2. Elections: Assistant Secretaries & Tellers – Monica Mowdy

Nancy Speas Hill: assistant secretary for requiring documents

Seonwoong Hwang: assistant secretary for acquiring documents

Stephen Sauls: head teller

Allison Fasig: assistant head teller

Brian Marcoulier: floor manager

Reports

1. Board of Ordained Ministry Report – Bryan Brooks

Explained the role of the Board of Ministry (BOM): To renew culture of calling, with recruiting and credentialing of persons. This year BOM was responsible for over 340 candidates for ministry, local pastors and people serving with us from other denominational boundaries, ordinands, and commissionees.

- Recognized Lilia Ramirez (missionary)
- Recognized 23 candidates for licensing for the first time
- Recognized 11 candidates for commissioning
- Recognized seven candidates for ordination
- Bishop asked the ordinands the historic questions that are found in The Book of Discipline
- Recognized Sean Stanfield who completed 20 course of study hours; the bishop presented a certificate
- Recognized two certified lay ministers, Matthew Brown and Carol Reynolds
- Words of thanks from Bryan Brooks to District Committee on Ordained Ministry and BOM chairs and members
- Special words of thanks to Tommy Ward, Meredith Day, and Jacob Vaughn who are serving the Office of Ministerial Concerns

2. Constitutional Amendments – Monica Mowdy

Bishop's Reminder: These were voted for and passed by 66% of delegates voting during the 2016 General Conference.

1. Discussion

- a. Tom Vertrease: There were no seconds for the organizing motions made by the secretary and the bishop called for a vote without identifying the people who called seconds. He wants the people who called seconds to identify themselves.
  - i. Bishop McAlilly: Gave him credit for the correction in terms of conference procedures. He said, however, that his point of order is out of order because it was not raised at that time.
- b. Another question from Tom: He requested hard copies of the agenda to be made available for those who are not knowledgeable in technology.
  - i. Bishop McAlilly: The organizing committee for annual conference will discuss that.

- c. Stuart Orell: regarding amendment #3, why are they (the GC) adding another sentence to the current wording – “such elections shall include ...”? From his understanding nothing has changed, but it sounds like they are adding another sentence.
  - i. Bishop McAlilly: in prior Book of Disciplines, this provision was not allowed for nominations from the floor. That’s why this sentence is here. They are not changing the language about the simple majority vote (required vote).

3. Conference Resolutions 1 - Jeremy Squires

1. APSU resolution on the sale of the facility known as the APSU Wesley Foundation
  - a. <https://www.tnumc.org/wp-content/uploads/2017/05/2017-APSU-Wesley-Building-sale-Resolution.pdf>

  - Jay Voorhees: words in italic are the suggestions that have not yet been adopted by the annual conference

- 2018 final proposed budget: $14,457,550
- Increase over 2017: $ 451,223
- % change: 3.22%

Slide 4 – Tennessee Conference Pension Plans

- Tennessee Conference has three primary pension plans:
  - Pre-1982 pension plan
  - Ministerial Pension Plan (1982-2006)
  - Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) (2007 to present)
- All three plans are fully funded according to the actuaries at Wespath Benefits
- Together the three plans have over $90 million in assets subject to the performance of the stock market

Slide 5 – Pension Three Year Activity Reserve Floor Target = $10,000,000

	12/31/16	12/31/17	12/31/18
Beginning Balance	$17,903,676	$16,971,994	$16,039,598
Earnings/Losses	$1,248,647	$1,300,000	$1,300,000

Net Change	($931,682)	($932,396)	($1,490,693)

Pearce: We are currently pulling money from the reserves and apportion churches less than we should have. If this trend continues, there will come a time when we won't be able to live out of the reserves depending on the performance of the stock market.

Slide 6 – Clergy Health Plan

- Our plan is self-funded
- “We” [the conference] are the insurance company
- Stop loss policy
- Covers doctor visits, hospital, prescription drugs, etc.

Slide 10 – Camp & Retreat Ministries

- 2017 deferred maintenance Beersheba Springs and Cedar Crest $100,000
- 2018 deferred maintenance Beersheba Springs and Cedar Crest $100,000
- 12/31/16 camp and retreat reserve balance $1,096,575

- Use of reserves $3,353,477 18.0%
- Other revenue $2,245,212 12.1%

Slide 12 – Future Concerns

- Can't pay 18% of future annual budgets with reserves
- Can't continue to apportion 100% of rising clergy pension and clergy health plan costs
- Ongoing capital needs at Beersheba and Cedar Crest
- Potential reduction of apportionment collections below 90% (economic or political factors)
- Potential expected bear market's impact on pension plans and reserve

Slide 13 – Future Action Plan

- Manage and control costs
- Maximize revenue opportunities (fees etc.)
- Make wise investments (like new congregation development)
- Educate broadly the missional impact from apportionments
- Find new ways to pay for health plan and pensions
- Remember that God is good and has blessed us greatly

Slide 14 – CFA Items for your action today

- Apportioned budget of $14,457,550 for 2018
- Travel expenses not to exceed max IRS allowance

- District superintendents base pay for 2018 $105,060
- 2017-18 conference staff clergy housing allowance approval
- Board of Camp and Retreat withdraw $100,000 from Designated Camp Fun for 2017 and 2018
- CFA appoints a committee to study apportionment formula and means of paying for clergy health and pension costs, report to 2018 AC with recommendations

Questions

- Vin Walkup: There are two budget numbers that don't match in the slides.
  - Pearce: Budget number (Gross number: amount that has to be collected in the form of apportionment) vs. Expense number (lower number, which is the amount that committees are allowed to spend)

- Vin Walkup another question: Someone needs to research the restrictions on going below a million dollars on the fund for camp and retreat ministries.
  - Pearce: CFA did it. In the 1988 journal, there is a provision: the desire of the conference, the money be maintained at a million-dollar level, but that it be used for future capital type of improvements for our camps.
  - Vin: It's not 1988, but it should be during 2000-2005 the conference voted against that.
  - Pearce: We will do that tomorrow.
- Mike Giffin
  - The power point slides are not available online
  - Pearce: Jim's upcoming report and this will eventually be available.

CFA 2 – John Pearce

- Responded to Vin Walkup's query from yesterday's presentation. Budget is based on expected apportionment revenue. Apportionment budget has historically come at a rate of about 80-90%; operating budget is based on this amount, hence the discrepancy.
- 1988 selling of a camp made around a million dollars, the conference has been using it to support two main camps with a threshold of around a million dollars.

- On maintenance items for Cedar crest
  - Take money out of conference budget (not doing this)
  - Take $200,000 and apportion to local churches
  - Third option which CFA is proposing (number 6 below)

Resolutions Report 2 – Jeremy Squires

2/3 majority needed to pass

Conference Advance Special Resolution

- Jeremy moved to amend the report to “Add Community Cares Fellowship to Conference Advance Specials.” Seconded and passed on voice vote.
- Beth Morris moved to amend the report to “Add the Last Minute Toy Store to the list of Conference Advance Specials. Seconded and passed on voice vote.
- Conference Advance Specials passed on voice vote with no further discussion.

Retired housing allowance resolution – Passed without discussion

Welcoming the Migrant in Our Midst – Passed without discussion

- Wesley Foundation Resolution (APSU) – Approved
  - Motion (Tom Vertrees): “In that by chance or circumstance, the call for a vote on the sale of the APSU Welsey property at 510 College St., Clarksville, was well before the announced (published by agenda time): I, Thomas Vertees (Red River District, Forest Street UMC) move that the vote be delayed until the previously posted time 1:30 p.m. CST, per “Schedule – Tennessee Annual Conference.” Motion did not pass.
  - Question (Jim Allen): The resolution doesn’t state how the money is going to be used.
  - Jodi McCullah (Wesley Foundation): The BOD states that paragraph 634 the money made by the sale of a property is to be decided by the conference Board of Higher Education and Ministry
  - Jim Allen withdrew his question upon hearing McCullah’s answer
  - Brad Fiscus affirmed what McCullah said: building + land, currently APSU owns them all. The intent of this resolution is to give the local board the power to utilize the money.
  - Tom Vertrees again objects to vote occurring before its scheduled time.
  - Stuart Orelle moved to table the question. Bishop McAlilly ruled the motion out of order based on previous vote to deal with the resolution now (and because the original motion was first provided yesterday at 10:55 a.m.)
  - Thomas Dowdy – Moves to amend the resolution to add “that a serious effort will be made to locate or build a building for future use of APSU Welsey Foundation.”
  - Speech against
    - Matthew Charleton: We advise it be sold. The location is where the students no longer live due to college expansion. This is proposed in order for the campus ministry to be able to be more flexible. With the profit from the sale, APSU WF can imagine new ministerial opportunities.
    - Speech against – Jodi McCullah: The APSU Wesley Foundation ministry is vibrant and growing (sending out leaders to seminaries and local unreached areas).

- Clarification (Jodi McCullah): we have gathering spaces available to us.
- Amendment failed on voice vote.
- Question: Why are we giving 15% back to the Wesley Foundation?
  - Matthew Charleton P6.35.4.d.17: giving authority to the local board HEM.
- Angella Current-Felder (chair of conference BHEM): APSU requested to retain 15% of the proceeds
- Vote taken. Resolution passed on voice vote.
- Point of Personal Privilege: Vin Walkup – Honored actions of past Annual Conferences to develop the Wesley building and the work of the Austin Peace State University Wesley Foundation. There are many of our conference members who had good memories and were influenced by the building. 1972 annual conference voted to make it possible for the building and the furniture to be a place of ministry to the young people.

Quick Announcement – Lane Davis

Thomas Long Preaching Seminar February 3 and 5, 2018 (Saturday and Monday).

June 13, 2017 Afternoon Session

1. UM Endorsing Agency – Regina Proctor, Ingrid McIntyre, Rob Dunbar

Watched a video

Ingrid McIntyre: Appointed Chaplain to the Streets of Nashville, through Open Table Nashville. Working with friends experiencing homelessness. UMEA supports with endorsement and holds the endorsed accountable.

Rob Dunbar: Air Force Reserve Chaplain. Recognized persons served at endorsed locations. Dunbar introduced a program that helps the endorsed clergy not only have a community but also help them with transition from the endorsement to the local church.

Regina Proctor: Spiritual Director.

- Tennessee Conference was chosen to run the pilot program (only five annual conferences were chosen among all the conferences in the US). That will run for three years to increase the support and resources for the endorsed ministers.
- UMEA Endowment Fund: This allows the extension ministers and those endorsed to continue in education without cost. It also provides pension. It also allows for gifted and experienced individuals to come to Nashville that are in the connection to be interviewed to be part of the endorsing community.

2. Recognition of Missionaries, Home Missioners, and Deaconesses

Five deaconesses were recognized: Joanne Rich (UM Communications), Jane Murray (Gallatin Cares Worship Center), Steppy Byrd (Andrew Price UM), Mary Lou Moore (retired and volunteer at Tennessee Conference office), and Kathryn Mitchem (retired; previously Edgehill UMC and GBGM as chaplain/spiritual director for young adult missionaries).

    - Three members present at TNAC.
    - A witness: He was sent to serve the church in his junior year of seminary. It was a group of people who believed that God could use them to make a difference and it was very fruitful. We thank God for the witnesses of those people who served diligently.
  - 61st Avenue UMC in the Nashville District: Moment of remembrance. Resolution passed on voice vote without discussion.
    - Nine members present at TNAC
    - Randy Goodman: 61st Ave was the first place he answered an altar call. He was blessed by its ministry, which changed his life. He is heartbroken; yet glad that the ministries will be continued. He would like to see that with the money raised from the sale of the church, the conference and trustees consider starting a new church (Nations UM church).
    - Nellie Hicks: It was a welcoming presence for the poor in the neighborhood. She grieves the closing of the church and our city pushing the poor and the marginalized further away. This might be an opportunity for our conference to grow the seed planted by 61st UMC.
    - Marie King: Serving at this congregation gave her the opportunity to help the poor and homeless. Thankful for the bishop's call (20 years ago) to reach an under-resourced region and to undergird them. Thankful for the financial partners that enabled them to be the hands of Jesus. Requested our conference find ways to imagine different ways to minister to the people of this part of the city.
    - Lanita Monroe: Spoke of Richard Allison's family's influence on her calling and life.

Announcement: June 25th 4 p.m. is the last service and celebration for 61st Ave. UMC.

- Resolution of Discontinuance and Merger – Merger of East End and Coleman Memorial UMCs in Lawrence County: Moment of remembrance. Resolution passed on voice vote without discussion.
  - Ricky Way, pastor of Coleman and East End: this is a discontinuance but it is a rebirth at the same time. There are 40-70 children each week. Coleman Memorial, New Prospect, and Antioch UMCs are all working together to undergird this group of young people. Antioch UM is feeding around 150 people first Saturday of every month at the East End campus. The church is discontinued, but the work of God is still vibrant.
- Motion made by Harriet Bryan to dissolve the Murfreesboro Road Cooperative Parish and form station churches Hamilton and Arlington:
“I move the dissolution of the Murfreesboro Road Cooperative Parish – separating Hamilton UMC and Arlington UMC. Each shall be a stand-alone church. (Addition to Cabinet Resolutions)”
Resolution passed on voice vote, no discussion.

Max Mayo acknowledged the faithful work of Lisa Carson, conference chancellor. The whole conference joined together in thanking Carson.

4. General Conference Constitutional Amendments 2 – Monica Mowdy

Monica Mowdy: The outcome of the vote will not be disclosed until all the other conferences have voted.

1. Proposed Constitutional Amendment 1
  - a. Monica Mowdy read the introduction and rationale paragraphs:
    - i. Introduction: “On May 16, 2016, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Portland, Oregon, the following Constitutional Amendment was adopted by a recorded vote of 746 Yes, 56 No (Calendar Item 121, DCA p. 2106). It is now presented to the Annual Conferences for vote.”
    - ii. Rationale: “The Constitution contains a paragraph on racial justice but not one on gender justice. The language of this petition is parallel to the language of Article 5 on racial justice already in our Constitution. It is an affirmation that, as part of our core foundational beliefs, this church will forever stand against any actions, organizations or individuals that discriminate or dehumanize women and girls anywhere on this planet.”
  - b. Discussion
    - i. Tom Binford (against): Although he agrees with the spirit of this amendment, he is against the wording because it is presented more like a resolution than an amendment. Especially the part, where it says, “The United Methodist Church recognizes it is contrary to Scripture and to logic to say that God is male or female, as maleness and femaleness are characteristics of human bodies and cultures, not characteristics of the divine.” He thinks that this is a theological statement that United Methodists may disagree with. He asked the conference to vote against this amendment.
    - ii. Craig Green (against): He totally agrees with the heart of the amendment that this denomination stands for the rights of women. But to deny the self-revelation and incarnation of God in order to declare such stance is wrong. This conference should ask the General Conference to write it better so we could vote for it as soon as they do.
    - iii. Deen Thompson (in favor): He said this amendment reminds him of that we worship God in Spirit, not gendered being.
    - iv. Stuart Orelle (in favor): He thinks what is written is theologically true in that God is not male or female. That does not mean that God is not to be called Father. God was before there was gender. Male and female come out as an expression of who God is. He sees the need for it particularly in some places of the world where the thinking of God being male leads to all sorts of misbehaviors.
    - v. (Name not revealed), (against): She has seen people confused. When Jesus said “my father,” she thinks, he meant “my father.” She asked the conference to vote by their conscience. She thinks this is not written correctly; there is no reason why the Methodist church cannot defend women and bring them up to social and economic justice without having to have the sentence in the Discipline.

- vi. Matthew Charlton (in favor): He reminded the whole conference of Article I (Articles of Religion) that states that “there is one and true God everlasting without body or parts.” The constitutional amendment simply echoes the Article of Religion.

2. Proposed Amendment 2

a. Monica Mowdy read the introduction and rationale paragraphs.

- i. Introduction: “On May 20, 2016, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Portland, Oregon, the following Constitutional Amendment was adopted by a recorded vote of 509 Yes, 242 No (Calendar Item 429, DCA p. 2212). It is now presented to the Annual Conference for vote.”
- ii. Rational: “Adding ‘gender’ (meaning male and female) to the Constitution affirms and protects The United Methodist Church’s commitment to gender equity throughout our worldwide connection. ‘Gender’ is the disciplinary term for fair treatment of women and men (e.g., ¶16). The addition of the proposed final clause allows gender-specific groups like United Methodist Women and United Methodist Men.”

b. Discussion

- i. Connie Clark: She, as a Tennessee Conference delegate for the General Conference, chaired the committee at the General Conference that considered this particular constitutional amendment. With the bishop’s permission, she laid out the process how this amendment went forward. Her sub-committee was assigned paragraph 4 of the constitution that concerns inclusiveness of the Church and so covered many petitions regarding race, religion, human sexuality, etc. Almost all of the 25 self-selected members of her sub-committee were there to discuss primarily the many human sexuality resolutions. After three days of lively discussions, they could not reach an agreement on those.
  - 1. The presented amendment began as a resolution presented by the commission on the status and role of women, in conversation with UM women. It was also approved by GBOD (Discipleship Ministries) and also by UM Young People’s assembly. There was a fear that the constitution as it read before this was presented did not allow groups to gather by age or genders. There was some concern that gender groups (UMM or UMW) or age groups (youth fellowship or senior groups) in the church might actually be illegal under the constitution. And this generated the first part of the amendment, which reads, “After ‘all persons’ delete ‘without regard to race, color, national origin, status, or economic condition.’”
  - 2. The word “disability” was changed to “ability.” And there was no intention to change the meaning of the word. Her subcommittee members were advised by a number of persons working in that area that they prefer the word “differently-abled” rather than “disabled.”
    - a. Ms. Coney was referring to the following: “After ‘because of race, color, national origin,’ delete ‘status,’ and add ‘ability.’”
  - 3. The word, “marital status,” was added. The committee heard stories of the discriminatory practices against singles – not married individuals – happening in the Church. For example, they were not always permitted to fully participate in the life of the Church or considered for leadership positions.
    - a. She was referring to the following: “At the end of the paragraph, add ‘nor shall any member be denied access to an equal life, worship, and governance of the Church because of race, color, gender, national origin, ability, age, marital status, or economic condition.’”
  - 4. Because the committee could not agree on human sexuality issues, nothing was added or taken away from the paragraph that in anyway was intended to reflect the issues about human sexuality.
- ii. Thomas Dowdy (against): Two or three General Conferences ago, we added the word “status” to the constitution, which concerned some people that this move would open back doors and allow those practicing homosexuals to be admitted into the Church. Although all kinds of assurances were given to clear away such doubts, some conference attempted to define “status” as including all sexual connotations. California-Nevada annual conference also tried to define “status” as being representing people involved in homosexuality. Gender can mean almost anything you want it to mean. To include that word into our constitution is not good. Seeing marital “status” in this amendment, he worries this move would open up all the gates that the “status” opened up years ago. There were 242 in the General Conference who voted against this amendment, which is around 32% (Written by secretary: he included this figure to urge the conference to vote against it; it needs 2/3 majority to pass).

3. Proposed Constitutional Amendment 3
  - a. Monica Mowdy read the introduction and the rationale paragraphs.
    - i. Introduction: “On May 16, 2016, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Portland, Oregon, the following Constitutional Amendment was adopted by a recorded vote of 767 Yes, 22 No (Calendar Item 111, DCA pp. 2105). It is now presented to the Annual Conference for vote.”
    - ii. Rationale: “The provision in ¶ 13. Article I. 2, ‘Delegates shall be elected in a fair and open process by the annual conferences,’ is unduly vague. The addition of this one sentence to paragraph 34 of The Book of Discipline helps clarify that General Conference delegates shall be elected by the body of annual conference instead of simply being appointed by the bishop. Bishops appointing delegates without delegates being properly elected has been a practice in some central conferences.”
  - b. Discussion (No questions or comments)
4. Proposed Constitutional Amendment 4
  - a. Monica Mowdy read the introduction and the rationale paragraphs.
    - i. Introduction: “On May 20, 2016, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Portland, Oregon, the following Constitutional Amendment was adopted by a recorded vote of 621 Yes, 15 No (Calendar Item 468, DCA p. 2217). It is now presented to the Annual Conference for vote.”
    - ii. Rationale: “As is the case for the jurisdictions, episcopal elections in the central conferences should be held in the regular sessions of those conferences, except when unexpected vacancies occur because of the death or early retirement of one or more bishops”
  - b. Discussion (No questions or comments)
5. Proposed Constitutional Amendment 5
  - a. Monica Mowdy read the introduction and the rationale paragraphs.
    - i. Introduction: “On May 17, 2016, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Portland, Oregon, the following Constitutional Amendment was adopted by a recorded vote of 715 Yes, 79 No (Calendar Item 446, DCA p. 2214). It is now presented to the Annual Conferences for vote.”
    - ii. Rationale: “Judicial Decision 475 ruled unconstitutional the Council of Bishops holding its individual members accountable for their work, referencing ¶ 50 of the Constitution. This legislation follows Judicial Decision 1275 requirement of a legislative resolution from General Conference so the Council of Bishops may provide oversight of its members.”
  - b. Discussion (No questions or comments)
6. The conference members voted on the five amendments together starting from the laity (with yellow stripe on their name tag).
  - a. Monica Mowdy reminded the members that only the ones who are on the first floor will receive a ballot.
  - b. For clergy vote, Monica Mowdy informed the conference that provisional, associate, and affiliated clergy members and licensed local pastors cannot vote on constitutional amendment (Book of Discipline P602.1.b).
  - c. Bishop declared laity and clergy ballots closed.

Bishop McAlilly made an announcement about the offering (East Congo Women Center) $31,010. With the Memphis Conference offering and other checks, we have raised a little over $200,000. The goal is $350,000 for a three-year plan. With the money already raised, we will start construction. The Congolese will make bricks for this project to make it come to its fruition.

5. The Delegates to Represent the TN Conference at the Special Session (Commission on a Way Forward)

1. Bishop McAlilly read the portion in The Book of Discipline regarding delegates to a called session (Paragraph 14 Article 2), and explained that unless there is a motion from the floor to elect the new delegation, those who were elected for the 2016 General Conference would be our delegates for a Way Forward.
2. Discussion
  - a. James Johnson (in favor): “I move for the election of new delegates for General Conference.”. He trusts all the delegates who represented our conference, but since the last election of the delegates, our church has moved.
  - b. Ryan Bennett (against): The previous delegates served us well. He is not sure if the cost of the reelection would be worth it. There will be a lot of consequences in having another election.
  - c. Emily Reeves Grammar (question): If we do elect a new delegation for Commission on a Way Forward, will there be another election of delegates for 2020?
    - i. Bishop McAlilly: Yes, there will be another election for the 2020 General Conference in the 2019 annual conference.
  - d. Nancy Speas-Hill (question): She was wondering if Jim Allen might share with the body if he has an idea about how much adding a day of annual conference would cost the conference knowing that we have an additional day in election years.
    - i. Jim Allen: His rough estimation was $30,000 to $35,000 primarily for housing delegates.
  - e. Craig Green (in favor): How could it ever be wrong to elect new folks? It’s about giving the annual conference an ongoing voice.
  - f. Eric Little (question): If we wanted to elect a new group, when could it be, this year or next year?
    - i. Bishop McAlilly: It would be in 2018.
  - g. Eric Little (against): He thinks we elected great and spirit-filled folks to the delegation as far as clergy delegation is concerned.
  - h. Harriet Bryan and Jim Allen, clergy and lay heads of the 2016 delegation, suggested that those represented our annual conference stand so others could know who they were.
  - i. Bishop McAlilly asked the delegates to the 2016 General Conference to stand. He also asked the delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference to stand because they are the alternates for General Conference.
  - j. Randy Goodman (in favor): We elected the 2016 delegates for general business of the Church, but this time we have a very specific issue.

Motion failed; we are sending the 2016 delegates to the 2019 Special General Conference called by the Council of Bishops, at which delegates will consider the recommendations of The Commission on a Way Forward.

6. Way Forward Commission Report– Bishop McAlilly

Bishop McAlilly read the Mission section with his elaborations found in the following page:

<http://www.umc.org/who-we-are/commission-on-a-way-forward-about-us>. Bishop McAlilly introduced a study guide speaking to this issue published by GBHEM: Unity of the Church and Human Sexuality Study Guide. He also added his personal comments on the current situation:

In March, I was in Africa, in Zimbabwe, and I went to the Mutare Mission where hundreds of children and young people are receiving an education, and health care, and hope because the Methodist church has been doing mission work there since the late 1800’s. The site on which Africa University is planted, celebrating its 25th anniversary, is in existence because the people called Methodists believe that educating Africans on the continent was a vital mission of the Church. Were we to splinter or split, the work of Africa University, the work of the Mutare Mission, among other places across the world, would be damaged. The matters of human sexuality and unity are presenting issues for a deeper conversation that surfaces in different ways of interpreting scripture and theological tradition.

Over the coming months and year or years, increasingly the Commission on the Way Forward will offer models to annual conferences through the residential bishops who are committed to leading and teaching in their own contexts and working with delegations to the special session of the 2019 General Conference.

Now what does all that mean? It means that we have a group of about 30 people who are meeting every 6 weeks working on this work on our behalf. It means that whatever is brought forward at the General Conference of 2019 will, then, have to be approved by that General Conference. In most cases, I believe the same delegates that were delegates in 2016 will be delegates in 2019, which means by and large it will be a group of the same people.

I also have to tell you that one of the churches in Mississippi who has departed, Getwell Road—some of you know this—was a church I planted in 1986. I was the church planter, and my heart is absolutely broken over their decision to leave our family. I have to tell you that the day I was born, my father was ordained an elder in The United Methodist Church. Like many of you, my blood runs through the veins of The United Methodist Church and it's a little bit like when people talk about your family; I can talk about them, but you better not. I get a little angry.

I want us to be careful. Literally, the word careful is to be full of care. The meaning of careful is to be full of care. How do we care for each other in the midst of our differences? My home church, First United Methodist Church of New Albany, Mississippi, is the church Lynn grew up in and I was a part of as a teenager.

Among the children of the elders of that church, there are a number of homosexual people. I have no idea, should this church split, what would happen to that congregation. And I would guess that church after church after church in our family could bear witness to similar stories.

The question I raise within my own spirit is if we had not adopted The Way Forward, can you imagine what we would be doing right now as a denomination? We would be splitting this church up with a rusty butcher knife, and it would not be a very pretty sight. I will go so far as to say I'm not terribly optimistic that we will find a solution that everybody is going to sing the doxology over.

And if that's the case, then I pray that we will have enough wisdom to find our way through this and hold on to each other. Schism is the lowest fruit on the theological food chain, frankly, but I simply ask you to bear with us and be patient with us and help us be in conversation together as we work our way toward a future that God has not yet defined. I don't know anybody that would have signed up for this, but this is where we are.

I give thanks to God for the persons we are commissioning, the ones we are ordaining, those who are saying yes to this denomination. They want to give their life to this church and serve faithfully. Let's remember that they see hope that maybe some of us don't see. If you look back over the history of Christianity over the last 2,000 years, there have been a few bumps in the road, right? It has not all been smooth sailing, but somehow, out of that, God has still prevailed.

God is still on the throne. God is still the God of the resurrection. God is still the God of the future, not just the God of the past. God is still calling us into that future, and I'm going to be trusting that God is going to show us the way. Now God is not going to give us all the answers from here to the end of the road, so don't expect that, but you can expect that God will give us enough light for our next step.

When the appointive cabinet gets together every spring, I think, "How in the world are we going to make these appointments?" But, somehow, out of the mystery of God and the combined wisdom of that group of people, God shows us a way through. I trust that God.

I'm going to do my best to be faithful to you and faithful to God and this church, and I ask you to join me in that faithfulness. I will be faithful to the vows of my ordination as an elder and my consecration as bishop. If you have a problem and you feel like you need to talk about it, call your district superintendent. If your district superintendent can't help you, then we'll help you. I trust our cabinet, they're good people. I ask you to be faithful to what God is calling us to do.

Sunday night's state of the church address probably disappointed some people because they thought I was going to talk about our denomination and not our mission. That was not an accident because I don't want this conversation to become our mission.

Our mission is to serve God and neighbor. To go into the world, to offer Christ to those who are hurting, one neighborhood at a time. I've been beating this drum for five years. I'm not going to stop beating it. We're going to do the same thing we've been doing. We're not going to give up. We're going to keep pushing out. We're going to keep pushing forward. We're trying to transform congregations who transform people's lives through the power of Jesus Christ who is a resurrecting God.

I believe in that God and that's the God I'm going to bear witness to and I invite you not to be consumed by the negative press that the Church is going to receive in the coming years. And you're going to get it from every direction. My experience of the church is that there are some folk over here and some folk over here, but most Methodists are somewhere in the middle. Some of us are right of center and some of us are left of center but most of us are centered in Christ.

My little three-point sermon would be something like this: rooted in scripture, centered in Christ, serving in love. Rooted in scripture, centered in Christ, serving in love. And if we live out of that triumvirate, and if we keep God's mission at the forefront of our lives, other conversations will not distract us quite so much.

You know in 1 Peter: 5—which I'll be preaching tonight, by the way, if you want to get a head start—there's a line in there that says "Beware of the evil one who prowls around like a roaring lion and seeking to devour you." Maybe you've read C.S. Lewis's Screwtape Letters, and Screwtape says don't ever let them see the church with its banners waving. And so, there are forces in the world that do not want us to be seen with our banners waving. But friends, there is some amazing, amazing transformational work that is taking place in the Tennessee and Memphis conferences on behalf of the people called Methodists who are giving their heart, mind, and soul to people in need, and we're not going to stop doing that no matter what happens way up here, right?

I showed you a picture of myself when I played football last night at two different periods of my life. I'm not sure some of you got it. My college coach used to always say, "Always leave it on the field." Now what does that mean? You're going to give it your all day in, day out. We were having dinner with some friends the other night and Lynn was talking about when she was doing her master's program and we moved in the middle of her doing her master's program to a little house that had been flooded by hurricane Katrina, and she was working herself pretty hard, and I said, "Well, you don't have to get an 'A' in everything." She said, "I don't know how to try to get a B!" That's what it means to leave it on the field.

I'm going to be faithful. I want you to be faithful. I can't make you be. But I can invite you to be. I can invite you to follow Jesus into the world and reach out to those who are hungry and those who are broken. As I said last night, God uses flawed people because he doesn't have enough of the other kind.

And brothers and sisters, we have no room to point our fingers at anyone. We would be much better off to get on our knees and pray, "Lord, have mercy on me a sinner," than to point our finger and say "Thank God I'm not like that terrible, horrible, no-good, very bad person over there."

As I've said to the clergy, Jacob walked with a limp and he was better off with his limp than he was without it. Yes, we limp as a church. Yes, we're broken. Yes, we're imperfect and yes, we've got to figure this out, but we're going to do it and let's stay together as we do it, and let's love each other.

As I read the gospel, the central ethic of the gospel is love. It's love. I'm going to be about loving God and loving the people God loves, and that includes all of us. All the time.

7. Nominations and Connectional Ministries Report – Melinda Young Britt

Connectional Ministries Report: <https://www.tnumc.org/wp-content/uploads/2017/05/Connectional-Ministries-Report.pdf>

Bishop McAlilly offered a word of appreciation to Melinda Young Britt for her effort for the conference. All the members joined together in expressing gratitude.

Changes made to connectional ministries office structure:

- Connectional Ministries Committees (New Church Development Team and Connectional Ministries Restructuring Team) will examine connectional ministries structure and present a reorganization proposal at the 2018 Annual Conference.
- Action required only on nomination of members of these new teams and district committees; other names are for information only. One editorial correction to report: on the Red River District DCOM "Ron Binford" should be "Tom Binford." Report passed by voice vote with no discussion.

Symbolic act of conference redistricting: Water from the Harpeth, Cumberland, Red, Stones River, and Caney Fork Rivers by the incoming district superintendents and combined in one pitcher. Melinda Young Britt poured collected water into small bowls, at which all in attendance were encouraged to use as a remembrance of baptism.

Report of the Orders of Ministry
Annual Conference, 2017
Rev. Jerry Wallace

Bishop McAlilly, members of the BOM and clergy in the Tennessee Conference,

It is a privilege to share the Order of Elders, Order of Deacons, and the Fellowship of Local Pastors and Associate Members has been actively at work this year by encouraging our covenantal living together as clergy.

We continue to urge our brothers and sisters in ministry to remember that:

We have a sacred calling as United Methodist clergy. By virtue of our baptism and ordination or licensing, we have entered into a covenantal relationship in a community of clergy (active and retired Elders, Deacons, Associate Members, Provisional Members, and Local Pastors). Our mutual covenant seeks to create a community marked by and lived into with respect, honesty, integrity, compassion and encouragement. In all interactions with one another we seek to offer mutual support and care as friends in ministry. As clergy in set-apart, representative, accountable leadership ministry, we must continually commit to grow in holiness, in faithfulness to our calling to make disciples of Jesus Christ and in trusting relationships with each other. We rely upon the grace of God to maintain our covenant with each other. (From the Tennessee and Memphis Conferences Clergy Covenant Living)

The main task of the Tennessee and Memphis Conference Orders and Fellowships for the year was to provide a Clergy Spiritual Life Retreat. The retreat was held at Montgomery Bell State Park on May 7-10, 2017. The Orders and Fellowships worked diligently to plan an event that would help refresh, restore, and sustain us in the midst of our ministries. There were many opportunities for prayer, worship, singing, and vespers, as well as fellowship, with creative Sabbath expressions. The retreat focused on the book 24/6: A Prescription for a Healthier, Happier Life. The author, Matthew Sleeth, MD, and Rev. Ryan Bennett from Blessed Earth led our sessions on the topic of Sabbath. Bishop McAlilly provided his leadership in worship and through his annual question and answer session. We are grateful for others who provided leadership from the Tennessee and Memphis conferences. Feedback from the event has been very positive, and we are excited to continue providing an event in the future.

Another important piece of this year's clergy retreat was a time for remembrance of Rev. Grace Phelps. Rev. Grace Phelps passed away in the fall of 2016. She served as co-chair of the Order of Deacons in the Memphis Conference. She was instrumental in organizing the clergy retreat each year. Grace's ministries were great in number and in impact. This time of remembrance was an opportunity to be thankful for Grace and her witness. Her family attended the time of remembrance on Sunday night and we ended the week with letters, poems, and works of art that we passed on to them.

The Orders and Fellowship of the Tennessee Conference move forward with our work, grateful for the opportunity to serve. May we stay focused on the Christ as we seek to live in his grace and love walking alongside our brothers and sisters in ministry. This concludes our report.

REPORTS & RESOLUTIONS

A. REPORTS

BOARD OF CAMP AND RETREAT MINISTRIES

Rev. Brian Marcoulier

Greetings to Bishop McAlilly and members of the Tennessee Annual Conference. My name is Brian Marcoulier and I come to you as the chair of the Board of Camp and Retreat Ministries for the Tennessee Conference. We have good news to share with you from Beersheba Springs Assembly and Cedar Crest Camp.

Beersheba Springs Assembly celebrated its 75th anniversary last fall, calling to attention the life-transforming experiences that have occurred and continue to occur on the mountain. We continue to be a vital partner with the Tennessee Annual Conference through the Cookeville District Ministry Academy, Summer Sizzler, the conference UMW retreat, the Board of Ordained Ministry (BOMECE), and Tennessee Conference Licensing School.

Partnerships with local churches, such as the Providence Church Women's Retreat, have been fruitful opportunities for spiritual formation. Last year alone, the women's retreat grew by 81 percent and in its four years of existence it has grown from 30 women to more than 100 women. Christmas at Beersheba has become an annual tradition for many within the conference, welcoming 443 people last year—almost double that of 2013! We give thanks for the place of Sabbath, retreat, and renewal that Beersheba Springs Assembly continues to be for this conference and its churches, hosting more than 83 groups in 2016. Beersheba Springs Assembly also remains a vital ministry on the plateau for children and families in need through the annual Beersheba Christmas children's party in partnership with Belmont UMC and the Love Bear Ministry. This program touches the lives of more than 200 children each year in the Beersheba Springs community.

If you've joined us for one of the conference events or one of the community-focused gatherings such as the craft fair, then you likely got a chance to experience the beautiful white picket fence now surrounding the property, the accessible restrooms near the chapel, or the RV spaces created to welcome missionary teams like NOMADS, a United Methodist mission volunteer organization. These highlights are a small reflection of the ongoing, daily work of the incredible staff of Beersheba Springs Assembly. We encourage you to set aside time for renewal and reflection on the mountain at Beersheba Springs Assembly, recognizing that connection with God prepares us to better serve our neighbors.

In 2016, Cedar Crest celebrated one of its busiest and most successful years of ministry. Summer camp showed tremendous growth, along with a strong retreat and program season. In addition, Cedar Crest celebrated further remodeling, updating of infrastructure, and building new structures. To illustrate this point, let me share just a little information about summer camp participation. In 2016, Cedar Crest grew 30 percent from its summer camp numbers in 2015, leading it to double its campership from 2013. Did you hear that? Summer campership has doubled since 2013! As early as the end of March 2017, we were already on track to see another year of 30 percent growth. Thankfully, with a gift from the Conference Committee on Finance and Administration as well as the support of the bishop and the cabinet, Cedar Crest built a new building in 2016, called Songbird, which houses four cabins. Without this building, we could not have continued to grow at the rate we just celebrated. At Christmas, we were excited to receive a gift funding a second new cabin in Birdland. More than 60 churches in the Tennessee Conference had children and/or youth in attendance during summer camp, tripling the number of local churches sending children and youth to camp since 2014. All of this to say, THANK YOU local churches, for supporting the ministry of summer camp at Cedar Crest Camp.

