4. The full details of the plans and all legislative proposals will be published as soon as final editing is done, no later than July 7th. The Council of Bishops agreed not to discuss on this matter until then. This annual conference will not have a session to discuss it either. Bishop emphasized the concept of "convicted humility," which, he said, combines honesty and humility as our desirable stance. We will stay focused on our mission and vision. Bishop requested all the conference members to be in a prayer for COWF. Bishop himself knelt down and offered a word of prayer.

Report from Tennessee General Conference Delegation

Report presented by Jim Allen and Harriet Brian. Jim asked the 2015 general conference delegation and requested the members of conference to hold them in prayers. Rev. Brian made announcements about listening session that are expected to happen in five different locations on October 14, 21, 28, and November 4, 11. More information will be given out later. Comments can be e-mailed to cowf@tnumc.org and will be taken into consideration.

Bishop called all the delegates to the altar and asked people to come forward to lay hands on them. He offered a prayer. A large number of people came forward to pray together, which showed convicted humility of our conference on this matter.

General Conference Constitutional Amendment (First Reading), 10:44 a.m.

Updated text of Amendment 2 was read by Rev. Monica Mowdy, 2018 TNAC secretary. She also explained the background of revoting: the text of this amendment as distributed to the annual conference in 2017 was found to be in error. The corrected text is now presented to the annual conference for a vote. 24-hour waiting period began at 10:48 a.m. No discussion at this time. See corrected sample ballot for constitutional Amendment, Item 5, at the end of this chapter.

Standing Rules, 10:49 a.m.

Presented by Rev. Jay Voorhees. See Standing Rules, Chapter 11 of journal. See the 17 motions from the committee, Item 6, at the end of this chapter.

Summary of Report

The committee made a major change in re-organizing the rules putting them in a structure that made them easier to access. We are making changes in around five different areas

1. Editorial changes that reflect the transition from printed materials to the distribution of conference information electronically (motions 1-6)
2. Structural changes to facilitate the proposed changes in our connectional ministries structure (motions 10, 11, 12, and 16)
3. Changes in our process for adopting and amending our Standing Rules with reflect concerns identified at the 2017 session (motion 8)
4. Changes requested by the Council on Finance and Administration and the Board of Trustees to facilitate their work (motions 9, 13, 14, and 15)
5. Other changes at the request of our Connectional Ministries staff and the cabinet (motions 7 and 17).

Then Rev. Voorhees read the final part of the report:

The Committee on Standing Rules met on April 16 to review these changes, and in some special cases conferred electronically to review and adopt the changes being submitted to you today. The committee was careful in their deliberations, and in the course of the conversation identified several occasions in which we discovered rules that were in conflict with one another. We have attempted to address these conflicts and simplify the rules for improved clarity.

It is our sincere hope that these proposed changes will help to better facilitate our life together as an annual conference and that we will continue to move on to perfection in love as we work to bring Christ to a world in need one neighborhood at a time.

Conference Resolutions 1, 10:53 a.m. (Video)

Resolutions presented for their first reading by Jeremy Squires. See Resolutions, Chapter 6.

The assigned task of the committee is two-fold:

1. To determine constitutionality of a proposed resolution. To ensure each resolution does not conflict with superseding rules (Articles of Religion, etc.).
2. To determine concurrence: is there a clear discernible and actionable step? Is that actions step within the legislative authority of the annual conference?

How best in Christian love we do this important work together?

1. We are a diverse people
2. We need to find a way to continue to be in conversation and relationship as we face an impending change
3. We are called to be in mutual respect with one another no matter how we believe

Then he reminded the conference of the commands from John Wesley:

2. Do good
3. Stay in love with God

  - c. Discussion:
    - i. Michael Girton — question
      1. I am having trouble with finding resolutions.
      2. Squire once again explained where on the app people can locate the resolutions. He also reminded the conference that the vote would happen on the following day and that the members of the conference have time to read them before voting.
13. Resolutions pertaining to school shootings
  - a. Districts to develop plans of action
    - i. Constitutionality: Y, Concurrence: Y
  - b. Call for volunteers

  - g. Legal age to own semi-automatic rifles
    - i. Constitutionality: Y, Concurrence: N (until they made the change)
    - ii. Squire explained why this resolution didn't pass the concurrence test: this resolution implies we should mandate the secular in law to change the law, but what we can do is limited to recommending or urging them to do so.
    - iii. Discussion:
      1. Don Sensing — question: Did you state concurrence on resolution 18?
      2. Jeremy Squire: Yes, it passes the concurrence as revised

Speaker from the floor: Hugh Lowe—White House UMC—would like to speak to his resolution, stating concern about the salvation of homosexuals—apologizing if he “stepped on any toes” with his resolution. Bishop ruled the speech out of order, as the body is not considering said resolution at this time.

Secretary Monica Mowdy gave parking and lunch instructions. Bishop McAlilly acknowledged the presence of the John Wesley stress ball that has overseen our work today and prayed a blessing over the food.

Started with songs led by Rev. Merylin. Bishop's remark on the brief schedule and general rules that ought to govern our lives and conferencing: Do good; do no harm; stay in love with God.

Resolution on Intent to Form a New Conference, 9:56 a.m.

Resolution presented by Scott Aleridge, dean of the appointive cabinet. Bishop provided commentary in support of the resolution.

See the Resolution on Intent to Form a New Conference, Item 8, at the end of this chapter.

These are the moments that we can get to be part of something exciting. Our children can be part of something amazing that has never existed.

Bishop's remarks: When I was assigned to Nashville Episcopal area, I was chosen to bring the two conferences together. We have a deep desire for the church to be regenerated and rejuvenated. Please take this moment as a way to deepen our witnesses. I need to tell you it is the time for us to become one conference. No matter what happens in 2019, there will be a disruption. We need to be ready for the change. We are better together.

Bishop prayed over the vote on the resolution.

Floor opened for discussion:

1. Thomas Dowdy, retired, Red River District: Speech against — Noted that the bishop and cabinet have “loaded the vote” by presenting only one side of the decision.
  - a. Rev. Aldridge: This is a vote on the intent to go deeper into becoming one conference. In 2018-19, there will be prayer and discernment. And then in the 2019 conference, there will be another chance to take a vote to decide. This is a major step, but this doesn’t mean this will be a final decision.
2. Ed Crump, retired, Red River District: Speech for — Related the decision to a marriage and indicated that he has witnessed the love of both conferences. He expected from his experiences of working in both conferences, that this marriage would be successful.
3. Donald Sensing, Cumberland River District: Speech for — It’s never made sense to have two areas with one bishop. Today’s vote is a vote to take a vote on this later, so what’s the harm in that? He hoped Rev. Dowdy’s concerns would be able to be addressed in the process.
4. Mike Guertin, Red River District: Speech for — I don’t get to vote on this. This is a good idea for further study and consideration. It makes good sense to put much of the Tennessee Conference under one roof as much as possible.
5. Eric Limbo, Cumberland River District: for/against (he said “it depends upon how you look at it” when asked if his speech was for or against) — I have concerns about direct billing system that Memphis Conference has in place and how that system might affect small churches.
  - a. John Pearce (CFA chair): Many small churches would actually benefit from direct billing because they are actually paying for health insurance even though they do not have a clergy person there. A plan wouldn’t be developed until many have had input.
6. Phil Jamieson, TN Foundation: a question — He wanted some clarity on who is eligible to vote on the issue.

Laity ballots distributed. Bishop declared laity ballot closed at 10:32.

Clergy ballot distributed. Bishop declared clergy ballot closed at 10:36.

Scott Aleridge prayed.

Council on Finance & Administration 2, 10:38 a.m.

Report presented by John Pearce, CFA chair. He requested the members of the conference to approve the action items listed on 77:

1. 2019 conference budget, apportioned to churches: $13,734,361 total (see pages 72-73 for breakdown).
2. Reimbursement of travel expenses for staff and members of various committees and staff
3. Reimbursement of travel for at-large members
4. Housing allowance for clergy on conference staff pursuant to IRS Section 107
5. Base compensation for district superintendents for 2019 at $106,110, not including housing allowance

All were approved on voice vote

Standing Rules 2, 10:41 a.m.

Presented by Rev. Jay Voorhees. All proposed changes in standing rules approved on voice vote.

See Item 9, at the end of this chapter.

Motions 1-12 all approved on voice vote.

Motion 13 to add a new rule 11.3 and renumber all the succeeding numbers in this category. The new rules would read,

“For conference benevolences as defined in ¶614.3c of the 2016 United Methodist Book of Discipline, the following process shall be used:

- a. All budget requests must be made through the Connectional Ministries Lead Team who will determine how these requests connect to the missional priorities of the annual conference.
- b. The Connectional Ministries Council will present all budget requests to the Council on Finance and Administration for final review, approval, and presentation to the annual conference.”

Discussion:

1. Carl Kevington: Question — Discrepancy in the report (Connectional Ministry Lead Team) and the actual wording in the document (Connectional Ministries Council).
2. Voorhees — Connectional Ministries Council is the same thing as Connectional Ministry Lead Team as we approved it yesterday.

Motion 14 approved on voice vote.

Motion 15 to add a new rule to the end of section 11.

“Whenever church property is transferred to the annual conference through its board of trustees (voluntarily or according to ¶ 2549.3b, Discipline (2016)), the annual conference board of trustees is authorized to hold, maintain, insure, or dispose of such property in its sole discretion on behalf of the conference, subject to any disciplinary requirements or restrictions. Repayment of debt to the conference or district, including up to five years of unpaid apportionments, shall be a priority claim on the net proceeds of any sale.”

Discussion:

1. John Hill, Blakemore UMC, Cumberland River District — Two years ago, we agreed on creating a task force concerning this matter. Is this change coming from the task force?
  - a. Jay — It’s coming from trustees.
  - b. John: Speech against—reiterate the need for a task force to set a standard way of disposing of property.
2. Vin Walkup, retired: Suggested an editorial change in the motion: “... the annual conference board of trustees is authorized to hold, maintain, insure, or dispose of such property ...” He suggested that the committee change the “or” to “and/or.” Speech for — This change will give us guidance in the meantime and can be amended when that task force presents its recommendation.
3. Carl Kevington, laity, Cumberland River District: question — reference to the “Board of Trustees,” is to local church or conference trustees?
  - a. Jay — It’s the church’s Board of Trustees.
  - b. Comments from chancellor—If local church trustees transfer property, they can, but if they don’t, it goes to the conference trustees. The change is in keeping with the trust clause.

Motion 15 approved on voice vote.

Motions 16 and 17 approved on voice vote.

Discussion:

Regarding Motion 10, Jim Allen, TNAC Treasurer — This motion may have inadvertently caused us to elect delegations. With a second, he moved that we amend to add “(not to apply to special Called General Conference)” to the end.

Tom Gibson, clergy, Red River District: point of personal privilege — One person who strongly informed my faith was my high school Sunday school teacher — Aleeta Christian — who is here today. Teacher and student reunited and hugged.

Bishop McAlilly recognized Bishop Larry Goodpasture, who is attending the Candler alumni luncheon.

UM General Conference Constitutional Amendment, 11:10 a.m.

Presented by conference secretary, Rev. Monica Mowdy. Ballots distributed.

Floor opened for discussion:

1. Tom Vertrees, Red River District: speech for — The idea that men and women are created equal by God and does not need to be stated. While he supports this amendment, he hopes to see a future amendment preserving the rights of men and boys.
2. Neelley Hicks, Cumberland River District: speech for — When we approve this amendment, we are saying that the church stands with women and that women should no longer be abused.
3. Rick Galphin, Clarksville First UMC: speech for — While I voted against last time with the additional language, this is something I can proudly support.
4. Thad Austin, Stones River District — point of order — While ballots were distributed early, I ask that the body wait to vote until the discussion has been completed.
5. Steve Angus, Winchester First UMC: point of information — Please clarify who is eligible to vote as clergy.
6. Dave McIntyre: I don't understand why local pastors including my pastor who is a woman didn't have a vote when we were taking a vote on women.

Conference Resolutions 2, 11:35 a.m.

Discussion

1. Craig Green, Livingston UMC, point of privilege — While we will not vote on his eight resolutions, he requested the members of the conference to read them. And he also asked the bishop for a declaratory decision as to the constitutionality of his resolutions.
  - a. Chancellor's response: it is my opinion that the resolutions (resolutions 2-9 and 11) are unconstitutional and are not properly before the body.
    - i. A resolution before this body is not just a statement of belief. Resolution needs to have a call to action.
    - ii. A resolution's call to action must be within the authority of this annual conference. AC cannot rule on something that is the jurisdiction of GC, such as Articles of Religion, etc.
    - iii. Since these resolutions are not properly before the conference, to debate them would not be in accordance with our church law.
2. Betty Anne Merriweather, Palmyra UMC, Red River: I respectfully disagree with what Rev. Squires said. It is important for this body to be able to state our convictions. How are our delegates to know our convictions?
  - a. Bishop McAlilly: The avenue for you to speak your convictions is by speaking to your General Conference delegation, who represent us.
3. Jeremy Squire: "Please let me eat."

Resolution #1 passed on voice vote.

Discussion

1. Lee Stevenson — friendly amendment to RESOLVE Resolution 1, which will add number 3 under the Therefore section, "District plans of action shall include where it possible equipping the local church and disciple making capacity in coordination with a conference congregational transformation team." — passed on voice vote.
2. Phil Ross, Marion UMC: question about which resolution it is that we are amending? Rev. Stevenson's suggested amendment, though it passed on voice note by the body, was referring to the RESOLVE Resolution 1 (“Pertaining to School Shootings: Districts to develop plans of action”), when Rev. Squire made it clear that we were dealing with the first resolution on 2018 Retiree Housing Allowance — Ed.

Bishop declared adjournment for lunch.

Reconvened with a song.

Discussion

1. Rev. Adam Kelchner: point of personal privilege — Immigration committee authorized by AC last year would like to draw attention to practice of separating families who enter the country illegally.
  - a. Permission to speak granted. Bishops’ statement (released on June 7th, 2018) read.
  - b. The members who stood together: Ingrid McIntyre, Morgan Stafford, Steven Adair, Nick Baird-Crisohon, Matt Kelley, Allison Gossett, Stephen Handy, Peter van Eys, Jefferson Furtado, Liz Shadbolt, Carlos Uroza, Sophia Agtarap, Emily Reeves Grammar.
  - c. Rev. Kelchner asked those persons of faith who understand the welcome in Christ is extended to our brothers and sisters across all God’s beloved creation to stand as bishop prays for their suffering.
  - d. Bishop offered a prayer.

Bishop ruled on the declaratory decision: Resolutions 2-8 out of order. They will not be before the body today.

Jeremy Squire re-presented Resolution #1 on Retiree Housing Allowance, as there was confusion on its passage before lunch. Passed on voice vote.

RESOLVE Resolutions (Resolution 12-18):

RESOLVE #1 “Pertaining to School Shootings: Districts to develop plans of action”

Discussion

1. Brad Fiscus, Epworth UMC, a conference staffer: speech for — There has been confusion about the intent of this resolution. He reminded the body of the UM social principles regarding gun violence and safety.
2. Lee Stevenson, Pulaski UMC, suggesting amendment to the resolution, which will add number 3 under the Therefore section, “District plans of action shall include where it possible equipping the local church and disciple making capacity in coordination with a conference congregational transformation team.” — amendment passed on voice vote.
3. Lois Amid, lay representative, Pulaski First UMC: Speech against — I don’t think these amendments pass the requirements for resolutions, i.e., constitutionality and concurrence. So we can’t authorize these things.
4. Brad Smith, clergy Harpeth River District: question — Are we going to vote on these resolutions as a group or individually?
  - a. Rev. Squire: We are voting them individually.
5. Jeff Strezoff, Grace UMC: point of information — Wondrous You (wondrousyou.org) can be a resource regarding gun violence in schools.
6. David Ownby, lay delegate, Prospect UMC: I am concerned about harm to the people who may vote different than other people. Motion made to make this ballot a written ballot. Motion denied on voice vote.
7. Mark Havington: Each of them will be voted separately.
  - a. Bishop: one at a time.
8. Rev. Brad Fiscus: we are not advocating to go against anything that the state legislature would pass.
9. Harold Young, Harpeth River District: I have spent many hours training children about gun safety. I caution you to think hard and long about making our churches a gun free zone. It’s an open invitation for attack on defenseless people.
10. Leanna McCaleb, lay delegate Centerville UMC: as a high school teacher, I would urge the members that we go out and help those identified kids, instead of looking at controlling guns or gun safety.

11. Phil Ross, Maryon UMC: point of clarification — Nothing in the resolution calls for gun-free churches.
12. John Carpenter, Caney Fork River District: separation of church and state originated not in constitution — its purpose was to keep government from mandating a religion. In other words, the Church can and is encouraged to have voice in this issue.
13. Carl Covington, lay delegate Pleasant Grove UMC: regarding the resolution on enhancements of school buildings. From my work experiences at the federal government in the area of technical security, I would inform the body that most all of the shootings are from insiders — angry students and etc. Putting money in schools that are already struggling cannot be a good way to prevent things from happening from inside.
14. RESOLVE #1 — approved on voice note.

RESOLVE #2 “Pertaining to School Shootings: Call for volunteers” — approved on voice vote without discussion.

RESOLVE #3 “Pertaining to School Shootings: Call for Increased Law-Enforcement Presence” — approved on voice vote without discussion.

RESOLVE #4 “Pertaining to School Shootings: On the Arming of School Teachers”

Discussion

1. Thad Colton, clergy Harpeth River District: point of clarification — There are different opinions in this room and school boards. But, what’s being proposed is not an enforcement in any way on any school board.
2. Lily Turner, youth delegate-at-large Caney Fork District: speech for — I am strongly in support of NOT arming guns because 1) guns would have to be locked away, so not available when needed, and 2) I personally would not feel safer with teachers armed.
3. Rhonda Deist, Beech Grove UMC: she questioned about wording in the old version of resolution.
  - a. Rev. Squire read the new language in the new version again.
4. Rick Dalphin, Clarksville First Methodist: speech against — The potential legislation is intending to arm teachers who are trained, not just any teachers.
5. Brad Fiscus: speaking for — Was a public-school teacher for 13 years before going into ministry — every law enforcement agency in Tennessee is against arming teachers. We should pay attention to that. As a teacher, I would not have been able to be nearly as well-trained as the SROs.
6. Don Sensing: speaking for, a retired army combat officer — Please read whereas clauses beginning with number 9 — teachers should be focused on removing students from danger. It is not realistic to think that teachers will be able to maintain the very high level of training necessary to be able to perform in such a setting. This is why we are asking for increased law enforcement presence. Teachers have other priorities.
7. Becky Kinser—Caney Fork district, teacher assistant: from my experience, I do not agree with arming teachers.
8. Shawn Hines, lay minister, Caney Fork district: speech against — I don’t think it is right to send one side of the opinion to the Tennessee legislature when there are different opinions and thoughts on this issue.
9. Tom Pearce, elder Harpeth River District: speech for — was a teacher for 15 years. I decided not to carry a gun because my primary focus was to teach.
10. Allen Black called the question. Seconded. Question called by voice.
11. RESOLVE Resolution #4 approved on voice vote.

RESOLVE #5 “Pertaining to School Shootings: Gun Violence Restraining Orders”

Discussion

1. Thomas Dowdy, retired: speech against — This resolution reminds me of the camel’s nose illustration. When we recommend the government can take guns from anyone, we begin to go down a slippery slope.
2. Merilee Wineger: amendment — addressing federal law loopholes that protect abusive dating partners and convicted stalkers and their firearms. Her suggested amendment read: “Whereas persons convicted of felony and/or misdemeanor, domestic violence crimes and no subject to restraining orders are prohibited from having guns, however, the federal law generally does not cover abusive dating partners nor does it cover convicted stalkers and does not require that the offenders turn in the guns they already have.” Seconded.

a. Don Sensing: legislation addressing those issues are in process.

b. Amendment passed on voice vote.

3. Resolution passed on voice vote

RESOLVE #6 “Pertaining to School Shootings: Enhancements of School Buildings”

Discussion

1. Carl Carrington: speech against — As I said earlier this session, this won’t resolve this issue.
2. Lois Aymett, Pulaski First UMC: speech against — This is already being done on the state level, such as study, getting funds for this, etc.
3. Phil Ross: speech for — These resolutions are intended to protect the lives of our children. Cost should not be a concern or consideration.
4. Liza Brammage, Edgehill UMC: speech against — Metro school is struggling with budget. If we make this decision that will not be effective, we should not support this. Motion made to refer it back to the RESOLVE team. Seconded. Motion passed on voice vote.

RESOLVE #7 “Pertaining to School Shootings: Legal Age to Own Semi-Automatic Rifles”

“Discussion

1. Jim Allen, TNAC treasurer: Motion made to limit debate three for and three against. Motion passed on voice vote.
2. Brad Smith, Harpeth River District: speech against — As written, this resolution might discourage hunting and shooting sports by young people.
3. David Ownby, Prospect UMC: speech against — Regarding item #11 in the Whereas section, I think it’s nonsense to add some sort of limit on 18-year-old persons with regard to their purchase of guns when in reality we are putting 18-year-olds in war.
4. Neely Hicks: speech for — The Church has a role and responsibility to curb the country’s love of guns. I do not believe that semi-automatic guns are part of what founding fathers and mothers had in mind.
5. Mike Girten, Red River District: speech against — language on semi-automatic weapons. Motion made to amend resolution to change the wording “semi-automatic” to “automatic.”
  - a. Don Sensing: speech against amendment — most school shootings have been committed using semi-automatic weapons. According to the Tennessee law 18-21-year-olds can still use semi-automatic weapons (presumably under adult supervision) for hunting or sporting purposes. This resolution is about ownership of semi-automatic weapons. Vote on amendment — failed on voice vote
6. Elizabeth Wanzack, Christ UMC: speech for resolution — The 2016 Book of Resolutions has made a statement that “therefore we call upon United Methodists to prayerfully address gun violence in their local context. ... • Establishing a minimum age of 21 years for a gun purchase or possession. • Banning large-capacity ammunition magazines and weapons designed to fire multiple rounds each time the trigger is pulled.”(www.umc.org/what-we-believe/gun-violence)
7. Resolution passed on voice vote.
8. Rev. Squire recognized the members of the resolutions committee, and the members of the conference thank them in an applause.

Discussion

9. Vin Walkup, clergy Cumberland River District: point of clarification — Did your declaratory decision include Resolution #11: Using Scripture Without Restraint. Bishop: yes, Resolution 11 is ruled out of order.
10. Harriet Bryan, Madison Street UMC, Red River District: point of information — GC delegation is hosting listening sessions in order to hear from the members of the conference. Also, please contact the delegation via email: cowf@tnumc.org.

11. Leland Carden: point of personal privilege — Word of thanks to Von Unruh for all the work he has done in history and archives.
12. Bishop, on the question why the local pastors are not allowed to vote on constitutional matters, gave the rationale that right to vote on them is reserved for full members of the conference, as stated in our church law. You can offer a petition to the next General Conference on this matter.

Bishop recognized Rev. Jeremy Squire for his good work.

Bishop recognized the four young people who will be serving as members of the Global Young People's Convocation and legislative session: George Tughton, Maggie Taylor, Todd Cotts, and Epiphany Pheals. The members gave a round of applause to them.

EPISCOPACY COMMITTEE REPORT, 2:14 P.M.

Report presented by Kent McNish. See report, Committee on Episcopacy, Chapter 6 of journal.
Mr. McNish recognized Charles Pulls for his personal privilege.

Lynn McAlilly delivered an update on Mama Lynn Women's $13,700 (Tennessee Conference) $10,200 (Memphis Conference). We have reached our goal of $350,000 for the Congo Women Rising women's center.

She expressed her will to explore ways of doing ministry to the people who are affected by ASD or autism. She recognized clergy spouses.

McNish recognized Lynn Taylor, director of Missional Alignment for the two conferences; H.G. Stovall, executive office administrator; SEJ Committee on Episcopacy members Harriet Bryan and Jim Allen; and Tennessee Episcopacy Committee.

McNish also recognized the leadership of the bishop and stated his firm trust in his wisdom as our conferences move through the hard times that lie in front of us.

CFA Study of Apportionment - Status

- No report or recommended action – yet
- Significant discussion and analysis
- Example: Cost of one full-time clergy's health and pension is about $20,000. Need to pay about $40,000 of apportionments to cover that cost. In 2017, only 61 of 576 churches paid $40,000 or more. (10%)
- Lots of data
- Many questions
- No easy answers
- Lots of opinions
- Ongoing work

Clergy Health Plan

- Our Plan is Self Funded
- “We” are the Insurance Company
- Stop Loss Policy
- Covers Doctor Visits, Hospital, Prescription Drugs, etc.

Clergy Health Plan Funding Methods

- 1) Continue to Apportion 100%
- 2) Clergy help by Paying a Monthly Premium for a small portion
- 3) Direct Bill full cost to Churches with an appointed plan participant
- 4) Combination of all of above

Clergy Health Plan Issues

- What is our actual cost per participant in a self-insured plan
- 564 churches pay an apportionment for clergy health
- 354 churches (63 percent) that pay have a clergy that benefits
- 83 churches (larger) pay $1.5 million for other churches' clergy
- 127 churches (mid-size) "under pay" on average $5,549
- How do we help the mid size with this cost?
- Are there churches that can't afford the salary and benefits of a full-time clergy?
- What are missional outcomes of our present cost distribution method?
- Could churches consolidate in order to fully support the full cost of one clergy?
- Can we control our cost better:
  - Pharmacy
  - Higher deductible with Health Savings Account
  - Can we reduce average age of plan from 51
- Should clergy pay some of the premium?

Clergy Pension Plan Issues

- 481 participants and 400 churches
- 164 churches pay for pensions with no benefitting clergy
- How big is our pre-1982 plan excess reserves?
- How many years can we pay current service costs with our reserves?
- Need to evaluate in terms of decades not years
- Where are we heading with number of clergy over next 20 years?
- How conservative should we be re: investment returns on reserves?
- Will there be changes to our Defined Benefit Plans at 2020 GC?
- Requested 20 year Wespeth economic analysis of TN Conf. plans

Future Concerns

- 1) Can't pay 19 percent of future annual budgets with reserves
- 2) Can't continue to apportion 100 percent of rising clergy pension and clergy health plan costs
- 3) Ongoing capital needs at Beersheba and Cedar Crest
- 4) Potential reduction of apportionment collections below 90 percent - economic or political
- 5) Potential expected Bear Market's impact on pension plans and reserves

Future Action Plan

- 1) Manage and control costs where possible
- 2) Continue to push to leave dollars at local church for mission
- 3) Better match revenues with costs for participating in events
- 4) Find broad agreement on a new plan to pay for clergy health plan
- 5) Reduce cost of clergy health plan
- 6) Obtain help from Wespath re: Understanding our pension plan
- 7) Invest in areas that support our mission of making disciples of Christ (like new congregation development)
- 8) Educate broadly the missional impact from apportionments
- 9) Find ways for CFA to help local churches

CFA Recommended Items For Your Action Today

- 1) That the 2019 total apportioned budget of $13,734,361 be apportioned to the churches using method printed in the 2013 Journal p. 109-110.
- 2) That the approved travel expenses for staff and members of councils, boards, committees, and other entities of the conference be reimbursed at the rate set by the entity, not to exceed the maximum mileage amount allowed by the Internal Revenue Service for business travel.
- 3) That the expenses for at-large members to the 2018 annual conference be reimbursed at a rate not to exceed $150 per day ($300 max), plus mileage at the IRS rate for business travel.
- 4) That the housing allowance designated for clergy conference staff pursuant to Internal Revenue Code section 107 be approved for 2017-2018 as printed in the 2017 Journal.
- 5) That the base compensation of the district superintendents for 2019 be set at $106,110.

Item 4, Commission on a Way Forward Report

COWF – JHL – ANNUAL CONFERENCES 2018

SLIDE 1

I want to begin by acknowledging that we are gathered here today and in this room are persons with very different perspective on the topic of LGBTQ inclusion, but we are all here because we have invested in our beloved UMC. I have worked very hard on my language and how it is used, but I also realize when you speak in some generalities hurt can often happen – so I invite you to hold an umbrella of grace over me with this but please do come and contact or speak with me privately later to share with me – this is how I learn.

I get many questions about serving on the Commission on a Way Forward – but one I get quite often is – “What is the most difficult thing someone has said or communicated to you during your work?” While there have been some unpleasant and unfortunately toned comments – the one that has made for sleepless nights and a few tears was from my 19 year-old daughter (who is exploring a call to ministry) who said when we were talking about young adult leadership in the UMC, said – “I hope there is something left to lead when we get our chance.” I begin with this not to start us on a downward spiral, but to remind us that we aren’t dealing “issues” we are talking about calls to ministry, souls, disciples and we are to do this work not just for those within our walls but for those who don’t know the Good News – we must stay on our mission – and say with me the mission of the UMC is “to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.”

So these words have followed me in my participation in the Commission. And while, as some of you have heard me say, this is the hardest leadership work I have ever done, there has also been much joy, I have made life-long friends and I continue to have hope and see possibility for our beloved United Methodist Church.

I am basing some of what I want to share from a presentation by Rev. Dr. Gil Rendle at our last Commission meeting in Nashville in May. It was recorded with the hope that it many of our delegations will watch it as they prepare for General Conference. Gil served as the coach for our moderators – and while I’ve read a lot about adaptive leadership and tried to practice it to the best of my ability, he is a master at leading a group in a new way with a non-anxious presence.

SLIDE 2

What is before us

Paragraph 161.G

we affirm that all persons are individuals of sacred worth, created in the image of God. All persons need the ministry of the Church in their struggles for human fulfillment, as well as the spiritual and emotional care of a fellowship that enables reconciling relationships with God, with others, and with self. The United Methodist Church does not condone the practice of homosexuality and considers this practice incompatible with Christian teaching. We affirm that God’s grace is available to all. We will seek to live together in Christian community, welcoming, forgiving, and loving one another, as Christ has loved and accepted us. We implore families and churches not to reject or condemn lesbian and gay members and friends. We commit ourselves to be in ministry for and with all persons.

- Same Sex Marriage
- Ordination of self-avowed practicing homosexual persons

SLIDE 3

- Our ability to reach LGBTQ persons and their allies and include them in the life of the church
- People leaving our churches
  - Progressive people
  - Traditional people

SLIDE 4

So let's take a moment and think about where we are – a bit more than 2 years since the 2016 General Conference (the only group that can speak for the United Methodist Church and the only group that makes any changes to our polity, Book of Discipline) and this international body decided to “defer all votes on human sexuality and refer the entire subject to a special Commission, named by the Council of Bishops”. The Commission has worked for 1 1/3 years, been in dialogue with the Council of Bishops throughout our work, presented them with several sketches of possibilities – One Church, Connectional Conference (formerly branches) and Traditionalist, a theological framework and missional framework. and they are recommending the “One Church Plan” and we are forwarding all our work to the General Conference of 2019 where a decision will be made by our delegates there.

So this is where we are and while I've outlined some of the basics it is important that we also name that in the midst of all this many blogs and article have been written, social media posts been made, opinions have been shared and here is the thing – all the details aren't out yet, which I understand is deeply frustrating – this is messy time and frustrating. In general we have an incredible amount of anxiety at this point. We just need to name it, this is part of how we communicate in 2018. I've found that simply naming it and acknowledging the anxiety is helpful. One of the authors I have found to be most helpful to me in this journey is Thomas Merton, a Trappist Roman Catholic monk who lived in the mid-20th century and who Kentucky claims as our own as the Abbey of Gethsemani where he lived is less than 1 hour from our house. I want to share this quote from “Thoughts in Solitude” –

“In our age everything has to be a “problem”. Ours is a time of anxiety because we have willed it to be so. Our anxiety is not imposed on us by force from outside. We impose it on our world and upon one another from within ourselves. Sanctity in such an age means, no doubt, traveling from the area of anxiety to the area in which there is no anxiety or perhaps it may mean learning from God, to be without anxiety in the midst of anxiety.”

How many times in the Bible does it say – do not be afraid – many. We have relentless reminders of God saying to us – don't worry or be afraid, I am with you. Always.

What is not helpful, is to live in the anxiety and dwell only on it.

So I want to share with you the story of how we did our work as the Commission on a Way Forward.

SLIDE 5

We were called together in a different way and called to do a different work. Albert Einstein quote – “We cannot solve our problems with the same thinking we used to create them.”

SLIDE 6

Or more familiarly from Mark ---

“no one sews a piece of new, unshrunk

SLIDE 7

As the Commission we approached our work in a different way from the beginning as the Bishops set up this group to be different than many other groups in our denomination – 32 persons from 9 nations; men and women; straight and gay; laity, elders, deacons, bishops and a layperson who became a local pastor during our time; full span of generations and theological positions.

Over our time we met for 26 days total, ate many meals together, prayed, worshipped, studied the Bible together, loved, learned and led. We became good friends – today I've texted several commission members and they are praying for our time together as I speak.

SLIDE 8

The report you will eventually see does not come from like-minded people but I can confidently say we all are Christ followers and deeply care for our beloved UMC. We worked in a conciliar manor – we didn't debate and use parliamentary procedure, during our time no votes were taken. There were times when some of us were angry, upset, in tears – but we didn't leave the table for good (honestly sometimes we had to take a walk around the block) or stop contributing.

SLIDE 9

Our report is the product of conversation, study, prayer, listening, transparency and trust.

We took no votes

As I've reflected on our work and much of the ministry that has been in happening with our conference teams through our process of Loving, learning and leading that many of you have been a part of – and here is one of the things that I think is so vital and key --- as the Commission we spent a lot of time together, we broke bread together many times, we heard about faith journeys, learned about cultures very different than our own --- I really don't think there is a short cut here – if we want to move forward together, we have to be willing to spend time together and more than one meal occasionally or at a brief church meeting. (Kentucky only -- And I'm going to pause and take a moment of personal privilege here and say thank you to Bishop Fairley who just a couple of months into his episcopal assignment agreed to me being gone for many days; to our connectional and conference staff for covering some of my responsibilities and to our family for forgoing time together. )

SLIDE 10

So as we were doing our work in a different way spent a lot of time really understanding our context. While I have known for years about the global context of the UMC, I've never understood it as fully as I do now. Look at who we are 13 million persons –

US – Blue and Red States

UMC in over 95% of US counties

African nations where homosexuality is illegal

Philippines – conservative churches in general but also elected the first transgender congresswoman in their history

Western Europe which has fewer issues with LGBTQ inclusiveness. Eastern is different Generations world wide, especially in US that have fewer issue

SLIDE 11

So if not problem solving we are choosing --- to try a new way of talking and thinking and leading.

*that can be as connected and unified as possible

*that can be as agile, responsive and contextual as possible

*that can live in and address the widest global and culture mission field as possible.

SLIDE 12

TIMELINE – JULY 7 – LEGISLATION IS DUE SO IT CAN BE TRANSLATED

SUMMER/FALL – DELEGATES PREPARE

FEBRUARY 23-26 – SPECIAL SESSION OF GENERAL CONFERENCE

Again to do this we need to spend a lot of time together – and I can say that I see this as a central part of my ministry in the coming year. As much as possible I am happy to meet with your delegation or other groups in the conference (or to find another commission member who can do this).

Another book that has been most helpful recently is “Canoeing the Mountains: Christian Leadership in Uncharted Territory” by Tod Bolsinger – in it he quotes Margaret Wheatley – “The primary way to prepare for the unknown is to attend to the quality of our relationships, to how well we know and trust one another.” Being with each other – especially those with whom we might disagree is an important part of how we live together and how God is calling us to move forward together.

Bishop shares about plan(s)

PRAYING OUR WAY FORWARD. As I shared earlier, serving on the Commission has been the most challenging leadership work I've ever done but at the same time and even more strongly I want to say that the prayer that we knew was surrounding us was incredible and deeply, deeply appreciated. Praying Our Way Forward is in initiative coming from our Council on Bishops.

Kentucky watch video ---

The first phase was 84 bishops spent 15 minutes each day for four months in prayer for the selection and initial work of the Commission on a Way Forward

The second phase was each Annual Conference took a week to lead intentional prayer for the mission of the UMC and work of the COWF

The third phase began in June –

Daily to pause and pray from 2:23-2:26 for the UMC and our mission and way forward

Participate in a weekly Wesleyan fast from Thursday after dinner through Friday afternoon

Use a prayer calendar being developed to pray for delegates to GC and bishops by name

I invite you to join me as I commit to participating in this initiative, it will be key to how we can move forward together.

Join us and together we can find a way forward together. For our beloved UMC, for people like my daughter Eliza who I mentioned earlier, for those we love in the church walls and those beyond who we haven't met yet.

Item 5, Corrected Sample Ballot for Constitutional Amendment

The United Methodist Church
Corrected Ballot

Proposed Constitutional Amendment – I

On May 16, 2016, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Portland, Oregon, the following Constitutional Amendment was adopted by a recorded vote of 746 Yes, 56 No (Calendar Item 121, DCA p. 2106). The text of this amendment as distributed to the annual conferences in 2016 was found to be in error. The corrected text is now presented to the annual conferences for vote.

In the 2012 Book of Discipline, Division One, add a new paragraph between current ¶¶ 5 and 6:

As the Holy Scripture reveals, both men and women are made in the image of God and, therefore, men and women are of equal value in the eyes of God. The United Methodist Church acknowledges the long history of discrimination against women and girls. The United Methodist Church shall confront and seek to eliminate discrimination against women and girls, whether in organizations or in individuals, in every facet of its life and in society at large. The United Methodist Church shall work collaboratively with others to address concerns that threaten women's and girls' equality and well-being.

If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, this would become the new ¶6, and the current ¶¶ 6-61 would be renumbered as ¶¶ 7-62.

Rationale for Proposed Constitutional Amendment I
Voted General Conference May 2016

- I. (New ¶ 6) The Constitution contains a paragraph on racial justice but not one on gender justice. The language of this petition is parallel to the language of Article 5 on racial justice already in our Constitution. It is an affirmation that, as part of our core foundational beliefs, this church will forever stand against any actions, organizations or individuals that discriminate or dehumanize women and girls anywhere on this planet.

Yes, I vote for Proposed Constitutional Amendment I VOID

No, I do not vote Proposed Constitutional Amendment one VOID

Item 6, 17 motions from the Committee

COMMITTEE ON STANDING RULES

Rev. Jay Voorhees, Chair

Bishop McAlilly, members of the Tennessee Annual Conference, and brothers and sisters in Christ, the Standing Rules of the Tennessee Annual Conference represent “the means by which we organize and oversee our work of making disciples for the transformation of the world.” The Committee on Standing Rules was created by the conference to propose new policies and standing rules, propose needed amendments to existing policies and standing rules, and to provide guidance to the annual conference regarding compliance with those rules.

While there are times when rules can seem legalistic attempts to prescribe behavior, these rules represent our polity as an annual conference, establishing procedures that facilitate our life together, and boundaries that ensure we are good stewards of the ministry to which we’ve been entrusted. They are the things we have learned over the course of many years, that is, our shared experiences as we carry out God’s work of making disciples for the transformation of the world.

Last year, the focus of the Committee on Standing Rules was the ordering of our rules so as to make them clearer and more accessible. The 2017 Annual Conference adopted our proposed changes, and these are the rules we are functioning under during this session of our conference.

This year, the changes we are proposing fall loosely into five areas:

1. Editorial changes that reflect the transition from printed materials to the distribution of conference information electronically;
2. Structural changes to facilitate the proposed changes in our connectional ministries structure;
3. Changes in our process for adopting and amending our Standing Rules which reflect concerns identified at the 2017 session;
4. Changes requested by the Council on Finance and Administration and the Board of Trustees to facilitate their work; and
5. Other changes at the request of our Connectional Ministries staff and the cabinet.

The Committee on Standing Rules met on April 16 to review these changes, and in some special cases conferred electronically to review and adopt the changes being submitted to you today. The committee was careful in their deliberations, and in the course of the conversation identified several occasions in which we discovered rules that were in conflict with one another. We have attempted to address these conflicts and simplify the rules for improved clarity.

It is our sincere hope that these proposed changes will help to better facilitate our life together as an annual conference and that we will continue to move on to perfection in love as we work to bring Christ to a world in need one neighborhood at a time.

May God continue to bless the work of the Tennessee Annual Conference in the coming days and years.

Respectfully submitted,

The Rev. Jay Voorhees
Chair, the Committee on Standing Rules

Proposed Changes and Amendments to the Standing Rules of the Tennessee Annual Conference
Submitted by the Committee on Standing Rules to the 2018 Session of the Tennessee Annual Conference

The Committee on Standing Rules makes the following motions for additions and changes in the Standing Rules of the Tennessee Annual Conference:

1. We move that the references to printed materials in Rule # 2.4, 3.3b, 6.1, 6.2, 6.3, and 6.4 be removed and changed to the word “included” so as to facilitate alternative means of distribution.
2. We move that conference authorize the conference journal editor and the chairperson of the Committee on Standing Rules to make editorial changes that provide consistency in style as long as they make no changes in the effect of the rule. (For example, changing the “ten” in Rule 2.3 to “10”).
3. We move that Rule 2.6 be edited to remove “,printed,” and add the words “of the first day of annual conference” and strike the words “at registration” so as to read, “The agenda of the conference shall be that as is corrected and distributed on the first day of annual conference with the understanding that the bishop may adjust the agenda for the good of the order.”
4. We move that Rule 2.8 be amended to remove the words “given out at registration” so as to read, “Voting cards shall be the means of identifying who is eligible to vote on all issues requiring a vote.”
5. We move that Rule 2.10 be replaced with the following language:
All annual conference reports to be included in the journal shall be e-mailed to the journal editor 10 weeks prior to the opening day of annual conference. Any corrections and/or additions received after this date shall, at the discretion of the journal editor, be included in the succeeding journal. Handwritten and typewritten reports shall not be accepted for publication in the journal. All reports should be typed, using Microsoft Word according to the specifications on the conference website. Photos must be submitted as separate JPG files and must include permissions from all persons pictured. Photos submitted will be used as space permits in the journal. Use Tennessee Conference Journal Style Sheet posted on the conference website for guidance on capitalization, punctuation, and so forth to ensure that the journal has a consistent look and flow. Files that contain tables should be submitted in Microsoft Excel format. No PDF or directly scanned images will be accepted.
6. We move that rule 2.11 be amended as follows:
  - a. To add the words “available online with” and strike the words “distributed in” in the second sentence, and
  - b. Strike the words “or included in the conference packet distributed to the members (both clergy and lay) of the annual conference session.”
  - c. The amended rule will read as follows:
Agenda items and reports not requiring action by the annual conference other than a vote to receive said item for publication in the journal, shall be placed on a consent agenda. In order for any item or report to be eligible for placement on the consent agenda, it must have been available online with the pre-conference materials. Any item may be removed from the consent agenda if 10 members of the conference petition for removal.
7. We move to make the following changes in Section 3 related to the election of delegates to the General and jurisdictional conference:
  - a. To add a deadline for declaration to Rule 3.3e to read as follows:
The initial ballot for election to General Conference will have a ballot number assigned only to those who, by declaration or nomination submitted 10 weeks prior to annual conference, have expressed their desire to be considered as a candidate. All subsequent ballots will assign numbers to write-in candidates during the election process.
  - b. To amend Rule 3.4 to conform to the constitutional changes adopted by the 2016 General Conference and ratified by the annual conferences to read as follows:
Reserve delegates: After the jurisdictional conference delegates are elected, two lay and two clergy reserve delegates shall be elected. The delegation’s budget will include funding for one lay and one clergy reserve delegate to attend General and jurisdictional conferences. In the event of a tie in the election for reserves, the delegation will be providing funding for two lay and two clergy reserves.

