CFA Report, 3:15 p.m.

Report presented by John Pearce

Slides: (See page 199 of this journal.)

2020 Proposed Budget

$17,501,797, 3.1 percent decreased from 2019 ($18,061,707)

2019 Apportionment Collections

1. 2020 proposed budget: $17,501,797 reflecting a 3.1 percent decrease compared to 2019 budget.
 - a. Budget will be supported by 1) use of reserves ($4,046,008), 2) direct billing ($2,306,639), 3) other income ($2,525,212), and 4) apportionments ($8,623,938).
2. As of April 30, 2019, the conference received $3,176,994, which puts us about $1.4 behind; 230 churches have paid zero ($1,778,880).
 - a. Pearce asked the body to go back and encourage the local churches to pay the apportionments.
 - b. Contingency Plan: use additional reserves up to $1,000,000 and reduce expenses up to $1,000,000 more.

Direct Billing of Clergy Health and Pensions: WHY

1. Among the 561 churches that pay an apportionment for clergy health, 340 of them (61 percent) don't have a clergy that benefits from the plan; 54 larger churches pay $1,007,089 for other churches' clergy; 167 mid-size churches underpay on average $5,558.
2. Direct billing is for the fairness to all churches paying apportionment for clergy health.
3. Current method is not sustainable in the changing landscape of UMC.
4. Reliance on collectability of apportionments is getting riskier quickly.
5. One less alignment needed in 2021 if we form a new conference.
6. Potential drop in local church giving units and pledges in 2020.

Direct Billing: HOW

1. Beginning January 1, 2020, each church's apportionment will be reduced by the line item for health care and pensions.
2. For calendar year 2020, the conference will use reserves to fund 50 percent of the Clergy Health Plan and 75 percent of the pension billings.
3. For 2021 CFA expects that each church with a participating clergy will pay 100 percent of the cost of healthcare and the conference will continue to subsidize pensions to some extent.

Action Items Recommended by CFA

1. That the total conference budget for 2020 of $9,641,070 be apportioned to the churches.
2. That the approved travel expense for staff and members of councils, boards, committees, and other entities of the conference be reimbursed at the rate set by the entity, not to exceed the maximum mileage amount allowed by the Internal Revenue Service for business travel.
3. That the expenses for at-large members to the 2019 annual conference be reimbursed at a rate not to exceed $150 per day ($300 max), plus mileage at the IRS rate for business travel.
4. That the housing allowance designated for clergy conference staff pursuant to Internal Revenue Code section 107 be approved for 2019-20.
5. That the base compensation of the district superintendents for 2020 be set at $108,059.
6. That half the amount of $13,215 ($6,562.50) per clergy for participation in the Conference Clergy Health Benefit Plan shall be directly billed to each church for their appointed participating clergy with the remainder paid from conference reserves. Billings will be paid or drafted from the church's account via ACH.
7. That 25 percent of the cost to the conference for each clergy participating in the Conference Clergy Pension Plans shall be directly billed to each church to which the clergy is appointed, with the remainder paid from conference reserves.

Future Concerns

1. We can't continue paying significant portions of the annual budget with reserves.
2. We can't continue to apportion 100 percent of clergy pension and clergy health plan costs
3. Ongoing capital needs at Beersheba and Cedar Crest.
4. Potential reduction of apportionment collections below 90 percent — economic or political or unrest in UMC.
5. Potential expected bear market's impact on pension plans and reserves.

1. Darren Wright, Cumberland River District — point of personal privilege
 - a. Caroline Cramer and Abbie Mendez read a letter written by youth members of 10 UM churches in the conference. It is our responsibility as Christians to show Jesus's love to everyone equally. We should love those who express love differently than we do. The biblical passages on human sexuality must be held in tension with context and experiences. We need a church where all of us are affirmed in the image of God and called into the priesthood of all believers.

New Conference Report, Resolution, and Vote, 2:42 p.m.

Report presented by the bishop, John Pearce, and Jerry Wallace

Bishop McAlilly

Since his first appointment to this episcopal area, forming a new conference with the two conferences has been one of his main tasks. He recognized fears around this new move and he hoped we would spend some time to offer expressions of our grief and loss in tangible ways. But we are living in an adaptive season. Our guiding principles and values will not change and we are trying to adapt to the needs of our ministry.

John Pearce

1. The need for a new model to fund the new conference: the Tennessee Conference sets a budget and then apportions it amongst the churches, whereas all the churches of the Memphis Conference give 10 percent of their income to the conference, which becomes the budget of the conference. Finance professionals from the two conferences agreed to establish a new model for the new conference, which means each conference would need to compromise to some extent. They agreed to come up with a new term, connectional commitment, not apportionment since it sounds like a tax, or tithe, as this term is already used in the Memphis Conference.
2. Attributes of the funding model
 - a. Fairness
 - b. Affordability
 - c. Transparency
 - d. Consistency
 - e. Adjustability to changing income levels of various churches
3. Analyses and assumptions on this model
 - a. This model assumes that clergy healthcare and pensions are directly billed to local churches.
 - b. This model is based on income, not on expenses, for more fairness and consistency.
 - c. It sets a cap on how much we can spend on the conference level.
 - d. It gives the conference the ability to adjust their budget to the income levels of local churches.
 - e. It has no "gross up" feature. The conference will not apportion a little more than it needs.

Jerry Wallace, clergy, Cumberland River District

He encouraged the conference to go deeper and make a new conference a reality and speak on the guiding principles on specific procedures of the merger.

Sam McGlothlin, clergy, Red River District

In 2014, the two conferences adopted the same mission statement. Our mission will remain the same. Our strategic focus in 2019-21 will be to develop transforming clergy and lay leaders. We will work toward a culture of call that goes beyond clergy and will intentionally create training and teaching opportunities that will educate lay and clergy leaders on the methods of designed thinking, and we will create spaces where emotional intelligence, intercultural leadership, and accountability are practiced and cultivated. We will spend some time getting to know one another so that we can bear witness to the gifts in one another and empower one another to live them out.

Discussion

1. Rev. Thomas Dowdy, retired — Speech against
 - a. He expressed regret that the resolution and reports were only available online and was concerned that we were rushed to a hasty decision. He also asked questions around direct billing.
 - b. John Pearce offered clarification. Practically speaking, the combined budget will not happen until 2022. What we will vote on tomorrow is whether or not the Tennessee Conference wants to go to a direct billing concept starting from this coming year, which will give us time to get used to the new concept before we are bound to do it.
2. Rev. Ryan Heatherly, Cumberland River District — Speech for with a question
 - a. What measures have been considered to ensure church might not inflate capital campaign offerings in order to potentially reduce general offering funds?
 - b. John Pearce: we are dependent on the local churches filling the financial forms out to the best of their ability. We expect that the churches will continue to do so.
3. Rev. Martha Touchton, Stones River District — Speech against
 - a. Having attended presentations over the merger, she expressed regret that the conversations during the presentations quickly turned to the financial implications of the merger. She found it disappointing and unacceptable that no deacons are found in the merger team.
4. Paul Brian Allen, Caney Fork District — Speech against
 - a. He witnessed the merger between the Louisville and Kentucky conferences that caused more disconnect on account of the sizes of the districts and conference and only benefited larger churches and put small churches on a downturn.
5. Rev. John Hill, Cumberland River District — Motion made to suspend the rules and allow more than three speeches for and against for this particular discussion.
 - a. Defeated by standing vote.
6. Rev. Trey Carey, Stones River District
 - a. Though he was absent, he is a deacon who is on the merger team.
7. Rev. Harriet Bryan, Red River District — Questions
 - a. Funding priorities of the ministries
 - b. Timeline for details
 - c. John Pearce: CPA is dependent on the connectional ministries team in thinking through programmatic and missional expenditures and priorities.
8. Rev. John Collett, retired, Cumberland River District — Speech for

Mountain T.O.P and Tracy City First UMC

Julie Keel, delivered an update of Mountain T.O.P

We have a compelling story of ministry related to one of the following conference priorities: Fruitful Congregations, Next Gen Disciples, Engaging in Mission, and Transforming Leaders.

Overview:

Over the last six years, Grundy County and the wider South Cumberland Plateau area have engaged in a grassroots transformation of our community through assets built up around things such as housing, health programming, built environment, workforce readiness, and early childhood support.

- We started asking the wrong questions through community conversations. Instead of starting with “What do you love?”, we asked “Where are the gaps?”. Important to begin with assets.
- Fortunately, we backed into asset-based community development that led us to innovative, cross-sector work that has resulted in major successes for the poorest county in the state of Tennessee.
 - Tracy City FUMC Bike Repair Shop
 - The South Cumberland Learning and Development Center
 - Mountain T.O.P. new home construction project in partnership with the USDA Rural Development and Rural Studio

Who we are (Grundy County)

- USA Today and 24/7 Wall St. deemed us the poorest county in the state in 2015 and 2017, ranked by median household income, unemployment rate and poverty rate
- Distressed and in persistent poverty
- When the coal industry left Grundy County, we have not had a wage-comparable replacement industry
- 93 out of 95 counties in health outcomes as ranked by the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation for 2019. This is an improvement in our ranking over the last 2 years which is an indicator of the effectiveness of our health programming.

What we’ve learned

- Breaking down silos
- There isn’t one answer to end poverty
- Rural churches are key
- Housing has become a key area for transformation because of the social determinants of health
 - Housing is now understood to be a vital determinant of a person’s success in life that affects health, access to education, and upward mobility (<https://www.neighborworks.org/Media-Center/Blog/2019/February-2019/Cities-advancing-affordable-housing-to-improve-health-outcomes>)

- High housing-related costs place a particular economic burden on low-income families, forcing trade-offs between food, heating, and other basic needs (<https://www.rwjf.org/en/library/research/2011/05/housing-and-health.html>)
- Experts explain that housing is a core determinant of health. The characteristics of both homes and neighborhoods influence physical health, mental health, community life, social engagement, stress, satisfaction, happiness, and self-esteem (http://frameworksinstitute.org/assets/files/housing/housing_mtg_2016_formatted.pdf)
- Research shows that increasing access to affordable housing is the most cost-effective strategy for reducing childhood poverty in the United States (<https://www.opportunityhome.org/resources/affordable-housing-enables-moving-opportunity/>)

BUSINESS SESSION 5: FRIDAY MORNING JUNE 14, BRENTWOOD UMC

Friday, June 16, 2019

Bishop McAlilly called the body to order.

The conference recognized Charles Poole, who has attended annual conference since 1946, 73 years.

Bishop McAlilly:

He reminded the body about humility in the midst of many emotions during annual conference. The Church was designed in such a way that we use a democratic process rather than consensus. We vote, which creates a spirit of winners and losers. That's not the Kingdom way of doing business, but it is our way. He reminded us that God calls us into a spirit of humility as we do the work before us and so that we might seek to be one in Christ.

Council on Finance and Administration Report, Discussion and Voting

John Pearce, laity, Cumberland District, chair of CFA

- 1. He reminded the conference that they must act on seven recommendations from CFA.
- 2. Change can create disruption in an organization and this can cause reaction. This happened over the past few days after he presented the recommendations for direct billing and pensions and health care. He said that he heard from many people with concerns and he understood those concerns. He suggested that we're entering a season with some choppy waters in the UMC, and it will impact our conference as well as everyone at the local church level.

3. We need to focus on the bigger issues such as how to maintain churches and pay expenses and salaries. Those at the General Council of Finance and Administration (GCFA) are already concerned. He noted that we are 18 percent behind this year through April.
4. We don't have a choice to continue putting clergy health and pension plans and costs at the risk of collectability of apportionment dollars. He asked the conference to have faith that this is the best answer for the whole body not just individual concerns. He thinks it would be smart for the conference to do this on its own terms and not when it finds itself in an emergency. The conference is paying for much of the difference in 2020. The conference has significant reserves that can help us past 2021.
5. Senior ministers from some of the largest churches in the conference have also indicated that they are willing to help any clergy who would lose their health insurance because their church couldn't pay for it. We're in this together.

Bishop McAlilly

Called for a vote on the seven action items on the CFA report.

Discussion of CFA Recommendations

1. Rev. Tom Gibson, Red River District: Speech against direct billing
 - a. Direct billing is detrimental to the core value of United Methodism, which is connectionalism.
 - b. Small churches that he has served have been happy to be a part of paying for pensions and health care for pastors.
 - c. He encouraged the body to keep this an apportioned item because it sets United Methodists apart from other denominations; we are one church with many local congregations and we do things together so that ministry can happen everywhere.
2. Rev. Adam Kelchner, Harpeth River District: Speech in favor of direct billing
 - a. His church has five appointed clergy on their staff and they directly benefit from the apportionments in the current model. It pains him that small membership churches have been paying for a subsidy for his much larger church.
 - b. He strongly supports CFA's recommendations, both for direct billing and for the budget presentation.
3. Jim Allen, laity, conference treasurer
 - a. He moved that the body divide the seven recommendations from CFA and vote on each one individually.
 - b. Motion was seconded.
 - c. Motion passed.
4. Rev. Martha Touchton, Stones River District
 - a. The Order of Deacons fought hard to receive the benefits of pension and health insurance for many years after they were given the authority to lead the church into mission and ministry.
 - b. Some deacons have to fight for fair compensation. She was concerned that direct billing would do great harm to deacons.
 - c. She asked if there was a way to establish a safety net so that deacons would not lose their employment at churches.

Bishop McAlilly

He suggested that the body discuss each of the seven items in order.

1. He read the first recommendation: the total annual conference budget, including the general and district administration for 2020 be $9,641,070, be apportioned to the churches using the method printed in the 2013 journal p. 109-110.

Discussion of Recommendation Number One

1. John Pearce, laity, Cumberland District, chair of CFA:
 - a. The $9,641,070 would be apportioned through our connection as we have done all other years in the past.

2. Rev. Gracie Dugan, Red River District
 - a. She offered an amendment to action item number one: to set aside $500,000 from reserves to be used as contingency funds to subsidize deacon health and pension benefits as needed, to be administered by CFA with deacon representation.
 - b. Motion was seconded.
3. Jim Allen, laity, conference treasurer
 - a. He moved that the body postpone consideration of item number one until after the others were considered, because that number would change if direct billing wasn't approved.
 - b. Motion was seconded.
 - c. Motion passed.

Bishop McAlilly

1. He read recommendation number two: That the approved travel expense for all staff and members of councils, boards, committees, and other entities of the conference be reimbursed at the rate set by the entity, not to exceed the maximum mileage amount allowed by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) for business travel.
 - a. Recommendation number two passed.
2. He read recommendation number three: That the expenses for at-large members to the 2019 annual conference be reimbursed at a rate not to exceed $150 per day ($300 max), plus mileage at the IRS rate for business travel.
 - a. Recommendation number three passed.
3. He read recommendation number four: That the housing allowance designed for clergy conference staff pursuant to IRS section 107 be approved for 2019-2020 as printed in the journal.
 - a. Recommendation number four passed.
4. He read recommendation number five: That the base compensation of the district superintendents for 2020 be set at $108,059.
 - a. Recommendation number five passed.
5. He read recommendation number six: That half the amount of $13,215 ($6,562.50) per clergy for participation in the Conference Clergy Health Benefit Plan shall be directly billed to each church for their appointed participating clergy with the remainder paid from conference reserves. Billings will be paid or drafted from the church's account via ACH.

Discussion of Recommendation Number Six

1. Rick Goffan, laity, Red River District: speech in favor of direct billing
 - a. He originally thought that the conference would have direct access to the church's checking accounts to withdraw money. However, after talking to John Pearce, he now understands that direct billing only involves pension and health care and churches have the option of sending in a check rather than having the money automatically withdrawn from the church's account.
 - b. With that understanding, he is in support, and appreciates the work that CFA has done.
 - c. Pearce clarified that the administrative services office would prefer that this be done by electronic transfer so they do not have to send bills and collect checks; there is a lot of administrative paperwork for 600 churches. The preference is that it be done electronically.
 - d. Goffan affirmed what Pearce said. Automatic withdrawal is preferred, but not required.
 - e. Bishop McAlilly affirmed that electronic withdrawal is not required.
2. Rev. Ricky Wade, Stones River District: point of clarification
 - a. He asked if the nine million dollars approved for the budget might be inadequate for what the conference needs if direct billing was not approved. Then there would be no way to get those funds.
 - b. Bishop McAlilly clarified that the motion from Jim Allen separated those items. The body did not approve the budget yet, so this is not an issue.
3. Rev. Laurie Raulston, Stones River District: point of information
 - a. She has concerns about small churches that are on the equitable compensation list.

- b. She asked if information was available about how many churches on the equitable compensation list have full-time or three quarter-time pastoral appointments.
 - c. John Pearce said that he did not have that information and asked that Jim Allen clarify.
 - d. Jim Allen said he thinks that would affect approximately two or three churches.
- 4. Rev. John Hill, Cumberland District: point of information
 - a. He asked if there was a cost associated with additional administrative tasks that would have to be done and would the conference have to hire more staff.
 - b. He asked what hidden costs the body might not be seeing related to direct billing.
 - c. John Pearce said that they are expecting that they will need some additional help in Jim Allen's office to handle this work.
 - i. He did not know if that would mean an additional full-time staff person or just some additional hours.
 - ii. He said that the conference can learn from the Memphis Conference about how they have handled the additional work.
- 5. Rev. Michael Guertin, Red River District: point of clarification
 - a. He asked John Pearce to clarify if he had said that the conference was going to help churches that couldn't afford to pay their health or pension benefits.
 - b. John Pearce said yes, in 2020, the conference would pay half of the health care and three fourths of the pension costs.
 - i. He couldn't say what CFA or the conference would do for subsequent years, but it would be his expectation that the conference would continue to help with the pension plan; they've been doing that for five years, so that is not something new.
 - ii. The conference has significant reserves and he would expect that to continue into the future unless something catastrophic happened. After that, he expects that churches would pay the full amount of their health care.
 - iii. He understands that this would put some churches in a difficult position and he expects that CFA would help support clergy who need help, though he can't say how that would look. They would have to work on that next year.
 - c. Rev. Michael Guertin said that because of the outlook of CFA, he is in support of direct billing. It makes sense, that the conference isn't pushing anyone off the edge of the cliff financially.
- 6. Rev. Thomas Dowdy, Red River District: point of information
 - a. He asked what had improved in this proposition from what was proposed in 2004 when direct billing was voted down.
 - b. John Pearce responded that he wasn't there in 2004 and couldn't speak to that.
- 7. Rev. Steve Angus, Stones River District: point of information
 - a. He asked what the impact of direct billing would be on the conference merger if the merger passed. If the conference votes for merger, would the conference do direct billing anyway in 2021?
 - b. John Pearce said that the merger vote assumes that the new conference will use direct billing for clergy pensions and health.
 - i. It probably wouldn't take effect until the 2022 budget. This current vote is just for the Tennessee Conference for the coming year in order to ease into direct billing over a number of years, rather than transitioning all of a sudden.
- 8. Rachel Hagewood, laity, Red River District: point of information
 - a. She asked what the reserves for the conference would be at the end of 2020.
 - b. John Pearce said that CFA doesn't know what the exact balance of the reserves will be. That is dependent upon the stock market. However, they are projecting around $14 million.
 - c. Hagewood asked a follow-up question: If the conferences voted to merge, how would the merging of the conferences effect how reserves would be used?
 - d. Pearce clarified that his projection was $13 million, not $14 million.

- i. Memphis has some assets and reserves, especially in their pension and post-retirement health plans, as well as different pieces of real estate. So, if the conferences combine, work will need to be done to understand how best to handle all of those assets and liabilities.
 - ii. Part of what Tennessee has been doing is giving back to local churches from those reserves, so that's part of the rationale behind the proposal to use much of those reserves in 2020.
- 9. Rev. Danny Coffelt, Caney Fork District: point of information
 - a. He asked how direct billing would be broken up—annually, quarterly, or monthly.
 - b. Jim Allen clarified that the resolution says that direct billing would be collected like a direct deposit through monthly billing.
 - i. This would be approximately $500 per month, rather than $6,000 at one time.
 - c. John Pearce added that pension costs depend upon clergy salaries. Wespath bills once monthly for all 400 participants, so their office will take that and send it on to the churches.
- 10. Rev. Jonathan Carle, cross-conference appointment in Michigan: speech in favor of direct billing
 - a. He serves two small rural churches in Michigan and they do direct billing. His churches split the bill each month, so it is equitable.
 - b. He asked that the body trust the experts who have researched this.
 - c. Direct billing hasn't affected connectionalism or their sense of unity in Michigan. It's not going to change the nature of the conference's ecclesiology.

Question was called.

Vote to end debate passed.

Bishop McAlilly

- 1. He read recommendation number six: That half the amount of $13,215 ($6,562.50) per clergy for participation in the Conference Clergy Health Benefit Plan shall be directly billed to each church for their appointed participating clergy with the remainder paid from conference reserves. Billings will be paid or drafted from the church's account via ACH.
 - a. Recommendation number six passed.
- 2. He read recommendation number seven: That 25 percent of the cost to the conference for each clergy participating in the Conference Clergy Pension Plans shall be directly billed to each church to which the clergy is appointed, with the remainder paid from conference reserves. Billings will be paid or drafted from the church's account via ACH. The specific amount for pensions will be calculated for each church after appointments have been made, but no later than October 31, 2019.
 - a. Recommendation number seven passed.
- 3. He referred back to recommendation number one and reminded the body that there was an amendment to add $500,000 from the reserves for deacons for health and pension. He invited Gracie Dugan to speak to the amendment.
 - a. Gracie Dugan said that the Tennessee Conference values the ministry of deacons and believes ordination to be a gift from God to the Church.
 - i. Deacons are not guaranteed appointments and must find and secure their own appointments.
 - ii. Placing the burden on local churches to fund deacon health and pension benefits impedes deacons' ability to serve within the local church and to connect the church to the world.
 - iii. In this time of financial and political uncertainty in the Church, deacons are already vulnerable as they seek to find and maintain appointments.
 - iv. The move to direct billing makes deacons more vulnerable. The amendment provides provisional and ordained deacons a measure of protection and enables them to carry out their ministry with the least, the last, and the lost.

Discussion of the Amendment

1. John Pearce: He said that the conference doesn't need $500,000 to address the concern. Deacons were already considered in the math that CFA did.
 - a. He wasn't speaking for or against the amendment, other than to say that they don't need that much money to address the issue.
 - b. He would welcome the involvement of deacons in their process as they figure this out over the next year.
2. Rev. Laura McMasters, Harpeth River District
 - a. She currently serves beyond the local church and asked if she were to have the opportunity to serve a local church, wouldn't that church have to take on the extra expense that is not currently covered for health care? For this reason, they might not want to hire an ordained deacon.
 - b. Jim Allen said that, in theory, a deacon appointed to a local church full time is exactly the same as an elder or a local pastor. However, it is true that a church might choose a lay person over a deacon because they wouldn't have to provide benefits.
 - i. He said that it does make sense to provide a bit of extra grace there. However, he does not have the authority to refrain from charging a church.
 - c. McMasters said that she spoke in favor of the amendment.
3. Tory Dillard, at-large delegate, Red River District: speech in favor of the amendment
 - a. Deacons are important to our community. If it wasn't for a deacon, his campus ministry would have failed.
 - b. We need to make sure that if the motion doesn't protect deacons—their insurance, health care, children, families—then it shouldn't be voted upon. The conference needs to make sure that it helps all clergy, not just a few.
4. Teena King, laity, Caney Fork River District: point of information
 - a. She asked how other conferences have handled direct billing for deacons.
 - b. John Pearce said that he didn't know, but asked if it would be appropriate for Larry Davis, treasurer of the Memphis Conference, to speak to the question.
 - c. Bishop McAlilly asked if the body would grant Larry Davis permission to speak.
 - d. The body affirmed granting permission for Larry Davis to speak.
 - e. Larry Davis said that the Memphis Conference has always billed directly for deacons, even before they went to the full direct bill they have currently.
 - i. They have done medical direct bill for several years and the churches that had deacons were responsible for their pensions up until they incorporated for the entire conference to go to direct bill.
 - f. Bishop McAlilly thanked the body for allowing Larry Davis to speak.
5. Rev. Martha Touchton, Stones River District: point of information
 - a. She noted that there are 30 deacons serving in local churches and another 10-15 serving in the Tennessee Conference.
 - b. She asked how many deacons are affected by this in the Memphis Conference.
 - c. Larry Davis said that he thinks they have approximately 10-15 deacons. They do not have as many deacons as the Tennessee Conference.
6. Rev. John Hill, Cumberland District: point of information
 - a. He asked how the mechanics of the amendment would work. For what exactly would the $500,000 be set aside?
 - b. He understands that it is to support deacons, of which he is in favor, but he wonders how this would look in practice.
 - c. He asked for the amendment to be read again.
 - d. Gracie Dugan re-read the amendment: To set aside $500,000 from reserves to be used as contingency funds to subsidize deacon pension and health benefits as needed, to be administered by CFA with deacon representation.
 - e. John Pearce said that if the conference has 30 deacons, at $6,000, that is a total cost of approximately $200,000-$220,000.

- i. Some of the larger churches could handle the cost, so he doesn't know how much will be needed. However, he said CFA could take requests from churches and deacons for whom this is a problem.
 - ii. He invited people to help CFA and Jim Allen understand, so that they could use some of the reserves to help take care of those particular billings, if that was the motion.
 - f. Gracie Dugan affirmed that that was correct.
 - g. He asked if the conference would set aside some money, and then if there were deacons or churches that needed that money, they'd apply for it in some kind of way, and it could be used.
 - h. Bishop McAlilly affirmed that was correct.
7. Rev. Ann Cover, Cumberland River District: point of information
- a. She asked if it makes a difference, or how much difference it makes, whether a new hire is a deacon or another person, since the church would need to provide insurance and benefits for those people as well.
 - b. John Pearce asked if her question was whether they are a deacon or just another employee of the church.
 - c. Cover affirmed that that was correct.
 - d. Pearce said that every church is different. In his church they have a plan for their employees who are not deacons or clergy and those employees participate in the church's plan. However, he said that he knows not every church has that, so he wasn't sure.
 - e. Cover said that the Affordable Care Act says that the church has to offer insurance at a certain level at a certain size church.
 - f. Pearce affirmed what Cover said and added that CFA considered that and what it means in the Tennessee Conference.
 - i. At the conference level they are required to do provide benefits if an employee works more than 30 hours. Each local church is deemed separate, so churches that have 50 employees or more are required by law to provide health insurance.
8. Jim Allen
- a. He offered another way to address the concern that doesn't require redoing the budget. The conference already has a process around equitable compensation to provide for churches that are in emergency situations and can't pay a certain salary.
 - b. He suggested that the conference allow churches that may need special help, because of a deacon or anyone else with their health care expenses, that they could apply for grants through equitable compensation. It wouldn't be equitable compensation, but that group is already in existence and could consider it. Then they could request the health plan committee make a grant.
 - c. Bishop McAlilly invited Jim Allen to make a substitute motion.
 - d. Jim Allen moved to substitute for the motion that churches be allowed to make requests to the Equitable Compensation Commission for grants to help pay benefits, and equitable compensation would then make their approvals, which would be funded through the health plan or the pension.
 - e. Substitute motion was seconded.

Discussion of Substitute Motion

- 1. Rev. Harriet Bryan, Red River District:
 - a. She requested that there be deacon representation in the conversation or process.
 - b. Bishop McAlilly affirmed that Jim Allen accepted that as part of his motion.
- 2. Rachel Hagewood, laity, Red River District: point of information
 - a. She asked if there were enough funds in equitable compensation to cover the needs of deacons.
 - b. John Pearce said that the conference has plenty of resources to cover this.
 - c. Hagewood asked how much.
 - d. Pearce said that the conference has more than enough.
 - e. Jim Allen clarified that if his substitute motion passes, the funds wouldn't come from equitable compensation; they would either come out of health insurance reserves or pension reserves.
- 3. Bishop McAlilly: He invited Jim Allen to restate his motion for the body and for the chair.

4. Jim Allen: He said that the motion was to allow churches to request through the Equitable Compensation Committee to subsidize their benefit cost, which will be funded through the health plan or the pension plan.
5. Rev. Jim Robinson, Cumberland River District: point of clarification
 - a. He asked if the motion was for deacons. The way it read; it was for everyone.
 - b. Jim Allen affirmed that was correct.
 - i. He thinks there will be people who may need help who aren't deacons so he did not limit it to deacons.
 - ii. He didn't know if there were any deacons on the Equitable Compensation Committee.
6. Rev. Harriet Bryan, Red River District
 - a. She asked if John Pearce and Jim Allen would make sure that there is deacon representation.
 - b. Pearce asked Bryan to help him find said deacons.
 - c. Bryan affirmed that she could do that.

Substitute motion passed.

John Pearce thanked the body for their work.

Conference Resolutions

Jeremy Squires

Tory Dillard, laity, Red River District: point of personal privilege

He wanted to let the body know that there is a safe space in rooms B241 and B242 if anyone finds themselves being harmed by the discussion around inclusion.

Rev. Jeremy Squires, Committee on Resolutions

1. He reminded the body that the Committee on Resolutions does not vote on the content of a resolution or consider whether they agree with the point of view of the maker of the resolution that has been submitted.
2. They are to decide whether a resolution is consistent with The Book of Discipline, especially the Constitution, Articles of Religion, and prior Judicial Council decisions of law.
3. They determine whether a resolution can pass the test of concurrence.
4. They consider whether any editing is necessary.
5. Resolution work is not intended to be an adversarial process.
6. He invited the body to take a long, deep breath to calm their souls.
7. He reminded the body that opinions are varied and represent a diverse people; the conference needs to continue to find positive ways to have dialogue and discussion.
8. He suggested three simple rules: do no harm; do good; stay in love with God.
 - a. Every person is a child of God.
 - b. Always speak respectfully.
 - c. Be open to the possibility that God can change the view of every party in the discussion.
 - d. Avoid using inflammatory words or derogatory names.
 - e. Do not support differing sides by clapping.
 - f. He read Colossians 3:12-17.
9. He presented the Housing Pension Resolution.
 - a. This is the same resolution that is presented every year, with one minor change.
 - b. Link to resolution: (See page 273 of this journal.)
 - c. Resolution passed.
10. He presented the Martin Methodist Month Resolution.
 - a. Link to resolution: (See page 266 of this journal.)
 - b. Resolution passed.
11. He presented the Suicide Prevention Resources Resolution.
 - a. Link to resolution: (See page 267 of this journal.)
 - b. Discussion:
 - i. Christy Westover, laity, Red River District: speech in favor of the resolution.
 1. She is a middle school teacher and she has had yearly training in suicide prevention.
 2. This training is important because it has empowered her to help students get the resources they need.
 - c. Resolution passed.
12. He presented the Inclusion Resolution.
 - a. He indicated that the name of the resolution was not selected by the group that submitted it.
 - b. Bishop McAlilly clarified that, based on the recommendation of the Resolutions Committee, he found the original resolution, titled "Objections to the Traditional Plan," out of order. It is not properly before the body. Therefore, the substitute resolution, "Inclusion Resolution" is properly before the body.

Discussion of Inclusion Resolution

1. Rev. Thomas Dowdy, Red River District: objection to resolution
 - a. He objected to the resolution being before the body.
 - b. In Robert's Rules of Order, someone can object to something being presented to the body because it is disturbing. The chair can then put it to a vote, and it is not presented if $\frac{2}{3}$ of the body agrees.
 - c. Bishop McAlilly indicated that he was aware of that rule and called for a standing vote.
 - d. Objection failed.
2. Rev. Don Sensing, Cumberland River District
 - a. He offered an amendment to the resolution: In the next to last paragraph, delete the words, “apologizes for” and substitute the word “recognizes.”
 - b. Amendment was seconded.
 - c. He didn’t think the body needed to set a precedent for the annual conference to object to what the General Conference does, no matter what the subject is.
 - d. Both sides have become absolutists, but both sides need to acknowledge that they could be wrong. He hopes that the conference could acknowledge, as a matter of grace, that hurt is perceived to have been done.
 - e. The end of the resolution as unamended is not graceful.

Discussion of Amendment to Inclusion Resolution:

1. Rev. LeNoir Culbertson, Stones River District: speech against the amendment
 - a. She asked for permission to read a statement by Michael McGarvey, a young adult at-large delegate, who had to leave early.
 - b. Bishop McAlilly allowed the statement to be read.
 - c. Michael McGarvey’s statement:
 - i. He described his call to ministry, which began at Nolensville First UMC and continued through college as a Next Gen Discernment Intern.
 - ii. He identified himself as a “self-avowed practicing homosexual,” who still hears God’s voice calling him into ministry.
 - iii. He is not “incompatible with Christian teaching,” but he is incompatible with a human-written, fallible Book of Discipline.
 - iv. It is time for the church to admit to wrong-doing and begin trying to fix the harm done.
 - v. He is not the only conference delegate who identifies as LGBTQIA, nor is he the only one who is also discerning a call to ministry.
 - d. LeNoir Culbertson asked the body if Michael McGarvey needed to have a recognition of his hurt, or an apology that moves the body to action and to love.
2. Rev. Tim Dunavant, Caney Fork River District: speech for the amendment
 - a. He would prefer to read a quote from Timothy Tennent, president of Asbury Theological Seminary.
 - b. Bishop McAlilly allowed the quote to be read.
 - c. Timothy Tennent’s quote:
 - i. When asked the question, “is the church doing harm to the LGBTQ community,” there is an underlying assumption that the church must never hold a position that causes someone pain or discomfort.
 - ii. Soren Kierkegaard declared that Christianity is the profoundest wound that can be afflicted upon people, calculated at the most dreadful scale, to collide with everything.
 - iii. Every true Christian has been bruised by the demands of discipleship—the call to die to self and live holy lives, taking up our cross to follow him. This includes greed, gossip, jealousy, anger, etc.
 - iv. We are born with a propensity to commit sin. No one gets a pass which allows their particular sin to be called holy, while others have to lay theirs down.
 - v. The Council of Bishops has called for a season of deep listening but that deep listening should be first and foremost the text of scripture, the vibrancy of the global church, and the never-dimming message of Wesleyan heritage, rooted in the Gospel, and the call to holiness.

3. Rev. Thomas Dowdy, Red River District: speech against the resolution
 - a. He wanted to speak against the resolution.
 - b. Bishop McAlilly asked if Dowdy was speaking on the amendment or the resolution. It was not the proper time to speak to the resolution.
 - c. Dowdy said he didn't realize there was an amendment.
4. Rev. Scott Marshall-Kimball, Harpeth River District: speech against the amendment
 - a. He didn't want to shame anyone, but he wanted to say why he thought the word "sorry" should stay in the piece of legislation.
 - b. He described how some songs mean different things to different people. In the same way, the conference can say "sorry" in a different way.
 - c. This resolution acknowledges that harm has been done. He urged the conference to say "sorry" in whatever way it can, and that can be a tribute to God in the name of Jesus Christ. It can also be an act of love rather than an act of disunity.
5. Rev. Michael Guertin, Red River District: speech in favor of the amendment
 - a. People who practice sinful things should repent and turn their lives completely over to Christ.
 - b. The conference should speak the truth in love.
 - c. If we're real Christians, we don't want to hurt anyone's feelings, and if we do, we should express our regret for their pain, no matter how we feel about them or their situation.
 - d. Bishop McAlilly asked Girten if he intended to speak for the amendment; he sounded like he was speaking against the amendment.
 - e. Girten affirmed that he was speaking for the amendment.
 - i. It is important to recognize when we hurt one another and regret our actions and express that regret.
6. There was a request from the floor for clarification of the wording of the amendment.
7. Bishop McAlilly asked if the maker of the amendment would clarify the wording for the body.
8. Rev Don Sensing, Cumberland River District
 - a. In the first paragraph at the bottom that begins, "Therefore, be it resolved, by the 2019 Tennessee Annual Conference, that: the Tennessee Conference apologizes for the harm that actions," his amendment would read, "The Tennessee Conference recognizes the harm that actions."
9. Larry Proffitt, laity, Cumberland River District: speech against the amendment
 - a. The day he heard the church's decision at General Conference, he was teaching class. He sat down and wept.
 - b. When he recognizes that someone has been hurt, he has to take action and he usually apologizes.
 - c. When brothers and sisters in Christ are hurt, he's hurt also.
 - d. He reminded the body of a Scripture passage that his grandmother taught him: Matthew 22:37-40.
 - e. If the conference doesn't recognize the hurt that was done, it is not loving our neighbors as ourselves. If someone hurts him, he would like an apology.
10. Brooks Harper, laity, Cumberland District: speech against the amendment
 - a. He believes it is unnecessary to make the amendment. The resolution, as written, addresses both the need for recognition and apology.
 - b. Number six clearly recognizes the harm.
11. Bishop McAlilly
 - a. He acknowledged that there were four speeches against the amendment and asked if anyone else would like to speak for the amendment.
 - b. There were no more requests to speak.
 - c. Verbal vote.
 - d. No decision.
 - e. Standing vote.
 - f. Amendment failed.

Discussion of Inclusivity Resolution

1. Unidentified speaker: point of clarification
 - a. The speaker asked a question about constitutionality and concurrence. Last year there were eight resolutions on this subject that were presented, and all eight were rejected based on constitutionality and concurrence.
 - b. What was the difference between those eight resolutions and this one?
2. Lisa Carson, conference chancellor
 - a. The resolutions that were proposed last year failed both the constitutionality and concurrence test because they were statements of doctrine that address the Articles of Religion; there is a principal in the Judicial Council decisions that says that that is impermissible.
 - b. They were merely statements of doctrine that did not call for any action and for that reason they failed the test of concurrence, because there was no action. They were nothing more than someone's statement of belief as to doctrine.
 - c. Those were the same two infirmities that applied to the original version of this inclusion resolution, the resolution that was titled, "Objections to the Traditional Plan." It had similar issues with regard to constitutionality, because it did specifically approve or disapprove provisions of The Book of Discipline.
 - d. This language in the "Be it Resolved" sections of this resolution is actually consistent with language in other resolutions that Judicial Council has, in recent years, held to be constitutional, because it is aspirational in nature; it encourages action and does in fact take an action in the form of an apology, but does not attempt to change church doctrine.
 - e. Aspirationally, the body can say, we will continue to advocate to change church doctrine, but we cannot affirm or disaffirm it.
3. Rev. Jeremy Squires
 - a. The Resolutions Committee contacted the maker of those motions last year, in the same way that they did this year, to work through the issues at hand so that the resolutions could be constitutional and concurrent. The maker of last year's motions chose not to pursue that.
 - b. The maker of this year's resolution chose to work with the Resolutions Committee, which is why, though the original resolution did not meet constitutionality standards or concurrency, there is now a substitute resolution properly before the body that meets said standards.
 - c. This is allowed under the standing rules.
 - d. The committee also worked with the makers of the suicide prevention resolution.
 - e. They treat everyone fair and equally.
4. Previous speaker, (not identified)
 - a. He was confused, because last year, he understood that the resolutions were not going to be allowed because they were related to a General Conference decision.
 - b. The push last year was to be prepared for a decision from the Way Forward and everyone needed to move on.
 - c. If a decision at General Conference was made, why is the conference was entertaining this resolution?
5. Rev. Jeremy Squires
 - a. The key words are aspirational, versus either disapproving or approving of something.
 - b. The resolutions last year were completely offering disapproval. The annual conference cannot approve or disapprove of anything General Conference does. In the same way with the first resolution that came from the makers, it was the same kind of language.
 - c. Words like "condemn," and "condone," are not allowed. But the conference can be aspirational, seeking to do something in the future differently, whichever direction that might be.
 - d. An aspirational statement can be made, according to the Judicial Council, according to all of the rulings that the committee read, if it is not asking any entity or anyone to break anything that General Conference did.
6. Lisa Carson, conference chancellor
 - a. What Jeremy Squires said sums it up well.