Beyond summer camp, Cedar Crest hosted more than 40 different retreat groups, from children to youth to adults. Of course, the celebration is not simply contained in the numbers. This last year, Cedar Crest: Invested in programming that engaged youth in local community service in Hickman County through Youth Mission Week

Celebrated its first children's retreat—a weekend retreat focusing on children in second through fifth grade; more than 100 adults and children attended

Constructed a high ropes course offered to junior and senior high youth as well as seasonal retreats
Awarded 90 scholarships from the Bishop's Scholarship Fund to children and youth who might not have had a camp experience without financial assistance.

What we are most grateful to share, is that above all, hundreds of campers experienced Christ at camp; summer staff answered a call to ministry and seminary with three in seminary and two discerning their call; some campers became disciples of Christ for the first time; and all of our campers had the opportunity to experience God's love for them, modeled by a college-age mentor who shares Christ's love with and for them.

And if I were to pause here, I would be remiss in sharing an important transition that is taking place in the coming months. Rev. Dickie Hinton, the executive director of Camp and Retreat Ministries and the director of Beersheba Springs Assembly, is planning to retire at the end of 2017. Dickie has faithfully served Camp and Retreat Ministries of the Tennessee Conference since 2006; his commitment to Camp and Retreat Ministries spans more than 30 years. Words simply fall short in celebrating the love and care that Dickie has shown to the Camp and Retreat Ministries of the Tennessee Conference. The Board of Camp and Retreat Ministries would like to recognize Dickie's incredible commitment to "providing sacred space away from the ordinary to offer radical hospitality [in order to] connect with God and one another."

In light of this celebration, we also are delighted to introduce the next executive director of Camp and Retreat Ministries for the Tennessee Conference. He has been among us for the last four years working to develop young adult leaders, fostering spiritual formation and growth among children and youth, and giving sacrificially to the work of Camp and Retreat Ministries at Cedar Crest Camp. He also has more than 15 years of experience in Camp and Retreat Ministries in The United Methodist Church. The Board of Camp and Retreat Ministries in consultation with Bishop McAlilly is proud to announce that Russell Casteel will serve as our next executive director.

Bishop, on behalf of the Board of Camp and Retreat Ministries, this concludes our report.

BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

Angella Current-Felder

Chair, Tennessee Conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry

We celebrate the many college students whose lives are touched by the multiplicity of programs and activities sponsored by our Wesley Foundations. Under the leadership of compassionate, capable and competent campus ministers, many students discover their vocational calling, become equipped as spiritual leaders, and grow in their connection with Christ.

Austin Peay Wesley

Rev. Jodi McCullah, director, and Rev. Katie Woodard, associate director

Austin Peay Wesley celebrated growth of attendance in its programs, averaging over 20 in two Bible studies a week and had 10 students attend Warmth in Winter. Its outreach program for the military, Soldiers and Families Embraced (SAFE), which serves more than 280 active clients—approximately 25 percent of who are students—will become a separate program and recently moved out of the APSU's Wesley building. The APSU Wesley Board has voted to sell the building to the university.

Belmont Wesley

Rev. David Brent Hollis, director

Belmont Wesley's students are involved in Project Transformation, Open Table Nashville, and the ministries of TNUMC Next Gen Discipleship. Ten students participated in Warmth in Winter. Belmont hosted a convocation on calling which featured three Project Transformation fellows, hosted a convocation titled Let's Talk about Sex... in Church? and sponsored a spring break immersion trip to Memphis to work with the Church Health Center and visit the National Civil Rights Museum. After graduation, 11 students will travel to London for a Wesley Meets Wesley tour.

Cumberland University

Riley Kilian, student

A new emerging collegiate ministry at Cumberland University is being birthed under the leadership of first-year student Riley Kilian and has great possibilities as a part of the United Methodist Student Movement. We congratulate and affirm Riley for her vision and desire to have a United Methodist presence at Cumberland University.

Fisk University Wesley Fellowship

Rev. Marilyn E. Thornton, director

Fisk ministry allows students opportunities to plan worship, teach Bible study, and invite other students to Wesley to discuss what is happening in the world and how it may challenge their faith. Seventeen students attended the film “Hidden Figures” about black female mathematicians and participated in follow-up discussion. More than 50 students engaged in Fisk’s programs including three interns. Fisk students participated in Project Transformation, Freedom School, Open Door, and other ecumenical ministries.

Martin Methodist College

Rev. Laura McMasters, college chaplain

Under the leadership of College Chaplain Laura McMasters, Religious Life at Martin Methodist College seeks to be a community of faith that encourages students to grow and enrich their spiritual journey through worship, vocational discernment, church leadership, and fellowship. Approximately 165 students are being equipped to grow deeper in personal and community relationships with God through worship and fellowship—26 of who hold leadership positions. Ten Martin Methodist alumni are currently attending seminary. Four students traveled to Mexico and served with Give Ye Them to Eat and 23 students connected with 13 different organization for fellowship opportunities at the Missions and Ministry Fair. Martin Methodist celebrates the birth of the Martin Serves!, an expansion of weekly religious opportunities and growth in intentional vocational discernment.

Middle Tennessee State University Wesley

Rev. John Weaver, director and Rev. Michelle Ozier Wallace, associate director

Joining MTSU Wesley in July 2016, Rev. John Weaver and Rev. Michelle Wallace have revitalized and enhanced its programs and increased student participation. More than 200 students were actively engaged in their campus ministry programs and they increased the number of campus student leaders from four in 2016 to 11 in 2017. We celebrate the election of a new president, a 10-person leadership team, and two coordinators for the five ministry areas: outreach, fellowship, worship, discipleship, and missions. Students participated in a leadership retreat, Warmth in Winter, a mission trip to Restoration Atlanta, Project Transformation, and events led entirely by students.

Tennessee State University Wesley

Rev. Michelle Morton, director and Rev. Tamika Robertson, associate director

TSU Wesley celebrates an increased number of Baptisms, professions of faith, and approximately 350 students engaged in ministry on campus. Of those, 32 students make up ministry leadership teams and 25 are returning leaders. Campus minister Rev. Michelle Morton says the ministry is “intentional about providing formal and informal leadership training opportunities in a variety of mediums.” Students are engaged in ministry daily through drop in, scheduled activities, weekly worship and Bible studies, and community service projects. Ten Wesley students participated in Warmth in Winter and Wesley Writer’s Block Randy Taylor presented through Spoken Word commentary on societal issues. TSU Wesley hosted the Re-Connect College Tour from Houston with the goal of attracting 100 young adults and collaborated with Discipleship Ministries and SBC21 National Network of Young Adults in sponsoring workshops: Arts and Activism; The Place of Art in Justice, Activism and Protest; and Faith in Action: A Crash Course in Faith-Rooted Organizing.

Tennessee Tech University

Rev. Addison Shock, director

TTU Wesley has been engaged in restarting, developing, and rebuilding its campus ministry. Today, nearly 200 students each semester have been involved in some aspect of TTU Wesley activities and more than 80 are highly invested and actively involved on a weekly basis. Campus minister Addison Shock reported 50-60 students on average in worship on both Monday and Wednesday nights. Their leadership team has grown from four to 18 student leaders, and they have developed a residential staff program with seven undergraduate students who “live in intentional Christian community, while leading and setting the culture of ministry for others.” TTU Wesley is actively involved on campus through intramurals, weekly lunches, outreach events, and dorm presence.

Vanderbilt University Wesley

Rev. Nancy Hawthorne Parker, director

Vanderbilt Wesley has had a rebirth under the new leadership of its director and campus minister, Rev. Nancy Hawthorne Parker. In July 2016, there were no students engaged in the Vandy Wesley ministry and Nancy has grown the ministry to an average of 12 each week. Almost 100 students have engaged in outreach events and 40 students have visited on Tuesday nights. Appointed 3/4 time to Vandy Wesley and 1/4 time to West End UMC, Parker is engaged at worship at West End UMC, creating community for college-aged adults every Sunday morning, and engaging students in weekly college luncheons. Vandy Wesley has partnered with Open Table Nashville for two service events and a walking pilgrimage. Vanderbilt Divinity School’s Methodist Student Association offers students Eucharist service on Fridays. Vandy Wesley Fellowship Board has been reactivated and established four committees: nominating & personnel, finance, fundraising & communications, and strategic planning & partnership. We celebrate the ministries provided by our campus ministers, the support and encouragement they receive from their respective local board of directors, and the immeasurable impact they are having on the lives of students attending our colleges and universities within the geographic boundaries of the Tennessee Conference.

BOARD OF LAITY

Holly Neal, Conference Lay Leader

The laity have maintained a sense of steadiness in the midst of many changes and transitions happening within the conference. The changes with redistricting and restructuring will result in moving conference resources closer to the local congregation.

One of the plans for the 2017/2018 conference year for the laity is to bring the Generative Leadership Academy to the Tennessee Conference. The Generative Leadership Academy was developed to help deeply committed Christian leaders who are eager to serve and find direction and guidance for the changing world in which we live. These leaders will train and inspire additional leaders who will work together for church vitality. Church vitality will transform the world!

You can expect information about district-wide training events for local church lay leaders very soon. We believe these training opportunities will increase and equip more laity to serve God and neighbor.

During the past year Lay Servant Ministries’ classes were held in each district—helping equip people to grow in their ministry. In the past, when people heard about Lay Speaking Ministries, sometimes their first words were, “I don’t want to speak or preach.” Even though it is the same ministry, the name change to Lay Servant Ministries brought awareness to people that this ministry goes beyond just speaking.

At the present time there are over 700 active lay people in the Tennessee Conference that are trained as lay servants, certified lay servants, certified lay speakers, and certified lay ministers. Some of these lay servants are serving as mission team leaders and participants (both locally, nationally, and internationally). Many are volunteering in soup kitchens, feeding ministries, home repair, homeless shelters, and prison ministry. They are also teaching Sunday school, special classes on healthy living and finances, as well as Bible studies.

Lay people in our conference are also making a difference by caring for others as Stephen Ministers, hospice volunteers, and in schools with Partners Today and Project Transformation. The laity are communicating their faith by serving on teams, committees, and as worship leaders and even liturgists. Some are called to children and youth ministries in their local church or in their own neighborhoods. Our districts, our conference and the world all benefit because our lay people are busy making disciples of Jesus Christ.

If any of these things interest you, check out opportunities in your district.

BOARD OF PENSIONS

Steve Curry, Chair

Most of our full-time active and retired clergy participate in defined benefit (DB, or traditional pension) plans. Our plans were funded by the annual conference and are administered by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits. The Tennessee Conference's retirement plans are projected to be funded at 101 percent – 105 percent in 2018.

The annual conference, this board and their predecessors have been good stewards of the funds entrusted to us. As a result, the Tennessee Conference has pension reserves that should protect our retirees well into the future.

We are blessed that we can fund part of our current pension obligations from earnings on our reserves. For 2018, we have requested apportionment funding to cover only 35 percent of our estimated pension obligations. The remaining 65 percent will be funded through withdrawals from the conference's pension reserves. This is part of a 10-year plan being developed by CFA to reduce the church's apportionments by drawing down accumulated reserves.

The 2018 Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan has been prepared and submitted to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits as required by the Book of Discipline (2016), ¶1506.6. We have sufficient projected revenues and reserves to fully fund all the conference's benefit obligations for the foreseeable future.

Years ago, the Conference Board of Pensions set a goal to maintain our Pre-82 Plan past service rate (PSR) at a minimum of 1 percent of conference average compensation (CAC). We recommend a past service rate of $703 for pre-1982 service years for 2018. This represents a 1.5 percent increase over the 2017 rate ($692) and is 1.037 percent of the CAC.

The Board of Pensions engaged the services of attorney Carolyn Schott to help improve the protection of the conference's pension assets. Various options were considered, but the final decision was to create a Pension Reserve Trust. The board asks that the 2017 annual conference approve the creation of the Pension Reserve Trust and the conveyance of assets into that trust.

The board expresses our thanks to hard work of Jim Allen and Melinda Parker, who ensure the smooth working of our benefits plans and support of our retirees. Assistant Benefits Officer Melinda Parker organized the Board of Pensions' annual Pre-Retirement Planning Seminar at Providence United Methodist Church on February 23, 2017, and at First UMC in Jackson, Tennessee on February 24. All clergy who were eligible to retire in the next five years were invited to attend. In January, Jim Allen and Janet Jamieson led a workshop on Clergy Taxes Using Tax Software, sponsored by our United Methodist Foundation.

I want to express my appreciation for the extraordinary commitment and dedication to the members of the Board of Pensions. Their service is utmost important and invaluable.

REMINDERS

- 1) The General Board of Pension and Health Benefits offers a long-term care plan and optional (additional) life insurance for qualified participants.
- 2) The conference can provide grave markers for deceased United Methodist clergy. Requests should be made to the Office of Administrative Services.

REQUEST FOR ACTION BY ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The Board of Pensions recommends that the annual conference approve the following:

1. The 2018 Tennessee Conference Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan
2. The creation of the Pension Reserve Trust and the conveyance of pension assets into that trust
3. A past service rate of $703 for pre-1982 service years, effective January 1, 2018

TRUST AGREEMENT

The Settlor, the Tennessee Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc. (the “Conference”), with an address at 304 S. Perimeter Park Drive, Nashville, TN 37211, by this Agreement, entered into as of June 13, 2017, hereby creates a religious and charitable trust and appoints the members of the board of pensions of the Conference (the “Board of Pensions”) as initial Trustees, to serve and manage this trust pursuant to the terms set forth herein.

1. Background. In 1976 and 1989, the Conference engaged in fundraising crusades in order to fund certain changes to the pension program. Each crusade exceeded its target and fully funded the pension changes identified in the crusade resolutions. Because the crusades exceeded their initial fundraising targets, the pension crusades also resulted in funds without defined use restrictions. Until the date of this agreement, these funds have been held and managed by the Conference. The Conference now wishes to place these funds into a trust, to be administered by the members of the Board of Pensions as trustees.
2. Name and Office. The Trust shall be known as the Pension Reserve Trust and is hereinafter referred to as the “Trust” or “this Trust.” The principal office of the Trust shall be 304 S. Perimeter Park Drive, Nashville, TN 37211.
3. Successor Trustees. 0 shall control the appointment and succession of the trustees (sometimes hereafter referred to as the “Trustees”).
4. Book of Discipline. The Conference is governed by the Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church (2016) which, together with any and all current or future amendments thereto, is referred to in this Agreement as the “Discipline.” This Agreement shall in all events be superseded by the Discipline and nothing in this Agreement shall permit the Trustees to act in contravention of its terms.

ARTICLE II. ADMINISTRATION OF TRUST

1. Tax Exempt Status. This Trust is formed for a nonprofit purpose. It is intended that this Trust shall have the status of an organization which is exempt from federal income taxation under Section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the “Code”), and as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code. Further, it is intended that the Trust shall be an integrated auxiliary of a church as described in Section 6033(a)(3)(i) of the Code.
2. Mission and Charitable Purpose. This Trust is organized exclusively to support the Conference’s pension, health and welfare benefit programs for clergy consistent with the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code (hereafter referred to as the “Mission and Charitable Purpose”). Every action of the Trustees in administering the Trust shall conform to and fulfill the Mission and Charitable Purpose. The Trustees may make payments or distributions from Trust income or principal, or both, in such amounts and for such purposes as the Trustees shall from time to time select and determine, subject to the limitations in this Agreement.
3. Material Purpose of Trust. A material purpose in creating the Trust is to endow funds to be used for the Mission and Charitable Purpose explicitly and unambiguously stated in paragraph 0 of this 0. The Conference intends that there be no change, alteration or amendment to the Trust’s stated charitable purpose. In furtherance of this material purpose, the Conference directs the Trustees to take any appropriate action necessary to protect the charitable purpose.
4. Prohibited Actions. The Trust is organized to engage in any activity, and to exercise any and all powers, rights and privileges, afforded a nonprofit charitable trust consistent with its Mission and Charitable Purpose. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Trust shall not engage in any other activities which would be impermissible by any of the following: (i) an organization exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the code, or any corresponding provision of any future federal tax laws; (ii) an organization contributions to which are deductible under Sections 170(c)(2), 2055(a), and 2522(a) of the Code or any corresponding provisions of any future federal tax laws; or (iii) a charitable trust organized under the laws of the State of Tennessee. In addition, the Trust shall not engage in any activities in violation of (i) the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 or any future amendments thereof; (ii) the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act or any future amendments thereof; (iii) the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act or any future amendments thereof; or (iv) any other state or federal law governing employee pensions or group health insurance, whether enacted as of the date of this Agreement or in the future.

5. No Private Inurement; No Legislative or Political Activity. The Trust is not formed for financial or pecuniary gain, and no part of the assets, income, or profits of the Trust shall be distributable to, or inure to the benefit of, the Trustees or any other private person, except (i) as reimbursement for expenses of the Trust; (ii) to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the Mission and Charitable Purpose of the Trust, as set forth in this Agreement; or (iii) as retirement, health or welfare benefits to the clergy members serving on the Board of Pensions, only to the extent such clergy members would be eligible for these benefits if they were not serving as a Trustee of this Trust. No substantial part of the activities of the Trust shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation; and no part of the activities of the Trust shall be the participation in, or intervention in (including the publishing or distributing of statements), any political campaign on behalf of (or in opposition to) any candidate for public office.

6. Transfer of Property to Trust. In consideration of the covenants herein contained, the Conference hereby conveys, grants, assigns and delivers to the Board of Pensions, as Trustees, that certain property described on the attached Exhibit A, to be held by the Board of Pensions pursuant to this Agreement. Subject to the Discipline, including, without limitation, Paragraph 1508, the Board of Pensions may receive and accept property, whether real, personal, or mixed, by way of gift, bequest, or devise, from any person, firm, trust, or corporation, to be held, administered, and disposed of in accordance with and pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement; but no gift, bequest or devise of any such property shall be received and accepted if it is conditioned or limited in such manner as to require the disposition of the income or its principal to any person or organization for other than the Mission and Charitable Purpose, or as shall in the opinion of the Board of Pensions or the Conference, jeopardize the federal income tax exemption of this Trust pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE III. TRUSTEES

The affairs of this Trust shall be managed by those members of the Board of Pensions who have accepted the position of Trustee pursuant to this 0. The provisions of the Discipline and the Standing Rules of the Tennessee Annual Conference shall govern the appointment, election and succession of the members of the Board of Pensions and its officers. Each duly elected member of the Board of Pensions shall be eligible to become a Trustee of the Trust. Each new member of the Board of Pensions shall, upon their election, be given a copy of this Agreement and be asked to sign a written instrument accepting the position of Trustee for the duration of their term on the Board of Pensions. If a member of the Board of Pensions deems himself or herself unfit to serve as a Trustee of the Trust, he or she may decline the appointment and continue to serve on the Board of Pensions in all other capacities. Other than as used in this 0, all references in this Agreement to the Trustees shall be understood to mean only those members of the Board of Pensions that have accepted their position of Trustee in writing. Each individual's term as Trustee shall coincide with their term on the Board of Pensions, and shall automatically terminate at the conclusion of their term on the Board of Pensions.

1. Miscellaneous Provisions. No Trustee named herein or appointed under this Agreement shall be required to give bond or to file an inventory or accounting in any court, or to render any report in court upon final settlement of acts performed as Trustee, although the Trustees shall make out and keep an inventory and maintain records of all transactions relating hereto in accordance with paragraph 0 of 0 and shall exhibit the same to any party in interest at any reasonable time. The initial Trustees shall be: Michael Ball, June Batsel, Laura Brantley, George Brown, Debbie Church, Dennis Covington, Steve Curry, Linda Furtado, Jim Norton, Celena Spiva, Mike Waldrop, and Debbie Woodward. Any succeeding Trustee shall, upon his or her appointment to the Board of Pensions and acceptance of the office of Trustee by written instrument, have the same powers, rights and duties, and the same title to the trust estate jointly with the remaining Trustees as if originally appointed. To the extent allowable by law, no Trustees shall be responsible or liable for the acts or omissions of any other of the Trustees or of any predecessor or of a custodian, agent, depositary or counsel selected with reasonable care. The Trustees shall serve without compensation for services rendered to the Trust. Subject to the provisions of paragraph Q of 0 each Trustee may be reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred by the Trustee directly related to the affairs of the Trust upon prior approval by the Board of Pensions and proper substantiation of such expenses.

ARTICLE IV. TRUSTEE POWERS AND DUTIES

1. In General. The Trustees shall, to the extent permitted by the Discipline, including, without limitation, Paragraphs 639, 1504, 1506, and 1508 thereof, have the following powers, and any others that may be granted by law, to be exercised as they, in their sole discretion and acting in a fiduciary capacity, may determine; provided the powers are exercised solely in furtherance of the Trust's Mission and Charitable Purpose:

(a) To invest and reinvest the principal and income of this Trust in such property, real, personal, or mixed, and in such manner as they shall deem proper, and from time to time to change investments as they shall deem advisable. No principal or income or any other Trust funds or assets may be loaned in any way to any party, whether the Conference, a Trustee or any other person. Loans from the Trust are expressly prohibited. Acting as a co-maker, guarantor, surety, or accommodation party (including the provision of an accommodation mortgage or other security interest) shall be deemed the making of a loan for all purposes in this Agreement and therefore shall be expressly prohibited.

(b) To sell, lease, or exchange any personal, mixed, or real property, at public auction or by private contract, for such consideration and on such terms as to credit or otherwise, and to make such contracts and enter into such undertakings relating to this Trust property, as they consider advisable, whether or not such leases or contracts may extend beyond the duration of this Trust.

(c) To execute and deliver deeds, assignments, transfers, mortgages, pledges, leases, covenants, contracts, promissory notes, releases, and other instruments, sealed or unsealed, incident to any transaction in which they engage.

(d) To vote, to give proxies, to participate in the reorganization, merger or consolidation of any concern, or in the sale, lease, disposition, or distribution of its assets; to join with other security holders in acting through a committee, depositary, voting trustees, or otherwise, and in this connection to delegate authority to such committee, depositary, or trustees and to deposit securities with them or transfer securities to them; to pay assessments levied on securities or to exercise subscription rights in respect of securities.

(e) To employ a bank or trust company as custodian of any funds or securities and to delegate to it such powers as they deem appropriate; to hold Trust property without indication of fiduciary capacity but only in the name of a registered nominee, provided the Trust property is at all times identified as such on the books of the Trust; to keep any or all of the Trust property or funds in any place or places in the United States of America; to employ clerks, accountants, investment counsel, investment agents, and any special services, and to pay the reasonable compensation and expenses of all such services.

(f) The Trustees may engage attorneys to provide legal advice to the Trust and the Trustees. The engagement shall be through the Conference as the client, and all communications, advice, correspondences, memoranda and work papers generated in connection with such engagements shall be made fully available to the Conference. The attorney-client privilege shall, to the extent allowable by law, rest with the Conference as the client. No attorney may accept an engagement contrary to this provision, and the Trustees may not in any event engage any attorneys with a conflict of interest with the Conference. The legal fees for such engagement may be paid by the Trust.

2. Conflict of Interest Transactions. A conflict of interest transaction is a transaction effected or proposed to be effected by the Trust with respect to which a Trustee of the Trust has a conflict of interest. A conflict of interest transaction is not voidable or the basis for imposing liability on the Trustee if the transaction was consistent with the Discipline and fair at the time it was entered into.

(a) Definitions. The following definitions shall apply to the determination of a Trustee's conflict of interest:

(1) "Conflict of interest" means the interest a Trustee has respecting a transaction effected or proposed to be effected by the Trust, if:

(i) Whether or not the transaction is brought before the Trustees for action, the Trustee knows at the time of commitment that he or she or a related person is a party to the transaction or has a beneficial interest in the transaction the financial significance of which to the Trustee or related person would reasonably be expected to exert an influence on the Trustee's judgment if the Trustee were called upon to vote on the transaction; or

(ii) Whether or not the transaction is brought before the Trustees for action, the Trustee knows at the time of commitment that any of the following persons is either a party to the transaction or has a beneficial interest in the transaction the financial significance of which to the Trustee or related person would reasonably be expected to exert an influence on the judgment of the Trustee if the Trustee were called upon to vote on the transaction: (i) an entity, other than the Trust, of which the Trustee is a trustee, general partner, agent, or employee; (ii) a person that controls one or more of the entities specified in (i) above or an entity that is controlled by, or is under common control with, one or more of the entities specified in (i) above; or (iii) an individual who is a general partner, principal, or employer of the Trustee.

(2) "Related person" of a Trustee means (i) his or her spouse, parent, or sibling; (ii) a child, grandchild, sibling, parent or spouse of the Trustee or any of the persons in (i); (iii) an individual having the same home address as the Trustee; (iv) a trust or estate of which the Trustee or any person in (i) through (iii) is a substantial beneficiary; or (v) a trust, estate, incompetent, conservatee, or minor of which the Trustee is a fiduciary.

(3) "Required disclosure" means disclosure by the Trustee who has a conflict of interest of (i) the existence and nature of his or her conflict of interest; and (ii) all facts known to him or her respecting the subject matter of the transaction that an ordinarily prudent person would reasonably believe to be material to a judgment about whether or not to proceed with the transaction.

(4) "Time of commitment" respecting a transaction means the time when the transaction is consummated or, if made pursuant to contract, the time when the Trust becomes contractually obligated so that its unilateral withdrawal from the transaction would entail significant loss, liability, or other damage.

3. Financial Matters.

(a) Integral Part of Conference Financial Records. The Trust shall be fully included in any and all internal or external audits of the Conference. All records (including, but not limited to, notes, minutes, donor lists, privileged communications or memoranda, attorney or accountant work product, third-party agreements, insurance agreements, asset reports or evaluations, appraisals, deeds, records of any restrictions on any gifts, distribution records, and correspondences) of the Trust shall be the property of the Conference and shall be maintained at the Conference offices. To the extent, for any reason, any Trust records are not available at the Conference offices, the Trustees shall promptly provide such records to the Conference, and in all events the Trustees shall make all Trust records fully available to the Conference promptly upon request.

(b) Annual Reports and Certifications. The Trustees shall include in its regular reporting to the Conference, but in no event less frequently than once per year, a report disclosing the investment performance of the Trust, all distributions from and contributions to the Trust, and the historical record of performance of the Trust, including income, gain, loss, distributions, contributions, and fair market value and any other reasonable information, including performance relative to comparable benchmarks. The Conference may request that the Trustees all certify annually in writing to the Conference and the Conference's CPA that they have no knowledge of any Trust assets or transactions other than those that are shown on the ledgers, journals, statements and other work papers provided by the Trust to the Conference and the Conference's CPA.

4. Certification of Trust. Any person may rely on a certification of this Trust regarding its existence and validity, signed by the Chair of the Board of Pensions (provided that such Chair is a Trustee), the Treasurer of the Conference, or a licensed attorney on behalf of the Conference. Alternatively, any person may rely on a copy, certified by a notary public, of the executed original of this Agreement, and of any of the notations on it and writings attached to it, as fully as one might rely on the original documents themselves. Any such person may rely fully on any statements of fact certified by anyone who appears from such original documents or from such certified copy to be a Trustee under this Agreement.

6. Voting. Except as specifically provided elsewhere in this Agreement, the Trustees, shall act upon the consent of a majority of the Trustees. No meeting of Trustees may be held without proper notice to all Trustees.

7. Delegation. To the extent permitted by the Discipline, the each Trustee is authorized to delegate at any time or from time to time, any or all of the rights, powers, duties and authority granted to a Trustee herein, whether discretionary or ministerial, to any Trustee or Trustees then serving by an instrument in writing signed by all the Trustees; provided, however, that any such delegating instrument shall be revocable at any time.

8. Bylaws. The Board of Pensions shall have the power to adopt, revoke, or amend bylaws from time to time which may set forth policies and guidelines for the operation of the Trust, provided that such bylaws may in no event contradict or supersede the terms of this Agreement, the Discipline, or any applicable law.

ARTICLE V.

TRUSTEE LIABILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION

1. Waiver of Ordinary Liability. No Trustee or his or her heirs, executors, administrators, or legal representatives shall be personally liable for breach of fiduciary duty as a Trustee; provided, however, that such Trustee's action does not constitute a breach of the Trustee's duty of loyalty to the Trust, bad faith, intentional misconduct or knowing violation of the law.

2. Indemnification and Advancement of Legal Expenses.

(a) Trustees. If a current or past Trustee, by reason of his or her position as Trustee, or such Trustee's heirs, executors, administrators or legal representatives, is threatened with or made a party to any action, suit or proceeding, whether threatened, pending or completed, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, or whether formal or informal (a "Proceeding"), then the Trust shall indemnify and advance legal expenses for the defense of the Proceeding; provided, however, that the Trustee acted in good faith and in the belief the action taken was in the best interest of the Trust and not unlawful. Legal expenses shall include counsel fees, fines, judgments, penalties and settlements and the payment thereof shall not be conditioned on the outcome of the Proceeding. These rights are nonexclusive.

(b) Officers, Employees and Agents. If a current or past officer under the bylaws, or employee or agent of the Trust, by reason of his or her position as officer, employee or agent, or such person's heirs, executors, administrators or legal representatives, is threatened with or made a party to any Proceeding, then the Trustees, in their discretion, may cause the Trust to indemnify and advance legal expenses for the defense of the Proceeding; provided, however, that the officer, employee or agent acted in good faith and in the belief the action taken was in the best interest of the Trust and not unlawful. Legal expenses shall include counsel fees, fines, judgments, penalties and settlements and the payment thereof shall not be conditioned on the outcome of the Proceeding. These rights are nonexclusive.

(c) No Indemnification Permitted. The Trust shall not indemnify and advance legal expenses to any Trustee, officer, employee or agent (or a representative thereof) for acts that are determined in the Proceeding to be a breach of duty of loyalty to the Trust, bad faith, intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law; nor if such person shall be adjudged liable, whether or not in an official capacity, based upon receiving an improper personal benefit.

3. Repeal Not Retroactive. Any repeal or modification of this 0 shall not be retroactive.

ARTICLE VI. DISSOLUTION

The Trust shall continue in perpetuity unless (a) revoked and terminated upon completion of the following: (i) two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Trustees; and (ii) two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Conference at the Conference annual meeting, or (b) the Trust ceases to qualify as an organization which is exempt from federal income taxation under Section 501(a) of the Code and as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code. On such termination, after paying or making provision for the payment of all liabilities of this Trust then outstanding and unpaid, the Trustees shall distribute the assets to the Conference exclusively in furtherance of the Mission and Charitable Purpose of this Trust within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) and Section 170(c)(2) of the Code, or any corresponding provision of any future federal tax laws. If the Conference is not in existence or is not an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) and Section 170(c)(2) of the Code, then the Trustees, shall distribute the assets to the Southeastern Jurisdiction, United Methodist Church, Inc. Any assets not so disposed of by the Trustees shall be disposed of by a court having equity jurisdiction in the county in which the principal office of this Trust is then located, with the distribution of assets to be made for the Mission and Charitable Purpose as such court shall determine.

ARTICLE VII. AMENDMENTS

This Trust may be amended at any time or times only upon the affirmative vote of the following: (i) two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Trustees; and (ii) two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Conference at the Conference annual meeting. In no event may an amendment alter the Mission and Charitable Purpose of the Trust or alter or contradict, or purport to alter or contradict, any or all of the Discipline, or authorize the Trustees to conduct the affairs of this Trust in any manner or for any purpose contrary to the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. All instruments amending this Agreement shall be noted upon or kept attached to the executed original of this Agreement held by the Trustees.

ARTICLE VIII. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

1. Situs. The original situs of the Trust shall be the State of Tennessee and the State of Tennessee shall continue as the situs of the Trust at all times.

2. Governing Law. The construction of this Agreement and the validity of the interests created hereby shall be governed by the laws of the State of Tennessee. The Trustees shall have the power to take action to apply the law of a jurisdiction other than the State of Tennessee but shall have no affirmative duty to do so and the Trustees shall be discharged from any and all liability for continuing to administer the Trust under the law of the State of Tennessee or for applying the law of any other jurisdiction. If any portion of this Agreement is held to be void or unenforceable, the remainder shall nevertheless be carried into effect.

3. Code. Unless specifically provided to the contrary, the term “Code” shall mean the federal Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as from time to time amended, or any successor federal laws thereto, and shall also include the Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder.

4. Construction. Throughout this Agreement, the singular number shall be deemed to include the plural, the plural the singular, and the use of any gender shall be applicable to all genders, as the context may require. Paragraph headings are used for convenience only, and shall not be resorted to for interpretation of this Agreement.

5. Trustees. Whenever in this Agreement reference is made to a “Trustee,” such reference shall be deemed to include not only the Trustees expressly named herein, but also any and all successors at any time qualified and acting hereunder.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Settlor and the Trustees have executed this instrument as of the date and year first written above. [Signatures and Exhibits here]

2017 Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan (for 2018)

Summary: Sufficient funds have been apportioned, restricted, or designated to fully fund all of our current obligations and accrued benefit liabilities at or above the 100 percent level.

General Conference 2012 agreed with a recommendation by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits (GBOPHB), now known as Wespath Benefits and Investments, that every annual conference should have a formal written and approved plan for funding its benefit-related liabilities. The Discipline, ¶1506.6 (2016). This expanded requirement grew out of the financial meltdown of 2008, that left many annual conferences unable to meet their current liabilities, and with no plan for covering their long-term liabilities. We of the Tennessee Conference continue to benefit from the foresight that led us and our predecessors to raise the funds necessary to fund our pension plans fully and to limit our health plan benefits for retirees to an amount that we could reasonably afford.

A detailed 2018 Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan was approved by Wespath Benefits and Investments (Wespath) and the Conference Board of Pensions, and is recommended to the Annual Conference for its approval. A recap follows here; the full plan summary can be found on the conference website under Finance and Resources, Administrative Services tab, Conference Financials tab.

Defined Benefit Corridor Funding (comprised of Clergy Retirement Security Plan Defined Benefit and MPP Annuities): The Funded Ratio for Contributions for 2018 has been calculated by Wespath to be 105.9 percent. Since this exceeds 100 percent, the Tennessee Conference has no current unfunded liability.

Pre-82 Plan (Supplement One to CRSP): The PSR is set each year at an amount expected to exceed 1 percent of the Conference Average Compensation (CAC). Based on a PSR for 2018 of $703 (1.04% of CAC), the Pre-82 Plan will have a funded ratio of approximately 101 percent. Because of changes in plan design and funding, it is likely that the Tennessee Conference will be required to contribute new money to the Pre-82 Plan for the first time in years. The projected contributions will be $160,698 (12/31/2017) and $98,008 (12/31/2018).

Post-Retirement Medical Benefits are provided only to persons who are eligible and take full retirement at age 62, and continues only until those persons reach age 65. Assets set aside for this benefit exceed the liability by 17.3 percent (117.3 percent funded ratio).

Conference Health Plan (Active) is a self-funded plan. It was projected to receive 70 percent of its funding through apportionments in 2016, and as a result the plan had net loss of $424,553, which was funded from reserves. Because of the depletion of reserves built up in good years, the conference is being asked to increase its apportionment funding for the health plan. In addition to paying current expenses each year, the health plan seeks to have reserves on hand equal to at least 25 percent of annual expenses. Projected reserves for 2018 are 23 percent.

Other benefits: The Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) (for full-time clergy) and the UMPIP 403(b) retirement plan (for less-than-full-time clergy, and conference lay staff) are fully funded each year from a combination of pensions apportionments and from reserves.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

James R. “Hap” Hewgley, President

It has been a very busy year for the board during the last conference year.

The previous year, the board reviewed bids from four insurance companies concerning the conference’s property and casualty insurance. We agreed to renew our coverage with Church Mutual Insurance Company for another three-year term and continue our participation with over 100 of our churches in the Church Mutual Safety Dividend Group. This group meets along with Church Mutual’s representative to analyze our safety records and look for ways to continue improving through risk management and trainings. The wisdom in the safety program became evident this year. Church Mutual offers an annual safety dividend, which our board and the 100+ churches in the Tennessee Conference earn if total claims for the group are below a certain level. Our conference’s share is $6,131. The total premium for our conference’s coverage in 2016 was $58,212.73, so this represents a 10.5 percent rebate. The year 2012 was a very bad year for the group’s claims but that year will roll off, so next year’s check should be even more.

In addition, each individual church insured with Church Mutual will also get a check, the size of which is dependent upon the size of their policy premium. For example, Savannah UMC received a dividend check for $ 1,685 this year. It came at a good time as they were trying to raise enough money to pay off the church van.

This year the board has been involved with handling the sale and/or disposal of properties related to church closings. While this is not a pleasant task, the board is charged with protecting the assets held in trust for the conference. Three churches requested to disaffiliate with The United Methodist Church: Oak Hill, Paran, and Salem, all congregations in the Cookeville District. The trustees approved a fair market value sale of these properties. The Neely’s Bend United Methodist Church was closed by action of the 2016 Annual Conference, and that property was sold. In addition, Bethel UMC in Hickman County voted to close, and that property was also sold by the trustees.

We appreciate the help of Lisa Carson, the conference chancellor, and her assistants for all their help in resolving these matters successfully. The board is submitting a proposal to the Standing Rules at this year’s annual conference for consideration that will clarify the board’s duties in matters such as these.

Last fall, I attended a conference in Jacksonville, Florida, that held seminars for the chairs of the conference trustees. It was an excellent experience, and we received expert advice on many aspects of the duties of the Board of Trustees for an annual conference, which also included sessions on handling church closings.

