may also mean the home where the youth group is given the opportunity to shower and freshen up prior to a meal during a local retreat such as Hands and Feet Mission Retreat.

Ministry Leader: Can be interchangeable with youth coordinator/director or Pastor. This person is the lead contact for the group attending the ministry event.

Mission Event: A mission event is an event such as but not limited to Hands and Feet Mission Retreat.

Reasonable Adult/Youth Ratios: 2:16 at retreats/rallies/meetings; 2:8 at offsite camps and mission trips.

Staff/Volunteers: A staff/volunteer for an event is a person who is selected to assist with the event and is not connected to a church attending the event. This may include overnight security on camp facilities or in hotel settings.

Youth Coordinator/Director: The youth coordinator/director for the purposes of this document is considered the lead youth minister from the local church.

The purpose of these procedures is to ensure the safety and reduce the risk of harm for all persons participating in Conference and District Young People's Ministry events.

1. Two Adult Rule: During all conference events one adult will not be alone with any number of youth. For small group activities where one adult supervises one group, two or more groups are to meet in sight and sound of each other. The ministry leader may also decide to combine groups to ensure the safety of all parties. Small Group sizes will be determined by the size of the group, but should not exceed reasonable adult/youth ratios.

- 2. Five Year Older Rule: Persons supervising youth will be at least five years older than the oldest youth participant. It is expected that all Event Staff/Volunteers be at least 21 years of age or older and have completed a background check, interview with the Director of Young People's Ministries, and Safe Sanctuary training.
- 3. Adult/Youth Ratio: The adult/youth ratio will be at least 2:16 at retreats/rallies/meetings with the understanding that one adult will not be alone with any number of youth (refer to Procedure 1). The ratio for offsite camps and mission trips will be 2:8. Some events may require smaller ratios. If so, stricter requirements will be communicated to all adults and churches prior to the event through registration confirmation packets as well as through emails and the conference youth website.
- 4. Male/Female Adults: When a group from any local church consists of both genders, the accompanying adults shall also be of both genders. This also applies to small groups and mission worksite groups.
- 5. Background Checks: All adults at conference youth events will be expected to have a background check, training on the local church's Safe Sanctuary Policy and Procedures*, as well as a review of these procedures. Each church will sign a verification form listing each adult attending the event signed by the youth coordinator/director and Pastor. The verification form will serve as a confirmation that each adult has completed the requirements for participation. (If your church does not have policy or background checks are needed contact Jullie Meyer, Next Gen Discipleship Assistant at 615-327-1533 for help.)
- 6. Medical Release/Registration Form: All youth and adults attending Young People's Ministry Conference events shall have a completed medical release form and completed parental permission form. The medical release form will be valid for a one-year period beginning with the first event for which it is submitted. It is expected a new form will be submitted if a change in medical status occurs. The parental permission form will be submitted through the entry form process for each event. All forms will be kept in a secure database at the Conference office; they will be referenced as needed for each event.
- 7. Youth Leader Responsibility: It is expected the youth coordinator/director from the local church maintain a copy of each attendee's form at all times. These forms should be carried with the group traveling to and from events.
- 8. Check-In Procedure: The Church Youth Leadership Team should develop a consistent check-in procedure during the event to meet with the church group. These should be spread throughout the event and event day.
- 9. Lodging for overnight events: An adult and youth will not share a room/hotel/tent unless the adult is a parent of that youth with whom they are sharing the room/hotel/tent.
- 10. Lodging for overnight events: There will be separate sleeping areas/rooms for males and females at all conference-sponsored events. When there are several rooms/cabins of youth, there will be at least two non-related adults of the same gender in the room/cabin.
- 11. Showers: In the event of open showers, separate shower times for youth and for adults shall be designated to prevent youth and adults showering together. If this is not possible, swimsuits will be required.
- 12. District Youth Ministry: District Youth Coordinators and adults serving on the Conference Council on Youth Ministries (CCYM) and the District Council on Youth Ministries (DCYM) shall be at least 23 years of age.
- 13. Two Adults at Mission Sites: There will be two adults at each work site at all times on mission project sites. (Procedure 7 applies.)