- b. Statements of doctrine and statements of aspiration or apology have been parsed out by the Judicial Council.
 - c. Had the individual who was the maker of the motions last year worked with the Resolutions Committee to craft resolutions as to that position that were aspirational, or that called for action, rather than statements of doctrine, those could have been brought before the body. They were ruled out of order, and the individual who had brought those resolutions was not interested in talking about tweaking those to make them constitutional and concurrent.
7. Rev. Lee Stevenson, Harpeth River District: request of decision of law.
- a. The last called General Conference established a new paragraph in The Book of Discipline, number 2553: disaffiliation with a local church over issues related to human sexuality.
 - b. Point one says that, because of the current deep conflict within The United Methodist Church around issues of human sexuality, the local church shall have a limited right, under the provisions of this paragraph, to disaffiliate from the denomination for reasons of conscience regarding a change in the requirements and provisions in The Book of Discipline related to the practice of homosexuality or the ordination or marriage of self-avowed, practicing homosexuals, as resolved and adopted by the 2019 General Conference, or the actions, or inactions, of its annual conference related to these issues which follow.
 - c. If the resolution passed, would it fall under new paragraph 2553 as an action of the annual conference related to these issues?
8. Bishop McAlilly asked if Rev. Stevenson was asking him for a decision of law.
- a. Stevenson affirmed that he was asking for a decision of law.
 - b. Bishop McAlilly requested that Stevenson put the request for a decision of law into writing and reminded him that the bishop has 30 days after annual conference to respond to the decision of law.
 - c. Bishop McAlilly indicated that he would take as much time as necessary to research the question and consult others on the legality of Stevenson's question.
9. Rev. Stephen Sauls, Red River District: speech in favor of the resolution.
- a. He read from Matthew 5.
 - b. The resolution is a step in the process of reconciliation.
 - c. The body heard from people who have been harmed by the church's actions and whether the body agrees that they should or should not be harmed, they have come to the body and said, "We have been harmed."
 - d. If the body considers them brothers and sisters in Christ, it is demanded by Jesus in Matthew 5 to begin the process of reconciliation. Sauls believes that the resolution is a step in that process.
 - e. Speaking against this resolution could be to say that those who have been harmed are not in fact brothers and sisters in Christ if the body does not have to honor the harm that they have raised and they are not worthy of us going to them to begin the steps of reconciliation.
 - f. He urged the annual conference to begin the steps of reconciliation with our brothers and sisters in Christ.
10. Rev. Thomas Dowdy, Red River District: speech against the resolution.
- a. He was hearing a lot of concern about people being hurt and he could recognize that. He has at least one friend in the rainbow coalition and he has great concern for that person and the harm that may have been done to that person.
 - b. He is fearful because some who disagree with LGBTQ people don't seem to care for those who disagree with them, they are branded with hate speech.
 - c. He is hurt and offended because he is being told that what he believes has been the church's position and understanding on these issues, is being considered wrong, and he is therefore wrong.
 - d. He is being pushed further and further out of The United Methodist denomination because of the position he takes on these issues.
11. Bishop McAlilly reminded the body that they had three speeches against the resolution and one speech in favor.
12. Mary Ann Rumley, laity, Caney Fork River District: question and statement against the resolution.

- a. She indicated that she had a question and then a statement against the resolution.
 - b. Bishop McAlilly said that he would allow the question, but the statement against was not allowed.
 - c. Rumley said that in a blog that Bishop McAlilly posted on May 28, 2019, he said, “We will not deal with matters related to the special called special session of General Conference. There are no action items to come before the annual conference.” She asked why the conference is dealing with this resolution.
 - d. McAlilly:
 - i. He did not make the resolution. Any person in the body has the ability to make a resolution and he doesn’t have veto authority.
 - ii. His intent in that statement was this: There are not any actionable items of this annual conference related to the General Conference. There is nothing that the body can vote on that affects the General Conference.
 - iii. The reason the first resolution was ruled out of order was because that resolution was trying to affect the outcome of General Conference. This resolution was amended to be aspirational, which the chancellor spoke to, but that was the intent of the bishop’s statement.
 - iv. His intent was that there is nothing for the body to vote on that could affect or take away the action of the General Conference. An annual conference has no authority to change The Book of Discipline.
 - v. When he made that statement, he was simply offering the idea, or the hope; it was his aspiration, that the body would do the business of the annual conference, not the business of the General Conference.
 - e. Rumley said that she was against the resolution.
 - f. McAlilly indicated that Ms. Rumley broke the rule.
13. Rev. Steve Angus, Stones River District: point of information.
- a. He asked how numbers eight and two would affect the annual conference if the resolution were to pass. In other words, how would those particular matters be addressed?
 - b. Bishop McAlilly:
 - i. It is the hope of the resolution that that would be the case. There would be no guarantee that that would be the case. It’s a hope.
 - ii. It’s an aspirational wish of the maker of the resolution that if, for example, someone violated the Discipline by performing a same-gender wedding, and someone was offended by that and they filed a complaint, the two parties would enter the just resolution process through the bishop’s office.
 - iii. If the parties were not able to meet just resolution, the complaint would be referred to the council for the church.
 - iv. When the council for the church takes up a matter, then it becomes a matter of whether they can resolve the complaint prior to a church trial. A church trial is always a last resort; the aspiration of the resolution is that we wouldn’t get to a church trial and use funds for that purpose.
14. Rev. Brad Smith, Harpeth River District: called the question.
15. Vote to end debate passed.
16. Nathan Baker, laity, Cumberland River District: point of information.
- a. He had a question about number eight. He asked if the conference will be using funds or not.
 - b. Bishop McAlilly said that the question was called, so the question is out of order.
17. Dean Thompson, laity, Cumberland River District: point of personal privilege.
- a. He asked if the body could pray prior to the vote.
 - b. Bishop McAlilly asked Mr. Thompson if he would pray.
 - c. Deen Thompson prayed.
18. Written ballot for Inclusion Resolution.

Bishop McAlilly indicated that the body was in extra time and they were adding to the clock in order to continue the business of the conference.

Rev. Lanita Monroe, Stones River District: point of clarification:

1. Her father was at the Board of Discipleship and in 1972 helped to change some of the language that is now in conflict. In 1964, the Social Principals statement on human sexuality talked about how it is part of how people are created as a part of God's image, but it also included that it is physical, emotional, psychological, and spiritual.
2. That fourfold understanding of human sexuality is important, and if the church could go back and reframe its understanding of human sexuality in the social discipline, it might lead to more whole and healthy conversations.
3. She asked how she could go about making that happen.
4. Bishop McAlilly responded that any person who is a member of the UMC, pastor or lay person, can write a resolution to be submitted to General Conference.
 - a. He would recommend that anyone wishing to do so would write a resolution to that effect. Every resolution that is submitted to General Conference is considered by one of the 14 committees of the General Conference. So, the best way to get action, or at least to have your idea considered, would be to write a resolution.

Standing Rules Report

Rev. Jay Voorhees

See Report: (See page 186 of this journal.)

1. Voorhees had hoped that the Standing Rules Committee would not need to give a report this year. However, at the last minute, they identified that there were some issues related to the disposition of property.
2. When church property is sold, there are requirements in the Discipline, but the Discipline is sometimes vague in some areas and the conference needed some clarity. The proposals for change are related to that.
3. The first proposal is to create a new section 15, and put the parsonage standards there.
4. Everything else is related to a new section 14 about the conference policy on the use or disposition of property. The four changes they are proposing can be found in the reports.
 - a. All of these proposals are related to a process for how to use funds from church properties that are sold.
 - b. A committee will provide guidance for how they are to be used in conversation with the conference trustees.
5. Voorhees proposed that the body deal with all four motions at once.
6. Motions were approved.

Campus Ministry Report

Rev. Katie Woodard, Rev. John Weaver

1. Rev. Katie Woodard, campus minister, Austin Peay State University Wesley Foundation
 - a. Because of college ministry, over 2,200 students are impacted each year by the nine college ministries in the Tennessee Conference.
 - b. Because of college ministry:
 - i. Young adults are being offered Christ for the first time.
 - ii. Students have space for Christian community that offers grace, belonging, and love.
 - iii. Students from Tennessee and all over the world are becoming mature disciples who create communities of transformation and healing.
 - iv. The Tennessee Conference does not have a lack of young adults who are involved in our ministries.
 - v. The Tennessee Conference has 920 student leaders.

- vi. 575 churches have been missionaries to young people beyond their walls.
- 2. Song: different people shared through poster board testimonies how they have been shaped by college ministry.
- 3. Rev. John Weaver, campus minister, Middle Tennessee State University Wesley Foundation
 - a. He thanked the conference for its prayers, support, and gifts.

Episcopacy Report

Kent McNish

- 1. He asked for a point of personal privilege in order to acknowledge the ministry of Rev. Charles Poole.
- 2. Summary of report of Episcopacy Committee: good man, great leader, getting late, let's get to discipleship.
- 3. 2018-2019 was a challenging year for the bishop. During the past 12 months, the bishop is doing what he came here to do: to bring together the Tennessee and Memphis conferences. We can maximize our resources for the sake of mission together.
- 4. Bishop McAlilly is supported by Lynn Taylor, director of missional alignment, and H.G. Stovall, executive office administrator.
- 5. Acknowledgment of the partnership between the bishop and Lynn McAlilly, and her work with Project Transformation, Miriam's Promise, and Mama Lynn's Center in East Congo.
- 6. The committee hopes that the bishop will be reappointed to the Nashville Episcopal Area in the next quadrennium.
 - a. The body affirmed Bishop McAlilly with applause.

Bishop's Report

Bill McAlilly, resident bishop of the Nashville Episcopal Area

- 1. He invited the body to sing, "Breathe on Me, Breath of God," and then invited the body to spend a few moments breathing. He invited the body to keep breathing and carry on.
- 2. He remains hopeful that God is still with us and God is at work among us, in us, and through us. God is wooing us into a future unafraid.
- 3. He has been weary since General Conference 2019. The chasm is between the people called Methodist is wide. He had hoped that we could hold the tension long enough for God to find a way through.
- 4. Recently, he decided to put hope in his conversations.
- 5. He read from Romans 5. These five verses have been important to his ministry.
- 6. He has been anxious for the churches, pastors, and laity, and for our LGBTQ brothers and sisters in the Memphis and Tennessee conferences.
- 7. The conference has taught him that it is committed to making disciples and being in mission throughout the world.
- 8. He invited the body to keep praying.
- 9. He prayed for the conference.
- 10. No one knows what the future holds for the denomination, yet he has great hope that the people called Methodists will find a way through.
- 11. He named a number of issues that people face within the bounds of the Tennessee Conference: the opioid epidemic is rampant; teenage suicide; gun violence; alcohol abuse on the rise among women; families are broken by divorce; and poverty.
- 12. He asked why there aren't resolutions about these issues. It is despicable that the church is silent on these issues.
- 13. There are enough mission outposts in the United States to turn the church toward the world and change the world for Jesus Christ.
- 14. We have lost our ability to have dialogue with each other. There have been some people hurt this week in this body.

15. God placed him in this role to be the bishop of the whole church, not just this Church. He believes that we have to hold the tension of the opposites long enough for God to get us to the other side. He believes he is called to expand the center of the Church.
16. The future is certain with God. No one can separate us from the love of Christ.
17. He encouraged the body to offer an alternative narrative in a broken and fragmented world.
18. He is blessed to do this work. He named things he loves about the work, as well as things he doesn't enjoy.
19. His goal is to keep the conference in connection with one another.
20. He invited each church to light a candle on their alter each Sunday and commit to praying for different churches throughout the connection.
21. The most important thing is the mission of Jesus Christ. Christ calls everyone by name and pursues us.
22. Breathe and carry on.
23. The report ended with song: "Breathe on Me Breath of God".

Bishop McAlilly acknowledged and thanked:

1. Bridget Sloane, who worked on all of the visuals for annual conference, including the flower arrangements and alter design.
2. Jackson Henry, for his worship leadership.
3. Musicians from the campus ministries.
4. Tellers.
5. Conference secretaries.
6. Lisa Carson, conference chancellor.
7. Brentwood United Methodist Church staff and laity.

Results of the Inclusion Resolution

- a. Bishop McAlilly asked the body to express themselves with humility.
- b. Results: 335 Yes; 208 No.
 - i. 62 percent in favor of the resolution.

Standing break to prepare for the closing worship service.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE, 2019

THE ORDERS OF ELDERS AND DEACONS
THE FELLOWSHIP OF LOCAL PASTORS AND ASSOCIATE MEMBERS

Bishop McAlilly, members of the Board of Ordained Ministry and clergy in the Tennessee Conference,

It is a privilege to share the Order of Elders, Order of Deacons, and the Fellowship of Local Pastors and Associate Members has been actively at work this year by encouraging our covenantal living together as clergy.

We continue to urge our brothers and sisters in ministry to remember that:

We have a sacred calling as United Methodist clergy. By virtue of our baptism and ordination or licensing, we have entered into a covenantal relationship in a community of clergy (active and retired Elders, Deacons, Associate Members, Provisional Members, and Local Pastors). Our mutual covenant seeks to create a community marked by and lived into with respect, honesty, integrity, compassion and encouragement. In all interactions with one another we seek to offer mutual support and care as friends in ministry. As clergy in set-apart, representative, accountable leadership ministry, we must continually commit to grow in holiness, in faithfulness to our calling to make disciples of Jesus Christ and in trusting relationships with each other. We rely upon the grace of God to maintain our covenant with each other. (From the Tennessee and Memphis Conferences Clergy Covenant Living)

As part of this covenant, the main task of the Tennessee and Memphis Conference Orders and Fellowships for the year was to provide a Clergy Spiritual Life Retreat. The Clergy Spiritual Life Retreat was held at Lake Barkley on March 10-13, 2019. The Orders and Fellowships worked diligently in conjunction with Bishop McAlilly to plan an event that would encourage healthy conversations in the midst of this challenging season in the life of our Church. The retreat focused on the work of Dr. Gregory Ellison, II Fear + Less Dialogues.

We are grateful for Bishop McAlilly's leadership both in planning and participating in this event. We are also grateful for others who provided leadership from the Tennessee and Memphis conferences. Responses from our feedback survey indicated that many people felt the experience was very moving and powerful. They were better able to hear people's stories and truly "see" others. We are still in conversation about building on the discussions that took place at the retreat and the model that was shared with us for having "Fear+Less Dialogues" within our conference. We are excited to continue providing an event in the future.

We recognize that there is still work to be done as we seek unity and authenticity as a conference and as a denomination. The Orders and Fellowship of the Tennessee Conference move forward with our work, grateful for the opportunity to serve. May we stay focused on the Christ as we seek to live in God's grace and love, walking alongside our brothers and sisters in ministry. This concludes our report.

CHAPTER 6

REPORTS AND RESOLUTIONS

A. REPORTS

BOARD OF CAMP & RETREAT MINISTRIES

Russell Casteel, Executive Director, Tennessee Conference Camp and Retreat Ministries

The TNUMC Board of Camp and Retreat Ministry (CRM) celebrated the work of longtime executive director, Rev. Dickie Hinton and his spouse, Thelma Hinton, with the dedication of spaces at Beersheba Springs Assembly (BSA) and Cedar Crest Camp (CCC). The Hinton Prayer Garden at BSA will serve as a reminder of the commitment of the Hintons toward caring for creation, the renewal we find in outdoor experiences, and the beauty of the mountain. At Cedar Crest, the Eagle's Nest cabin has been remodeled to be Hinton Eagle's Nest, a sabbath cabin available for anyone—lay or clergy—to use as sabbath, planning or renewal. In addition, the board celebrates seven years of leadership and dedication from Steve Woolam of Dickson FUMC as he exits the CRM board. Steve's financial expertise and commitment to church connection were key factors in the revival of Cedar Crest. The board also welcomes Betsy Hailey of Waverly UMC, Rev. Jed Haines of Dickson UMC, and Rev. John Hill of Blakemore UMC onto the CRM board of directors. The board will continue discussion about the future of camping ministry and how it can continue to thrive in the current context of the UMC.

Beersheba Springs Assembly Program and Staff Update

Director Sarah Ratz continues to lead BSA to milestones in new program offerings, facility upgrades, and partnerships with local churches. In addition to her role as director at Beersheba, Sarah was again nominated and elected as a member of the United Methodist Camp and Retreat Association, the governing board of UMC camping ministry. Her leadership continues to inspire and mark Beersheba as a place of growth. This past year, BSA offered new retreat programming including: Prayer Shawl, Scrapbooking, and Spring Fling. Continuing in tradition is the Women's Retreat, an experience created for women to be renewed in discipleship and calling. In 2019, 22 churches were represented at the Women's Retreat, a reminder of the importance of creating a culture of women in leadership and specific experiences to develop that calling and renewal. Christmas at Beersheba continues to be an important seasonal experience for older adults and plans for Christmas 2019 and beyond are underway.

Summer Sizzler, a partnership with Next Gen ministry, offered youth from across the Tennessee Conference the opportunity to learn about Strange Things, the wonderful and strange call of God. In 2018, over 30 churches sent more than 200 people to take part in this event. This summer, Sizzler will be focused on 2nd Corinthians 5:17, This Changes Everything, an opportunity for youth to experience the resurrecting love of Jesus Christ.

Beersheba continued its tradition of being a place of sabbath and renewal for local UMC congregations, community partnerships, and UMC general boards and agencies. In late 2018, Beersheba Springs welcomed Trevor Gentry, a Martin Methodist College graduate, Center for Youth Ministry Training fellow, and former youth minister to its team as program director.

Facilities Update

BSA was a 2018 recipient of a $10,000 Golden Cross grant for the implementation of new sidewalks, lighting, and infrastructure updates that would continue to make BSA a place of deep hospitality. We give thanks to the Golden Cross Foundation for their commitment to the discipleship and sabbath of older adults and look forward to continuing our partnership for years to come.

In addition, Beersheba contributed to necessary improvements, including:

- Removal of asbestos siding from the dining hall and quad
- Creation of new office space on the quad
- Remodel of housing for program director
- Creation of prayer garden, sabbath space, and program space
- Remodel of assembly hall above the dining hall for meeting and worship space
- Addition of bunk beds to Turner Lodge; plan for more Next Gen-friendly lodging for future years

Cedar Crest Camp

Program and Staff Update

Cedar Crest continued another year of growth in summer camp, retreat, and programming. Executive Director of Camp and Retreat Ministry and Cedar Crest Director Russell Casteel began his sixth year in service to the Tennessee Conference in 2019 and is excited to continue in partnership and connection with local churches, communities, and Next Gen.

Summer 2018 marked a fifth consecutive summer of growth at Cedar Crest! From a campership of 170 in 2013 to 470 in 2018, camping continues to play an important role in the discipleship and call of children and youth as well as the camping staff. Program expansions included Adventure Camps, offering canoeing, rock climbing, white water rafting, and backpacking. A two-week camp for youth was an amazing experience, providing opportunities to grow in faith and confidence. Camps for elementary, junior high, and high school students all increased in attendance as well. Most importantly, campers grew in their faith, self-confidence, and in living into Christian community. Three campers were baptized at camp in 2018, in addition to 80 percent of 2018 parents saying that their camper grew in their faith in Christ! Spring 2019 continues to show growth in all age groups and expanded programming. For this summer, Cedar Crest is excited to offer a day camp for local families.

The fall and spring were some of the busiest in camp history for offering programming for young people and partnering with over 50 churches and more than 325 Next Gen participants:

- Children's retreat
- Junior high Spiritual Life Retreat
- Navigate calling retreat (underwritten through a grant with GBHEM)
- Be Retreat (for young teenagers)
- Confirmation retreat

In January 2019, Cedar Crest launched an Environmental Education (EE) program. Springtime has already brought groups from Metro Nashville STEM schools and Pleasant View Christian School, in addition to partnerships with the Tennessee Environmental Education Association and the Southern Grasslands Initiative at Austin Peay. We are excited to offer EE experiences to many more students throughout the year as way to continue to connect students with outdoor education in ways that will enhance classroom learning. Learn more at www.cedarcrestee.org.

Morgan Tubbs, serving as program director at Cedar Crest since 2016, departed in fall 2018 to pursue non-profit work; we give thanks for her service and dedication to Next Gen Discipleship. Jessi Persson, staff member at Cedar Crest from 2013-2017 will finish seminary at Emory in May 2019 and then serve as the next program director at Cedar Crest. We celebrate her call to ministry rooted in her time at Tennessee Tech Wesley and Cedar Crest staff.

Site and Facility Update

In 2018, Cedar Crest added a camp garden and beehives, increasing opportunities for campers to connect in hands-on ways to creation. A giant swing and quickjump were added to the high ropes course, offering a chance for youth campers and retreat groups to step out in faith in adventurous programming.

Other site and facility updates included: remodel of camp office/program director residence, completion of Owl—second set of modern cabins in main camp area—and completion of Hinton Eagle’s Nest sabbath cabin

BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

Angella Current-Felder, Chair, Stephen Sauls, Vice Chair, Michael O’Bannon, Secretary We are excited about the creative ways in which our eight established collegiate ministries and newly developing ministry at Cumberland University are creating new disciples, enabling students to find their calling; equipping young adults to renew and lead the church; offering safe spaces for peace, personal growth, and development; and providing a multiplicity of activities for students to utilize their gifts in being witnesses for Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

We celebrate and affirm our capable, compassionate, and competent campus ministers: Katie Woodard, director Austin Peay Wesley; David Brent Hollis, director Belmont Wesley; Marilyn E. Thornton, director Fisk Wesley Fellowship; Laura McMasters, college chaplain Martin Methodist College; John Weaver, director, and Michelle Ozier Wallace, associate director, Middle Tennessee State University; Michelle Morton, director Tennessee State University Wesley; Addison Shock, director Tennessee Tech University Wesley; and Nancy Hawthorne Parker, Vanderbilt University Wesley. Micah Meyers, youth minister at Lebanon First UMC, is serving as the advisor and working with student Riley Kilian and the student leadership team at Cumberland University in the establishment of an advisory board and development of campus ministry programmatic activities.

This year the board took steps to build trust and facilitate a more collaborative spirit among the campus ministers and develop new mechanisms for accountability and evaluation. Utilizing the consultant services of Spiritual Leadership Inc. (SLI), with Ideal Curtis as the coach, we celebrate that the campus ministers are acting as a unified team, working collaboratively with BHECM, have become more focused, cohesive, mission aligned, holding each campus ministry accountable, and encouraging one another. This campus ministry collaboration has also led to an organic peer accountability structure for spiritual formation, budget proposals, ongoing training, evaluation, goal achievement, and unity with the BHECM executive team. This collaboration has also resulted in two representatives from the campus ministers team working with the BHECM executive team in planning meetings and goal setting.

Based upon their reports, our campus ministries have engaged 2,136 students (influenced or attended a one-time event); 970 displayed an interest by attending at least once a month; and 391 have demonstrated they are invested (part of the leadership and regular attendance). We celebrate the involvement of our students in servant leadership through Project Transformation, mission trips, Next Gen and church internships, Cedar Crest, and other camps, Warmth in Winter, Leading in Transformation, and countless local missions. Our campus ministries are offering Christian community for individuals for the first time. In addition to new disciples, they have created systems of support and challenge to continue the development of young adults who come from church congregations. As we reviewed their Four P’s—purpose, product, payoff and process—we affirm their statement to: “create and deploy models of ministry that prioritize an invitation to active ministry, engaged strategic partnerships, and that adapt to new emerging needs”. We also commend their efforts to include the Memphis Conference campus ministers in their team building work.

Recognizing that many board members were not familiar with the different college campuses and Wesley facilities, nor had the board established its own goals and objectives for 2019-2020, the board is now holding its meetings at our different campuses. By May 2019, we met and were hosted by the campus ministries at Martin Methodist College, Middle Tennessee State University, Tennessee Tech, and Tennessee State University.

Utilizing the consultant services of SLI, BHECM members and board representatives from our Wesley foundations participated in an all-day retreat on March 18th to set goals for 2019-2020. We also received the BHECM 2020 proposed budget remitted by the executive committee to the Connectional Ministries Lead Team and Council on Finance and Administration. In addition to using the Connectional Ministries feedback grid, the Four P's, three budget process questions, and 2020 budget proposals, each campus ministry shared glory sightings and their goals in three vital areas of financial stewardship, advocacy within the connection, and the development of leadership/vocation/culture of all.

The Tennessee Conference BHECM will continue to build trust through collaboration, establish processes for accountability, and utilize an evaluation model that incorporates the stories of life transformation among our students as well as the numbers of students being impacted by our campus ministries.

BOARD OF LAITY

Holly Neal, Lay Leader and George Brown Associate Lay Leader

The Board of Laity leadership team continues to work to equip and encourage team members with the leadership tools to impact their work within their local church and districts.

Laity clubs are providing fellowship and contact opportunities that serve to unify churches within their district for the common good. Many clubs provide scholarships to Martin Methodist College.

Worship Without Walls provides community service projects that are done on a Sunday. Clergy and laity literally work side by side to get these projects completed.

There are Disciple and Bible study groups that are led by lay men and women with clergy support. Many districts provide training opportunities to equip the laity to help them fulfill their responsibilities in their local churches. Laity are leading feeding ministries and mission trips, packing backpacks filled with kid-friendly food for the weekend, providing snacks for local hospital waiting rooms, providing equipment for people struggling with physical limitations, working with children in local schools, and visiting people in nursing homes and hospitals.

Project Transformation is going strong with many laity working side by side with children and college interns. Laity are active and are being empowered by clergy and district superintendents to try new things and to continue with traditional ways to bring Jesus through his Word and our witness to the people in our area.

The Conference Board of Laity is providing leadership on many conference, district, local church, and community boards and committees.

May we continue to discover, equip, connect, and send forth a new generation of lay and clergy leaders who shape individual congregations that offer Jesus Christ to a hurting world, one neighborhood at a time.

BOARD OF PENSIONS

Steve Curry, Chair

Most of our full-time active and retired clergy participate in defined benefit (DB, or traditional pension) plans. Our plans were funded by the annual conference and are administered by Wespath Benefits and Investments (Wespath), formerly known as General Board of Pension and Health Benefits. The Tennessee Conference's retirement plans are projected to be funded at 105 percent – 109 percent in 2020.

The annual conference, this board and their predecessors have been good stewards of the funds entrusted to us. As a result, the Tennessee Conference has pension reserves that should protect our retirees well into the future.

We are blessed that we can fund part of our current pension obligations from earnings on our reserves. For 2020, CFA approved apportionment funding to cover only 16 percent of our estimated pension obligations. The remaining 84 percent will be funded through withdrawals from the conference's pension reserves. This is part of a 10-year plan to reduce the church's apportionments by drawing down accumulated reserves, which through God's blessings have grown more than anticipated.

The 2020 Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan has been prepared and submitted to Wespath as required by the Book of Discipline (2016), ¶1506.6. We have sufficient projected revenues and reserves to fully fund all the conference's benefit obligations for the foreseeable future.

Years ago, the Conference Board of Pensions set a goal to maintain our Pre-82 Plan past service rate (PSR) at a minimum of 1 percent of conference average compensation (CAC). We recommend a past service rate for 2020 of $725 for pre-1982 service years. This represents a 1.5 percent increase over the 2019 rate ($714) and is 1.043 percent of the CAC.

The 2017 annual conference authorized the creation of a Pension Reserve Trust ("Trust"), with a goal of better protecting the pension assets that are held outside of our plans at Wespath. That was accomplished, with all assets being conveyed or redirected into the Trust. We have given Treasurer Jim Allen the authority to make routine, budgeted transactions into and out of the Trust as provided in our approved budget; but otherwise, the Trust assets are restricted to uses approved by its trustees.

The board expresses our thanks to the hard work of Jim Allen and Melinda Parker, who ensure the smooth working of our benefits plans and support of our retirees. Assistant Benefits Officer Melinda Parker organized the Board of Pensions' annual Retirement Planning Seminar for clergy and lay staff considering retirement in October.

I want to express my appreciation for the extraordinary commitment and dedication by the members of the Board of Pensions. Their service is utmost important and invaluable.

REMINDERS

- 1) Wespath offers additional life insurance for qualified participants.
- 2) The conference can provide grave markers for deceased United Methodist clergy. Requests should be made to the Office of Administrative Services.

REQUEST FOR ACTION BY ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The Board of Pensions recommends that the annual conference approve the following:

1. The 2020 Tennessee Conference Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan
2. A past service rate of $725 for pre-1982 service years, effective January 1, 2020

2019 Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan (for 2020)

Summary: Sufficient funds have been apportioned, restricted or designated to fully fund all of our current obligations and accrued benefit liabilities at or above the 100% level.

General Conference 2012 agreed with a recommendation by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, now known as Wespeth, that every annual conference should have a formal written and approved plan for funding its benefit-related liabilities. The Discipline, ¶1506.6 (2016). This expanded requirement grew out of the financial meltdown of 2008, that left many annual conferences unable to meet their current liabilities, and with no plan for covering their long term liabilities. We of the Tennessee Conference continue to benefit from the foresight that led us and our predecessors to raise the funds necessary to fund our pension plans fully, and to limit our health plan benefits for retirees to an amount that we could reasonably afford.

A detailed 2020 Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan was approved the Conference Board of Pensions, and is recommended to the Annual Conference for its approval. A recap follows here; the full plan summary can be found on the conference website under Finance and Resources, Administrative Services tab, Conference Financials tab.

Defined Benefit Corridor Funding (comprised of Clergy Retirement Security Plan Defined Benefit and MPP Annuities): The Funded Ratio for Contributions for 2020 has been calculated by Wespeth to be 109%. Since this exceeds 100%, the Tennessee Conference has no current unfunded liability.

Pre-82 Plan (Supplement One to CRSP): The PSR is set each year at an amount expected to exceed 1.0% of the Conference Average Compensation (CAC). Based on a PSR for 2020 of $725 (1.04% of CAC), the Pre-82 Plan will have a funded ratio will increase to approximately 108%. Projections for 2020 do not currently require the Tennessee Conference to contribute new money to the Pre-82 Plan.

Post-Retirement Medical Benefits are provided only to persons who are eligible and take full retirement at age 62, and continues only until those persons reach age 65. Assets set aside for this benefit exceed the liability by 5.4% (105.4% funded ratio).

Conference Health Plan (Active) is a self-funded plan. In 2018, the Plan's revenues exceeded expenses by $722,489, with that amount carried over to 2019. Projections for 2019 are a shortfall of approximately $1.3million. This shortfall was budgeted for the purpose of using excess reserves that had built up over recent good years. In addition to paying current expenses each year, the Health Plan has historically budgeted to have reserves on hand at year end equal to at least 25% annual expenses. In preparation for the possible merger of the Tennessee and Memphis Conferences effective 1/1/2021, projected reserves will be used to reduce "direct bill" costs to churches; reserves as of 12/31/2020 are budgeted to be 0%.

Other benefits: The Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) (for full-time clergy) and the UMPIP 403(b) retirement plan (for less-than-full-time clergy, and conference lay staff) are fully funded each year from a combination of Pensions apportionments, and from reserves.

Jim Allen

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Paul E. Gardner, President

The conference Board of Trustees continue to provide oversight to the variety of properties that belong to the Tennessee Conference. There are 12 current use properties that we oversee. They include the episcopal residence (joint with Memphis Conference), conference headquarters, Beersheba Springs Assembly, Cedar Crest Camp, Harpeth River District Office, Hobson UMC (formerly St. Andrews UMC), TSU Wesley Foundation, MTSU Wesley Foundation, TTU Wesley Foundation, Strother Meeting House at Scarritt Bennet Center, Asbury-Babb House (buildings only) and Old Fountainhead Cemetery. The latter three are historical sites under the care of the Conference Commission on Archives and History.

We also oversee a variety of properties from prior church closures that we have responsibility for maintaining until they are sold or repurposed. Last year, the trustees hired the A. Anthony Corporation to provide oversight, secure the properties, and provide various levels of maintenance as buyers are sought for the properties. Since the last annual conference, we have sold or conveyed the former APSU Wesley Foundation building, and former United Methodist churches at Bunker Hill, Greer's Chapel, 61st Avenue, Mt. Zion, and Roanoke. We continue to hold the Ernest Newman, Inglewood, Bonnertown, Caldwell, Hampshire Ridge UMCs, the former parsonage of Oak Hill, and two vacant lots in the Nashville area.

In 2018, the trustees assembled a process under paragraph 213 of the Discipline to guide the district superintendent when a church inquires about the process to close. Over the coming months in 2019, we will be assessing how the actions of the 2019 General Conference concerning disaffiliation will be implemented in the Tennessee Conference.

Currently we are working with the cabinet and other entities to ensure we have a policy in place for the proper disposition and resolution for all the properties that may come under our care.

When several churches were flooded this spring, we were able to turn to an old fund, the Anna Hensley Fund, to provide some assistance in repairing their facilities. It caused us to recognize that we do not have any funds that are designated for this type of assistance. We will be looking at the possibility of action that will provide some discretionary funding for this use.

The trustees also approved and reviewed an updated relationship agreement with Miriam's Promise.

Much of our communication is via email, and the trustees approved a formal policy allowing action to be taken electronically under certain circumstances when necessary.

It has been a privilege to serve as the president of the Tennessee Conference Trustees. I look forward to continuing to serve as we move forward.

I express a great thank you to Jim Allen and the staff in the Office of Administrative Services and to Lisa Carson, conference chancellor for guidance and facilitation of many of the actions of the Board of Trustees. Their diligence provides for the handling of many of the details related to the work of the trustees.

COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

Rev. Leland T. Carden, Chair
Gratia Downs Strother, Conference Archivist

The purpose of the John Abernathy Smith Heritage Center and the Tennessee Conference Commission on Archives & History (CAH) is to strengthen faith in Christ for seekers and believers by illustrating how God has worked in the lives of the people called Methodist who have gone before us, and through our Methodist churches throughout history. We have a renewed sense of purpose to discover, preserve, document, and share our Methodist history in a way that helps grow a sense of heritage that builds community within our United Methodist churches. The United Methodist Book of Discipline mandates the collection and maintenance of records within each congregation and by the conference itself. These records are not just documentation of transactions of membership and funds, but also tell a story of the Holy Spirit working within lives and the intersection of faith and the culture of the era.

With the hire of a new archivist in March of 2019, we have a threefold plan for engaging with individuals, churches, and communities moving forward:

1. Make our archival holdings readily accessible in a user-friendly format to everyone via:
 - a. An online catalog to our holdings
 - b. Online access to historic documents in our archives
 - c. In-house, in-person availability for people to visit and use the archives during normal business hours and by appointment if normal business hours aren't convenient
 - d. User friendly website
2. Support local churches:
 - a. Support church growth through social media and in-person interactive visual storytelling presentations to reach out to a broader base of people and engage existing church members, instilling a sense of community and growing faith. When people know the history of those who built the churches we fellowship in today, their faith is increased. They hear stories they can relate to of other Christians who walked in faith through difficult circumstances and how God worked in their lives the same way he will work in our lives today. Knowing others left us a legacy of faith encourages us to want to leave a legacy also and imbibes a sense of responsibility to our congregation.

- b. Work with Next Gen ministers to engage youth in developing faith-based content for social media, learning their church's history, and growing in their faith simultaneously. Connect the youth of the church with senior members of the congregation to create oral histories. Youth are digital natives at making video with their phones and converting that to shareable format. Seniors have years of history in their memory and experience. This effort helps connect generations now and record our history for the future.
 - c. Be a resource for clergy for:
 - i. Understanding the history of the church and community they are appointed to
 - ii. Historical context to movements in the church and culture that are relevant to our mission today. Because Methodists have often been involved in cultural and humanitarian movements, many of our experiences in the past can inform our efforts for the future. Poverty, racism, and immigration are just a few of the topics with which we have a historic and current relationship.
 - iii. Historical context for Special Sundays and ministries of the United Methodist Church, as outlined here: <http://www.umciving.org/how-we-give#sundays>
 - iv. Personal histories of Methodist people of faith whose lives made a difference in our communities and churches
 - v. Historical context of revival and church growth. What factors come together to make Methodist churches successful at their mission?
 - d. Build a community of active church historians and church history committees documenting, sharing, and preserving church history in their own churches. Creating community for these historians by getting them involved in the Tennessee Methodist Historical Society (TMHS). A call for church historians went out to district superintendents in May 2019 for distribution to local clergy.
3. Engage with communities:
- a. Connect with local communities as Methodists with the common thread of local history. Engage with local history groups and local archives and historical societies through presentations at gatherings, church history tours, and church historians. Provide a means of connection by making these groups aware that Methodist history intersects with the history of their community, and subsequently that Methodism still has something to offer communities today.
 - b. Genealogy as a hobby is a growing trend globally. Many people have Methodist history they want to research. This opportunity to interact with individuals as they are on a journey of self-discovery is also an opportunity to introduce them to The United Methodist Church and to share with them the hope of the Gospel.

The CAH and TMHS have continued to work to preserve and protect Methodist history in the caretaking of the Asbury-Babb House and Strother's Meeting House, United Methodist historic sites. We have a treasured collection of historic artifacts in the John Abernathy Smith Heritage Center that includes library, archives, and a small museum. Volunteers are needed to help with cataloging our archives for creation of the digital access that is one of our goals.

Through the work of David Martin, conference historian and president of TMHS, we received a grant from the Tennessee State Library and Archives that provided materials for church history kits. These kits are being distributed to churches that request one. They include the Tennessee Conference history book Cross and Flame by John Abernathy Smith and training and archival materials to help churches preserve their own story of faith. We have already had tremendous interest in this program with a number of churches participating and more kits are ready to be distributed upon request.

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

George L. Jensen, Chair

The Commission on Equitable Compensation has worked to establish a minimum standard of compensation for appointed clergy. We strive to ensure that each pastor of the annual conference will receive a fair and just compensation for his/her full-time professional services in devotion to the Lord. We are guided in these efforts by The Book of Discipline (2016) and the policies established by the conference.

We recommend the following to the conference for action:

I. MINIMUM COMPENSATION LEVELS:

The commission recommends the following minimum compensation levels for 2019-20, which are 2 percent higher than 2018-19. “Compensation” includes salary, utilities, and any other benefit paid by the local church. It does not include housing, which is the obligation of the charge, ¶252.4e. Also note that this does not include the local church’s fund for reimbursement to pastors for expenses incurred in the fulfillment of their professional responsibilities (“accountable reimbursement”). That reimbursement is in addition to the pastor’s salary ¶627.

	2018-19	2019-20
Full Conference, Provisional, and Commissioned Members:	$42,420	$43,268
Associate Members:	$38,508	$39,278
Full Time Local Pastors:	$37,020	$37,760

II. QUALIFICATION PROCESS FOR EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

To qualify for an Equitable Compensation Grant, a charge must submit an application to the Commission on Equitable Compensation through their district superintendent. The application will explain in detail why conference funds should be used for this charge and what efforts have been made to raise the funds needed to pay the pastor’s salary. Additionally, the application must explain the goals for the charge and pastor and how it is engaging in its mission field. The following information must be included with the application:

1. Proposed 2020 compensation for the pastor, including Equitable Compensation Grant and housing.
2. Printout of most recent full year Table 2.
3. Charge or church budgets for the most recent year, with most recent audit if any
4. Balance of all funds on hand, including operating, reserve, and endowment funds.
5. Schedule to move off of equitable compensation within four years, or progress if this is not first year

The application must be signed by the SPRC or council chair, and district superintendent, and recommended by the cabinet to the Equitable Compensation Commission. If a grant application is approved by the commission, Administrative Services will be instructed to forward the funds monthly to the church’s bank using ACH (direct deposit).

IV. ARREARAGE POLICY

According to The Book of Discipline (2016), ¶¶624.1 and 625.2d, the Commission on Equitable Compensation is to submit “an arrearage policy to be adopted by the annual conference”. This policy is to address the situation where a church is slow or unable to pay the agreed upon compensation of its pastor.

The arrearage policy was approved by the annual conference in June 2017 and is printed in the 2017 journal as part of the report of the Commission on Equitable Compensation. It was revised to update references to The Book of Discipline (2016) rather than references to The Book of Discipline (2012).

COMMISSION ON THE STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN

Rev. Lanita H. Monroe, Chair

In October 2018 the General Commission on the Status and Role of Women hosted the Do No Harm conference in San Antonio, Texas. Representatives from all but five annual conferences were present, along with persons from several areas in the Central Conference. Bishop Robert Schnase of the Rio Texas Conference preached during opening worship. In his remarks, he helped us hear that the path toward clergy sexual misconduct can be clouded by many factors, both seen and unseen. In his book, Signs of Vulnerability, Roy Oswald addresses the issue of clergy vulnerability and the need to be aware of how the stresses of pastoring carry layers of dynamics which affect clergy in many ways. As clergy, we must be diligent in our own self-care as well as care for one another. We are entrusted with the care of our congregations and even in our own vulnerability, we are accountable for our actions. Our world does not readily help us process our own vulnerability in ways that can help us be on guard against the slippery slope of misconduct.

I have tried very hard during these recent years to help us all hear that sexual misconduct is not a woman's issue—it is an issue which affects all men and women. Women must be willing to hear that they are not the only victims in order for healing and wholeness to begin within our workplaces and our churches. Predatory, manipulative behavior is not exclusive to the male gender.

It is still my fervent hope and prayer that my sisters and brothers within the clergy will find a way to trust one another enough to help each other through times of vulnerability, burnout, and stress in order that clergy misconduct would be a thing of the past.

Below is the three-year comparison of statistics for the Tennessee Annual Conference.

COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS RELATIONSHIPS

Rev. Nick Baird-Chrisohon, Chair

The Conference Committee on Christian Unity and Interreligious Relationships (CUIR), along with representatives from the Episcopal Diocese of Tennessee, met six times in the previous conference year to hold discussions on the upcoming full communion proposal between our two denominational bodies. The group enjoyed collegial discussion, fellowship, and even joined in ecumenical worship at the Upper Room Chapel. Revs. Nick

Baird-Chrisohon and Clint Wilson (Episcopal ecumenical officer) presented on the dialogue group and the lessons learned at the United Methodist Ecumenical and Interreligious Training workshop at the April 2019 gathering of the National Workshop on Christian Unity in St. Louis. The dialogue group members look forward to shared mission and worship in the future and support the work of general bodies in finalizing the agreement for vote at General Convention and General Conference, respectively.

In the upcoming conference year, we will continue our work to engage representatives of other denominations and faith traditions in dialogue with the intention of holding a shared mission or service in the Nashville area in 2020. We encourage Tennessee United Methodist clergy and congregations to engage in joint worship and mission in local congregations with faith communities in your own geographical area. We offer ourselves as conversation partners for those who would like assistance in navigating building relationships and planning shared worship that honors multiple faith traditions, in honor of Christ's prayer that, "...they all may be one" (John 17:21).