8. We move that the following changes to Section 4 be adopted:
  - a. Changing the heading of Section 4 to read “Suspension, Adoption, and Amendment of Standing Rules.”
  - b. Rule 4.2 be stricken and that Rule 4.3 be amended to read as follows:
Any proposal for the adoption of a standing rule, or for the amendment of an existing standing rule, shall be submitted to the Committee on Standing Rules at least 30 days prior to the first day of the annual conference session. The Committee on Standing Rules will present their recommendations to the annual conference and their recommendations may be adopted or amended from the floor by a two-thirds majority of those present and voting.
  - c. To add a new rule as follows:
Any additions or amendments to the Standing Rules shall take effect at the conclusion of the annual conference session in which they are adopted.
  - d. To authorize the journal editor and the chair of the Committee on Standing Rules to renumber the rules based on the above changes and make the corresponding changes in Rule 4.1.
9. We move that the words in Rule 7.1 “or the Board of Trustees of the Tennessee Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church” be stricken. This is in keeping with the requirement that all conference property be titled in the name of the Tennessee Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc.
10. We move to amend Rule 8.7 to read as follows:
*The Committee on Nominations shall nominate persons to entities as authorized by the annual conference. 12. We move to amend Rule 9.4 by removing the words “Conference Council on Connectional Ministries” and replace them with the words “Connectional Ministries lead team” to read as follows:

Replacement members of various boards, councils, and committees of the Connectional Ministries lead team shall be affected by the team, according to its procedure.*
13. We move to add a new Rule 11.3 (renumbering all the succeeding numbers in that category) to describe a budgeting process as requested by the Council on Finance and Administration. The rule reads as follows:
For conference benevolences as defined in ¶614.3c of the 2016 United Methodist Book of Discipline, the following process shall be used:

Item 8, Resolution on Intent to Form a New Conference

Resolution on Intent to Form a New Conference

- Whereas: The Nashville Episcopal Area is comprised of the Memphis and Tennessee Conferences,
- Whereas: In 2014, the Memphis and Tennessee Annual Conference delegates adopted the same mission statement:
The mission of the Memphis and Tennessee Conferences is to discover, equip, connect and send lay and clergy leaders who shape congregations that offer Jesus Christ to a hurting world one neighborhood at a time,
- Whereas: We are committed to our mission more than to our geographic boundaries,
- Whereas: Over the past four years, the following areas of ministry have been aligned between the two conferences:
- Appointive cabinets meeting/working together as one
  - Office of Ministerial Concerns provides shared services for both conferences (ex: administration, licensing school, Orientation to Ministry, Healthy Boundaries training)
  - Clergy Spiritual Life Retreat combined to serve both conferences
  - Area wide Hispanic Ministries team
  - Area wide Archives and History team
  - Area wide New Church Development team
  - Annual conference sessions have worshiped and learned around the same themes and speakers,
- Whereas: After successful alignment efforts demonstrated increased focus, efficiency and fruitfulness, an advisory team was identified to further pursue what benefits and challenges would be presented by formation of a new conference to include all geographic areas of the current Memphis and Tennessee Conferences,
- Whereas: Bishop McAlilly, along with other conference leaders, led 18 district sessions for clergy and laity across the Memphis and Tennessee Conferences to offer information which had been compiled by the advisory team, and
- Whereas: The advisory team's report indicated there were significant benefits to the creation of a new conference, and no insurmountable challenges in the formation of a new conference.

Therefore, be it resolved:

1. That we will rely on God to show us the "new thing" that God is doing! (Isaiah 43:19)
2. That we will model innovation, unity, and good stewardship of our resources.
3. That we endorse the intent to move forward with a plan to form a new conference, with the expectation that each conference will receive additional information and will then vote upon whether or not to approve a plan for a new conference in 2019. If each conference votes in 2019 to approve such plan(s), including a motion for approval to the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference in 2020, and if those are passed, we would meet as a fully unified new annual conference in 2021.
4. That in the 2018-2019 conference year, the Memphis and Tennessee Conferences continue the process of alignment in any additional areas where there might be a benefit to both conferences.
5. That the advisory team continue its work on two main items listed below needing more clarification, with quarterly reports during the 2018-2019 conference year.
  - a. The methodology used to pay for the conference budget, including health and pensions costs.
  - b. A decision regarding utilization of one health care provider for both conferences.
6. That the advisory team complete its study and offer its findings on these and any other remaining items no later than the 2019 annual conferences.

PART II PERTAINING TO ORDAINED AND LICENSED CLERGY

(Note: A (v) notation following a question in this section signifies that the action or election requires a majority vote of the clergy session of the annual conference. If an action requires more than a simple majority, the notation (v 2/3) or (v 3/4) signifies that a two-thirds or three-fourths majority vote is required. Indicate credential of persons in Part II: FD, FE, PD, PE, and AM when requested.)

17. Are all the clergy members of the conference blameless in their life and official administration (§§604.4, 605.7)?

The clergy of the Tennessee Conference all serve by the grace of God. The character and conference relations of all clergy members have been reviewed by Bishop William T. McAlilly, the Cabinet, and the Board of Ordained Ministry. Our clergy are in good standing and their ministries are appreciated. May God forgive us when we sin, strengthen us in our weakness, and perfect us as servants of the gospel.

REPORT OF THE ORDERS OF MINISTRY

CHAIRPERSONS OF THE ORDER OF ELDERS, ORDER OF DEACONS, AND THE FELLOWSHIP OF LOCAL PASTORS

Bishop McAlilly, members of the BOM, and clergy in the Tennessee Conference,

It is a privilege to share the Order of Elders, Order of Deacons, and the Fellowship of Local Pastors and Associate Members has been actively at work this year by encouraging our covenantal living together as clergy.

We continue to urge our brothers and sisters in ministry to remember that:

We have a sacred calling as United Methodist clergy. By virtue of our baptism and ordination or licensing, we have entered into a covenantal relationship in a community of clergy (active and retired Elders, Deacons, Associate Members, Provisional Members, and Local Pastors). Our mutual covenant seeks to create a community marked by and lived into with respect, honesty, integrity, compassion, and encouragement. In all interactions with one another we seek to offer mutual support and care as friends in ministry. As clergy in set-apart, representative, accountable leadership ministry, we must continually commit to grow in holiness, in faithfulness to our calling to make disciples of Jesus Christ, and in trusting relationships with each other. We rely upon the grace of God to maintain our covenant with each other. (From the Tennessee and Memphis conferences Clergy Covenant Living)

The main task of the Tennessee and Memphis Conference Orders and Fellowships for the year was to provide a Clergy Spiritual Life Retreat. The Clergy Spiritual Life Retreat was held at Lake Barkley on April 22-25, 2018. The Orders and Fellowships worked diligently to plan an event that would help refresh, restore, and sustain us in the midst of our ministries.

There were many opportunities for prayer, worship, singing, and vespers, as well as fellowship with creative Sabbath expressions. The retreat focused on “Wonder, Love and Praise.” Bishop Ken Carter from the Florida Episcopal Area was our featured speaker. Bishop McAlilly provided his leadership in worship, joining Bishop Carter in teaching and through his annual question and answer session. We are grateful for Bishop McAlilly’s ability to help us focus on God’s plan for the Tennessee and Memphis conferences. We are learning as Bishop McAlilly has stated, “We are better together.” We are grateful for others who provided leadership from the Tennessee and Memphis conferences. Feedback from the event has been very positive, and we are excited to continue providing an event in the future.

A second event we offered this year was At Table. The event was in cooperation with the Methodist House of Studies, Memphis Theological Seminary, and the Turner Center. Two events were held; one in the Memphis Conference and one in the Tennessee Conference. The focus of these events was for a small group of clergy and laity to come together and learn to have healthy conversations around difficult topics. These events gave participants a safe space to discuss their celebrations and concerns of the Commission on the Way Forward’s work surrounding the issue of human sexuality.

The leadership team presented opportunities and strategies to have healthy conversations concerning this issue with like-minded persons as well as with individuals holding differing opinions. The group was given tools to help them develop discussions for their local churches regarding this issue. There is hope that more of these events will be offered as we move forward together.

The Orders and Fellowship of the Tennessee Conference move forward with our work, grateful for the opportunity to serve. May we stay focused on the Christ as we seek to live in God’s grace and love walking alongside our brothers and sisters in ministry. This concludes our report.

REPORTS AND RESOLUTIONS

A. REPORTS

BOARD OF CAMP AND RETREAT MINISTRIES

Rev. Brian Marcoulier, Chair

The Board of Camp and Retreat Ministries (BCRM) of the Tennessee Conference is grateful for the leadership of Russell Casteel, executive director of Camp and Retreat Ministries of the Tennessee Conference and director of Cedar Crest Camp, and Sarah Ratz, director of Beersheba Springs Assembly. Last fall we welcomed Ratz to the Tennessee Conference from Michigan, where she served as the director of Judson Collins United Methodist Center for the last 10 years. As we shared in conference news this fall, Ratz also serves as the North Central Jurisdiction representative to the United Methodist Camp and Retreat Ministries Association. Under the leadership of Casteel and Ratz, both Beersheba Springs Assembly and Cedar Crest Camp are experiencing greater vision and fruitfulness in ministry, which is reflected in the camp reports.

This year, Camp and Retreat Ministries (CRM) has been in conversation around the strategic plan of discipleship and connection for the Nashville Episcopal area. Through research and information provided to the Conference Council on Finance and Administration (CFA), the BCRM has established its role in the history, management, and oversight of the camp fund. Through conversation and presence, CRM has worked with CFA, the Connectional Ministries Restructuring Team, and the NextGEN Operations Team as we, together, discern the most faithful and fruitful ways to organize for ministry throughout the Nashville Episcopal area.

Beersheba Springs Assembly

Many exciting things happened at Beersheba Springs Assembly in 2017. We served 3,867 people (up from 2016) through many different retreats, programs, and events. We hosted 82 groups; 60 percent of the groups were United Methodist, 8 percent were other churches, 31 percent were family and community events, and 1 percent were other use. A guest shared: “It was a great stay at Beersheba and the staff did an outstanding job of hosting us. You not only make us feel welcome, you share your delight in serving as a team. You make me proud of being a part of the ministry of the Tennessee Conference.”

Our programs in 2017 continued to uplift and grow participants’ faith. Our women’s retreat grew 81 percent and Christmas events were also well attended (391 people). We are excited to launch several new programs in 2018 and have a long-range program plan in place to develop Beersheba’s program offerings over the next several years. We are adding a Grand Camp July 1–3 for grandparents and grandkids to grow in their faith together as well as create memories. Join us for Back to Beersheba, an event for Sunday Schools, families, and singles—everyone is welcome! You’ll enjoy summer activities, Bible studies, and worship services or enjoy the solitude and your group activities. We are excited to add a Prayer Shawl Retreat! Come enjoy dedicated time to knitting or crocheting and share your experiences/ideas for prayer shawl ministry or learn how to get one started. Beersheba Springs invites you to join us for a weekend of scrapbooking and crafting with our Summer Scrapbooking and Crafting Retreat.

Through the support of donors, volunteers, and the Tennessee Conference, we were able to resurface the overlook, replace the chapel lights, and Nomads on a Mission Active in Divine Service (NOMADS) added bathrooms to the dining hall and painted the front of the hotel. We were also able to update Turner Lodge’s main floors, fireplaces, and couches. A great big THANK YOU to all who have supported Beersheba Springs Assembly through donations, time, and prayers!

Cedar Crest Camp

Cedar Crest Camp ended 2017 having served thousands of children, youth, and adults in the Tennessee Conference through summer camp and retreat programming. More than 70 local churches were represented in Cedar Crest's 2017 summer season campership, and a host of other churches and conference connectional ministries contributed to spring and fall retreat seasons full of growth and connection. We celebrate that almost 40 percent of all the summer staff we have had in the past five years have answered a call to ministry, whether it be seminary, youth ministry, camping ministry, or church service.

Cedar Crest is thrilled to announce that summer camp attendance has grown 250 percent and more than 5,000 retreat guests have been served in the past five years. Last summer, we saw 432 summer campers, and employed 15 college students as camp counselors. Most importantly, over 90 percent of parents who sent children to Cedar Crest shared that their campers had grown in their faith in Christ. For summer 2018, Cedar Crest is excited to grow into its second new set of cabins and is primed to continue to grow in capacity and faith for another summer.

In 2018, Cedar Crest has continued to grow through program expansion for all ages during both summer camp and retreat season. Already in 2018, Cedar Crest has partnered with NextGEN Ministries for a conference-wide campus ministry retreat and a conference confirmation retreat. We are also proud to announce a new Environmental Education program, focused on reaching out to classrooms to share our gift of place with students across Tennessee. Summer camp registration is open and underway—take part in the transformation happening at camp!

BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

Angella Current-Felder

Chair, Tennessee Conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry

Under the leadership of compassionate and competent campus ministers, Wesley Foundations within the boundaries of the Tennessee Conference have touched the lives of thousands of students. This was accomplished with intentional programming to connect students through weekly worship services, Bible studies, community service projects, meals, fellowship events, mission trips, and participation in Exploration and Warmth in Winter.

Austin Peay Wesley

Rev. Jodi McCullah, director, and Rev. Katie Woodard, associate director

Students, staff, and members of the Wesley board developed a strategic plan to enhance students' participation in all programming activities. APSU has offered to purchase the APSU Wesley building at the appraised price of $550,000. Per action of the 2017 Annual Conference, 85 percent of the proceeds will be for APSU Wesley campus ministries and to fund an endowment through the United Methodist Foundation for the Memphis and Tennessee Conferences and Development Fund of TN/KY Inc. The endowment will help fund APSU Wesley campus ministries for decades to come. The remaining 15 percent of the proceeds will be placed by the Tennessee Conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry in the Emerging Ministries Fund of the UM Foundation for the Memphis and Tennessee Conferences and Development Fund of TN/KY, Inc. A ministry borne out of the APSU Wesley, Soldiers and Families Embraced (SAFE) provided over 1,000 hours of counseling to combat veterans and their families and trained more than a dozen counseling interns. Congratulations to Rev. Jodi McCullah for her service and commitment to SAFE and the APSU Wesley students connected to that program. McCullah's contributions to this unique program helped SAFE to become a United Way agency. We congratulate Rev. Katie Woodard and her husband on the new addition to their family, baby Samuel, and look forward to her return to APSU Wesley from maternity leave.

Belmont Wesley

Rev. David Brent Hollis, director

Forty students are engaged in weekly ministry activities. An average of 21 students attend the weekly Connection service. Fourteen students are serving in leadership positions and several are exploring a call to ordained ministry—working in camp ministry, with Project Transformation, or serving as a Next Gen Discernment Intern this summer. Students also partnered with UT Martin Wesley in a service trip to Reelfoot Rural Ministries, attended Exploration in Portland, Oregon, and Tennessee Conference's Warmth in Winter. Donations from students totaling $580 was matched by the Wesley board resulting in $1,160 being donated to UMCOR in response to needs of hurricane victims. Community service activities include students participating in Edgemoor UMC's Brighter Days program and Calvary UMC's Rise Against Hunger event. In January, a ministry assistant was hired. Ms. Julia McCorvey is a first-year Vanderbilt Divinity School student.

Cumberland University

Riley Kilian, student leader

We celebrate this developing collegiate ministry which is motivated and sustained by second-year student Riley Kilian and 10 other students. Seven students regularly attend weekly meetings and five attend events held on campus. The students have connected with MTSU Wesley through weekly joint meetings and participated with them on a mission trip to Mountain T.O.P. Three of them are planning to join MTSU Wesley and Auburn on a mission trip to Puerto Rico in May. They have also solicited support from Lebanon First UMC which is allowing them to use their facilities. Kilian will be serving as a Next Gen Discernment Intern this summer at Lebanon First UMC to further explore her call to ministry.

Fisk Wesley

Rev. Marilyn E. Thornton, director (part time)

In addition to weekly Bible study led by three Wesley interns and weekly worship services, Fisk Wesley students actively participated in activities required for all student organizations, i.e. Organization Day, Harvest Festival, Coronation, Homecoming Parade and Christmas at Fisk. In September, Wesley interns and TSU Wesley students attended Strengthening the Black Church for the 21st Century's National Network of Young Adults conference at Clark Atlanta University. Titled Leading in Transformation, the conference was designed for students who attend United Methodist affiliated Historically Black Colleges and Universities. Coordinated by Fisk Wesley, 22 students saw the movie Black Panther and returned to the Wesley Foundation building for discussion and pizza. Community service activities included sponsoring a child from an angel tree program, serving with Room in the Inn at Clark UMC, and collecting items for health/hygiene kits given to United Methodist Women at Clark for distribution.

Martin Methodist College

Rev. Laura McMasters, college chaplain

During the 2017-18 school year, 123 students—representing 13 percent of the student body—attended chapel at least once. This semester, four students are serving as chapel interns and a music student is coordinating—with peers—the music for the chapel. Twenty-five students are engaged with church leadership development group The Call and seven students are Alford/Church Leader Scholars. Four students have taken the initiative to lead a weekly prayer time in the prayer room, six students attended Exploration, and two students attended the National Youth Workers Convention in Memphis. Religious Life currently offers five Bible study and fellowship groups: Fellowship of Christian Athletes (10 students); The Brotherhood (nine students); The Meeting Place (eight students); La Conexión (12 students); and Student Christian Association (11 students). The chaplain and the dean of Campus Life took eight students to Slidell, Louisiana, to serve with the Epworth Project doing minor home repairs. Organized by the chaplain last summer in response to student leaders' request, the Religious Life Council is meeting monthly to update leaders of respective groups' happenings and to plan light-hearted events for fun and fellowship and coordinate a new and occasional evening worship service called REFUEL. Martin Methodist students are serving in a variety of summer ministry intern experiences in local churches as well as at Cedar Crest Camp, Project Transformation Tennessee, and as Next Gen Discernment Interns.

Middle Tennessee State University Wesley

Rev. John Weaver, director and Rev. Michelle Ozier Wallace, associate director

MTSU Wesley is experiencing vibrant growth and student participation in multiple program activities organized and led by the 11-person student leadership team. Student attendance averages include: weekly worship service (22); weekly Bible study (24); and weekly lunch meals in the building (45). There are 110-120 on-campus fellowship contacts; Core group, students who attend mostly everything, totals 50-55. In January, students participated in a leadership retreat at Hermitage UMC, a Discipleship Retreat at Cedar Crest (with Cumberland Wesley Fellowship) and participated in Warmth in Winter. Thirty students participated in a mission trip to Mountain T.O.P. In May, a mission trip with Auburn Wesley and Cumberland Wesley to Puerto Rico is planned. Partnerships have been developed with 20 local churches that provide weekly meals and joint worship services and 15 students are serving local churches as Sunday school leaders, interns, and youth leaders. In January, Beth Morris joined the staff to assist with administration and alumni development. A new building plan with renovated spaces enabled offices to be moved and created permanent worship and small-group spaces. MTSU Wesley students are serving in a variety of summer ministry intern experiences in local churches as well as at Cedar Crest Camp, Project Transformation Tennessee, and as Next Gen Discernment Interns.

Tennessee State University Wesley

Rev. Michele Morton, director

TSU Wesley's transformed worship space has enhanced the worship services. Student involvement increased, averaging 50 students a Sunday and over 100 students for special worship events (especially when held outside). A new praise and worship coordinator; consistent Wesley band with bass, drums and pianist developed by creative director T-Ran Gilbert; and a new dance coordinator, Taylor Green, are having a positive impact upon the worship services and student attendance. Plans are in place to have a new student singing group before fall 2018. Two students attended Exploration 2017 in Portland, Oregon. Fourteen students, the campus pastor, and two graduate students, connected nationally with Strengthening the Black Church for the 21st Century's National Network of Young Adults held at Gammon Theological Seminary to explore the call on their lives with seasoned clergy, seminarians, and lay leaders. Community service projects increased through partnerships with other student organizations. The 3rd annual Thanksgiving food drive resulted in two baskets of food being given to 13 families. TSU Wesley was well represented in the neighboring schools for the International Read to Me! Day. Led by Wesley young adult leaders twice a month, Courageous Conversations, continues to grow with a diverse audience. Upcoming events include the Earth Day Fest at the Wesley Foundation—includes worship, guest artists, local praise teams, dancers, and gospel stroll—and students planting trees on campus and the grounds of TSU Wesley building. On Sunday, April 29 the Wesley Community Band hosted a Spring Jazz Concert on the lawn at the Wesley building.

Tennessee Tech University

Rev. Addison Shock, director

This past fall during the Week of Welcome, daily events and activities were sponsored by the Tech Wesley student leadership team to connect with new students. This included parties, an outdoor movie night, putt put golf at Byrdstown First UMC in the Caney Fork District, a tailgate before a football game, a pool party on the lawn, and game nights at Wesley. In October, 37 students participated in the 3rd annual October Beach Retreat on St. George Island in Florida. Later in the semester, students hosted two Community Nights. The first, titled Day Glow, was attended by over 140 students. The second, Chocolate Fest, was attended by more than 100 students. On average, 103 students have been attending weekly worship; 51 for Monday worship; 61 for small group 61; and 52 on Wednesdays. A new full-time staff member, Max Weisskopf, director of operations joined the staff. Weisskopf is responsible for facility management, finances, and fundraising.

Vanderbilt University Wesley

Rev. Nancy Hawthorn Parker, director (part time)

On average, 12 Vandy Wesley students hosted and led weekly Tuesday night gatherings featuring a series of discussions on a variety of themes. Discussions included a five-week study on 1 John, questions on the nature of God, who Jesus is, what does Jesus do, and how do we live. Other topics covered welcome, compassion, spiritual practices, and relationships. In November, Vandy Wesley students wrote cards of encouragement and prepared care packages for military friends and family serving overseas. Five members of Vandy Wesley's core group of 40 students, are serving weekly in United Methodist churches. One student is serving as a summer youth ministry intern at Bethlehem UMC. An average of 12 students participate in the Sunday college lunch; 10 students attended the student leadership retreat; 285 students signed up to receive weekly emails; and 150 students attended Easter Fest 2018 which included prayer stations and student reflections. Students partnered with Open Table Nashville on a downtown pilgrimage learning about the lives of the homeless in Nashville. In partnership with Vanderbilt's Office of Student Leadership, Vandy Wesley led a four-week study of Brené Brown's book Braving the Wilderness and connected with 25 new students. During Lent, Vandy Wesley partnered with Belmont UMC and West End UMC to launch Journey to the Table creating a young adult network of life groups across Nashville. Twenty-two young adults leaders were commissioned; four were Vanderbilt graduate students. Six life groups have been established.

BOARD OF LAITY

Holly Neal, Conference Lay Leader and George Brown, Associate Lay Leader

The Board of Laity is comprised of the conference Lay Servant Ministries director and associate, the United Methodist Women and United Methodist Men presidents, district lay leaders and district Lay Servant Ministries directors, the conference lay leader and associate, and at-large members.

During this past conference year, the Board of Laity sought to lead UMC lay membership into a position of being the voice of reason during this time of uncertainty. We equipped Board of Laity members with information to help lead their districts and other places where they have influence to impact lives for Christ.

Our Church needs laity and clergy standing shoulder to shoulder and working together to continue to do ministry in this time of rapid change. We are committed to set the example of working together to fulfill the conference mission statement to discover, equip, connect, and send lay and clergy leaders who shape congregations that offer Jesus Christ to a hurting world, one neighborhood at a time.

The laity feel the same call as those ordained but choose to perform our ministry as lay persons. We are exploring more ways to do more to recognize that call. We solicit your prayers as we seek to do our best to serve God.

BOARD OF PENSIONS

Steve Curry, Chair

Most of our full-time active and retired clergy participate in defined benefit (DB, or traditional pension) plans. Our plans were funded by the annual conference and are administered by Wespeth Benefits and Investments (Wespeth), formerly known as General Board of Pension and Health Benefits. The Tennessee Conference's retirement plans are projected to be funded at 101 percent – 105 percent in 2019.

The annual conference, this board and their predecessors have been good stewards of the funds entrusted to us. As a result, the Tennessee Conference has pension reserves that should protect our retirees well into the future.

We are blessed that we can fund part of our current pension obligations from earnings on our reserves. For 2018, the Council on Finance and Administration (CFA) approved apportionment funding to cover only 22 percent of our estimated pension obligations. The remaining 78 percent will be funded through withdrawals from the conference's pension reserves. This is part of a 10-year plan to reduce the church's apportionments by drawing down accumulated reserves, which through God's blessings have grown more than anticipated.

The 2019 Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan has been prepared and submitted to Wespeth as required by the Book of Discipline (2016), ¶1506.6. We have sufficient projected revenues and reserves to fully fund all the conference's benefit obligations for the foreseeable future.

Years ago, the Conference Board of Pensions set a goal to maintain our Pre-82 Plan past service rate (PSR) at a minimum of 1 percent of conference average compensation (CAC). We recommend a past service rate for 2019 of $714 for pre-1982 service years. This represents a 1.5 percent increase over the 2018 rate ($703) and is 1.046 percent of the CAC.

The 2017 Annual Conference authorized the creation of a Pension Reserve Trust ("Trust"), with a goal of better protecting the pension assets that are held outside of our plans at Wespeth. That was accomplished, with all assets being conveyed or redirected into the Trust. We have given Treasurer Jim Allen the authority to make routine transactions into and out of the Trust as provided in our approved budget; but otherwise, the Trust assets are restricted to uses approved by its trustees.

The board expresses our thanks to the hard work of Jim Allen and Melinda Parker, who ensure the smooth working of our benefits plans and support of our retirees. Assistant Benefits Officer Melinda Parker organized the Board of Pensions' annual Retirement Planning Seminar for clergy considering retirement; and a Benefit and Financial Planning Seminar for lay staff and younger clergy in October. At the request of persons considering retirement, we moved the annual event to the fall (historically held in February) to give participants more time to consider their retirement options. In October and again in February, Jim Allen led a workshop on Clergy Taxes Using Tax Software, sponsored by our United Methodist Foundation.

I want to express my appreciation for the extraordinary commitment and dedication by the members of the Board of Pensions. Their service is utmost important and invaluable.

REMINDERS

- 1) Wespeth offers additional life insurance for qualified participants.
- 2) The conference can provide grave markers for deceased United Methodist clergy. Requests should be made to the Office of Administrative Services.

REQUEST FOR ACTION BY ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The Board of Pensions recommends that the annual conference approve the following:

1. The 2019 Tennessee Conference Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan
2. A past service rate of $714 for pre-1982 service years, effective January 1, 2019

2018 Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan (for 2019)

Summary: Sufficient funds have been apportioned, restricted, or designated to fully fund all of our current obligations and accrued benefit liabilities at or above the 100 percent level.

General Conference 2012 agreed with a recommendation by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, now known as Wespeth, that every annual conference should have a formal written and approved plan for funding its benefit-related liabilities. The Discipline, ¶1506.6 (2016). This expanded requirement grew out of the financial meltdown of 2008 that left many annual conferences unable to meet their current liabilities, and with no plan for covering their long-term liabilities. We of the Tennessee Conference continue to benefit from the foresight that led us and our predecessors to raise the funds necessary to fund our pension plans fully and to limit our health plan benefits for retirees to an amount that we could reasonably afford.

A detailed 2019 Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan was approved by Wespeth and the Conference Board of Pensions and is recommended to the annual conference for its approval. A recap follows here; the full plan summary can be found on the conference website under Finance and Resources, Administrative Services tab, Conference Financials tab.

Defined Benefit Corridor Funding (comprised of Clergy Retirement Security Plan Defined Benefit and MPP Annuities): The funded ratio for contributions for 2019 has been calculated by Wespeth to be 105.5 percent. Since this exceeds 100 percent, the Tennessee Conference has no current unfunded liability.

Pre-82 Plan (Supplement One to CRSP): The PSR is set each year at an amount expected to exceed 1 percent of the conference average compensation (CAC). Based on a PSR for 2019 of $714 (1.04 percent of CAC), the Pre-82 Plan will have a funded ratio of approximately 105 percent. Projections for 2019 do not currently require the Tennessee Conference to contribute new money to the Pre-82 Plan.

Post-retirement medical benefits are provided only to persons who are eligible and take full retirement at age 62, and continues only until those persons reach age 65. Assets set aside for this benefit exceed the liability by 24.6 percent (124.6 percent funded ratio).

Conference Health Plan (active) is a self-funded plan. In 2017, the plan's expenses exceeded revenues by $369,090 which was funded from reserves. Projections for 2018 are approximately breakeven (revenues equal expenses). In addition to paying current expenses each year, the health plan seeks to have reserves on hand equal to at least 25 percent of annual expenses. Projected reserves for 2019 are 19.6 percent.

Other benefits: The Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) (for full-time clergy) and the UMPIP 403(b) retirement plan (for less-than-full-time clergy and conference lay staff) are fully funded each year from a combination of pensions apportionments and reserves.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

James R. “Hap” Hewgley, President

Again, it has been a very busy year for the board during the last conference year:

Immediately following our Annual Conference and the announcement to the closing of 61st Ave. church, we received an inquiry from the adjacent property owner about purchasing that property. (They had allowed us to use part of their property for parking and have been supportive of our ministries in the past.) We informed them that we had made a one-year lease with Ebenezer (Hispanic) Ministries. This spring, we received an offer from that company and we are in discussions with Ebenezer, McKendree UMC, and the Red River District about what best fits our future needs. We are negotiating a new lease with Open Table Nashville or Home Church on the old Inglewood UMC as the previous lease expired in February.

Earnest Newman UMC was also closed and we went through an extended period in order to evict the tenant from the former parsonage. At the present time we are working with the Red River District to determine what future needs this property might meet or whether to place this on the list be sold.

On July 26, the Board of Trustees established a Church Closing Task Force as a sub-committee to specialize on these increasing numbers of properties and how we can best serve the conference. The members of this task force are: Jane Melrose, Jason Hicks, and Raul Alegria. On August 9, the first meeting was held and we learned that Bishop McAlilly will appoint two area-wide teams. The operational team is tentatively called the Asset Management Team. The other will be a big-picture visioning team.

Also in August, we: (1) approved/ratified a deed swap to clean up our ownership of the Old Fountain Head Cemetery property near Portland; (2) approved listing the orphan lot behind the former Tulip Street UMC for sale for $325,000, and (3) approved the sale of the former Verona UMC property to the Reformed Baptist Fellowship for $7,200.

On September 8, the trustees held a meeting to further discuss church closing procedures and receive a proposal from Church Mutual to offer our churches a group workers compensation program. Church Mutual has not been able to offer that yet because of questions raised by the state. We also were informed that the dates for the bishop’s teams would be scheduled shortly.

In October, we received an offer on the Burkitt Road property—vacant land originally purchased for a new church start. We deemed the offer more as a free option to speculate on the future of the area. We decided that we would turn this property (with most other closed church properties) over to A. Anthony to advise us and determine if sewers are in metro’s future plans for this area. This lack of sewer availability has killed interest in the property from legitimate prospective buyers.

In December, the trustees voted to hire A. Anthony to handle the management and/or sale of any properties belonging to the Tennessee Conference that we assign to them.

In February, we signed the papers for the sale of the APSU Wesley Foundation building in Clarksville to the state, for Austin Peay University.

In March, we signed a quit claim deed to the church building formerly used by the Pleasant Grove UMC in Sumner County and its cemetery to the Cemetery Association.

We appreciate the help of Attorney Lisa Carson, the conference chancellor, attorney Ken Young, and their assistants for all their help in resolving these matters in a successful manner. The board is submitting a proposal to the standing rules at this year’s Annual Conference for consideration that will clarify the board’s duties in matters such as these.

I would like to thank the Office of Administrative Services (Jim Allen, Melinda Parker, Shelly Curtis, and Alice Grunau) for their support of the work of the Board of Trustees; and all of the members of the Board of Trustees for their continued presence, prayers, and service to the Tennessee Conference. To God be the glory!

COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

Rev. Leland T. Carden, Chair

The Tennessee Commission on Archives and History (TCAH) is pleased to update the annual conference on the work of your ministry of memory. It bears repeating each year that the work of the CAH is a Book of Discipline mandated work (see para.641). We also have a Tennessee Conference Historical Society (TCHS) that functions within TCAH to encourage interest in the study and preservation of the history of conference and its antecedents in the districts and local churches. The ministry of corporate memory is as crucial to a conference or local church as memory is to an individual.

The primary work of the TCAH is to function as the corporate memory of conference churches and clergy. This is accomplished by collecting, preserving, and making accessible historically significant records of the annual conference and its agencies, including data related to the origin and history of the conference; assisting local churches in preserving their records, compiling their histories, and celebrating their heritage; and safekeeping the historical records and artifacts of all abandoned or discontinued churches within the bounds of the annual conference. TCAH seeks to help local congregations know, learn, and celebrate the history of their church and the foundations and witness of those who lived before them, worshiped there, and served as faithful disciples of Jesus Christ.

Since the Tennessee Conference bicentennial in 2012, TCAH and TCHS have been dealing with a large backlog of records and materials that had accumulated over the past decade. For many years, the depository was only available to visitors and researchers on a part-time basis and staffed by part-time clerical help and volunteers. TCAH determined that in order to adequately fulfill our responsibilities as keepers of our corporate memory, we needed a full-time staff person who could begin sorting through, organizing, and cataloging the contents of the archive.

TCAH requested permission to seek and employ an archivist to undertake the task. We did not have to look far to find a qualified person to fill the position. In 2013 our conference historian, Rev. Von Unruh, applied for the job and was employed as a part-time archivist while continuing to serve a church part time. In June 2013, with approval from the cabinet and funding by the Tennessee Conference's Council on Finance and Administration (CFA), this became a full-time position.

Over the past five years, much has been accomplished. The backlog of materials has slowly been sorted, catalogued, indexed, and properly filed and made accessible for research and study or stored.

When Lambuth University closed, the Memphis Conference's historical and archival materials were moved and stored at the Memphis Conference office. In 2016, the materials were transferred to the Tennessee Conference depository, thus creating a Nashville Area Archival Center. That same year, we obtained a substantial quantity of historical and archival materials, file cabinets, and shelving from The United Methodist Publishing House when they closed their 8th Avenue facility.

We have recently experienced several church closures in the conference. Working with the district superintendents and conference trustees, we have collected church records, historical artifacts, plaques, pictures, etc., from those facilities.

We have expanded the archival space by more than 50 percent to accommodate the large number of volumes added to our research library from the conference and UMPH as well as the increasing number of records and historic artifacts from closed churches and district offices. We are indebted to CFA and the Office of Administrative Services for their support in funding this expansion.

The increasing volume of documents, files, and historical artifacts also created the need for additional clerical help to process, catalog, and access the materials and make them available for research and study. The combined storage and staff increases led to increased rent, staffing costs, and the need for archival supplies.

Since our only source of funding has been through the conference apportionments, we were blessed to receive approval from CFA for gradual increases in our annual budgets. However, we were counseled and advised by CFA to seek other sources of income to supplement the conference apportionment funding.

We are grateful to receive an annual stipend from the Memphis Conference to cover the costs of processing and archiving their materials. In addition, we have been able—through the efforts of our archivist Rev. Unruh and TCHS President David Martin—to secure several small grants from the Tennessee State Library Association to purchase supplies and materials needed to properly document and access books and church records in our depository. We are also grateful for a generous grant from the Nashville District Trustees—made possible through the sale of closed church properties. These grants allowed us to make better use of part-time clerical help to create finding aids for closed church files and creating of a Union List of clergy from the former Methodist, Methodist Episcopal Church, and South and Central jurisdictions.

When we received materials from the Memphis Conference, their local church files were organized by counties rather than by districts. With the help of members of the commission and the historical society, we are converting Tennessee Conference local church files to county order. Organizing churches by counties will make research easier because many churches have identical names.

To aid local church historians researching clergy appointed to their churches, we are developing lists of clergy appointments to local churches that include former names (if changed), whether opened or closed, by year, and coded as verified or not.

Through the dedicated and diligent efforts of our Historian/Archivist Von Unruh, and with help from staff members of the Tennessee State Library, commission members, TCHS, family members, and local county historians, we are pleased to announce the publication of an annotated and indexed edition of the journals of Jeremiah Walker Cullom. Originally published by James Reed Cox (with the TCHS) in 1968 as Warm Hearts and Saddle Bags, this three-volume set will prove to be an invaluable resource for persons doing family research throughout the Middle Tennessee counties where Rev. Cullom lived and served. They are available for purchase through the TCHS.

In January 2018 TCAH voted to rename the archives/depository in honor of former conference historian and Tennessee Conference clergyperson John Abernathy Smith, who in 1980 took on the task of writing and publishing a new history of the Tennessee Conference. The book was published as Cross and Flame; Two Centuries of United Methodism In Middle Tennessee. In recognition of his historical knowledge, research skills, writing ability, and service as conference historian, the Tennessee Conference Archives, located in the Family Life Center of McKendree UMC will henceforth be known as the John Abernathy Smith Heritage Center.

TCAH and TCHS also have the responsibility of overseeing—and in some cases maintaining—several historical sites within the bounds of the conference. The Strothers Meeting House, formerly located in Sumner County, was the site of the first conference of the newly organized Methodist Church in Middle Tennessee in October, 1802. This structure was moved to an honored place on the campus of Scarritt-Bennett College in 1931. The Asbury-Babb House, located on the grounds of Bethlehem UMC, in Lebanon, was the site of the 1815 Tennessee Annual Conference, and the last annual conference presided over by Rev. William Asbury prior to his death. Both structures have undergone restorations in recent years.

Footnote: In 1812, the Tennessee Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church was organized at Fountain Head in Sumner County. Bishop Francis Asbury and Bishop William McKendree presided at the organizational meeting. A 200th anniversary celebration of the historic forming of the Tennessee Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Fountain Head in was held at Brentwood UMC in 2012. The Tennessee Conference has owned the Old Fountainhead Cemetery in Portland, Tennessee since 1920, when the Fountain Head Church finally closed.

The cemetery, cared for by a local cemetery association for years, was heavily damaged by vandals a few years ago. This led to the formation of Friends of Old Fountainhead Cemetery and members are raising funds to fence and better protect the property. TCAH, with the assistance of the Tennessee Conference Chancellor's Office, has worked with the Friends group to define the property lines and correct errors in the deeds of properties surrounding the cemetery.

Two other historic gravesites that are the responsibility of the commission are taken care of by the local churches where they are located: the Green Hill Grave and Homesite at Liberty UMC in Brentwood and the Gravesite of Rev. John Crane, located at Goshen UMC in Maury County. Rev. Crane was admitted into the Tennessee Conference, Methodist Church in 1807. He served circuits in North Carolina, East Tennessee, Ohio, Louisiana, Missouri, and Kentucky as well as the Duck River Circuit in 1812. He was the first member to die in the Tennessee Conference and the first to be buried in Goshen Cemetery. He died February 14, 1813.

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

George L. Jensen, Chair

The Commission on Equitable Compensation has worked to establish a minimum standard of compensation for appointed clergy. We strive to ensure that each pastor of the annual conference will receive a fair and just compensation for his/her full-time professional services in devotion to the Lord. We are guided in these efforts by The Book of Discipline (2016) and the policies established by the conference.

I. MINIMUM COMPENSATION LEVELS:

The commission recommends the following minimum compensation levels for 2019, which are 2.0 percent higher than 2018. "Compensation" includes salary, utilities, and any other benefit paid by the local church. It does not include housing, which is the obligation of the charge, ¶252.4e. Also note that this does not include the local church's fund for reimbursement to pastors for expenses incurred in the fulfillment of their professional responsibilities ("accountable reimbursement"). That reimbursement is in addition to the pastor's salary ¶ 627.

Full Conference, Provisional and Commissioned Members:	$40,180	$41,586	$42,420
Associate Members:	$36,470	$37,476	$38,508
Full Time Local Pastors:	$35,060	$36,287	$37,020

II. QUALIFICATION PROCESS FOR EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

To qualify for an Equitable Compensation Grant, a charge must submit an application to the Commission on Equitable Compensation through their district superintendent. The application will explain in detail why conference funds should be used for this charge and what efforts have been made to raise the funds needed to pay the pastor's salary. Additionally, the application must explain the goals for the charge and pastor and how it is engaging in its mission field. The following information must be included with the application:

1. Proposed compensation for the pastor, including Equitable Compensation Grant and housing
2. Printout of most recent full year Table 2
3. Charge or church budgets for the most recent year, with most recent audit if any
4. Balance of all funds on hand, including operating, reserve, and endowment funds
5. Schedule to move off of equitable compensation within four years, or progress if this is not first year

The application must be signed by the SPRC or council chair, and district superintendent, and recommended by the cabinet to the Equitable Compensation Commission. If a grant application is approved by the commission, the Office of Administrative Services will be instructed to forward the funds monthly to the church's bank using ACH (direct deposit).

III. 2018-2019 GRANTS

IV. ARREARAGE POLICY

According to The Book of Discipline (2016), ¶¶624.1 and 625.2d, the Commission on Equitable Compensation is to submit “an arrearage policy to be adopted by the annual conference.” This policy is to address the situation where a church is slow or unable to pay the agreed upon compensation of its pastor.

The arrearage policy was last approved by the Annual Conference in June 2017 and is printed in the 2017 journal as part of the Report of the Commission on Equitable Compensation.

COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS

Rev. Nick Baird-Chrisohon, Co-Chair, Red River District Representative

The Conference Committee on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns has begun the work of establishing a coordinated effort committed to dialogue and increased cooperation between United Methodists in Middle Tennessee and other churches and denominations within our episcopal area.

In April 2018, chairperson Emily Baird-Chrisohon attended the National Workshop on Christian Unity in Washington, DC, which is co-sponsored by the Council of Bishops’ Office of Christian Unity and Interreligious Relations. There, she presented her work with A Seat at the Table Knoxville, an interfaith organization committed to deconstructing implicit misconceptions and prejudices that lead to Islamophobia and similar attitudes toward non-Christians.

We did not hold a committee meeting in 2017. We hope to re-organize our attentions this year to promote the ongoing negotiations for a full communion relationship with the Episcopal Church and to be a resource and organizing body around issues of interfaith within Tennessee Conference churches. If you need tools to facilitate conversation around issues of Christian unity and interfaith dialogue, we are happy to help.

COMMITTEE ON CHURCH AND SOCIETY

Rev. Dr. Matthew L. Kelley, Chair

The Tennessee Conference Committee on Church and Society has continued in its efforts to educate and advocate for the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church. One of the most crucial areas of advocacy this past year has been in the area of immigration, with the Trump administration’s attempts to round up and deport our undocumented neighbors. Rev. Carlos Uroza and Sophia Agtarap attended a training at the General Board of Church and Society in Washington, D.C., and are helping coordinate our efforts to assist our immigrant neighbors and help our local congregations connect with them.

Advocacy for health care continues to be a priority with Rev. Merrilee Winenger running the Faith That Heals ministry full time. We also continue to support the conference’s Creation Care Ministry—under the direction of Rev.

Paul Slentz and Dr. Dan Joranko—as well as the work of Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns (see separate report from this committee) and Tennessee United Methodists for Inclusion.

This year we gave grants to Open Table Nashville, Justice for Our Neighbors, and the I Have A Dream ministry at Nancy Webb Kelly UMC. We also recognized the great work of Angela Overstreet, Mary T. Newman, and Rev. Merrilee Winenger as recipients of the annual Richard J. Allison Social Holiness Awards.

