DAILY PROCEEDINGS, 53RD SESSION

2020 TENNESSEE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

SEPTEMBER 19, 2020

Bishop William McAlilly called to order the 53rd Tennessee Annual Conference at 9:55 a.m.

Monica Mowdy presents opening motions.

- Announces that members of the Tennessee Annual Conference should download the TNAC app. All necessary documents will be found there.
- Roll call: 658 clergy, 658 laity
- Moves to set the bar in the following fashion: that those who are authorized to participate in the 53rd Annual Conference Session of the Tennessee Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church [2016 BOD ss. 601, 602, 603, 604, 605, 606] on September 18th and 19th of 2020, agree that they consent to proceed in a virtual annual conference session using remote technology; and that they further consent that all decisions made in this session have the same effect and authority as decisions made by an in-person session of the annual conference conducted under the Constitution of The United Methodist Church [Division Two, Section VI, Article 1 (para. 32); Article II (para. 33); Article III (para. 34); Article IV (para. 35); Article V (para. 36)], under the laws of the Church, and under the Rules of Order of the Tennessee Conference; and finally, that they consent that all such decisions made in this session are and will be legal and binding actions of the 2020 Tennessee Annual Conference. The bar of the annual conference shall contain all conference members who log in through the GNTV log-in information for the conference provided by GNTV.
- Moves to elect the following officers for the organization of the Tennessee Annual Conference:
 - Recording secretaries: Rev. Nancy Speas and Rev. Erin Racine
 - Head teller, serving as moderator: Rev. Stephen Sauls
 - Assistant head tellers/moderators: Rev. Nick Baird-Chrisohon and Rev. Stephanie Dodge
- Tennessee Conference staff who are providing technical support may be present during the meeting: conference chancellor Lisa Carson; Tennessee Conference office staff; GNTV staff; episcopal office staff; those selected to make reports; journal editor; guests from the Memphis Conference; Brentwood United Methodist Church staff; and emergency personnel.
- Members of the annual conference are responsible for ensuring that all necessary technology on the member's side of the meeting is in proper working order prior to the meeting.
- All votes taken shall be conducted in accordance with The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church and 2020 Tennessee Conference Standing Rules. Poll logs will be maintained for all votes.
- The meeting will be conducted in a manner such that all participants are afforded a reasonable opportunity to simultaneously hear discussion. Only items in the published agenda will be considered. All voting members will have the right to communicate through the proper electronic system. Those recognized to speak will be heard by all participants. All those who have the right to vote will be able to vote on all matters submitted during the meeting.
- To maintain an open meeting, the annual conference meeting will be live-streamed and recorded for playback.
- Discussion shall be limited to three 2-minute speeches for the motion, legislation, or report and three 2-minute speeches against. This excludes persons inquiring about points of order or asking questions for clarification.

- Moves that we suspend Standing Rule 2.8 that states, “voting cards shall be the means of identifying who is eligible to vote on all issues requiring a vote,” and allow the issuance of voting identification cards to eligible voters to serve as voter identification.
- Minutes of the 53rd Annual Conference will be taken by video as well as by recording secretaries and entered into the conference journal.
- Please make any necessary submissions to the annual conference secretary: Rev. Monica Mowdy, PO Box 241 Carthage, Tennessee 37030.
- Moves to adopt the agenda for this conference as it is posted on the Tennessee Conference website and the Tennessee Conference app.
- Moves to adopt the consent agenda also found on the webpage and in the app.
- Bishop calls for vote at 10:02 a.m. with ballot code td101. Motion to accept consent agenda passes unanimously.
- Yes 358, No 0

Jeremy Squires presents conference resolutions:

- Report of the Resolutions Committee
- The Resolutions Committee has determined that all resolutions presented this year meet the test of constitutionality and concurrence.
- Moves to accept Rental Housing Allowance for Retired/, Disabled, or Former Clergypersons of the Tennessee Conference. Bishop calls for vote with ballot code td102 at 10:06 a.m.; motion passes.
- Yes 407, No 5
- Moves to approve A Call to Care for God’s Good Creation resolution related to affirmation and continuation of the Creation Care Ministry. The resolution can be found in Chapter 6.
- Paul Slentz, clergy, speaks for the motion.
 - The resolution points to Scripture and affirms the goodness of God’s creation and how stewardship is an important way that we live out Christ’s call to love God and neighbor.
 - It points to the church’s Social Principles, which state that we all have responsibility to care for this good gift from God.
 - In recognition of our Wesleyan heritage, which respects the place of reason in our faith, it points to the findings of science, which describe the many ways that humanity is harming this good gift. It especially lifts up the devastating damage of human-caused climate change, seen most recently in the wildfires in the West, and the increasing frequency of hurricanes here in the Southeast, and notes that it is the poor and persons of color here and throughout the world who are harmed first.
 - It calls for these specific responses:
 - ♦ Affirms the work of the Conference Creation Care Ministry and encourages its continuance in some form in the new Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference. This is just an expression of encouragement; this resolution can’t dictate that.
 - ♦ Encourages local churches to incorporate care for creation into all aspects of church life.
 - ♦ Encourages engagement in shaping public policies that are in harmony with creation care.
 - ♦ Calls on the Conference Creation Care Ministries to work in conjunction with United Methodists globally in advocating for action aimed at halting climate change through steep reduction in greenhouse gas emissions. Faithful stewardship of God’s good creation is a central calling of our discipleship in the 21st century.
- Question about the monetary requirement of the resolution.
 - Paul Slentz: Each year, $1,000 comes from Church and Society Committee of the conference; all other money comes from individual gifts.
- Bishop McAlilly asks members of the conference to be sure that their screen name matches their voting name. Those with church names or nicknames will be unable to be recognized to speak or make a motion.

- Ben Sanders, laity, Columbia First UMC, moves to remove action items three and four from the resolution.
 - He believes in the importance of this ministry and in the importance of this topic for local churches.
 - He has concerns that items three and four encourage churches to engage politically. There are occasions for the Church to engage politically, but this item does not rise to that level.
 - ♦ There are unintended consequences when churches and conferences engage politically.
- Richard Galphin, speech against the original motion.
 - He questions the references to “man having dominion” that have been changed to “man having caretaking” of creation. This is mincing words. He is concerned about changing Jesus as “Heavenly Father” to Jesus as “Heavenly Parent.” It is not our position to change the wording of the Bible in this format.
 - He wonders what is being proposed in terms of limiting our carbon footprint.
 - ♦ Should we turn off the heating in our churches and tell our members to do the same? He believes it is loosely worded and very unclear; it can be applied in many different ways.
- Ann Cover, clergy, retired, speech for the resolution
 - Ann cannot be heard.
- Richard Galphin moves to amend the motion to change the words, “Heavenly Parent” to “Heavenly Father.”
- Paul Slentz speaks against the Ben Sanders amendment.
 - The UMC has a long history of social engagement, including speaking out regarding public policy when our faith and values are involved. This does rise to the level of that requirement. There are many ways the creation is being harmed and there are ways for it to be dealt with in a systemic way.
 - Individual actions are important but they are not enough. They need to be dealt with in a systemic way and that requires public policy. There is a special urgency related to climate change, for example: wildfires, global temperatures that are rising, and hurricanes that are devastating our coasts here in the Southeast, with more on the way. Scientists assert that these are being caused by humans, by greenhouse gas emissions. We need to respond with public policy. We can’t do all of that as individuals.
- Richard Galphin seconds the Ben Sanders amendment.
- Michael Guertin, clergy, speaks for the Galphin amendment.
 - We should keep the biblical wording of “Heavenly Father,” as Jesus saw fit to refer to God as his Heavenly Father continually throughout the scripture.
- Zak Kelley, laity, West End UMC, moves to table the amendment by Ben Sanders.
 - Seconded by Jason Padgett and Kara Gilliam
 - Motion to table is ballot td303; motion passes. Sanders amendment tabled.
 - ♦ Yes 331, No 183
- Galphin speaks for his amendment.
 - It is not our place to rewrite words in the Bible. He prefers to stick with the biblically translated words of “Heavenly Father.” In all four gospels, Jesus referred to God as his father, not his parent. We should stay with that wording to be biblically accurate.
 - Motion to amend is ballot td304; motion passes; resolution is amended.
- Zack Moffatt, clergy, point of order.
 - Asks if there was a second for the amendment by Richard Galphin.
 - Bishop McAlilly clarifies that there was no second to the Galphin amendment.
 - Guertin seconds the amendment.
- Bishop McAlilly calls for a vote on the Galphin amendment to change the wording of “Heavenly Parent” to “Heavenly Father” with ballot code td304; motion passes.
 - Yes 304, No 242
- John Hill, clergy, Crieviewood UMC, calls the question.
 - Motion to call the question is ballot td305; motion passes.
 - ♦ Yes 487, No 46

- Dawn Kilpatrick, Blankenship UMC, point of clarification
 - Wonders if we are voting on the entire resolution, including items three and four.
 - Bishop McAlilly clarifies that we are voting on the main motion, including items three and four.
- Bishop McAlilly calls for a vote on the amended resolution, ballot td103; motion passes; resolution is accepted as amended.
 - Yes 428, No 105
- Jeremy Squires moves to approve Golden Cross Date Change Resolution, moving the date of the Golden Cross offering to the second Sunday of September, traditionally observed as Grandparents' Day.
- Motion seconded. Bishop McAlilly clarifies that the resolution doesn't need a second when it comes from the Resolutions Committee.
- Bishop McAlilly calls for a vote on the Golden Cross Resolution with ballot td104. Motion passes; resolution is approved as submitted.
 - Yes 539, No 5
- Jeremy Squires presents three resolutions having to do with the conference merger, and one relating to officers and agency representatives. The names of those resolutions are as follows (see Chapter 6 for each resolution):
 - Resolution Regarding Continued Progress Toward the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference of The United Methodist Church
 - Resolution Appointing a Joint Distributing Committee
 - Resolution for Office Space Study and Sale of Conference Property
 - Resolution for Appointments of Officers, Agencies, Boards, and Other Agency Offices to Continue Through December 31, 2021
- Each of these resolutions, and cabinet resolutions, will be voted on at a later time.
 - Five of the cabinet resolutions include an error, in that they list the date of closure as the date the church ceased to operate, rather than the date of formal closure by the annual conference. The Resolutions Committee has made a technical correction to the resolutions related to Jacob's Pillar UMC, Shipley UMC, Mount Nebo UMC, Shawnette UMC, and Barth Vernon UMC, to correct this error and set the date of closure as September 19, 2020.

Rob Martin, co-chair of the New Conference Guide Team, presents New Conference Report and Resolutions.

- Members of the Guide Team are recognized: co-chair Melinda Britt, Bishop McAlilly, Bethany Huffman, Cindy Solomon, H.G. Stovall, Jefferson Furtado, Jim Allen, John Pierce, Larry Davis, Lynn Taylor, Roger Hopson
- Advisory Team includes over 100 clergy and laity from both conferences. They met six times, offering feedback and direction, taking into consideration mission, vision, and values that were adopted by both legacy annual conferences. A list of these advisory team members is available on the new conference website.
- Communications Team: H.G. Stovall introduces new conference website: www.twkumc.org.
- Shows the logo for the new conference.
- Changing Context and Transition Timeline: Melinda Young Britt presents an overview of team's work and merger timeline.
- This year has not been what the Guide Team thought it would be when they first began meeting. God has been faithfully equipping the hundreds of leaders involved in this work. The postponement of General and jurisdictional conferences has postponed the creation of the new conference. However, next steps are possible and are undergirded by ministry groups.
- Teams are creating strategies, which are being formed by Hebrews 11, our faith story of adaptive leaders who rely on God. Tools include ways to incorporate growing relationships across the area. The teams agreed to live in covenant as leaders. The covenant was created by Guide Team, adopted by Advisory Team, and adapted and lived into by task teams. The covenant has allowed team members to encounter God through the creation of new relationships and enabled them to get through the rough patches in their work. Team members have been transformed in this process. The covenant and tools used for this work are available on the new conference website.

- The work is not complete but is laying a foundation for our future church. Teams are already living into the vision and mission of the new conference.
- Teams and Their Journeys: Jefferson Furtado outlines the work of the various merger teams.
- More than 17 teams have been working to make the TWK conference a reality. Resources have helped the teams to remember that the annual conference is called to equip local churches so that they can live out the mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.
- This work has been collaborative. The work of each team impacts and informs the work of every other team.
- The nominations process has included people from both sides of the river.
- One of the great opportunities that lies ahead is the opportunity to create something new, to speak to the needs of our conference, the needs of the Methodist people, and the needs of the world here and now.
 - One example of this work has been the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry. Campus ministers have been engaged in conversations across the river in order to create a new conference board to work together to envision what the board will be.
 - Another example is the work of the Youth Ministry Team. This work began with youth and young adults from both the Tennessee and Memphis conferences. The team shared the following words: “We dream of a future where the strengths and gifts of each legacy conference have been woven together to create a new ministry that is stronger, fuller, and more faithful than before. With humility, we desire to bring the hard-won lessons and wisdom of each legacy conference to the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference so that we can be better and stronger together. We dream of a future where youth will be supported in their spiritual growth and have access to a variety of opportunities and leadership development. We prefer a future where youth will be equipped by their local church ministries, which will be supported by the conference youth ministry, and our young people will become the creators of ministry rather than primarily consumers of ministry products.”
- God continues to call us to discover, equip, connect, and send lay and clergy leaders who shape congregations that offer Christ to a hurting world, one neighborhood at a time.
- Structure: Bethany Huffman elucidates the new conference structure. Her slides can be found at the end of the chapter.
- The Structure Design Team met several times in sessions facilitated by Cindy Thompson with Boundless Impact and Innovate UMC. Cindy led the team through a process of discerning, dreaming, designing, and doing.
- The cornerstone of the team’s work related to the values, vision, mission, and strategic initiatives that were adopted by the annual conference in June 2019.
 - The Book of Discipline, in Section IX, par. 601 provides the structure for the work of the annual conference.
 - The team also considered the book, The Seven Levers: Missional Strategies for Conferences by Robert Schnase.
- The structure of the new conference is based on our mission to discover, equip, connect, and send lay and clergy leaders. The team committed to designing a structure that aligns with our mission.
- The design team agreed that the annual conference should serve as an equipping mechanism for local churches and serve the key groups of laity and clergy and the neighborhoods in which the local church serves.
 - This will need to include design thinking and an emphasis on stewardship rather than authority.
 - Work will also need to be done to streamline and simplify, allowing flexibility and eliminating siloed functions.
- In acknowledging that there might be some loss in this process, we also need to celebrate and nurture something new without seeing it as a threat.
- The team asked the following questions:
 - Who? Discover and Send (Neighborhood)
 - What? Connect (Local Church)

- How? Equip (Conference Adaptive Team)
- Why? (Mission)
 - ♦ This must remain the center of our thinking to ensure that we are aligned with our strategic plan, vision, and values.
 - ♦ Stewards of the mission need to be at the center of the structure. This will be the roll of the Connectional Table.
- Connectional Table will work in covenant with one another and function as an adaptive team, developing strategies together to lead a generative conference system for fruitful mission while determining and stewarding strategic objectives through conference and district teams. It brings together representatives from:
 - Administrative Services Strategy Team
 - Communications Strategies Team
 - Discover and Send Strategy Team
 - Equip Strategy Team
 - Connect Strategy Team
 - Discover and Send Strategy Team
 - District Superintendent and Strategy Team
 - And also includes:
 - ♦ Bishop
 - ♦ Assistant to the bishop
 - ♦ Committee on Episcopacy (chair or representative)
 - ♦ Conference lay leaders
- Each Strategy Team leader will work with an adaptive ministry team as well as individuals gifted in these areas. Some of these positions would be paid staff, while others will be filled by part-time volunteer leaders and volunteer committees.
 - Administrative Services Strategy Team
 - ♦ Integrate administration oversight into our mission, user groups, and initiatives in an effective, stewardship-based approach.
 - ♦ Includes Human Resources, the Treasurer's office, Information Technology, Archives and History, and boards of Pensions, Health Benefits, and Trustees.
 - Communications Strategy Team
 - ♦ Provide both technical and adaptive tools in supporting the mission of the conference and support public relations efforts of the conference along with expertise in crisis communication response.
 - Discover and Send Strategy Team
 - ♦ Further align resources, encourage collaboration, and eliminate silos.
 - ♦ Related areas include Evangelism, Missional Engagement, Church Revitalization, and Church Plants.
 - Equip Strategy Team
 - ♦ Encourage and equip lay and clergy leaders to be engaged in innovative ministries designed to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.
 - ♦ Work in areas such as Higher Education, Campus Ministries, Camp and Retreat Ministries, Disability Concerns, Children and Youth.
 - ♦ Collaborate with boards of Ministry, Laity, Certified Lay Ministries, Certified Lay Servant Ministry, and Spiritual Leadership Formation and Development.
 - Connect Strategy Team
 - ♦ Align clergy, laity, local churches, and neighborhoods with our mission and foster an environment that feeds, nourishes, and encourages excellence in ministry through collaboration and effective sharing of resources.
 - ♦ Included are United Methodist Women, United Methodist Men, partnering organizations, and covenant entities.

- Also includes committees on Religion and Race and Ethnic Global Church Concerns.
 - District Superintendent and Strategy Team
 - An adaptive team at the leadership level to uncover, discover, and recover deeper places in our connection for the local church to be a vital and nurturing community within their districts and neighborhoods.
 - Assistant to the Bishop
 - Rob Martin will be serving in this role.
 - Works in collaboration with the Committee on Investigations and the Administrative Review Committee.
 - Human Resource Task Team
 - Convened to review and create standard job descriptions, recommend salary data to the budget team to model our proposed structure, and begin to address the state of technology across the conference.
 - Will work on refining personnel manuals and job descriptions for the remaining positions on the strategy team.
- Nominations: Rob Martin
- The goal for the next year is to live into the new conference and its proposed structure. All efforts have been made to make the leadership slate of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference as representative as possible of the two legacy conferences.
 - Unified Nominating Team nominated a leader for each of the strategy teams, plus additional four at-large members for each team. These nominees were vetted in cooperation with the legacy nominating committees, members of the cabinet, and Bishop McAlilly.
 - Consideration was given to age, race, gender, geographical location, lay and clergy, theological perspective, faithfulness and commitment to The United Methodist Church, prior faithful service in leadership opportunities, demonstrated or anticipated leadership capacity, and commitment or execution of leadership.
 - Some teams are already aligned, including Archives and History, Episcopal Residency Committee, and New Church Development.
 - Remaining teams will be fully developed over the course of the next year.
 - Resolution has been offered to keep officers and leaders in their current positions until December 31, 2021.
- Budget: John Pearce
- The 2021 budget was a joint effort by each conference but each annual conference votes on their own budget.
- Ministry teams worked across conferences; the goal was to create alignment.
- Revenue: Each conference is using a new model and asking local churches to pay 11 percent of their revenue, as reflected in line 52(t) of their Annual Statistical Report for each church. This is being called a “Connectional Commitment.”
 - This is the same process and formula that each conference approved last year.
 - The biggest challenge and unknown is how much each conference will receive from that 11 percent. CFA and conference treasurers have estimated that amount and will monitor that amount in 2021.
- The Tennessee Conference is in its second year of movement toward full direct billing of health and pensions costs.
 - In 2021, the cost for each church will be the same for health benefits regardless of whether they have a single clergy participant or clergy with spouse and children on that plan.
- General church apportionments consistent at reduced amount as would have been submitted at GC 2020.
 - This results in a reduction of about $850,000 between the two conferences.
- The CMT/Connectional Ministry budget was organized to be a consistent format with the new proposed Structure Strategy Team.

- The CMT/Connectional Ministries budget process was collaborative and transparent.
- Joint treasurer/administrative services office budget.
- Each CFA is recommending more alignment of district budgets and Wesley Foundation budgets.
 - It is recommended that the Treasurer’s office oversee the accounting, banking, and finances for all district operations as well as Wesley foundations.
- Nine district superintendents have agreed to equalize their salaries for 2021.
 - This means that the five Tennessee Conference district superintendents will have a reduction in salary next year.
- A salary pool has been created for conference staff since individual positions are not yet created.
- 2021 needs to be a year of pencil sharpening.
 - We are likely entering a season of reduced revenues from local churches and each of the two conferences are proposing to use extensive amounts of reserves for things such as health care, pensions, new church development, etc.
 - Administrative costs need to be reduced to protect ministry.
- Benefits: Larry Davis and Deborah Suddarth
- Jerry Wallace presents the Benefit Task Team report.
 - Proposal comparison chart can be found at the end of the chapter.
 - The Tennessee Conference currently has one plan with 100 percent coverage for clergy, zero coverage for family, and no employee assistance program.
 - The Memphis Conference currently has a two-plan option through Wespath, where 80 percent of clergy and families are direct-billed to the church, 20 percent is paid by the clergy, and an employee assistance program is available through HealthFlex and Methodist Health systems.
 - Originally the alignment plan was for January 1, 2021. The team recommends movement toward alignment by both conferences by adopting the same insurance plans and funding methods. In that spirit, they propose that the plan begins January 1, 2021, with the HealthFlex Exchange program through Wespath, with the option of six different health plans and pharmacy plans. The network is United Healthcare, which both conferences are using now.
 - ♦ Those eligible for the plan are full-time clergy under appointment to a local church, district, conference or Episcopal Area and their families, lay employees of the conference, districts, and area.
 - ♦ They propose an annual premium credit that each clergy would receive, then choose from among the six different plans with five different buy-up options for dental and vision.
 - ♦ An Employee Assistance Program will be offered for all clergy and their families, regardless of whether they are on Wespath. Part-time clergy will be eligible. This program provides counseling services.
 - ♦ Churches will be responsible for $13,560 for participants. For one year only, churches will be responsible for 75 percent of the cost, which is $10,170 in 2021, with the other 25 percent being paid through reserves.
 - ♦ Training sessions about the plans will be offered in the fall of 2020.
 - There is no recommendation for alignment of the retiree health plan at this time.
- Deborah Suddarth presents the Pension Task Team report.
 - The team offers the following recommendations (see proposal comparison chart above):
 - ♦ Pre-82 past service rate is to retain the current rate in both conferences at their current levels.
 - For the sake of alignment, the team recommends that the rates will increase at the same percentage beginning in 2022.
 - ♦ UMPIP and CPP for full-time clergy coverage will be retained at Tennessee’s percentage of 15 percent and raise the Memphis percentage to 15 percent to equalize.
 - ♦ UMPIP and CPP for less than full-time clergy coverage will be set at nine percent of compensation, housing, and salary.

- ♦ Conference lay employees will retain the method used by Memphis, in which UMPIP employees receive nine percent of compensation with an additional three percent match eligibility.
 - ♦ Conference lay employees will retain the method of life insurance and disability coverage used by Tennessee, which is $100,000.
- Early retirement has been tabled.

- Slides of the presentation can be found in the CFA report in Chapter 6.
- Acknowledges the work of the council and thanks them for their work.
- 2019 Financial Highlights
 1. The budget was approximately 18 million dollars. Churches were asked to pay 13-14 million.
 2. 86.5 percent of apportioned funds were received by the Tennessee Annual Conference, resulting in a $400K shortfall. This was covered by reserves.
 3. 2019 reserve numbers remain stable and will continue to be used.
- 2020 Financial Highlights
 1. The 2020 budget is approximately 17.5 million dollars. Churches will be asked to give about 8.6 million.

2. Direct Billing Update
 - So far, receipts collected have been 98.6 percent of amount billed.
 - Equitable Compensation funds were used to assist some churches.
 - 2020 healthcare costs were billed to churches at 50 percent of cost.
 - 2021 healthcare costs will be billed at 75 percent of cost.
 - 2020 pension costs were billed to churches at 25 percent cost.
 - 2021 pension costs will be billed to churches at 50 percent cost.
3. Rebate of 25 percent of 2020 Pension Payments to Local Churches
 - Due to strong 2019 stock performance, WesPath provided a premium holiday, which is being passed on to local churches in the form of 25 percent credit of pensions contributions paid by individual churches.
 - The rebate will be awarded as a credit to churches.
4. Apportionment Collection through August 31
 - The 2020 apportionment collection is $1.86 million behind the year-to-date budget.
 - This is not atypical for this time of year.
5. Paycheck Protection Program
 - The Tennessee Annual Conference received a Payroll Protection Plan (PPP) loan in the amount of $938,500 on April 21, 2020, which was used to make payroll costs (conference, camps, some churches distributed through equitable compensation).
 - The expectation is that 100 percent of the loan will be forgiven by the end of the calendar year. CFA will continue with filing the PPP loan forgiveness application.
6. Jim Allen retirement; Larry Davis nomination
 - Jim Allen will retire as treasurer effective September 20, 2020.
 - The Council on Finance and Administration and the Pension Committee followed BOD and Tennessee Annual Conference policies to nominate a new treasurer.
 - ♦ They worked with Memphis Conference CFA to nominate Larry Davis, Memphis Conference treasurer, to serve as treasurer for both conferences through December 31, 2021.
 - New TWK treasurer will be considered during 2021.
- 2021 Financial Plan Highlights
 1. 2021 New Apportionment Formula
 - This will be a revenue-based assessment as approved by the Memphis Annual Conference and the Tennessee Annual Conference in 2019.
 - The proposed rate was 11 percent of line 52(t) for the new TWK conference.
 - In light of postponement, CFA proposes using this formula for 2021, with a 20 percent cap on increase or decrease of total monies apportioned per local church.
 - 11 percent in 2021 equals 99.8 percent of the 2020 apportionment.
 - This model is based on 85 percent of revenue with no capital or endowment income versus 61 percent of expenses in the prior model. This is a more consistent application across churches.
 2. Districts and Campus Ministry Budgets
 - District Budgets:
 - ♦ Nine district budgets are more closely aligned and DS salaries are equalized.
 - ♦ Travel costs were fine-tuned.
 - ♦ MAC will move district accounting to the treasurer's office.
 - Campus Ministry
 - ♦ Personnel will be transferred to the Tennessee Annual Conference payroll system and the Treasurer's office will disburse the funds.
 - This takes campus ministers out of the accounting and payroll business, and creates more alignment among the Wesley Foundations.
 - ♦ The Tennessee Annual Conference needs to provide support for fundraising efforts so that Campus Ministries are not dependent upon the Sunday morning offerings.

3. 2021 Health Plan
 - The cost of health care for each church will be approximately $13,560, regardless of whether the clergy is a single plan participant or needs to cover spouse and family.
 - Clergy health expenses have been down this year.
 - Due to residual reserves, local churches will be billed 75 percent of plan costs. The Tennessee Annual Conference will cover 100 percent of costs to participants not appointed to a local church—covering the cost for district, Wesley Foundation, and conference staff for whom there is no church to direct bill.
 - Participants can choose a high-deductible plan for no additional premium. In addition, families can participate at an affordable rate.
4. 2021 Pension Plan
 - Churches will be billed 50 percent of pension costs for participants; Tennessee Annual Conference will use reserves to cover 100 percent of costs to participants not appointed to a local church.
 - The Tennessee Annual Conference is expected to enter merger with $12 million pension reserves. The target was $10 million.
5. 2021 Budget
 - See proposed budget.
 - The projection is that the conference will collect 80 percent of revenue. Memphis is projecting a 60 percent collection rate.
 - General apportionments are projected at $1.9 million.
 - District budgets are projected at $1.9 million.
 - $500,000 is currently designated for Martin Methodist College (MMC). MMC’s potential merger with the University of Tennessee will not be finalized any time soon. CFA’s recommendation is to maintain current funding levels to MMC until potential merger is complete.
 - Discussion on 2021 Budget
 - ♦ Michael Guertin, clergy, Central Chapel UMC, Red River District, point of clarification
 - Questions what the 89.62 budget column in the 2019 budget means.
 - Pearce responds: It is the expectation that by apportioning 13.7 million, we will collect 89.6 percent of that, which is the amount needed for the budget.
 - This has been the practice for as long as Pearce is aware.
 - ♦ Kim Joyce, laity, Hillcrest UMC, point of clarification
 - Asks which year of income will be used as the basis for the 11 percent apportionment calculation in 2021.
 - Pearce responds: the most recently reported statistical report is used to calculate apportionments, which generally run two years behind. 2019 will determine 2021 apportionments.
- CFA Action Items
 1. In light of the retirement of Jim Allen, effective at the end of this annual conference session, CFA nominates Larry Davis to serve as Tennessee Conference treasurer from September 20, 2020, through December 31, 2021, as explained in additional detail in the CFA report in Chapter 6. Ballot td110 taken; action item approved.
 - Yes 502, No 8

 3. CFA moves for approval of the income-based apportionment method funding model described in detail in the CFA report disseminated in advance of annual conference, with a 20 percent cap on increases or decreases from 2020 church apportionments.
 - Mark Hagewood, at-large lay delegate, Red River district: point of clarification:

- ♦ Asks for clarification of the 20 percent cap.
 - ♦ Pearce responds: 20 percent cap only applies to the apportionment portion of church contributions to the conference, NOT health insurance premiums or pension contributions.
- Ballot td112 taken; action item approved.
 - ♦ Yes 502, No 25
- Kent McNish, laity: point of clarification.
 - ♦ Asks how the direct bill for district superintendents and campus ministers is assessed to churches.
 - ♦ Pearce responds: It is not assessed to churches. The amount of the cost for the health and pension plan for district superintendents and campus ministers, camping, conference staff, are being paid through the reserves of the conference during 2021.
- 4. CFA moves that the Tennessee Cabinet be authorized by the annual conference to use the Tennessee Cabinet Reserve Fund in accordance with its written process, in its sole discretion, in an amount up to $250,000 for calendar year 2021. Any amount above $250,000 within the calendar year shall require consultation with, and agreement of CFA. Ballot td113 taken; action item approved.
 - Yes 496, No 27
- 5. CFA moves that the approved travel expense for staff and members of councils, boards, committees, and other entities of the conference be reimbursed at the rate set by the entity, not to exceed the maximum mileage amount allowed by the Internal Revenue Service for business travel.

 - Question is asked about how much money is in the Cabinet Reserve Fund.

- 7. CFA moves that the base compensation for the district superintendents for 2021 be set at $101,600 exclusive of the housing allowance. Ballot td115 taken; action item approved.

Cabinet Resolutions

- James Newman, clergy, motion regarding district closing resolutions, church closure, and disassociation.
- Moves that we, the Tennessee Annual Conference, give direction to Conference Board of Trustees to sell and negotiate to disassociating churches their real property at a cost of $1.00 for the continuation of the kingdom work of God through the disassociating church membership under their new ministry names
 - Chancellor Lisa Carson recommends that this motion be ruled out of order.
 - ♦ In opening motions, the Tennessee Conference adopted a motion that the business of this conference be limited to that which was published in the agenda, particularly because we are operating remotely. This allows full participation by all individuals and ensures that they have proper notice about what is being put forward. A number of cabinet resolutions regarding church closure will be voted on individually. This motion is not an amendment to any particular resolution and has not been published in the agenda, and so is out of order.
 - ♦ The Book of Discipline currently provides for closure but not disaffiliation or disassociation. The Judicial Counsel has yet to rule about disaffiliation.
 - Bishop McAlilly rules the motion out of order.

- Bishop McAlilly rules the motion to amend out of order.
 - It violates the Book of Discipline that puts property in the hands of the conference trustees.

Each team leader would have an adaptive ministry team possibly made up of committee members related to their work + persons gifted to lead in that ministry. Each DS would have a leadership team.

Adaptive Ministry Team Definition

- A team of people in covenant with one another, following Jesus Christ in pursuit of a common mission; an adaptive team works together to address challenges that do not have a technical solution and in fact current knowledge is not sufficient, therefore the team develops solutions and strategies together.
- An attitude of collaboration, learning, and spiritual discernment is necessary. The Connectional Table and conference ministry teams are meant to be adaptive, not merely receiving reports but truly embracing innovation and risk-taking as well as holding one another accountable to pursuing spiritual formation as disciples of Jesus Christ.

REPORTS AND RESOLUTIONS

A. REPORTS

BOARD OF CAMP & RETREAT MINISTRY

Russell Casteel, Executive Director, Tennessee Conference Camp and Retreat Ministry

2019 Review

Tennessee Conference Camp and Retreat Ministry (CRM) had strong and successful ends to 2019, with increases in campers and guests at both Cedar Crest Camp and Beersheba Springs Assembly. At Cedar Crest, six consecutive years of growth in the summer program continued, growing an additional 10 percent in summer 2019 from 2018. In addition, 2019 was a strong year for guest groups at Cedar Crest, with over 40 groups served. Through hosting groups, programmed retreats, and the newly established Environmental Education Program, Cedar Crest was able to create over 5,000 camper days in 2019. At Beersheba Springs Assembly, more people were served in 2019 than in the previous five years; some 4,463 guests experienced deep hospitality at the assembly last year. Having a full-time program and retreat director, Beersheba Springs saw an increased number of new guest groups in the year, with the creation of both new programs and relationships with local churches. Also, offering personal retreats for clergy have allowed spiritual leaders time for renewal planning which will help them to serve their local church.

COVID-19 and Camping Ministry

When the pandemic hit, both Cedar Crest and Beersheba were primed for banner seasons. At Cedar Crest, spring retreats and guest groups were expected to be at their highest rate in many years, perhaps ever. In addition, summer camp registrations were 10 percent ahead of 2019's numbers (which had been building on six consecutive years of growth). At Beersheba Springs, a strong winter retreat season was segueing to a thriving spring season, with dozens of groups scheduled to retreat and many for the first time. As of March 2020, all spring and summer groups at both sites were suspended, for the health and safety of all guests and campers. Sadly, this meant the suspension of summer camp at Cedar Crest and planned programmed events at Beersheba Springs Assembly. Consideration for small groups, individual sabbath, and family retreats will be given for the duration of 2020, while the health and safety of guests will be the strongest measure of program and spatial availability.

With the loss of the ability to operate safely and without harm to guests, both sites will see an extraordinary loss in income and usage in 2020. While expenses of over $250,000 have been and will be cut, staff and sites will continue to be supported and cared for. As such, CRM will invest in new funding initiatives, including fundraisers with friends of camping ministry in local churches and communities. We know that churches, families, and communities will need these sacred spaces—the back yard of Cedar Crest and front porch of Beersheba—to allow for imagination, healing, and inspiration to guide us in the times to come.

Racial Reparation and Camping Ministry

In September 2019, the Washington Post published an article titled “They were once America’s cruelest, richest slave traders. Why does no one know their names?” This article details the connection of John Armfield to prominence in the slave trade which in turn led to his wealth and slaves building the hotel at Beersheba Springs. A season of deep learning and listening from Beersheba Springs Director Sarah Ratz and CRM Executive Director Russell Casteel led to the discovery of a long and difficult past of CRM; it has not always been a safe place for persons of color, and in particular, African American churches and guests. A service of reparation at Beersheba Springs was set for spring 2020 but it has been postponed because of COVID-19. In the meantime, markers and plaques that describe both Armfield's connection to the slave trade as well as the history of the site and hotel at Beersheba Springs are being developed.

Most importantly, CRM is committed to creating safe and empowering spaces for Black leaders, churches, and communities—as well as for all persons of color. We will continue to work with clergy and community leaders to increase and develop racially diverse leadership at Beersheba and Cedar Crest, in programming and in partnership.

BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

Angella Current-Felder, Chair; Jefferson Furtado, Vice Chair; Betty Proctor, Secretary

As we write this report, Tennessee is recovering from a violent tornado that hit the cities of Nashville, Cookeville, and surrounding counties, creating major devastation and impacting the students of some of our colleges and universities. Several days after the tornado, the spread of COVID-19 in the U.S. resulted in the declaration of a national emergency from the White House, along with Tennessee Governor Bill Lee and mayors closing businesses, instituting social distancing, social isolation, and closing of public schools, colleges, and universities. Persons were directed to work from home and many were instantly unemployed.

In the midst of this pandemic, one cannot help but marvel at how our campus ministers, their staff, and student leaders have and are responding to this unforeseen crisis.

- When Vanderbilt University decided to move fully to online and alternative learning for the remainder of the semester and all undergraduate residential students were asked to move out by March 15, under the leadership of Campus Minister Nancy Parker, the Vandy Wesley helped students move off campus, find temporary housing, and provided food, boxes and emotional support.
- Tennessee Tech Wesley students were impacted by the devastating tornado that, according to Campus Minister Addison Shock, left many mourning the lives of family and friends, the loss of homes and normalcy of life, and gathering at Wesley to seek solace, comfort, and hope amidst a difficult time.
- When the tornado hit portions of Tennessee State University's campus, the students were on spring break, but a few days later as they returned, according to Campus Minister Michele Morton, because of the coronavirus, suddenly all student activities were cancelled, schools closed, and the ministry focused on student safety, health, and well-being with innovative and creative ministry.
- Belmont Wesley Fellowship led by Campus Minister David Hollis, assisted in tornado relief efforts at Dixon Memorial UMC in Nashville.
- On March 16, Martin Methodist College instituted distance learning for the remainder of spring 2020. Most students returned home and approximately 30 students remained on campus. The ministries of Spiritual Life were moved to online formats, and Chaplain Laura McMasters is working closely with the Student Life colleagues and campus counselor to ensure students feel connected to the Martin Methodist family.
- As 10 Middle Tennessee State University (MTSU) Wesley students and campus ministers John Weaver and Michelle Ozier Wallace returned from their mission trip to Port St. Joe, Florida, they discovered that due to the spread of the coronavirus, the school had extended its spring break another week. Subsequently they cancelled activities at the Wesley building and initiated hosting on-line and Facebook conversations with students and weekly live streaming of worship to stay connected.