14. Mission Site Responsibility: No youth will be alone with an adult from a host mission family during a mission event. This includes host pastors, congregation members, homeowners, clients of mission agencies, etc. Likewise, an adult mission team member will not be alone with a youth from the host mission.

G. Sexual Misconduct Policy for Church Professionals of the Tennessee Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church

Preamble

The Tennessee Annual Conference does not approve of and will not tolerate sexual misconduct. The Conference is committed to the eradication of this conduct, if it should occur, and to the creation of an environment of hospitality for all persons, male or female, that is free of sexual overtones and implications and encourages respect, equality, and kinship in Christ. This policy aims to provide an avenue to report sexual misconduct while assuring that any person doing so in good faith will be protected from retaliation.

All church professionals (see definition) have positions of great trust, power, and responsibility. This provides the opportunity for unique relationships of grace and caring. While church professionals can sometimes violate the trust given them within these relationships, sexual misconduct is one of the gravest violations of this trust. This policy seeks to address the abuse of power by church professionals who engage in sexual misconduct. While this policy is binding for appointed church professionals, it is our hope that it may serve as a guide for other church professionals such as local church laity staff and volunteers.

The intent of this policy is to provide guidance to both laity and clergy of the Tennessee Annual Conference and the local church regarding sexual misconduct and, thereby, protect the relationship between church professionals and parishioners, staff members, colleagues and others. It is both the ethical and legal responsibility of the Tennessee Annual Conference to ensure there are mechanisms for preventing sexual misconduct and addressing allegations of the same. This policy provides guidance regarding the definition of sexual misconduct, procedures for filing and addressing allegations of sexual misconduct, and training expectations and requirements designed to prevent sexual misconduct in the Tennessee Annual Conference. The primary focus of this policy shall be the search for truth to assure justice for the complainant and the accused. This policy is not intended to supplant or substitute for the formal complaint process and its attendant fair process protection in the current Book of Discipline, which must, where applicable, be followed in addition to this policy. Failure by church authorities to use or follow any of the procedures herein is not a chargeable offense, nor can it be used as grounds for an appeal of a formal grievance, complaint, review or trial as defined in current Book of Discipline. We are committed to procedural accuracy and pastoral care in the pursuit of justice for victims and survivors, real accountability for abusers, and healing for all parties.

Theological Foundation

We believe and affirm every person is created in the image of God. We further believe and affirm sexual misconduct within the ministerial relationship and in the church is incompatible with biblical teachings and ethical standards. Sexual misconduct violates the sacred worth of persons who are created in the image of God. Such misconduct is particularly reprehensible in the context of the ministerial relationship that should represent the care of God. It should be understood that sexual misconduct is an abuse of power and authority. This misconduct alienates persons from the ministry of the church. It tarnishes the church's ministry and mission. Those guilty of sexual misconduct bring real harm to persons, congregations and the church as a whole.

Forgiveness is a sacred teaching of the church, but this teaching in no way protects a person guilty of sexual misconduct from the discipline of the church. Representing the church as a church professional is a privilege requiring the highest professional conduct. Forgiveness by God or by a person harmed by sexual misconduct does not automatically restore the privilege of serving as a church professional. It is not appropriate for church authorities to pressure persons harmed by sexual misconduct to forgive the offender as a way to restore to the offender the privilege of serving as a professional in the church. Central to the task of church authorities is to protect the vulnerable and to eradicate sexual misconduct from the church.