In the coming year we are looking forward to expanding the number of people involved in Immigrant Welcoming Ministries. We will also help facilitate a gathering of churches in the conference whose members bring hope and joy to our incarcerated brothers and sisters through prison and jail ministries.

COMMITTEE ON EPISCOPACY

Kent McNish, Chairperson

Over the last year, the Tennessee Conference Committee on Episcopacy supported the strong efforts by Bishop Bill McAlilly to focus on God’s mission for our conference and the Nashville area. The foundational focus of McAlilly’s leadership is the great commandment—love God and love those God loves and the great commission: To go and make disciples. This faith foundation is given life among with the new five-district structure and the restructuring of the conference staff in order to move resources closer to the local church.

In this past year, McAlilly has brought new vision through meetings with clergy and laity of all five districts in the Tennessee Conference and the four districts in the Memphis Conference. Based on Psalm 46, the bishop has strongly, boldly, and faithfully with the unanimous support of both conference cabinets, declared “There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God, the holy habitation of the Most High.” Psalm 46.4 (NRSV).

This vision calls us to put aside the rivers that has separated us both geographically and structurally. McAlilly has called us to look beyond the rivers to deepen our connection.

His words have resounded through the entirety of the two conferences, “It is here and now that we are in ministry. This is the appointed time. We claim this moment without fear. We do so compelled by faith to unite our voices and our ministry, to demonstrate what it means to come together in order to achieve the great things of God,” said McAlilly. “As an area, I’m calling us to reclaim our nature as the ‘people called Methodists,’ so that we can be agents of grace in our mission field. We can be ‘repairers of the breach’ in many hearts and lives. We can claim the year of the Lord’s favor and announce that in Jesus there is liberation for all.

“I want to make it clear: I believe we best fulfill our call to follow Christ in this season by creating a new conference,” said McAlilly. “After living with you as your bishop for the past six years, I am persuaded that we are better together.” (NOTE: By the time this report is presented to the Tennessee Annual Conference, the decision to move forward on joining our two annual conferences will have been deliberated and made).

“Our conferences have done good work in recent years discerning, naming, and claiming our mission as an area for a time such as this. We’re called to discover, equip, connect and send lay and clergy leaders who shape congregations that offer Jesus Christ to a hurting world, one neighborhood at a time. He noted that in so many ways we are like those who first sang Psalm 46—we’re in that season between what and where we’ve been and where we’re going.” He added, “While we are composed of two historically distinct conferences, the power of our witness is most effective when our voices are unified. In fact, unity is in itself a distinct witness in a time when our world and our Church seems ever more divided.”

The bishop asked us to join in common discernment concerning this vision. Hopefully all of us have participated in the Lenten 40 Days of Prayer in both the Memphis and Tennessee conferences.

The committees of the episcopacy of both conferences have encouraged and supported McAlilly and the cabinets in this bold vision. We stand unanimously with them at this Kairos time given to us by God. We trust you have done the same.

The Book of Discipline assigns the annual conference’s Committee of the Episcopacy responsibility to serve as liaison and wise counsel to the bishop. We provide the bishop with constructive, honest feedback; the voice and sentiment of our conference as we have heard it expressed to us; while offering guidance and direction to the bishop.

Together with the Memphis Conference Committee, we have worked jointly on the aforementioned task. In our meetings, we have discerned the bishop’s effectiveness through the use of a standardized evaluation form from the Southeastern Jurisdiction. I am pleased to report that McAlilly received very positive evaluations from both committees for this year (voted unanimously at the Area Committee of the Episcopacy meeting in Nashville on April 21, 2018). We owe a deep debt of gratitude to Lynn McAlilly for her love and support of her husband, Bill McAlilly.

The continuing construction of the Mama Lynn Women’s Center shows the fruit of our partnership with the East Congo Conference. At home, our local missional efforts continue to grow. We have seen this area expand with the support of the bishop. We have broken ground on a project to provide a dignified, loving and hospitable bridge housing community for some of the most vulnerable people experiencing homelessness. This was born out of a partnership between a local church and a non-profit. In addition, a formerly closed church property has reignited with one of our new church plants with additional innovative plans for the remainder of this large facility. We have churches engaged in efforts to stop sex trafficking, in ministry to those imprisoned, in church school partnerships, to lead important conversations regarding race relations, to offer support to immigrants in our communities, and to provide food and clothing to those who lack the basic necessities of life—just to name a few.

In addition to leading two conferences, McAlilly also has served as the president of the Southeastern Jurisdiction College of Bishops (May 2016-May 2017), president of the board of directors of the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry (2016-2020), and as a member of the Connectional Table. Each bishop has a slate of responsibilities and with these leadership positions, come additional meetings and travel. McAlilly also serves on the board of trustees for Martin Methodist College and Emory University, as well as the board of directors for Methodist Le Bonheur Healthcare.

As we move into the 2018-2019 conference year, we are cognizant of the called General Conference in February 2019. This report is submitted prior to the final report of the Commission on the Way Forward which we will receive at Annual Conference. We will trust in the guidance of the Holy Spirit as The United Methodist Church steps into the future unafraid. This Tennessee Conference Committee on the Episcopacy believes that we have the best episcopal leader possible to lead and guide us in this transition.

COMMITTEE ON HEALTH PLAN

Rev. Ann L. Cover, Chair

Goals for the Quadrennium (2017-2020)

1. To provide the most comprehensive and cost-effective health plan possible for our full-time and  $\frac{3}{4}$ -time appointed clergy, their dependents, and for conference staff.

The committee continues to evaluate our self-funded plan as being the most cost-effective plan for our conference at the present time. That being said, the Health Plan Committee has made the decision to increase the premium rates for spouses, children, and non-appointed clergy persons covered under the plan, effective February 1, 2018.

- In the last quadrennium, the conference health plan accumulated some monetary reserves due a combination of 1) a few years of lower-than-expected claims and 2) efficiency in maintaining the plan.
  - These past monetary reserves have allowed the health plan to keep its premium rate increases modest since 2008. These premium rates constitute the charges for spouses and/or children of clergy families as well as non-appointed clergy persons covered under our health plan.
  - See Premium Rates in supplement that follows.
  - The apportionment funding request for 2019 by the Health Plan Committee is $300,000 less than its 2018 request.
  - In our self-funded plan, one observes stability and thus control of increase of costs over time, with the potential for greater variation in any single year. We review and adjust our estimates each year, based on actual results of income and costs of the prior year with a diligent eye to overall trends of health care and pharmaceutical costs.
  - In early 2018, the Health Plan Committee received detailed reports from UMR and Mercer comparing our costs and benefits to other similar clergy plans.
  - Our health plan has remained in full compliance with the Affordable Care Act of 2010. Our claim administrator remains UMR, a subsidiary of United Health Care. Mercer is the broker for our stop-loss insurance.
  - We will continue to monitor the future changes in health care legislation and insurance markets and assess the implications for our health plan.
2. To promote an increasing commitment to healthy living on the part of our clergy, clergy families, and the people of our congregations—for the sake of ministry and mission in the name of Jesus Christ.
    - What is beneficial for the vitality of our clergy members is also beneficial for the people of our congregations!

COMMITTEE ON NATIVE AMERICAN MINISTRIES

Mary T Newman

The Tennessee Conference's Committee on Native American Ministries (CONAM) is co-chaired by Pat Bryan and Debbie Fitzhugh; the committee's coordinator is Mary T Newman. Inclusivity is evident as approximately half of the members are Native American.

You can see us coming! We maintain a 6' x 12' enclosed trailer that's visible on the roads and at events. The attention-getting logos on the trailer provide opportunities for conversation and the trailer is stocked with everything needed for informational booths at events. We also maintain pages on the tnumc.org site and moccasinfootprints.org.

Our 15th annual Native American Resource Day was held the first Sunday of March at Blackman UMC in Murfreesboro. During this time, we had a traditional Native American meal, presented audio/video resources, and provided speakers to engage the participants. We had large displays and book resources. Every church received a binder full of re-printable materials.

Approximately 40 churches in the Tennessee Conference gave a monetary offering to the Native American Ministry Sunday (NAMS), one of the denomination's six Special Sundays. We count that as fruitful for God's Kingdom. The total collected denomination-wide was over $6 million. Half of the money received within an annual conference stays in the conference and half is used for seminary scholarships and other educational endeavors.

Recognition and celebration of NAMS is a challenge. While it's on the church's calendar to follow Easter, it is also in the same time frame of Golden Cross Sunday and Mother's Day. We stress in our statement that NAMS can be celebrated any time of the year.

We acknowledge that there are individual churches with their own personal ministries with Native Americans. CONAM gladly offers resources, displays, and speakers to all churches. Our committee has developed or gathered resources that can be used for services, study groups, youth and children's groups, or as part of an ongoing opportunity for understanding through education.

Held every August, Native Moccasins Rock (NMR) is a weekend of interactive learning. 2017 was our 16th year; the Memphis Conference helped sponsor the event. Our leadership is internationally and nationally known. From babies to grannies, NMR is an intergenerational event with activities for children, youth, and adults. Breakout sessions are by age groups.

NMR's culturally based workshops in arts and music attract participants. Interactive workshops are drawn from traditional skills and taught by dedicated leadership. Everyone comes together for speakers and evenings of music and dance. We end with a powerful prayer circle. We share tears of joy and sadness and lift up in prayer those who have crossed over. NMR is based on fellowship and friendship. CONAM members share who we are in Christ, our connectional system of the UMC, and celebrate opportunities to form relationships. Understanding through education remains one of our primary goals.

The Tennessee Department of Health's Faith-Based Health Initiative reaches out through local churches and community organizations. Realizing their work with ethnic groups was not up to standards, we were able to bring them into relationship with CONAM as we partnered with the Native American Indian Association (NAIA).

At the NAIA's powwow, the largest in the state, CONAM sponsored a health fair. We were one of the first denominations to have this relationship. Initially, their words were "someone always wants something for themselves". Our reassurance was "we just want to share". We were blessed with materials from the health department and materials from Indian Health.

In 2017, we continued our relationship with Meharry Medical College and enlarged our health fair by including the dental tent, staffed with 17 students and presiding instructors. We also had a booth at Middle Tennessee State University's powwow/festival. Every year comments such as, "We didn't know the UMC is involved", and "I am United Methodist and didn't know", reminds us that there is more to do to grow the connection and enlarge the circle of God's Kingdom.

We have dedicated committee members committed to CONAM's work. These individuals also have personal ministries. Wes and Pat Bryan have contacts across the U.S. During their travels, they plan stops at reservations and churches. They drop off school supplies, new coats, and so forth. Mary T Newman serves with United Methodist Women (UMW) through their Program Advisory Group. A partnership was developed to receive coats, clothing, and hygiene supplies which are then delivered to the Cherokees on Qualla Boundary. Children, youth, and families are covered in prayer and as Jesus said, "Let the little children come", we pray HIS love is a message shared with those who struggle in ways that humble us.

CONAM continues to stand on our Social Principles. Environmental concerns and socio-economic challenges have come to the forefront with the water protectors at Standing Rock who took a stand to protect the water in the Missouri and Cannonball rivers from the Dakota Access Pipeline. Although the land seemed in dispute, Federal Tribal Law states that unless a treaty is nullified, land remains Indian land even though the size of a reservation changes. Hygiene supplies collected in our conference were shipped to South Dakota.

The rates of suicide among children and youth are still on a rise. Partnering with Native American Comprehensive Plan (NACP) and the Southeastern Jurisdiction Association for Native American Ministries (SEJANAM), we continue to be in prayer and work toward raising the level of awareness so we can all call upon our great Creator God for discernment and healing.

The Tennessee CONAM is known as one of the top four strongest CONAMS in the U.S. Members continue to participate nationally in leadership training opportunities. We are also blessed to be part of the leadership teaching teams for NACP and SEJANAM. Serving on NACP, Mary T Newman has been a part of quadrennial planning and leadership training. She is also chair of the South East Regional Native American Caucus (SERNAC), the regional jurisdictional caucus and therefore a member of Native American International Caucus (NAIC) We continue to walk the red road of ministry.

The committee continues our current relationships within the Native American community, the local church, and the secular community. We strive to create new paths of understanding through fellowship and friendship which continues to establish trusting relationships. Claiming Acts 17:26, we know that God understood the concepts of tribes. Jesus was, is, and always will be a tribal man. Thus we say, “We know a tribal man who would love to know you”.

COMMITTEE ON OLDER ADULT MINISTRIES

Shirley Vaughn, Chair

Older Adult Ministries Mission Statement

The purpose of the Tennessee Conference Older Adult Ministries is two-fold:

- To serve as a resource for growing and sustaining vital older adult ministries in the local church
- To provide ministries for older adults in the Tennessee Conference that are inspirational, informative and missional

Older Adult Ministries (OAM) Tennessee Conference (Adopted March 2013)

The OAM committee is composed of representatives from the five districts and others who serve as resource leaders. All the members have a compassion for senior adults who have given so much to the Church through the years and now deserve to be recognized by the Church.

This year, the OAM committee sponsored a spring leadership conference in two districts for congregational care pastors, older adult coordinators, caregivers for older adult parents, and anyone interested in the theme The Role of the Church in Healthy Aging. In the past, when local churches were asked how the OAM committee could better serve their congregation, the response was always “training on the district level.”

This year, the committee stepped out of the box to do what the churches requested. Rev. Marie C. King, from St. John’s UMC, Nashville, spoke on March 8 at First UMC, Franklin, (Harpeth River District) and on April 17 at Madison Street UMC, Clarksville (Red River District).

There were three workshops at each event led by pastors who work with senior adults in the conference. They focused on how the local church can implement practical ideas to support healthy aging—physically as well as spiritually. The workshops were divided by the activity level of older adults in the local church:

- Go-Gos – Senior adults who may be retired and are still active – Sarah Carty, FUMC Franklin
- Slow-Gos – Senior adults not as active, but interested in the church programs – Heather Harriss, Belmont UMC
- No-Gos – Senior adults no longer active; may live in a continuous care community – Jim Clardy, St. Mark’s UMC

The 2018 SEJ Festival of Wisdom & Grace, Lake Junaluska, North Carolina, is scheduled for August 13-16, 2018. The theme is The Wise Shall Shine, and focuses on how families and congregations can receive, cultivate and pass on wisdom. (Contact reservations@lakejunaluska.com; or 800.222.4930 for more information.) Some OAM committee members and other senior adults in the Tennessee Conference serve on the festival's board.

A 2018 fall Adult/Older Adult Conference is planned for September at St. Mark's UMC in Murfreesboro (Harpeth River District). Details for registering for this event will be emailed to everyone in the conference database several weeks before the event. If you would like to be added to the database, contact olderadults@tnumc.com.

The most-attended annual event is Christmas at Beersheba sponsored by OAM and Beersheba Springs Assembly. Popular with senior adult church groups, attendees enjoy fellowship with other seniors across the conference, singing Christmas carols, and participating in a worship service. In 2017, 412 persons attended.

The 2018 dates for Christmas at Beersheba are: November 29, December 4, December 6, December 7 and 8 (overnight) and December 11. Reservations may be made after September 1 by calling Beersheba Springs Assembly at (931) 692-3669.

The OAM committee appreciates the opportunity to work with Kent McNish from the Golden Cross Foundation (GCF) and Richard H. Gentzler Jr., with ENCORE Ministries. 2018 Annual Conference attendees will hear exciting news from GCF and Encore about a new church-wide study (DVD and leader's guide). Titled Alzheimer's/Dementia: Ministry with the Forgotten, this five-session study features retired Bishop Kenneth L. Carder and was produced by United Methodist Communications.

It has been a great year for senior adult ministries in the Tennessee Conference. These ministries are supported in part by the Golden Cross Foundation.

COMMITTEE ON SAFE SPACES

Rev. Terry Carty, Chair
Brad Fiscus, Connectional Ministries Staff

The Safe Spaces Ministry consists of the Boundaries and Sexual Ethics team, the Safe Sanctuary team, and the Conference Response team.

Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics Team – Guides the portion of the Safe Spaces Ministry tasked with reviewing policies and implementing training opportunities in the best practices to create and maintain healthy boundaries for ministry.

Safe Sanctuaries Team – Guides the portion of the Safe Spaces Ministry tasked with reviewing policies and implementing training opportunities in the best practices to protect children, youth, and vulnerable adults participating in ministry as well as those who serve in ministry in these populations.

Conference Response Team – Members are trained advocates who provide care and pastoral support for both those experiencing situations requiring a trained advocate as well as those accused of perpetrating situations that would require a trained advocate. The role of the Conference Response Team is one of care-giving, not investigation.

Several people have now been trained by FaithTrust Institute to lead the BaSE (Boundaries and Sexual Ethics) training program. Brad Fiscus has trained others to lead the Safe Sanctuaries and Safe Spaces training.

In 2017-18, 40 people attended the semi-annual BaSE and Safe Sanctuaries training programs. These official Tennessee Conference trainings are focused on personal boundaries and congregational policies. Appointed church professionals (see definition in Sexual Ethics policy) serving in the Tennessee Conference are required to attend these trainings. All transfers and candidates for ministry are required to complete these trainings prior to commissioning or appointment. They are encouraged for other congregational staff and volunteers as well.

A refresher training course has been developed for appointed church professionals who have previously completed the BaSE and Safe Sanctuaries training programs. The refresher will fulfill the recommendation to repeat the training every four years. We plan to make it available through workshops. The online course is being built and will be available through tnumc.org.

We have done nine Safe Spaces trainings in local congregations throughout the year; each congregation invited other congregations to attend. Also, through the Smaller Church Ministry Initiative, we have done training for 18 Smaller Church Next Gen Teams.

CONFERENCE PERSONNEL COMMITTEE

Last year, in response to a personnel audit, the decision was made to bring on a human resources professional to focus on employee relations, employment, performance appraisal and training. We were fortunate to bring Alice Grunau on board in the Office of Administrative Services as the conference's HR specialist. Since her hire, she has worked on creating job descriptions and otherwise improving compliance with federal employment laws. She has taken over the conference's payroll services and is working to ensure the receipt of I-9 and other federally required documentation.

With Alice's guidance, the Personnel Committee made a number of revisions to the Conference Personnel Policy. The revised policy follows or is printed in the policy section of this journal.

In the event that there are deficiencies in an employee's performance, the director shall schedule interim reviews with the employee to assess the needed improvement. The director will keep the chairperson of the executive committee apprised of such reviews.

An evaluation is a confidential matter that shall remain with those who have a need to know: the employee, the supervisor(s), and appropriate entity. A copy of the evaluation shall be placed in the employee's personnel file and the employee shall be given a copy. Both copies shall be marked "Confidential".

FINANCIAL REMUNERATION

The appropriate entity, in consultation with the director, shall be responsible for setting the salary for newly hired persons and reviewing salaries of each employee annually.

Pay Period

Compensation shall be issued on the 15th and 30th of each month (except when those dates fall on a Saturday or Sunday; then, the remuneration will be made on the last work day immediately preceding the 15th or 30th). Payments are directly deposited into the checking and/or savings accounts that the employee designates.

Overtime for Non-exempt Employees

Actual time worked is the basis for computing overtime. For purposes of computing overtime, the work week begins on Monday and ends on Sunday.

1. All requests for overtime must be approved in advance by a director or equivalent. Employees and supervisors should attempt to provide as much advance notice as possible when required to work overtime.
2. All time worked up to and including 40 hours is computed at straight pay; all overtime worked in excess of 40 hours is computed at time-and-one-half pay. Overtime is paid for hours worked in excess of 40 hours during a regular work week. Holiday, vacation, and sick pay are not counted toward overtime.
3. All overtime is to be clearly reported on the attendance record (i.e. time card).

Travel Expense

All employees will receive reimbursement for conference-related travel in accordance with TAC rules, subject to IRS rules defining business expense and appropriate contemporaneous documentation. Travel between the place of employment and the place of residence shall not be reimbursed.

Work Schedule

Office hours for support staff persons normally are from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. Lunch period is one hour in length. The directors may allow a deviation from these hours or days when the director deems it appropriate.

Offices of the TAC will remain open Monday through Friday with the exception of the holiday schedule listed under Holidays. Exceptions may be made by the director(s) at each location.

Directors, associate directors and coordinators are often expected to work days and hours that do not fit the normal schedule of office hours. These persons are responsible for their areas of ministry and will demonstrate by their results that they are faithful to their ministries.

Adjustments to compensation

A wage assignment or a garnishment is a legal order requiring an individual's employer to withhold part of the employee's wages in order to pay a debt or obligation. Wage assignments which meet legal requirements will be honored when issued and withheld from employee's compensation.

All lay employees are covered by the Federal Old Age and Survivors Benefits Act to provide the protection offered by Social Security. Social Security tax is paid half by the lay employee and half by the employer. Clergy pay the total cost for Social Security coverage as self-employed persons for Social Security purposes. Clergy may also have part of their compensation designated as a housing allowance.

All conference employees who participate in the conference's health plan are eligible to participate in the conference's medical Flexible Spending Account (FSA or cafeteria) program. Employees designate the amount to be withheld from their compensation, from which they can be reimbursed for covered medical-related spending.

Assisting Employees with Disabling Illnesses

Staff may be covered by the conference's disability coverage but should consider purchasing their own policies to provide additional short-term and long-term disability benefits.

Military

The TAC supports and complies with the Veteran's Reemployment Rights Act and applicable state laws.

Relocation Moving Expense

A newly employed/appointed director or associate director needing to locate housing within a reasonable commuting distance will receive a one-time reimbursement for cost of transportation, meals, and lodging for the purpose of locating housing. The trip will be for no more than five days.

Moving expenses incurred with hiring of new staff who move more than 50 miles may be paid at the discretion of the executive director. The appropriate entity will pay the costs of moving. Moving expenses will be reported as income unless they qualify for tax-exempt treatment and appropriate forms and documentation are provided to Administrative Services.

PERSONNEL FILES

The TAC maintains a personnel file for each staff person. The conference attempts to maintain those documents which are, have been, or are intended to be used in determining a staff person's qualifications for employment, promotion, transfer, additional compensation, discharge, or other disciplinary action.

A staff person has the right to inspect certain portions of his/her personnel file. Personal information is not to be released to a third party without authorization by the appropriate director.

BENEFIT POLICIES

Vacation

A vacation is a time for rest and renewal and is granted with pay to all full time and part time employees (except supplemental/temporary/seasonal employees) of the TAC after six months of satisfactory employment. The time granted is based upon the calendar year using the following schedules:

Exempt employees will receive 4 weeks of vacation

Non-exempt employees receive the following:

- |                                |         |
|--------------------------------|---------|
| • 6 months – 1 year employment | 1 week  |
| • 1-5 years employment         | 2 weeks |
| • 5-10 years employment        | 3 weeks |
| • 10 years or more employment  | 4 weeks |

The directors shall establish vacation schedules. A week of vacation is five working days. Vacation time is not cumulative from one year to the next. However, directors may permit, under extenuating circumstances (such as illness at year end), a person to carry over vacation time, provided the vacation is taken at the earliest opportunity after the beginning of the vacation year. An employee shall not be granted pay in lieu of vacation, except in case of employee's termination.

Holidays

The TAC staff shall observe the following holidays and employees shall be paid for these authorized holidays:

- New Year's Day
- Martin Luther King's birthday
- Good Friday
- Memorial Day
- Independence Day (July 4)
- Labor Day
- Two days at Thanksgiving
- Two days at Christmas

These are paid holidays with the following provisions:

- A. Supplemental/temporary/seasonal employees are not eligible for holiday pay.
- B. Persons on leave of absence are not eligible for holiday pay.

Health Plan Benefits

All full-time employees who regularly work at least 30 hours per week (except part-time/supplemental/ temporary/ seasonal employees) are eligible to participate in the Tennessee Conference Health Plan. Contact Administrative Services for more information about this program.

The TAC will pay the premium of the employee. Dependents and children may be covered under the plan at the employee's expense.

All employees are covered under the Worker's Compensation law of the State of Tennessee for job-related injuries or illnesses and such accidents must be reported immediately by the employee to the appropriate director.

Unemployment Insurance

Unemployment insurance is not provided for employees under the provisions of Tennessee state law.

PENSION

Clergy appointed to serve as employees of the TAC are participants in the TAC's Clergy Retirement Security Plan (CRSP). For lay employees, the TAC will contribute 12 percent of the employees' compensation to the UMPIP account if (1) the employee is scheduled to work at least 20 hours per week, and (2) the employee contributes at least 3 percent of their compensation to their UMPIP account.

All pension participants may make additional contributions to their UMPIP account up to the amount allowed by IRS regulations and the plans. Contact Administrative Services or GBOPHB for more information about these programs.

CONTINUING EDUCATION

Directors, associate directors, and other staff may be given time with pay for participation in job-related continuing education to the extent authorized by their director, council, board, or committee.

ABSENCE

Employees are expected to be at work every day or as agreed between supervisor and employee. However, if illness or an unexpected emergency requires the employee to be absent, it is the employee's responsibility to talk with the supervisor/director within an hour of the employee's expected arrival time. A voice mail message is not considered to be a personal notification of the supervisor. Therefore, the employee is expected to continue trying to reach a supervisor or another staff member.

If an extended absence is anticipated, the employee is to notify his/her supervisor of the expected date he/she is able to return to work.

If an employee is unable to complete the workday due to injury on the job, he/she will receive compensation for the remainder of the workday.

Regular attendance and punctuality are essential to an employee's effective performance on the job. Every employee is expected to maintain a good attendance record and act responsibly in the use of sick leave.

Leave for Illness

An employee shall be permitted absence for illness with pay according to the categories listed below:

Annual Sick leave - Up to 12 days per calendar year and non-accumulative. Use of annual sick leave includes:

1. Employee's own illness
2. Serious illness of a member of the employee's immediate family
3. Medical and dentist appointments

Extended Sick leave - Accrues at the rate of one (1) day each month of active employment up to a maximum of 60 working days and applies only to employee's own illness and recuperative time with written physician's orders. Use of extended sick leave may include:

1. Hospitalization and post hospitalization recuperative time
2. Medical testing and out-patient surgery
3. Disability due to injury
4. Complications due to pregnancy

A statement may be required from the attending physician in the event of extended or repeated illness. At retirement or termination of employment by either party, the employee shall not be compensated for unused sick leave.

Maternity/Adoption/Paternity Leave

Maternity leave may be granted and counted as sick leave and charged to time accrued in extended sick leave.

Maternity leave may be granted as leave without compensation if accrued extended sick leave time is not available.

The employee is responsible for notifying the appropriate supervisor as soon as she knows she will require maternity leave.

Paternity and adoption leave will follow the same pattern as for maternity leave and be charged from time accrued in extended sick leave. Paternity leave may be granted as leave without compensation if accrued extended sick leave is not available.

Granted leave must be taken within 90 days of the child's birth or the child's entering the home for the purpose of adoption.

Bereavement Leave

An employee will be allowed up to three days with pay to attend the funeral of an employee's immediate family.*

Religious Participation

Each employee is encouraged to participate in a local congregation of a Christian church.

Civic Duty

Employees are encouraged to accept their responsibilities by voting in elections. Employees are supported in serving as a juror or appearing in court as a witness. Employees are expected to return to work when the service is completed for the day if there is reasonable time to do so. Likewise, if for example, the jury is excused from reporting for a day or more, the employee is expected to report to work.

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

Employees are expected to make every effort to resolve differences by talking and communicating with those with whom they have a difference. If the difference cannot be worked out, the supervisor must be notified and with the supervisor's help, resolution will be attempted. If the dispute involves the supervisor, the grievance may be taken to any director who will work toward achieving a fair resolution of the problem.

Policy on Sexual Misconduct

Any form of sexual misconduct is incompatible with biblical teachings and ethical standards and all steps will be taken to protect the vulnerable and to discipline those guilty of such behaviors. Any reasonable suspicion of sexual abuse will be reported to appropriate authorities in addition to the district superintendent or bishop. Please see the TNUMC website for our comprehensive sexual misconduct policy.

Firearms or Concealed Weapons

Possession or use of firearms or concealed weapons on TAC premises is strictly prohibited.

Background Checks

The TAC will periodically perform background checks on all staff. Consent to a background check is a condition of continued employment.

Resignation

Should a staff person decide to leave the employment of the TAC, it is expected that at least two weeks written notice will be given.

Probation

Any employee being considered for involuntary termination—except in the case of reorganization, substantial misconduct, or other reasons set forth herein—ordinarily will be placed on probation and given an opportunity to correct the problem(s). However, the TAC reserves the right to discharge a staff person at any time without a probationary period if the offense merits such action. The TAC retains the right to terminate the individual's employment at any time during the probation period. Termination shall be based on appropriate documentation and under ordinary circumstances will take place only after discussion with the employee involved.

Severance

If a termination or discharge is made because of reorganization, shortage of work, or lack of funds, the staff member will be given at least one (1) month's notice in advance of termination date and the following severance pay will apply:

Years of Full-time Service	Pay
Less than 1 year	2 weeks
1 to 3 years	4 weeks
3 to 5 years	6 weeks
5 to 8 years	8 weeks
8 to 10 years	10 weeks
10 years or more	One week for each year of service

Staff leaving employment must return all conference property such as office keys, credit cards, and equipment before receiving the separation pay.

Exit Interview

Before leaving employment, the director may conduct an exit interview. This document will become part of the exiting staff person's personnel file.

WORK ENVIRONMENT

Dress Standards

Employees of the TAC are expected to be dressed in comfortable business attire, which is appropriate for job function, and expresses individuality and professionalism in equal proportion. Employees of the TAC represent The United Methodist Church.

Courtesies

The immediate supervisor is to be notified when serious illness, birth, or death occurs within the immediate family of any employee of the conference staff. The supervisor is responsible for notifying the director's office who will respond with the appropriate courtesy as outlined below:

- |                 |  |
|-----------------|--|
| Illness: | Remembrances will be provided during hospitalization of employee.  |
| Birth:   | Remembrances will be provided at the birth of a child to an employee or at time of adoption.   |
| Death:   | Remembrances will be provided at the death of an employee or a retiree, or at the death of father, mother, wife, husband, or child of an employee. |

Environment

Employees of the TAC are expected to maintain a quality work environment by:

- Being respectful of each employee as a person with individual rights and differences
- Being courteous and offering assistance, as appropriate, to persons or groups calling or visiting the offices
- Exercising responsible stewardship in the use of TAC funds and property
- Keeping internal and external personal telephone calls brief and few
- Honoring that all TAC buildings are non-smoking facilities
- Refraining from use of abusive and obscene language

LIFE OF THE DOCUMENT

CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES

Melinda Britt, Director

Connectional Ministries Restructuring Team Report

Rev. Melinda Britt, Director of Connectional Ministries

Last June, the Tennessee Annual Conference session launched a year-long process for a team to take a deep dive into the work of Connectional Ministries—to discover what it has been and to acknowledge what it is now. Through their work, what has emerged is what we believe God is calling Connectional Ministries to be. We believe that our future in the Church will require nimble, adaptive work. As Rev. Junius Dotson challenges, we need a change in the game plan. And so today, the Connectional Ministries Restructuring Team presents a structure that will build upon work already being done and allow us to join God in the work God is already doing in the Tennessee Conference.

This picture—which you can find on the app under reports and action items—this system is less a new organizational structure and more a new way of connecting, equipping, and communicating in ministry with each other. It is a structure that promotes clear expectations. It is a formation where collaboration is so strong that siloed ministry is not possible. This system also creates a culture for our mission statement to become a full-blown reality.

At first, this chart may look like a typical organizational chart, but as you look closely, you can see the relational connections. This chart lays out the way those working under the umbrella of Connectional Ministries will intentionally work together to accomplish the mission. This way of relating and working together will dissolve siloed ministry and align our focus on the mission.

The purpose of Connectional Ministries is to steward the vision of the conference through connecting resources for collaboration, equipping leaders with tools for spiritual leadership, and communicating the stories of transformation happening through the local church.

The Connectional Ministries Lead Team fulfills the disciplinary call to guide the ministries of the conference as they seek to implement strategies that enable all the Connectional Ministries teams to accomplish our mission. This team is a group of 10 lay and clergy leaders who are committed to investing the time required to hold the rudder and exhibit the gifts of strategic thinking and maintaining a 30,000-foot view. They will continue the work of the Connectional Ministries Restructuring Team as well as guide the committees and their leaders to create a culture of faithful leadership, strategy, and accountability.

They will work directly with commissions on Global Ministries, Church and Society, Religion and Race, and Status and Role of Women as they advocate a resourcing lens for the local church. This lead team will work to dissolve siloe ministry by creating clearer relationships with other conference entities that you see in the outlined boxes. They will guide the strategy of all Connectional Ministries teams while trusting that those leaders know their context best.

The Connectional Ministries Lead Team will perform the tasks of receiving and crafting the Connectional Ministries budget to present to Committee on Finance and Administration as well as ensure we maintain a culture of valuing the spiritual gifts of leaders more than funding streams. Finally, this team will be responsible for regarding The Book of Discipline as a guide for their ministry.

As the restructuring team sought to discern the true purpose of Connectional Ministries, we realized the mission statement was the perfect organizational guide to complement our belief that true disciple making happens in the local church—not the Connectional Ministries office. The role of Connectional Ministries is to equip lay and clergy leaders who shape congregations. For this reason, there will be two main operational teams to drive the missional strategies and their implementation—a Spiritual Leadership Development Team and a Congregational Transformation Team.

The Spiritual Leadership Development Team will steward the mission of equipping lay and clergy leaders of all ages for building up the local church. This will be a group of eight disciples who are passionate about equipping spiritual leaders and who are committed to pouring into the ways we, as a conference, can strategically foster a culture of spiritual leadership excellence.

This team will intentionally work closely with the Office of Ministerial Concerns and the Board of Ordained Ministry so that siloe programming will be replaced by strong collaboration. They will work with the Board of Laity supporting and guiding their effort while creating connections with Next Gen disciple making. You probably already notice that these teams will overlap in their work and the need for collaboration and increased communication will be essential.

The Congregational Transformation Team will seek to develop congregations. They will resource local congregations through the ministry of the new district deployed staff, district leadership strategists, who will focus on relationships that build up congregations. This team will work as well as with the many ministry teams that foster equipping local congregations through specific lenses.

With the goal of creating intentional, effective disciple-making systems in all of our congregations, this team will join together with the districts to make sure resources are distributed to the local church and team up to connect across district lines. We are trying this new way of creating strategy to increase the capacity of the local church to make disciples and will make adjustments along the way as we learn together. The restructuring team believes that this is our next faithful step.

Instead of relying on funding as our greatest resource, this new relational organization will be relying on the spiritual gifts residing in the disciples in local congregations as its greatest resource. Committed, adaptive leadership will be required and positional leadership will no longer be enough.

Agile, adaptive leaders who value the mission and seek to connect resources in the conference as they empower the local church are nominated to do this new work. And so you also have the nominations report of leaders who are willing to be a part of this new part of the journey.

GENERAL BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND MINISTRY

Rev. Dr. Kim Cape, General Secretary

The General Board of Higher Education and Ministry (GBHEM) launched a new mission and vision in August 2017. The updated mission and vision simplify GBHEM's role as the primary leadership development agency for The United Methodist Church.

Mission: Build capacity for United Methodist lay and clergy leaders to discover, claim, and flourish in Christ's calling in their lives, by creating connections and providing resources to aid in recruitment, education, professional development, and spiritual formation.

Vision: Generations of thriving, diverse and compassionate Christian leaders for The United Methodist Church and the world.

Our Work Throughout 2017 and 2018

The Office of Discernment and Enlistment at GBHEM hosted Exploration, a biennial event for young adults ages 18-26 to hear, discern, and respond to God's call to ordained ministry as a United Methodist deacon or elder. More than 350 attended the event in Portland, Oregon in November 2017.

The Young Clergy Initiative (YCI) funded 34 innovative projects across the church in 2017 to attract young people to ordained ministry. Since its inception, more than 100 projects have been funded through YCI.

GBHEM works with the Commission on Central Conference Theological Education (CCTE) to distribute grants for the theological education of pastoral leaders in the Central Conferences. In 2017, the CCTE awarded 67 grants totaling more than $1 million to the seven Central Conferences of The United Methodist Church.

The Publishing Ministry, established to engage, nurture, and advocate for the intellectual life of The United Methodist Church, released 13 books in 2017, reaching more than 10,000 people.

In 2017, GBHEM's Office of Loans and Scholarships awarded 2,000+ students with $4.1 million in scholarships and 350 students with $1.4 million in low-interest loans. More than $1.6 million was awarded to 200 recipients of the Excellence in Clergy Leadership Scholarship, which helps United Methodist clergy avoid excessive educational loan debt, minimize financial stress, and build financial acumen.

To aid pastors in their ministry journey, GBHEM's Candidacy Office introduced EM360. A formation guide to help pastors and congregations meet mission and ministry goals, EM360 is a tool to help clergy leaders identify and gauge pastoral effectiveness. In 2017, 1,438 candidates enrolled in UMCARES to seek certified candidacy for licensed or ordained ministry. A total of 589 candidates were certified.

The Black College Fund distributed more than $9.68 million in 2017 to the Historically Black Colleges and Universities related to The United Methodist Church for faculty development, infrastructure maintenance, academic programs, and scholarships.

Clergy Lifelong Learning led African American United Methodist pastors who lead predominantly white churches in cross-cultural diversity training in South Korea in 2017. Continuing education and coaching opportunities are available through the innovative, multilingual platform, UMC Cyber Campus.

In 2017, Schools, Colleges, and Universities established the Siri S. Gadbois Fund in partnership with the National Association of Schools and Colleges of The United Methodist Church (NASCUMC) for mentoring among institution leaders (kickoff in 2018). The Cutting-Edge Curriculum Award was created to recognize 10 exceptional faculty members who are building effective and innovative academic courses (winners announced at the end of 2018 spring semester).

In partnership with Discipleship Ministries, GBHEM provides e-readers to theological schools in remote areas of Africa and Asia, offering access to the latest textbooks and references books. The E-Reader Project distributed 667 e-readers in 2017 and nearly 2,500 devices to 22 theological seminaries since the program's inception in 2013.

In 2017, GBHEM and the Association of United Methodist Theological Schools (AUMTS) hosted two academic theological colloquies. Initiated in service to the intellectual life of the church, the colloquies are intended to be a resource for the church. The first colloquy (March 2017) focused on human sexuality and church unity, the second (November 2017) reflected on the practice of Missio Dei. Both events produced a study guide and book.

LAY SERVANT MINISTRIES

Jackie Elliott, Tennessee Conference Director

Lay Servant Ministries offers a foundation of equipping people to step out in service in their local church, community, and beyond. Some lay servants are called to missions—locally and abroad. Many lay servants are volunteering in soup kitchens, prison ministry, homeless shelters, home repair, and food ministries. They are also teaching classes on finances, healthy living, leading Bible studies, and teaching Sunday school.

Lay Servant Ministries is about serving, caring, loving, communicating, teaching, participating, leading, and training. Through Lay Servant Ministries, many have discerned the call to become pastors. In our leadership roles and service, we have the opportunity to inspire others to a deeper commitment to Christ and into more effective discipleship.

In 2017, the Hispanic community had approximately 50 people attend a Lay Servant Ministries school. To date in 2018, they have conducted three schools in local churches and have additional schools planned.

Lay people in our conference are also making a difference by caring for others as Stephen Ministers, hospice volunteers, and in schools with Partners Today, F.U.E.L. programs, and Project Transformation. The laity is communicating their faith by serving on teams, committees, and boards, and as worship leaders. Some are called to children's and youth ministries in their local church or in their own neighborhoods.

Our districts, conference, and the world all benefit because our lay people are being sent to serve God and neighbor making disciples of Jesus Christ.

MCKENDREE VILLAGE FOUNDATION

McKendree Village Foundation, Inc. Board of Directors

The Tennessee Annual Conference has an affiliation with the McKendree Village Foundation. The McKendree Village Foundation has kept the promise of benevolent care to eligible McKendree residents through the extravagant generosity of its donors including the Tennessee Annual Conference.

The McKendree Village Foundation is self-sustaining; receiving no funds from the Tennessee Annual Conference or from the Golden Cross Sunday offering. Funding for its mission comes from the income of the donor designated endowment for this purpose.

The current donor designated endowment for benevolent care is now approximately $5.1 million. Endowment is kept with the United Methodist Foundation for the Memphis and Tennessee Conferences.

The McKendree Village Foundation affirms our past shared heritage with McKendree Village and the Tennessee Annual Conference and continues the benevolent commitment that the Tennessee Conference made over 50 years ago to eligible residents of McKendree Village.

Additionally, the McKendree Village Foundation has distributed $1.35 million dollars to the Golden Cross Foundation, an extension ministry of the Tennessee Annual Conference for the purpose of funding expansion of older ministries and services through Tennessee Conference congregations and agencies.

MIRIAM'S PROMISE

Deborah H. Robinson, M.A., Executive Director

The 2018 Tennessee Annual Conference theme of “See All the People” is a value held dear by Miriam’s Promise. Our mission is to “ensure the well-being of the child by nurturing individuals and families.” One of our five core values is respect for the individual. We take that core value very seriously, believing and living out that value with each individual who seeks our help.

When Miriam stepped from the reeds to intercede on behalf of the baby Moses, her action led to the transformation of God’s people. Just like Miriam, we are asked by The United Methodist Church to be an advocate for the child.

When someone comes to Miriam’s Promise, they have significant need. Every day at Miriam’s Promise we are sent to be the hands and feet of God by serving those who need us. Many of our clients come to us wounded, in crisis, and in need of an emotionally safe place to explore. We seek to emulate Christ and meet each and every client with respect, understanding and compassion.

2017 was a busy year for Miriam’s Promise. We moved our office from our long-time home at Tulip Street UMC and embarked on an intense strategic planning process.

In August, Miriam’s Promise moved to renovated office space in Scarritt Hall at the Scarritt Bennett Center. We love our new home and are grateful that it provides a warm and inviting atmosphere for our clients and staff. The peaceful and hospitable environment on the Scarritt campus helps us live out our goal of having an emotionally comfortable and safe place for clients.

Planning for the future was also a focus in 2017. The board of directors and staff affirmed our mission to “ensure the well-being of the child by nurturing individuals and families” and outlined five major goals for the next 3 years. Those goals are:

1. Funding: Increase revenue to allow for financial stability
2. Marketing: Increase public awareness by developing and implementing a planned and focused marketing strategy
3. Staff development: Build a training and development program that enables staff to do their very best work and develop a succession plan
4. Program services: To keep agency programs viable for the future by exploring and reviewing needs of the community and to develop new programs or to expand/enhance existing programs based on those needs
5. Board development: Strengthen the capabilities of the board through recruitment and development strategies to improve board diversity, knowledge, involvement, and fundraising

Our clinical work has changed drastically over the years. We still provide domestic and international adoption services but we do so much more. Recently, our work has been more focused on children of trauma, particularly infants who have been drug exposed. The epidemic of opioid addiction is a national crisis—touching adults and babies alike—with the admissions of babies to neonatal intensive care units nearly quadrupling since 2004.

Unfortunately, this story is not new to Miriam’s Promise. Over the last two years, 1-in-3 of the infants we have touched has been born with neonatal abstinence syndrome (NAS) or had some drug exposure in the womb. Each of these tiny babies comes with an ever-mounting list of needs. Despite the time and cost, Miriam’s Promise is committed to providing the love and support they need.

Almost every week, our counselors work with a new expectant parent facing addictions, homelessness, or mental health issues. Our staff is often asked to help secure housing and drug counseling, while still fostering hope and honest conversations about the past, present, and most importantly, the future. Our counselors are working hard to prepare our adoptive families and interim care families to cope with children struggling with issues of a drug-exposure and other needs.