As the coronavirus spread throughout the state, all of our campus ministers have had to reimagine their ministries, many utilizing technology — Zoom, Facebook, podcasts, etc. — to keep in touch with their students.

During the fall, our Wesley Foundations/Fellowships engaged 172 students in Leadership Development retreats and increased the utilization of our camping facilities at Cedar Crest and Beersheba Springs Assembly:

Belmont – 9
Cumberland – 11
Vandy – 12
Tennessee Tech – 49
Martin Methodist – 9
Austin Peay – 40
Tennessee State – 42

Almost 600 students attended and or participated in Wesley-sponsored spiritual development activities:

Belmont – 150
MTSU – 80
Martin Methodist – 219
Fisk – 10
Austin Peay – 30
Tennessee Tech – 32
Vandy – 12
Tennessee State – 65

The General Board of Higher Education and Ministry's annual Exploration event for young people exploring their call to ordained ministry was attended by 16 students — Belmont two, Fisk one, Martin Methodist seven, and MTSU six. This was the first time that Fisk Wesley was able to have a student attend.

In January, seven students from Cumberland Fellowship and 10 students from Martin Methodist assisted our Next Gen ministries with Warmth in Winter at the Opryland Hotel.

We celebrate that our Tennessee Conference campus ministries are collaborating more with each other and initiating collaborative opportunities with the campus ministries of the Memphis Conference:

- Forty Wesley students from Belmont, Fisk, TSU and Vandy packed over 11,000 meals with Rise Against Hunger. APSU partnered with UT Martin, Murray and TSU for their fall retreat.
- Belmont, APSU, TSU, Fisk, Vandy, and Martin Methodist partnered in worship services with West End, Calvary, and Clark Memorial.
- Two Belmont Wesley students joined students from St. Louis University, Xavier University, and Sanford University to serv at L'Arche Mobile.
- Although the March 15-18 event was cancelled because of the coronavirus pandemic, we commend the Wesley foundations at APSU, TSU, Fisk, Jackson State University, and Howard University for planning a Young Adults Change the World conversation around race, civil rights, and what young people can do to make a change in this world. We look forward to their being able to host such an event in the future.

The Cumberland Wesley Advisory Team met Thursday, April 2, 2020, and unanimously voted to establish an administrative board with a chair, vice chair, treasurer, and secretary. Laura Headley was nominated and accepted the chair position, Russell Casteel was nominated and accepted the position of secretary and the other officers and board representatives nominated and approved are being contacted to see if they will accept. MTSU Campus Minister John Weaver, who has been serving as an advisor and mentor to student staff intern Riley Kilian for the past

3 years, will serve as an ex-officio board member. The administrative board unanimously affirmed Riley Kilian to be the Cumberland Wesley Fellowship staff person to ensure continuity for the Cumberland Wesley students and to work collaboratively with the BHECM, CFA, and Cumberland Wesley's administrative board as we move through the pandemic, merger, annual conference, disciplinary requirements, etc. Special thanks to Micah Meyers, who over the past two years provided staff support to this developing campus ministry at Cumberland University.

As we all adjust our lives to social isolation, working from home, finding ways to connect with students, families, and church members, and learning about the growing numbers of persons diagnosed or dying from the coronavirus, we are grateful to our campus ministers who continue to find ways to maintain contact and engage in ministry to and with their students.

In closing, as chair of the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry, I wish to express my sincere appreciation to our dynamic and committed member of the conference staff, Brad Fiscus. His years of professional support and assistance to our board, campus ministers, and the Next Gen ministry team, has enhanced and expanded our ability to collaborate with one another and minister to the students in our colleges and universities within the Tennessee Conference.

BOARD OF LAITY AND LAY SERVANT MINISTRIES

Holly Neal, Lay Leader, George Brown, Associate Lay Leader, and Jackie Elliott, Conference Director of Lay Servant Ministries

The Board of Laity of the Tennessee Conference is coming to an end. There are many great lay ministries and missions to celebrate in our past. Just like a new parent, we dare to hope for what will take place in the birth of our new conference, the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference. We know that greater things will happen in this mission field which stretches from Crossville to Memphis to Paducah.

Methodism has had a long history celebrating and recognizing the ministry of the laity. In the early days, the laity served and maintained congregations between circuit rider visits.

In 2020, laypersons are in daily ministry (mission fields) at work, in the home, in their neighborhoods, and community along with ripples of caring extending into all the world.

When you hear of ministries you can be assured that laity are involved. The laity are adaptive as this year has proven. Adaptive as tornados ripped through Middle Tennessee in March and the uncertainty of the coronavirus pandemic.

We are experiencing ministry in whole new ways as we faithfully participate in ministries by our prayers, our presence (online worship or worship in our homes), our gifts (giving electronically or by mailing in our tithes), our service (new and creative ways to do ministry), and our witness (the world will know we are Christians by our love).

Part of the way the laity fulfill their membership vows is through Lay Servant Ministries. The office of lay speaker in The United Methodist Church (originally known as exhorter) has existed in the Church almost from the beginning of Methodism.

Lay Servant Ministries offers the latest resources designed to equip laity for their roles in ministry as disciples of Jesus Christ. The Introduction to Lay Ministry: The BASIC Course is the foundational course for Lay Servant

Ministries. This course can also be used as part of a discipleship plan for other laity in the church to acquaint them with their gifts, calling, and responsibilities as followers of Christ.

After completing the BASIC Course, laity are then encouraged to continue growing as disciples of Jesus with advance courses. For more information about Lay Servant Ministries and upcoming classes go to www.tnumc.org and click Spiritual Leadership and then Board of Laity. On the sidebar, click Lay Servant Training.

We are asking all the laity to join us as we continue to follow in Jesus' footsteps. We do this by leaning into the call to be more Christ-like in our walks, missions, and sharing the joyous gospel.

BOARD OF PENSIONS

Steve Curry, Chair

Most of our full-time active and retired clergy participate in defined benefit (DB, or traditional pension) plans. Our plans were funded by the annual conference and are administered by Wespath Benefits and Investments (Wespath), formerly known as General Board of Pension and Health Benefits. The Tennessee Conference's retirement plans are projected to be funded at 105 percent – 109 percent in 2020. We anticipate they will still be above 100 percent at year end.

The annual conference, this board, and their predecessors have been good stewards of the funds entrusted to us. As a result, the Tennessee Conference has pension reserves that should protect our retirees well into the future.

We are blessed that we can fund part of our current pension obligations from earnings on our reserves. For 2020, CFA approved apportionment funding to cover only 16 percent of our estimated pension obligations. The remaining 84 percent will be funded through withdrawals from the conference's pension reserves. We are blessed that, even with the COVID-19-induced market downturn, our reserves continue to be more than adequate. As a result, your Board of Pensions is making plans for further reduction in churches' 2020 pension obligations for their pastors.

The 2021 Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan will be prepared and submitted to Wespath as required by the Book of Discipline (2016), ¶1506.6. We have sufficient projected revenues and reserves to fully fund all the conference's benefit obligations for the foreseeable future.

Years ago, the Conference Board of Pensions set a goal to maintain our Pre-82 Plan past service rate (PSR) at a minimum of 1.0 percent of conference average compensation (CAC). We recommend a past service rate for 2021 of $736 for pre-1982 service years. This represents a 1.5 percent increase over the 2020 rate ($725) and is 1.028 percent of the CAC.

The 2017 annual conference authorized the creation of a Pension Reserve Trust ("Trust"), with a goal of better protecting the pension assets that are held outside of our plans at Wespath. That was accomplished, with all assets being conveyed or redirected into the Trust. We have given Treasurer Jim Allen the authority to make routine, budgeted transactions into and out of the Trust as provided in our approved budget; but otherwise, the Trust assets are restricted to uses approved by its trustees. Decisions are yet to be made about how that Trust will operate in the new combined Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference beginning in 2022.

I want to express my appreciation for the extraordinary commitment and dedication by the members of the Board of Pensions. Their service is utmost important and invaluable.

The board expresses our thanks to the hard work of Jim Allen and Melinda Parker, who ensure the smooth working of our benefits plans and support of our retirees.

Jim has announced his retirement after this annual conference; we will all miss him! The following from board members and staff express our deepest and heartfelt appreciation to Jim:

I am most appreciative of Jim. I met him on his first day at work because of a theft at our church. Jim listened and helped me devise a plan. It worked. Jim brings plenty of expertise to this job but it is his compassion and attention to us that makes him extraordinary. May God's loving grace continue to bless Jim and his family. — Jim Norton

I have had the pleasure of working with Jim both as an active clergy and a clergy on honorable location. The passion and compassion Jim has brought to his role with the Tennessee Conference has been vital in our efforts to make disciples. Personally, I appreciate Jim's leadership, as it truly emulates the love of a disciple who is "moving on to perfection." I look forward to seeing how Jim will continue to influence his world for Christ in retirement. — Wayne Davis

Working with Jim Allen and the Tennessee Conference Board of Pensions has been an honor and a privilege. Jim has always shown professionalism and commitment to our clergy when decisions were made. He always provided appropriate documents prior to our meetings. His unique sense of humor always lightened our meetings and made working with him a good experience. It is my sincere hope that Jim will find retirement an exciting time in his life and be able to do the things he didn't have time to do while working. — June Batsel

Serving on the Board of Pensions with Jim Allen has been one of the greatest honors and joys I have experienced as a clergy person in the UMC. Jim has been a shining light in our conference offering knowledge, integrity, steadfastness, humility, humor, and a heart for the people. We are a better conference and denomination because of his excellent leadership. Shine on Jim and capture the fullness of retirement! — Debbie Church

It is an honor to work you—on two committees no less! First, thank you for your support of the Methodist Church at large. I've learned a lot and am still learning from your leadership skills. And second, thank you for your support of Bethlehem United Methodist Church. You have and continue to serve in so many important ways but I'm especially glad to have you as a part of establishing, maintaining, and growing our endowment. And, third...you lucky dog...enjoy retirement! — Dennis Covington

Jim, I wish you the very best. I pray God fills your years with love, purpose, and happiness. — Blessings, Shelly Curtis

Jim, you came to Administrative Services during a very difficult time for me. With the sudden death of Rev. David Hawkins, my role in the office had taken on a much broader scope of responsibility. Your leadership, advice, support, and guidance encouraged me then and still does today. Not only were you my boss, you were a friend that I turned to throughout our years together in the office. You are a gift and I wish you the best in a hard-earned and well-deserved retirement! — Melinda Parker

I want to express my utmost appreciation to Jim for his service and leadership to the Tennessee Conference. Jim is a dedicated, caring, loving, and outstanding person. I value his friendship. He is always striving to provide excellent service for clergy, the Tennessee Conference, and the board. Jim, thanks for all you have done and will continue to do. Enjoy all your future endeavors as a retiree. — Steve Curry

It has been a privilege to work with you, Jim. I have learned so much from you and I will miss your advice, your leadership, and your sense of humor. Thank you for not only being someone that I look up to but also for your friendship. You will be missed greatly! Wishing you all the best on a well-earned retirement... Enjoy! — Alice Grunau

Jim, you have faithfully served the Lord by using your gifts and graces throughout the years. May you be abundantly blessed as you enjoy a well-deserved retirement. — Diantha McLoed

Jim, I wish for you the very best in all your new endeavors, you have been a blessing in every way for the Tennessee Conference of the UMC. Remember, you have value to each of us even if you are not in the office! God Bless! — George Brown

It has been great pleasure to work with Jim Allen on the board of pensions as well as his role as the conference treasurer and director of Administrative Services. Jim is a person of integrity and dignity. His work has made all of our work in the conference simpler and more effective. Thanks for your leadership and courage over the years. May you have a blessed retirement. — Mike Waldrop

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Paul E. Gardner, President

Greetings in the name of the one who triumphs over tumult and who brings grace into places where turmoil and strife seem to be the normal way of life! It has been a pleasure to lead the Tennessee Conference Board of Trustees through a year of change and transition. I am reminded of the words of our bishop when he said we are being asked to cross a bridge at the very time we are building that bridge, and it has been a time of reflection on what is really important in the life of the Church.

It has been a year of transition in the Church, with several congregations choosing to close and become stand-alone congregations in their communities. Much of the energy of the trustees has been in defining these congregations and determining how we exercise the trust clause in the deeds of our churches and at the same time be fair to the congregations involved. We defined three types of church closures: disaffiliating, separating, and life cycle.

Although the judicial council determined that disaffiliation under ¶2553 is constitutional, so far no churches have chosen that option, which includes mandatory pre-payment of pension and other obligations. To date, the trustees have responded to closings under ¶2549 involving nine congregations. They are Livingston UMC (we assumed this property), Shiloh UMC, Hilham UMC, Hickory Grove UMC, Wartrace UMC, Cumberland City UMC, Spring Hill UMC, Bigbee Chapel UMC, and Martin's Chapel UMC.

The trustees have been blessed to have Lynn Hill join us in this area of negotiation. Hill's gentle approach to conflict and his deep awareness of both The Book of Discipline and the congregations was a natural addition to the trustee's team. He and I met with every church that had chosen to close and, in every instance, we walked away as friends. I believe our actions were both fair to the Tennessee Annual Conference and to those congregations who chose to leave the denomination.

We have worked closely with the new church development team of the conference to ensure that those buildings where we are able to plant new ministries are sustained until we know what kingdom purposes are available. This includes the Ernest Newman UMC property in north Nashville, as well as the new start to a United Methodist Community in Livingston. We have worked closely with Home Church as they utilize the Inglewood UMC property. We look forward to a relationship with Trinity Community Commons in the Trinity UMC building.

We also assumed the property of eight (8) churches by life cycle closure. They are Bonmertown UMC, Hampshire Ridge UMC, Buffalo UMC, Caldwell UMC, Mt. Nebo UMC, Shipley UMC, Mt. Olive UMC, and Vanleer UMC. We lament the closing of every church, and especially those who have lived fully the commitment to our United Methodist values and simply had to close because of the situations they found themselves in. It is a true grief to have to leave behind a church that has served of so many years as faithful outposts of the church.

The trustees have worked this year in conjunction with New Church Development committee, Congregational Development committee, Conference Committee on Finance and Administration, and the Office of the Bishop to create guidelines for making grants from the closed church fund. This is in response to the standing rule adopted by the 2019 Annual Conference session. To date, we have approved three grants: Glencliff UMC for HVAC improvement, Martin Methodist for a new initiative to expand health coverage to the Pulaski area, and to Trinity Community Commons for infrastructure repair on the building. We anticipate that this fund can be used in this way to further the kingdom of God in the Tennessee Conference.

I want to thank those who have given above and beyond to the trustees' work. Raúl Alegria has been wonderful keeping our minutes in order and John Feldhacker has been faithful as our vice president. Charlie Warfield, Jane Melrose, Jason Hicks, Kelsie Jones, Lee Stevenson, Paula Smith, Paula Grout, Carolyn Schott, and Tammy Gaines have been wonderful in keeping us on track. I also want to thank Jim Allen for his leadership and keeping the work of the trustees on track. Alice Grunau has been my right hand, keeping all the details from falling through the cracks.

We also appreciate the work of our partners and vendors: A. Anthony (property management), Foundry (brokerage) and Church Mutual (insurance). Over 100 churches are receiving safety dividends from Church Mutual as the result of our combined efforts to minimize claims.

Thank you for the opportunity and the trust you place in the hands of the trustees to oversee the properties and the needs of the Tennessee Conference.

COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

Leland T. Carden, Chair
Gratia Downs Strother, Conference Archivist

The Tennessee and Memphis conferences Commission on Archives and History has a twofold purpose, both administrative and connectional. Administratively, we preserve and make available to the Church and the public artifacts and information that document our Tennessee and Memphis conferences and United Methodist heritage. Connectionally, we are here to strengthen the faith of Christians through the stories of the heroes of the faith that have gone before us and grow a sense of heritage that builds community within our churches and connectedness across our conference.

Our activities the past year:

1. We have begun the process of developing a website to create a virtual online archive. This will enable searching a catalog of our holdings, and for many of those holdings, viewing the actual historic documents and photographs of artifacts online. We have begun the process of photographing and scanning items for the online archive and creating data files with information about each item.
2. Conference historian David Martin has completed the work of updating church clergy files through 2019 clergy appointments. Thanks to his work and the work of retired archivist Von Unruh, we have the most comprehensive clergy lists possible based on current research, for the majority of churches that have existed in our conference history. Martin is also working to photograph every extant UM church in our conferences and document burial locations of Methodist clergy, as well as cemetery information on all cemeteries connected to UM churches.
3. We have continued to serve the public and the Church on site at the conference archives in the McKendree UMC Christian Life Center in Nashville. Visitors to our archives this year have included not only patrons with a current or past connection to the UMC and clergy, but also academic researchers from universities and archivists from UMC archives in other states.
4. We have continually answered patron requests throughout the year, on topics as wide ranging as genealogical information, foreign missions, and laity and clergy involvement in the Civil Rights movement. We were thrilled that journalist Anne Holt called us to help her with research on a news segment she did on Pickett Chapel in Wilson County. When the Washington Post published an article about notorious slave trader John Armfield and his connection to Beersheba Springs, and mentioned Beersheba Springs as Methodist retreat center, we were able to help the Tennessee Conference Camp and Retreat Ministries with historical information to tell an accurate story of the history of Beersheba Springs on their website. Camp and Retreat Ministries then began the process of acknowledging of the tragic story of slavery connected to this location as well as developing a “Service of Healing and Reconciliation” which had to be postponed due to COVID-19.
5. We have served on the annual conference design teams for both Tennessee and Memphis. In Memphis, Mark Matheny is leading preparations for a celebration of MAC history. In Tennessee, Archivist Gratia Strother is leading preparations for a celebration of TNUMC history. Both celebrations are for the final conferences of these two as separate entities—which will now happen in 2021 due to COVID-19 delays.
6. We have supported church growth through presentations for laity clubs and churches about our Methodist and conference history, and collaborated with church historians on researching and sharing their church’s history.
7. We have begun the process of building a network of active church historians across our conference. This work is ongoing.
8. We have collaborated with other historians and archivists from across the country and engaged in continuing education programs to keep our archives on the cutting edge of industry standard methodology and processes.

9. We have continued to preserve the UMC historic sites in our care—the Asbury-Babb House in Wilson County and Strother’s Meeting House on the campus of Scarritt-Bennett Center.
10. We have received a number of additions to our collections over the past year:
 - a. Collections of personal records from several clergy, donated by their families
 - b. Collections from closed churches in both the Memphis and Tennessee conferences
 - c. A time capsule collection and companion oral history from a Memphis closed church
 - d. A collection of various items from the Upper Room Museum, including an 1830’s circuit rider quilt owned by Elisha Carr and made by his sister Mary “Polly” Carr Stewart Crenshaw. It is believed that the fabric pieces making up the face of the quilt came from Rev. Carr’s parishioners, who were mostly enslaved Africans in the African Mission that he served as pastor. The fabrics are a combination of machine and hand-dyed woven pieces, typical of what would have been worn by enslaved Africans. This quilt, like other items in the John Abernathy Smith Heritage Center, illustrates the power of artifacts and documents to illuminate our conference history—in this case, a story of the sparse nature of the circuit rider’s life, but also of the African American experience in our conference.
 - e. For the coming year, we are committed to continuing this work, launching an online archive, and continuing to preserve and make available to the Church and the public artifacts and information that document our conference and United Methodist heritage.

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

George L. Jensen, Chair

The Commission on Equitable Compensation has worked to establish a minimum standard of compensation for appointed clergy. We strive to ensure that each pastor of the annual conference will receive a fair and just compensation for his/her full-time professional services in devotion to the Lord. We are guided in these efforts by The Book of Discipline (2016) and the policies established by the conference.

We recommend the following to the conference for action:

I. MINIMUM COMPENSATION LEVELS:

The commission recommends the following minimum compensation levels for 2021, which are 1.0 percent higher than 2020. “Compensation” includes salary, utilities, and any other benefit paid by the local church. It does not include housing, which is the obligation of the charge, ¶252.4e. Also note that this does not include the local church’s fund for reimbursement to pastors for expenses incurred in the fulfillment of their professional responsibilities (“accountable reimbursement”). That reimbursement is in addition to the pastor’s salary ¶ 627.

	2020	2021
Full Conference, Provisional and Commissioned Members:	$43,268	$43,701
Associate Members:	$39,278	$39,671
Full Time Local Pastors:	$37,760	$38,138

II. QUALIFICATION PROCESS FOR EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

To qualify for an Equitable Compensation Grant, a charge must submit an application to the Commission on Equitable Compensation through their district superintendent. The application will explain in detail why conference funds should be used for this charge, and what efforts have been made to raise the funds needed to pay the pastor’s salary. Additionally, the application must explain the goals for the charge and pastor, and how it is engaging in its mission field. The following information must be included with the application:

1. Proposed 2021 compensation for the pastor, including Equitable Compensation Grant and housing.
2. Printout of most recent full year Table 2.
3. Charge or church budgets for the most recent year with most recent audit, if any.
4. Balance of all funds on hand, including operating, reserve, and endowment funds.
5. Schedule to move off equitable compensation within four years, or progress if this is not first year.

The application must be signed by the SPRC or council chair, and district superintendent, and recommended by the cabinet to the Equitable Compensation Commission. If a grant application is approved by the commission, Administrative Services will be instructed to forward the funds monthly to the church's bank using ACH (direct deposit).

At the date of this submission, the appointments for 2020-21 have not been finalized. Therefore, the Commission on Equitable Compensation will meet with the bishop and cabinet from time to time as needed to determine the amount that will be awarded to various charges from this budgeted amount based on justified need and availability of funds.

III. ARREARAGE POLICY

According to The Book of Discipline (2016), ¶¶624.1 and 625.2d, the Commission on Equitable Compensation is to submit "an arrearage policy to be adopted by the annual conference". This policy is to address the situation where a church is slow or unable to pay the agreed upon compensation of its pastor.

The arrearage policy was approved by the annual conference in June 2017 and is printed in the 2017 journal as part of the report of the Commission on Equitable Compensation. It was revised to update references to The Book of Discipline (2016) rather than references to The Book of Discipline (2012).

COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS RELATIONSHIPS

Nick Baird-Chrisohon, Chair

The Conference Committee on Christian Unity and Interreligious Relationships (CUIR), along with representatives from the Episcopal Diocese of Tennessee, met several times in the previous conference year to continue discussions on the upcoming full communion proposal between our two denominational bodies. We held three mixers to welcome persons interested in ecumenism and enjoyed sharing our time in stories and hopes for the future of our churches. We were glad to have representation of clergy and lay from both denominations representing at least eight different congregations and parishes.

The joint team, along with support from the Christ Church Cathedral in downtown Nashville, planned to hold a joint worship service on the evening of March 3 with Rev. Dr. Paula Smith of Gordon Memorial UMC preaching and Bishop William T. McAlilly co-celebrating the Eucharist alongside Bishop John C. Bauerschmidt of the Episcopal Diocese of Tennessee. Sadly, on the early morning of March 3, tornadoes struck middle Tennessee and all felt it was best to postpone the service. We look forward to celebrating this joyous occasion at a future date.

To extend our network, we have begun building connections with clergy in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, the African Methodist Episcopal Church, the Disciples of Christ, and the Presbyterian Church, U.S.A., in hopes to begin ecumenical small groups to educate each other on our traditions, theology, polity, and shared Christian identities. Our team hopes to begin hosting groups by the end of fall of this year.

We encourage Tennessee United Methodist clergy and congregations to engage in joint worship and mission in local congregations with faith communities in your own geographical area. We offer ourselves as conversation partners for those who would like assistance in navigating building relationships and planning shared worship that honors multiple faith traditions, in honor of Christ's prayer that, "...they all may be one" (John 17:21).

We welcome any who are interested in ecumenical and/or interfaith partnerships to join our team. Please see Rev. Nick Baird-Chrisohon or any member of our team if you are interested in partnering or joining with us. Current Team Members: Emily Baird-Chrisohon, Nick Baird-Chrisohon, David Johnson, Sarah McWhirt-Toler, Geoffrey Parker

COMMITTEE ON EPISCOPACY

Kent McNish, Chair

The faithful and effective leadership of Bishop Bill McAlilly has kept our Tennessee Conference congregations, clergy, and laity focused on the primary task of the Church—to go and make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. During 2019, his leadership was demonstrated in the overwhelming vote of both Memphis and Tennessee conferences to approve a new conference—Tennessee-Western Kentucky Annual Conference. His leadership style has brought to us a smooth transition to five districts rather than our traditional seven. Likewise, our five districts are working diligently to frame connectional ministry in a decentralized structure that brings resources and leadership closer to our congregations.

Bishop McAlilly has provided the biblical and practical guidance to make this transition fruitful and effective. Both committees on episcopacy—Memphis and Tennessee—know from working with Bishop McAlilly, the cabinet, and the episcopal staff that much is yet to be done in this last year of the 2016-2020 quaddrenium. Having benefitted from his leadership and witness, both committees prayerfully urge the Southeastern Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy to return Bishop and Mrs. McAlilly to the Nashville area for the next quaddrenium. The launching of a new conference and the ramifications of the decisions made by the called General Conference 2019 this past February supported by the rulings of the judicial council in April, lead us to state unequivocally that we need Bishop McAlilly to lead us for four more years.

Your committee on episcopacy is appreciative of the steady course set by Bishop McAlilly and the cabinet in these troubling times. The Book of Discipline assigns the annual conference's Committee on Episcopacy responsibility to serve as liaison and wise counsel to the bishop. We provide the bishop with constructive, honest feedback; the voice and sentiment of our conference as we have heard it expressed to us; while offering guidance and direction to the bishop. This year, the committee used the Lewis Pastoral Leadership Inventory (LPLI) created by Lewis Center for Church Leadership at Wesley Theological Seminary. The LPLI report for Bishop McAlilly's 360 was completed by over 40 leaders in both conferences. This year, both committees on the episcopacy also used the standardized evaluation of the Southeastern Jurisdiction COE.

Your committee knows Bishop McAlilly's ministry is not a one-man band. We all owe great appreciation to Bishop McAlilly's wife, Lynn. She is a leader in her own right in our Church through Project Transformation, Miriam's Promise, and, of course, the Mama Lynn Women's Center in the East Congo Conference.

The Nashville Area Episcopal Office has two vital staff persons that facilitate the ministry of the bishop. Lynn Taylor served as the director of Missional Alignment. She has worked untiringly for the benefit of the bishop and the cabinet and both conferences. With regret and yet with joy, the Committee on Episcopacy accepts Lynn's decision to retire effective June 30, 2020. We wish Lynn our good wishes and she continues her witness to Christ and his church through other avenues of service.

The Rev. Dr. Rob Martin has joined the Nashville Area Episcopal Office as the assistant to the Bishop. We are grateful for the gifts and graces that Rob brings to this position.

H.G. Stovall serves as the executive office administrator. Likewise, he works diligently for all our benefit.

In addition to leading two conferences, for the 2017-2020 quadrennium Bishop McAlilly serves on the Connectional Table as president of the board of directors of the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry. He also is co-chair of the Endorsing Committee. He also serves on the Council of Bishops' leadership teams on leadership development and leadership discernment as well as the Executive Committee. In addition, he serves on the Just Peace board of directors for this quaddrenium and as chair of the Quadrennial Orientation for New Bishops Committee. In the last year, Bishop McAlilly has also begun service as the vice-chair of the board of trustees of Emory University, Atlanta, Georgia. He served as president of the Southeastern Jurisdictional College of Bishops in 2016-17 and continues to serve on the Southeastern Jurisdiction Committee on Coordination and Accountability. Bishop McAlilly currently serves on the board of trustees of the Methodist Le Bonheur Healthcare board, Memphis, Tennessee, and the board of trustees of Martin College, Pulaski, Tennessee.

Bishop McAlilly reminds us in his writings:

For generations, the people called Methodists in Middle and West Tennessee and Western Kentucky have been writing God's story. We are a diverse family—conservative-centrist-progressive. We often disagree, yet we hold firm to the primacy of scripture and the centrality of grace. The work now before us is to continue to walk with our brothers and sisters across the Church. It is often messy, hard, and challenging work.

As United Methodists, we now need a deep healing from all that separates us—COVID-19 pandemic, racial divides, economic hardships for both our churches and our people, and potential divisions caused by differing understandings of how God works in and through us in Jesus Christ.

As your chief pastor, we must find ways to love one another. Some of your neighbors, some of your church members, are hurting because of this command. We will continue to love the least and the last, our neighbors in our communities. Our conferences will continue to value local churches as the disciple-making center of our entire ministry. We will continue to be diverse. We will continue to be rooted in Christ, and we will express a deep love for one another. I ask you that you allow us the opportunity—before you or your church make any decisions regarding your relationship with The United Methodist Church—to be in conversation with you.

I invite you to continue praying for the future of our denomination, for the future of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky conference, for the work that God has called us to do in a very specific, particular place called the Nashville Episcopal Area.

With hope and prayer, we affirm that God is good; God is good all the time. Respectfully submitted by the Tennessee Annual Conference Committee on Episcopacy, Kent McNish, chair.

COMMITTEE ON HEALTH PLAN

Jim Allen, Conference Benefits Officer

For over 20 years, the Health Plan Committee evaluated, affirmed, and confirmed our self-funded plan as being the most cost-effective plan for our conference.

Tennessee went from an insured plan with Blue Cross to a self-funded plan around 1995. The program was implemented by Treasurer Terry Little, and conceived by his team of consultants led by Don Stickler (PrimeRISK, LLC) and Jackie Jones (Mercer), who continued to guide and support the plan for the rest of its existence. In 2005, a tsunami of claims hit our plan, virtually wiping out reserves. Careful monitoring coupled with increased premiums at the time stabilized the plan. The benefits remained generous for the next 15 years, with no premium payments by participants (other than deductibles and co-pays), and costs increasing on average less than 2% per year—a fraction of the increases seen by most fully insured plans. As a self-funded plan with adequate reserves, we could weather small storms with little or no increase in premiums. Sunny days reflected in low claims were shared by all. Saved costs meant future Health Plan apportionments were reduced for all.

Our Health Plan has remained in full compliance with the Affordable Care Act of 2010. In the early years, Mercer was our claim administrator. When they left the business in 2010, we retained UMR (a subsidiary of United Healthcare) to handle claims. Mercer continued as advisor and the broker for our stop-loss insurance and Caremark/CVS administered our prescription drug plan.

The pending merger to create the new Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference brought new realities to light. After two years of study, a Benefits Team appointed by our bishop and comprised of members from both the Tennessee and Memphis conferences determined that switching to plans administered by HealthFlex, a part of Wespath, was in the best interest of the new conference. This committee adopted and supports the change to HealthFlex Exchange as the new provider of health benefits to the Tennessee Conference. We also support the recommendation to move to a blended rate for our churches, which subsidizes clergy spouses and children, and not just participants. The full rate schedule is included in this report.

Finally, we express our appreciation for years of caring work by Melinda Parker, assistant benefits officer; to Ann Cover for her work as chair this quadrennium; Dr. Jennifer Meko, medical consultant; Jackie Jones with Mercer, and Don Stickler, plan consultant. This plan could not have served our people at such a high and efficient level without their contributions.

Active Clergy Health Insurance Beginning January 1, 2021

In 2021, Wespeth, through Healthflex Exchange, is opening six medical plan options for clergy and their families, billing the conference a blended rate. For churches with clergy on the conference plan, premiums billed to the churches will reflect that blended rate in the form of a fixed premium credit. Each church will be billed the same amount annually for each full-time clergy. There will also be a 25 percent credit from reserves, for a net cost of $$13,560 \times 75 \text{ percent} = $10,170$, or $$847.50$ per clergy, per church, per month. The clergy then choose the insurance plan that best fits their needs and pay the additional premium appropriate to their selection (if any) through a pre-tax salary reduction.

Dental and vision coverages remain optional and those premiums may also be paid in full or in part through a pre-tax salary reduction. Through Healthflex Exchange, there are three dental and two vision plan options from which the clergy may choose.

The due date for submitting premium payments is the 25th of each month, and a 2 percent late fee will be added for payments received after the due date. The pastor's health plan is subject to cancellation after 90 days of nonpayment.

Eligibility for 2021 will be determined by the HealthFlex Exchange Plan Document.

Eligible early retirees: all retired clergy and retired conference staff under age 65 who (1) have attained age 62 and have 10 years of full time service in the Tennessee Conference or (2) have 35 years of full time service, provided he or she was enrolled at the time of retirement. These participants' individual premiums will be paid by the conference. This benefit will not be available to anyone who retires after December 31, 2021.

COMMITTEE ON NATIVE AMERICAN MINISTRIES

Mary T Newman, Coordinator of Native American Ministries

The Committee on Native American Ministries (CONAM) is currently co-chaired by Pat Bryan and Debbie Fitzhugh. Coordinator of Native American Ministries, per CONAM, is Mary T Newman. The committee is inclusive; approximately one-half of its membership is Native American.

Native American Ministry Sunday (NAMS) is one of the UMC six Special Sunday offerings. We average 40 churches contributing to the offering with an average of $6,000. One-half of money received remains in the annual conference and is used by CONAM and one-half is used for seminary scholarships by Native Americans and other educational endeavors. Recognition and celebration of NAMS is a challenge. On the church calendar, NAMS follows Easter and is in the time frame of Golden Cross Sunday and Mother's Day so we encourage celebrating any time of the year.

We continue to maintain a 6' x 12' enclosed trailer and are seen on the roads and at events. With the logos so visible, we have opportunity for conversation and can pull up to an event and have everything on hand for our booths. We also maintain pages on the tnumc.org/native site and moccasinfootprints.org.

Our annual Native American Resource Day is held the first Sunday of March. It was our 17th year. During this time, we have a traditional Native American meal, present audio/video resources, and speakers to engage the participants. We have large displays and book resources. Every church receives a binder full of re-printable materials. Distribution of current and accurate information is vital and we have garnered materials which validate the importance of Native Americans at the table.

We acknowledge that there are individual churches with their own personal ministries with Native Americans. The resource day is valuable to those churches also and CONAM gladly offers resources, displays, and scheduling of speakers to all churches. Our committee has developed or gathered resources that are available to the local church. They can be used for services, study groups, youth and children groups, or as part of an ongoing opportunity for understanding through education. Gone are the days of missionizing, rather, the goal is in partnership and being in mission together.

Native Moccasins Rock (NMR) is our annual weekend of interactive learning. Mocs Rock is based on fellowship and friendship. Understanding through education remains one of our primary goals. 2019 was our 18th year. The Memphis Conference has also been a partner in the sponsorship of the event. Our leadership is internationally and nationally known. Held every August, we have an age span of babies to grannies which highlights Mocs Rock as an intergenerational event. There is a focus in our activities for children, youth, and adults with breakout sessions per age groups. Culturally based workshops in the area of arts and music attract participants. The interactive workshops are drawn from traditional skills and taught by dedicated leadership. A Time for Spirit is one of the foci when everyone is together to cover the theme of the year. We end with a powerful prayer circle. Tears of joys, sadness, and lifting up of the ones who have crossed over are shared. Of great joy is the continued relationship with the Mississippi Band of Choctaw who bring youth every year. This past year, we were blessed with the addition of a Choctaw youth group who travels with the focus on education and interaction at events, which broadens their horizons and opportunities. We now have three in college who have attended for several years. The members of CONAM share who we are in Christ, our connectional system of the UMC, and celebrate opportunities to form relationships.

Native American Indian Association of Tennessee (NAIA) has the longest running charter with the state. We formed a relationship to sponsor a health fair at their powwow which is the largest powwow in the state. We are the first denomination to have this relationship. Their words are “someone always wants something for themselves”. Our reassurance was “we just want to share”. We distribute multiple resources relating to health concerns and have materials with a focus on spiritual health.

In 2019, we continued our relationship with Meharry Medical College. With a tent for testing blood glucose and blood pressure checks, we have enlarged our health fair by including the dental tent with an average of 17 students and presiding instructors. Every year comments such as, “We didn’t know the UMC is involved”, and “I am United Methodist and didn’t know”, reminds us that there is more to do to grow the connection and enlarge the circle of God’s kingdom.

Our partnerships also include Native American Indian Services and Native American Educational Resources. Both groups work with the public and with Native Americans across the state. There are still 569 federally recognized tribes and there are state recognized tribes. To date, there are 362 native languages — quite a challenge for us to be aware of the different cultures and traditions but we are committed to enlarging the breath of life our great Creator gifts us with.