I would like to thank Administrative Services (Jim Allen, Melinda Parker, and Susan Lindeman) as well as Chancellor Lisa Carson for their support of the work of the Board of Trustees, and all members of the Board of Trustees for their continued presence, prayers, and service to the Tennessee Conference. To God be the glory!

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

George L. Jensen, Chair

The Commission on Equitable Compensation has worked to establish a minimum standard of compensation for appointed clergy. We strive to ensure that each pastor of the annual conference will receive a fair and just compensation for his/her full-time professional services in devotion to the Lord. We are guided in these efforts by The Book of Discipline (2016) and the policies established by the conference.

We recommend the following to the conference for action:

I. MINIMUM COMPENSATION LEVELS:

The commission recommends the following minimum compensation levels for 2018, which are 3.5% higher than 2017. “Compensation” includes salary, utilities, and any other benefit paid by the local church. It does not include housing, which is the obligation of the charge, ¶252.4e. Also note that this does not include the local church’s fund for reimbursement to pastors for expenses incurred in the fulfillment of their professional responsibilities (“accountable reimbursement”). That reimbursement is in addition to the pastor’s salary ¶627.

	2017	2018
Full Conference, Provisional and Commissioned Members:	$40,180	$41,586
Associate Members:	$36,470	$37,746
Full Time Local Pastors:	$35,060	$36,287

II. QUALIFICATION PROCESS FOR EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

To qualify for an Equitable Compensation Grant, a charge must submit an application to the Commission on Equitable Compensation through their district superintendent. The application will explain in detail why conference funds should be used for this charge, and what efforts have been made to raise the funds needed to pay the pastor’s salary. Additionally the application must explain the goals for the charge and pastor, and how it is engaging in its mission field. The following information must be included with the application (an expedited format is available for very small requests):

Proposed compensation for the pastor, including Equitable Compensation Grant and housing
Printout of most recent full year Table 2
Charge or church budgets for the most recent year, with most recent audit if any Balance of all funds on hand, including operating, reserve, and endowment funds
Schedule to move off of equitable compensation within four years, or progress if this is not first year

The application must be signed by the SPRC or council chair, and district superintendent, and recommended by the cabinet to the Equitable Compensation Commission. If a grant application is approved by the commission, administrative services will be instructed to forward the funds monthly to the church’s bank using ACH (direct deposit)

III. 2017 APPORTIONMENT REQUEST: $180,000

At the date of this submission the appointments for 2017-18 have not been finalized. Therefore, the Commission on Equitable Compensation will meet with the bishop and cabinet during the spring to determine the amount that will be awarded to various charges from this budgeted amount based on justified need and availability of funds.

IV. Arrearage Policy

According to The Book of Discipline (2016), ¶¶624.1 and 625.2d, the Commission on Equitable Compensation is to submit “an arrearage policy to be adopted by the annual conference.” This policy is to address the situation where a church is slow or unable to pay the agreed upon compensation of its pastor. Following this report is the arrearage policy that was approved by the annual conference in June 2014 and revised to have references to The Book of Discipline (2016) rather than references to The Book of Discipline (2012).

Tennessee Conference Arrearage Policy

1. In the event the local church treasurer becomes aware that the church will be unable to provide to the pastor full payment of a regularly scheduled payroll or housing allowance installment, the church treasurer shall immediately notify both verbally (within 24 hours) and in writing (within three days) the pastor, the lay leader, and the chairs of S/PPRC, finance, trustees, and the administrative/church council of the impending arrearage. Upon receipt of such notice, the chair of S/PPRC and/or the pastor shall immediately (within three days) notify the district superintendent of the impending arrearage.

If the pastor does not receive an agreed upon payment and does not receive written notice from the local church treasurer required above, the pastor may initiate this process by notifying the district superintendent within 30 days of the missed payment.

It is the pastor's responsibility to keep copies of all such written notifications, and to provide additional written confirmation (see #8 below) to the district superintendent when an arrearage has taken place. Failure to document salary or benefit arrearages may result in a loss of compensation and/or forfeiture of benefits.

2. Upon receipt of notice of a pending arrearage, the chair of S/PPRC shall immediately (within three days) call a meeting of the pastor, lay leader, and chairs of finance, trustees, the administrative/church council, and the district superintendent to discuss the financial situation and seek remedies to prevent an arrearage from occurring.

Such remedies might include:

Drawing from invested funds, including short-term borrowing from designated funds

An emergency appeal for special giving from the congregation

Emergency grants or loans from the district or conference

According to The Book of Discipline ¶624.1, such remedies cannot include a reduction in the pastor's compensation until the beginning of the next conference year.

3. If, after consultation among the lay leader and chairs of S/PPRC, finance, trustees, the administrative/church council, and district superintendent, it becomes apparent that the church may be facing a long term financial crisis, the chair of S/PPRC shall notify in writing the pastor and district superintendent that:

An Equitable Compensation Subsidy Grant may be necessary to maintain compensation for the remainder of the conference year, or

A change in pastoral compensation or appointment may be necessary at the beginning of the following conference year

4. If the local church becomes delinquent in the pastor's compensation (i.e. more than 30 days delinquent), then the district superintendent shall notify the Commission on Equitable Compensation, which on its own initiative may do any or all of the following, but not limited to:

Sending a representative from CEC to meet with the local church and pastor to seek resolution of the issue

Developing with the local church a payment plan so that the pastor receives full payment of compensation by the end of the conference year

The district superintendent shall be invited to participate in this process.

5. If the local church is already receiving a subsidy grant from the Commission on Equitable Compensation, the commission may also:

Examine the original subsidy grant application to determine if the amount requested to meet minimum compensation was reduced

Require an outside audit of all church funds in compliance with GCFA Guidelines (www.gcfa.org)
Notify the district superintendent of its findings and recommendations in writing

6. ¶ 2543.1 of The Book of Discipline (2016) makes clear that no real property on which a church building or parsonage is located shall be mortgaged to pay for the current or budgeted expenses of a local church (including arrearages), nor shall the principal proceeds of a sale of any such property be so used. This provision shall apply alike to unincorporated and incorporated local churches.

7. In extreme and unresolved circumstances, the local church and/or pastor may petition a session of the annual conference, following proper procedures, for assistance in payment of the arrearage not to exceed the minimum conference compensation standards. However, it is the responsibility of the local church to provide a minimum compensation for its appointed clergy (¶624).

8. It is the responsibility of the pastor to provide evidence of an arrearage by providing documentation such as: treasurer's reports, charge conference reports of adopted salary and compensation, check stubs, W-2 forms, and a Certification of Payment form signed by the pastor, S/PPRC chair, trustee chair, treasurer and administrative/church council chair. If such persons are not making themselves available to sign, the information will be provided with the signature of the pastor and the district superintendent.

9. The statute of limitations for filing a claim for funds from the annual conference (i.e. notification to the district superintendent of the arrearage) for any salary arrearage is one year from the date of the initial arrearage. Once an appointment ends the pastor no longer has claim on the local church for compensation funds (¶342.4).

(Originally approved annual conference 2014; revised 2017)

COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS

Rev. Nick Baird-Chrisohon, Co-Chair
Clarksville District Representative

The Conference Committee on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns has begun the work of establishing a coordinated effort committed to dialogue and increased cooperation between United Methodists in Middle Tennessee and other churches and denominations within our episcopal area.

In May 2017, co-chairs Nick and Emily Baird-Chrisohon attended the National Workshop on Christian Unity in Minneapolis, Minnesota, which is co-sponsored by the Council of Bishops Office of Christian Unity and Interreligious Relationships. They made connections with United Methodists across the connection, as well as persons in the Catholic Church, ELCA, and other denominations, and made plans to meet with the ecumenical representative for the Episcopal Diocese of Tennessee in hopes to foster relationships between our local churches.

The committee will begin the work of introducing the guidebook of ecumenical dialogue soon to be released by OCUIR and assisting in its continued development. Also, the committee will begin to discuss the process in motion of full communion between The United Methodist Church and the Episcopal Church in the United States and educate its meaning to Tennessee United Methodists in the coming year.

COMMITTEE ON EPISCOPACY

Kent McNish

On July 14, 2016, we were delighted to receive word that the Southeastern Jurisdiction Committee on Episcopacy announced Bishop Bill and Lynn McAlilly would be returned to the Nashville Episcopal Area to continue leading the Memphis and Tennessee conferences for the next quadrennium which runs through 2020. We certainly agreed with the committee's decision and are delighted to have them continue their service in ministry in our area.

Over the last year, we have seen continued strong efforts by Bishop McAlilly to help us become laser focused on the mission of the conference. Both redistricting and restructuring of the conference staff have been high priorities to assist with moving resources closer to the local church. While aligning our efforts to increase the capacity of the local churches to make disciples, McAlilly also helped us remember our steady focus on mission—both globally and locally.

The construction of the Mama Lynn Women's Center shows the fruit of our partnership with the East Congo Conference. Our missional efforts locally continue to grow. We have seen this area expand with the support of McAlilly. Examples include expanded prison ministry in Grace Place, FRESH Start, and in many local churches.

We now have two new Celebrate Recovery ministries and a local church entering a partnership to provide transitional housing to people experiencing homelessness. We are also reimagining uses for church buildings as evidenced by the neighborhood/community ministry born out of Trinity UMC.

In addition to leading two conferences, McAlilly also has had additional responsibilities for serving as the president of the Southeastern Jurisdiction College of Bishops (May 2016-May 2017), president of the Board of Directors of the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry (2016-2020), and as a member of the Connectional Table.

Each bishop has a slate of responsibilities and with these leadership positions come additional meetings and travel. McAlilly also serves on the Board of Trustees for Martin Methodist College and Emory University, as well as the Board of Directors for Methodist Le Bonheur Healthcare.

COMMITTEE ON HEALTH PLAN

Rev. Ann L. Cover, Chair

Goals for the Quadrennium (2017-2020)

1. To provide the most comprehensive and cost-effective health plan possible for our full-time and 3/4-time appointed clergy, their dependents, and for conference staff.
2. The committee continues to evaluate our self-funded plan as being the most cost-effective plan for our conference now. That being said, the 2018 budget request for clergy health benefits constitutes an increase of $800,000 (over the 2017 figure) for the following reasons:
  - In our self-funded plan, one observes stability of costs over time, with the potential for greater variation in any single year
  - In the last quadrennium, the conference health plan accumulated some monetary reserves due a combination of
    1. A few years of lower-than-expected claims
    2. Efficiency in maintaining the plan
  - These monetary reserves allowed the health plan budget requests for 2016 and 2017 to be lower than the real costs of care (especially noting the recent nationwide increase in pharmaceutical costs)
  - These reserves have now been used, and the 2018 budget (estimate of costs) reflects the need for the increase

Some staff, as well as participants with spouses or children, pay for coverage using the premium rates that follow this report. These rates were last adjusted 2008 because of a very low growth rate in our costs. But as noted above, that will also need to change. When the Health Plan Committee sets the premium rates for 2018, there will be an increase in premiums.

Our health plan has remained in full compliance with the Affordable Care Act of 2010. Our claim administrator remains UMR, a subsidiary of United Health Care.

We will continue to monitor the future changes in health care legislation and insurance markets and assess the implications for our health plan.

3. To promote an increasing commitment to healthy living on the part of our clergy, clergy families and the people of our congregations – for the sake of ministry and mission in the name of Jesus Christ.

- What is beneficial for the vitality of our clergy members is also beneficial for the people of our congregations!

COMMITTEE ON HISPANIC/LATINO MINISTRIES
Rev. Eliud Martinez and Rev. Janet Martinez, Coordinators

The Hispanic/Latino Ministries Committee continues to work on the mission of the Tennessee Conference: “To discover, equip, connect, and send lay and clergy leaders who shape congregations that offer Jesus Christ to a hurting world one neighborhood at a time,” through the present Hispanic ministries and new faith communities during this quadrennial 2016-2020. Our current work plan is organized into work teams, which involves pastors and lay leaders. We have also identified priorities and turned them into work strategies:

Methodist identity: The Wesleyan tradition is not a common faith denomination within Latin America. Training the Hispanic/Latino communities in United Methodist doctrine, politics, and theology is necessary for building the unique DNA of United Methodist Hispanic/Latino ministries. Along with equipping leaders with knowledge and understanding, it is important to develop a Wesleyan spirit among the leadership. Social holiness and social justice are the heartbeat of our faith and are vital to the growth of the leaders and faith communities.

Pastoral care: Self-care is often an issue among clergy. Pastoral care is vital to not only the lives of clergy individuals and their families but also to the congregations and ministries in which they serve. As a committee, we will care for the Hispanic/Latino clergy by providing annual family retreats, covenant groups, and opportunities to learn and grow more in their spiritual lifestyle and formation.

Leadership development: We have seen a decline in the number of Hispanic/Latino ministries recently from 13 to 11. The committee will support the development of new ministries. New ministries would be in partnership with a local United Methodist Church. Together with pastors, we will work in identified leaders who have a commitment with the church to participate in Orientation to Ministry as these individuals discern their call to ministry or lay missionary. We will also equip the leadership of the current ministries as well as the new ministries into serving and loving their neighbors.

Education program for pastor and leaders:

- Advanced Course of Study: Rev. Eliud and Rev. Janet Martinez continue to study at Garrett Evangelical Theological Seminary in Chicago

- Orientation to Ministry: Two young adults from the Hispanic Ministries completed OTM on August 2016: Claudet Hernández and Alexi Resendiz. Hernández is currently serving part time as a local pastor at Shipley UMC, Cookeville

Other areas at work during this past year:

- Hispanic Women's Retreat: 27 women and 17 children participated in the "Wise Women in Difficult Times" retreat at Cedar Crest Camp
- La Conexión (The Connection) at Martin Methodist College: An interfaith multicultural young adult program that meets once a week on their campus. The young adult group has grown from seven to 15 individuals from around the world.
- Martin Methodist College: Mario Martinez and Cecilia Maciel graduated from Martin Methodist College in May 2017. We continue to prepare new generations of leaders.
- Lay Servant Ministries: 16 people participated in the advanced course Devotional Life in the Wesleyan Tradition in Spanish with the Nashville District
- Youth: We continue to include our youth in the activities of the Tennessee Conference
- Methodist workshops: 22 clergy and leaders received, in Spanish, the basic history, theology, and organization of The United Methodist Church
- Inclusiveness training: four pastors and leaders participated
- Healthy Boundaries in Spanish: 16 pastors and leaders participated
- Pastoral Care in Spanish: 17 pastors and leaders participated
- Chaplaincy in Spanish: 14 pastors and leaders participated
- Immigration: TIRRC provided information about "Know your Rights" to seven pastors for them to share with their congregations
- Compassion and Hope Ministry: This ministry not only focuses on teaching a health and well-being program for leaders who serve in the church and the community but also in the education and prevention area with health clinics workshops. Rev. Martinez has worked with volunteers and a health support committee since 2013 in the Cookeville District. The ministry will expand to the Cumberland District Cooperative Parish (located in the Gallatin area).

COMMITTEE ON NATIVE AMERICAN MINISTRIES (CONAM)

Mary T. Newman

The Committee on Native American Ministries is known as CONAM and will be the reference in this report. CONAM is co-chaired by Pat Bryan and Debbie Fitzhugh. The coordinator of Native American Ministries (per CONAM) is Mary T Newman. The committee is inclusive and its membership is approximately one half Native American heritage. This past year was considered a blessing and a success.

Our newest addition to our ministry is a 6' x 12' enclosed trailer with logos. We are visible on the roads and at events. With the logos so visible, we have opportunity for conversation and are able to pull up to an event and have everything at hand for our booths.

Our annual Native American Resource Day was held the first Sunday of March at Blackman UMC in the Murfreesboro District. It was our 14th year. During this time, we have a traditional Native American meal, present audio/video resources and speakers to engage the participants. We have large displays and book resources. Every church receives a binder full of reprintable materials.

Although approximately 40 churches gave a monetary offering to the Native American Ministry Sunday, one of our six “Special Sunday Offerings”, we count that as fruitful for God’s Kingdom. The total was over $6,000. One half of money received stays in the annual conference and one half is used for seminary scholarships and other educational endeavors. Recognition and celebration of Native American Ministry Sunday is a challenge. On the church calendar year to follow Easter, it also is in the time frame of Golden Cross and Mother’s Day. You will see our statements that it can be celebrated any time of the year.

We acknowledge that there are individual churches with their own personal ministries with Native Americans. We gladly offer the resources, displays, and scheduling of speakers to all churches. CONAM has developed or gathered resources that are available to the local church. They can be used for services, study groups, youth and children groups, or as part of an ongoing opportunity for understanding through education. Native Moccasins Rock is our annual weekend of learning. Gratefully, we received support from the Native American and Indigenous area of Global Ministries. 2016 was our 15th year. Our leadership is internationally and nationally known. Held every August, we have an age span of babies to grannies. This is a very intergenerational event. There is a focus in our activities for children, youth, and adults. There is a break-out of sessions per age group. Everyone comes together for speakers and evenings of music and dance. We end with a powerful prayer circle. There are tears of joy, sadness, and lifting up of the ones who have crossed over. Native Moccasins Rock is based on fellowship and friendship. The members of CONAM share who we are in Christ, our connectional system of the UMC, and celebrate opportunities to form relationships. Understanding through education remains one of our primary goals.

A relationship with the Tennessee Health Department Faith Based Initiative Program was developed in the past. This program reaches out through the local church and organizations to the community. They have realized that their work with ethnic groups is not up to standards and we were able to bring them into relationship with CONAM as we partnered with N.A.I.A., Native American Indian Association. N.A.I.A. has the longest running charter with the state. We formed a relationship to sponsor a health fair at their powwow. This is the largest powwow in the state. If understood correctly, we are the first denomination to have this relationship. Their words are “someone always wants something for themselves”. Our reassurance was “we just want to share”. We were blessed with materials from the health department and materials from Indian Health. In 2016, we continued our relationship with Meharry Medical College and enlarged our health fair by including the dental tent—17 students and presiding instructors.

We have dedicated committee members who have been committed to the work of CONAM. Individuals on the committee have personal ministries. Wes and Pat Bryan have contacts across the U.S. and during their travels, they plan stops at reservations and churches. They drop off school supplies and new coats, etc. We continue to send crocheted or knitted stocking hats made by an ecumenical group from Hohenwald.

TN CONAM stood with Water Protectors as Standing Rock took a stand to protect the water. Thirty waterways branch off the Missouri River. Although the land seemed in dispute, Federal Tribal Law states that unless a treaty is nullified, the land remains Indian land even though the size of a reservation changes. Hygiene supplies were shipped to South Dakota.

The TN CONAM is known as one of the top five strongest CONAMS in the U.S. Members of CONAM continue to participate nationally in leadership training opportunities. We are also blessed to be part of the leadership teaching teams for Native American Comprehensive Plan (NACP) and the Southeastern Jurisdictional Association for Native American Ministries (SEJANAM). We continue to walk the red road of ministry. We have relationships within the Native American community and the secular community. Claiming Acts 17:26, we know that God as we know Him understood the concepts of tribes. If Jesus was, is, and always will be a tribal man, how better to say, “we know a tribal man who would love to know you”.

COMMITTEE ON SAFE SPACES

Rev. Cynthia Talley, Chair
Brad Fiscus, Connectional Ministries Staff

The Safe Spaces Ministry consists of the Boundaries and Sexual Ethics team, the Safe Sanctuary team, and the Conference Response team.

In September, the Conference Response team participated in a training opportunity with Becky Posey Williams from the General Commission on the Status and Role of Women.

In November, Williams led a retreat for conference leaders called When Paul met Lydia which focused on understanding personal and professional emotional and social boundaries. This retreat provided those in attendance an opportunity to understand how they are responsible for creating clear boundaries for themselves and those with whom they encounter in life and ministry.

Throughout the year, Brad Fiscus, CCOCM staff for Safe Spaces, and a team of trained facilitators provide training for local churches on safe sanctuaries.

At the 2016 Tennessee Annual Conference a revised Sexual Misconduct Policy was approved which applies to all church professionals. The label, church professional, applies to both those who have been appointed to serve in the church as well as those who serve voluntarily and are in positions of authority or leadership in the church and/or in the Tennessee Conference. All church professionals have positions of great trust, power, and responsibility. This provides the opportunity for unique relationships of grace and caring. While church professionals can sometimes violate the trust given them within these relationships, sexual misconduct is one of the gravest violations of this trust. This policy seeks to address the abuse of power by church professionals who engage in sexual misconduct. While this policy is binding for appointed church professionals, it is our hope that it may serve as a guide for other church professionals such as local church laity staff and volunteers.

Safe Spaces Ministry with the assistance of Jullie Meyer, ministry assistant for Next Gen Discipleship, has contracted with Trak-1 to provide a centralized option for background checks, training, and security screening. All ministries related to the Tennessee Conference have the opportunity to use this system. Additionally, through budget funding, Safe Spaces Ministry provides access to Smart-Trak through Trak-1. Smart-Trak gives the local ministry a dedicated database of those persons that have had a background check initiated by the local ministry. Information to access Trak-1 can be found at <https://www.tnumc.org/safe-spaces-ministry/>.

In February 2017, Fiscus provided the first quadrennial refresher training titled It's More than Safe Sanctuaries for clergy and lay leaders. Partnering with the TNUMC Communications office, this training was videotaped and will be made available for facilitators to use with lay and clergy leaders to satisfy the newly required quadrennial refresher training.

Safe Spaces Ministry is committed to helping create safe spaces that become sacred spaces.

Copies of the Sexual Misconduct Policy, the Media Crisis Response Plan, and the revised Safe Sanctuary Policy will be found in the 2017 Annual Conference Journal.

COMMITTEE ON STANDING RULES

Rev. Jay Voorhees, chair

The Committee on Standing Rules is charged with reviewing and proposing additions and changes to the rules of the Tennessee Annual Conference which govern our lives together. Our Standing Rules represent the means by which we organize and oversee our work of making disciples for the transformation of the world. Paragraph 604 of the 2016 United Methodist Book of Discipline states that “The annual conference, for its own government, may adopt rules and regulations not in conflict with the Discipline of The United Methodist Church, provided that in exercise of its powers, each annual conference shall act in all respects in harmony with the policy of The United Methodist Church with respect to the elimination of discrimination.” These rules and policies represent our current statement of how we agree to live together and “maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.”

It has been several years since we have done a major revision of our Standing Rules; this year we have undertaken a major review of those rules. Beyond the normal editorial changes that come with reorganization, we have identified that our current rules had a minimal coherent structure, making them difficult to recognize and understand. While attempts had been made at grouping like rules and policies together, there continued to be random rules scattered throughout the document, leading to confusion. We also believed that the distinction between rules and policies was not clear, and thus have undertaken a major reorganization of our rules in the hope to make them more accessible and understandable.

The proposed new structure of our Standing Rules makes minimal changes in the language of our existing rules focusing on inaccurate references to The Book of Discipline and removing entities that no longer have a connection to the annual conference. What it attempts to do is to group our rules and policies by topic, which we believe makes them easier to read and understand. Moving to a sectional format also makes our work easier in the future in providing a logical and more easily maintained numbering system which does not require renumbering of following rules when additions are proposed.

In addition to the structural changes, the conference Board of Trustees and Council on Finance and Administration is proposing two additional rules focused on procedures for dealing with church property and authorization for payment of non-budgeted expenses. These can be found in Section 11, the financial procedures section as rules number 11.15 and 11.16. Additionally, the Committee on Archives and History is suggesting the addition of a rule related to including memorial rolls and the listing of annual conference sessions in the journal. This new rule can be found in Section 6 as rule number 6.4.

The Committee on Standing Rules is also charged with (in conjunction with the cabinet) reviewing the parsonage standards on a quadrennial basis. We have included those standards as a part of the Standing Rules as a means of being consistent in our plan of organization. After consulting with the cabinet, we are proposing no changes to those standards at this time.

We believe that this newly proposed structure to our rules will enhance our life and work together in providing clarity and structure to the rules which govern our annual conference. These changes are made in the recognition that no system is ever perfect, and that we will continue the work of revision and renewal of these rules as our ministry grows and changes. Our hope is that this restructuring proposal will make that work of revision and renewal easier in the future.

STANDING RULES

The Standing Rules of the Tennessee Annual Conference represent the means by which we organize and oversee our work of making disciples for the transformation of the world. It is the organizational plan of the Tennessee Annual Conference, setting forth the rules by which we govern ourselves, in compliance with ¶604 of the 2016 Book of Discipline. As our Book of Discipline says about itself, our Standing Rules reflect the "...most current statement of how United Methodists [in the Tennessee Annual Conference] agree to live together and 'maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.'"

The Committee on Standing Rules presents these rules for renewal and adoption by each session of the Tennessee Annual Conference.

In order for any item or report to be eligible for placement on the consent agenda, it must have been distributed in the pre-conference materials, or included in the conference packet distributed to the members (both clergy and lay) of the annual conference session. Any item may be removed from the consent agenda if 10 members of the conference petition for removal.

2.12 Equalization and Youth Participation: Whenever it shall occur that the person serving as the director of Administrative Services, director of Connectional Ministries, or director of Ministerial Concerns is a lay person, then each person so serving shall be an at-large lay member of the annual conference. The conference secretary shall determine annually the number of laypersons needed to equalize lay and clergy members of the annual conference. The at-large members are to be allocated as nearly as possible on an equal basis to the districts. When the number of members to equalize cannot be distributed evenly between the districts, the members shall be allocated to the districts in alphabetical order of districts. The at-large members are to be elected by each district conference.

Each district conference shall elect two youth (ages 12-17) and two young adults (ages 18-30) as at-large members of the annual conference.

Section 3 – Election of Delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conference

3. Any other information felt pertinent to introducing himself/herself to those members of the annual conference who may not be familiar with his/her views on issues confronting the Church.

b) To nominate a person for candidacy to be elected to serve as a General or jurisdictional conference delegate and have the nomination printed in the pre-conference materials, the nominator(s) must:

1. Determine the eligibility of the person to be nominated.
2. Secure from the person to be nominated and submit to the Office of Connectional Ministries the proposed nominee's written consent to accept the nomination.
3. Submit to the Office of Connectional Ministries, no later than 10 weeks prior to the opening day of annual conference, for inclusion in the pre-conference materials, a statement concerning:
  - The activities of the nominee at the local church, district, and annual, jurisdictional, and General conference levels,

- An assessment of the opinions of the nominee regarding the principal needs of the church and how those needs should be met, and

3.4 Reserve delegates: After the jurisdictional conference delegates are elected, on the next ballot reserve delegates shall be elected (the number of General Conference delegates) in order of the highest number of votes received without regard to majority. The delegation's budget will include funding for one lay and one clergy reserve delegate to attend General and jurisdictional conferences.

Section 4 -- Suspension and Amendment of Standing Rules

CONFERENCE PERSONNEL COMMITTEE

In September 2016, the Conference Personnel Committee (CPC) employed LBMC Employment Partners, LLC to conduct an audit of the Conference Personnel Policy and Procedures. The audit resulted in a few changes to our policies. Further, several policy additions were suggested and these are scheduled to be completed by EOY 2017. To enhance the conference personnel function, a part-time HR Generalist position was requested and approved by the Conference Council on Finance and Administration (CCFA) in March 2017. The new position will focus on employee relations, employment, performance appraisal and training. This position will be directed by the Conference Personnel Committee and will be part of the Office of Administrative Services. We also have approved and anticipate the launch of a new online expert system to determine exemptions from the Fair Labor Standards Act and an online time keeping system for conference employees in 2017.

Filling Positions in Other Offices of TAC

Program Staff

Employment of directors, associate directors, and coordinators shall be the responsibility of the executive staff member and/or the related executive committee in the following manner: advertise the position, interview prospective (qualified) persons, check references, including legal background checks. (If the recommended person is clergy, the executive staff member or the executive committee will request appointment by the bishop.)

Support/Administrative Staff

Filling of vacancies or new positions shall be carried out by the executive staff member and/or the related executive committee as follows: advertise, interview prospective (qualified) persons, and check references, including legal background checks. The selected person shall be employed on recommendation of the related executive committee or executive staff person.

STANDARDS AND EVALUATION

Orientation

A new employee shall receive an orientation during the introductory period of employment which shall include (but is not limited to): explanation of the vision, mission, and expectations of the organization; introductions to people within and outside the organization with whom she or he may routinely work; review of the office facility and equipment; and, the relationship of the organization with respect to the TAC, the districts, and the local churches.

The director shall be responsible for coordinating the orientation and monitoring the employee's progress during the introductory period of employment. Monthly progress reports will be given to the chairperson of the appropriate executive committee.

Introductory Period of Employment

There shall be an introductory period of employment of three months. Approximately two weeks before the end of this period, the designated supervisor shall conduct a performance appraisal covering the staff person's performance during the period. The completed form will be placed in the staff person's file.

Staff Reviews

A progress review is intended to provide an annual means of appraising a staff person's performance on the job.

Employee Performance

The appropriate director/supervisor shall evaluate annually the job performance of each person under his/her supervision. Such evaluation shall be reviewed with the chairperson of the respective agency's executive committee and, if deemed appropriate, with their entire executive committee. This evaluation shall be based upon the employee's work as related to his/her job description and performance goals.

In the event that there are deficiencies in an employee's performance, the director shall schedule interim reviews with the employee to assess the needed improvement. The director will keep the chairperson of the executive committee apprised of such reviews.

An evaluation is a confidential matter that shall remain with those who have a need to know: the employee, the supervisor(s), and appropriate entity. A copy of the evaluation shall be placed in the employee's personnel file and the employee shall be given a copy. Both copies shall be marked "Confidential".

FINANCIAL REMUNERATION

The appropriate entity, in consultation with the director, shall be responsible for setting the salary for newly hired persons and reviewing salaries of each employee annually.

Pay Period

Pay checks (or direct deposit) shall be issued on the 15th and 30th of each month (except when those dates fall on a Saturday or Sunday; then, the issuance will be made on the last work day immediately preceding the 15th or 30th). All staff are encouraged to sign up for direct deposit.

Overtime for Non-exempt Employees

Actual time worked is the basis for computing overtime. For purposes of computing overtime, the work week begins on Monday and ends on Sunday.

1. All requests for overtime must be approved in advance by a director or equivalent.
2. All time worked up to and including 40 hours is computed at straight pay; all overtime worked in excess of 40 hours is computed at time-and-one-half pay. In general, compensatory time is discouraged but may be approved in special circumstances. Compensatory time must be agreed upon by the supervisor and employee in advance; it must be approved within the same pay period and equivalent to time-and-one-half compensation.
3. All overtime is to be clearly reported on the attendance record (i.e. time card).

Travel Expense

All employees will receive reimbursement for conference-related travel in accordance with TAC rules, subject to IRS rules defining business expense and appropriate contemporaneous documentation. Travel between the place of employment and the place of residence shall not be reimbursed.

Work Schedule

Office hours for support staff persons normally are from 8:30 A.M. to 4:30 P.M., Monday through Friday. Lunch period is one hour in length. The directors may allow a deviation from these hours or days when the director deems it appropriate.

Offices of the TAC will remain open Monday through Friday with the exception of the holiday schedule listed under Holidays. Exceptions may be made by the director(s) at each location.

Directors, associate directors, and coordinators are often expected to work days and hours that do not fit the normal schedule of office hours. These persons are responsible for their areas of ministry and will demonstrate by their results that they are faithful to their ministries.

Adjustments to Compensation

A wage assignment or a garnishment is a legal order requiring an individual's employer to withhold part of the employee's wages in order to pay a debt or obligation. Wage assignments which meet legal requirements will be honored when issued and withheld from employee's compensation.

All lay employees are covered by the Federal Old Age and Survivors Benefits Act to provide the protection offered by Social Security. Social Security tax is paid half by the lay employee and half by the employer. Clergy pay the total cost for Social Security coverage as self-employed persons for Social Security purposes. Clergy may also have part of their compensation designated as a housing allowance.

All conference employees who participate in the conference's health plan are eligible to participate in the conference's medical Flexible Spending Account (FSA, or cafeteria) program. Employees designate the amount to be withheld from their compensation, from which they can be reimbursed for covered medical-related spending.

Assisting Employees with Disabling Illnesses

Staff may be covered by the conference's disability coverage but should consider purchasing their own policies to provide additional short-term and long-term disability benefits.

Military

The TAC supports and complies with the Veteran's Reemployment Rights Act and applicable state laws.

Relocation Moving Expense

A newly employed/appointed director or associate director needing to locate housing within a reasonable commuting distance will receive a one-time reimbursement for cost of transportation, meals, and lodging for the purpose of locating housing. The trip will be for no more than five days.

Moving expenses incurred with hiring of new staff who move more than 50 miles may be paid at the discretion of the executive director. The appropriate entity will pay the costs of moving. Moving expenses will be reported as income unless they qualify for tax-exempt treatment, and appropriate forms and documentation are provided to Administrative Services.

PERSONNEL FILES

The TAC maintains a personnel file for each staff person. The conference attempts to maintain those documents which are, have been, or are intended to be used in determining a staff person's qualifications for employment, promotion, transfer, additional compensation, discharge, or other disciplinary action.

A staff person has the right to inspect certain portions of his/her personnel file. Personal information is not to be released to a third party without authorization by the appropriate director.

BENEFIT POLICIES

Vacation

A vacation is a time for rest and renewal and is granted with pay to all full-time and part-time employees (except supplemental/temporary/seasonal employees) of the TAC after six months of satisfactory employment. The time granted is based upon the calendar year using the following schedules:

Exempt employees will receive 4 weeks of vacation

Non-exempt employees receive the following:

6 months – 1 year employment	1 week
1-5 years employment	2 weeks
5-10 years employment	3 weeks
10 years or more employment	4 weeks

The directors shall establish vacation schedules. A week of vacation is five working days. Vacation time is not cumulative from one year to the next. However, directors may permit, under extenuating circumstances (such as illness at year end), a person to carry over vacation time, provided the vacation is taken at the earliest opportunity after the beginning of the vacation year. An employee shall not be granted pay in lieu of vacation, except in case of employee's termination.

Holidays

The TAC staff shall observe the following holidays and employees shall be paid for these authorized holidays:

- New Year's Day
- Martin Luther King's birthday
- Good Friday
- Memorial Day
- Independence Day (July 4)
- Labor Day
- Two days at Thanksgiving
- Two days at Christmas

These are paid holidays with the following provisions:

- A. Supplemental/temporary/seasonal employees are not eligible for holiday pay.
- B. Persons on leave of absence are not eligible for holiday pay.

Health Plan Benefits

All full time employees (except supplemental/temporary/seasonal employees) are eligible to participate in the Tennessee Conference Health Plan. Contact Administrative Services for more information about this program.

The TAC will pay the premium of the employee. Dependents and children may be covered under the plan at the employee's expense.

All employees are covered under the Worker's Compensation law of the State of Tennessee for job-related injuries or illnesses and such accidents must be reported immediately by the employee to the appropriate director.

Unemployment insurance is not provided for employees under the provisions of Tennessee state law.

PENSION

Clergy appointed to serve as employees of the TAC are participants in the TAC's Clergy Retirement Security Plan (CRSP). For lay employees, the TAC will contribute 12% of the employee's compensation to the UMPIP account if (1) the employee is scheduled to work at least 20 hours per week, and (2) the employee contributes at least 3% of his/her compensation to the UMPIP account.

All pension participants may make additional contributions to their UMPIP account up to the amount allowed by IRS regulations and the plans. Contact Administrative Services or GBOPHB for more information about these programs.

CONTINUING EDUCATION

Directors, associate directors, and other staff may be given time with pay for participation in job-related continuing education to the extent authorized by their director, council, board, or committee.

ABSENCE

Employees are expected to be at work every day or as agreed between supervisor and employee. However, if illness or an unexpected emergency requires the employee to be absent, it is the employee's responsibility to talk with the supervisor/director within an hour of the employee's expected arrival time. A voice mail message is not considered to be a personal notification of the supervisor. Therefore, the employee is expected to continue trying to reach a supervisor or another staff member.

If an extended absence is anticipated, the employee is to notify his/her supervisor of the expected date he/she is able to return to work

If an employee is unable to complete the workday due to injury on the job, he/she will receive compensation for the remainder of the workday.

Regular attendance and punctuality are essential to an employee's effective performance on the job. Every employee is expected to maintain a good attendance record and act responsibly in the use of sick leave.

Leave for Illness

An employee shall be permitted absence for illness with pay according to the categories listed below:

Annual sick leave - up to 12 days per calendar year and non-accumulative. Use of annual sick leave includes:

1. Employee's own illness
2. Serious illness of a member of the employee's immediate family
3. Medical and dentist appointments

Extended sick leave - Accrues at the rate of one (1) day each month of active employment up to a maximum of 60 working days and applies only to employee's own illness and recuperative time with written physician's orders. Use of extended sick leave may include:

1. Hospitalization and post hospitalization recuperative time
2. Medical testing and out-patient surgery
3. Disability due to injury
4. Complications due to pregnancy

A statement may be required from the attending physician in the event of extended or repeated illness. At retirement or termination of employment by either party, the employee shall not be compensated for unused sick leave.

Maternity/Adoption/Paternity Leave

Maternity leave may be granted and counted as sick leave and charged to time accrued in extended sick leave. Maternity leave may be granted as leave without compensation if accrued extended sick leave time is not available. The employee is responsible for notifying the appropriate supervisor as soon as she knows she will require maternity leave.

Paternity and adoption leave will follow the same pattern as for maternity leave and be charged from time accrued in extended sick leave. Paternity leave may be granted as leave without compensation if accrued extended sick leave is not available.

Granted leave must be taken within 90 days of the child's birth or the child's entering the home for the purpose of adoption.