Definitions

A. Church Professionals

1. Appointed Church Professionals

Appointed church professionals shall include full, associate and provisional ministerial members of the Tennessee Annual Conference, as well as ordained deacons (full and provisional) and elders, diaconal ministers and local pastors, in both the effective and retired relationships, supply pastors, and other persons serving the Tennessee Annual Conference or any local church under appointment of the Bishop or under the supervision of a District Superintendent, including persons keeping their membership in another annual conference or in another denomination and persons holding orders issued by these conferences while on honorable or administrative location. Additionally, this includes lay and clergy persons employed directly by Conference agencies including but not limited to the Conference Council on Connnectional Ministries.

2. Other Church Professionals

Other church professionals shall include anyone in a position of power, authority, or leadership employed by or serving as a volunteer in a ministry in the Tennessee Annual Conference.

B. Book of Discipline

The 2012 Book of Discipline refers to The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church 2012, which sets forth the laws, plans, polity and processes by which The United Methodist Church governs itself. It contains insight and information about the distinct United Methodist understanding of the nature and mission of the Church, and about what is expected of its clergy and members as they seek to be faithful and effective disciples of Christ.

C. Book of Resolutions

The Book of Resolutions 2012 refers to the volume containing the text of all resolutions or pronouncements on issues approved by the General Conference and currently valid. The Book of Resolutions contains not only the resolutions and policy statements passed by the most recent General Conference, but also all such statements still considered to represent the position of The United Methodist Church. The text of any resolution is considered the official position of the denomination on that subject.

D. Sexual Misconduct

Misconduct of a sexual nature is a chargeable offense, for both laity and clergy. Chargeable offenses include: child abuse, sexual abuse, sexual misconduct [including pornography], sexual harassment, gender discrimination, crime, and immorality.

Sexual misconduct is abuse of power and authority, and is not only an act against one person, but an act against fellow ministry professionals; members in the local congregation; the church at large; and God. (Book of Resolutions 2012, ¶2044).

Sexual misconduct includes but is not limited to:

- child or adult sexual abuse,
- sexual abuse of youth or those without capacity to consent,
- rape or sexual assault,
- gross sexual imposition like prolonged gazing, fondling, grabbing, or stalking,
- sexual harassment,
- unwelcome touching and advances,
- inappropriate and unwelcome contacts of a sexual nature either in person or via phone, digital media, or cyberspace.
- sexualized verbal comments, gestures, or visuals,
- use of sexualized materials including pornography,
- sexualized behavior,
- solicitation of sexual activity or other sex-related behavior by promise of rewards,

- coercion of sexual activity by threat of punishment,
- or misuse of pastoral or ministerial position using sexualized conduct to take advantage of the vulnerability of another (umsexualethics.org, Book of Resolutions 2012, ¶2081, ¶2082).

Each alleged occurrence of sexual misconduct requires its own unique and appropriate investigation (as described below) and response, depending on the facts and circumstances.

Sexual harassment is a form of sexual misconduct and is defined in The 2012 Book of Discipline, ¶161(I) as, "any unwanted sexual comment, advance, or demand, either verbal or physical, that is reasonably perceived by the recipient as demeaning, intimidating or coercive. Sexual harassment must be understood as an exploitation of a power relationship rather than an exclusively sexual issue. Sexual harassment includes, but is not limited to, the creation of a hostile or abusive working environment resulting from discrimination on the basis of gender." To clarify further, it is unwanted sexual or gender-directed behavior within a pastoral, employment, ministerial (paid or unpaid), mentor, or colleague relationship that is so severe or pervasive that it alters the conditions of employment or volunteer work or unreasonably interferes with the complainant's performance by creating a hostile environment that can include unwanted sexual jokes, repeated advances, touching, displays, or comments that insult, degrade, or sexually exploit women, men, elders, children or youth. "It can create a hostile, offensive environment that can include unwanted inappropriate sexual jokes, repeated advances, touching, displays, or comments that insult, degrade, or sexually exploit women, men, elders, children, or youth." (Book of Resolutions 2012, ¶2045). Both sexual and gender harassment are exploitations of power and are discriminatory by law (GCFA Legal Manual, gcfa.org/gcfa-legal-manual).