We have dedicated committee members who have been committed to the work of CONAM. Individuals on the committee also have personal ministries. Wes and Pat Bryan have contacts across the U.S. and during their travels, they schedule stops at reservations and churches. They drop off school supplies and new coats, etc. Newman serves with the United Methodist Women (UMW), through the Program Advisory Group of the UMW. There has been a partnership developed to receive coats, clothing, and hygiene supplies which are delivered to the Cherokee on Qualla Boundary in North Carolina and a system is in place to deliver supplies locally to NAIA and benefits their efforts of working with Native Americans across Tennessee.

As a part of the connection, we work with Native American Comprehensive Plan (NACP) and Southeast Jurisdictional Association of Native American Ministries (SEJANAM). We continue to be in prayer and work toward raising the level of awareness so we can all call upon our great Creator God for discernment and healing.

CONAM continues to stand on our Social Principles. Environmental concerns and socio-economic challenges have come to the forefront with the Water Protectors at Standing Rock who took a stand to protect the water. Thirty waterways branch off the Missouri River. Although the land seemed in dispute, Federal Tribal Law states that unless a treaty is nullified, land remains Indian land even though the size of a reservation changes. Although this seemingly past event is not in the news, we lift up those in leadership who continue to have land issues.

No one wants to lead statistical tables, but rates of suicide among native children and youth are still on a rise and we share current information as an awareness tool. Native Americans have higher rates for poverty and health issues and we try to keep a focus on education as the general public is so unaware of what happens on and off reservations.

Our CONAM is known as one of stronger CONAMs in the U.S. Members of CONAM continue to participate nationally in leadership training opportunities. We are also blessed to be part of the leadership teaching teams for NACP and SEJANAM. Serving on NACP, Newman is a part of quadrennial planning and leadership training. Newman is chair of Southeast Region Native American Caucus (SERNAC) and therefore a member of Native American International Caucus (NAIC). Serving the jurisdiction on Global Ministries (GBGM) Newman works on the task force concerning the mascot issues and serves on the Program Advisory Group for the UMW and the By-laws and Legislation Committee. Representing the Southeast Jurisdiction as a Native American, Newman serves on Global Ministries. In 2019, Global Ministries met in Upper Sandusky, Ohio, and returned the deed to the Wyandotte Nation. The deed was entrusted to the Methodist Church when they were removed to Oklahoma. The land included the mission church and cemetery-holy ground where chiefs and their first missionary, John Stewart, were laid to rest.

We continue to walk what is known as the red road of ministry. The committee continues our current relationships within the Native American community, the local church, and the secular community. We strive to create new paths of understanding through fellowship and friendship which continue to establish trusting relationships. Native American and indigenous peoples see our great Creator God in many ways and with many names from many languages. As United Methodists, we speak of making disciples for the transformation of the world. Our challenge as the Church may be to see Jesus as they do, then there will truly a transformation of the world. Claiming Acts 17:26, we share that God, as we know him, understood the concepts of tribes. If Jesus was, is, and always will be a tribal man, how better to say, “We know a tribal man who would love to know you”.

COMMITTEE ON SAFE SPACES

Terry Carty, Chair

Brad Fiscus, Connectional Ministries Staff

The purpose of Safe Spaces Ministry is to equip lay and clergy leaders with knowledge and methods for creating safer environments in which to worship and to make disciples of Jesus Christ. The Safe Spaces Ministry consists of the Boundaries and Sexual Ethics team, the Safe Sanctuary team, and the Conference Response team.

Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics Team – guides the portion of the Safe Spaces Ministry tasked with reviewing policies and implementing training opportunities in the best practices to create and maintain healthy boundaries for ministry.

Safe Sanctuaries Team – guides the portion of the Safe Spaces Ministry tasked with reviewing policies and implementing training opportunities in the best practices to protect children, youth, and vulnerable adults participating in ministry as well as those who serve in ministry in these populations.

Conference Response Team – members are trained advocates who assist congregations that have been traumatized by violators of safe boundaries. They provide care and pastoral support for those who are victimized directly and indirectly as well as those who are accused. The role of the Conference Response Team is one of care-giving, not investigation.

The members of these teams work all year to accomplish safer environments in our congregations and events. Their work in the 2019-20 conference year has included the following:

- In October 2019, the Tennessee Conference Safe Spaces Ministry discussed the best way to move forward into the new Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference of The United Methodist Church (TWK). We agreed that we should approach the Memphis Conference about joining our efforts to expand across the Nashville Episcopal Area. As a result, Rev. Dean Emerson, chair of the Memphis Conference Misconduct Response Committee, and Rev. Terry Carty, chair of the Tennessee Safe Spaces Ministry, agreed to cooperate as co-chairs of the areawide Safe Spaces Ministry. This is now being called TWK Safe Spaces Ministry in anticipation of the formation of the new conference.
- The TWK Safe Spaces Ministry has submitted a joint budget request for 2021 with the goal of providing consistent resources across both the current Tennessee and Memphis conferences.
- The Healthy Boundaries Team provides training based upon the FaithTrust Institute curricula and the Tennessee Conference Board of Ministry standards. This is offered semi-annually. The boundaries training is required every four years for all who are ordained, commissioned, and appointed to serve congregations. It is recommended for church staff.
- The Safe Sanctuaries Team provides training for safe sanctuary policies and procedures in all types of ministry. This training, offered semi-annually, is required for all who are ordained, commissioned, and appointed to serve congregations. It is recommended for all church staff and volunteers who work with children and vulnerable adults.
- In order to offer these trainings during the COVID restrictions, Brad Fiscus and Terry Carty developed BaSE and Safe Sanctuary training online. This will provide a basis for improving access for future training across the wider TWK area.
- Safe Spaces Ministry worked closely with the bishop and district superintendents of both Tennessee and Memphis conferences to provide required boundaries and sexual ethics training to all appointed elders, deacons, and local pastors by the end of the 2016-20 quadrennium. Live trainings were conducted where possible.
- A refresher course “It’s More than Safe Sanctuaries” is provided online for those who have previously attended the in-person training for Safe Sanctuaries. This meets the conference requirement for quadrennial renewal in both BaSE and Safe Sanctuary trainings. This feature made it possible to offer the free refresher course to all across TWK before the end of the quadrennium.
- Safe Sanctuary trainers have been deployed as requested to train children and youth workers in their local church/ministry setting. The Safe Sanctuaries team was able to respond to every request for training up until the COVID pandemic stopped gatherings.
- A TWK Safe Spaces Ministry website is maintained and updated for providing resources to congregations for safe sanctuaries and other risks.
- The Safe Spaces Ministry has partnered with the Safe Gatherings organization to provide a reasonably priced package of background check, reference check, and safe ministry training for congregational leaders. Safe Spaces Ministry has also contracted to use CongregationU as a training platform for online courses that we are developing for the current and future conferences. We are still registered with Trak-1 to conduct background checks for all congregations in the conference. This leaves only the cost of each background check to be paid by the local church. As a result, we currently have more people with backgrounds checked and trained in Safe Sanctuary than ever before.

- All Tennessee Conference and district events that include children or youth require certification of adult leaders in Safe Sanctuaries and training to the conference standards. We hope to make the same agreements in the Memphis Conference.
- The Conference Response team coordinator is available for consultation with the bishop and district superintendents in a congregational crisis arising from boundaries violation.
- The coordinator is prepared to deploy a trained team with skills appropriate to the situation to conduct a congregational care event or to care for those immediately traumatized by violation.
- The Safe Spaces team continues to develop new resources for preparedness and response to armed intruders and other imminent dangers.
- A Suicide Awareness and Response Toolkit is available in partnership with the Tennessee Suicide Prevention Network.
- The team includes trainers who are certified through FaithTrust Institute (Boundaries and Sexual Ethics), QPR Suicide Prevention, and ALICE (active shooter). The Conference Response team coordinator has been trained in Commission on Status and Role of Women (COSROW) best practices.

CONFERENCE PERSONNEL COMMITTEE

Alice Grunau, HR Specialist

Because of activity around planning for the new conference, the Personnel Committee chose not to implement any new initiatives this year, beyond those things done by Alice Grunau, Conference HR Specialist, who continues to provide support to local churches and to conference directors by consulting on various HR and employee relations topics.

The conference implemented recruiting and interview processes for various job openings throughout the conference as well as worked with interview teams on hiring practices. Documentation was improved with a request for leave procedure for accountability of time off for conference staff by formalizing vacation and sick time tracking. To strengthen FLSA compliance, processes were added in the area of payroll services.

The HR subcommittee, which is involved in planning for the new conference, is working with both the Tennessee and Memphis conferences to create consistency in job titles, job description formatting, and policies for the new conference.

Note: Personnel Policies and Procedures appear in Chapter 11, Section B.

CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES

Melinda Britt, Director

B.J. Brack, Chair, Connectional Ministries Lead Team

In the past year, we have continued to practice adaptive, nimble leadership in Connectional Ministries. The purpose of Connectional Ministries is to steward the vision of the conference through connecting resources for collaboration, equipping leaders with tools for spiritual leadership and strengthening congregations, and communicating information and the stories of transformation happening through the local church. Aligning the ministry teams with the purpose of Connectional Ministries, equipping Connectional Ministries team leaders, empowering them for adaptive and technical tasks, and guiding the conversation and making decisions around the Connectional Ministries budget is the work of the lead team.

The desired outcomes of this work are Connectional Ministries teams doing the mission, leaders who are stewarding the vision, pipelines of generative leaders and disciples, a working budget that is available to all members of the annual conference, and standards of expectations and accountability for our work. We are anticipating that our work in Connectional Ministries will help our mission statement of the Tennessee Conference become a reality. All of the Connectional Ministries teams are the process/strategy/vehicle for delivering this product. We will do this by creating a culture-building capacity through covenant, leading in a trustworthy way, holding the teams accountable, sharing success, mission taking priority to personal preference while making decisions, and communicating with transparency.

Celebrations of the ministry of the Connectional Ministries Lead Team from this past year include continuing to live into our covenant and focus for the lead team. We have continued to promote communication with transparency to the Connectional Ministries teams and that has produced increased trust.

A training at the end of October was held to promote collaboration and connections between our ministry groups. At this training, we shared information, set expectations, and equipped leaders with the budget process for 2020.

When the calendar changed to 2020, the lead team discerned our task would need to shift to becoming a transition team that would work with leaders and connectional ministry teams from the West side of the new conference in anticipation of becoming a new conference in 2021. The lead team began meeting with connectional ministry leaders from the West side and formed the TWK transition team.

We lived into the covenant established by the TWK guide team and we have built relationships across the area. Trust has started to form as we have been transparent with one another. We have encouraged ministry teams to meet and work together from both sides of the river so they can begin the process of aligning their ministries.

A few months ago, we found out that Southeast Jurisdictional Conference was being delayed until 2021, so the formation of the new conference was delayed another year until 2022. This meant that we had to be adaptive in our leadership to design a new process for the 2021 conference budget. Instead of stepping back, the transition team has continued to move ahead and align ministry wherever possible with our core mission, vision, and values. The transition team developed a budget process that was used with ministry teams from the East and West sides of the river to form the budget for 2021. COVID-19 has forced us to lead in new and adaptive ways and taught us that technology will play an important role in the new conference. Technology has allowed us to save travel expenses and time traveling to meetings.

We have learned much in 2020 and know that we will continue to learn even more in 2021 as we move toward the formation of the new Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference. The TWK transition team will continue to develop strategies for supporting ministries that don't rely on funding: communicating, connecting resources, and empowering Connectional Ministries leaders from the East and West side of the river with processes and tools to steward the mission of the new conference. May God continue to guide our work as we equip lay and clergy leaders all over the conference to empower the work of the local church.

COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

John Pearce, President

2021 Budget Explanation

Attached is our proposed 2021 budget for both the Tennessee Conference (TNUMC) and the Memphis Conference. While this budget was in part jointly developed by both conferences, each annual conference meeting will vote on their respective budget. I am providing some commentary below to help explain items that are significant to the budget that that will help members of the annual conferences prepare.

TREASURER'S OFFICE/OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES ALIGNMENT

- In June, Jim Allen, the treasurer for the TNUMC announced his intention to retire effective after annual conference, which would be September 20, 2020. We need to thank Jim for his years of service to the Tennessee Conference and wish him well in his retirement.
- Both the Book of Discipline and practical reality require that the Tennessee Conference have a treasurer the day after Jim retires.
- The intent of both the Memphis and Tennessee annual conferences is to combine into a new Tennessee-Western Kentucky (TWK) Conference as of January 1, 2022.
- The Book of Discipline requires that the annual conference, on nomination of its Council on Finance and Administration (CFA) elect a treasurer, which needs to occur on September 19, 2020.
- The Tennessee Conference Standing Rules defer this process to the conference Personnel Policies and Procedures.
- Those personnel policies provide guidelines that include the involvement of the Conference Pension Committee and the executive committees of both Pensions and CFA as well as advertising the position, interviewing qualified applicants, background checks, etc.
- We followed those guidelines and held meetings of the Pension Committee, CFA, and the executive committees of each, and we are recommending what we believe is most helpful to our local churches in both conferences to better accomplish their mission.
- Each of these groups, consistently agreed that in light of the plan to unify our two conferences within 15 months of this vacancy and the need to have one person with experience and knowledge of both conferences to lead our efforts to consolidate the Treasurer's Office and Office of Administrative Services (OAS) into one office, we would defer until next year the process of advertising the position and interviewing qualified applicants. At this year's Tennessee Annual Conference, we would nominate—with the permission of the Memphis Conference's CFA—Larry Davis, the current treasurer of the Memphis conference to jointly serve as the treasurer of the Tennessee Conference from September 20, 2020, through December 31, 2021.
- It is our expectation that our two conferences will work together on a process to advertise, interview, and nominate a person to be the treasurer of the TWK Conference sometime during 2021. The first joint annual conference, expected to occur in December 2021, will likely be asked to elect this new treasurer.

- Our two CFA's have asked Larry to lead the effort to consolidate our Treasurer's Office/OAS during 2021, ensure that the financial responsibilities of each office are properly carried out, organize the staff in an appropriate manner, provide customer service to all churches in each conference, implement our proposed new health benefit plan, and create systems and processes that would provide for a seamless transition to one TWK Conference in 2022.
- To be clear, while we are hoping that this consolidation will create some efficiencies and cost savings, it does not mean that the current employees of either conference will change or remain the same, nor does it require that the office would be fully contained in one single physical location. Those are issues that need to be worked out over time as we all search for best solutions to an ever-changing environment.
- It is our expectation for both conferences that this will be a non-event to our local churches and that their pastors who need the help or interaction with the conference office will receive excellent care.
- Accordingly, the TNUMC CFA will put forth a resolution to the Tennessee Annual Conference that outlines the rules, meetings, and factual situation. It concludes as follows: "Therefore, the Tennessee Conference CFA in consideration of the above facts and actions, and in compliance with the rules set forth in the UMC Book of Discipline paragraph 619, does hereby nominate to the Tennessee Annual Conference meeting in session in September 2020 Larry Davis to be elected as the treasurer, statistician and director of Administrative Services of the Tennessee Conference, effective September 20, 2020, (the retirement date of Jim Allen) until December 31, 2021, while serving this same role within the Memphis Conference."

BUDGET A HYBRID EXPERIENCE

- Our 2021 budgets were completed the week of August 17th by each conference CFA.
- The TWK 2021 Budget Task Force, comprised of persons from each conference, asked that each CFA work together to create a 2021 budget that is part separate conference budget and part joint/area budget that is split between the two conferences.
- Several hundred people have been involved in the 2021 budget process that included teams from both conferences working as one in some cases and separately in other cases.
- The two legacy conference CFAs performed their normal duties of evaluating each budget request and even met together to hear the report of the TWK Transition Team on the proposal for Connectional Ministries budgets. Over 100 persons from both conferences evaluated how we are in ministry together and what financial resources were needed.
- Melinda Britt, who co-chaired the Transition Team with Richard Clark, shared an overview of how that process worked. She said a lot of people worked really hard to answer some challenging, strategic questions about why they needed financial resources and how they would use them to further the ministry of the local church in our conferences together.
- REVENUE: You will recall that at each annual conference session last summer, we approved a revenue-based funding model that asks each church to pay 11 percent of their income as reflected on line 52(t) of their 2019 statistical report. We called it a Connectional Commitment.

Because of the change in the Jurisdictional Conference timeline, we will be asking for each annual conference to approve the study of the Connectional Commitment and its acceptance once again this year. This is a significant change for each conference.

For Memphis, it is asking their churches to increase from a self-calculated 10 percent tithe, to receiving a bill for 11 percent. For Tennessee, this moves away from an expense-based apportionment model to an income model that causes a few fluctuations in amounts for some churches.

In the Tennessee Conference some have asked if this new funding formula would decrease the resources available for ministry. You should know that 11 percent of revenue for 2021 is equal to 99.8 percent of our 2020 apportionment amount. So no, the funding model does not reduce our resources. This model based on over 85 percent of our revenue is more consistent among our churches than our prior model that considered only 61 percent of our expenses.

For TNUMC, about 82 percent of our churches will not notice a significant change. However, there are a few outliers that will see a significant change in increase or decrease. Therefore, the TNUMC CFA is proposing a 20 percent cap on increases or decreases for 2021 versus the amount a local church would have paid the prior year to help those outliers live into this new model over time.

So that is the funding model. But the biggest single financial issue we face this year and into the next several years is how much of this model will we actually receive. We have built into the model a ¼ percent per year reduction until we get to 10 percent. A recession and unemployment are hurting our local churches, COVID is preventing us from worshiping on Sundays in person, and we still have the global UM Church struggling with how to treat our LGBTQI brothers and sisters.

This year the Memphis Conference is expecting to lose contributions from two churches that represent about 20 percent of their 11 percent number and in Tennessee we have lost several smaller churches. The reality is this is not over and will get worse before we get to 2021. Our CFA's, with the help of Jim Allen and Larry Davis, have estimated our collectability factor to the best of our ability. Memphis projects they will collect about 65 percent and Tennessee projects about 80 percent. Let us all pray that those estimates actually happen.

- PENSION AND HEALTHCARE PLANS. Each conference is already on the same pension plans with WesPath and will see little change due to our unification. Deborah Suddarth and Jerry Wallace will explain the Benefits Task Team's recommendation which is to offer the same healthcare plan for each conference. This will accomplish several financial objectives: The cost to each church will be the same regardless of whether it has a pastor that is a single participant or has a pastor with a spouse and 10 children. The cost is the same regardless of which side of the river a pastor serves. Our participants can choose a no-extra- premium/high deductible plan or pay a monthly premium and have a low deductible, depending on their situation. And for the first time in decades, we are offering an affordably priced plan for TNUMC participant's spouse and family.

The Memphis Conference will continue to direct bill these costs to each local church based on the number of clergy at each church. The Tennessee Conference will continue to move toward full direct billing with 2021 being our second year on this journey.

TNUMC is expecting some residual reserves from our 2020 health plan; our pension plan reserves did well in 2019, earning $1.6 million in the stock market and receiving a $600K premium waiver from WesPath.

So, TNUMC's CFA is recommending, with the approval of the Pension Committee, that we use some of those reserves in 2021 to help our local churches move along the path to full direct billing.

We will ask the TNUMC to move from paying 50 percent of healthcare in 2020 to 75 percent of healthcare in 2021 and from 25 percent of pension costs in 2020 to 50 percent of pension costs in 2021. TNUMC's CFA and Pension Committee are also recommending that we use these reserves to fully pay for the pension and healthcare costs of plan participants that are not appointed to local churches rather than charging the costs in 2021 to their budgets and asking local churches to pay for it via their Connectional Commitment. We estimate that after 2021 and the use of this level of reserves, we would move into our new conference with about $11 million in pension reserves. Of course, the Memphis Conference has reserves that are proportional in amount.

- Regarding General UMC and SEJ apportionments, each of our conference's CFA's are recommending that we budget an amount equal to the reduced amount that GCFA recommended before General Conference was postponed. After the postponement and the resultant no approved budget, GCFA backtracked and suggested that while they still planned to recommend the lower amount to General Conference, each conference should plan to pay in 2021 the higher amount they were apportioned in 2020. We are recommending a budget of the lower amount which represents a savings of $842,588 to our combined conferences.

PROCESS

- Melinda Britt, Richard Clark, B.J. Brack, and Sue Engle led a successful process used by our various ministry teams working together as one joint team to propose a budget for all the Connectional Ministries (CM). We organized the 2021 CM budget in a format consistent with our proposed new structure with strategy teams for Connect, Equip, Discover, and Send.

For many of our program areas like Campus Ministry, Covenant Entities, or New Church Development, the groups planned joint or similar ministry while at the same time creating separate budgets for each conference. In some situations, an actual joint/area budget was created. For those budgets, we let the accountants allocate the budget dollars between the two conferences and we are asking the ministry teams to move forward as one.

I participated in the Transition Team meetings, led one of the evaluation teams, and heard the reports of all the teams. In my view, our CM teams did not propose much in the way of new or drastically changed programs for 2021 versus 2020, but they took some very significant steps. They reached out across the river, got to know what was happening in the other conference, and strategized as to how they could move forward in ministry together.

There are some great stories of how groups met together, learned from each other, and articulated their ministry objectives and needs. This Transition budgeting team reported moving from using language of Memphis and Tennessee conferences, to East and West regions of our area, to we and us as they made decisions about funding ministry together. It was transforming for those leaders involved.

- The Connectional Ministries teams also worked hard to understand and explain why they needed the financial resources they were asking for. In the end they proposed an amount of $2.7million for the Tennessee Conference and over $600K for the Memphis Conference which were consistent with 2020. The leaders of the Transition Team presented their proposal to the joint Memphis/TNUMC CFA meeting on August 12. The budgets that each CFA is recommending to annual conference includes the full amount requested by these ministry teams.
- Each conference has provided a significant amount of budget to assist local churches that are struggling to pay their clergy with equitable comp salary support.
- Larry Davis, with the help of Jim Allen, prepared a joint budget for our Treasurer's Office/OAS that reflects a savings to the combined conferences of $70,000. Larry will be looking for further cost-saving opportunities during 2021 as that back-office function becomes one.

- We worked to achieve some alignment with our district budgets. Our nine district superintendents (DS) agreed to equalize their salaries since we were proposing a benefits plan that was now consistent for each conference. The Tennessee Conference DS's were paid more than the Memphis Conference DS's and they agreed to meet in the middle for all nine. This means that five Tennessee Conference DS's will be taking a pay cut in 2021 to move their pay down to the average amount and the four Memphis Conference DS's will receive a raise in an equal amount. So, when you see Scott, Chip, Donna, Alan, or Pat, thank them for agreeing to take a pay cut to make this work. We also sharpened our pencils in the budget process for Tennessee Conference travel expenses by budgeting an amount for travel equal to the actual expense of 2019.
- In one of our joint CFA Executive Committee Zoom meetings, we proposed that each conference adopt a best practice of the other conference relative to our district budgets and our campus ministry budgets. Each CFA agreed to those proposals and have included them in our recommendation to our respective annual conferences.

In July 2019, the TNUMC districts moved all their payroll and bookkeeping duties out of their offices and into the Treasurer's Office. This has saved money, taken the DS's out of the bookkeeping business, provided more transparency and control over our expenses, and allowed the DS's to make executive decisions regarding the use of their budgets.

The Memphis Conference CFA is recommending in their report to annual conference that the Memphis districts make a similar change in 2021. Similarly, we learned that in the Memphis Conference the campus ministers are all on the conference payroll and the Treasurer's Office manages the funds included in the conference budget for each campus ministry.

The TNUMC CFA is including that plan for the TNUMC Wesley Foundations in their recommendation to the annual conference. We will meet with the campus ministers to talk about how this will work and how it will be helpful to them with their ministries.

- SALARIES. The TWK Structure Team has worked hard to create a new structure for ministry in the TWK Conference. Bethany Huffman led that team and will report on that new structure. We need to have approval from annual conference to adopt this new structure before specific employee and salary decisions can be made. The plan is to ask for annual conference approval for the structure and then live into that structure and make position and salary decisions later this fall or into the new calendar year.

Each CFA has included in their respective budgets a pool or bucket of money to be used for salaries that is equal to 2020 amounts. To be more specific, the Episcopal Office budget, the OFLD budget, campus ministry budgets, camping budgets, and the Treasurer's Office all have amounts included in their budget to pay salaries generally equal to 2020 amounts and people. For the CMT area, the Tennessee Conference budget has a pool of money to be used for salaries equal to the total amount included in the 2020 budget, and the Memphis Conference budget has a pool of money to be used for salaries equal to the 2020 amount for the one position that is still filled. As we live into this new structure, we have a fixed amount of salary money available.

- It is important that we work hard during 2021 to find ways to reduce spending for both conferences. We need to focus this effort on administrative-type items to protect ministry. Each conference is expecting a reduction in revenue after 2021 and each budget has used a significant amount of reserves to help pay for our expenses. Our ability to utilize reserves will be reduced in 2022 and future years. I am suggesting that while 2021 will be a year of aligning our conference operations and ministries, it also needs to be a year where we sharpen our pencils relative to how we spend money.

While there are always more details that could be shared, I will stop at this point. The recommended budget is attached. We will provide more information at annual conference.

Direct Bill of Health Care & Pension Benefits

- As of July 31, 2020
 - 188 churches billed >$1,000 $1,377,768
 - 125 churches billed <$1,000 $33,875
 - 245 churches billed ZERO $0
- Collected 98.6%
- Equitable comp provided help to a few churches
- Projected full year billing - $2,419,959

2019: Direct Billing of Health & Pensions: WHY

- Fairness to the 340 smaller churches that pay (twice?) with no participant
- Fairness to the 54 larger churches that pay extra
- Risk of reliance on collection of apportionments for clergy benefits
- Current method is not sustainable in the changing landscape of UMC
- Need to more fully understand the increasing cost of healthcare
- Pay for benefits in same manner as salary
- Allows cabinet to understand which churches can fully fund a full elder
- TN Conf is one of few remaining conferences to apportion benefits

Direct Bill of Health Care & Pension Benefits

- 2020 healthcare cost billed at 50% of cost (about $6,600)
- 2021 healthcare cost billed at 75% of cost (about $10,170)

- 2020 pension cost billed at 25% of cost
- 2021 pension cost billed at 50% of cost

2020 Pension Rebate

- In 2019 WesPath provided a “premium holiday” of $591,802
- In 2019 our pension reserves earned a substantial amount in the stock market, more than we expected
- The TNAC cabinet expressed to CFA a desire to help our local churches financially because many were struggling during our COVID year
- CFA proposed to rebate each church that paid in to the pension plan (25% level) the full amount they paid in 2020. Estimated $704,000
- Pension Committee approved
- 313 churches will receive a credit on their billings totaling $704,000

2020 Apportionment Collections

• As of August 31, 2020 (8/12 of year)
• # of Churches	Status	Paid amount	(Behind)/Ahead
• 195	ZERO	$0	($742,733)
• 94	8/12	$2,203,257	$0

• 163	Behind	$1,615,617	($1,221,319)
• Totals		$4,565,193	($1,862,174)

2020 Paycheck Protection Program Loan

- Jim Allen, with the approval of CFA and trustees successfully applied for a PPP loan for the conference
- PPP loans were guaranteed by the SBA and intended to prevent layoffs
- On April 21, $938,500 was deposited into TNAC bank account
- Based on SBA rules and legislative changes, we expect that 100% of this loan will be forgiven before the end of this calendar year.
- In accordance with the SBA rules, TNAC has used this money to fund payroll costs over a 24 week period
- Some belongs to the foundation, some was used to help with camping payroll this summer, some was used to create an opportunity to help with equitable comp for churches struggling with payroll.

Retirement of Jim Allen Treasurer of TNAC

- Jim Allen has announced he will retire as Treasurer effective Sept 20, 2020
- BOD says, annual conference, on nomination of CFA shall elect a treasurer
- Personnel policies provide for CFA & Pension Cmt to determine candidate
- In light of plan to unify with Memphis and consolidate our Admin Services/Treasurer's offices we, with the permission of the Memphis CFA, are nominating Larry Davis, the current Memphis Conference treasurer to serve in the additional role of the Tennessee Conference treasurer until December 31, 2021
- We expect to partner with Memphis Conference to secure a treasurer for TWK Conference effective 1/1/22 during 2021
- See CFA action items to elect Larry Davis as treasurer

2021 Financial Plan Highlights

- New Apportionment Formula Based on Revenue as reported on Line 52(t) of annual statistical report with a 20% cap on first year change
- 2021 budget regarding districts and campus ministries
- New health care plan financial issues
- Pension plan financial issues and reserve forecast
- Misc. action items:
 - Cabinet reserve fund
 - Travel reimbursement
 - Housing Allowances
 - District superintendent pay
- 2021 budget recommendation and approval

2021 New Apportionment Formula

- At 2019 AC you approved a new, revenue based apportionment formula that uses line 52(t) of the annual statistical report as the basis for apportionment. We called it Connectional Commitment and it asked local churches to pay 11% of line 52(t).
- This was for the new TWK Conference which does not begin until 2022
- CFA is proposing to use this formula for the TNAC in 2021, with a cap of 20%, increase or decrease, versus what was paid in 2020.
- 11% in 2021 equals 99.8% of 2020 apportionment
- Model is based on 85% of revenue (no capital or endowment income) vs 61% of expenses in prior model, so more consistent application
- See CFA action items for this new formula

2021 District and Campus Ministry Budgets

- District Budgets:
 - We made progress in aligning the nine district budgets
 - DS salary equalized: Chip, Scott, Donna, Pat, and Alan all get a pay cut
 - Travel costs were fine tuned
 - Memphis districts will move accounting to Treasurer's office like TN did in 2019
- Campus Ministry Budgets:
 - With help of Angella Current-Felder and Jefferson Furtado, CFA is recommending that employees of the TNAC Wesley Foundations be moved onto the conference payroll and that the conference Treasurer's office manage and disburse the funds provided by the conference to each Wesley Foundation. Larry Davis will work with each campus minister to ensure this is supportive of their ministry.
 - The Conference needs to provide resources to help campus ministers implement effective fund-raising processes to be less dependent on apportionments.

2021 Health Plan Financial Issues

- With the WesPath Flex Plan the cost of health care for each church will be the same, about $13,560 regardless of whether the pastor is a single plan participant or needs to cover his/her spouse and children and regardless of which conference he/she is appointed to.
- Because of some residual reserves from prior years, in 2021 the conference will bill only 75% of the cost to the local churches and pay for 100% of the health care cost for plan participants not appointed to a local church with reserves.
- Plan participants may chose a high deductible (with an HSA) for no additional monthly premium or pay a monthly premium with a lower deductible. For the first time in years, participants with children and/or a spouse will have access to affordable health care.

2021 Pension Plan Financial Issues

- With our significant conference pension reserves, on top of fully (over) funded pension plans, CFA is recommending, with the approval of our Pensions Committee, that local churches will be billed for 50% of the cost of pensions for their appointed participants, and that we use those reserves to pay 100% of the pension cost for plan participants not appointed to a local church for 2021.
- After the use of these reserves in 2021, as well as 2020, we have forecasted that the TN Conference will enter the unification with the Memphis Conference on 1/1/22 with pension reserves of about $12 million which is above our $10 million target.

DELEGATION TO GENERAL CONFERENCE

Harriet Bryan, First Clergy Delegate, and Jim Allen, First Lay Delegate

Anticipating gathering for General Conference in Minneapolis in 2020, the General Conference Delegation met several times after being elected to craft a covenant to guide our work together, to decide legislative committee assignments, to review legislation after it was published, and to think through how we might best communicate with the annual conference before, after, and during General Conference.

As May drew closer, we met with our sister delegation from Memphis to get better acquainted with one another and to exchange information regarding upcoming legislation. We also met with representatives from Wespath and watched videos by the presenters of the major plans coming before us. Because the pre-General Conference briefing was held in downtown Nashville in January, several of our members were able to attend most, if not all, of the presentations. In addition, since Connection UMC in Donelson hosted the SEJ Delegation briefing in February, we were able to meet with delegates from across the jurisdiction to broaden and deepen our connection with others as well as to discuss possible implications and ramifications of proposed legislation. Just a few weeks after our meeting in Donelson, we found ourselves sheltering in place and learning that General Conference had been postponed until 2021.

The delegation has met by Zoom sporadically since March to check in with one another and to pray for one another and The United Methodist Church. When General Conference 2021 draws near, we will immerse ourselves once again in legislation so that we will be as prepared as possible to serve faithfully as delegates. We thank you for the trust that you placed in us to serve in this capacity.

ENCORE MINISTRY

Dr. Richard H. Gentzler, Jr., Director, ENCORE Ministry

The mission of ENCORE Ministry is to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world by providing consultation, training and support, advocacy, quality resources, and networking opportunities to equip church leaders in the Tennessee Conference for intentional ministry by, with, and for older adults.

The ENCORE Ministry committee is a merger of the former Tennessee Conference Committee on Older Adults and Encore Ministries, a program ministry of the Golden Cross Foundation. ENCORE Ministry is fully funded by a generous and ongoing grant from the Golden Cross Foundation of the Tennessee Conference. There is no cost to churches for the services of ENCORE Ministry.

The ENCORE Ministry committee works closely with the district superintendents and with district ENCORE Ministry teams to plan training events in older adult ministry in each district. The district events provide resources and networking opportunities for leaders in older adult ministries as well as grant information of the Golden Cross Foundation.

During 2019, ENCORE Ministry provided training, support, and resources in each of the five Tennessee Conference districts. There were at least two training workshops in each district throughout the conference year. Consultation services were also provided to numerous individual congregations in each district. However, with the COVID-19 pandemic this year, a number of district training sessions were canceled or postponed.

The ENCORE Ministry committee had planned to host An Age of Opportunity, a conference-wide event for older adults, leaders of older adult ministries and congregation care ministries, and clergy at St. Mark's United Methodist Church in Murfreesboro first on April 30 and later on October 29. However, as a result of the COVID-19 crisis and for health safety reasons, the event had to be postponed. The committee plans to hold this event in 2021. In addition to the conference-wide event, the committee plans to conduct district training events in 2021.

The ENCORE Ministry committee worked with Creative Communications of Nashville to help provide information resources for ENCORE Ministry including a logo, brochure, and video. In addition, the committee has been working with Big Heart Creative to reimagine, reframe, and redesign the ENCORE Ministry website with helpful resources for both older adults and leaders of older adult ministries. The website includes resources of great benefit to older adults, as well as valuable resource materials for church leaders in their ministry by, with, and for older adults.

In the midst of the COVID-19 pandemic, ENCORE Ministry started a monthly e-newsletter, ENCORE Ministry Matters. Each monthly newsletter provides articles on older adult ministry and helpful resources for equipping and empowering leaders in this vital ministry. The free monthly e-newsletter is sent by email to more than 600 leaders and older adults in the Tennessee Conference. To subscribe, email donna.barker@tnumc.com.

The ENCORE Ministry committee, with the support of the Golden Cross Foundation, selects local churches in the Tennessee Conference to receive an ENCORE Ministry Award for their exemplary older adult ministry. Recipients of the award receive a framed certificate and a $500 check from the Golden Cross Foundation. To date, 12 local churches and one individual in the Tennessee Conference have received an ENCORE Ministry Award. With changes in the annual conference this year due to the coronavirus, the committee decided not to select individual churches to receive the award. The committee believes that the churches in the Tennessee Conference have all been working diligently to care for the needs and concerns of their older members during this health crisis. The committee plans to renew the award process in 2021.

Members of the ENCORE Ministry Committee include:

NASHVILLE EPISCOPAL AREA DISASTER RESPONSE MINISTRY

Robert Craig, Disaster Response Coordinator

The mission of United Methodist Disaster Response is to offer a caring Christian presence to communities that have experienced disaster. The purpose of disaster response in the Tennessee Conference is to live into that mission in our local communities. While it is occasionally necessary to partner with conferences outside the area, our primary focus is to prepare churches and individuals to respond to neighbors in need.

This has been a productive year in the area of disaster response ministry. One of the most important aspects of disaster response is preparation. Several trainings have taken place in both of our conferences. These included multiple Early Response Team (ERT) classes and Connecting Neighbors trainings. These learning sessions are instrumental in preparing local churches and teams to respond to neighbors in time of need.

The Nashville Episcopal Area now has a leadership team for disaster response ministry. The team is made up of leaders from both conferences. The team has worked diligently in response to the tornado outbreak on March 3, 2020. Additionally, the leadership team will continue to work toward better organization and communication of disaster response ministry. A part of this team is the new position of Early Response Team coordinator. This role is filled by Clifton Tackett. Tackett has taken on the responsibility of organization and communication with ERTs in our new conference. He will also schedule trainings and renewals for ERTs.

Finally, the conference has been involved in relief and recovery efforts following the recent tornado disaster. The conference provided volunteers for cleanup in the early days following the disaster and continues to be heavily involved in the federally declared areas. The conference will continue to serve our communities in a number of ways. One vital function facilitated by the conference is the role disaster case management relationships with survivors. The conference will remain involved in this work until the recovery is complete. At this time, recovery work is estimated to last until fall 2021. The Tennessee Conference of The United Methodist Church has employed seasonal recovery leadership for these communities through grants from the United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR) and the Community Foundation of Middle Tennessee. Additionally, generous donations from individuals, churches, and conferences continue to make it possible for the conference to care for survivors with direct recovery assistance through the work of the community long-term recovery groups. The support of our connection makes the ministry of restoring hope possible.