Bereavement Leave

An employee will be allowed up to three days with pay to attend the funeral of an employee's father, mother, sister, brother, spouse, daughter, son, daughter-in-law, son-in-law, or grandchild; or two days to attend the funeral of an employee's mother-in-law, father-in-law, as well as grandparents, aunts, and uncles.

Religious Participation

Each employee is encouraged to participate in a local congregation of a Christian church.

Civic Duty

Employees are encouraged to accept their responsibilities by voting in elections. Employees are supported in serving as a juror or appearing in court as a witness. Employees are expected to return to work when the service is completed for the day if there is reasonable time to do so. Likewise, if for example, the jury is excused from reporting for a day or more, the employee is expected to report to work.

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

Employees are expected to make every effort to resolve differences by talking and communicating with those with whom they have a difference. If the difference cannot be worked out, the supervisor must be notified and with the supervisor's help, resolution will be attempted. If the dispute involves the supervisor, the grievance may be taken to any director who will work toward achieving a fair resolution of the problem.

Policy on Sexual Misconduct

Any form of sexual misconduct is incompatible with biblical teachings and ethical standards and all steps will be taken to protect the vulnerable and to discipline those guilty of such behaviors. Any reasonable suspicion of sexual abuse will be reported to appropriate authorities in addition to the district superintendent or bishop. Please see the TNUMC website for our comprehensive sexual misconduct policy.

Firearms or Concealed Weapons

Possession or use of firearms or concealed weapons on TAC premises is strictly prohibited.

Background Checks

The TAC will periodically perform background checks on all staff. Consent to a background check is a condition of continued employment.

Resignation

Should a staff person decide to leave the employment of the TAC, it is expected that at least two weeks written notice will be given.

Probation

Any employee being considered for involuntary termination—except in the case of reorganization, substantial misconduct, or other reasons set forth herein—ordinarily will be placed on probation and given an opportunity to correct the problem(s). However, the TAC reserves the right to discharge a staff person at any time without a probationary period if the offense merits such action. The TAC retains the right to terminate the individual's employment at any time during the probation period. Termination shall be based on appropriate documentation and under ordinary circumstances will take place only after discussion with the employee involved.

Severance

If a termination or discharge is made because of reorganization, shortage of work or lack of funds, the staff member will be given at least one (1) month's notice in advance of termination date and the following severance pay will apply:

WORK ENVIRONMENT*Dress Standards

Employees of the TAC are expected to be dressed in comfortable business attire, which is appropriate for job function, and expresses individuality and professionalism in equal proportion. Employees of The TAC represent The United Methodist Church.

Courtesies

The immediate supervisor is to be notified when serious illness, birth, or death occurs within the immediate family of any employee of the conference staff. The supervisor is responsible for notifying the executive director's office who will respond with the appropriate courtesy as outlined below:

COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

PART I – Action Items

The Council on Finance and Administration reports and recommends to the Conference:

1. A total apportioned budget for 2018 of $14,457,550, as provided in the Table attached to this report, be adopted and apportioned to the churches, using the method printed in the 2013 Conference Journal on pp. 109-110.
2. That the approved travel expense for staff and members of committees, boards, councils, agencies and other entities of the Conference be reimbursed at a rate set by the entity not to exceed the maximum amount allowed by the Internal Revenue Service for business travel.
3. That the expenses for at-large members of the 2017 Annual Conference be reimbursed at a rate not to exceed $150 per day ($300 maximum) plus mileage not to exceed the IRS rate for the owner of a vehicle used for transit to and from the conference.
4. That the base compensation of the District Superintendents for 2018 be set at $105,060.
5. That the housing allowance designation for 2017-2018 for clergy conference staff pursuant to Internal Revenue Code § 107 as listed in the Table attached to this Report be approved.
6. Allow the Board of Camp and Retreat Ministries to withdraw up to $100,000 from the designated Camp fund in 2017 and again in 2018 to fund capital expenses including deferred maintenance.
7. A study committee shall be appointed (§615) by the CFA Executive Committee to consider the current apportionment formula, and report back to CFA and the 2018 Annual Conference with any changes it recommends. This study may include the basis for apportionment, as well as a system for billing churches for their pastor's benefits rather than including that cost in the health plan and pension apportionment lines.

PART II – Discussion

The Council on Finance and Administration was pleased that the Tennessee Conference was able to pay 100% of its general and jurisdictional church apportionments for 2016. This is our fifth year of achieving this goal, and we intend to work with the churches and the cabinet to meet that goal in future years.

After carefully considering all requests for funds, line by line, the Council on Finance and Administration recommends to the Conference a total budget for 2018 of $14,457,550. Although the Budget includes increases on some lines, CFA proposes to balance the budget by withdrawing up to $2,475,693 from Pension reserves and $196,550 from Health Plan reserves, for a total reserve drawdown of $2,672,243.

The breakdown of the budget by fund is at the end of this report, and a detailed breakdown of each fund budget is posted on the conference website.

All requests made to the Council were considered consistent with our ministry, and are now forwarded to you for approval. At the same time, the Council has requested greater oversight by some boards of the use of your apportionment dollars, and instructed our Treasurer not to disburse funds to organizations unless an audit has been received, as required by the Discipline ¶617.2.

The Council also addressed the 2015 audit of the Conference. For the fifth straight year, that report was fully GAAP-compliant, and included no significant matters, internal control deficiencies, or audit exceptions. At the time this CFA report to Annual Conference was prepared, the 2016 audit by Blankenship CPA Group, PLLC had not been completed, but it will be printed in the Journal.

CFA anticipates the proposed redistricting from seven districts to five will be approved at the 2017 Annual Conference. For this reason, CFA approved a request from the Cabinet to apportion District Administration expenses to the entire conference, rather than by individual district. This will have the effect of equalizing the cost of district operations for all churches, regardless of location. For comparison purposes, the prior years' budgets in the Table that follows were restated to include the total of all District Administration apportionments.

The Council considered many requests for special funding this year, and approved a contribution of $100,000 to the Martin Methodist College's "2020 Capital Campaign." To help us when dealing with special requests in the future, CFA has proposed a new Standing Rule called Delegation of Authority which, if approved, will give us guidance on dealing with special requests, and what requests should be referred back to the Annual Conference for action.

Finally, the Council has worked on a comprehensive reserves policy which will guide our budget and apportionment recommendations in future years. We understand that having too much tied up in reserves can be as destructive to ministry as inadequate reserves to support cash flow during financial droughts. It is our goal to describe an adequate, but not excessive, range for our reserves which will guide our work in the future.

PART III – Administrative Services

The Office of Administrative Services offered retirement, financial planning, and personal tax workshops for pastors; rolled out a new remittance program that allows districts to have immediate access to remittances; and responded daily to requests for church treasurers and pastors for information and assistance. Jim Allen provides staff support to CFA, Pensions, Health Plan, Equitable Compensation, and Trustees boards. Melinda Parker has primary responsibility for all matters related to health and retirement benefits. Shelly Curtis came on board this year after the retirement of Susan Lindeman. Shelly is primarily responsible for accurate and timely reporting and handling of receipts and disbursements.

The Council continues to affirm the service of Jim Allen, Shelly Curtis, and Melinda Parker, and the support of the Office of Administrative Services to the ministry and mission of Christ's church and the Tennessee Conference.

TENNESSEE CONFERENCE TREASURER'S REPORT

Notes

Note 1. This report has been prepared by the Conference Treasurer of the Tennessee Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church. The report is unaudited and unadjusted, and as such may be subject to change after final audit adjustments are made. It is not intended to reflect full accrual accounting procedures, or FASB No. 117 recommendations concerning temporary and permanent restrictions on assets. The conference is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3), and partially exempt from payment of local and Tennessee state sales, use, and property taxes.

Note 2. The conference's primary sources of revenue are receipts from the churches in the Tennessee Conference that have been paid through the denomination's system of apportioning connectional, missional, and administrative expenses to the churches. "Other receipts" are primarily receipts by apportioned programs that have external sources of revenue, such as registration fees or reimbursements, but also include temporarily restricted donations for designated purposes. Programs that are not included in apportionments are not included.

Note 3. Funds held in reserve to pay for pensions are considered restricted.

Note 4. Accounts receivable are primarily apportionment remittances received from churches in the first weeks of the following year. Accounts payable are payments made in January for the prior year's obligations, primarily the final payment on the conference's general, jurisdictional, district and special apportionments.

Note 5. The conference has no debt other than routine short term obligations.

Note 6. The seven districts and six Wesley Foundations of the Tennessee Conference are related entities, but are not included in these financials other than collecting and remitting apportionment receipts. District and Wesley Foundation intangible and tangible assets, including offices, parsonages, and contents, are carried on the books of the respective entities. As a result of redistricting in 2017, there will be five districts in 2018.

Note 7. The conference provides health care benefits to eligible clergy who retire between ages 62 and 65. ASC715-60 (formerly FAS 106) requires the conference to calculate its estimated obligation to provide those benefits in the future. This was first calculated and disclosed in the 2010 report.

FAITH THAT HEALS MINISTRY
Rev. Merrilee Wineinger and Rev. Matt Kelly

"Every local church should have a justice ministry" - Bishop McAlilly
In the 2016-2017 annual conference year, Faith That Heals (FTH), a ministry of the Tennessee Conference United Methodist Church, advocated and supported programs, policies, and laws that remove barriers to abundant living.

FTH included the following committees and commissions:

- Comprehensive African American Strategic Team (CAAST)
- Christian Unity and Interreligious Relations
- Committee on Church and Society
- Council on the Status and Role of Women (COSROW)
- Creation Cares
- Disability Concerns
- Health and Welfare
- Religion and Race—Vital Conversations

In light of the conference's adopted mission statement, the conference committees listed above equip local churches for fruitful ministry.

These ministry areas have grown by building relationships with local churches, small groups, and individuals. Incarnational relationships are built through educational opportunities- trainings, webinars, print articles, etc., and by bringing Christ into the world through advocacy actions—interreligious, immigration, healthcare, hunger, homelessness, and more.

Additionally, these ministries increased the capacity of the local church through education and training. Capacity grew when individuals returned to their congregations not only by sharing educational knowledge and tools, but also by sharing their stories of God's justice that inspires others to reach outside the church walls. In this way, leaders were strengthened and born. Ministry cannot always be measured in numbers. When 850 people came together at Tennessee's Capitol Hill to advocate for healthcare, we were witnesses to the transformation that took place. God's love that moves through us, however, can be measured in a statement we hear often: "You Methodists are always here!"

Below is a sample of local churches that have come together through groups and individuals as God's hands and feet in 2016-2017.

LAY SERVANT MINISTRIES

Jackie Elliott

Tennessee Conference Director of Lay Servant Ministries

We are all called to serve God. If you are being called to serve in and beyond your local church, Lay Servant Ministries offers a foundation of equipping you to step out in service to your church and community.

A basic class is the starting place and offers to help you discern your calling. Beyond basic class, there are advanced classes offered in evangelism, prayer, spiritual gifts, United Methodist heritage and polity, preaching, worship, caring, leading, stewardship, discipleship, and many others. Schools are conducted in each of the districts in the Tennessee Conference throughout the year. Anyone can participate in any of the classes just for learning.

After the basic class, advanced classes are offered. At this time, one can choose a study path to become a Certified Lay Servant, Certified Lay Speaker, or a Certified Lay Minister where specific advanced classes are taken.

Lay Servant Ministries was previously called Lay Speaking Ministries. Many times, people would say, “I don’t want to speak or preach.” Lay Servant Ministries goes beyond speaking and preaching. This ministry is about serving, caring, loving, communicating, teaching, participating, leading, and training. Although, through Lay Servant Ministries, many have been called to become pastors, elders or deacons, it is your decision as to how you choose to serve in the manner God is calling.

Schools not only consist of class time, but time to fellowship and worship.

Anyone is welcome to participate in a class to learn, discern, and be equipped where God is leading you.

MARTIN METHODIST COLLEGE

Robby Shelton, Interim President

Martin Methodist College’s president, Dr. Ted Brown, retired in January and I was named interim president. I have been working diligently to keep the college moving forward during this transitional period.

With Brown’s retirement, MMC trustees began a national search for a new president that culminated in Dr. Mark La Branche being named the 31st president of Martin Methodist College. While he will not officially take the presidential position until July, he has been working with the senior staff at MMC and will be at annual conference.

La Branche has served as the president of Louisburg College in North Carolina since 2009. During his eight-year tenure at Louisburg College, La Branche oversaw the United Methodist-affiliated school’s 22 percent increase in enrollment, 58 percent increase in graduates, and a five-year, $18 million fundraising campaign that exceeded its goals by 20 percent. He also helped steer the college through the end of a turbulent probation period to full, 10-year reaffirmation of accreditation in June 2016.

MMC has several challenges to face, including the extension of the Tennessee Promise, but remains excited about the possibilities and potential of a faith-based, liberal arts college located in south central Tennessee.

Martin had an entering class of 275 freshman, 80 transfer students and anticipates a graduating class of 218 (December, May, and summer graduates) including the first five MBA graduates.

The academic program at MMC continues to grow under the leadership of Provost Dr. Judy Blankenship Cheatham. MMC saw one new faculty member join the faculty in August—Patricia Catlin with the nursing program. Additionally, a new registrar, Dr. Mary Jane Pinson, joined the MMC academic affairs office in January. The STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics) programs have also been expanded because of several funded grants from foundations.

Several students took advantage of our international studies abroad program going to Ireland, South Korea, Mexico, and England, among others.

Religious Life remains robust with weekly chapel, a weekly prayer service, and seven ongoing small religious life groups. Students had the opportunity to engage in missions both nationally and internationally through the Martin Serves! Program.

The Center for Church Leadership continues to offer training for laity and clergy in a variety of ways and has taken on the role of registrar for the certified lay ministers in the Tennessee Conference.

As always, we greatly appreciate the support of the Tennessee Conference, especially in apportionment giving.

MCKENDREE VILLAGE FOUNDATION
McKendree Village Foundation, Inc. Board of Directors

The Tennessee Annual Conference has an affiliation with the McKendree Village Foundation. The McKendree Village Foundation has kept the promise of benevolent care to eligible McKendree residents through the extravagant generosity of its donors including the Tennessee Annual Conference.

The McKendree Village Foundation is self-sustaining receiving no funds from the Tennessee Annual Conference or from the Golden Cross Sunday offering. Funding for its mission comes from the income of the donor designated endowment for this purpose.

The current donor designated endowment for benevolent care is now approximately $5.1 million. Endowment is kept with the United Methodist Foundation for the Memphis and Tennessee Conferences.

The McKendree Village Foundation affirms our past shared heritage with McKendree Village and the Tennessee Annual Conference and continues the benevolent commitment that the Tennessee Conference made over 50 years ago to eligible residents of McKendree Village.

Additionally, the McKendree Village Foundation has distributed $1.35 million dollars to the Golden Cross Foundation, an extension ministry of the Tennessee Annual Conference for the purpose of funding expansion of older ministries and services through Tennessee Conference congregations and agencies.

MIRIAM'S PROMISE REPORT
Deborah H. Robinson, M.A., Executive Director

For Miriam's Promise, each day is spent in service to those who are vulnerable: expectant parents who are in crisis, adoptive parents who have been wounded in their journey to be parents, and children who come from hard places. Our mission is to ensure the well-being of the child by nurturing individuals and families. Our core values are: permanency for children, family nurturing, respect for individuals and choices, outreach, and faith in God. We accomplish our mission through pregnancy counseling for those facing unplanned pregnancies, through adoption services (international and domestic) and through Expecting the Best, a program for incarcerated pregnant women and moms.

When Miriam stepped from the reeds to intercede on behalf of the baby Moses, her action led to the transformation of God's people. Just like Miriam, we are asked by The United Methodist Church to be an advocate for the child.

Whenever someone walks in the door of Miriam's Promise, they have significant need. Every day at Miriam's Promise, we are sent to be the hands and feet of God by serving those who need us.

In 2016, 33 women were pregnant and needed help dealing with the realities of that situation. Six birthfathers sought help in facing an unexpected birth. In 2016, we helped 35 children come home to forever families, offering support to parents preparing for the long-awaited child. Post-placement support and supervision was provided to 54 families during their adoption journey. Expecting the Best brought parenting education and support to 36 women in jail. These ladies in jail need a new dream leading them out of the existing chaos. We seek to emulate Christ and meet each and every client with respect, understanding, and compassion.

In 2016, Miriam's Promise was faced with several challenges. We began and completed a difficult process for Hague re-accreditation through the Council on Accreditation. This intensive body of preparation and work involved all staff and the board. This accreditation process ensures that Miriam's Promise meets and maintains best practices in the area of international adoption. It also requires that the agency maintain a level of financial reserves that ensure the financial stability and health of the agency.

About eight years ago, Miriam's Promise renovated space at Tulip Street UMC. Our office at Tulip Street has been a cozy and inviting space for our clients who were often facing crisis. In November 2015, Tulip Street UMC closed its doors and the building is under contract to be sold. Miriam's Promise continues to search for the best place to re-locate and make a new home. Our hope is that this next home will be a permanent place that can provide a warm and inviting atmosphere and hopefully house our agency along with others. Our hope is that out of this ending emerges a new ministry center for United Methodist agencies and programs.

Miriam's Promise is also faced with a changing culture in adoptions and in the expectant parents we seek to serve. International adoption has changed drastically with the shift in cultural and political climates in China and Russia. Domestic adoptions decrease each year and those expectant parents seeking help have layers of need. These ladies come to us more often now as second and third time parents, some having faced homelessness or abuse. Drug use is more and more prevalent in our pregnancy clients and significantly impacts the lives of their children. The staff is challenged to meet greater needs, both emotionally and financially. This increase in needs requires additional training for staff and a broader budget for family aid. Churches in the conference have responded through donations of gift cards that can be used to meet these physical needs for food, gas, and other needs.

We are thankful for our board, our volunteers and our Middle Tennessee congregations for helping us fulfill our mission and allowing us to continue to serve God and neighbor. Without the help of the Tennessee Conference, we would not be able to meet the needs of our clients. Thank you for your prayers and support.

NEXT GEN DISCIPLESHIP

Brad Fiscus, Director of Next Gen Discipleship

Next Gen Discipleship is committed to helping the local church increase its capacity to build disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world through ministry with children, youth, young adults, college students, and family systems throughout the Tennessee Conference of The United Methodist Church.

This ministry area was formed in 2016 by combining two ministry areas—Children and Family Ministry and Young People's Ministry. This formation will enhance the development of a holistic discipleship plan that equips church leaders—both lay and clergy—in best practices for engaging all ages in the life-changing gospel of Jesus Christ.

Children's and Family Ministry

During 2016, the Children's Ministry Discipleship Team met for a visioning retreat. The following values and goals for the next three years were articulated:

Values

Intentional: We are focused, purposeful, engaged, meaningful, mindful, and committed in our actions.

Relational: We create space for respectful collaboration, where we empathize and engage, while holding each other accountable.

Spiritual Depth: We commit to being rooted and grounded in our own faith so we can carry out our ministry and assist others to do the same.

Encouraging: We support and affirm each other by validating the thoughts and actions of the others on our team.

Diverse: We are intentional in including a variety of voices in our conversations and planning.

Connectional: We commit to reaching across the conference to cooperate and collaborate in shared ministry.

Goals

1. We will implement a full menu of children's ministry training opportunities across the conference. This includes training for new children's ministry leaders, practical and program-related content, as well as deeper leadership and spiritual development.
2017 Benchmark: We developed a network of leaders who train and coach, and a training calendar for those who train trainers. We explored conference-wide training opportunities for ongoing training needs.
2. We created a Children's Ministry Faith Formation Strategy that churches can contextualize and personalize. This strategy includes both church-based and family-engaged components.
2017 Benchmark: We have formed a team to review best practices and faith formation. We have developed a template for churches to form their specific contextual strategies.
3. The Children's Ministry Discipleship Team sponsored six annual children's ministry events throughout the conference, which include confirmation retreats, family events, pre-teen events, children's spiritual life, Created by God events and retreats, and worship arts events.
2017 Benchmark: The Children's Ministry Discipleship Team has formed design teams for each retreat. The dates, sites, and opportunities have been scheduled on the calendar and a plan for publicizing has been developed.
4. A conference-wide worship arts program has been developed. The program started with a children's choir and has expanded as interests and passions are nurtured.
2017 Benchmark: We have identified ages, sites, and the initial focus for the first event.
5. A central communication plan for all children's ministry-related news has been implemented. This plan will provide a space where all information is funneled so anyone can find information they desire about ministry with children in the Tennessee Conference at all times.
2017 Benchmark: We identified a point person to contact that will help coordinate information received. A monthly newsletter has been developed that includes curriculum links, best practices, welcoming of new children's ministry leaders, a link to the conference children's ministry calendar, and other locally sponsored children and family focused opportunities.

Youth Ministry

The Conference Council on Youth Ministry continues to provide opportunities for youth and youth ministry leaders to engage in fellowship and worship together. After seven Warmth in Winters at the Embassy Suites Convention Center in Murfreesboro, 2017 marked a new era at Opryland Hotel and Convention Center. Due to impressive growth, the Murfreesboro site was no longer large enough to hold the worship weekend. This event has seen consistent growth since 2009 when attendance was just over 1,800 youth and adults to 2017's record attendance of 2,620. That is an increase of 31 percent over that time. The largest jump in attendance came between 2015 and 2017. 2015's attendance saw 2,150 youth and adults. That is an increase of 470 persons in two years! Warmth in Winter is more than just a fun weekend filled with fellowship and worship experiences. By design, it is a leadership development pipeline for the Tennessee Conference. More than 100 youth and adults partner each year to design, create, and implement the vision for this ministry retreat. The young people who have served on design teams for this event serve in their church youth groups and participate in campus ministries after high school. Many return to serve on the design teams as college students. Still others hear the call to professional ministry because of the experience and leadership opportunities received through the Warmth in Winter design process.

The CCYM designed and led a retreat for 3rd-6th graders called the BE Retreat in March at Beersheba Springs Assembly with 60 in attendance.

CCYM 2016-2017 (elected at Summer Sizzler 2016—term August 1, 2016, to July 31, 2017)

President – Amelia Clark, St. Mark's

Vice-president – Beth Shirley, St. Mark's

Secretary – Paige Hrobsky, Hartsville First

Conference representatives – Georgia Touchton, St. Mark's and Junior McNane, Bellevue

Communications chair – Jacob Brack, Hilldale
Assistant communications chair – Collins Fiscus, Epworth
BMCR representatives – Alexandria Fields, Gordon Memorial and Trinity Fields, Gordon Memorial
Middle school representatives – Rachael Horne, Coleman Memorial and Spencer Fontenot, Coleman Memorial Journalist – Anna Voorhees, City Road
Warmth in Winter Lead Team – WnW2017: Abigail Overstreet, Franklin First; WnW2018: Matthew Junard, Hillcrest; WnW2019: Madison Beckman, St. Mark's
Youth Service Fund – Emma Counce, Coleman Memorial

The Smaller Church Youth Ministry Initiative continues to have a vital impact through strengthening smaller congregations in the Tennessee Conference. Since it began in 2013, 48 congregations have participated. In 2016, 12 churches engaged in the yearlong training and coaching program. Each church was assigned a local ministry coach to help build sustainable systems and structures for ministry. The coach serves to help the ministry team implement processes to increase their capacity for discipleship formation. These coaches continue to provide insight and support to the churches that participated in the 2016 cohort. These coaches are also working to help support past SCYMI participants as they continue to build ministries that build disciples.

Because of the impact of this ministry, Brad Fiscus and Stephanie Caro were asked to write a book for The United Methodist Publishing House. This book called – Small(er) Church Youth Ministry: No Staff, No Money, No Problem has become one of the leading resources for smaller congregations across all denominations. In 2017, the Small(er) Church Youth Ministry Initiative will transform into the Next Gen Ministry Initiative. This new model will begin in the fall 2017 and continue through spring 2018. It will stay true to its vision of helping churches build sustainable systems and structures to build disciples not only of youth but also of all people.

Young Adult and College Ministry

There is a resurgence occurring in young adult and college ministry in the Tennessee Conference. The impact of partner ministries like Project Transformation Tennessee, Camping and Retreat Ministries, and the growth of the collegiate ministries of the Tennessee Conference attest to this. College students and young adults are engaged in opportunities for spiritual formation through local church ministries, Wesley fellowships and campus ministry groups, and through opportunities to engage in mission through partner organizations like Open Table Nashville and Mountain TOP. Each summer the Young Adult Council offers a Young Adult Retreat at Beersheba Springs Assembly that combines conversation, Bible study, hiking, and fellowship.

PROJECT TRANSFORMATION TENNESSEE

Transforming Lives through Relationships
Courtney Aldrich, Director

The mission of Project Transformation Tennessee is to engage young adults in purposeful leadership and ministry, support underserved children and families, and connect churches to communities in need.

Since our founding in 2011, Project Transformation has partnered with churches in low-income neighborhoods to provide children with holistic programming targeted at engaging the mind, body, and spirit. Our summer and afterschool programs provide literacy and social-emotional interventions that equip children to be healthy, whole, and successful leaders themselves. Our college interns, who serve as mentors and cheerleaders to children, plan and lead these programs. All the while, these interns are developing as principled-Christian leaders, exploring various ministry-related vocations, and serving as the high-energy glue to cement new relationships in changing neighborhoods.

We praise God for Project Transformation's growing impact:

- Since 2012, 160 young people have served through our summer internship program. Today, 84 percent of those who have graduated have stayed active in some form of ministry; 51 percent have served on staff of a local church or denominational agency. Ninety percent of our alumni report that Project Transformation provided them with a more holistic understanding of vocation and calling in life; 73 percent said PT helped them discover or affirm their career path.

- We engaged 46 college-age young adults in ministry and leadership development through our summer internship program at five sites across the Tennessee Conference in 2016: Antioch UMC, East End UMC, Key Memorial UMC, Matthews Memorial UMC, and 61st Avenue UMC. The interns lived in Christian community on campus at Belmont University and Middle Tennessee State University. There, they shared meals, worship experiences, and fellowship. Each Friday, interns participated in ministry exploration in collaboration with other organizations whose leaders described their work and their own call to ministry and service. Nearly 30 options ranged from urban education to the judicial system, with collaborative partners including Open Table Nashville, Soldiers and Families Embraced, Interfaith Dental Clinic, Justice Connie Clark at the Tennessee Supreme Court, Take the Reins, Tennessee Justice for Our Neighbors, and The Upper Room.
- We served 454 children in the Tennessee Conference during the summer of 2016. They read one-on-one with a volunteer for 40 minutes each day to improve comprehension and fluency and develop a love for reading. Pre- and post-summer reading assessments indicated that 99 percent of students improved or maintained their reading level. Children also engaged in physical activities, creative arts, and Bible lessons, and received two healthy meals each day. But even more important were the relationships built with our interns and volunteers.
- After four years of providing free summer enrichment programs, Project Transformation completed our first year of afterschool programming in three low-income communities in Nashville. We served 101 children during the 2015-2016 school year. Programming focused on enriching mind and body with an emphasis on improving literacy skills in collaboration with the children's schools, teachers, and 71 weekly homework volunteers. Afterschool programming was led by three full-time fellows. For one year, these fellows committed to live in a diverse, intentional Christian community on the campus of The Scarritt Bennett Center in Nashville; serve marginalized communities with the support of local churches; receive ongoing training and mentorship from spiritual leaders; participate in weekly leadership courses and reflection; and meet regularly with community and church leaders to examine careers in ministry and service.
- More than 1200 volunteers from the Tennessee Conference invested their time and talents to serve with Project Transformation this year. They read one-on-one with children, provided homework help, donated books and supplies, prepared meals for interns, and hosted Family Fun Nights. Beyond this, volunteers modeled a love of literacy for our children and youth and provided encouragement for interns.

Responding to the ways in which God has moved during our five years of ministry, Project Transformation's board of directors continues to lead through a strategic growth plan. This summer, 63 young adults will grow as Christ-centered leaders as they explore ministry, live in intentional Christian community, and mentor more than 550 children in underserved neighborhoods in the Tennessee Conference, including new sites in Clarksville (New Providence UMC) and Woodbury (Woodbury UMC). We are building on our growing knowledge of social emotional health and implementing evidence-based strategies. We are continuing to strengthen an intentional pipeline for interns to become Middle Tennessee faith leaders. As we continue to lean into God's growing vision for Project Transformation Tennessee, we invite your continued support of this transformative ministry.

UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION FOR THE MEMPHIS AND TENNESSEE CONFERENCES

Dr. Philip D. Jamieson, President

“Some give freely, yet grow all the richer; others withhold what is due, and only suffer want. A generous person will be enriched, and one who gives water will get water.”

Proverbs 11:24-25

To say the least, these are interesting times for The United Methodist Church. There is much speculation about what the future will hold. Nobody can say for sure what will transpire over the next several years. However, we can maintain with certainty this: the God who has saved us will not change. Therefore, how we live our lives may not change either.

Our God is generous! “For God so loved the world that he gave....” God is so generous that ultimately he gives himself away in Christ in order that we may be found. And that takes us to Proverbs 11:24-25 which is a wonderful example of what Notre Dame sociologist, Christian Smith, refers to as the paradox of generosity. In the book by that same name, Smith points out the rather strange truth that human beings thrive by giving and not by taking. We find our lives by losing them and only what we give do we truly keep. Does that sound familiar? It should because it was both the teaching of our Lord (John 12:24) and how he lived his life.

Human beings bear the image of God and it therefore should not surprise us that life works so much better when we act in accordance with that image. Therefore, give, it just feels right. Give and you will gain the ability to perceive blessings that you never could have imagined prior to such giving.

The foundation and development fund is committed to helping the local churches and extension ministries of the Memphis and Tennessee conferences to sustain best practices and find new ways to encourage greater generosity. We do that in a number of ways.

In order to help you give more freely, we serve as a custodian for endowed funds on behalf of local churches and other United Methodist ministries. As of December 31, 2016, our holdings were $59,266,785. Last year, the fund grew by approximately 5 percent. In 2016 alone, approximately $1.9 million was distributed for ministries in the two annual conferences. Endowed fund giving truly allows local churches the ability to give more freely.

We also serve by means of the United Methodist Development Fund of Tennessee/Kentucky. Accepting investments from individuals, churches, and organizations, we are able to loan money at a competitive rate to United Methodist churches and ministries for building projects.

Currently, the development fund is loaning money at 3.99 percent and paying 1 percent to participation account holders. The fund also has $12,545,520 on loan to local churches and ministries in the two annual conferences. By both loaning for new construction or refinancing existing capitol debt, the development fund empowers churches to continue to give freely.

In 2014, we launched a new initiative to help churches and ministries gain greater ability to encourage generosity. More than $55,000 has been given to churches in the Tennessee and Memphis annual conferences through the Stewardship Grant program and by partnering with the Lake Institute’s Creating Congregational Cultures of Generosity program.

In 2017, the foundation board voted to initiate a new grant program. Beginning this summer, the foundation will work with newly commissioned clergy to help them find productive ways to retire educational debt. Each participant will receive $1,000 for doing so. Once again, all of this is done in order to help churches and individuals give freely.

In closing, I am reminded of the words of the old Gospel song: “Many things about tomorrow I don’t seem to understand. But I know who holds tomorrow. And I know who holds my hand.” It is in the light of that knowledge that we can freely give and discover anew the paradox of generosity.

If you have questions regarding the work and ministries of the foundation, the development fund, or grant programs; if you would like to have one of us come to preach and/or speak to a group in your church; or if you would like to learn more about ways to create an endowed fund for your church or ministries, give us a call (615) 259-2008 or visit www.umfmmc.org.

UNITED METHODIST MEN
William C. Bowen Sr., President
Tennessee Conference United Methodist Men

The Tennessee Conference of United Methodist Men in 2016 was actively involved in establishing and reviving men's ministries across the conference. The Tennessee UMM's key goals for this past year were to organize UMM district leadership, local unit development and the chartering and Every Man Shares (EMS) registration increases across our conference. Another benchmark, was to enhance our scouting ministry by identifying leadership for this very strong ministry and continue to lead the way with our Disciple Bible Study of Men (DBOM), Big Brothers Big Sisters, and Society of St. Andrews (SOSA). We established an e-newsletter.

Leadership Development and Growth

The Tennessee Conference of United Methodist Men has had success this year in the continued development and growth of United Methodist Men's local units. Despite the lack of desired interaction and connection of district units with the conference team there is considerable stability and additional growth around our conference through our men's ministries. Our units are leading our Southeast Jurisdiction in the number of active units, continued charters, and newly developed charters as well as men in our conference becoming EMS members. We are thankful God continues to touch the hearts of men in our conference through their extravagant care for others and our mission.

National Association of Conference Presidents (NACP) Meeting

The NACP met in March in Nashville at Discipleship Ministries' Denman Building; conference presidents from all jurisdictions across Methodism met. The Tennessee Conference was represented by Dr. Bill Bowen Sr., Tennessee Conference UMM president. This gathering of national presidents sets the agenda for the General Commission on United Methodist Men and shares connectively ideas and concerns. Bowen was again appointed to the Board of Directors of the UMM Foundation.

Scouting

The Tennessee Conference continues to seek a conference coordinator for our five district coordinators. The ministry is still very active, strong, and among the most effective across the conference and jurisdictions' United Methodist churches.

Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Middle Tennessee (BB/BS) and Amachi Programs

The Tennessee Conference continues to have an active program in these areas that serve several hundred children through the efforts of more than 50 churches of which approximately 20 are United Methodist Churches. Ingram Howard and Cliff Steger serve as mentors and also serve on the Ambassador Board.

United Methodist Men's Life Membership Award

The Tennessee Conference of United Methodist Men presented Dr. William C. Bowen Sr. with the prestigious Life Membership Award during an installation of officers ceremony at his home church of Gordon Memorial UMC.

Charters and EMS (Legacy Builders and Circuit Riders) Enrollments

The Tennessee Conference has approximately 85 local churches chartered with local units and more than 120 EMS members along with 60 Legacy Builders and five Circuit Riders; our total membership still continues to be more than 2,925 men.

Conclusion

The Tennessee Conference of United Methodist Men has plans of an annual meeting for spring 2017. The UMM conference team is developing a program that will involve men across our conference in fellowship, training, and development. Please visit our website <https://sites.google.com/a/tnumc.com/tn-ummen/news> for updates and postings.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

Nita Wright, President
Tennessee Conference United Methodist Women

Our vision is to turn faith, hope, and love into action on behalf of women, children, and youth around the world—and your Tennessee Conference United Methodist Women have been very busy doing just that! Our theme for 2017 is A Call to Community and we have indeed accepted this call.

Our members have donated their time, energy, and funds to a variety of projects including UMCOR, Project Transformation, Thistle Farms, Miriam's Promise, End Slavery Tennessee, Bethlehem Center, Christmas shoeboxes for children in Uganda, and the Mama Lynn Congo Center.

We continue to strive to educate ourselves through programs and classes. We offered a program on human trafficking in April and will have our annual Mission event on July 12-15 at St. Mark's UMC in Murfreesboro. Studies will be offered on climate justice, living in a covenant community and the missionary conferences of The United Methodist Church. We will feed our souls as we Journey to the Mountain at Beersheba Springs September 8-10 for our spiritual retreat as we refresh ourselves for continued mission.

Many members from all over the world will be gathering in Columbus, Ohio, May 18-20, 2018, for our Assembly. Plans are being made now for our 150th anniversary celebration in 2019. Our Assembly theme will be The Power of Bold—we will continue to be bold as we work together for our mission. We ask for your prayers as we take this journey.

INTERNATIONAL, NATIONAL & JURISDICTIONAL REPORTS

AFRICA UNIVERSITY

James H. Salley, Associate Vice Chancellor for Institutional Advancement
Africa University Development Office

Africa University ended 2016 poised to celebrate its silver jubilee and eager to embrace new opportunities for transformative ministry over the next 25 years.

It is a great joy to recognize and thank the Tennessee Conference for a 100 percent investment in the Africa University Fund (AUF) apportionment in 2016. Overall investment in the AUF was very strong in 2016. The commitment of local churches across all five jurisdictions enabled 34 of the 56 United Methodist annual conferences in the United States to invest 100 percent or more of their asking to the AUF.

The university community acknowledges, with heartfelt appreciation, the prayers and gifts of the Tennessee Conference. Thank you, Tennessee United Methodists, for enabling Africa University to thrive and realize its mission!

Through Africa University, the Tennessee Conference helps young people to discover and sharpen their gifts for leadership. Students are equipped and they answer the call to serve. Every day, the university's 7,000+ graduates are helping to shape the global mission of The United Methodist Church with their work and witness. More than 90 percent of these graduates are still in Africa, serving communities in 32 countries. Currently, more than two dozen Africa University graduates are missionaries in Africa, Latin America, Asia, and Europe, under the auspices of the General Board of Global Ministries (GBGM). Young people who would otherwise be on the margins of society are actively helping others to experience God's grace, peace, and abundance.

Without Africa University, "I am sure that I would not have the mental maturity and spiritual growth that I have now," said Albert Wakili, an AU graduate who is a Global Mission Fellow. Wakili is currently serving as a youth and children's worker at Blanchardstown Methodist Church in Dublin, Ireland, one of the newest and most ethnically diverse congregations in Irish Methodism. He plans to return to Nigeria later this year, when his two-year term with the GBGM ends.