We welcome any who are interested in ecumenical and/or interfaith partnerships to join our team. Please see Rev. Nick Baird-Chrisohon or any member of our team if you are interested in partnering or joining with us.

Current team members: Emily Baird-Chrisohon, Nick Baird-Chrisohon, Jefferson Furtado, David Johnson, Sarah McWhirt-Toler, Geoffrey Parker

COMMITTEE ON CHURCH AND SOCIETY

Rev. Ken Edwards, Chair

The Tennessee Conference Committee on Church and Society continues its work to connect the life of the Church to the needs of the hurting world. We continue to advocate for those who are without voice, for those who are pushed to margins, for the poor, for the immigrant, and those who are victims of systemic evil and exclusion. We have also worked to focus on the goals of Connectional Ministries to equip lay and clergy members of the conference, to connect resources throughout the conference, and to share stories of transformation that arise out of the ministries we have supported.

We provided funds for Rev. LeNoir Culberston and Amelia Clark (a lay person) to attend the Love One Another Conference in August 2018. This conference focused on strategies toward full inclusion of LGBTQIA persons in the life of the Church. We have sought ways to advocate for those who have been hurt by the recent actions of the special session of General Conference and to provide spaces for conversation around these ongoing concerns, including the annual conference dinner for inclusion.

We have worked to strengthen our partnership between Church and Society and Creation Care and Interfaith committees. We have advocated for the needs of the immigrant community and continue to partner with Faith That Heals and the Tennessee Justice Center to advocate for Medicaid expansion and healthcare for all Tennesseans.

We were able to give Love and Justice Grants to Justice for Our Neighbors, Edgehill UMC Brighter Days, My Father's Horse (First UMC in Springfield), Hillcrest UMC ESL program, Open Table Nashville, and the Grace UMC Healing Ministry (focused on the incarcerated). We continue to be grateful for the many ways local churches are engaging their communities for social change.

COMMITTEE ON EPISCOPACY

Kent McNish, Chair

2018-2019 has been a challenging year for all of us who claim to be disciples of Jesus Christ through our membership in The United Methodist Church. The faithful and effective leadership of Bishop Bill McAlilly has kept our Tennessee Conference congregations, clergy, and laity focused on the great commandment—love God and love those God loves. By his preaching and his leadership, we do not lose sight of the great commission: To go and make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

During the past 12 months his leadership is demonstrated in the overwhelming vote of both Memphis and Tennessee conferences to approve a new conference through which together we can maximize our resources for the sake of our mission together. His creative approach has brought to us a smooth transition to five districts rather than our traditional seven. Likewise, our five districts are working diligently to frame connectional ministry in a decentralized structure that brings resources and leadership closer to our congregations. Bishop McAlilly has provided the biblical and practical guidance to make this transition fruitful and effective.

Both committees on episcopacy—Memphis and Tennessee—know from working with Bishop McAlilly, the cabinet, and the episcopal staff that much is yet to be done in this last year of the 2016-2020 quadrennium. Having benefitted from his leadership and witness, both committees prayerfully urge the Southeastern Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy to return Bishop and Mrs. McAlilly to the Nashville Area for the quadrennium beginning in September 2020. This decision will be made and announced at the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference in July 2020.

With the launching of a new conference, the ramifications of the decisions made by the called General Conference 2019 this past February supported by the rulings of the judicial council in April, lead us to state unequivocally that we need Bishop McAlilly to lead us not for one more year but for five more years.

Your committee on episcopacy is appreciative of the steady course set by Bishop McAlilly and the cabinet in these troubling times.

The Book of Discipline assigns the annual conference's committee on episcopacy responsibility to serve as liaison and wise counsel to the bishop. We provide the bishop with constructive, honest feedback; the voice and sentiment of our conference as we have heard it expressed to us; while offering guidance and direction to the bishop. This year the committee has used the Lewis Pastoral Leadership Inventory (LPLI) created by Lewis Center for Church Leadership at Wesley Theological Seminary. The LPLI report for Bishop McAlilly's 360 was completed by over 40 leaders in both conferences. This fall both committees will utilize the standardized evaluation of the Southeastern Jurisdiction.

Your committee knows Bishop McAlilly's ministry is not a one-man band. We all owe great appreciation to Bishop McAlilly's wife, Lynn. She is a leader in her own right in our Church through Project Transformation, Miriam's Promise, and, of course, the Mama Lynn Women's Center in the East Congo Conference.

The Nashville Area Episcopal Office has two vital staff persons that facilitate the ministry of the bishop. Lynn Taylor serves as the director of Missional Alignment. Lynn works untiringly for the benefit of the bishop and both conferences.

H.G. Stovall is our newest staff member. He serves as the executive office administrator. Likewise, he works diligently for all our benefit.

In addition to leading two conferences, for the 2017-2020 quadrennium, Bishop McAlilly serves on the Connectional Table as president of the board of directors of the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry.

He also is co-chair of the Endorsing Committee. He also serves on the Council of Bishops' leadership teams on leadership development and leadership discernment. In addition, he will serve on the Just Peace board of directors for this quadrennium and as chair of the Quadrennial Orientation for New Bishops Committee.

He served as president of the Southeastern Jurisdictional College of Bishops in 2016-17 and continues to serve on the Southeastern Jurisdiction Committee on Coordination and Accountability.

Bishop McAlilly currently serves on the board of trustees of Emory University, Atlanta, Georgia, the Methodist Le Bonheur Healthcare board, Memphis, Tennessee, and the board of trustees of Martin College, Pulaski, Tennessee.

In closing, I want to share some of the bishop's thoughts from his blog Greater Things Are Yet to be Done regarding GC 2019:

For generations, the people called Methodists in Middle and West Tennessee and Western Kentucky have been writing God's story. We are a diverse family—conservative-centrist-progressive. We often disagree, yet we hold firm to the primacy of scripture and the centrality of grace.

The work now before us is to continue to walk with our brothers and sisters across the Church. It is often messy, hard and challenging work. We now need a deep healing. How might we be a part of healing our Church in this very divided moment? Holding onto each other is more difficult than letting go, loving in the midst of difficulty, finding hope in the midst of struggle and suffering.

My first reminder today as your chief pastor is to love one another. Some of your neighbors, some of your church members are hurting because of this decision.

It will take time for all of us to understand how these decisions will affect us at the grassroots...how they will affect the future of The United Methodist Church.

The church will continue to be the church. We will continue to love the least and the last, our neighbors in our communities.

Our conferences will continue to value local churches as the disciple-making center of all of our ministry. We will continue to be diverse. We will continue to be rooted in Christ, and we will express a deep love for one another.

I ask you that you allow us the opportunity—before you or your church make any decisions regarding your relationship with The United Methodist Church—to be in conversation with you.

I invite you to continue praying for the future of our denomination, for the future of the Tennessee and Memphis conferences, for the work that God has called us to do in a very specific, particular place called the Nashville Episcopal Area.

Finally, may God enfold all of us in God's loving arms because we are all God's children. Thank you, Bishop McAlilly. This is our report.

COMMITTEE ON HEALTH PLAN

Rev. Ann Cover, Chair

Goals for the Quadrennium (2017-2020)

1. To provide the most comprehensive and cost-effective health plan possible for our full time and $\frac{3}{4}$ time appointed clergy, their dependents and for Conference staff.

The committee continues to evaluate our self-funded plan as being the most cost-effective plan for our conference at the present time. That being said, the Health Plan Committee made the decision to increase the premium rates for spouses, children, and non-appointed clergy persons covered under the plan, effective January 1, 2019.

- Past monetary reserves have allowed the health plan to keep its premium rate increases modest since 2008. These premium rates constitute the charges for spouses and/or children of clergy families as well as non-appointed clergy persons covered under our health plan. Given the length of time since the last increase in 2008, it has become necessary to increase these in 2018 and again for 2019.
 - See premium rates in supplement that follows.
 - In our self-funded plan, we review and adjust our estimates each year, based on actual results of income and costs of the prior year, with a diligent eye to overall trends of health care and pharmaceutical costs.
 - In early 2019, the Health Plan Committee received detailed reports from UMR and Mercer comparing our costs and benefits to other similar clergy plans. Our plan continues to compare favorably to other comparable plans.
 - Our health plan has remained in full compliance with the Affordable Care Act of 2010. Our claim administrator remains UMR, a subsidiary of UnitedHealthcare. Mercer is the broker for our stop-loss insurance.
 - We will continue to monitor the future changes in health care legislation and insurance markets and assess the implications for our health plan. We will also adjust for changes approved by annual conference to our future funding options and potential changes in sources of income within the conference.
2. To promote an increasing commitment to healthy living on the part of our clergy, clergy families, and the people of our congregations—for the sake of ministry and mission in the name of Jesus Christ.
- What is beneficial for the vitality of our clergy members is also beneficial for the people of our congregations!

HISPANIC/LATINO MINISTRIES COMMITTEE

Rev. Myriam A. Cortes, Chair,

In 2018, the Hispanic/Latino Ministries Committee of the Tennessee Conference met with the Hispanic/Latino leaders of the Memphis Conference to form an episcopal area-wide committee which met three times (January, April, and August) to discuss the needs and future of the Hispanic/Latino ministries within our conferences.

The members of the Tennessee sub-committee are Rev. Donna Parramore, Rev. Carlos Uroza, Rev. Myriam Cortes, and Rev. David Martinez with the guidance Rev. Melinda Young Britt.

During our meetings, we evaluated the current vitality of the Hispanic congregations in our conferences and determined four areas of focus in the coming years. Our leaders will be working together with the Hispanic/Latino National Plan in the following areas:

- Guiding Missional Priority #1 - Clergy Accompaniment
- Guiding Missional Priority #2 - Laity Development
- Guiding Missional Priority #3 - Intentional Diversity
- Guiding Missional Priority #4 - New Leadership Recruitment

Goals for partnering with the Hispanic/Latino National Plan:

- Develop healthy relationships among the clergy and laity that will support the spiritual growth of the local church.
- Equip clergy leadership with knowledge in how to navigate the structure of our conference and The United Methodist Church.
- Improve the district level relationship with the Hispanic/Latino ministries.
- To have 12 certified lay ministers trained in the different areas of ministry that will support the work of the local church, districts, and conference.
- Identify from the certified lay ministers the ones that have the call and the gifts to work with a church planter in planting a new ministry. In starting a new ministry, we will use the covenant developed for new congregations in addition to the tools of the national plan to have more cross-cultural and cross-generational inclusive ministries.

As a committee, we give thanks to Rev. Eliud Martinez and Rev. Janet Martinez for their leadership during 2016-2018. We received their resignation as coordinators of the Hispanic/Latino committee in September 2018. As of March 2019, Rev. Myriam Cortes will serve as chair and Rev. Carlos Uroza will serve as vice chair, sharing the leadership of the Hispanic/Latino Ministries Committee in their future.

COMMITTEE ON NATIVE AMERICAN MINISTRIES

Mary T Newman, Coordinator of Native American Ministries

The Committee on Native American Ministries (CONAM) is currently co-chaired by Pat Bryan and Debbie Fitzhugh. Coordinator of Native American Ministries per CONAM, is Mary T Newman. The committee is inclusive; approximately one-half of its membership is Native American.

Native American Ministries Sunday (NAMS) is one of the UMC six Special Sunday offerings. We average 40 churches contributing to the offering with an average of $6,000 or less. One-half of money received stays in the annual conference and is used by CONAM and one-half is used for seminary scholarships and other educational endeavors. Recognition and celebration of Native American Ministries Sunday is a challenge. On the church calendar, NAMS follows Easter and is in the time frame of Golden Cross Sunday and Mother's Day so we encourage celebrating any time of the year.

You can see us coming! We maintain a 6' x 12' enclosed trailer and are visible on the roads and at events. With the logos so visible, we have opportunity for conversation and can pull up to an event and have everything on hand for our booths. We also maintain pages on the tnumc.org/native site and moccasinfootprints.org.

Our annual Native American Resource Day is held the first Sunday of March. This was our 16th year. During this time, we have a traditional Native American meal, present audio/video resources, and speakers to engage the participants. We have large displays and book resources. Every church receives a binder full of re-printable materials. Distribution of current and accurate information is vital and we have garnered materials which validate the importance of Native Americans at the table.

We acknowledge that there are individual churches with their own personal ministries with Native Americans. CONAM gladly offers the resources, displays, and scheduling of speakers to all churches. Our committee has developed or gathered resources that are available to the local church. They can be used for services, study groups, youth and children's groups, or as part of an ongoing opportunity for understanding through education.

Native Moccasins Rock (NMR) is our annual weekend of interactive learning. NMR is based on fellowship and friendship. Understanding through education remains one of our primary goals. 2018 was our 17th year. The Memphis Conference is also a partner in the sponsorship of the event. Our leadership is internationally and nationally known. Held every August, we have an age span of babies to grannies which highlights NMR as an intergenerational event. There is a focus in our activities for children, youth, and adults with breakout sessions per age groups. Culturally based workshops in the area of arts and music attract participants. The interactive workshops are drawn from traditional skills and taught by dedicated leadership. We end with a powerful prayer circle. Tears of joys, sadness, and lifting up of the ones who have crossed over are shared. Of great joy is the continued relationship with the Mississippi Band of Choctaw Indians who bring youth every year. We now have three in college who have attended for several years. The members of CONAM share who we are in Christ, our connectional system of the UMC, and celebrate opportunities to form relationships.

A relationship with the Tennessee Health Department faith-based initiative program was developed. This program reaches out through the local church and organizations to the community. They have realized that their work with ethnic groups is not up to standards and we were able to bring them into relationship with organizations we work with.

Native American Indian Association of Tennessee (NAIA) has the longest running charter with the state. We formed a relationship to sponsor a health fair at their powwow which is the largest powwow in the state. We are the first denomination to have this relationship. Their words are "someone always wants something for themselves". Our reassurance was "we just want to share". We distribute multiple resources relating to health concerns and have materials with a focus on spiritual health. In 2018, we continued our relationship with Meharry Medical College. With a tent for testing blood glucose and blood pressure checks, we have enlarged our health fair by including the dental tent with an average of 17 students and presiding instructors. Every year the comments such as, “We didn’t know the UMC is involved” and “I am United Methodist and didn’t know”, reminds us that there is more to do to grow the connection and enlarge the circle of God’s kingdom.

We have dedicated committee members who have been committed to the work of CONAM. Individuals on the committee also have personal ministries. Wes and Pat Bryan have contacts across the U.S. and during their travels, they plan stops at reservations and churches. They drop off school supplies and new coats, etc. Mary T Newman serves with the United Methodist Women (UMW), through the Program Advisory Group of the UMW. There has been a partnership developed to receive coats, clothing, and hygiene supplies which are delivered to the Cherokee on Qualla Boundary in North Carolina. Working with a lay ministry begun in the Memphis Conference and connected to a tribal social worker, the school system and Cherokee UMC children, youth, and families are covered in prayer and as Jesus said, “Let the little children come”, we pray that his love is a message shared with those who struggle in ways that humble us.

As a part of the connection, we work with Native American Comprehensive Plan (NACP) and Southeast Jurisdictional Association of Native American Ministries (SEJANAM). We continue to be in prayer and work toward raising the level of awareness so we can all call upon our great Creator God for discernment and healing.

CONAM continues to stand on our Social Principles. Environmental concerns and socio-economic challenges have come to the forefront with the Water Protectors at Standing Rock who took a stand to protect the water. Thirty waterways branch off the Missouri River. Although the land seemed in dispute, Federal Tribal Law states that unless a treaty is nullified, land remains Indian land even though the size of a reservation changes. The rates of suicide among children and youth are still on a rise and we share current information as an awareness tool.

Our CONAM is known as one of strongest CONAMS in the U.S. Members of CONAM continue to participate nationally in leadership training opportunities. We are also blessed to be part of the leadership teaching teams for NACP and SEJANAM. Serving on NACP, Mary T Newman is a part of quadrennial planning and leadership training. Mary T Newman is chair of Southeast Region Native American Caucus (SERNAC) and therefore a member of Native American International Caucus (NAIC). Serving the jurisdiction on Global Ministries (GBGM) Mary T Newman works on the task force concerning the mascot issues. We continue to walk what is known as the red road of ministry.

The committee continues our current relationships within the Native American community, the local church, and the secular community. We strive to create new paths of understanding through fellowship and friendship which continues to establish trusting relationships. Claiming Acts 17:26, we share that God, as we know him, understood the concepts of tribes. If Jesus was, is, and always will be a tribal man, how better to say, “We know a tribal man who would love to know you”.

COMMITTEE ON OLDER ADULT MINISTRIES

Shirley Vaughn, Chair

Older Adult Ministries Mission Statement

The purpose of the Tennessee Conference Older Adult Ministries is two-fold:

- To serve as a resource for growing and sustaining vital older adult ministries in the local church
- To provide ministries for older adults in the Tennessee Conference that are inspirational, informative and missional

Older Adult Ministries (OAM) Tennessee Conference (Adopted March 2013)

The OAM Committee is composed of representatives from the five districts and others who serve as resource leaders. All the members have a compassion for senior adults who have given so much to the Church through the years and now deserve to be recognized by the Church.

The 2019 Spring Conference was held on March 14 at First United Methodist Church, Franklin. The theme for the meeting was Blessed are the Peacemakers: Healing and Peace in your Church, Community and Family. The leader was Dr. W. Craig Gilliam, an elder in the UMC who has served much of his ministry in the field of conflict transformation for individuals, congregations, and other organizations. He is founder and owner of Gilliam & Associates, LLC and is a Gallup-Certified Strengths Coach.

This theme was chosen knowing that in times of change and conflict in our churches, older adults can play the role of peacemaker because of their experience and the respect in which they are held. Dr. Gilliam led conference participants through an exploration of the skills and abilities that are common to peacemaking. There were approximately 90 persons who attended the conference. It was a good day!

The 2019 Southeastern Jurisdiction Festival of Wisdom & Grace, Lake Junaluska, North Carolina, an annual event, is scheduled for August 5-8. The theme is Deeper into Discipleship. The keynote speaker is Dr. Richard Gentzler, director of Encore Ministries, Tennessee Conference. For more information contact Rev. Mitzi Johnson, director of Programming at Lake Junaluska, at (828) 454-6716 or mjohnson@lakejunaluska.com.

The most-attended annual event is Christmas at Beersheba sponsored by the OAM and Beersheba Springs Assembly. The daily events are popular with senior adult church groups. This is the largest attendance of the annual events the committee sponsors. The attendees enjoy the fellowship of other seniors across the conference, singing Christmas carols, and participating in a worship service, led by leaders from a UM church in the conference.

The 2019 dates for Christmas at Beersheba are: December 3, December 5, December 10, December 12, and overnight on December 13 and 14. The cost is $18 for a day event; overnight—double occupancy $65 per person; single occupancy $100. Reservations may be made after September 1 by calling Beersheba Springs Assembly (931) 692-3669.

The committee appreciates the opportunity to work with Kent McNish from the Golden Cross Foundation (GCF) and Richard H. Gentzler, Jr., with ENCORE Ministries. The 2019 Annual Conference attendees will hear exciting news from GCF and ENCORE when they announce the new name for the Tennessee Conference Older Adult Committee.

These ministries are supported in part by the Golden Cross Foundation.

Committee Members: Michael Lorance, Caney Fork River, J. Michael Engle, Cumberland River; Shirley Vaughn (chair), Cumberland River; Sarah Carty, Harpeth River; Sonnye Dixon, Red River; Bill Wheeler, Red River; Pat Brandenstein, Stones River; Esther Sims, Stones River.

COMMITTEE ON SAFE SPACES

Rev. Terry Carty, Chair
Brad Fiscus, Connectional Ministries Staff

The purpose of Safe Spaces Ministry is to equip lay and clergy leaders with knowledge and methods for creating safer environments in which to worship and to make disciples of Jesus Christ. The Safe Spaces Ministry consists of the Boundaries and Sexual Ethics team, the Safe Sanctuary team, and the Conference Response team.

Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics Team—guides the portion of the Safe Spaces Ministry tasked with reviewing policies and implementing training opportunities in the best practices to create and maintain healthy boundaries for ministry.

Safe Sanctuaries Team—guides the portion of the Safe Spaces Ministry tasked with reviewing policies and implementing training opportunities in the best practices to protect children, youth, and vulnerable adults participating in ministry as well as those who serve in ministry in these populations.

Conference Response Team—members are trained advocates who assist congregations that have been traumatized by violators of safe boundaries. This team provides care and pastoral support for those who are victimized directly and indirectly as well as those who are accused. The role of the Conference Response Team is one of care-giving, not investigation.

The members of the Safe Spaces team work expansively all year to accomplish safer environments in our congregations and events. Their work in the 2018-19 conference year has included the following:

- The Safe Sanctuaries team provides training for safe sanctuaries policies and procedures in all types of ministry. This training, offered semi-annually, is required for all who are ordained, commissioned, and appointed to serve congregations. It is recommended for all church staff and volunteers who work with children and vulnerable adults.
- A refresher course “It’s More than Safe Sanctuaries” is now provided online for those who have attended the in-person training for Safe Sanctuaries. This meets the conference requirement for quadrennial renewal.
- Trainers are deployed as requested to train children and youth workers in their local church/ministry setting. Eleven of these have been conducted since Annual Conference 2018.
- A website is maintained and updated for providing resources to congregations for Safe Sanctuaries and other risks.

- The conference is registered with Trak-1 to conduct background checks for all congregations in the conference. This leaves only the cost of each background check to be paid by the local church. As a result, we currently have more people with backgrounds checked than ever before.
- All conference and district events that include children or youth require certification of adult leaders in
- Safe Sanctuaries and training to the conference standards.
- The Healthy Boundaries team provides training based on the FaithTrust Institute curricula and the Tennessee Conference Board of Ministry standards. This is offered semi-annually. The boundaries training is required every four years for all who are ordained, commissioned, and appointed to serve congregations. It is recommended for church staff.
- The Conference Response team coordinator is available for consultation with the bishop and district superintendents in a congregational crisis arising from boundaries violation.
- The coordinator is prepared to deploy a trained team with skills appropriate to the situation to conduct a congregational care event or to care for those immediately traumatized by violation.
- The Safe Spaces team is developing new resources for preparedness and response to armed intruders and other imminent dangers (ALICE) as well as a Suicide Awareness and Response Toolkit in partnership with the Tennessee Suicide Prevention Network.
- The team includes trainers who are certified through FaithTrust Institute (Boundaries and Sexual Ethics), QPR Suicide Prevention, and ALICE (active shooter). The Conference Response team coordinator has been trained in Commission on Status and Role of Women (COSROW) best practices.

COMMITTEE ON STANDING RULES

Rev. Jay Voorhees, Chair

Bishop McAlilly, members of the Tennessee Annual Conference, and brothers and sisters in Christ,

The Standing Rules of the Tennessee Annual Conference represent “the means by which we organize and oversee our work of making disciples for the transformation of the world.” The Committee on Standing Rules was created by the conference to propose new policies and standing rules, propose needed amendments to existing policies and standing rules, and to provide guidance to the annual conference regarding compliance with those rules.

While there are times when rules can seem legalistic attempts to prescribe behavior, these rules represent our polity as an annual conference, establishing procedures that facilitate our life together, and boundaries that ensure that we are good stewards of the ministry to which we’ve been entrusted. They are the things we have learned over the course of many years, that is, our shared experiences as we carry out God’s work of making disciples for the transformation of the world.

Last year, we adopted rules to help our process in conducting the business of the annual conference, including changes related to our new connectional ministries structure, changes in the process for adopting and amending standing rules, and adding rules to provide clarity to our budgeting process and the disposition of church properties that have been closed and sold.

One of the changes adopted last year was removing the requirement for standing rules to sit on the floor for 24 hours before adoption. You will have access to all proposed changes online through the tnumc.org website for your review prior to the annual conference session.

It was our original hope to propose no changes in our rules this year in the knowledge that we are in a transitional time and there may be changes ahead in the coming years. However, due to some issues related to disciplinary requirements regarding the disposition of property, we were asked to consider several new rules to provide guidance regarding these concerns. We have reviewed these changes and our committee has approved them. The specifics are listed in the motions listed below.

It is our sincere hope that these proposed changes will help to better facilitate our life together as an annual conference and that we will continue to move on to perfection in love as we work to bring Christ to a world in need one neighborhood at a time.

May God continue to bless the work of the Tennessee Annual Conference in the coming days and years.

PROPOSED CHANGES AND AMENDMENTS TO THE STANDING RULES OF THE TENNESSEE ANNUAL CONFERENCE SUBMITTED BY THE COMMITTEE ON STANDING RULES TO THE 2019 SESSION OF THE TENNESSEE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The Committee on Standing Rules makes the following motions for additions and changes in the Standing Rules of the Tennessee Annual Conference:

1. We move the creation of a new Section 14 titled “Conference Policy on the Use or Disposition of a Closed Local Church” and moving the existing Section 14 on Parsonage Standards into a new Section 15, renumbering all rules in that section accordingly.
2. We move to move Rule 11.16 to become Rule 14.1 in the new section, reading:
Whenever church property is transferred to the annual conference through its board of trustees (voluntarily or according to ¶ 2549.3b, Discipline (2016)), the annual conference board of trustees is authorized to hold, maintain, insure, or dispose of such property on behalf of the conference, subject to any disciplinary requirements or restrictions. Repayment of debt to the conference or district, including up to five years of unpaid apportionments, shall be a priority claim on the net proceeds of any sale.
3. We move to create a new Rule 14.2, which reads:
This section 14 applies to all real, personal, tangible, and intangible property of a local church following its closure by the annual conference, unless the conference has given direction for a specific disposition. Section 14 does not apply to items deposited or set aside for safekeeping as provided in ¶2549.4 of The Book of Discipline 2016; or property.
4. We move to create a new Rule 14.3, which reads:
A committee consisting of (1) a cabinet representative to be designated by the bishop; (2) the chair of New Church Development or his/her designee; (3) the chair of Congregational Transformation or his/her designee; (4) the chair of the Conference Board of Trustees or his/her designee; and (5) the chair of the Council on Finance and Administration or his/her designee serving as ex officio, may provide recommendations to the trustees regarding whether the property should be retained or sold; and how the property, or proceeds therefrom, may be used for the furtherance of new and existing ministries within the conference, either presently or in the future. If the property is retained for use in ministry, the recommendation of such committee shall include a recommendation for how best to fund the cost of maintaining the property.

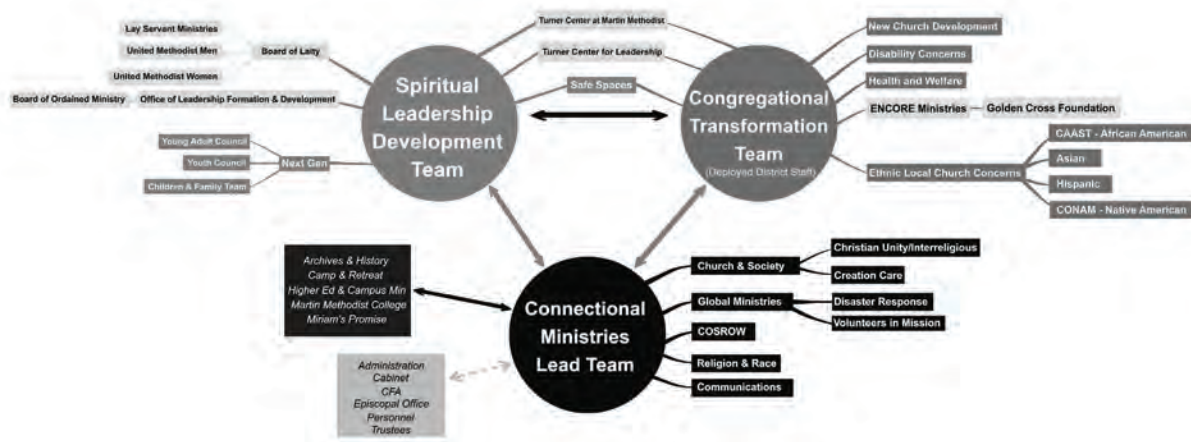

5. We move to create a new Rule 14.4, which reads:
The committee established in 14.3 may also provide guidance concerning the determination of what constitutes “urban transitional communities” (§2549.7) based upon the context of ministry within the annual conference.

CONFERENCE PERSONNEL COMMITTEE

Laura Brantley, Chair

During 2018, Alice Grunau, HR specialist, worked to strengthen hiring processes by developing standardized interview questions based on written job descriptions and on hiring supervisors’ input. She worked with interview teams and led the recruiting and interview processes for various job openings throughout the conference. Additionally, she has formalized the tracking of vacation and sick time by implementing a request for leave procedure for accountability of time off. Further, she has added processes in payroll services to tighten FLSA compliance. Lastly, as a member of the Office of Administrative Services, she is cross-trained and can back-up Melinda Parker, assistant benefits officer, in her absence.

Note: Personnel Policies and Procedures appear in Chapter 11, Section B.

CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES

Melinda Britt, Director

Last June, the Tennessee Annual Conference session launched a new structure that began a new way of leading in Connectional Ministries. This structure has empowered the leaders of Connectional Ministries teams to be the Tennessee Conference, practicing nimble, adaptive ministry in a shifting context.

The new Connectional Ministries structure is less a new organizational structure and more a new way of connecting, equipping, and communicating in ministry with each other. It is a structure that was designed to promote clear expectations, to encourage collaboration that is so strong that siloed ministry is not possible, and to create a culture for our mission statement to become a full-blown reality. And the new system was thankfully designed to be adaptive because within two months, changes in the new Office of Leadership Formation and Development (formerly Office of Ministerial Concerns) to include lay leadership development began a shift to practice this new adaptation skill almost immediately.

The purpose of Connectional Ministries is to steward the vision of the conference through connecting resources for collaboration, equipping leaders with tools for spiritual leadership and strengthening congregations, and communicating information and the stories of transformation happening through the local church. Aligning the ministry teams with the purpose of Connectional Ministries, equipping Connectional Ministries team leaders, empowering them for adaptive and technical tasks, and guiding the conversation and making decisions around the Connectional Ministries budget is the work of the lead team.

The desired outcomes of this work are Connectional Ministries teams doing the mission, leaders who are stewarding the vision, pipelines of generative leaders and disciples, a working budget that is available to all members of the annual conference, and standards of expectations and accountability for our work. We are anticipating that our work in Connectional Ministries will help our mission statement of the Tennessee Conference become a reality. All of the Connectional Ministries teams are the process/strategy/vehicle for delivering this product. We will do this by creating a culture-building capacity through covenant, leading in a trustworthy way, holding the teams accountable, sharing success, mission taking priority to personal preference while making decisions, and communicating with transparency.

Celebrations of the ministry of the Connectional Ministries Lead Team from this year include building a covenant and focus for the Connectional Ministries Lead Team. This team added onto the work of the restructuring team by implementing the new structure and system for ministry. Communicating with transparency to the Connectional Ministries teams and their leaders increased trust. Two trainings were held to equip the work of team leaders and members. A fall training on purpose, new culture, and technical tasks of team leaders opened the door of transparency, communication, and collaboration between leaders. In the spring, the lead team held a “Fun, Food, and Finance Workshop” for Connectional Ministries leaders that shared information, set expectations, and equipped leaders with a new budget process that stewards the vision of the Tennessee Conference.

2019 and 2020 hold lots of opportunity to learn. The lead team will increase communication with the Spiritual Leadership Development and Congregational Transformation teams to increase their involvement and support with the teams in their “umbrellas.” The lead team will develop strategy for supporting ministries that doesn’t rely on funding: communicating, connecting resources, and empowering Connectional Ministries leaders with processes and tools to steward the mission of the conference.

Our mission statement organizes the work of Connectional Ministries. The role of Connectional Ministries is to equip lay and clergy leaders who shape congregations. For this reason, there are two main operational teams to drive the missional strategies and their implementation—a Spiritual Leadership Development Team and a Congregational Transformation Team.

The Spiritual Leadership Development Team has worked to build covenant, create an opportunity and expectation for collaboration between all of the conference entities equipping spiritual leaders in the Tennessee Conference, and provide a compass for equipping lay and clergy spiritual leaders. These teams overlap in their work and the need for collaboration and increased communication is essential. They are seeking to create a ripple of conversation around spiritual leadership by creating a common working definition with input and feedback from other conference teams.

The Congregational Transformation Team seeks to develop congregations. They are resourcing local congregations through the ministry of the new district deployed staff, district leadership strategists, who focus on relationships that build up congregations. This team has built a covenant, leaned into cataloguing the resources and assets available in the Tennessee Conference and begun the work of communicating with the many ministry teams that foster equipping local congregations through specific lenses. They are experimenting with relationship mapping tools in order to learn how to measure collaboration. They are developing the focus needed for defining vitality around disciple-making for congregations in the specific contexts of the Tennessee Conference.

Instead of relying on funding as our greatest resource, this new relational organization of Connectional Ministries is relying on the spiritual gifts residing in the disciples in local congregations as its greatest resource. Committed, adaptive leadership will be required and positional leadership will no longer be enough. Agile, adaptive leaders who value the mission and seek to connect resources in the conference as they empower the local church are necessary to lead through the next season of our Church.

PROPOSED CHANGE TO CLERGY HEALTH AND PENSIONS FUNDING

As we continue to move toward creating a new conference, several alignments need to occur. We believe that a new and more equitable way to fund the cost for Clergy Health Care and Pensions needs to be adopted. We want to be transparent and make sure you fully understand the reasons for this recommendation. As we explain below, we believe this change will help us to transition into a funding model that is sustainable and has minimal impact for TN

Conference churches. Transparency is one of our core values. So, we want to help each church fully understand how this new model will impact them.

Below you will find talking points to help you have a fruitful conversation in your congregation and ministry setting.

Proposed Change

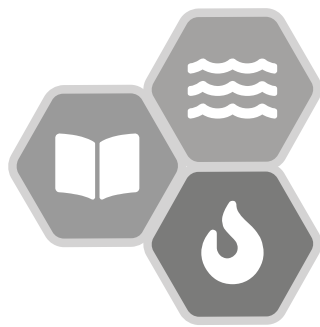

- Beginning in January of 2020, each church's apportionment would be reduced by the line item for health care and pension.
- Each church with an appointed clergy participating in the Clergy Health or Pension plan would be billed, monthly, for the actual cost of the Health and Pension plan for the specific clergy appointed at that church.
- For calendar year 2020, the TN Conference will use reserves to fund 50% of the Clergy Health billing and 75% of the Pension billing for every church in the conference. We believe this is a good use of TN Conference reserves to "give back to TN churches" with a graduated move to direct bill during a time where it is possible some churches could experience a drop in giving units and pledges.
- Most churches will see a reduction in their total conference billing, including the apportioned amount, Clergy Health cost and clergy pension cost. This change only affects the Clergy Health or Pension portion of our Conference budget. The remainder of the conference budget would be apportioned in the same manner as in the past.
- Though CFA expects each church with a participating clergy to be asked to pay the full amount of the clergy health plan in 2021, we plan to be sensitive and helpful to churches that may struggle with the cost of Health and Pension benefits for their appointed clergy.

Rationale

- Just like each church pays the salaries of their appointed clergy, this proposed plan bills the cost of clergy benefits to the church where the clergy person serves. It is a matter of fairness.
- We also believe that it is important to no longer place the Health and Pension benefits of our clergy under the uncertainty of Apportionment collections.
- The TN conference has about 350 churches that are currently being billed a line item in their apportionment for Clergy Health Care and Pensions even though they do not have a clergy participating in the plans.
- About 80 churches are billed more on the health and pension line item in their apportionment than the actual cost associated with the clergy appointed to their church.
- We have about 125 churches that aren't billed enough on the health and pension line item of their apportionment to cover the cost for their appointed clergy.
- This proposed change will allow our Bishop and cabinet to clearly understand which churches can fully fund the cost for receiving a full-time clergy person. Bishop McAlilly and the cabinet support this new plan as it will help local churches assess their financial ability to cover the benefits expenses for a full-time pastor.
- The proposed change helps the Conference navigate through the increasing cost of healthcare plans while still offering good health care benefits.
- The TN Conference is one of the few remaining conferences that still apportions clergy health care and pension costs. The Memphis Conference has successfully moved from apportionment funding to direct billing in a graduated manner over the past few years.
- We believe shifting to this new model over a period of two or more years will allow our churches time to adapt to direct billing of these costs.

Next Steps

- We have a printed document available for each district with a line item for every church that shows the numbers related to this new model as if we had moved to direct billing in
- 2019. It is impossible to project the exact figures for 2020 or 2021 because appointments change, salaries change and the cost of Healthcare changes. However, the actual numbers “as if this occurred in 2019” would be fairly accurate for subsequent years.
- CFA members are available to answer your questions and explain the data on the reports in person so that you can return to your local church and share this information with your finance chairs and business administrators.
- At Annual Conference this new funding model for Clergy Health and Pensions will be part of the 2020 Budget recommendation from CFA. We hope you will study this new model, ask questions and support the plan at AC.

Clergy Health Plan

- Our Plan is Self Funded
- “We” are the Insurance Company
- Stop Loss Policy
- Covers Doctor Visits, Hospital, Prescription Drugs, etc.

Clergy Health Plan Issues

- For 2020 our actual budgeted cost per participant is $13,215
- 561 churches pay an apportionment for clergy health
- 340 churches (61 percent) that pay DO NOT have a clergy that benefits
- 54 churches (larger) pay $1,007,089 for other churches' clergy
- 167 churches (mid-size) "under pay" on average $5,558
- How do we help the mid size with this cost?
- Are there churches that can't afford the salary and benefits of a full-time clergy?
- What are missional outcomes of our present cost distribution method?
- Could churches consolidate in order to fully support the full cost of one clergy?
- Can we control our cost better:
 - Pharmacy
 - Higher deductible with Health Savings Account
 - Can we reduce average age of plan from 51
- Should clergy pay some of the premium?

Direct Billing of Clergy Health & Pensions: WHY

- Fairness to the 340 smaller churches that pay (twice?) with no participant
- Fairness to the 54 larger churches that pay extra
- Risk of reliance on collection of Apportionments for Clergy Benefits
- Current method is not sustainable in the changing landscape of UMC
- Need to more fully understand the increasing cost of Healthcare
- Pay for benefits in same manner as salary
- Allows Cabinet to understand which churches can fully fund a full elder
- TN Conf is one of few remaining conferences to apportion benefits

Direct Billing WHY NOW

- Reliance on collectability of apportionments is getting riskier quickly
- One less alignment needed in 2021 if we form a new conference
- Do this on our terms not as part of a new conference
- Use TN Conf reserves to “give back” to TN Conf churches
- Potential drop in local church giving units and pledges in 2020
- Shifting to a new model over two or more years will allow churches time to adapt

Direct Billing: HOW

- Beginning January 1, 2020 each church's apportionment will be reduced by the line item for health care and pensions
- Each church with an appointed clergy participating in the plans will be billed monthly for the actual cost of their specific clergy
- The remainder of the Conference Budget will be apportioned as in the past
- For calendar year 2020, the TN Conference will use reserves to fund 50% of the Clergy Health and 75% of the Pension billings
- Most churches will see a reduction in their total conference billings for 2020 including apportionment, Health, and Pension
- For 2021 CFA expects that each church with a participating clergy will pay 100% of the cost of Health Care and the Conference will continue to subsidize pensions to some extent

Direct Billing: HOW

- The costs for clergy participants not appointed to a local church (51) , will continue to be apportioned as in the past.
- Transparency is our goal, Pre-Conference District Meetings, video explanation, spreadsheets available by District with each church's separate line item with the impact for 2020
- New spreadsheet is available that reflects reduced Healthcare costs for 2020 and a column for likely impact in 2021.

CFA Recommended Items For Your Action

- 1) That the total conference budget for 2020 of $9,641,070 be apportioned to the churches using the method printed in the 2013 Journal p. 109-110.
- 2) That the approved travel expense for staff and members of councils, boards, committees, and other entities of the conference be reimbursed at the rate set by the entity, not to exceed the maximum mileage amount allowed by the Internal Revenue Service for business travel.
- 3) That the expenses for at-large members to the 2019 annual conference be reimbursed at a rate not to exceed $150 per day ($300 max), plus mileage at the IRS rate for business travel.
- 4) That the housing allowance designated for clergy conference staff pursuant to Internal Revenue Code section 107 be approved for 2019-2020 as printed in the Journal.
- 5) That the base compensation of the district superintendents for 2020 be set at $108,059.

CFA Recommended Items For Your Action

- 6) That half the amount of $13,215 ($6,562.50) per clergy for participation in the Conference Clergy Health Benefit Plan shall be directly billed to each church for their appointed participating clergy with the remainder paid from Conference reserves. Billings will be paid or drafted from the church's account via ACH.
- 7) That 25% of the cost to the conference for each clergy participating in the Conference Clergy Pension Plans shall be directly billed to each church to which the clergy is appointed, with the remainder paid from Conference reserves. Billings will be paid or drafted from the church's account via ACH. The specific amount for Pensions will be calculated for each church after appointments have been made, but no later than October 31, 2019.