Sexual abuse is a form of sexual misconduct and occurs when a church professional engages in sexual contact or sexualized behavior with a congregant, client, employee, student, staff member, coworker, or volunteer (2012 Book of Resolutions, page 136). It can include coerced or forced sexual contact (including those unable to give informed consent), sexual interaction or contact with children or youth, and sexual exhibitionism or display of sexual visuals or pornography.

Sexualized behavior is behavior that communicates sexual interest and/or content. Examples include, but are not limited to, displaying sexually suggestive visual materials; use of pornography in church programs on or with church property, making sexual comments or innuendo about one's own or another person's body; touching another person's body/hair/clothing; touching or rubbing oneself in the presence of another person; kissing; and sexual intercourse. Sexualized behavior can be a form of sexual misconduct when this behavior is unwanted by the recipient or witness, is a violation of society's or the Church's law, breaks the sacred trust in the ministerial role, or violates the vows taken at membership or ordination. The Judicial Council asserts that dating, romantic or sexual relationships between clergy and their parishioners "are never appropriate because of imbalance of power" (Decision 1228, 2012). For the sake of maintaining healthy boundaries and preventing a betrayal of sacred trust, a clergyperson who has a genuine desire to date a parishioner must contact their District Superintendent, and in consultation with the DS, determine a reasonable course of action for discontinuing the pastor/parishioner relationship before beginning a dating relationship.

Pornography is sexually explicit material that portrays violence, abuse, coercion, domination, humiliation, or degradation for the purpose of arousal. Any sexually explicit material that depicts children or adults is pornographic. "The United Methodist Church declares that the use of pornography in church programs, on church premises or with church property by persons in ministerial roles (lay and clergy) is a form of sexual misconduct, is a chargeable offense for laity and clergy in The United Methodist Church" (Book of Resolutions 2012, ¶2081, ¶2082).

E. Complainant

A complainant is a person who submits a written, signed, and dated statement alleging an incident of sexual or professional misconduct. A complainant may be a parent or responsible party for a minor or an adult incapable of self-reporting.

F. Respondent

A respondent is a church professional against whom a complaint has been made.

G. Complainant Advocate (Response Team Member)

A trained complainant advocate is a Response Team Member who actively supports a complainant of church professional misconduct/sexual abuse through the denominational complaint process. The role of Advocate is one of care-giving, not investigation. (¶362.2, 363, and 2702.1 in The 2012 Book of Discipline)

H. Respondent Advocate (Response Team Member)

A trained respondent advocate is a Response Team Member who actively supports a Respondent who is accused of sexual misconduct/abuse through the denomination complaint process as discussed in paragraphs ¶362.2, 363, and 2702.1 in The 2012 Book of Discipline. The role of Advocate is one of care-giving, not investigation.

I. Conference Response Team Coordinator

The Conference Response Team Coordinator oversees the complaint process, serves as a resource for District Superintendents, Bishops, complainants, and respondents and maintains the integrity of the process including documentation of complaints for the office of the bishop. This may be the Assistant to the Bishop, an appointed conference response team member, or appropriate Tennessee Conference personnel. The role of Conference Response Team Coordinator is one of care-giving, not investigation.

Making a Report

Any concern a person has about sexual misconduct by a church professional should be promptly reported to any District Superintendent or the Bishop. The list of names of the current persons in these positions and their contact information may be found at tnumc.org or by calling the conference office at 615-329-1177. If for any reason such person finds it difficult to report his or her concerns to a District Superintendent or the Bishop, the person may contact a trained advocate or the Conference Response Team Coordinator, who is available to assist any complainant with the process in making a report to either a District Superintendent or the Bishop. A list of the members of the Conference Response Team along with the Conference Response Team Coordinator's contact information can be found in each volume of the Journal of the Tennessee Annual Conference following each Annual Conference Session or at tnumc.org/safe-spaces-ministry. (¶363, The 2012 Book of Discipline)

Mandatory Reporting.