Between staff time, birth parent expenses, legal expenses and interim care, we may spend over $8,000 on each baby we see who has been exposed to harsh, addictive drugs. The staff is challenged to meet the greater needs—both emotional and financial—of our clients. This increase in needs requires additional training for staff and a broader budget for family aid. Churches in the conference have responded by donating gift cards for food, gas, and other goods or services that can be used to meet these needs.

We are thankful for our board, volunteers and Middle Tennessee congregations for helping us fulfill our mission and allowing us to continue to serve God and neighbor. Without the help of the Tennessee Conference, we would not be able to meet the needs of our clients. Thank you for your prayers and support.

NEW CHURCH DEVELOPMENT

Jacob Armstrong, Team Leader

Every church was once a new church. Every church began as a dream of a person or group of people who desired that a new group of people know Christ and be a part of the community that we know of as the church.

To fully appreciate the current reality of The United Methodist Church in the Nashville area, we must turn to statistical data. From 2006 to 2016, church attendance in the two conferences decreased by almost 15 percent. At the same time, the state of Tennessee saw an increase in population of nearly 10 percent. It should be noted that population growth coupled with decreased worship attendance is not the only factor that leads us to start churches. We start churches because it is our Gospel mandate to make disciples!

The stark contrast between population growth and decreased worship attendance shows us there is a problem. We have lost our biblical and Wesleyan church planting heritage. But we can recover it. With every problem there is a solution, and one solution is the establishment of new churches. Many will say that our existing churches can regain their vitality, and this is true for some. But study after study supports the fact that the biggest factor in overall growth is establishing new churches.

Some may see the current reality as too daunting to face. They may bemoan how our current culture is antagonistic toward the church and continue to slip into an irreversible decline toward closure. Others though, will embrace this news as a challenge. They will take on a new awareness that the proverbial fields are “ripe for the harvest.” They will understand that the culture we live in is not against Jesus, but many people just do not know who He is. The Nashville area will meet this challenge through prayer, a belief in God’s power, and a comprehensive strategy to create new churches and faith communities.

After a year of work and prayer the New Church Development team offers the Pathways of Planting strategy for assessing, evaluating, and training potential planters and discerning potential locations for church plants. We will begin to implement the Pathways strategy in collaboration with the bishop and cabinet as we seek to create new places for new people to connect with Christ. The Pathways of Planting document can be accessed on the Memphis and Tennessee conference websites.

NEXT GEN DISCIPLESHIP

Brad Fiscus, Director of Next Gen Discipleship

In the fall of 2017, Next Gen Discipleship partnered with Spiritual Leadership, Inc., to create a strategic plan to help discover, equip, and deploy Next Gen leaders of all ages throughout the Tennessee Conference who build disciples in local churches.

In the Tennessee Conference, God has entrusted our local churches with the spiritual formation of nearly 25,000 children, youth, and young adults. While God has blessed us with this great opportunity, the reality is that number is only 3 percent of the Next Gen population inside the conference. We believe that in order to make a lasting and sustainable growth in discipleship, our focus must be holistic—or as the Next Gen Discipleship operational team puts it—from Birth to Glory.

The following report is a combination of the work of the Next Gen operational team, the Conference Council on Youth Ministry, the Children's and Family Discipleship team, and the Next Gen discernment team.

Next Gen Discipleship Operational Team

The Next Gen Discipleship operational team is a diverse, multigenerational, and multicultural representation of leaders throughout the Tennessee Conference committed to developing sustainable ministries for children, youth, young adults, and their families within The United Methodist Church. This team is working to formulate systems and strategies to develop Next Gen leaders of all ages who will build disciples and shape congregations of all sizes throughout the conference.

The team meetings use the Spiritual Leadership, Inc., pedagogy of loving, learning, and leading. The 15-person team covenants to grow in faithfulness together to increase our overall effectiveness in responding to the hard work of building up Next Gen disciples in our contexts and using those skills with others across the conference. The team seeks to:

- Discover and equip local leaders who will engage in ministry with the Next Gen
- Increase resource and training support for Next Gen ministries to provide local churches skills and tools to See All the People of all ages in their community
- Form strategic partnerships that promote collaborative, innovative, and risk-taking

The team recognizes diversity within congregations and the conference is vital to increasing the witness and participation in our mission with all children of God, with an increased emphasis on ministering to people of color and women. Cross-cultural competency is essential to moving from compartmentalized ministry to inclusive ministry.

This team is committed to the health and sustainability of all congregations within the Tennessee Conference. We believe this will be realized through emphasis on developing Next Gen leaders who will significantly impact discipleship growth in both the church and the conference. You are not alone in this endeavor. We offer our assistance in finding the resources and the training you need to grow Next Gen disciples in your community of faith.

Children's Ministry Discipleship Team

The Children's Ministry Discipleship team was reconfigured this spring and consists of a variety of gifted and spirit-led voices from around the conference. The team focused on their goal of resourcing leaders and churches:

"We will implement a full menu of children's ministry training opportunities across the Tennessee Conference. This includes training for new children's ministry leaders, practical and program-related content, as well as deeper leadership and spiritual development."

The team has several projects underway to provide support for and equip those in children's ministry. These include:

- Developing district hubs and hub coaches to provide connection and support between children's ministry leaders
- Creating a Children's Ministry Leader Welcome Wagon to welcome, connect, and provide tools for new children's ministry leaders
- Reimagining the resources that are currently being provided, listening to the needs of churches and the communities and beginning to innovate new support and resources for the needs we are hearing.

We continue to be supported in tremendous ways by the team at Cedar Crest who continue to create and implement conference events, camps, and retreats for children and families. These events include a confirmation retreat, summer camps, and a spiritual life retreat for kids. Cedar Crest is an incredible resource and gift to the children, families, and churches of the Tennessee Conference!

This team has many dreams of deepening and developing ways to continue to strengthen the children and family ministries of the conference.

The Conference Council on Youth Ministry

The Conference Council on Youth Ministries (CCYM) is a team of students elected at Summer Sizzler who serve for one year. The Next Gen ministries of the Tennessee Conference is fruitful because of the CCYM team and their hard work. These students are an integral part of the planning and execution of ministry events like Summer Sizzler, Warmth in Winter, and the BE Retreat.

Warmth in Winter is the biggest event in our conference and the CCYM team is responsible for making sure the experience is meaningful for participants. They begin a year before the event by choosing a speaker and worship band. These students serve on the management team throughout the year in partnership with adults to cooperatively lead these teams. They perform duties such as emceeing on the big stage, working behind the scenes as part of the production crew, and serving on the drama team. Many teams are required to pull off an event like Warmth in Winter. They have the opportunity to dream big hairy audacious goals and then they are tasked with making it happen.

The BE Retreat is a place where the CCYM team shines. This retreat is for children in grades 3 through 6 and the adult ministry leaders at Beersheba Springs Assembly. The CCYM team helps in the planning process by choosing the theme and the activities for the weekend. Teaching sessions are led by high school and middle school youth serving on the CCYM team. They write the message for each of the teaching sessions. The team also writes the session messages as well as lead children and adult leaders in worship and free-time activities. CCYM team members are challenged to step up and be leaders in a ministry setting and, while doing so, they shine a bright light on the Tennessee Conference.

Before we know it, these students will be adult leaders in their home church or the church neighborhood where they land as adults. Wherever they land, they will bless others with their leadership skills.

President - TJ Carney

Vice President - Leslie Hernandez

Secretary - Georgia Touchton

Communications Team Chair - Jacob Brack

Assistant Communications Team Chair - Collins Fiscus

Next Gen Discernment Team

Fostering a culture of call is vital to the health and sustainability of the Church. The Next Gen discernment team is partnering with the Memphis Conference Young People's Ministry to form a cohort of 14 college-age young adults who are actively discerning a call to vocational ministry.

Leading this group are Rev. Amanda Crice of the Memphis Conference and Russell Casteel, Brad Fiscus, and Rev. David Hollis of the Tennessee Conference. Through financial support from both the Memphis and Tennessee Conference Boards of Ordained Ministry, this discernment cohort was provided the opportunity to attend EXPLORATION 2017 in Portland, Oregon. This group, along with nine additional college-age young adults, spent the weekend in passionate and engaging worship, thought-provoking seminars, and small group discussions with other young adults from across the United States.

Following this retreat experience in Portland, the Next Gen discernment cohort began planning for a retreat at Cedar Crest. During that retreat, the group engaged in in-depth discussion about their hopes and dreams for their future, their calling, and The United Methodist Church. It was a deeply spiritual weekend for each member.

This group has continued to stay connected throughout the spring semester through social media. We celebrate that one of the cohort members will be attending seminary in the fall. There will be others in the group who will also attend seminary once they complete their undergraduate studies.

In order to provide opportunities for more college-age young adults to engage in vocational discernment, the Next Gen Discernment Internship was created. The internship matches a college-age young adult with a local church for 12 weeks during the summer. Each intern will have the opportunity to explore ministry with children and youth as well as other ministerial roles during their time at their assigned church. It is our intention for interns to serve in a congregation other than the one they would consider their home church.

Each intern will have a ministry coach who will check in on a weekly basis to process that week's ministry experiences and challenges. Additionally, the group of interns will meet for a bi-monthly discussion on a book or leadership podcast.

Interns are provided a stipend. The stipend is shared between funds from the Next Gen budget and the local host congregation. It is our hope that these young adults will have the opportunity to realize how important and necessary they are to the ministry of Jesus Christ throughout the Tennessee Conference.

PROJECT TRANSFORMATION TENNESSEE: TRANSFORMING LIVES THROUGH RELATIONSHIPS

Courtney Aldrich, Executive Director

We read a lot of stories at Project Transformation (PT). In fact, last summer, we read 10,840 stories—stories of dragons and princesses, talking bears, and everyday kids trying to make a difference. These stories spark our imagination and take us to new places. These stories are good but they do not compare to the stories we are witness to at PT: children who grow a love of learning, young people who discover their God-given gifts, volunteers who give time and gain a new friend, and churches who build meaningful relationships with their neighbors. These are the real stories worth celebrating.

The mission of Project Transformation Tennessee is to engage young adults in purposeful leadership and ministry, support children in holistic development, and connect churches with communities. Since our founding in 2011, PT has partnered with churches to provide children with holistic programming targeted at engaging the mind, body, and spirit. Our summer and afterschool programs provide literacy and social-emotional interventions that equip children to be healthy, whole, and successful leaders. Planning and leading these programs are our college interns who serve as mentors to children. All the while, these interns are developing as principled-Christian leaders, exploring various ministry-related vocations, and serving as the high-energy glue to cement new relationships in changing neighborhoods.

We praise God for PT's growing impact. Since 2012, more than 200 young people have served through our internship program. Today, 84 percent of those who have graduated have stayed active in some form of ministry; 51 percent have served on staff of a local church or denominational agency. Ninety percent of our alumni report that PT provided them with a more holistic understanding of vocation and calling in life; 73 percent said that PT helped them discover or affirm their career path.

In 2017, PT engaged 89 college-age young adults, representing 44 different colleges and universities served through our internship program. They lived in Christian community on campus at Belmont University, Middle Tennessee State University, Austin Peay State University, Christian Brothers University, and the Scarritt Bennett Center. There, they shared meals, worship, and fellowship. Each Friday, interns explored vocation and ministry as they visited with innovative leaders, faithfully following their own call. Interns visited with more than 37 ministries, ranging from urban education and affordable housing to the judicial system and health care. These collaborative partners include Open Table Nashville, Soldiers and Families Embraced, Harvest Hands, Blessed Earth Tennessee, Vanderbilt Divinity School, Interfaith Dental Clinic, Take the Reins, and The Upper Room.

We served 737 children in the Tennessee and Memphis conferences in 2017. They read one-on-one with a volunteer for 40 minutes each day to improve comprehension and fluency and to develop a love for reading. Pre- and post-summer reading assessments indicated that 99 percent of students improved or maintained their reading level. Children also engaged in physical activities, creative arts, and Bible lessons and received healthy meals each day. But even more important were the relationships built with our interns and volunteers.

More than 1,847 volunteers from the Tennessee and Memphis conferences invested their time and talents to serve with PT this year. They read one-on-one with children, provided homework help, donated books and supplies, prepared meals for interns, and hosted Family Fun Nights. Beyond this, volunteers modeled a love of literacy for our children and youth and provided encouragement for interns.

We are grateful for the hospitality and partnership of our 10 site churches—in Davidson County, Ebenezer UMC, Antioch UMC, Matthews Memorial UMC, and Trinity Community Commons; in Montgomery County, New Providence UMC; in Cannon County, Woodbury UMC; in Rutherford County, LaVergne First UMC; and in Shelby County, Centenary UMC, Longstreet UMC, and Scenic Hills UMC.

Responding to the ways in which God has moved during our six years of ministry, PT's board of directors continues to lead through a strategic growth plan. This summer, 92 young adults will grow as Christ-centered leaders as they explore ministry, live in intentional Christian community, and mentor more than 800 children in underserved neighborhoods in the Tennessee and Memphis conferences. We are building knowledge of social emotional health and implementing evidence-based strategies. We are expanding our middle school programs to nurture our students as they move into adolescence. We are strengthening an intentional pipeline for interns to become Tennessee faith leaders. As we continue to lean into God's growing vision for Project Transformation Tennessee, we invite your continued support of this transformative ministry.

TENNESSEE CONFERENCE DISASTER RESPONSE

Robert Craig, Disaster Response Coordinator

The mission of United Methodist Disaster Response is to offer a caring Christian presence to communities that have experienced disaster. The purpose of disaster response in the Tennessee Conference is to live into that mission in our local communities. While it is occasionally necessary to partner with conferences outside the area, our primary focus is to prepare churches and individuals to respond to neighbors in need.

Disaster response ministry in the Tennessee Conference is vital for a number of reasons. Obviously, it is an important ministry in times of relief and recovery for people affected by disaster. This ministry is also important for the health of the local church. When a church is spiritually and physically prepared to respond to and engage the surrounding community, that church grows stronger and it is more effective in sharing the love of Christ to its community.

This year will, hopefully, be the beginning of a better organized and equipped plan for disaster preparedness and response in the Nashville Episcopal Area. With the coordination for each conference now resting with me, I will rely heavily on the excellent leadership that is already in place in each district. We will also look to add committed individuals to the leadership team. Our focus will be to consolidate best practices from each conference to form an area-wide disaster plan.

One of the most important aspects of disaster response is preparation, and that means training. We will focus on training individuals and churches in the areas of preparation and response. There is a place for everyone in disaster response. All age and skill levels are welcome. We will offer trainings in churches and districts to help educate and train people for the work of offering hope in trying times of disaster. Please feel free to contact me at disasterresponse@tnumc.org if you wish to schedule a training for your community.

Likewise, watch for conference news that will communicate when trainings will be available in your area. Initially, the goal is one Early Response Team training and one Connecting Neighbors training in each district annually. I look forward to working alongside you as we share the love of Christ with our neighbors.

TENNESSEE CONFERENCE TREASURER'S REPORT

Notes

Note 1. This report has been prepared by the conference treasurer of the Tennessee Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church. The report is unaudited and unadjusted, and as such may be subject to change after final audit adjustments are made. It is not intended to reflect full accrual accounting procedures, or FASB No. 117 recommendations concerning temporary and permanent restrictions on assets. The conference is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3), and partially exempt from payment of local and Tennessee state sales, use, and property taxes.

Note 2. The conference's primary sources of revenue are receipts from the churches in the Tennessee Conference that have been paid through the denomination's system of apportioning connectional, missional, and administrative expenses to the churches. "Other receipts" are primarily receipts by apportioned programs that have external sources of revenue, such as registration fees or reimbursements, but also include temporarily restricted donations for designated purposes. Programs that are not included in apportionments are not included.

Note 3. Funds held in reserve to pay for pensions are considered restricted.

Note 4. Accounts receivable are primarily apportionment remittances received from churches in the first weeks of the following year. Accounts payable are payments made in January for the prior year's obligations, primarily the final payment on the conference's general, jurisdictional, district, and special apportionments.

Note 5. The conference has no debt other than routine short term obligations.

Note 6. Effective 7/1/2017, the former seven districts were closed and redistricted (replaced) with five new districts. The five districts and six Wesley Foundations of the Tennessee Conference are related entities, but are not included in these financials other than collecting and remitting apportionment receipts. District and Wesley Foundation intangible and tangible assets, including offices, parsonages, and contents, are carried on the books of the respective entities.

Note 7. The conference provides health care benefits to eligible clergy who retire between ages 62 and 65. The conference has no other post-retirement benefit obligations.

UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION FOR THE MEMPHIS AND TENNESSEE CONFERENCES

Dr. Philip D. Jamieson, President

“As for those who in the present age are rich, command them not to be haughty, or to set their hopes on the uncertainty of riches, but rather on God who richly provides us with everything for our enjoyment. They are to do good, to be rich in good works, generous, and ready to share, thus storing up for themselves the treasure of a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of the life that really is life.” (I Timothy 6:17-19)

The Bible has a lot to say about money and much of that constitutes a warning to believers. The warning does not primarily regard the making or saving of money. Instead, the Scriptures offer a consistent warning regarding one's attitude toward it. It is very tempting (if you have been financially blessed) to become overly dependent on wealth. It is tempting to place one's hope in something that ultimately is very unreliable. Therefore, you and I are instructed to put money to work on behalf of others. In this way, we both can be of significant help and we remain free from the false hope of riches. At the United Methodist Foundation and Development Fund for the Memphis and Tennessee conferences, we are pleased to act as agents for promoting the freedom which comes with increased generosity. We do that in a number of ways.

First, we serve as a custodian for endowed funds on behalf of local churches and other United Methodist ministries. As of February 28, our holdings were $57,527,670. Last year, the fund yielded a net return of approximately 12.5 percent. In 2017 alone, $5.4 million were distributed for ministries in the two conferences. Endowed fund giving truly allows local churches to multiply their generous work!

We also serve by means of the United Methodist Development Fund of Tennessee/Kentucky. By accepting investments from individuals, churches, and organizations, we are able to loan money at a competitive rate to United Methodist churches and ministries for building projects. Currently, the development fund is loaning money at 3.99 percent and paying 1.5 percent to participants. The fund currently has $11,932,131 on loan to local churches and ministries in the two conferences. By both loaning for new construction and refinancing existing capital debt, the development fund empowers churches to continue current programs and create new ones.

In 2014, we launched a new initiative to help churches and ministries gain greater ability to encourage generosity. Over $70,000 has been given to churches in the Tennessee and Memphis conferences through the Stewardship Grant Program and by partnering with the Lake Institute's Creating Congregational Cultures of Generosity program. In 2017, the foundation board voted to initiate a new grant program to help alleviate educational debt. Beginning last summer, the foundation worked with newly commissioned clergy to help them find productive ways to retire educational debt. In 2017, $3,600 was distributed. We are excited about the ways in which this program will also encourage greater generosity.

In closing, I am reminded of that great hymn of our faith: “How firm a foundation, ye saints of the Lord, is laid for your faith in His excellent Word! What more can He say than to you He hath said, to you who for refuge to Jesus have fled?” Nobody truly knows what the future will hold for us, but of this one thing you and I can be confident: our Lord is faithful and as we look to him, we will never be disappointed.

UNITED METHODIST MEN

William C. Bowen, Sr., Esq., President
Tennessee Conference United Methodist Men

In 2017, the Tennessee Conference of United Methodist Men was actively involved in the establishment of and revival of men's ministries across the conference. Key goals for this past year were to organize UM Men district leaders, develop local units, and charter and increase registration for Every Man Shares (EMS). Another benchmark was to enhance our scouting ministry by identifying leaders and continue to lead the way with Disciple Bible Study of Men (DBOM), Big Brothers/Big Sisters, and Society of St. Andrews (SOSA). We also established an e-newsletter.

Leadership Development and Growth

The Tennessee Conference of United Methodist Men is diligently seeking to identify men within our conference who have a passion for developing and growing United Methodist Men's local units. Despite the lack of desired interaction and connection of district units, the conference team provides considerable stability and additional growth for our men's ministries. Our units are leading the Southeast Jurisdiction in the number of active units, continued charters, and newly developed charters as well as men becoming EMS members. We thank God that he continues to touch the hearts of men in our conference through their extravagant care for others and our mission.

National Association of Conference Presidents Meeting

The National Association of Conference Presidents (NACP) met in March in Nashville at Discipleship Ministry's Denman Building. Conference presidents from all jurisdictions across Methodism attended. The Tennessee Conference was represented by William C. Bowen Sr. During the gathering, members set the agenda for the General Commission on United Methodist Men and shared ideas and concerns. Bowen was again appointed to the board of directors of the UMM Foundation.

Scouting

The Tennessee Conference continues to seek a conference coordinator for our five district coordinators. The ministry is still very active and strong and is among the most effective across conferences and jurisdictions.

Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Middle Tennessee (BB/BS) and Amachi Programs

The Tennessee Conference continues to have active programs in these areas. Several hundred children are served through the efforts of over 50 churches—of which approximately 20 are United Methodist. Ingram Howard and Cliff Steger serve as mentors and also serve on the Ambassador Board.

United Methodist Men's Life Membership Award

The Tennessee Conference of United Methodist Men presented Bowen with the prestigious Life Membership Award during an installation of officers' ceremony at his home church, Gordon Memorial UMC.

Charters and EMS (Legacy Builders and Circuit Riders) Enrollments

The Tennessee Conference has approximately 85 local churches chartered with local units and over 120 EMS members along with 60 Legacy Builders and five Circuit Riders. Total membership still continues to be over 2,925 men.

Conclusion

The Tennessee Conference of United Methodist Men are planning an annual meeting in fall 2018. The UMM conference team is developing a program that will involve men across our conference in fellowship, training, and development. Please visit our website <https://sites.google.com/a/tnumc.com/tn-ummen/news> for updates and postings.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

Nita Wright, President
Tennessee Conference United Methodist Women

The Tennessee Conference began the year as new district units and is going strong with business as usual! Our theme for this year has been Sacred Spaces—Encounters with God and Neighbor and we are doing our best to provide sacred spaces for the least of these. We have served in homeless shelters, domestic violence programs, clothes closets, food pantries, and other local missions. We continue to support Miriam's Promise and Bethlehem Center, our national mission institution. We have hosted and helped put together meals for Rise Against Hunger. We have continued to raise funds for global missions as well.

United Methodist Women also educate. We host and provide mission studies, intergenerational events, and social justice programs to help make aware the need to step up and take action for all who need help and representation. We will be conducting our annual Mission U at St. Mark's UMC in July.

We continue to promote spiritual growth as well. We will return to Beersheba the second weekend in September for our spiritual growth retreat as well as hosting prayer events and worship opportunities throughout the year.

As we have always done, United Methodist Women will continue to focus our attention to the needs of women, children, and youth and by standing beside the most vulnerable. We root ourselves spiritually, learn in ways that challenge us, and build skills and plans for leadership to respond to God's call. Thanks be to God for these opportunities to serve those who need it most!

AFRICA UNIVERSITY

James H. Salley, Associate Vice Chancellor for Institutional Advancement Africa University Development Office

Africa University enjoyed a banner year in 2017 thanks to the local congregations, leadership, and members of The United Methodist Church. United Methodists in the Tennessee Conference and throughout the connection spearheaded special celebration events marking Africa University's 25th anniversary. These efforts brought Africa University's progress and ministry contributions to the forefront, allowing congregations to reaffirm their commitment to the institution's mission of nurturing global leaders who transform communities.

The university community—students, faculty, administrators and support staff, trustees, alumni, partners, and friends—is deeply thankful to the Tennessee Conference for investing in the Africa University Fund (AUF) apportionment at 196.48 percent in 2017. Thank you, Tennessee United Methodists, for leading by example and for your generosity and faithfulness to this ministry.

Institutional Update:

- Currently, Africa University hosts a stable, focused, and vibrant campus community of 1,417 students and faculty and staff from 31 African nations. An additional 392 students are pursuing degree programs on a part-time basis.
- Africa University's annual operating budget of just-under $10.5 million prioritizes student access and retention, with more than $2.2 million in scholarships and financial aid awards disbursed in 2017.
- Amidst a transition in the governance of Zimbabwe, lectures, research, and outreach activities at Africa University continued uninterrupted.
- A new academic structure and the realignment of programs is encouraging innovation and enhancing Africa University's relevance to The United Methodist Church and to sub-Saharan Africa. The recently-launched Institute of Theology and Religious Studies offers multi-disciplinary training and leadership formation opportunities for both clergy and laity.
- Researchers at Africa University are providing critical data on mosquitos and regional malaria control programs to aid Africa's efforts to eradicate malaria and other insect-borne diseases.
- Through teaching and research, Africa University is making trailblazing, regional contributions in migrant and refugee protection, child rights, and the harnessing of intellectual property for development.
- The first 25 years of AU's ministry have produced more than 8,000 graduates who are leading efforts to make disciples, alleviate poverty, improve global health, and better the quality of life in communities across sub-Saharan Africa.

United Methodist congregations in the United States established a new record faithfulness with the AUF in 2017. They invested 96.77 percent of their budget commitment to the AUF—the highest percentage ever invested by United Methodists in one of the seven general church funds.

Africa University ended 2017 affirmed, celebrated, and with its highest level of support from The United Methodist Church to date. The Tennessee Conference was one of a record 35 annual conferences that achieved or exceeded their 100 percent investment in the AUF. The strong support of the Tennessee Conference helped the Southeastern Jurisdiction to achieve an overall investment of 98.15 percent in the AUF.

As Africa University embraces emerging opportunities for service and impact within and beyond the church in Africa, the unwavering support of the Tennessee Conference is of vital importance. Please remember the students, faculty, administrators, trustees, and alumni of Africa University in your prayers. The university community thanks the Tennessee Conference for its graciousness and urges local congregations to continue investing in this ministry.

The four-year, $50 million Campaign for Africa University is ongoing, with 77.4 percent of the goal or $38.7 million in cash and pledges already committed. The campaign prioritizes scholarships, expert faculty, research, infrastructure, and technology. Africa University humbly invites churches and individual members of the conference to consider making a second-mile gift in support of the campaign.

Thank you, Tennessee Conference, for your foundational role in the Africa University story. Thank you for being a part of this incredible year of blessings. Thank you for affirming the power of faithfully sowing, standing, and working together as you journey in ministry with Africa University. May God bless and keep you always in an abundance of grace and mercy.

CANDLER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Jan Love, Mary Lee Hardin Willard Dean and Professor of Christianity and World Politics

For more than 100 years, Candler School of Theology at Emory University has prepared real people to make a real difference in the real world. Since our founding in 1914, more than 10,000 students have graduated from Candler, where they have been shaped as thoughtful, principled, and courageous Christian leaders dedicated to transforming the world in the name of Jesus Christ.

One of 13 official seminaries of The United Methodist Church, Candler has been included on a list of Seminaries that Change the World for five years running and was recently named a Bright Spot in Theological Education by Auburn Seminary.

Candler is also one of seven graduate professional schools of Emory University, a top-tier research institution offering extensive resources and a demonstrated commitment to service. Our location in Atlanta provides a hands-on learning environment rich with opportunity: The General Board of Global Ministries is headquartered here, as are numerous public health, international development, and social service organizations. Simply put, there is no better place to prepare for ministry that engages our major denominational priorities: developing leaders, starting and growing churches, ministry with the poor, and improving global health.

In order to keep pace with the needs of the Church and the world, Candler offers 16 degrees: six single degrees and 10 dual degrees pairing theology with bioethics, business, international development, law, public health, or social work. One of our newest degrees is a Doctor of Ministry that is 90 percent online, so students can remain in their places of ministry as they study and immediately apply to their context what they learn in class. Our Teaching Parish program allows eligible United Methodist students to serve as pastors in local churches while they're enrolled—they earn a salary as they earn course credit and pastoral experience, plus they are mentored by an experienced United Methodist elder.

Candler's student body continues to reflect the diversity and breadth of the Christian faithful, with an enrollment of 455, reflecting 49 percent women, 35 percent people of color (U.S.), and a median age of 30. Students represent 39 denominations, with half coming from the Methodist family. 82 percent of students are seeking a degree to prepare them as ministry professionals.

Candler has a deep commitment to alleviating student debt and employs a multi-pronged approach to tackle this issue. In 2017-2018, we awarded $5.3 million in Candler scholarships, with 97 percent of MDiv students receiving aid and the average scholarship covering 75 percent of tuition. Plus, our comprehensive Faith & Finance program teaches money management skills that serve our students now and will continue to serve them—and the churches they lead—well into the future.

Half of Candler's faculty are United Methodist and 58% come from traditions within the larger Methodist family. This year, we welcomed fellow United Methodist Helen Jin Kim to the faculty as assistant professor of American Religious History and we sent best wishes along with our colleague Mary Lou Greenwood Boice as she retired after 25 years of remarkable service to Candler.

Candler draws considerable strength and inspiration from its relationship with The United Methodist Church. Our ability to fulfill our mission of educating faithful and creative leaders for the Church's ministries throughout the world depends upon your support, gifts, and prayers. Thank you for the countless ways you advance this vital ministry in the life of our denomination. Visit us in person in Atlanta or online at candler.emory.edu to see firsthand how Candler prepares real people to make a real difference in the real world.

DUKE DIVINITY SCHOOL

Rev. Elaine A. Heath, Dean

Under the leadership of Elaine A. Heath, dean and professor of missional and pastoral theology, Duke Divinity School has continued to work on our strategic planning process. In the academic year 2017–2018, the strategic planning committee was assembled, composed of representatives from the faculty, staff, student body, and Duke Divinity's Board of Visitors. The committee has sought extensive feedback from stakeholders, including alumni, church leaders, and donors as well as our community of faculty, staff, and students; it is paying close attention to developments within theological education and the cultural changes affecting both church and academy. The committee anticipates presenting a framework document in the spring of 2018 with a strategic plan submitted for approval in November 2018.

This year we launched several new programs to equip laypeople and to support students. The Neighborhood Seminary, a partnership with the Northern Piedmont District of the Western North Carolina Conference, is a two-year, noncredit training program that began with a cohort of 18 people. The cohort participates in four team-taught courses per year led by faculty, staff, and graduate students from Duke Divinity School in partnership with local practitioners and ministries. The cohort also undertakes an intentional, contemplative model of spiritual practice combined with sequenced contextual learning experiences with local practitioners throughout the two-year program. Heidi Miller, Ph.D., directs the program.

We also launched a new academic support program to help incoming students learn how to think and write theologically. The Refresher and Intensive for Scholarly Enrichment (RISE) program began with a two-day pre-orientation workshop for new students in August. Over half of the incoming class—83 students—registered for this self-selecting program that includes lectures, panels, and workshops to help them navigate academic work and succeed at seminary. Academic support continues throughout the year, with divinity school professors and preceptors as well as academic support staff in contact with each other and struggling students to develop plans to help them.

This year we welcomed students from a range of backgrounds who are called to serve God and the church. In 2017, our total enrollment was 606 students: 369 were enrolled in the M.Div. degree program; 58 in the M.T.S.; 10 in the Th.M.; 46 in the Th.D.; 83 in the D.Min.; 23 in the M.A.C.P.; four in the M.A.C.S.; and 10 who are special students or auditors. Thirty-seven percent of our students are United Methodist, with an additional 3 percent from other Wesleyan traditions, and 46 percent of our M.Div. students are United Methodist. Eleven percent of all students are Baptist, 8 percent are Anglican or Episcopalian, 4 percent are Roman Catholic, 10 percent are Presbyterian or Reformed, with the rest from 21 other denominations or faith traditions.

Three new certificates were approved this year. The Certificate in Missional Innovation, which can be earned as part of a master of divinity degree, is intended for students interested or involved in innovative forms of ministry. They will receive training in contextual evangelism and church planting with the goal of converting, gathering, and discipling people who are often neglected or unreached by existing church structures. The Certificate in Theology and the Arts, which can be earned alongside the M.Div., M.T.S., or Th.M., aims to help students appreciate and articulate the mutual enrichment of theology and the arts and to create opportunities to involve local churches and communities in the arts. The Certificate in Theology and Health Care is a new fully accredited residential graduate program that provides robust theological and practical engagement with contemporary practices in medicine and health care. The certificate aims to equip Christian health care practitioners with foundational courses in Christian theology, Scripture, and the practical issues they encounter.

In 2017, the Duke Forward comprehensive campaign concluded, having raised critical endowment and expendable funds to support the people, programs, and activities of the university. Duke Divinity School raised $114.1 million, 143 percent more than the goal of $80 million. This support enables the divinity school to provide scholarships and fellowships to students, build faculty excellence, and launch new programs and research efforts. We are grateful to God for the generous partnership of many alumni, other individuals, churches, and foundations. These gifts are helping to move Duke Divinity School forward into preparing men and women who will serve their neighbors and lead the church of the future.

Our faculty continue to provide exemplary service in the classroom, for the church, and to the wider culture. One example is Edgardo Colón-Emeric, assistant professor of Christian theology, who continues the Duke Divinity School tradition of Methodist engagement in ecumenical initiatives. As part of the Joint International Commission for Dialogue between the World Methodist Council and the Roman Catholic Church, Colón-Emeric presented to Pope Francis the Spanish translation of the latest bilateral statement. Colón-Emeric has also been actively involved in Methodist churches and seminaries in Latin America, including an effort to train lay pastors in Guatemala that has involved Duke Divinity School staff and doctoral students.

A number of efforts and programs at Duke Divinity School this year have sought to further our commitment to supporting and learning from students and communities that have been too-often marginalized. Our Convocation & Pastors' School featured professors, pastors, and activists who addressed ways that the church can dismantle bias and hate. The Center for Reconciliation had a full slate of programs, including a conversation series on navigating conflict that was open to the public; a pilgrimage to significant sites in Durham; and participation in reconciliation events in East Africa and Northeast Asia.

Thanks to a grant from the General Board of Higher Education & Ministry's Young Clergy Initiative, Duke Divinity School received a grant to help develop leadership for the black church within The United Methodist Church through mentorships, funded field education placements with experienced black pastors, and attendance at the Convocation for Pastors of Black Churches. Within our school, Dean Elaine Heath has met regularly with the leaders of the Black Seminarians Union and a team of faculty and staff to address concerns around implicit bias in grading, training in cross-cultural competency, additional scholarship support for students, and staffing needs to support an increasingly diverse student population.

We remain deeply grateful for the relationships among The United Methodist Church, this annual conference, and Duke Divinity School. We look forward to working with you in the task of preparing men and women for Christian ministry. To learn more about Duke Divinity School, please visit our website at www.divinity.duke.edu.

GARRETT-EVANGELICAL THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Dr. Lallene J. Rector, President

In 2017-2018, Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary focused on the following priorities:

- Responsive and Relevant Theological Education: Respond to the educational and professional development needs of prospective students, alums, clergy, and laity by providing relevant theological education in a variety of formats and investing in our competent and diverse faculty.
- Inclusivity in Our Relationships: Ensure we are equitable, just, and inclusive in our relationships with the variety of diversity we encounter (e.g., racial, cultural, sexual orientation) within both our seminary and local communities.
- Ensuring a Vibrant Future: Establish a vibrant future by investing in employees, instituting new policies and procedures, caring for the earth, and generating gifts to sustain the seminary for generations to come.

RESPONSIVE AND RELEVANT THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION

Scholarships Available for Fall 2018

Continuing the seminary's commitment to reducing student debt and addressing the financial needs of students seeking a theological education, Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary offered an additional 25 full-tuition scholarships for individuals applying for admission as a full-time student in fall 2018. For more information, please visit www.garrett.edu/news.

Two New Master of Arts Degrees

Master of Arts in Public Ministry

In fall 2018, Garrett-Evangelical accepted students into the newly formed Master of Arts in Public Ministry program. Students in this program aspire to fulfill their Christian vocations to love God and serve neighbor through public ministries of advocacy, organizing, and justice-making in collaboration with other communities of faith and conscience. In particular, this program equips laity serving in community, social, or justice-oriented organizations who seek to enhance their public work by engaging with theological education and formation. Concentration tracks are available in ecological regeneration, racial justice, and child advocacy.

Master of Arts in Spiritual Formation and Direction

Through rigorous academics paired with profound spiritual formation, the Master of Arts in Spiritual Formation and Direction is designed to provide advanced training in the spiritual and devotional practices that lead to both personal and communal growth. Graduates of this program aspire to fulfill their Christian vocation to love and serve God and neighbor through the task of spiritual direction and companionship. Most of the courses in the spiritual direction concentration include a spiritual direction module, which—when successfully completed—leads to a certificate in spiritual direction. Those skills may be used in a direction setting, but they may also inform and enhance students' approach to leadership, preaching, teaching, and pastoral counseling.

Connectional Learning

Connectional Learning is the name for Garrett-Evangelical's new take on continuing education. We seek to create education and training suited to each individual's unique professional, vocational, and spiritual needs. Our new suite of offerings enables students to choose the programming that best fits their physical location, ability to travel, learning preferences, time, and budget. We saw tremendous growth in this area with an increase in the number and type of programs we offered online, on campus, and regionally.

Programs of interest included a community organizing workshop held in Chicago on June 18-22, 2018. In fall 2018, we launched our online Financial Management for Churches and Nonprofits course for clergy to attend with a lay leader. This course was designed as part of our Lilly Endowment grant, Leading Vibrant Congregations: A Collaboration of Faith and Finance. To learn more about our offerings and stay up to date on future programs, please visit: www.garrett.edu/connectional-learning.

Faculty Scholarship

Our faculty has been busy. In 2017, faculty members wrote 12 books, chapters in books, articles, and blog posts. Faculty publications included:

- Brooks, Gennifer Benjamin. Bible Sisters: A Year of Devotions with the Women of the Bible. Nashville, TN: Abingdon Press.
- Papandrea, James L. From Star Wars to Superman: Christ Figures in Science Fiction and Superhero Films. Manchester, New Hampshire: Sophia Institute Press.
- Teasdale, Mark R. Go!: How to Become a Great Commission Church. Nashville, TN: Wesley's Foundry Books.
- Tran, Mai-Anh Le. Reset the Heart: Unlearning Violence, Relearning Hope. Nashville: Abingdon Press, 2017.

INCLUSIVITY IN OUR RELATIONSHIPS

Since the launch of our strategic plan in 2015, we have been working to pay greater attention to race, diversity, and inclusivity in our community. This work began with a racial equity and diversity inclusion audit. We have been working through the results of the audit to inform changes we need to make in our community. One of our major initiatives this year was to create a community statement that names, celebrates, and affirms the variety of persons we encounter and challenges the seminary with specific goals to fulfill its commitment to grow and serve all persons equally and justly. As we implement this statement, we continue to offer training opportunities and encourage lectures and discussions on race, diversity, and inclusion.

ENSURING A VIBRANT FUTURE

Hope for Creation and Green Seminary Certification Program

Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary is committed to addressing the urgent environmental crises facing the world's peoples today and promoting the just and wise care of God's creation for the flourishing of all. This commitment is rooted in an affirmation of God's love for the world, an embrace of our human vocation to be faithful stewards of the good earth, and an active hope in God's promise to establish justice and righteousness throughout the land.

We are in the midst of integrating sustainable practices and ecological awareness as a participant in the Green Seminary Initiative (GSI) for the Seminary Environmental Certification Program. A three-year program, this certification will assist Garrett-Evangelical as it integrates care for creation into areas of education and spiritual formation; liturgy, ritual, and worship; building and grounds management; community life; and public leadership.

Thank you for your continued interest in our work. We are grateful to serve The United Methodist Church and the church at large. For more information about Garrett-Evangelical, visit www.garrett.edu, or visit us on campus.

ABOUT US

Garrett-Evangelical is the result of the interweaving of three institutions:

- Garrett Biblical Institute, the first Methodist seminary in the Midwest, was established in 1853 by some of the same church people who founded Northwestern University.
- Chicago Training School, established in 1885, was an important force for women in ministry and for developing service agencies throughout Chicago. Chicago Training School merged with Garrett Biblical Institute in 1934.
- Evangelical Theological Seminary, located in Naperville and founded as a seminary of the Evangelical Church (later the Evangelical United Brethren) in 1873, joined with Garrett Theological Seminary in 1974 to form Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary.

ILIFF SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Rev. Thomas V. Wolfe, Ph.D., President and Chief Executive Officer

It is our prayer that this conference feeds you.

There is a hunger for depth in our world—deep spirit, deep community, deep wisdom. At the Iliff School of Theology, we continue the work of feeding the Church and the world with the depth that our established and creative theological school can offer. Our students are the heart of what we do. They are a diverse group with boundless creativity and energy. They crave the depth we offer and gratify us with their developing courageous theological imagination.

Our students live in a world where civil discourse is difficult. With our responsive and knowledgeable faculty, we prepare students to engage the issues they will face in their communities and bring healing. To do this, we have well-established ways beyond a traditional classroom that give students and the communities they serve the depth they want. Our online and hybrid programs have served our students where they are for over a decade. Cohorts of students in 44 states bring their full, lived experience to their learning. We've watched generations of our students maintain and honor their connectional commitments while they learn in deep community.

Previously, we have reported on our Spiritually-Integrated Financial Resiliency (SIFR) program, funded by a generous grant from the Lilly Endowment, Inc. We're proud to say that this successful program is continuing to help new groups of students discover solutions to student debt and go on to create and sustain financially resilient institutions. Our next step is the ReSource at Iliff program, where we offer extended, lifelong learning around practical issues facing leaders today. This initiative will offer workshops at Iliff, host webinars, provide online content, and bring workshops and events to locations around the country. We're excited to offer skills-focused training to modern leaders.

While many of our initiatives take us outside the walls of our institution, we've made an investment in our 126-year-old facilities this past year. We recently completed a multiple-year building project that gives us a more accessible entrance with new green-conscious landscaping, additional parking, new classroom spaces, updated heating and cooling systems, and solar panels that offset 65 percent of our electric usage. Our physical Denver campus more closely reflects our values as it offers a welcoming space to all.

Agility is thinking strategically about change. We never change for the sake of it; we make changes that are true to who we are. Our position allows us to be aware of cultural and religious changes in order to provide meaningful contemporary leadership that can transform existing faith communities. This means we engage other disciplines and look to the horizon. Our developing center for environmental justice and partnerships in technology help us continue to grow. Our healthy depth allows us to reach out to build relationships where theology informs other disciplines. We know that theology can help the world in many areas that are as yet unexplored. Iliff School of Theology has the courage to dig deep.

MARTIN METHODIST COLLEGE

Rev. Dr. Mark La Branche

On July 1, 2017, Rev. Dr. Mark La Branche became the 31st president of Martin Methodist College. La Branche is an elder in the Alabama-West Florida Conference and most recently served as president of Louisburg College in the North Carolina Conference.

On April 6, 2018, La Branche was formally inaugurated with a celebration of worship at Pulaski First United Methodist and a message from alum Rev. Dr. Davis Chappel. The ceremony of inauguration was held later that day with a keynote address given by Cal Turner Jr., who ended his address with the announcement of a $1 million gift to Martin Methodist College from the Turner Family Foundation.

Under the leadership of La Branche, the college has embraced a bold new vision built on history and tradition. Martin Methodist College will become a national model of faith-based rural higher education. It is compelling because it is something we are uniquely fitted to do and it meets a need that world is desperate to fill. It is a vision that understands the success of the college and the success of the rural communities surrounding it are inextricably linked.

Through a grant from the Golden Cross Foundation, the college purchased and equipped two vans to transport nursing program students to churches throughout southern middle Tennessee to perform health screenings and promote wellness.