Future Concerns

- 1) We can't continue paying significant portions of the annual budget with reserves
- 2) We can't continue to apportion 100 percent of clergy pension and clergy health plan costs
- 3) Ongoing capital needs at Beersheba and Cedar Crest
- 4) Potential reduction of apportionment collections below 90 percent - economic or political or unrest in UMC
- 5) Potential expected Bear Market's impact on pension plans and reserves

TENNESSEE CONFERENCE TREASURER'S REPORT

Notes

Note 1. This report has been prepared by the conference treasurer of the Tennessee Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church. The report is unaudited and unadjusted, and as such may be subject to change after final audit adjustments are made. It is not intended to reflect full accrual accounting procedures, or FASB No. 117 recommendations concerning temporary and permanent restrictions on assets. The conference is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3), and partially exempt from payment of local and Tennessee state sales, use, and property taxes.

Note 2. The conference's primary sources of revenue are receipts from the churches in the Tennessee Conference that have been paid through the denomination's system of apportioning connectional, missional, and administrative expenses to the churches. "Other receipts" are primarily receipts by apportioned programs that have external sources of revenue, such as registration fees or reimbursements, but also include temporarily restricted donations for designated purposes. Programs that are not included in apportionments are not included.

Note 3. Funds held in reserve to pay for pensions are considered restricted.

Note 4. Accounts receivable are primarily apportionment remittances received from churches in the first weeks of the following year. Accounts payable are payments made in January for the prior year's obligations, primarily the final payment on the conference's general, jurisdictional, district and special apportionments.

Note 5. The conference has no debt other than routine short-term obligations.

Note 6. The five districts and six Wesley Foundations of the Tennessee Conference are related entities, but are not included in these financials other than collecting and remitting apportionment receipts. District and Wesley Foundation intangible and tangible assets, including offices, parsonages, and contents, are carried on the books of the respective entities.

Note 7. Prior to the redistricting eff. 7/1/2017, all district accounts were held at the district level and not consolidated in these statements. District offices transferred certain unrestricted reserves to the Nashville Area Episcopal Office, which were then renamed as the TN Cabinet Reserve Fund. This fund was reported to total $1,143,205 (12/31/2017) and $1,035,000 (12/31/2018). These funds are assets of the Tennessee Conference but are currently under the control of the Nashville Episcopal Office. They are not included in this financial report, pending guidance from the conference's auditors.

Note 8. The conference provides health care benefits to eligible clergy who retire between ages 62 and 65. The conference has no other post-retirement benefit obligations.

DELEGATION TO GENERAL CONFERENCE

Jim Allen, First Lay Delegate, and Harriet Bryan, First Clergy Delegate

As we prepared for the called 2019 General Conference in St. Louis, Missouri, your delegation entered into covenant with one another. Our covenant included commitments to be prepared spiritually and engage in spiritual disciplines, including praying for one another, the annual conferences, central conferences, General Conference, episcopal leaders, and agencies, with fervent prayer for groups who appear to serve a divisive purpose; to seek God's will, not our own; to help one another be our best selves and extend grace to each other and to others we encounter in the journey toward General Conference; and to engage in active listening and make informed decisions from a place where our hearts are at peace with one another. We also covenanted that we would not lobby each other on how to vote but would share what we had learned so that all voting delegates could be as educated about the pending issues as possible.

In order to hear from as many people as possible in the conference, we held listening sessions in the fall of 2018 in each district, doing our best to be sensitive to travel times for those who might attend. Sessions were held at Manchester First (Stones River District), Cookeville First (Caney Fork River District), Donelson Heights (Cumberland River District), Martin Methodist College (Harpeth River District), and Clark Memorial & Madison Street (Red River District). We are grateful to Lynn Hill, Tom Laney, and Vin Walkup for serving as moderators for these sessions.

In addition, we received and read hundreds of emails from across the conference.

All eight members of the delegation attended General Conference: lay delegates Jim Allen, Holly Neal, Connie Clark, and George Brown; and clergy delegates Harriet Bryan, Jacob Armstrong, Stephen Handy, Jackson Henry. Alternates who attended General Conference were Joy Lewter and Angela Overstreet (laity) and Bryan Brooks and Cherie Parker (clergy).

Amy Hurd, Conference Director of Communications, and Kylie Marino, Conference Digital Media Specialist, worked with us to post video updates of our preparatory work and communicate our work during and after General Conference. After General Conference, Bishop McAlilly the lay and clergy heads of the delegation joined him in a livestreamed presentation on what happened at General Conference in St. Louis and how it might affect the United Methodists in the Tennessee Conference.

Thank you for the trust you placed in all of us to serve our Church and conference in this capacity.

ENCORE MINISTRY

Dr. Richard H. Gentzler, Jr., Executive Director, ENCORE Ministry

As more of us live longer, healthier lives, churches in the Tennessee Conference face a powerful opportunity to re-imagine the future of our congregations. So many of us continue to have so much to offer as we age—wisdom, experience, ingenuity, creativity, and faith—that we want to make certain our current policies, structures, and church assumptions adequately address the new realities of our growing aging population.

Thanks to dramatic advances in medicine, healthcare, technology, and healthier lifestyle choices, demographic trends show us that by 2030 the 65+ population in Tennessee will grow by 28 percent and people 65+ will comprise 20 percent of the total state population (one out of five).

The demographic shift toward longer lives affects where we live and how we worship, the makeup of our church family, and how our faith affects our daily living. Our churches are challenged to re-think church vitality and to re-frame aging in each congregation.

Established to help meet the needs of our aging congregations, ENCORE Ministry, funded by the Golden Cross Foundation, was established in 2015. Under the direction of Dr. Richard H. Gentzler, Jr., executive director, the ENCORE Ministry team provides consultation services, training and support, resources, and networking opportunities for church leaders in their midlife and older adult ministry. ENCORE Ministry serves as an advocate on behalf of older adults and older adult ministry and as a catalyst for jump-starting and sustaining intentional ministry by, with, and for older adults.

During this past year, ENCORE Ministry team members have provided training, support, and resources in each of the five conference districts. In addition, consultative services were provided to numerous individual congregations. Since ENCORE Ministry is fully funded by the Golden Cross Foundation of the Tennessee Conference there is never a fee or cost for our services.

In addition to our district training seminars and individual church consultations, a website www.encoretunmce.org was created to provide helpful online resources for congregations and church leaders.

Each year during the Tennessee Annual Conference, ENCORE Ministry awards are presented to selected churches and individuals for exemplary ministry by, with, and for older adults. During the 2019 annual conference session, ENCORE Ministry awards are being presented to five churches and one individual:

- Fairfield Glade United Methodist Church, Caney Fork River District
- Matthews Memorial United Methodist Church, Cumberland River District
- First United Methodist Church, Columbia, Harpeth River District
- Mosaics at Belle Meade United Methodist Church, Nashville, Red River District
- First United Methodist Church, Winchester, Stones River District
- Shirley Vaughn, in recognition and appreciation for her servant leadership as chair of the Tennessee Conference Committee on Older Adult Ministries

In addition to Gentzler, members of the ENCORE Ministry team are:

- Michael Lorange and Rev. Dr. Gerald Richardson, Caney Fork River District
- Rev. Jim Robinson (chair, ENCORE Ministry team) and Shirley Vaughn, Cumberland River District
- Rev. Sarah Carty and Rev. Will Wells, Harpeth River District
- Cliff Steger and Bill Wheeler, Red River District
- Pat Brandenstein and Rev. Felicia Kumar, Stones River District

NASHVILLE AREA EPISCOPAL DISASTER RESPONSE MINISTRY

Robert Craig, Disaster Response Coordinator

The mission of United Methodist Disaster Response is to offer a caring Christian presence to communities that have experienced disaster. The purpose of disaster response in the Tennessee Conference is to live into that mission in our local communities. While it is occasionally necessary to partner with conferences outside the area, our primary focus is to prepare churches and individuals to respond to neighbors in need.

Disaster response ministry in the Tennessee Conference is vital for a number of reasons. Obviously, it is an important ministry in times of relief and recovery for people affected by disaster. This ministry is also important for the health of the local church. When a church is spiritually and physically prepared to respond to and engage the surrounding community, that church grows stronger and it is more effective in sharing the love of Christ to its community.

One of the most important aspects of disaster response is preparation and that means training. We will expand our focus on training individuals and churches in the areas of preparation and response. There is a place for everyone in disaster response. All age and skill levels are welcome. We will offer trainings in churches and districts to help educate and train people for the work of offering hope in trying times of disaster. Please feel free to contact me if you wish to schedule training for your community. Likewise, watch for conference news that will communicate when trainings will be available in your area. Initially, the goal is at least one Early Response Team training and one Connecting Neighbors training in each district annually. I look forward to working alongside you as we share the love of Christ with our neighbors.

This year has proven successful in a number of ways. First of all, a conference disaster response planning team has been formed. We have started work toward better equipping and preparing churches in the Nashville Episcopal Area to respond in times of disaster. Our focus now is to consolidate best practices from each conference to form an area-wide disaster plan. Secondly, the Nashville Episcopal Area has rallied in the collection of much-needed supplies for our neighboring conferences in times of need. And finally, the episcopal area is currently responding to our own neighbors' need following historic flooding in our conferences. Thank you for your continued participation in this important ministry.

GENERAL BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND MINISTRY

Rev. Dr. Kim Cape, General Secretary

As the leadership development agency of The United Methodist Church, the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry (GBHEM) builds capacity for United Methodist lay and clergy leaders to discover, claim, and flourish in Christ's calling in their lives. The agency creates connections and provides resources to aid in recruitment, education, professional development, and spiritual formation. Every elder, deacon, and licensed local pastor benefits from our training and candidacy programs. Many young adults find help in clarifying God's call in their lives through our discernment opportunities.

Through its Office of Strategic Leadership, GBHEM refined plans for a center for leadership development and spiritual formation. It is drawing on research to plan the expansion of leadership training offerings to churches and communities through a range of means such as face-to-face training, online conferencing, consulting, and recommending resources and experts.

The Division of Ordained Ministry (DOM), using extensive research on the components of effective ministry, introduced a new formation process, Effective Ministry 360 (EM360), which guides pastors and congregations to plan and execute mission and ministry objectives. EM360 also offers assessment modules for candidacy, district superintendents, eight-year clergy assessment, and Course of Study. DOM provides introduction and orientation sessions about the process.

The Division of Higher Education (DHE) has initiated research to inform a leadership pipeline process for university leaders on United Methodist campuses. Among the books GBHEM published this year, Missio Dei and the United States: Toward a Faithful United Methodist Witness (book and study guide) exhibits the best of church and academy collaboration. Contributors explore how the church can reengage its Wesleyan heritage as it participates in God's mission.

The Office of Loans and Scholarships announced an increase in the maximum amount of money United Methodist students can borrow to pursue their education. The annual maximum is $10,000, with a lifetime maximum of $40,000. On average, the agency distributes $5.5 million in scholarships annually.

Partnering with churches and institutions, GBHEM has promoted projects, programs, initiatives, education, and leadership development in various cultural contexts within United Methodism and in pan-Methodist relationships. The agency expanded the Methodist Global Education Fund for Leadership Development, supported the work of regional networks with the International Association of Methodist Schools, Colleges, and Universities, and established Regional Hubs for Leadership, Education and Development. In 2018, hubs were active in nations in Africa, Asia, Europe and England, North America and South America.

GOLDEN CROSS FOUNDATION

Golden Cross Foundation Board of Directors Executive Committee

Founded in 2013, the Golden Cross Foundation (GCF) provides funding assistance for new and ongoing ministries and services with older adults in the Tennessee Conference and provides expertise and strategic planning to the conference for the expansion of innovative and effective ministries with older adults.

The Golden Cross Foundation, a non-profit corporation and extension ministry of the Tennessee Conference of The United Methodist Church (UMC), awarded more than $150,000 to 17 United Methodist churches and organizations throughout the conference in 2018. Money from the grants has been used toward retrofitting churches with ramps and handrails, starting older adult ministries, purchasing a 14-passenger mini bus, providing financial assistance for counseling, and building micro homes.

“You might say the foundation exists to give money away,” said GCF Chairperson Charles Hewgley, “The GCF board meets quarterly to review and approve grant requests from UM churches and organizations throughout the Tennessee Conference of The United Methodist Church. The grant applications are thoroughly vetted by the Grants Review Committee chaired by Rev. Jim Robinson.”

In 2018, 17 grants were awarded ranging from $1,325 to $60,000. Many of the churches receiving grant money applied it toward retrofitting their buildings with ramps, handrails, and grab bars to make them more accessible—inside and out—to people with limited mobility. Other churches used the money to make improvements in sound or projection systems to better accommodate people with vision or hearing issues. Money for the largest grant, $60,000, is being used by Open Table Nashville to build two new micro homes at The Village of Glencliff (on the grounds of Glencliff UMC) earmarked for older adults experiencing transition from hospitals and rehab facilities back to normal living.

While many of the improvements help make older buildings and facilities ADA compliant, another benefit is that older adult worshippers feel welcomed and valued. In some cases, the upgrades encouraged members to return to church.

Members of East End UMC in Savannah, Tennessee, used their grant money toward retrofitting restrooms with fixtures and handrails, enhancing the sanctuary's sound system, and installing interior and exterior ramps and a covered walkway. "We hope and pray that members and visitors who were unable to access our facility for fear of falling or who have difficulty hearing during worship or navigating in small bathrooms will now be encouraged to attend," said Janice M. Shelby, grant coordinator and immediate past chair of East End UMC's administrative council.

"We want everyone to know they are an important part of our ministry. Far too often, as people age, they feel the church doesn't or can't provide for their physical needs. As a result, they stay home. We want all who come to East End UMC to be able to enter the building without getting wet on a rainy day, access the sanctuary without the fear of falling, and have privacy in an appropriately designed bathroom."

Rev. Tim Dunavant is pastor at Gainesboro (Tennessee) First UMC, a church with a vibrant congregation that includes many in the community who are aging. "The 'we are not as young as we used to be' dynamic created several barriers holding back people from fully engaging in the services and events at church," said Dunavant.

Money from their GCF grant was used to help provide a new sound system that includes assisted listening devices connected directly to microphone.

The GCF board of directors is composed of laity and clergy from each of the Tennessee Conference's five districts. The board of directors meets four times a year to review grant proposals. In 2018, grants were given to churches of all sizes including 40-member Travisville UMC in Pall Mall, Tennessee, and 1,000-member Belle Meade UMC in Nashville.

Since 2013 more than $300,000 in grant money has been awarded to 34 UM churches and organizations. “Word is spreading about the Golden Cross Foundation grants,” said Kent McNish. “If your church wants to start or expand an older adult ministry or you want to retrofit your building to make it ADA compliant, we encourage you to apply.”

Additionally, GCF funds ENCORE Ministry under the leadership of Rev. Dr. Richard H. Gentzler, Jr. ENCORE Ministry is a valuable resource that is now available in the Tennessee Conference to help congregations meet the needs of the fastest-growing demographic group in our conference. And, because this ministry is funded by a grant from the Golden Cross Foundation, there is no cost to congregations or districts for its service. (Please see the report of ENCORE Ministry)

Application due dates are four weeks prior to a board meeting. The remaining 2019 board meetings are August 16, and November 15. COMMITTEE ON HEALTH AND WELFARE

Rev. Marie C. King, M.Div., R.N., FCN, Chair

Purpose

The Health and Welfare Committee of the Tennessee Conference of The United Methodist Church shall provide resources and educational opportunities to support health initiatives which are wholistic (focused on the whole-person) and therefore multifaceted. The Health and Welfare Committee recognizes that individual, local, regional, and global healthcare concerns are a physical concern, mental, environmental concern, justice and political concern, a human right, cultural concern, and financial concern.

Abundant Health

“I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly.” – John 10:10b, NRSV

Abundant Health is a wholistic health ministry initiative of the General Board of Global Ministries. The Health and Welfare Committee will employ the Abundant Health initiative of the General Board of Global Ministries as a guide for the health and welfare initiatives.

In 2018 Rev. Marie C. King and Rev. Dr. Paula Smith represented the Nashville Episcopal Area at the United Methodist Day of Health conference at Dunwoody UMC in Georgia. The General Board of Global Ministries and United Methodist Communications launched Hulapalooza (hula hooping) during the United Methodist Day of Health conference. The Day of Health initiative was to “equip leaders and inspire others to find new ways to engage their communities through health initiatives.”

Healthcare Advocacy

The chair of Health and Welfare, Rev. Marie C. King, and Rev. Merrilee Wineingar, director of Faith that Heals, participated in the Witness for Healthcare advocacy event in January 2019. Clergy and laity with the Tennessee Conference also were part of those who gathered at Legislative Plaza to advocate for healthcare concerns.

Coordinated by the Tennessee Justice Center and held at McKendree UMC, the purpose of this event was to raise an awareness with our legislators about the urgent issues surrounding healthcare that affect Tennesseans.

Mental and Emotional Health

The Health and Welfare Committee provided resources and information related to mental illness/mental health to:

1. Erase the stigma of mental illness
2. Give attention to addressing issues that arise with mental illness
3. Strengthen community connections with mental health professionals, agencies, and organizations

Nutrition: Community Gardens

The Health and Welfare Committee proposes to work with the University of Tennessee Extension to provide resources for two or three congregations looking to establish a community garden. Visit https://www.nashville.gov/Portals/0/SiteContent/Nashvitality/PDFs/GardenToolkit03_04_13.pdf for more information.

Faith Community Nurses/Parish Nurses

“Faith community nursing is a nursing practice specialty that focuses on the intentional care of the spirit, the promotion of an integrative model of health, and the prevention and minimization of illness within the context of a faith community.”—Faith Community Nursing: Scope and Standards of Practice, 3rd Edition

The Health and Welfare Committee supported the Faith Community Nursing ministry with resources and partial scholarships for a Faith Community Nursing Foundations class.

Steal Away: A Day Apart Clergywomen’s Retreat

The Health and Welfare Committee chair is part of the leadership team for this new health initiative founded by Rev. Dr. Paula Smith. Steal Away is an evidenced-based program which educates, equips, and empowers clergywomen with tools and strategies to reclaim wholistic health and well-being. An integrative approach is used to engage the five dimensions of health—spiritual, physical, social, emotional, and financial—that Wespeth has identified as most impactful on clergy health and well-being. Promoting health of clergy promotes vitality in mission and ministry. For more information, visit <http://stealawaywomen.org/>.

Since 2018, Steal Away has provided three retreats for clergywomen and one cohort for clergywomen that focuses on the Wespeth Five Dimensions of Well-Being. The next retreat, October 4-5, 2019, will be for women, clergy, and laity.

HINTON RURAL LIFE CENTER

Dr. Jacqueline Gottlieb, President and CEO

Hinton Center is a retreat and missions outreach agency of the Southeastern Jurisdiction, with the mission statement: Inspired by Jesus Christ, Hinton Rural Life Center's purpose is to engage individuals, congregations, and communities in transformation through retreat ministry and missional outreach.

Don't just go to church. Be the Church. Like a church, Hinton Center's campus is a physical place where people come to worship, learn, and serve, as well as retreat, reflect, and renew. But, Hinton is more than just a place. Through our ministries and missions outreach opportunities, we engage individuals, groups, churches, and organizations—both local and from across the jurisdiction—in ways that impact our rural Appalachian community, improve quality of life, and give hope. We focus on loving God and loving neighbor, and our prayer is that everyone who connects with Hinton—guest, volunteer, workshop participant, local homeowner, or business owner—experiences God's transforming love.

Guided by our 2016 Quality of Life Study, Hinton Center has been making homes safer and healthier, encouraged understanding of mental health and substance use, and promoted community-wide volunteer opportunities. We've been awarded numerous grants and have continued to strengthen our ministries both on and off campus. Our 2018 ministry highlights include:

- Received over $575,000 in grants, including funding for:
 - Youth and adult leadership programs, funded by a grant from the The Duke Endowment
 - Mental Health First Aid training, through the Evergreen Foundation; our staff has trained educators in the Clay County and Cherokee County school systems
 - Young Clergy Initiative funding, from the UM General Board of Higher Education and Ministry; this funding supported a leadership training event for high school youth interested in serving as future summer mission outreach staff
- Served 334 families through our Firewood, Christmas Cares, and Safe and Healthy Home Repair ministries
- Completed 237 home repair projects for 29 homes
- Hosted 51 church mission teams, with 46 from the SEJ
- Completed our Lakeside Worship Center, with significant help from the NOMADS team led by Jim and Mary Jo Reeves; began hosting our annual Easter Sunrise Service there
- Launched a regional Volunteer Center promoting ministry through service in the community, with over 25,000 volunteer hours in 2018
- Produced 785 pounds of food from the Hinton garden, used in our dining services and distributed to food programs in our community

In 2019 we launched two initiatives to promote, throughout the SEJ, our resources and missions opportunities:

- The Hinton Ambassadors Ministry equips 10 clergy from different annual conferences in the jurisdiction to represent Hinton and serve as an information resource in his/her annual conference. They include: David Fuquay (FL); Laura Plaster (Holston); Ed Trimmer (TN); Adlene Kufarimai (N AL); Shannon Boaz (KY); Joshua Goocey (NC); Rebekah Ralph (WNC); Ed Archer (N GA); Bill Culpepper (S GA); Jonathan Tompkins (SC).
- Hinton is helping to sponsor FCF Confirm confirmation retreats at Lake Junaluska. Our presence at these retreats is introducing a new generation of United Methodists to Hinton Rural Life Center as a place where they can go to retreat and serve . . . and BE the Church!

LAY SERVANT MINISTRIES

Jackie Elliott, Tennessee Conference Director

Lay Servant Ministries offers a foundation of equipping people to step out in service in their local church, community, and beyond. Some lay servants are called to missions locally and abroad. Many lay servants are volunteering in soup kitchens, prison ministry, homeless shelters, home repair, and food ministries. They are also teaching classes on finances, healthy living, leading Bible studies, and teaching Sunday school.

Lay Servant Ministries encourages us to remember who we are. We are laity who serve, care, love, communicate, teach, participate, lead, and train others. Through Lay Servant Ministries many have discerned the call to become pastors.

In our leadership roles, we have the opportunity to inspire others to a deeper commitment to Christ and into more effective discipleship.

Lay people in our conference are also making a difference by caring for others as Stephen Ministers, Hospice volunteers, and in schools with Partners Today, F.U.E.L. programs, and Project Transformation. The laity is communicating their faith by serving on teams, committees and boards, and as worship leaders. Some are called to children and youth ministries in their local church or in their own neighborhoods.

As laity we are called to serve and witness. Our districts, conference, and the world all benefit because our lay people are being sent to serve God and neighbor making disciples of Jesus Christ.

MCKENDREE VILLAGE FOUNDATION

McKendree Village Foundation, Inc. Board of Directors

The Tennessee Annual Conference has an affiliation with the McKendree Village Foundation. The McKendree Village Foundation has kept the promise of benevolent care to eligible McKendree residents through the extravagant generosity of its donors including the Tennessee Annual Conference.

The McKendree Village Foundation is self-sustaining; receiving no funds from the Tennessee Annual Conference or from the Golden Cross Sunday offering. Funding for its mission comes from the income of the donor designated endowment for this purpose.

In 2018-2019, the foundation received in excess of $600,000 in gifts and bequests. The current donor designated endowment for benevolent care is now approximately $5.3 million. Endowment is kept with the United Methodist Foundation for the Memphis and Tennessee Conferences.

The McKendree Village Foundation affirms our past shared heritage with McKendree Village and the Tennessee Annual Conference and continues the benevolent commitment that the Tennessee Conference made over 50 years ago to eligible residents of McKendree Village.

Additionally, the McKendree Village Foundation has distributed approximately 2 million dollars to the Golden Cross Foundation, an extension ministry of the Tennessee Annual Conference for the purpose of funding expansion of older adult ministries and services through Tennessee Conference congregations and agencies.

This year, board member Annella Creech died after a brief illness. Her participation in the McKendree Village Foundation board was a great gift to all who knew her. Her generous support of the benevolent care of McKendree Village residents was appreciated. The board expresses our sympathies to all her family and her friends in the Tennessee Conference.

MIRIAM'S PROMISE

Deborah H. Robinson, M.A., Executive Director and Beth Morris, Chair, Board of Directors

Our mission is to ensure the well-being of the child by nurturing individuals and families. Miriam's Promise continues to meet that promise by providing pregnancy and parenting counseling, domestic and international adoptions, and attachment coaching and education. 2018 and early 2019 have been busy days at Miriam's Promise. The number of domestic infant placements rose significantly; each pregnancy client seemed to come with more and more needs, and the staff and board worked to live into the 2017 strategic plan. We have settled in to our new offices at Scarritt Bennett Center and love our new home.

One of the rising challenges in our work continues to be providing complete services to pregnancy clients who come to us with need for housing, many with drug issues and few support systems in place. We saw another rise in the number of our babies born with drug exposure or dependency. Preparing and finding adoptive families for these infants requires more training for families and a more thorough time of supervision and attachment coaching.

Nationally, we have watched as international adoptions have decreased over the last few years; much of that decrease is due to changes in adoption policies by China and by the withdrawal of Russian children for adoption. Those families who do seek adoption of children born internationally are discovering those children are older and come with more needs. Regardless, we continue to provide the highest level of services for our families, emphasizing the critical transition these children face and specific coaching for attachment.

We are excited about some of the new program ideas being evaluated by our Program and Services committee of our board. These include expanded services to adoptees, especially those seeking birth family information or reunions and specific services to adopted children of divorcing parents.

For the past two years, our board has worked intensely on living out the recent strategic plan. Board committees are working in these five areas:

- Staff development, including succession planning
- Board development
- Resource development
- Program and services
- Marketing and communications

The board has renewed commitments to staff training and increasing skills sets and to increasing community awareness of Miriam's Promise. In January 2019, we welcomed Megan McInnis to our staff as our new director of Community Engagement. McInnis is already making a significant difference in our social media exposure and with our community partners. Local congregations and leaders will be hearing from McInnis.

As an affiliated agency started by The United Methodist Church in 1985, we continue to be a vital part of ministry within the Tennessee Conference. Miriam's Promise is an avenue for the Tennessee Conference to uphold the social principles of the UMC on adoption and family:

Adoption

Children are a gift from God to be welcomed and received. We recognize that some circumstances of birth make the rearing of a child difficult. We affirm and support the birth parent(s) whose choice it is to allow the child to be adopted. We recognize the agony, strength, and courage of the birth parent(s) who choose(s) in hope, love, and prayer to offer the child for adoption. In addition, we also recognize the anxiety, strength, and courage of those who choose in hope, love, and prayer to be able to care for a child. We affirm and support the adoptive parent(s)' desire to rear an adopted child as they would a biological child. When circumstances warrant adoption, we support the use of proper legal procedures. When appropriate and possible, we encourage open adoption so that a child may know all information and people related to them, both medically and relationally. We support and encourage greater awareness and education to promote adoption of a wide variety of children through foster care, international adoption, and domestic adoption. We commend the birth parent(s), the receiving parent(s), and the child to the care of the Church, that grief might be shared, joy might be celebrated, and the child might be nurtured in a community of Christian love.

The Family

We believe the family to be the basic human community through which persons are nurtured and sustained in mutual love, responsibility, respect, and fidelity. We affirm the importance of loving parents for all children.

The relationships with the conference and local churches are vital elements of the agency's mission and outreach. During the last year, the conference has changed how Miriam's Promise receives funding and how we relate to the conference structure. For many years, we have been a part of the apportionment system as a direct line item in the CF&A budget. In 2020, we will be removed from that system and placed under the budget of the Connectional Ministries Office. Support from individual churches and those relationships will become even more critical in 2020 and in the future. During this transition, we are excited about the opportunity to have a more direct link to local congregations and hope churches will welcome or renew direct relationships with Miriam's Promise and become a vital part of creating awareness among church members. We are grateful for the support and engagement of the Tennessee Conference!

NEW CHURCH DEVELOPMENT

Jacob Armstrong, Team Leader

It was a busy and exciting year for the Nashville Area New Church Development Team. Some highlights include:

- Helping with a location transition for Ebenezer UMC. With the strong leadership of Pastor Myriam Cortes, Ebenezer moved locations and continued to grow in number and spirit. This church is teaching us how to live out the Gospel in community and in the community. Currently, Ebenezer meets at the Conference office and we will work with them to transition to another more permanent location.
- Bluff City Church in Memphis was started this year and continues to grow with over 200 people connecting each week.
- The NCD team worked hard with a possible merger of a new church and an existing church in the Metro District. This merger between PeaceTree and CrossRoads we believe will bear fruit for many years.
- Trinity Community Commons, which meets at Trinity UMC, chartered as a non-profit and has expanded its reach into the Trinity Lane community in many ways through this formal organization as it truly does church differently to reach a diverse community.

The NCD team has continued to use the Pathways to Planting document as a guide in evaluating, training, and discerning for church planters and church plants. <https://www.tnumc.org/congregationaltransformation/new-church-development/>

The 2019-2020 annual conference year will see a strategic re-organizing of the NCD team to better use the Pathways to Planting and to see more churches started and more churches supported. This re-organization will see the creation of a new NCD strategy team that will oversee the administrative and financial functions of New Church Development. This team will include clergy and laypersons from the Memphis and Tennessee conferences and also have cabinet representation. The strategy team will administer the Pathways document and, with conference staff support, administer grants to new churches and missional faith communities.

The implementation and support of new churches and missional faith communities will be moved to two cohorts of church planters. There will be a New Church cohort lead by Jacob Armstrong and Travis Garner. This cohort will include appointed pastors of approved current and future projects. The coaching, training, support, and spiritual formation of the planters will take place in this cohort. The Missional Faith Community cohort will be lead by Vona Wilson. These ministries, which are not always financially self-sustainable and don't always look like traditional church, will have their own cohort for mutual support and connection to the conference. The formation of these groups will begin in July.

NEXT GEN DISCIPLESHIP

Brad Fiscus, Director of Next Gen Discipleship

Next Gen Discipleship is the ministry area that includes ministry with children, youth, young adults, and families as well as those who serve in ministry in these areas. The ministry is led by the Next Gen operational team that has and continues to develop strategic plans and initiatives to assist the local church and leaders.

The Children's Ministry Discipleship team (CMDT) consists of a dedicated group of children's ministry leaders who work together to help resource and support ministries with children and families throughout the Tennessee Conference. The Conference Council on Youth Ministry consists of middle and high school student leaders who have been elected and selected by their peers and ministry leaders to creatively implement the strategies for ministry with youth and families. This group also demonstrates incredible leadership through the development of the BE Retreat, a spiritual life retreat for 3rd- to 6th-graders; Summer Sizzler, a spiritual life retreat for 6th- through 12th-graders; and Warmth in Winter, the largest gathering of United Methodist youth and young adults in the Tennessee Conference. The Young Adult Discipleship Team works closely with campus ministry to help develop and promote opportunities for young adults to engage in spiritual formation.

Next Gen Discipleship is committed to equipping intergenerational spiritual leaders throughout the Tennessee Conference, especially local church leaders engaged in whole-life discipleship formation. As a result of the creation of a strong network of leaders serving on teams in local churches and districts, the Next Gen operational team believes this vision and mission will be fulfilled. The Next Gen operational team as well as all teams of this ministry are committed to strategically advocating, resourcing, and empowering local church intergenerational spiritual leaders to engage in discipleship formation for the transformation of the world.

There have been many ways that God has been at work in and through Next Gen Discipleship. These are just a few:

1. The Next Gen Discernment Internship engaged 10 young adults in ministry internships in 10 different churches. These young adults met weekly with the entire intern community to discuss experiences as well as assigned reading or video discussion. Each of those interns have remained engaged in ministry in their local setting either through their church or on their campus.
2. The Next Gen operational team began its second year of work together. This team has been instrumental in developing a culture of collaboration through listening, learning, and leading alongside other ministry groups in the conference.
3. A ministry action plan has been established.

4. Dynamic opportunities for Next Gen students and adults through events such as Warmth in Winter, Summer Sizzler, BE Retreat, Confirmation Retreat, Nashville Sounds, and Nashville Shores. These events are developed through collaboration between youth and adults on design teams and in partnership with other ministry groups such as Camp and Retreat Ministries.
5. CMDT—Developed district hub team and resources to be shared among children’s ministry leaders, such as a list of media resources on children and family ministries and hub coaches to connect children and family ministry leaders within districts.
6. Young adults attended Divine Rhythm in the Holston Conference and will begin discussions on ways to collaborate with Holston to expand the event to the Nashville area. The Tennessee State Wesley Foundation worship team led worship throughout the Divine Rhythm weekend.

Next Gen Discipleship is diligently working to develop a strategy that will help fulfill our mission and vision. Some of those are:

1. Revitalize the Children’s Ministry Discipleship team by bringing on new members with new areas of expertise, holding a revisioning retreat, and creating an intentional, regular meeting schedule to more effectively move ideas into action.
2. Provide training and resources for Next Gen ministry leaders (paid and unpaid) in the local church.
3. Continue to expand partnerships with Encore Ministry, Congregational Transformation team, Campus Ministry, and Camp and Retreat Ministry to offer wholistic intergenerational opportunities for discipleship formation.

Next Gen Discipleship is committed to partnering with the ministries of the Tennessee Conference as well as those in districts and local churches. We will:

1. ADVOCATE for Next Gen participants and leaders to have vibrant ministry opportunities, as well-developed vision for ministry, and dedicated leadership development processes.
2. RESOURCE local churches and teams so that they will have access to curriculum, tools, idea-sharing, and real connection with others in ministry.
3. EMPOWER local churches and members to become intergenerational spiritual leaders who become disciples who make disciples.

PROJECT TRANSFORMATION TENNESSEE: TRANSFORMING LIVES THROUGH RELATIONSHIPS

Courtney Aldrich, Director

“The place God calls you to is the place where your deep gladness and the world’s deep hunger meet.”

—Frederick Buechner

We believe everyone has unique gifts, passions, and talents endowed by God, and so we spend a lot of time with these words of Buechner at Project Transformation. Yes, we want our interns to walk always with strong friendships and experiences after their service term with Project Transformation (PT). But, more so, we want each to walk away with a greater understanding of their vocation—the journey in which God invites us to discover our most authentic self and how God is inviting us to make our greatest contribution.

The mission of Project Transformation Tennessee is to engage young adults in purposeful leadership and ministry, support children in holistic development, and connect churches with communities. Since our founding in 2011, Project Transformation has partnered with churches to provide children with holistic programming targeted at engaging the mind, body, and spirit. Our summer and afterschool programs provide literacy and social-emotional interventions that equip children to be healthy, whole, and successful leaders themselves. Planning and leading these programs are our college interns, who serve as mentors to children. All the while, these interns are developing as principled-Christian leaders, exploring various ministry-related vocations, and serving as the high-energy glue to cement new relationships in changing neighborhoods.

And we have many reasons to give God thanks:

- Since 2012, more than 300 young people have served through our internship program. Today, 84 percent of those who have graduated have stayed active in some form of ministry; 52 percent have served on staff of a local church or denominational agency. 80 percent of our alumni report that Project Transformation provided them with a more holistic understanding of vocation and calling in life; 73 percent said that PT helped them discover or affirm their career path.
- In 2018, 90 college-age young adults, representing 50 different colleges and universities, served through our internship program. Each Friday, interns explored vocation and ministry as they visited with innovative leaders, faithfully following their own call. Interns visited with more than 37 ministries, ranging from urban education and affordable housing to the criminal justice system and health care. These collaborative partners include Open Table Nashville, Soldiers and Families Embraced, Harvest Hands, Vanderbilt Divinity School, Interfaith Dental Clinic, and The Upper Room.
- We served 972 children in the Tennessee and Memphis conferences in 2018. They read one-on-one with a volunteer for 40 minutes each day to improve comprehension and fluency and to develop a love for reading. Pre- and post-summer reading assessments indicated that 97 percent of students improved or maintained their reading level. Children also engaged in physical activities, creative arts, and Bible lessons, and received healthy meals each day. But even more important were the relationships built with our interns and volunteers.
- More than 1,847 volunteers from the Tennessee and Memphis conferences invested their time and talents to serve with Project Transformation this year. They read one-on-one with children, provided homework help, donated books and supplies, prepared meals for interns, and hosted Family Fun Nights. Beyond this, volunteers modeled a love of literacy for our children and youth and provided encouragement for interns.

We are grateful for the hospitality and partnership of our 10 site churches: Hamilton UMC, Antioch UMC, Matthews Memorial UMC, Trinity Community Commons, New Providence UMC, Woodbury UMC, LaVergne First UMC, Centenary UMC, Longstreet UMC, and Scenic Hills UMC.

Responding to the ways in which God has moved during our seven years of ministry, Project Transformation continues to lead through a strategic plan to deepen our impact. This summer, 90 young adults will grow as Christ-centered leaders as they explore ministry, live in intentional Christian community, and mentor more than 750 children in underserved neighborhoods in the Tennessee and Memphis conferences. We are building knowledge of social emotional and restorative practices. We are expanding our middle school programs to nurture our students as they move into adolescence. We are strengthening an intentional pipeline for interns to become Tennessee faith leaders. As we continue to lean into God's growing vision for Project Transformation Tennessee, we invite your continued support of this transformative ministry.

THE TURNER CENTER AT MARTIN METHODIST COLLEGE

Rev. Allen T. Stanton, Executive Director

The Turner Center at Martin Methodist College has undergone significant change in the last year, refocusing our efforts on cultivating thriving rural communities. Rooting ourselves in Wesleyan heritage, we know that the world is our parish and so we seek to be a place that builds community by strengthening our churches, building collaborations with local organizations, and unlocking the potential of our region. Our programs will continue to expand and grow in the next year and we are always looking forward to building new partnerships. Feel free to reach out to us!

Strengthening Rural Churches

Rural congregations are often unrecognized as permanent stakeholders in their communities. The Turner Center seeks to create opportunities for congregations to cultivate meaningful, God-honoring change within their communities.

- The Turner Fellows Cohort is working with five pastors in the Caney Fork River District to rethink evangelism, learn about their contexts, and develop skills to lead God-honoring change in their local contexts. A second cohort in the Harpeth River District will begin in August 2019.
- Our inaugural Community Transformation Grant is funding a summer literacy initiative in Henry County. This program is a collaboration of 19 churches.

Transforming Communities

Building collaboration between leaders in our communities allows us to utilize our unique assets in creative ways, unlocking the gifts and potential of our rural places.

- Read to be Ready currently serves 90 students in Giles County in a four-week literacy program that's a collaboration between Martin Methodist College and the Giles County school system. In 2019, we received a $59,000 grant from the Dollar General Literacy Foundation to add a fourth site in preparation for expansion.
- Modeled after Methodist Le Bonheur's nationally recognized Memphis Model, we are currently developing a Rural Congregational Health Network, connecting our local hospital and nursing program to rural congregations, allowing us to expand access to affordable healthcare and increase preventative and post-operative care.

Building Partnerships

Martin Methodist College believes that being rural is a unique asset. By building partnerships, we can serve the welfare and potential of the students and people of our rural communities.

- The Dan Speer Entrepreneurship Center will be a place that cultivates a rural renaissance, bridging business and faith to develop the whole community. Our center will build upon the assets of the college and our community to foster entrepreneurship in small businesses, non-profits, and churches throughout rural Tennessee.
- As part of our commitment to become a national model of rural higher education, Martin Methodist College has developed and led The Rural Higher Education Institute, a consortium of rural colleges and universities from across the United States. Martin Methodist College will serve as the host site in 2019.

TURNER CENTER FOR CHURCH LEADERSHIP

J. Thomas Laney, Jr., Director

The Turner Center for Church Leadership was established in 2007 when the Turner Family Foundation gave a generous grant to Vanderbilt Divinity School to fund a leadership development initiative that had two main tracks. The first, the Turner Scholars program, focused on promoting church leadership skills in M.Div. students planning to serve in the United Methodist connection. Over the next 10 years, more than 40 students from all over the country participated in the program that awarded them a full tuition scholarship and an annual stipend for work, with mentoring from the pastor, in a local church during their three years of studies. The second track provided programming and consulting support related to leadership challenges facing pastors already under appointment in the Nashville Episcopal Area.

In 2015, Cal Turner, Jr., redirected the grant to the Nashville Area Episcopal Office allowing Bishop William McAlilly to have more direct oversight of the priorities of the Turner Center. Under his direction, the Turner Center has engaged in the following programs:

- Leadership development groups—year-long peer-based learning groups that focus on leadership skills and practices for effective congregational leadership.
- M-LAB (Movement – Learning Action Board)—a learning initiative offered in partnership with pastors from the Memphis, Florida, and North Georgia conferences to introduce design thinking principles and methods to pastors and lay leaders in our churches. In 2018-19, over 120 clergy and lay leaders in the Tennessee and Memphis conferences have participated in an MLAB event.
- On-boarding—in partnership with Claire Bowen, a leadership consultant based in Atlanta, Georgia, the Turner Center sponsored a training program for 25 leaders in the Southeast Jurisdiction to be certified in the process of on-boarding new pastors to their appointments.
- New conference work—the Turner Center has worked closely with the bishop's office to help coordinate and underwrite the work of the New Conference Planning Group that has met occasionally to focus on the opportunities and challenges facing the Tennessee and Memphis conferences as they explore what a new united conference could look like.

- Healthy conversations around human sexuality and the issues coming before the church in the called General Conference of February, 2019—in partnership with the Methodist House of Studies at Memphis Theological Seminary, the Turner Center helped plan and sponsor two workshops in the Memphis and Tennessee conferences to explore ways to have healthy, productive conversations regarding the challenges facing our denomination.
- Preaching peer groups—in partnership with the Perkins Center for Preaching Excellence, the Turner Center has funded two year-long peer cohorts that focused on helping one another become more effective preachers.

UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION FOR THE MEMPHIS AND TENNESSEE CONFERENCES

Dr. Philip D. Jamieson, President

“Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God’s love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.” (Romans 5:1-5)

To say the least, these are interesting times for The United Methodist Church. There is much speculation about what the future will hold. Nobody can say for sure what will transpire over the next several years. But we do know this: we have access to hope because of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Paul speaks of a peace that may see us through even (and especially) difficult times. In other words, it is not a peace based upon our circumstances, but rather based upon the past and present activity of God. That same work allows us to hope and with the promise that as we do that, we shall never be disappointed. We may live today with a joyful certainty that our future is secure. And that being the case we may also invest and financially plan with hope.

The work of the United Methodist Foundation for the Memphis and Tennessee Annual Conferences and the United Methodist Development Fund of Tennessee/Kentucky is future oriented. The foundation and development fund are committed to helping the local churches and extension ministries of the Memphis and Tennessee conferences to sustain best practices and find new ways to encourage greater generosity while planning for future ministry. We do that in a number of ways.

First, our future orientation is lived out in our work as a custodian for endowed funds on behalf of local churches and other United Methodist ministries. As of December 31, 2018, our holdings were $53,755,839. Last year, a difficult final quarter caused the value of the fund to drop by approximately 5 percent. However, a solid first quarter in 2019 has more than recouped that loss. In 2018 alone, approximately $3.9 million were distributed for ministries in the two conferences. Endowed fund giving truly allows local churches the ability to fund ministry today while growing many monies for future faithfulness!

We also serve by means of the United Methodist Development Fund of Tennessee/Kentucky. Accepting investments from individuals, churches, and organizations, we are able to loan money at a competitive rate to United Methodist churches and ministries for building projects. Currently, the development fund is loaning money at 3.99 percent and paying 1.675 percent to shareholders. The fund currently has $11,675,883 on loan to local churches and ministries. By both loaning for new construction and refinancing existing capitol debt, the development fund empowers churches to continue to give freely today while planning for the future!

In 2014, we launched a new initiative to help churches and ministries gain greater ability to encourage generosity. Over $75,000 has been given to churches in the Tennessee and Memphis annual conferences through the Stewardship Grant Program and by partnering with the Lake Institute's Creating Congregational Cultures of Generosity program. In 2017, the foundation board voted to initiate a new grant program. The foundation works with newly commissioned and ordained clergy to help them find productive ways to retire educational debt. Each participant receives $1,000 for doing so. Once again, all of this is done in order to help churches and individuals give freely and anticipate all that God desires to do through us in the future!

In closing, I am reminded of the words of the old Gospel song: "Many things about tomorrow I don't seem to understand. But I know who holds tomorrow. And I know who holds my hand." It is in the light of that knowledge that we can continue to freely give, never forgetting that the hope that we have in Jesus Christ will never disappoint.

If you have questions regarding the work and ministries of the foundation, the development fund, or grant programs; if you would like to have one of us come to preach and/or speak to a group in your church; or if you would like to learn more about ways to create an endowed fund for your church or ministries, give us a call (615-259-2008) or visit our website at www.umfmmc.org.

Section 28. To the maximum extent permitted by the provisions of T.C.A. § 48-58-501, et seq., as amended from time to time (provided, however, that if an amendment to such Act limits or restricts in any way the indemnification rights permitted by law as of the date hereof, such Amendment shall apply only to the extent mandated by law and only to activities of persons subject to indemnification under this Paragraph which occur subsequent to the effective date of such Amendment), the Foundation shall indemnify and advance expenses to any person, his/her heirs, executors and administrators for the defense of any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative and whether formal or informal, including counsel fees actually incurred as a result of such action, suit or proceeding or any appeal thereof, and against all fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan), judgments, penalties, and amounts paid in settlement thereof, provided that such proceeding or action be instituted by reason of the fact that such person is or was a member of the Foundation. Any repeal or modification of the provisions of this Section 27 directly or by the Foundation's adoption of an Amendment to these Bylaws that is inconsistent with the provisions of this Section 27, shall not adversely affect any right or protection set forth herein existing in favor of a particular individual at the time of such repeal or modification.

Section 29. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provisions herein shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, charter provision, by-law provision, resolution adopted by the Board of Directors, agreement, insurance purchased by the Foundation or otherwise, both as to action(s) in his or her official capacity and as to any action in another capacity.

Section 30. The Foundation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any individual who is or was a Director, officer, employee or agent of the Foundation, or who, while a Director, officer, employee or agent of the Foundation, is or was serving at its request as a Director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Foundation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Tennessee Nonprofit Corporation Act, as it may be amended from time to time.

UNITED METHODIST MEN

William C. Bowen, Sr. Esq.
Tennessee Conference United Methodist Men President

The Tennessee Conference of United Methodist Men in 2018/2019 has been actively involved in the establishment of and revival of men's ministries across the conference. The Tennessee UM Men's key goals for this past year were to organize UM Men district leadership, local unit development, and the chartering and Every Man Shares (EMS) registration increase across our conference.

Another benchmark is to enhance our Disciple Bible Study of Men (DBOM), Big Brothers Big Sisters, and Society of St. Andrews (SOSA). We are establishing an e-newsletter that will be distributed to our district presidents and officers and members of the local conference units.

Leadership Development and Growth

The Tennessee Conference of United Methodist Men has had success this year in the continued development and growth of United Methodist Men's local units. Despite the lack of desired interaction and connection of district units with the conference team, there is considerable stability and additional growth around our conference through our men's ministries. Our units are leading our Southeast Jurisdiction in the number of active units, continued charters, and newly developed charters as well as men in our conference becoming EMS members. We thank God that he continues to touch the hearts of men in our conference through their extravagant care for others and our mission. Our scouting initiative has been revived under the leadership of Jason Hicks from Cookeville First UMC.

National Association of Conference Presidents (NACP) Meeting

The NACP met in February in Nashville at the GBOD Denman building and conference presidents from all jurisdictions across Methodism met. The Tennessee Conference was represented by Bill Bowen, Tennessee Conference president. This gathering of national presidents sets the agenda for the General Commission on United Methodist Men and shares connectively ideas and concerns. At the 2019 NACP meeting, Bowen was again appointed to the board of directors of the UMM Foundation.

Scouting

The Tennessee Conference obtained a scouting coordinator, Jason Hicks, as conference coordinator for our five districts. The ministry is now very active, strong, and among the most effective across the conference and jurisdictions' United Methodist churches. In February, a bishop's dinner was hosted and over 100 in attendance from across the conference were able to meet with representatives of the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Big Brothers, Big Sisters, and P.R.A.Y. programs. Attendees heard inspiring stories from Scout masters Mike Warren and Becca Campbell (Campbell is now a ministerial candidate), as well as Bishop McAlilly's address. The conference needs more volunteers at the conference and district levels. If interested, contact Jason Hicks at (931)252-3337 or jasonfhicks@gmail.com.

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Middle Tennessee (BB/BS) and Amachi Programs

The Tennessee Conference continues to have an active program in these areas that serve several hundred children through the efforts of over 50 churches of which approximately 20 are United Methodist. Ingram Howard and Cliff Steger serve as mentors and also serve on the ambassador board.

United Methodist Men's Life Membership Award

The Tennessee Conference of United Methodist Men presented Bowen with the prestigious Life Membership Award during an installation of officers' ceremony at his home church, Gordon Memorial UMC.

Charters and EMS (Legacy Builders and Circuit Riders) Enrollments

The Tennessee Conference has approximately 85 local churches chartered with local units and over 120 EMS members along with 60 Legacy Builders and five Circuit Riders. Total membership still continues to be over 2,900 men. The Tennessee Conference of United Methodist Men are having a one-day men's Advance October 5 at Good Shepard UMC. Titled A Road to Discipleship- Discipleship Get in the Game, the team is developing a program that will involve men across our conference in fellowship, training, and development.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

Nita Wright, President, Tennessee Conference United Methodist Women

“He has told you, O Mortal, what is good, and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God.” Micah 6:8

This year, United Methodist Women is celebrating 150 years of women organized for mission. It is a long and detailed history, involving millions of committed women and their stories. We touch on pieces of our shared history, connect that history to today, and look to the future as we continue Christ's mission and ministry.

There are threads that connect us. The first is discernment. We try to be present to God's presence, knowing that God is in the midst of us. Second, we are a part of Christ's mission and ministry with women, children, and youth. The commitment is both personal and collective. Third, our own theological growth and education has shaped all mission and it continues to be dynamic. We are resurrection people, so we acknowledge sin, seek forgiveness, and learn as we move forward in faith. We all come together as God's daughters, committed to mission.

The United Methodist Women of the Tennessee Conference serve in many ways. We host a Rise Against Hunger event and help to provide the Thanksgiving meal for the community at Bethlehem Center. We volunteer at UMCOR. We pack backpacks for children who are food insecure, we volunteer at schools, and we volunteer for Project Transformation. We raise funds for camp scholarships for youth and children. This is just a small portion of what our women do.

We educate ourselves through our Mission u and other mission studies. We foster our spiritual growth through Bible studies and activities such as the Spiritual Growth Retreat we have every September at Beersheba Springs. We work to support causes such as the fight against human trafficking and maternal and child health and we work to protect the environment.

United Methodist Women work to become inclusive and diverse; it is essential that we all come together as God's daughters, committed to mission. We are ready to greet all women into the sisterhood of grace as we seek to live out our faith with love and justice.

United Methodist Women is continuing to help women prepare for informed mission action through spiritual growth and transformative educational experiences, leadership development training, and opportunities for service and advocacy. As we enter our next 150 years, we hope to cultivate and increase engagements, membership, and giving and to move women to new levels of leadership and action to change the world.

AFRICA UNIVERSITY

James H. Salley, Associate Vice Chancellor for Institutional Advancement Africa University Development Office

Africa University is thankful to the leaders and members of the Tennessee Conference for the contribution of 110 percent of the asking to the Africa University Fund (AUF) apportionment in 2018. Tennessee United Methodists achieved the highest percentage of investment across all conferences for the second consecutive year.

The students, faculty, and staff value every gift. They are especially humbled by the sacrifices that are being made to maintain a tradition of 100 percent support for the AUF in the Tennessee Conference.

Through its investment in the Africa University Fund, the Tennessee Conference affirms the university's core mission of nurturing leaders who inspire and invite new people into a relationship with Jesus Christ. The impact of the Tennessee Conference's strong support for Africa University is evident in the contributions of graduates who address real-life challenges and help communities to experience peace, sustainable livelihoods, food security, and abundant health. Thank you, Tennessee Conference, for your steadfast commitment to the AUF.

Institutional Update:

- Africa University remains a top choice for African young people who are seeking a relevant and life-changing educational experience. In 2018, Africa University enrolled more than 700 new students and maintained an overall enrollment of around 2,000 students. There were 25 African countries represented in the student body.
- Women made up 53 percent of the student population in 2018, which is almost twice the average for African higher education institutions. Among Africa University's close to 9,000 alumni, women graduates are emerging as the difference-makers of their generation, whether empowering victims of gender-based violence in the Democratic Republic of Congo or working alongside rural women to establish and operate community-based telecommunications infrastructure in underserved communities across Africa.
- Throughout 2018, Africa University weathered the challenges of Zimbabwe's depressed and uncertain socio-economic environment with creativity and prudence. The university delivered high-quality teaching, learning, and community service activities without interruption, while also renewing and expanding its infrastructure. Key enhancements in 2018 included the refurbishment of three residence halls for women students and the full implementation of an ERP software system to integrate and manage all facets of the university's operations.
- For the first time in five years, there is new construction on the Africa University campus thanks to a 25th anniversary gift from Highland Park United Methodist Church in Dallas, Texas. In December 2018, work began on the foundation for a new residence hall. The university subsequently broke ground for the construction of phase two of its student union and cafeteria building. Both projects are progressing well and are expected to be in use by August 2020.

Africa University is grateful to the members of the Tennessee Conference for their prayers and support, which continue to grow and sustain its ministry. Thank you for all that you have invested in Africa University over the past 27 years. As Africa University and the Tennessee Conference move forward together in missional engagement, we trust in God's unending grace for the increase.

CANDLER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Jan Love, Mary Lee Hardin Willard Dean and Professor of Christianity and World Politics

For more than 100 years, Candler School of Theology at Emory University has prepared real people to make a real difference in the real world. Since our founding in 1914, more than 10,000 students have graduated from Candler, where they have been shaped as thoughtful, principled, and courageous leaders dedicated to transforming the world in the name of Jesus Christ.

This is especially important to note amid the current uncertainty in our denomination. It is an honor and a privilege for Candler to be one of 13 official seminaries of The United Methodist Church. Yet true to the Methodist tradition of ecumenical openness, Candler has enthusiastically welcomed the entire Wesleyan family to our community for generations. Faculty, staff, and students from the AME Church, the AMEZ Church, the CME Church, Free Methodists, Nazarenes, and others have worked, worshiped, learned, and prayed alongside United Methodists, and have been a vital part of shaping Candler and our mission. This diversity has been a wonderful gift and a rich blessing. As we move forward from the special session of General Conference, we will continue to invite and welcome wholeheartedly those from all expressions of the Wesleyan tradition. Indeed, we will continue to welcome all those who follow Jesus Christ.

Candler is also privileged to be one of seven graduate professional schools of Emory University in Atlanta. With the resources of a top-tier research institution and the reach of a global city, our students benefit from a rich academic and hands-on learning environment: the General Board of Global Ministries is in Atlanta, as are numerous public health, international development, and social service organizations. Candler's intentional involvement with our surrounding community has contributed to our inclusion on a list of Seminaries that Change the World for six years running. In short, there is no better place to prepare for ministry that engages our major denominational priorities: developing leaders, starting and growing churches, ministry with the poor, and improving global health.

In order to keep pace with the needs of the Church and the world, Candler offers 16 degrees: six single degrees and 10 dual degrees pairing theology with bioethics, business, international development, law, public health, and social work. Our Doctor of Ministry degree is 90 percent online, so students can remain in their places of ministry and immediately apply to their context what they learn in class. Our Teaching Parish program allows eligible United Methodist students to serve as pastors in local churches while they're enrolled—they earn a salary as they earn course credit and pastoral experience, plus they are mentored by an experienced United Methodist elder.

Candler's student body continues to reflect the diversity and breadth of the Christian faithful, with an enrollment of 453, reflecting 51 percent women, 39 percent people of color (U.S.), and a median age of 27 among MDivs. Students represent 44 denominations, with half coming from the Methodist family.

Candler has a deep commitment to alleviating student debt and promoting financial literacy. In 2018-2019, we awarded $5.8 million in Candler scholarships, with 100 percent of MDiv students receiving aid. Plus, our comprehensive Faith & Finance program teaches money management skills that serve our students now and will continue to serve them—and the churches they lead—well into the future.

Candler draws considerable strength and inspiration from its relationship with The United Methodist Church. Our ability to fulfill our mission of educating faithful and creative leaders for the church's ministries throughout the world depends upon your prayers, partnership, and support. Thank you for the countless ways you advance this vital ministry in the life of our denomination. Visit us in person or online at candler.emory.edu to see firsthand how Candler prepares real people to make a real difference in the real world.

DUKE DIVINITY SCHOOL

L. Gregory Jones, Dean

In August 2018, L. Gregory Jones, the Ruth W. and A. Morris Williams Jr. Distinguished Professor of Theology and Christian Ministry, began serving as dean following Elaine Heath's departure. Jones, who earned M.Div. and Ph.D. degrees from Duke, was previously dean of Duke Divinity from 1997-2010. Jones was asked to lead the school in enhancing its ties with church constituencies, strengthening its academic credibility, attending to cultural challenges, and addressing financial challenges. As he assumed the role of dean, Jones noted, "We need to build bridges across various divides in the church, the academy, and across society. Christian faith can play a significant role in this bridge building." This academic year Duke Divinity School has been working steadily on these tasks.

Admissions

Duke Divinity School welcomed an entering class of approximately 200 new students from 30 different states and several countries, including China, South Korea, the UK, and Zimbabwe. Our Master of Divinity program remains central to our identity, enrolling 112 students. Our Master of Theological Studies and Master of Arts in Christian Practice programs received enrollments of 24 students and 14 students, respectively. The Master of Theology (nine students), Doctor of Ministry (22 students), and Doctor of Theology (four students) all had strong enrollment. Our new Certificate in Theology and Health Care saw enrollment double this year to eight students.

The ages of students enrolled in the M.Div. program range from 21 to 69, with a median age of 23, and students from minority groups comprised more than 22 percent of incoming M.Div. students, with black students making up 15 percent. Across all degree programs at the divinity school, 32 percent of the incoming class identified as a race/ethnicity other than white (an increase from 26 percent last year). Black students made up 18 percent of all students; Hispanic students, two percent; Asian students, seven percent; and American Indian students, one percent.

For the first time, the majority of students entering the Doctor of Ministry program identify as an ethnic group other than white. Female students made up 51 percent of incoming M.Div. students, while males were 49 percent. It was only the second time in school history that the incoming cohort of M.Div. students had a female majority (2005 being the other year). Across the degree programs, 42 percent of students in the incoming class were female, and 58 percent were male. There were 23 denominations represented in the M.Div. entering class, with 55 percent affiliated with The United Methodist Church (up from 41 percent last year). Nondenominational students made up 17 percent of the new M.Div. students; Baptists, eight percent; and Anglican-Episcopal, three percent.

New Faculty

Several new faculty members joined the divinity school community in July 2018, demonstrating Duke Divinity School's ongoing commitment to the church, the academy, and the church's witness in the world.

- Christopher Beeley, the Jack and Barbara Bovender Professor of Theology, Anglican Studies, and Ministry and director of the Anglican Episcopal House of Studies, is an Anglican priest and a founding member of the Episcopal Gathering of Leaders. He has ministered in parishes in Texas, Indiana, Virginia, and Connecticut. Prior to joining the Duke faculty, Beeley taught for 16 years at Yale Divinity School.
- David Emmanuel Goatley, research professor of theology and Black Church Studies and director of the Office of Black Church Studies, is ordained in the National Baptist Convention, USA, and serves in leadership capacities with the NAACP, Lott Carey Baptist Foreign Mission Society, and the Baptist World Alliance and the World Council of Churches. He was for 23 years the executive director of the Lott Carey Baptist Foreign Mission Society.
- Jan Holton, associate professor of the practice of pastoral theology and care, is an ordained elder in the Virginia Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church. Holton most recently served in an extension ministry with Integrated Refugee and Immigrant Services (IRIS) in New Haven, Conn., and was a member of the faculty at Yale Divinity School from 2006 to 2015.
- Patrick T. Smith, associate research professor of theological ethics and bioethics and a senior fellow at the Kenan Institute for Ethics at Duke University, is also associate faculty with Trent Center for Bioethics, Humanities, and the History of Medicine. Smith is licensed and ordained with the National Baptist Convention, USA and comes to Duke from Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary and Harvard Medical School.

United Methodists

Professor Kate Bowler's memoir, Everything Happens for a Reason: And Other Lies I've Loved, made The New York Times' hardcover nonfiction bestseller list and received significant national recognition in mainstream and Christian media. The related podcast, "Everything Happens with Kate Bowler," returns for a second season with new episodes on how people have faced dark times in their lives.

Bowler, Sujin Pak, and Edgardo Colon-Emeric, all United Methodist faculty members, received tenure and promotion to the rank of associate professor in recent months. On July 1, 2018, Pak began serving as vice dean of academic affairs and Colon-Emeric started as director of the Center for Reconciliation. Jeff Conklin-Miller began serving as director of the Methodist House of Studies at the same time. Beginning February 1, 2019, Lacey Warner fills the new role of associate dean for Wesleyan engagement.

Looking to the Future

The divinity school continues to discern fresh strategies to respond faithfully and wisely to the changing dynamics of the Church, the academy, and the world. An example of our strategic work is a new focus throughout the school on Thriving Communities. Through this focus we are concentrating on the centrality of healthy congregations and gifted pastors in cultivating thriving communities. This approach offers opportunities to build on Duke Divinity School's traditional strengths, but in a new key. We look forward to cultivating even stronger synergies among our work with the Clergy Health Initiative, Thriving Rural Communities, Hispanic House of Studies, and a revised Field Education program (all generously supported by The Duke Endowment), alongside longstanding commitments to the Office of Black Church Studies, the Anglican/Episcopal and Baptist Houses of Study, and initiatives in Leadership Education; Theology and the Arts; and Theology, Medicine, and Culture.

Duke Divinity School is grateful for the strong ties that bind the people called Methodist, and we look forward to serving together as we bear witness to God's future with hope.

Responsive and Relevant Theological Education

New Partnership with North Central College

We are partnering with North Central College to offer students the unique opportunity to take graduate-level courses in religious studies while completing their undergraduate degrees. Beginning in fall 2019, students will be able to take classes at the seminary's campus and transfer graduate courses toward undergraduate work. For more information, please visit www.garrett.edu/news.

Creative Course Opportunities

Faith in Place Environmental Justice Course

This past spring, Garrett-Evangelical partnered with Faith in Place to offer a dynamic new course titled Organizing for Environmental Justice. Faith in Place is a state-wide organization working with over 1,000 houses of worship to protect our common land, air, and water. The class met at various locations around the city. Students increased their awareness as leaders, organizers, managers, and advocates for the care of the earth and environmental justice by reading and discussing literature on these topics and witnessing the work of leaders and organizations committed to these ends during the site visits. They also faced the complex challenges facing individuals and communities suffering from environmental injustices. The seminary continues to develop creative partnerships like this one to better equip our students serve the needs of the church and world.

Connectional Learning

Connectional Learning is the name for Garrett-Evangelical's new take on continuing education. We seek to create education and training suited to your unique professional, vocational, and spiritual needs. Whether you are clergy, laity, or spiritually curious, we welcome you to explore our programs that are designed to be relevant, responsive, and reachable. We are actively preparing our fall 2019 offerings to announce them at our annual conference visits. There are several highly anticipated online course and webinar offerings, including Thriving Ministry with Young Adults: Holy Yearning, Holy Listening, Holy Partnerships and Financial Management for Churches and Nonprofits.

There is a wealth of information and resources on our website, including past webinar recordings and on-campus lecture opportunities. To learn more about our offerings and stay up to date on future programs, please visit: www.garrett.edu/connectional-learning.

Inclusivity in our Relationships

Since the launch of our strategic plan in 2015, we have been working to pay greater attention to race, diversity, and inclusivity in our community. This work began with a Racial Equity and Diversity Inclusion Audit. We have been working through the results of the audit to inform changes we need to make in our community. Last year we created a community statement that names, celebrates, and affirms the variety of persons we encounter as well as challenges the seminary with specific goals to fulfill its commitment to grow and serve all persons equally and justly. We have secured a staff member to act as manager of Inclusion and Community Engagement, and we continue to offer training opportunities, lectures, and discussion opportunities on race, diversity, and inclusion.

Ensuring a Vibrant Future

Hope for Creation and Green Seminary Certification Program

Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary is committed to addressing the urgent environmental crises facing the world's peoples today and to promoting the just and wise care of God's creation for the flourishing of all. This commitment is rooted in an affirmation of God's love for the world, an embrace of our human vocation to be faithful stewards of the good earth, and an active hope in God's promise to establish justice and righteousness throughout the land.

We are in the midst of integrating sustainable practices and ecological awareness as a participant in the Green Seminary Initiative (GSI) for the Seminary Environmental Certification Program. A three-year program, this certification will assist Garrett-Evangelical as it integrates care for creation into areas of education and spiritual formation; liturgy, ritual, and worship; building and grounds management; community life; and public leadership. We initiated a thriving composting program, enacted a waste audit, and hosted an Interfaith Climate Action Summit in April to engage our local community around responses to climate change.

Thank you for your continued interest in our work. We are grateful to serve The United Methodist Church and the church at large. For more information about Garrett-Evangelical, I encourage you to visit our website, www.garrett.edu, or visit us on campus.

About Us

Garrett-Evangelical is the result of the interweaving of three institutions:

- Garrett Biblical Institute, the first Methodist seminary in the Midwest, was established in 1853 by some of the same church people who founded Northwestern University.
- Chicago Training School, established in 1885, was an important force for women in ministry and for developing service agencies throughout Chicago. Chicago Training School merged with Garrett Biblical Institute in 1934.
- Evangelical Theological Seminary, located in Naperville and founded as a seminary of the Evangelical Church (later the Evangelical United Brethren) in 1873, joined with Garrett Theological Seminary in 1974 to form Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary.

MARTIN METHODIST COLLEGE

Rev. Dr. Mark La Branche, President

Martin Methodist College approaches its 150th year of mission with tremendous gratitude to the Church that brought us to life and that has been a sustaining partner throughout our history. We are committed to John Wesley's vision of uniting mind and heart, and preparing lives of purpose for the transformation of the world. We exemplify the Church's extension of itself into the world, providing a great social witness in our education of a great diversity of people, particularly those who are lower on the socio-economic scale and the first in their families to attend college. We take great joy in preparing students from rural areas to return as professionals to those same areas. We offer a hospitable environment for spiritual growth that meets students where they are as we promote and present a Christ-centered culture on campus.

The 2018–19 conference year has been a year of tremendous progress at Martin Methodist College. Our fiscal year ending June 30, 2018, recorded the greatest year of giving in the history of the college with more than 4.65 million dollars donated for all purposes. After four years of enrollment decline, the college witnessed a reversal of this trend in spring semester 2019 on the strength of its efforts to increase student persistence and retention.

In July 2018 the Turner Center cast a broader mission of Cultivating Thriving Rural Communities and welcomed its new director, Allen Stanton. Stanton will be ordained an elder in the Western North Carolina Conference this year. He holds a BA in Political Science and Religion from Wake Forest University and an M.Div. from Duke University where he was a Rural Fellow. Stanton held an internship at the Institute for Emerging Issues at North Carolina State University and served as pastor of Merritt's Chapel United Methodist Church in Chapel Hill, North Carolina. Under Stanton's leadership, the Turner Center has focused new energy and vision on the nexus of church, college, and community, and ways we can develop thriving rural communities together.

In 2017, the Golden Cross Foundation provided a grant for the purchase of two nursing vans for use in Southern Middle Tennessee for health screening and wellness education. Between September 2018 and March 2019, the vans were used for screening events in seven communities; senior nursing students provided health screening to over 1,000 people.

Martin Methodist College completed the work for the 10-year reaffirmation of its accreditation. The college was found to be in compliance with every standard and requirement at the end of the onsite visit of the accreditation committee. This is a rare and extraordinary result. It is expected that the executive board of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges will affirm the onsite conclusion with a vote to renew the accreditation of Martin Methodist College for 10 years at its December 2019 meeting.

At the April 2019 board of trustee meeting, the college celebrated a historic commitment from the Jeanette M. Travis Foundation of 2 million dollars to enhance and expand its nursing program and for the renovation of four science laboratories. At the same meeting, the trustees voted unanimously to name the Martin Methodist College Nursing Program the Jeanette M. Travis School of Nursing. This gift will also benefit the people of Southern Middle Tennessee by growing the number of trained health care professionals in our region.

Thank you in advance for your support of a conference resolution commemorating 150 years. We are the Church together!

MEMPHIS THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Michael K. Turner, Director of Methodist House of Studies

For nearly four decades, Memphis Theological Seminary (MTS) has been a leading institution in the mid-south for producing graduates who are commissioned as elders or deacons in The United Methodist Church. MTS also has the largest Master of Arts in Youth Ministry program in the country. The majority of the students enrolled in that program are UMC. United Methodist students continue to be the largest denomination represented at our school and approximately 50 percent of our full-time faculty are from a Pan-Methodist tradition.

Important Happenings at the Seminary

It has been an eventful and exciting year at the seminary. In August 2018, Rev. Dr. Susan Parker became the interim president. Parker, who is ordained in the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, served in two elected offices for the state of Alabama, state auditor and public service commissioner. She also worked as the vice president for Advancement for Athens State University. Parker replaced Dr. Jay Earheart-Brown, who left the seminary in July to become the lead pastor at Faith Cumberland Presbyterian Church in Bartlett, Tennessee.

Thanks to a generous donation by Barbara Hamilton and her late husband, Dr. Ralph Hamilton, MTS is in the process of expanding and renovating the existing chapel. Her gift to the seminary is also helping endow the Methodist House of Studies chair. The seminary family is very grateful to the Hamiltons and all the other supporters who have made this possible.

With the help of a $1 million grant from the Lilly Endowment's Thriving in Ministry program, the Center for Faith and Imagination (CFI) at MTS was launched in August 2018 and will offer a variety of resources and opportunities to help faith leaders live and lead with vitality and imagination. Martha Lyle Ford and Billy Vaughan are co-directors of the center, with Martha Park serving as program coordinator. At the end of April, CFI will hold its first leader training for leaders of both formation for ministry groups within the seminary and faith formation groups outside the seminary. By the fall of 2019, CFI's first five faith formation groups will begin meeting across the mid-south.

Wesleyan Studies continues to be a strength of the seminary. Dr. Michael Turner, associate professor of the History of Christianity and Wesleyan Studies, teaches the required classes in UMC history, doctrine, and polity each academic year. Turner, along with his colleagues Dr. Lee Ramsey, Dr. Carmichael Crutchfield, and Rev. Billy Vaughan also offer a number of electives in the field of Wesleyan Studies. Students that take a minimum of five courses in Wesleyan studies electives have the opportunity to earn the Certificate in Wesleyan Studies.

One of the most dynamic programs at MTS is our Methodist House of Studies (MHOS). It serves as a community within a community for students from Methodist backgrounds. Recent student gatherings have focused on topics that include General Conference 2019, rural ministry, and hospital chaplaincy. We also co-sponsored a lecture from the well-known UMC Civil Rights leader, Rev. James Lawson.

The MHOS has also been active in providing continuing education events for clergy and lay people. Recently, we led a workshop for local pastors in the Metro District of the Memphis Annual Conference. Turner regularly leads workshops on Wesleyan theology and heritage at congregations in the greater Memphis area. In partnership with the Turner Center for Church Leadership and the Center for Faith and Imagination, the Methodist House of Studies recently hosted three retreats called At Table: United Methodists Seeking a Way Forward. The goal of these retreats was to prepare United Methodist pastors and lay people for difficult conversations around human sexuality and the work of the Commission on a Way Forward in anticipation of the 2019 General Conference. At these retreats, we provided models for conversations that engage in difference without resorting to argument. Participants practiced engaging in these conversation models with the guidance of trained facilitators. As part of the work of these retreats, Turner gave presentations on the various ways that our Wesleyan theological heritage can serve as a guide to these types of conversation.

Looking toward the next academic year, the MHOS plans to offer retreats focusing on creating a shared vision among young people for the future of Methodism in the mid-south, navigating conversations about divisive topics in church settings, and finding tools for spiritual and ecclesial renewal in our shared Wesleyan heritage

We are grateful for the support of the Tennessee Annual Conference and for the many fine students who have attended MTS from Tennessee over the years. We appreciate the confidence the conference places in MTS for preparation of United Methodist women and men for Christian ministry, and we welcome your ongoing involvement and prayers for the seminary. Ohio Northern and MTSO Announce 3+3 M.Div. Program

Ohio Northern University and MTSO have teamed up to offer incoming college students a unique 3+3 program leading to a Master of Divinity degree. The program is the only one of its kind in Ohio and one of only a few in the country. The typical path to an M.Div. requires seven years of undergrad and graduate study. Through the 3+3 program, students will save time and money by completing the degree in six years. Starting the program at ONU in Ada, they may choose one of three majors: religion, youth ministry, or religion and ecology. The next step is three years of study at MTSO. After their first year at MTSO, 3+3 students will complete a Bachelor of Arts degree from ONU. After completion of seminary coursework, they will earn an MTSO M.Div.

VANDERBILT DIVINITY SCHOOL

Emilie M. Townes, Dean and E. Rhodes and Leona B. Carpenter Professor of Womanist Ethics and Society

Founded under the auspices of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South as the Biblical Department of Vanderbilt University in 1875, the divinity school has been a part of Vanderbilt University since its inception. Since 1915, we have been one of the few university-based, interdenominational schools for the preparation of ministers and the oldest one in the South. Our founders adopted a commonplace label for theological institutions of their era, “school of the prophets,” as they sought to lift up the importance of education for clergy. Today, we accept this legacy as we live in a world of a large tent Christianity, religious pluralism, an ever-expanding understanding of the nature of the diversities in our midst, marvelous and challenging cultural differences and more.

The Cal Turner Chancellor’s Chair in Wesleyan Studies and Distinguished Professor of Theology, Joerg Rieger, has published two new books, No Religion but Social Religion: Liberating Wesleyan Theology (Nashville: Wesley’s Foundry Books, 2018), and Jesus vs. Caesar: For People Tired of Serving the Wrong God (Nashville: Abingdon Press, 2018). He gave 28 national and international presentations, including in Latin America, Asia, and Europe.

Since January 1, 2019, Rieger is also the director of the Wendland-Cook Program in Religion and Justice, established by a gift of $1.25M by Barbara Wendland, the director of the Joe and Louise Cook Foundation. This project provides good synergy with his work as the Cal Turner Chancellor’s Chair, linked to the Wesleyan legacy of engaged theology. Having spent most of his career at United Methodist-related institutions before coming to Vanderbilt, Rieger appreciates the opportunities of educating United Methodist students at a non-denominational and ecumenical school, where students are compelled to revisit their understanding of their own denominational traditions in a broader theological setting. In this climate, he finds, many United Methodist students at Vanderbilt Divinity School develop a deeper interest in Methodism.

The Methodist Student Association (MSA) has continued to gather monthly, inviting United Methodist-affiliated faculty and staff, and the broader Vanderbilt divinity community to join the conversations. Guest speakers have included Bishop Bill McAlilly, district superintendents, as well as those who have led conversations about current issues impacting The United Methodist Church, including the Commission on a Way Forward and United Methodist Women. Bishop Joe Pennel serves as the faculty liaison to the MSA. Students continue to express a desire to learn more about and connect with our denominational agencies, global Methodism, and explore diverse expressions of calls to ministry for those seeking ordination as well as lay ministry.

In addition to degree-seeking options through our Master of Divinity (M.Div.), Master of Theological Studies (M.T.S.), and Master of Theology (Th.M.) program, there are numerous ways for members of the annual conferences to study and deepen their ministerial practice in relationship to the school:

- Taking courses as a non-degree student: Vanderbilt Divinity School is pleased to provide 50 percent scholarship support to members of the Tennessee Annual Conference who seek to take courses leading to ordination.
- Auditing a course: Members of the Middle Tennessee community may audit classes at the divinity school for $300 per course.
- Attend some of the hundreds of public lectures, symposia, and events held each year at VDS.

Vanderbilt Divinity School is proud to offer more than $3.5 million annually in tuition scholarship support, providing significant funding for almost 100 percent of our student body. Several scholarships, including the West End UMC Scholarship, cover full tuition for United Methodist students. To learn more about scholarships, visit <https://divinity.vanderbilt.edu/admissions/>.

To learn more about any of these options, email divinity-admissions@vanderbilt.edu or call (615)343-3963.

B. RESOLUTIONS

RESOLUTION APPROVING FORMATION OF A NEW CONFERENCE

Whereas: The Nashville Episcopal Area is comprised of the Memphis and Tennessee Conferences, and

Whereas: In 2014, the Memphis and Tennessee Annual Conference delegates adopted the same mission statement:
The mission of the Memphis and Tennessee Conference is to discover, equip, connect and send lay and clergy leaders who shape congregations that offer Jesus Christ to a hurting world one neighborhood at a time, and

Whereas: We are committed to our mission more than to our geographic boundaries, and

Whereas: Over the past five years, the following areas of ministry have been aligned between the two conferences:

- Appointive Cabinets meeting/working together as one
- Office of Leadership Formation and Development (formerly Office of Ministerial Concerns) provides shared services for both conference (ex: administration, licensing school, Orientation to Ministry, Healthy Boundaries training)
- Clergy Spiritual Life Retreat combined to serve both conferences
- Area wide Hispanic Ministries team
- Area wide New Church Development team
- Annual Conference Sessions have worshiped and learned around the same themes and speakers, and

Whereas: After successful alignment efforts demonstrated increased focus, efficiency and fruitfulness, an advisory team was identified to further pursue what benefits and challenges would be presented by formation of a new conference to include all geographic areas of the current Memphis and Tennessee Conferences, and

Whereas: In 2018, the Tennessee Annual Conference and Memphis Annual Conference sessions voted to endorse the intent to move forward with a plan to form a new conference, with the expectation that each Conference will vote to approve a plan for a new conference in 2019, send a motion to the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference in 2020, and to meet as a fully unified Annual Conference in 2021, and

Whereas: Both Conferences directed the advisory team to continue development of a plan to form a new Conference, with particular attention to challenges related to a unified method of funding the budget and a single health benefits plan, and

Whereas: The advisory team, as directed by both Conferences, has continued its work on two identified items, those being the methodology used to pay for the Conference budget, including health and pension costs, and the utilization of one employee health benefit plan for both Conferences, and has presented a recommendation related to those matters, appended to this resolution as Exhibit A, (funding plan) and Exhibit B (guiding principle plan for benefits), and

Whereas: The advisory team has developed strategic goals and initiatives for the new Conference that are outlined in Exhibit C.

Now, therefore, be it resolved, that the Tennessee Annual Conference affirms sending a motion to the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference, for action at its 2020 session, requesting that the Tennessee and Memphis Conferences be joined to form a new Conference, and to meet as a fully unified Annual Conference in 2021;

Be it further resolved, that the Tennessee Annual Conference endorses the funding plan outlined in Exhibit A, subject to approval by the newly formed Conference as a unified body at its 2021 Annual Conference session;

Be it further resolved, that the Tennessee Annual Conference endorses the guiding principle plan for benefits outlined in Exhibit B, subject to approval by the newly formed Conference as a unified body at its 2021 Annual Conference session;

Be it further resolved, that the Tennessee Annual Conference endorses the goals and objectives outlined in Exhibit C, subject to approval by the newly formed Conference as a unified body at its 2021 Annual Conference session.

Be it further resolved, that those appointments to Conference agencies, committees and other bodies that would ordinarily expire at 2020 Annual Conference shall continue through the end of calendar year 2020, so that their expiration will coincide with the effective date of creation of the new Conference.

Submitted by: The Tennessee Conference Appointive Cabinet

Adopted June 13, 2019

EXHIBIT A – RESOLUTION APPROVING FORMATION OF NEW CONFERENCE CONNECTIONAL COMMITMENT

Proposed Funding Plan for New Conference

1. We will ask each local church to remit to the New Conference 10% of their income as reported on line 62 (that line is now 52t) on their annual statistical report to the conference.
2. We will not ask local churches to self-determine their share to remit, rather we will calculate the amount for each church and inform them of their “fair share” six (or so) months ahead of the calendar year.
3. The amount will be calculated on a two year “lagging” method. I.E. the 2021 amount will be based on the 2019 conference statistical reports.
4. This method assumes that Clergy Health and Pension Costs will be direct billed to the local churches and participants, as appropriate, and the only portion of those benefit costs that ends up being included in this funding methodology, is for plan participants that are not appointed to a local church. I.E. District Superintendents, Conference staff, etc.
5. We will no longer use the terms “apportionments” or “tithe” and are suggesting the use of the term “connectional commitment”. We believe that term is more representative of what this is.
6. In addition, there will be a “transition adjustment” beginning at 1% for the first year and declining by ¼ % each year. (See page 2) The purpose of this transition adjustment, is to cover the cost of churches that are unable to contribute their full 10% Connectional Commitment and allow the new conference to work with them to achieve their full Connectional Commitment and or to further reduce conference costs.
7. Our commitment is to reduce this “transitional adjustment” to 0% by the fifth year after the formation of the New Conference and ask for no more than 10% of revenue at that point. (See page 2)
8. We will work with our District Superintendents, Bishop and others to understand the financial costs to the conference for a local church and appointed clergy. While recognizing the importance of our financial support for missional faith communities, we will work with local churches to complete the full payment of their 10% Connectional Commitment and 100% of the cost of Health and Pension benefits for their appointed clergy.
9. We will remain committed to challenging the ways that the conferences fund ministry, holding groups that request budgets accountable to the conference missional objectives and practices of good stewardship.
10. We propose that the New Conference will have one comprehensive budget that is developed with input from appropriate ministry teams and groups, vetted by CFA, and approved by the annual conference. So, there would be no additional budgets for districts and other groups.
11. We propose that local churches would pay their 10% share with no need to designate to any specific portion of the conference approved budget.
12. We believe that this will leave more dollars “in the hands” of local congregations, for them to decide how to spend those dollars most effectively for ministry, while at the same time honoring the stated mission of the Annual Conference and recognizing the power of our connectional system.