In no way should this policy be interpreted or applied in a manner that interferes with any licensed practitioner in fulfilling his/her mandatory reporting requirements.

All allegations of sexual misconduct with minors or vulnerable adults occurring in the State of Tennessee will be reported to the appropriate governmental agencies, as required by mandatory reporting laws of the State of Tennessee.

Policy Against Retaliation

No retaliation will be tolerated on account of a good faith report of sexual misconduct. Prohibited retaliation will be considered a separate and independent violation of this policy, and appropriate action may be taken against that retaliator. Anyone who believes they have been retaliated against may also report such retaliation as detailed above in "Making a Report." The person is encouraged to report retaliation immediately to a District Superintendent or the Bishop, or contact his or her trained advocate or the Conference Response Team Coordinator for assistance in reporting the concern to a District Superintendent or the Bishop.

Investigation

Upon receipt by a District Superintendent or the Bishop of a report, a prompt and thorough investigation into the allegations of sexual misconduct against any church professional will be conducted and appropriate corrective action, if called for based upon all of the facts, shall be taken and concluded within a reasonable period of time.

The scope and details of each investigation will depend on the nature of the report and the related circumstances. In circumstances involving church professionals, by doctrinal law, the procedure may be governed by paragraphs 362 and 2701-2719 of The 2012 Book of Discipline. In each instance, the investigation will be handled with as much discretion as the circumstances permit to protect the privacy of the individuals involved. All persons having reported suspected sexual misconduct should refrain from contacting the person suspected of such conduct. Likewise, the persons suspected of such conduct shall refrain from contacting the complainant or alleged victim, unless otherwise directed by the Bishop or District Superintendent. All persons serving as witnesses in the investigation should refrain from contacting the complainant or the respondent, unless directed by a District Superintendent or Bishop to do so, in order to preserve the integrity and confidentiality of the investigation and confidentiality.

All persons having received a report of sexual misconduct, including anyone specifically engaged to serve as an advocate or investigate such reports, shall keep all reports confidential, except as required by The 2012 Book of Discipline, where applicable, or necessary to investigate and resolve such matters, and/or to respond to any related legal or administrative proceedings.

During the course of an investigation, a trained complainant advocate may be assigned to provide ongoing support to a complainant or alleged victim. Likewise, a trained respondent advocate may be assigned to provide ongoing support to the respondent. Both advocates are bound by the confidentiality provisions of this policy.

All allegations of sexual misconduct with minors or vulnerable adults occurring in the State of Tennessee will be reported to the appropriate governmental agencies, as required by mandatory reporting laws of the State of Tennessee.

Training

Appointed Church Professionals (see definition) serving in the Tennessee Annual Conference are required to attend official Tennessee Annual Conference trainings on 1) Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics and 2) Safe Sanctuaries each quadrennium. All transfers and candidates for ministry are required to complete these trainings prior to commissioning or appointment, whichever comes first. Compliance with these training requirements and a completed criminal background check are conditions of employment or ministerial appointment. A church professional failing to comply with these conditions of appointment may be cited an administrative charge by the Bishop in accordance with ¶362 of the 2012 Book of Discipline.

It is strongly suggested that Other Church Professionals (see definition) attend official Tennessee Annual Conference trainings on 1) Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics and 2) Safe Sanctuaries each quadrennium.

Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics Team

The 2010 report of the Sexual Ethics Task Force recommended to the Annual Conference that a Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics Team be formed to guide the portion of the Safe Spaces Ministry tasked with reviewing policies and implementing training opportunities in the best practices to create and maintain healthy boundaries for ministry. The Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics Team is a subteam of the Safes Spaces Ministry Committee. This committee is made of the three teams: 1) Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics Team; 2) Safe Sanctuary Team; 3) Conference Response Team. The Safe Spaces Ministry serves to insure that policies and procedures necessary for keeping ministry safe in order for sacred space to be created are developed, reviewed, appropriately presented and training provided for members of the Tennessee Annual Conference. The work of the committee is funded through apportionment giving as allocated through the CCOCM budget on an annual basis. The CCOCM, the Nashville Episcopal Area Office of Ministerial Concerns and the Tennessee Conference Board of Ordained Ministry work collaboratively to guide this vital ministry.

Availability of Policy

This policy shall be presented annually in the Journal of the Tennessee Annual Conference. Further, it shall be posted at tnumc.org continuously. It should be made available in at least one common area of every church in the Tennessee Annual Conference. It is strongly recommended that the Sexual Misconduct is Never Okay flyer be prominently displayed in one common area of every church in the Tennessee Annual Conference. This flyer is available for download at tnumc.org/safe-spaces-ministry. Questions about the policy should be directed to the staff liaison to the Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics Team through the Tennessee Annual Conference. This liaison will be identified on the conference website where the policy is located.

Independent Auditors' Report

To the Council on Finance and Administration of the Tennessee Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the Tennessee Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church (the "Conference") (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statements of financial position as of December 31, 2015 and 2014, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Tennessee Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church as of December 31, 2015 and 2014, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

TENNESSEE ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH Notes to Financial Statements December 31, 2015 and 2014

Note 1. Nature of Organization and Significant Accounting Policies

A. Nature of Organization

The Tennessee Annual Conference ("the Conference") is a regional body of The United Methodist Church comprised of the lay members, clergy, and 600+ churches in 42 counties in middle Tennessee. The Conference is primarily responsible for all the ministries that are jointly provided by and for the United Methodists in its geographic area. The Conference administers Conference operating and program funds that are received from churches, boards and agencies, and individuals of the Conference, in accordance with the budget and other directives of the Conference, the respective boards and agencies and donors.

B. Basis of Accounting

The financial statements have been prepared using the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

C. Financial Statement Presentation

The Conference follows the recommendations contained in the Presentation of Financial Statements, Not-For-Profit Entities topic of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification. Under those provisions, net assets and revenues, gains, and losses are classified based on the absence or existence and nature of donor-imposed restrictions as follows:

Unrestricted net assets - Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed stipulations.

Temporarily restricted net assets - Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that can be fulfilled by actions of the Conference pursuant to those stipulations or that expire by the passage of time.

Permanently restricted net assets - Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that may be maintained permanently by the Conference. Generally, the donors of such assets permit the Conference to use all or part of the income earned on the assets.

D. Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

E. Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Conference defines its cash, designated cash and cash equivalents to include cash on hand, demand deposits, and commercial paper and other investments with initial maturities of three months or less whether those amounts are unrestricted or restricted.

F. Investments

Investments in marketable securities with readily determinable fair values and all investments in debt securities are reported at their fair values in the statement of financial position. Unrealized gains and losses are included in changes in net assets. Investment income and gains restricted by a donor are reported as increases in unrestricted net assets if the restrictions are met in the reporting period in which the income and gains are recognized. However, if a donor contributes an investment required to be held in perpetuity, gains and losses on the investment are subject to the same permanent restriction unless the donor explicitly states otherwise.

G. Fair Value Measurements

The fair value of financial assets and liabilities is measured according to the Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures topic of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification. Fair value is required to be evaluated and adjusted according to the following valuation techniques.

Level 1 – Fair value is determined using quoted market prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities.

Level 2 – Fair value is determined using quoted market prices in active markets for similar assets and liabilities.

Note 1. Nature of Organization and Significant Accounting Policies - Continued

G. Fair Value Measurements - Continued

Level 3 – Fair value is determined using unobservable market prices in a market that is typically inactive.

H. Income Taxes

The Conference is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

I. Apportionments Receivable

Apportionments receivable represent apportionments received after year-end for the budget year ended December 31, 2015 and 2014. No allowance for doubtful collections has been recorded.