It is exciting to think that we can be part of a rural renaissance that harvests and gleans the full potential of an area's people, churches, government, and businesses while preserving and elevating the precious value of community that grows organically in the rural space. It is also exciting to know that Martin Methodist can be a part of the revival of the Church—to look deep into the heart of the Church and reflect what it means to be a Christ-centered Church in rural America and a Christ-centered college.

It was John Wesley's concern that Methodism would not just exist as a religion but as a force of socio-economic transformation. In his letter to William Wilberforce, Wesley encourages this Holy Spirit power:

“Go on, in the name of God and in the power of His might, till even American slavery (the vilest that ever saw the sun) shall vanish away before it ... .” (Letter to William Wilberforce, 24 February, 1791, Letters [Telford] 8:26)

John Wesley is calling to us: Go on in the name of God and in the power of His might, till even...! Martin Methodist College stands with The United Methodist Church to go forth in the power of His might, till even all people are given an opportunity to live into the fullness God created them for through the development of the mind and heart.

We treasure our relationship! We are very grateful for, and depend on, the support of the Tennessee Conference. Your support helps make a United Methodist, Christ-centered, higher education accessible to students of all walks of life and to many who are the first ones in their family to attend college.

MEMPHIS THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Michael K. Turner, Director

Memphis Theological Seminary (MTS) is pleased to report that theological education for United Methodist students continues to remain vibrant and forward-looking.

The seminary continues to offer a robust selection of classes in Wesleyan Studies. Dr. Michael Turner (associate professor of the History of Christianity and Wesleyan Studies) continues to teach all the required UMC courses for ordination in Methodist History, Doctrine, and Polity each academic year. Dr. Turner, along with his colleagues Dr. Lee Ramsey (Marlon and Sheila Foster Professor of Pastoral Theology and Homiletics), Dr. Carmichael Crutchfield (associate professor of Christian Education, Spiritual Formation, and Youth Ministry as well as general secretary of the department of Christian Education for the CME Church), and Rev. Billy Vaughan (director for the Formation for Ministry Program) also offer a number of electives each year in the field of Wesleyan Studies. Recent offerings include Pastoral Care in the Wesleyan Tradition, John Wesley's Practical Theology, The Prophetic Rhetoric of Henry McNeal Turner, and Covenant Discipleship Groups. Students that take a minimum of five courses in Wesleyan studies electives have the opportunity to earn the Certificate in Wesleyan Studies.

The Methodist House of Studies (MHOS) at MTS continues to provide opportunities for Wesleyan formation for both students at the seminary and pastors within the surrounding annual conferences that we serve. Dr. Turner (Western North Carolina Annual Conference), Dr. Ramsey (Memphis Annual Conference), and Dr. Crutchfield (CME Church) serve as the directors and associate directors of MHOS. The Methodist House provides support for all of our UMC students at MTS by regular gatherings for fellowship and mutual learning. Recent gatherings have focused on topics that include hospital chaplaincy, clergy taxes, and the ordination process in the UMC. The faculty members associated with the MHOS also provide academic and vocational advising to all UMC, CME, and AME students at the seminary.

Additionally, the MHOS has sponsored training for clergy covenant group leaders in the Tennessee and Memphis conferences during the past year, co-sponsored Molding Christian Conversation in a Polarized Society: Beginning the Conversation about Same Sex Marriage and the UMC with the Turner Center for Church Leadership, and co-sponsored retreats on At Table: United Methodists Seeking a Way Forward with the Turner Center for Church Leadership and the Tennessee and Memphis conferences. Dr. Turner has also led various workshops on Methodist heritage at congregations in the greater Memphis area.

Currently, faculty members at the MHOS are developing a continuing education Certificate in Wesleyan Studies in partnership with the Mississippi Conference, a council designed to facilitate dialogue between the various Pan-Methodist traditions, and we are assisting planning a Methodist-focused day at the Civil Rights Museum. In May of 2019, Dr. Turner will be leading a Wesleyan pilgrimage to England. The trip will be open to students, alumni, and interested Methodists from the annual conferences we serve.

In addition to the work of the MHOS, Memphis Theological Seminary also has received a $1 million grant from Lilly Endowment Inc. to establish a Center for Pastoral Formation, Imagination, and Leadership. This center will better equip pastoral leaders in the field as well as students preparing for ministry to lead the church in the 21st century. By way of this center we are determined to offer both students at the seminary and pastoral leaders in the field the resources they need to thrive in ministry. As with our Formation for Ministry program at the seminary we are committed to fostering an imagination and accountability for the challenges pastoral leaders are facing.

Also, in September the seminary broke ground on the freestanding Hamilton Chapel. The 300-seat facility will likely be complete by Easter 2019. The chapel was made possible in part by a $3 million gift from Barbara Hamilton and her husband the late Dr. Ralph Hamilton. Dr. and Mrs. Hamilton were prominent members of Germantown United Methodist Church. This year, Jeanne Varnell completed the $500,000 pledge to support the Methodist House of Study that she and her late husband, Henry, pledged to the Ministry for the Real World Campaign.

We are grateful for the support of the Tennessee Conference and for the many fine students who have attended MTS from Memphis over the years. We appreciate the confidence that the conference places in MTS for preparation of United Methodist women and men for Christian ministry, and we welcome your ongoing involvement and prayers for Wesleyan studies at MTS. For ongoing information about the MHOS, we invite you to visit us at www.MethodistHouse.org.

METHODIST THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL IN OHIO

Danny Russell, Director of Communications

Thank you for this opportunity to bring you news from Methodist Theological School in Ohio (MTSO). Here are a few highlights from a productive year.

Healthy Congregations Inc. Moves in

MTSO entered into a mutually beneficial partnership with Healthy Congregations, an interfaith organization that equips leaders for thinking more clearly about families, relationships, and faith communities. The MTSO campus now hosts Healthy Congregations' staff and offices, as well as many of its events. The relationship affords MTSO's students, faculty, and staff the opportunity to participate in Healthy Congregations events at reduced cost.

MTSO and Ohio State Unite Around Innovative Food Hub

The Ohio State University Initiative for Food and AgriCultural Transformation (InFACT) awarded MTSO a $35,000 grant, which will help fund the development and testing of a new food hub model in Franklinton, a low-income Columbus community. This work brings together residents of Franklinton, the Franklinton Farms urban gardens, and faculty, staff, and students from Ohio State and MTSO, including the staff of MTSO's Seminary Hill Farm. To increase Franklinton residents' access to affordable, local food, the project will use an online food ordering interface—a departure from the traditional brick-and-mortar model of food hubs.

Homiletics Events Encourage Prophetic Preaching

The year provided MTSO with two major opportunities to contribute to the craft of preaching. Women from diverse racial and ethnic backgrounds gathered in September for Chloe's Circle, presented by MTSO's Theological Commons and WomanPreach! Inc., an organization founded by MTSO Interim Academic Dean Valerie Bridgeman to bring preachers into full prophetic voice. Participants explored the ways preachers can share truth in the face of disparity and injustice. In February, the Schooler Institute on Preaching featured lectures and preaching by Wil Gafney, associate professor of Hebrew Bible at Brite Divinity School and author of Womanist Midrash: A Reintroduction to Women of the Torah and of the Throne.

Students Take Cross-cultural Trip to South Africa

Cross-cultural immersion is a key part of MTSO students' preparation for ministry. Every Master of Divinity student at MTSO takes a cross-cultural immersion trip before graduating. In January, a group of students and faculty visited South Africa for 18 days. Among the stops was Soweto's Regina Mundi Catholic Church which was central to the anti-Apartheid movement.

PERKINS SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

Craig C. Hill, Dean and Professor of New Testament

Perkins celebrates our vital connections with the Tennessee Annual Conference:

- Two (2) students affiliated with the Tennessee Annual Conference are enrolled at Perkins, both of whom are studying in the Master of Divinity (M.Div.) program.
- One (1) Perkins student has been placed as an intern within the Tennessee Annual Conference this year.

Enrollment at Perkins for the 2017-18 academic year totals 312 students, including 31 enrolled in the Ph.D. program. Fall 2017 statistics reflect the following: 59 percent of our entire student population are United Methodist and more than 45 percent are ethnic minority students. Master's degree programs comprise approximately 43 percent male and 57 percent female students. The D.Min. program includes students from southern Asia taking classes in Dallas.

In 2017, Dr. Craig C. Hill completed his first year as dean and professor of New Testament at Perkins School of Theology. Under his leadership a number of new initiatives have been launched, including new forms of outreach to churches and church leaders, deeper and more fruitful relationships with feeder colleges, new curricular and co-curricular initiatives, a staff council, the revamping of the D.Min. and Houston-Galveston Programs, additional staffing in critical areas, increased giving, additional financial aid, new uses of technology, and a program for United Methodists seeking ordination.

From the outset, Dean Hill has traveled throughout the South Central Jurisdiction to meet with clergy, laity, bishops, cabinets, and other leaders to strengthen partnerships and to share his vision for Perkins as "an academy for the whole church in the whole world." During 2017, several bishops—with their cabinets—held meetings and retreats on the Perkins campus.

2017 Highlights

- Fall 2017 admissions increased by a record 42.8 percent over the previous year with an incoming class of 80 students (excluding new D.Min. and Ph.D. students).
- Two new degree concentrations—Church Management and Social Innovation and Nonprofit Engagement—were launched in fall 2017 in partnership with Southern Methodist University's Cox School of Business and Meadows School of the Arts. Available to students pursuing M.Div. and Master of Arts in Ministry degrees, these unique concentrations are designed to strengthen future clergy in the area of church management and to equip those pursuing nontraditional forms of ministry that encourage social innovation.

- Current-use giving to Perkins increased 14 percent over 2016, making funds available to Dean Hill for immediate needs.
- Dr. Isabel Docampo, associate director of the Perkins Intern Program and professor of Supervised Ministry since 1997, was named director of the Center for the Study of Latino/a Christianity and Religions, effective June 1. In fall 2017, Docampo ushered in the first cohort of eight students (from Brazil, Venezuela, Argentina, Puerto Rico, Peru, Chile, Cuba, and Mexico, serving in the U.S. or in their home countries) in Perkins' new Spanish-language Master of Theology degree program—the only one of its kind offered by a United Methodist school of theology. Funding for the students is part of a three-year, $500,000 grant made to the center by The Henry Luce Foundation's Theology program.
- Tracy Anne Allred was named to the new position of assistant dean of Student Life and director of Community Engagement effective June 1. Key areas of responsibility include implementing plans for the nurturing of community life at Perkins for students, faculty, and staff, serving as liaison to the newly formed Perkins Staff Council, and developing connections with a wide range of creative ministries in the North Texas and Houston-Galveston areas.
- Rev. Dr. Margot Perez-Greene, a higher-education professional with more than 20 years of administrative experience, was appointed associate dean for Enrollment Management effective July 1. A 2011 M.Div. graduate of Perkins, she is an ordained elder in the Rio Texas Conference. Perez-Greene earned a B.A. from St. Edwards University, a M.A. from Arizona State University, and Ph.D. in Educational Administration from The University of Texas at Austin. In this new role, she is responsible for crafting a vision for Perkins' recruitment and admissions strategies and identifying and reaching out to prospective students for the school's masters and doctoral degrees. Additionally, she leads a staff responsible for all phases of recruitment, retention, and financial aid as well as cultivating relationships with key ordained and lay church leaders to assist those called to ministry through the admissions process.
- A new scholarship program geared toward attracting outstanding M.Div. students was launched in 2017. The first 10 Perkins Scholars, each of whom received a three-year scholarship commitment, were named for the 2017-18 academic year. A total goal of $630,000 in funding will provide an anticipated 10 additional scholarships for fall 2018 and another 10 for fall 2019. Combined with additional financial aid, this program provides nearly full scholarships for these highly skilled servant leaders.
- The Fall 2017 Convocation, which drew record crowds of clergy, laity, and prospective students to the SMU campus, featured bestselling author Anne Lamott, Rev. Dr. Amos Yong (professor of Theology and Mission and the director of the Center for Missiological Research at Fuller Theological Seminary in Pasadena, California), and noted biblical scholar Rev. Dr. N.T. Wright (professor of New Testament and early Christianity at the University of St. Andrews in Fife, Scotland).
- A new curriculum was adopted for fall 2018 by the SMU Board of Trustees in December for the Perkins D.Min. program. The new curriculum, under the direction of Dr. Carlos Cardoza-Orlandi, includes a 30-hour graduation requirement; degree completion in three years; intensive peer group interaction and learning; and concentrations in vocational director, organizational leadership, and community building.
- In an effort to deepen relationships between Perkins and undergraduate college and universities, new partnerships in the form of Memoranda of Understanding (MOUs) were launched in 2017-18. Formal agreements have been signed with historically United Methodist institutions including Centenary College in Shreveport, Louisiana; Southwestern University in Georgetown, Texas; McMurry University in Abilene, Texas; Hendrix College in Conway, Arkansas; and Presbyterian-related Austin College in Sherman, Texas (with more pending at the time of this writing). These MOUs establish a preferred pathway for graduates of the institutions interested in pursuing ministerial vocations at the graduate level, granting preferred consideration and early acceptance to Perkins School of Theology for students pursuing ministerial vocations. The agreement also states that the undergraduate institutions and Perkins will encourage new opportunities for future cooperation.

- Two Perkins alumni are enrolled in the Diploma in Theology for Ministry at Wesley House, Cambridge—a member institution of the Cambridge (UK) University Theological Federation—as part of a new partnership between Perkins and Wesley House. Students participating in the nine-month program, which integrates academic study with a focus on pastoral ministry, are part of an international cohort.
- Dr. C. Michael Hawn, University Distinguished Professor of Church Music and director of the Sacred Music and Doctor of Pastoral Music (D.P.M.) programs at Perkins School of Theology, Southern Methodist University, retired from full-time teaching in 2017 after 25 years on the SMU faculty. Dr. Hawn continues to administer and teach in the D.P.M. program.
- In 2017, SMU launched a three-year current-use giving campaign called Pony Power, with a goal of raising $150 million over three years for the university in current-use giving. The university's goal for 2017-18 is $45 million. Perkins' goal for this fiscal year, which ends May 31, 2018, is $2.8 million. Perkins donors are asked to consider making a three-year pledge to a current-use project at Perkins. The areas of greatest need are the SMU Fund for Perkins, used by Dean Hill at his discretion, and Perkins student financial aid.

Perkins School of Theology is committed to those called to serve so that they might be empowered to lead. We thank our many colleagues, friends, and alumni/ae across the connection for their generous support, including referrals of prospective students, as we continue our vital mission of preparing women and men for faithful leadership in Christian ministry.

UNITED THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Dr. Kent Millard, President

United Theological Seminary in Dayton, Ohio, celebrated a 77 percent increase in new students for the fall of 2017. While 71 new students enrolled in September 2016, 126 new students enrolled in September 2017. This was made possible by increasing student aid opportunities and empowering faculty members, trustees, and administrators to personally recommend candidates for a $5,000 grant toward tuition. United experienced God's provision, trusting what God said through St. Paul: "[God] is able to accomplish abundantly far more than all we can ask or imagine" (Ephesians 3:20).

Many of the seminary's new students are current pastors who want to become more effective leaders for the Church through a Doctor of Ministry degree. United's Doctor of Ministry program has 170 students enrolled this year from 29 states, two non-US countries and 27 Christian denominations. The average number of doctoral students in all Association of Theological Schools (ATS) is 60 students, making United one of the largest Doctor of Ministry programs among ATS member schools.

The Doctor of Ministry program provides academic rigor, peer group support, spiritual growth, and practical application. Pastors identify a need within their community and, with the support of a peer group, mentor, and United faculty, develop a model of ministry that will resolve the challenge in their congregations or communities.

Rev. Rudy Rasmus, pastor of the 9,000-member St. John's United Methodist Church in downtown Houston, is a current doctoral student who says he has been both challenged and supported in the DMin program.

"The program is rigorous," Rev. Rasmus says. "It is contextual, it is intentional, and the professors and staff are at the top of the form."

United also has 212 students enrolled in the Master of Divinity degree program who usually seek to serve as pastors in local congregations. Eighty eight percent of entering students are ordained or seeking ordination to serve a local congregation compared to 56 percent in other ATS member schools.

United also provides a two-year Master of Arts in Christian Ministries degree, which many persons serving as directors of Christian education or other local church positions pursue.

United provides flexible course options: 90 percent of students take at least one course online, and courses are also available as traditional on-campus courses, week-long on-campus intensive classes, and virtual courses that meet simultaneously on campus and in the cloud via webcast.

If you are interested in pursuing further seminary education, contact United's Office of Admissions at admissions@united.edu or call 800-322-5817.

VANDERBILT DIVINITY SCHOOL

Joy E. Bronson, Methodist Students' Association Chair

Recognizing the need to develop toward new iteration and calling, the Vanderbilt Divinity School Methodist Students' Association (MSA) has focused the 2017-18 year on engaging in a process of examen.

For nearly a decade, the MSA (which was then the United Methodist Students' Association) hosted Cal Turner Fellows, which were United Methodist students who received scholarships for their learning, engagement, and participation within the school and greater community. Two significant shifts occurred within the past five years: the Fellows programs came to an end and both the school and Nashville community experienced significant cultural shifts. These shifts impacted the organizational rituals that the MSA had developed over the previous decade.

Our faithful response to this impact—to the recognition that nothing remains as it was, and so God calls for our presence and being together in different ways than we have been—has for the past year been to work to assess the purpose, activities, and full make up and body of the MSA. This is all-inclusive of the executive board, the body, and the programs and events that we host.

While maintaining our typical slate of programming—which includes monthly lunch and learns, Friday eucharist service, outreach service projects, and various community gatherings—our focus has been to follow them with the essential questions of examen: As we go forward, how is each event life-giving to our community? How does it invite and create flourishing in our community with the Spirit of God?

As we close our year, we find ourselves prayerfully and faithfully transitioning toward reducing both our executive board and our programming and events so that we might better focus toward understanding our communities' needs and how we can be of greater relationship and service to and with our Methodist community and the communities in which we live beyond the divinity school.

We honor and celebrate our past and history, and to where they have brought us today. We also look forward to discovering and embracing how allowing old things to pass away will bring us to new life.

B. RESOLUTIONS

Resolution #1

Rental/Housing Allowances for Retired, Disabled, or Former Clergypersons of the Tennessee Conference

The Tennessee Conference (the “Conference”) adopts the following resolutions relating to rental/housing allowances for active, retired, terminated, or disabled clergypersons of the Conference:

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church (the “Church”), of which this Conference is a part, has in the past functioned and continues to function through ministers of the gospel (within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 107) who were or are duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed ministers of the Church (“Clergypersons”);

WHEREAS, the practice of the Church and of this Conference was and is to provide active Clergypersons with a parsonage or a rental/housing allowance as part of their gross compensation;

WHEREAS, pensions or other amounts paid to active, retired, terminated, and disabled Clergypersons are considered to be deferred compensation and are paid to active, retired, terminated, and disabled Clergypersons in consideration of previous active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized the Conference (or its predecessors) as an appropriate organization to designate a rental/housing allowance for Clergypersons who are or were members of this Conference and are eligible to receive such deferred compensation;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

THAT an amount equal to 100% of the pension, severance, or disability payments received from plans authorized under The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (the “Discipline”), which includes all such payments from Wespath Benefits and Investments, also known as the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits of The United Methodist Church (“GBOPHB”), to each active, retired, terminated, or disabled Clergyperson who is or was a member of the Conference, or its predecessors, be and hereby is designated as a rental/housing allowance for each such Clergyperson; and

THAT the pension, severance, or disability payments to which this rental/housing allowance designation applies will be any pension, severance, or disability payments from plans, annuities, or funds authorized under the Discipline, including such payments from the GBOPHB and from a commercial annuity company that provides an annuity arising from benefits accrued under a GBOPHB plan, annuity, or fund authorized under the Discipline, that result from any service a Clergyperson rendered to this Conference or that an active, a retired, a terminated, or a disabled Clergyperson of this Conference rendered to any local church, annual conference of the Church, general agency of the Church, other institution of the Church, former denomination that is now a part of the Church, or any other employer that employed the Clergyperson to perform services related to the ministry of the Church, or its predecessors, and that elected to make contributions to, or accrue a benefit under, such a plan, annuity, or fund for such an active, a retired, a terminated, or a disabled Clergyperson’s pension, severance, or disability plan benefit as part of his or her gross compensation.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance that may be excluded from a Clergyperson’s gross income in any year for federal (and, in most cases, state) income tax purposes is limited under Internal Revenue Code section 107(2), and regulations thereunder, to the least of: (a) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the Clergyperson’s employer or other appropriate body of the Church (such as this Conference in the foregoing resolutions) for such year; (b) the amount actually expended by the Clergyperson to rent or provide a home in such year; or (c) the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances (such as a garage), plus the cost of utilities in such year. Each clergyperson or former clergyperson is urged to consult with his or her own tax advisor to determine what deferred compensation is eligible to be claimed as a housing allowance exclusion.

RESOLUTION CONCERNING #BETTERTOGETHER... (BUT ONLY IN JESUS!)

Whereas, A currently popular catch-phrase within the United Methodist Church (#BetterTogether) captures a hope for unity between diverse peoples and theologies; and

Whereas, the intent of the phrase, while admirable, glosses over theological differences that are neither superficial nor matters of interpretation, but rather deal with the very Foundation of the Christian Faith; and

Whereas, true unity is impossible separated from Truth-unity; that any supposed togetherness that denies or dismisses the Tri-unity of the God Head as presented from Genesis to Revelation by God the Word Himself, Jesus, is ultimately and dangerously false; and

Whereas, “#BetterTogether” is premised on a sandy foundation unless it is built upon the Solid Rock of Jesus who calls us together in Himself and in what He has taught us; and

Whereas, there are at least fifty Scriptures breathed by Jesus addressing issues of sexual immorality, homosexuality, and male/female-only marriage that are unequivocally clear in calling the Church to be together in righteousness, not political correctness;

Therefore, be it resolved, that the Tennessee Annual Conference gladly affirms that we are BetterTogether—but only when we are together in, by, and through Jesus; and

Further, be it resolved, that we recognize that to deny Jesus as God the Word or to ignore what Jesus defines as sin—or righteousness—is inherently NOT together and NOT better; and

Finally, be it resolved, that the Tennessee Annual Conference affirms the authority of the Word of God to define and boundary what is truth and freedom apart from what brings bondage, so we are together better on the Rock of Jesus!

RESOLUTION TO RECOGNIZE THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN RIGHT HEALING AND CIVIL RIGHTS
THE TENNESSEE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Whereas, the United Methodist Church often stood at the forefront of the Civil Rights movement in the United States, even as it has recognized many obvious failures and has repented publicly and confessed those failures; and

Whereas, there are certainly civil rights issues involved in the various discussions concerning human sexuality; and

Whereas, the United Methodist Church has stood admirably with those seeking equal access to housing, hospital visitation rights, and civil protections for LGBTQ populations; and

Whereas, not all the issues surrounding current discussions of human sexuality involve civil rights; and

Whereas, in Scripture God stands for the rights of the marginalized and oppressed yet never healed or liberated anyone from being Asian, or European, or African, or Male, or Female; and

Whereas, God in Scripture DOES heal people from sexual brokenness and DOES teach repeatedly what is and what is not healthy human sexual expression; and

Whereas, the righteousness of defending the civil rights of all peoples compliments and does not conflict with the Righteous teaching and healing of God;

Therefore, be it resolved, that the Tennessee Annual Conference recognizes the difference between God's righteousness in calling for the Civil Rights of all peoples and the righteousness of God in healing and liberating people from all kinds of sins and brokenness.

RESOLUTION ON CONTEXTUALIZATION
TENNESSEE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Whereas, the term Contextualization has become a popular term in our Church cultural, used to explain the concept that varied cultural contexts call for the Gospel to be presented in various ways; and

Whereas, the Scriptural justification for contextualization is seemingly found in 1 Corinthians 9:22b, which reads, “I have become all things to all people, that I might by all means save some” (NRSV); and

Whereas, this justification for contextualization seems reasonable until placed in the light of 1 Corinthians 9:21b, which states “I am not free from God’s law but am under Christ’s law,” which makes clear that the cultural context does not and cannot override Biblical truth and morality; and

Whereas, the law and love of Christ does not therefore bend to the context, but rather, the context bends to the loving law of Christ Jesus;

Therefore, be it resolved, that the Tennessee Annual Conference values the Christ over the Context; celebrating God’s love which transforms cultural contexts by aligning them with Christ’s love, and not the other way around; and

Be it further resolved, that the Tennessee Annual Conference champions “Christ-textualization” as the way to change a culture and the world, not contextualization—when used as a justification to change the Gospel.

RESOLUTION ON “THE FALL MADE ME THIS WAY”
TENNESSEE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Whereas, a common phrase in the culture, “God made me this way” is Scripturally incorrect and is often used to define and defend behavior and thought patterns that are clearly not from God and do not reflect God’s character and nature; and

Whereas, Scripture makes clear that the Fall, not God, is to blame for the groaning that all of creation makes while awaiting the restoration to perfection coming at the end of the age; and

Whereas, the Fall away from God was not God’s idea or action, but rather the willful rebellion of Adam that differentiates original sin from God’s original righteousness; and

Whereas, Scripture teaches, and United Methodism affirms that all humanity is born in sin (fallen) and therefore stands in need of a Savior, Jesus by Name; and

Whereas, fallen behaviors and thought patterns clearly do not reflect the Glory of God, since God came in the Person of Jesus to rescue humanity from fallenness; and

Whereas, fallen behavior has been defined in Scripture to be anything that does not reflect the Person of Jesus, the second Adam, including but not limited to abuse, hate, theft, dishonesty, sexual behavior outside of monogamous female/male marriage, and alcohol and drug abuse;

Therefore, be it resolved, that the Tennessee Annual Conference recognize and celebrate the God who comes to rescue and rebirth the fallen and calls us to a transformed life that reflects in mirror likeness (2 Corinthians 3:16-18) the Glory of the Christ as opposed to the sullied existence fallen humanity inherited from Adam and Eve; and

Further, be it resolved, that the Tennessee Annual Conference encourages United Methodists everywhere to proclaim that “the Fall made me this way, but God is remaking me in God’s Way!”

RESOLUTION TO RECOGNIZE SCRIPTURES ON MARRIAGE, SEXUAL PROPRIETY, AND HOMOSEXUALITY AS BEING TRULY SCRIPTURAL

Whereas, the United Methodist Church recognizes Scripture as our “sufficient rule;” and

Whereas, the following fifty verses are universally recognized as coming from the Bible and are further recognized as Scripture,

Scriptures on Sexual Immorality	Scriptures specifically on Homosexuality	Scriptures on Marriage being Male/Female only
 Hebrews 13:1-5  1 Cor. 6:17-20  Mark 7:20-23  Matthew 15:10-20  Galatians 5:19  Ephesians 5:3-7  Titus 1:16  2 Cor. 12:21  Ephesians 5:8-9  Matthew 5:28  1 Thess.4:3-5  Colossians 3:5  1 Peter 2:11  1 Cor. 10:8  Acts 15:20  Ephesians 4:19  1 Cor. 5:11  Rev. 2:14  Rev. 2:20  Hebrews 12:16  Phil. 3:19  2 Peter 2:17-22  John 8:1-12 	 Romans 1:26-28  Jude 5-8  1 Timothy 1:8-11  1 Cor. 6:9-11  Lev. 18:22  Lev. 20:13  Genesis 19:1-13  Judges 19:22-23  Ezekiel 16:49-50  Revelation 21:27-28  Revelation 22:15  Genesis 9:20-24  Genesis 10:15-19 	 Mark 10:6-9  1 Cor. 7:2  Genesis 2:24  Matthew 19:4-6  Genesis 1:27  1 Peter 3:7  Proverbs 5:18-19  Proverbs 18:22  Proverbs 30:18-19  Ephesians 5:22-33  Deut. 24:5  Colossians 3:18 -19  1 Cor. 11:11-12  Proverbs 20:6-7  Hebrews 13:4

Therefore, be it resolved, that the Tennessee Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church acknowledges and celebrates that the list of Scriptures contained in the table of this resolution are indeed Scripture, and therefore authoritative and “useful for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness.” (2 Tim. 3:16b NRSV)

RESOLUTION FOR BIBLICAL ORTHODOXY
THE TENNESSEE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Whereas, individuals and groups have arisen repeatedly within Christendom challenging the veracity of the Scriptures, the humanity and/or divinity of Jesus, the Personhood of the Holy Spirit, or the reality of the Trinity; and

Whereas, while the presenting issues over the centuries have varied, the core Christological issue has not: Is Jesus Christ truly the fully-God, fully-human living Word of God as presented in the Scriptures of the Old and New Testament... or not? And,

Whereas, the presenting issue in the late third century championed by Arian and his many followers denied the full divinity of Christ; and

Whereas, the current presenting issue revolving around human sexuality essentially does the same thing, denying the assertion in John 1 that Jesus is the pre-existent, co-eternal, living Word of God by denying the veracity of what Jesus spoke both orally (the “red” letters) and through inspiration (the “black” letters) of Scripture; and

Whereas, the core issue then as now is the same—the denial that Jesus is God the Word and that the Word has authority within the Church—which undercuts the reality of a Triune God and contradicts the central teaching of the Nicene Creed; and

Whereas, the Bishops of the early church repeatedly showed the courage to confront heresies and incorrect or misguided teachings in defense of the authority of the Word as contained in the Scriptures despite pressure from “really nice folks” within and without the Church who were pressuring for change that aligned with the prevailing attitudes in the culture; and

Whereas, the Bishops in the early Church realized that there was no “holy center” or middle ground between Arianism and Homousian belief; and

Whereas, Bishops and leaders of the modern church should likewise realize the incongruency between sexoualikios protimisi opos kai theos (sexual preference as god) and Homousian (One God in three Persons) belief; and

Whereas, the United Methodist Church desperately needs leaders of equal courage in this day to confront both the presenting and the core issues threatening the very life of the Church;

Therefore, be it resolved, that the Tennessee Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church calls for our Bishops to exhibit the same courage as their early Church counterparts to defend the Authority of the Word, the Reality of the Trinity, and the supremacy of orthodox Christianity considering the onslaught of antithetical teaching and thought in our time.

RESOLUTION TO SUPPORT THE EPISTLE OF JUDE
TENNESSEE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Whereas, The United Methodist Church recognizes the Epistle of Jude as one of the 66 Canonical books of the Bible; and

Whereas, Jude, who identifies himself as brother to James (and therefore likely the half-brother of Jesus) writes, Beloved, while eagerly preparing to write to you about the salvation we share, I find it necessary to write and appeal to you to contend for the faith that was once for all entrusted to the saints. For certain intruders have stolen in among you, people who long ago were designated for this condemnation as ungodly, who pervert the grace of our God into licentiousness and deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ (Jude 3-4, NRSV); and

Whereas, the “licentiousness” Jude writes about is identified as sexual immorality and the pursuit of unnatural lust in the same fashion as Sodom and Gomorrah (vs 7); and

Whereas, those who teach and promote this licentiousness, who “pervert the grace of our God,” are described as “blemishes on our love feasts,” (vs.12) “grumblers and malcontents (who) indulge their own lusts, (who are) bombastic in speech, flattering people to their own advantage (vs 16); and

Whereas, the Apostles themselves prophesied that, “In the last time there will be scoffers, indulging in their own ungodly lusts. It is these worldly people, devoid of the Spirit, who are causing division” (vs.18-19); and

Whereas, the Epistle of Jude was written TO the true Church to warn ABOUT false teaching and teachers whose sexual teaching and behaviors were bringing division and destruction upon Christ’s Body; and

Whereas, The People called Methodist (until recently) understood this letter to be written TO them rather than ABOUT them;

Therefore, be it resolved, that the Tennessee Annual Conference recognizes the Epistle of Jude to be Scriptural truth and as such a call to contend for the faith that was once for all entrusted to the saints; a warning to recognize false teachers who promote sexual licentiousness (license to sin), and cause division, and a warning about false teaching that leads to the promotion of sexual immorality, grumbling, and bombastic speech; and

Be it further resolved, that the Tennessee Annual Conference will have mercy on some who are wavering; save others by snatching them out of the fire; and have mercy on still others with fear, hating even the tunic (stole) defiled by their bodies (vs 22-23, NRSV).

RESOLUTION TO RECOGNIZE LOVE'S DEFINITION OF LOVE
TENNESSEE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Whereas, The United Methodist Church recognizes the authority of all Scripture as presented in the Old and New Testaments; and

Whereas, 1 John 4:8 declares that Whoever does not love does not know God, because God is love; and

Whereas, God, who is Love, has both defined and displayed in the fully human/fully divine Person of Jesus Christ, God the Word, what Love is and what Love is not; and

Whereas, the God of Love has declared in at least 8 Scriptures that heavy drinking is not loving or lovely, a truth that has historically led United Methodists to encourage abstinence and moderation concerning alcohol consumption; and

Whereas, the God of Love has declared in at least 21 Scriptures that gluttony is neither loving nor lovely, and that the United Methodist Church recognizes this truth in terms of lay and clergy health, calling all to a healthy lifestyle and responsible eating and food production habits; and

Whereas, the God of Love has declared in at least 50 Scriptures that sexual immorality of all types—with specific attention to homosexuality, adultery, fornication, pornography, and bestiality—are not loving or lovely, and further has declared that marital love can only be expressed between one man/one woman; and

Whereas, United Methodists believe that ALL Scripture is God-breathed (2 Timothy 3:16) and therefore just 1 Scripture would be enough to define and boundary Love, much less 8 or 21 or 50;

Therefore, be it resolved, that the Tennessee Annual Conference recognizes that the God who IS Love is “the same yesterday, today, and forever” (Hebrews 13:8) and therefore defines forever and best what love is and what love is not; and

Further be it resolved, that the God of Love came in love and as Love in the Person of Jesus Christ—not to condemn the loveless in their lovelessness—but rather to set the loveless (all humanity, apart from Jesus!) free to be healed from lovelessness—be it alcoholism, gluttony, lying, stealing, hate, racism, sexism, or sexual brokenness—by Love Himself.

Leland T. Carden, Resolution Relating for Creating an Additional Source of Funding for the Preservation of Closed Church and Conference Related Records

Submitted by the Tennessee Conference Commission on Archives and History (TNCAH)
to the 2018 Session of the Tennessee Annual Conference
Meeting at Brentwood UMC, June 13-15, 2018

RESOLUTION

Whereas, The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church mandates that "In each annual conference there shall be a conference commission on archives and history; whose primary duty shall be to collect, preserve, and make accessible the historically significant records of the conference and its agencies, including data relating to the origin and history of the conference and its antecedents; and to assist local churches in preserving their records, compiling their histories and celebrating their heritage; and, to provide for the permanent safekeeping of the historical records (and artifacts) of all abandoned or discontinued churches in the bounds of the annual conference and its antecedents." (Para. 641, page 485); and

Whereas, the TNCAH budget funded through the conference apportionments for retaining, organizing, and preserving such records and materials of the Annual Conference does not adequately fund the work mandated by The Book of Discipline. This is due to the ever increasing work-load of the commission brought about with the organization and/or closure of every church, as well as with the ordination of every new clergyperson, and licensing of every new local pastor. In addition, funding for basic on-going expenses such as rent and supplies will also continue to rise as time goes by.

Whereas, present funding levels enable the TNCAH to (more or less) stay current on records processing, they do not make it possible to catch up the significant backlog of work that accumulates as materials from churches, district, and conference offices are added to the archives. Nor does it provide the funding needed to adequately research and document the profound history of the Conferences, their clergy and churches, and their impact on both the state and the church.

Therefore, may it be resolved that, to supplement the annual budget obtained thru the conference apportionments, the Tennessee Conference Commission on Archives and History (TNCAH) receive 5% of the proceeds received from the sale price of each closed church property, as a budgetary supplement designated for the purchase of supplies and labor necessary to process the records of the closed church(es), and the expense of collecting, processing, and permanently housing them.

Resolution

Whereas: The bishop of the Tennessee Conference, speaking out of the Commission on the Way Forward on 15 March, 2018 invited us to pray for three groups of people, the second group being described as follows: “The faithful LGBTQ person who has also been a part of the UMC in every way, from baptism to youth group to worship and financial giving to leadership. Their fear: in the end, they do not want to feel that the church never accepted them.” The fallacy of this description falls upon the second word of the statement, “faithful”. If a person can be described as LGB, that is as being Lesbian, or Gay, or Bi-sexual; it is indicative that they have not been faithful to the scriptures in God's Word, the Holy Bible. (1 Corinthians 6:9 speaks about unjust people, “Those who are sexually immoral, those who worship false gods, adulterers, both participants in same-sex intercourse, thieves, the greedy, drunks, abusive people, and swindlers won't inherit God's kingdom.” CEB). For each sin listed here, God has given us a choice, yield or abstain; the church would not condone any of these other sins, neither should we condone same-sex intercourse.

Whereas: Jesus, the Resurrected Christ, speaking to his disciples in Luke 24:47 (KJ) did ask them to preach repentance and remission of sins to all the world, repentance being defined as turning away from sin and resolving to reform one's life and remission being defined as asking some one to refrain from enforcing a penalty.

Whereas some contend that an all loving God will not allow people to go to hell. Yet John, speaking of Jesus in Luke 3:17 says, “The shovel he uses to sift the wheat from the husks is in his hands. He will clean out his threshing area and bring the wheat into his barn. But he will burn the husks with a fire that can't be put out.” I have felt the pain of hearing that Duane, my high school class mate, later embraced the homosexual life style and died at an early age from AIDS. There is more pain from knowing that my cousin posted a face book photo of a parade banner saying, “Gay but Christian”. I contend that if we really love the homosexuals, we will tell them what the Bible says about their eternal disposition. If the homosexuals want to be Christians, they must disavow their old life style so they can accept the transforming grace that Jesus offers them, just as he loved and invited the rich man (Mark 10:22), but the man went away sadly because he was unwilling to give up his wealthy life style.

Whereas some United Methodist ministers are reluctant to use parts of the scriptures contained in the Holy Bible, but Luke 9:26 states, “Whoever is ashamed of me and my words, the Human One will be ashamed of that person when he comes in his glory and in the glory of the Father and of the holy angles.” (CEB)

Whereas some United Methodist lay persons are putting their own souls at risk by supporting the practice of same-sex marriage thus ignoring many passages of the scriptures that condemn homosexuality. See Luke 17:1-4 where Jesus said to his disciples, “Things that cause people to trip and fall into sin must happen, but how terrible it is for the person through whom they happen. 2. It would be better for them to be thrown into a lake with a large stone hung around their neck than to cause one of these little ones to trip and fall into sin. 3. Watch yourselves! If your brother or sister sins, warn them to stop. If they change their hearts and lives, forgive them. 4. Even if some one sins against you seven times in one day and returns to you seven times and says, 'I am changing my ways,' you must forgive that person.” See also, James 5:19-20. “Brethen, if any or you do err from the truth, and one convert him; Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way, shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins.” (KJ)

Resolution:

Be it resolved, therefore, that United Methodist Christians are a Bible believing people not willing to forsake a single Word of God's Bible. We will not lie (Psalms 119:29 “Remove from me the way of lying and grant me thy law graciously. 30. I have chosen the way of truth: thy judgments have I laid before me.” KJ) to those who call themselves homosexuals but will convey to them what the scriptures say about those who practice their lifestyle and the eternal condemnation that they can expect on the day that our Lord, Jesus Christ judges all of us unless we have repented of our sins and begged for the mercy that Jesus has offered to us through His sacrifice on the cross.

Clergy and Laity of the United Methodist church, shall use the Scriptures without restraint in their interactions with all persons, considering it to be “love speech” and to speak with courageous compassion in order to fulfill the mandate of the great commission in Matthew 28:19 “Therefore, go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and the Holy Spirit, teaching them to obey everything that I've commanded you.” (CEB) We invite homosexuals to join us as we would invite any sinner, asking them to renounce their old way of life and go forth in newness of life, accepting the transforming grace and love of Christ Jesus. Psalms 119:101 “I have refrained my feet from every evil way, that I might keep thy word.”

4. Open dialogue among people of faith must continue but we are convicted that we must also act, and
5. Our children and school workers are precious in the eyes of God and cherished in our hearts as gifts from God, and
6. It is our responsibility as Christian people and as citizens of the country to guide and protect children and their teachers and school workers while on the job; and
7. We recognize that there are many contributing factors which may contribute to such atrocities and that there is no single measure that is "the" answer; and
8. We, as thoughtful guardians of their well-being, should be actively engaged in providing safe and peaceful environments in which our students and school workers may thrive and flourish; and
9. We recognize that armed force by law-enforcement officers to stop a school shooter, while regrettable, may sometimes be necessary, and
10. Presently, a minority of Tennessee schools have a School Resource Officer assigned; and
11. Typically, only one SRO is on duty in schools that have them; and
12. A high number of our schools are too large for a single SRO officer to secure effectively; and
13. We note that the School Safety Act of 2018 is still pending in the Tennessee legislature at the time of submission of this resolution to the Conference:

Therefore, be it resolved by the 2018 Tennessee Annual Conference that:

1. We support enactment by the Tennessee legislature to enable local school districts to hire off-duty, though still actively serving, law-enforcement officers as additional armed security officers on school campuses.
2. Members of the Tennessee Conference urge their own legislators to enact such legislation; and
3. The secretary of the Annual Conference shall submit a copy of this resolution to the governor of the state, the leader of each political party of the state senate and house, to the commissioner of the Department of Education, and to the commissioner of the state Department of Safety & Homeland Security.

1. The students, faculties and staffs of the nation's schools are still killed, injured, or traumatized by persons shooting them on campuses with firearms, and
2. The trauma to the victims, their families and their communities endures for many years, and
3. People of good will on different sides of the theological and political spectrum are united that these shootings must end, and

8. We, as thoughtful guardians of their well-being, should be actively engaged in providing safe and peaceful environments in which our students and school workers may thrive and flourish; and
9. Having observed that all school shootings result in mass movements of students attempting to hide or escape, and
10. Teachers have been single-focused on removing their students from the area of danger, whether by flight or barricade, and
11. We have already filled teachers' requirements with work that usually takes enormous amounts of time other than school hours, and
12. Proficiency with a firearm in lethal environments, especially in crowds and high uncertainty and high mobility, is extremely difficult and requires very high levels of ongoing live-fire practice; and
13. We do not believe it is realistic to think that over time that school staff or teachers will maintain proficiency:

Therefore, be it resolved by the 2018 Tennessee Annual Conference that:

1. We urge members of the Tennessee Conference of the UMC to oppose any legislation by the Tennessee legislature that either requires or authorizes the arming of teachers or staffs of school with firearms; and
2. Should such legislation become law, we urge local school districts not to authorize staff or faculty to be armed on school grounds.

Therefore, be it resolved by the 2018 Tennessee Annual Conference that:

1. We call upon the Tennessee legislature to enact, and the governor to sign into law, measures commonly referred to as Gun Violence Restraining Orders that permit, by court order, temporary seizure of firearms from persons referred to law enforcement by immediate family members; and
2. Referrals must specify how the subject person is a potential threat to his/her own or others' safety; and
3. Any statute enacting Gun Violence Restraining Orders must include protection of due process, including the right of the person concerned to appeal in less than 30 days of the order being issued, in person before the judge who ordered the seizure.