EXHIBIT B – RESOLUTION APPROVING FORMATION OF NEW CONFERENCE

New Conference Medical Benefit Plan Design Guiding Principles

1. The new Conference will provide medical benefits for our full-time appointed clergy and lay employees of the conference, district, and area.
2. The new Conference will not provide medical benefits for less than full time clergy. However, any participant who meets the definition of “full time” for purposes of the Affordable Care Act rules, will be offered the opportunity to participate in the new Conference’s health plan.
3. The new Conference will provide Affordable Health Benefits to eligible participants, including clergy under appointment to local churches and conference staff (lay and clergy). Any local church that meets the 50 FTE threshold is an “Applicable Large Employer” and will be responsible for providing health benefits to their staff as required by the ACA, except for their appointed clergy who may be participants in the new Conference’s plan.
4. The new Conference will cost share family coverage.
5. The cost of medical benefits will not be an issue in the appointment process because of the use of a blended rate plan.
6. Participation in the plan is mandatory for eligible lay and clergy.
7. The new Conference will provide an Employee Assistance Plan that includes counseling and mental health support.
8. The new Conference will have a wellness program to encourage healthy living.
9. The new Conference will offer tax advantaged medical reimbursement accounts.
10. Our clergy will participate in the cost of their benefit package.
11. The new Conference will provide access to a plan for Dental and Vision coverage.
12. The new Conference will offer a competitive and comprehensive benefit plan.
13. The new Conference benefit package will include a prescription drug plan.
14. The new Conference needs to continue to find ways to reduce the cost of our participant pool.
15. The new Conference benefit package must be affordable for the new Conference and participants.
16. The new Conference will direct bill the cost of the benefit package for each participant. For local church-based participants, the bill will be sent to and paid by the local church, with a TBD cost share split between the church and clergy.
17. The new Conference plan must consider Methodist Health Systems (Memphis) to be “In Network”.

TENNESSEE CONFERENCE SUICIDE PREVENTION RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, suicide is one of the most disruptive and tragic events a family and a community can experience; and

1. research reveals that the suicide rate in the United States is the highest since the Great Depression; and, in the US, one million people attempt suicide each year; and
2. for every 1 documented death by suicide, there are 25 attempts; and
3. 3,338 Tennesseans have died by suicide over the last three years. One person aged 45-54 every two days, one person over the age of 65 every 3 days, and one person between the ages 10-24 every 4 days; and
4. as a result, suicide is the 9th-leading cause of all deaths in Tennessee with more than 1000 lives lost in Tennessee each year; and
5. this equates to approximately three lives a day lost to suicide in Tennessee, which equates to 22 Tennesseans each week and 97 people per month; and
6. Tennessee veterans, active-duty military, and National Guardsmen face a disproportionate risk as compared to the general population, with more dying from suicide than combat; and
7. data reveals that other high-risk groups include survivors of suicide loss, survivors of suicide attempt, and those who suffer mental illness; and
8. suicide is the leading cause of death for children ages 10-17, and the second-leading cause of death among youth ages of 10 to 24; and
9. public awareness of this tragic problem is the key to preventing further suffering and loss of life; and the risk for human self-destruction can be reduced through awareness, education and treatment as the highest risk for suicide is among the survivors of those who died by suicide or those who have attempted suicide; and
10. suicide is not only a mental health issue, but it is also a public health issue; now, therefore,
11. every member of our community should understand that throughout life's struggles we all need occasional reminder that we are all silently fighting our own battles; and
12. all residents are encouraged to take time to inquire as to the wellbeing of their family, friends, and neighbors and to genuinely convey their appreciation for their existence by any gesture they deem appropriate. A simple phone call, message, handshake, or hug can go a long way towards helping someone realize that suicide is not the answer; and
13. talking and educating others about suicide will not give someone the idea of suicide;

Now, therefore be it resolved, by the 2019 Tennessee Annual Conference that:

1. the Safe Spaces Ministry of the Tennessee Conference of the United Methodist Church will partner with the Tennessee Suicide Prevention Network in which TSPN will provide materials, resources, and assist with Trainings; and
2. the Safe Spaces Ministry of the Tennessee Conference of the United Methodist Church will work towards developing best practices that will be available as resources online for churches to utilize when working with a person in danger of suicide.
3. the Safe Spaces Ministry of the Tennessee Conference of the United Methodist Church will work towards offering annual suicide prevention trainings in each district and local churches as requested; and
4. the Safe Spaces Ministry of the Tennessee Conference of the United Methodist Church will develop a suicide prevention training session to be added to the curriculum for both the Safe Spaces online and in-person trainings required each quadrennium for all appointed persons.

TENNESSEE ANNUAL CONFERENCE 2019 RESOLUTION DATE: MAY 10, 2019 TITLE: OBJECTIONS TO THE TRADITIONAL PLAN

Whereas, the United Methodist Church has a tradition of great nuance in the matter of biblical interpretation (such as displayed in its treatment of slavery, divorce, and the ordination of women) but reverts to simplistic literalism when addressing full inclusion of to LGBTQIA+ persons in its life and ministry;

(2) And whereas, the United Methodist Church has singled out LGBTQIA+ persons and those who support full inclusion for special punitive actions;

(3) And whereas, even though seven petitions within the Traditional Plan were ruled unconstitutional before it was presented for a vote at the 2019 General Conference, and that lack of constitutionality was upheld by the Judicial Council in April of 2019;

(4) And whereas, the first general rule John Wesley gave the people called Methodists was, “Do no harm;”

(5) And whereas, United Methodists promise in their baptisms “to resist evil, injustice and oppression in whatever forms they present themselves;”

(6) And whereas, by passing the Traditional Plan, the denomination has done great harm, and perhaps irreparable harm, to our LGBTQIA+ brothers and sisters;

(7) And whereas, by passing the Traditional Plan, the denomination has done great harm to our witness to the world as to the unconditional and inclusive love of Christ;

(8) And whereas, the use of District and Conference funds for complaints, just resolutions, and church trials for issues related to LGBTQIA+ ordinations and marriages will divert funds needed to do the vital work of the mission and ministry of the church;

Therefore, be it resolved by the 2019 Tennessee Annual Conference that: the Tennessee Conference finds unacceptable the decision of the 2019 Special Session of the General Conference to pass the Traditional Plan and apologizes for the harm it has caused LGBTQIA+ persons, their families, their friends, and the body of Christ. “We that affirm that all persons are individuals of sacred worth, created in the image of God,” and affirm that no human being is incompatible with Christian teaching.

(2) And be it further resolved, that we do not support the use of District or Conference funds for the purpose of complaints, just resolutions, or clergy trials pertaining to LGBTQIA+ ordination and marriage.

Inclusion Resolution Revision Explanation: The Resolution Committee reviewed this resolution, and after consultation with our Conference Chancellor, identified concerns regarding its constitutionality and concurrence in its original form. According to our defined role under the Standing Rules, we do not offer input on the substance or content of resolutions but may offer input as to whether they meet the tests of concurrence and constitutionality. Therefore, we explained to representatives of the makers of the resolution the Committee's concerns regarding constitutionality and concurrence of certain language in the resolution. A revised resolution was submitted to address these concerns, and representatives of those who submitted the original resolution indicated that the revised language was consistent with their intent while addressing the constitutionality and concurrence issues. The Standing Rules provide that the Resolutions Committee may offer a revised version of the original resolution, along with the original resolution, at Annual Conference. Therefore, both the original resolution and the revised resolution that addresses the concerns of our Committee are posted.

Whereas, the United Methodist Church has a tradition of great nuance in the matter of biblical interpretation (such as displayed in its treatment of slavery, divorce, and the ordination of women) but reverts to simplistic literalism when address full inclusion of LGBTQIA+ in its life and ministry;

(2) And whereas, the United Methodist Church has singled out LGBTQIA+ persons and those who support full inclusion for special punitive actions;

(3) And whereas, even though seven petitions within the Traditional Plan were ruled unconstitutional before it was presented for a vote at the 2019 General Conference, and that lack of constitutionality was upheld by the Judicial Council in April of 2019;

(4) And whereas, the first general rule John Wesley gave the people called Methodists was, "Do no harm;"

(5) And whereas, United Methodists promise in their baptisms "to resist evil, injustice and oppression in whatever forms they present themselves;"

(6) And whereas, by passing the Traditional Plan, the denomination has done great harm, and perhaps irreparable harm, to our LGBTQIA+ brothers and sisters;

(7) And whereas, by passing the Traditional Plan, the denomination has done great harm to our witness to the world as to the unconditional and inclusive love of Christ;

(8) And whereas, the use of District and Conference funds for complaints and church trials related to LGBTQIA+ ordinations and marriages will divert funds needed to do the vital work of the mission and ministry of the church;

Therefore, be it resolved by the 2019 Tennessee Annual Conference that: the Tennessee Conference apologizes for the harm that actions at the 2019 Special Session of the General Conference have caused LGBTQIA+ persons, their families, their friends, and the body of Christ. We affirm that "all persons are individuals of sacred worth, created in the image of God," and urge all in ministry, whether lay or clergy, to affirm that no human being is incompatible with Christian teaching.

(2) And be it further resolved, that we urge all lay and clergy in the Tennessee Conference to make all reasonable efforts to address issues related to LGBTQIA+ ordination and marriage in a manner so as to treat church trials and judicial processes as a last resort.

RENTAL/HOUSING ALLOWANCES FOR RETIRED, DISABLED, OR FORMER CLERGYPERSONS OF THE TENNESSEE CONFERENCE

- Whereas, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church (the “Church”), of which the Tennessee Conference (the “Conference”) is a part, has in the past functioned and continues to function through ministers of the gospel (within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 107) who were or are duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed ministers of the Church (“Clergypersons”);
- Whereas, the practice of the Church and of this Conference was and is to provide active Clergypersons with a parsonage or a rental/housing allowance as part of their gross compensation;
- Whereas, pensions or other amounts paid to active, retired, terminated, and disabled Clergypersons are considered to be deferred compensation and are paid to active, retired, terminated, and disabled Clergypersons in consideration of previous active service; and
- Whereas, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized the Conference (or its predecessors) as an appropriate organization to designate a rental/housing allowance for Clergypersons who are or were members of this Conference and are eligible to receive such deferred compensation;

Now, therefore, be it resolved:

THAT an amount equal to 100% of the pension, severance, or disability payments received from plans authorized under The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (the “Discipline”), which includes all such payments from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits (now also known as “Wespath Benefits and Investments”, or “Wespath”), to each active, retired, terminated, or disabled Clergyperson who is or was a member of the Conference, or its predecessors, be and hereby is designated as a rental/housing allowance for each such Clergyperson; and

THAT the pension, severance, or disability payments to which this rental/housing allowance designation applies will be any pension, severance, or disability payments from plans, annuities, or funds authorized under the Discipline, including such payments from Wespath and from a commercial annuity company that provides an annuity arising from benefits accrued under a Wespath plan, annuity, or fund authorized under the Discipline, that result from any service a Clergyperson rendered to this Conference or that an active, a retired, a terminated, or a disabled Clergyperson of this Conference rendered to any local church, annual conference of the Church, general agency of the Church, other institution of the Church, former denomination that is now a part of the Church, or any other employer that employed the Clergyperson to perform services related to the ministry of the Church, or its predecessors, and that elected to make contributions to, or accrue a benefit under, such a plan, annuity, or fund for such an active, a retired, a terminated, or a disabled Clergyperson’s pension, severance, or disability plan benefit as part of his or her gross compensation.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance that may be excluded from a Clergyperson’s gross income in any year for federal (and, in most cases, state) income tax purposes is limited under Internal Revenue Code section 107(2), and regulations thereunder, to the least of: (a) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the Clergyperson’s employer or other appropriate body of the Church (such as this Conference in the foregoing resolutions) for such year; (b) the amount actually expended by the Clergyperson to rent or provide a home in such year; or (c) the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances (such as a garage), plus the cost of utilities in such year. Each clergyperson or former clergyperson is urged to consult with his or her own tax advisor to determine what deferred compensation is eligible to be claimed as a housing allowance exclusion.

MEMOIRS

We celebrate the lives of individuals who are saints!

Some of them, with us, are a part of the whole body of living Christian believers, and others who have finished their lives here on earth are a part of the church triumphant! Some have touched us compassionately so we could experience the love of the Lord while others have reminded us to be faithful and avoid drifting into life away from God.

They have all shaken our being—all have been faithful examples of lives of wholeness, working for justice.

O God of both the living and the dead...

... who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Lord, you have examined me.
You know me.
You know when I sit down and when I stand up.
Even from far away, you comprehend my plans.
You study my traveling and resting.
You are thoroughly familiar with all my ways.
There isn't a word on my tongue, Lord,
that you don't already know completely.
You surround me—front and back.
You put your hand on me.
That kind of knowledge is too much for me;
it's so high above me that I can't fathom it.

Where could I go to get away from your spirit?
Where could I go to escape your presence?
If I went up to heaven, you would be there.
If I went down to the grave, you would be there too!
If I could fly on the wings of dawn, stopping to rest only on the far side of the ocean—
even there your hand would guide me;
even there your strong hand would hold me tight!

If I said, "The darkness will definitely hide me;
the light will become night around me," even then the darkness isn't too dark for you!
Nighttime would shine bright as day, because darkness is the same as light to you!

Horace Clement Bass

December 10, 1929 – August 7, 2018

Rev. Horace C. Bass was born on December 10, 1929, to Rev. W. A. Bass, Sr., and Ethel Mae Shook, in Big Rock, Tennessee. He was the youngest (that survived past childhood) of 10 children in his family. His father was a circuit riding Methodist minister until his early death in 1942. It was then, at the age of 12, that his mother moved the family to Pulaski, Tennessee, where they attended Pulaski First Methodist Church and he was a student at Giles County High School, where he was president of his senior class.

After graduation, he joined the Navy and married his high school sweetheart, Margaret Long, and she joined him in Norfolk, Virginia. After a short stint in the Navy, he received an honorable discharge as a radio electronics technician. They moved back to Pulaski and he was employed by the Southern Bell Telephone Company, where he worked in various positions. He and Margaret, along with their first three children, were active members at First Methodist Church in Pulaski, where they served as youth ministers. It was in July, 1960, while attending a tent revival, that at the age of 30, he and Margaret answered the call from God to the Methodist ministry.

The first church he served was Ardmore Methodist, where he also commuted to Martin College and Athens College to pursue his college undergraduate degree. In 1965, he moved his family to Nashville, serving Antioch UMC, while obtaining his Masters of Divinity from Vanderbilt University in 1969. In 1970, at he was ordained an elder in the church by Bishop Ellis Finger at Tulip Street UMC. In this church, he had a ministry of healing the homeless and other poverty problems and was part of organizing the East Nashville Co-operative Ministry with nine other United Methodist churches.

In 1975, he took a leave of absence from the ministry and was appointed by the governor of Tennessee to serve in his cabinet as commissioner of Welfare for the State of Tennessee. His first act was to change the name to the more appropriate Department of Human Services. During this time, he no longer held a full-time position as a minister, but served as the minister to small churches in the Nashville area as well as guest minister to churches across the state. He continued this part-time role, serving several churches, until his retirement from the ministry and even after.

In 1979, following his service as commissioner, he was appointed head of the Department of Economic Development for Metro Nashville government by Mayor Richard Fulton. In 1985, Horace and Margaret purchased Capitol City Mattress and developed a mattress line called Fluffo. He had great success with the company and enjoyed advertising his live commercials on local TV and radio stations, where he became known as Mr. Fluffo.

As another part of his continuing ministry, he was instrumental in starting an adoption agency for the Tennessee Conference of The United Methodist Church, which is now known as Miriam's Promise. It was one of his proudest accomplishments and he loved each child as they were placed in the arms of their parents.

Horace was always active in his communities and many civic organizations, having served as presidents of the Jaycees and the Lions Club. As a life-long Democrat, beginning with his brother's first run for congress (Senator Ross Bass), Horace remained an active participant in politics. He was an avid golfer and well known for his long ball. He played in many tournaments and at his clubs, Hillcrest in Pulaski, and Old Hickory and Hillwood country clubs in Nashville.

In his retirement years, he and Margaret were active members of Belle Meade United Methodist Church for over 20 years, where he frequently taught the Oxford Sunday school class. During this time, he also served as a trustee on the Board of Trustees at Martin Methodist College. Of all the roles he filled in his rich and varied life, he was most proud of his role as a United Methodist minister, serving our Lord.

He passed this earthly life to join his heavenly Father on August 7, 2018, after a long battle with Alzheimer's. After 69 years of marriage, he is survived by his loving wife, Margaret, their children, Eddie (Joan), Betsy Miller (Bob), Linda Wolf (Ron), and Mary Harper (Matt), and seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Peggy Cohea Bloodworth

September 26, 1932 – September 6, 2018

Peggy Jean Cohea Bloodworth, age 85, passed away peacefully at her home on September 6, 2018. She was born on September 26, 1932.

Peggy was the devoted wife of Rev. John M. Bloodworth. To this union were born six children: Donna Faye Wells, Sheila Jo Sands, John M., Jr., Pamela Sue Batey, Melissa Jean Darrow, and Timothy Scott.

After Brother John was admitted in full connection into the Tennessee Conference in 1964, Peggy worked and supported her husband while he served 15 churches across the years. As Sarah, the wife of Abraham did, when God called John, Peggy, and family to move to serve different churches, she was always ready and left each parsonage clean and spotless—always cleaner than the ones they were moving into.

Peggy was widowed at the age of 44 when the Lord called John home at the age of 48. Faith in life, as well as in her husband's death, she raised the three children still at home at the time of their daddy's death. She never remarried.

She continued to work in the Methodist Church, until her health began to fail. She was a deeply dedicated, loving wife, mother, and servant of God. She had a great faith and trust in her Lord that someday she again would joyfully see and walk hand in hand with her beloved husband and my daddy.

I was blessed to be at my mother's bedside in her last hours. I tearfully asked her when she got to heaven to give daddy a kiss for me, and she replied, "I sure will!" I know she did!

My brothers and sisters and I have been blessed to have Christian parents, a home where such great love abided. They taught us to love God and always keep Him the center of our lives. To work in the church would not be in vain.

How great the blessing to have known and loved John and Peggy!

Donald Ray Choate

August 15, 1940 – July 2, 2018

Donald Ray Choate was born August 15, 1940, in Greenbrier, Tennessee, to Ben P. and Vetrice L. (Fryer) Choate. He was the second of three children.

Don loved reading, math, and history when he was very young. When he started school, he was told he could make the first and second grades in one year, if he so desired, but his parents preferred he stay with his age group and would not allow him to do it.

Don's family moved to Aiken, South Carolina, when he was 11 years old and in the sixth grade, where he continued doing well in school. While in Aiken, he made the National Honor Society. In the middle of his senior year, the family moved back to Greenbrier where Don graduated from Greenbrier High School in 1958.

Don's dream was to become a history teacher, so he enrolled in Belmont in the fall of 1958 where he majored in history. Don was Mr. Belmont his senior year. He graduated in 1962 with a degree in history. He then earned his Master's Degree in history from Peabody College.

Don started his teaching career at Central High School in Nashville. After one year of teaching history at Central, he moved to Dupont Junior High where he taught history and math for several years.

While teaching, Don felt the call to become a United Methodist minister. His father was a Southern Baptist, but his mother's family members were all United Methodists, including two double first cousins who were Methodist ministers.

Don enrolled in Vanderbilt University where he earned a Master of Divinity degree. He served as minister over the next 30+ years at several United Methodist churches in the Nashville/Davidson County area. He retired from active ministry at Woodbine United Methodist Church in 2005. Afterwards he filled in at a couple of other churches in the Nashville area. Even after his retirement, he still felt a great need to visit people in hospitals and in their homes.

Don was a people person. He never met a stranger. He loved to tell corny little jokes and he also performed one-man comedy skits while in high school. He loved people, and he loved his family.

Although he never married, he loved his nieces and nephews as if they were his own children. He always had Thanksgiving dinner in his home for all the family. He loved cooking for the family and Christmas was always a very special time for him.

Most of all he loved his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. He was saved at Marion Street Baptist Church in Aiken, South Carolina, when he was 12 years old. His love for God and his love for people were the largest part of his character.

He was good friends with Henry and Sarah (Minnie Pearl) Cannon. He was very pleased that he was asked to participate in Mrs. Cannon's funeral.

Don will be sorely missed, not only by his family, but by all the students, parishioners, and friends whose lives were affected by this kind, gentle man.

John G. Corry

February 17, 1930 – April 6, 2019

May the Works I've Done Speak for Me

John G. Corry, son of the late Rev. Clarence C. and Leila Borders Corry, was born in Cleveland County (Shelby), North Carolina, and reared on his father's farm.

He attended high school in Cleveland County, graduating in three years. He received the Bachelors of Arts degree, with honors, from Johnson C. Smith University, Charlotte, North Carolina, where he was inducted into Alpha Kappa Mu National Honor Society and Phi Kappa Alpha Humanities Honor Society. He was initiated into Omega Psi Phi Fraternity at Rho Chapter (Johnson C. Smith University) on December 12, 1949.

He received the Master of Divinity degree from Gammon Theological Seminary, Atlanta, Georgia, where he maintained a straight A average for the entire three years of matriculation for that degree—the first student to do that. He received the Doctor of Ministry degree from Vanderbilt University Divinity School, and the Doctor of Jurisprudence degree from the Nashville School of Law. He was licensed to practice law in Tennessee.

Upon graduation from Gammon, he was appointed to a two-point circuit in Eden, North Carolina. Three years later he became the youngest pastor appointed to St. Matthews Methodist Church, Greensboro, North Carolina, the leading church in the North Carolina Conference (Central Jurisdiction)—largest membership, highest salary. After five years at St. Matthews he was transferred to the Tennessee Conference (Central Jurisdiction) to pastor Clark Memorial Church in Nashville.

When the Tennessee Conference Central Jurisdiction merged with the Tennessee Conference Southeastern Jurisdiction, he became the first African American appointed as district superintendent in the merged conference. After six years on the district he was appointed the first African American Council on Ministries director in the Tennessee Conference and Southeastern Jurisdiction.

After two years as council director, he was recruited by the late Dr. Lloyd C. Elam, president of Meharry Medical College, to come to Meharry to establish a chaplaincy service. He was employed by Meharry for 35 years where he served at various times as director, Pastoral Services; director, College Counseling Services; assistant general counsel and senior advisor to the president for United Methodist Church Affairs. He also taught Health Law and Ethics in the School of Graduate Studies and Research, and Dental Jurisprudence and Ethics in the School of Dentistry. Upon his retirement from Meharry in June 2011, he was named chaplain emeritus.

In the Tennessee Conference he served as conference statistician, conference secretary, conference parliamentarian and conference chancellor, the first African American to hold the last three of those offices. When he retired as conference chancellor in June 2012, he was named chancellor emeritus, the only former chancellor so named.

At the national church level, he served 16 years as a member of the Judicial Council—four years as vice president and four years as president—the first and only African American to have served as president of the council. He represented Black Methodists for Church Renewal, Inc. for eight years on the Connectional Table of The United Methodist Church.

In addition to serving as pastor of Clark Memorial, he served two different times as pastor of Braden Memorial, and two different times at Patterson Memorial United Methodist Church while serving at Meharry Medical College.

Patterson Memorial built, consecrated, and named their family life center, The Dr. John G. Corry Family Life Center in 2013.

The Tennessee Conference Black Methodists for Church Renewal established the John G. Corry Scholarship and Leadership Awards more than 25 years ago.

John devoted his life to advocacy and fairness within The United Methodist Church at many levels and spoke for many of you when you would not or could not speak. We give praise and thanksgiving for the gift of his life.

But those who wait upon the LORD will renew their strength; they will mount up with wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary; they will walk and not faint. Isaiah 40:31

Annella Creech

July 13, 1926 – February 21, 2019

Annella, born July 13, 1926, was the third child of four born to John and Mary Creech. Growing up on a farm on Old Lebanon Dirt Road in Mt. Juliet was an adventure for the Creech children. Days were spent doing chores, playing, and getting into mischief with her younger brother Leon.

Annella recognized the value of education and graduated valedictorian from Donelson High School. After graduation, she completed three years of pre-med studies at Ward-Belmont and Vanderbilt University. Her experience with organic chemistry at Vanderbilt helped her decide that medicine was not her calling. Her life took a new direction as she was recruited to fill in as church secretary at Hobson United Methodist Church. At that time her parents were living on Greenwood Avenue in East Nashville and she was within walking distance to the church. After her exposure to church work, she felt her vocation lay in service to the church.

Annella decided to go back to school. She received her B.A. in 1950 and her Master's degree in 1953 from Scarritt College. While Annella was attending Scarritt, she would ride the bus across town. She met her lifelong friend, Milbrey Dugger, during one of these commutes. Because it was a long commute from East Nashville, Milbrey offered to share her parent's home with Annella. Milbrey would take Annella to Scarritt en route to her job.

Annella held jobs as director of Christian education in four churches in Virginia and Tennessee before becoming director of Children's Ministries for the Tennessee Conference. When Annella moved back to Nashville after working in Memphis, Milbrey again offered her home until Annella could "find something of her own". When her position was no longer in the conference budget, Annella went to the Methodist Publishing House where she stayed for 23 years and became editor in the department of Children's Literature. She was on the first board of Diaconal Ministries for the conference.

Annella did extensive traveling in the U.S. and abroad. Birding was a passion. She and Milbrey had observed 700 species of birds on their life lists. They were active in the Tennessee Ornithological Society. In 1989 they retired to McKendree Village where they lived in a cottage. When travel became impossible, they continued to enjoy their backyard birds at McKendree Village with feeders and flowers to attract their feathered friends. Annella could describe the birds using their common name, scientific name, appearance, sound, and habitat.

While at McKendree, Annella became known as the Unofficial Mayor of McKendree Village. She served on the Cottage Residents' Council, was editor of The Villager, volunteered at the clothes closet, and was a board member of the McKendree Foundation. After living there for 29 years, there were few people who didn't know and love her. She often visited friends that she made over the years. When she visited with friends she was "present" in the conversation and always wanted to know what was happening in their life.

Annella's life was one of committed service to the Church and to Christ. Everyone who knew her loved her. She deeply cared about and loved her family and friends. She had a sign on her desk that stated "Live simply so that others may simply live." Her life exemplified that quote and upon her death many charities and foundations benefited from her simple life.

Edward Lee Crump, Jr.

July 13, 1928 – May 24, 2019

Born July 13, 1928, in Knoxville, Tennessee, to the late Rev. Edward Lee Crump, Sr., and Lucy Frances Caldwell Crump, Ed grew up in a Methodist pastor's home in southwestern Virginia and Tennessee. He accepted God's call to ministry at the age of 17 on the day World War II ended, while working with the Youth Caravan Program of The United Methodist Church in Santa Ana, California. That began a lifetime carrying out the Great Commission of Jesus Christ and spreading love and grace in His name in what would eventually be "unto the ends of the earth." Ed possessed a special God-given gift for relating the Gospel to all, but especially to youth and strengthening youth ministry in local churches.

During his nearly 70 years in ministry, Ed served for 43 years in active service under appointment in the Memphis and Tennessee annual conferences and an additional 26 years of ministry helping people see the Bible through new eyes leading pilgrimages to the Holy Land and around the world. Those in congregations which he served recognized him, in their words, as a "kind and gentle leader," "one who walks 'with' the flock exemplifying love, relating faith to the Gospel and to the lives of the people ... by example" and as one who knew how to help others "experience God's transforming love through Jesus Christ."

Ed graduated from Cohn High School in Nashville, Tennessee, in 1946; he then attended Martin Methodist College in Pulaski, Tennessee, before graduating from Memphis State University in 1950 with a Bachelor of Science degree. In 1952, he earned his Bachelor of Divinity degree from Candler School of Theology, Emory University, followed by graduate study at New College, University of Edinburgh, Scotland, during 1952-53. Ed was ordained deacon in The United Methodist Church in 1952, and ordained elder in 1955. He attained his Master of Divinity degree at Candler School of Theology, Emory University, and received his Doctor of Divinity degree from Lambuth College.

During his high school days, some of Ed's interests, in addition to his many friends, included serving as president of the school drama club and the National Forensic League. He was awarded the Citizenship Award in his graduating class. He loved debate and participating in school stage plays as an actor and stage manager. Another key interest was photography; Ed created his own studio and offered photo developing and finishing services to the public. At Cohn High School, Ed did all the annual pictures for the school for four years, in addition to taking photos for local newspapers and later for colleges he attended.

While attending Martin College, Ed met and married Georgia Lee Atkinson in 1947 with the ceremony performed by both of their fathers, who were both Methodist ministers. During these years, Ed and Georgia Lee lived in and raised their family of four children in western Tennessee and Kentucky while Ed began his ministry.

As part of the Memphis Conference, Ed served as pastor at Temple Methodist Church in Lucy, Tennessee, 1953-56; Northside Methodist Church in Paducah, Kentucky, 1956-60; Davant Avenue Methodist Church in Memphis, Tennessee, 1960-65; First Methodist Church in Martin, Tennessee, 1965-69; and Madison Heights United Methodist Church in Memphis, 1969-73; as an exchange pastorate at High Street Methodist Church in Bideford, Devon, England, during the summer of 1968; and as district superintendent of the Paris District of The United Methodist Church, 1973-78.

Upon transferring to the Tennessee Conference, he served as pastor at Belle Mead United Methodist Church in Nashville, 1978-82; as district superintendent of the Columbia District of The United Methodist Church, 1982-83, and of the Nashville District, 1983-88; and as pastor of First United Methodist Church in Franklin, Tennessee, 1988-1993; and as an exchange pastorate at Lorton Street Methodist Church, Cockermouth, England, 1997.

Over the years, Ed served as chairman of the School of Religion at the University of Tennessee at Martin (1968-69) and taught at the school for four years; vice-chairman of the Tennessee Conference Cabinet and Board of Ordained Ministry; secretary of the Memphis Conference Television, Radio and Film Commission; Council District Youth Director and Conference Youth Camp Director for many years; and trustee of Martin Methodist College.

He served as a delegate to the General Conference of The United Methodist Church (1976, 1984, 1988); the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference (1976, 1984, 1988); and the World Methodist Conference in Dublin, Ireland (1976), Honolulu, Hawaii (1981), and Nairobi, Kenya (1986).

In addition, he served on the Methodist Hospital Board of Trustees and vice president of the board; McKendree Village Board of Directors; and the Rotary Club.

Known to many as the "Traveling Pastor," Ed led more than 80 pilgrimages to the Holy Land and around the world, including 50+ Holy Land tours and 11 tours re-tracing the Journeys of the Disciple Paul. Since his first journey to the Holy Land in 1952, Ed developed a deep passion to introduce people to the Bible story through travel. He became a tour host with the Christian travel company, Educational Opportunities Tours in the early 1980s, serving as a director of Travel Ministries since 1995. He was an area director of the entire Southeastern region for many years. Those who have ever "sung their way through the Holy Land" with Ed know that his life was a light and witness to Jesus Christ that will always outshine words that try to describe it.

An important and favorite place in Ed's life was Lake Junaluska, North Carolina. He first visited there around 1935 at the age of seven and continued to visit regularly his entire life. In 1977, Ed and Georgia Lee purchased a vacation home there on Lundy Lane. Ed kept it for the rest of his life. Ed was an active board member of the Junaluska Associates for many years.

In 2009, Ed and Sara married at Inspiration Point above the cross at Lake Junaluska. Ed said many times that Sara was his "Wesleyan second blessing." Their love of God, love of each other, love of family and friends, their work with Educational Opportunities, love of travel, the arts, and the many people and cultures around the world filled their lives to overflowing.

Ed is preceded in death by his wife, Georgia Lee Atkinson Crump; father, Edward Lee Crump, Sr.; mother, Lucy Frances Caldwell Crump; and brother, John Robert Crump.

He is survived by his wife, Sara Pearson Crump; his four children, Stephen Patrick Crump and wife, Terry, of Antioch Harbor, Tennessee, Kathi Sue Martin and husband, Steve, of Havelock, North Carolina, Mimi Lee Brown and husband Eric, of Nashville, Tennessee, and Lorri Beth Givens and husband, Thomas, of Durham, North Carolina; nine grandchildren, Keven, Ryan, Robb, James, Ian, Rebekah, Matthew, Christopher, and Jacob; two great-grandchildren, Gracie and Abby; brother, William Henry Crump and wife, Carol, of Abingdon, Virginia; sister-in-law, Linda Crump of Memphis, Tennessee; Sara's three children, Sara Coleman Ghorayeb, and husband, Elias, of Washington, DC, Mary Elliott Coleman Farrell, and husband, Stuart, of Richmond, Virginia, and Lucy Jackson Coleman of Washington, DC; and her three grandchildren, Thomas, Sillers, and Elliott.

Thomas Vernon DeRamus

January 13, 1929 – July 14, 2018

Thomas Vernon DeRamus was a native of Giles County Tennessee and the son of a Methodist minister, Rev. William Vernon DeRamus. He was a graduate of Martin Methodist College in Pulaski and received his bachelor's degree and master's degree from Scarritt College. He attended Vanderbilt School of Religion. Thomas was ordained in The United Methodist Church in April 1948.

He was on the Board of Ordained Ministers for the Murfreesboro District. Several younger ministers who attended his funeral spoke of how much Thomas had helped them and encouraged them when they were starting in the ministry. He retired in 1991 but he continued to serve where needed, celebrating 50 years in the ministry of The United Methodist Church in 1998.

Thomas was a familiar face in the community, taking active roles in civic work. It was a reflection of his heart to serve his community. He held several offices in the Lions Club and was editor of their district newsletter. He served on the Board of Directors for the Franklin County Senior Citizens Center. He also served as the director of the Hunger Fund for the Murfreesboro District.

Those who knew him knew how he had a love for repairing TV's, cars, and even some plumbing. His work at Beersheba Springs was greatly appreciated. Any time there was a work day (and times in between when he created special work days of his own) he was there to help. He was also helpful in the research of the history of Beersheba Assembly. His remembrances go back to 1954 and stories of his father's experiences there from the beginning of the assembly in 1941.

Thomas enjoyed going to yard sales. He purchased items throughout the year to give away at his annual Bingo party. He and Lou hosted the retired Methodist ministers and their wives each year in November. He furnished the chicken tenders and barbeque for the meal. Afterward, the group played Bingo. Each winner was able to go to the room where the prizes were displayed and pick what they wanted to take home. Sometimes he wore his Pilgrim outfit for the occasion.

He was born with a heart to serve, and he fulfilled that calling with honors. After many years in the ministry, he retired in the community of Estill Springs, Tennessee. Thomas passed from this life, peacefully, in the early morning hours on July 14, 2018. He was preceded in death by his wife of 67 years, Lou Agnes Wright DeRamus and parents Rev. William and Elsie DeRamus.

Lois Alyene Capps Fowler

February 18, 1918 – July 14, 2018

Lois Alyene Capps Fowler celebrated her 100th birthday on February 18, 2018, surrounded by her five nephews, one niece, a great-niece and a great-great niece and great-great nephew. The fact that all of them traveled to Fort Scott, Kansas, to be with her on that special day gives you a glimpse of what she was like throughout her life.

She was born in Gurdon, Arkansas, the daughter of James Roy and Della Mae Wingfield Capps. Growing up, Alyene attended school in Gurdon as well as the First Presbyterian Church. She graduated from Ouachita Baptist College in Arkadelphia, Arkansas, where she majored in home economics and was crowned homecoming queen in 1938 and senior class vice-president.

At a summer church camp meeting, she met her future husband, Dr. Henry Thornton Fowler, a Methodist minister, and they married on December 30, 1940. Having lived all of her life in a small town in Arkansas, it must have been a real challenge to move to Tennessee with her new husband.

In those early years, they moved frequently and she set up a new home in each community and became involved in each church that Thornton served. He was the pastor in Smithville, Savannah, Cookeville, and Nashville, Tennessee. While in Cookeville, they were instrumental in building a new church building.

They had twin boys who died at birth and were never able to have other children. She always loved children and was a very special aunt to her nieces and nephews. They loved to visit Alyene and Thornton in Nashville where she made them feel very special. Many years later, two great-nieces visited her and she took them to Opryland and rode the rollercoaster with them when their mother declined—becoming the “cool” aunt in their eyes! She was also very interested in the youth of each church and taught Sunday school (9th, 10th and 11th grades) for many years.

Dr. Fowler served as the senior pastor at McKendree United Methodist Church in Nashville, Tennessee, from 1952 until 1962. They remained in Nashville while he served as district superintendent (1963-1970) and then as associate publisher of The United Methodist Publishing House until his death in 1978.

Alyene was a wonderful homemaker and minister’s wife who was always a cheerful, caring person. She moved to Presbyterian Village in Fort Scott, Kansas, in 2003 and she maintained her sense of humor and her infectious laugh throughout her life.

Alyene is survived by her nephews, Dean (Becky) Mann, Georgetown, South Carolina (formerly of Fort Scott, Kansas), Dr. Michael (Carolyn) Mann, Houston, Texas, Robert Mann, Pearland, Texas, Dr. James Austin (Judy)

Capps, Jr., Conway, Arkansas, Dr. Billy Roy (Betty) Capps, Hot Springs, Arkansas, and niece, Nancy Mann (Jim) Adkins, Houston, Texas, and many great-nieces and great-nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents, an infant brother, her husband, twin sons—Joseph Roy Fowler and Henry Thornton Fowler, Jr.—a brother, James Austin Capps, and a sister, Mary Louise Capps Mann.

A memorial service for Alyene was held September 13, 2018, with burial in the Woodlawn Cemetery in Nashville, Tennessee.

Lovingly submitted by her nephew, H. D. Mann and his wife, Becky Mann

Throughout his life Jay was active in church as a self-taught pianist and choir director. He played piano for his family's quartet known first as the Spiritualaires and later as the Singing Victors. He also played for the Cumberland Boys Quartet. He attended Motlow Community College and Athens State College in his mid-forties, receiving a Bachelor of Arts degree with a major in religion. After completing divinity course work at Emory University and Vanderbilt University, he was ordained as a Methodist minister in 1985. Nancy Dickens Van Atta Harrub

January 18, 1932 – April 22, 2019

Nancy brought love, joy, and hope to her world. She was the daughter of Catherine and Raymond Dickens who predeceased her. A Nashville native, she grew up in the Pennington Bend area and graduated from Donelson High School. While in high school she was FFA queen and captain of the cheerleaders. While in Donelson High, she fell in love with the captain of the football team, Robert L. (Bob) Van Atta.

Nancy and Bob were married for 35 years and had five children: Tony (Sandra), Becky (Larry), Gary (Courtney), Cathy (Gregg), and Robin (Donny). At her death, she had 15 grandchildren and about that many spouses. These had seven great-grandchildren and three great-greats. Family gatherings were somewhere between chaos and riots. A good evening brought neither sirens nor bloodshed!

She was known as Meema or Grandma by her grandchildren and she enjoyed choosing and mailing birthday cards, never missing a chance to celebrate their births.

Bob died at age 55, and Nancy was a single woman with five rowdy children. A couple of years later, she married Rev. Calvin N. (Bud) Harrub, who brought three more rowdy children to the mix: Calvin (deceased), Kevin (Staci) and Brad (Melinda).

Nancy and Bud travelled widely by air, ship, train, and kayak. They tasted conch fritters in Aruba and tres leches in San Juan, and visited some exotic places, enjoying things like swimming in the south Pacific or walking the ancient streets of Rome where the Apostle Paul had walked. They participated in several mission trips and the Walk to Emmaus.

She was an athlete and golf was her sport of choice. At age 85, she was actively playing in the Lebanon Country Club Senior scrambles. She would occasionally sink a 30-foot putt to enhance her reputation as Queen of the Greens. She had discovered her love for golf found at Ravenwood prior to its closure. She also loved competing in card games at 50 Forward in Donelson. She was also a fan; especially of the college teams her son (Gary) was coaching and the Vanderbilt Commodores.

Her artistic talent was evident in her paintings and stained glass creations. She claimed to have inherited her talent from her mom, who was called Tashy. Her faith was enhanced by her membership in Hermitage United Methodist Church and the Shalom Seekers Sunday school class. Nancy was a willing worker in her churches, taught Sunday school, played piano and as she said, “I was born on the steps of Pennington Bend United Methodist Church.” She was a perfect fit in the churches Bud would serve as pastor in Middle Tennessee and North Florida.

Surrounded by the large family and supported by many friends, she slipped from the pain and illness of this world to the joy of God’s presence.

A celebration of Nancy’s life was held on April 27, 2019, at Hermitage United Methodist Church.

Betty Johnson Hobgood

November 28, 1929 – September 11, 2018

Betty Johnson Hobgood was born to John and Ethel Johnson on November 28, 1929, in Nashville Tennessee. Betty attended Bailey Elementary and East High School, where she was a cheerleader and part of the student body council.

At the age of 16, she caught the eye of James Hobgood. They both attended Hobson United Methodist Church. He was 21 at the time; not knowing her age, he invited her on a date which she refused because she was playing paper dolls with a girlfriend. Their mothers were good friends and eventually, she said “yes” to that date.

They were married in 1950. Jim’s work took them to Jacksonville Florida, where they had their first child, Gordon Hamilton, in 1952. Moving again because of work, they had their second child, Heather Ann, in Knoxville, Tennessee, in 1955. Shortly after, they moved back to Nashville to be near family.

When Heather was old enough to go to kindergarten, Betty began working at Levy’s men’s clothing store in Madison, Tennessee. She would spend the next 35 years with Levy’s and was the first female manager of the Levy’s store in Opryland Hotel. She always had a love for people and working in the Jewish community during the depression taught her many skills which she carried into her sales position.