J. Fixed Assets

Fixed assets are carried at cost if purchased and fair market value if donated. Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, excluding land, which are 5 to 30 years. Depreciation expense for the year ended December 31, 2015 and 2014 was $230,209 and $215,753. Property and equipment include land, buildings, improvements, equipment, vehicles and furniture and fixtures at the following locations:

Conference Headquarters Beersheba Springs Assembly Nashville, TN Beersheba Springs, TN

Cedar Crest Camp

Lyles, TN

K. Donated Services

Contributed services are reflected in the financial statements at the fair value of the services received only when those services either (a) create or enhance nonfinancial assets, or (b) require specialized skills that are provided by individuals possessing those skills and would typically need to be purchased if not provided by donation. Unpaid volunteers make contributions of time in various administrative and program functions. The Conference has not valued these donations.

L. Revenue and Support

Contributions are received and recorded as unrestricted, temporarily restricted, or permanently restricted support depending on the existence and/or nature of any donor restrictions. Contributions received and unconditional promises to give are measured at their fair values and are reported as an increase in net assets. The Conference reports restricted gifts of cash and other assets as support for future periods. When a donor restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions. Donor-restricted contributions whose restrictions are met in the same reporting period are reported as unrestricted support.

The primary source of support is Apportionments received from the local churches in the Conference. Apportionments expire at the end of each calendar year and, therefore, have been recorded as unrestricted support. Contributions and Other Revenue are primarily receipts by programs that have external sources of revenue such as registration fees or reimbursements.

M. Functional Allocation of Expenses

Expenses are charged directly to program, management and general, or fundraising based on a combination of specific identification and allocation by management.

N. Advertising Costs

Advertising costs are expensed as incurred and are included in program expense.

Note 4. Concentrations of Risk

The Conference had bank deposits in a financial institution that were $632,929 and $855,665 in excess of the $250,000 insured by the Federal Depository Insurance Corporation (FDIC) at December 31, 2015 and 2014.

The Conference has $2,687,604 and $2,640,685 invested with the United Methodist Development Fund of Tennessee/Kentucky, Inc. (a related party) in unsecured participation accounts (see Note 2) as of December 31, 2015 and 2014.

Note 5. Related Party Transactions

The Conference is a related party to the United Methodist Foundation for the Memphis & Tennessee Conferences (the "Foundation") and the United Methodist Development Fund of Tennessee/Kentucky, Inc. (the "Fund"). The Conference pays routine expenses of the Foundation and Fund including salaries, retirement and insurance and is reimbursed by the Foundation. The total amount paid to the Conference by the Foundation and Fund for these routine expenses was $349,238 and $425,207 in 2015 and 2014 respectively. The Conference has investments with both the Foundation and the Fund (see Note 2).

The Foundation and Fund lease office space from the Conference for $1,399 per month. The lease expires June 1, 2016.

Note 6. Retirement Plans

The Conference provides pension benefits for clergy serving churches in the Tennessee Conference under Episcopal appointment, and full-time permanent staff of the Conference through various retirement plans. All plans are multi-employer plans administered by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits of The United Methodist Church ("GBOPHB"). GBOPHB operates under the authority of the church's General Conference, and implements the plans in accordance with the plan documents. Pension benefits for clergy are a combination of defined benefit and defined contribution plans. Pension benefits for Conference lay staff are all defined contribution plans. Total Conference contributions to all plans for the years ended December 31, 2015 and 2014 were $3,133,081 and $3,076,737. The various retirement plans are listed below:

Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP):

CRSP is a multi-employer 403(b) retirement plan that provides pension coverage to eligible clergy. CRSP is both a defined benefit plan, which provides benefits based on years of credited service, and a defined contribution plan, which provides a retirement account balance established and funded by the Conference. Contributions to the defined benefit plan are actuarially determined and contributions to the defined contribution plan equal 3% of the clergy's monthly compensation.