8. We, as thoughtful guardians of their well-being, should be actively engaged in providing safe and peaceful environments in which our students and school workers may thrive and flourish:

Therefore, be it resolved by the 2018 Tennessee Annual Conference that we urge:

1. Members of the Tennessee Conference who are qualified to assess the physical safety and construction safety of school buildings and grounds, offer to do so with a focus on inhibiting the effectiveness of gunfire directed against persons on the campus, and
2. Members of the Tennessee Conference, in coordination with local school and civil officials, actively engage in helping resource and provision local-initiative improvements to that end, such as (examples):
  - a. Installation of high-impact-resistant windows to inhibit or prevent penetration by gunfire,
  - b. "Hardening" walls of classrooms to inhibit or prevent penetration by gunfire,
  - c. Systems to monitor in real time who is entering school buildings and where,
  - d. Locking or blocking mechanisms on classroom doors that are resistant to disabling by gunfire, and
3. That future construction of schools incorporate architectural features designed to minimize the ability of a shooter to gain access to attack school grounds or succeed if he does, including protective features against gunfire.
4. The secretary of the Annual Conference shall submit a copy of this resolution to the governor of the state, the commissioner of the Department of Education, and to the commissioner of the state Department of Safety & Homeland Security.

8. We, as thoughtful guardians of their well-being, should be actively engaged in providing safe and peaceful environments in which our students and school workers may thrive and flourish; and
9. Semi-automatic firearms have been used in every school mass shooting in recent decades; and
10. Persons age 18 and older may legally buy semi-automatic rifles from a licensed dealer or take possession of them from a private seller or transferor; and
11. Persons age 18-20 may not legally receive handguns from licensed dealers but may legally take possession of handguns from a private seller or transferor:

Therefore, be it resolved by the 2018 Tennessee Annual Conference that we urge:

1. The Tennessee legislature to enact, and the governor sign into law, that ownership of semi-automatic rifles or semi-automatic pistols may not lawfully be transferred to any person of the state who has not attained his or her twenty-first birthday; and
2. US Representatives and Senators of the state introduce legislation in Congress to the same effect nationally; and

CHAPTER 7

MEMOIRS

We celebrate the lives of individuals who are saints!

Some of them, with us, are a part of the whole body of living Christian believers, and others who have finished their lives here on earth are a part of the church triumphant! Some have touched us compassionately so we could experience the love of the Lord while others have reminded us to be faithful and avoid drifting into life away from God.

They have all shaken our being—all have been faithful examples of lives of wholeness, working for justice.

O God of both the living and the dead...

... who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Lord, you have examined me.
You know me.
You know when I sit down and when I stand up.
Even from far away, you comprehend my plans.
You study my traveling and resting.
You are thoroughly familiar with all my ways.
There isn't a word on my tongue, Lord,
that you don't already know completely.
You surround me—front and back.
You put your hand on me.
That kind of knowledge is too much for me;
it's so high above me that I can't fathom it.

Where could I go to get away from your spirit?
Where could I go to escape your presence?
If I went up to heaven, you would be there.
If I went down to the grave, you would be there too!
If I could fly on the wings of dawn, stopping to rest only on the far side of the ocean—
even there your hand would guide me;
even there your strong hand would hold me tight!

If I said, "The darkness will definitely hide me;
the light will become night around me," even then the darkness isn't too dark for you!
Nighttime would shine bright as day, because darkness is the same as light to you!

John W. Arnold, Jr.

January 8, 1960–September 27, 2017

Rev. John W. Arnold Jr. was born in Winchester, Tennessee, to the late John William Arnold, Sr. and Jane Holland Arnold. He graduated from Franklin County High School in 1978. In 1984 he received his bachelor's degree in Music Therapy from Tennessee Technological University. During his time at Tennessee Tech, he toured the country as part of the renowned Tennessee Tech Tuba Ensemble. Soon after graduating from Tennessee Tech, John began to work for The United Methodist Church. He received his Master of Divinity Degree from Asbury University in 1995 and became an elder in The United Methodist Church in 1997. John then began a life of service at several Methodist congregations in Tennessee. As he stated near the end of his life:

"I also want to express my deepest gratitude to the churches I was honored to pastor; Granville UMC, Currys Chapel UMC, Maggert UMC, Jack Apple UMC, Ebenezer UMC, Greenbrier UMC, Fellowship UMC, Gallatin UMC, and Lafayette UMC. Each church has blessed my life in amazing and uncountable ways. I was nurtured at an early age by my home church, Winchester First UMC. Thank you for all the ways you impacted my life."

He spent many years building the Youth Ministry for Beersheba Springs UM Camp. It brought him great joy to give youth spiritual guidance and watch them flourish. He was deeply committed in foreign missions. From 2004 to 2009 he participated in mission trips to Guatemala VIM where he served by building block homes, mixing cement by hand, and building a school for the native people. His passion there was Bible School for the children who called him Pap Grande! Besides the joy he found in Christian service and music, John enjoyed spending time watching science fiction movies, playing chess, studying Civil War history, and studying quantum physics.

John passed away from a two-year battle with acute myeloid leukemia (AML) on September 27, 2017. During this time of battling his illness, John was a light of encouragement, praying for his caregivers and visitors. Knowing he was facing a situation that would ultimately take his earthly life he provided others with encouragement and tried to brighten their day in some small way.

During visits his friends and colleagues came to comfort and encourage John. In all situations the visitor was the one that left comforted and encouraged. John did not let his situation or circumstance prevent him from pursuing the great commission, "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age." – Matthew 28: 19-20.

While his illness took him out of the pulpit, John continued to preach the love and saving grace of Jesus. He prayed for God's mercy and grace as others faced heartache and challenges. To honor and acknowledge Jesus's sacrifice on the cross he invited visitors to participate in Holy Communion. John produced video sermons focusing on the comfort Christians have while facing unbearable circumstances. In the last months of his life he was baptizing new believers. He truly modeled the servanthood of Jesus. Often putting others before himself, even while experiencing pain during the darkest, deepest pit of his ordeal.

John loved people and loved Jesus. John's life was passionately devoted to ensuring the people that he loved knew about the gift of salvation provided by Jesus's unconditional love. His final days were spent in pursuit of this passion.

"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith." – 2 Timothy 4:7

William Lewis Barnes

July 17, 1931–August 21, 2017

“Mine is a life built on a belief that a Grace-Creator is working to heal a fallen and broken creation and has delegated much of that healing responsibility to human beings.” (To Love a City by Reverend Bill Barnes, 2004)

Reverend Bill Barnes was born in Nashville, Tennessee, on July 17, 1931. He grew up in Nashville, went to school there, and was deeply influenced by the experiences of urban life. In his book, To Love a City, Bill notes two of the powerful experiences which helped shape the person he would become. One was poverty caused by his parents’ failing health which gave him great empathy for the poor. Another happened when he was 8 years old and he saw a trolley driver slap a black woman because she did not quickly yield her seat to a white person. That day he heard a voice that said, “This is wrong! Resist it!” Much of his ministry was focused on what he called the “twin engines of poverty and race.”

Bill graduated from West High School and Vanderbilt University. Bill spent three years in the Army, stationed outside Paris, France, and then attended Yale Divinity School, graduating in 1959.

Bill was married to Brenda, whom he adored. And he could talk extensively about his three children, Tim, Amy, and Elizabeth and his grandchildren, Matthew, Vincent, and Andrew. He is also survived by many, many friends and colleagues, who have been inspired by him to continue the healing responsibility of a broken creation—a responsibility that he modeled so well.

Bill served only three churches in his long career: Huntland Circuit and Carroll Street, and he was the founding pastor of Edgehill UMC in Nashville. He also taught courses at Scarritt College for several years. When asked why he stayed at Edgehill for 30 years, Bill would answer something like this, “I loved Edgehill and I couldn’t imagine being anywhere else, but at some point I’m pretty sure I became unappointable, which means I must have been doing something right.”

Bill had an extensive collection of turtles to remind him of one of his favorite quotes, “Behold the turtle! He makes progress when he sticks his neck out.” (James Bryant Conant) Bill was known for sticking his neck out, especially if it meant advocating for the poor and those who were pushed to the margins, for racial equality, for social justice issues, and for the full inclusion of LGBTQ persons in the life of the church. (Bill led Edgehill to become the first reconciling congregation in the Southeastern Jurisdiction.)

He was best known as an unrelenting advocate for affordable housing in Nashville. The Metropolitan Nashville Barnes Affordable Housing Fund is named in his honor. Bill’s life fulfilled the baptismal vows “to resist evil, injustice and oppression in whatever forms they present themselves.”

Bill served on countless boards and agencies, both in the city of Nashville and in the Tennessee Conference. He chaired Metro Social Services, Clergy United for Integrated Education, Nashville Association of Rabbis, Priests and Ministers, to name a few. In retirement he worked with Tying Nashville Together and the Tennessee Conference Shalom Zone program. He continued his work and advocacy with Project Return, NOAH and the O.N.E./Barnes Scholarship Fund, providing scholarships for young adults from the Edgehill community.

Though Bill was not one to discuss awards, he won many throughout his life including the 2016 Human Relations Award, the Champion Award (for work with persons without permanent housing), and the 2012 Yale Divinity Alumni Award for Distinction in Congregational Ministry.

In 2017, the Tennessee House of Representatives passed a resolution to honor and commend Bill “for his visionary service in helping establish an affordable housing trust fund for Nashville, salute his career as a minister, civil rights advocate, and champion of the poor and marginalized.”

Bill died on August 21, 2017, moments before the city of Nashville fell into complete darkness because of a total eclipse. It seemed symbolic to those of us who knew and loved Bill, but the darkness did not last and will not last because many of us will continue to fight the good fight and to carry on the ministries of justice modeled by Bill’s life.

Bill’s life was celebrated at Belmont United Methodist Church on September 2, 2017, and the church was filled with people, celebratory music, and overflowing grace.

Rosemary Jane Clark Bird

December 7, 1946–May 11, 2018

Rosemary Jane Clark Bird was born in Muskegon, Michigan, on December 7, 1946, to the Rev. Burdette Sanford Clark and Alice Winifred Mary Green Clark. She and her sister, Adelle Cornelia Clark Gunn, spent their growing up years at various Methodist churches in the Michigan and East New York conferences as their parents served many churches there as pastor and church organist.

Rosemary was married to Wayne Gunther from 1966 through 1972. After a difficult divorce, she and her son, Greg Gunther, returned to be with her parents who were serving their last active pastorate at Jefferson Avenue UMC in Detroit, Michigan. During this time, Rosemary worked for Cokesbury and began making plans to finish her education at Scarritt College in Nashville. In 1976, she graduated from Scarritt with a master’s degree in Christian education.

As her parents had since retired to St. Petersburg, Florida, she sought and found a full-time position as a director of Christian education at Seminole UMC in Seminole, Florida, a suburb of St. Petersburg. From 1977-1980 she served at Seminole, and from 1980-1984 she served at Christ UMC in downtown St. Petersburg.

In the fall of 1984, Rosemary sought a position at McKendree UMC in Nashville, Tennessee. She became the director of Christian education at McKendree and served there through the middle of 1987. Also, during this time, she was approved as a diaconal minister in the Tennessee Conference of The United Methodist Church.

As her time at McKendree came to a close, she met and soon after married Kenneth M. Bird, Jr. It was at this point that she effectively retired from full-time church work. Her service to the church was far from over, however. Upon settling in Hermitage, Tennessee, she began serving as a layperson at Dodson Chapel UMC from 1987-1994, also working as a teacher and assistant in the daycare center housed in the church.

In the fall of 1994, as her son Greg graduated from college and began his career as a public-school music educator, she relocated to Dickson, Tennessee, with her husband. They eventually settled in Lyles, Tennessee, where she became active in the Bon Aqua UMC and then Nickell Memorial UMC (later renamed East Hickman UMC). She was very active in the Christian education program at East Hickman UMC and she was a substitute preacher many times there.

Her deep and abiding faith and her love for The United Methodist Church were the hallmarks of her years of varied service to the Church. A favorite symbol of hers was the butterfly which was a metaphor for Christ's resurrection from the dead to new life.

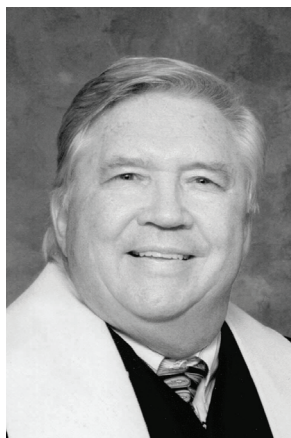

During the years following her active service, she enjoyed many hobbies such as crocheting, was able to enjoy several cruises, and spent time with her beloved grandchildren. Rosemary passed away unexpectedly at her home in Lyles on May 11, 2018. Her loving spirit and servant's heart will be sorely missed by her family and the faith community of East Hickman UMC.

Lovingly submitted by her son, Greg

Thomas H. Cloyd

March 10, 1930–June 29, 2017

Thomas H. Cloyd was born in Donelson, Tennessee, on March 10, 1930, to Sabra Sue and Coen C. Cloyd. He received all of his early schooling in Donelson where he was very active in all sports, especially football. After graduating, he went on to play football at Vanderbilt and later at Tennessee Tech. Tom also served a short stint in the Marines.

While at Tech he met his soul mate, Betty Shannon, and they married during spring break of Tom's senior year. When Tom received his degree, they headed to Perkins School of Theology at SMU in Dallas. Tom's little Ford was loaded with all their worldly possessions as they excitedly began this new venture. While at Perkins, Tom became interested in missions and on hearing Bishop Newell Booth from the Congo speak about the need there, he felt called to go as a missionary.

The Lord opened many doors for the couple and after a year of preparation at Scarritt College and a year in Belgium studying French, the Cloyds arrived in the Congo in 1957. Tom was assigned as director of the Methodist Mission schools in Elizabethville (now Lubumbashi) and as director of youth ministries. He supervised the building of one gymnasium and helped construct several outdoor basketball courts. His love of sports was apparent as he organized many basketball teams and taught youth the skills of the game. The Congo youth gave him the nickname of Bwana Kucheza from the Swahili word "to play". The name suited him well!

After the Cloyds came home on furlough, Tom worked for the Board of Missions in New York and then accepted the position on the staff of Lakewood United Methodist Church in Cleveland, Ohio, the church that had sponsored the Cloyds while they were in Africa. Following that, Tom became the superintendent of the Navajo Methodist School in Farmington, New Mexico. The Cloyds set out with all their belongings once again—this time with their children Mark, Cindy, and Tim. They spent several wonderful years in New Mexico and while they were there, they added a fourth child, Suzanne. Tom enjoyed the Southwest and loved and appreciated his students, some of whom have kept up with the Cloyds throughout the years.

Before leaving the Southwest, Tom received the Ph.D. degree in cross-cultural education from the University of New Mexico. He had previously received a MDiv. degree from Perkins School of Theology and a MA from Scarritt College. After returning to the Tennessee Conference in 1973, Tom served as minister of several churches: McKendree, Springfield, Belle Meade and, after he retired, Seay Hubbard. He also served as director of the Conference Council on Ministries and as district superintendent of the Cumberland District.

Tom had a great capacity to love everyone, regardless of their race, ethnicity, status, or religion. His family meant so much to him—especially his wife Betty and their children and beloved grandchildren. He also loved each of the churches he served and was grateful for the many loving relationships that were formed. He cherished his many friends—both church members and colleagues in ministry—and considered his friends and family to be his greatest treasure.

Tom was pre-deceased by his parents, his sister Bettye Sue Cloyd Dunlap, and his brother Dr. James B. Cloyd. He is survived by Betty, his wife of 65 years, sons Thomas Mark Cloyd (Teresse), Dr. James Timothy Cloyd (Wendy); daughters Cynthia Cloyd (Jerry Keller) and Rev. Suzanne Cloyd Hultman (Dr. Scott) and seven grandchildren: Logan Scott, Samuel and Thomas Cloyd; Maggie Chrietzberg; and Chloe, Hank, and Timothy Hultman. He is also survived by many beloved nieces, nephews, and cousins.

After retiring with 46-plus years of challenging and varied ministry—his life having stretched from the beautiful lush green Africa, to the colorful, exquisite deserts of New Mexico to the beloved landscape of his Tennessee home—Tom is now at rest.

However, it is possible that he might be gathering some friends to play a little touch football in his new heavenly home. We can see Tom running the ball—without the tremors that had bothered him all his adult life, without pain in his knees and without weakness—headed with a smile on his face for the goal line.

Or it's possible he has gathered some youth—taken to their heavenly home in the prime of their life—and organized them to do some mission project in the far reaches of heaven. Or it is possible that—although Tom was not known for his singing, he loved the wonderful hymns of our faith—maybe he has found a heavenly choir singing two of his favorite hymns “Precious Lord Take My Hand” and “His Eye Is on the Sparrow.” Whatever he is doing, we are sure he is rejoicing to be at home with his Savior and although we miss him terribly, we look forward to the time when we will be together again.

There was a memorial service held for Tom at Christ United Methodist Church in Chapel Hill, North Carolina, on July 5, 2017, and at Belle Meade United Methodist Church in Nashville on July 29, 2017.

Lovingly shared by Tom's wife, Betty, and children, Timothy and Suzanne

Willard L. Dalrymple

February 11, 1930–September 26, 2017

Willard Dalrymple was born in Mulvane, Kansas, on February 11, 1930. He was the son of the late Willard Elvin Dalrymple and Hazel Magnuson. He was married to Jeanette Evans Dalrymple, who preceded him in death. They have two children, Belinda and Stanley. He is also survived by two sisters, Alene Taylor and Linda Chapman, five grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren.

Willard was an Air Force veteran, serving in the Korean Conflict. He worked in maintenance with Pet Milk and Weyerhaeuser for 41 years and served as pastor to several United Methodist churches in the Louisville and Tennessee Conferences. Among the charges he served were Rochester Circuit, Franklin Circuit, Morgantown Circuit, and Hardyville Circuit in the Louisville Conference. Beginning in 1985, Willard served as pastor of the Cairo-Castalian Springs Circuit, the Hartsville Circuit, and the Owens Chapel-Cedar Grove Charge in the Tennessee Conference until his retirement in 1998.

Willard died on September 26, 2018, and is buried in Huntsville Cemetery in Butler County, Kentucky.

Luke Dunn

December 23, 1929–March 19, 2018

Luke Dunn was a product of Monterey, Tennessee. Born December 23, 1929, he was the last boy of the Dunn children army. The boys included Robert (known to all as Gramp), George, Tom, Jack, Charlie, and Luke, and three girls, his younger sister, Elaine, and his two older sisters, Mary and Edith (known to all as Sis). Luke's birth certificate says "No Name" Dunn—no wonder! Luke's father, Robert Dunn, was a railroad engineer, and his mother, Ruth, cared for the family and somehow found time to grow beautiful roses in their Monterey yard. During World War II, Ruth was a "five star" mother. All five older brothers were already serving, so Luke did not have to go to war. Miraculously, all five returned.

Martin College, as it was known then, also had a profound impact on Luke's life. In addition to beginning his education, it was at Martin that he met the love of his life, Ann Ball. They had a small wedding at Ann's family home on Thanksgiving Day in 1952. Luke and Ann both loved and supported Martin throughout their lives and kept up with all the great things happening there. It always held a special place in their hearts.

Luke's ministry began in 1951—as did so many Methodist pastors—on a circuit, in Livingston, Tennessee. A few years later, during his appointment in Linden, he had a brief teaching career in Flatwoods, Tennessee, because as he told it, no one else would do it. He became a fully ordained member of the Methodist Church in 1958, four years after the birth of his first child, Betty Lee, and the same year his second child, Lu-Ann, was born. The last child, Nick, was born while Luke was an associate at Belmont UMC, in 1964. The parsonage at Belmont was the one that caught fire one winter night. He often teased Ann that she was more worried about getting her antique couch out of the house than the kids. The firemen had it all under control very quickly and neither the kids nor the couch were damaged in the least.

He took very seriously his vow at ordination that he would go where he was sent. He served twice in Nashville, then throughout the Tennessee Conference, retiring as a district superintendent of the Clarksville district. In the mid-1990s, Luke and Ann exchanged churches with a minister from Huddersfield, in northern England. They traveled around England while there and always loved being in the homeland of John Wesley. At all of his appointments, he shared his stories of Monterey and his family, all told with love and kindness. He also always loved a good joke. One he told: A rabbi, a priest, and a Methodist minister were asked when life begins. The rabbi said, "At birth." The priest answered, "At conception." The Methodist minister said, "When the kids are grown and the dog dies."

As a family, Luke and Ann took many road trips packed in an unairconditioned car with three kids, Twags (the Airedale), and hauling a pop-up trailer. Luke always loved the beach, so summers always included a trip to the beach. During one thunderous, summer storm, the camper awning was tossed by the wind, so he thought he should stake it back down. While the family watched, one loud crash of thunder seemed to hit him. Fortunately, it was just a godly message telling him to stop holding a metal pipe in a storm. Joyous family summer trips included the World's Fair in San Antonio as well as Texas, Washington, D.C., the Outer Banks of North Carolina, and many Florida beaches.

While serving the Church in Crossville, Luke and Ann decided to build a little cabin in the woods of East Tennessee. Luke, along with Nick, sons-in-law David Fergus and Ned Farrar, and several of Luke's brothers, began putting together a cabin kit one hot summer. Ann and the rest of the family spent many hours painting, caulking, and making the cabin a home. It took several years to make it habitable and Ann fretted the entire time that someone would get hurt. Fortunately, all came through unscathed. The whole family shared many hours there listening to the crickets and enjoying the cool mountain breeze. Friends are always welcome there.

Luke retired from the ministry in 1994. By 1995, Luke and Ann had five grandchildren, Laura and Lee Fergus (children of Betty Lee and David Fergus), Rachel and Byron Farrar (children of Lu-Ann and Ned Farrar) and Ally Dunn (child of Nick and Renee Dunn). All the grandchildren remember happy Christmases at Mimi and Pop's house.

As health challenges came along, Luke and Ann took good care of each other. They celebrated 60 years of a loving life together, until Ann's death in 2013. Inside their wedding rings, one is inscribed, "Each for the other," and the other ring says, "Both for God." The family is so thankful to have been raised in a home of such loving parents and faithful servants of God. They will be missed.

Lovingly shared by Lu-Ann Dunn Farrar, Luke's daughter

Karen Eades

February 26, 1942–December 23, 2017

A February morning in 1942 delivered a bright and sunny day as well as the birth of a strawberry blonde Birmingham Belle. I recall an old photo taken of her lying in a peach basket when she was less than a month old. What a precious sight!

She studied dance as a child, yet her teenage and college years proved to be a time where her love of dance was put into action almost nightly! Her beloved cousin, Wayne, had this to say:

“Karen Sue Killian was my most favorite cousin. She was always so nice and cheerful, always smiling. She had so many friends at her house as we were growing up; everyone loved to be around her. She was a great dancer. In fact, she and I performed on the stage of the Alabama Theater at the age of five. Well actually, she was performing; I was her prop! We attended Auburn University together where she was a great student. We both loved to ‘bop’ and danced together every chance we got.”

It appears that her cousin Wayne knew her well!

My mother also discovered a penchant for doing hair. So much so that she withdrew from Auburn, went to cosmetology school, and opened her own beauty shop. She placed first in several state hair competitions and after our family moved in the early 1980s, she became an instructor and administrator at Charles Academy in Mobile, Alabama.

Mom was encouraging to me and showed such interest in my endeavors. I recall taking piano lessons and how she’d sit quietly, patiently listening as I practiced daily in the den.

She remained patient and calm at times when most anyone else would have lost their head. She had a gentle way about her that helped me feel safe.

Mom was interested in others. She was selfless, never petty, never cruel. She was genuine. As she grew in her Christian life, and as the spouse of a pastor, she had a special way of encouraging others to visit the church. She did so in a way that was as personal and special...similar to if she had invited you over for lunch at her house. She was sincere.

She also was cute. I lived with her the last couple of years before she passed and she and I had such fun being cute toward one another. She loved jelly beans and since she had to watch her sugar intake, she asked if I would sorta hover above her to make sure she did not eat too many. I got tickled and agreed, so each night brought four kisses, one hug, and the doling and counting out of 16 baby jelly beans for her! She looked over one night and said, “This is the best part of the day.”

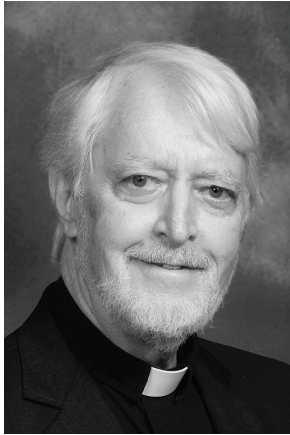

Karen was preceded in death by her parents, Edgar Landers Killiam, Jr., and Helen Orene McHarney Killian; husband, John Milton Eades; and brother, Phillip Killian, Sr. She is survived by her daughters, Ginger K. Eades, Dana Noel Eades Standifer; sister-in-law, Brenda Killian; her beloved cousin, Wayne King; two grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; and friend Sue Boss.

She was such a joy to be around and I am grateful that she and I had so much time together before her passing. I love her so very much.

Lovingly submitted by her daughter Ginger

Philip C. Falk

February 13, 1937–December 18, 2017

My husband was described by different persons as friendly, approachable, compassionate, genuine, kind, knowledgeable, humble, and a sincere follower of the Lord Jesus. While these descriptions do apply, there are others which help complete the picture: cycling enthusiast, avid reader, photographer, camper/hiker, giver of practical helps, craftsman, bee-keeper, gifted teacher, loving father, and devoted husband.

Philip was born in Louisville, Kentucky, to Christian parents who provided him and his two siblings early nurturing of biblical values. They regularly attended Sunday school and church at Market Street Methodist, continuing into adulthood.

In high school the Good News Club, a student organization, became a source of encouragement for him in the Christian faith. Philip saw a real difference in the lives of a few friends in the club from that of the other students in the school. One Sunday morning, in his own church, he responded to the closing invitation by walking forward, taking the pastor's hand, and telling him that he desired to surrender his life to the Lordship of Jesus Christ. He had been active in the Methodist Youth Fellowship and became quite involved with the leadership of that group at the district level for a couple of years.

Biographies of well-known missionaries helped influence Philip's choice of college and seminary, where foreign missions were among various preparatory options. While at Asbury College, he was chosen to be chaplain of his sophomore class and the following year participated in the leadership of the campus organization, Foreign Missions Fellowship. At both schools he formed meaningful lifelong friendships.

Beginning seminary on the west coast was a new experience which he enjoyed very much. One special extra-curricular activity was teaching a Korean young people's weekly Sunday school class. In his second year in seminary, it appeared a break from academic activity would be beneficial. He agreed to be a student supply pastor for a small rural Methodist church in northern Indiana. Along with me, his fiancée, Marilyn (also an Asbury grad and elementary music teacher in Illinois), wedding plans were being completed and we were married in June 1961.

The congregation of the Spencerville, Indiana, church was welcoming, kind, and helpful. The caring was mutual and we enjoyed becoming better acquainted with each family—even trudging through the snow that winter to call on some of them. Though the year of being an active pastor was positive, Philip saw his need for a better understanding of the functioning of the Church. In June, the move was made back to Louisville, Kentucky, as a family of three. Our first daughter, Sarah, had joined us and was a joy to us as well as grandparents.

Not giving up the thought of completing seminary, but desirous of worthy employment, Philip chose to be involved in public school education in junior high and upper elementary school. This proved to be more enjoyable and rewarding than he had expected, leading to his continuing school teaching for nine years. This was closely followed by involvement in a couple of friends' businesses for a few short years. During these approximate dozen years, the Lord gave us four more beautiful blessings as we added daughters Beth, Amanda, Mary, and Joanna to the family. This helped confirm my inclination to be a stay-at-home mom with Philip's approval.

At the request of a high school counselor friend who knew of Philip's aptitude for being a craftsman, he agreed to be the building contractor for his friend's new home. That project, with which the clients were very pleased, became the stepping stone into the residential contracting business that occupied the next 20 years. Throughout these years, he was continually involved in church. In teaching young adults or senior citizens, leading Bible studies, temporary pastoral duties, or participating in short mission trips, Philip's contributions were appreciated greatly by staff and church members. Both of us believed that in the Lord's good time, it would be apparent if returning to finish seminary classes would be appropriate.

Our daughters had been growing up through public schools and into colleges by the early 1990s and Philip's mother, whose care he had been overseeing, passed into the presence of the Lord in 1994. With my suggestion—along with those of a couple of pastor friends—that it may be a good time to check out seminary classes, Philip did take up student life again, although not a full class schedule. His work was tapering down in building and he was enjoying the classes...even being the senior member in each class.

His classes were finally completed in December 1997 amid rejoicing by family and friends. He “walked” with the Class of 1998 from Louisville Presbyterian Seminary in graduation ceremonies. It was not until the next summer that Philip would be given a pastorate. With his typical wry sense of humor, Philip was heard to comment a few times that it took him 37 years to get through seminary!

Through a friend and executive presbyter in West Kentucky, he learned of a pastoral vacancy for a yoked charge involving churches in two separate communities. We decided that if the Lord did not provide a pastorate in central Kentucky, we would be willing to sell our home and move to the location where one was provided. While it was definitely not easy, we were committed to the change in location, even though it took a year and a half to finally accomplish the move. Eliminating various household items, helping one of the daughters in preparation for her wedding the following year, and selling our house were some of the bigger challenges. Crittenden County, Kentucky is about 200 miles from Louisville, so commuting had to be spread out.

In July of 1999, Philip began as pastor of the West Kentucky churches. Even though he had thoroughly enjoyed working in a hands-on type of construction and the relationships with clients and subcontractors, he was eager and ready for this new venture. Ordination took place in the church four months later, and Philip realized anew the responsibility and privilege of the ministry of Word and Sacrament for the church, the body of the Lord Jesus. As one member some years later said, “I don't know of anyone who didn't appreciate his sermons. Even with all of the study and preparation, it seemed that his sermons came straight from the heart. I know that God spoke to us through Phil's words.”

After the yoked charge in West Kentucky, the other churches he served were Decherd Presbyterian Church, Farris Chapel UMC and Harris Chapel UMC, all in Franklin County, Tennessee. We were blessed in becoming acquainted with so many of the Lord's beloved people. One of the activities that Philip especially enjoyed was meeting with individuals—perhaps over a cup of coffee and a sandwich—and just talking with the person, and sharing and encouraging. Many persons were helped by such encounters.

In leading each of the churches, Philip placed great importance on the Holy Scriptures as the basis for understanding the Gospel. He often gave plans for reading through the Bible in a year and was very encouraged when a person could tell him that he/she had completed it.

Philip had a sense of humor, which helped him get acquainted with people. They saw him as knowledgeable, compassionate, genuine, and trustworthy. He is so greatly missed, not only by family and the churches, but by many in the community from numerous walks of life.

George D. Ferguson

August 6, 1928–August 12, 2017

Rev. George Ferguson was born in East Nashville during the height of the Depression. His home was not an easy place to grow up. There was poverty and violence. He ran away at the age of 13 and lived on his own.

It was at Trevecca that he met Ben Speer of the Speer family. They became best friends. It was the influence of this friendship that turned George's course toward a better life that included God and ultimately a call to the ministry.

George started touring with the Speer family. He did not have a singing voice but he used his talents of organization and personality to help them with the shows. It was at one of these shows in Savannah, Tennessee, where he met Martha Blankenship, daughter of Rev. Fred Blankenship.

They hit it off from the start. Martha came home that night asking herself what her father was going to think when she married this Nazarene preacher. George and Martha were married after seminary and began a life of ministry that included both the Nazarene and United Methodist Church.

Martha had always wanted to marry a pastor. She had natural ability to care for the people in the church, go on hospital visits, and always remembered to tell George, "Good sermon, dear."

George's greatest years of ministry were in the Pulaski District. He served both single and multi-church charges.

George loved being with people. He loved telling stories, learning about other's lives, sharing Christ, and, hopefully, sitting down to a meal that included banana pudding for dessert.

His motto for life and ministry was "All things work together for those who love God."

George joined Martha in heaven on August 12, 2017. He was loved by his children, grandchildren, and friends.

Lovingly submitted by Peter Ferguson, George's son

Elaine B. Forrester

March 13, 1961–June 8, 2017

Elaine Billingsley Forrester, a native Nashvillian, was born on March 13, 1961, and died at the young age of 56 on June 8, 2017. She is survived by her husband of 30 years, Reverend Mark Forrester; her mother, Audrey Woodard Billingsley; her sister, Teresa Billingsley; her brother, Brian (Bridget) Billingsley; her daughter, Shelley (Zack) Howell; two grandsons, Cayden Hoke and Layne Howell; her stepdaughter, Emily (Jeff) Graham; and many nieces and nephews. Elaine's father, William Eugene ("Gene") Billingsley, preceded his beloved middle child in death, and abides with her in the hope of the resurrection.

Elaine's home church was City Road Chapel UMC, where Gene and Audrey raised their three children beginning in the late 1950's. What located Gene and Audrey in Nashville, and soon at City Road, was his employment as a printer at The United Methodist Publishing House—where he worked until the UMPH closed its printing operations and offered him an early retirement. Elaine's sister, Teresa, also worked for the UMPH as an illustrator. Needless to say, the Billingsley family found themselves connected to the UMC in many ways: through worship, Sunday school, UMYF, employment, and many civic and social activities experienced through a thriving congregational life.

Although Mark and Elaine grew up in Inglewood, she was six years younger and zoned to a different high school. They would not meet for several more years. Elaine graduated from Stratford High School in 1979, soon attending Volunteer State Community College with a focus in social work. During this time, she completed her cosmetology licensing, which began in high school, to become a talented beautician and barber under the mentorship of some of Nashville's best stylists.

Soon her interest was drawn into the printing business. Given her father's background and connections, she began working for Capital Engraving as a technician responsible for pre-press work—film and color separations for high resolution advertising and fine printing. Elaine stayed with Capital Engraving for a number of years, working her way into customer service, sales, and marketing. Most of her working life was in commercial printing and advertising, with a five-year hiatus from that profession to become a real estate agent. No matter where she found herself employed, Elaine was very personable, empathetic, and connected to people as a natural salesperson.

Elaine and Mark crossed paths when she would visit her home church where Mark was the associate minister serving with Rev. Bob Case. Her daughter, Shelley, was also enrolled in City Road's day care. One day Bob Case asked Mark to make a hospital visit to be with Elaine and her family as she prepared to undergo brain surgery. Elaine had been diagnosed with an avenal malformation (AVM), a malformed vein that needed to be removed before it ruptured. She underwent a 13-hour surgery, causing severe brain swelling, loss of speech, and seizures. Elaine's recovery lasted for several months and, during that time, she was drawn closer to home and began visiting City Road with more frequency.

Many more months went by as Mark was preparing to take an appointment at Andrew Price United Methodist Church. During this transition, Elaine and Mark began dating and, each having a daughter from previous marriages, they were drawn together in love for a number of reasons. They knew that whatever future they dared to envision, it would begin as a family of four!

Elaine and Mark were engaged and set the date for December 31, 1987. However, on November 5, Elaine was diagnosed with leukemia that had advanced to an acute stage. Her only hope was to undergo a bone marrow transplant (BMT). First, she had to find a compatible bone marrow donor. Fortunately, she didn't have to look any further than her older sister, Teresa, who was a perfect match. And so—in a move that involved more faith and love than rational thinking—Elaine and Mark moved up their wedding date, were married on December 6, 1987, then boarded a plane for Seattle on December 9 to undergo a BMT at Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research Center.

Not only did Elaine survive against great odds, she stayed in remission for seven years. When she relapsed in 1995, Vanderbilt Medical Center introduced her to an alternative treatment, a donor lymphocyte transfusion, which was quite experimental and had never been tried at VUMC. This treatment was successful and Elaine, becoming a medical pioneer, remained in a second remission the rest of her life. Along the way, she gave back by helping establish the Nashville Leukemia Society Family Support Group that met monthly for many years. She and Mark also volunteered with the LS in fundraising events, such as Team in Training bike tours and marathons.

In short, Elaine's life was a medical odyssey. In addition to all of the above, she underwent open heart surgery to remove a benign tumor, fought graft-versus-host disease (resulting from the BMT), and was in a near fatal car crash. She was our "energizer bunny" who triumphed over a succession of catastrophes. Her death, totally unexpected, was caused by cerebral edema (brain swelling) due to a radiation treatment on that old AVM which she discovered had not been successfully removed. She was a fighter, full of spirit, humor, and faith in God. She pondered the Bible daily, often drawn to the book of Job. Like Job, she posed some pretty tough questions to the Almighty. Still, she was patient and enduring like nobody we have ever known.

Every day since Elaine's passing has been bittersweet. The love that she had for her family was palpable and equaled only by the love that she had for her dogs—and all other creatures who were drawn to her as natural companions. She radiated an outward and an inner beauty and, in spite of her trials and setbacks, was content to live life fully and with dignity. We are grateful to the Lord for our unique and precious wife, daughter, sister, mother, grandmother, aunt, and friend who is now one with her Creator.

Lovingly shared by Mark Forrester

Wendell Francis

August 8, 1926–November 18, 2017

Wendell Francis—to know him was to love him. Wendell was a wonderful husband, father, and server of the Lord. No one would have a harsh word to say about him nor would he have one to say about anyone else. He always had a warm smile on his face.

Wendell took pride in that he was in the Air Force for four years starting in 1952. Even though he was in the Air Force, he did not do a lot of flying on vacations. He did enjoy taking two family trips to Hawaii and visiting Pearl Harbor.

Wendell was always a part of the church and made several trips to Emory University in Atlanta to fulfill his dream of becoming a preacher. He finally accomplished this in 1993 with a Certificate of Completion of Ministerial Studies. This put him on the path of what he always wanted to be: a good preacher.

Wendell's life revolved around his family, friends, University of Kentucky Wildcat sports, and the Lord. If he was not working to take care of his family, he was coaching sports. On Saturdays he would be watching Kentucky football or basketball, but that night he was always in his bedroom working on his sermon for the next day.

He never missed a ballgame his sons were playing in. He took pride in coaching and in every sermon he wrote. Every kid he coached and every church where he preached admired him.

One big accomplishment—which he almost made that does not happen nowadays—is that as of June 18th of this year, he would have been married to his wife Martha for 70 years. They loved each other very much. They took care of each other when they needed it and made a good life for themselves and their sons. He was the best husband and father in the world.

One thing he was proud of was when he was preaching at a small Methodist Church in Portland, Tennessee. A movie producer wanted to use his church to tape a scene for Charlie's War starring Olympia Dukakis, Diane Ladd, Lynn Redgrave, and Vernon Winfrey (Oprah's father). The producer liked him so much that they asked him to do a couple of scenes in the movie. It was not a big production, but he did the scenes and was a surprisingly good actor.

The funny part was that the night of the premier showing of the movie at the Belcourt Theatre, he got all dressed up in a tux, and he and his son took off to watch the movie and walk the red carpet. He got out of the car so fast—while his son was parking—and he did not know where he was going and missed the big premier. However, he did get to the big after-party and got to hang out with the stars. He and Vernon Winfrey became good friends. A few months later he received a check from the production company for his part and you would have thought he had become a big movie star. It was not until years later that the movie finally came out on DVD and he got to see it.

During his life Wendell would not miss a day of church. When he began to wear down, his family would try to get him to go to a church that was closer to his house. He refused and would drive 40 miles to make it to the church that meant so much to him. He made it every Sunday until he just could not drive anymore. He wanted to go, but just couldn't make it.

Wendell fought a good fight until he just could not fight anymore. He had a good, long life and touched a lot of people's lives. We know he is up in heaven today looking down on us.

He leaves behind a wife and two sons that miss him every day and would love to tell him one more time how much they love him and miss him.

Lovingly submitted by David Francis, Wendell's son

James G. (Jim/Jimmy) Hamilton

April 10, 1959–February 12, 2018

Jimmy was born in Memphis, Tennessee, the first child of Dorothy “Dot” and James Hamilton. He was baptized and raised in the Whitehaven United Methodist Church. He has one brother, Rev. Greg Hamilton.

The Hamilton’s moved to Nashville when Jimmy was 9 years old. The Crieveewood United Methodist Church became home for their family. Three persons who most influenced his spiritual life were Rev. James Davis, pastor, Danny Roundtree, youth director, and Dr. David Bridges, choir director. Crieveewood UMC was a very active and vibrant faith community for Jimmy to grow up in during his formative years. He was also highly influenced by his experience with Boy Scout Troop #248 where he obtained the prestigious rank of Eagle Scout.

Jimmy graduated from Overton High School in 1977 and was a member of the marching band and tennis team. He would next graduate from Martin Methodist College where he competed in tennis on the collegiate level. Later, Jimmy would graduate from Middle Tennessee State University with a Bachelor’s Degree in Business. He would then earn his Master of Divinity Degree from Vanderbilt University Divinity School. He rightfully became an avid Commodore Fan for life and was not bashful about it.

The call to ministry came early for Jimmy as he became an associate pastor on the Trinity Charge in Giles County Tennessee in 1979. He loved to preach and tell the good news of Jesus and forgiveness of sin. He was especially adept at being a pastor. He took great care of his flock who knew that he loved them dearly and that he would take good care of them in every way possible. He labored to show God’s love in all actions personally and professionally. If you needed your pastor, he was there.

He also loved the connectional nature of The United Methodist Church. He enjoyed the many relationships and networks of the Tennessee Annual Conference. He especially invested in youth by serving on the Tennessee Conference Youth Council and participated in organizing and supporting many events such as Warmth In Winter. He also served with distinction on the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry and served as chair of the Nashville District Board of Ordained Ministry for many years. He loved helping candidates with their call to ministry and in serving as a mentor to new pastors. Later, he was particularly fond of and involved with Stephen’s Ministry and Face to Face, a ministry of the Emmaus Walk Community for seniors.

While in college, Jimmy met and fell in love with Mindy Worden, who preceded him in death. They were married in June of 1981 and enjoyed parenting three children, Josh, Meagan, and Jacob. He was very proud of his children’s many accomplishments. Jimmy would later fall in love with and marry Kay Legee and enjoyed being a grandparent.

Jimmy enjoyed life and had numerous hobbies. He loved vacationing and spending time with his family. He loved nature and specifically the mountains. Whether it was Beersheba Springs Assembly or the Great Smoky Mountains, he found an opportunity for spiritual reflection there and lots of recreation and fun. He golfed, played pool, and was pretty good at Backgammon as long as he was playing by his rules. He loved music but readily admitted that his talent was not equal to his love. He was a person of humor. He loved a good joke and loved to play pranks. He was known far and wide for pranks that he had pulled and some that backfired although no details will be supplied for this memoir. He was a good story teller and enjoyed a good play on words. When he was telling a story, the conclusion was always delivered with a huge smile, warmth, and filled with love. He was a master at listening and responding in humor without hesitation.

Friendships were dear to Jimmy. He had many meaningful friendships and relationships. He was a true friend and was vulnerable and open. He would share from his experience of life and was not afraid to share from lessons he had learned the hard way. He brought out the best in people and because he was so genuine, numerous people called him friend.

Rev. Jim Hamilton was a truly exceptional person and Christian. He lived by faith and prayer. He trusted God for salvation and sincerely relied on God's Grace as the sufficient reality of his life. He will indeed be missed by many as there are numerous people whose lives have been richly enhanced and spiritually uplifted through his life and ministry.

Earl Newman Hocker

February 4, 1926–August 29, 2017

Earl Newman Hocker was born February 4, 1926, to William Henry Hocker and Angie Abbott Hocker in Muhlenberg County, Kentucky. The oldest of 11 children, he is survived by three sisters, all of Kentucky.

He started his formal education in the one-room Browder Elementary School, continued to Drakesboro Elementary School, and graduated from Hughes Kirk School in Beechmont, Kentucky.