GENERAL BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND MINISTRY

Greg Bergquist, General Secretary

In the history of The United Methodist Church, we have never been more in need of leadership, collaboration, and connection. Now is the time for those who have been called into the mission and ministry of Jesus Christ to step out and step forward.

The General Board of Higher Education and Ministry (GBHEM) has been charged by the Church for just this moment. We are equipped and ready to engage in the journey with those called to be principled, Christian leaders. This is the call of GBHEM – to embrace the ministry of learning and leadership formation in The United Methodist Church and the Wesleyan tradition. We serve Christian leaders around the world who are defined, formed, and shaped by a process of intellectual engagement, spiritual and character formation, and leadership development.

GBHEM will continue our mission and ministry through 2020 and beyond. But we are going to be more innovative and adaptive in our approach. GBHEM has begun a deliberative process to reimagine and reshape its ministry. We're doing this in the following ways:

- We will continue cultivating a dynamic culture of call and vocational discernment that encourages lay and clergy leaders to discover, claim, and flourish in God's ministry and mission for the Church, the academy, and the world.
- We are enhancing and expanding GBHEM's innovative platform of experiential learning and formation that provides connectional, contextual, and collaborative solutions to the challenges facing the Church, the academy, and the world.
- And, we are in the process of establishing a stewardship and economic model for GBHEM that maintains a commitment to the mission of the Church and the agency while increasing the agency's financial self-sufficiency and sustainability.

"And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age." Matthew 28:20

The same spirit of service and leadership that first inspired John Wesley lives on in you. You've been called. So, lead on, knowing GBHEM is with you every step of the way.

GOLDEN CROSS FOUNDATION

Golden Cross Foundation Board of Directors, Charles Hewgley, Chairperson

The Golden Cross Foundation (GCF), a non-profit corporation and extension ministry of the Tennessee Conference of The United Methodist Church, awarded more than $100,000 to churches and organizations throughout the conference in 2019. Money from the grants has been used toward starting an iPad pilot project for older adults, retrofitting churches with ramps and lifts, broadening an older adult choir's outreach to the surrounding community, providing financial assistance for feeding ministries and older adult ministry programs, and helping launch an intergenerational home sharing program.

"You might say the foundation exists to give money away," said GCF Chairperson Charles Hewgley. "Each year members of the GCF board gather to review and approve grant requests from UM churches and organizations throughout the Tennessee Conference of The United Methodist Church."

In 2019, 18 grants were awarded ranging from $1,000 to $10,000. Several churches receiving grant money applied it toward feeding ministries. Members at Leeville United Methodist Church in Lebanon, Tennessee, expanded their SALT (Serving at the Lord's Table) food pantry so they could increase the number of food boxes volunteers deliver to low-income seniors.

"Most food pantries require recipients to come to them," said SALT pantry coordinator Joyce Gaines. "SALT volunteers deliver boxes of food twice a month to more than 100 households. Senior adults frequently have difficulty getting to the grocery store due to health problems, limited mobility, and/or lack of transportation. In addition, fixed incomes, medication costs, unexpected repairs, and high utility bills mean seniors can't always keep food in their pantries. Our vision is that no senior in Wilson County will go hungry."

Other churches applied grant money toward retrofitting their churches with new ramps, lifts, and improved parking lots to increase accessibility and make older buildings and facilities ADA compliant. The improvements also make older adult worshippers feel welcomed and valued. In some cases, the upgrades encouraged members to return to church.

Grant money is also being used by churches and organizations for new and innovative programs. Members of Madison Street UMC in Clarksville, Tennessee, used their grant money to help fund an iPad pilot project for older adults and the Council on Aging of Middle Tennessee (COA) is developing an intergenerational home sharing program.

“Older adults have become isolated because many church communications—newsletters, schedules, and other church information—are now distributed electronically,” said Aleeta Christian, chair of Madison Street UMC’s Electronic Train team. “Many older adults do not have access to or the skill to use electronic devices. They may also lack funds to purchase devices due to living on fixed incomes.”

In early 2019, the church offered workshops to interested older adults to introduce them to the iPads and select recipients. To qualify for an iPad, persons needed to be 62+ years old that did not have an iPad, and who would commit to attending training sessions and donate $100 in matching funds.

“Learning to use an iPad and keyboard is not easy for anyone, especially older adults who have few experiences with newer electronic devices,” said Christian. “Sometimes it was hard and frustrating to all—participants, leaders, and Electronic Train team members—but overall it was very gratifying. Older adults can learn new things. It was so fun watching that happen.”

Golden Cross Foundation grant money is being used by Council on Aging staff to help organize and launch an intergenerational home sharing program in the greater Nashville area. Projected to launch in fall 2020, the program will help address the lack of affordable housing and negative health impacts of social isolation by matching older adults who want to stay in their homes with graduate students or other eligible adults who need affordable rent. TSU Wesley Foundation and Gordon Memorial UMC are partners in this mission.

In 2019, grants were given to churches of all sizes including 40-member Kynett UMC in Sparta, Tennessee, and 1,138-member Calvary UMC in Nashville. Recipients were:

Burton Chapel UMC	$5,412.00
Calvary UMC	$5,000.00
Christ UMC-McMinnville	$6,378.55
Council on Aging of Middle TN	$10,000.00
Elder’s Chapel UMC	$1,600.00
First UMC Gainesboro	$10,000.00
First UMC Lawrenceburg	$10,000.00
First UMC Mt. Pleasant	$10,000.00
Gordon Memorial UMC	$8,000.00
Key Stewart UMC	$1,500.00
Kynett UMC	$4,500.00
LaVergne First UMC	$6,332.00
Leeville UMC	$7,875.00
Little Lot UMC	$1,850.00
Mt. Union UMC	$7,820.00
Scott UMC	$1,200.00
Smith Chapel UMC	$2,528.00
Statesville UMC	$1,000.00
	$100,995.55

Since 2013 more than $487,000 in grant money has been awarded to 48 UM churches and organizations.

“If your church wants to start or expand an older adult ministry or you want to retro fit your building to make it more accessible, safe, and welcoming, we encourage you to apply” said Golden Cross Foundation Executive Director Kent McNish.

COMMITTEE ON HEALTH AND WELFARE

Marie C. King, Chair

The Conference Committee on Health and Welfare has provided resourceful articles addressing healthcare concerns based on the National Health Observances calendar. Topics included have been prevention of drowning, back to school tips, suicide prevention, breast cancer awareness, grief and loss, and the holiday blues. We also collaborated with Gordon Memorial UMC and Rev. Dr. Paula Smith to provide a workshop on grief. Rev. Dr. Sheila Peters, who has a PhD in psychology, and Rev. Dr. Paula Gravelle Turner, retired director of Pastoral Care, were the workshop presenters. This was an invitation to the community and Tennessee and Memphis conferences. The workshop acknowledged many common questions about grief and loss and acknowledged that grief following loss and transitions are normal. Basic questions explored were: What is grief? Why do we grieve? Where is God in the midst of our grief? Is there grace in grief?

We have placed on hold implementing Faithful Families and Walk Across Tennessee spring 2020 programs with UT Extension. We extend thanks to Ebone' Colclough with UT Extension Family and Consumer Services in working with us to explore bringing this initiative to our faith community. We look forward to providing these initiatives at a later time.

The chairperson, Rev. Marie C. King, volunteers with the Suicide Prevention in the African American Faith Communities Coalition. This coalition is comprised of organizations across the Davidson County area that address suicide prevention through public awareness, workshops, conferences, health fairs, access to resources, intervention skills, reducing stigma, and educational and training events.

Humanity has faced and continues to face a global pandemic caused by a virus called COVID-19. The world has not witnessed an outbreak of this magnitude in over 100 years. We are all facing this pandemic while scientists are diligently researching a cure and a vaccine. While we are waiting, the world is experiencing a time of social/physical distancing with gatherings limited to 10 or fewer individuals.

Members of the Health and Welfare Committee, along with leaders of local congregations and the medical community, volunteered their skillsets and expertise to assist a task group of the Nashville Area Episcopal office with drafting guidelines for reopening our places of worship for in-person worship with a multi-phase plan. The governor of Tennessee approved Phase I of reopening businesses, that began on April 27, 2020.

Gratitude is extended to Dr. Carlenda Smith, educator Michael Rashon Adkins, Rev. Micah Myers, Rev. Dr. Paula Smith, Rev. Dr. Vona Wilson, and Rev. Timothy Holton for supporting the work of the Health and Welfare Committee. We extend thanks to each individual, congregation, pastor, agency, and organization that continue to extend their time, love for humanity, and love for God to provide guidance. To the healthcare community, hospitality workers, first responders, gas station attendants, environmental service attendants, grocery store workers, and information technology staff, words are not enough to thank you for all you continue to do on the frontlines: providing care, working for our safety, providing food, and managing the technology we needed to communicate while maintaining social/physical distancing. Thank you being the hands and feet of Jesus. Thank you for your dedication, sacrifice, courage, and commitment.

HINTON RURAL LIFE CENTER

Dr. Jacqueline Gottlieb, President and CEO

Hinton is a retreat and mission outreach agency of the Southeastern Jurisdiction, with the mission statement: Inspired by Jesus Christ, Hinton Rural Life Center's purpose is to engage individuals, congregations, and communities in transformation through retreat ministry and missional outreach.

Hinton Center is located on 33 acres of wooded property in the Appalachian Mountains. Situated on Lake Chatuge, Hinton continues its 50+ year tradition of hosting clergy and other individuals and retreat groups. With trails, outdoor labyrinth, scenic views, Hermitage cabins and retreat houses, chapel and meeting rooms, and delicious meals, Hinton provided space and place this past year for many throughout the Southeast to get away, breathe, draw closer to God and others, and be renewed in spirit and call.

As a mission outreach agency focused on improving long-term quality of life in the three-county area of Clay and Cherokee counties, North Carolina, and Towns County, Georgia, Hinton provided individuals and groups with year-round opportunities to serve in our Safe & Healthy Home Repair ministry, Firewood Ministry, Garden Ministry, and Christmas Care. With funding from The Duke Endowment and guided by our 2016 Quality of Life Study, Hinton continued to lead collaborative efforts with community partners to address challenges in our rural area.

In addition to introducing mission teams to dynamics and perspectives of rural poverty, as well as the assets in our unique Appalachian culture, Hinton's Safe & Healthy Home Repair ministry developed an assessment tool for pre-home repair visits. The assessment identifies areas of safety/health concerns of which the homeowner may not be aware, such as falling hazards, lack of smoke detectors, standing water, etc., that a mission team can address. As part of our educational efforts, Hinton produced a Safe & Healthy Home checklist refrigerator magnet and started distributing it in the community and to the homeowners we serve, to equip them in maintaining a safe and healthy home.

2019 ministry highlights included:

- 269 families/households served
- 1140 volunteers; $621,891 value of volunteer time
- 46 percent increase in grant dollars awarded
- 372 loads of firewood distributed
- 345 area children received Christmas Care gifts
- 1000+ pounds of vegetables for Hinton dining and area food pantries
- 58 churches in mission outreach; 949 mission outreach participants

Below are additional initiatives throughout the past year that supported Hinton Rural Life Center's mission for engagement and transformation:

- Developed local leadership training courses for adults and youth.
- Provided Rural Life Sunday worship resource to conference offices to share with churches.
- Hosted and led Kentucky's Residents in Ministry in a mission experience, as part of their residency requirements, which included home repair ministry, worship, presentations on rural poverty and Appalachian culture, and a seminar on pastoring in rural contexts.
- Produced a Sunday school/small group curriculum, with video, Cultivating Hope: Grow Where You're Planted, with funding from The Duke Endowment. The curriculum is available for free on Hinton's web site or by contacting Hinton Rural Life Center.

MCKENDREE VILLAGE FOUNDATION

McKendree Village Foundation, Inc. Board of Directors

McKendree Village Foundation is a non-profit extension ministry of the Tennessee Conference. The foundation was founded in 1998 to financially support McKendree Village and its residents. With the purchase of McKendree Village in September 2011 by a private, for-profit company, the foundation became a totally self-operating entity with responsibility only for benevolent care of eligible residents. The eligibility was based upon residents having a contract with McKendree Village, Inc. prior to September 30, 2011.

The McKendree Village Foundation affirms a past and continuing shared heritage with eligible residents of McKendree Village and the Tennessee Conference. This benevolent commitment was made over 55 years ago to eligible residents of McKendree Village.

The McKendree Village Foundation has kept the promise of benevolent care to eligible McKendree residents through the extravagant generosity of its donors.

The McKendree Village Foundation is self-sustaining—receiving no funds from the Tennessee Conference or from the Golden Cross Sunday offering. Funding for its mission comes from the income of the donor-designated endowment for this purpose. The current donor-designated endowment for benevolent care is now approximately $5.1 million. The endowment is kept with the United Methodist Foundation for the Memphis and Tennessee conferences.

Additionally, the McKendree Village Foundation has distributed approximately two million dollars to the Golden Cross Foundation, an extension ministry of the Tennessee Conference for the purpose of funding expansion of older ministries and services through Tennessee Conference congregations and agencies.

On February 2, 2019, McKendree Village Foundation Board member Annella Creech died at home after a short illness. Ms. Creech had lived at McKendree Village for 32 years. She was an active board member of the foundation and a very generous donor. The McKendree Village Foundation board recognizes the profound contribution that Annella made to its mission and to the mission of McKendree Village. She served churches in Bristol, Memphis, and Old Hickory as director of children's ministries. She also served the Tennessee Conference of The Methodist Church as director of children's ministry. She was a diaconal minister and retired from The United Methodist Publishing House after serving more than 20 years as an editor of church school publications. The McKendree Village Foundation Board proudly salutes the life and work of Annella Creech.

MIRIAM'S PROMISE

J. Dietz Osborne, M.S., President and CEO and Beth Morris, Chair, Board of Directors

Since 1985, Miriam's Promise has offered hope and healing to thousands of Middle Tennessee expectant parents, birth parents, children, and adoptive families coping with issues of grief, loss, and transition. We are excited to celebrate our 35th year of ministry within the Tennessee Conference. The heart of our mission is to ensure the well-being of the child by nurturing individuals and families. Miriam's Promise continues to meet this mission by offering the following programs:

- Non-directive, option-based pregnancy counseling at no charge to the expectant parent
- Holistic parenting coaching which includes attachment work
- International and domestic adoption services including home studies and adoption training and education

Miriam's Promise is a licensed child-placing agency serving Middle Tennessee and is Hague Accredited by the Council on Accreditation and a member of the National Council for Adoption. Miriam's Promise offers services without regard to race, creed, gender, color, national origin, religion, disability, veteran status, sexual orientation, or gender identity.

2019 proved to be a challenging year with the retirement of long-time Executive Director Debbie Robinson and the installation of Dietz Osborne as the president and chief executive officer. Both domestic and international adoptions were down, as was giving. The Board of Directors and the staff have taken these challenges head-on and are working on a strategic plan to steady the ship. We have been evaluating policies and procedures, as well as our operation systems to ensure that we are offering top-notch services to the best of our ability while meeting the expressed needs of the community we serve. Additionally, we have been in discussion with Hannah's Hope of the Memphis Conference to determine how we can collaborate with one another once the merger of the two conferences is complete.

We are seeing a trend in the expectant parents who come to us for counseling. Eight five percent of our expectant parents have or are experiencing homelessness, many are facing addiction issues, they are parenting other children, they are dealing with domestic violence situations, and few have support systems in place. Our staff is committed to meeting these needs so that an expectant parent can make the best decision for the unborn child.

As an affiliated agency started by The United Methodist Church, we continue to be a vital part of ministry within the Tennessee Conference. Miriam's Promise is an avenue for the Tennessee Conference to uphold the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church on adoption:

“Children are a gift from God to be welcomed and received. We lament that in some instances, birth parents are unable or unwilling to fulfill their caregiving obligations. Under these circumstances, we applaud the willingness of extended families and foster and adoptive parents to step in as primary nurturers. Even in these situations, however, we recognize the trauma that may be caused by separating children from their families of origin and urge that such actions be handled justly, sensitively and compassionately. Where appropriate and possible, we encourage open adoption so that children may know all information relevant to them, both medically and relationally.” — Social Principles, 2020, page 21, paragraph A.”

The relationships with the Tennessee Conference and local churches are vital elements of the agency's mission and outreach. We have seen when the conference and Miriam's Promise work together to share the story, more expectant parents find hope, more children find homes, and more families are grown. We are grateful for the support and engagement of the Tennessee Conference.

NEW CHURCH DEVELOPMENT TEAM

Dr. Vona Wilson

The New Church Development (NCD) Team “2.0” name represents a shift we made in September 2019. Recognizing an evolving approach to this work, we began restructuring to adapt and serve in new ways. Much of our work in the past 12 months has been centered around this adaptation while also supporting new initiatives. We are celebrating a clear vision, mission, and focus objective that connects both conferences into one risk-taking ministry for new church development. We created a Ministry Action Plan (MAP) and identified the values that place boundaries of faithfulness around our work, no matter the circumstances.

When COVID-19 entered our environment, we were able to reconsider our context and how the work of NCD can be helpful to the conference in innovation and risk taking. We removed the barrier of distance and time by connecting in Zoom meetings and continue to make changes that return us to work even though we are physically not together. We recognize the challenge of our work and the changes a COVID-19 environment brings to all of our churches and missional faith communities. We anticipate the blessing of God leading us into new ministries that meet people where they are in this new environment. Our best work is ahead.

NCD Vision

The Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference unleashes, establishes, and generates faithful strategies for the fulfillment of the kingdom of God on earth.

NCD Mission

Establish new faith communities in the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference for the glory of the resurrected Christ; faithfully using what God has placed in our basket.

NCD Current Objective

Establish systems and strategies for sustainable collaboration and response to what the Spirit is doing right NOW, right HERE.

We are celebrating the establishment of a covenant that holds us accountable for discerning and following the leadings of the Holy Spirit to take risks in obedience to what God calls us to do. We are celebrating the freedom that comes with that responsibility. It has manifest in some specific ways. A few highlights:

1. A vision exploring session with clergy, laity, and community leaders to look at a specific area in the Red River District. This collaborative session helped test a model for planting and initiating new starts that involves several UMC partners discerning the area as a whole. This change in approach allows us to see a bigger picture and build on faithfulness as ministry needs and strengths emerge.
2. Innovating space to accommodate congregations that are walking faithfully through change without any hindrance of bricks and mortar. Ebenezer Hispanic ministries was displaced by the sale of one church building but actually grew in baptisms and members while moving from place to place for worship. For the first time ever, the UMC conference office in Nashville hosted worship space every Sunday for several months. Baptisms were held in the parking lot at South Perimeter Park. Professions of faith were made. The congregation grew so much another move was warranted. They journeyed forward with joy and faithfulness.
3. Supporting and witnessing the strengthening of both traditional church plants (Home Church and The Village, for example) while missional communities (such as Trinity Commons and Woodbine’s Cosecha Harvest) found more creative ways to provide tables of fellowship and faith that are changing the face of the community.

4. We held conversations with pastors who shared their stories of call and worked in concert with the district superintendents and cabinet to surround new initiatives with the whole of the conference. This collaboration has proven to be both challenging and refining. We are learning to work as one.
5. We created accountability to increase the diversity of our team and continue to take steps to both learn and apply antiracist approaches to the entirety of NCD work. We have a long way to go but we are committed to intentional action that ensures equitable access to resources for pastors and laity called to follow Christ in developing new churches for the glory of God.

NEXT GEN DISCIPLESHIP

Next Gen Operational Team

Next Gen Discipleship includes ministry with children, youth, young adults, families, and those who serve in these ministry areas. Next Gen Discipleship is led by the Next Gen operational team that has and continues to develop strategic plans and initiatives to assist the local church and leaders in reaching out to the “next gen(eration)” in their current work leading the church from a place of hope and imagination.

The Children’s Discipleship Team consists of a group of devoted children’s ministry leaders who work together to help resource and support ministries with children and families throughout the conference. The Conference Council on Youth Ministry consists of middle and high school student leaders who have been elected and selected by their peers and ministry leaders to implement the strategies for ministry with youth and families creatively. This group also demonstrates incredible leadership through the development of the BE Retreat, a spiritual life retreat for 3rd- to 6th-graders; Summer Sizzler, a spiritual life retreat for 6th- through 12th-graders; and Warmth in Winter, the largest gathering of United Methodist youth and young adults in the Tennessee Conference. The Young Adult Discipleship Team works closely with campus ministry to help develop and promote young adults with opportunities to engage in spiritual formation.

Next Gen Discipleship is committed to equipping intergenerational spiritual leaders throughout the Tennessee Conference, especially local church leaders engaged in whole-life discipleship formation. As a result of creating a strong network of leaders serving on teams in local churches and districts, the Next Gen operational team believes this vision and mission is currently happening.

Next Gen Discipleship teams spent the past year establishing connections and partnerships with our colleagues in the Memphis Conference to join together as the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference (TWKC). We are excited about the opportunities ahead for innovation and sharing years of experience and resources for the future kingdom-building ahead.

The COVID-19 pandemic forced many of our ministries to adapt—along with local churches—innovating gathering spaces via social media, Zoom, Google Hangouts, and other platforms to build God’s kingdom virtually through the vast and mostly untapped reach of the Internet.

Conference Council on Youth Ministry

The 2019/2020 CCYM year has been very unique. Normally, the leadership team would meet multiple times during the year for team building, event planning, and spiritual direction. Thankfully, the beginning of the year held much normalcy for those things to happen. Warmth in Winter was able to be planned and executed. The CCYM also has representatives on a team with both conferences working on what young peoples’ ministry will look like as a combined conference. The voices of young people have been needed and during these meetings they were heard which caused a beautiful shift within that team. Sadly, a few of our plans have been canceled due to COVID-19. Some cancelations were events that have been mile markers along the faith journey of our young people for many years. Watching how our young leaders handled making tough decisions with grace (regarding cancelations and overall change) shows just how well these young people have been led. Thank you, Brad Fiscus, for believing in us and helping us see how we, as young people, can make a difference in this world.

Warmth in Winter 2020

Warmth in Winter is an annual gathering of teens from the Tennessee Conference and beyond. This year we had over 2,000 teens gather at Opryland hotel for a weekend of worship with the band FRVR FREE, teaching, games, and more. We heard story after story of teens and adults experiencing God throughout the weekend in powerful ways, including through our speaker for the weekend Rev. Toi King. Teens were in leadership throughout the event using their gifts for the kingdom. This was the 39th year of Warmth in Winter and we hope to continue in 2021.

Next Gen Discipleship is committed to partnering with Tennessee and Memphis conference ministries as well as districts and local churches to grow disciples for the next generation of the Church. We will:

1. ADVOCATE for Next Gen participants and leaders to have vibrant ministry opportunities, well-developed vision for ministry, and dedicated leadership development processes.
2. RESOURCE local churches and teams so that they will have access to curriculum, tools, idea-sharing, and real connection with others in ministry.
3. EMPOWER local churches and members to become intergenerational spiritual leaders who become disciples who make disciples.

Children's Discipleship Team

The purpose of the Children's Discipleship Team is to equip children's ministry leaders so that they may support and nurture children and families in their particular faith context in both the Tennessee and Memphis conferences. As a result, local church leaders are equipped to engage in discipleship formation of children and families so that communities and churches may be transformed through strong, connected children's ministry leadership. The Children's Discipleship Team fulfills this goal by strategically advocating, resourcing, and empowering children's ministry leaders, with special attention given to building and maintaining connections between the Tennessee and Memphis conferences.

The Children's Discipleship Team made significant strides this annual conference year. Most significantly, the Tennessee Conference's Children's Discipleship Team established a connection with the Memphis Conference's Children's Discipleship Team, in pursuit of collaborative ministry that will build a strong foundation for our shared future as a single conference. The Children's Discipleship Team now includes representatives from both conferences, including chairperson roles. The combined team held a successful visioning retreat in February 2020, which began the continuing process of building relationships and cooperative ministry between the Memphis and Tennessee conference children's ministry teams.

In keeping with the vision to resource local churches and children's ministry leaders, the Children's Discipleship Team published several electronic shareable resources. These included supportive resources for children's ministry leaders in the midst of the COVID-19 pandemic crisis, from both a pastoral care and a ministry leadership standpoint. These were shared via the Tennessee Conference E-News Connector, the NextGen website, and social media platforms. The Children's Ministry Team also published Lenten devotionals for children's ministry leaders on the Next Gen Website.

In the 2021-2022 annual conference year, the TWKC Children's Discipleship Team will continue to build and maintain relationships among Tennessee and Memphis conference children's ministry leaders. Continued focus will be given to development of resources to further equip children's ministry leaders in relevant, accessible ways. It is the hope of the Children's Discipleship Team to continue to discern and develop these resources in accordance with our changing world and church needs.

PROJECT TRANSFORMATION TENNESSEE

Courtney Aldrich, Director

What is our envisioned future if we succeed in our mission at Project Transformation? Following a year-long process that engaged Project Transformation leaders and stakeholders from across the country, we have a clearer answer than ever to that question:

Our mission is to transform communities by engaging children, college-age young adults, and churches in purposeful relationships. This is because of our greater vision: for a world that is rooted in love, pursues the equity of all people, and amplifies God's call on every life.

Our new vision describes how we understand God's dream for the world. It reflects our faith in a God who transforms us and the broken systems in our world and who calls us to embody love and work for justice. Grounded in our core values, this new vision pulls us forward, challenging us in three ways:

1. To embody the love of God in all relationships so that we may build community across lines of human difference;
2. To pursue the equity of all people, moving us away from charity toward justice, away from service to solidarity; and
3. To amplify God's call on every life by creating welcoming communities where every person is encouraged to live in wholeness as their true, authentic self.

In 2019, we celebrated that 98 percent of children improved or maintained their reading level through our summer programs. We are thankful for the relationships that develop between our children and volunteers as they read together. In our 2019 summer program, children spent 19,141 hours in literacy activities and reading one-on-one with volunteers. Together, they read more than 11,855 books; 3,546 books were distributed to children to grow their access to books at home. Additionally, 87 percent of our 2019 interns increased their knowledge of what vocational opportunities are available in ministry.

This year, of course, looks very different. In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, Project Transformation listened to the needs of our neighbors, closely monitored public health guidelines, and worked diligently with our Board of Directors and community partners to respond. When we concluded we would not be able to hold in-person programs this summer, we were deeply disappointed, and yet inspired to explore how we can live out our mission in new ways. We reached out to our host churches for input. We reached out to our families to ask them how we can most be supportive. Three needs emerged: feeding; feeling and play; and reading. And so, instead of in-person programs, Project Transformation provided eight-week virtual summer programming for children and youth in collaboration with PT National, the network of PT chapters, and our community partners. The summer program included:

- Daily distribution of supplies, grab-and-go meals, books, and other fun and educational resources at our host churches
- Online videos and interactive learning opportunities focused on social-emotional learning, literacy, and camp-like enrichment activities for children to engage from home
- Virtual vocation discernment experience for college-age young adults in partnership with Camping and Retreat Ministries and our campus ministries

COVID-19 has disrupted all of our lives in profound ways; it has also revealed how deeply connected we are to one another. This modified program has allowed us to live out our core value of connective ministry and leverage our partnerships and community assets so, collectively, we can respond with imaginative, high-quality programs and care for our neighbors.

We invite you to join us in imagining what our world might look like when we are creating communities that are rooted in love, pursue the equity of all people, and amplify God’s call on every life.

SOUTHEASTERN JURISDICTIONAL COMMITTEE ON EPISCOPACY

Jim Allen and Harriet Bryan

The quadrennium that we assumed would end in July 2020 never did, so your representatives to the 2016–2021 “quadrennial” Committee on Episcopacy continue in office until the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference convenes in November 2021. We completed our usual duties of evaluating the episcopal leadership in the SEJ, with the realization that assignments will likely be postponed to next year, but with the moving date pushed back to September 1, 2022, when mandatory retirements are effective. The SEJ COE consulted with other jurisdictional COEs as well as the SEJ College of Bishops on various strategies for dealing with the new realities faced by our churches and our bishops in the coronavirus times, when attendance and giving has plummeted from usual levels. In the end, we will follow the requirements of our Book of Discipline and continue to hold our episcopal leaders, each other, and you in prayers.

THE TURNER CENTER AT MARTIN METHODIST COLLEGE

Allen T. Stanton, Executive Director

The Turner Center is committed to cultivating thriving rural communities throughout Tennessee and beyond. We are grateful for the ways that rural congregations are leading and serving as some of the few permanent anchor institutions for these communities. In this way, rural congregations continue the legacy of our Wesleyan tradition, which spread in large part due Francis Asbury's focus on rural places.

Over this past year, the Turner Center continued to convene cohorts that worked with rural pastors to develop a theology of community development. We are already seeing the fruit of these cohorts as they live out our Wesleyan evangelism through community development. We will continue these cohorts in the coming year.

We are also proud to be one of the few institutions researching and publishing scholarship and ministry resources directly for rural congregations. It is our hope that churches in Tennessee and all throughout the United States will benefit from this work. To that end, we have been proud to offer a variety of webinars, video series, and written reflections to help congregations navigate ministry during COVID-19.

Last year, we supported rural congregations through two grant opportunities. First, we awarded two $5,000 grants to congregations leading community transformation. These grants were awarded to the Massac-Lebanon Charge in the Memphis Conference and Scotts UMC in the Tennessee Conference. We will be sharing their stories more widely in the months to come. Second, we partnered with a number of other institutions to provide funding for the Safer-Worship grants administered by the Nashville Episcopal Area office. Through these funds, 24 churches were able to purchase PPE to make worship safe.

Finally, we solidified a partnership with Duke Divinity School to offer a new Certificate in Missional Innovation. This first-in-the-nation program will be offered to students at Martin Methodist College for potential credit, and to pastors and laity throughout the new Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference as continuing education. More information about that program will be released in the near future.

Over the next year, we will continue to build upon this foundation and find new ways to support our rural communities. We look forward to continuing our work as we cultivate rural church leaders, promote social entrepreneurship, and work to expand access to healthcare and education.

TURNER CENTER FOR CHURCH LEADERSHIP

J. Thomas Laney, Jr., Director

Philanthropist and life-long United Methodist layperson Cal Turner has for decades been committed to helping equip pastors for the challenges our churches face today. At his direction in 2018, the Turner Family Foundation awarded a three-year grant to the Nashville Episcopal Office to continue the funding of the Turner Center whose mission is to provide opportunities for pastoral leadership development in the Tennessee and Memphis conferences

It is well documented that virtually all mainline churches are facing social, demographic, and economic changes that are unprecedented. The recent disruptions to church life caused by the COVID-19 pandemic have only served to heighten the strains on our congregations. To be effective, fruitful, and faithful, pastoral leaders need not only to understand the challenges facing their churches, they must also know how to initiate appropriate changes. At the same time, they must help their faithful church members recognize why the many of the long-standing ways of congregational life are ceasing to be effective. In addition, they must discover creative methods to foster new forms of missional discipleship—ways of living the Gospel that engage and transform their surrounding communities.

The Turner Center has been involved in the following efforts to promote this kind of effective clergy leadership in the past year:

- The Spiritual Leadership Development Team, led by Melinda Britt and Deborah Owens, to help identify the qualities of faithful spiritual leaders in our area.
- MLAB TN—a two-track effort to help more churches in our area be familiar with the creative methods of design thinking. One track is a series of workshops for use in districts and the other is a new Innovative Ministry Cohort intended to give further guidance to select churches in applying design thinking techniques to the challenge of promoting missional discipleship in their congregations.
- Local Pastor Academy provides monthly training workshops for 10 local pastors in the Memphis Conference.
- On-boarding—in partnership with Claire Bowen, a leadership consultant based in Atlanta, Georgia, the Turner Center continues to support the training of new leaders to be able to guide the process of on-boarding new pastors to their appointments.
- New Conference Advisory Team.
- Partnering with districts and local churches to sponsor workshops on Asset Based Community Development, team leadership training, effective communication, and preaching peer groups.
- Healthy conversations around human sexuality and the issues coming before the church at the next General Conference. In partnership with the Methodist House of Studies at Memphis Theological Seminary, the Turner Center helps plan and sponsor workshops in the Memphis and Tennessee conferences to explore ways to have healthy, productive conversations regarding the challenges facing our denomination.

UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION FOR THE MEMPHIS AND TENNESSEE CONFERENCES

Dr. Philip D. Jamieson, President

“Therefore do not worry, saying, ‘What will we eat?’ or ‘What will we drink?’ or ‘What will we wear?’ For it is the Gentiles who strive for all these things; and indeed your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. But strive first for the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well. ‘So do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will bring worries of its own. Today’s trouble is enough for today.’” Matthew 6:31-34

What a difference six weeks can make?! 2019 brought the best market returns during my tenure with the foundation and development fund. Based on all that, I had a number of plans of expanding our ministry. And so, now this...as I write, many of us are working from home due to our concerns regarding COVID-19. Social distancing seems to be the new normal. We are also experiencing unprecedented volatility in the markets. One thousand-point daily swings are now commonplace. These are truly anxious times. And yet...

Swiss theologian, Karl Barth has observed, “The atonement takes precedence of all other history.” And what that means is simply this: COVID-19 and all the associated market volatility can really only be understood in the basic Gospel truth that God is for us and not against us! Every day that we have is an opportunity to remember and live in the light of our creedal affirmation that for us and our salvation Jesus Christ came down from heaven. These are difficult times, many of our local churches are struggling. Many of us are worried about the future of our denomination and our country. But still, we are invited again to recall: Jesus reveals the full truth of God — you are loved with a love which will never end.

So then, how do we live in the truth of what Christ has accomplished? I’ll offer this: let us be shaped by the cardinal Christian virtues — faith, hope, and love. First, let us trust God. He has given us faith so that we might remember each day, that our Lord is sufficient for all our needs. Our Lord who has been faithful in the past will also be faithful today and in the days to come. Second, let us be mindful of a promised, good future. You and I have access to a hope which cannot be overcome by present circumstances. Through Christ, you and I already know the end of the story: the tomb is empty, Christ is risen, and there is nothing that can come between us and God’s love. Finally, in the light of all that, you and I are called to love God and our neighbors as ourselves. So, even if we must practice social distancing, we can still offer love especially to those who are hurting and who are afraid. Who do you know today who needs help? Who do you know today who needs to either know for the first time or be reminded for the hundredth time that Jesus loves them? Are there any practical, commonplace ways that you can manifest that love for them?

This is not the annual report that I anticipated writing a few weeks ago. Back in February I was hoping to be able to crow about past performance, while anticipating an even brighter financial future. But today, I’m reminded of the words of the apostle as he wrote to the Galatians: “May I never boast of anything except the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.” Galatians 6:14

Have no doubt, regardless of good days or bad, our Lord is for you and not against you. And have no doubt, that as you trust him, all these things shall be added in the right time and in the right way to you, as well.

UNITED METHODIST MEN

William C. Bowen, Sr. Esq.
Tennessee Conference United Methodist Men President

The Tennessee Conference of United Methodist Men in 2020 has been actively involved in the establishment of and revival of men’s ministries across the conference. The Tennessee UM Men’s key goals for this past year were to organize UM Men district leadership, local unit development, and the chartering and Every Man Shares (EMS) registration increase across our conference.

Another benchmark is to enhance our scouting ministry by identifying leadership for this very strong ministry and continue to lead the way with our Disciple Bible Study of Men, Big Brothers and Big Sisters, and SOSA (Society of St. Andrews). We are establishing an e-newsletter that will be distributed to our district presidents and officers and members of the local conference units.

Leadership Development and Growth

The Tennessee Conference of United Methodist Men has had unexpected success this year in the continued development and growth of United Methodist Men’s local units. Despite the pandemic and connection of district units with the conference team, there is considerable stability and additional growth around our conference through our men's ministries. Our units are leading our Southeast Jurisdiction in the number of active units, continued charters, and newly developed charters as well as men in our conference becoming EMS members. We thank God that he continues to touch the hearts of men in our conference through their extravagant care for others and our mission.

National Association of Conference Presidents (NACP) Meeting

The NACP met in March in Nashville at the GBOD Denman building and conference presidents from all jurisdictions across Methodism met. The Tennessee Conference was represented by Bill Bowen, Tennessee Conference president. This gathering of national presidents sets the agenda for the General Commission on United Methodist Men and shares connectively ideas and concerns. At the 2020 NACP meeting, Bowen was again appointed to the board of directors of the UMM Foundation.

Scouting

The Tennessee Conference scouting coordinator is Jason Hicks. The ministry is now very active, strong, and among the most effective across the conference and jurisdictions' United Methodist churches. The Tennessee Conference United Methodist Men scouting ministry is stagnant as are all others due to the coronavirus.

Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Middle Tennessee (BB/BS) and Amachi Programs

The Tennessee Conference continues to have an active program in these areas that serve several hundred children through the efforts of over 50 churches of which approximately 20 are United Methodist. Ingram Howard and Cliff Steger serve as mentors and also serve on the Ambassador Board.

Charters and EMS (Legacy Builders and Circuit Riders) Enrollments

The Tennessee Conference has approximately 88 local churches chartered with local units and over 120 EMS members along with 62 Legacy Builders and six Circuit Riders. Our total membership still continues to be over 2,900 men.

Conclusion

The Tennessee Conference of United Methodist Men had plans for a conference meeting for fall 2020. It was cancelled due to the pandemic. We are part of a team developing programs that will involve men across our new conference structure in fellowship, training, and development. Please visit our website <https://bit.ly/Tennessee-UMM> and email us at tnumc.umm@gmail.com for updates and postings.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

Nita Wright, President, Tennessee Conference United Methodist Women

God's first creative activity was creating light and separating it from darkness to make sense of the existing chaos. In Genesis, the formation of the earth follows the creation of light. In Revelation, where creation is restored, we are told that God will be our light. As we pay attention to light in the arc of Christian history, what does light mean for us? Light helps dispel darkness, reveals injustice, brings hope. Where we have seen God's light shine in and around us? How can we shine a light on issues in our world that cause anxiety on a daily basis? How can we expose evil and bring abundant life to neighborhoods and those on the margins? Where are we seeing God's presence in the midst of darkness? What spiritual disciplines nourish/bring light to our souls?

Since March 13, we have all had our share of darkness—whether it has been knowing those who have contracted this horrible virus or contracting it ourselves, being separated from family and friends, being separated from church services and activities, or dealing with disappointments from lockdown. We have experienced confusion as to what to do as individuals to help keep from spreading illness. There are, I know, days when we have all been completely overwhelmed.

Although it has not been able to meet corporately, United Methodist Women have not stopped trying to bring the light. Our women have made thousands of masks to share with hospitals, schools, and retirement/nursing homes. We have stood up against racism, human trafficking, and other injustices affecting the least of these. We have continued to feed the hungry and clothe the needy. Through all the uncertainty, our women have continued to give generously to support groups such as Bethlehem Center, Community Care Fellowship, Thistle Farms, and Miriam's Promise. We will continue to meet with our sisters from the Memphis Conference to bring us together to serve as one group.

As we continue to navigate uncharted waters, we will seek encouragement from the biblical understandings and be challenged to be God's light in the world as Christ's disciples. We will also be reminded to shine a light on issues that crush and marginalize God's children. We will be empowered to question and oppose systems and powers of darkness and evil. We are emboldened by the Light of Life and the Word that give us hope to practice justice in the world. Thanks be to God for his ever-present grace, love, and mercy as we serve.

AFRICA UNIVERSITY

James H. Salley, Associate Vice Chancellor for Institutional Advancement Africa University Development Office

In 2019, Africa University's story was one of resourcefulness, investment, and ministry growth. The university community continues to celebrate God's amazing grace with thanksgiving.

Africa University extends its thanks and appreciation to Bishop William T. McAlilly, the cabinet, and the committed lay and clergy leaders who inspire vitality within the local congregations of the Tennessee Conference. The gracious support of the Tennessee Conference resulted in a 100 percent investment in the Africa University Fund apportionment in 2019.

Tennessee United Methodists continue to lead in generously addressing ministry needs in Africa, through Africa University. Thank you, Tennessee Conference, for your prayers and gifts which affirm our United Methodist connection and global mission.

The generosity of Tennessee United Methodists helps Africa University to nurture, educate, and equip leaders who think for themselves, are contextually relevant, and have a passion to serve. Since opening in 1992, Africa University has trained more than 9,000 graduates who lead and serve across sub-Saharan Africa and beyond. These young people are equipped to be ethical, responsible, and responsive leaders who can discern their calling and determine how to bring hope, wholeness, and stability to their communities.

Institutional Update

- Africa University has an annual student enrollment of more than 2,800. There are 25-30 African nations represented in the student body each year.
- The university's three colleges operate as centers for teaching, research, innovation, community engagement, and enterprise development.
- Africa University is still the only university in Zimbabwe accredited to offer online degree programs.
- Students, faculty, and alumni contribute effective solutions to Africa's current challenges. Their interventions include graduate programs in migrant and refugee protection, articulated by refugee students, as well as doctoral-level training for military chaplains in Africa. Why military chaplains? They are among the first responders in crisis situations in Africa. They help to address immediate needs such as rescue, shelter, food, and comfort for the bereaved as well as the longer-term challenge of healing shattered dreams.
- Africa University is transitioning to solar energy provision on its main campus with the support of the General Board of Global Ministries of The United Methodist Church. A residence hall for women and a new wing of the student union building—constructed with a gift to the university from the Dallas, Texas-based Highland Park United Methodist Church—will be the first solar-powered facilities on the campus.

Africa University affirms its commitment to The United Methodist Church, its cross and flame, and the denomination's global mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world, in every season and despite a shifting social landscape.

Thank you, Tennessee United Methodists, for your ongoing response of bold engagement and generosity. Through its faithfulness, the Tennessee Conference invites new partners to join in the mission and change the world. Thanks to your stewardship of God's blessings, Africa University has gone beyond what some thought was possible. "The things which are impossible with men are possible with God." Luke 18:27 NKJV

CANDLER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Jan Love, Mary Lee Hardin Willard Dean and Professor of Christianity and World Politics

Since our founding in 1914, Candler School of Theology at Emory University has educated more than 10,000 students, shaping thoughtful, principled, and courageous leaders who are dedicated to transforming the world in the name of Jesus Christ.

This is especially important to note amid the current shifts in our denomination. It is an honor and a privilege for Candler to be one of 13 official seminaries of The United Methodist Church. Yet true to the Methodist tradition of ecumenical openness, Candler has enthusiastically welcomed the entire Wesleyan family to our community for generations. Faculty, staff, and students from the AME Church, the AMEZ Church, the CME Church, Free Methodists, Nazarenes, and others have worked, worshiped, learned, and prayed alongside United Methodists, and have been a vital part of shaping Candler and our mission. This diversity has been a wonderful gift and a rich blessing. As we move forward, we will continue to invite and welcome those from all expressions of the Wesleyan tradition. Indeed, we will continue to welcome all those who follow Jesus Christ.

This year, Candler has continued to strengthen our deep commitment to alleviating student debt and promoting financial literacy. In 2018-2019, we awarded $6.3 million in financial aid, with 100 percent of master of divinity (MDiv) students receiving support and financial coaching. In fall 2019, we announced a major expansion of our financial aid program to include full-tuition scholarships for all MDiv students who are certified candidates for ordained ministry in The United Methodist Church, and new merit scholarships covering 75 percent of tuition for qualifying MDiv students who identify as pan-Wesleyan, and those pursuing chaplaincy through Candler's new chaplaincy concentration. In addition, all incoming students in the master of divinity, master of theological studies, and master of religious leadership programs will receive awards covering at least 50 percent of tuition.

This year also saw the launch of two pilot formation communities: off-campus student housing that focuses on intentional living and spiritual formation. Students from multiple degree programs applied to take part in these pilot groups. At the start of the year, the housemates created a rule of life to guide their days together, emphasizing prayer, fellowship, and celebration. A house chaplain—a Candler faculty member or church leader—supports them and shares in the journey. The 10 students who took part this year describe feeling a richer sense of community and deeper connections to God and one another in the midst of their busy lives. It is clear that this fulfills a need for our seminarians and we eagerly anticipate the program's growth in the coming years.

Candler's student body continues to reflect the diversity and breadth of the Christian faithful, with an enrollment of 470 from 12 countries and 38 states, with 40 percent people of color (U.S.) and a median age of 27 among MDivs. Students represent 42 denominations, with 45 percent of all students and 50 percent of MDivs coming from the Methodist family.

We offer six single degrees and 10 dual degrees pairing theology with bioethics, business, international development, law, public health, and social work. Our Doctor of Ministry degree is 90 percent online, so students can remain in their places of ministry while completing their degrees.

Candler draws strength and inspiration from its relationship with The United Methodist Church. Our ability to fulfill our mission of educating faithful and creative leaders for the church's ministries throughout the world depends upon your prayers, partnership, and support. Thank you for the countless ways you advance this vital ministry in the life of our denomination. We invite you to visit us in person or online at candler.emory.edu.

DUKE DIVINITY SCHOOL

L. Gregory Jones, Dean

Dean L. Gregory Jones, Dean of the divinity school and Ruth W. and A. Morris Williams Jr. Distinguished Professor of Theology and Christian Ministry, had his term as dean extended for five years through 2023.

The Duke Endowment awarded Duke Divinity School a $12 million grant in support of DDS's three core priorities and traditions: Thriving communities enlivened by healthy congregations and gifted pastors, embodied wisdom through rigorous intellectual vitality, and creative institutions that inspire imaginative and transformative leadership including the Thriving Communities Fellowship program, which will provide 52 new full-tuition scholarships over the next four years.

Duke Divinity School launched Duke Divinity: Black Pastoral Leadership Collaboration which will draw on original research in Black church traditions and historical examples of effective Black church leadership to train and build networks of effective leaders for the Black church of today and the future. The collaboration will be led by the Rev. David Emmanuel Goatley, research professor of theology and Black church studies and director of the Office of Black Church Studies at Duke Divinity School.

In 2019, Duke Divinity School welcomed 215 new students from 33 different states and seven other countries, including Canada, Malaysia, Singapore, South Korea, Taiwan, Thailand, and Zimbabwe. The Master of Theological Studies (MTS) and Master of Arts in Christian Practice (MACP) degree programs received record enrollments of 35 students and 22 students respectively. The Master of Theology (Th.M., 14 students), Doctor of Ministry (D.Min., 20 students), and Doctor of Theology (Th.D., 4 students) all had strong enrollment. The D.Min. program was named the top online program by TheBestSchools.org. Duke Divinity's new Certificate in Theology and Health Care will enroll eight students, all of whom are fellows with the Theology, Medicine, and Culture (TMC) Initiative at the school. The MTS program also includes eight students who are TMC fellows, for a record year of 16 total fellows. The M.Div. degree program gained 110 new students, with minority students comprising more than 32 percent of the incoming M.Div. class, and Black students comprising 18 percent of the incoming M.Div. class. Female students made up 44 percent of incoming M.Div. students. There were 24 denominations represented in the M.Div. entering class, with 42 percent affiliated with The United Methodist Church.

Two new faculty members, Brent Strawn and Brett McCarty, joined the Duke Divinity School faculty in July 2019. Strawn, professor of Old Testament, is an ordained elder in the North Georgia Conference of The United Methodist Church. He has a secondary appointment as a professor of law at Duke University School of Law. Prior to joining the Duke faculty, Strawn taught at Candler School of Theology at Emory University for 18 years.

McCarty, assistant research professor of theological ethics, is a theological ethicist whose work centers on questions of faithful action within health care. He is associate director of the Theology, Medicine, and Culture Initiative at Duke Divinity School, and he holds a joint appointment in the School of Medicine's Department of Population Health Sciences.

Randy Maddox, William Kellon Quick Professor of Wesleyan and Methodist Studies, general editor of the Wesley Works Editorial Project, and elder in the Dakotas Conference, retires at the end of the 2019-2020 academic year.

United Methodist faculty member Brittany Wilson received tenure and promotion to the rank of associate professor. Tito Madrazo joined the administrative leadership of the divinity school as senior strategist for the Hispanic House of Studies. He will also serve as a consulting faculty member.

The Hispanic-Latino/a Preaching Initiative is currently in its fifth year of providing high quality theological education to current and aspiring Hispanic-Latino/a ministers. Twenty-one students from multiple denominations are taking courses with us this year.

The Duke Endowment has also awarded Duke Divinity School a grant of $5.5 million over five years to cultivate meaning and purpose across diverse professional schools at Duke. The Lilly Endowment has also awarded grants to Duke Divinity School to coordinate initiatives on Thriving in Ministry and Thriving Congregations across the United States.

Duke Divinity School has a partnership with Huntingdon College and Virginia Wesleyan University to create streamlined admissions processes and private campus events in order to better equip students from those institutions with a calling to serve the church. In an effort to expand access for quality theological formation to students, pastors, and lay leaders in the Nashville Episcopal Area, Duke Divinity School is also partnering with the Turner Center at Martin Methodist College to offer theological training for innovative and entrepreneurial ministries.

GAMMON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Ken J. Walden, Ph.D., President-Dean

Gammon Theological Seminary, located in Atlanta, Georgia, is the United Methodist constituent member of the Interdenominational Theological Center (ITC), a consortium of historically African-American theological schools. Gammon/ITC is a co-educational, professional graduate school of theology. Its faculty personifies vigorous scholarship, rigorous academic discipline, and significant research in the service of the Church and other communities in the world. Gammon/ITC is the world's premier resource for black church scholarship and faith-based solutions to the spiritual and socio-economic challenges confronting the African American community and beyond.

Founded in 1883 by the Methodist Episcopal Church and with assistance from the Freedman's Aid Society, today Gammon Theological Seminary is one of the 13 theological schools of The United Methodist Church. The faculty and administration of Gammon/ITC create an environment in which critical thinking, investigative reflection, decision making, and responsible action are fostered. Gammon/ITC is a member of the Atlanta University Center Complex, the world's largest enterprise of African American higher education. It is also a member of the University Center of Georgia and the Atlanta Theological Association. The school is fully accredited by the Association of Theological Schools and the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

Gammon/ITC offers the following degree programs: Master of Divinity, Master of Arts in Christian Education, and Doctor of Ministry. Admission is open to qualified men and women of The United Methodist Church.

The support of this annual conference helps Gammon/ITC students carry on a proud tradition. They are taught to think independently and communicate effectively. They are also challenged to become involved in finding solutions to problems that affect the human condition and to become active in the community beyond this campus. Additionally, graduates of this institution are encouraged to maintain a lifelong desire for intellectual growth, spiritual development, and the acquisition of skills for the practice of ministry.

Gammon/ITC has had a very exciting and busy year living out its mission, which is to recruit, support, and educate pastors and leaders for The United Methodist Church. Gammon Theological Seminary is extremely grateful to this annual conference for your support of theological education and for your commitment to ensuring that God's church will be served by persons who are called and trained to lead us forward.

MARTIN METHODIST COLLEGE

Dr. Mark La Branche, President

2020 marks Martin Methodist College's 150th year of mission. We celebrate with tremendous gratitude to the Church that brought us to life and that has been a sustaining partner throughout our history. We are committed to John Wesley's vision of uniting mind and heart, and preparing lives of purpose for the transformation of the world. We exemplify the Church's extension of itself into the world, providing a great social witness in our education of a great diversity of people, particularly those who are lower on the socio-economic scale and the first in their families to attend college. We take great joy in preparing students from rural areas to return as professionals to those same areas. We offer a hospitable environment for spiritual growth that meets students where they are as we promote and present a Christ Centered culture on Campus.

The 2019-20 conference year has been a year of celebration and progress at Martin Methodist College. In December 2019, the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges granted Martin Methodist a 10-year reaffirmation of its accreditation without recommendation or further monitoring. Our fiscal year ending June 31, 2019, recorded another banner year of giving and a significant increase in the success and retention of our students. One hundred percent of the 2019 Travis School of Nursing graduates passed their nursing boards. This is the second year in a row that 100 percent of our graduates passed the exam. The significant majority of these graduates returned to their rural communities to serve. Fourteen Martin Methodist alumni are currently attending seminary in preparation for church-related vocations.

The Turner Center continues to expand its mission of cultivating thriving rural communities. The center is planning and implementing programs that knit together the power of church, college, and community, to address opportunities and challenges in rural America. The center integrates the overall educational mission of Martin Methodist with faith communities providing a powerful social witness to people throughout the region. These efforts have placed the college and Church at the forefront of community health and wellness, literacy, and economic development. In partnership with the conference, the Turner Center will begin replicating the Methodist Le Bonheur Memphis Model Church Health Network in the rural setting. I encourage you to go to the Turner Center website to find out more: <https://www.cultivaterural.com/>

Spiritual life remains a high priority. A vibrant and hospitable environment for spiritual growth is present through the work of our chaplain, the various faith-based clubs and organizations, and with the active support of faculty and staff. The college received a Lilly Grant to develop a program that helps our students in the area of vocational discernment.

At our February meeting of the Board of Trustees we honored outgoing board chairman, Byron Trauger. Byron is an active member of West End UMC and served with distinction as board chair for nine years. New board chairman, Richard Warren, is the son of a United Methodist minister who served as a trustee of Martin Methodist, and generations of Richard's family attended Martin. Richard is an attorney whose clients include a number of the general boards and agencies of The United Methodist Church.

We are your college and are proud and eager to embrace the way of Christ in, and for, our world. We are the Church together!

MEMPHIS THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Michael K. Turner, Director of Methodist House of Studies

For nearly four decades, Memphis Theological Seminary (MTS) has been a leading institution in the mid-south for producing graduates who are commissioned as elders or deacons in The United Methodist Church. United Methodist students continue to be the largest denomination represented at our school and approximately half of our full-time faculty are from a Pan-Methodist tradition. Enrollment remains steady at the seminary and we continue to develop innovative strategies and solutions to keep theological education within reach for all women and men seeking to live out their call to ministry. This includes offering a night track as well as hybrid-online courses in which students complete 49 percent of the coursework online and 51 percent on campus.

Important Happenings at the Seminary

The Board of Trustees selected Rev. Jody Hill as the new president of MTS; he assumed responsibilities in January 2020. Hill, a long-time pastor in the Cumberland Presbyterian and Presbyterian USA churches, previously served as vice president for Community Relations at Blue Mountain (Mississippi) College. At Blue Mountain, he developed a successful strategy to foster community engagement and increase fundraising. At MTS, Hill envisions his role as that of a servant-in-chief, and he is focused on exploring innovative yet fiscally responsible ways for the seminary to continue its mission in a rapidly shifting theological and educational landscape.

In fall 2021, the seminary community will begin worshipping in the newly renovated Hamilton Chapel. This space will serve not only as an improved worship space but as a much-needed on-campus venue for events and speakers as well.

Wesleyan Studies at the Seminary

MTS is pleased to report that theological education for United Methodist students continues to remain vibrant and forward-looking. The seminary completed the endowment of the Hamilton and Varnell Chair in Wesleyan Studies in November 2019. This endowment was made possible by generous lead gifts from Barbara Hamilton and the late Dr. Ralph Hamilton, as well as Jeanne Varnell and the late Henry Varnell. The endowment ensures the future of Wesleyan theological formation at MTS. The Hamilton and Varnell Chair in Wesleyan Studies is held by Dr. Michael Turner, associate professor of the History of Christianity and the director of the Methodist House of Studies (MHOS).

The endowment also continues to support the MHOS at MTS. The MHOS serves as a community within a community for students from Methodist backgrounds. Recent student gatherings have focused on topics that include the upcoming General Conference, women in ministry, bivocational ministry, and hospital chaplaincy. For some of these gatherings, the MHOS partnered with the Cumberland Presbyterian House of Studies, bringing together a wide range of students with common interests. We also host Board of Ordained Ministry preparatory events (usually in conjunction with United Methodist Studies courses) for our students.

The MHOS also provides continuing education events for clergy and lay people. We recently partnered with the Turner Center for Church Leadership at St. Luke's UMC to offer a one-day workshop titled Christian Conversation in a Polarized Culture: Human Sexuality and the Future of The United Methodist Church. The goal of this workshop was to prepare United Methodist pastors and lay people for difficult conversations around human sexuality in anticipation of the 2020 General Conference. We presented on United Methodist history and polity, provided updates, and modelled conversations that engage in difference without resorting to argument. Over 150 people from 23 local congregations attended.

The MHOS also continues to offer continuing education opportunities for laity and clergy on a wide range of topics including Methodist history, theology, and worship. It also supports the work of the Alumni and Admissions offices in their work with our Methodist constituencies.

In addition to these significant events, the curriculum at MTS continues to place a strong emphasis on Wesleyan history and doctrine. Turner continues to teach the required classes in UMC history, doctrine, and polity each academic year. Turner, along with his colleagues Dr. Lee Ramsey (UMC), Dr. Carmichael Crutchfield (CME), and Rev. Billy Vaughan (UMC), also offer electives in the field of Wesleyan/Methodist Studies. Students that take a minimum of five courses in Wesleyan studies electives have the opportunity to earn the Certificate in Wesleyan Studies. These classes include electives on evangelism, John Wesley's practical theology, AME Bishop Henry McNeal Turner, Covenant Discipleship groups, pastoral care in the Wesleyan Tradition, leadership in Wesleyan Tradition, and death and dying. In addition to this wide array of offerings in Wesleyan Studies, United Methodist students are always assigned a faculty member from that tradition to serve as an advisor.

We are grateful for the support of the Tennessee Annual Conference and for the many fine students who have attended MTS from Tennessee over the years. We appreciate the confidence that the conference places in MTS for preparation of United Methodist women and men for Christian ministry, and we welcome your ongoing involvement and prayers for the seminary. For ongoing information about the MHOS and MTS, we invite you to visit us at www.MethodistHouse.org and check The Good News from MTS (<https://memphisseminary.edu/thegoodnews/>) for regular updates.

UNITED THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Dr. Kent Millard, President

For nearly 150 years, United Theological Seminary in Dayton, Ohio, has been preparing faithful, fruitful leaders to make disciples of Jesus Christ.

Students

In the fall 2019 semester, United equipped 459 women and men for leadership in the Church, including 272 masters' students and 187 doctoral students. An ecumenical community of many denominations, races, and nationalities, United welcomed students from 11 countries, 42 states, and 37 denominations, with the student body comprised of 49 percent African American, 42 percent Caucasian, and 10 percent ethnic/racial minorities. The seminary prepared 165 Course of Study students and served 36 students through the Hispanic Christian Academy, a three-year Spanish online course of ministry program for Hispanic/Latino lay pastors and leaders. Altogether, approximately 660 students followed God's call through United Theological Seminary.

United graduates are making an impact in their communities as they spread the Good News.

- 88 percent of alumni/ae are currently employed in or retired from ministry
- 70 percent serve in local parishes

United continues to offer innovative learning through its Live Interactive Virtual Education (LIVE) environment introduced in 2018. In the first year, 59 students participated in LIVE courses, connecting with classmates on campus in Dayton and across the country by attending classes in real-time via simultaneous webcast.

Becoming Debt Free

United remains committed to becoming debt free by the seminary's 150th anniversary on October 11, 2021. Thanks to the support of generous donors, United has received more than $2.5 million toward its goal of raising $4 million to "burn the mortgage." Becoming debt free as an institution will enable United to focus on generating income for scholarships that lighten the load of student debt for seminarians.

VANDERBILT DIVINITY SCHOOL

Emilie M. Townes, Dean and E. Rhodes and Leona B. Carpenter Professor of Womanist Ethics and Society

Founded under the auspices of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South as the Biblical Department of Vanderbilt University in 1875, the divinity school has been a part of Vanderbilt University since its inception. Since 1915, we have been one of the few university-based, interdenominational schools for the preparation of ministers and the oldest one in the South. Our founders adopted a commonplace label for theological institutions of their era, "school of the prophets," as they sought to lift up the importance of education for clergy. Today, we accept this legacy as we live in a world of a large tent Christianity, religious pluralism, an ever-expanding understanding of the nature of the diversities in our midst, marvelous and challenging cultural differences, and more.

The Cal Turner Chancellor's Chair in Wesleyan Studies and Distinguished Professor of Theology, Joerg Rieger, published nine articles in national and international ventures and gave 18 national and international presentations. His co-authored book Unified We Are a Force: How Faith and Labor Can Overcome America's Inequalities (with Rosemarie Henkel-Rieger), appeared in German translation. Since 2019, Rieger is also the director of the Wendland-Cook Program in Religion and Justice, established by a gift of $1.25M by Barbara Wendland, a United Methodist layperson and the director of the Joe and Louise Cook Foundation. This project provides good synergy with his work as the Cal Turner Chancellor's Chair, linked to the Wesleyan legacy of engaged theology. Vanderbilt Divinity School (VDS) offers all of the courses that are required by the 2016 Book of Discipline for those who are planning to be ordained in The United Methodist Church. Rieger appreciates the opportunities of educating United Methodist students at a non-denominational and ecumenical school, where students are compelled to revisit their understanding of their own denominational traditions in a broader theological setting. In this climate, he finds, many United Methodist students at VDS develop a deeper interest in Methodism.

The Methodist Student Association (MSA) has continued to gather monthly, inviting United Methodist-affiliated faculty and staff, and the broader Vanderbilt divinity community to join the conversations. Guest speakers have included Bishop Bill McAlilly, district superintendents, as well as those who have led conversations about current issues impacting The United Methodist Church, including the Commission on a Way Forward and United Methodist Women. Bishop Joe Pennel serves as the faculty liaison to the MSA and Sophia Agtarap, a deaconess, as the advisor. Students continue to express a desire to learn more about and connect with our denominational agencies, global Methodism, and explore diverse expressions of calls to ministry for those seeking ordination as well as lay ministry.

In addition to degree-seeking options through our Master of Divinity (M.Div.), Master of Theological Studies (M.T.S.), and Master of Theology (Th.M.) program, there are numerous ways for members of the annual conferences to study and deepen their ministerial practice in relationship to the school:

- Taking courses as a non-degree student: VDS is pleased to provide 50 percent scholarship support to members of the Tennessee Annual Conference who seek to take courses leading to ordination.
- Auditing a course: Members of the Middle Tennessee community may audit classes at the divinity school for $300 per course.
- Attend some of the many public lectures, symposia, and events held each year at VDS.

In the spring of 2020, VDS relaunched the Doctor of Ministry degree with a new concentration in Integrative Chaplaincy. This three-year, 36-credit professional program is undertaken alongside a student's work as a chaplain in a professional ministry setting (e.g., healthcare, military, prisons, organizational chaplaincy), with the aim of better equipping students to address whole-person healthcare needs—both as individual spiritual care providers and as collaborative professionals partnering with other care providers. More information is available at <https://divinity.vanderbilt.edu/dmin.php>.

VDS offers 10 concentrations, each of which includes a praxis-oriented course or experience. Concentrations aim to prepare students to be service oriented for religious leadership that is contextually focused, socially engaged, spiritually formed, and culturally literate. In other words, as a crucial component to the curriculum, concentrations contribute to students' development of a disposition toward religious leadership that is transformative.

VDS is proud to offer more than $3.5M annually in tuition scholarship support, providing significant funding for almost 100 percent of our student body. Several scholarships, including the West End UMC Scholarship, cover full tuition for United Methodist students. To learn more about scholarships, visit <https://divinity.vanderbilt.edu/admissions/>.

To learn more about any of these options, email divinity-admissions@vanderbilt.edu or call (615) 343-3963.

WESLEY THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

The Rev. Dr. David McAllister-Wilson, President

In his book, A New Church and a New Seminary, President David McAllister-Wilson writes, “Leadership requires a seminary to foster both wisdom and courage.” For 138 years, that stance has been a hallmark of Wesley Theological Seminary. Now, during this challenging and divisive time in the church and society, Wesley remains committed to fostering wisdom and courage, preparing graduates to lead innovative ministries while remaining grounded in our biblical and theological traditions for the sake of God's inbreaking kingdom. We are grateful for so many partners in this mission, and we look forward to what God will do in and through us as we seek to faithfully minister to the world in the future.

Working toward God’s Vision for the Church

Wesley is pleased to announce new opportunities for UMC congregations to explore, clarify, and pursue thriving in their communities. Through the Thriving Congregations Initiative, Wesley will work with three cohorts of regional congregations in a two-year process of prayer, community engagement, congregational visioning, and coaching, with the goal of following Jesus in mission and ministry. Interested congregations can contact innovation@wesleyseminary.edu for more information. This work, funded by a $1 million Lilly Endowment, Inc, grant, raises Wesley’s role as a leading research and development seminary for the whole church and complements Wesley’s other Lilly Endowment-funded projects focused on congregational vitality.

The Religious Workforce Project is an expansive study of the current and future nature of religious work, particularly in local congregations, so as to understand what opportunities and constraints may exist in the future and to adapt resources and training accordingly. Through the Wesley Innovation Hub, Wesley has worked with 18 congregations in the greater Washington area to experiment with ministries with young adults outside the church. Together, these projects forge insight into future ministry and local church development, influencing the way students are trained in master’s, doctoral, and course of study education, but also informing workshops, podcasts, articles, and training for church leaders working in their communities across the country.

Is God Calling You – or Someone You Know?

Research shows that the primary way people learn about and begin to consider seminary options is through their pastor or an alumnus. Whether you feel called or you know someone who does, Wesley is ready to work with you as we make theological education more accessible and relevant to the realities of ministry today—for laity and clergy, for those seeking a degree or certification or continuing education, and for ministry from within or beyond the church.

Wesley offers an 81-hour Master of Divinity, a 36-hour Master of Arts, and a 60-hour Master of Theological Studies, any of which can be focused around specializations in public theology, urban ministry, arts and theology, missional church, or African American church leadership.

For full time students, we offer modern and affordable on-campus housing and food service in the nation’s capital. Our Community Engagement Fellows program prepares students to engage in entrepreneurial, community-based ministry. Generous stipends are available for each Fellow while they complete their MDiv degree. Our 3+3 Fast Track BA/MDiv program with Shenandoah University allows students to complete both degrees in six years, entering ministry more quickly and with less debt.

For people with work, ministry, and family commitments, Wesley’s Master of Divinity degree can now be completed via online, weekend, short-term intensive, and weeknight courses in five years. Check out upcoming flexible course offerings for fall 2020 at www.wesleyseminary.edu/admissions/try-a-class-3.

Wesley works with each student to make seminary affordable. Thanks to the consistent support of graduates, congregations, and friends, Wesley provides more than $2 million annually in scholarships. In addition to our regular merit awards, ranging from 50 percent to 100 percent tuition with stipends, Wesley has released special additional scholarships. Inspired by the Young People’s Address at both the 2019 and 2020 General Conferences, Rising Generation awards are full-tuition scholarships for people recommended by Wesley alumni, campus ministers, or Christian camping or service ministries who feel called to leadership in the church as it is becoming. Recognizing that many people experience God’s call mid-career, Wesley is excited to offer its new Next Call in Ministry scholarship for students who have worked in a non-ministry setting for at least 10 years. In addition, the Generación Latinx Scholarships are full-tuition awards for emerging Latinx/Hispanic leaders for ministries both within and beyond the church.

Take Your Ministry to the Next Level

In addition to full master's degrees, Wesley offers graduate certificates for those preparing for specialized ministry! The new Certificate for Children and Youth Ministry and Advocacy (CYMA) is designed for people who work with and advocate for children and young people, whether in churches, schools, or non-profit organizations. The non-residential certificate can be completed in 12 to 15 months through online coursework and up to two residential sessions. For more information, visit www.wesleyseminary.edu/admissions/cyama-3. The Certificate in Faith and Public Life explores the foundations of public theology, religious freedom, and civil discourse through graduate courses. For more information, visit www.wesleyseminary.edu/ice/programs/public-theology/public-life/.

Wesley is a leader in Doctor of Ministry programs in specialized tracks that can include international study. Wesley is pleased to offer two new Doctor of Ministry tracks for 2021: Curating Community Through the Arts, aimed to empower leaders with both conceptual and practical skills needed to utilize the arts in ministry that also generate and sustain communities; and our latest Cambridge, England-based DMin track, For the Sake of the World: Church Transformation in Wesleyan Perspective, for leaders concerned with exploring renewed ministry possibilities grounded in the life and ministry of John Wesley. The 2021 options are rounded out with new cohorts in our popular D. Min. programs, Soul Care and Church Leadership Excellence. Find out more or apply at www.wesleyseminary.edu/doctorofministry/.

2020 Annual Conference Resolution

Title: A Call to Care for God's Good Creation

#1. Whereas, Scripture proclaims the goodness of creation (Genesis 1); that “the earth is the LORD’s” (Psalm 24); and that God cares for all creatures (Psalm 124); and

#2. Whereas, Scripture also states that humankind, being formed in the image of God, has been given the profound responsibility to care for creation (Genesis 1 and 2); and

#3. Whereas, Jesus affirmed the goodness of creation by becoming flesh (John 1). And he witnessed to that same goodness by taking bread (grain from the fields) and wine (the fruit of the vine), saying, “this is my body” and “this is my blood” (Mark 14). And he further proclaimed the glory of creation by pointing to the lilies of the field (Matthew 6) and his heavenly parent’s care for it by noting that not one sparrow is “forgotten in God’s sight” (Luke 12); and

#4. Whereas, Jesus also affirmed that the two greatest commandments are to “love the Lord your God . . . and your neighbor as yourself” (Matthew 22). And it being clear that care for creation is an essential part of loving God and neighbor; and

#5. Whereas, creation not only sustains physical life but also, through its awe-inspiring beauty and wonder, connects us more closely to the Creator; and

#6. Whereas, the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church state that: “All creation is the Lord’s, and we are responsible for the ways in which we use and abuse it. Water, air, soil, minerals, energy resources, plants, animal life, and space are to be valued and conserved because they are God’s creation and not solely because they are useful to human beings;” and

#7. Whereas, God has woven all of creation together in an intricately-patterned tapestry of life and therefore the wellbeing of humanity is connected to that of all other living things; and

#8. Whereas, the scientific community has given clear warning that creation is under tremendous strain due to the poisoning of air, water, and land; habitat destruction; the unsustainable consumption of earth’s finite resources; and the rapidly accelerating extinction of species; and

#9. Whereas, scientists have especially sounded the alarm of catastrophic harm to creation if global warming and associated climate change are not halted and reversed. And noting that rising temperatures have already intensified wildfires, hurricanes, drought, and sea-level rise throughout the world, with devastating impacts; and

#10. Whereas, it is the poor, persons of color, and indigenous people in this country and throughout the world who are harmed first and most by the degradation of creation. And in the light of the fact that because these same groups have the fewest resources to recover from that harm, care for creation is clearly a matter of justice:

#1. Therefore, be it resolved by the 2020 Tennessee Annual Conference that: the Tennessee Annual Conference affirms the work of the Conference Creation Care Ministry (Stewards of God’s Earth) in advocating for creation care and environmental justice and will support its continuance in some form in the new Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference; be it further

#2. Resolved that: every local church in the Tennessee Conference is encouraged to incorporate care for creation and environmental justice into all aspects of church life, including: worship, educational programming at all age levels, fellowship gatherings, purchasing practices, energy use, care of grounds, etc.; be it further

#3. Resolved that: given that harm to creation is systemic and that its healing must be systemic as well, local churches and individuals are encouraged to engage in shaping public policies at all levels of government that are in harmony with creation care and environmental justice; be it further

#4. Resolved that: given the special urgency of addressing climate change and its devastating impacts throughout the earth, that the Tennessee Conference Creation Care Ministry (Stewards of God's Earth) work in conjunction with other United Methodists globally in advocating for public policies and other action aimed at halting and reversing climate change, including policies geared toward steep reduction in climate-disrupting greenhouse gas emissions.

Tennessee Annual Conference Resolution Regarding Continued Progress toward the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference of The United Methodist Church

Whereas: The Nashville Episcopal Area is comprised of the Memphis and Tennessee conferences, and

Whereas: In 2014, the Memphis and Tennessee annual conference delegates adopted the same mission statement:

The mission of the Memphis and Tennessee conferences is to discover, equip, connect, and send lay and clergy leaders who shape congregations that offer Jesus Christ to a hurting world one neighborhood at a time, and

Whereas: We are committed to our mission more than to our geographic boundaries, and

Whereas: Over the past five years, numerous areas of ministry have been aligned between the two conferences, and

Whereas: After successful alignment efforts demonstrated increased focus, efficiency, and fruitfulness, an advisory team was identified to further pursue what benefits and challenges would be presented by formation of a new conference to include all geographic areas of the current Memphis and Tennessee conferences, and

Whereas: In 2018, the Tennessee Annual Conference and Memphis Annual Conference sessions voted to endorse the intent to move forward with a plan to form a new conference, and

Whereas: In 2019, the Tennessee Annual Conference and Memphis Annual Conference sessions affirmed sending a motion to the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference, for action at its 2020 session, requesting that the Tennessee and Memphis conferences be joined to form a new conference and to meet as a fully unified annual conference in 2021, and

Whereas: In 2019, the Tennessee Annual Conference and Memphis Annual Conference sessions endorsed a set of goals and objectives for the newly formed conference, as well as a funding plan and guiding principle plan for benefits, and

Whereas: The 2020 Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference session has been delayed due to the COVID-19 pandemic, and therefore, action on formation of the new conference has likewise been delayed, and

Now, therefore, be it resolved, in accordance with the actions taken at the 2019 annual conference sessions of the Memphis and Tennessee conferences, that the Connectional Table of the future Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference, as well as the committees on Finance and Administration of the Tennessee and Memphis conferences, the trustees of both conferences, the newly-appointed Joint Distributing Committee, and other appropriate stakeholders continue working to develop the Plan of Union for the newly formed conference, to be considered by each annual conference at their 2021 annual conference sessions, with the goal that such Plan of Union shall govern the creation and structure of the new conference.