When Jim accepted Christ in his late 40’s and was called into the ministry, Betty supported his decision and was a wonderful servant of Christ in the two churches they served, Barth-Vernon and 61st United Methodist Church. Upon Jim’s retirement, they attended Dalewood United Methodist Church. Betty was a regular attendee of women’s Bible studies that included Precept Ministries and Beth Moore studies. She had a Bible at every spot she sat in her house.

After Jim passed away, she moved her membership to First United Methodist in Hendersonville, Tennessee, which was closer to home. Betty was a part of the Lakeshore Quilters and Young at Heart and worked in the office on Wednesday afternoons.

She was a very fun-loving person and loved to play board games and cards. She and Jim enjoyed camping when their family was young and then again when she had five grandchildren. She was a great hostess and loved to entertain in her home. She was a very strong believer in tithing and giving above and beyond. She never met a stranger and was always willing to volunteer. She is missed!

Carl Thomas (Tom) Hutson

April 22, 1944 – November 29, 2018

Carl Thomas (Tom) Hutson was born April 22, 1944, in Nashville, Tennessee, to Bessie Mae and Carl Hutson. He was the oldest child, followed closely by his sister Frances and later by his brother John. Tom's parents were strong Christians and active in the church, his mother and sister attending the Presbyterian church his mother had been raised in, while Tom, his father and later John, attended the Church of Christ where his father had been raised. Tom always credited his knowledge and love of the Bible and Jesus to his parent's strong faith and insistence on church attendance, Bible study, and daily scripture reading.

Additionally, Tom's father was very active in the Boy Scouts of America and encouraged Tom as he graduated through the ranks from Cub Scout to eventually becoming the youngest Eagle Scout in Tennessee at that time. Through the Scouts, Tom further developed his love of nature and desire to seek ways to serve others.

Tom graduated from Maplewood High School in 1962, received his B.S. degree in biology from Austin Peay, his M.S. in education from MTSU and was conferred his Ph.D. in school administration from Vanderbilt University. Because of his love of the natural world, he began his career as a resource manager with the Tennessee Wildlife Resource Administration. He eventually felt he wanted to be more directly involved with young people and help them realize their potential so he set his sights on teaching. He worked in the Metro Nashville School System for 30 years, starting as a biology teacher and football coach before moving into administration.

During this time, he remained active in the church and, when he and his wife Cara moved to Gallatin, Tennessee, they began attending Rehoboth United Methodist Church, where he was asked to teach the adult Sunday school class. After retiring from Metro Public Schools he was excited to continue working with young people but in a different capacity. He became the associate director of the Master of Arts in education at Cumberland University, a position he held for nine years.

He continued teaching the adult Sunday school and felt led to become even more active in the church, starting the process of being licensed in pastoral ministry in The United Methodist Church. He was licensed in June, 2009, and began his new career as pastor at Saundersville United Methodist Church, a position he held until his death in November 2018.

Although Tom had many professional accomplishments, the achievement he was most proud of was raising three extraordinary sons: Tommy, Mark, and Blake. They were the light of his life and brought him, and all they meet, great joy. As he watched them grow and mature, he marveled at the wisdom, compassion, love of life, and great humor they exhibited. They all shared his love of nature and the outdoors and together had many exciting hunting and fishing adventures; listening to their exploits was something the entire family enjoyed. His sons each married kind, strong Christian women (Cathi, Gina, and Christina respectively) giving Tom eight grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren. God blessed Tom in many ways, but his biggest blessing was his family and he loved each member dearly.

Tom felt that his entire life had been preparing him for the ministry. He was a natural teacher with a way of imparting knowledge that made the learner understand even complex issues and leave them with a hunger to learn more. That, along with his generosity, empathy, compassion, patience, humor, and devotion to Jesus served him well in his role as pastor. Tom will remain a model and inspiration for all who knew him and will be greatly missed by his wife, family, congregation, and friends.

David Merrill Jones

November 27, 1946 – August 17, 2018

David began his ministry working along with the youth minister at his home church, Meridian Street United Methodist on Nashville's East side. At that time, he began his studies at the night school of University of Tennessee in Nashville. He completed his undergraduate education at Scarritt College for Christian Workers in 1974. David married Judy Crane on January 4, 1975.

David graduated from Vanderbilt University School of Divinity with a Master of Divinity in 1977. He was ordained as a deacon of the Tennessee Conference in 1975 and as an elder in 1978. He served several Tennessee churches (circuits) in Savannah, Gallatin, Franklin, Clarksville (Sango), Clifton, and Rover before moving to Ohio to pursue further graduate studies at Ohio State University.

While living in Ohio, he served as associate pastor of First United Methodist in London. In 1995 David and his family moved to Illinois where he accepted a position at St. Philipus United Church of Christ on the South Side of Chicago. He served as their pastor for nine years before guiding them through the process of closing the church. This congregation, who believed they had only months left to be a church when David came to them, was able to maintain ministry to its elderly parishioners and families for another nine years. At its closing, the church was able to sell its building and contribute the profits to several other ministries and programs of the Chicago Metropolitan Association and Illinois Conference. Later, he accepted a position as pastor of Hometown Christian Church, serving for three years before he retired in 2008.

David was a "creator." He could take a little bit and make the most of it. He could take a Scripture passage and create a well-thought-out sermon as easily as most people would write their grocery list. He created beautiful pieces of furniture, things like a china cabinet, tables, a very special wooden music box for his father-in-law, and a swinging cradle for our sons. David was an excellent cook, creating delicious meals and breads for his family and friends. He worked with several different types of paint to create beautiful pictures. He even did a bit of sculpting. He was, up to the end, a consummate student, especially delving into the Old Testament and writing liturgies.

David had many talents that he shared with the churches he served as well as his family until those last few years when we watched the creative light fade slowly from his life. His wife Rev. Judy C. Jones, his sons, Dr. Samuel Jones and Christopher Jones, his daughter-in-law Holly and his granddaughter Rachel walked with him through the last year when Parkinson's disease and dementia took away his voice and the words that he so eloquently spoke for all of his 71 years. Through all of his illness he maintained his sense of humor. Now, as the old Gospel hymn says, "He walks with the Lord in the light of his life." David is remembered and missed by many friends in all three states.

David W. Kingsley

March 31, 1942 – October 17, 2018

Affectionately known as “Bro. Dave,” he was born in Johnson City, New York, the middle child of three sons. His family soon moved to Oxford, Wisconsin. As a preacher’s kid he was raised in a loving and caring family. Faith in Christ was learned and experienced early on.

Dave’s education included Campbellsville College, Tennessee Tech University, and Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. He was ordained as a Baptist minister and transferred into the Tennessee Conference of The United Methodist Church in 1982. He became an associate member of the conference in 1984.

Bro. Dave left Wisconsin in 1964 and moved to Nashville, Tennessee, where he met Pat and both fell in love. They were married three weeks after meeting on April 25, 1964. They celebrated 54 years of marriage with Pat as his companion, friend, and partner in church life. He worked for a few years as a route salesman, when he decided to stop running from our Lord. Bro. Dave loved to sing and had a booming baritone voice. Hearing him sing is Pat’s favorite memory of Bro. Dave.

Bro. Dave loved this world and being a part of it. He was an avid outdoorsman and was very good at it. He loved to hunt and fish but was very clear that he preferred to be a fisher of men and a hunter of the truth of Christ. He witnessed to many people who would never attend church but they experienced the love and warmth of Christ in Bro. Dave. With an infectious laugh, he made friends quickly and often.

He served two Baptist churches and 17 United Methodist churches over the years. Bro. Dave was a great preacher. He loved God’s word, studied it, and loved to tell what God would do in forgiving sin and making one whole. He preached numerous revivals and led many to Jesus. It was his passion and the fulfillment of God’s call on his life.

Bro. Dave’s love of God, people, and the outdoors led him in retirement back to Savannah, Tennessee, where he had served Barnhill, Eureka, and Campground United Methodist Churches. Bro. Dave was a faithful person and trusted God completely. Whenever God opened a door he would go through it without question. A man of great honesty and integrity, he would do what he said he would do, completely and totally.

Bro. Dave was known for many sayings, such as “Be still my heart,” and “Lord loves a duck.” The saying he was most known for is the response he always made to the question, “Bro. Dave, how are you doing?” He would always reply, “Any better and I’d have to be in heaven.”

Frances N. Link

September 27, 1927 – August 27, 2018

Frances was born September 27, 1927, in Saltville, Virginia, where she grew up and attended school. She was a member of the Saltville Methodist Church. She was the church pianist. It was there that she met W. C. Link. They played music together—she played the piano and he played the violin during services.

They were married in February 1927, and they had three children: two boys and one girl. They named them from characters in the Bible: David, Daniel, and Deborah. David was born August 1948; Daniel, September 1950; and Deborah, September 1953.

During their marriage, Frances and W. C. served together in the churches to which he was appointed: Barren Plains, Thompson Station, St. John's, Glendale, Winchester, and Manchester. They are best remembered for the 22 years (1968-1990) which they spent at McKendree Village. Even today the impact she and W. C. had on that ministry and the residents continues.

Frances loved playing the piano and was an accomplished painter. Many of her works were sold in auctions. She also liked being an interior designer and dabbled in real estate.

She passed away on August 27, 2018, in Zephyrhills, Florida, where she was close to her son, David.

Wanda Meadors

May 11, 1940 – July 17, 2018

Wanda was born on May 11, 1940, in Nashville, Tennessee, to the late Everett and Opal Denton. She was raised by her mother and loving stepfather, the late Clyde Hall. She was the middle child of three—older brother, the late Donald Denton, and younger sister, Marsha. Wanda grew up in East Nashville and was educated in the local school system. Professing her life to Christ at an early age, she attended East End United Methodist Church with her family.

Wanda met the late Rev. John Meadors at an East End UMC revival. They married in 1972 and spent 37 wonderful years together. Throughout her life, Wanda loved working in the church and cherished praising the Lord. She served the Lord, her family, friends, and community every day with all her heart. Wanda was deeply involved in every church John pastored. She was the quintessential preacher's wife. She was involved in many aspects of the church, including teaching Sunday school, serving on committees, quilting group, Mary Martha Circle, children's nursery, taking care of the plants, teaching children's time, serving on the church board, and attending meetings.

In the early years, Wanda worked as a key punch operator at Industrial Uniform and Towel Company in Nashville, Tennessee. In the later years, she worked at Chick-fil-A in Goodlettsville where she served customers. After she retired, she volunteered at Bellshire Elementary each week tutoring reading skills. She truly enjoyed making a difference in the children's lives.

Wanda was bedridden for a year as a child and was told she could never have children due to her heart condition. But she persevered and gave birth to a son, Scott. She actually said she felt better during her pregnancy than she had ever felt before. Scott was three years old when she and John married. She also became a Mimi in October 1994. She never dreamed she would live long enough to see her grandchild and was a loving and doting grandmother.

Wanda was always more concerned with others than herself. She would go to great lengths to ensure family, friends, and even strangers were taken care of. She had great passion in caring for others, even though she experienced many health challenges throughout her lifetime. She enjoyed her weekly card games and lunch on Thursdays with her friends. She also enjoyed going to see movies with her friends. She enjoyed community events, attending church singings, plays, and dinner auctions. With an ever-caring heart, she delighted in prayer and did not shy away from praying for and with others.

She was at her happiest when spending time with family, laughing, and helping others. Wanda was a loving and caring individual, devoted wife, mother, and friend. She always thought of others first before herself; to know her was to love her. Wanda was beautiful inside and out. She remained vigilant in her faith her entire life.

Wanda Meadors, 78, passed away July 17, 2018, surrounded by love at her family's home in Hendersonville, Tennessee.

James H. Rowlett

January 17, 1938 – November 27, 2018

James H. Rowlett transferred to heaven peacefully on November 27, 2018, in Smyrna Tennessee. He was born on January 17, 1938, in Woodbine, Tennessee, to William Henry and Delia Mae Rowlett. When he was nine years old he moved to a 20-acre farm in Antioch, Tennessee, because his father wanted to raise his sons and daughter in the country.

James was a strong, healthy 250-pound athlete and he played football for Antioch High School. James excelled at football, receiving two scholarship offers from Mississippi State and Austin Peay. James married the love of his life, Barbara, instead.

James and Barbara met when he was just 9 and she was 3 at Hamilton United Methodist Church in Antioch, Tennessee. Barbara was crawling under the pew his family was sitting on trying to make her way to the back bench to get candy from an elder member. James and Barbara were church friends until James was 21 and Barbara was 16. After a year, they married.

As they began their marriage, they had a lot of jobs and a lot of fun together; James worked several jobs at one time. James worked several different places including the Sheriff's department, various construction sites, and the Air National Guard, until he began working for Toledo Scales, where he succeeded and shortly thereafter started his own scale business.

Then on June 28, 1970, James attend a church service at Hamilton UMC where he made a commitment to let Jesus Christ become his Lord and Savior. James fell in love with Jesus. Soon after, James joined the ministry where he served for nearly 50 years. He always told others about the importance of a relationship with Jesus Christ and how Jesus would bless and change their lives. James' excitement about this life-changing experience allowed him to lead many others to Jesus.

James had two sons, Jimmy and John. James loved being a father and often said "Boys are joy". This was a positive attitude because his boys could be more than a handful. Throughout his working years, Barbara and James became inseparable. She worked by his side in his scale business and his ministry. He loved her and always wanted to have her by his side. In their retirement years, they spent a lot of time vacationing in the Smoky Mountains.

When their health declined, they made the decision to move into assisted living. The staff fell in love with them as they walked through the facility showing their deep love for one another. Even though James struggled with clear thought, his love for Jesus spoke clearly through his spirit as he talked with his friends at the Waterford. As recent as a week prior to his death, he was observed straightening Barbara's sheets and blankets to assure she was comfortable. Despite his failing health, he wanted to make sure Barbara was taken care of more than himself.

James is preceded in death by his father, William Henry Rowlett; mother, Delia Mae Rowlett; son, John Rowlett; and brother-in-law, Jim McIntosh. James is survived by his beloved wife of 57 years, Barbara; son, Jimmy (Dee); brother, Hebert (Jean); sister, Mabel McIntosh; niece, Vicki (Jimmy) Jordan; and nephew, Billy (Tonya) Rowlett. The family requested that in lieu of flowers, memorial donations could be made to Avalon Hospice or St. Jude Children's Hospital.

Sam was an avid outdoorsman. Fishing and seasonal hunting of deer were part of his enjoying nature. For several years, he and some of his friends made an annual trip to Canada to experience special fishing.

A friend introduced him to player pianos and he enjoyed repairing them through the years.

Growing up on a family farm in White County, he had learned to meet challenges as they arose. It was a do-it-yourself environment, which translated into his being innovative at tackling daily problems. Sam greatly enjoyed a challenge.

He brought fun, laughter, and joy to so many that knew him. Sam was a gift to the Church.

Adrienne T. White

August 10, 1963 – September 1, 2018

In September 2018, hundreds filled the pews of Gordon Memorial United Methodist Church, Nashville, Tennessee; Mother Easter Baptist Church, Moultrie, Georgia; and St. Luke AME Church, Hollywood, South Carolina, as we celebrated the life of Lady Adrienne T. White.

The pearl, in all its uniqueness is a symbol of fortitude, strength, and wisdom. These words best describe the girl-child born on August 10, 1963, in the small southwest Georgia river city called Moultrie. The bestowed child, Adrienne, was born to Marvin Thompson, Sr., and the late Evelyn Harris Thompson. She was introduced to the amazing grace of God in her early childhood at the Mother Easter Baptist Church. This introduction to Jesus would be the foundation of her spiritual formation.

She graduated with honors from Colquitt County High School in 1981. She pursued her higher education at Valdosta State University, Georgia, and the Art Institute of Atlanta. More than the knowledge of theory, it was the practice of living that defined the dignity, essence, and poise of Adrienne, the one who was affectionately called “A,” quite prophetically a description of her levels of class and character.

Grace filled her heart with the love of a lifetime when we met in 1993 while I was serving as the Southeast regional director for the Youth and College Division of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), and a graduate student at Gammon Theological Seminary at the Interdenominational Theological Center in Atlanta, Georgia. Our courtship cultured the unique and romantic mutual reference of “Dear.” The covenant of holy matrimony joined us, the “Dear” pair, together on Saturday, April 22, 1995, in Lake Wylie, South Carolina. “To love and to cherish, in sickness and in health, ‘til death do us part”. A love for our sons and grandchildren was the hallmark of our union and the absolute joy of her life. It was through the rearing of our children and the pearl-strands of grandchildren that she became “Mother Dear,” the doting one who sprinkled faith, hope, and love upon the lives of her dear-hearts.

Grace empowered her professional acumen. Organizational enterprises to include the Art Institute of Atlanta, Allen University, Bank of America, The Urban League, Advance America, and the Walmart corporation were fresh waters of opportunity. Through the years of her work with these entities on many levels, she was lauded as not only a valued employee, but also a constant and consistent reminder of character, integrity, and tenacity. Awards for leadership excellence, celebratory citations for corporate and community connections, and stellar recognitions were added to her resume, because Adrienne brought the magic to the mission and the finesse to get the job done.

“Dear” was the consummate First Lady with unconditional trust in me and the invested confidence of the congregations we served in South Carolina, Georgia, Arkansas, and Tennessee. From her philanthropy beyond convenience and convention, to her altruistic spirit, to her celestial aura and infectious personality, “Dear” set the tone, tenor, and temperature of any room. Without any doubt, anyone who spent any time with her walked away with the take-away of being touched by an angel!

With the clutch of her fresh water gems, Adrienne was the pearl jewel among us. Born in the month jeweled by peridot, she marched to the beat of her heart’s drum. To her, a stranger was a new friend, and a new friend was endeared as real family. Her authenticity called for stem-wear of china plates, crystal glasses, and utensils rather than saving these niceties for what some deemed special occasions, because for Adrienne, every day was an occasion to be special. Never wavering in the embrace of the diverse and hallmarked as daring to be different, she joyfully lived, even in times when mere existence was the easier option. “Dear” was indeed a class act!

Adrienne found her great joy in her work with United Methodist Volunteers in Mission, the American Red Cross, Habitat for Humanity, and Salkehatchie. She helped to build and repair homes and lives in the across the United States. She helped to lay the foundation for a church in Central America to repairing a school in Africa.

She was a graduate of Leadership South Carolina and served on the boards of United Way–Imagination Library, the Urban League of the Upstate, Leadership South Carolina, YMCA, the League of Women Voters, the South Carolina HIV/AIDS Consortium, Catawba Care Coalition, and Habitat for Humanity. She has also served as a volunteer at every level within the NAACP. In addition, she served as co-chair on the board of the Self Development of People sponsored through the Presbyterian Church (USA). Adrienne brought the magic to the mission and the finesse to get the job done.

In celebration of these many accolades, Adrienne was recognized during the NAACP 50th Anniversary Image Awards Show on TV One. The NAACP has also established the Lady Adrienne T. White Humanitarian Award which will be given annually in her memory. In addition, the Southeast Region Youth & College Division established the Charles & Adrienne White Student Activism Award.

When I think of her labor as my co-founding partner of Brothers and Sisters United for Change of the Sea Islands and Brothers United for Change of Clover, a founding partner in the WhiteGroup Inc., the surrogate mother for many, the peace-maker, care-giver, and Proverbs 31 Queen; our solace rests in knowing that her absence on earth means she is assuredly present in heaven.

As God would see fit in the early morning of September 1, 2018, at St. Thomas-West Hospital in Nashville, as I held her hands, my sweet loving “Dear” took the wings of the morning and joined the band of those who remained faithful unto death.

Adrienne’s legacy will forever live on in my life, her husband, Rev. Charles L. White, Jr., and in the lives of The White Men, Dwayne, Alexander (Krissy), and DJ; our precious grandchildren, Kristina, Alexa, Kailyn, and Davion; her father, Marvin Thompson, Sr.; her siblings, Marvin Thompson, Jr. (Lisa), Darling Thompson, and April

Charles Edward Williams and Elease Spann Williams

July 12, 1929 – March 23, 2019 and May 31, 1933 – February 19, 2019

God gives us each the gift of life, to cherish from our birth, He gives us friends and loved ones, to share our days on Earth, He watches us with loving care and takes us by the hand, He blesses us with countless joys and guides the lives we’ve planned. Then, when our work on Earth is done, He calls us to His side, to live with Him in happiness, where peace and love abide.

On July 12, 1929, on the beautiful island of Grand Turk, Turks and Caicos Island, Charles Edward was born to the late Lloyd and Miriam Williams. Charles was the oldest of 10 children. He grew up to be an outgoing and hardworking man who possessed a loving and caring spirit. As a child, Charles attended school in Grand Turk. He excelled as a student. Upon his completion of school in Turks Island, Charles moved to Nassau, Bahamas, where he was employed on various jobs to include working as a carpenter like his dad and then later as an insurance agent.

Charles resided in Nassau for several years and while living there he attended Wesley Methodist Church where he was an active member.

On May 31, 1933, Elease Spann Williams was born to the late Arthur and Hattie Spann. She was the first (not the oldest) of six children. Her age was always a hush-hush subject. Preceding her in death is brother, Richard Spann, and sister, Eula Spann Williams, and a village of family members. We are not born with greatness; but it is achieved with God’s guidance, self-perseverance, and encouragement we received from others. Elease’s life was evidence of this, in how she interacted with family, friends, youth, and especially her students.

At 19, Charles boarded an airplane leaving Nassau en route to his destination, Nashville, Tennessee, where he would attend college. Charles earned a Bachelors in Theology at the American Baptist Seminary. He also earned bachelor’s and master’s degrees at Tennessee State University then completed graduate studies at Duke University.

Elease proudly attended Ashcraft, Ford Green Elementary, Washington Junior High, and in 1950 she graduated from Pearl High School. Following graduation, Elease enrolled in Tennessee A&I State University and received her bachelor’s and master’s degrees in education.

While on his journey of pursuing his educational goals, Charles met a charming young lady by the name of Elease Spann. To say the least, Charles was smitten by this pretty young lady, who initially gave him such a hard time. Elease finally gave in and accepted his offer for a first date. After several years of dating, they were married on August 31, 1953. They were married for 65 amazing years. This union was blessed with a wonderful son, Carlos Lamount Williams.

Rev. Williams and Elease's faith in God was strong and they never failed to share a positive and inspirational word or prayer with others. They desired and made a difference in the community through their diligent work in the field of education and their dedication to the ministry. Rev. Williams worked as a teacher, counselor, and administrator in the Metropolitan Nashville Public School system until his retirement.

While Elease attended college, she also worked at Riverside Adventist Hospital as a nurse's aide. After graduating from Tennessee A&I State University, she began her life's passion of teaching within the Nashville Metro Davidson Public School system as a devoted and dedicated school teacher. After 30 years of devoted service to her students, she retired.

What is truly amazing that upon both the arrivals of Rev. Charles and Elease Williams to our Lord Jesus Christ, several of their students paid respects to remember the amazing stories and devotion that each of them gave as teachers and administrators so many years ago.

Rev. Charles Williams' pastoral career included his serving at several churches in the Middle Tennessee area. He was the founding pastor at Dixon Memorial United Methodist Church. He pastored at Wrights Chapel in Cookeville, Key Methodist in Hartsville, Branden in Carthage, and Key Stewart United Methodist Church in Gallatin, where he served for 10 years until he retired as pastor emeritus.

Over the years, Rev. Charles Williams faithfully served on several committees and various boards in the Methodist conference. He served as vice chair Board of Trustees Tennessee Conference, Council on Finance and Administration, and the Committee on Joint Review as well as committee positions.

Elease, being the proud minister's wife with The United Methodist Church, traveled with her husband to many churches within the surrounding areas. She served on many committees within The United Methodist Church to ensure other United Methodist women had the same opportunities of life as God had provided a path for her.

Rev. Williams was also a delegate to the National Association of Stewardship Leaders and director of Bethlehem Centers. In his continued efforts over the years to make a difference in the community and serve as an advocate for positive change, Rev. Williams assisted with the development of various tutorial programs and other youth services. He was one of the founding pastors of the organization now known as the Shalom Zone in Gallatin. He also donated his time volunteering at Vol State College in Gallatin as well.

Recently, both Rev. Charles' and Elease Williams' health began to decline. Although in failing health, they continued to minister to others through their positive demeanor, words of wisdom, and illuminating smiles. They were both amazing children of God, filled with wisdom and integrity, and admired by many. They lived, loved, laughed, and accomplished many goals that they set in life. They both were the rock of our family, greatly loved, and will be truly missed.

On February 19, 2019, Elease Spann Williams quietly slipped away to be with her Heavenly Father and on March 23, 2019, Rev. Charles Edward Williams quietly slipped away to be with his Heavenly Father. Both Rev. Charles and Elease Williams changed their earthly address for one in heaven.

A Tribute to My Father and Mother Rev. Charles and Elese Williams

*A Father and Mother's love is something that no one can explain,
It is made of deep devotion and of sacrifice and pain,
It is endless and unselfish and enduring come what may
For nothing can destroy it or take that love away . . .*

*My Father and Mother kept a garden. A garden of the heart;
They planted all the good things, that gave my life its start.*

*There's magic in my Father and Mother's touch, and sunshine in their smile.
They turned me to the sunshine and encouraged me to dream:
Fostering and nurturing the seeds of self-esteem.
And when the winds and rains came, they protected me enough;
But not too much, they knew I'd need to stand up strong and tough.*

*Their constant good example always taught me right from wrong;
Markers for my pathway to last my whole life long.*

There's love in everything they did to make our lives worthwhile. We can find both hope and courage just by looking in their eyes.

*There has come a glory in their eyes, there has come a peace within their heart; sitting beneath the quiet evening skies, time will dry the tear and dull the heart.
You will know that they had played their part; theirs shall be the love that never dies.*

*You, with Heaven's peace within their heart, You, with God's own glory in their eyes.
Their laughter was a source of joy; their works were warm and wise.
Their love was patient and forgiving when all others were forsaking,
And it never fails or falters even though the heart is breaking . . .
They believed beyond believing when the world around condemns,
There is a kindness and compassion to be found in their embrace, and we see the light of heaven shining from my Father and Mother's face.*

*Their love will glow with all the beauty of the rarest, brightest gems . . .
I am my Father and Mother's garden, I am their legacy.*

*And I hope today they feel our love, as they are another astounding evidence of God's tender guiding hand, a Father

a Garden" and "My Mother Kept a Garden" – author unknown)

Lovingly submitted by their son, Carlos Williams

STANDING RULES, PERSONNEL POLICIES, AND MEDIA CRISIS RESPONSE

A. STANDING RULES

Revised June 14, 2019 (See Standing Rules Report in Chapter 6)

The Standing Rules of the Tennessee Annual Conference represent the means by which we organize and oversee our work of making disciples for the transformation of the world. It is the organizational plan of the Tennessee Annual Conference, setting forth the rules by which we govern ourselves, in compliance with ¶604 of the 2016 United Methodist Book of Discipline. As our Book of Discipline says about itself, our Standing Rules reflect the “... most current statement of how United Methodists [in the Tennessee Annual Conference] agree to live together and ‘maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.’”

The Committee on Standing Rules presents these rules for renewal and adoption by each session of the Tennessee Annual Conference.

Section 1 – Authorization for the Committee on Standing Rules

- 1.1 The Committee on Standing Rules has the responsibility to:
 - a) Propose new policies and standing rules;
 - b) Propose needed amendments to existing policies and standing rules;
 - c) Provide guidance to the annual conference at any point where conference action may be at variance with a policy or standing rule.
- 1.2 The Standing Rules of the Annual Conference must be in compliance with the provisions of ¶604 of the current edition of The United Methodist Book of Discipline.

Section 2 – Annual Conference Session Procedures

- 2.1 The Conference shall follow the latest edition of Robert’s Rules of Order except where it is in conflict with the current Book of Discipline.
- 2.2 All motions and resolutions shall be supplied to the conference secretary in writing on a form provided for this purpose by the conference secretary.
- 2.3 Any entity planning to present a report at any annual conference session shall submit the report to the Office of Connectional Ministries at least 10 weeks prior to the opening day of annual conference for inclusion in pre-conference materials.
- 2.4 All resolutions not included in the pre-conference materials shall be submitted to the Committee on Resolutions at least 30 days prior to the first day of the annual conference session. The chair of the resolutions committee shall submit to the annual conference, in their original form, all resolutions so submitted. In addition, the committee may present to the annual conference for consideration a revised version of any such resolution.
- 2.5 The roll call of the Tennessee Annual Conference shall be taken from the registration.

- 2.6 The agenda of the conference shall be that as it is corrected and distributed on the first day of annual conference with the understanding that the bishop may adjust the agenda for the good of the order.
- 2.7 All speeches other than reports shall be limited to three minutes.
- 2.8 Voting cards shall be the means of identifying who is eligible to vote on all issues requiring a vote.
- 2.9 The annual conference session shall meet at a location accessible to persons with disabilities.
- 2.10 All annual conference reports to be included in the journal shall be e-mailed to the journal editor 10 weeks prior to the opening day of annual conference. Any corrections and/or additions received after this date shall, at the discretion of the journal editor, be included in the succeeding journal. Handwritten and typewritten reports shall not be accepted for publication in the journal. All reports should be typed, using Microsoft Word according to the specifications on the conference website. Photos must be submitted as separate JPG files and must include permissions from all persons pictured. Photos submitted will be used as space permits in the journal. Use Tennessee Conference Journal Style Sheet posted on the conference website for guidance on capitalization, punctuation, and so forth to ensure that the journal has a consistent look and flow. Files that contain tables should be submitted in Microsoft Excel format. No PDF or directly scanned images will be accepted.
- 2.11 Agenda items and reports not requiring action by the annual conference other than a vote to receive said item for publication in the journal, shall be placed on a consent agenda. In order for any item or report to be eligible for placement on the consent agenda, it must have been available online with the pre-conference materials. Any item may be removed from the consent agenda if ten members of the conference petition for removal.
- 2.12 Equalization and youth participation: Whenever it shall occur that the person serving as the director of Administrative Services, director of Connectional Ministries, or director of Ministerial Concerns is a lay person, then each person so serving shall be an at-large lay member of the annual conference. The conference secretary shall determine annually the number of laypersons needed to equalize lay and clergy members of the annual conference. The at-large members are to be allocated as nearly as possible on an equal basis to the districts. When the number of members to equalize cannot be distributed evenly between the districts, the members shall be allocated to the districts in alphabetical order of districts. The at-large members are to be elected by each district conference.

Each district conference shall elect two youth (ages 12-17) and two young adults (ages 18-30) as at-large members of the annual conference.

Section 3 -- Election of Delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conference

- 3.1 Clergy and lay delegates to General and jurisdictional conferences shall be elected as provided in the Constitution of The United Methodist Church (paragraphs 34-36 of The Book of Discipline).
- 3.2 Ballots:
 - a) Ballots will be provided by the office of the conference secretary
 - b) Fifty percent plus one valid ballots cast shall be necessary to elect
 - c) Ballots with more or less than the number to be elected shall be rejected as invalid
- 3.3 Candidacy of persons eligible to serve as delegates, whether clergy or lay to General and/or jurisdictional conference, may be established either by declaration or nomination:

- a) To declare candidacy for election to serve as a General or jurisdictional conference delegate, the eligible person must submit to the Office of Connectional Ministries, no later than 10 weeks prior to the opening day of annual conference, for inclusion in the pre-conference materials a statement concerning:
 1. His/her activities at the local church, district, and annual, jurisdictional, and general conference levels;
 2. An assessment of the principal needs of the general Church and how those needs should be met; and
 3. Any other information felt pertinent to introducing himself/herself to those members of the annual conference who may not be familiar with his/her views on issues confronting the Church.
- b) To nominate a person for candidacy to be elected to serve as a General or jurisdictional conference delegate and have the nomination included in the pre-conference materials, the nominator(s) must:
 1. Determine the eligibility of the person to be nominated.
 2. Secure from the person to be nominated and submit to the Office of Connectional Ministries the proposed nominee's written consent to accept the nomination.
 3. Submit to the Office of Connectional Ministries, no later than 10 weeks prior to the opening day of annual conference, for inclusion in the pre-conference materials, a statement concerning:
 - The activities of the nominee at the local church, district, and annual, jurisdictional, and general conference levels,
 - An assessment of the opinions of the nominee regarding the principal needs of the church and how those needs should be met, and
 - Any other information (such as age and ethnicity) felt to be pertinent to introducing the nominee to those members of the annual conference who may not be familiar with that nominee's views on issues confronting the church.
- c) Statements submitted in the establishing of candidacy, whether by declaration or nomination, shall be limited to 200 words, and shall be submitted via e-mail.
- d) Persons do not have to declare candidacy or be nominated for candidacy in order to be eligible for election to serve as a General or jurisdictional conference delegate.
- e) The initial ballot for election to General Conference will have a ballot number assigned only to those who, by declaration or nomination, have expressed their desire to be considered as a candidate. All subsequent ballots will assign numbers to write-in candidates during the election process.

3.4 Reserve delegates: After the jurisdictional conference delegates are elected, two lay and two clergy reserve delegates shall be elected. The delegation's budget will include funding for one lay and one clergy reserve delegate to attend General and jurisdictional conferences. In the event of a tie in the election for reserves, the delegation will be providing funding for two lay and two clergy reserves.

Section 4 – Suspension, Adoption, and Amendment of Standing Rules

- 4.1 Any standing rule, with the exception of SR 4.2, SR 4.3, and SR 4.4, may be suspended at any session of the annual conference by a two-thirds majority vote of those present and voting.

The selected person shall be employed on recommendation of the related executive committee or executive staff person.

STANDARDS AND EVALUATION

Orientation

A new employee shall receive an orientation during the introductory period of employment which shall include (but is not limited to): explanation of the vision, mission, and expectations of the organization; introductions to people within and outside the organization with whom she or he may routinely work; review of the office facility and equipment; and, the relationship of the organization with respect to the TAC, the districts, and the local churches.

The director shall be responsible for coordinating the orientation and monitoring the employee's progress during the introductory period of employment. Monthly progress reports will be given to the chairperson of the appropriate executive committee

Introductory Period of Employment

There shall be an introductory period of employment of three months. Approximately two weeks before the end of this period, the designated supervisor shall conduct a performance appraisal covering the staff person's performance during the period. The completed form will be placed in the staff person's file.

Staff Reviews

A progress review is intended to provide an annual means of appraising a staff person's performance on the job.

Employee Performance

The appropriate director/supervisor shall evaluate annually the job performance of each person under his/her supervision. Such evaluation shall be reviewed with the chairperson of the respective agency's executive committee and, if deemed appropriate, with their entire executive committee. This evaluation shall be based upon the employee's work as related to his/her job description and performance goals.

In the event that there are deficiencies in an employee's performance, the director shall schedule interim reviews with the employee to assess the needed improvement. The director will keep the chairperson of the executive committee apprised of such reviews.

An evaluation is a confidential matter that shall remain with those who have a need to know: the employee, the supervisor(s), and appropriate entity. A copy of the evaluation shall be placed in the employee's personnel file and the employee shall be given a copy. Both copies shall be marked Confidential.

FINANCIAL REMUNERATION

The appropriate entity, in consultation with the director, shall be responsible for setting the salary for newly hired persons and reviewing salaries of each employee annually.

Pay Period

Compensation shall be issued on the 15th and 30th of each month (except when those dates fall on a Saturday or Sunday; then, the remuneration will be made on the last work day immediately preceding the 15th or 30th). Payments are directly deposited into the checking and/or savings accounts that the employee designates.

Overtime for Non-exempt Employees

Actual time worked is the basis for computing overtime. For purposes of computing overtime, the work week begins on Monday and ends on Sunday.

1. All requests for overtime must be approved in advance by a director or equivalent. Employees and supervisors should attempt to provide as much advance notice as possible when required to work overtime.
2. All time worked up to and including 40 hours is computed at straight pay; all overtime worked in excess of 40 hours is computed at time-and-one-half pay. Overtime is paid for hours worked in excess of 40 hours during a regular work week. Holiday, vacation, and sick pay are not counted toward overtime.
3. All overtime is to be clearly reported on the attendance record (i.e. time card).

Travel Expense

All employees will receive reimbursement for conference-related travel in accordance with TAC rules, subject to IRS rules defining business expense and appropriate contemporaneous documentation. Travel between the place of employment and the place of residence shall not be reimbursed.

Work Schedule

Office hours for support staff persons normally are from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. Lunch period is one hour in length. The directors may allow a deviation from these hours or days when the director deems it appropriate.

Offices of the TAC will remain open Monday through Friday with the exception of the holiday schedule listed under holidays. Exceptions may be made by the director(s) at each location.

Directors, associate directors, and coordinators are often expected to work days and hours that do not fit the normal schedule of office hours. These persons are responsible for their areas of ministry and will demonstrate by their results that they are faithful to their ministries.

Adjustments to compensation

A wage assignment or a garnishment is a legal order requiring an individual's employer to withhold part of the employee's wages in order to pay a debt or obligation. Wage assignments which meet legal requirements will be honored when issued and withheld from employee's compensation.

All lay employees are covered by the Federal Old Age and Survivors Benefits Act to provide the protection offered by Social Security. Social Security tax is paid half by the lay employee and half by the employer. Clergy pay the total cost for Social Security coverage as self-employed persons for Social Security purposes. Clergy may also have part of their compensation designated as a housing allowance.

All conference employees who participate in the conference's health plan are eligible to participate in the conference's medical Flexible Spending Account (FSA, or cafeteria) program. Employees designate the amount to be withheld from their compensation, from which they can be reimbursed for covered medical-related spending.

Assisting Employees with Disabling Illnesses

Staff may be covered by the conference's disability coverage but should consider purchasing their own policies to provide additional short-term and long-term disability benefits.

Military

The TAC supports and complies with the Veteran's Reemployment Rights Act and applicable state laws.

Relocation Moving Expense

A newly employed/appointed director or associate director needing to locate housing within a reasonable commuting distance will receive a one-time reimbursement for cost of transportation, meals, and lodging, for the purpose of locating housing. The trip will be for no more than five days.

Moving expenses incurred with hiring of new staff who move more than 50 miles may be paid at the discretion of the executive director. The appropriate entity will pay the costs of moving. Moving expenses will be reported as income unless they qualify for tax-exempt treatment, and appropriate forms and documentation are provided to Administrative Services.

PERSONNEL FILES

The TAC maintains a personnel file for each staff person. The conference attempts to maintain those documents which are, have been or are intended to be used in determining a staff person's qualifications for employment, promotion, transfer, additional compensation, discharge, or other disciplinary action.

A staff person has the right to inspect certain portions of his/her personnel file. Personal information is not to be released to a third party without authorization by the appropriate director.

If an employee is unable to complete the workday due to injury on the job, he/she will receive compensation for the remainder of the workday.

The TAC retains the right to terminate the individual's employment at any time during the probation period. Termination shall be based on appropriate documentation and under ordinary circumstances will take place only after discussion with the employee involved.

Tennessee Conference Media Crisis Response Plan

A Media Crisis in the Tennessee Conference is:

An event or emergency associated in some way with the Church but beyond its control, which can be expected to become public. It presents potential for damage to individuals, or the image of the Church, and hinders the ability to be in ministry. In other words, a media crisis is anything that could cause the public to lose faith in Tennessee Conference leadership or in The United Methodist Church.

Media Crises Come in Several Packages

- Personnel crisis (clergy, church staff, or lay member's misconduct, death, illness, or injury)
- Threatened criminal or legal action
- Violent acts, demonstrations
- Corporate crisis (lawsuits against the conference, an agency or institution)
- Positive crisis (donations exceed what can be handled, etc.)

3. The bishop or alternate spokesperson and local church pastor* or agency director* must be thoroughly and regularly briefed before making any appearances or statements. The spokespersons may refer news media to others who can speak with authority on a particular subject.

*If the local church pastor or agency director is intimately involved in the crisis, s/he will not be a spokesperson.

4. The MCMT will determine whether the spokesperson should leave immediately for the location of the crisis (such as a church camp or church building). This may be necessary if reporters are already on site and there is no spokesperson present.
5. The bishop or alternate spokesperson must establish a schedule for regular briefing sessions of team members for the purpose of updates and discussion during the first few days of the crisis when media interest will be most intense.
6. The team is authorized to engage other professionals as needed. The bishop or his/her designate and the team should determine who receives information, updates and copies of all statements and releases.

D. SAFE SANCTUARY POLICY FOR CHILDREN, YOUTH, AND VULNERABLE PERSONS

Abuse and neglect of children, youth, and vulnerable persons are prohibited by the Tennessee Annual Conference, its churches and its agencies.

The Tennessee Conference seeks to create a safe environment for children, youth, and vulnerable persons in which opportunities for abuse are minimized by the provision of proper enlistment and supervision of those persons working with them. This document contains theological foundations, definitions of abuse, and policies related to prevention, response, and reporting.

Clergy and laity are encouraged to read this policy and make it an essential part of the operations of each local church. For procedures related to conference events and for resources related to local church policies and procedures visit tnumc.org and go to the Safe Spaces Ministry page.

I. SCOPE

The Tennessee Conference of the United Methodist Church affirms that all children, youth and vulnerable persons have the right to safety. Therefore, United Methodists of the Tennessee Conference are determined to provide an environment in which these persons are safe from neglect or abuse including sexual misconduct and harassment.