Upon graduation, Brother Hocker volunteered to serve his country, at the peak of World War II, in the United States Army. He was on the front lines in both Italy and Germany, where he was wounded and returned to duty. He was the recipient of many distinguished medals, both foreign and domestic, including the Bronze Star and the Purple Heart. Brother Hocker gained many leadership skills from his military service, as well as being alongside his father while farming and working in the coal mines after returning home.

On January 15, 1946, he married the love of his life, Martha Frances McCoy. Together, they raised four children, served many churches, and enjoyed 57 years of marriage, before her death on November 2, 2002.

Brother Hocker's ministerial education included, Candler School of Theology, Scarritt College, and Martin Methodist College. In June 1963, he moved his family to Tennessee and started his ministry at the Santa Fe Charge, where he and his family made life-long friends. He cared for and respected the parishioners and their families of the Santa Fe Charge until his death. Many of these friends or families had important roles in his funeral service.

Brother Hocker continued his service and in 1968 was placed at the Rich Valley Charge, 1970 the Pelham Charge, 1973 the Greenwood Charge, 1978 the Trinity Charge, 1981 the Enterprise Charge, 1983 the Hustburg Charge, and in 1984 the Petersburg Charge.

Upon retirement, he and Martha moved back to the Columbia area to be near family. He continued to fill in part-time, where needed, as well as performing wedding ceremonies and funerals. Brother Hocker touched many people in his lifetime, through his ministry and beyond. He was always making an impression for God and was always a minister. He was known for his infectious laugh, his good ear for listening, and his genuine care for all of God's people.

Brother Hocker enjoyed being outdoors, gardening, arranging flowers, and woodworking. His happiest times were spent sharing stories of his life—which always included a lesson you were sure to remember—with his grandchildren and great-grandchildren. He loved when his family was all together and was proud of its number. He always shared the results of his hobbies and was generous with his time and love, which made for many happy memories.

Affectionately known as “Papaw,” he was always willing to share a sweet treat with his great-grandchildren. He was looking forward to the birth of his first great-great-grandchild, who was born in November 2017.

He left all of us with a great peace when, before his celestial transfer, he lifted his hands toward heaven, clapped, as if applauding some Great Concert, and with a softened, glowing joyous expression, exclaimed, “Oh My, Oh My!” He lowered his hands and peacefully closed his eyes. The words of his son explain it best, “Dad left us with a last message...there is music and song that thrills the heart and welcomes us to another place.”

Brother Hocker is survived by one daughter, Cathy (Don) Barber, sons, Harold (Ruth) Hocker and Darrell (Sonya) Hocker, 10 grandchildren, 18 great-grandchildren, one great-great-grandchild, and three sisters. He is preceded in death by his wife, Martha Hocker, daughter, Janice Scott Lovett, sons, David Earl, Jerry Newman, and Barry Lynn Hocker, and grandson Anthony “Tony” Eugene Peters.

“We know that our earthly Father and our Heavenly Father are patiently waiting for each of us!”

“Therefore, my dear brothers and sisters, stand firm. Let nothing move you. Always give yourselves fully to the work of the Lord, because you know that your labor in the Lord is not in vain.”

1 Corinthians 15:58

Charles Edward Martin

January 4, 1940–February 19, 2018

Charles Edward Martin, 78, of the Stewart community in the Red River District was the beloved husband of Rev. Jacqueline Martin. He was diagnosed with incurable multiple myeloma (cancer) in August 2017.

Charles was a public disciple of Jesus Christ for 70 years. He professed faith in Christ and was baptized when he was 8 years old. His church membership was in the Southern Baptist Church for 50 years until he joined The United Methodist Church in 1999. In the UMC he was a local church trustee, PPRC chair (before Jacqueline was a pastor), choir member, VBS group leader, Sunday school teacher, and a local church lay delegate or at-large delegate to Annual Conference 2003-2017. In the Southern Baptist Church, he was an ordained deacon; president of the Baptist Student Union at Mississippi State University; church treasurer and chairman of the finance committee; a Sunday school teacher for preschoolers, fifth grade boys, and young married couples; a leader of various adult small groups; and the Anglo co-chair for the committee who planted Primera Iglesia Bautista in Columbia, Tennessee.

His first United Methodist pastor was Rev. Melvin Brooks who was a great inspiration to Charles and introduced him to Wesleyan theology. Soon after Charles joined the UMC, he became acquainted with Rev. Harriet Bryan and (then lay speaker) Rev. Joan Hubbard. These were the first women he heard preach the Gospel. He said the spiritual gifts evident in Harriet and Joan proved that God calls and equips women for pastoral ministry. He began encouraging Jacqueline to explore a call into ministry through lay speaking courses. Later, he encouraged her to continue on to become a licensed local pastor. He was a faithful partner in ministry who accompanied Jacqueline to funerals, visits to hospitals and nursing homes, and district meetings.

Charles strongly supported the congregations Jacqueline served as pastor—Trinity, Cumberland Heights, Palmyra, Bumpus Mills, Spring Hill, and Cedar Valley in the Red River (Clarksville) District. At each appointment, Charles took an active role in church life and endeared himself to church families. Members from every appointment were present at the celebration of his life on February 26. The celebration flowed joyfully with family and friends singing traditional hymns and his favorite Southern Gospel music. One of the things congregations remember about Charles was his practice of going to the pulpit to pray for Jacqueline every Sunday just before she read the Scriptures and preached. He is also remembered as a cook for Wednesday night suppers, master of the grill at church fellowships, and a gardener who shared bountiful crops of blueberries and vegetables.

Charles was born on a family farm in Yalobusha County, Mississippi. He was put to work in the harvest of corn and picking cotton when he was 4 years old. He graduated from high school in 1957. In 1961 he graduated from Mississippi State University with a bachelor's degree in Industrial Technology. He worked for 13 years as an industrial engineer before making a career change to newspaper publishing. Charles retired from the newspaper business in 1998, having been publisher and editor of The Tate County Democrat and The Yazoo Herald in Mississippi; The Courier-Index in Arkansas; and advertising director at The Daily Herald in Columbia, Tennessee. One of his favorite duties was taking photos for his newspapers. He set up a DIY darkroom to process and print film. Black and white photography became a hobby as well as a job duty.

In retirement Charles took on the challenge of fully restoring a circa 1900 Tennessee farmhouse which had been abandoned for many years. He spent 30 months creating a lovely, comfortable home with little professional help. He found the work so fulfilling that he decided on a "senior career" in home remodeling and handyman jobs.

Charles was an even-tempered, quiet man unless he was rooting for the Mississippi State Bulldogs, St. Louis Cardinals, UT Lady Vols, and Tennessee Titans. Other than his outbursts as a sports fan, he was not the loudest voice in a room or the first one in a group to speak up. His family, churches, and communities were enriched by his quiet strength, attentive listening, generosity, wisdom, and compassion. He co-founded Unity Home shelter for homeless men; built cross-cultural and interracial relationships; gracefully loved and affirmed family and friends who are LGBTQ; and was past president of several civic organizations in Mississippi and Tennessee including chambers of commerce, Jaycees, Rotary Club, and Lions Club.

Charles and Jacqueline were married 34 years and have a blended family: sons Edward Martin (Janene) of Maryland; Dennis Martin (Carla) of Murfreesboro; and Jason Crockett (Allen) of Pennsylvania; daughters Melody Henley (George) of Florida, Jacquelyn Bishop (Benjamin Chen) of Franklin; and 10 grandchildren. At the time of his death, Charles was anticipating the birth of his first great-grandchild.

John William Menees

November 5, 1929–November 26, 2017

This remembrance could share stories of youthful folly that led Bill to swim across the Cumberland River, his winning 4-H ribbons with well-pollinated corn, keeping his young pockets lined with cash from a cream selling enterprise, lobbying wooden “missiles” at cars parked on “lovers lane,” his first plane ride skimming the tops of trees, what baseball meant to him, his love of books, his moonlighting as a federal tobacco surveyor, his genuineness, his approachability...but we’ll focus mostly on matters more expected.

Bill Menees was born to John William and Bertha Walker Menees in Nashville, Tennessee, on November 5, 1929. He spent his childhood and adolescence on a farm first deeded to his family in 1779, and his love of creation, the land, and farming remained throughout his life. Often, he could be found working the soil, planting, and harvesting produce even into his retirement. Early mornings on the farm to milk and work developed the discipline that guided so many of his lifelong habits and work ethic.

Bill married Nancy Ray Walker of Nashville on March 5, 1949. They were married 68 years. Together they traveled widely, including the Middle East, Western and Central Europe, the Mediterranean Basin, and Central America. They built their retirement home on a segment of the farm next door to the house where Bill was raised and lived there for 28 years.

In the early 1950’s while working with the DuPont Corporation, Bill grappled with a sense of vocation to ministry. After receiving a license as a local pastor, he pursued post-secondary education at Trevecca and Scarritt colleges followed by earning his first theological degree from Vanderbilt Divinity School. Always inquisitive and unwilling to settle for simplistic answers to life issues, Bill maintained a lifelong love and desire for learning, and went on to earn a specialty degree in educational counseling from Tennessee Tech and Doctorate in Ministry from Vanderbilt. A quick perusal of his library showed the diversity of his interests and curiosity ranging from those of philosophy, anthropology, history, theological, photography, golf, cultural as well as the natural sciences. At the core of this unrelenting desire to learn about a vast diverse range of interests was a mind well-suited to philosophical inquiry.

Bill worked diligently at his ministry and was known as an excellent preacher who was very caring in his practice of pastoral care. He held a deep belief that clergy should not go to the pulpit unprepared. In line with that belief, he strived to prepare quality sermons and did not want to waste people’s time. He thought that parishioners should be assisted and encouraged to wrestle with their faith and spiritual journeys. He could be intense and direct, usually when he felt strongly about some issue, but this was propelled by an underlying desire for honesty and building up the community of God’s people.

Across the years he served in both multi-church parishes and single congregations. He began his work at Croleywood and served in numerous places across the conference, including Gallatin, Mt. Juliet, Cross Plains, Cookeville, and Nashville. He retired from Donelson Heights but quickly realized he needed to continue his involvement with the Church. He worked at Arlington and taught many discipleship classes as well as assisting with Sunday morning services and visitation. He was also called on to fill in at Gladeville and Pleasant Grove. Also, in his retirement he was a FEMA agent and counseled at Hibbett & Hailey Funeral Home and Hermitage Funeral Home.

During his ministry he supported numerous younger people as they explored ministry as a life calling. He was a sought-after mentor and spent many years with the Board of Ministry in the process of assisting upcoming clergy in their formation and development. Bill was also a practical joker. While working with DuPont he was known to have caught frogs and hid them in a workmate's lunchbox, as well as positioning another's hardhat on a pole, having nailed it in place. He could be fun-loving and enjoyed his family as well as many of the simple pleasures he grew up doing. He was an avid University of Tennessee football fan and when asked how he could pull so strongly for them while having degrees from Vanderbilt, he replied, "My blood ran Orange long before I went to Vandy!"

Bill passed away on Sunday, November 26, 2017, following a very brief illness and decline. A Service of Remembrance and Celebration of the Resurrection was held at Arlington United Methodist Church on Saturday, December 2, 2017.

Bill is survived by his wife of 68 years, Nancy Ray Walker Menees, and three children: Fr. Mark Menees (Jo), Janet Lassiter, and Kelly Menees. Also, surviving are six grandchildren: Matthew (Michelle) Menees, Beth Clements, Paul (Elizabeth) Lassiter, Dr. Jonathan (Michelle) Lassiter, Heather (Issac) Rich, Laughren (Kyle) Duckworth, and 5 great grandchildren; Madelyn & Samantha Clements, Kye Duckworth, Wyatt Rich, and George William Lassiter.

Lovingly shared by his family

William Eli Pearce

November 9, 2018–July 25, 2017

William Eli Pearce was born in McAlester, Oklahoma, on November 9, 1928. When Bill was in seventh grade, he and his family moved to Dallas, Texas. In Dallas, Bill was active in school and church activities and was an active Boy Scout, achieving the rank of Eagle Scout and being a member of the Order of the Arrow.

Bill attended North Texas State University and graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree, majoring in psychology. While in college, Bill was active in the Wesley Foundation and in the First Methodist Church in Denton, Texas. Bill also was in Navy ROTC in college, and then served in the United States Navy Reserves. His reserve unit was on 24-hour alert during the Korean conflict but was not called to active duty.

Following graduation from college, Bill felt a strong call to the ministry and enrolled in seminary at Perkins School of Theology at Southern Methodist University. Bill graduated from SMU with a Bachelor of Divinity in Theology. While at Perkins, he served appointments to several charges in the North Texas Conference.

Following graduation from SMU, Bill was appointed to be the minister of youth at Littlefield in the Northwest Texas Conference. He served in Littlefield until he became the minister of a new congregation being started in Levelland, Texas. The Levelland congregation built their first church building and thrived as a congregation while Bill served as minister there.

In May, 1957, Bill was appointed as the minister of youth at First Methodist Church, a congregation with almost 5,000 members in Lubbock, Texas. That summer, he met Marie Lewis, program director and editor of the weekly paper at the church. Bill and Marie married on September 1, 1958.

Bill and Marie moved to an appointment in Rotan, Texas, where their two sons, Brad and Greg, were born. While Bill was minister in Rotan, the church built a new education building.

After serving other churches, Bill matriculated in the graduate program at Syracuse University to study Christian education. Bill brought his family to Nashville to be a part of the faculty at Scarritt College. At Scarritt, Bill taught courses in psychology, audio visuals, Christian education, and other subjects. When he left Scarritt, Bill worked at the Methodist Board of Education which became a part of the United Methodist Board of Discipleship.

Bill worked with many programs in the Board of Discipleship, including training for lay persons and professionals working in Christian education and older adult ministries in churches. He also served as the United Methodist representative on the Council for Youth Serving Agencies. This led him to promote Scouting in the churches. He wrote the original manuals for Boy Scouts of America for the God and Me, God and Family, and God and Church awards.

After leaving the Board of Discipleship, Bill was pastor of several multi-church circuits in the Tennessee Conference. This was an enriching and fulfilling experience which he enjoyed.

While in Tennessee, Bill began working with the Southeast Jurisdiction Association of Older Adults to promote adult ministry to older adults. This work continued well into retirement. Bill served a term as president of this organization.

One of the most outstanding accomplishments in Bill's ministry was that he was instrumental in the building of two new churches and inspired members in other churches he served to improve their physical facilities. One church built a new educational building and then a new sanctuary, and several of the smaller churches revitalized their buildings while he was pastor.

Bill retired in 1995. In 1997, he and Marie moved to Charlotte, North Carolina, to be near their two sons. Greg and his family live in Asheville, and Brad and his family live in Charlotte. After living in a house in Charlotte for six years, Bill and Marie moved to Aldersgate Retirement Center. Bill was quite active at Aldersgate. Among other things, Bill served as the president of the Residents' Association and later as the resident member of the Aldersgate Board of Directors.

While his health declined after developing Alzheimer's disease, Bill was largely able to maintain a joyful outlook. He spent his final days as a resident in Cuthbertson Village, Aldersgate's Memory Support Unit. Bill passed away the night of Sunday, July 16, 2017.

Lovingly submitted by his wife, Marie

Bula Grider (Bea) Robins

November 26, 1935–August 15, 2017

Bea was born in the small town of Liberty, Kentucky, and graduated from high school there. She was part of a large family that has been in Kentucky for many generations and whose descendants are spread across the state. She enjoyed telling her children, nieces and nephews, and grandchild many stories about this family, as well as playing games and singing songs she had learned as a child.

At 17, Bea enrolled in a small Methodist college in Barbourville, Kentucky, where she had a scholarship and took music courses in addition to the required basics. At her freshman orientation she met Arthur G. Robins, and they married two years later after he graduated. They moved to Art's home state of Massachusetts, where he attended Boston University, and then moved to Nashville.

Bea received her bachelor's degree in education from Scarritt College in 1965, and her master's degree from MTSU in 1970. Her teaching career began in Westmoreland, Tennessee, in 1965, where she taught fifth grade. She went on to teach eighth grade English in Gallatin and Culleoka. In 1970 she began to teach tenth grade English at Columbia Central High School, where she continued until her retirement in 1995.

She and her husband Art were involved for years in both the Zodiac and Pull-tight Players, appearing in productions such as The Music Man, South Pacific, and The Sound of Music. She stayed abreast of current events and published letters in The Tennessean. She has been active in The United Methodist Church, the Business and Professional Women of Tennessee, the Ladies Auxiliary of the Marine Corps League, and Young at Heart. She also became a United Methodist minister and in the 1980s, served at several small churches in the conference.

Bea loved traveling and having new experiences. While she enjoyed the world of make-believe, she was also a practical person who could organize and get things done. She could sing and play the piano and sang in the church choir or played the piano at several of the churches that her husband pastored. She loved expressing her faith by working with children through Sunday school, vacation Bible school, storytelling, church pageants, and children's choirs.

Lovingly shared by Suellen D. Robins, Bea's daughter

Alice Sanford

October 23, 1923–March 15, 2018

Alice Thomas Sanford, age 94, of High Springs and Ft. White, Florida, died Thursday, March 15, 2018, after a short illness. She was born in Erin, Tennessee, on October 13, 1923, to Knox and Offie Thomas.

Eldest of three children, she grew up in Clarksville, Tennessee, where she attended Madison Street United Methodist Church, graduated from Clarksville High School, and attended Austin Peay State University, before later graduating from Tennessee Tech. She married her sweetheart—George E. Sanford—in 1942, was a WWII war bride, and after George’s ordination in The United Methodist Church, a minister’s wife—serving congregations throughout Tennessee and later, Florida.

As an elementary school teacher, she loved the third- and sixth-graders she taught in Gainesboro and Clarksville, Tennessee, and the students she later taught as a substitute teacher in Florida.

An avid reader, world traveler, and Sinatra fan, she applied for her first passport at age 75, and after many visits to Europe, made her last international trip at age 89.

Alice was predeceased by her husband George. A mother of four, she is survived by her children Sherry Pearl (Quinn), Merry George (Truett), Steve Sanford (Alice), and Susan Ratliff (Larry), eight grandchildren, 10 great-grandchildren, and one brand new great-great-grandchild.

Lovingly shared by Susan Ratliff, Alice’s daughter

Michael Williams

December 22, 1950–March 19, 2018

Michael Williams passed from this life on March 19, 2018, at the age of 67. He was a pastor in several churches in the Nashville area, most recently West End United Methodist, before retiring last year. He was also a preacher, writer, poet, storyteller, playwright, teacher, singer (after a fashion) of old songs, a lover of cats, and the kindest man many of us ever met, although he could be fierce as an advocate of the poor or oppressed. Quite a few folks knew him as the best friend they’ll ever have. He was a mentor to many others. As for everyone else, even if you only met him once, well then, you were Michael’s friend, too.

Michael started out life in Murray, Kentucky, but the family “home place” was at Land Between the Lakes. A graduate of Vanderbilt, Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary, and Northwestern, Michael had all the degrees, but he was proud of his country heritage and never hid it behind his education. He was a fervent defender of Appalachian culture and the dignity of its residents. His stories and sermons often featured a neighbor known as “Granny” or his Aunt Minerva.

Michael was a talker and seemed to remember everything he had ever read. His wife, Margaret, says he was a savant. She even specified what kind of savant, but there's no need to get into that kind of detail. He could (and would) talk about everything from Aramaic and Torah to poke sallet. He could speak at an exhibit at the Frist on Friday, read poetry in a tavern on Saturday, and teach nursing students how to better listen to their patients on Monday. With his theatre background, he was known to recite long Shakespeare soliloquies, and not just the famous ones, either.

He could listen, too. Michael was like Mr. Rogers with a grown-up vocabulary. Compassion and empathy just flowed out of the man. His hugs were legendary, if a little scratchy. Michael's gentle spirit probably accounts for the fact that kids loved him. That, and the fact that he actually got down and listened to them.

As a preacher, Michael was unique. He could weave together a story about King David, a mobile home, and a mayonnaise jar he dug up behind his garage; and you would still be wondering halfway through Sunday dinner how he transformed those things into a gospel of Christ's unconditional love, mercy, and inclusion. And in a nutshell, that's what he preached every time—that there's room for everyone. Michael walked the walk, too. He fed the hungry, worked for the disadvantaged and marginalized, and loved everyone who wandered into hugging range. If Margaret had ever let him near the debit card, there's no telling how much he would have given away.

Many people around the country know Michael primarily as a storyteller. He was good at it, too, as evidenced by his being the featured storyteller at Jonesborough and winning the liar's contest at Mule Day in Columbia. He became the Storyteller in Residence at Martin Methodist College after his retirement. At least that's what he told us.

Michael authored several books about preaching and storytelling as well a number of published poems, including a collection of his poems that received the prestigious Academy of American Poets Prize when he was a student at Northwestern University. In the last couple of years, he returned to his early love of poetry, publishing two chapbooks (small, paper-covered booklets), and doing public readings. Quite a few people have read and listened to considerably more poetry than they thought was healthy, because that's what you had to put up with if you wanted to be around him. And we all wanted to be around him.

When someone is that intelligent, creative, and compassionate, he's going to draw a crowd. Gentleness and kindness are underrated these days, and we all depended on Michael to supply them. He'd readily admit his shortcomings, and he'd be embarrassed by all this fuss, but the truth is that he was the best human many of us will ever know. We sure could have used more time with him, and those of us who were counting on him to preach our funerals or marry our kids are going to have to adjust our expectations. If you never met Michael, you'll just have to look for him in the kindness of everyone who loved him.

Michael leaves behind his beloved wife Margaret, his cherished daughters, Sarah and Lizzy, and Sean (Sarah's husband as of April 28, 2018), as well as a number of bowties, a few thousand books, several partly finished manuscripts and bottles of whiskey, and a host of friends who now must take up his vision of a caring and just world.

CHAPTER 11

STANDING RULES, PERSONNEL POLICIES, AND MEDIA CRISIS RESPONSE

A. STANDING RULES

The Standing Rules of the Tennessee Annual Conference represent the means by which we organize and oversee our work of making disciples for the transformation of the world. It is the organizational plan of the Tennessee Annual Conference, setting forth the rules by which we govern ourselves, in compliance with ¶604 of the 2016 United Methodist Book of Discipline. As our Book of Discipline says about itself, our Standing Rules reflect the “... most current statement of how United Methodists [in the Tennessee Annual Conference] agree to live together and ‘maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.’”

The Committee on Standing Rules presents these rules for renewal and adoption by each session of the Tennessee Annual Conference.

Section 1 – Authorization for the Committee on Standing Rules

- 1.1 The Committee on Standing Rules has the responsibility to:
  - a) Propose new policies and standing rules;
  - b) Propose needed amendments to existing policies and standing rules;
  - c) Provide guidance to the annual conference at any point where conference action may be at variance with a policy or standing rule.
- 1.2 The Standing Rules of the Annual Conference must be in compliance with the provisions of ¶604 of the current edition of The United Methodist Book of Discipline.

Section 2 – Annual Conference Session Procedures

- 2.1 The Conference shall follow the latest edition of Robert’s Rules of Order except where it is in conflict with the current Book of Discipline.
- 2.2 All motions and resolutions shall be supplied to the conference secretary in writing on a form provided for this purpose by the conference secretary.
- 2.3 Any entity planning to present a report at any annual conference session shall submit the report to the Office of Connectional Ministries at least 10 weeks prior to the opening day of annual conference for inclusion in pre-conference materials.
- 2.4 All resolutions not included in the pre-conference materials shall be submitted to the Committee on Resolutions at least 30 days prior to the first day of the annual conference session. The chair of the resolutions committee shall submit to the annual conference, in their original form, all resolutions so submitted. In addition, the committee may present to the annual conference for consideration a revised version of any such resolution.
- 2.5 The roll call of the Tennessee Annual Conference shall be taken from the registration.
- 2.6 The agenda of the conference shall be that as it is corrected and distributed on the first day of annual conference with the understanding that the bishop may adjust the agenda for the good of the order.

- 2.7 All speeches other than reports shall be limited to three minutes.
- 2.8 Voting cards shall be the means of identifying who is eligible to vote on all issues requiring a vote.
- 2.9 The annual conference session shall meet at a location accessible to persons with disabilities.
- 2.10 All annual conference reports to be included in the journal shall be e-mailed to the journal editor 10 weeks prior to the opening day of annual conference. Any corrections and/or additions received after this date shall, at the discretion of the journal editor, be included in the succeeding journal. Handwritten and typewritten reports shall not be accepted for publication in the journal. All reports should be typed, using Microsoft Word according to the specifications on the conference website. Photos must be submitted as separate JPG files and must include permissions from all persons pictured. Photos submitted will be used as space permits in the journal. Use Tennessee Conference Journal Style Sheet posted on the conference website for guidance on capitalization, punctuation, and so forth to ensure that the journal has a consistent look and flow. Files that contain tables should be submitted in Microsoft Excel format. No PDF or directly scanned images will be accepted.
- 2.11 Agenda items and reports not requiring action by the annual conference other than a vote to receive said item for publication in the journal, shall be placed on a consent agenda. In order for any item or report to be eligible for placement on the consent agenda, it must have been available online with the pre-conference materials. Any item may be removed from the consent agenda if ten members of the conference petition for removal.
- 2.12 Equalization and youth participation: Whenever it shall occur that the person serving as the director of Administrative Services, director of Connectional Ministries, or director of Ministerial Concerns is a lay person, then each person so serving shall be an at-large lay member of the annual conference. The conference secretary shall determine annually the number of laypersons needed to equalize lay and clergy members of the annual conference. The at-large members are to be allocated as nearly as possible on an equal basis to the districts. When the number of members to equalize cannot be distributed evenly between the districts, the members shall be allocated to the districts in alphabetical order of districts. ## B. PERSONNEL POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Tennessee Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church

Conference Personnel Committee

Last year, in response to a personnel audit, the decision was made to bring on a human resources professional to focus on employee relations, employment, performance appraisal, and training. We were fortunate to bring Alice Grunau on board in the Office of Administrative Services as the conference's HR specialist. Since her hire, she has worked on creating job descriptions and otherwise improving compliance with federal employment laws. She has taken over the conference's payroll services and is working to ensure the receipt of I-9 and other federally required documentation.

With Alice's guidance, the Personnel Committee made a number of revisions to the Conference Personnel Policy. The revised policy follows or is printed in the policy section of this journal.

Laura Brantley
Chair, Conference Personnel Committee

Tennessee Conference Media Crisis Response Plan

A Media Crisis in the Tennessee Conference is:

An event or emergency associated in some way with the Church but beyond its control, which can be expected to become public. It presents potential for damage to individuals, or the image of the Church, and hinders the ability to be in ministry. In other words, a media crisis is anything that could cause the public to lose faith in Tennessee Conference leadership or in The United Methodist Church.

Media Crises Come in Several Packages

- Personnel crisis (clergy, church staff, or lay member's misconduct, death, illness, or injury)
- Threatened criminal or legal action

*If the local church pastor or agency director is intimately involved in the crisis, s/he will not be a spokesperson.

4. The MCMT will determine whether the spokesperson should leave immediately for the location of the crisis (such as a church camp or church building). This may be necessary if reporters are already on site and there is no spokesperson present.
5. The bishop or alternate spokesperson must establish a schedule for regular briefing sessions of team members for the purpose of updates and discussion during the first few days of the crisis when media interest will be most intense.
6. The team is authorized to engage other professionals as needed. The bishop or his/her designate and the team should determine who receives information, updates and copies of all statements and releases.

D. SAFE SANCTUARY POLICY FOR CHILDREN, YOUTH, AND VULNERABLE PERSONS

Abuse and neglect of children, youth, and vulnerable persons are prohibited by the Tennessee Annual Conference, its churches and its agencies.

The Tennessee Conference seeks to create a safe environment for children, youth, and vulnerable persons in which opportunities for abuse are minimized by the provision of proper enlistment and supervision of those persons working with them. This document contains theological foundations, definitions of abuse, and policies related to prevention, response, and reporting.

Clergy and laity are encouraged to read this policy and make it an essential part of the operations of each local church. For procedures related to conference events and for resources related to local church policies and procedures visit tnumc.org and go to the Safe Spaces Ministry page.

I. SCOPE

The Tennessee Conference of the United Methodist Church affirms that all children, youth and vulnerable persons have the right to safety. Therefore, United Methodists of the Tennessee Conference are determined to provide an environment in which these persons are safe from neglect or abuse including sexual misconduct and harassment.

The scope of this policy and its provisions shall apply to all staff and volunteers, clergy or lay, who have direct or indirect contact with children, youth, and vulnerable persons in conference and/or district sponsored events. This policy should be implemented in conjunction with the Sexual Misconduct Policy for Church Professionals found at tnumc.org on the Safe Spaces Ministry page.

Safe Spaces Ministry consists of the Safe Sanctuary Team, the Boundaries and Sexual Ethics Team, and the Conference Response Team for the Tennessee Conference. The Safe Spaces Ministry serves to assist in development, review and implementation of policies and procedures necessary for keeping ministry safe. This ministry will facilitate the availability of training for members of the Tennessee Conference.

The Safe Spaces Ministry will be responsible for annual review of the policy and will propose to the annual conference suggested revisions to the policy as needed. Each conference and/or district ministry event involving children, youth, or vulnerable persons shall create procedures to implement this policy.

II. THEOLOGICAL FOUNDATION

Our Biblical Mandate:

“Then Jesus took a little child and put her among them; and taking her in his arms, he said to them, ‘Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me.’” (Paraphrase of Mark 9:36- 37) Jesus also said, “If any of you put a stumbling block before one of these little ones..., it would be better for you if a great millstone were fastened around your neck and you were drowned in the depth of the sea.” (Matthew 18:6)

Our Commitment in Baptism:

The Church, above all institutions, is called to welcome and nurture the child. Our goal is to maintain a safe, secure, loving place where all children may grow and where those who care for them may minister to their needs in responsible ways.

Our Mandate:

The 1996 General Conference approved a resolution that called upon local churches and annual conferences to institute policies and procedures to reduce the risk of child sexual abuse in our churches and church-related activities. We, in the Tennessee Conference, accept the nature of this call and seek to expand it to include all forms of abuse and neglect that could be possible in these settings or that could come to our attention regarding all children, youth, and/or vulnerable persons in our care.

Statement of Covenant:

As caring Christians, we are committed to protect and advocate for all children, youth, and vulnerable persons participating in the life of the church. The Church, at all levels of its organization, is entrusted with the responsibility of providing an emotionally and physically safe, spiritually grounded, healthy environment for all children, youth, adults, and vulnerable persons in which they are protected from abuse.

We uphold the idea that to report abuse is to be a witness to the world of the love and justice of God and fully recognize that reporting abuse is a form of ministering to the needs of those crying out for help. Simply, to report abuse can help to stop existing abuse and prevent further abuse.

Additionally, we care for victims of abuse and their families by offering resources that will contribute to healing. Further, we recognize the grace that God gives in upholding Christian community; we will look for grace-filled ways of dealing with both the victim and the accused.

Therefore, as a Christian community of faith and a United Methodist congregation, we pledge to conduct the ministry of the gospel in ways that assure the safety and spiritual growth of all of our children, youth and vulnerable persons, as well as all of the workers with children, youth and vulnerable persons. We will follow reasonable safety measures in the selection and recruitment of workers; we will implement prudent operational procedures in all programs and events; we will educate all of our workers with children, youth and vulnerable persons regarding the use of all appropriate policies and methods (including first aid and methods of discipline); we will have a clearly defined procedure for reporting a suspected incident of abuse that conforms to the requirements of state law; and we will be prepared to respond to media inquiries if an incident occurs.

III. ADOPTION OF POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Local churches within the conference will adopt and enforce their own Safe Sanctuary Policy For Children, Youth, and Vulnerable Persons. It is recommended that the congregational policy be equal to or exceed in strength of protection for all children, youth, and vulnerable persons the minimum standards here stated. The Tennessee Conference of UMC recommends the local church act as follows:

- A. Responsibility for Implementation. Implementing the Abuse Prevention Policy For Children, Youth, and Vulnerable Persons at a local church shall be the responsibility of the Pastor in Charge, the governing body, and a Safe Sanctuaries Committee (SSC) or its equivalent organized in compliance with the local church's governance process.

Safe Sanctuaries Committee or Equivalent. A Safe Sanctuaries Committee (this may be the age-level ministry committee or education committee) shall have the responsibility for developing local church safe sanctuaries policies and procedures; communicating with and educating the congregation concerning those policies and procedures; recruiting, screening, and training paid staff and volunteers; conducting site inspections and making recommendations; retaining records; and regularly reviewing conference policies and procedures, applicable state laws, and the insurance policy provisions and insurer requirements. It is recommended that this committee or its equivalent should have at least one representative each from Education, Age-level ministries, Trustees, and the Staff Parish Relations committees.

- B. Training. Such periodic training and education on the Safe Sanctuary Policy For Children, Youth, and Vulnerable Persons provided by the Tennessee Conference should be attended each quadrennium by the local church Pastor in Charge and SSC chairperson or other SSC designated member. Further, it is recommended that attendance at such conference-wide training include at a minimum, designees from the local church who will be personally coordinating and conducting safe sanctuaries training for employees and staff within the local church.
- C. Annual Review of Policy. The local church Safe Sanctuary Committee will conduct an annual review of the policy to facilitate implementation of best practices and compliance with current state and federal law. A report will be made to the Tennessee Conference as a part of their charge conference report.

IV. COMMON DEFINITIONS OF ABUSE

- 1. Child abuse (under age 18) is the harm or threatened harm to a child's health or welfare by a person responsible for the child's health or welfare or by a person in a position of trust, which harm occurs or is threatened through non-accidental physical or mental injury or sexual abuse.
- 2. Vulnerable persons abuse is the harm or threatened harm to a vulnerable person's health or welfare by a person responsible for the vulnerable person's health or welfare or by a person in a position of trust, which harm occurs or is threatened through non-accidental physical or mental injury or sexual abuse. A vulnerable person is any adult aged 18 or over who, by reason of mental or other disability, age, illness or other situation is permanently or for the time being unable to take care of him or herself, or to protect him or herself against significant harm or exploitation.
- 3. Physical abuse is any non-accidental act that inflicts bodily harm to a person, or failure to protect from physical harm where a duty exists to do so.
- 4. Neglect is failure to provide for physical survival needs (such as nutrition, medical, surgical, or any other care necessary for the well being of any child, youth, or vulnerable persons) to the extent that there is harm, or risk of harm, to health or safety.
- 5. Sexual abuse is any involvement of a child, youth or vulnerable person in intentional sexual acts or sexual conduct that produces sexual arousal or gratification for the perpetrator or sexual behaviors/situations in which there is a sexual component. Sexual abuse includes, without limitation, sexual contact or sharing of sexually explicit language, gestures, or images by a volunteer or staff person with, or directed to, a child, youth or vulnerable person.
- 6. Verbal abuse refers to spoken or unspoken violence or emotional cruelty against a child, youth, and/or a vulnerable person.

V. SCREENING PROCEDURES FOR VOLUNTEERS AND PAID STAFF

All persons, including Conference staff who intend to work with children, youth, and/or vulnerable persons at Conference-sponsored events, including overnight or longer events, must also be properly screened and attend an age-appropriate orientation/ training session on child protection and abuse and have current background check. Local church Safe Sanctuary policies are expected to meet the minimum requirements set out below for training and screening. A Safe Spaces Verification form will be completed and submitted to the appropriate leadership prior to participation.

The following procedures should be followed:

- A written job description outlining duties and expectations must be provided, and shall be signed and dated by each person falling within the scope of the policy.
- An application/personal information form shall be completed.

- A Sexual Offender Registry check in any state where the applicant has resided during the past seven (7) years shall be conducted.
- Consent to a criminal background check. A background check should be provided for anyone staying overnight or longer, i.e. weekend retreats, summer camps.
- A new background check should be performed every 3 years as the standard.
- If the applicant is found to have been involved in any activity in which the applicant abused or exploited children, youth, or vulnerable persons the applicant will not be approved. Any conviction of a crime against children, youth or adults from vulnerable populations and any conviction of rape, sexual or physical assault shall disqualify any applicant. A person who has been convicted as a sex offender will not be approved. Affirmative responses to questions relating to crimes involving possession or use of drugs or suspension of a drivers' license within the past five years will prompt a heightened review of an application.
- Personal interviews with summary documentation will be conducted by the Safe Sanctuary team or Conference staff representative and kept in a confidential file maintained by the Conference ministry for whom the applicant will serve.
- References will be checked with summary documentation in a confidential file and maintained by the Conference ministry for whom the applicant will serve.

VI. RECIPROCITY

The Safe Spaces Ministry Team may accept training provided by other United Methodist Conferences or United Methodist churches in other conferences after a review of the policies and procedures implemented in the other conference or church. Screening will be accepted provided that there has been a copy of the National Screen that included a national criminal check conducted by the other conference or church submitted with the request.

VII. REPORTING OF INCIDENTS

Incidents may involve inappropriate behavior by staff/volunteers or other participants toward a participant and call for immediate on-site corrective action. Incidents may involve the abuse, neglect or exploitation of participants by staff/volunteers or other participants and mandate reporting through the Tennessee Child Abuse hotline (1-877-237-0004) or the Adult Protective Services hotline (1-888-277-8366). In case of an emergency, immediately call 9-1-1.

A call to the hotline is required to be made by staff/volunteers if there is reasonable cause to suspect that abuse of a participant has occurred. When the necessity of reporting occurs, the protection of children, youth, and vulnerable persons must be paramount. Cooperation with the Tennessee Department of Children's Services, the Tennessee Commission on Aging and Disability and law enforcement is required in all such incidents.

In case of allegations of abuse occurring in the church or ministries affiliated with the church or having the potential to impact the ministry of the church, the district superintendent and/or bishop shall be notified immediately. The Safe Spaces Ministry staff person will also be notified following notification of the appropriate state or local law enforcement authorities. Parents or legal guardians will generally be notified; however, in circumstances in which the parent or guardian is alleged or suspected to be the perpetrator or may have been complicit in the neglect or abuse, notice may be withheld in appropriate circumstances. When doubt exists, legal counsel should be consulted.

VIII. STATEMENT TO THE MEDIA

The Media Crisis Response Plan should be enacted to insure proper protocol is followed.

The bishop or alternate spokesperson shall provide conference and district ministry groups with guidelines for communications with media about the incident(s) which may have been reported.

IX. FUNDAMENTAL SAFE SPACES PROCEDURES FOR THE CONFERENCE AND DISTRICT

1. Appropriate Boundaries: All persons, staff and participants, will maintain boundaries appropriate to their specific roles, age, and relationship to another.
2. Two Adult Rule: At least two adults should be present during all conference events such that no one adult will be alone with any number of children, youth, or vulnerable persons. For small group activities where one adult supervises one group, two or more groups are to meet in sight and sound of each other. The ministry leader may also decide to combine groups to ensure the safety of all parties. Small Group sizes will be determined by the size of the group, but should not exceed reasonable adult/participant ratios. (When both genders of students are represented, both genders of adults should also be represented.)

POLICY REVISION DATE: May 2017

E. SEXUAL MISCONDUCT POLICY FOR CHURCH PROFESSIONALS

of the Tennessee Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church

Preamble

The Tennessee Annual Conference does not approve of and will not tolerate sexual misconduct. The conference is committed to the eradication of this conduct if it should occur and to the creation of an environment of hospitality for all persons, male or female, that is free of sexual overtones and implications, and encourages respect, equality, and kinship in Christ. This policy aims to provide an avenue to report sexual misconduct while assuring that any person doing so in good faith will be protected from retaliation.

All church professionals (see definition) have positions of great trust, power, and responsibility. This provides the opportunity for unique relationships of grace and caring. While church professionals can sometimes violate the trust given them within these relationships, sexual misconduct is one of the gravest violations of this trust. This policy seeks to address the abuse of power by church professionals who engage in sexual misconduct. While this policy is binding for appointed church professionals, it is our hope that it may serve as a guide for other church professionals such as local church laity staff and volunteers.

The intent of this policy is to provide guidance to both laity and clergy of the Tennessee Annual Conference and the local church regarding sexual misconduct and, thereby, protect the relationship between church professionals and parishioners, staff members, colleagues, and others. It is both the ethical and legal responsibility of the Tennessee Annual Conference to ensure that there are mechanisms for preventing sexual misconduct and addressing allegations of the same. This policy provides guidance regarding the definition of sexual misconduct, procedures for filing and addressing allegations of sexual misconduct, and training expectations and requirements designed to prevent sexual misconduct in the Tennessee Annual Conference. The primary focus of this policy shall be the search for truth to assure justice for the complainant and the accused. This policy is not intended to supplant or substitute for the formal complaint process and its attendant fair process protection in the current Book of Discipline, which must, where applicable, be followed in addition to this policy. Failure by church authorities to use or follow any of the procedures herein is not a chargeable offense, nor can it be used as grounds for an appeal of a formal grievance, complaint, review or trial as defined in current Book of Discipline. We are committed to procedural accuracy and pastoral care in the pursuit of justice for victims and survivors, real accountability for abusers, and healing for all parties.

Theological Foundation

We believe and affirm every person is created in the image of God. We further believe and affirm sexual misconduct within the ministerial relationship and in the Church is incompatible with biblical teachings and ethical standards. Sexual misconduct violates the sacred worth of persons who are created in the image of God. Such misconduct is particularly reprehensible in the context of the ministerial relationship that should represent the care of God. It should be understood that sexual misconduct is an abuse of power and authority. This misconduct alienates persons from the ministry of the Church. It tarnishes the Church's ministry and mission. Those guilty of sexual misconduct bring real harm to persons, congregations, and the Church as a whole.

Forgiveness is a sacred teaching of the Church, but this teaching in no way protects a person guilty of sexual misconduct from the discipline of the Church. Representing the Church as a church professional is a privilege requiring the highest professional conduct. Forgiveness by God or by a person harmed by sexual misconduct does not automatically restore the privilege of serving as a church professional. It is not appropriate for church authorities to pressure persons harmed by sexual misconduct to forgive the offender as a way to restore to the offender the privilege of serving as a professional in the Church. Central to the task of church authorities is to protect the vulnerable and to eradicate sexual misconduct from the Church.

Definitions

A. Church Professionals

1. Appointed Church Professionals

Appointed church professionals shall include full, associate, and provisional ministerial members of the Tennessee Annual Conference, as well as ordained deacons (full and provisional) and elders, diaconal ministers and local pastors, in both the effective and retired relationships, supply pastors, and other persons serving the Tennessee Annual Conference or any local church under appointment of the bishop or under the supervision of a district superintendent, including persons keeping their membership in another annual conference or in another denomination and persons holding orders issued by these conferences while on honorable or administrative location. Additionally, this includes lay and clergy persons employed directly by conference agencies including but not limited to the Conference Council on Connectional Ministries.

2. Other Church Professionals

Other church professionals shall include anyone in a position of power, authority, or leadership employed by or serving as a volunteer in a ministry in the Tennessee Annual Conference.

B. Book of Discipline

The 2016 Book of Discipline refers to The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church 2016, which sets forth the laws, plans, polity, and processes by which The United Methodist Church governs itself. It contains insight and information about the distinct United Methodist understanding of the nature and mission of the Church, and about what is expected of its clergy and members as they seek to be faithful and effective disciples of Christ.

C. Book of Resolutions

The Book of Resolutions 2016 refers to the volume containing the text of all resolutions or pronouncements on issues approved by the General Conference and currently valid. The Book of Resolutions contains not only the resolutions and policy statements passed by the most recent General Conference, but also all such statements still considered to represent the position of The United Methodist Church. The text of any resolution is considered the official position of the denomination on that subject.