Effective 1/1/2014, contributions to the defined benefit plan are actuarially determined and contributions to the defined contribution plan equal 2% of the clergy's compensation, plus a matching contribution of up to 1% of the clergy's compensation, for a maximum of 3%.

Supplement One to CRSP (Pre-1982):

Pre-1982 is a multi-employer 403(b) defined benefit plan for Conference clergy entering service prior to January 1, 1982. General Conference 2000 required each annual conference to adopt a formal funding plan to retire the conference pre-1982 pension obligations. The Conference's Pre-1982 plan has been fully funded since the mid-1990s. The Conference approves a minimum distribution (past service rate) each year for participants in the Pre-1982 plan, based on a recommendation by the Conference Board of Pensions. The PSR for the year ended December 31, 2015 and 2014 was $662 and $649 for pre-1982 service years, which is 1.07% and 1.05% of the Conference average compensation respectively.

United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP)

The UMPIP is a multi-employer 403(b) defined contribution plan providing eligible clergy and employees of the Conference with retirement savings. Conference employees and clergy may contribute up to the dollar limits set by current Internal Revenue Service regulations under both pre-tax and after-tax elections. The Conference makes no contributions to this plan for full-time clergy, who participate in CRSP. Effective 1/1/2014, the Conference contributes 12% of part-time clergy's compensation into UMPIP. The Conference matches non-clergy contributions of 3% or more of compensation with a fixed 12% matching contribution. No matching contribution is provided for employee contributions less than 3% of compensation.

Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP)

CPP is a multi-employer health and welfare plan that provides death and disability benefits as well as other supplemental benefits to eligible clergy and their beneficiaries. CPP is funded by the Conference at a rate of 3% of compensation.

Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP)

MPP covers clergy who served from 1982 through 2006. It is a multi-employer defined contribution plan, but differs from a true defined contribution plan in that upon retirement, participants must annuitize 65% of their account balances, and the Conference is responsible for funding the annuities should the need arise. Upon annuitization, the monthly benefit becomes a defined benefit.

Some amounts designated for pension benefits have been transferred to the legal title of the GBOPHB multi-employer plans and are not reported in these financial statements as net assets of the Conference. The year end value of these GBOPHB accounts were as follows:

In 2015 the Conference's deferred compensation plan ended and the remaining assets of the plan were distributed to the plan participant, a former employee. The other investments and compensation payable accounts reflected the plan assets and liabilities in 2014.

Note 7. Health Care Plan

The Conference sponsors the Tennessee Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc. Health Benefit Plan (HBP). The HBP is open to all eligible plan participants including clergy, full-time Conference staff, designated students who are part-time local pastors and their respective eligible dependents. The Conference director of administrative services is the plan administrator. The plan administrator uses a third-party administrator for processing claims and other duties but retains responsibility for benefits payable. The HBP is a self-funded plan paying covered benefits out of Conference assets. Plan participants help cover some costs of covered benefits through contributions, deductibles and out-of-pocket expenses. The Conference funds the HBP using a pay-as-you-go system. Conference payments to the HBP for the year ended December 31, 2015 and 2014 were $2,456,496 and $2,724,684.

Participation in the HBP can continue upon retirement under the Conference's formal retirement plan provided the participant makes required contributions to the plan. This coverage can continue until age 65 with stipulations. The Conference uses the fiscal year as the measurement date for its plan.

The Conference has not pre-funded its postretirement healthcare plan but operates instead on a pay-as-you-go basis. A liability (Unfunded Postretirement Healthcare Benefits) has been recognized representing the underfunded status of the Conference HBP in the amount of $1,595,667 and $1,638,339 as of December 31, 2015 and 2014 as follows:

Projected Benefit Obligation Plan Assets at Fair Value Funded (Unfunded)	$ (1,595,667 - (1,595,667