The scope of this policy and its provisions shall apply to all staff and volunteers, clergy or lay, who have direct or indirect contact with children, youth, and vulnerable persons in conference and/or district sponsored events. This policy should be implemented in conjunction with the Sexual Misconduct Policy for Church Professionals found at tnumc.org on the Safe Spaces Ministry page.

Safe Spaces Ministry consists of the Safe Sanctuary Team, the Boundaries and Sexual Ethics Team, and the Conference Response Team for the Tennessee Conference. The Safe Spaces Ministry serves to assist in development, review and implementation of policies and procedures necessary for keeping ministry safe. This ministry will facilitate the availability of training for members of the Tennessee Conference.

The Safe Spaces Ministry will be responsible for annual review of the policy and will propose to the annual conference suggested revisions to the policy as needed. Each conference and/or district ministry event involving children, youth, or vulnerable persons shall create procedures to implement this policy.

II. THEOLOGICAL FOUNDATION

Our Biblical Mandate:

“Then Jesus took a little child and put her among them; and taking her in his arms, he said to them, ‘Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me.’” (Paraphrase of Mark 9:36- 37) Jesus also said, “If any of you put a stumbling block before one of these little ones..., it would be better for you if a great millstone were fastened around your neck and you were drowned in the depth of the sea.” (Matthew 18:6)

Our Commitment in Baptism:

The Church, above all institutions, is called to welcome and nurture the child. Our goal is to maintain a safe, secure, loving place where all children may grow and where those who care for them may minister to their needs in responsible ways.

Our Mandate:

The 1996 General Conference approved a resolution that called upon local churches and annual conferences to institute policies and procedures to reduce the risk of child sexual abuse in our churches and church-related activities. We, in the Tennessee Conference, accept the nature of this call and seek to expand it to include all forms of abuse and neglect that could be possible in these settings or that could come to our attention regarding all children, youth, and/or vulnerable persons in our care.

Statement of Covenant:

As caring Christians, we are committed to protect and advocate for all children, youth, and vulnerable persons participating in the life of the church. The Church, at all levels of its organization, is entrusted with the responsibility of providing an emotionally and physically safe, spiritually grounded, healthy environment for all children, youth, adults, and vulnerable persons in which they are protected from abuse.

We uphold the idea that to report abuse is to be a witness to the world of the love and justice of God and fully recognize that reporting abuse is a form of ministering to the needs of those crying out for help. Simply, to report abuse can help to stop existing abuse and prevent further abuse.

Additionally, we care for victims of abuse and their families by offering resources that will contribute to healing. Further, we recognize the grace that God gives in upholding Christian community; we will look for grace-filled ways of dealing with both the victim and the accused.

Therefore, as a Christian community of faith and a United Methodist congregation, we pledge to conduct the ministry of the gospel in ways that assure the safety and spiritual growth of all of our children, youth and vulnerable persons, as well as all of the workers with children, youth and vulnerable persons. We will follow reasonable safety measures in the selection and recruitment of workers; we will implement prudent operational procedures in all programs and events; we will educate all of our workers with children, youth and vulnerable persons regarding the use of all appropriate policies and methods (including first aid and methods of discipline); we will have a clearly defined procedure for reporting a suspected incident of abuse that conforms to the requirements of state law; and we will be prepared to respond to media inquiries if an incident occurs.

III. ADOPTION OF POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Local churches within the conference will adopt and enforce their own Safe Sanctuary Policy For Children, Youth, and Vulnerable Persons. It is recommended that the congregational policy be equal to or exceed in strength of protection for all children, youth, and vulnerable persons the minimum standards here stated. The Tennessee Conference of UMC recommends the local church act as follows:

- A. Responsibility for Implementation. Implementing the Abuse Prevention Policy For Children, Youth, and Vulnerable Persons at a local church shall be the responsibility of the Pastor in Charge, the governing body, and a Safe Sanctuaries Committee (SSC) or its equivalent organized in compliance with the local church's governance process.

Safe Sanctuaries Committee or Equivalent. It is recommended that this committee or its equivalent should have at least one representative each from Education, Age-level ministries, Trustees, and the Staff Parish Relations committees.

- B. Training. Such periodic training and education on the Safe Sanctuary Policy For Children, Youth, and Vulnerable Persons provided by the Tennessee Conference should be attended each quadrennium by the local church Pastor in Charge and SSC chairperson or other SSC designated member. Further, it is recommended that attendance at such conference-wide training include at a minimum, designees from the local church who will be personally coordinating and conducting safe sanctuaries training for employees and staff within the local church.
- C. Annual Review of Policy. The local church Safe Sanctuary Committee will conduct an annual review of the policy to facilitate implementation of best practices and compliance with current state and federal law. A report will be made to the Tennessee Conference as a part of their charge conference report.

IV. COMMON DEFINITIONS OF ABUSE

2. Vulnerable persons abuse is the harm or threatened harm to a vulnerable person's health or welfare by a person responsible for the vulnerable person's health or welfare or by a person in a position of trust, which harm occurs or is threatened through non-accidental physical or mental injury or sexual abuse. A vulnerable person is any adult aged 18 or over who, by reason of mental or other disability, age, illness or other situation is permanently or for the time being unable to take care of him or herself, or to protect him or herself against significant harm or exploitation.
3. Physical abuse is any non-accidental act that inflicts bodily harm to a person, or failure to protect from physical harm where a duty exists to do so.
4. Neglect is failure to provide for physical survival needs (such as nutrition, medical, surgical, or any other care necessary for the well being of any child, youth, or vulnerable persons) to the extent that there is harm, or risk of harm, to health or safety.
5. Sexual abuse is any involvement of a child, youth or vulnerable person in intentional sexual acts or sexual conduct that produces sexual arousal or gratification for the perpetrator or sexual behaviors/situations in which there is a sexual component. Sexual abuse includes, without limitation, sexual contact or sharing of sexually explicit language, gestures, or images by a volunteer or staff person with, or directed to, a child, youth or vulnerable person.
6. Verbal abuse refers to spoken or unspoken violence or emotional cruelty against a child, youth, and/or a vulnerable person.

V. SCREENING PROCEDURES FOR VOLUNTEERS AND PAID STAFF

All persons, including conference staff who intend to work with children, youth, and/or vulnerable persons at conference-sponsored events, including overnight or longer events, must also be properly screened and attend an age-appropriate orientation/ training session on child protection and abuse and have current background check. Local church Safe Sanctuary policies are expected to meet the minimum requirements set out below for training and screening. A Safe Spaces Verification form will be completed and submitted to the appropriate leadership prior to participation.

The following procedures should be followed:

- A written job description outlining duties and expectations must be provided, and shall be signed and dated by each person falling within the scope of the policy.
- An application/personal information form shall be completed.

- A Sexual Offender Registry check in any state where the applicant has resided during the past seven (7) years shall be conducted.
- Consent to a criminal background check. A background check should be provided for anyone staying overnight or longer, i.e. weekend retreats, summer camps.
- A new background check should be performed every 3 years as the standard.
- If the applicant is found to have been involved in any activity in which the applicant abused or exploited children, youth, or vulnerable persons the applicant will not be approved. Any conviction of a crime against children, youth or adults from vulnerable populations and any conviction of rape, sexual or physical assault shall disqualify any applicant. A person who has been convicted as a sex offender will not be approved. Affirmative responses to questions relating to crimes involving possession or use of drugs or suspension of a drivers' license within the past five years will prompt a heightened review of an application.
- Personal interviews with summary documentation will be conducted by the Safe Sanctuary team or conference staff representative and kept in a confidential file maintained by the conference ministry for whom the applicant will serve.
- References will be checked with summary documentation in a confidential file and maintained by the conference ministry for whom the applicant will serve.

VI. RECIPROCITY

The Safe Spaces Ministry Team may accept training provided by other United Methodist conferences or United Methodist churches in other conferences after a review of the policies and procedures implemented in the other conference or church. Screening will be accepted provided that there has been a copy of the National Screen that included a national criminal check conducted by the other conference or church submitted with the request.

VII. REPORTING OF INCIDENTS

Incidents may involve inappropriate behavior by staff/volunteers or other participants toward a participant and call for immediate on-site corrective action. Incidents may involve the abuse, neglect or exploitation of participants by staff/volunteers or other participants and mandate reporting through the Tennessee Child Abuse hotline (1-877-237-0004) or the Adult Protective Services hotline (1-888-277-8366). In case of an emergency, immediately call 9-1-1.

A call to the hotline is required to be made by staff/volunteers if there is reasonable cause to suspect that abuse of a participant has occurred. When the necessity of reporting occurs, the protection of children, youth, and vulnerable persons must be paramount. Cooperation with the Tennessee Department of Children's Services, the Tennessee Commission on Aging and Disability and law enforcement is required in all such incidents.

In case of allegations of abuse occurring in the church or ministries affiliated with the church or having the potential to impact the ministry of the church, the district superintendent and/or bishop shall be notified immediately. The Safe Spaces Ministry staff person will also be notified following notification of the appropriate state or local law enforcement authorities. Parents or legal guardians will generally be notified; however, in circumstances in which the parent or guardian is alleged or suspected to be the perpetrator or may have been complicit in the neglect or abuse, notice may be withheld in appropriate circumstances. When doubt exists, legal counsel should be consulted.

VIII. STATEMENT TO THE MEDIA

The Media Crisis Response Plan should be enacted to insure proper protocol is followed.

The bishop or alternate spokesperson shall provide conference and district ministry groups with guidelines for communications with media about the incident(s) which may have been reported.

IX. FUNDAMENTAL SAFE SPACES PROCEDURES FOR THE CONFERENCE AND DISTRICT

1. Appropriate Boundaries: All persons, staff and participants, will maintain boundaries appropriate to their specific roles, age, and relationship to another.
2. Two Adult Rule: At least two adults should be present during all conference events such that no one adult will be alone with any number of children, youth, or vulnerable persons. At least two of the adults present should be non-related and non-cohabitating. For small group activities where one adult supervises one group, two or more groups are to meet in sight and sound of each other. The ministry leader may also decide to combine groups to ensure the safety of all parties. Small group sizes will be determined by the size of the group, but should not exceed reasonable adult/participant ratios. (When both genders of students are represented, both genders of adults should also be represented.)
3. Five Year Older Rule: Persons supervising children and/or middle school youth (grades 6th-8th) will be at least 18 years old and will be at least 5 years older than the oldest child/youth participant.
4. Four Year Older Rule: Persons supervising high school youth (grades 9th-12th) will be at least 4 years older than the oldest youth participant.

6. Medical Release/Registration Form: All persons attending conference events with children, youth, or vulnerable persons shall have a completed medical release form and completed parental permission form. The medical release form will be valid for a 1-year period beginning August 1 of the current year and expiring July 31 of the next year. It is expected that a new form will be submitted if a change in medical status, change in residence, or other life event occurs. All forms will be maintained by the local church ministry leadership and will be available upon request for verification during conference event check-in.
7. Local Ministry Leader Responsibility: It is expected that the children/youth coordinator/ director from the local church is responsible for the care and supervision of that local church's participants at the conference/district event.

POLICY REVISION DATE: May 2017

POLICY ADOPTION DATE: June 2017

E. SEXUAL MISCONDUCT POLICY FOR CHURCH PROFESSIONALS

of the Tennessee Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church

Preamble

The Tennessee Annual Conference does not approve of and will not tolerate sexual misconduct. The conference is committed to the eradication of this conduct if it should occur and to the creation of an environment of hospitality for all persons, male or female, that is free of sexual overtones and implications, and encourages respect, equality, and kinship in Christ. This policy aims to provide an avenue to report sexual misconduct while assuring that any person doing so in good faith will be protected from retaliation.

All church professionals (see definition) have positions of great trust, power, and responsibility. This provides the opportunity for unique relationships of grace and caring. While church professionals can sometimes violate the trust given them within these relationships, sexual misconduct is one of the gravest violations of this trust. This policy seeks to address the abuse of power by church professionals who engage in sexual misconduct. While this policy is binding for appointed church professionals, it is our hope that it may serve as a guide for other church professionals such as local church laity staff and volunteers.

The intent of this policy is to provide guidance to both laity and clergy of the Tennessee Annual Conference and the local church regarding sexual misconduct and, thereby, protect the relationship between church professionals and parishioners, staff members, colleagues, and others. It is both the ethical and legal responsibility of the Tennessee Annual Conference to ensure that there are mechanisms for preventing sexual misconduct and addressing allegations of the same. This policy provides guidance regarding the definition of sexual misconduct, procedures for filing and addressing allegations of sexual misconduct, and training expectations and requirements designed to prevent sexual misconduct in the Tennessee Annual Conference. The primary focus of this policy shall be the search for truth to assure justice for the complainant and the accused. This policy is not intended to supplant or substitute for the formal complaint process and its attendant fair process protection in the current Book of Discipline, which must, where applicable, be followed in addition to this policy. Failure by church authorities to use or follow any of the procedures herein is not a chargeable offense, nor can it be used as grounds for an appeal of a formal grievance, complaint, review or trial as defined in current Book of Discipline. We are committed to procedural accuracy and pastoral care in the pursuit of justice for victims and survivors, real accountability for abusers, and healing for all parties.

Theological Foundation

We believe and affirm every person is created in the image of God. We further believe and affirm sexual misconduct within the ministerial relationship and in the Church is incompatible with biblical teachings and ethical standards. Sexual misconduct violates the sacred worth of persons who are created in the image of God. Such misconduct is particularly reprehensible in the context of the ministerial relationship that should represent the care of God. It should be understood that sexual misconduct is an abuse of power and authority. This misconduct alienates persons from the ministry of the Church. It tarnishes the Church's ministry and mission. Those guilty of sexual misconduct bring real harm to persons, congregations, and the Church as a whole.

Forgiveness is a sacred teaching of the Church, but this teaching in no way protects a person guilty of sexual misconduct from the discipline of the Church. Representing the Church as a church professional is a privilege requiring the highest professional conduct. Forgiveness by God or by a person harmed by sexual misconduct does not automatically restore the privilege of serving as a church professional. It is not appropriate for church authorities to pressure persons harmed by sexual misconduct to forgive the offender as a way to restore to the offender the privilege of serving as a professional in the Church. Central to the task of church authorities is to protect the vulnerable and to eradicate sexual misconduct from the Church.

Definitions

A. Church Professionals

1. Appointed Church Professionals

Appointed church professionals shall include full, associate, and provisional ministerial members of the Tennessee Annual Conference, as well as ordained deacons (full and provisional) and elders, diaconal ministers and local pastors, in both the effective and retired relationships, supply pastors, and other persons serving the Tennessee Annual Conference or any local church under appointment of the bishop or under the supervision of a district superintendent, including persons keeping their membership in another annual conference or in another denomination and persons holding orders issued by these conferences while on honorable or administrative location. Additionally, this includes lay and clergy persons employed directly by conference agencies including but not limited to the Conference Council on Connectional Ministries.

2. Other Church Professionals

Other church professionals shall include anyone in a position of power, authority, or leadership employed by or serving as a volunteer in a ministry in the Tennessee Annual Conference.

B. Book of Discipline

The 2016 Book of Discipline refers to The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church 2016, which sets forth the laws, plans, polity, and processes by which The United Methodist Church governs itself. It contains insight and information about the distinct United Methodist understanding of the nature and mission of the Church, and about what is expected of its clergy and members as they seek to be faithful and effective disciples of Christ.

C. Book of Resolutions

The Book of Resolutions 2016 refers to the volume containing the text of all resolutions or pronouncements on issues approved by the General Conference and currently valid. The Book of Resolutions contains not only the resolutions and policy statements passed by the most recent General Conference, but also all such statements still considered to represent the position of The United Methodist Church. The text of any resolution is considered the official position of the denomination on that subject.

D. Sexual Misconduct

Misconduct of a sexual nature is a chargeable offense, for both laity and clergy. Chargeable offenses include: child abuse, sexual abuse, sexual misconduct [including pornography], sexual harassment, gender discrimination, crime, and immorality.

Sexual misconduct is abuse of power and authority, and is not only an act against one person, but an act against fellow ministry professionals; members in the local congregation; the Church at large; and God. (Book of Resolutions 2016, ¶2044).

Sexual misconduct includes but is not limited to:

- child or adult sexual abuse
- sexual abuse of youth or those without capacity to consent
- rape or sexual assault
- gross sexual imposition like prolonged gazing, fondling, grabbing, or stalking
- sexual harassment
- unwelcome touching and advances
- inappropriate and unwelcome contacts of a sexual nature either in person or via phone, digital media, or cyberspace
- sexualized verbal comments, gestures, or visuals
- use of sexualized materials including pornography

- sexualized behavior
- solicitation of sexual activity or other sex-related behavior by promise of rewards
- coercion of sexual activity by threat of punishment
- or misuse of pastoral or ministerial position using sexualized conduct to take advantage of the vulnerability of another (The Book of Discipline 2012, ¶161, Book of Resolutions 2016, ¶2081, ¶2082)

Each alleged occurrence of sexual misconduct requires its own unique and appropriate investigation (as described below) and response, depending on the facts and circumstances.

Sexual harassment is a form of sexual misconduct and is defined in The 2016 Book of Discipline, Social Principles ¶161(J) as, “any unwanted sexual comment, advance, or demand, either verbal or physical, that is reasonably perceived by the recipient as demeaning, intimidating or coercive. Sexual harassment must be understood as an exploitation of a power relationship rather than an exclusively sexual issue. Sexual harassment includes, but is not limited to, the creation of a hostile or abusive working environment resulting from discrimination on the basis of gender.” To clarify further, it is unwanted sexual or gender-directed behavior within a pastoral, employment, ministerial (paid or unpaid), mentor, or colleague relationship that is so severe or pervasive that it alters the conditions of employment or volunteer work or unreasonably interferes with the complainant’s performance by creating a hostile environment that can include unwanted sexual jokes, repeated advances, touching, displays, or comments that insult, degrade, or sexually exploit women, men, elders, children, or youth. “It can create a hostile, offensive environment that can include unwanted inappropriate sexual jokes, repeated advances, touching, displays, or comments that insult, degrade, or sexually exploit women, men, elders, children, or youth” (Book of Resolutions 2016, ¶2045). Both sexual and gender harassment are exploitations of power and are discriminatory by law (GCFA Legal Manual, <http://www.gcfa.org/gcfa-legal-manual>).

Sexual abuse is a form of sexual misconduct and occurs when a church professional engages in sexual contact or sexualized behavior with a congregant, client, employee, student, staff member, coworker, or volunteer (Book of Resolutions 2016, ¶161(I)). It can include coerced or forced sexual contact (including those unable to give informed consent), sexual interaction or contact with children or youth, and sexual exhibitionism or display of sexual visuals or pornography.

Sexualized behavior is behavior that communicates sexual interest and/or content. Examples include, but are not limited to displaying sexually suggestive visual materials; use of pornography in church programs on or with church property, making sexual comments or innuendo about one’s own or another person’s body; touching another person’s body; touching another person’s body/hair/clothing; touching or rubbing oneself in the presence of another person; kissing; and sexual intercourse. Sexualized behavior can be a form of sexual misconduct when this behavior is unwanted by the recipient or witness, is a violation of society’s or the Church’s law, breaks the sacred trust in the ministerial role, or violates the vows taken at membership or ordination. The judicial council asserts that dating, romantic, or sexual relationships between clergy and their parishioners “are never appropriate because of imbalance of power” (Decision 1228, 2012). For the sake of maintaining healthy boundaries and preventing a betrayal of sacred trust, a clergyperson who has a genuine desire to date a parishioner must contact their district superintendent, and in consultation with the DS, determine a reasonable course of action for discontinuing the pastor/parishioner relationship before beginning a dating relationship.

Pornography is sexually explicit material that portrays violence, abuse, coercion, domination, humiliation, or degradation for the purpose of arousal. Any sexually explicit material that depicts children or adults is pornographic. “The United Methodist Church declares that the use of pornography in church programs, on church premises or with church property by persons in ministerial roles (lay and clergy) is a form of sexual misconduct, is a chargeable offense for laity and clergy in The United Methodist Church” (Book of Resolutions 2016, ¶2081, ¶2082).

E. Complainant

A complainant is a person who submits a written, signed, and dated statement alleging an incident of sexual or professional misconduct. A complainant may be a parent or responsible party for a minor or an adult incapable of self-reporting.

F. Respondent

A respondent is a church professional against whom a complaint has been made.

G. Complainant Advocate (Response Team Member)

A trained complainant advocate is a response team member who actively supports a complainant of church professional misconduct/sexual abuse through the denominational complaint process. The role of advocate is one of care-giving, not investigation. (The 2016 Book of Discipline ¶362, 363, and 2702.1)

H. Respondent Advocate (Response Team Member)

A trained respondent advocate is a response team member who actively supports a respondent who is accused of sexual misconduct/abuse through the denomination complaint process as discussed in The 2016 Book of Discipline in paragraphs ¶362, 363, and 2702.1. The role of advocate is one of care-giving, not investigation.

I. Conference Response Team Coordinator

The conference response team coordinator oversees the complaint process, serves as a resource for district superintendents, bishops, complainants, and respondents and maintains the integrity of the process including documentation of complaints for the office of the bishop. This may be the assistant to the bishop, an appointed conference response team member, or appropriate Tennessee Conference personnel. The role of conference response team coordinator is one of care-giving, not investigation.

Making a Report

Any concern a person has about sexual misconduct by a church professional should be promptly reported to any district superintendent or the bishop. The list of names of the current persons in these positions and their contact information may be found at www.tnmc.org or by calling the conference office at 615-329-1177. If for any reason such person finds it difficult to report his or her concerns to a district superintendent or the bishop, the person may contact a trained advocate or the conference response team coordinator, who is available to assist any complainant with the process in making a report to either a district superintendent or the bishop. A list of the members of the conference response team along with the conference response team coordinator's contact information can be found in each volume of the Journal of the Tennessee Annual Conference following each annual conference session or at www.tnmc.org/safe-spaces-ministry. (The 2016 Book of Discipline ¶363)

Mandatory Reporting

In no way should this policy be interpreted or applied in a manner that interferes with any licensed practitioner in fulfilling his/her mandatory reporting requirements.

All allegations of sexual misconduct with minors or vulnerable adults occurring in Tennessee will be reported to the appropriate governmental agencies, as required by mandatory reporting laws of Tennessee.

Policy Against Retaliation

No retaliation will be tolerated on account of a good faith report of sexual misconduct. Prohibited retaliation will be considered a separate and independent violation of this policy and appropriate action may be taken against that retaliator. Anyone who believes they have been retaliated against may also report such retaliation as detailed above in Making a Report. The person is encouraged to report retaliation immediately to a district superintendent or the bishop, or contact his or her trained advocate or the conference response team coordinator for assistance in reporting the concern to a district superintendent or the bishop.

Investigation

Upon receipt by a district superintendent or the bishop of a report, a prompt and thorough investigation into the allegations of sexual misconduct against any church professional will be conducted and appropriate corrective action, if called for based upon all of the facts, shall be taken and concluded within a reasonable period of time. The scope and details of each investigation will depend on the nature of the report and the related circumstances. In circumstances involving church professionals, by doctrinal law, the procedure may be governed by The 2016 Book of Discipline in ¶362 and ¶2701-2719. In each instance, the investigation will be handled with as much discretion as the circumstances permit to protect the privacy of the individuals involved. All persons having reported suspected sexual misconduct should refrain from contacting the person suspected of such conduct. Likewise, the persons suspected of such conduct shall refrain from contacting the complainant or alleged victim, unless otherwise directed by the bishop or district superintendent. All persons serving as witnesses in the investigation should refrain from contacting the complainant or the respondent, unless directed by a district superintendent or bishop to do so, in order to preserve the integrity and confidentiality of the investigation and confidentiality.

All persons having received a report of sexual misconduct, including anyone specifically engaged to serve as an advocate or investigate such reports, shall keep all reports confidential, except as required by The 2016 Book of Discipline, where applicable, or necessary to investigate and resolve such matters, and/or to respond to any related legal or administrative proceedings.

During the course of an investigation, a trained complainant advocate may be assigned to provide ongoing support to a complainant or alleged victim. Likewise, a trained respondent advocate may be assigned to provide ongoing support to the respondent. Both advocates are bound by the confidentiality provisions of this policy.

All allegations of sexual misconduct with minors or vulnerable adults occurring in Tennessee will be reported to the appropriate governmental agencies, as required by mandatory reporting laws of Tennessee.

Training

Appointed church professionals (see definition) serving in the Tennessee Annual Conference are required to attend official Tennessee Annual Conference trainings on 1) Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics and 2) Safe Sanctuaries each quadrennium. All transfers and candidates for ministry are required to complete these trainings prior to commissioning or appointment, whichever comes first. Compliance with these training requirements and a completed criminal background check are conditions of employment or ministerial appointment. A church professional failing to comply with these conditions of appointment may be cited an administrative charge by the bishop in accordance with The 2016 Book of Discipline ¶362.

It is strongly suggested that other church professionals (see definition) attend official Tennessee Annual Conference trainings on 1) Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics and 2) Safe Sanctuaries each quadrennium.

Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics Team

The 2010 report of the Sexual Ethics Task Force recommended to the annual conference that a Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics Team be formed to guide the portion of the Safe Spaces Ministry tasked with reviewing policies and implementing training opportunities in the best practices to create and maintain healthy boundaries for ministry. The Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics Team is a sub-team of the Safe Spaces Ministry Committee. This committee is made of the three teams: 1) Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics team; 2) Safe Sanctuary Team; 3) Conference Response Team. The Safe Spaces Ministry serves to insure that policies and procedures necessary for keeping ministry safe in order for sacred space to be created are developed, reviewed, appropriately presented and training provided for members of the Tennessee Annual Conference. The work of the committee is funded through apportionment giving as allocated through the Connectional Ministries budget on an annual basis. The Connectional Ministries, the Nashville Episcopal Area Office of Ministerial Concerns and the Tennessee Conference Board of Ordained Ministry work collaboratively to guide this vital ministry.

Availability of Policy

This policy shall be presented annually in the Journal of the Tennessee Annual Conference. Further, it shall be posted at www.tnumc.org continuously. It should be made available in at least one common area of every church in the Tennessee Annual Conference. It is strongly recommended that the Sexual Misconduct is Never Okay flyer be prominently displayed in one common area of every church in the Tennessee Annual Conference. This flyer is available for download at www.tnumc.org/safe-spaces-ministry. Questions about the policy should be directed to the staff liaison to the Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics Team through the Tennessee Annual Conference. This liaison will be identified on the conference website where the policy is located.

AUDIT STATEMENT & STATISTICS

2018 AUDITED FINANANCIAL STATEMENT

GENERAL STATISTICAL TABLES

EXTENSION MINISTRY COMPENSATION

A. 2018 AUDITED FINANCIAL STATEMENT

Independent Auditors' Report

To the Council on Finance and Administration of the Tennessee Conference,
United Methodist Church, Inc.

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of the Tennessee Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc. (a not-for-profit organization) and its subsidiaries (the Conference), which comprise the consolidated statements of financial position as of December 31, 2018 and 2017, the related consolidated statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements (collectively, the financial statements).

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

The Conference has not presented in the accompanying financial statements six months of activity of the consolidated subsidiaries of the Caney Fork River, Cumberland River, Harpeth River, Red River, and Stones River (the Districts) in which the Conference was granted control July 1, 2017. Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require the primary beneficiary of a variable interest entity to consolidate the variable interest entity in its financial statements. If the Conference would have included the additional activity, other income, program expenses, and cash would have increased $152,250, $206,956, and $179,385, respectively.

Qualified Opinion

In our opinion, except for the effects of the matter described in the Basis for Qualified Opinion paragraph, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Tennessee Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc. and its subsidiaries as of December 31, 2018 and 2017, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Emphasis of Matter (Change of Reporting Entity)

As discussed in Note 1B to the financial statements, the entity includes the Tennessee Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc. and the Caney Fork River District, Cumberland River District, Harpeth River District, Red River District, and Stones River District. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

Emphasis of Matter (New Accounting Pronouncement)

As discussed in Note 1P, to the financial statements, the Conference adopted new accounting guidance Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Update No. 2016-14, Not-for-Profit Entities (Topic 958) – Presentation of Financial Statements of Not-for-Profit Entities. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

Emphasis of Matter (Restatement of 2017)

As discussed in Note 12 to the financial statements, the financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2017 have been restated to correct a misstatement. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

Other Matter

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements as a whole. The accompanying supplementary information is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements. Such information has not been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements, and accordingly, we do not express an opinion or provide any assurance on it.

TENNESSEE CONFERENCE,
UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, INC.
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
December 31, 2018 and 2017

Note 1. Nature of Organization and Significant Accounting Policies

A. Nature of Organization

The Tennessee Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc. (the Conference) is a regional body of The United Methodist Church comprised of the lay members, clergy, and 600+ churches in 42 counties in middle Tennessee. The Conference is primarily responsible for all the ministries that are jointly provided by and for the United Methodists in its geographic area. The Conference administers Conference operating and program funds that are received from churches, boards and agencies, and individuals of the Conference, in accordance with the budget and other directives of the Annual Conference, the respective boards and agencies and donors.

B. Principles of Consolidation

The accompanying financial statements include the accounts under the accounting of the Conference Treasurer and the Caney Fork River District, Cumberland River District, Harpeth River District, Red River District, and Stones River District (the Districts) which are collectively, the Conference, after elimination of all material intercompany accounts and transactions.

Effective July 1, 2017, the Districts were incorporated into the Conference. The 2017 information presented does not include six months of activity of the accounts of the Districts which if included would have additional other income of $152,250, program expenses of $206,956 and cash of $179,385 with no other material effect on the consolidated statements of activities, cash flows or financial position.

Accumulated unrestricted reserves held previously by the districts prior to July 1, 2017 were renamed the Tennessee Cabinet Reserve Fund and were transferred to the Nashville Area Episcopal Office. These funds are assets of the Conference but under the control the Nashville Area Episcopal Office. As such, the Tennessee Cabinet Reserve Fund is excluded from the consolidated financial statements and is presented within the financial statements of the Nashville Area Episcopal Office. The Tennessee Cabinet Reserve Fund is audited separately within the scope of the Nashville Area Episcopal Office audit. The balance of the Tennessee Cabinet Reserve Fund as of December 31, 2018 and 2017, was $1,031,068 and $889,487.

C. Basis of Accounting

The financial statements have been prepared using the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (US GAAP).

D. Financial Statement Presentation

The Conference follows the recommendations contained in the Presentation of Financial Statements, Not-For-Profit Entities topic of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification. Under those provisions, net assets and revenues, gains, and losses are classified based on the absence or existence and nature of donor-imposed restrictions as follows:

Net Assets Without Donor Restrictions – Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed stipulations.

Net Assets With Donor Restrictions – Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that can be fulfilled by actions of the Conference pursuant to those stipulations or that expire by the passage of time. Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that may be maintained permanently by the Conference. Generally, the donors of such assets permit the Conference to use all or part of the income earned on the assets.

Donor restricted contributions are reported as increases in net assets with donor restrictions. When a restriction expires, net assets are reclassified from net assets with donor restrictions to net assets without donor restrictions in the consolidated statements of activities.

Note 1. Nature of Organization and Significant Accounting Policies – Continued

E. Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with US GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

F. Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Conference defines its cash, designated cash and cash equivalents to include cash on hand, demand deposits, and commercial paper and other investments with initial maturities of three months or less.

G. Investments

Investments in marketable securities with readily determinable fair values and all investments in debt securities are reported at their fair values in the statements of financial position. The Conference holds investments which are reported at Net Asset Value (NAV) per share or its equivalent as a practical expedient, to determine the fair value of investments in funds which (a) do not have a readily determinable fair value and (b) either have the attributes of an investment fund or prepare their financial statements consistent with the measurement principles of an investment fund.

Unrealized gains and losses are included in changes in net assets. Investment income and gains restricted by a donor are reported as increases in net assets without donor restrictions if the restrictions are met in the reporting period in which the income and gains are recognized. However, if a donor contributes an investment required to be held in perpetuity, gains and losses on the investment are subject to the same permanent restriction unless the donor explicitly states otherwise.

H. Fair Value Measurements

The fair value of financial assets and liabilities is measured according to the Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures topic of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification. Fair value is required to be evaluated and adjusted according to the following valuation techniques.

Level 1 – Fair value is determined using quoted market prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities.

Level 2 – Fair value is determined using quoted market prices in active markets for similar assets and liabilities.

Level 3 – Fair value is determined using unobservable market prices in a market that is typically inactive.

I. Income Taxes

The Conference is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

J. Receivables

Apportionments receivable represent apportionments received after year-end for the budget year ended December 31, 2018 and 2017. No allowance for doubtful collections has been recorded.

Accounts receivable represent contributions and other revenue received after year-end for the budget year ended December 31, 2018 and 2017. No allowance for doubtful collections has been recorded.

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, INC.

K. Fixed Assets

Fixed assets are carried at cost if purchased and estimated fair market value if donated. Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, excluding land, which are 5 to 30 years. Depreciation expense for the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017 was $239,364 and $255,318. Fixed assets include land, buildings, improvements, equipment, vehicles, and furniture and fixtures.

Donated closed churches actively marketed for sale are not depreciated but accounted for according to the Property, Plant, and Equipment topic of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification. The Conference owns land and buildings that are currently being held for sale. These assets are closed churches. As required by ¶2549 of The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church, when a church closes the Conference may retain, sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of the property in accordance with the direction of the annual conference.

L. Donated Services

Contributed services are reflected in the financial statements at the estimated fair value of the services received only when those services either (a) create or enhance nonfinancial assets, or (b) require specialized skills that are provided by individuals possessing those skills and would typically need to be purchased if not provided by donation. Unpaid volunteers make contributions of time in various administrative and program functions. The Conference has not valued these donations.

M. Revenue and Support

Contributions are received and recorded as donor restricted or without donor restrictions depending on the existence and/or nature of any donor restrictions. Contributions received and unconditional promises to give are measured at their fair values and are reported as an increase in net assets without donor restrictions. When a donor restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished, net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the statements of activities as net assets released from restrictions. Donor-restricted contributions whose restrictions are met in the same reporting period are reported as unrestricted support.

The primary source of support are apportionments received from the local churches in the Conference. Apportionments expire at the end of each calendar year and, therefore, have been recorded as unrestricted support. Contributions and other revenue are primarily receipts by programs that have external sources of revenue such as registration fees, reimbursements, or receipts of the Districts.

N. Advertising Costs

Advertising costs are expensed as incurred and are included in program expense.

O. Functional Expenses

The costs of providing program and other activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the statements of activities. Some costs have been charged using specific identification. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among program services and supporting services. Such allocations are determined by management on an equitable basis.

The expenses that are allocated include the following:

Expenses	Method of Allocation
Campus Ministries	Time and Effort
Depreciation	Square Footage
Salaries and Benefits	Time and Effort
Telephone and Internet	Square Footage
Utilities	Square Footage

P. New Accounting Pronouncement

On August 18, 2016, FASB issued ASU No. 2016-14, Not-for-Profit Entities (Topic 958) – Presentation of Financial Statements of Not-for-Profit Entities. The update addresses the complexity and understandability of net asset classification, deficiencies in information about liquidity and availability of resources, and the lack of consistency in the type of information provided about expenses and investment return. The Conference has adjusted the presentation of these statements accordingly.

Q. Reclassifications

Certain reclassifications have been made to the 2017 financial statements to conform to 2018 presentation.

Note 2. Availability and Liquidity

The following represents the Fund's financial assets at December 31, 2018:

Note 8. Retirement Plans

The Conference provides pension benefits for clergy serving churches in the Tennessee Conference under Episcopal appointment, and full-time permanent staff of the Conference through various retirement plans. All plans are multi-employer plans administered by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits of The United Methodist Church (Wespath). Wespath operates under the authority of the church's General Conference and implements the plans in accordance with the plan documents. Pension benefits for clergy are a combination of defined benefit and defined contribution plans. Pension benefits for Conference lay staff are all defined contribution plans. Total Conference contributions to all plans for the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017 were $3,160,965 and $3,213,870. The various retirement plans are listed below.

Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP)

CRSP is a multi-employer 403(b) retirement plan that provides pension coverage to eligible clergy. CRSP is both a defined benefit plan, which provides benefits based on years of credited service, and a defined contribution plan, which provides a retirement account balance established and funded by the Conference. Contributions to the defined benefit plan are actuarially determined and contributions to the defined contribution plan equal 3% of the clergy's monthly compensation.

Effective January 1, 2014, contributions to the defined benefit plan are actuarially determined and contributions to the defined contribution plan equal 2% of the clergy's compensation, plus a matching contribution of up to 1% of the clergy's compensation, for a maximum of 3%.

Supplement One to CRSP (Pre-1982)

Pre-1982 is a multi-employer 403(b) defined benefit plan for Conference clergy entering service prior to January 1, 1982. General Conference 2000 required each annual conference to adopt a formal funding plan to retire the conference pre-1982 pension obligations. The Conference's Pre-1982 plan has been fully funded since the mid-1990s. The Conference approves a minimum distribution (past service rate) each year for participants in the Pre-1982 plan, based on a recommendation by the Conference Board of Pensions. The PSR for the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017 was $692 and $682 for pre-1982 service years, which is 1.04% and 1.05% of the Conference average compensation respectively.

United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP)

The UMPIP is a multi-employer 403(b) defined contribution plan providing eligible clergy and employees of the Conference with retirement savings. Conference employees and clergy may contribute up to the dollar limits set by current Internal Revenue Service regulations under both pre-tax and after-tax elections. The Conference makes no contributions to this plan for full-time clergy, who participate in CRSP. Effective January 1, 2014, the Conference contributes 12% of part-time clergy's compensation into UMPIP. The Conference matches non-clergy contributions of 3% or more of compensation with a fixed 12% matching contribution. No matching contribution is provided for employee contributions less than 3% of compensation.

Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP)

CPP is a multi-employer health and welfare plan that provides death and disability benefits as well as other supplemental benefits to eligible clergy and their beneficiaries. CPP is funded by the Conference at a rate of 3% of compensation.

Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP)

MPP covers clergy who served from 1982 through 2006. It is a multi-employer defined contribution plan, but differs from a true defined contribution plan in that upon retirement, participants must annuitize 65% of their account balances, and the Conference is responsible for funding the annuities should the need arise. Upon annuitization, the monthly benefit becomes a defined benefit.

Some amounts designated for pension benefits have been transferred to the legal title of Wespath multi-employer plans and are not reported in these financial statements as net assets of the Conference. The December 31 value of these Wespath accounts was as follows:

Description	2018	2017

Note 9. Health Care Plan

The Conference sponsors the Tennessee Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc. Health Benefit Plan (HBP). The HBP is open to all eligible plan participants including clergy, full-time Conference staff, designated students who are part-time local pastors and their respective eligible dependents. The Conference director of administrative services is the plan administrator. The plan administrator uses a third-party administrator for processing claims and other duties but retains responsibility for benefits payable. The HBP is a self-funded plan paying covered benefits out of Conference assets. Plan participants help cover some costs of covered benefits through contributions, deductibles and out-of-pocket expenses.

Conference payments to the HBP for the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017 were $3,905,074 and $2,846,242.

Participation in the HBP can continue upon retirement under the Conference's formal retirement plan provided the participant makes required contributions to the plan. This coverage can continue until age 65 with stipulations. The Conference uses the fiscal year as the measurement date for its plan.

The Conference has not pre-funded its postretirement healthcare plan but operates instead on a pay-as-you-go basis. Unfunded Postretirement Healthcare Benefits have been recognized representing the underfunded status of the Conference HBP as of December 31 as follows:

	2018	2017

All Pension Reserves were conveyed or redirected into the Trust effective July 1, 2017. The Treasurer is authorized to make routine transactions into and out of the Trust as provided in the approved budget; but otherwise, the Trust assets are designed for uses approved by its elected trustees, who are all members of the Conference Board of Pensions.

Note 13. Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements

In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842). This new accounting guidance will increase transparency and comparability among organizations by recognizing lease assets and lease liabilities on the balance sheet and disclosing key information about leasing arrangements. This standard is effective for nonpublic entities for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2019.

In June 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-13, Financial Instruments – Credit Losses (Topic 326). This standard requires organizations to measure all expected credit losses for financial assets held at the reporting date based on historical experience, current conditions, and reasonable and supportable forecasts. ASU 2016-13 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2020, and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2021. Early application is permitted. Entities are required to apply the amendments at the beginning of the earliest period presented using a modified retrospective approach. The Conference does not expect the provisions of this new accounting guidance to have a material impact on its financial position, results of operations, and cash flows.

In August 2018, the FASB issued ASU No. 2018-08, Clarifying the Scope and Accounting Guidance for Contributions Received and Contributions Made (Topic 958). This standard clarifies the scope and the accounting guidance for contributions received and contributions made. ASU 2018-08 will result in treatment of most federal grants as donor-restricted conditional contributions rather than exchange transactions and applies to all entities that make or receive contributions. This standard is effective for nonpublic entities for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2020. The Conference is currently evaluating the effect that implementation of the new standard will have on its consolidated financial position.

Note 14. Subsequent Events

The Conference has evaluated events and transactions for subsequent events that would impact the financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2018 through September 10, 2019, the date the financial statements were available to be issued.