D. Sexual Misconduct

Misconduct of a sexual nature is a chargeable offense, for both laity and clergy. Chargeable offenses include: child abuse, sexual abuse, sexual misconduct [including pornography], sexual harassment, gender discrimination, crime, and immorality.

Sexual misconduct is abuse of power and authority, and is not only an act against one person, but an act against fellow ministry professionals; members in the local congregation; the Church at large; and God. (Book of Resolutions 2016, ¶2044).

Sexual misconduct includes but is not limited to:

- child or adult sexual abuse
- sexual abuse of youth or those without capacity to consent
- rape or sexual assault
- gross sexual imposition like prolonged gazing, fondling, grabbing, or stalking
- sexual harassment
- unwelcome touching and advances
- inappropriate and unwelcome contacts of a sexual nature either in person or via phone, digital media, or cyberspace
- sexualized verbal comments, gestures, or visuals
- use of sexualized materials including pornography

- sexualized behavior
- solicitation of sexual activity or other sex-related behavior by promise of rewards
- coercion of sexual activity by threat of punishment
- or misuse of pastoral or ministerial position using sexualized conduct to take advantage of the vulnerability of another (The Book of Discipline 2012, ¶161, Book of Resolutions 2016, ¶2081, ¶2082)

Each alleged occurrence of sexual misconduct requires its own unique and appropriate investigation (as described below) and response, depending on the facts and circumstances.

Sexual harassment is a form of sexual misconduct and is defined in The 2016 Book of Discipline, Social Principles ¶161(J) as, “any unwanted sexual comment, advance, or demand, either verbal or physical, that is reasonably perceived by the recipient as demeaning, intimidating or coercive. Sexual harassment must be understood as an exploitation of a power relationship rather than an exclusively sexual issue. Sexual harassment includes, but is not limited to, the creation of a hostile or abusive working environment resulting from discrimination on the basis of gender.” To clarify further, it is unwanted sexual or gender-directed behavior within a pastoral, employment, ministerial (paid or unpaid), mentor, or colleague relationship that is so severe or pervasive that it alters the conditions of employment or volunteer work or unreasonably interferes with the complainant’s performance by creating a hostile environment that can include unwanted sexual jokes, repeated advances, touching, displays, or comments that insult, degrade, or sexually exploit women, men, elders, children, or youth. “It can create a hostile, offensive environment that can include unwanted inappropriate sexual jokes, repeated advances, touching, displays, or comments that insult, degrade, or sexually exploit women, men, elders, children, or youth” (Book of Resolutions 2016, ¶2045). Both sexual and gender harassment are exploitations of power and are discriminatory by law (GCFA Legal Manual, <http://www.gcfa.org/gcfa-legal-manual>).

Sexual abuse is a form of sexual misconduct and occurs when a church professional engages in sexual contact or sexualized behavior with a congregant, client, employee, student, staff member, coworker, or volunteer (Book of Resolutions 2016, ¶161(I)). It can include coerced or forced sexual contact (including those unable to give informed consent), sexual interaction or contact with children or youth, and sexual exhibitionism or display of sexual visuals or pornography.

Sexualized behavior is behavior that communicates sexual interest and/or content. Examples include, but are not limited to displaying sexually suggestive visual materials; use of pornography in church programs on or with church property, making sexual comments or innuendo about one’s own or another person’s body; touching another person’s body; touching another person’s body/hair/clothing; touching or rubbing oneself in the presence of another person; kissing; and sexual intercourse. Sexualized behavior can be a form of sexual misconduct when this behavior is unwanted by the recipient or witness, is a violation of society’s or the Church’s law, breaks the sacred trust in the ministerial role, or violates the vows taken at membership or ordination. The judicial council asserts that dating, romantic, or sexual relationships between clergy and their parishioners “are never appropriate because of imbalance of power” (Decision 1228, 2012). For the sake of maintaining healthy boundaries and preventing a betrayal of sacred trust, a clergyperson who has a genuine desire to date a parishioner must contact their district superintendent, and in consultation with the DS, determine a reasonable course of action for discontinuing the pastor/parishioner relationship before beginning a dating relationship.

Pornography is sexually explicit material that portrays violence, abuse, coercion, domination, humiliation, or degradation for the purpose of arousal. Any sexually explicit material that depicts children or adults is pornographic. “The United Methodist Church declares that the use of pornography in church programs, on church premises or with church property by persons in ministerial roles (lay and clergy) is a form of sexual misconduct, is a chargeable offense for laity and clergy in The United Methodist Church” (Book of Resolutions 2016, ¶2081, ¶2082).

E. Complainant

A complainant is a person who submits a written, signed, and dated statement alleging an incident of sexual or professional misconduct. A complainant may be a parent or responsible party for a minor or an adult incapable of self-reporting.

F. Respondent

A respondent is a church professional against whom a complaint has been made.

G. Complainant Advocate (Response Team Member)

A trained complainant advocate is a response team member who actively supports a complainant of church professional misconduct/sexual abuse through the denominational complaint process. The role of advocate is one of care-giving, not investigation. (The 2016 Book of Discipline ¶362, 363, and 2702.1)

H. Respondent Advocate (Response Team Member)

A trained respondent advocate is a response team member who actively supports a respondent who is accused of sexual misconduct/abuse through the denomination complaint process as discussed in The 2016 Book of Discipline in paragraphs ¶362, 363, and 2702.1. The role of advocate is one of care-giving, not investigation.

I. Conference Response Team Coordinator

The conference response team coordinator oversees the complaint process, serves as a resource for district superintendents, bishops, complainants, and respondents and maintains the integrity of the process including documentation of complaints for the office of the bishop. This may be the assistant to the bishop, an appointed conference response team member, or appropriate Tennessee Conference personnel. The role of conference response team coordinator is one of care-giving, not investigation.

Making a Report

Any concern a person has about sexual misconduct by a church professional should be promptly reported to any district superintendent or the bishop. The list of names of the current persons in these positions and their contact information may be found at www.tnmc.org or by calling the conference office at 615-329-1177. If for any reason such person finds it difficult to report his or her concerns to a district superintendent or the bishop, the person may contact a trained advocate or the conference response team coordinator, who is available to assist any complainant with the process in making a report to either a district superintendent or the bishop. A list of the members of the conference response team along with the conference response team coordinator's contact information can be found in each volume of the Journal of the Tennessee Annual Conference following each annual conference session or at www.tnmc.org/safe-spaces-ministry. (The 2016 Book of Discipline ¶363)

Mandatory Reporting

In no way should this policy be interpreted or applied in a manner that interferes with any licensed practitioner in fulfilling his/her mandatory reporting requirements.

All allegations of sexual misconduct with minors or vulnerable adults occurring in Tennessee will be reported to the appropriate governmental agencies, as required by mandatory reporting laws of Tennessee.

Policy Against Retaliation

No retaliation will be tolerated on account of a good faith report of sexual misconduct. Prohibited retaliation will be considered a separate and independent violation of this policy and appropriate action may be taken against that retaliator. Anyone who believes they have been retaliated against may also report such retaliation as detailed above in Making a Report. The person is encouraged to report retaliation immediately to a district superintendent or the bishop, or contact his or her trained advocate or the conference response team coordinator for assistance in reporting the concern to a district superintendent or the bishop.

Investigation

Upon receipt by a district superintendent or the bishop of a report, a prompt and thorough investigation into the allegations of sexual misconduct against any church professional will be conducted and appropriate corrective action, if called for based upon all of the facts, shall be taken and concluded within a reasonable period of time. The scope and details of each investigation will depend on the nature of the report and the related circumstances. In circumstances involving church professionals, by doctrinal law, the procedure may be governed by The 2016 Book of Discipline in ¶362 and ¶2701-2719. In each instance, the investigation will be handled with as much discretion as the circumstances permit to protect the privacy of the individuals involved. All persons having reported suspected sexual misconduct should refrain from contacting the person suspected of such conduct. Likewise, the persons suspected of such conduct shall refrain from contacting the complainant or alleged victim, unless otherwise directed by the bishop or district superintendent. All persons serving as witnesses in the investigation should refrain from contacting the complainant or the respondent, unless directed by a district superintendent or bishop to do so, in order to preserve the integrity and confidentiality of the investigation and confidentiality.

All persons having received a report of sexual misconduct, including anyone specifically engaged to serve as an advocate or investigate such reports, shall keep all reports confidential, except as required by The 2016 Book of Discipline, where applicable, or necessary to investigate and resolve such matters, and/or to respond to any related legal or administrative proceedings.

During the course of an investigation, a trained complainant advocate may be assigned to provide ongoing support to a complainant or alleged victim. Likewise, a trained respondent advocate may be assigned to provide ongoing support to the respondent. Both advocates are bound by the confidentiality provisions of this policy.

All allegations of sexual misconduct with minors or vulnerable adults occurring in Tennessee will be reported to the appropriate governmental agencies, as required by mandatory reporting laws of Tennessee.

Training

Appointed church professionals (see definition) serving in the Tennessee Annual Conference are required to attend official Tennessee Annual Conference trainings on 1) Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics and 2) Safe Sanctuaries each quadrennium. All transfers and candidates for ministry are required to complete these trainings prior to commissioning or appointment, whichever comes first. Compliance with these training requirements and a completed criminal background check are conditions of employment or ministerial appointment. A church professional failing to comply with these conditions of appointment may be cited an administrative charge by the bishop in accordance with The 2016 Book of Discipline ¶362.

It is strongly suggested that other church professionals (see definition) attend official Tennessee Annual Conference trainings on 1) Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics and 2) Safe Sanctuaries each quadrennium.

Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics Team

The 2010 report of the Sexual Ethics Task Force recommended to the annual conference that a Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics Team be formed to guide the portion of the Safe Spaces Ministry tasked with reviewing policies and implementing training opportunities in the best practices to create and maintain healthy boundaries for ministry. The Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics Team is a sub-team of the Safe Spaces Ministry Committee. This committee is made of the three teams: 1) Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics team; 2) Safe Sanctuary Team; 3) Conference Response Team. The Safe Spaces Ministry serves to insure that policies and procedures necessary for keeping ministry safe in order for sacred space to be created are developed, reviewed, appropriately presented and training provided for members of the Tennessee Annual Conference. The work of the committee is funded through apportionment giving as allocated through the Connectional Ministries budget on an annual basis. The Connectional Ministries, the Nashville Episcopal Area Office of Ministerial Concerns and the Tennessee Conference Board of Ordained Ministry work collaboratively to guide this vital ministry.

Availability of Policy

This policy shall be presented annually in the Journal of the Tennessee Annual Conference. Further, it shall be posted at www.tnumc.org continuously. It should be made available in at least one common area of every church in the Tennessee Annual Conference. It is strongly recommended that the Sexual Misconduct is Never Okay flyer be prominently displayed in one common area of every church in the Tennessee Annual Conference. This flyer is available for download at www.tnumc.org/safe-spaces-ministry. Questions about the policy should be directed to the staff liaison to the Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics Team through the Tennessee Annual Conference. This liaison will be identified on the conference website where the policy is located.

The purpose of these procedures is to ensure the safety and reduce the risk of harm for all persons participating in Next Gen Ministry events.

1. Two Adult Rule: During all conference events one adult will not be alone with any number of children/youth. For small group activities where one adult supervises one group, two or more groups are to meet in sight and sound of each other. These two adults should be non-related and non-cohabitating. The ministry leader may also decide to combine groups to ensure the safety of all parties. Small group sizes will be determined by the size of the group, but should not exceed reasonable adult child/youth ratios.
2. Four & Five Year Older Rule: These persons are at least four years older than the oldest high school youth member of the church group. These persons are at least five years older than the oldest child of the church group. It is expected that all event staff/volunteers in supervisory roles have a completed a background check, interview with the director of Next Gen Discipleship, and Safe Sanctuary training.
3. Adult/Child & Adult/Youth Ratio: Some events may require smaller ratios. If so stricter requirements will be communicated to all adults and churches prior to the event through registration confirmation packets as well as through emails and the conference youth website.

- a. The adult/child ratio will be at least 2:12 at retreats/rallies/meetings with the understanding that one adult will not be alone with any number of youth (refer to Procedure 1). The ratio for offsite camps and mission trips will be 2:6.
  - b. The adult/youth ratio will be at least 2:16 at retreats/rallies/meetings with the understanding that one adult will not be alone with any number of youth (refer to Procedure 1). The ratio for offsite camps and mission trips will be 2:8.
4. Male/Female Adults: When a group from any local church consists of both genders, the accompanying adults shall also be of both genders. This also applies to small groups and mission worksite groups.
5. Background Checks: All adults at Next Gen Conference events will be expected to have a background check, training on the local church's Safe Sanctuary Policy and Procedures*, as well as a review of these procedures. Each church will sign a verification form listing each adult attending the event signed by the ministry leader and pastor. The verification form will serve as a confirmation that each adult has completed the requirements for participation. (*If your church does not have policy or background checks are needed contact Jullie Meyer, ministry assistant at 615-327-1533 for help.)
6. Medical Release/Registration Form: All children/youth and adults attending Next Gen Ministry Conference events shall have a completed medical release form and completed parental permission form. The medical release form will be valid from August-July of a given year. It is expected that a new form will be submitted if a change in medical status occurs.
7. Ministry Leaders Responsibility: It is expected that the ministry leader from the local church maintain a copy of each attendee's form at all times. These forms should be carried with the group traveling to and from events.
8. Check-In Procedure: The Local Church Ministry Team should develop a consistent check-in procedure during the event to meet with the church group. These should be spread throughout the event and event day.
9. Lodging for Overnight Events: An adult will not share a room/hotel/tent with a child/youth unless the adult is a parent of that child/youth with whom they are sharing the room/hotel/tent.
10. Lodging for Overnight Events: There will be separate sleeping areas/rooms for males and females at all Next Gen sponsored events. When there are several rooms/cabins of youth, there will be at least two non-related adults of the same gender in the room/cabin.
11. Showers: In the event of open showers, separate shower times for children/youth and for adults shall be designated to prevent children/youth and adults showering together. If this is not possible, swimsuits will be required.
12. Two Adults at Mission Sites: There will be two adults at each work site at all times on mission project sites. (Procedure 7 applies.) These two adults should be non-related and non-cohabitating.
13. Mission Site Responsibility: No Next Gen participant will be alone with an adult from a host mission family during a mission event. This includes host pastors, congregation members, homeowners, clients of mission agencies, etc. Likewise, an adult mission team member will not be alone with a child/youth from the host mission.

A. 2017 AUDITED FINANCIAL STATEMENT

BLANKENSHIP CPA GROUP, PLLC

CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS AND CONSULTANTS

Independent Auditors' Report

To the Council on Finance and Administration of the Tennessee Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the Tennessee Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church (a not-for-profit organization), which comprise the statements of financial position as of December 31, 2017 and 2016, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Tennessee Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church as of December 31, 2017 and 2016, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

TENNESSEE ANNUAL CONFERENCE
OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2017 and 2016

Note 1. Nature of Organization and Significant Accounting Policies

A. Nature of Organization

The Tennessee Annual Conference ("the Conference") is a regional body of The United Methodist Church comprised of the lay members, clergy, and 600+ churches in 42 counties in middle Tennessee. The Conference is primarily responsible for all the ministries that are jointly provided by and for the United Methodists in its geographic area. The Conference administers Conference operating and program funds that are received from churches, boards and agencies, and individuals of the Conference, in accordance with the budget and other directives of the Conference, the respective boards and agencies and donors.

B. Basis of Accounting

The financial statements have been prepared using the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

C. Financial Statement Presentation

The Conference follows the recommendations contained in the Presentation of Financial Statements, Not-For-Profit Entities topic of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification. Under those provisions, net assets and revenues, gains, and losses are classified based on the absence or existence and nature of donor-imposed restrictions as follows:

Unrestricted net assets - Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed stipulations.

Temporarily restricted net assets - Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that can be fulfilled by actions of the Conference pursuant to those stipulations or that expire by the passage of time.

Permanently restricted net assets - Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that may be maintained permanently by the Conference. Generally, the donors of such assets permit the Conference to use all or part of the income earned on the assets.

D. Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

E. Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Conference defines its cash, designated cash and cash equivalents to include cash on hand, demand deposits, and commercial paper and other investments with initial maturities of three months or less whether those amounts are unrestricted or restricted.

F. Investments

Investments in marketable securities with readily determinable fair values and all investments in debt securities are reported at their fair values in the statements of financial position. Unrealized gains and losses are included in changes in net assets. Investment income and gains restricted by a donor are reported as increases in unrestricted net assets if the restrictions are met in the reporting period in which the income and gains are recognized. However, if a donor contributes an investment required to be held in perpetuity, gains and losses on the investment are subject to the same permanent restriction unless the donor explicitly states otherwise.

OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2017 and 2016

G. Fair Value Measurements

The fair value of financial assets and liabilities is measured according to the Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures topic of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification. Fair value is required to be evaluated and adjusted according to the following valuation techniques.

Level 1 – Fair value is determined using quoted market prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities.

Level 2 – Fair value is determined using quoted market prices in active markets for similar assets and liabilities.

Level 3 – Fair value is determined using unobservable market prices in a market that is typically inactive.

H. Income Taxes

The Conference is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

I. Apportionments Receivable

Apportionments receivable represent apportionments received after year-end for the budget year ended December 31, 2017 and 2016. No allowance for doubtful collections has been recorded.

J. Fixed Assets

Fixed assets are carried at cost if purchased and estimated fair market value if donated. Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, excluding land, which are 5 to 30 years. Depreciation expense for the year ended December 31, 2017 and 2016 was $255,318 and $251,032. Property and equipment include land, buildings, improvements, equipment, vehicles and furniture and fixtures at the following locations:

Conference Headquarters	Nashville, TN
Beersheba Springs Assembly	Beersheba Springs, TN
Cedar Crest Camp	Lyles, TN

K. Donated Services

Contributed services are reflected in the financial statements at the estimated fair value of the services received only when those services either (a) create or enhance nonfinancial assets, or (b) require specialized skills that are provided by individuals possessing those skills and would typically need to be purchased if not provided by donation. Unpaid volunteers make contributions of time in various administrative and program functions. The Conference has not valued these donations.

L. Revenue and Support

Contributions are received and recorded as unrestricted, temporarily restricted, or permanently restricted support depending on the existence and/or nature of any donor restrictions. Contributions received and unconditional promises to give are measured at their fair values and are reported as an increase in net assets. The Conference reports restricted gifts of cash and other assets as support for future periods. When a donor restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the statements of activities as net released from restrictions. Donor-restricted contributions whose restrictions are met in the same reporting period are reported as unrestricted support.

OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2017 and 2016

The primary source of support are apportionments received from the local churches in the Conference. Apportionments expire at the end of each calendar year and, therefore, have been recorded as unrestricted support. Contributions and other revenue are primarily receipts by programs that have external sources of revenue such as registration fees or reimbursements.

M. Functional Allocation of Expenses

Expenses are charged directly to program, management and general, or fundraising based on a combination of specific identification and allocation by management.

N. Advertising Costs

Advertising costs are expensed as incurred and are included in program expense.

O. Reclassifications

Certain reclassifications have been made to the 2016 financial statements to conform with 2017 presentation.

Note 2. Investments

Investments as of December 31, 2017 and 2016 are summarized as follows:

The Conference has $3,977,787 and $2,756,694 invested with the United Methodist Development Fund of Tennessee/Kentucky, Inc. (a related party) in unsecured participation accounts (see Note 2 and 3) as of December 31, 2017 and 2016.

Note 5. Related Party Transactions

The Conference is a related party to the United Methodist Foundation for the Memphis & Tennessee Conferences (the "Foundation") and the United Methodist Development Fund of Tennessee/Kentucky, Inc. (the "Development Fund"). The Conference pays routine expenses of the Foundation and Fund including salaries, retirement and insurance and is reimbursed by the Foundation. The total amount paid to the Conference by the Foundation and Fund for these routine expenses was $359,967 and $338,904 in 2017 and 2016 respectively. The Conference has investments with both the Foundation and the Development Fund (see Note 2 and 3).

The Foundation and Fund lease office space from the Conference for $1,500 per month. The lease renews annually.

OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2017 and 2016

Note 6. Retirement Plans

The Conference provides pension benefits for clergy serving churches in the Tennessee Conference under Episcopal appointment, and full-time permanent staff of the Conference through various retirement plans. All plans are multi-employer plans administered by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits of The United Methodist Church ("Wespath"). Wespath operates under the authority of the church's General Conference, and implements the plans in accordance with the plan documents. Pension benefits for clergy are a combination of defined benefit and defined contribution plans. Pension benefits for Conference lay staff are all defined contribution plans. Total Conference contributions to all plans for the years ended December 31, 2017 and 2016 were $3,213,870 and $3,179,703. The various retirement plans are listed below:

Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP):

CRSP is a multi-employer 403(b) retirement plan that provides pension coverage to eligible clergy. CRSP is both a defined benefit plan, which provides benefits based on years of credited service, and a defined contribution plan, which provides a retirement account balance established and funded by the Conference. Contributions to the defined benefit plan are actuarially determined and contributions to the defined contribution plan equal 3% of the clergy's monthly compensation.

Effective 1/1/2014, contributions to the defined benefit plan are actuarially determined and contributions to the defined contribution plan equal 2% of the clergy's compensation, plus a matching contribution of up to 1% of the clergy's compensation, for a maximum of 3%.

Supplement One to CRSP (Pre-1982):

Pre-1982 is a multi-employer 403(b) defined benefit plan for Conference clergy entering service prior to January 1, 1982. General Conference 2000 required each annual conference to adopt a formal funding plan to retire the conference pre-1982 pension obligations. The Conference's Pre-1982 plan has been fully funded since the mid-1990s. The Conference approves a minimum distribution (past service rate) each year for participants in the Pre-1982 plan, based on a recommendation by the Conference Board of Pensions. The PSR for the year ended December 31, 2017 and 2016 was $692 and $682 for pre-1982 service years, which is 1.04% and 1.05% of the Conference average compensation respectively.

United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP)

The UMPIP is a multi-employer 403(b) defined contribution plan providing eligible clergy and employees of the Conference with retirement savings. Conference employees and clergy may contribute up to the dollar limits set by current Internal Revenue Service regulations under both pre-tax and after-tax elections. The Conference makes no contributions to this plan for full-time clergy, who participate in CRSP. Effective 1/1/2014, the Conference contributes 12% of part-time clergy's compensation into UMPIP. The Conference matches non-clergy contributions of 3% or more of compensation with a fixed 12% matching contribution. No matching contribution is provided for employee contributions less than 3% of compensation.

Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP)

CPP is a multi-employer health and welfare plan that provides death and disability benefits as well as other supplemental benefits to eligible clergy and their beneficiaries. CPP is funded by the Conference at a rate of 3% of compensation.

TENNESSEE ANNUAL CONFERENCE
OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
Notes to Financial Statements

Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP)

MPP covers clergy who served from 1982 through 2006. It is a multi-employer defined contribution plan, but differs from a true defined contribution plan in that upon retirement, participants must annuitize 65% of their account balances, and the Conference is responsible for funding the annuities should the need arise. Upon annuitization, the monthly benefit becomes a defined benefit.

Some amounts designated for pension benefits have been transferred to the legal title of Wespath multi-employer plans and are not reported in these financial statements as net assets of the Conference. The December 31 value of these Wespath accounts was as follows:

Pre-82 Pension	$ 22,221,039	$ 19,681,189
Corpus of TN Superannuate	80,279	80,279
	$ 22,301,318	$ 19,761,468

Note 7. Health Care Plan

The Conference sponsors the Tennessee Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc. Health Benefit Plan (HBP). The HBP is open to all eligible plan participants including clergy, full-time Conference staff, designated students who are part-time local pastors and their respective eligible dependents. The Conference director of administrative services is the plan administrator. The plan administrator uses a third-party administrator for processing claims and other duties but retains responsibility for benefits payable. The HBP is a self-funded plan paying covered benefits out of Conference assets. Plan participants help cover some costs of covered benefits through contributions, deductibles and out-of-pocket expenses. The Conference funds the HBP using a pay-as-you-go system. Conference payments to the HBP for the year ended December 31, 2017 and 2016 were $2,846,242 and $3,046,574.

Participation in the HBP can continue upon retirement under the Conference's formal retirement plan provided the participant makes required contributions to the plan. This coverage can continue until age 65 with stipulations. The Conference uses the fiscal year as the measurement date for its plan.

The Conference has not pre-funded its postretirement healthcare plan but operates instead on a pay-as-you-go basis. Unfunded Postretirement Healthcare Benefits have been recognized representing the underfunded status of the Conference HBP as of December 31 as follows:

	2017	2016

The 2017 Conference created the Pension Reserve Trust ("Trust") for the purpose of better protecting the pension assets that have been accumulated by the Conference in excess of the amounts needed to fully fund plans ("Pension Reserves"). All Pension Reserves were conveyed or redirected into the Trust effective July 1, 2017. The Treasurer is authorized to make routine transactions into and out of the Trust as provided in the approved budget; but otherwise, the Trust assets are designated to uses approved by its elected trustees, who are all members of the conference Board of Pensions.

Note 9. Loans Receivable

The Conference has unsecured loans receivable from employees. The loans are being repaid over terms up to 15 years with interest of 3.07%.

Note 10. Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements

In February 2016, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842). This new accounting guidance will increase transparency and comparability among organizations by recognizing lease assets and lease liabilities on the balance sheet and disclosing key information about leasing arrangements.

The new standard is effective for nonpublic entities for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2019. The Conference is currently evaluating the effect that implementation of the new standard will have on its financial position, results of operations, and cash flows.

In August, 2016, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) 2016-14, Not-for-Profit Entities (Topic 958): Presentation of Financial Statements for Not-for-Profit Entities, that is intended to improve financial reporting relating to liquidity, financial performance and cash flows.

TENNESSEE ANNUAL CONFERENCE
OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
Notes to Financial Statements

More specifically, the changes affect net asset classifications by reflecting two classifications of net assets, one “without donor-imposed restrictions” and one “with donor-imposed restrictions,” which differ from the traditional classifications of unrestricted, temporarily restricted, and permanently restricted. In addition, reporting of expenses by both natural and functional classification is required and investment returns must be reflected net of related investment expenses. The cash flows statement is also allowed to be restructured by using the direct method of reporting and there are further disclosures regarding an organization’s liquidity.

The new standard is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2017. The Conference is currently evaluating the effect that implementation of the new standard will have on its financial position, results of operations, and cash flows.

Note 11. Subsequent Events

The Conference has evaluated events and transactions for subsequent events that would impact the financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2017 through September 21, 2018, the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

CHAPTER 14

ADDENDUM

*For clarity and historic record, the following items from the 2017 journal have been added in this chapter.
Reference to where each one is noted in the 2017 journal is included.*

*These are the five amendments related to the website link listed under the report titled Constitutional Amendments
- Monica Mowdy on page 45 of the 2017 journal and General Conference Constitutional Amendments 2 - Monica

BALLOT FOR CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

Proposed Constitutional Amendment – I

On May 16, 2016, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Portland, Oregon, the following Constitutional Amendment was adopted by a recorded vote of 746 Yes, 56 No (Calendar Item 121, DCA p. 2106). It is now presented to the Annual Conferences for vote.

In the 2012 Book of Discipline, Division One, add a new paragraph between current ¶¶ 5 and 6:

As the Holy Scripture reveals, both men and women are made in the image of God and, therefore, men and women are of equal value in the eyes of God. The United Methodist Church recognizes it is contrary to Scripture and to logic to say that God is male or female, as maleness and femaleness are characteristics of human bodies and cultures, not characteristics of the divine. The United Methodist Church acknowledges the long history of discrimination against women and girls. The United Methodist Church shall confront and seek to eliminate discrimination against women and girls, whether in organizations or in individuals, in every facet of its life and in society at large. The United Methodist Church shall work collaboratively with others to address concerns that threaten the cause of women's and girl's equality and well-being.

If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, this would become the new ¶6, and the current ¶¶ 6-61 would be renumbered as ¶¶ 7-62.

The Constitution contains a paragraph on racial justice but not one on gender justice. The language of this petition is parallel to the language of Article 5 on racial justice already in our Constitution. It is an affirmation that, as part of our core foundational beliefs, this church will forever stand against any actions, organizations or individuals that discriminate or dehumanize women and girls anywhere on this planet.

Proposed Constitutional Amendment – II

On May 20, 2016, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Portland, Oregon, the following Constitutional Amendment was adopted by a recorded vote of 509 Yes, 242 No (Calendar Item 429, DCA p. 2212). It is now presented to the Annual Conference for vote.

In the 2012 Book of Discipline, Division One, ¶4, Article IV, amend by deletion and addition as follows:

After “all persons” delete “without regard to race, color, national origin, status, or economic condition”. After “because of race, color, national origin,” delete “status,” and add “ability”. At the end of the paragraph, add “nor shall any member be denied access to an equal life, worship, and governance of the Church because of race, color, gender, national origin, ability, age, marital status, or economic condition.” If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, ¶ 4 would read:

The United Methodist Church is part of the church universal, which is one Body in Christ. The United Methodist Church acknowledges that all persons are of sacred worth. All persons shall be eligible to attend its worship services, participate in its programs, receive the sacraments, upon baptism be admitted as baptized members, and upon taking vows declaring the Christian faith, become professing members in any local church in the connection. In the United Methodist church, no conference or other organizational unit of the Church shall be structured so as to exclude any member of any constituent body of the Church because of race, color, national origin, ability, or economic condition, nor shall any member be denied access to an equal place in the life, worship, and governance of the Church because of race, color, gender, national origin, ability, age, marital status, or economic condition.

Adding “gender” (meaning male and female) to the Constitution affirms and protects The United Methodist Church’s commitment to gender equity throughout our worldwide connection. “Gender” is the disciplinary term for fair treatment of women and men (e.g., ¶16). The addition of the proposed final clause allows gender-specific groups like United Methodist Women and United Methodist Men.

Proposed Constitutional Amendment – III

On May 16, 2016, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Portland, Oregon, the following Constitutional Amendment was adopted by a recorded vote of 767 Yes, 22 No (Calendar Item 111, DCA pp. 2105). It is now presented to the Annual Conference for vote.

In the 2012 Book of Discipline, Division Two, Section VI, ¶ 34, Article III, (2016 Book of Discipline, Division Two, Section VI, ¶ 34, Article III) amend by addition as follows:

After the first sentence, add, “Such elections shall include open nominations from the floor by the annual conference and delegates shall be elected by a minimum of a simple majority of the ballots cast.” If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, ¶ 34 would read:

The annual conference shall elect clergy and lay delegates to the General Conference and to its jurisdictional or central conference in the manner provided in this section, Articles IV and V. Such elections shall include open nominations from the floor by the annual conference, and delegates shall be elected by a minimum of a simple majority of the ballots cast. The persons first elected up to the number determined by the ratio for representation in the General Conference shall be representatives in that body. Additional delegates shall be elected to complete the number determined by the ratio for representation in the jurisdictional or central conference, who, together with those first elected as above, shall be delegates in the jurisdictional or central conference. The additional delegates to the jurisdictional or central conference shall in the order of their election be the reserve delegates to the General Conference. The annual conference shall also elect reserve clergy and lay delegates to the jurisdictional or central conference as it may deem desirable. These reserve clergy and lay delegates to the jurisdictional or central conferences may act as reserve delegates to the General Conference when it is evident that not enough reserve delegates are in attendance at the General Conference.

The provision in ¶ 13. Article I. 2, “Delegates shall be elected in a fair and open process by the annual conferences,” is unduly vague. The addition of this one sentence to paragraph 34 of The Book of Discipline helps clarify that General Conference delegates shall be elected by the body of annual conference instead of simply being appointed by the bishop. Bishops appointing delegates without delegates being properly elected has been a practice in some central conferences.

Proposed Constitutional Amendment – IV

On May 20, 2016, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Portland, Oregon, the following Constitutional Amendment was adopted by a recorded vote of 621 Yes, 15 No (Calendar Item 468, DCA p. 2217). It is now presented to the Annual Conference for vote.

In the 2012 Book of Discipline, Division Three, ¶ 46, Article I, amend by addition, as follows:

To the end of the paragraph, add “provided that episcopal elections in central conferences shall be held at a regular, not an extra, session of the central conference, except in the case where an unexpected vacancy must be filled.” If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, ¶ 46 would read:

The bishops shall be elected by the respective jurisdictional and central conferences and consecrated in the historic manner at such time and place as may be fixed by the General Conference for those elected by the jurisdictions and by each central conference for those elected by such central conference, provided that episcopal elections in central conferences shall be held at a regular, not an extra, session of the central conference, except in the case where an unexpected vacancy must be filled.

As is the case for the jurisdictions, episcopal elections in the central conferences should be held in the regular sessions of those conferences, except when unexpected vacancies occur because of the death or early retirement of one or more bishops.

Proposed Constitutional Amendment – V

On May 17, 2016, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Portland, Oregon, the following Constitutional Amendment was adopted by a recorded vote of 715 Yes, 79 No (Calendar Item 446, DCA p. 2214). It is now presented to the Annual Conferences for vote.

In the 2012 Book of Discipline, Division Three, ¶ 50, Article VI, amend by addition, as follows:

After the last paragraph, add “These provisions shall not preclude that adoption by the General Conference of provisions for the Council of Bishops to hold its individual members accountable for their work, both as general superintendents and as presidents and residents in episcopal areas.” If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, ¶ 50 would read:

The bishops, both active and retired, of The Evangelical United Brethren Church and of The United Methodist Church at the time union is consummated shall be bishops of The United Methodist Church.

The bishops of The Methodist Church elected by the jurisdictions, the active bishops of The Evangelical United Brethren Church at the time of union, and bishops elected by the jurisdictions of The United Methodist Church shall have life tenure. Each bishop elected by a central conference of The Methodist Church shall have such tenure as the central conference electing him shall have determined.<sup>94</sup>

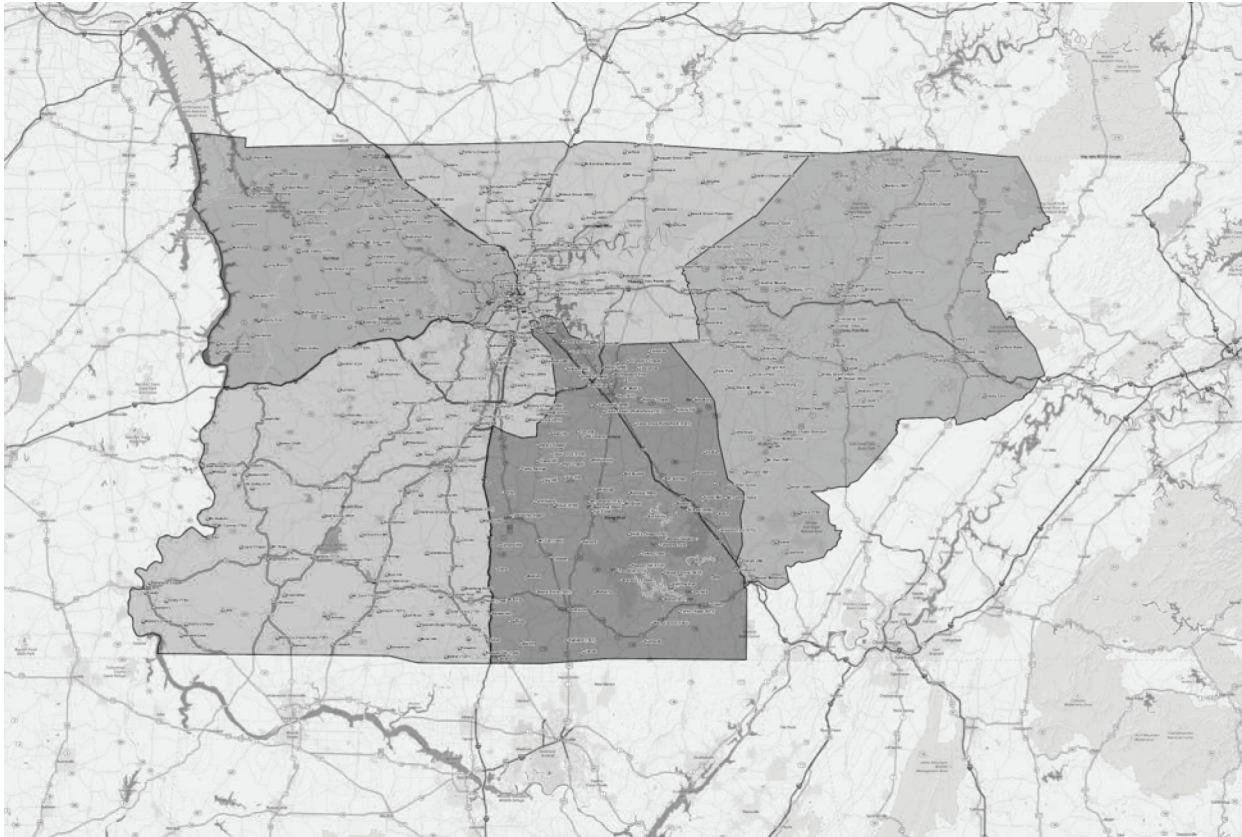

The jurisdictional conference shall elect a standing committee on episcopacy to consist of one clergy and one lay delegate from each annual conference, on nomination of the annual conference delegation. The committee shall review the work of the bishops, pass on their character and official administration, and report to the jurisdictional conference its findings for such action as the conference may deem appropriate within its constitutional warrant of power. The committee shall recommend the assignments of the bishops to their respective residence for final action by the jurisdictional conference.

These provisions shall not preclude that adoption by the General Conference of provisions for the Council of Bishops to hold its individual members accountable for their work, both as general superintendents and as presidents and resident in episcopal areas.

Judicial Decision 475 ruled unconstitutional the Council of Bishops holding its individual members accountable for their work, referencing ¶ 50 of the Constitution. This legislation follow Judicial Decision 1275 requirement of a legislative resolution from General Conference so the Council of Bishops may provide oversight of its members.

B. CABINET RESOLUTION - REDISTRICTING RESOLUTION – 2017

Whereas, it is the responsibility of the Bishop to form the districts after consultation with the district superintendents and after the number of districts has been determined by vote of the annual conference, and

Whereas, by resolution at the 2016 session of the Tennessee Annual Conference, the Conference voted to empower the Bishop and District Superintendents to assess feasibility and if determined feasible, to form the number of districts, at a minimum of five or a maximum of six for the 2017-2018 Conference year; and

Whereas, the Bishop and District Superintendents have undertaken this work and have reconfigured the Conference to five districts, with geographical boundaries and names as designated on the attached map; and

Now, therefore, be it resolved:

1. As of July 1, 2017, seven districts (Clarksville, Columbia, Cookeville, Cumberland, Murfreesboro, Nashville, Pulaski) will be reconfigured to five districts (Caney Fork River, Cumberland River, Harpeth River, Red River, Stones River). Each of these 5 new districts will be incorporated as per ¶2518.2.
2. All District Superintendents' compensation and housing will be paid from the Office of Administrative Services as of July 1, 2017. All items related to payroll and tax reporting will be the responsibility of Office of Administrative Services (OAS). Housing and compensation for DSs will be paid from apportioned funds. All district parsonage funds will be transferred to OAS for the Tennessee Conference, on or before June 30, 2017.

3. District administration apportionments received beginning June 1, 2017 will be treated as Annual Conference askings, and will be remitted to the five new districts beginning July 1, 2017. For the time period of July 1, 2017 through December 31, 2017, OAS will distribute $13,333 each month to each district from the total of district administration apportionments collected beginning June 1, 2017 (less any district expenses paid by OAS).
4. All district donor directed funds currently housed within district bank accounts will be transferred to OAS for the Tennessee Conference for monitoring and disbursing according to the instructions and restrictions related to each fund. Districts will remit those amounts to the Tennessee Conference no later than June 30, 2017 unless already held by the UMFMTTC. The Tennessee Conference, and the United Methodist Foundation and the Development Fund (UMFMTC), will handle any needed transactions for those district donor directed funds already invested with the UMFMTTC.
5. Any property or contracts of the current seven districts will be assigned as directed by the district trustees provided that such assignment is made prior to July 1, 2017. If the district trustees have not made an assignment of particular district property (including closed churches) and/or contracts as of July 1, 2017, the new district where the property is located and/or the contract is to be performed will be the successor in interest to such property or contract, effective 7/1/2017. If for any reason, District property or a District contract cannot be assigned to a new district, the Conference Trustees shall become the successor in interest to such property or contract, effective 7/1/2017.

C: CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES AND NOMINATIONS REPORTS – 2017

CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES

Melinda Young Britt, Director

In the past few months I have had the opportunity to witness God's work in the Tennessee Conference through a new lens. I have had rich conversations with laity and clergy called to transform our world and witnessed courage in leaders willing to turn toward uncertainty with the confidence that God has the power to anchor us in changing times. I am thankful for how my eyes have been opened to the ways God is working here.

One of the ways I have seen God work is through the new area-wide team working on New Church Development. The bishop prayed and imagined – what if Jacob Armstrong would lead this team? His giftedness and passion and call around beginning new churches is clear as we have seen. The bishop asked and Jacob felt called to shepherd this team which will strategize about the way the Nashville Area will birth new churches in conversation with other ministry teams and the cabinet. I am thankful to witness how God helped Jacob say yes to this leadership role and how he demonstrated sacrificial leadership by saying no to other roles and opportunities. This operational team has already spent lots of time in prayer and building covenant in their first two meetings. Their work has just begun – building a covenant, establishing a mission, vision, and values that will guide their work together. They will have increased responsibility in comparison to a traditional committee and a high time commitment and will have the authority of a highly committed group with accountability through their covenant and connection with the Connectional Ministries operational guiding team.

Connectional Ministries has listened over the past year – through conference-wide focus groups, experiential data, and through conversations with other conferences. We have heard your call for change toward a more effective way of resourcing local churches. The nominations report describes this moment in time for Connectional Ministries. Most of these leaders agreed to serve in a structure that we will no longer be using. And no new leaders were nominated to this old structure this year. You see names here of leaders who will be discerning and helping their committees discern their role of leadership within Connectional Ministries. This conversation will be led by a Restructuring Team put together by the bishop, our lay leader Holly Neal, Chip Hunter the last chair of the Conference Council on Connectional Ministries, and myself, and you can find it on the nominations report. They will take a deep dive into prayer and scripture, strategic thinking, and of course the Book of Discipline. They will have many conversations with leaders throughout our conference and other conferences. They will work to imagine a more adaptive, operational team structure that can nimbly adjust to the meet the changing needs of the districts and local churches, while valuing the fruitful work that is being done. Please pray for this team in their work. Next year at annual conference they will bring a resolution with the next structure we will use as a conference.

At this point, Bishop McAlilly, I would like to present the nominations committee report for acceptance by the body. As you know, most of our committee appointments were made at the beginning of the new quadrennium, so therefore only the two new teams we just discussed and the district leadership and committees are outlined in detail. The chairs of the other committees are included for informational purposes.

Today we will take another step in our journey together. It is a moment in our church's story where many things are in transition – in our own conference, clergy and churches are experiencing pastoral change, if you are not experiencing a pastoral change it may be a district change you are living. It is my hope today that the Connectional Ministries team can remind our conference that the grace of God is unchanging. Our new districts have new names based on the rivers that run through them. But it is the river of God's grace that flows through our conference that weaves all of those rivers together. The river of God's grace has quite a current and if we jump into that current of God's work we are going to pop out at the same watershed of transformation. The Connectional Ministries team wants to work alongside each of your district's rivers. God is calling us out upon the waters.