Be it further resolved, in accordance with the actions taken at the 2019 annual conference sessions of the Memphis and Tennessee conferences, that the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference be asked to take appropriate action at its next session in accordance with the resolution that has been submitted for its consideration, as described above.

Be it further resolved, that the Tennessee Annual Conference takes the following actions in order to align the operations of the two conferences from the date of closure of annual conference 2020 until the conferences operate as one under the Plan of Union that will be presented at the 2021 annual conferences::

1. Approval of the new conference ministry structure, which is attached as an appendix to this resolution;
2. Selection of the teams required by the new conference ministry structure, as outlined in the report of the Nominations Committee;
3. Adoption of individual conference budgets, including some joint budgeting for the conferences, which shall be accomplished by separate vote;
4. Ratification of any other contracts necessary for organization and operation of the new conference;
5. Authorizing the execution of any necessary legal documents to finalize and complete the union of the two conferences;

Be it further resolved, that upon union of the two conferences after approval by the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference, the name of the corporation currently known as Tennessee Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc., be changed to Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc.; and

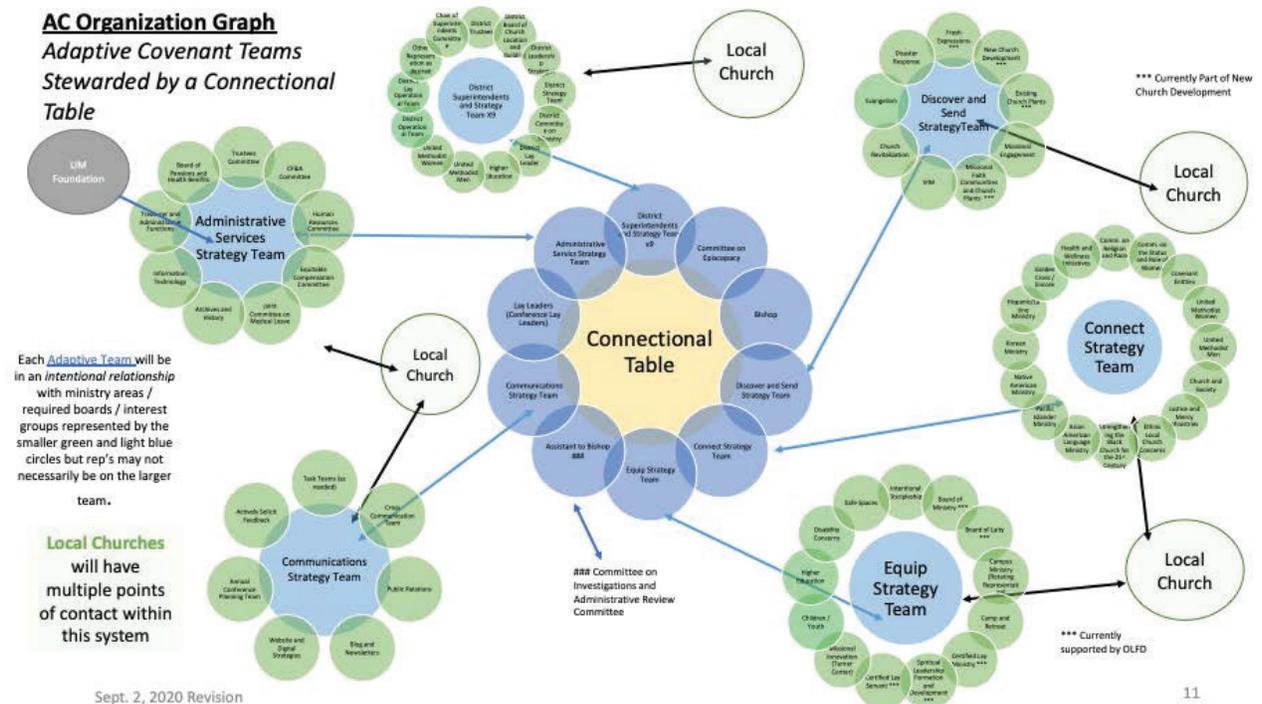

Be it further resolved, that the Tennessee Annual Conference approves the merger of the corporate entity called “Memphis Conference of The United Methodist Church” into the corporate entity currently known as the “Tennessee Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc.,” but to be renamed Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc. Such merger to take place after approval by the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference and all other necessary prerequisites according to law.

Be it further resolved, that the Tennessee Conference Board of Trustees shall be directed and empowered to take all necessary and appropriate steps to effectuate property transfers related to the creation of the new conference.

Whereas, the presiding Bishop, a majority of the District Superintendents and the Red River District Board of Church Location and Building determined on November 7, 2019 and November 14, 2019, that exigent circumstances as defined in Paragraph 2549 of The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church (2016) existed requiring immediate protection of the local church's property for the benefit of the denomination; and

Whereas, by operation of Church law, title to all real and personal, tangible, and intangible property of the local church vested in the Conference Board of Trustees pursuant to Paragraph 2549 of The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church (2016) at that time, and said Conference Trustees, within their authority as outlined in the Discipline, provided for disposition of such property in the following manner: By conveying it to the departing group for continued use as a house of worship based upon a negotiated price; and

Whereas, the district superintendent is committed to helping existing members transfer their membership to a congregation of their choosing;

Now therefore, be it resolved, that the Tennessee Conference does hereby declare Spring Hill United Methodist church formally closed as a United Methodist Church effective September 19, 2020, and ratifies all actions of the Conference Trustees with regard to disposition of the subject property pursuant to the ad interim process outlined in the Discipline.

CHAPTER 7

MEMOIRS

We celebrate the lives of individuals who are saints!

Some of them, with us, are a part of the whole body of living Christian believers, and others who have finished their lives here on earth are a part of the church triumphant! Some have touched us compassionately so we could experience the love of the Lord while others have reminded us to be faithful and avoid drifting into life away from God.

They have all shaken our being—all have been faithful examples of lives of wholeness, working for justice.

O God of both the living and the dead...

... who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Lord, you have examined me.

You know me.

You know when I sit down and when I stand up.

Even from far away, you comprehend my plans.

You study my traveling and resting.

You are thoroughly familiar with all my ways.

There isn't a word on my tongue, Lord, that you don't already know completely.

You surround me—front and back.

You put your hand on me.

That kind of knowledge is too much for me;

it's so high above me that I can't fathom it.

Where could I go to get away from your spirit?

Where could I go to escape your presence?

If I went up to heaven, you would be there.

If I went down to the grave, you would be there too!

If I could fly on the wings of dawn, stopping to rest only on the far side of the ocean—

even there your hand would guide me;

even there your strong hand would hold me tight!

If I said, "The darkness will definitely hide me;

the light will become night around me," even then the darkness isn't too dark for you!

Nighttime would shine bright as day, because darkness is the same as light to you!

Jimmie Banks McWhorter Allegood

September 6, 1938 – December 6, 2019

Jimmie Banks McWhorter Allegood was born in Savannah, Tennessee, in 1938 to Harvey Russell and Mary Sue Hollins Banks. Jimmie lived in Savannah until the time of her homegoing on December 6, 2019, at the age of 81.

She is survived by her husband of 25 years, Billy Allegood, of Savannah, and her children: Pam Irvin of Savannah, Belinda Arrowood (Dwayne) of Murfreesboro, Pattie Maness of Savannah, Lisa Matthews of Savannah, Rhonda Dempsey (Philip) of Savannah, Rhonda Morgan (Dave) of Byhalia, Mississippi, Dewayne McWhorter (Vicki) of Mansfield, Louisiana, Richard Allegood (Donna Kay) of Hazel Green, Alabama, Katherine Shephard (Michael) of Madison, Alabama, and Valerie Stewart (Robin) of Madison, Alabama; brother Danny Banks (Doris) of Savannah, and Donnie Banks (Francis) of Linden, Tennessee; sister, Kay Ralph (Bill) of Bartlett, Tennessee; 25 grandchildren and 30 great-grandchildren.

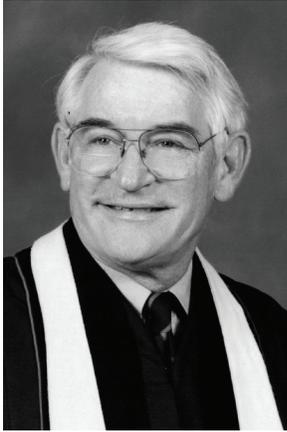

Along with her parents, Jimmie was preceded in death by her former husband Billy Joe McWhorter; daughter, Donna June Harris; sisters, Dorothy Louise Alexander and Teresa Jane Wilkerson; and brother, David Russell Banks.

Jimmie was a lifelong member of Trinity United Methodist Church in the Olivet Community of Savannah, where her husband, Billy Allegood, was the minister. She enjoyed working with children in Sunday school and was a Girl Scout leader for many years. Her hobbies included baking — especially carrot cakes, fudge, and divinity — which she enjoyed giving as gifts, along with working in her flower garden and reading.

Jimmie was a wonderful homemaker and was known as a cheerful and caring person. When family and friends think of Jimmie, they always recall how attractive she was — always dressed for any occasion. Jimmie loved investing time in her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Recently I asked one of her friends what one word would best describe her, she replied, “hospitality.” Even during her last days in the nursing home, when you entered her room, it was like entering her personal home; it was neat, organized, and inviting. Even when she was in a wheelchair, she did as she had done a thousand times, she’d get you something to drink and make you feel right at home. Visits would be filled with laughter about great conversation about her love for her yard work and her flowers. Then we talked forever about her kids. She was a deeply dedicated and loving wife, mother, grandmother, sister, and servant of God. She had a great faith and trust in her Lord that someday she again would joyfully see and walk hand in hand with her beloved parents and others who’d gone before her.

We were blessed to be dearly loved by Jimmie, our wonderful mother.
Until we meet again,
Your loving daughters

James Hiram Beasley, Jr.

May 29, 1938 – March 28, 2020

Jim was born to two amazing human beings, Norine Hussey Beasley and James Hiram Beasley, Sr. (Hiram), on May 29, 1938, in Franklin, Tennessee. Jim was unexpectedly called into the ministry while studying chemical engineering on a Navy ROTC scholarship at Vanderbilt University. Jim died March 28, 2020, following prolonged illness and 40 days of hospice. He was an involved, devoted United Methodist minister, a faithful and loving husband and father, and an accomplished outdoorsman and artisan. The consensus descriptor of Daddy is that he loved all creatures great and small. He really was present when and where he was needed.

Jim was born with the privilege of unconditional love, strict discipline, high curiosity, and an inherent interest in the unexplored and irreverent. He lived with humor and compassion. Despite being stabbed in the neck with a pitchfork as a young child, struck by lightning while a counselor at Boy Scout camp, having a head-on collision after snake hunting as a teenager, and drinking seven gin and tonics while on a Navy ROTC cruise, he grew to be an emissary of Jesus and servant to human beings.

As a young child, Jim lived with four adults—his parents, maternal Uncle Lawrence, and Lawrence’s wife Aunt Gladys. The five of them resided “Out Home” at the family farm at 4540 Peytonsville Road, where both Lawrence and Norine were born. Jim was the oldest child of the seven Beasley children. Norine’s parents both died while she was pregnant with Jim. His early memories as conveyed to me included peeling freshly hung wallpaper off the wall while in his crib, going with Grandmama to an Irish Catholic wake and being fed wine, and watching Aunt Gladys aiming milk into kittens’ waiting mouths as she milked the cows. Aunt Gladys was possibly 5 feet tall, even with big hair. She could shoot a squirrel with a .22 pistol and had been propositioned by at least one prominent country musician at the Grand Ole Opry.

Out Home, everyone had a job. Jim’s responsibilities as a 4-year-old included taking fresh milk to the spring house to cool and using his small hand to invert muslin bags that his mother and aunt sewed to pack sausage during hog killing time. Though they had no running water, he had the freedom, instruction, instinct, and skill to roam 200 acres of Middle Tennessee hills unfettered. Jim purportedly received his first BB gun at age four—and subsequently shot his mother in the backside while she was ironing clothes. In his words, he knew it was wrong, but he just couldn’t help it. By Hiram’s hand and razor strap, he was disciplined to the degree that would have deterred a hardcore felon.

Brother Larry was born, and Jim was apparently excited to have a boxing partner. It makes me smile to imagine a 4½-year-old Jim holding his fists up and dancing around the beautiful angel infant that grew to be my precious uncle. Later on, Larry struck Jim and split his head open with a kitchen spoon. Daddy admitted that he had most likely teased and provoked his younger brother to end up with that outcome. Like tempered chocolate, Larry was and is of outstanding character and charm. A mix of a proverbial angel and Captain America, Larry is follower of Jesus, businessman, employer, and advocate. There are many stories to tell, but overall, it suffices to say that Daddy was incredibly proud of his “little” brother.

Jim attended elementary school in Franklin, then Pulaski, Tennessee, where the family lived for a couple of years. They lived on the Mars farm in Pulaski, where Daddy recounted his father placing nails through the soles of his shoes so that he could move in the snow and ice to shoot meadowlarks to feed the family. Norine told Hiram that they were moving “to town” after that horrific winter. Hiram apparently said, “Yes ma’am.”

After attaining the rank of Eagle Scout at age 13, Jim was awarded the Vigil Honor. This was the third stage in the elite Order of the Arrow, and thus the highest award in scouting. For high school, Jim attended BGA (Battleground Academy) in Franklin. He was an athlete, especially gifted in tennis. He also played football and was outstanding in debate. He received a Navy ROTC scholarship to Vanderbilt University.

It was while on cruise of the Caribbean that he received a letter from his mother that he used as a sermon illustration regarding how we as human beings are motivated by God. Norine indicated that she was NOT worried about Jim being swayed by exotic, immoral temptations in Brazil, because, "YOU KNOW WHOSE YOU ARE." Jim knew he belonged to Norine, and furthermore, he knew that he belonged to God. He would have made much more money and have a lot more fun as a chemical engineer as an officer in the navy. That was not God's plan for Jim. He hated that he could not sink into a life of inequity, but he knew WHOSE he was. Knowing whose we are is great motivation to do the right thing.

He met his wife Dani at Vanderbilt, and completed bachelor degrees in philosophy and divinity before they were married. Jim and Dani had two children, Laura Beth and Trey. Dani suffered from bone cancer that took her leg — though not her life — when she was 34 years old, while Jim was the senior pastor of Hilldale UMC in Clarksville, Tennessee. The Tennessee Conference of The United Methodist Church raised money to send Dani to the Mayo Clinic. Jim was a temporarily single father of two young children, pastoring a church in Clarksville, while studying for his doctorate in Divinity at Vanderbilt. He had to drop out of school for a while, but did complete that doctorate a few years later.

He served a circuit of five different small churches including Bethesda UMC early in his career as a minister. He and Dani then served at Edmonson Heights in Nashville; Baxter UMC as senior pastor; then as associate in Cookeville, Tennessee.

Laura and Trey were born while they served at Cookeville First UMC. They moved to Clarksville in 1970 where they served at Hilldale UMC until 1976; then they moved to serve Hermitage UMC for six years. They moved again to the Green Hills area of Nashville to serve Calvary UMC from 1982-1991. They moved to Crossville (Tennessee) First UMC, where they served for 11 years before building a retirement home there.

Jim was also a well-known fisherman and bamboo fly rod maker. He and his rods were featured in many fly-fishing magazines, as well as other forms of media including the television feature "Tennessee Wild Side." He is known globally as a master craftsman of bamboo fly rods. These three-ounce rods are cherished by those fortunate enough to be in possession of them.

At the end of his most recent television feature, Jim said, "The things humanity has done to nature and each other is terrible. What we have been given is not. It's wonderful!"

He is preceded in death by his father James Hiram Beasley, Sr., and his mother Norine Hussey Beasley.

He is survived by his loving wife of 58 years, Caroline Danielle (Dani) Chadwick Beasley, his younger brother Thomas Lawrence (Larry) Beasley, Larry's wife Kitty Sue Tanksley Beasley, his daughter Laura Elizabeth Beasley Lockett (Yaros), Laura's husband Michael Alexander Yaros, his son James (Trey) Hiram Beasley, III, Trey's wife Jean Fields Beasley, his granddaughter Sarah Ellen Lockett, his grandsons Clay Chadwick Lockett and James (Quade) Hiram Beasley IV, and numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Passing away during the COVID-19 global pandemic deprived him of a traditional funeral/memorial service. There will be a memorial service at a later date.

Lovingly submitted by his daughter, Laura Elizabeth Beasley Lockett Yaros

Edward Eugene Bufford

July 15, 1935 – November 18, 2019

Rev. Dr. Edward Eugene Bufford, age 84, transitioned from this earthly life to eternal life on November 18, 2019. He is survived by daughter, Gwenoy B. Wood, other relatives, and friends. It was Monday, November 18, 2019, when the Lord called his faithful servant home. Edward, aka Mickey, was born the first son to the late James Lawrence and Sallie Mae Bufford on July 15, 1935, in Birmingham, Alabama. In this family he learned love and how to share his many talents with others.

Edward was educated in the Birmingham school system, graduating from Wenonah High School in 1953. He participated in several activities, especially plays, the concert band, and marching band. He was an expert percussionist.

At an early age, he confessed his love of God and church and connected with Mount Zion Baptist Church under the pastorate of Rev. C. M. Smith.

He had many hobbies, but most of all he loved all kinds of sports. In later years, he talked about his family and good times he had spent with them. He also collected memorabilia from his places of travel.

Upon entering college at Tuskegee Institute, while still a freshman, he met his beautiful, wonderful wife, Jocelyn Jessie—fondly called Joy by all who knew and loved her. They were married in 1955 in Mobile, Alabama. To this union united in love and affection, one child was born, Gwenoy Bufford Wood; those who love her call her Gwen. Mickey and Joy were married for 51 glorious years.

After leaving Tuskegee, Edward went into the Air Force and served for three years. After the service, he worked at L & N Railroad and then the VA Hospital in Birmingham, until he decided to go back to college and complete his formal education. At this time, he had been called to preach. Family and friends were very proud of him.

Edward received degrees from Miles College (B.A.), Gammon Seminary (M. Div.), Union Seminary Theological (D. Div.), and the Distinguished Alumnus Award in 2002 by Gammon Theological Seminary.

Edward had been a United Methodist minister since 1959. He served pastorates in Alabama, California, New York, and Tennessee. His first assignments were in Alabama at several churches. He also served at Centenary United Methodist Church in California. For 15 years, he served as pastor of Brooks Memorial United Methodist Church in Jamaica, New York.

In 1998, he was appointed to Clark Memorial United Methodist Church in Nashville, Tennessee. He retired in June 2004. In retirement, he served Dixon Memorial United Methodist Church for 11 years. He loved the ministry and loved to preach the word of God. He preached throughout the United States in several capacities.

Edward traveled extensively to Africa, Europe, Asia, South America, and the Caribbean. He carried groups to the Holy Land and served as the narrator and leader of the some of them. He loved cruising. He had been on a countless number of them.

He was the oldest cousin in the family and he wore that title very well and all admired and respected him.

Edward was often active in community affairs. He was a member of many civic organizations. He held a lifetime membership of the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc., and was a Mason, a trustee of Gammon Theological Seminary, Atlanta, Georgia, and a member of the Interdenominational Ministerial Fellowship, Nashville, Tennessee. He formerly served on the board of the Wesley Foundation at Tennessee State University.

Three of his favorite statements are, “Life is a series of adjustments,” “Holding on to broken pieces,” and “Let the church say Amen; now say it like you mean it.”

Edward Eugene Bufford was preceded in death by his wife, mother, father, grandparents, and all uncles and aunts. He leaves to cherish his memory, daughter Gwenoy B. (Derrick) Wood; grandsons, Jamal (Rose) Darrow and Derrick Robert Wood, II; granddaughter, Marla Fisher; great grandchildren, Jazelle Richards and Carmelo Darrow; brother, James Lawrence (Gloria) Bufford; sister, Patricia Ann Bufford Scales; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Joe Jackson Frazer Sr.

May 16, 1927 – July 26, 2019

Born in LaFayette, Alabama, to Joe Toliver Frazer and Maggie Myrtle Trimble, his birth certificate records no name except “Baby Boy Frazer.” His family attended the Sandy Ridge Methodist Church where his father was Sunday school superintendent, his mother taught the adult Sunday school class and his Aunt Duck was teacher of the youth class. It was in this church that he had his Aldersgate experience and was baptized in 1937.

It was also at Sandy Ridge that he took his first music lessons. His mother squeezed out 50 cents twice a week for him to have private lessons. That investment paid Kingdom dividends since he would later play for worship services on a regular basis at the churches he pastored and for numerous revivals and special events (county laity clubs, etc.) as well as for annual conference on occasion. His signature arrangement, “When They Ring Those Golden Bells” moved many people to draw close to the Lord.

He graduated from LaFayette High School as valedictorian in 1945. He attended Davidson College from 1945-1947. He would also attend Athens College and ultimately graduate magna cum laude from Birmingham-Southern.

He was called to preach as a teenager at Sandy Ridge and was given license to preach on August 11, 1947. His first appointment was to the Maben-Flat Top Charge in Alabama. In 1949 he entered Vanderbilt School of Religion and was appointed to the Kingston Springs Circuit. He was admitted on trial in the North Alabama Conference in 1950. This was the year he held a revival at New Bethel to get that church restarted after it had closed during World War II. That is when he met Martha Louise Johnson and fell in love. He graduated from Vanderbilt with a Bachelor of Divinity in 1952. He was admitted to full membership in the North Alabama Annual Conference and ordained elder in 1954. He was appointed pastor at the Unionville Circuit in Tennessee that same year.

Joe and Martha were married in 1956 at the Unionville Methodist Church. They moved back to Alabama and served churches there for the next six years. In 1962 he was transferred back to Tennessee when he was appointed to Hohenwald Methodist Church. While in Hohenwald, he learned of a group of African Americans who wanted to have church in a community named Hampshire Ridge. He and a number of the members at Hohenwald started having church at Hampshire Ridge on Sunday afternoons. Before long, it was a great success but brought criticism and strife due to the turbulent racial tensions that were prominent at that time. He would not back down or stop preaching at Hampshire Ridge no matter what threat was made. Those were great times and the best food ever.

He would later serve appointments at West End as associate, South End, Neely's Bend-Ruth Ensor, Tulip Street, Bordeaux-Jordonia, New Prospect-Mars Hill, Pegram, Craggie Hope, New Bethel-Centenary, and Scottsville. He also received a Doctor of Ministry Degree in 1979 from Fuller Theological Seminary in Pasadena, California.

He was affectionally known as Bro. Joe and was loved by all the churches he served. Whether it was his kind, gentle, and genteel spirit; the spirited style of music he played on the piano; the thoughtful and witty sermons and plays on words he utilized; his knowledge of math (an expert in algebra, geometry, calculus, trigonometry, and statistics) or language (an expert in English, Hebrew, Greek, Latin and could read several languages like French and German); or his love and devotion to family and friends, he was a blessing to all. He loved the Lord and his every action and accomplishment was a testimony to the excellence of love in the Lordship of Jesus Christ.

Bro. Joe is survived by four children, Joe Jr., Denman, Emily, and Susan and eight grandchildren. A Celebration of Life service was held at Harpeth Hills Funeral Home on July 29, 2019, where he is buried. He blessed us with his presence, music, witness, and love.

Dorris married Mary Lou Luther French April 10, 1964. Dorris started attending Shipp's Bend UMC. Dorris joined Bon Aqua UMC in 1975. Dorris and Mary had three children: son, Cliff French; daughters, Denise French Bell and Renee French Halbrooks; 10 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. Dorris was close to his children, teaching all to fish and hunt. He passed his love of fishing and hunting onto his children and grandchildren. The family also made molasses together.

Dorris was a supervisor and plant manager at many factories during his young adult years including: Genesco (24 years), Acme Boot (8 years), BayBee Shoe Company (1 year) and Clark Container (10 years). During his time at Clark Container, Dorris felt the need to be more active in The United Methodist Church. He had been a lay leader at Bon Aqua UMC but wanted to do more. Dorris and Mary decided it was time to give back. He quit Clark Container to go to Emory University to become a full-time minister. He preached at Bethel 1997, Clifton-Riverside-Mt. Auburn 1998, Ardmore 2002, Olivet 2003, Linden Circuit 2004, and retired in 2008.

Dorris loved to farm and loved any animal, large or small. He was outgoing and always joked, but most of all he loved the Lord and his family. Dorris coached softball and counseled many couples. Dorris would even incorporate jokes into his sermons to make it more relatable and memorable.

On October 19, 2019, Dorris celebrated his 81st birthday with loved ones. On November 12, 2019, Dorris lost his long battle with Alzheimer's disease. Rev. Scott Duvall, Rodney Rochelle and Rev. Dr. John Carpenter spoke at his funeral service, which was held at McDonald Funeral Home in Centerville, Tennessee. Dorris was a faithful servant and family man. His love, service, and faith touched the life of every person he met.

Joyce Bourlay (Joy) Hambrick

February 6, 1930 – October 4, 2019

Joyce Bourlay (Joy) Hambrick was born in Leesburg, Florida, on February 6, 1930. She grew up in the Morrison Memorial Methodist Church in that same city. After college, she served as a Methodist short-term missionary (Asia-3) in Hiroshima, Japan, from 1952 to 1955. She taught home economics in Hiroshima Girls School, an institution with strong Methodist ties. During that time, she was responsible for the construction and supervision of the Home Management House where students lived and studied Japanese and Western customs and lifestyle.

Joyce married Charles Hambrick in 1955 and served again as a missionary wife and mother in Japan/Okinawa from 1960 to 1965. She was not only a mother to three daughters, but she helped put her husband through seminary (1955-1959) and graduate school (1965-1968).

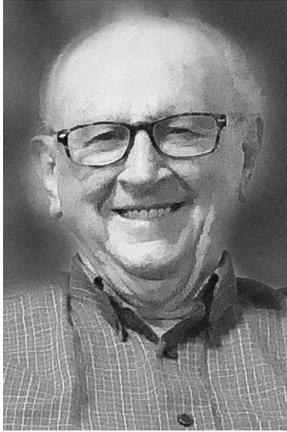

She expressed her commitment to community service and international involvement through her work in refugee resettlement in Nashville where she made many friends among refugees and immigrants from many parts of the world. She also worked in Postal Services at St. Thomas Hospital and in the Volunteer Services Department at Vanderbilt Hospital.

During her years in Nashville (1968-2019) she was an active member of the Blakemore UMC and the Friendship Class, and the Belle Meade UMC and the Oxford Class. She was also a member of the Edgehill UMC and a lifelong supporter of its mission and ministry.

In 1999 she and her husband established the Bourlay-Hambrick Scholarship in the College of Arts and Science of Vanderbilt University. This scholarship is designated for students of Asian background and heritage.

Joy was a member of the West End UMC at the time of her death on October 4, 2019.

Anna Ross Johnson

June 8, 1933 – February 11, 2020

Anna Ross Johnson was born on June 8, 1933, in Jasper, Alabama, to the late J. E. Ross, Sr., and Mary Glass Ross. She passed away on February 11, 2020. She was the wife of Rev. Louis A. Johnson. She was a member of Bell Springs United Methodist Church. She spent 61 years in the ministry with her husband. Anna was a faithful worker in church and church school, often teaching a children's class, chairing the Worship Committee and serving as a conference delegate. As a district superintendent's wife, she attended almost all charge conferences back when conferences were conducted in individual churches.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her brother, J. E. Ross, Jr., and sisters Mary O'Rear and Binnie Kasazkow. She is survived by her husband of 67 years, Rev. Louis A. Johnson; daughters, Allene Lansford and Angela Davis; sons Ed Johnson and L. A. Johnson, Jr.; six grandchildren; and 13 great-grandchildren, all of whom called her Big Mama. She also left numerous nieces and nephews, in particular the sons and daughter of her sisters, Mike and Mack O'Rear and Sara Waddington, who kept in touch both in person and through letters and phone calls.

Her last year of college, she registered at Peabody, took classes at Vanderbilt and Scarritt, then transferred her work back to Athens College in Athens, Alabama, where she received her degree in 1955. Her mother had finished there in 1918, when Athens College was an all-girls school and Anna's husband finished there in 1954.

Anna was an accomplished musician and singer. She enjoyed singing — in fact, she sang in the adult choir of her home church in Alabama beginning at age 13. She sang in chorus in college and performed many solos in musicals. She sang in every choir, when they had one, in every church where she and Louis were assigned. She enjoyed playing the piano and at many of the smaller churches and even some of the larger ones, when needed, she also played the piano for services. She had hundreds of favorite songs and for most of them, did not even need a hymnal to remember the words. Her particular favorites were "His Eye Is on the Sparrow" and "O, Holy Night." Even in her failing health, she sang a solo of the song, "One Day at a Time", almost one year to the day before her passing. The Lord gave her 31,626 days. She also enjoyed reading, crocheting, spending time with her children, and fishing — often beating her husband at fishing and bragging about it.

She loved people and never hesitated to introduce herself to anyone she did not know and make them feel welcome, whatever the circumstances. She was known in church and community as The Butterfly Lady. Her extensive butterfly collection adorned her casket at her funeral and people were encouraged to take one in memory of her.

To quote her husband, “She has been an encouraging, essential, understanding, career-saving, loving, and even life-saving help-mate in all my ministry.”

The following was used in the celebration of her home-going:

I’m Free!

Do not grieve for me, for now I’m free.
I’m following the path God chose for me.
I took His hand when I heard him call.
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah, yes, these things I too shall miss.
My life’s been full, I’ve savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one’s touch.
Perhaps my time seems all too brief.
Do not shorten yours with undue grief.
Be not burdened with tears of sorrow.
Enjoy the sunshine of tomorrow.
Lift up your hearts and peace be to thee –
God’s taken me home — he set me free!

Dolores Hemontolor Johnson

September 19, 1938 – April 14, 2020

Dolores (Deese) Johnson was born to Dewey and Sadie Hemontolor in Wilson County, Tennessee, on September 19, 1938. She passed into the arms of our Lord and Savior on April 14, 2020, at the age of 81. When our first grandchild began to talk, he called her Deese, and she went by that name the rest of her life.

Deese graduated from Lebanon High School and was one of the first 13 who graduated from Cumberland Junior College in 1958. She later graduated from Middle Tennessee State University. She worked as a legal secretary for 15 years and then helped start the Lebanon Help Center for Special Needs Children, working there for three years. She then taught at Watertown High School for 28 years until retirement.

Deese loved to travel and chaperoned high school students to Europe on 11 occasions. She always seemed to have a special connection with special-needs children. When we had special-needs children at church, I often had trouble understanding them, but she could understand every word they spoke!

Deese was a member of Lebanon First United Methodist Church and attended Chestnut Mount United Methodist where I serve as pastor. When the Lord called me to preach in 1968, she stepped right up and was a great part of our ministry until her passing. Over the years, we served at Pleasant Grove, Cairo/Castalian Circuit, Gordonsville-Temperance Hall-Lancaster Circuit, and for the last nine years Chestnut Mound United Methodist Church.

Deese is survived by her husband of 62 years, Rev. Dickie W. Johnson; two children: Wayland (Rhonda) Johnson and Allyson Morgan; four grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Deese loved her church and family. She was a strong believer in Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior. She adored her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She loved and was very proud of her students at Watertown High School. Over the years, she touched so many people and made their lives a little better.

“As some people journey through life, they leave footprints wherever they go – footprints of kindness and love, courage and compassion, humor and inspiration, joy and faith. Even when they are gone, we can still look back and clearly see the trail they left behind – a trail bright with hope that invites us to follow.” (DaySpring card)

Patricia L. Long

September 2, 1949 – January 7, 2020

Patricia Lee Wallace was born on September 2, 1949. She cast her shadow in the world for 70 years, falling short of 71 due to death on January 7, 2020, at 7:40 a.m.

Patricia endured for eight years, prior to her demise, the dreaded disease of dementia. But, if there's anything she'd like to be remembered for, it is her Pillows of Life Foundation.

Patricia greatly affirmed her mothering skills as nothing less than great. An excellent wife, as she'd say, confirmed by my husband. And, she was an exceptional educator—a mathematician in every way.

She always liked to be known as a mother, wife, and an educator.

Bobby Charles Martin, Sr.

May 21, 1940 – October 27, 2019

Bobby Charles was born in Dowelltown, Tennessee, on May 21, 1940. In the early years of his life, things changed for him and he found out firsthand about hard times. Through the separation of his parents, Bobby's mother was faced to raise two sons. Unable to do so, Bobby's brother moved in with his aunt and uncle, while Bobby stayed with his mother.

Bobby Charles told me the story many times throughout his life about how his mother made only 20 cents a day and his breakfast and lunch cost 10 cents a day. He could not ever recall going hungry. He said he felt at a very young age that something bigger was helping him and his mother.

Bobby told me many times he would enter drawings at school and it seemed that they always drew his name. He would go home with a 10-pound bag of sugar or a 10-pound bag of Martha White flour. Whatever was being given away, it seemed like he was always the lucky winner. He would relate to me stories of how, as a small child, he would go out each day to help the widow women in Dowelltown gather their wood or coal for their fires or draw their water from the well. He believed in doing and caring for those around him and he lived that way throughout his life.

At the young age of 14, Bobby Charles signed up for the Ground Observer Corps of the United States Air Force. He showed great admiration in identifying planes that were flying over. He would climb up the telephone poles and tap out in Morse code to his superiors what he saw.

When he was in high school his junior and senior years, he drove a milk truck for $2 a day. He did this to help pay for his schooling and graduated high school in 1958. Shortly after graduating, he began painting with his father and continued doing so until 1962. Shortly thereafter, he signed up for the Army National Guard and ended up in the United States Army. He was honorably discharged in 1967.

Bobby Charles married his first love and mother of his two sons, Mary Julana Alcorn, on September 28, 1963. He worked hard and taught his sons likewise. He took pride in everything he did.

Bobby Charles answered his call to the ministry in 1986. He packed up his family and, in his words, the conference sent him to Savannah, Tennessee — as far away from Dowelltown as they possibly could without crossing the state line.

Bobby Charles and his family took a hard hit in life when Julana was diagnosed with cancer and passed away in 1993. The Lord knew that it was not good for Bobby to be alone and put us in each other's paths. We were joined together in March 1994.

Bobby Charles had the pleasure of serving many churches and made many friends along the way. One Sunday that stands out in particular: during the altar call in 2004 there were 17 people to come forward and rededicate their lives to Christ and nine more were baptized. This all took place at Clearfork United Methodist church in Gassaway, Tennessee. This was Bobby's last charge, which he pastored for 17 years.

Bobby was always seeing to the needs of people from the 480-500 people that he served at the Dowelltown Liberty Water System, where he was manager and operator for over 33 years. He made sure that the water was clean and up to certification before he would send it out to the rural families.

He drove a school bus for the DeKalb County school system five days a week for 49 years and became close to the families that he helped supply water. In 2018, he was inducted into the Tennessee Association of Pupil Transportation (TAPT) Bus Driver Hall of Fame. This induction represents one of the highest honors TAPT can bestow on an individual. To receive this honor, you must meet the highest standard of personal and professional integrity and demonstrate an extraordinary commitment of time and energy to the safety of the children entrusted to you.

Bobby Charles took care of every child twice a day, every day for 49 years in which he never had an accident. He always said, "If you respect the children, they will respect you. If you treat a child good and kind, that child will love you, but if you treat a child bad, he will never forget it." How true this is! Bobby Charles loved people and demonstrated to others this way, God's way of living, throughout his life in his work for the Lord, his work for the water system and also in his work for TAPT (school bus driver).

Bobby Charles accomplished so many great things in his lifetime. He loved Indian artifacts, genealogy, and fishing. He loved putting together books of his ancestors but the one thing he cherished the most was working for the Lord to help build God's kingdom. He enjoyed teaching all people of God's love and how one should live for the Lord. This is what gave him great joy; just to be able to tell others of the love of Jesus. He was always trying to help those in need. He would often pay a water bill for someone who was going through a rough time, buying food for needy families, or taking vegetables from our garden to the elderly and widows. He always showed compassion for others.

In the last two years of his life, Bobby had taken ill and was confined to being at home. He was very weak and unable to do for himself but was still teaching. He was teaching me how to carry on. Teaching me what it takes to become a good pastor and always telling me to never give up on God, for God will never give up on you.

Bobby Charles had become really close to the Lord in the last few weeks of his life. I could hear many conversations he would have with Jesus. When he passed away in my arms, he left with a smile on his face and a glow of gold about him that even the paramedics commented on.

Bobby and I were together for 25½ years. He was a great teacher, always reaching out to others, showing compassion and love. Bobby Charles Martin, Sr., for all he went through in life made him the man he became. He will be easily remembered. He leaves his legacy in others that he has left behind.

His favorite verses of the Bible were Romans 8:38-39. It reads as follows:

For I am persuaded that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Amen.

Rodolphus Hughes (Bill) Miles, Jr.