Great things are on the horizon for Africa University in the next quarter century. Your Africa University is continuing to evolve and serve by:

- Restructuring its academic units to remain relevant and provide a broader-based education to meet new demands in the African workforce
- Providing leadership formation experiences and learning for more than 1,400 students from 26 African countries
- Generating new knowledge and capacity to support peacebuilding and to improve food security, human rights, and leadership for the African continent

Africa University draws its mandate, energy and capacity to transform lives from The United Methodist Church. Therefore, as part of the observance of the 25th anniversary, we invite each of you, as members of the Tennessee Conference, to set aside time in 2017 to celebrate your journey with Africa University. Engage in a season of daily prayer for Africa University. Join Africa University's honorary alumni association. Consider hosting a special AU@25 event or Africa University Sunday in your local church or area. Use your event to increase awareness of Africa University's ministry and invite attendees to each give at least $25 each in honor of the 25th anniversary.

Celebrate your role in making Africa University all that it is today and all that it will be in the future. Remember that regardless of the challenges that arise, United Methodists sustain this ministry together — praying, loving, and sharing our blessings — and there is no other way that we could do it!

Thank you for your unwavering response to the call to active faith, hope, and renewal in the world. We pray that blessings continue to abound for all who serve in ministry in the Tennessee Conference.

James H. Salley
Associate Vice Chancellor for Institutional Advancement
Africa University Development Office

CANDLER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Jan Love, Dean and Professor of Christianity and World Politics

For more than 100 years, Candler School of Theology at Emory University has prepared real people to make a real difference in the real world. Since our founding in 1914, more than 10,000 students have graduated from Candler, where they have been shaped as thoughtful, principled, and courageous Christian leaders dedicated transforming the world in the name of Jesus Christ.

One of 13 official seminaries of The United Methodist Church, Candler is also one of seven graduate professional schools of Emory University, a top-tier research institution offering extensive resources and a rich context for study. Our location in Atlanta provides a learning environment that reflects the highly diverse communities of the 21st century. Simply put, there is no better place for ministry preparation that addresses our major denominational priorities: developing leaders, starting and growing churches, ministry with the poor, and improving global health.

In order to keep pace with the needs of the church and the world, Candler offers 17 degrees: seven single degrees and 10 dual degrees pairing theology with bioethics, business, international development, law, public health, or social work. One of our newest degrees is a Doctor of Ministry that is 90 percent online, so students can remain in their places of ministry as they study and apply what they learn in real time. Candler has also partnered with the University of Georgia's School of Social Work to create an MDiv/MSW where students learn to maximize their effectiveness by combining pastoral skills such as spiritual counseling with social work practices such as family therapy and community assessment.

Our student body continues to reflect the diversity and breadth of the Christian faithful. Four hundred and seventy five students are enrolled, with 51 percent women, 34 percent people of color, and a median age of 30. Students represent 39 denominations, with half coming from the Methodist family. Eighty-three percent of students are seeking a degree to prepare them as ministry professionals.

Candler has a deep commitment to alleviating student debt and employs a multi-pronged approach to tackle this issue. In 2016-2017, we awarded nearly $5.75 million in Candler scholarships, with 95 percent of MDiv students receiving aid and the average scholarship covering 73 percent of tuition. Plus, our comprehensive Faith and Finance program teaches money management skills that serve our students now and will continue to serve them—and the churches they lead—well into the future.

In fall of 2016, Candler welcomed to the faculty Larry Goodpaster as bishop-in-residence, and Kendall Soulen as professor of Systematic Theology. Also this fall, three Candler alumni began their terms as newly elected bishops in the Southeastern Jurisdiction: David Graves 90T in Alabama-West Florida, R. Lawson Bryan 75T 85T in South Georgia, and Sue Hauptert-Johnson 95T in North Georgia.

Candler draws considerable strength and inspiration from its relationship with The United Methodist Church. Our ability to fulfill our mission of educating faithful and creative leaders for the church's ministries in the world depends upon your support, gifts, and prayers. Thank you for the countless ways you advance this vital ministry in the life of our denomination.

DUKE DIVINITY SCHOOL

Rev. Elaine A. Heath, Dean

In the academic year 2016–2017, we have been delighted to welcome our new dean of Duke Divinity School, Elaine A. Heath. Dean Heath also serves as professor of Missional and Pastoral Theology, and her research interests focus on evangelism and spirituality, evangelism and gender, new monasticism, and emergence in church and theological education. Heath is the co-founder of the Missional Wisdom Foundation, which provides opportunities for clergy and laity to learn how to live in intentional, missional communities in diverse social contexts, and she is an ordained elder in The United Methodist Church.

New Dean: Since arriving at Duke in July, Dean Heath has begun work on a new strategic plan for the divinity school. With her leadership, Duke Divinity School remains mindful of our mission to train, prepare, and form men and women committed to God and enthusiastic about ministry. We endeavor to prepare leaders for a changing church and world who will have the spiritual formation, theological foundation, and institutional flexibility to serve God in established churches, intentional communities, or missional organizations, as the Holy Spirit guides them.

Enrollment: This year we welcomed students from a range of backgrounds called to serve God and the Church. In 2016, our total enrollment was 641 students; 418 are enrolled in the M.Div. degree program. Thirty seven percent of our students are United Methodist, with an additional four percent from other Wesleyan traditions. Forty eight percent of our M.Div. students are United Methodist.

Hispanic Preaching Festival: On April 9, the divinity school hosted its first Hispanic Preaching Festival to celebrate and explore Hispanic homiletics. The event drew 54 participants from 14 different Hispanic congregations across the region. Attendees included pastors, laypeople, and students. The festival featured sermons from local pastors and was part of the Hispanic-Latino/a Preaching Initiative, a Spanish-language program that provides opportunities for Hispanic and Latino/a pastors to receive homiletical training in a peer group format. Each year, 10 applicants serving as pastors in the H/L community are chosen to participate as preaching fellows.

Clergy Health Study: In an effort to better understand and describe the multiple demands and rewards of clergy life, the Duke Clergy Health Initiative has conducted a longitudinal survey of North Carolina's United Methodist clergy every two years since 2008. The findings illuminate shifts in the demographics of elders and local pastors actively serving congregations.

Other News Throughout the Year

Our initiatives, centers, and programs are a vital resource for us in connecting the work of Duke Divinity School with other disciplines and constituents, which include:

- The Center for Reconciliation celebrated its 10th anniversary this year, continuing its work of fostering reconciliation through the Summer Institute, the CFR Justice Fellows, and the Great Lakes Initiative in East Africa
- The Office of Black Church Studies, in partnership with the Duke Initiatives in Theology and the Arts, Duke Performances, Duke Dance, and the Duke Department of African and African-American Studies, presented a symposium on African-American Theology and the Arts, featuring the renowned dance company Ailey II
- The Theology, Medicine, and Culture Initiative hosted the event Practice & Presence: Gathering for Christians in Healthcare, for healthcare professionals who want to deepen or reimagine the relationship of faith in vocation in community with likeminded practitioners
- Faith & Leadership, the online magazine published by LEADD, continues to reach more than 300,000 readers and provide a resource for theological reflection and traditioned innovation for all in ministry. Their work was recognized again this year with awards from the Associated Church Press' "Best of the Christian Press" contest.
- In partnership with the Western North Carolina and North Carolina conferences, the Thriving Rural Communities Initiative sponsored the 2016 Convocation on the Rural Church, "Apprenticeship with Jesus" to discuss issues important for transforming rural churches and communities
- The divinity school held a two-day conference titled Tamar's Ashes: Pastoral Ministry Amidst Sexual Abuse and Domestic Violence for the school's students as part of the Mentoring for Ministry program. Duke Divinity School remains committed to supporting local churches and local pastors, particularly in under-resourced communities, and providing pastoral training for our students to allow them to minister to people and in places often marginalized or forgotten.
- We are delighted to announce the hiring of a new assistant professor of Homiletics, Jerusha Neal. She is currently serving as a missionary and lecturer in Practical Theology at the Davuilevu Theological College of the Methodist Church in Fiji and Rotuma in the South Pacific.

We remain deeply grateful for the relationships among The United Methodist Church, this annual conference, and Duke Divinity School. We look forward to working with you in the task of preparing men and women for Christian ministry.

MEMPHIS THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Dr. G. Lee Ramsey, Jr., Director of the Methodist House of Studies,
Foster Professor of Pastoral Theology and Homiletics

Memphis Theological Seminary is pleased to report theological education for United Methodist students continues to remain vibrant and forward looking. Beginning in the 2016 fall semester, Dr. Michael Turner began his appointment as associate professor of Wesleyan Studies. Turner holds a doctorate from Vanderbilt University in church history with a focus on 19th century American Methodism. He teaches all the required UMC courses for ordination (elder and deacon) in Methodist history, doctrine, and polity in addition to a variety of electives in the field of Wesleyan studies. He has already made a significant contribution to the seminary and to United Methodist students in particular, teaching and advising UMC students and extending the reach of the seminary and of Methodism into area churches, districts, and annual conferences through short-term courses and seminars.

The Methodist House of Studies at MTS is giving new focus to Wesleyan studies at the seminary and the surrounding annual conferences we serve. Six graduating students in 2016 earned the Certificate in Wesleyan Studies, which requires a minimum of five courses focused on Wesleyan related history, theology, and practice. The Methodist House provides support for all our UMC students at MTS by regular gatherings for fellowship and mutual learning.

Additionally, the Methodist House has sponsored training for clergy covenant group leaders in the Tennessee and Memphis annual conferences during the past year. Currently we are developing a Continuing Education Certificate in Wesleyan Studies in partnership with the Mississippi Conference. Dr. Lee Ramsey (Memphis Conference), Dr. Michael Turner (Western North Carolina Conference), and Rev. Billy Vaughan (Memphis Conference) serve as the director and associate directors of the Methodist House of Studies. We are pleased that one of the pastoral leaders from the Tennessee Conference, Rev. Tom Laney, is serving on the Advisory Board of the Methodist House.

Enrollment among United Methodist students at MTS has levelled out and is beginning to increase since 2008. Currently, there are 60 United Methodist students enrolled at MTS, with the majority of those students concentrated in our Masters of Divinity and our Masters of Arts Youth Ministry. An additional 14 students are enrolled at MTS from the African Methodist Episcopal Church and the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church, with whom we maintain close, supportive relations through the Methodist House of Studies.

We are grateful for the support of the Tennessee Conference and for the many fine students who have attended MTS from the conference over the years. We appreciate the confidence the conference places in MTS for preparation of United Methodist women and men for Christian ministry, and we welcome your ongoing involvement and prayers for Wesleyan studies at Memphis Theological Seminary. For ongoing information about the Methodist House of Studies, we invite you to visit us at www.MethodistHouse.org.

UNITED THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY
Dr. Kent Millard, President

United Theological Seminary in Dayton, Ohio, was founded in 1871 by Milton Wright, a bishop in The Church of the United Brethren in Christ and father of aviation pioneers Wilbur and Orville Wright. The Wright brothers had a passionate dream of developing the first successful "flying machine." They experienced great difficulties, hardships, and setbacks in achieving their dream. Through their determination and commitment, however, their dream eventually was fulfilled, and they were the first humans to achieve sustained flight.

God often plants a vision or dream in someone's heart to become a full-time servant of Jesus Christ. In St. Peter's sermon on Pentecost, Peter quotes the prophet Joel who said, "God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions and your old men shall dream dreams" (Acts 2:17). When God pours out the Spirit on someone and calls them into ministry, United seeks to partner with that person in helping them to grow spiritually and intellectually in achieving their God-given call and dream.

In the fall of 2016, 418 students enrolled at United to answer God's call and vision for their lives. Our prayer is that God will use United to prepare these students to become faithful, fruitful, and effective pastors and church leaders who make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. According to the 2014 United alumni survey, 86 percent of our graduates are either currently serving in local congregations or are retired from serving in local congregations. United alumni are making an impact.

On January 1, 2017, United celebrated the beginning of a new partnership in ministry with Methodist Theological School in Ohio (MTSO). United has become an extension site for the Course of Study School of Ohio located at MTSO, providing a convenient hybrid program for part-time pastors pursuing a local pastor's license. Through United's Course of Study, pastors experience a Friday-Saturday weekend on campus and finish coursework online over the weeks that follow. Courses are offered four times per year.

If you feel God calling you to serve in any form of Christian ministry, we encourage you to go online to united.edu to discover the option that fits your ministry and calling. May God bless you as you respond to God's dream for your life to serve in either the ordained, commissioned, or lay ministry.

The new Wesley Theological Seminary Lay Academy offers 11 online courses covering a variety of topics including Methodist identity, early church history, Christian ethics, interfaith relations, and the intersection of faith and science. Laypeople can earn a certification in Wesleyan Studies by completing six of the courses online or they can choose to take courses individually for personal education and enrichment. More information about the Wesley Lay Academy and the certification in Wesleyan Studies can be found at <http://www.beadisciple.com/wesley/>.

Two new certificate programs allow individuals to take specialized classes without pursuing an entire degree. The Certificate in Faith and Public Life explores the foundations of public theology, religious freedom, and civil discourse through graduate courses. The African American Church Studies certificate is a non-degree option for local church leaders who want to enrich their ministry in African American communities. For more information, contact admissions@wesleyseminary.edu or visit www.wesleyseminary.edu.

So Your Congregation Can Live More Fully in God's Mission

Wesley has received a grant of $1.5 million from the Lilly Endowment to help congregations design innovative ministries that support and enrich the religious lives of young adults. Through this grant, 20 local congregations will be selected to work with Wesley as an innovation hub that brings together church leaders, young adults, experts, and practitioners for conversation, education, and exchange of ideas. The ultimate goal will be to help each congregation launch new partnerships with young adults, ages 23 to 29. Congregational applications will be open July 1–October 31, 2017. For more information, contact Rev. Beth Ludlum at bludlum@wesleyseminary.edu.

The Institute for Community Engagement at Wesley Downtown continues to help the church turn itself inside out. The Institute at Wesley now offers an innovative online Health Minister Certificate Program from Heal the Sick, an initiative to prepare congregations for public health work in their parishes. Some scholarships are available for this program. Please contact Tom Pruski at tpruski@wesleyseminary.edu for more information or to register for future certificate classes.

The newest component of the Institute for Community Engagement is Wesley's Center for Public Theology. Under the leadership of Distinguished Professor of Public Theology Mike McCurry, this center is equipping pastors, seminarians, people of faith, and the media to create spaces for civil dialogue at the intersection of religion and politics. The center is also providing events, workshops, and resources to help faith leaders lead faithful, prophetic, open dialogue in their communities. To see upcoming opportunities, visit <https://www.wesleyseminary.edu/ice/programs/public-theology/>

The Luce Center for Arts and Religion remains the only seminary-based program uniting arts and theology. The Luce Center invites the public to artist talks with each new exhibit and has regular classes and workshops with visiting artists. For information on past and upcoming opportunities visit luceartsandreligion.org.

If You're a Current or Future Seminarian

Wesley's Master of Divinity degree can now be completed via online, weekend, short-term intensive, and weeknight courses in five years. This format is designed to be more accessible to those with busy ministry, work, and/or family commitments throughout the region.

The new African American Church Studies Master of Divinity specialization gives contextual preparation for the unique opportunities and challenges our future leaders may encounter in African American churches, while the Public Theology specialization allows master's degree students to gain skills for community leadership and advocacy.

Wesley continues to offer our 36-hour Master of Arts and a 60-hour Master of Theological Studies to equip those called to ordained deacon ministries or to other ministries beyond the pulpit.

Talk to someone at (202) 885-8659 or admissions@wesleyseminary.edu about how Wesley's degree programs equip people to lead others to loving God and neighbor.

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church (the “Church”), of which this Conference is a part, has in the past functioned and continues to function through ministers of the gospel (within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 107) who were or are duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed ministers of the Church (“Clergypersons”);

WHEREAS, the practice of the Church and of this Conference was and is to provide active Clergypersons with a parsonage or a rental/housing allowance as part of their gross compensation;

THAT the pension, severance, or disability payments to which this rental/housing allowance designation applies will be any pension, severance, or disability payments from plans, annuities, or funds authorized under the Discipline, including such payments from the GBOPHB (now Wespath) and from a commercial annuity company that provides an annuity arising from benefits accrued under a GBOPHB (now Wespath) plan, annuity, or fund authorized under the Discipline, that result from any service a Clergyperson rendered to this Conference or that an active, a retired, a terminated, or a disabled Clergyperson of this Conference rendered to any local church, annual conference of the Church, general agency of the Church, other institution of the Church, former denomination that is now a part of the Church, or any other employer that employed the Clergyperson to perform services related to the ministry of the Church, or its predecessors, and that elected to make contributions to, or accrue a benefit under, such a plan, annuity, or fund for such an active, a retired, a terminated, or a disabled Clergyperson’s pension, severance, or disability plan benefit as part of his or her gross compensation.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance that may be excluded from a Clergyperson’s gross income in any year for federal (and, in most cases, state) income tax purposes is limited under Internal Revenue Code section 107(2), and regulations thereunder, to the least of: (a) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the Clergyperson’s employer or other appropriate body of the Church (such as this Conference in the foregoing resolutions) for such year; (b) the amount actually expended by the Clergyperson to rent or provide a home in such year; or (c) the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances (such as a garage), plus the cost of utilities in such year. Each clergyperson or former clergyperson is urged to consult with his or her own tax advisor to determine what deferred compensation is eligible to be claimed as a housing allowance exclusion.

Welcoming the Migrant in our Midst

Whereas, the state of Tennessee is made up of many migrants who have migrated to our state seeking safety, security and prosperity; and

Whereas, migrants and refugees sit in the pews and are behind the pulpits of Tennessee's United Methodist churches, provide skillful labor that is essential to the growth of our cities, provide much of the agricultural labor for produce and other goods that sustain us, offer retail and hospitality services in each of our communities; and

Whereas, we know so well that we have benefitted by their leadership. They have added to our witness for Christ as we have all dedicated ourselves to the church's mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world; and

Whereas, the writer of Leviticus commands the love of the immigrant, who "shall be to you as the citizen among you." (Leviticus 19:33-34); and

Whereas, early in Jesus' life, he was a refugee to Africa fleeing persecution and violence in his homeland (Matthew 2:13-15), and told us that nations would be judged on the basis of the way they fed the hungry, clothed the naked and cared for prisoners (Matthew 25:31-46); and

Whereas, careless rhetoric has ignited xenophobic and racist attitudes among some of our fellow citizens;

Therefore be it resolved that the Tennessee Conference of The United Methodist Church (TNUMC), as followers of Jesus, commit ourselves to work to eliminate racism and violence directed toward migrants and refugees from all parts of the world;

Be it further resolved that the TNUMC, as followers of Jesus, express our opposition to any immigration policy that excludes refugees solely on the basis of their religion or national origin;

Be it further resolved that we celebrate the work of the Hispanic Latino Ministries Committee of the TNUMC and the formation of a Migrant Task Force by the conference to help provide guidance to churches seeking to be in ministry to migrants in Tennessee;

Be it further resolved that, to that end, the conference encourages all churches to educate and equip its members to provide hospitality, protect and welcome the migrants and refugees in their communities (see the resolution approved by General Conference "Welcoming the Migrant to the United States"<sup>1</sup>); and to take further actions and advocacy for just policies through prayer and discernment;

Be it further resolved that the conference calls upon each church to engage and educate its members by participating in events sponsored by our Conference's Task Forces and the General Board of Church and Society;

Be it further resolved that the conference calls upon our political leaders and policymakers to assure our laws affirm the worth, dignity, inherent values, and rights of migrants.

CHAPTER 7

MEMOIRS

We celebrate the lives of individuals who are saints!

Some of them, with us, are a part of the whole body of living Christian believers, and others have finished their lives here on earth are a part of the church triumphant! Some have touched us compassionately so we could experience the love of the LORD while others have reminded us to be faithful and avoid drifting into life away from God.

They have all shaken our being--all have been faithful examples of lives of wholeness, working for justice.

O God of both the living and the dead...
... who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

LORD, you have examined me.

You know me.

You know when I sit down and when I stand up.

Even from far away, you comprehend my plans.

You study my traveling and resting.

You are thoroughly familiar with all my ways.

There isn't a word on my tongue, LORD, that you don't already know completely.

You surround me—front and back.

You put your hand on me.

That kind of knowledge is too much for me;

it's so high above me that I can't fathom it.

Where could I go to get away from your spirit?

Where could I go to escape your presence?

If I went up to heaven, you would be there.

If I went down to the grave, you would be there too!

If I could fly on the wings of dawn, stopping to rest only on the far side of the ocean—

even there your hand would guide me;

even there your strong hand would hold me tight!

If I said, "The darkness will definitely hide me;

the light will become night around me," even then the darkness isn't too dark for you!

Nighttime would shine bright as day, because darkness is the same as light to you!

REMEMBRANCES

Samuel D. Barnett

December 2, 1930 – February 3, 2017

Samuel "Sam" David Barnett was born on December 2, 1930, to Harvey Patrick Sr. and Nannie Lou in Nashville, TN. He was the middle of three children, Harvey Patrick Jr. and Mary Frances. They lived in Nashville and were members of Woodbine United Methodist Church.

Sam went to high school at Central High in Nashville. While in high school he went to Beersheba Springs for camp. This is where he first had a call to ministry. He went on to graduate from Central High in 1949. After high school, he joined the Marine Reserves and volunteered to go to the Korean War. Sam was part of a group called the "Frozen Few." He had fought in the battle of the Chosin Reservoir, one of the worst battles in the war. It was there, where he again experienced a call to ministry. After he returned from the war, he immediately went to undergraduate school at Vanderbilt. He graduated from Vanderbilt in 1956 and went on to Divinity School at Vanderbilt.

He graduated in 1959. He received his first appointment before he graduated in 1959.

Sam served the United Methodist Church for 32 years. He believed in serving others. He did this not only through his daily work as a minister but also through mission trips and helping in the local community. When he was a minister at New Johnsonville United Methodist Church he led two different mission trips. One to Guatemala and the other to Belize. When he was at St. Bethlehem United Methodist Church in Clarksville, he led a trip to St. Vincent Island in the Caribbean, where they built houses, and repaired a church. While at St. Bethlehem he helped people in need in the local community. Sam served many churches over the years, each special to him.

After retiring he decided he wanted not to just help people with their spiritual needs, but he wanted to help people with their physical needs. He went back to school and became a physical therapy assistant at the age of 62. He was a physical therapy assistant for the next 6 years. After retiring, Sam, his wife Pat, and their daughter, Robin, joined Crieewood United Methodist Church in Nashville where he taught the John Wesley class until his death. According to his class, he taught them not to judge people, God is always with you, have faith and to serve others. Sam, during his retirement, also volunteered at the Second Harvest Food Bank, Southern Hills Hospital and lastly, but not least, the Nashville Zoo at Grassmere. He did not give up volunteering until he was physically unable to, due to cancer.

Sam died on February 3, 2017. He is survived by his wife Patricia "Patty" Lee. They were married August 12, 1955. They have 3 children David, Linda, and Robin as well as 10 grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren.

His service was held at Woodlawn Funeral Home on February 6, 2017. It was conducted by the Reverend Peter Van Eys and the Reverend Jim Kannon.

Sam will be greatly missed by his family and friends as well as his Sunday School Class

Lovingly shared by his wife Patricia and daughter Robin.

September 3, 1936 -June 24, 2016

The Rev. Dr. Juanita Ruth Bass, pastor and church administrator, died on June 24, 2016 after a long illness at the age of 79. She had been confined since suffering a stroke in March, 2007.

Juanita grew up in Nashville and Gallatin, the daughter of Larry A. and Ruth Moore Bass. After returning to Nashville, the family was active in the East End United Methodist Church. She attended Gallatin High School and the University of Tennessee at Knoxville, earning a Bachelor of Business Administration in 1961. Returning to Nashville, she worked for First American Bank and the United Methodist Board of Higher Education. She also enrolled in the Vanderbilt University Divinity School, intending to become ordained.

In 1967, Juanita moved to New York City, where she worked for a series of religious publications and organizations, including the Board of Global Ministries, the international mission agency of the United Methodist Church. While in New York, she completed her seminary course of study, Master of Divinity, at the Union Theological Seminary and also earned a Doctor of Ministry degree at Drew Theological Seminary, Madison, New Jersey. She travelled widely for the mission agency, including trips to Africa and China.

She retained her ties to Tennessee, where she had been ordained Elder in the United Methodist Tennessee Conference, and returned to take a pastoral appointment in 1985. She served for six years in Linden and for two years in Erin before being appointed as the first woman United Methodist District Superintendent in the conference. She was Superintendent of the Clarksville District for seven years.

After returning to Tennessee, Rev. Bass continued to be active in the church on the national and international levels. She served as a director of Global Ministries, the agency for which she once worked, and was a delegate to the 1996 General Conference, the denomination's legislative assembly.

After retirement, she served as administrative assistant to the senior pastor at Madison Street United Methodist Church in Clarksville.

Juanita is survived by her sister, M. Frances Bass of Nashville; three brothers, Larry A. Bass, Jr. of McMinnville, Tennessee, Randall V. Bass (Jo Ann Fisher) of The Villages, Florida, and William A. Bass (LaNette Jones) of Madison, Alabama; five nephews, one niece, one grand-nephew, five grand-nieces and one great-niece.

Her Celebration of Death and Resurrection Service was held at Belmont United Methodist Church.

Melvin E. Brooks

August 6, 1928 – June 28, 2016

Melvin Earl Brooks was born in Houston County, TN on August 6, 1928 to Rodney Earl and Ollie Lee Brooks. Melvin's childhood was very typical of the time period, as he lived and worked on the family farm. In order to help support the family during tough economic times, Melvin left high school to find work in Michigan.

While there, in 1949 he met and married the love of his life, Betty, after a whirlwind courtship of only six weeks. The marriage was blessed with three daughters: Doris, Kathy, and Linda. After returning home from Michigan with his family, he began work at BF Goodrich and would remain there until he was called to the ministry in 1958. Deciding against obtaining a GED, he reenrolled in Houston County High School at the age of 31, where he was welcomed with admiration from both faculty and classmates. Upon graduation in 1961 he was honored by his classmates when they selected him to speak at their own Baccalaureate Ceremony. He continued his education by obtaining a Bachelor of Science degree in 1966 from Austin Peay State College, followed by the completion of his course of study at Emory University for ordination into the Tennessee United Methodist Conference.

In February, 1958, Bro. Brooks began his ministry with the United Methodist Church in the Cumberland Furnace Charge. He went on to serve the Southside Charge, Ardmore UMC, Pleasant View/Mallory Charge, and Nolensville UMC. He retired in 1993, and he and Betty returned to Montgomery County, TN to be close to their daughters and seven granddaughters. The concept of retirement was a difficult one for Melvin and in short time he returned to the ministry at Stewart UMC.

Melvin and Betty celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary in 1999, and sadly she passed away in 2001. After his loss, he returned to serve the Cumberland Furnace charge. His career had come full circle; he would end his ministry at the same charge where it began so many years ago. He attended the Tennessee UMC Annual Conference from 1958 until 2015 without ever missing a year. He also spent over twenty years working at Sykes Funeral Home where he loved greeting and ministering to people in their time of need.

His family is incredibly proud of the nearly eighty-eight years he shared with them on this earth. He leaves them with the fondest memories of his life that will continue to influence them forever. He was a Methodist minister who embodied what it was to be a "United Methodist". He always walked a Christian path that was easy for others to follow. There will be so many everyday things that bring him to mind: fresh perked decaf coffee, french fries with no peelings, naps in the middle of a family gathering, garden fresh Silver Queen corn, tomato slices and homemade biscuits, major league baseball, UK basketball, fried chicken, "Victory in Jesus," and saying the blessing at family meals. A man of impeccable character, he leaves behind a legacy which taught his family and all he encountered that with hard work, discipline, and faith, all things are possible. He led by an example which combined kindness and strong-will like no other. After a brief illness, he passed away peacefully on June 28, 2016 surrounded by family and friends. He leaves his family in tears but with memories of a forever smiling face.

One can think of no better verse to represent his life of service: "For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith..." 2 Timothy 4:6-7.

Lovingly shared by his daughters Doris, Kathy, and Linda

Russ Cain

April 16, 1939 - April 30, 2017

William Russell Cain was born on April 16, 1939 in Pekin, Illinois. It was at the young age of six weeks that his adoptive parents, William Russell Cain, Sr., and Hazel Bell Shenton came to love their only child. From Pekin, Illinois, he moved to Silver Creek, Minnesota. It was living and working on his parents' farm that he grew to love nature and to value God's creations. He graduated from Annandale High School in Minnesota and almost immediately joined the Air Force.

In 1958 he married Stella Marie Hayes. They spent their first years of marriage at Tinker Air Force base in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. The next years brought three children into their relationship. It was after the birth of two children that Russ, walking in a corn field, heard loud and clear the call from God to enter the ministry. It was at that moment that he entered Dakota Wesleyan University.

As a student pastor he served two small rural churches. These churches were so supportive and loving, making sure that their student pastor got through college. It was almost their mission to make it possible for Russ to reach this goal. He graduated making this step in his life one that would lead him on to seminary at Illif School of Theology in Denver, Colorado.

Russ served churches in South Dakota and Tennessee and was ordained Elder in 1992 at the Brentwood United Methodist Church. Russ was passionate about serving his churches and church families to the ultimate. His motto was, "Do what's right, not what is easy." He was loving, compassionate and ready to do whatever it would take to heal the hurting.

He never really retired. When the flood caused damage in the Carthage United Methodist Church area, Russ did the training to be certified in disaster relief. He worked tirelessly to help wherever he could to make life easier for those directly needing help from the flood. This prepared him to step in when the pastor and his family from the Lafayette United Methodist Church were killed in an automobile accident. Not only was this a tragic situation, but a tornado had also just hit this area. Once again he started working on disaster relief. Because Russ, with God's help and direction, was called to be in these areas he gained the nickname "Disaster Pastor."

Russ loved to preach and was uncomfortable sitting in the pew when he retired. To make life meaningful after he retired he became involved with the organization "Friends of Dale Hollow National Fish Hatchery." This group started the "Aquatics in the Classroom" program. Russ helped setting up aquariums in the classroom with either trout or native species tanks. He was also good at writing grants to keep this program going. Once again his objective was to educate and help youth to preserve our natural habitats.

Russ received several awards and honors. The award from the Help Center in Carthage was one that highlighted his love and concern for others in need. His plaque reads, "We are deeply grateful for your vision and leadership which resulted in the founding of the Smith County Help Center." Starting out very small it has grown to be a busy center for anyone who needs help.

Russ is survived by his wife Stella Cain, one daughter Kathy Ann Chase (Tim), two sons, Bill B. Cain (Debbie), and Brad P. Cain (Karen); 4 grandchildren Jeremy Chase of Jacksonville, Florida, Caroline Chase of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, Alex Cain of Phoenix, Arizona, and Megan Cain of Phoenix, Arizona; one great-grandchild, Brenden Chase of Sioux Falls, South Dakota. His Celebration of Life service was held on May 6, 2017 at Gainesboro First United Methodist Church.

Russ was a living example of one who loved the Lord and had abiding gifts in preaching and teaching. Being such a good listener and always intent on healing the needs of people, no one regardless of his or her situation, was ignored. He was humorous, enjoyed a good laugh, loved his God, family and friends. I know the gates of heaven opened wide for him, and the Lord said, "Welcome home, my good and faithful servant."

Lovingly shared by wife, Stella M. Cain

Marvin and Annelle G. Champion

September 4, 1932 – June 6, 2016 & September 7, 1933 – December 20, 2016

Preachers' kids grow up living in glass houses. What seems a problem with all those church and townsfolk looking in actually provides a pretty good perspective for looking out at that same world. My sisters, Miriam, Donna and I grew up in that glass house environment and all in all it made for an interesting and challenging childhood. For me, at least, it provided the evolution of a genuinely 'religious' outlook on life – but it took a long time for that vision to jell.

Marvin and Annelle Champion got married in September of 1952, starting their life together in Jacksonville, FL. Marvin worked for the Atlantic Coastline Railroad and Nelle worked for Southern Bell.

In February 1953, they had a son, Marvin Richard, and then in March, 1958, their first daughter Miriam Elaine was born. A little later their life took a dramatic turn: moving through their growing religious sensibility and experience, Marvin 'answered the call' to become a minister and Nelle accepted the role of a minister's wife. They moved to Manchester, GA where he became the pastor of a little Nazarene church. This church was actually headed for closure and what may have been its 'last chance' became their first.

I have flashes of memory from that time. I began second grade in Manchester and a few years later, in August of 1963, my youngest sister, Carolyn Donna was born. Mom worked for Southern Bell in Columbus, a good 45 minute drive away. Over the next four years Dad labored and the little church grew and became secure. Today it is a thriving church in a new location. Dad worked several "part-time" jobs in order "to make ends meet" as he began his ministerial career. He'd often go back to work at the Post Office after Wednesday night prayer meeting. He also worked at the funeral home next door to the church, and often as an ambulance attendant at the local high school football games.

A few years later we moved to Smyrna, GA, an Atlanta suburb. It was a fairly secure church but also pretty small. Dad would be at home during the day, but working at church functions most evenings. Mom's Southern Bell career continued in Marietta, some 20 minutes away. Dad still did some part-time jobs, often doing summer work with a house-painter from the church. We began to settle in as a minister's family and Dad continued to evolve as a pastor.

Four years later, we moved farther north to Dalton, GA, which became "my hometown" for it is where I went to high school. Dad worked hard to make Dalton First Church thrive, while Mom drove to Chattanooga every day, almost an hour away. Despite strong effort however, the Dalton church experience proved a bit 'testy' and after four years Dad took a year off from preaching. They bought a new house at the edge of town. Mom continued to work in Chattanooga and Dad sold insurance for a year. I didn't see his decision then as "a sacrifice", but understood later that he took this year off preaching to allow me the opportunity to finish my senior year there in Dalton.

I left for Nashville to attend college while my family moved to Sweetwater, TN. This was Dad's last Nazarene church. Mom kept working at South Central Bell, driving to Athens, TN, a nice change for her as it was quite close. While there, Dad decided to attend Hiwassee College, and graduated in June, 1974. He had become a preacher not from going to college and studying theology, but from his own conversion experience and from that working-class life of the railroad. Here he began to make significant changes. He decided to finish his schooling at Scarritt College in Nashville. More importantly, however, he became a Methodist minister, taking a position at Almarville, outside Smyrna, TN; he did this 'circuit thing' being the preacher at Kedron and Lock's Chapel. Mom now drove to Nashville to continue working for South Central Bell.

Miriam graduated from Smyrna High and then went to Trevecca College in Nashville. My folks began their new ministry in the Methodist Conference. Soon Mom would retire from Ma Bell, but they would continue their ministerial evolution, going to Eagleville, where Donna graduated; then to Springfield, Greenbrier, Waynesboro, and finally, the “big church” in their career, Coleman Memorial in Lawrenceburg. Here Dad would retire; sort of anyway...he retired from being an active pastor. They bought a house in Waynesboro and moved back there to live out the rest of their life.

This life line, however, is not what I wish to offer as my folk’s memorial. I want to share a bit about my dad...and my mom. You all know them as “Brother Marvin” and “Miss Nelle;” a devoted minister and wife. I know bits and pieces about that life, but what I remember is a father and mother who, though not perfect, tried awfully hard to raise three kids while they grew into the couple that became dear to so many others. The couple to whom Coleman dedicated “The Champion Annex” and who settled into the life of Waynesboro, a town in which they loved so much pastoring, they chose to resettle there in their retirement. So, if I may, I’d like to share a few memories of my parents.

First, I remember that when my dad would go back to the Post Office after those Wednesday night services in Manchester, sometimes he would take us. He taught me how to run the letters through the postal stamp machine and help sort mail. Mom would often take this time to just chat with him while he finished his shift. Once when he was working with the painter in Smyrna, he got me a part-time job scraping windows, and I also learned to paint that summer, which served me well in my later life. When I was a kid, my dad was gone most evenings. He was there when we got home from school and through dinner, which he often started and would have us finish if he had to go pick up Mom from work. I got used to him not being around a lot. Growing a bit older we would spend some Saturday evenings together; my job was to polish our shoes. He taught me how to “saddle soap” and clean them, polish and brush them to a bright shine. We’d sit there for a while, a brief weekly chat or maybe watching the Honeymooner’s on TV--I have very specific flashes of those times. It might last for an hour or so and not every Saturday night, but many of them. Interesting how those times linger...

Mom was gone during the day, working all week, so she would not be there when we came home. She’d spend Saturdays doing housework and preparing Sunday dinner, as well as cooking up stuff for the week, or baking pies and such. Sometimes she taught Sunday School classes and would do prep work for those as well. What I especially remember, however, were the summer vacations--her vacation time--which we’d spend on my grandparents’ farm in South Georgia. She would work all week gathering and putting up vegetables. I can see her sitting around with my “Big Daddy,” shucking corn, shelling peas and butter-beans. Then cooking up and bagging corn with “Mama Thelma” and filling up the freezer, packing up coolers to take home. Often I’d stay on the farm, sometimes for a month or so, but mom’s vacation weeks were mostly spent gathering up the winter’s supply of fresh veggies for those Sunday and holiday dinners.

When time allowed, or maybe Christmas, there would be an overnight trip to Mom’s parents in northern Florida. Her dad, Granddaddy Gainous, was honestly a real hoot! He was a retired worker who lived on and “managed” this aged plantation for the owner of Sunbeam Bakery. He loved to play his old piano, and on holidays there might be a house full with food, family and fun--and lots of gospel singing. My mom had five sisters and when Granddaddy had several of them around, there was a house filled with music. Grandmama Gainous was another of those great old southern cooks, and although they lived on rather limited means, there was always a table laden with great southern fare.

Another memory flash: my mom taught me to always leave a house cleaner and brighter than it was when we moved in. Sure, there were the regular weekly chores, but when we’d leave a place, that always meant a time of serious cleaning: scrubbing wood-work, door jams, floors and walls, a major overhaul of the bathroom (which was my weekly chore anyway) and kitchen. Dad would also have me doing yard work as well so that when the new preacher’s family came into the parsonage, besides being sparkling clean enough to “eat-off-the-floor,” it’d be neat and trimmed.

My father was always a part of his community’s religious life. I remember going to the Easter Sunrise Services with him as a kid. There were those “church events”—revivals, camp meetings, the District Assemblies and other gatherings of church business (where preachers’ kids would get to hang together and all too often be the trouble-makers as well). I never knew much about Dad and Mom’s engagement with the Methodist Conference in Tennessee as I had already left home by the time they moved from my Nazarene upbringing. Moreover, I did not really see much difference, not in my dad or his preaching. Honestly, Nazarenes are just conservative, “evangelical” Methodists, and that fit my dad pretty well. He was a solid, conservative Methodist minister and he adapted into the Methodist Church life without any difficulty. My mom, too, really liked being a part of this evolution, and embraced her life as a Methodist pastor’s wife just as easily.

My sisters have a bit more insight into my folks’ life in those early transition days. Miriam recalled how during Christmas caroling with the church group in Almaden my dad would always try to hit these high notes and might not quite make it! My father loved to sing--and he was “fair” at it, but his delight and spirit could overcome the technical failures for the most part. Donna shared stories of how Dad would prepare food for people, give them rides and such, but would never give people money. She told me about a time when some fellow got all upset because Dad would not give him money – but my dad, looking at the man’s wife and child, told him that if he changed his mind and decided about wanting food and diapers to come back. Donna said the man came back an hour or so later, apologized and asked for the help. Dad took them to the store and bought the stuff. She also recalled how Dad was big in prison work in the Pulaski area. She asked to go with him one time but he wouldn’t take her.

Being pretty much the “classic preacher’s son,” my father and I had a tumultuous relationship for a large part of my early life. That began to change after I got sober in 1988. A year or so later I told him that I had decided to join the Catholic Church. Many folks have asked how my Methodist minister father reacted to that decision, but he had no problem at all--we had a good talk and he was always very supportive of my movement. I think he was just glad I was still alive, and I was happy that we could sit down together and both grow older in a positive and nurturing way. We still disagreed on a lot of things--politics for sure--but we also were able over the last 25+ years to be a loving father and son to each other. I have a cousin who says my dad “grew gentler in his old age” and that may well be. In my middle age and Dad’s elder years, he and I grew closer. Life’s winding paths tend to create unplanned movement, and at least for my dad and me, that movement was a good one. My father taught me what has become the most important lesson in my life: “What good will it profit a man to gain the whole world and lose his soul?” For that I am eternally grateful.

In my youth, my mom and I had a pretty good relationship. She and I did not have nearly the “fences to mend” as with my Dad. I remember, as a little boy, riding the train with her to visit my grandparents. Because Mom always worked, I was glad when she had “time off” for vacations or when she had maternity leave due to my coming sisters. Growing up, Mom would provide the little extras, some new clothes before summer camp or that special gift at Christmas. As her illness progressed it became harder and harder to maintain a solid, communicative relationship with her. When I moved to Colorado and could not visit often, I began emailing her every week, which she really loved. During the last ten years that became the thread that held our bond together most tightly. A few years ago, spending some of my spring break with her, we had a wonderful afternoon of just sitting together in the swing on the front porch. The final couple of years before she died, however, even that tie became loose and my last visits with her were very sad ones.

I talked earlier about going to Sunrise Services with my dad when I was a kid. Three years ago, during an Easter visit, I was able to attend Sunrise Service with Pop in Waynesboro. It was a nice time; complete with a great breakfast (did not have those earlier on). Although she was still at home my mom was pretty much “not available” at that time--and really she had not been for a while. My mother had been sick for many years, but during their retirement time in Waynesboro her condition worsened; she developed Alzheimer’s and the dementia began to erode her life completely. Dad kept her at home, taking care of her as long as he possibly could. I know it was quite a difficult decision for him to finally admit her to the nursing home, but really he had little choice. He was worn out, and actually, much more than any of us fully realized. His last couple of years were pretty rough for them both, and also for my youngest sister, since she became the main caretaker and “doer” of all their needs. (Thank you, Donna.)

My father’s cancer took the final toll. He went through a lot during his last year; he struggled to outlive his wife so he could make sure “all was well” for her and for his kids. In the end, it was not to be. I have this picture of Mom and Dad right after they first married. They are at the Jacksonville Beach. Young and energetic, Dad’s a handsome, slim/trim guy, with this wavy black pompadour hair! Mom, a petite and beautiful brunette. They are so full of life. Then I have one of them together two days before he died--sick, old and worn--Mom sitting beside Dad’s bedside holding his hand and whether they knew it or not, at the end of their lives. I think of the time that spans between those two pictures--a life full of love and service to God and family--and each other, and I realize that with all the struggles, hardships, disappointments and disease, that what may seem like despair in the end is just a “comma” in all the on-going, mundane but joyous days that fill up the years from that beach to that nursing home. I am very glad for being part of those days.

In my Catholic Tradition, we believe that the Church in Heaven prays for the Church on Earth. My folks really loved Conference; I’ve heard them talk about it with an incredible sense of joy. There’s this old joke about how in heaven each “denomination” has their own room(s) and how you have to be careful walking by some of them because there are those who believe they’re the only ones there. I do not believe most Methodists or Catholics really think that way now. Yet, perhaps God in His infinite wisdom and rather twisted humor allows us such folly--or not. Nevertheless, I think that there may most assuredly be the Conference in Heaven that prays for the Conference in which you are all now gathered. And if so, I have no doubt that my parents, Brother Marvin and Miss Nelle, will be gathered there to support you all. Perhaps you may feel a sense of inspiration in your deliberations, an awareness of profound joy during some worship service, or just a fond memory of Reverend Marvin Champion and his wife, Annelle, and you too will know that they are there with you in spirit, praying for your continuing work here on earth.

Lovingly shared by Rick Champion

Hawkins Westmoreland Clark

August 25, 1929 – September 26, 2016

Reverend Hawkins Westmoreland Clark (Hawk) passed from this life to the next on Monday morning, September 26, 2016. He was 87 years old. He was preceded in death by his father, Joseph Clark (Wartrace, TN); mother, Martha Davis (Russell) Clark (Akers), and stepfather Charles Akers. Brother Joe Clark (Memphis) and sister BeBe Goodall (Gordon) also passed before.

Hawkins is survived by his wife of nearly 64 years, Martha Henry Clark; his two children, Lynn (Danny) Butler and Tom (Theresa) Clark, and his grandchildren and great-grandchildren. He is also survived by many nieces and nephews, parishioners and friends.

Born in North Nashville, he was brought up in a very loving and caring home. His birth certificate says he was born on August 25, 1929, but his mother always believed he was born on the 24th. Hawkins said the only thing that really mattered is that he was born. Sometime in his teens he found another birth certificate from the same day with the name Richard Russell Clark. His father explained that shortly after he was born, a very good friend of his mother was killed in an automobile accident. The name of this young man was Hawkins Westmoreland.

By the time Hawkins was working on his undergraduate studies at George Peabody College he decided to either join the ministry or become a teacher. After a mission trip to Cuba, he knew he was called to the ministry and devoted nearly the next fifty years of his life to serving God through the United Methodist Church as a pastor. He never stopped serving God or working in the United Methodist Church, but due to severe hearing loss he felt it prudent to retire from the pastoral ministry after serving in churches from the time line to the Tennessee River in middle Tennessee. During that time, he received master’s degrees from Emory University in Atlanta and Vanderbilt University in Nashville.

Hawkins enjoyed traveling and birds and was an avid reader and writer. He has written volumes of prose, poetry, and short stories. If you heard him tell it, he also enjoyed being something of a troublemaker. If you ever saw the twinkle in his eye and grin on his face, you would have to believe it to be true.

Hawkins lived the life he preached. Not one person was not touched upon meeting him. He would never claim to be perfect, but to his dying breath the love he had for his family, friends, caregivers and strangers was felt. He was truly a reflection of God's love for us through Jesus our Savior. He will be missed, but his love will live on forever.

The family and friends of Hawkins W. Clark are very honored to have been chosen to be a part of his life. We pray that we are able to continue Hawkins' ministry of love to the generations ahead.

Loving shared by his wife, Martha Clark

Mary K. Foote

August 26, 1961 – August 12, 2016

Mary K. Foote, age 54 of Selmer, TN, was born August 26, 1961 in Northridge, CA, the daughter of the late Edwin Lee and Jean Anna Weirup Prather. She was united in marriage to William Mark Foote on October 18, 1980. Mark and Mary became friends as students at McNairy Central High School. Their relationship grew over time. Mark takes the credit for helping to bring Mary out of her shell. Initially, a quiet person, Mary found her voice.

With their family becoming active members of Selmer First United Methodist, in the Memphis Conference, Mary stepped into leadership roles with the United Methodist Women, serving as an officer, both in her local unit, as well as within the Jackson District. She was always seeking to know God on ever deepening levels. Taking Disciple Bible Studies I, II and III, she later taught Disciple, which led her into taking a lay speaking class. The Holy Spirit continued to nudge Mary to use her voice for God.

Finally, it was while on her Walk to Emmaus, that God's call on her life became clear. At one point during that weekend, Mary sat in prayer in one of the large gathering rooms. On hearing a phone ring, she opened her eyes, and to her surprise, she was facing a large banner that hung across the top of the room, which she had never noticed. The banner read, "God is calling you, will you answer?"

From that point on Mary could hardly wait to begin the process of becoming certified as a candidate for ministry and licensed as a Local Pastor. Her first congregation was at Crump, which was an easy commute from their home in Selmer. After serving there for two years, there was a need across the river at East End UMC in Savannah in the Tennessee Conference. Mary served for another year at Crump in the Memphis Conference, while at the same time stretching across the river to be appointed in the Tennessee Conference at East End UMC. The next year Mary was appointed as a full-time Local Pastor, serving only the East End congregation. After five fruitful years there, she was appointed to the Clarkrange and Dorton congregations in Crossville, TN. Mary was committed to the process of completing her studies as a Local Pastor.

When her cancer was diagnosed the first time, it only slowed her process, but she continued to move forward with resilience and determination. Mary was constant in spreading awareness about breast cancer, as well as God's word. Having just completed ten rounds of radiation therapy, she began her fifth and final year of the Course of Study at Emory before her condition worsened, and she had to be hospitalized. Mary departed this life in Carrollton, Georgia, on August 12, 2016, just two weeks shy of her 55th birthday. She was in route by ambulance being transferred to St. Francis Hospital Memphis.

Mary is survived by her husband Mark of Selmer, their two sons, Adam and wife Jenna of Adamsville and Michael, also of Selmer. Mary left her brother, Lloyd A. Prather of Ramer, and her sister, Dorothy Mohundro of Selmer; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and dear friends.

Lovingly shared by her husband, Mark Foote.

Evalyn M. Gebhart

July 31, 1932 – February 10, 2017

Eva was born in Dallas, TX on July 31, 1932, to Harriet and Harold F. Huffman; they later moved to Metropolis, IL, which was Eva's home until college. She graduated from Metropolis Community High School in 1950. Eva graduated from the University of Illinois, Champaign-Urbana with a Bachelor of Science in Elementary Education in 1954 and a Masters of Education in 1956. Eva met her husband of 60 years, John Howard Gebhart at the University of Illinois Wesley Foundation, and they were married June 17, 1956.

Eva was a consummate extrovert. In short, Eva never met a stranger, only friends she hadn't met (adapted W. B. Yeats). And so her life was filled with friends, both lifelong and momentary, near at hand in her immediate community and widespread across the US and the globe.

Her warm and cheerful disposition were invaluable in her 46-year career as an educator. Eva's gift for teaching was inspirational; she taught passionately and thoughtfully, to the benefit of countless students from her first teaching experience (5th Grade at Washington School in Urbana, IL). Eva's teaching was personal and lovingly delivered whether the setting was a 2-room school out in the country (Pleasantville, TN), an urban inner city school (Chicago, IL), classrooms in Florida and Tennessee, or as an in-home educator, as director of a skills learning center for physically and mentally disadvantaged adults, or teaching Sunday School to children and adults. She instilled her erudition and love of learning in her students, her extended family, and in the amazing children she and John gave to the world.

Eva's life as a United Methodist minister's wife was a perfect match to her personality, although this was a role she did not actively seek. She married an engineer, but when John embraced the ministry, she supported him wholeheartedly and became his partner in ministry to the UM church communities he served in Maryland, Florida, and Tennessee.

As a young person Eva was active in her church and youth programs in Metropolis, IL. As a young woman, she was active in the Wesley Foundation at University of Illinois (Champaign-Urbana). As a young wife, Eva became a devoted member of the Women's Society of Christian Service, the precursor to United Methodist Women, and was active in circles and as a Sunday School teacher. After moving to Tennessee, Eva became active in the UMW at the district and conference level. She served at various times as treasurer, president, chairperson of publicity of the Columbia District, and as Mission Coordinator for Christian Personhood for the TN Conference UMW. She also served with the TN Conference UMC Historical Society. Eva was active in the Walk to Emmaus communities, which was another embodiment of her teaching and mission vocation and her dedication to ensure a strong foundation of faith in the local church through nurture of its members.

After moving to McKendree Village in 2008, Eva quickly found her place as volunteer welcoming new residents, working in the gift shop, and as a dedicated and active participant in UMW circles, Chapel and musical activities. After John's death in May, 2016, Eva moved into the Manor at McKendree Village, and Eva's engaging sparkle continued to be evident, despite the toll that advancing Alzheimer's disease had on her memory. Nurses, aides and residents quickly came to know Eva's smile, wit and her general willingness to help others.

Her final weeks were a blessing for Eva and for us, her family. Family and friends visited regularly, every day in her final week, spending quiet hours talking, reading, sharing memories, praying, and singing. Eva loved to sing and had many favorite hymns. Her passage from this life was quiet, peaceful, graceful and full of love. Eva's life was a true embodiment of Paul's teaching to be - and to cultivate - the Body of Christ, as a lifelong Methodist, as an active United Methodist Woman, as a supportive minister's spouse, as an inspiring teacher, through her devotion to mission programs supported by the United Methodist Women, and through her warmth, openness and sincere interest in everyone she encountered throughout her 84 years of life.

Eva was preceded in death by her beloved husband, John Gebhart, her parents, Harold F. and Harriet Hazel Huffman, and her sister, Elizabeth Hickman. She is survived by her children Amy (Michael) Curtis, Lucy Gebhart, Perry (Jane) Gebhart, and Sally (Andy) Pardue; her nephew, John Hickman; and her eight grandchildren.

Lovingly shared by her daughter, Amy Gebhart Curtis, and her family.

John Howard Gebhart

December 20, 1929 – May 29, 2016

John wrote “My Spiritual Journey” in 2013, three years before his death. Excerpts from his own words (italics) are included in the following summary of his life and ministry. I want to say at the outset that “I love Jesus, and I know Jesus loves me. And I have a personal, passionate relationship with him.” (This is ) not my journey, not my story, it is God’s story, working in the life of one ordinary human individual. I am second! . . . I have been blessed in my life in so many ways, by so many people, so many groups and congregations.

John was born on December 20, 1929 into a Methodist family. His mother’s father and uncle were Methodist ministers. “I came close to being born in church. My mother started labor during a Wednesday night prayer meeting . . .” (he was born in Lakeland, Florida.) “My folks were the kind of people that were at church every time the doors opened, literally. They didn’t talk much about it at home . . . they just did their faith, at home, at work, in all their relationships.” His parents married after WWI and moved from Illinois to Florida, where his father was a citrus grove inspector in central Florida. In the late 40’s, his family moved to the Miami area, and John attended Central Miami Senior High School, graduating in 1947.

“Music has always been a big part of my spirituality. We had music at home; Mother played piano and Dad loved to sing. He and his younger brother would sing duets when they got together. He would sing while trudging through the groves and working around the house, mostly hymns. I remember growing up with that.” John played instruments from an early age - rhythm instruments in kindergarten. He sang in children, youth and adult choirs his entire life. He played clarinet in high school and earned a full music scholarship to the University of Miami. John continued to sing in church choirs throughout his ministry and in retirement.

John was very involved in his local churches and began to consider Christian service during high school and later during college. One mentor was a Sunday School teacher who modeled strong Christian values to high school boys and encouraged open discussion and “to use our imagination, to explore beneath the surface, to put ourselves in the story, to raise questions.” John recalled studies of both theology and social justice issues at the Wesley Foundation at University of Miami.

John graduated magna cum laude in 1951 with a Bachelor of Electrical Engineering degree. He went to work for Western Electric Company in Winston-Salem, NC, working on airborne radar systems. He was drafted for service during the Korean Conflict in 1953 and served in the Army Signal Corp for two years in New Jersey, Germany and Arizona. John developed a love for travel, particularly during his time in Germany where “if you were in uniform in those days, you could ride the train for almost nothing to anywhere in Europe.” John’s love of photography also grew.

John attended University of Illinois (Champaign-Urbana) on the GI Bill, to obtain his Masters degree in Electrical Engineering, starting in the early spring of 1955. He met his future wife, Evalyn Mary Huffman, at the Wesley Foundation. After graduation, John and Eva moved to Bethesda, Maryland, where he worked for the National Institutes of Health, studying nerve fiber conduction. John found himself living, working and worshiping in a community of scientists, engineers and theological faculty.

“What would you say to a young person who has been educated in science and engineering and had thought about going to seminary?” And, as John stated: “(I) could see the hand of God” at work. John entered Wesley Theological seminary in Washington, DC and obtained his Bachelor degree in Theology Studies in 1963.

John returned to Florida as a member of the Florida Conference of the (United) Methodist Church. From 1958 to 1966, four children were born to John and Eva—Amy, Lucy, Perry, and Sally. John served churches in Perry, Marathon, St. Petersburg, and Jacksonville. In 1971, John took a sabbatical year, and he and Eva moved their family to Chicago, IL where they studied spiritual renewal of the laity and church with the Ecumenical Institute.

John and Eva moved their family to Nashville, Tennessee in the winter of 1972 due to her father’s terminal illness. John found a “temporary” position as a chaplain at Turney Center prison, which led to a 25-year vocation. “I walked in the door and I knew I was where I was supposed to be.” The first two years, John commuted from Nashville to Hickman County. “One of the benefits of that commuting time . . . I began to talk with Jesus in a conversational way . . . like a friend, person to person, like he was sitting in the passenger’s seat. That was a real blessing.”

John found himself asking Jesus for guidance: “How in the world can I love these guys or be the love of God for them? . . . I began asking Jesus for something more, whatever he had in mind.” “Lord, if there is one or more of [the spiritual gifts] that you could give me that would be a blessing in my work, I am ready for it.” The Holy Spirit gave John a personal prayer language, and along with it, a greater insight into the nature of prayer and God’s grace. He began pulling a third chair up during conversations with inmates, a symbol that Jesus was present and part of the counsel that he was giving.

In 1985, he returned to the local church, serving the Lobelville/Buffalo charge and the Nunnally three-point charge in Hickman County for three years. John joined the United Methodist General Board of Global Ministries as a Church and Community Worker in 1988, primarily in prison ministry, but also in response to natural disasters including Hurricane Andrew in Florida and the San Francisco Bay Area Earthquake in California. John continued to coordinate prison ministry as part of the Tennessee Conference staff from 1998 until his retirement in 2000.

John’s second ministry calling was to empower laity to re-vitalize God’s church from the inside. John and Eva were both involved in the Cursillo (late 1978-1979) and then with the Upper Room Walk to Emmaus program. Both were active in the community, with John serving as Spiritual Director on a number of Walks into the mid -2000’s. John came to a deep knowledge of God’s grace as part of the Emmaus program, and that became a core focus for John. In recent years, John was a formative part of the Upper Room Face-to-Face program for older adults.

John and Eva were active members of Bon Aqua UMC in Hickman County from 1988-2007. After moving to McKendree Village in 2007, John and Eva became vital members of that community and joined Andrew Price Memorial United Methodist Church. John was active in a retired clergy group and the local area ecumenical pastors’ group. John continued to serve the TN Annual Conference in his retirement as secretary for some years and as a member of the Memorial Service committee.

John touched innumerable lives in his 86 1/2 years. As he was taught by his parents, John just did his faith, at home, at work, in all his relationships. John is remembered for his love for God and his family, his quiet wit, his love of learning and music, and his focus in ministry with the poor, hungry, imprisoned, displaced, and marginalized.

John was survived by his wife, Eva (who died earlier this year), his four children (Amy, Lucy, Perry, and Sally) and their spouses (Michael Curtis, Jane Gebhart, and Andy Pardue), eight grandchildren (Jennifer and John Curtis; Garye Ben, Harley, and Sarah Jane Gebhart; and Ryan, Kyle and Sophia Pardue) four nephews and nieces (John Hickman, Mark Gebhart, Laura Gebhart-Huwlyer, and Janet Gebhart-Haas) and two cousins (Ruth Faulkner and Howard Willson).

Lovingly shared by his daughter, Amy Gebhart Curtis, and his family

French Gothard

January 24, 1930 – October 11, 2016

God welcomed Reverend French McKinley Gothard to his eternal home on October 11, 2016, and his beloved wife, Georgia Ruth Gothard on December 28, 2016.

French was ordained an Elder in the Tennessee Conference of the Methodist Church in 1959. He pastored churches prior to and subsequent to serving as an active duty Navy Chaplain for 24 years, including Smithville; the Morrison Circuit – Forest Mill, Bascom Mud Creek, Morrison and Salem; Beech Grove; Chapel Hill; Mathews Memorial; and Dodson Chapel.

French was the father of daughters, Lenna Allen and Mary Wood; sons, David, Tim and Tom; grandchildren Catherine, Denton, Wes, Andrew and David; and great grandchildren Kallie and Aubree.

He was a man who passionately loved and served God, his wife, his family, his friends, his church and his country. He lived by clear values and priorities, and he appreciated the simple and good things in life, things like honesty and humor. He was very kind and generous, sensitive to the hurts and needs of others. He held strong convictions and would speak out about them.

As a young man in Akron, Ohio, French worked in a ball-bearing factory. He tried selling life insurance, but was too tender-hearted to be very good at collections. He even once held a State of Ohio apprentice pharmacist license. He had not yet heard his life's calling.

His mother Mary's godly example as a Wesleyan Christian made an indelible impression on him and was instrumental in his desire to serve God. He would also tell about a Sunday School teacher in his youth who made a major impact upon him.

At a young age, French enlisted in the Navy and went to sea as a boiler tender aboard a baby flattop carrier and an LST. Steamy hot boiler rooms and fresh salt air at sea worked wonders on his somewhat frail health prior to that time, and God blessed him with robust good health for most of his life.

Georgia Ruth Gothard was the love of French's life. They met at his uncle's drug store in Smithville, TN where he and his father stopped in for a milkshake on their way to Florida. Ruth worked at the soda fountain. They were married six weeks later, a marriage that lasted for over 66 years. French always wanted Ruth at his side, at home, in ministry and even during overseas military tours when possible.

French had an illustrious Navy career of almost 29 years. In 1963, he was commissioned as a naval officer, and then he served God and ministered to the men and women of the Navy and Marine Corps as an active duty Navy chaplain for 24 years, under the sponsorship of the United Methodist Church.

His more than 17 naval tours of duty proved to be grand adventures for French, Ruth and their family. His assignments as a Navy chaplain were many and varied. He ministered to Navy Seabees during the Vietnam War. He served with the U. S. Marines and wore the Marine uniform on Okinawa, Japan, an overseas assignment where Ruth and Mary accompanied him. He was the base chaplain at Naval Station Subic Bay, Philippines, again with Ruth and Mary. He served at other naval bases and naval air stations, naval hospitals and aboard ships. He always had a special connection with enlisted sailors and Marines, having been an enlisted man himself.

French valued education, earning a Bachelor of Science degree from Middle Tennessee State Teachers' College (now MTSU) a Bachelor of Divinity degree from Vanderbilt University and Master of Sacred Theology and Doctor of Ministry degrees from Andover Newton Theological School. But he never let all of this learning go to his head. While doing coursework at Vanderbilt, he pastored the Morrison Circuit of five Methodist churches. A favorite family story recalls how Ruth would take care of four children in the car and type French's course papers while he attended class. Her name should also have been on those diplomas.

French Gothard truly had a pastor's heart. He faithfully preached the Gospel of Jesus Christ and he loved to visit and minister, whether to sailors and Marines and their families, or to members of the churches he served in the Tennessee Conference. Ruth was usually at his side. He often said that people responded more to her than to him.

French and Ruth both loved the Methodist Church and they raised their daughters and sons in the church. There was no question in the Gothard home about whether everyone would go to church. Church members from some of his early congregations have continued to stay in touch 50 years or more after he served those churches.

French really enjoyed doing the children's sermons. Once he used fishing net to illustrate a Bible story. On other occasions, he would use Scripture passages that referenced gemstones and would then give each child a necklace with a gemstone that he had polished. He delighted in being invited to visit Lenna's school classrooms to teach the kids about rocks and how they were formed.

The word "Go" could have been his middle name. He loved to go, whether it was for a two-hour outing, a weekend camping trip or a months-long RV trip out West. He had a deep awe for the beauty of our country, and was especially attracted to the national parks and forests. He was a camper, hunter and fisherman, with fly-fishing in the Great Smoky Mountains National Park one of his favorite things. During the children's growing up years, the family spent much time in the station wagon and travel trailer, visiting new places. There were lots of cookouts on the tailgate with the Coleman stove.

People who knew French well were quite aware of his interests, creativity and talents, because he liked to share his interests. A gifted woodworker, he could build a fine cherry china cabinet or a detailed jewelry box. In his retirement years, he was a passionate rock-hound, and as many will attest, he never tired of talking about rocks. For many years, Ruth and he would take long trips out West to prospect for gemstones and bring loads home. They had great adventures and would sometimes later tell the family of dangerous situations that they encountered, but not until they were safely back home. Lenna recalls that she once received a shipment of rocks in the mail without an explanation as to what they were, so they ended up in her flower garden. When they returned home, dad was surprised to find out where his precious gemstones were.

Sometimes they would travel with friends like Anne and Bill Buckner. They made wonderful new friends on their prospecting trips, attended churches of whatever denomination they could find in the sparsely populated West, and French sometimes preached to them.

He became an expert in lapidary work - slabbing, cabbing and faceting gems from rough material and creating unique and beautiful jewelry in silver and gold. He had the gift of being able to see the potential beauty in a rough rock that most people would miss. He could also see the hidden beauty in people. He was a past president of the Middle Tennessee Rock and Gem Club and a volunteer lapidary instructor at the Donelson Senior Center for over 25 years.

French was a planner and a dreamer. Many of his dreams came to fruition, and others, like building a houseboat or an experimental airplane from Popular Mechanics plans, just simmered on the back burner. He was a voracious reader and in recent years spent countless hours reading books to Ruth, many about the Amish or western life.

In the past few years, health issues prevented French and Ruth from travelling out West. But God allowed them to continue to make trips to their log cabin in Sevierville, TN, in the foothills of the Smoky Mountains. He loved that cabin. God also opened the door for them to spend a week each year with their extended family at our reunion at Cumberland Mountain State Park in Crossville, TN, a weeklong family celebration that has continued for over a half century. All were blessed that they were able to attend the 2016 family reunion, along with over 50 family members.

French Gothard was a wonderful man who was blessed by God and who blessed countless people throughout his life. He will be greatly missed, but we can all rejoice that he is home.

Lovingly shared by his son, David Gothard.

Georgia Ruth Hill Gothard

July 17, 1930 – December 28, 2016

Our Lord welcomed Georgia Ruth Gothard home on December 28, 2016. Ruth was the beloved wife of Reverend French McKinley Gothard, who preceded her to heaven on October 28, 2016. Ruth and French were the proud parents of Lenna, Mary, David, Tim and Tom; grandparents of Catherine, Denton, Wes, Andrew and David; and great-grandparents of Kallie and Aubree.

Ruth was a very special and Godly woman who deeply touched and blessed countless other lives. Proverbs 31 describes her well. An excellent wife, who can find? For her worth is far above jewels. The heart of her husband trusts in her, And he will have no lack of gain. She does him good and not evil All the days of her life... Charm is deceitful and beauty is vain, But a woman who fears the LORD, she shall be praised. Give her the product of her hands, And let her works praise her in the gates.

Ruth was the next-to-youngest of four daughters born to Aubrey and Mary Hill in Smithville, Tennessee. Theirs was a tight-knit family of humble means but rich in God's love and love for one another. She grew up on the farm during the Great Depression, where there was little money available for much more than the basic necessities of life.

Early in life, Ruth learned to cook, bake, can and dry foods and make do with what they had on hand, skills that would serve her well in the years ahead. Her family life was a happy one, filled with games, laughter and singing. She spent time with her dad as he carried out his duties as game warden. She loved nature and later encouraged her children to enjoy outdoor activities. All five of her children would participate in Scouting programs, and Tim and Tom would later have careers in wildlife law enforcement like their grandfather.

She was a very intelligent person and an avid reader. Since her parents could not afford books, her Aunt Bill would bring her books to read. Her favorite authors, then and recently, were Grace Livingston Hill and Gene Stratton Porter. Significant health issues caused her to miss attending school for most of her senior year, but she still graduated from DeKalb County High School as Salutatorian.

In 1950, at the age of 20, Ruth was working behind the soda fountain at Webb's Drug Store in Smithville. French Gothard, a handsome young man from Akron, Ohio came into the drug store with his father to order a soda. His aunt and uncle owned the store and French and his dad were on their way to visit family in Florida. When they left, her friend stated that she was going to date that man. Ruth told her friend that she need not bother, because SHE was going to marry him. A few weeks later they travelled to Ringgold, GA and wed. This was the beginning of a 66-year marriage made in heaven.

Ruth's quiet life quickly changed from farm life to military life when French enlisted in the Navy and served in the Korean War. They began a tradition of setting up households in many different locales. After the war, French went to Middle Tennessee State Teacher's College (now MTSU) under the GI Bill. One story is that that they lived in on-campus married student housing with their first child, Lenna, then a baby. They had few possessions, but someone gave them a used TV. They would set it up in the window and invite their neighbors to bring chairs and join them in watching it from the front lawn.

By 1956, Ruth was mother to four children under the age of 5. She had a busy life, also helping French with his graduate studies and helping to serve a circuit of five churches. A favorite family story is that she would sit in the car, care for the kids, and type French's school papers while he attended class. She should have been awarded a graduate degree for helping him to earn four degrees, including a doctorate, during their marriage.

Ruth had a wonderful mind and a great sense of humor. It was always fun to watch her get tickled about something, especially with her sisters Maleze, Jodie and Kay. They would always get red-faced and laugh almost uncontrollably. She had an impressive vocabulary and excelled at playing word games, particularly Scrabble. She loved books and later in life, when reading became difficult, relished French's reading to her or listening to audio books. From an early age, she was a skillful writer and later aspired to write about her life experiences.

The Gothard home was a warm and inviting place. Ruth was a great mom, and she often had to assume most of the duties of raising five kids alone, while French was deployed to Vietnam or other unaccompanied Navy duty assignments. Her children were her priority. Additionally, French and she would often invite a young sailor or Navy family to share their home.

Not only was Ruth a gracious hostess, she was a great cook. Her signature meal when company was coming to dinner was her fried chicken, mashed potatoes, gravy, drop biscuits and peach cobbler. She loved vegetables and fruits, especially when she could grow or pick them herself. She loved to slice and dry apples to preserve them. Once she put turnip greens in a pillowcase and ran them through the rinse cycle of the washing machine to speed up the cleaning of the greens. She loved baking with black walnuts and would spread the whole walnuts out on the driveway and gently back the car over them to remove the hulls.

Ruth excelled at setting up new households during the family's many duty assignments - Great Lakes, Illinois; Davisville and Portsmouth, Rhode Island; Whidbey Island and Oak Harbor, Washington; Vallejo, California; Clarksville Base and Memphis, Tennessee; Charleston, South Carolina; the Philippines; and Okinawa, Japan. While French was deployed, she took the initiative to find and purchase their retirement home in Donelson, Tennessee. No matter where they were, she ensured that it was home.

Ruth had many other interests. She cherished nature and could readily identify many varieties of trees and plants. She loved birds, especially cardinals, and yellow roses. She had a fondness for antiques, particularly black amethyst glass and other glassware.

Ruth and French loved to travel and camp in their 29-foot Holiday Traveler travel trailer. Mary, the youngest of the five children, who has a June birthday, spent most of her first 16 birthdays with Ruth baking her birthday cake while camping. One summer between duty stations, while French was training at Bethesda Naval Hospital, the family – Ruth, French, Ruth's Mother, Mary Hill, five children, and two birds – lived in the Holiday Traveler for three months. Tim and Tom camped out in the station wagon, so they could get up early to deliver newspapers. The birds accidentally escaped their cage.

In their retirement years, Ruth and French took extended trips out West to prospect for rocks and gems and to make new friends. She loved the jewelry that he would create for her, from a dirty rock to a beautiful gemstone necklace.

She had a passion for gospel music, and for the past several years, started and ended each day by watching Gaither videos or listening to Christian music CD's. She looked forward to making trips to the Smoky Mountains to stay in their log cabin in Sevierville.

One of Ruth's greatest passions was the Hill family reunion. This annual weeklong gathering at Cumberland Mountain State Park in Crossville, Tennessee was a tradition started by her mother Mary Hill which has continued for over 50 years. Ruth and French were able to attend the 2016 reunion along with over 50 family members from around the country, staying in cabins, visiting, playing games, hiking and other activities. They especially enjoyed the evening meals, where everyone joyously gathered to share food prepared by different family groups.

Ruth's Christian faith was central to her life, and she lived it daily in a practical way. She loved going to church, and she served God in so many ways - reading her Bible, singing in the choir, teaching children's Sunday School, writing children's messages, and visiting church members with French. She was a lifelong and loyal Methodist.

Ruth suffered a major stroke in 2011 that significantly impacted her physical abilities, but not her determination to continue to live a full, joyous and meaningful life, and to live at home. Her resolve to get stronger and her regular improvement were simply amazing, a demonstration of God's grace. She was a woman of prayer and regularly prayed for family, friends, caregivers and others.

Ruth Gothard was a remarkable woman whom we will greatly miss. In the hospital the night before she died, she asked to hear 'I'll Fly Away.' We rejoice that she is reunited with French and all the loved ones who preceded her, that she is walking again and that she is in the presence of Almighty God.

Lovingly shared by her son, David Gothard

Marylyn Poteete Hayes

January 10, 1941 – July 10, 2016

Marylyn Hayes was born on January 10, 1941 and died July 10, 2016. She was the wife of Rev. James (Jim) Hayes, Jr. Marylyn grew up in the Nazarene Church but became a Methodist who strongly supported her husband and the congregations he served as pastor. Their ministry included the Dodson Chapel United Methodist Church, Christ United Methodist Church in McMinnville, and the LaVergne United Methodist congregation. In each of these pastorates, Marylyn was Jim's greatest supporter.

The family of Rev. Hayes owned the Spring Hill Funeral Home and Cemetery. Rev. Hayes took leave from pastoral ministry to provide leadership on the death of his mother and great health changes of his father. When Jim Hayes died, Marylyn and her family continued leadership, until it was bought by a large national company that owns and manages several funeral homes.

Jim and Marylyn had five daughters: Denise Hayes, Teresa Hartman (David), Lisa Borchers (Greg), Cheree Russell (David), and Kristie Bobal (Paul). One of her goals was to teach her daughters to love God and to live Christ-like lives. Her efforts helped to shape them into the women they are today. She greatly loved her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Marylyn had a great sense of humor, was very creative, feisty, and full of life. She loved to listen to music and sing. She was a part of all the choirs where they served and where they worshipped. The study of scripture and a strong prayer life were important parts of her faith journey. She and Jim were early participants in the development of the Walk to Emmaus, a ministry developed by the Upper Room. The both served on Walks over the years.

Marylyn's health declined, and she died on July 10, 2016 at the age of 75. A Celebration of Life was held at the Spring Hill Chapel on July 14, 2016. She was then placed in the Spring Hill Mausoleum.

Paula C. Hoos

November 2, 1947 – January 24, 2017

It's always been fun to answer the question "So what does your wife do?" since back in the days when she was a professor of anatomy. That was always a really good ice-breaker. It was even more fun after she switched from taking care of bodies to taking care of souls. The multiple perspectives that she brought and the wide range of her interests explain a lot about why she was so good at whatever she did.

Paula was born in Arnold, PA and had a rich heritage. Her father was a first generation Italian immigrant, and her mother was from very rural Alabama. She graduated near the top of her class from Arnold High School, then Mount Union College in Ohio before coming to Vanderbilt for graduate school in anatomy. We married while I was a second year medical student. We moved to Cleveland, Ohio and Boston, Massachusetts as I pursued medical training and she completed her Master's degree, memorably defending her thesis while quite pregnant with our first child, Laura. After moving back to Nashville, she began assisting in the Gross Anatomy course for the first year medical students at Vanderbilt while completing her PhD in anatomy, with research focused on reproductive biology. She joined the faculty in 1981, and in 1983 became the course director, remaining in that position for 15 years. She held her students to high standards. They in turn, describing her as a “likeable hardass,” held her in high esteem, presented her with the Silver Shovel Award for best lecturer and named an additional teaching award after her, given to the fourth year student who was the most helpful assistant in the anatomy lab.