September 6, 1929 – March 3, 2020

Rodolphus Hughes (Bill) Miles, Jr., passed away at the age of 90 on March 3, 2020, in Gallatin, Tennessee, following an extended illness. He was the only child of R. H. Miles, Sr., (Hugh) and Bessie Copeland Miles. Bill was born in Hueytown, Alabama, near Birmingham, on September 6, 1929.

Bill graduated from Birmingham Southern College and from Candler School of Theology at Emory University, with a Masters in Divinity. He married the former Mary Dell Morgan as he served his student pastorate at First Methodist Church in Gadsden, Alabama. In the North Alabama Conference, he served Pleasant Grove Methodist, Crumly Chapel Methodist, Cahaba Heights Methodist, and Holmes Street United Methodist churches.

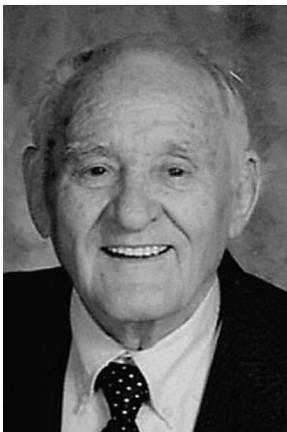

In 1969 Bill took as his appointment an organization that was his brainchild, Greater Birmingham Ministries. In that work, he met and worked with community activists and was a trailblazer in work to alleviate racial discrimination and economic oppression.

Bill obtained his Doctor of Ministry degree from Candler School of Theology during the early '70s, and in 1974 he founded Urban Ministry. From the 1950s through the 1970s he enjoyed being very active in youth ministries of the North Alabama Conference and Camp Sumatanga. Many young people became closer to God because of his work.

In 1985 he moved to Nashville, Tennessee, began a chaplaincy position, and served several churches in the Tennessee Conference of The United Methodist Church (Elkton, Pleasant Hill, Tulip Street, Mt. Zion, and Martin's Chapel.)

In 1990 he married the former Hazel Cannon; a marriage which was a blessing to both of them in their later years and lasted 25 years. He is survived by two children, Mike and Lynn, and his two stepchildren, David and Darlene; five step-grandchildren, Brian, Dana, Stephen, Nathan, and Holly; and 10 step-great-grandchildren.

A private graveside service was held at Spring Hill Cemetery.

Joseph Hilton Moore

November 7, 1927 – March 8, 2020

Born November 7, 1927, at Hustburg, Tennessee, Joseph Hilton Moore (Br. Joe to many of us) grew up during the hard years of the depression and World War II. Tasked with working the family farm to support his mother, sister, and niece, Br. Joe nevertheless graduated Tribble High School and went on to attend Bethel and Austin Peay universities. Br. Joe spent seven years earning his bachelor's degree, while still running the farm and driving a school bus. Through it all, he managed to maintain a positive spirit, as witnessed by the children on his bus, who called Br. Joe the Singing School Bus Driver. Perseverance paid off, and Br. Joe finally earned a divinity degree from Vanderbilt University.

Br. Joe served 40 years as an ordained minister in the Tennessee Conference. He is fondly remembered by many in the charges he served:

Port Royal – Sadlersville – 1957
Woodland Street (Springfield) – 1959
Bethel – 1963
Cross Plains – 1968
Ft. Donelson Memorial – 1970
Hohenwald – 1976
Gladeville – 1978
Triune – 1982
Algood – 1985
Forest Street – 1989
Retired – 1992

Br. Joe possessed a loving, helping heart. Throughout his ministry, he fought against poverty, apathy, oppression, and racial injustice. His outspoken opinions rubbed some people the wrong way and cost Br. Joe recognition he deserved. But this was fine with Br. Joe. He declared more than once, “Some cats need to be rubbed the wrong way.”

Br. Joe was caring and generous, growing a big garden and sharing it throughout the community. Even in retirement he cultivated an acre of sweet potatoes, which he made into sweet potato pies, for which he made sure no one in the neighborhood lacked.

Br. Joe was a voracious reader on many subjects, all of which he interpreted in the light of the Gospel. Nor did Br. Joe shun conversation. He loved to talk and would talk to anyone at any time on just about any subject. Br. Joe maintained staunch opinions. You could disagree with Br. Joe, but you had to know your stuff to hold your own in any discussion with him. Even those who disagreed with Br. Joe respected his knowledge and wisdom.

Joe Moore was a determined man. He made his own decisions. When he was diagnosed with heart disease, Br. Joe adopted a strict regimen of diet and exercise, and declared his intention to outlive his doctor—which he did!

Br. Joe lived to be 92 years old, thanking God for every year, and serving God as long as mortal flesh would let him. He was a good man, a man of God: Reverend Joseph Hilton Moore. Thanks be to God!

Maurice B. Moore

May 19, 1930 – June 25, 2019

Rev. Maurice Brown Moore died on June 25, 2019, at the Alive Hospice Residence in Nashville.

Maurice was born May 19, 1930, in what is now known as Fairview in Williamson County, Tennessee, to the Rev. Henry Eugene and Annie Lee Brown Moore. At the time, his father, who served as minister in the rural areas of the Tennessee Methodist Conference, was pastor of the Pleasant Valley Charge.

In 1950, Maurice was joined in marriage with Nashville native Nancy Sadler, beginning a journey that would last over 68 years.

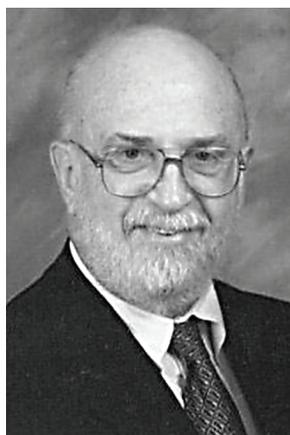

Educated in the public schools of Humphreys, Wayne, Hickman, and Lawrence counties in Tennessee, he graduated from high school in Lawrenceburg in 1948. He then attended Martin College in Pulaski, graduating in 1950; Scarritt College in Nashville, where he received a Bachelor of Arts degree, in 1953; and Vanderbilt Divinity School, where he was awarded the Master of Divinity degree in 1956.

Maurice was licensed to preach in 1948. He was admitted on trial in the Tennessee Conference in 1953, ordained a deacon in 1954, and ordained an elder in 1956. Following retirement in 1995, he served St. Paul in McMinnville, Shiloh/Mt. Lebanon, Centertown Circuit, and Hickory Point. After moving to Dickson in 2009, he occasionally filled pulpits and preached at Dickson First UMC.

On a personal level, Maurice's top priorities were serving God, his family, the churches he served, and the Tennessee Conference. He was also an avid golfer, playing until about a year before he passed away, and only stopping (reluctantly) when his doctor told him he had to because of a neck issue. He also enjoyed gardening and the fruits of his gardening labors—especially tomatoes and Silver Queen corn.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his daughter, Annemarie Moore; his sisters, Frankie Keyes and Margaret Moore; his brothers, the Rev. Eugene Moore and Irvin Moore.

Rev. Maurice Moore is survived by his loving wife, Nancy Sadler Moore; his son, John Keith Moore (Deborah) of Arlington, Texas; daughters Carol Elaine Moore of Dickson, and Mary Susan Bradshaw (Keith) of Centerville; a sister, Mary Lou Moore of Nashville; five grandchildren: Laura Ann Evans (Sam), Claire Elaine Ryan (Paul), Kyle Joseph Bradshaw (Mariah), Abigail Sadler Moore, and Luke Justice Bradshaw; and six great-grandchildren

January 24, 1947 – September 4, 2019

William L. Reding, Jr., was born on January 24, 1947, and grew up in the Sango community near Clarksville, Tennessee.

Everyone thought he would follow in his father's footsteps and become the manager of the Montgomery County Farmer's Co-op. God had other plans. In 1971, he began a ministry of over 40 years. He was no longer known as William but became Brother Bill.

In the Scriptures we read that God gave the gift for some to be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, and some pastors and teachers. If you got to know Brother Bill, you know that the Scriptures describe Bill in many ways.

Bill was a natural conversationalist, with an endless supply of stories to share and an attentive ear for listening. He never thought that a person's formal education or social standing had any bearing on what they had to offer. Among his friends were professors, factory workers, doctors, house cleaners, truck drivers, police officers, former convicts, and Opry stars. He engaged each in the same down-to-earth way, recognizing that everyone has unique gifts to share as a child of God.

A graduate of Vanderbilt Divinity School, he remained a life-long learner, continuing to study the Scriptures faithfully, reading National Geographic and Smithsonian magazines, viewing US and world history documentaries, and listening to NPR. He felt lessons learned in science class and Sunday school were complimentary, not contradictory.

As a lover of God's natural world, he was an avid gardener. He spent much time outside, won compliments for his flowers and ribbons for his produce. He considered gardening his therapy. If he became frustrated with a church member or situation, he would name a weed for it, then pull it up and toss it away.

Bill was a man of prayer. His sermons and prayers were presented without any written notes, given from his heart. He was honored to be asked by President Jimmy Carter to say the prayer at Sunday school at Carter's home church in Plains, Georgia.

As a cancer survivor, he participated in the Robertson County Relay for Life, encouraging others to fight this disease.

Bill never put much weight in material things. He was more comfortable in overalls than a suit and tie. He didn't believe that being reverent meant one should be snobby or uppity. When a parishioner's son told Bill he would come to church if Bill would preach in his overalls, Bill told him it was a deal. The next Sunday, Bill preached in his overalls and the parishioner's son came to hear his sermon.

One of Bill's favorite gifts from his church friends was a bright yellow T-shirt with SOB in big bold font on the front. Underneath in smaller font, were the words Sweet Old Bill.

His love of God and people were genuine; always interested in all he met, always inquiring about what was happening in each one's life.

More than anything, Bill was a loving, supportive father and husband. He and Wanda were married for 48 years. At a young age, one of the first things Reed and Jim learned was that they had to share their dad with many people. Bill did an amazing job of balancing church and family. He found ways to keep his family close. Two little boys would often accompany him on his afternoon visitation rounds. Hospital visits to Nashville would become a family outing. He'd drop Wanda and the boys at a bookstore or park while he was visiting sick parishioners. When Reed and Jim started to school and Wanda returned to teaching, Bill got up early most mornings to cook breakfast for the family.

A parishioner shared this poem by Helen Steiner Rice, saying it reminded her of Bill, that she would be forever grateful for the love and care he showed.

The more you give, the more you get.
The more you laugh, the less you fret.
The more you do unselfishly,
the more you live abundantly.
The more of everything you share,
the more you'll always have to spare.
The more you love, the more you'll find that life is good and friends are kind.
For only what we give away, enriches us from day to day.
Bill left us with legacy—
Of faith
 Of knowledge
Of love

Mary Jane (Mollie) Palmer Rogers

July 7, 1936 – February 15, 2020

Funeral services for “My Mollie,” as Mrs. Mary Jane Rogers was affectionately known, 83, were held Thursday, February 20, 2020, at 2 p.m. at Hooper Huddleston and Horner Funeral Home.

Born July 7, 1936, in Des Moines, Iowa, she was reared in Jackson, Tennessee, where she met Jimmy Rogers, her life-long husband, dearest friend, and constant admirer.

The two were college freshman, age 19 and 18, when they were married on March 17, 1955. On February 15, 2020, death ended their beautiful, much-admired marriage one month shy of 65 years.

Their union resulted in four sons, Tyler Howard Rogers, of Greensburg, Indiana, Wesley Alan Rogers and wife, Lori, and Andrew Wade Rogers and wife, Melody, all of Smithville; and Timothy Palmer Rogers and wife, Lisa, of Cookeville; 11 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren.

Mollie dropped out of college after one year, in order to support Jim in his pursuit of an education in theology. She continued working as a medical transcriptionist until her retirement from the Upper Cumberland Orthopedic Surgery Group more than 20 years ago.

Mollie had an abiding faith in God and love for the church. Although her now stilled voice was never strong, when she sang songs of the faith, it was beautiful. She loved everyone and she had a special place in her heart for family and friends, even to the end.

Alzheimer’s disease began attacking her once-vibrant brain some six years ago.

The family suggests memorial donations be made in her honor to Alzheimer’s Tennessee, 390 S. Lowe Ave., Suite I, Cookeville, Tennessee.

Shirley Jean Morris Smith

January 11, 1956 – October 14, 2019

Shirley Jean Morris Smith was born in Bowling Green, Kentucky, on January 11, 1956. Shirley was married for nearly 45 years to Rev. Dr. Charles Ray Smith, Jr., Cumberland River District leadership strategist in the Tennessee Conference. Charles and Shirley have four adult children—Nathan, Allison, Christen, and Stephen—and eight grandchildren.

Shirley was the youngest of three children born to Herbert Lee Morris and Mildred Catherine Sisk Morris. Shirley's father worked in the Signal Department for the Louisville & Nashville Railroad, and her mother was a homemaker who occasionally worked outside the home as a retail salesclerk.

When Shirley was six months of age, her father was transferred to Mobile, Alabama, where Shirley would spend most of her formative years, apart from a brief period in which she lived in Louisville, Kentucky, while her father received specialized training for his career.

Shirley was raised in a Christian home. Her mother continued to be a loving example of God's grace and Christian living. Raised in the Southern Baptist Church, her family later became active at St. John United Methodist Church in Mobile. Shirley was an active part of the St John youth group and participated in the youth choir and Sunday school.

Shirley attended John S. Shaw High School, graduating in 1974. During her freshman year, Shirley met Charles, eventually inviting the young Catholic boy to an event at her church. From that tentative first date, their love for one another took root. They became high school sweethearts, eventually attending four junior-senior proms in a row.

It was under the influence of Shirley's loving, faithful witness that Charles became a fully dedicated follower of Jesus Christ, uniting with St John UMC while in high school. Charles and Shirley shared a love for music and the two quickly became a duo traveling to area United Methodist churches to sing for youth groups and worship services. Charles became a lay speaker and the young couple were often called upon for special church events where Charles played guitar and Shirley provided vocal harmony. Their style was quite similar to that of Glen Campbell and Bobbie Gentry, popular artists of the time. It was no surprise that Charles and Shirley adopted "Let it Be Me," a noted recording by the famed recording duo, as their song.

Charles and Shirley were married at St John on March 8, 1975. Charles had a career in electronics and Shirley became a registered nurse with emphasis in labor and delivery. While living in the Atlanta, area, Charles received a call to ordained ministry. They returned to Mobile and began the candidacy process. The young couple moved to Wilmore, Kentucky, where Charles graduated from Asbury College and Asbury Theological Seminary. Charles became and continues to be an elder and member of the Alabama-West Florida Conference.

Charles and Shirley were pleased to serve several churches in their home conference, eventually coming to the Tennessee Conference as the retirement years approached and the needs of Shirley's parents required their presence in Murfreesboro.

Shortly after receiving an appointment to serve in the Tennessee Conference in 2015, Shirley learned of the re-emergence of breast cancer she had overcome six years earlier. After a courageous four-year battle, Shirley entered into the victory promised her by our merciful and loving God at the age of 63. She entered glory in the manner she requested: surrounded by her family, the sound of the guitar—now played by her oldest son—and the songs of worship and praise that she loved. The final song was "It is Well with My Soul."

No summary of her life is adequate. Hers was a life of dedication, faith, self-sacrifice, and tireless work for the kingdom. Her character was revealed in intentional almsgiving, volunteer work within and beyond the local church, and commitment to the teaching of God's Word. She was deeply loved by the congregations in which she and her husband were blessed to serve, and her wisdom and witness enhanced every congregation she knew as her home. Her legacy is seen in four wonderful children who have served as worship leaders, missionaries, responsible parents, and leaders. Her smiles were infectious, her touch was healing, her words were wisdom, and her laughter was liberating. She leaves behind a grateful husband and partner, her family, and countless persons who have known the impact of her Christian witness and faith.

Reward her for all she has done. Let her deeds publicly declare her praise. Proverbs 31:31

Jep Daniel Spencer

September 15, 1927 – September 27, 2019

J. D. Spencer was born September 15, 1927, in the Marble Plains Community of Franklin County, Tennessee. His parents, Newt (Newton) and Villa Weaver Spencer had five children: J. F., who died as an infant, Tommy, Jewel, Louise, and J. D. Eleven months after J. D. was born, Newt died. Villa then married Joe Stewart and they had two daughters, Irene and Lois. Villa died when J. D. was 11 years old and only Lois and Irene survive today.

When J. D. was 16, World War II was raging and most of the men had gone off to war. Because of this, women were being hired to work in the factories. His older sisters got a job at Genesco shoe factory in Cowan, Tennessee. Since none of them could drive, they got J. D. a job at the shoe factory so he could drive them to work. Shortly after starting to work he wanted to buy a war bond. That is when he found out his name was not J. D. but actually Jep Daniel.

In 1949 he married Bobbie Nell Neely and they had one son, David. J. D. loved Bobbie and she was a great asset to his ministry. They were married 65 years.

In May 1960, at a spring revival at the Marble Plains Methodist Church, he answered the call to ministry. Since he had only finished the eighth grade and had never made even a lay talk, he thought he would go to school first but the superintendent said "No, we need you now." He was appointed to the Manchester Circuit and went on to serve 19 churches before he retired in 1993 and two after he retired. Winchester First United Methodist Church then asked him to be minister of visitation where he served until shortly before his death.

J. D. loved gardening and for the last several years kept the staff of Southern Tennessee Regional Medical Center and many others supplied with tomatoes and other vegetables.

He loved three books: the Bible, which he read and used every day and The Upper Room, which he read every night before going to bed for as long as I can remember. He also loved his little black book from Cokesbury. All three of these were on his nightstand when he died. He had every little black book from the beginning of his ministry in 1960 until the last one in 2019. Every meeting, appointment, revival, wedding, funeral, and baptism were all recorded.

J. D. Spencer was dedicated to God's people, his family, the Church, and serving God.

Lovingly submitted by his son, David Spencer

STANDING RULES, PERSONNEL POLICIES, AND MEDIA CRISIS RESPONSE

A. STANDING RULES

Revised June 14, 2019

The Standing Rules of the Tennessee Annual Conference represent the means by which we organize and oversee our work of making disciples for the transformation of the world. It is the organizational plan of the Tennessee Annual Conference, setting forth the rules by which we govern ourselves, in compliance with ¶604 of the 2016 United Methodist Book of Discipline. As our Book of Discipline says about itself, our Standing Rules reflect the “... most current statement of how United Methodists [in the Tennessee Annual Conference] agree to live together and ‘maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.’”

The Committee on Standing Rules presents these rules for renewal and adoption by each session of the Tennessee Annual Conference.

Section 1 – Authorization for the Committee on Standing Rules

- 1.1 The Committee on Standing Rules has the responsibility to:
 - a) Propose new policies and standing rules;
 - b) Propose needed amendments to existing policies and standing rules;
 - c) Provide guidance to the annual conference at any point where conference action may be at variance with a policy or standing rule.
- 1.2 The Standing Rules of the Annual Conference must be in compliance with the provisions of ¶604 of the current edition of The United Methodist Book of Discipline.

Section 2 – Annual Conference Session Procedures

- 2.1 The Conference shall follow the latest edition of Robert’s Rules of Order except where it is in conflict with the current Book of Discipline.
- 2.2 All motions and resolutions shall be supplied to the conference secretary in writing on a form provided for this purpose by the conference secretary.
- 2.3 Any entity planning to present a report at any annual conference session shall submit the report to the Office of Connectional Ministries at least 10 weeks prior to the opening day of annual conference for inclusion in pre-conference materials.
- 2.4 All resolutions not included in the pre-conference materials shall be submitted to the Committee on Resolutions at least 30 days prior to the first day of the annual conference session. The chair of the resolutions committee shall submit to the annual conference, in their original form, all resolutions so submitted. In addition, the committee may present to the annual conference for consideration a revised version of any such resolution.
- 2.5 The roll call of the Tennessee Annual Conference shall be taken from the registration.

- 2.6 The agenda of the conference shall be that as it is corrected and distributed on the first day of annual conference with the understanding that the bishop may adjust the agenda for the good of the order.
- 2.7 All speeches other than reports shall be limited to three minutes.
- 2.8 Voting cards shall be the means of identifying who is eligible to vote on all issues requiring a vote.
- 2.9 The annual conference session shall meet at a location accessible to persons with disabilities.
- 2.10 All annual conference reports to be included in the journal shall be e-mailed to the journal editor 10 weeks prior to the opening day of annual conference. Any corrections and/or additions received after this date shall, at the discretion of the journal editor, be included in the succeeding journal. Handwritten and typewritten reports shall not be accepted for publication in the journal. All reports should be typed, using Microsoft Word according to the specifications on the conference website. Photos must be submitted as separate JPG files and must include permissions from all persons pictured. Photos submitted will be used as space permits in the journal. Use Tennessee Conference Journal Style Sheet posted on the conference website for guidance on capitalization, punctuation, and so forth to ensure that the journal has a consistent look and flow. Files that contain tables should be submitted in Microsoft Excel format. No PDF or directly scanned images will be accepted.
- 2.11 Agenda items and reports not requiring action by the annual conference other than a vote to receive said item for publication in the journal, shall be placed on a consent agenda. In order for any item or report to be eligible for placement on the consent agenda, it must have been available online with the pre-conference materials. Any item may be removed from the consent agenda if ten members of the conference petition for removal.
- 2.12 Equalization and youth participation: Whenever it shall occur that the person serving as the director of Administrative Services, director of Connectional Ministries, or director of Ministerial Concerns is a lay person, then each person so serving shall be an at-large lay member of the annual conference. The conference secretary shall determine annually the number of laypersons needed to equalize lay and clergy members of the annual conference. The at-large members are to be allocated as nearly as possible on an equal basis to the districts. When the number of members to equalize cannot be distributed evenly between the districts, the members shall be allocated to the districts in alphabetical order of districts. The at-large members are to be elected by each district conference.

Each district conference shall elect two youth (ages 12-17) and two young adults (ages 18-30) as at-large members of the annual conference.

Section 3 -- Election of Delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conference

- 3.1 Clergy and lay delegates to General and jurisdictional conferences shall be elected as provided in the Constitution of The United Methodist Church (paragraphs 34-36 of The Book of Discipline).
- 3.2 Ballots:
- a) Ballots will be provided by the office of the conference secretary
 - b) Fifty percent plus one valid ballots cast shall be necessary to elect
 - c) Ballots with more or less than the number to be elected shall be rejected as invalid
- 3.3 Candidacy of persons eligible to serve as delegates, whether clergy or lay to General and/or jurisdictional conference, may be established either by declaration or nomination:

- a) To declare candidacy for election to serve as a General or jurisdictional conference delegate, the eligible person must submit to the Office of Connectional Ministries, no later than 10 weeks prior to the opening day of annual conference, for inclusion in the pre-conference materials a statement concerning:
 1. His/her activities at the local church, district, and annual, jurisdictional, and general conference levels;
 2. An assessment of the principal needs of the general Church and how those needs should be met; and
 3. Any other information felt pertinent to introducing himself/herself to those members of the annual conference who may not be familiar with his/her views on issues confronting the Church.

- b) To nominate a person for candidacy to be elected to serve as a General or jurisdictional conference delegate and have the nomination included in the pre-conference materials, the nominator(s) must:
 1. Determine the eligibility of the person to be nominated.
 2. Secure from the person to be nominated and submit to the Office of Connectional Ministries the proposed nominee's written consent to accept the nomination.
 3. Submit to the Office of Connectional Ministries, no later than 10 weeks prior to the opening day of annual conference, for inclusion in the pre-conference materials, a statement concerning:
 - The activities of the nominee at the local church, district, and annual, jurisdictional, and general conference levels,
 - An assessment of the opinions of the nominee regarding the principal needs of the church and how those needs should be met, and
 - Any other information (such as age and ethnicity) felt to be pertinent to introducing the nominee to those members of the annual conference who may not be familiar with that nominee's views on issues confronting the church.

- c) Statements submitted in the establishing of candidacy, whether by declaration or nomination, shall be limited to 200 words, and shall be submitted via e-mail.

- d) Persons do not have to declare candidacy or be nominated for candidacy in order to be eligible for election to serve as a General or jurisdictional conference delegate.

- e) The initial ballot for election to General Conference will have a ballot number assigned only to those who, by declaration or nomination, have expressed their desire to be considered as a candidate. All subsequent ballots will assign numbers to write-in candidates during the election process.

3.4 Reserve delegates: After the jurisdictional conference delegates are elected, two lay and two clergy reserve delegates shall be elected. The delegation's budget will include funding for one lay and one clergy reserve delegate to attend General and jurisdictional conferences. In the event of a tie in the election for reserves, the delegation will be providing funding for two lay and two clergy reserves.

Section 4 – Suspension, Adoption, and Amendment of Standing Rules

- 4.1 Any standing rule, with the exception of SR 4.2, SR 4.3, and SR 4.4, may be suspended at any session of the annual conference by a two-thirds majority vote of those present and voting.

- 4.2 Any proposal for the adoption of a standing rule, or for the amendment of an existing standing rule, shall be submitted to the Committee on Standing Rules at least 30 days prior to the first day of the annual conference session. The Committee on Standing Rules will present their recommendations to the annual conference, and their recommendations may be adopted or amended from the floor by a two-thirds majority of those present and voting.

- 4.3 Any additions or amendments to the Standing Rules shall take effect at the conclusion of the annual conference session in which they are adopted.
- 4.4 Any proposal for an addition or change in the parsonage standards shall be presented to the annual conference through or by the cabinet and through the Committee on Policies and Standing Rules.

Section 5 – Procedural Policies

- 5.1 All boards, agencies, and other entities of the annual conference in the performance of their duties shall adhere to the appropriate provisions in the current Book of Discipline.
- 5.2 Conference master calendar: There shall be a master calendar of all conference and district dates which will be maintained by the Office of Connectional Ministries staff. All district and conference committees, councils, commissions, boards, task groups, and institutions amenable to the conference shall coordinate all dates with the Connectional Ministries office and establish dates upon the master calendar for all events that call for general participation of the people of our churches.

The master calendar shall be coordinated with the general Church calendar, such that, where possible, conflict with national meetings will not occur.

- 5.3 Any entity that claims a relationship to the Tennessee Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church must be endorsed and/or authorized by and accountable to an officially recognized board, commission, committee, or council of the Tennessee Annual Conference.

Section 6 – Inclusion in the Journal

- 6.1 Parsonage standards shall be printed each year in the journal. The standards shall be reviewed quadrennially by the Committee on Policies and Standing Rules, which shall submit to the annual conference a report to the cabinet detailing any proposed amendments to the parsonage standards.
- 6.2 The annual conference and district organizational structure shall be included each year in the journal.
- 6.3 Personnel policies and standing rules shall be included in the pre-conference materials and in the journal each year.
- 6.4 The Memorial Rolls and Historical Annual Conference Sessions shall be included in their entirety in the conference journal in the quadrennial year in which General Conference occurs. In the intervening three years, a supplement listing the conference clergy who have died and the annual conference sessions held since the last quadrennial year shall be printed in the conference journal.

Section 7 – Organizational Policies

- 7.1 Policies regarding incorporation: Boards, agencies, or constituent bodies may not apply for incorporation apart from the express authority given by the annual conference. Boards, agencies, or constituent bodies may not take title to property except by the express authority given by the annual conference. The title to all properties acquired for the annual conference or its boards, agencies or constituent bodies shall be taken and held in the name of the Tennessee Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc., a Tennessee nonprofit organization. Provided that this requirement shall not pertain to the Board of Trustees of Martin

Methodist College, Board of Directors of the United Methodist Foundation for the Memphis and Tennessee Conferences, and the Board of Pensions which may take and hold title to such properties as they are authorized to acquire by the action of the annual conference.

The annual conference shall be incorporated as a Tennessee nonprofit corporation with the name Tennessee Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc. The corporate officers shall be the resident bishop (president), lay leader (vice-president), conference secretary (secretary), and the conference treasurer (treasurer). The conference treasurer shall also serve as registered agent. The conference chancellor may provide legal counsel to the corporation. The conference trustees may approve bylaws and other corporate documents as needed to maintain compliance with Tennessee law, The Book of Discipline, and the conference standing rules and policies.

Travel Expense

All employees will receive reimbursement for conference-related travel in accordance with TAC rules, subject to IRS rules defining business expense and appropriate contemporaneous documentation. Travel between the place of employment and the place of residence shall not be reimbursed.

Work Schedule

Office hours for support staff persons normally are from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. Lunch period is one hour in length. The directors may allow a deviation from these hours or days when the director deems it appropriate.

Offices of the TAC will remain open Monday through Friday with the exception of the holiday schedule listed under holidays. Exceptions may be made by the director(s) at each location.

Directors, associate directors, and coordinators are often expected to work days and hours that do not fit the normal schedule of office hours. These persons are responsible for their areas of ministry and will demonstrate by their results that they are faithful to their ministries.

Adjustments to compensation

A wage assignment or a garnishment is a legal order requiring an individual's employer to withhold part of the employee's wages in order to pay a debt or obligation. Wage assignments which meet legal requirements will be honored when issued and withheld from employee's compensation.

All lay employees are covered by the Federal Old Age and Survivors Benefits Act to provide the protection offered by Social Security. Social Security tax is paid half by the lay employee and half by the employer. Clergy pay the total cost for Social Security coverage as self-employed persons for Social Security purposes. Clergy may also have part of their compensation designated as a housing allowance.

All conference employees who participate in the conference's health plan are eligible to participate in the conference's medical Flexible Spending Account (FSA, or cafeteria) program. Employees designate the amount to be withheld from their compensation, from which they can be reimbursed for covered medical-related spending.

Assisting Employees with Disabling Illnesses

Staff may be covered by the conference's disability coverage but should consider purchasing their own policies to provide additional short-term and long-term disability benefits.

Military

The TAC supports and complies with the Veteran's Reemployment Rights Act and applicable state laws.

Relocation Moving Expense

A newly employed/appointed director or associate director needing to locate housing within a reasonable commuting distance will receive a one-time reimbursement for cost of transportation, meals, and lodging, for the purpose of locating housing. The trip will be for no more than five days.

Moving expenses incurred with hiring of new staff who move more than 50 miles may be paid at the discretion of the executive director. The appropriate entity will pay the costs of moving. Moving expenses will be reported as income unless they qualify for tax-exempt treatment, and appropriate forms and documentation are provided to Administrative Services.

PERSONNEL FILES

The TAC maintains a personnel file for each staff person. The conference attempts to maintain those documents which are, have been or are intended to be used in determining a staff person's qualifications for employment, promotion, transfer, additional compensation, discharge, or other disciplinary action.

A staff person has the right to inspect certain portions of his/her personnel file. Personal information is not to be released to a third party without authorization by the appropriate director.

Tennessee Conference Media Crisis Response Plan

A Media Crisis in the Tennessee Conference is:

An event or emergency associated in some way with the Church but beyond its control, which can be expected to become public. It presents potential for damage to individuals, or the image of the Church, and hinders the ability to be in ministry. In other words, a media crisis is anything that could cause the public to lose faith in Tennessee Conference leadership or in The United Methodist Church.

Media Crises Come in Several Packages

- Personnel crisis (clergy, church staff, or lay member's misconduct, death, illness, or injury)
- Threatened criminal or legal action
- Violent acts, demonstrations
- Corporate crisis (lawsuits against the conference, an agency or institution)
- Positive crisis (donations exceed what can be handled, etc.)

3. The bishop or alternate spokesperson and local church pastor* or agency director* must be thoroughly and regularly briefed before making any appearances or statements. The spokespersons may refer news media to others who can speak with authority on a particular subject.

*If the local church pastor or agency director is intimately involved in the crisis, s/he will not be a spokesperson.

4. The MCMT will determine whether the spokesperson should leave immediately for the location of the crisis (such as a church camp or church building). This may be necessary if reporters are already on site and there is no spokesperson present.
5. The bishop or alternate spokesperson must establish a schedule for regular briefing sessions of team members for the purpose of updates and discussion during the first few days of the crisis when media interest will be most intense.
6. The team is authorized to engage other professionals as needed. The bishop or his/her designate and the team should determine who receives information, updates and copies of all statements and releases.

D. SAFE SANCTUARY POLICY FOR CHILDREN, YOUTH, AND VULNERABLE PERSONS

Abuse and neglect of children, youth, and vulnerable persons are prohibited by the Tennessee Annual Conference, its churches and its agencies.

The Tennessee Conference seeks to create a safe environment for children, youth, and vulnerable persons in which opportunities for abuse are minimized by the provision of proper enlistment and supervision of those persons working with them. This document contains theological foundations, definitions of abuse, and policies related to prevention, response, and reporting.

Clergy and laity are encouraged to read this policy and make it an essential part of the operations of each local church. For procedures related to conference events and for resources related to local church policies and procedures visit tnumc.org and go to the Safe Spaces Ministry page.

I. SCOPE

The Tennessee Conference of the United Methodist Church affirms that all children, youth and vulnerable persons have the right to safety. Therefore, United Methodists of the Tennessee Conference are determined to provide an environment in which these persons are safe from neglect or abuse including sexual misconduct and harassment.

The scope of this policy and its provisions shall apply to all staff and volunteers, clergy or lay, who have direct or indirect contact with children, youth, and vulnerable persons in conference and/or district sponsored events. This policy should be implemented in conjunction with the Sexual Misconduct Policy for Church Professionals found at tnumc.org on the Safe Spaces Ministry page.

Safe Spaces Ministry consists of the Safe Sanctuary Team, the Boundaries and Sexual Ethics Team, and the Conference Response Team for the Tennessee Conference. The Safe Spaces Ministry serves to assist in development, review and implementation of policies and procedures necessary for keeping ministry safe. This ministry will facilitate the availability of training for members of the Tennessee Conference.

The Safe Spaces Ministry will be responsible for annual review of the policy and will propose to the annual conference suggested revisions to the policy as needed. Each conference and/or district ministry event involving children, youth, or vulnerable persons shall create procedures to implement this policy.

II. THEOLOGICAL FOUNDATION

Our Biblical Mandate:

“Then Jesus took a little child and put her among them; and taking her in his arms, he said to them, ‘Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me.’” (Paraphrase of Mark 9:36- 37) Jesus also said, “If any of you put a stumbling block before one of these little ones..., it would be better for you if a great millstone were fastened around your neck and you were drowned in the depth of the sea.” (Matthew 18:6)

Our Commitment in Baptism:

The Church, above all institutions, is called to welcome and nurture the child. Our goal is to maintain a safe, secure, loving place where all children may grow and where those who care for them may minister to their needs in responsible ways.

Our Mandate:

The 1996 General Conference approved a resolution that called upon local churches and annual conferences to institute policies and procedures to reduce the risk of child sexual abuse in our churches and church-related activities. We, in the Tennessee Conference, accept the nature of this call and seek to expand it to include all forms of abuse and neglect that could be possible in these settings or that could come to our attention regarding all children, youth, and/or vulnerable persons in our care.

Statement of Covenant:

As caring Christians, we are committed to protect and advocate for all children, youth, and vulnerable persons participating in the life of the church. The Church, at all levels of its organization, is entrusted with the responsibility of providing an emotionally and physically safe, spiritually grounded, healthy environment for all children, youth, adults, and vulnerable persons in which they are protected from abuse.

We uphold the idea that to report abuse is to be a witness to the world of the love and justice of God and fully recognize that reporting abuse is a form of ministering to the needs of those crying out for help. Simply, to report abuse can help to stop existing abuse and prevent further abuse.

Additionally, we care for victims of abuse and their families by offering resources that will contribute to healing. Further, we recognize the grace that God gives in upholding Christian community; we will look for grace-filled ways of dealing with both the victim and the accused.

Therefore, as a Christian community of faith and a United Methodist congregation, we pledge to conduct the ministry of the gospel in ways that assure the safety and spiritual growth of all of our children, youth and vulnerable persons, as well as all of the workers with children, youth and vulnerable persons. We will follow reasonable safety measures in the selection and recruitment of workers; we will implement prudent operational procedures in all programs and events; we will educate all of our workers with children, youth and vulnerable persons regarding the use of all appropriate policies and methods (including first aid and methods of discipline); we will have a clearly defined procedure for reporting a suspected incident of abuse that conforms to the requirements of state law; and we will be prepared to respond to media inquiries if an incident occurs.

III. ADOPTION OF POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Local churches within the conference will adopt and enforce their own Safe Sanctuary Policy For Children, Youth, and Vulnerable Persons. It is recommended that the congregational policy be equal to or exceed in strength of protection for all children, youth, and vulnerable persons the minimum standards here stated. The Tennessee Conference of UMC recommends the local church act as follows:

- A. Responsibility for Implementation. Implementing the Abuse Prevention Policy For Children, Youth, and Vulnerable Persons at a local church shall be the responsibility of the Pastor in Charge, the governing body, and a Safe Sanctuaries Committee (SSC) or its equivalent organized in compliance with the local church's governance process.

Safe Sanctuaries Committee or Equivalent. A Safe Sanctuaries Committee (this may be the age-level ministry committee or education committee) shall have the responsibility for developing local church safe sanctuaries policies and procedures; communicating with and educating the congregation concerning those policies and procedures; recruiting, screening, and training paid staff and volunteers; conducting site inspections and making recommendations; retaining records; and regularly reviewing conference policies and procedures, applicable state laws, and the insurance policy provisions and insurer requirements. It is recommended that this committee or its equivalent should have at least one representative each from Education, Age-level ministries, Trustees, and the Staff Parish Relations committees.