At age 50 she heard the call and went back to the other side of the classroom at the Vanderbilt Divinity School, where she earned her third advanced degree, the MDiv, finishing third in her class. After ordination, she served Christ UMC as associate pastor and then was sole pastor at Liberty and Trinity UMC, all in Franklin. Like Jesus, the core of her preaching was the kingdom of God, starting here and now, and the observation that God loves everybody, a message she carried in a series of sermons to the state maximum security prison as well. She tried to retire in 2009, but the church refused to let her. She retired from official ministry in 2010 but was always busy with projects like remodeling the house, a photo book of family history, her own photography, gardening, travel, cooking new dishes, and most recently delightfully caring for her grandchildren, now ages 2 and 4.

I mentioned exceptionally wide interests. England and the Smoky Mountains were her favorite destinations, but in the last year of her life, we traveled to Machu Picchu and the Galapagos, went sailing in the Bahamas, and toured central Italy, including a thoroughly delightful 2 day visit with distant relatives there whom she had never met. Among the flood of cards and emails from grieving well-wishers have been many from fellow travelers, most of whom had known Paula for only a few days, but on whom she had made a deep impression. It was common over the years to have some of her 1500 or so students come up to her to say thanks, give her a hug and snap a picture, including five at a birthday party last fall. Her faith included awe at the wonders of creation, and for Christmas last year she received (as requested) a good dissecting microscope for showing the small things of the yards to her grandchildren. She occasionally described herself this way: “liturgically Anglican, theologically Wesleyan, and if not a Christian, then I’d be a Buddhist.” Her Christmas book was a compilation of discussions between the Dalai Lama and Bishop Desmond Tutu. Her Christmas picture was a professional photograph of a mama bear and 2 cubs in Alaska, in a frame made by her amateur woodworker husband of 46 years.

The trip to New Zealand was at the top of her bucket list, and she saw quite a bit of it before being struck down by pneumonia. At her memorial service, the urn with her cremains rested appropriately on her travel backpack, in which she had come home. In lieu of flowers, donations were requested to the donor’s favorite charity, her own likely choices being the National Park Foundation, the Nature Conservancy, the Great Smoky Mountains Association, any animal rescue service, or Planned Parenthood.

Richard Charles Kaleida

August 19, 1946 – October 30, 2016

Richard Charles Kaleida was born on August 19, 1946, in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, the third of four children born to Mildred Marie Kaleida and Herman Charles Kaleida. This is where his walk with the Lord truly started. He was born to loving Christian parents, active in the church, and believing the greatest gift to give your children is Christ.

He was married on September 9, 1966, to his soul mate Sueann Ritenour. They were blessed with 50 years of marriage and two children: Sherri Lynn (who preceded Richard in death) and Timothy Charles. They were also blessed with a granddaughter, Aimee Lynn, and a great-granddaughter, Kayla Ann, before the Lord took him home on October 30, 2016.

After high school, he completed studies in aeronautics at Pittsburgh Institute of Aeronautics, business management at La Salle University and Liberty University, which led to a career with Boeing Aircraft Corporation. He also was an insurance agent with Aid Association for Lutherans. Richard owned a Golden Corral and owned a used car dealership named RST Motors. He got the name by using the first letters of all his family's names: Richard, Sueann, Sherri, and Tim.

It was during this time as a used car dealer that he received his call into ministry and gave him one of his favorite messages, "If God can make a used car dealer into a pastor what can he do for you?"

While serving in his first appointment, he attended Emory University, Candler School of Theology and finished Five Years Ministerial Course of Study in August of 1999. He began his ministry serving in the Florida Conference of The United Methodist Church. While serving his first appointment, he received the Denman Award, Grand Himes Sims and Evangelism awards.

In 2002 Richard took an appointment in the Tennessee Conference, and they moved here where he became a United Methodist Evangelist. Due to poor health, he retired from preaching in the local church in 2008. Richard felt one never retires from being a pastor and was honored that God called him into this part of ministry. One of his favorite verses was Mark 1:17, "Come, follow me," Jesus said, "and I will make you fishers of men."

Wherever he would go, stores, restaurants, doctors' offices, hospitals, etc., and everyone who came into the house to care for him and all those who met him along the way, he never let them leave without telling them to "Have a great God filled day." Richard truly loved the Lord and his family with all his heart and believed in the healing power of Christ with the complete and final healing when he would be called home as he was. In Richard's memory, if you have read this, "Go, have a great God filled day."

Lovingly shared by his wife, Sueann Kaleida

Judy Lee Hendrixson Martin

December 26,1944 – August 11, 2016

Judy Lee Hendrixson Martin was born in Detroit, Michigan, in 1944, the daughter of Elmer Lee Hendrixson and Beulah Mai Smith Hendrixson. She grew up in Smithville, Tennessee, where she was a member of Snow Hill Methodist Church. She graduated from DeKalb County High School in 1962 and married Royce Stanton Martin in 1963. God blessed them with two children, Deanna Lee (Mickey) Hall and Curtis Stanton (Kimberly) Martin.

After working in various secretarial positions and leading Head Start classes, Judy became the office manager at Westinghouse/ABB in Smithville for 19 years. She was the first employee hired when the plant opened and the last to leave when it closed.

Some of her best days and fondest memories were from serving the church and the community by leading the youth and students at Snow Hill Methodist Church. For many years, she led Sunday School, wrote and directed Christmas programs, and planned and directed youth activities and outings. She later led Bible studies and activities for the women of the church. She led by being a true example of selflessness and stewardship.

When her husband was called to preach, she said, "I am with you" and left her home church to faithfully serve with him as he pastored churches and led revivals throughout the middle Tennessee area. She and her family have been truly blessed by the many relationships with their church families.

In addition to her husband and children, she is survived by four grandchildren, Heather and Matthew Hall, and Joshua and Emma Grace Martin.

She is dearly missed by her family and friends.

Thomas Hine Nankervis

June 22, 1934 – May 4, 2017

Tom was born and lived in Eveleth, Minnesota, less than 100 miles from the Canadian border, and known then as the “Ice Hockey Capital” of the nation. As a schoolboy he played hockey with several future Olympians, but it was his love of the arts that drew him to St. Paul, Minnesota, and Macalester College, which had a strong theater program. In 1957, Tom received his undergraduate degree from Macalester, and a call to the ministry around that time took him to Dallas, Texas, where he earned his Bachelor of Divinity Degree from Perkins School of Theology at Southern Methodist University. He later earned a Masters degree from Scarritt College, Nashville, Tennessee.

Tom met and married his wife Carla in 1956, and following seminary they moved back to Minnesota where Tom received his Elders orders and served two churches, Central Park, Methodist, St. Paul, and Richfield Methodist, Minneapolis.

In 1961, the couple moved to Nashville, Tennessee. There Tom began his work with boards and agencies where he was able to combine artistic interests with his ministerial activities. He first worked at the United Methodist Publishing House in media production and then moved to the staff of United Methodist Communications (then TRAFICO). There he was responsible for everything from storytelling and the religious 999 message, issues of women in media, and the early use of computers to create newsletters.

Tom later continued pastoral ministry serving Blakemore United Methodist Church, Nashville, Charlotte-Fagan United Methodist Church, Charlotte, and Lambuth Memorial United Methodist, Gallatin.

Upon “retirement” Tom took over a “temporary” position filling in in an emergency position editing the conference newspaper. He was a fixture at the Conference Council office in various positions for the next nine years and it was during this time that his identity as “conference photographer” took over. Many never knew his name but if you said “the guy taking pictures” there was instant recognition.

The same became true in his two years in Sun City Center, Florida, where he and Carla settled easily into an active retirement life.

Tom and Carla have two sons and two daughters-in-laws that they consider daughters. Tom, the son, and Lynn live in Riverview, Florida, about a half an hour away; David and Claudia live in New York City. There are seven grandchildren.

When Leon entered the Methodist ministry in 1960, Eunice became a supportive minister’s wife who enjoyed the fellowship of Dad’s flock and all pastoral families. She was an exceptional southern cook and her hummingbird cakes were always a treat at minister retiree’s dinners. She had a keen wit and could bring happiness and laughter to all she met. She had a love of life and nature, whether watching a sunset, admiring her buttercups and iris, smelling the roses, watching a full moon on a star filled night, listening to crickets and her favorite whippoorwills, enjoying fireflies and her numerous backyard birds or helping Leon harvest his many gardens. She loved animals, even the normally unruly, which she could pet and have an instant friend.

To her children, in-laws, grandchildren and great grandchildren, she gave the following and much more: wonder and trust; smiles; happiness; a special touch or hug; prayers; support over changing years; numerous sacrifices; freedom from a grasp so each of us could live, grow and experience our full capabilities; and mostly her faith, hope, courage, resilience, toughness, discipline and unconditional love. Her love was like a healing balm to us all.

Leon Norris, who preceded her in death on January 17, 2009, at New Redden’s Chapel Cemetery in Coffee County, TN.

Arthur George Robins, Sr.

August 5, 1930 – September 30, 2016

Reverend Arthur G. Robins, Sr. (Art) was born August 5, 1930 in Fitchburg, Massachusetts, where he spent his youth. Shortly after graduating from Fitchburg High School, he decided to join the United States Marine Corps. Several years later he served in combat during the Korean War where he suffered a paralyzing injury from a mortar shell wound. After a long recovery at California Naval Hospital, he was honorably discharged and decided to begin his studies to become a minister by entering a small Methodist college, Union College, in Barbourville, Kentucky.

While at Union College he met Bula “Bea” Grider, and they married in 1955. They moved to his home state of Massachusetts where Art entered Boston University. The next year they welcomed their first born, a daughter, Suellen Dawn. They then decided to relocate the family to Nashville where Art obtained a Divinity degree from Vanderbilt University. During this time, Art and Bea welcomed their second child, Arthur George, Jr.

Art's career began as a youth minister at Inglewood United Methodist Church while still in school at Vanderbilt. He started his pastoral ministry at Neely's Bend United Methodist Church in Madison. He then served Westmoreland United Methodist Church, and Pleasant Grove United Methodist Church. Art would spend most of his preaching career in the Columbia District since Bea was a public school teacher at Central High School in Columbia. Art was serving four years at Riverside United Methodist Church in Columbia when the family welcomed their youngest child, Joseph Matthew. He then served Mt. Pleasant First United Methodist Church for four years. Then the family moved back to Columbia where Art served numerous small circuit churches in the area while also directing the Big Brother/Big Sister program. He later served St. Luke United Methodist Church in Columbia. He had his longest appointment as Associate Pastor at Franklin First United Methodist Church for eight years. He went on to serve Coleman United Methodist Church in Lawrenceburg, and then Woodbine United Methodist Church where he retired in 1995. Art was honored to have served in the Marine Corps and, in retirement, he found time to work with both the Marine Corps League and the Young Marines program. He also continued his preaching in retirement which included interims at Hohenwald, St. Paul, Lewisburg Chapel, and others as needed.

Art always looked forward to going to Annual Conference each year to vote on issues of the Conference as well as to visit with his brotherhood of ministers. He loved his circuit churches as much as the larger ones and was always willing to accept his appointment. He also loved collecting and telling jokes and always had one ready when appropriate.

Art is probably best remembered for his use of hand puppets in his Children's Sermons. He had a real talent for teaching meaningful lessons through colorful and entertaining puppet characters. Some adults even admitted they often got more out of the Children's Sermon than they did out of the adult sermon. Through the years, Art acquired quite a large collection of puppets which were mostly gifts from his congregation.

Art's desire as a minister was not “to set the world on fire” but to inspire his congregation enough that they would continue to spread the word. From the many I've heard from since his death on September 30, 2016, I'm sure he has accomplished his goal.

Lovingly shared by his wife, Bea Robins

Virginia Patton Rowlett

June 7, 1923 – November 15, 2016

Virginia Dare Patton Rowlett was born June 7, 1923, in Murfreesboro, Tennessee. She died November 15, 2016, in Kingsport, Tennessee. She was raised the daughter of a farmer but became educated at the Nashville School of Business and proceeded to work for several years in Detroit, Michigan and Nashville.

Due to her parents' health decline, she stopped working and became their caretaker for several years until their deaths.

In 1962, she married James Rowlett, a Methodist minister, whom she had dated for at least 15 years. Together, they served in several churches between Sparta and McKenzie, Tennessee until his retirement. At that time they settled in Murfreesboro. After her marriage, she assumed the caretaker role for James' mother and handicapped brother until their deaths.

After retirement, they enjoyed traveling and looking for antiques. Unfortunately, James suffered a stroke and was paralyzed on one side. Once again, Virginia became a caretaker for 10 years until his death. She moved to McKendree Village in Hermitage and enjoyed several years of independent living, making many new friends.

As her health began to decline, and she was needing more assistance, she moved in 2007 to Kingsport, Tennessee, where her nephew lived and could assist in her care. The lifelong caregiver was now the recipient of care.

Virginia enjoyed 9 years in Kingsport, but her last year was one of a failing body and mind. Until then, she was happy and appreciative of her existence.

Lovingly shared by her nephew, Mack Patton, MD

Louise Baird Short

January 7, 1906 – June 24, 2016

Louise Baird Short, the widow of Bishop Roy H. Short, always had the ear of bishops and General Conference delegates. In fact, until 2016, she had attended each General Conference going back to the unification of the Methodist Church in 1939.

She died June 24, 2016, in Nashville at the age of 110.

At General Conference 2012 in Tampa, Florida, delegates greeted her with a standing ovation. She was 106 at the time. "It's always good to see the interest people have in the church and what they want the church to be," she told United Methodist Communications shortly afterward. "That fills my spirit." Altogether, she attended 18 of the denomination's top lawmaking assemblies.

"She loved the Lord, and loved her church because of her love of the Lord," said her son, the Rev. Riley Short, a longtime pastor in Florida. "She always thought the business of the church was her business," he said with a chuckle.

Retired Bishop Charlene Kammerer, the first woman elected bishop in the Southeastern Jurisdiction, described Short as “a wonderful and great ambassador for the church throughout her life.” She routinely went to gatherings of the Council of Bishops, the Southeastern Jurisdiction and the Tennessee Annual Conference. Short also took on the responsibility of welcoming new bishops and their spouses.

“Sometimes we tend to talk about the bishops and not their spouses, but Mrs. Short had a ministry all her own,” said Louisville (Kentucky) Area Bishop Lindsey Davis, who met Mrs. Short and her husband when he was a teen Methodist youth leader in Kentucky. Bishop Davis noted that his wife, Jennifer, once introduced Short as the “Queen Mother of Methodism in the Southeastern Jurisdiction.” He said that it was a title Mrs. Short liked.

“She was well-known as a teacher and a speaker all on her own,” Davis said. “She wasn’t overshadowed by Bishop Short.”

Mrs. Short credited her husband of 68 years with getting her interested in church governance. They met while he was in seminary and she was a student at the University of Louisville in Kentucky. They married in 1926 and had three sons. Her husband’s ministry set their path.

He served as a pastor, a district superintendent and editor of “The Upper Room,” before being elected bishop in 1948. He led church members in Florida, Cuba, Tennessee and Kentucky before retiring in 1972 — four years after the formation of The United Methodist Church. For more than a decade, he also was Secretary of Council of Bishops. He also briefly was an interim bishop in the Philippines.

On her husband’s many travels as bishop, Mrs. Short often accompanied him and helped with missionary work. She made friends from all walks of life. “She loved everybody,” her son said. “She accepted you for who you were, and I think it had to do with her Christian faith. She believed the love of Christ was for everyone.”

She also was fearless, friends say. Born the same year — 1906 — that the Wright brothers patented their airplane, Mrs. Short made the most of the invention. Even after her husband died at the age of 92 in 1994, she continued to see the world.

At the age of 90, she rode a camel in the ancient city of Petra. At 95, she walked on the Great Wall of China. At 100, she visited Cambodia to see Angkor Wat. The following year, at 101, she balanced on a surfboard in Costa Rica for a family photo.

“She was quite an adventurer,” said retired Bishop Richard Wills, who helped lead her memorial service at West End United Methodist Church. “She looked for what God was doing each day and then sought to join God in whatever that activity was.”

Her last trip was to the General Conference in 2012. Jo Ann McClain, administrative assistant with the Council of Bishops, greeted her with a wheelchair to take her across a hotel and convention center to the plenary hall. “She said, ‘Jo Ann, I can walk,’” McClain recalled. Mrs. Short only agreed to be wheeled to the gathering with a reluctant “Fine.” “We were no sooner in the plenary space than she jumped out of the chair and started greeting people,” McClain said.

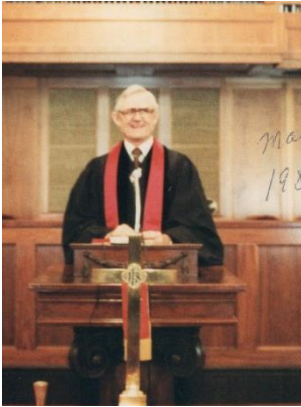

During her husband’s assignment to the Nashville Area (which included Tennessee, Memphis and Holston Conferences at the time), Mrs. Short was present regularly. She would often speak to the new ordinands and spouses at the conclusion of the Service of Ordination. After Bishop Short’s retirement and their move back to Nashville, she was a regular visitor to the Tennessee Annual Conference sessions. It was obvious that she enjoyed being with other United Methodists.

A celebration of her life service was held on July 6, at West End United Methodist Church, and on July 7 at St. Paul United Methodist Church in Louisville, Kentucky.

He continued his education, graduating from Middle Tennessee State University with a degree in Agriculture. After graduation Felix met a beautiful young lady named Lorraine, who was singing in the church choir at Farris Chapel. They were married 8 months later on November 4, 1950, and moved to Lewisburg, where Felix managed a Purina Feed Supply Store.

After four years, Felix answered a call from God to the ministry. He graduated from Vanderbilt Divinity School and was ordained Elder in the Tennessee Conference in 1959. He preached his first sermon on May 27, 1957.

In his ministry Felix served many congregations, including: Bigbyville Circuit (Culleoka, Bigbyville, Glendale, and Neapolis) in the Columbia District; Antioch Circuit (Martha's Chapel, Salem, Antioch, and Chapel Hill) in the Clarksville District; Bordeaux, Hermitage, Shelbyville, Gallatin, City Road Chapel, Pulaski and Savannah in other districts of the Tennessee Conference.

Felix loved sports, especially following and supporting the Gallatin Green Wave program. He was very active in civic organizations throughout his life, including the Lion's Club in Gallatin. The Durham, Snell Award was created in memory of the later Lion, Walter Durham and in honor of the former Lion, Felix Snell. This award is given each year to a deserving member who has shown outstanding and dedicated service.

Family and friends are grateful for the blessing of knowing him, thankful for your prayers and support, and thankful to God for his steadfast love.

I have finished the race,
I have kept the faith.

CHAPTER 11

STANDING RULES, PERSONNEL POLICIES, AND MEDIA CRISIS RESPONSE

A. STANDING RULES (SR)

The Standing Rules of the Tennessee Annual Conference represent the means by which we organize and oversee our work of making disciples for the transformation of the world. It is the organizational plan of the Tennessee Annual Conference, setting forth the rules by which we govern ourselves, in compliance with ¶604 of the 2016 Book of Discipline. As our Book of Discipline says about itself, our Standing Rules reflect the “...most current statement of how United Methodists [in the Tennessee Annual Conference] agree to live together and ‘maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.’”

The Committee on Standing Rules presents these rules for renewal and adoption by each session of the Tennessee Annual Conference.

Section 1 – Authorization for the Committee on Standing Rules

- 1.1 The Committee on Standing Rules has the responsibility to:
  - a) Propose new policies and standing rules;
  - b) Propose needed amendments to existing policies and standing rules;
  - c) Provide guidance to the annual conference at any point where conference action may be at variance with a policy or standing rule.
- 1.2 The Standing Rules of the Tennessee Annual Conference must be in compliance with the provisions of ¶604 of the current edition of The Book of Discipline.

Section 2 – Annual Conference Session Procedures

- 2.1 The conference shall follow the latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order except where it is in conflict with the current Book of Discipline.
- 2.2 All motions and resolutions shall be supplied to the conference secretary in writing on a form provided for this purpose by the conference secretary.
- 2.3 Any entity planning to present a report at any annual conference session shall submit the report to the Office of Connectional Ministries at least ten weeks prior to the opening day of annual conference for inclusion in pre-conference materials.
- 2.4 All resolutions not printed in the pre-conference materials shall be submitted to the Committee on Resolutions at least 30 days prior to the first day of the annual conference session. The chair of the resolutions committee shall submit to the annual conference, in their original form, all resolutions so submitted. In addition, the committee may present to the annual conference for consideration a revised version of any such resolution.
- 2.5 The roll call of the Tennessee Annual Conference shall be taken from the registration.
- 2.6 The agenda of the conference shall be that as it is corrected, printed, and distributed at registration with the understanding that the bishop may adjust the agenda for the good of the order.
- 2.7 All speeches other than reports shall be limited to three minutes.
- 2.8 Voting cards given out at registration shall be the means of identifying who is eligible to vote on all issues requiring a vote.
- 2.9 The annual conference session shall meet at a location accessible to persons with disabilities.

- 2.10 All annual conference reports and all materials to be included in the journal shall be e-mailed to the journal editor by June 30. Any corrections and/or additions received after this date shall, at the discretion of the journal editor, be included in the succeeding journal. Handwritten and typewritten reports shall not be accepted for publication in the journal. All reports should be typed, using Microsoft Word. Photos must be submitted in the format requested by the journal editor. Original digital copies of any photograph in a report must be submitted with the report. Files that contain tables should be submitted in Microsoft Excel format. No PDF or directly scanned images will be accepted.
- 2.11 Agenda items and reports not requiring action by the annual conference other than a vote to receive said item for publication in the journal, shall be placed on a consent agenda. In order for any item or report to be eligible for placement on the consent agenda, it must have been distributed in the pre-conference materials, or included in the conference packet distributed to the members (both clergy and lay) of the annual conference session. Any item may be removed from the consent agenda if 10 members of the conference petition for removal.
- 2.12 Equalization and Youth Participation: Whenever it shall occur that the person serving as the director of Administrative Services, director of Connectional Ministries, or director of Ministerial Concerns is a lay person, then each person so serving shall be an at-large lay member of the annual conference. The conference secretary shall determine annually the number of laypersons needed to equalize lay and clergy members of the annual conference. The at-large members are to be allocated as nearly as possible on an equal basis to the districts. When the number of members to equalize cannot be distributed evenly between the districts, the members shall be allocated to the districts in alphabetical order of districts. The at-large members are to be elected by each district conference.

Each district conference shall elect two youth (ages 12-17) and two young adults (ages 18-30) as at-large members of the annual conference.

Section 3 – Election of Delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conference

- 3.1 Clergy and lay delegates to General and jurisdictional conferences shall be elected as provided in the Constitution of The United Methodist Church (paragraphs 34-36 of The Book of Discipline).
- 3.2 Ballots
- a) Ballots will be provided by the office of the conference secretary
  - b) Fifty percent plus one valid ballots cast shall be necessary to elect
  - c) Ballots with more or less than the number to be elected shall be rejected as invalid
- 3.3 Candidacy of persons eligible to serve as delegates, whether clergy or lay to General and/or jurisdictional conference, may be established either by declaration or nomination:
- a) To declare candidacy for election to serve as a General or jurisdictional conference delegate, the eligible person must submit to the Office of Connectional Ministries, no later than 10 weeks prior to the opening day of annual conference, for inclusion in the pre-conference materials a statement concerning:
    - 1. His/her activities at the local church, district, and annual, jurisdictional, and General conference levels;
    - 2. An assessment of the principal needs of the general Church and how those needs should be met; and
    - 3. Any other information felt pertinent to introducing himself/herself to those members of the annual conference who may not be familiar with his/her views on issues confronting the Church.
  - b) To nominate a person for candidacy to be elected to serve as a General or jurisdictional conference delegate and have the nomination printed in the pre-conference materials, the nominator(s) must:

1. Determine the eligibility of the person to be nominated.
  2. Secure from the person to be nominated and submit to the Office of Connectional Ministries the proposed nominee's written consent to accept the nomination.
  3. Submit to the Office of Connectional Ministries, no later than 10 weeks prior to the opening day of annual conference, for inclusion in the pre-conference materials, a statement concerning:
    - The activities of the nominee at the local church, district, and annual, jurisdictional, and General conference levels,
    - An assessment of the opinions of the nominee regarding the principal needs of the church and how those needs should be met, and
    - Any other information (such as age and ethnicity) felt to be pertinent to introducing the nominee to those members of the annual conference who may not be familiar with that nominee's views on issues confronting the church.
- c) Statements submitted in the establishing of candidacy, whether by declaration or nomination, shall be limited to 200 words, and shall be submitted via e-mail.
- d) Persons do not have to declare candidacy or be nominated for candidacy in order to be eligible for election to serve as a General or jurisdictional conference delegate.
- e) The initial ballot for election to General Conference will have a ballot number assigned only to those who, by declaration or nomination, have expressed their desire to be considered as a candidate. All subsequent ballots will assign numbers to write-in candidates during the election process.
- 3.4 Reserve delegates: After the jurisdictional conference delegates are elected, on the next ballot reserve delegates shall be elected (the number of General Conference delegates) in order of the highest number of votes received without regard to majority. The delegation's budget will include funding for one lay and one clergy reserve delegate to attend General and jurisdictional conferences.

Section 4 -- Suspension and Amendment of Standing Rules

- 4.1 Any standing rule, with the exception of SR 4.2, SR 4.3, and SR 4.4, may be suspended at any session of the annual conference by a two-thirds majority vote of those present and voting.
- 4.2 Any standing rule, policy, or parsonage standard may be amended at any session of the annual conference by a two-thirds majority vote of those present and voting, provided that notice of the desired amendment shall be given to the conference at least 24 hours in advance of a vote being taken in regard to it.
- 4.3 Any proposal for the adoption of a new policy or standing rule, or for the amendment of an existing policy or standing rule, shall be presented to the annual conference through and by the Committee on Policies and Standing Rules.
- 4.4 Any proposal for an addition or change in the parsonage standards shall be presented to the annual conference through or by the cabinet and through the Committee on Policies and Standing Rules.

Section 5 – Procedural Policies

- 5.1 All boards, agencies, and other entities of the annual conference in the performance of their duties shall adhere to the appropriate provisions in the current Book of Discipline.
- 5.2 Conference Master Calendar
There shall be a master calendar of all conference and district dates which will be maintained by the Office of Connectional Ministries staff in the CCOCM offices. All district and conference committees, councils, commissions, boards, task groups, and institutions amenable to the conference shall coordinate all dates with the CCOCM office, and establish dates upon the master calendar for all events that call for general participation of the people of our churches.

The master calendar shall be coordinated with the general Church calendar, such that, where possible, conflict with national meetings will not occur.

- 5.3 Any entity that claims a relationship to the Tennessee Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church must be endorsed and/or authorized by and accountable to an officially recognized board, commission, committee, or council of the Tennessee Annual Conference.

Section 6 – Inclusion in the Journal

- 6.1 Parsonage standards shall be printed each year in the journal. The standards shall be reviewed quadrennially by the Committee on Policies and Standing Rules, which shall submit to the annual conference a report to the cabinet detailing any proposed amendments to the parsonage standards.

Section 7 – Organizational Policies

- 7.1 Policies Regarding Incorporation
Boards, agencies, or constituent bodies may not apply for incorporation apart from the express authority given by the annual conference. Boards, agencies or constituent bodies may not take title to property except by the express authority given by the annual conference. The title to all properties acquired for the annual conference or its boards, agencies, or constituent bodies shall be taken and held in the name of the Tennessee Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc., a Tennessee nonprofit organization or the Board of Trustees of the Tennessee Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church. Provided that this requirement shall not pertain to the Board of Trustees of Martin Methodist College, Board of Directors of The United Methodist Foundation for the Memphis and Tennessee conferences, and the Board of Pensions which may take and hold title to such properties as they are authorized to acquire by the action of the annual conference.

The annual conference shall be incorporated as a Tennessee nonprofit corporation with the name Tennessee Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc. The corporate officers shall be the resident bishop (president), lay leader (vice-president), conference secretary (secretary), and the conference treasurer (treasurer). The conference treasurer shall also serve as registered agent. The conference chancellor may provide legal counsel to the corporation. The conference trustees may approve bylaws and other corporate documents as needed to maintain compliance with Tennessee law, The Book of Discipline, and the conference standing rules and policies.

- 7.2 The Tennessee Conference Personnel Committee shall be responsible for personnel procedures and policies that apply to all offices and employees of the Tennessee Conference. Policies and procedures shall not conflict with requirements of The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church.

Section 8 – Nominations to Boards, Commissions, Committees, and other Entities

- 8.1 The Annual Conference Committee on Nominations shall be composed of the bishop, as chairperson; the district superintendents; the conference lay leader; the conference president of United Methodist Men; the conference president of United Methodist Women; the chairperson of the Conference Council on Youth Ministries; the chairperson of the Conference Council on Young Adult Ministries; the executive director of Connectional Ministries; the director of Administrative Services; the conference secretary; the conference chancellor; two persons recommended from its members by the Commission on Religion and Race, one of who is recommended to be African-American, one of who is recommended to be of another ethnic minority; two persons recommended by its members from the Cooperative Ministries; two persons recommended from its members by the Commission on Status and Role of Women; and one pastor and one layperson from each of the districts, recommended by the district conference.
- 8.2 The Committee on Nominations shall develop policies and procedures for applying for and nominating vacancies, including use of the conference website, and shall distribute and post those procedures by September 30 in the year before quadrennial elections. The Committee on Nominations shall publicize by November 30 the list of vacancies for conference entities.
- 8.3 When a minister is appointed district superintendent, he/she shall vacate any office or membership held on any conference board, commission, committee, or agency. The newly formed cabinet shall then appoint district superintendent(s) to each board and agency of the conference except where required by The Book of Discipline, and to the Council on Connectional Ministries.
- 8.4 No person shall serve as a member of the same conference board, council, commission, or agency, or on a committee, which has as its parent body a conference board, or agency, for more than eight years in a period of 12 years. When such conflict arises, that person shall be replaced immediately by the appropriate nominating committee, provided, however, that when a real or potential conflict of interest arises on a single issue, the person affected shall withdraw from the meeting until the discussion of and voting on that issue is complete. Should it arise that there is a difference of opinion as to which of these remedies is appropriate to any given situation, it shall be the duty of the chairperson of the entity, in consultation with the district superintendent assigned to relate to that entity, to determine which remedy is appropriate.
- 8.7 The Committee on Nominations shall nominate persons to entities as authorized by the annual conference. It shall also nominate the officers of the Conference Council on Connectional Ministries, as well as the conference lay leader, conference secretary, journal editor, and conference statistician at the session immediately following General Conference.
- 8.8 Persons elected by the annual conference shall take office upon the adjournment of the annual conference session at which they were elected unless The Book of Discipline provides otherwise.
- 8.9 Persons elected by the district conference may take office at the time they are elected.

- 8.10 All quadrennial conference boards and agencies shall meet following the adjournment of annual conference, but prior to August 15, and report officers to the conference secretary.

Section 9 – Boards, Commissions, Committees, and Other Entities

- 9.1 Every board, commission, committee, council, or other entity of the annual conference is recommended to have at least one African-American clergy person and one African-American lay person as elected members and at least one other ethnic minority when these persons are available.

Every board, commission, committee, council, or other entity of the annual conference shall be inclusive in its membership in relation to lay/clergy, gender, and ethnic minorities unless otherwise stipulated in The Book of Discipline.

Committees or other entities pertaining to the Council on Connectional Ministries that do not meet these inclusiveness guidelines (lay/clergy, gender, and ethnic minority) may be filled until the next annual conference by the conference council upon nomination from the Conference Council Committee on Personnel.

- 9.2 No person shall be eligible to serve as chairperson of more than one conference entity or a member of more than two conference entities simultaneously. This rule does not apply to ex-officio positions; to members of the cabinet; or to lay members of the Boards of Directors at APSU, MTSU, TSU; Vanderbilt, Fisk, TTU, and Belmont; or to lay members of the Board of Trustees, Martin Methodist College; lay members of the Board of Directors of the United Methodist Foundation for the Memphis and Tennessee Conferences, and officers of UMW or UMM.
- 9.3 The members of any group, whose composition is left to the discretion of the annual conference and is not stipulated by The Book of Discipline, shall be elected quadrennially and the composition of such groups shall be governed by ¶610.5 of The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, 2016.
- 9.4 Persons who are elected to membership on the entities of the annual conference who are absent without excuse, for 50 percent or more of the meetings of that entity in a given year, shall be replaced on that entity. Replacement shall be nominated by the Conference Committee on Nominations, or other appropriate nominating source, and elected by the annual conference, except as may be otherwise stipulated in The Book of Discipline. Replacement members of various boards, councils, and committees of the Conference Council on Connectional Ministries shall be affected by the council, according to its procedure.

Final approval for such fund-raising activities shall be given by the annual conference.
- 11.11 Ongoing committees of the annual conference must present to the Council on Finance and Administration an annual budget request in order to be reimbursed for any expenses. The Council on Finance and Administration will act upon such requests and include a recommendation in the budget which it will present to the annual conference.
- 11.12 The authorization for the establishment of short term committees related to the annual conference may include reimbursement for expenses incurred by committee members, in accordance with Council on Finance and Administration policies and oversight.

C. WHEN EVERY MINUTE COUNTS

Tennessee Conference Media Crisis Response Plan

A Media Crisis in the Tennessee Conference is:

An event or emergency associated in some way with the Church but beyond its control, which can be expected to become public. It presents potential for damage to individuals, or the image of the Church, and hinders the ability to be in ministry. In other words, a media crisis is anything that could cause the public to lose faith in Tennessee Conference leadership or in The United Methodist Church.

Media Crises Come in Several Packages

- Personnel crisis (clergy, church staff, or lay member's misconduct, death, illness, or injury)
- Threatened criminal or legal action
- Violent acts, demonstrations
- Corporate crisis (lawsuits against the conference, an agency or institution)
- Positive crisis (donations exceed what can be handled, etc.)

Purpose of Crisis Response Plan

- Provide compassion for victims
- Meet needs of the media
- Project positive image of the Tennessee Conference and The United Methodist Church

Immediate Crisis Response Team (ICRT)

The Immediate Crisis Response Team will consist of five persons:

3. The bishop or alternate spokesperson and local church pastor* or agency director* must be thoroughly and regularly briefed before making any appearances or statements. The spokespersons may refer news media to others who can speak with authority on a particular subject. *If the local church pastor or agency director is intimately involved in the crisis, s/he will not be a spokesperson.
4. The MCMT will determine whether the spokesperson should leave immediately for the location of the crisis (such as a church camp or church building). This may be necessary if reporters are already on site and there is no spokesperson present.

5. The bishop or alternate spokesperson must establish a schedule for regular briefing sessions of team members for the purpose of updates and discussion during the first few days of the crisis when media interest will be most intense.
6. The team is authorized to engage other professionals as needed. The bishop or his/her designate and the team should determine who receives information, updates and copies of all statements and releases.

D. Safe Sanctuary Policy for Children, Youth, and Vulnerable Persons

Abuse and neglect of children, youth, and vulnerable persons are prohibited by the Tennessee Annual Conference, its churches and its agencies.

The Tennessee Conference seeks to create a safe environment for children, youth, and vulnerable persons in which opportunities for abuse are minimized by the provision of proper enlistment and supervision of those persons working with them. This document contains theological foundations, definitions of abuse, and policies related to prevention, response, and reporting.

Clergy and laity are encouraged to read this policy and make it an essential part of the operations of each local church. For procedures related to conference events and for resources related to local church policies and procedures visit tnumc.org and go to the Safe Spaces Ministry page.

I. SCOPE

The Tennessee Conference of the United Methodist Church affirms that all children, youth and vulnerable persons have the right to safety. Therefore, United Methodists of the Tennessee Conference are determined to provide an environment in which these persons are safe from neglect or abuse including sexual misconduct and harassment.

The scope of this policy and its provisions shall apply to all staff and volunteers, clergy or lay, who have direct or indirect contact with children, youth, and vulnerable persons in conference and/or district sponsored events. This policy should be implemented in conjunction with the Sexual Misconduct Policy for Church Professionals found at tnumc.org on the Safe Spaces Ministry page.

Safe Spaces Ministry consists of the Safe Sanctuary Team, the Boundaries and Sexual Ethics Team, and the Conference Response Team for the Tennessee Conference. The Safe Spaces Ministry serves to assist in development, review and implementation of policies and procedures necessary for keeping ministry safe. This ministry will facilitate the availability of training for members of the Tennessee Conference.

The Safe Spaces Ministry will be responsible for annual review of the policy and will propose to the annual conference suggested revisions to the policy as needed. Each conference and/or district ministry event involving children, youth, or vulnerable persons shall create procedures to implement this policy.

II. THEOLOGICAL FOUNDATION

Our Biblical Mandate:

“Then Jesus took a little child and put her among them; and taking her in his arms, he said to them, ‘Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me.’” (Paraphrase of Mark 9:36- 37) Jesus also said, “If any of you put a stumbling block before one of these little ones..., it would be better for you if a great millstone were fastened around your neck and you were drowned in the depth of the sea.” (Matthew 18:6)

Our Commitment in Baptism:

The Church, above all institutions, is called to welcome and nurture the child. Our goal is to maintain a safe, secure, loving place where all children may grow and where those who care for them may minister to their needs in responsible ways.