- B. Training. Such periodic training and education on the Safe Sanctuary Policy For Children, Youth, and Vulnerable Persons provided by the Tennessee Conference should be attended each quadrennium by the local church Pastor in Charge and SSC chairperson or other SSC designated member. Further, it is recommended that attendance at such conference-wide training include at a minimum, designees from the local church who will be personally coordinating and conducting safe sanctuaries training for employees and staff within the local church.
- C. Annual Review of Policy. The local church Safe Sanctuary Committee will conduct an annual review of the policy to facilitate implementation of best practices and compliance with current state and federal law. A report will be made to the Tennessee Conference as a part of their charge conference report.

IV. COMMON DEFINITIONS OF ABUSE

- 6. Verbal abuse refers to spoken or unspoken violence or emotional cruelty against a child, youth, and/or a vulnerable person.

V. SCREENING PROCEDURES FOR VOLUNTEERS AND PAID STAFF

All persons, including conference staff who intend to work with children, youth, and/or vulnerable persons at conference-sponsored events, including overnight or longer events, must also be properly screened and attend an age-appropriate orientation/ training session on child protection and abuse and have current background check. Local church Safe Sanctuary policies are expected to meet the minimum requirements set out below for training and screening. A Safe Spaces Verification form will be completed and submitted to the appropriate leadership prior to participation.

The following procedures should be followed:

- A written job description outlining duties and expectations must be provided, and shall be signed and dated by each person falling within the scope of the policy.
- An application/personal information form shall be completed.

- A Sexual Offender Registry check in any state where the applicant has resided during the past seven (7) years shall be conducted.
- Consent to a criminal background check. A background check should be provided for anyone staying overnight or longer, i.e. weekend retreats, summer camps.
- A new background check should be performed every 3 years as the standard.
- If the applicant is found to have been involved in any activity in which the applicant abused or exploited children, youth, or vulnerable persons the applicant will not be approved. Any conviction of a crime against children, youth or adults from vulnerable populations and any conviction of rape, sexual or physical assault shall disqualify any applicant. A person who has been convicted as a sex offender will not be approved. Affirmative responses to questions relating to crimes involving possession or use of drugs or suspension of a drivers' license within the past five years will prompt a heightened review of an application.
- Personal interviews with summary documentation will be conducted by the Safe Sanctuary team or conference staff representative and kept in a confidential file maintained by the conference ministry for whom the applicant will serve.
- References will be checked with summary documentation in a confidential file and maintained by the conference ministry for whom the applicant will serve.

VI. RECIPROCALITY

The Safe Spaces Ministry Team may accept training provided by other United Methodist conferences or United Methodist churches in other conferences after a review of the policies and procedures implemented in the other conference or church. Screening will be accepted provided that there has been a copy of the National Screen that included a national criminal check conducted by the other conference or church submitted with the request.

VII. REPORTING OF INCIDENTS

Incidents may involve inappropriate behavior by staff/volunteers or other participants toward a participant and call for immediate on-site corrective action. Incidents may involve the abuse, neglect or exploitation of participants by staff/volunteers or other participants and mandate reporting through the Tennessee Child Abuse hotline (1-877-237-0004) or the Adult Protective Services hotline (1-888-277-8366). In case of an emergency, immediately call 9-1-1.

A call to the hotline is required to be made by staff/volunteers if there is reasonable cause to suspect that abuse of a participant has occurred. When the necessity of reporting occurs, the protection of children, youth, and vulnerable persons must be paramount. Cooperation with the Tennessee Department of Children's Services, the Tennessee Commission on Aging and Disability and law enforcement is required in all such incidents.

In case of allegations of abuse occurring in the church or ministries affiliated with the church or having the potential to impact the ministry of the church, the district superintendent and/or bishop shall be notified immediately. The Safe Spaces Ministry staff person will also be notified following notification of the appropriate state or local law enforcement authorities. Parents or legal guardians will generally be notified; however, in circumstances in which the parent or guardian is alleged or suspected to be the perpetrator or may have been complicit in the neglect or abuse, notice may be withheld in appropriate circumstances. When doubt exists, legal counsel should be consulted.

VIII. STATEMENT TO THE MEDIA

The Media Crisis Response Plan should be enacted to insure proper protocol is followed.

The bishop or alternate spokesperson shall provide conference and district ministry groups with guidelines for communications with media about the incident(s) which may have been reported.

IX. FUNDAMENTAL SAFE SPACES PROCEDURES FOR THE CONFERENCE AND DISTRICT

1. Appropriate Boundaries: All persons, staff and participants, will maintain boundaries appropriate to their specific roles, age, and relationship to another.
2. Two Adult Rule: At least two adults should be present during all conference events such that no one adult will be alone with any number of children, youth, or vulnerable persons. At least two of the adults present should be non-related and non-cohabitating. For small group activities where one adult supervises one group, two or more groups are to meet in sight and sound of each other. The ministry leader may also decide to combine groups to ensure the safety of all parties. Small group sizes will be determined by the size of the group, but should not exceed reasonable adult/participant ratios. (When both genders of students are represented, both genders of adults should also be represented.)
3. Five Year Older Rule: Persons supervising children and/or middle school youth (grades 6th-8th) will be at least 18 years old and will be at least 5 years older than the oldest child/youth participant.
4. Four Year Older Rule: Persons supervising high school youth (grades 9th-12th) will be at least 4 years older than the oldest youth participant.
5. Open Doors: Doors to meeting spaces without windows must remain open when children, youth, or vulnerable adults are utilizing the space. Doors with windows may remain closed provided that sight lines to all areas of the room are clear.
6. Medical Release/Registration Form: All persons attending conference events with children, youth, or vulnerable persons shall have a completed medical release form and completed parental permission form. The medical release form will be valid for a 1-year period beginning August 1 of the current year and expiring July 31 of the next year. It is expected that a new form will be submitted if a change in medical status, change in residence, or other life event occurs. All forms will be maintained by the local church ministry leadership and will be available upon request for verification during conference event check-in.
7. Local Ministry Leader Responsibility: It is expected that the children/youth coordinator/ director from the local church is responsible for the care and supervision of that local church's participants at the conference/district event.

POLICY REVISION DATE: May 2017

POLICY ADOPTION DATE: June 2017

E. SEXUAL MISCONDUCT POLICY FOR CHURCH PROFESSIONALS of the Tennessee Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church

Preamble

The Tennessee Annual Conference does not approve of and will not tolerate sexual misconduct. The conference is committed to the eradication of this conduct if it should occur and to the creation of an environment of hospitality for all persons, male or female, that is free of sexual overtones and implications, and encourages respect, equality, and kinship in Christ. This policy aims to provide an avenue to report sexual misconduct while assuring that any person doing so in good faith will be protected from retaliation.

All church professionals (see definition) have positions of great trust, power, and responsibility. This provides the opportunity for unique relationships of grace and caring. While church professionals can sometimes violate the trust given them within these relationships, sexual misconduct is one of the gravest violations of this trust. This policy seeks to address the abuse of power by church professionals who engage in sexual misconduct. While this policy is binding for appointed church professionals, it is our hope that it may serve as a guide for other church professionals such as local church laity staff and volunteers.

The intent of this policy is to provide guidance to both laity and clergy of the Tennessee Annual Conference and the local church regarding sexual misconduct and, thereby, protect the relationship between church professionals and parishioners, staff members, colleagues, and others. It is both the ethical and legal responsibility of the Tennessee Annual Conference to ensure that there are mechanisms for preventing sexual misconduct and addressing allegations of the same. This policy provides guidance regarding the definition of sexual misconduct, procedures for filing and addressing allegations of sexual misconduct, and training expectations and requirements designed to prevent sexual misconduct in the Tennessee Annual Conference. The primary focus of this policy shall be the search for truth to assure justice for the complainant and the accused. This policy is not intended to supplant or substitute for the formal complaint process and its attendant fair process protection in the current Book of Discipline, which must, where applicable, be followed in addition to this policy. Failure by church authorities to use or follow any of the procedures herein is not a chargeable offense, nor can it be used as grounds for an appeal of a formal grievance, complaint, review or trial as defined in current Book of Discipline. We are committed to procedural accuracy and pastoral care in the pursuit of justice for victims and survivors, real accountability for abusers, and healing for all parties.

Theological Foundation

We believe and affirm every person is created in the image of God. We further believe and affirm sexual misconduct within the ministerial relationship and in the Church is incompatible with biblical teachings and ethical standards. Sexual misconduct violates the sacred worth of persons who are created in the image of God. Such misconduct is particularly reprehensible in the context of the ministerial relationship that should represent the care of God. It should be understood that sexual misconduct is an abuse of power and authority. This misconduct alienates persons from the ministry of the Church. It tarnishes the Church's ministry and mission. Those guilty of sexual misconduct bring real harm to persons, congregations, and the Church as a whole.

Forgiveness is a sacred teaching of the Church, but this teaching in no way protects a person guilty of sexual misconduct from the discipline of the Church. Representing the Church as a church professional is a privilege requiring the highest professional conduct. Forgiveness by God or by a person harmed by sexual misconduct does not automatically restore the privilege of serving as a church professional. It is not appropriate for church authorities to pressure persons harmed by sexual misconduct to forgive the offender as a way to restore to the offender the privilege of serving as a professional in the Church. Central to the task of church authorities is to protect the vulnerable and to eradicate sexual misconduct from the Church.

Definitions

A. Church Professionals

1. Appointed Church Professionals

Appointed church professionals shall include full, associate, and provisional ministerial members of the Tennessee Annual Conference, as well as ordained deacons (full and provisional) and elders, diaconal ministers and local pastors, in both the effective and retired relationships, supply pastors, and other persons serving the Tennessee Annual Conference or any local church under appointment of the bishop or under the supervision of a district superintendent, including persons keeping their membership in another annual conference or in another denomination and persons holding orders issued by these conferences while on honorable or administrative location. Additionally, this includes lay and clergy persons employed directly by conference agencies including but not limited to the Conference Council on Connectional Ministries.

2. Other Church Professionals

Other church professionals shall include anyone in a position of power, authority, or leadership employed by or serving as a volunteer in a ministry in the Tennessee Annual Conference.

B. Book of Discipline

The 2016 Book of Discipline refers to The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church 2016, which sets forth the laws, plans, polity, and processes by which The United Methodist Church governs itself. It contains insight and information about the distinct United Methodist understanding of the nature and mission of the Church, and about what is expected of its clergy and members as they seek to be faithful and effective disciples of Christ.

C. Book of Resolutions

The Book of Resolutions 2016 refers to the volume containing the text of all resolutions or pronouncements on issues approved by the General Conference and currently valid. The Book of Resolutions contains not only the resolutions and policy statements passed by the most recent General Conference, but also all such statements still considered to represent the position of The United Methodist Church. The text of any resolution is considered the official position of the denomination on that subject.

D. Sexual Misconduct

Misconduct of a sexual nature is a chargeable offense, for both laity and clergy. Chargeable offenses include: child abuse, sexual abuse, sexual misconduct [including pornography], sexual harassment, gender discrimination, crime, and immorality.

Sexual misconduct is abuse of power and authority, and is not only an act against one person, but an act against fellow ministry professionals; members in the local congregation; the Church at large; and God. (Book of Resolutions 2016, ¶2044).

Sexual misconduct includes but is not limited to:

- child or adult sexual abuse
- sexual abuse of youth or those without capacity to consent
- rape or sexual assault
- gross sexual imposition like prolonged gazing, fondling, grabbing, or stalking
- sexual harassment
- unwelcome touching and advances
- inappropriate and unwelcome contacts of a sexual nature either in person or via phone, digital media, or cyberspace
- sexualized verbal comments, gestures, or visuals
- use of sexualized materials including pornography

- sexualized behavior
- solicitation of sexual activity or other sex-related behavior by promise of rewards
- coercion of sexual activity by threat of punishment
- or misuse of pastoral or ministerial position using sexualized conduct to take advantage of the vulnerability of another (The Book of Discipline 2012, ¶161, Book of Resolutions 2016, ¶2081, ¶2082)

Each alleged occurrence of sexual misconduct requires its own unique and appropriate investigation (as described below) and response, depending on the facts and circumstances.

Sexual harassment is a form of sexual misconduct and is defined in The 2016 Book of Discipline, Social Principles ¶161(J) as, “any unwanted sexual comment, advance, or demand, either verbal or physical, that is reasonably perceived by the recipient as demeaning, intimidating or coercive. Sexual harassment must be understood as an exploitation of a power relationship rather than an exclusively sexual issue. Sexual harassment includes, but is not limited to, the creation of a hostile or abusive working environment resulting from discrimination on the basis of gender.” To clarify further, it is unwanted sexual or gender-directed behavior within a pastoral, employment, ministerial (paid or unpaid), mentor, or colleague relationship that is so severe or pervasive that it alters the conditions of employment or volunteer work or unreasonably interferes with the complainant’s performance by creating a hostile environment that can include unwanted sexual jokes, repeated advances, touching, displays, or comments that insult, degrade, or sexually exploit women, men, elders, children, or youth. “It can create a hostile, offensive environment that can include unwanted inappropriate sexual jokes, repeated advances, touching, displays, or comments that insult, degrade, or sexually exploit women, men, elders, children, or youth” (Book of Resolutions 2016, ¶2045). Both sexual and gender harassment are exploitations of power and are discriminatory by law (GCFA Legal Manual, <http://www.gcfa.org/gcfa-legal-manual>).

Sexual abuse is a form of sexual misconduct and occurs when a church professional engages in sexual contact or sexualized behavior with a congregant, client, employee, student, staff member, coworker, or volunteer (Book of Resolutions 2016, ¶161(I)). It can include coerced or forced sexual contact (including those unable to give informed consent), sexual interaction or contact with children or youth, and sexual exhibitionism or display of sexual visuals or pornography.

Sexualized behavior is behavior that communicates sexual interest and/or content. Examples include, but are not limited to displaying sexually suggestive visual materials; use of pornography in church programs on or with church property, making sexual comments or innuendo about one’s own or another person’s body; touching another person’s body; touching another person’s body/hair/clothing; touching or rubbing oneself in the presence of another person; kissing; and sexual intercourse. Sexualized behavior can be a form of sexual misconduct when this behavior is unwanted by the recipient or witness, is a violation of society’s or the Church’s law, breaks the sacred trust in the ministerial role, or violates the vows taken at membership or ordination. The judicial council asserts that dating, romantic, or sexual relationships between clergy and their parishioners “are never appropriate because of imbalance of power” (Decision 1228, 2012). For the sake of maintaining healthy boundaries and preventing a betrayal of sacred trust, a clergyperson who has a genuine desire to date a parishioner must contact their district superintendent, and in consultation with the DS, determine a reasonable course of action for discontinuing the pastor/parishioner relationship before beginning a dating relationship.

Pornography is sexually explicit material that portrays violence, abuse, coercion, domination, humiliation, or degradation for the purpose of arousal. Any sexually explicit material that depicts children or adults is pornographic. “The United Methodist Church declares that the use of pornography in church programs, on church premises or with church property by persons in ministerial roles (lay and clergy) is a form of sexual misconduct, is a chargeable offense for laity and clergy in The United Methodist Church” (Book of Resolutions 2016, ¶2081, ¶2082).

E. Complainant

A complainant is a person who submits a written, signed, and dated statement alleging an incident of sexual or professional misconduct. A complainant may be a parent or responsible party for a minor or an adult incapable of self-reporting.

F. Respondent

A respondent is a church professional against whom a complaint has been made.

G. Complainant Advocate (Response Team Member)

A trained complainant advocate is a response team member who actively supports a complainant of church professional misconduct/sexual abuse through the denominational complaint process. The role of advocate is one of care-giving, not investigation. (The 2016 Book of Discipline ¶362, 363, and 2702.1)

H. Respondent Advocate (Response Team Member)

A trained respondent advocate is a response team member who actively supports a respondent who is accused of sexual misconduct/abuse through the denomination complaint process as discussed in The 2016 Book of Discipline in paragraphs ¶362, 363, and 2702.1. The role of advocate is one of care-giving, not investigation.

I. Conference Response Team Coordinator

The conference response team coordinator oversees the complaint process, serves as a resource for district superintendents, bishops, complainants, and respondents and maintains the integrity of the process including documentation of complaints for the office of the bishop. This may be the assistant to the bishop, an appointed conference response team member, or appropriate Tennessee Conference personnel. The role of conference response team coordinator is one of care-giving, not investigation.

Making a Report

Any concern a person has about sexual misconduct by a church professional should be promptly reported to any district superintendent or the bishop. The list of names of the current persons in these positions and their contact information may be found at www.tnmc.org or by calling the conference office at 615-329-1177. If for any reason such person finds it difficult to report his or her concerns to a district superintendent or the bishop, the person may contact a trained advocate or the conference response team coordinator, who is available to assist any complainant with the process in making a report to either a district superintendent or the bishop. A list of the members of the conference response team along with the conference response team coordinator's contact information can be found in each volume of the Journal of the Tennessee Annual Conference following each annual conference session or at www.tnmc.org/safe-spaces-ministry. (The 2016 Book of Discipline ¶363)

Mandatory Reporting

In no way should this policy be interpreted or applied in a manner that interferes with any licensed practitioner in fulfilling his/her mandatory reporting requirements.

All allegations of sexual misconduct with minors or vulnerable adults occurring in Tennessee will be reported to the appropriate governmental agencies, as required by mandatory reporting laws of Tennessee.

Policy Against Retaliation

No retaliation will be tolerated on account of a good faith report of sexual misconduct. Prohibited retaliation will be considered a separate and independent violation of this policy and appropriate action may be taken against that retaliator. Anyone who believes they have been retaliated against may also report such retaliation as detailed above in Making a Report. The person is encouraged to report retaliation immediately to a district superintendent or the bishop, or contact his or her trained advocate or the conference response team coordinator for assistance in reporting the concern to a district superintendent or the bishop.

Investigation

Upon receipt by a district superintendent or the bishop of a report, a prompt and thorough investigation into the allegations of sexual misconduct against any church professional will be conducted and appropriate corrective action, if called for based upon all of the facts, shall be taken and concluded within a reasonable period of time. The scope and details of each investigation will depend on the nature of the report and the related circumstances. In circumstances involving church professionals, by doctrinal law, the procedure may be governed by The 2016 Book of Discipline in ¶362 and ¶2701-2719. In each instance, the investigation will be handled with as much discretion as the circumstances permit to protect the privacy of the individuals involved. All persons having reported suspected sexual misconduct should refrain from contacting the person suspected of such conduct. Likewise, the persons suspected of such conduct shall refrain from contacting the complainant or alleged victim, unless otherwise directed by the bishop or district superintendent. All persons serving as witnesses in the investigation should refrain from contacting the complainant or the respondent, unless directed by a district superintendent or bishop to do so, in order to preserve the integrity and confidentiality of the investigation and confidentiality.

All persons having received a report of sexual misconduct, including anyone specifically engaged to serve as an advocate or investigate such reports, shall keep all reports confidential, except as required by The 2016 Book of Discipline, where applicable, or necessary to investigate and resolve such matters, and/or to respond to any related legal or administrative proceedings.

During the course of an investigation, a trained complainant advocate may be assigned to provide ongoing support to a complainant or alleged victim. Likewise, a trained respondent advocate may be assigned to provide ongoing support to the respondent. Both advocates are bound by the confidentiality provisions of this policy.

All allegations of sexual misconduct with minors or vulnerable adults occurring in Tennessee will be reported to the appropriate governmental agencies, as required by mandatory reporting laws of Tennessee.

Training

Appointed church professionals (see definition) serving in the Tennessee Annual Conference are required to attend official Tennessee Annual Conference trainings on 1) Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics and 2) Safe Sanctuaries each quadrennium. All transfers and candidates for ministry are required to complete these trainings prior to commissioning or appointment, whichever comes first. Compliance with these training requirements and a completed criminal background check are conditions of employment or ministerial appointment. A church professional failing to comply with these conditions of appointment may be cited an administrative charge by the bishop in accordance with The 2016 Book of Discipline ¶362.

It is strongly suggested that other church professionals (see definition) attend official Tennessee Annual Conference trainings on 1) Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics and 2) Safe Sanctuaries each quadrennium.

Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics Team

The 2010 report of the Sexual Ethics Task Force recommended to the annual conference that a Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics Team be formed to guide the portion of the Safe Spaces Ministry tasked with reviewing policies and implementing training opportunities in the best practices to create and maintain healthy boundaries for ministry. The Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics Team is a sub-team of the Safes Spaces Ministry Committee. This committee is made of the three teams: 1) Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics team; 2) Safe Sanctuary Team; 3) Conference Response Team. The Safe Spaces Ministry serves to insure that policies and procedures necessary for keeping ministry safe in order for sacred space to be created are developed, reviewed, appropriately presented and training provided for members of the Tennessee Annual Conference. The work of the committee is funded through apportionment giving as allocated through the Connectional Ministries budget on an annual basis. The Connectional Ministries, the Nashville Episcopal Area Office of Ministerial Concerns and the Tennessee Conference Board of Ordained Ministry work collaboratively to guide this vital ministry.

Availability of Policy

This policy shall be presented annually in the Journal of the Tennessee Annual Conference. Further, it shall be posted at www.tnumc.org continuously. It should be made available in at least one common area of every church in the Tennessee Annual Conference. It is strongly recommended that the Sexual Misconduct is Never Okay flyer be prominently displayed in one common area of every church in the Tennessee Annual Conference. This flyer is available for download at www.tnumc.org/safe-spaces-ministry. Questions about the policy should be directed to the staff liaison to the Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics Team through the Tennessee Annual Conference. This liaison will be identified on the conference website where the policy is located.

For small group activities where one adult supervises one group, two or more groups are to meet in sight and sound of each other. These two adults should be non-related and non-cohabitating. The ministry leader may also decide to combine groups to ensure the safety of all parties. Small group sizes will be determined by the size of the group, but should not exceed reasonable adult child/youth ratios.
- 2. Four & Five Year Older Rule: These persons are at least four years older than the oldest high school youth member of the church group. These persons are at least five years older than the oldest child of the church group. It is expected that all event staff/volunteers in supervisory roles have a completed a background check, interview with the director of Next Gen Discipleship, and Safe Sanctuary training.
- 3. Adult/Child & Adult/Youth Ratio: Some events may require smaller ratios. If so stricter requirements will be communicated to all adults and churches prior to the event through registration confirmation packets as well as through emails and the conference youth website.

5. Background Checks: All adults at Next Gen Conference events will be expected to have a background check, training on the local church's Safe Sanctuary Policy and Procedures*, as well as a review of these procedures. Each church will sign a verification form listing each adult attending the event signed by the ministry leader and pastor. (*If your church does not have policy or background checks are needed contact the Conference Director of Human Resources at 615-329-1177 for help.)
6. Medical Release/Registration Form: All children/youth and adults attending Next Gen Ministry Conference events shall have a completed medical release form and completed parental permission form. The medical release form will be valid from August-July of a given year. It is expected that a new form will be submitted if a change in medical status occurs.
7. Ministry Leaders Responsibility: It is expected that the ministry leader from the local church maintain a copy of each attendee's form at all times. These forms should be carried with the group traveling to and from events.
8. Check-In Procedure: The Local Church Ministry Team should develop a consistent check-in procedure during the event to meet with the church group. These should be spread throughout the event and event day.
9. Lodging for Overnight Events: An adult will not share a room/hotel/tent with a child/youth unless the adult is a parent of that child/youth with whom they are sharing the room/hotel/tent.
10. Lodging for Overnight Events: There will be separate sleeping areas/rooms for males and females at all Next Gen sponsored events. When there are several rooms/cabins of youth, there will be at least two non-related adults of the same gender in the room/cabin.

12. Two Adults at Mission Sites: There will be two adults at each work site at all times on mission project sites. (Procedure 7 applies.) These two adults should be non-related and non-cohabitating.
13. Mission Site Responsibility: No Next Gen participant will be alone with an adult from a host mission family during a mission event. AUDIT STATEMENT & STATISTICS

2019 AUDITED FINANANCIAL STATEMENT

GENERAL STATISTICAL TABLES

EXTENSION MINISTRY COMPENSATION

A. 2019 AUDITED FINANCIAL STATEMENT

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Council on Finance and Administration of the Tennessee Conference,
United Methodist Church, Inc.

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of the Tennessee Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc. and its subsidiaries (the Conference), which comprise the consolidated statements of financial position as of December 31, 2019 and 2018, the related consolidated statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements (collectively, the financial statements).

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Tennessee Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc. and its subsidiaries as of December 31, 2019 and 2018, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Emphasis of Matter (Restatement of 2018)

As discussed in Note 12 to the financial statements, the 2018 financial statements have been restated to correct an error. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

Other Matter

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements as a whole. The accompanying supplementary information is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements. The 2019 information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The 2019 information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audits of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the 2019 information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements as a whole. The 2018 information has not been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements, and accordingly, we do not express an opinion or provide any assurance on it.

NOTE 1: Nature of Organization and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of Organization

The Tennessee Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc. (the Conference) is a regional body of The United Methodist Church comprised of the lay members, clergy, and 600+ churches in 42 counties in middle Tennessee. The Conference is primarily responsible for all the ministries that are jointly provided by and for the United Methodists in its geographic area. The Conference administers Conference operating and program funds that are received from churches, boards and agencies, and individuals of the Conference, in accordance with the budget and other directives of the Annual Conference, the respective boards and agencies and donors.

Principles of Consolidation

The accompanying financial statements include the accounts under the accounting of the Conference Treasurer and the Caney Fork River District, Cumberland River District, Harpeth River District, Red River District, and Stones River District (the Districts) which are collectively, the Conference, after elimination of all material intercompany accounts and transactions.

Effective July 1, 2017, the Districts were incorporated into the Conference. Accumulated unrestricted reserves held previously by the districts prior to July 1, 2017 were renamed the Tennessee Cabinet Reserve Fund. These funds are assets of the Conference, controlled and previously reported by the Nashville Area Episcopal Office. During 2019, Council on Finance and Administration developed policies for control and administration of these funds that are pending approval by Annual Conference. The Tennessee Cabinet Reserve Fund change resulted in the 2018 balances being restated. See Note 12.

Basis of Accounting

The financial statements have been prepared using the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (US GAAP).

Financial Statement Presentation

The Conference follows the recommendations contained in the Presentation of Financial Statements, Not-For-Profit Entities topic of the Financial Accounting Standard Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification. Under those provisions, net assets and revenues, gains, and losses are classified based on the absence or existence and nature of donor-imposed restrictions as follows:

Net Assets Without Donor Restrictions – Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed stipulations.

Net Assets With Donor Restrictions – Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that can be fulfilled by actions of the Conference pursuant to those stipulations or that expire by the passage of time. Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that may be maintained permanently by the Conference. Generally, the donors of such assets permit the Conference to use all or part of the income earned on the assets. Donor restricted contributions are reported as increases in net assets with donor restrictions. When a restriction expires, net assets are reclassified from net assets with donor restrictions to net assets without donor restrictions in the consolidated statements of activities.

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with US GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTE 1: Nature of Organization and Significant Accounting Policies – Continued

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Conference defines its cash, designated cash and cash equivalents to include cash on hand, demand deposits, and commercial paper and other investments with initial maturities of three months or less.

Investments

Investments in marketable securities with readily determinable fair values and all investments in debt securities are reported at their fair values in the statements of financial position. The Conference holds investments which are reported at Net Asset Value (NAV) per share or its equivalent as a practical expedient, to determine the fair value of investments in funds which (a) do not have a readily determinable fair value and (b) either have the attributes of an investment fund or prepare their financial statements consistent with the measurement principles of an investment fund.

Unrealized gains and losses are included in changes in net assets. Investment income and gains restricted by a donor are reported as increases in net assets without donor restrictions if the restrictions are met in the reporting period in which the income and gains are recognized. However, if a donor contributes an investment required to be held in perpetuity, gains and losses on the investment are subject to the same permanent restriction unless the donor explicitly states otherwise.

Fair Value Measurements

The fair value of financial assets and liabilities is measured according to the Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures topic of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification. Fair value is required to be evaluated and adjusted according to the following valuation techniques.

Level 1 – Fair value is determined using quoted market prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities.

Level 2 – Fair value is determined using quoted market prices in active markets for similar assets and liabilities.

Level 3 – Fair value is determined using unobservable market prices in a market that is typically inactive.

Income Taxes

The Conference is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Receivables

Apportionments receivable represent apportionments received after year-end for the budget year ended December 31, 2019 and 2018. No allowance for doubtful collections has been recorded.

Accounts receivable represent contributions and other revenue received after year-end for the budget year ended December 31, 2019 and 2018. No allowance for doubtful collections has been recorded.

NOTE 1: Nature of Organization and Significant Accounting Policies – Continued

Fixed Assets

Fixed assets are carried at cost if purchased and estimated fair market value if donated. Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, excluding land, which are 5 to 30 years. Depreciation expense for the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018 was $373,414 and $239,364, respectively.

Donated closed churches actively marketed for sale are not depreciated but accounted for according to the Property, Plant, and Equipment topic of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification. The Conference owns land and buildings that are currently being held for sale. These assets are closed churches. As required by ¶12549 of The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church, when a church closes the Conference may retain, sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of the property in accordance with the direction of the annual conference.

Donated Services

Contributed services are reflected in the financial statements at the estimated fair value of the services received only when those services either (a) create or enhance nonfinancial assets, or (b) require specialized skills that are provided by individuals possessing those skills and would typically need to be purchased if not provided by donation. Unpaid volunteers make contributions of time in various administrative and program functions. The Conference has not valued these donations.

Revenue and Support

Contributions are received and recorded as with or without donor restrictions depending on the existence and/or nature of any donor restrictions. Contributions received and unconditional promises to give are measured at their fair values and are reported as an increase in net assets without donor restrictions. When a donor restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished, net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the statements of activities as net assets released from restrictions. Donor-restricted contributions whose restrictions are met in the same reporting period are reported as unrestricted support.

The primary source of support are apportionments received from the local churches in the Conference. Apportionments expire at the end of each calendar year and, therefore, have been recorded as unrestricted support. Contributions and other revenue are primarily receipts by programs that have external sources of revenue such as registration fees, reimbursements, or receipts of the Districts.

Advertising Costs

Advertising costs are expensed as incurred and are included in program expense.

Functional Expenses

The costs of providing program and other activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the statements of activities. Some costs have been charged using specific identification. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among program services and supporting services. Such allocations are determined by management on an equitable basis. The expenses that are allocated include the following:

Expenses	Method of Allocation
Campus Ministries	Time and Effort
Depreciation	Square Footage
Salaries and Benefits	Time and Effort
Telephone and Internet	Square Footage
Utilities	Square Footage

NOTE 8: Retirement Plans

The Conference provides pension benefits for clergy serving churches in the Tennessee Conference under Episcopal appointment, and full-time permanent staff of the Conference through various retirement plans. All plans are multi-employer plans administered by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits of The United Methodist Church (Wespath). Wespath operates under the authority of the church's General Conference and implements the plans in accordance with the plan documents. Pension benefits for clergy are a combination of defined benefit and defined contribution plans. Pension benefits for Conference lay staff are all defined contribution plans. Total Conference contributions to all plans for the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018 were $3,184,097 and $3,160,965, respectively. The various retirement plans are listed below.

Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP)

CRSP is a multi-employer 403(b) retirement plan that provides pension coverage to eligible clergy. CRSP is both a defined benefit plan, which provides benefits based on years of credited service, and a defined contribution plan, which provides a retirement account balance established and funded by the Conference.

Effective January 1, 2014, contributions to the defined benefit plan are actuarially determined and contributions to the defined contribution plan equal 2% of the clergy's compensation, plus a matching contribution of up to 1% of the clergy's compensation, for a maximum of 3%.

Supplement One to CRSP (Pre-1982)

Pre-1982 is a multi-employer 403(b) defined benefit plan for Conference clergy entering service prior to January 1, 1982. General Conference 2000 required each annual conference to adopt a formal funding plan to retire the conference pre-1982 pension obligations. The Conference's Pre-1982 plan has been fully funded since the mid-1990s. The Conference approves a minimum distribution (past service rate) each year for participants in the Pre-1982 plan, based on a recommendation by the Conference Board of Pensions. The PSR for the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018 was $714 and $703 for pre-1982 service years, which is 1.04% and 1.05% of the Conference average compensation, respectively.

United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP)

The UMPIP is a multi-employer 403(b) defined contribution plan providing eligible clergy and employees of the Conference with retirement savings. Conference employees and clergy may contribute up to the dollar limits set by current Internal Revenue Service regulations under both pre-tax and after-tax elections. The Conference makes no contributions to this plan for full-time clergy, who participate in CRSP. Effective January 1, 2014, the Conference contributes 12% of part-time clergy's compensation into UMPIP. The Conference matches non-clergy contributions of 3% or more of compensation with a fixed 12% matching contribution. No matching contribution is provided for employee contributions less than 3% of compensation.

Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP)

CPP is a multi-employer health and welfare plan that provides death and disability benefits as well as other supplemental benefits to eligible clergy and their beneficiaries. CPP is funded by the Conference at a rate of 3% of compensation.

Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP)

MPP covers clergy who served from 1982 through 2006. It is a multi-employer defined contribution plan, but differs from a true defined contribution plan in that upon retirement, participants must annuitize 65% of their account balances, and the Conference is responsible for funding the annuities should the need arise. Upon annuitization, the monthly benefit becomes a defined benefit.

Some amounts designated for pension benefits have been transferred to the legal title of Wespath multi-employer plans and are not reported in these financial statements as net assets of the Conference. The December 31 value of these Wespath accounts was as follows:

NOTE 9: Health Care Plan

The Conference sponsors the Tennessee Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc. Health Benefit Plan (HBP). The HBP is open to all eligible plan participants including clergy, full-time Conference staff, designated students who are part-time local pastors and their respective eligible dependents. The Conference director of administrative services is the plan administrator. The plan administrator uses a third-party administrator for processing claims and other duties but retains responsibility for benefits payable. The HBP is a self-funded plan paying covered benefits out of Conference assets. Plan participants help cover some costs of covered benefits through contributions, deductibles and out-of-pocket expenses.

Conference payments to the HBP for the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018 were $3,494,436 and $3,905,074, respectively.

Participation in the HBP can continue upon retirement under the Conference's formal retirement plan provided the participant makes required contributions to the plan. This coverage can continue until age 65 with stipulations. The Conference uses the fiscal year as the measurement date for its plan.

The Conference has not pre-funded its postretirement healthcare plan but operates instead on a pay-as-you-go basis. Unfunded Postretirement Healthcare Benefits have been recognized representing the underfunded status of the Conference HBP as of December 31 as follows:

All Pension Reserves were conveyed or redirected into the Trust effective July 1, 2017. The Treasurer is authorized to make routine transactions into and out of the Trust as provided in the approved budget; but otherwise, the Trust assets are designed for uses approved by its elected trustees, who are all members of the Conference Board of Pensions.

TENNESSEE CONFERENCE,
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2019 AND 2018

NOTE 13: Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements

In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842). This new accounting guidance will increase transparency and comparability among organizations by recognizing lease assets and lease liabilities on the balance sheet and disclosing key information about leasing arrangements. This standard is effective for nonpublic entities for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2020.

In June 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-13, Financial Instruments – Credit Losses (Topic 326). This standard requires organizations to measure all expected credit losses for financial assets held at the reporting date based on historical experience, current conditions, and reasonable and supportable forecasts. ASU 2016-13 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2022. Early application is permitted. Entities are required to apply the amendments at the beginning of the earliest period presented using a modified retrospective approach. The Conference does not expect the provisions of this new accounting guidance to have a material impact on its financial position, results of operations, and cash flows.

NOTE 14: Subsequent Events

The Conference has evaluated events and transactions for subsequent events that would impact the financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2019 through April 24, 2020, the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

On January 30, 2020, the World Health Organization declared the COVID-19 outbreak a “Public Health Emergency of International Concern” and on March 10, 2020, declared it to be a pandemic. Actions taken around the world to help mitigate the spread of COVID-19 include restrictions on travel, and quarantines in certain areas, and forced closures to certain types of public places and businesses. COVID-19 and actions taken to mitigate it have had and are expected to continue to have an adverse impact on the economies and financial markets of many countries, including the geographical area in which the Conference operates. It is unknown how long these conditions will last and the ultimate impact of the pandemic on the Conference’s operations and financial position cannot be reasonably estimated at this time.

On March 27, 2020, the Coronavirus Air, Relief, and Economic Security Act (the CARES Act) was signed into law. One of the features of the CARES Act is the Payroll Protection Program (PPP). On April 21, 2020, the Organization received the loan in the amount of $938,500. This loan will be forgiven if the Organization does the following;

1. Spends the funds on eligible expenses such as payroll, interest on already incurred debt, rent, and utilities during the eight-week period after the funding of the loan, and
2. Spends less than 25% of the funds on non-payroll type eligible expenses.

The amount of the loan not forgiven will be converted to a two-year loan at 1% interest.