Our Mandate:

The 1996 General Conference approved a resolution that called upon local churches and annual conferences to institute policies and procedures to reduce the risk of child sexual abuse in our churches and church-related activities. We, in the Tennessee Conference, accept the nature of this call and seek to expand it to include all forms of abuse and neglect that could be possible in these settings or that could come to our attention regarding all children, youth, and/or vulnerable persons in our care.

Statement of Covenant:

As caring Christians, we are committed to protect and advocate for all children, youth, and vulnerable persons participating in the life of the church. The Church, at all levels of its organization, is entrusted with the responsibility of providing an emotionally and physically safe, spiritually grounded, healthy environment for all children, youth, adults, and vulnerable persons in which they are protected from abuse.

We uphold the idea that to report abuse is to be a witness to the world of the love and justice of God and fully recognize that reporting abuse is a form of ministering to the needs of those crying out for help. Simply, to report abuse can help to stop existing abuse and prevent further abuse.

Additionally, we care for victims of abuse and their families by offering resources that will contribute to healing. Further, we recognize the grace that God gives in upholding Christian community; we will look for grace-filled ways of dealing with both the victim and the accused.

Therefore, as a Christian community of faith and a United Methodist congregation, we pledge to conduct the ministry of the gospel in ways that assure the safety and spiritual growth of all of our children, youth and vulnerable persons, as well as all of the workers with children, youth and vulnerable persons. We will follow reasonable safety measures in the selection and recruitment of workers; we will implement prudent operational procedures in all programs and events; we will educate all of our workers with children, youth and vulnerable persons regarding the use of all appropriate policies and methods (including first aid and methods of discipline); we will have a clearly defined procedure for reporting a suspected incident of abuse that conforms to the requirements of state law; and we will be prepared to respond to media inquiries if an incident occurs.

III. ADOPTION OF POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Local churches within the conference will adopt and enforce their own Safe Sanctuary Policy For Children, Youth, and Vulnerable Persons. It is recommended that the congregational policy be equal to or exceed in strength of protection for all children, youth, and vulnerable persons the minimum standards here stated. The Tennessee Conference of UMC recommends the local church act as follows:

- A. Responsibility for Implementation. Implementing the Abuse Prevention Policy For Children, Youth, and Vulnerable Persons at a local church shall be the responsibility of the Pastor in Charge, the governing body, and a Safe Sanctuaries Committee (SSC) or its equivalent organized in compliance with the local church's governance process.

Safe Sanctuaries Committee or equivalent. A Safe Sanctuaries Committee (this may be the age-level ministry committee or education committee) shall have the responsibility for developing local church safe sanctuaries policies and procedures; communicating with and educating the congregation concerning those policies and procedures; recruiting, screening, and training paid staff and volunteers; conducting site inspections and making recommendations; retaining records; and regularly reviewing conference policies and procedures, applicable state laws, and the insurance policy provisions and insurer requirements. It is recommended that this committee or its equivalent should have at least one representative each from Education, Age-level ministries, Trustees, and the Staff Parish Relations committees.

- B. Training. Such periodic training and education on the Safe Sanctuary Policy For Children, Youth, and Vulnerable Persons provided by the Tennessee Conference should be attended each quadrennium by the local church Pastor in Charge and SSC chairperson or other SSC designated member. Further, it is recommended that attendance at such conference-wide training include at a minimum, designees from the local church who will be personally coordinating and conducting safe sanctuaries training for employees and staff within the local church.
- C. Annual Review of Policy. The local church Safe Sanctuary Committee will conduct an annual review of the policy to facilitate implementation of best practices and compliance with current state and federal law. A report will be made to the Tennessee Conference as a part of their charge conference report.

IV. COMMON DEFINITIONS OF ABUSE

1. Child abuse (under age 18) is the harm or threatened harm to a child's health or welfare by a person responsible for the child's health or welfare or by a person in a position of trust, which harm occurs or is threatened through non-accidental physical or mental injury or sexual abuse.
2. Vulnerable Persons abuse is the harm or threatened harm to a vulnerable person's health or welfare by a person responsible for the vulnerable person's health or welfare or by a person in a position of trust, which harm occurs or is threatened through non-accidental physical or mental injury or sexual abuse. A vulnerable person is any adult aged 18 or over who, by reason of mental or other disability, age, illness or other situation is permanently or for the time being unable to take care of him or herself, or to protect him or herself against significant harm or exploitation.
3. Physical Abuse is any non-accidental act that inflicts bodily harm to a person, or failure to protect from physical harm where a duty exists to do so.

6. Verbal Abuse refers to spoken or unspoken violence or emotional cruelty against a child, youth, and/or a vulnerable person.

V. SCREENING PROCEDURES FOR VOLUNTEERS AND PAID STAFF

All persons, including Conference staff who intend to work with children, youth, and/or vulnerable persons at Conference-sponsored events, including overnight or longer events, must also be properly screened and attend an age-appropriate orientation/ training session on child protection and abuse and have current background check. Local church Safe Sanctuary policies are expected to meet the minimum requirements set out below for training and screening. A Safe Spaces Verification form will be completed and submitted to the appropriate leadership prior to participation.

The following procedures should be followed:

- A written job description outlining duties and expectations must be provided, and shall be signed and dated by each person falling within the scope of the policy.
- An application/personal information form shall be completed.
- A Sexual Offender Registry check in any state where the applicant has resided during the past seven (7) years shall be conducted.

Any conviction of a crime against children, youth or adults from vulnerable populations and any conviction of rape, sexual or physical assault shall disqualify any applicant. A person who has been convicted as a sex offender will not be approved. Affirmative responses to questions relating to crimes involving possession or use of drugs or suspension of a drivers' license within the past five years will prompt a heightened review of an application.

- Personal interviews with summary documentation will be conducted by the Safe Sanctuary team or Conference staff representative and kept in a confidential file maintained by the Conference ministry for whom the applicant will serve.
- References will be checked with summary documentation in a confidential file and maintained by the Conference ministry for whom the applicant will serve.

VI. RECIPROCITY

The Safe Spaces Ministry Team may accept training provided by other United Methodist Conferences or United Methodist churches in other conferences after a review of the policies and procedures implemented in the other conference or church. Screening will be accepted provided that there has been a copy of the National Screen that included a national criminal check conducted by the other conference or church submitted with the request.

VII. REPORTING OF INCIDENTS

Incidents may involve inappropriate behavior by staff/volunteers or other participants toward a participant and call for immediate on-site corrective action. Incidents may involve the abuse, neglect or exploitation of participants by staff/volunteers or other participants and mandate reporting through the Tennessee Child Abuse hotline (1-877-237-0004) or the Adult Protective Services hotline (1-888-277-8366). In case of an emergency, immediately call 9-1-1.

A call to the hotline is required to be made by staff/volunteers if there is reasonable cause to suspect that abuse of a participant has occurred. When the necessity of reporting occurs, the protection of children, youth, and vulnerable persons must be paramount. Cooperation with the Tennessee Department of Children's Services, the Tennessee Commission on Aging and Disability and law enforcement is required in all such incidents.

In case of allegations of abuse occurring in the church or ministries affiliated with the church or having the potential to impact the ministry of the church, the District Superintendent and/or Bishop shall be notified immediately. The Safe Spaces Ministry Staff Person will also be notified following notification of the appropriate state or local law enforcement authorities. Parents or legal guardians will generally be notified; however, in circumstances in which the parent or guardian is alleged or suspected to be the perpetrator or may have been complicit in the neglect or abuse, notice may be withheld in appropriate circumstances. When doubt exists legal counsel should be consulted.

VIII. STATEMENT TO THE MEDIA

The Media Crisis Response Plan should be enacted to insure proper protocol is followed.

The Bishop or alternate spokesperson shall provide conference and district ministry groups with guidelines for communications with media about the incident(s) which may have been reported.

POLICY REVISION DATE: May 2017

POLICY ADOPTION DATE: June 2017

E. Sexual Misconduct Policy for Church Professionals of the Tennessee Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church

Preamble

The Tennessee Annual Conference does not approve of and will not tolerate sexual misconduct. The conference is committed to the eradication of this conduct, if it should occur, and to the creation of an environment of hospitality for all persons, male or female, that is free of sexual overtones and implications and encourages respect, equality, and kinship in Christ. This policy aims to provide an avenue to report sexual misconduct while assuring that any person doing so in good faith will be protected from retaliation.

All church professionals (see definition) have positions of great trust, power, and responsibility. This provides the opportunity for unique relationships of grace and caring. While church professionals can sometimes violate the trust given them within these relationships, sexual misconduct is one of the gravest violations of this trust. This policy seeks to address the abuse of power by church professionals who engage in sexual misconduct. While this policy is binding for appointed church professionals, it is our hope that it may serve as a guide for other church professionals such as local church laity staff and volunteers.

The intent of this policy is to provide guidance to both laity and clergy of the Tennessee Annual Conference and the local church regarding sexual misconduct and, thereby, protect the relationship between church professionals and parishioners, staff members, colleagues, and others. It is both the ethical and legal responsibility of the Tennessee Annual Conference to ensure there are mechanisms for preventing sexual misconduct and addressing allegations of the same. This policy provides guidance regarding the definition of sexual misconduct, procedures for filing and addressing allegations of sexual misconduct, and training expectations and requirements designed to prevent sexual misconduct in the Tennessee Annual Conference. The primary focus of this policy shall be the search for truth to assure justice for the complainant and the accused. This policy is not intended to supplant or substitute for the formal complaint process and its attendant fair process protection in the current Book of Discipline, which must, where applicable, be followed in addition to this policy. Failure by church authorities to use or follow any of the procedures herein is not a chargeable offense, nor can it be used as grounds for an appeal of a formal grievance, complaint, review or trial as defined in current Book of Discipline. We are committed to procedural accuracy and pastoral care in the pursuit of justice for victims and survivors, real accountability for abusers, and healing for all parties.

Theological Foundation

We believe and affirm every person is created in the image of God. We further believe and affirm sexual misconduct within the ministerial relationship and in the church is incompatible with biblical teachings and ethical standards. Sexual misconduct violates the sacred worth of persons who are created in the image of God. Such misconduct is particularly reprehensible in the context of the ministerial relationship that should represent the care of God. It should be understood that sexual misconduct is an abuse of power and authority. This misconduct alienates persons from the ministry of the church. It tarnishes the church's ministry and mission. Those guilty of sexual misconduct bring real harm to persons, congregations and the church as a whole.

Forgiveness is a sacred teaching of the church, but this teaching in no way protects a person guilty of sexual misconduct from the discipline of the church. Representing the church as a church professional is a privilege requiring the highest professional conduct. Forgiveness by God or by a person harmed by sexual misconduct does not automatically restore the privilege of serving as a church professional. It is not appropriate for church authorities to pressure persons harmed by sexual misconduct to forgive the offender as a way to restore to the offender the privilege of serving as a professional in the church. Central to the task of church authorities is to protect the vulnerable and to eradicate sexual misconduct from the church.

Additionally, this includes lay and clergy persons employed directly by conference agencies including but not limited to the Conference Council on Connectional Ministries.

2. Other Church Professionals

Other church professionals shall include anyone in a position of power, authority, or leadership employed by or serving as a volunteer in a ministry in the Tennessee Annual Conference.

B. Book of Discipline

The 2012 Book of Discipline refers to The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church 2012, which sets forth the laws, plans, polity, and processes by which The United Methodist Church governs itself. It contains insight and information about the distinct United Methodist understanding of the nature and mission of the Church, and about what is expected of its clergy and members as they seek to be faithful and effective disciples of Christ.

C. Book of Resolutions

The Book of Resolutions 2012 refers to the volume containing the text of all resolutions or pronouncements on issues approved by the General Conference and currently valid. The Book of Resolutions contains not only the resolutions and policy statements passed by the most recent General Conference, but also all such statements still considered to represent the position of The United Methodist Church. The text of any resolution is considered the official position of the denomination on that subject.

D. Sexual Misconduct

Misconduct of a sexual nature is a chargeable offense, for both laity and clergy. Chargeable offenses include: child abuse, sexual abuse, sexual misconduct [including pornography], sexual harassment, gender discrimination, crime, and immorality.

Sexual misconduct is abuse of power and authority, and is not only an act against one person, but an act against fellow ministry professionals; members in the local congregation; the church at large; and God. (Book of Resolutions 2012, ¶2044).

Sexual misconduct includes but is not limited to:

- child or adult sexual abuse
- sexual abuse of youth or those without capacity to consent
- rape or sexual assault
- gross sexual imposition like prolonged gazing, fondling, grabbing, or stalking
- sexual harassment
- unwelcome touching and advances
- inappropriate and unwelcome contacts of a sexual nature either in person or via phone, digital media, or cyberspace
- sexualized verbal comments, gestures, or visuals
- use of sexualized materials including pornography
- sexualized behavior
- solicitation of sexual activity or other sex-related behavior by promise of rewards
- coercion of sexual activity by threat of punishment
- misuse of pastoral or ministerial position using sexualized conduct to take advantage of the vulnerability of another (umsexualethics.org, Book of Resolutions 2012, ¶2081, ¶2082)

Each alleged occurrence of sexual misconduct requires its own unique and appropriate investigation (as described below) and response, depending on the facts and circumstances.

Sexual harassment is a form of sexual misconduct and is defined in The 2012 Book of Discipline, ¶161(I) as, “any unwanted sexual comment, advance, or demand, either verbal or physical, that is reasonably perceived by the recipient as demeaning, intimidating, or coercive. Sexual harassment must be understood as an exploitation of a power relationship rather than an exclusively sexual issue. Sexual harassment includes, but is not limited to, the creation of a hostile or abusive working environment resulting from discrimination on the basis of gender.” To clarify further, it is unwanted sexual or gender-directed behavior within a pastoral, employment, ministerial (paid or unpaid), mentor, or colleague relationship that is so severe or pervasive that it alters the conditions of employment or volunteer work or unreasonably interferes with the complainant’s performance by creating a hostile environment that can include unwanted sexual jokes, repeated advances, touching, displays, or comments that insult, degrade, or sexually exploit women, men, elders, children, or youth. “It can create a hostile, offensive environment that can include unwanted inappropriate sexual jokes, repeated advances, touching, displays, or comments that insult, degrade, or sexually exploit women, men, elders, children, or youth” (Book of Resolutions 2012, ¶2045). Both sexual and gender harassment are exploitations of power and are discriminatory by law (GCFA Legal Manual, gcfa.org/gcfa-legal-manual).

Sexual abuse is a form of sexual misconduct and occurs when a church professional engages in sexual contact or sexualized behavior with a congregant, client, employee, student, staff member, coworker, or volunteer (2012 Book of Resolutions, page 136). It can include coerced or forced sexual contact (including those unable to give informed consent), sexual interaction or contact with children or youth, and sexual exhibitionism or display of sexual visuals or pornography.

Sexualized behavior is behavior that communicates sexual interest and/or content. Examples include, but are not limited to, displaying sexually suggestive visual materials; use of pornography in church programs on or with church property, making sexual comments or innuendo about one’s own or another person’s body; touching another person’s body; touching another person’s body/hair/clothing; touching or rubbing oneself in the presence of another person; kissing; and sexual intercourse. Sexualized behavior can be a form of sexual misconduct when this behavior is unwanted by the recipient or witness, is a violation of society’s or the Church’s law, breaks the sacred trust in the ministerial role, or violates the vows taken at membership or ordination. The judicial council asserts that dating, romantic or sexual relationships between clergy and their parishioners “are never appropriate because of imbalance of power” (Decision 1228, 2012). For the sake of maintaining healthy boundaries and preventing a betrayal of sacred trust, a clergy person who has a genuine desire to date a parishioner must contact his/her district superintendent, and in consultation with the DS, determine a reasonable course of action for discontinuing the pastor/parishioner relationship before beginning a dating relationship.

Pornography is sexually explicit material that portrays violence, abuse, coercion, domination, humiliation, or degradation for the purpose of arousal. Any sexually explicit material that depicts children or adults is pornographic. “The United Methodist Church declares that the use of pornography in church programs, on church premises or with church property by persons in ministerial roles (lay and clergy) is a form of sexual misconduct, is a chargeable offense for laity and clergy in The United Methodist Church” (Book of Resolutions 2012, ¶2081, ¶2082).

E. Complainant

A complainant is a person who submits a written, signed, and dated statement alleging an incident of sexual or professional misconduct. A complainant may be a parent or responsible party for a minor or an adult incapable of self-reporting.

F. Respondent

A respondent is a church professional against whom a complaint has been made.

G. Complainant Advocate (Response Team Member)

A trained complainant advocate is a response team member who actively supports a complainant of church professional misconduct/sexual abuse through the denominational complaint process. The role of advocate is one of care-giving, not investigation. (¶362.2, 363, and 2702.1 in The 2012 Book of Discipline)

H. Respondent Advocate (Response Team Member)

A trained respondent advocate is a response team member who actively supports a respondent who is accused of sexual misconduct/abuse through the denomination complaint process as discussed in paragraphs ¶362.2, 363, and 2702.1 in The 2012 Book of Discipline. The role of advocate is one of care-giving, not investigation.

I. Conference Response Team Coordinator

The conference response team coordinator oversees the complaint process, serves as a resource for district superintendents, bishops, complainants, and respondents and maintains the integrity of the process including documentation of complaints for the office of the bishop. This may be the assistant to the bishop, an appointed conference response team member, or appropriate Tennessee Conference personnel. The role of conference response team coordinator is one of care-giving, not investigation.

Making a Report

Any concern a person has about sexual misconduct by a church professional should be promptly reported to any district superintendent or the bishop. The list of names of the current persons in these positions and their contact information may be found at tnumc.org or by calling the conference office at 615-329-1177. If for any reason such person finds it difficult to report his or her concerns to a district superintendent or the bishop, the person may contact a trained advocate or the conference response team coordinator, who is available to assist any complainant with the process in making a report to either a district superintendent or the bishop. A list of the members of the conference response team along with the conference response team coordinator's contact information can be found in each volume of the Journal of the Tennessee Annual Conference following each annual conference session or at tnumc.org/safe-spaces-ministry. (¶363, The 2012 Book of Discipline)

Mandatory Reporting.

In no way should this policy be interpreted or applied in a manner that interferes with any licensed practitioner in fulfilling his/her mandatory reporting requirements.

All allegations of sexual misconduct with minors or vulnerable adults occurring in Tennessee will be reported to the appropriate governmental agencies, as required by mandatory reporting laws of Tennessee.

Policy against Retaliation

No retaliation will be tolerated on account of a good faith report of sexual misconduct. Prohibited retaliation will be considered a separate and independent violation of this policy, and appropriate action may be taken against that retaliator. Anyone who believes they have been retaliated against may also report such retaliation as detailed above in Making a Report. The person is encouraged to report retaliation immediately to a district superintendent or the bishop, or contact his/her trained advocate or the conference response team coordinator for assistance in reporting the concern to a district superintendent or the bishop.

Investigation

Upon receipt by a district superintendent or the bishop of a report, a prompt and thorough investigation into the allegations of sexual misconduct against any church professional will be conducted and appropriate corrective action, if called for based upon all of the facts, shall be taken and concluded within a reasonable period of time. The scope and details of each investigation will depend on the nature of the report and the related circumstances. In circumstances involving church professionals, by doctrinal law, the procedure may be governed by paragraphs 362 and 2701-2719 of The 2012 Book of Discipline. In each instance, the investigation will be handled with as much discretion as the circumstances permit to protect the privacy of the individuals involved. All persons having reported suspected sexual misconduct should refrain from contacting the person suspected of such conduct. Likewise, the persons suspected of such conduct shall refrain from contacting the complainant or alleged victim, unless otherwise directed by the bishop or district superintendent. All persons serving as witnesses in the investigation should refrain from contacting the complainant or the respondent, unless directed by a district superintendent or bishop to do so, in order to preserve the integrity and confidentiality of the investigation and confidentiality.

All persons having received a report of sexual misconduct, including anyone specifically engaged to serve as an advocate or investigate such reports, shall keep all reports confidential, except as required by The 2012 Book of Discipline, where applicable, or necessary to investigate and resolve such matters, and/or to respond to any related legal or administrative proceedings.

During the course of an investigation, a trained complainant advocate may be assigned to provide ongoing support to a complainant or alleged victim. Likewise, a trained respondent advocate may be assigned to provide ongoing support to the respondent. Both advocates are bound by the confidentiality provisions of this policy.

All allegations of sexual misconduct with minors or vulnerable adults occurring in Tennessee will be reported to the appropriate governmental agencies, as required by mandatory reporting laws of Tennessee.

Training

Appointed church professionals (see definition) serving in the Tennessee Annual Conference are required to attend official Tennessee Annual Conference trainings on 1) Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics and 2) Safe Sanctuaries each quadrennium. All transfers and candidates for ministry are required to complete these trainings prior to commissioning or appointment, whichever comes first. Compliance with these training requirements and a completed criminal background check are conditions of employment or ministerial appointment. A church professional failing to comply with these conditions of appointment may be cited an administrative charge by the bishop in accordance with ¶362 of the 2012 Book of Discipline.

It is strongly suggested that other church professionals (see definition) attend official Tennessee Annual Conference trainings on 1) Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics and 2) Safe Sanctuaries each quadrennium.

Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics Team

The 2010 report of the Sexual Ethics Task Force recommended to the annual conference that a Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics team be formed to guide the portion of the Safe Spaces Ministry tasked with reviewing policies and implementing training opportunities in the best practices to create and maintain healthy boundaries for ministry. The Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics team is a subteam of the Safe Spaces Ministry Committee. This committee is made of the three teams: 1) Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics team; 2) Safe Sanctuary team; 3) Conference Response team. The Safe Spaces Ministry serves to insure that policies and procedures necessary for keeping ministry safe in order for sacred space to be created are developed, reviewed, appropriately presented and training provided for members of the Tennessee Annual Conference. The work of the committee is funded through apportionment giving as allocated through the CCOCM budget on an annual basis. The CCOCM, the Nashville Episcopal Area Office of Ministerial Concerns and the Tennessee Conference Board of Ordained Ministry work collaboratively to guide this vital ministry.

Availability of Policy

This policy shall be presented annually in the Journal of the Tennessee Annual Conference. Further, it shall be posted at tnumc.org continuously. It should be made available in at least one common area of every church in the Tennessee Annual Conference. It is strongly recommended that the Sexual Misconduct is Never Okay flyer be prominently displayed in one common area of every church in the Tennessee Annual Conference. This flyer is available for download at tnumc.org/safe-spaces-ministry. Questions about the policy should be directed to the staff liaison to the Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics team through the Tennessee Annual Conference. This liaison will be identified on the conference website where the policy is located.

F. Safe Spaces Procedures for Next Gen Discipleship District and Conference Next Gen Ministry Events in the Tennessee Conference of The United Methodist Church

Definition of Terms

Adult- An adult is a person 19 years old or older who is attending a Next Gen Ministry event.

The Local Church Ministry Team: is the group of adults responsible for the local church group attending an event.

Host Mission Family- This refers to the mission site(home) that the Next Gen participant is serving. It may also mean the home where the local church group is given the opportunity to shower and freshen up prior to a meal during a local retreat such as Hands and Feet Mission Retreat.

Ministry Leader- Can be interchangeable with children's/youth coordinator/director or Pastor. This person is the lead contact for the group attending the ministry event.

Mission Event- A mission event is an event such as but not limited to Hands and Feet Mission Retreat.

Reasonable Adult/Child Ratios - 2:12 at retreats/rallies/meetings; 2:6 at off site camps and mission trips.

Reasonable Adult/Youth Ratios- 2:16 at retreats/rallies/meetings; 2:8 at off site camps and mission trips.

Staff/Volunteers - A staff/volunteer for an event is a person who is selected to assist with the event and is not connected to a church attending the event. This may include overnight security on camp facilities or in hotel settings.

Children's Coordinator/Director - The children's coordinator/director for the purposes of this document is considered the lead children's minister from the local church.

Youth Coordinator/Director - The youth coordinator/director for the purposes of this document is considered the lead youth minister from the local church.

The purpose of these procedures is to ensure the safety and reduce the risk of harm for all persons participating in Next Gen Ministry events.

- 1. Two Adult Rule: During all conference events one adult will not be alone with any number of children/youth. For small group activities where one adult supervises one group, two or more groups are to meet in sight and sound of each other. These two adults should be non-related and non-cohabitating. The ministry leader may also decide to combine groups to ensure the safety of all parties. Small Group sizes will be determined by the size of the group, but should not exceed reasonable adult child/youth ratios.
- 2. Four & Five Year Older Rule: These persons are at least 4 years older than the oldest high school youth member of the church group. These persons are at least 5 years older than the oldest child of the church group. It is expected that all Event Staff/Volunteers in supervisory roles have a completed a background check, interview with the Director of Next Gen Discipleship, and Safe Sanctuary training.
- 3. Adult/Child & Adult/Youth Ratio: Some events may require smaller ratios. If so stricter requirements will be communicated to all adults and churches prior to the event through registration confirmation packets as well as through emails and the conference youth website.
  - a. The adult/child ratio will be at least 2:12 at retreats/rallies/meetings with the understanding that one adult will not be alone with any number of youth (refer to Procedure 1). The ratio for offsite camps and mission trips will be 2:6.

- b. The adult/youth ratio will be at least 2:16 at retreats/rallies/meetings with the understanding that one adult will not be alone with any number of youth (refer to Procedure 1). The ratio for offsite camps and mission trips will be 2:8.
- 4. Male/Female Adults: When a group from any local church consists of both genders, the accompanying adults shall also be of both genders. This also applies to small groups and mission worksite groups.
- 5. Background Checks: All adults at Next Gen Conference events will be expected to have a background check, training on the local church's Safe Sanctuary Policy and Procedures*, as well as a review of these procedures. Each church will sign a verification form listing each adult attending the event signed by the Ministry Leader and Pastor. The verification form will serve as a confirmation that each adult has completed the requirements for participation. (If your church does not have policy or background checks are needed contact Jullie Meyer, Ministry Assistant at 615-327-1533 for help.)
- 6. Medical Release/Registration Form: All children/youth and adults attending Next Gen Ministry Conference events shall have a completed medical release form and completed parental permission form. The medical release form will be valid from August -July of a given year. It is expected that a new form will be submitted if a change in medical status occurs.
- 7. Ministry Leaders Responsibility: It is expected that the Ministry Leader from the local church maintain a copy of each attendee's form at all times. These forms should be carried with the group traveling to and from events
- 8. Check-In Procedure: The Local Church Ministry Team should develop a consistent check-in procedure during the event to meet with the church group. These should be spread throughout the event and event day.
- 9. Lodging for overnight events: An adult will not share a room/hotel/tent with a child/youth unless the adult is a parent of that child/youth with whom they are sharing the room/hotel/tent.
- 10. Lodging for overnight events: There will be separate sleeping areas/rooms for males and females at all Next Gen sponsored events. When there are several rooms/cabins of youth, there will be at least two non-related adults of the same gender in the room/cabin.
- 11. Showers: In the event of open showers, separate shower times for children/youth and for adults shall be designated to prevent children/youth and adults showering together. If this is not possible, swimsuits will be required.
- 12. Two Adults at Mission Sites: There will be two adults at each work site at all times on mission project sites. (Procedure 7 applies.) These two adults should be non-related and non-cohabitating.
- 13. Mission Site Responsibility: No Next Gen participant will be alone with an adult from a host mission family during a mission event. This includes host pastors, congregation members, homeowners, clients of mission agencies, etc. Likewise, an adult mission team member will not be alone with a child/youth from the host mission.

Independent Auditors' Report

To the Council on Finance and Administration of the Tennessee Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the Tennessee Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church (the "Conference") (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statements of financial position as of December 31, 2016 and 2015, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Tennessee Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church as of December 31, 2016 and 2015, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

TENNESSEE ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE
UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2016 and 2015

Note 1. Nature of Organization and Significant Accounting Policies

A. Nature of Organization

The Tennessee Annual Conference of the United Methodist church ("the Conference") is a regional body of The United Methodist Church comprised of the lay members, clergy, and 580+ churches in 42 counties in middle Tennessee. The Conference is primarily responsible for all the ministries that are jointly provided by and for the United Methodists in its geographic area. The Conference administers Conference operating and program funds that are received from churches, boards and agencies, and individuals of the Conference, in accordance with the budget and other directives of the Conference, the respective boards and agencies and donors.

The Conference is divided into seven districts. The district offices hold and administer the real and personal property of the districts and oversee the administration of district extension ministries, new church development and missions. The seven districts are overseen by district superintendents who are appointed by the Presiding Bishop.

To fund the operations and ministries of the districts, the Conference receives and forwards to the districts apportionment payments from the churches in each district.

B. Basis of Accounting

The financial statements have been prepared using the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

C. Financial Statement Presentation

The Conference follows the recommendations contained in the Presentation of Financial Statements, Not-For-Profit Entities topic of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification. Under those provisions, net assets and revenues, gains, and losses are classified based on the absence or existence and nature of donor-imposed restrictions as follows:

Unrestricted net assets - Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed stipulations.

Temporarily restricted net assets - Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that can be fulfilled by actions of the Conference pursuant to those stipulations or that expire by the passage of time.

Permanently restricted net assets - Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that may be maintained permanently by the Conference. Generally, the donors of such assets permit the Conference to use all or part of the income earned on the assets.

D. Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

E. Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Conference defines its cash, designated cash and cash equivalents to include cash on hand, demand deposits, and commercial paper and other investments with initial maturities of three months or less whether those amounts are unrestricted or restricted.

F. Investments

Investments in marketable securities with readily determinable fair values and all investments in debt securities are reported at their fair values in the statement of financial position. Unrealized gains and losses are included in changes in net assets. Investment income and gains restricted by a donor are reported as increases in unrestricted net assets if the restrictions are met in the reporting period in which the income and gains are recognized. However, if a donor contributes an investment required to be held in perpetuity, gains and losses on the investment are subject to the same permanent restriction unless the donor explicitly states otherwise.

TENNESSEE ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE
December 31, 2016 and 2015

Note 1. Nature of Organization and Significant Accounting Policies – Continued

G. Fair Value Measurements

The fair value of financial assets and liabilities is measured according to the Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures topic of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification. Fair value is required to be evaluated and adjusted according to the following valuation techniques.

Level 1 – Fair value is determined using quoted market prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities.

Level 2 – Fair value is determined using quoted market prices in active markets for similar assets and liabilities.

Level 3 – Fair value is determined using unobservable market prices in a market that is typically inactive.

H. Income Taxes

The Conference is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

I. Apportionments Receivable

Apportionments receivable represent apportionments received after year-end for the budget year ended December 31, 2016 and 2015. No allowance for doubtful collections has been recorded.

J. Fixed Assets

Fixed assets are carried at cost if purchased and fair market value if donated. Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, excluding land, which are 5 to 30 years. Depreciation expense for the year ended December 31, 2016 and 2015 was $251,032 and $230,209. Property and equipment include land, buildings, improvements, equipment, vehicles and furniture and fixtures at the following locations:

Conference Headquarters	Nashville, TN
Beersheba Springs Assembly	Beersheba Springs, TN
Cedar Crest Camp	Lyles, TN

K. Donated Services

Contributed services are reflected in the financial statements at the fair value of the services received only when those services either (a) create or enhance nonfinancial assets, or (b) require specialized skills that are provided by individuals possessing those skills and would typically need to be purchased if not provided by donation. Unpaid volunteers make contributions of time in various administrative and program functions. The Conference has not valued these donations.

L. Revenue and Support

Contributions are received and recorded as unrestricted, temporarily restricted, or permanently restricted support depending on the existence and/or nature of any donor restrictions. Contributions received and unconditional promises to give are measured at their fair values and are reported as an increase in net assets. The Conference reports restricted gifts of cash and other assets as support for future periods. When a donor restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions. Donor-restricted contributions whose restrictions are met in the same reporting period are reported as unrestricted support.

The primary source of support is Apportionments received from the local churches in the Conference. Apportionments expire at the end of each calendar year and, therefore, have been recorded as unrestricted support. Contributions and Other Revenue are primarily receipts by programs that have external sources of revenue such as registration fees or reimbursements.

The Conference had bank deposits in a financial institution that were $188,342 and $632,929 in excess of the $250,000 insured by the Federal Depository Insurance Corporation (FDIC) at December 31, 2016 and 2015.

The Conference has $2,756,694 and $2,687,604 invested with the United Methodist Development Fund of Tennessee/Kentucky, Inc. (a related party) in unsecured participation accounts (see Note 2) as of December 31, 2016 and 2015.

Note 5. Related Party Transactions

The Conference is a related party to the United Methodist Foundation for the Memphis & Tennessee Conferences (the "Foundation") and the United Methodist Development Fund of Tennessee/Kentucky, Inc. (the "Fund"). The Conference pays routine expenses of the Foundation and Fund including salaries, retirement and insurance and is reimbursed by the Foundation. The total amount paid to the Conference by the Foundation and Fund for these routine expenses was $338,904 and $349,238 in 2016 and 2015 respectively. The Conference has investments with both the Foundation and the Fund (see Note 2).

The Foundation and Fund lease office space from the Conference for $1,500 per month. The lease agreement is month-to-month and contains provisions that allow for an increase in the monthly rent amounts to help offset increased building operating costs incurred by the Conference.

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Note 6. Retirement Plans

The Conference provides pension benefits for clergy serving churches in the Tennessee Conference under Episcopal appointment, and full-time permanent staff of the Conference through various retirement plans. All plans are multi-employer plans administered by the Wespeth Benefits and Investments of The United Methodist Church ("Wespeth"). Wespeth operates under the authority of the church's General Conference, and implements the plans in accordance with the plan documents. Pension benefits for clergy are a combination of defined benefit and defined contribution plans. Pension benefits for Conference lay staff are all defined contribution plans. Total Conference contributions to all plans for the years ended December 31, 2016 and 2015 were $3,179,703 and $3,133,081. The various retirement plans are listed below:

Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP):

CRSP is a multi-employer 403(b) retirement plan that provides pension coverage to eligible clergy. CRSP is both a defined benefit plan, which provides benefits based on years of credited service, and a defined contribution plan, which provides a retirement account balance established and funded by the Conference. Contributions to the defined benefit plan are actuarially determined and contributions to the defined contribution plan equal 3% of the clergy's monthly compensation.

Effective 1/1/2014, contributions to the defined benefit plan are actuarially determined and contributions to the defined contribution plan equal 2% of the clergy's compensation, plus a matching contribution of up to 1% of the clergy's compensation, for a maximum of 3%.

Supplement One to CRSP (Pre-1982):

Pre-1982 is a multi-employer 403(b) defined benefit plan for Conference clergy entering service prior to January 1, 1982. General Conference 2000 required each annual conference to adopt a formal funding plan to retire the conference pre-1982 pension obligations. The Conference's Pre-1982 plan has been fully funded since the mid-1990s. The Conference approves a minimum distribution (past service rate) each year for participants in the Pre-1982 plan, based on a recommendation by the Conference Board of Pensions. The PSR for the year ended December 31, 2016 and 2015 was $662 and $649 for pre-1982 service years, which is 1.07% and 1.05% of the Conference average compensation respectively.

United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP)

The UMPIP is a multi-employer 403(b) defined contribution plan providing eligible clergy and employees of the Conference with retirement savings. Conference employees and clergy may contribute up to the dollar limits set by current Internal Revenue Service regulations under both pre-tax and after-tax elections. The Conference makes no contributions to this plan for full-time clergy, who participate in CRSP. Effective 1/1/2014, the Conference contributes 12% of part-time clergy's compensation into UMPIP. The Conference matches non-clergy contributions of 3% or more of compensation with a fixed 12% matching contribution. No matching contribution is provided for employee contributions less than 3% of compensation.

Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP)

CPP is a multi-employer health and welfare plan that provides death and disability benefits as well as other supplemental benefits to eligible clergy and their beneficiaries. CPP is funded by the Conference at a rate of 3% of compensation.

Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP)

MPP covers clergy who served from 1982 through 2006. It is a multi-employer defined contribution plan, but differs from a true defined contribution plan in that upon retirement, participants must annuitize 65% of their account balances, and the Conference is responsible for funding the annuities should the need arise. Upon annuitization, the monthly benefit becomes a defined benefit.

Some amounts designated for pension benefits have been transferred to the legal title of the Wespath multi-employer plans and are not reported in these financial statements as net assets of the Conference. The year-end value of these Wespath accounts were as follows:

Note 7. Health Care Plan and Postretirement Healthcare Benefits Liability

Health Care Plan

The Conference sponsors the Tennessee Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc. Health Benefit Plan (HBP). The HBP is open to all eligible plan participants including clergy, full-time Conference staff, designated students who are part-time local pastors and their respective eligible dependents. The Conference director of administrative services is the plan administrator. The plan administrator uses a third-party administrator for processing claims and other duties but retains responsibility for benefits payable. The HBP is a self-funded plan paying covered benefits out of Conference assets. Plan participants help cover some costs of covered benefits through contributions, deductibles, out-of-pocket expenses and plan participation amounts. The Conference funds the HBP using a pay-as-you-go system. Conference payments to the HBP for the year ended December 31, 2016 and 2015 were $3,046,574 and $2,456,496.

Participation in the HBP can continue upon retirement under the Conference's formal retirement plan provided the participant makes required contributions to the plan. This coverage can continue until age 65 with stipulations. The Conference uses the fiscal year as the measurement date for its plan.

Postretirement Healthcare Benefits Liability

The Conference has not pre-funded its postretirement healthcare plan but operates instead on a pay-as-you-go basis. The following tables set forth the Conference's accumulated other postretirement benefit obligation and the funded status of the obligation in the statements of financial position at December 31 as follows:
