Chapter 2
Daily Proceedings
Tennessee–Western Kentucky
Annual Conference
JUNE 15-17, 2022
BRENTWOOD UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

SESSION ONE: JUNE 15

Call to Order & Welcome

Bishop McAlilly called the session to order at 3:05. Rev. Davis Chappell offered a welcome on behalf of Brentwood UMC.

Opening Motions

Secretary Rev. Monica Mowdy introduced organizing motions as below. Mowdy noted that Rev. Erin Beasley, who was to be an assistant secretary, fell ill, and Rev. Stacey Harwell-Dye will serve in her place.

The TWK 2022 Annual Conference is comprised of 1147 clergy delegates and 1147 laity members. About 600 of these members are participating online via the livestream and online recognition queue. The same queue is being used by in-person delegates as well.

Mowdy's opening motions, as seconded:

> I move that those who are authorized to participate in the first annual conference session of The Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference of The United Methodist Church [2016 BOD ss. 601, 602, 603, 604, 605, 606] on June 15, 2022, agree that they consent to proceed in a hybrid form of the annual conference session allowing for both physical and remote presence using technology, at the discretion of each participant and that they further consent that all decisions made in this session have the same effect and authority as decisions made by an in-person session of the annual conference conducted on the Constitution of The United Methodist Church [Division Two, Section VI, Article I (para. 32); Article II (para. 33); Article III (para. 34); Article IV (para. 35); Article V (para. 36)], under the laws of the Church, and under the Rules of Order of The Tennessee-Western KentuckyConference of The United Methodist Church; and finally, that they consent that all such decisions made in this session are and will be legal and binding actions of the 2022 Tennessee-Western Kentucky Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church.
> I move that all actions of the organizing conference held December 4, 2021, be ratified and affirmed by this body.
> I move to elect the following officers:
> Recording Secretaries: Rev. Nancy Speas and Rev. Stacey Harwell-Dye; Head Teller: Rev. Stephen Sauls; Floor Manager: Rev. Brian Marcoulier.
> Business of the Annual Conference Session:

The bar will be the sanctuary of Brentwood UMC including the designated overflow area in Haney Hall of Brentwood UMC for those who log into the webinar provided by GNTV.

Issuance of voting identification codes to eligible voters serve as voting identification.

The meeting shall be conducted in a manner such that all participants are afforded reasonable opportunity to simultaneously hear discussion. All voting members will have the right to communicate through the proper electronic devices. Those recognized to speak will be heard by all participants. All those who are eligible to vote will be able to vote on all matters submitted during the meeting.To maintain an open meeting, the annual conference meeting will be live-streamed and recorded for playback.

Discussion shall be limited to three 3-minute speeches for the motion, legislation, or report and three 3-minute speeches against. This excludes persons inquiring about points of order or asking questions of clarification.

Personnel who are providing support may be present during the meeting: Conference Chancellor Lisa Carson; Associate Conference Chancellor Zack McMillan; Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference Office staff; GNTV staff; Episcopal Office staff; those selected to make reports; journal editor; Brentwood UMC staff; guests; and emergency personnel.

All members of the annual conference are responsible for ensuring that all necessary technology on the voter's side of the meeting is in proper and working order prior to the meeting.

All votes taken shall be conducted in accordance with The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church and 2022 Standing Rules. Poll logs will be maintained for all votes.

Rev. Stephen Sauls shared best practices for voting and being recognized for voting, including connecting to the internet and encouraging those who are not fluent in technology to find a buddy who is.The body participated in a practice vote at the direction of Good News TV staff.

The body passed the opening motions 870-6.

Consent Agenda

Mowdy presented the consent agenda (see question 10f. in Chapter 3, The Business of the Annual Conference, and Chapter 5, Reports and Resolutions). The body passed the consent agenda 848-26.

Bishop McAlilly shared a prayer of thanksgiving for the ministry of the churches closed via the consent agenda. Approval of the consent agenda also effected the disaffiliation of congregations under Discipline ¶2553.

Mark Hagewood (lay, Bellevue UMC, Cumberland River) spontaneously volunteered to provide piano music during voting pauses.

Connectional Table Report

Rev. Melinda Britt introduced the Connectional Table Report, which was presented by various members of the Table. See Exhibit A at the end of this chapter.

Board of Ordained Ministry Report

Rev. Mary Beth Bernheisel presented the Board of Ordained Ministry report. See Exhibit B at the end of this chapter.

Bishop McAlilly recognized those being licensed, commissioned, ordained, and transferred into the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Annual Conference.

Retirement Video #1

Standing Rules

Dr. Tim Atkin Presented the Standing Rules (included in Chapter 9). One change to the Standing Rules was proposed and approved by a vote of 641-65. The body approved the proposed change to the Standing Rule 2.12, which now reads:

> Whenever it shall occur that the person serving as the director of Administrative Services or Connectional Ministry Officer is a lay person, then each person so serving shall be an at-large lay member of the annual conference. The conference secretary shall determine annually the number of laypersons needed to equalize lay and clergy members of the annual conference. A maximum of 20% of the at large delegates should be reserved for those serving in conference leadership roles as determined by the Conference Connectional Table. The remaining at-large members are to be allocated as nearly as possible on a pro-rata basis as determined by the church membership (reported in the previous year's statistical report) to the districts. The at-large members are to be selected by each district leadership team and shall include diverse representation of leadership.

The previous version of the rule distributed at-large delegates on an equal basis among districts, regardless of the district's size (as measured by church membership).

Point of Personal Privilege

Bishop McAlilly recognized Tom Binford for a point of personal privilege regarding the closure of Walker's UMC. The church has been in existence for 225 years; it, along with McKendree UMC are the oldest churches in the conference.

Sharing Our Stories: Disaster Response

Robert Craig (Conference Disaster Response Coordinator), Liz Soard, and Heather Marriot shared stories of disaster survivors. Members of two supported families shared their personal stories. After reflecting on their stories, Craig stated that he is a United Methodist due to the strength and power of the connection as evidence by the disaster response ministry. The full (and quite moving) text of their presentation is in Exhibit C at the end of this chapter.

Bishop Bickerton, the president of the UMCOR Board of Directors, reminded the body that disaster relief ministry only happens because of the connection. The donations flow from everywhere to everywhere. UMCOR is responding to wildfire damages, will be there for the first hurricane, refugee issues related to the Ukrainian war, clinics for malaria.God is working through people like us to change the lives of people all across the globe for good. On behalf of UMCOR, he thanked the conference for their donations.

Point of Personal Privilege

Bishop McAlilly recognized Dell King for a point of personal privilege. Ms. King presented Bishop McAlilly with a cross made of wood on behalf of the laity of the two legacy conferences.

Mowdy shared announcements.

Emma Collard closed the session with prayer.

Bishop McAlilly adjourned the session at 5:13.

SESSION TWO: JUNE 16

The Rev. Dr. Cynthia Wilson opened the session with music and prayer.

Sharing our Stories (Recovery)

Kimberly Brann shared her story of recovery from drug addiction and into life as a ministry leader at First UMC in Fulton, Kentucky. The full text of her amazing story is available in Exhibit D at the end of this chapter.

Council on Finance and Administration Report

John Pearce presented the CFA report. See Exhibit E for full report. Pearce moved the following, which were properly seconded:

CFA Action Items for 2023

1. TWK CFA moves for the approval of the recommended 2023 Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference Budget as posted on the website and reviewed today.
2. CFA moves that the TWK Cabinet be authorized by the annual conference to use the Cabinet Reserve Fund in accordance with its written process, in its sole discretion, in an amount up to $250,000 for calendar year 2023. Any amount above $250,000 within the calendar year shall require consultation with, and agreement of, CFA.
3. CFA moves that the approved travel expense for staff and members of councils, boards, committees and other entities of the conference be reimbursed at the mileage amount allowed by the Internal Revenue Service for business travel. All other business-related expenses may be reimbursed in accordance with the CFA approved Accountable Reimbursement Policy.
4. CFA moves that the housing allowance designated for clergy pursuant to Internal Revenue Code section 107 be approved for 2022-2023 as printed in the Conference Journal.
5. CFA moves that the compensation for the District Superintendents for 2023 be set at $132,544 inclusive of the housing allowance.

Action Item #1 was approved by the body 881-16 with no discussion. Motion to approve 2023 budget passes. Action Items #2-5 were considered together, as they are re-approved every year with little change. The four motions passed without discussion, 884-26.

Treasurer's Report: Boy Scouts USA Bankruptcy Update

Conference Treasurer Larry Davis presented an update on the ongoing bankruptcy settlement of Boy Scouts of America and the implications for the UMC and the TWK conference, as summarized below.

The judge in the case has not made a ruling yet on the proposed settlement. Once the judge rules, a higher court will review the settlement. The final ruling may not be finalized until fall. The proposal affecting UM entities contemplates a $30 mil settlement for sexual abuse cases that occurred within our scouting charter organizations. Each annual conference is allocated an amount based on the number of cases in its conference. Our conference was assessed $548,276 for the number of cases between the two conferences. We have approved the use of reserves to pay our portion of the settlement so that we do not have to ask our local individual churches to contribute. All individual churches will be released from any liability if the settlement is approved and if the terms are met.

There was an additional part of the settlement (beyond the financial implications) you may not have read about it, including reviewing and updating our Safe Sanctuary policy and communicating how our church must continue to be diligent in working to end child sexual abuse in our churches, our homes, and our communities.

The new affiliation agreement for church use is available. Informational meetings are planned for tonight to review next steps. If you have any questions, you can contact Larry or your local scouting group.

A time of quiet prayer for the victims of this settlement followed Davis's presentation.

Resolutions Committee

Melba Mitchells presented the report from the Resolutions Committee. (See Exhibit F). Three resolutions were deemed by the committee to be timely submitted and pass the tests of constitutionality and concurrence and are thus brought to the floor of annual conference for consideration. These three resolutions are "Rental/Housing Allowances for Retired, Disabled or Former Clergypersons of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference," "Special Sundays Observance Resolution," and "A Resolution to Direct the Trustees of the TWK on the Disbursement of Proceeds from the Sale of Closed or Abandoned Church Property." Full text of the approved resolutions is available in Chapter 5: Reports and Resolutions. [Editor's note: for historical purposes, both the original and substitute motion for A Resolution to Direct the Trustees of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference (TWK) On the Disbursement of the Proceeds From the Sale of Closed or Abandoned Church Property are included at the end of this chapter as Exhibit G.]

The first resolution, "Rental/Housing Allowances for Retired, Disabled or Former Clergypersons of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference," was presented for consideration and discussion. The resolution passed 859-34 with no discussion.

The second resolution, "Special Sundays Observance Resolution," was presented for consideration and discussion. The resolution passed 804–67 with no discussion.

The third resolution, "A Resolution to Direct the Trustees of the TWK on the Disbursement of Proceeds from the Sale of Closed or Abandoned Church Property," was presented for consideration and discussion. Discussion proceeded as follows:

- Speech for: Rob Martin
  - New Church Development funding is low. (It was formerly funded through reserves that are now dwindling.) This resolution would disperse funds made through the sale of now-closed churches.
  - The intent is to celebrate resurrection. Resources from the sale of properties can be used to develop new churches and establish new faith communities and to develop new kinds of ministries that might not be necessarily a building.
  - The Discipline states that resources from closed churches are to go back into the community where the population is 50,000 or more.
  - The cabinet reserve funds would also receive a portion.
  - Because we have a responsibility to care for the archives and property of these churches, the intent is to support Archives and History with a small amount as well.
- Motion to Amend: Mozell Stark
  - Proposed amendment changes the resolution to read (changes in bold):
    4) If items one and two have been met, and if ¶2549.7 is not applicable, then NCD shall receive 50% of the remaining balance to support new church starts, missional faith community development or grants for emerging ministry as directed and approved by NCD; the Cabinet Reserve Fund shall receive 25%

to support major building repairs of churches with 50 or less giving units as directed and approved by the Cabinet; the Cabinet Reserve Fund shall receive 22% percent of the remaining balance to support ministry needs in the districts as approved by the Cabinet; and finally, the TWK Committee on Archives and History shall receive 3% of the remaining balance to support its ministry purpose in the conference.

- Motion to amend is seconded; Starks speaks for the amendment.
  - Supporting building repairs in small membership churches given these churches the "push" to get out of maintenance mode so they can continue to do and sustain effective ministry.
- As the maker of the original motion, the floor returned to Martin to respond to the proposed amendment. Martin speaks against the amendment:
  - The amendment involves the Cabinet Reserve fund in "brick and mortar" funding, which is not the intent or the current use of the fund. The Cabinet Reserve Fund is used to support local churches when they must pay for supply pastors or to fund necessary insurance or pension expenses. Requests for funds to repair the physical plant of churches go through the conference trustees.
- The bishop begins to call for the vote, but then recognizes Rev. Autura Eason-Williams, who moves to amend the amendment.

- Motion to Amend the Amendment: Autura-Eason Williams
- Proposed amendment to the amendment replaces the first instance of "Cabinet Reserve Fund" with "conference trustees":
  4) If items one and two have been met, and if ¶2549.7 is not applicable, then NCD shall receive 50% of the remaining balance to support new church starts, missional faith community development or grants for emerging ministry as directed and approved by NCD; the conference trustees shall receive 25% to support major building repairs of churches with 50 or less giving units as directed and approved by the Cabinet; the Cabinet Reserve Fund shall receive 22% percent of the remaining balance to support ministry needs in the districts as approved by the Cabinet; and finally, the TWK Committee on Archives and History shall receive 3% of the remaining balance to support its ministry purpose in the conference.
- Motion to amend the amendment is seconded; the bishop introduces the vote, then recognizes Stephen Sauls for a speech against the current motion (the amendment to the amendment):
  - Encore ministries has funds for this problem. I am against setting aside 25% of the funds from the closing instead of continuing to fund buildings.
- Bishop McAlilly called for a point of information from conference treasurer, Larry Davis, to help clarify:
  - Both legacies have closed church funds currently with the conference trustees, about $5 million in total. The Trustees have plenty of money for these kinds of projects. The legacy TN conference had a program to give grants to local churches for capital projects. The TWK Board of Trustees is currently studying how to reinstitute that in the new conference. Most of these grants have gone to small churches. From time to time, the UM Foundation also has funds.
- Larry Chitwood is recognized for a speech for the amendment to the amendment:
  - When funds are low, small membership churches must defer building maintenance that later makes it hard to continue their ministries.
- Bishop clarifies and redirects the body to the amendment to the amendment, which is on the table, not the original amendment. Bishop introduces the vote; motion to amend the amendment passes 560-334.
- At this point, the body participates in The Wave.

- Amendment (as Amended) to the Original Motion
  - Amendment now reads:
    4) If items one and two have been met, and if ¶2549.7 is not applicable, then NCD shall receive 50% of the remaining balance to support new church starts, missional faith community development or grants for emerging ministry as directed and approved by NCD; the conference trustees shall receive 25% to support major building repairs of churches with 50 or less giving units as directed and approved by the Cabinet; the Cabinet Reserve Fund shall receive 22% percent of the remaining balance to support ministry needs in the districts as approved by the Cabinet; and finally, the TWK Committee on Archives and History shall receive 3% of the remaining balance to support its ministry purpose in the conference.

    - Vote is called; Starks' amendment (as amended by Eason-Williams' motion) to the original motion passes 534-362.

- Original Motion, As Amended
    - Resolution (as amended) now reads:
      . . . 4) If items one and two have been met, and if ¶2549.7 is not applicable, then NCD shall receive 50% of the remaining balance to support new church starts, missional faith community development or grants for emerging ministry as directed and approved by NCD; the conference trustees shall receive 25% to support major building repairs of churches with 50 or less giving units as directed and approved by the Cabinet; the Cabinet Reserve Fund shall receive 22% percent of the remaining balance to support ministry needs in the districts as approved by the Cabinet; and finally, the TWK Committee on Archives and History shall receive 3% of the remaining balance to support its ministry purpose in the conference.
- Motion to Table
    - Bishop McAlilly recognizes Scott Marshall-Kimball with a motion to table.
        - Marshall-Kimball moves to table the vote until tomorrow's business session to allow further consideration of the financial impact of the resolution as amended.
    - Vote called on motion to table; motion to table passes 654-209. The resolution as amended is tabled.

Point of Personal Privilege

During a pause in discussion as GNTV prepared the ballot, the bishop recognized Birgette French for a point of personal privilege in which she suggested we remember and lift in prayer the United Methodist Church in Ukraine. The body responded "Amen!"

Regathering

Point of Personal Privilege

Bishop McAlilly recognized David Beers for a point of personal privilege. David shared his story as a survivor of sexual abuse by a Boy Scout leader and called upon the body to remember that this is not a financial issue; it's a source of deep trauma for the survivors of the scout leaders' sexual abuse. As such, we must be vigilant in the care of children in the church. The body affirmed his statement with applause.

Resolutions from the Floor

Two additional resolutions were brought to the body for consideration.

"Gun Violence Resolution"

- Bishop recognizes Mark Hagewood, who, with Elizabeth Shadbolt, moved to suspend the standing rules to consider a resolution on Gun Control that was not submitted through the Resolutions Committee. Motion to suspend the rules passed 542-179.
- Mark Hagewood moves to accept the resolution as below. Motion seconded by Laura McMasters.

- Hagewood speaks for the resolution, referencing Bishop Bickerton's presentation to the body. The resolution is co-signed by over 100 clergy and lay representatives throughout the TWKAC:

  Yesterday morning, Sharon Cox reminded us of the story of Esther and that, like Esther, we are here for such a time as this. Yesterday afternoon, during the bishop's sermon during opening worship, he pointed to a world in need of healing, and reminded us how God is heartbroken over shootings like those in Brooklyn and Uvalde. Yesterday afternoon, also during the bishop's sermon, he used a liturgy of "down by the riverside," and I would remind us all that that song states that I'm "gonna lay down my sword and shield" and "ain't gonna study war no more."

  I am a father to two children: Lucas, who is 10, and Ben, who is 5. I am so thankful that they attend a church each Sunday full of people who show them they are loved. But I am angry that they also live in a state and a country that shows them that guns are loved more.

  In our baptismal vows, we promise to "resist evil, injustice, and oppression in whatever forms they present themselves." I am hard pressed to think of a more atrocious evil than the mass slaughter of innocent children; I am hard pressed to think of a more heinous form of oppression than the mass slaughter of people because of the color of their skin.

  It is past time for us to move beyond words; it is past time for our thoughts and prayers to move beyond empty platitudes; it is past time for us, as followers of the Prince of Peace and as the people called United on Methodists in Tennessee and Western Kentucky, to collectively use our voice and our actions to create meaningful change to address gun violence. I implore you to pass this resolution and, more importantly, to work as individuals and local churches to find ways, as the prophet Isaiah said, to "beat our swords into ploughshares and our spears into pruning hooks." Thank you.
- Laura McMasters calls the question. The motion to call the question passes 659-123.
- The motion to affirm the resolution is before the body. The Gun Violence Resolution passes 670-132 and is adopted.

"Resolution to Remove Slavery from the Tennessee State Constitution"

- Bishop McAlilly recognizes Eric Patton. Patton moves to suspend the rules to present a resolution seeking the removal of slavery from the Tennessee constitution as a potential punishment. Motion seconded. Motion to suspend the rules passes 591-176.
- Patton presents the resolution. His motion to accept is seconded.
- Jedidiah Hanes calls the question. Motion to call the question passes 682-92.
- Point of information:
  - Does Kentucky have this provision in their constitution?
  - Patton clarifies: Slavery is not included in the Kentucky constitution.
- Point of information:
  - Are criminals considered involuntary servants?
  - Patton states that the Tennessee Department of Corrections has endorsed the relevant bill, as has the state legislature.
- The main motion is put to vote. Motion passes 712-70. Resolution adopted.

UMCOM Presentation

Gary Henderson, chief relationship officer of UMCOM, presented the EPI Award to TWK Conference Communicator, Amy Hurd. The body affirmed Hurd's ministry. Hurd thanked United Methodist Communications and the people of the TWKAC.

Retirement Video #2

Our second retirement video featured wisdom about spiritual disciplines from Revs. Eddie Watson, Tom Laney, Randy Goodman, Cynthia Davis, Barry Culbertson, Randy Brown, and Ken Wallace.

ENCORE Ministry

Kent McNish shared that Encore is the official Older Adult Ministry of the TWK conference (formerly known as Golden Cross Foundation). It is a non-profit connected with the Connect Strategy Team but operates outside the conference budget, raising and spending their own money. Encore provides grants to congregations for older adult ministries and specific grants. Encore has established an endowed fund to help churches become ADA-compliant. The fund will be named after Lynn and Bishop McAlilly. Encore is making the first contribution to the fund in the amount of $500,000.

Announcements

The bishop recognized conference secretary Monica Mowdy, who announced that the Cabinet Report and Retirement Video #3 will be moved to tomorrow's agenda.

Bishop McAlilly adjourned the session at 4:46.

SESSION THREE: JUNE 17

Cynthia Wilson opened the session with music. Sueli Renée and Cintia Marie Furtado led the body in prayer.

Sharing Our Stories: New Church Development

Miriam Cortes shared the story of Iglesia Metodista Unida Ebenezer in West Nashville, a congregation supported by New Church Development. The congregation persevered and trusted God through many ups and downs and, at times, a lack of support from the conference. Thanks to their perseverance and faith and the support of New Church Development, they now have again established a thriving congregation near their original neighborhood. An outline of Cortes' full report is available as Exhibit H.

Meharry Medical College, Church Health Center, and Methodist LeBonheur Partnership

Dr. Scott Morris and Dr. James Hildreth presented a new plan for expanding Meharry to include a Memphis campus in connection with Methodist LeBonheur Healthcare.

Morris reminded the body of Methodism's historic concern with physical health, dating all the way back to John Wesley's ministry. Morris noted that Meharry is the only church-affiliated allopathic medical school in the country and one of only four historically Black medical schools. Morris introduced Dr. James Hildreth, the president of Meharry Medical College.

Hildreth emphasized that everything they do or teach at Meharry is based in our faith; in fact, Meharry's first classes were taught in Clark Memorial, and the middle of the school's seal is inscribed with "Worship of God through service to mankind." Hildreth recounted the history of the school's founding and noted that "our foundational legacy is to give an opportunity to people who otherwise wouldn't have one." 81% of Meharry graduates serve the underserved.

The bishop celebrated ministry of Meharry and the partnership, noting that coupled with Project Transformation, this partnership makes possible a pipeline of encouragement and empowerment that will change the trajectory of people's lives. The body gave a standing ovation when the bishop stated, "If you want to talk about Black lives matter, this is the place."

Resolution Revisited

After a break, Bishop McAlilly called the body to order and brought the main motion (as amended) back to the floor.

- Bishop McAlilly recognizes Rob Martin to propose a substitute motion. Question called to substitute the resolution. Call to question passes 503-39
- Rob Martin introduces the substitute resolution, which is seconded by Autura Eason-Williams. Consideration of the substitute resolution passes 634-34. Discussion is open. Substitute motion differs from the main motion (as amended) by restoring the percentages of fund dispersal to those of the original motion and in adding a clause directing the conference trustees to establish a fund of $1 million to be used to assist small membership churches in major building repairs. The full text of the substitute resolution is available in Chapter 5: Reports and Resolutions. Martin notes that the relevant parties (including Mozell Starks, the maker of yesterday's motions to amendment) have come to agreement and support this resolution.
- The question is called in the queue. Motion to call the question passes 503-39.
- Bishop McAlilly initiates a ballot to accept the substitute motion. Motion to accept passes 654-34. The substitute motion is now the main motion.
- Starks speaks for the substituted resolution. She is in favor of supporting both new church communities and existing small membership congregations.

- The question is called. Call to question passes 679-34.
- Bishop McAlilly initiates a ballot on the (substituted but now) main resolution. Resolution passes 675-55.

The bishop expressed gratitude to the involved parties and lifted up this collaborative process as evidence of the connection.

Sharing Our Stories: Project Transformation

Luke Lea presented on the ministry of Project Transformation and its effect on his calling and professional life. Lea's full report is available as Exhibit I at the end of this chapter. Bishop McAlilly led the body in praying over and commissioning this year's Project Transformation interns and staff.

Cabinet Report

Chip Hunter, Nancy Varden, and Cynthia Davis presented the Cabinet Report on behalf of the full appointive Cabinet. The full report is available as Exhibit J at the end of this chapter.

The bishop and district superintendents affirmed and set the appointments, district by district. Bishop McAlilly offered a prayer for the leaders in each district in turn.

Recognitions

Bishop McAlilly noted and sent prayers to the St. Stephens Episcopal congregation in Vestavia Hills, AL, at which a shooting occurred yesterday. The bishop shared with the body Lanita Monroe's gratitude for the connection's support and prayers throughout her recovery from an automobile accident this year.

Bishop McAlilly also recognized Carrie Rudy, who designed and made the district banners displayed throughout our time together. An explanation of the intentional design of the banners will be featured on the bishop's blog soon.

Bishop McAlilly shared his gratitude for extended Cabinet members Amy Hurd, Melinda Britt, and Rob Martin.

Bishop McAlilly recognized Cynthia Wilson and her team for leading our music and worship this year. Wilson shared information about the newly founded Junius B. Dotson Institute for Music and Worship in the Black Church and Beyond, a joint effort between Discipleship Ministries and Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary.

Bishop McAlilly recognized Allen Black, who shared briefly about his new position as Director of Travel of the TWKAC. A trip to the Holy Land is scheduled for February 2023.

Retirement Video #3

Our third retirement video featured wisdom regarding the importance of the connection from Steve Angus, John Carpenter, Randy Brown, Jodi McCullah, Barry Culbertson, David Winton, and others.

Dismissal

At the conclusion of the retirement video, the body moved directly into closing worship. Bishop McAlilly dismissed the 2022 annual conference at the conclusion of the service.

EXHIBITS

2022 TWK Inaugural Annual Conference

When the annual conference voted last year to adopt a new leadership structure, you tasked the Connectional Table, this team of nominated leaders, with stewarding the vision of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference. We knew immediately that our task was to pay attention to what God was doing through our churches, leaders, pastors, and laity, and that we were to steward that vision – God's vision – for middle Tennessee, Western Kentucky and West Tennessee. Stewarding God's vision at work in you will lead us to transformation.

As Bishop McAlilly has said, our legacy conferences had a really long engagement, a marriage, a slow birth, and now we have a newborn. A first born for many of us! Many conference teams are only 5 or 6 months old, learning who one another is and how to lead with each other. Much of the work of the Connectional Table and the Strategy teams has been helping legacy conference teams, entities and committees become one, through agreeing on common values and aligning strategies with our common mission and purpose.

In this short time, we are already witnessing the impact that your decisions from last year's annual conference have had. At the organizational meeting in December, you chose a new annual conference structure. And with it you set into motion a new way of being in ministry with each other.

And you know what? It's working!!

What the annual conference chose to try first is really working- we are witnessing that! Living in covenant with each other is becoming a common practice on conference ministry teams, as well as in local churches. Shepherding collaboration and witnessing the breaking down of isolated and siloed ministry is now becoming evident. Leaders and congregations are remaining adaptive, having strengthened that muscle during the past two years. Teams are forming without baggage of legacy traditions, but with new vision in mind.

Although we are still doing a lot of learning, we are witnessing God at work in amazing new ways.

The Administration Strategy Team is tasked with supporting the administration and infrastructure of the TWK, for the purpose of supporting and sustaining ministry through local churches, laity and clergy.

We are a newly formed team of only a few months, and our early work has focused on developing our covenant, defining our values, and understanding the significant relationships of our team.

We are committed to our work reflecting the values of strong investment in local church leadership, both clergy and laity; seeing administration as ministry; adhering to sound business principles; having a good understanding of the resource availability of people, property and finances; collaboration; a willingness to be creative & try new things; the need to clarify the 'why' and understanding defined outcomes; being willing to ask the hard questions and make the difficult decisions; and always remembering our work is about people and relationships.

We hold these values before us as we work alongside the Board of Trustees, CF&A, Human Resources, Commission on Equitable Compensation, Board of Pension & Health, Commission on Archives & History, the Joint Committee on Medical Leave, and the Standing Rules and Resolutions committees. For most of these groups, this brings about new relationships and new opportunities for collaboration and support.

A specific example of this collaboration is when the leaders of the CF&A, HR, and Admin Strategy teams worked together to review, discuss, and make recommendations for staff related budget items as the 2023 budget was being formed. This offered space for relevant information to be shared, and for support and accountability in the process. We will continue to watch for and seek out such opportunities for collaboration.

Our work is not without challenges. An immediate challenge is to better understand the current economic, demographic and denominational context of our conference, including local churches, agencies and ministries, and the impact on the mission of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference. Defining our context will be our next focus. These learnings will help position us to identify the needs, and think strategically about solutions, for the administrative work of the conference, always with an eye on our values.

We continue to lift up the work of the local churches, laity and clergy in our Administrative Strategy Team's work.

The Connect Team is learning to think bigger. We are using our time and our budgets to reflect our mission, vision and values. Collaboration among people and teams proves that we are smarter, more efficient and yes, better together than we have been. Rev Michele Morton and Rev Miriam Cortes worked together to lead Hispanic and African American college students in a program to mentor younger girls.

Our Covenant Partners show us how to be a Matthew 25 church when the United Methodist Neighborhood Centers in Memphis provide quality child care, but also partner with local food pantries to distribute food to 2,000 families. Trinity Community Commons hosts a weekly meal where the Salvation Army comes to work with unhoused persons. The Western Kentucky UM Family Services gave additional support to children in foster care and our two adoption agencies provided care to 260 families in different phases of the adoption journey.

We want to thank the local churches for the support that makes this possible along with many, many other ministries.

The Discover/Send Strategy Team has experienced good meetings as we get to know one another across our new conference. We have developed our covenant. We are learning to live into our covenant.

We are a team of very energized members with an interest and passion for the ministry areas of the teams we are with. Each team member was asked to pray, asking the Holy Spirit to reveal to them the ministry area they feel most called to serve. Praise God we were able to come together to begin the process and develop a plan for connecting with the teams in our strategy area. We are looking forward to our Getting to Know You Meeting with our ministry partners.

Our challenge has been one you each have probably faced – meeting in our ever-changing world with work demands, life moments affecting various team members, and figuring out how to create more time! This dynamic made it challenging to meet in the first several months of our work, but we have been figuring out those roles together and what support can be offered to our related teams. We recognize some of our teams are newly developed while others are actively involved in ministry work.

We feel so blessed to work with Disaster Response, Evangelism, New Church Development, and Volunteers in Mission. We are looking forward to a fruitful partnership in ministry. May God be pleased with our work.

(Bethany Huffman Equip Strategy Team Leader / Jefferson Furtado – Ministry Associate – Equip)

Since the launch of our conference, our Equip Teams have been hard at work, living into the adaptive realities that invite all of us to discover, equip, connect and send lay and clergy leaders who shape congregations that offer Christ to a hurting world, one neighborhood at a time.

Our youth team has continued to work on forming passionate disciples of Jesus Christ who live out their faith in impactful ways. This year our TWK Conference Youth Ministry is leading the way in learning to work as one team to launch new initiatives, including a conference-wide youth gathering in October.

The Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry continues the beautiful work of offering Christ to young adults in 20 college / university campuses via 15 very dedicated campus ministers. This group is beginning to live the vision cast by our bishop of One Campus Ministry, in many locations.

This year our Camping Ministries are returning to high gear by providing sabbath and sacred space for children, youth, and adults throughout our conference area. Beersheba Springs Assembly, Cedar Crest Camp, and Lake Shore Camp and Retreat Center are vibrant spaces where disciples are nurtured and lives are transformed.

The work of the Board of Ordained Ministry continues to remind us that all of us are called by God to share the good news of Jesus Christ wherever we find ourselves. We celebrate the work this team has done in coming together as a new conference and evaluating candidates for provisional and full connection membership.

Our work continues to fully activate the Board of Laity and Lay Servant ministries in our new conference and will be a priority as we continue living into our mission, vision and values.

Navigating our work with teams that have authority through the Book of Discipline has provided its own challenges to ensure we are walking in both the way of our denomination and our transformative mindset as a new conference. We will continue to focus on creating covenant with each team we work with to enhance the transparency, trust and communication as they do their work.

The Communications Strategy Team mission is to celebrate, inform and strengthen the mission of the TWK Conference with consistent and clear communications.

We are built on values including Clarity, Invitation, Trust, Leadership, Inspiration, Celebration, All voices, Simplification, Accuracy, Consistency, Adaptability, and Process.

In practical terms, we operate as a covenant community using an L-3 model of loving, learning and leading.

We celebrate our victories (2021-2022)

We Became Smaller and Generative: This team began with the merging in 2019 of the two legacy conference communications teams. In 2022, with the launch of the new conference and the desire to align our size with other strategy teams, the size of this team became much smaller and leaner and more adaptable. In doing so, past members were assigned elsewhere, they are now generatively spreading communications knowledge throughout the conference structure.

We Conducted Research: A professional research study with respondents from every district in the TWK Conference was conducted at the end of 2021. Our collective hope was to have data that could inform how leadership stewards the conference mission. This information is helping us to prioritize what is developed, how things are implemented, and how they are communicated.

We Launched Website: The official twkumc.org website was launched in 2022. The TWK strategic initiatives were used to guide the structure of the site and make it easier for people to find resources that support each of the initiatives. Additional digital assets from the legacy conferences also were combined eliminating duplication and reducing costs.

We Developed a New Print Magazine: The Connector, a 4-color, 16-page print magazine was developed in an effort to reach church leaders who are not able or interested in engaging with us online. This publication was mailed to key local church leaders in May.

We Coordinated TWK Conference Meetings: Annual conference task teams coordinated the TWK Organizational meeting in December 2021 and this inaugural 2022 TWK Annual Conference in June 2022.

We Acknowledge Challenges for Future

Assisting Church Leaders with Communications: In the challenging UMC environment, we want to help leaders and churches with the communications skills that they need to communicate effectively and transparently about what's going on.

Finding and Including New Voices: In our efforts to tell stories of transformation, we want to be able to highlight diverse ministries and opportunities by including more perspectives and voices.

Networking Better with Local Churches: We want to strengthen our network with local church communicators and develop a better communications connection with all 9 district offices.

Utilizing Feedback Effectively: As we plan communication strategies, we plan to continue to receive and honor feedback from other teams, including strategy teams, the TWK Connectional Table and survey results from Annual Conference participants as well as TWK conference members in general.

Planning Future Annual Conferences: Both internal and external contexts have changed for how large meetings like this are executed. Determining the best way to hold future annual conferences will be a challenge for this team.

The Cabinet is strategically engaged in the work of the connectional table and the strategy teams and many of the ministry teams. Although we have specific work with appointments and supervision, this new structure has fostered an unsiloed approach to our work. It's a new way of leading in collaboration with the ministry of the full conference. You will hear more from the cabinet in a report tomorrow.

In August 2021 at a retreat with the Connectional Table and the full cabinet, we began to pay attention to where we witnessed God at work within our new conference. As we collected all the things on flip chart sheets lining the walls, we witnessed four themes emerge in what you are doing as leaders and congregations.

The focus of God's vision for the Tennessee-Western Kentucky conference continues to be:

Response
Resilience Reconciliation
And Resurrection

These are focus areas not because Connectional Table members and cabinet thought of these – but because it's what God is doing through you.

The work of the Connectional Table is not top-down work but rather paying attention to and supporting the work of the local church and faith communities where disciples are made and communities are transformed. Creating pathways and removing obstacles for you to join the mission with one another.

There are many ways we have seen God at work and there are many ways that we can continue to work toward the vision God has cast for us.

The River of Life—our Creator, Redeemer and Sustainer—will be flowing through these three days—uniting us through our stories. Throughout the next few days, we will hear our stories of response, resilience, reconciliation and resurrection. The stories that belong to all of us now – stories of the ways the Spirit of God is working through you, through us – the leaders and churches of the TWK conference- to respond to need, to instill resilience, to reconcile and make new, and to resurrect the world as we offer the love of Christ to our neighbors. May we continue to listen and pay attention to the ways God is leading us into the days ahead.

Exhibit B: Board of Ordained Ministry Report

Bishop McAlilly and delegates of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Annual Conference, good afternoon. It is an honor to stand before you as the Chair of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Annual Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, and to report on behalf of the women and men, lay and clergy, who make up the Board. I am so thankful for these servants–their passion for God's Kingdom and for the church, and the fullness with which they have given themselves to the process of forming this new board and stewarding its work faithfully.

Our first meeting was held on December 4, 2021, immediately after the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Organizing Meeting. At that time we elected chairpersons of the Board of Ordained Ministry committees who comprise our Executive Committee. The leadership of these chairpersons has been a gift to the Board and to the Conference. We will recognize them throughout this report, but at this time I give special thanks for Rev. Stephen Sauls, the Vice-Chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry whose work and camaraderie and friendship have been invaluable.

Our Executive team met for the first time on December 15, 2021, and the full Board met for the first time via Zoom on January 13, 2021. Between the January 13th meeting and the Board of Ordained Ministry Evaluation Conference, held March 6-9 at Beersheba Springs Assembly, every board member met both with their BOMEC interview team and with their committee, often more than once. It would be impossible to estimate the hours of work put in by this group of disciples.

On March 6, the Board met in person for the first time as we prepared to enter into holy conversation with our candidates for commissioning and ordination as deacons and elders, and we concluded our work on March 9. The days were long but the work was good and fruitful, and the fellowship was a gift from God. Thank you so much to Rev. Jason Jones and his BOMEC team for planning and creating this time together. Jason, would you stand, and would the whole BOMEC team stand and be recognized for this work? It will be my honor, in a few moments, to introduce to you those who will be commissioned and ordained tomorrow night.

Part of the work of the Board is to provide financial support for local pastors to pursue Course of Study, which is a requirement for licensure each year, and for those on the ordination track to attend seminary.

The Board of Ordained Ministry also provides financial support for the continuing formation of our clergy, so they may complete the minimum 12 hours of required continuing education per quadrennium.We offer thanks to Rev. Terry Carty, who Chairs Continuing Education and Formation Committee, and to all on his team who are creating ways for the Board to support and fund the continuing formation of clergy.

Our Ministerial Education Fund Committee is chaired by Rev. Phil Jamieson.Thank you to Rev. Jamieson and his team for their great work.

Each District of the Conference is served by a District Committee on Ordained Ministry. Part of the work of these committees is to supervise all matters of candidacy for ordained ministry and licensing for local pastors. This year we are pleased to share with you that sixteen local pastors will be receiving licenses for the first time.

- Bill Burnette
- Keith Carlson
- Robert Conder
- Ann Collins
- Karl Covington
- Rhonda Crawford
- Angela Ford
- Linda Furtado
- Levi Hamilton
- James Morton
- Timothy Paris
- Billy Patterson
- Al Schieber
- Liz Thomen
- Mike Treen
- Ron Ulrich

We offer great thanks to the Chairs of our District Committees on Ministry and the members of these committees for their hard work. Would you please stand?

May God continue to bless the work of the hearts and hands of our certified lay ministers and local pastors.

We are also grateful to Rev. Dr. Birgitte French who is the Dean of the Licensing School, and her team that has worked so hard to offer a remote Licensing School option through Candler School of Theology at Emory University for our local pastors who will be receiving their first appointment this year.Would you please stand? Rev. Laura McMasters serves as the Chair for Orientation to Ministry, which is the experience offered to those seeking certification as candidates for ordained ministry. These experiences are offered twice per year and are invaluable to those who are exploring their call to ministry. Laura and the OTM team, would you please stand?

It's my pleasure to introduce to you the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference candidates for Provisional Membership. This year we have elected six provisional deacons who will be deploy through our conference and beyond, extending and connecting the work of the church to the world through ministries of Word, Service, Compassion and Justice.

We thank God for these women and men, their families, and their ministries. And we thank you–the members of our local churches–who faithfully nurture and help equip candidates for ministry long before they ever meet with a District Committee or Conference Board of Ordained Ministry. Without your commitment to live out the baptismal covenant and expand the table of God's grace in your context, none of this is possible.

The Conference Relations Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry, among many other things, is charged with reviewing clergy requests to change their conference relationships, including those who would like to transfer their conference membership to the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Annual Conference. These individuals are:

- John William Melick, coming to us as a Provisional Elder elected in 2021 in the New England Conference.

Projected Appointment: Franklin First UMC, Harpeth River District

- Eric Mayle is an Elder in Full Connection ordained in the South Georgia Conference, currently serving at Calvary UMC, Cumberland River District.
- Casey Orr is a Deacon in Full Connection ordained in the Central Texas Conference, currently serving at Brentwood UMC, Harpeth River District.

Thanks to Rev. Dr. LeNoir Culbertson and her team for their faithful work. Would you please stand?

We are also grateful to Rev. Erin Racine and the Residency in Ministry Committee who faithfully work with those who have already been commissioned as elders and deacons and are working toward full connection, to offer experiences that continue to prepare them for the work that God has called them to do. Erin is not here but would those on the Residency in Ministry Committee please stand so that we can thank you.

Finally, it is my charge to answer Question 13 from the Business of the Annual Conference before the whole body of the Conference. It is the question on clergy conduct and character: Are the clergy fit for appointment?

We answer this question realizing that none of us, clergy or lay, are what we should be in our character and conduct. By God's grace, we strive to be made perfect in our love of God and one another as expressed in our commitment to Christian covenantal living.

Are all the clergy members of the Conference blameless in their life and official administration (¶¶604.4, 605.6)?

All but one.

This completes the Report of the Board of Ordained Ministry.

Respectfully Submitted on this fifteenth day of June in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Twenty-Two,

Rev. Dr. Mary Beth Bernheisel

Chair, Tennessee-Western Kentucky Board of Ordained Ministry

Exhibit C: Sharing Our Stories: Disaster Relief

Bishop, Cabinet, Annual Conference Delegates, Conference Staff, and Visitors:

The peace of Christ be with you all.

I am Robert Craig, the Conference Disaster Response Coordinator and Long-Term Recovery Director for the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference.

The TWKUMC has been actively involved in disaster response and long-term recovery efforts since March of 2020. There have been four federally declared disasters since that date, including the March 2020 tornadoes, March 2021 flood, August 2021 flood, and the December 2021 tornadoes. In response, the TWKUMC has engaged in conference and out of conference Early Response Teams to assist with debris removal and further damage mitigation.

In addition, the disaster recovery team has been busy with disaster case management functions to partner with disaster survivors in their recovery plan by matching the survivors to available community resources. The conference has also served survivors through donated funds to provide for unmet needs in their repair and rebuild efforts. All this has been made possible from the generosity of each of you and our local churches, along with other conferences, churches, the Community Foundation of Middle Tennessee, and the United Methodist Committee on Relief/UMCOR.

Today we are pleased to introduce you to some of our staff and survivors. They are here to share about their recovery experiences with the Annual Conference today. Thank you for this opportunity to share how God has been working in the rebuilding of lives and communities.

(Heatherwill greet the audience and introduce Charlotte...)

Hello, I'm Heather Marriott, Case Management Supervisorfor the Tennessee Western Kentucky Conference in MiddleTN.I have had the privilege of connecting with survivors across several counties over the last 2+ years. One family really touched my heart and she is here with me today. I was amazed at how God caused our paths to cross because we have a shared life experience that allowed us to be ministered to. We both see that as God's signature alongthe way. It is my pleasure to introduce Charlotte Hethcoat to you today. Charlotte, will you join me?"(35 seconds)

Hello, I'm Charlotte Hethcoat and I'm so honored to be here today to have the opportunity to express our gratitude for all that you have done for us. At first, we thought we were insured... when we found out we weren't insured we felt truly hopeless. It was really scary with everything covered in mud.

57 years were lost. This was what we were looking at...(30 seconds)

(Present BEFORE photos.(30 seconds))

We really didn't know what we would do at that point. We had to rely on faith that things would work out. I prayed about it and somehow felt a peace that everything was going to be okay. Not long after that, Heather Marriott with Disaster Recovery Connection reached out to me. She was very reassuring as she brought all of the community resources to bare on our recovery which allowed me to keep my peace. Going from holding onto our peace, faith and trust... we then walked into this...(35 seconds)

(Present AFTER photos.(30 seconds))

Things are better than they even were before. Our home is put back together. And we could not be more grateful.

Thank you. So much.

(Elizabeth Soard comes to the mic)

Greetings Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference. My name is Elizabeth Soard. I am the Disaster Case Manager Supervisor for the Western Tennessee and Western Kentucky areas. I have worked with the conference since August of 2020. I am happy to be here today with Bobbie and Elmira Thomas. I first met Mr. Bobbie and Mrs. Elmira in September of 2020 when I was assigned as their case manager. They have truly become family to me throughout the 18 months we have been in partnership and I am excited to have them share their story of how the Disaster Recovery Connection has blessed them.

(Bobbie and Elmira walk up to the mic and a picture of their pre-repaired home is shared)

Greetings United Methodist Conference. My name is Elmira Thomas and this is Mr. Bobbie Thomas. We have been married 44 years and have been in our neighborhood over 30 years. There are multiple people in our neighborhood who have been here as long as we have. Some of the parents are no longer living there but the kids are. The neighbors are family because we have known each other forever. We watch out for each other. For example, Benny grows a garden every year and he gives us fresh garden food. It is refreshing to know that someone is looking out for you. If you are not there, they are going to check on you. We never had children ourselves so our neighborhood has become our family.

So when the tornado came and took our home. It didn't just take the place we have been living in but we were afraid it would take away our community by us having to relocate. I am so thankful we got this house and in the condition it is in. We couldn't afford to do the repairs. Codes was pushing for all the renovations and pushing people out of the neighborhood. Now, I do not have to worry about Codes as long as I pay my property taxes. This is the blessing I see. I get to stay in my community. You don't really see this a whole lot anymore because people are moving in. As a rule, if anyone is going out of town they let people know and we watch out for one another. As the home was being rebuilt, our neighbors kept watch and told us if anything was looking off. It was refreshing to know that someone was looking out for us.

This is my dream home. Something I dreamed about but never considered it coming to fruition. I kept saying, "if I get the money this is something I would do." God has blessed me. I am taking my time setting up the inside. Everybody that comes in falls in love with it. All my nieces and nephews want to come and visit and say they are going to put up cots! My favorite is the kitchen. I can go in my kitchen and still visit with everyone in other parts of the house. This is what we do when we get together and it usually involves food. We all love to eat!

We really want to say thank you for not just getting us back into the home we have been in for years. What was a traumatic experience in our lives has in a small way become a blessing as we are able to stay in our community. This will enable us to impact upcoming generations.

(Liz returns to the mic)

Part of the mission statement of the TWKUMC is to send lay and clergy leaders who shape congregations that offer Christ to a hurting world, one neighborhood at a time*.*

When I attended the home dedication for Bobbie and Elmira I was amazed and blessed by how many people showed up. Not just donors and support organizations, but their neighbors and family. Everyone really did start making plans for future gatherings in their new space. It is clear that they are an integral part of their neighborhood and everyone was happy to have them back. Bobbie and Elmira Thomas have been shaped by your generosity and love and can in turn, share this with their neighborhood. Their whole neighborhood has ultimately been blessed and shaped by your generosity. Just as Jesus moved in among us so you have been hands and feet in this Nashville neighborhood.

Thank you for your support for disaster response in Nashville, Waverly, Mayfield, and many communities in between. It is not, in the end, about the funds raised or the number of houses built, but about restoring neighborhoods, preserving communities, and reestablishing people's homes.

(Robert Craig returns to the mic)

While our previous efforts have been in the Middle Tennessee area, we are currently working to expand the conference disaster recovery program to include several counties in Kentucky and Tennessee in the western region of the TWKUMC. UMCOR has been an important partner in all these efforts and will continue to be important in this work to continue. There has been an amazing response from local churches in this Conference and our sibling conferences around the country. That giving has been honored by UMCOR in doubling the conference generosity. Our Conference submitted and UMCOR has approved a grant request to fund the recovery efforts for the next couple of years. That grant was approved for the total of $2,900,000!

The United Methodist Committee on Relief is one of the most amazing witnesses to the power of our United Methodist Connection. Our ministry reaches wider and is far stronger when we live into our CONNECTION through a SHARED MINISTRY.

This grant and the support of the churches of the TWKUMC will equip the Conference Recovery Project to recruit and engage volunteer repair and rebuild teams in the recovery of our neighbors throughout the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference. At the close of this recovery, the ministry of the TWKUMC disaster team will have imparted hope in the lives of survivors through every stage of the recovery. These instruments of hope will have shown themselves as Early Response Teams, Disaster Case Managers, Construction Managers, Volunteer Coordinators, and Volunteer Repair and Rebuild Teams. Annual Conference, thank you for the part you have played and the part you will play as God's ambassadors of hope for disaster survivors and communities.

Exhibit D: Sharing Our Stories: Recovery

My name is Kimberly Brann. I am a grateful believer and follower of Jesus Christ, and I am in recovery. I am the Neighborhood Initiative & Recovery Director at First United Methodist Church in Fulton Kentucky. I also work as a Peer Support Specialist in a drug and alcohol treatment facility. I am grateful to be here today to share my story with you.

I grew up in church. I am the oldest of 3 girls. We were the "perfect" little church family. Behind closed doors there was abuse. My mom and dad divorced when I was around 9 years old. Church became my safe place. I remember my mom having us there every time the doors were open. As a teen I got around the wrong crowd. I began partying. I was a teen mom. I got married had 3 more children. I went through a divorce and got around the wrong crowd again. When my kids were at their dad's I began partying on weekends.

A year after divorce I met someone who introduced me to drugs; it was a toxic and abusive relationship. I started using opiates in the form of pain pills and eventually turned to meth. My life was a complete chaotic mess. We lost our house and all belongings other than week's worth of clothing that was at my mother's house. We become homeless, staying in motels and sleeping in the car out in the country with four kids.

I can look back now and see that God had his hand on me throughout my entire life, his faithfulness and grace thru every season. After being homeless for the entire summer, I got a call that an apartment was available, and I just needed the deposits. I had not spoken to my family in quite some time as this is how it goes in addiction and abusive/ toxic relationships. My family helped me at this time. I went to a few NA meetings and stayed sober for 30 days.

I didn't change people, places or things, which is so important in recovery. So, I relapsed and went full force this time because I felt like I was in control at this time. After continuing in addiction for another year, I was tired. I had been running from a life with God that I knew so well throughout my life. I'm thankful my mom raised me in the way I should go so that when I was older I would not depart from it. I was baptized as a child but I don't think I truly understood and felt God's grace until one evening when I was cooking supper.

I was at my wit's end. I was hopeless. A song called "Even If" by Mercy Me came on KLOVE as I was cooking. The lyrics just overwhelmed me:

> They say sometimes you wins some, > sometimes you lose some.
> Right now I'm losing bad . . .
> I know you're able > and I know you can save thru the fire > with your mighty hand > but even if you don't,
> my hope is you alone.
> They say it only takes a little faith > to move a mountain.
> Well good thing a little faith is all I have, right now.
> But God, when you choose to leave mountains unmovable, > oh give me the strength to be able to sing,
> "It is well with my soul."

In that moment I knew it was not well with my soul. I dropped to my knees and called out to God and asked him to please forgive me, to take it all away. I didn't want that life anymore. Psalm 18:6 says, "In my distress I called to the Lord; I cried to my God for help. From his temple he heard my voice; my cry came before him, into his ears. I felt the burden lift, felt a peace and comfort as if the Holy Spirit just placed an armor. God himself was in that room comforting me. On September 17,2017 God set me free!

I immediately found a church—I knew I needed the community and support. My now husband (who was a friend at that time) told me I should try Fulton First UMC. Within a week of attending, I sat down with our pastor at that time and shared my story. I began volunteering my time in the church office and started working on GED and obtained it within the first year of recovery.

I started attending other Celebrate Recoveries; I wanted to help others who struggle with addiction. After a year of prayer and attending Celebrate Recovery leadership training in Raleigh, NC, we launched Celebrate Recovery. From the very beginning, I always said if there is only one person coming we will keep going. There have been times we did have only two. Most recently we had 72 in attendance at CR.

I've been on staff at FUMC since November of 2018, helping others in recovery and also helping the less fortunate in our community, those who need utility assistance or are homeless. In March of 2021, I began working at Changes Rehabilitation, which is an inpatient drug and alcohol treatment center. This is not a faith-based facility but God has opened the door for me to host a worship service on Sunday evenings. I have been hosting this service for the last 8 months. Birthing church in a place that is not church and that is not faith-based I know is only by the work of the Lord.

Being able to help others find hope and healing that can only be found in our Lord and Savior has helped me, as helping others truly helps me. It's amazing to see the lives that are changing. God showed me what true grace is, and I want to spend my days showing others that we don't have to be perfectly put together to go to God. That's what I grew up thinking; that I had to check certain things of a list. But God is not in a box. He can move anywhere at any time and do what only HE can do. Even in the most unlikely of places.

Ministry Impact of TWK 2021 Budget—Reelfoot Ministries

TWK invested $80,000 in Reelfoot Rural Ministries (RRM). RRM provides a dental Clinic 50 for patients per month and an outreach housing ministry, modifies homes for seniors and disabled persons, assists in long-term recovery from recent tornadoes, and distributes grocery assistance for 250 families per monthand household financial assistance of $2,500 monthly.

2023 Budget Returns Money to Local Churches

CFA is recommending an acceleration of annual reduction of Connectional Commitment to 10.0% goal (2021 – 11%; 2022 – 10.75%; 2023 – 10.0%).

Pension & Health Committee voted to provide 9% Pension Holiday for local church direct bill:

F.T. will pay only 6% of 15% cost and P.T. will pay 0% of 9% cost.

Ministry Impact of TWK 2021 Budget—Project Transformation

TWK invested $50,000 in Project Transformation, which celebrated 10 years in ministry. They have helped 4,330 children improve their reading, social and emotional skills, provided 378 young adult internsemployment and discernment opportunities, and hosted 6,267 volunteers.80% of PT interns have gone on to serve in ministry of some form.

2022 Year to Date Results

Apportionments received year to date: $4,464,865(39.6% of budget)
Expenses year to date: $4,476,152(39.5% of budget)

Financial Impact of 2022 Disaffiliation

In accordance with BOD ¶2553, 60 TWK Churches are disaffiliating at this AC. These 60 Churches paid $386,781 or 3.0% of 2021 total paidapportionments. 7 Churches previously completed disaffiliation, and they paid $4,347.42 other Churches have inquired about disaffiliation; they paid $513,045 or 4.0 % of 2021 total paid.

The 60 Churches must pay:

- Their previous 12 months of Connectional Commitment plus an additional 12 months, which is $648,625 more
- Their portion of unfunded pension liability, which is $1,974,708

Ministry Impact of TWK 2021 Budget—Hannah's Hope & Miriam's Promise

TWK invested $120,000 in Hannah's Hope & Miriam's Promise. These two agencies:

- Worked with 260 families in different stages of their adoption journey
- Offered thousands of hours of counseling and case management to vulnerable mothers and children
- Developed online courses for mothers and families

All other business-related expenses may be reimbursed in accordance with the CFA approved Accountable Reimbursement Policy.
4. CFA moves that the housing allowance designated for clergy pursuant to Internal Revenue Code section 107 be approved for 2022-2023 as printed in the Conference Journal.
5. CFA moves that the compensation for the District Superintendents for 2023 be set at $132,544 inclusive of the housing allowance.

Exhibit F: Resolutions Committee Report

Grace and Peace to you.

It is the responsibility of the Committee on Resolutions to consider every resolution that has been submitted with the intention of being brought to the floor of the Annual Conference. The resolutions committee does not vote on the substantive content of the resolution or consider whether we agree with the point of view of the maker of the resolution that has been submitted. The decision of whether a particular resolution is wise or is good policy is up to this body, the Annual Conference.

The role of the Committee on Resolutions is a narrower evaluation.

The first task of the Committee on Resolutions is to determine if a proposed resolution is consistent with the Book of Discipline, especially the Constitution and Articles of Religion. If it does not pass the Constitutionality test than it is our duty to recommend to the Bishop and the Annual Conference that it be ruled out of order.

The second task that the Committee on Resolutions must undertake is to determine whether a resolution can pass the test of concurrence. Some of the questions the Committee considers are: Is there a discernable and actionable step defined in the "Therefore, be it resolved?" Is that action step within the legislative authority of the Annual Conference? Does it meet the requirements of the Annual Conference Standing Rules? Again, if the resolution does not pass the test of concurrence, there will be a recommendation to the Bishop and Annual Conference that it be ruled out of order.

This year, three resolutions were submitted to the Committee on Resolutions. The Committee determined that all three resolutions passed the tests of Constitutionality and Concurrence.

The first resolution, "Rental/Housing Allowances for Retired, Disabled or Former Clergypersons of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference" is now before the body for consideration.

(BISHOP WILL CALL FOR ANY DISCUSSION, THEN FOR THE VOTE)

The second resolution, "Special Sundays Observance Resolution" was timely submitted to the Resolutions Committee. Shortly after the deadline for submissions, the sponsor of this resolution submitted some clarifying language that did not change the substance and purpose of the resolution. The Resolutions Committee accepted these sponsor-requested amendments and recognized that they were consistent with the intent and substance of the original, timely-submitted resolutions. The Standing Rules provide that the Resolutions Committee may offer a revised version of the original resolution, along with the original resolution, at Annual Conference. Therefore, both the original resolution and the revised resolution that includes clarifications requested by the sponsor were posted on the website. The Committee recommends that the "REVISED FINAL" version of this Resolution be voted on by this body.

The third resolution, "A Resolution to Direct the Trustees of the TWK on the Disbursement of Proceeds from the Sale of Closed or Abandoned Church Property" was timely submitted to the Resolutions Committee. Shortly after the deadline for submissions, the sponsor of this resolution also submitted some clarifying language that did not change the substance and purpose of the resolution. The Resolutions Committee accepted these sponsor-requested amendments and recognized that they were consistent with the intent and substance of the original, timely-submitted resolutions. Pursuant to the Standing Rules, both the original resolution and the revised resolution that includes clarifications requested by the sponsor were posted on the website. The Committee recommends that the "REVISED FINAL" version of this Resolution be voted on by this body.

Exhibit G: Original and Substitute Motion for Resolution on Disbursement of the Proceeds from the Sale of Closed or Abandoned Church Property

Original Resolution:

A Resolution to Direct the Trustees of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference (TWK) On the Disbursement of the Proceeds From the Sale of Closed or Abandoned Church Property

Whereas, financial resources acquired from the sale of closed or abandoned church property should be used to both continue ministry and to develop new ministries consistent with the mission, vision, and values of the TWK;

Whereas, Resurrection is not only a future hope, but a present reality expressed through situations where financial resources obtained at the sale of closed or abandoned church property can begin new ministry in the closed or abandoned church's community and/or in a new community;

Whereas, direction to the Trustees on the disbursement of funds acquired after the sale of closed or abandoned church property brings clarity and efficiency;

Whereas, ¶1504.23 of The Book of Discipline directs the payment of the pro rata share of any aggregate unfunded pension obligations by the closed or abandoned church be made to the annual conference;

Whereas, ¶2549.7 of The Book of Discipline directs the disbursement of proceeds from a property sale located within an urban area of 50,000 or more;

Therefore, Let It Be Resolved, after the stipulation of ¶1504.23 has been met, the Trustees of the TWK shall disburse the remaining proceeds from the sale of closed or abandoned church property in the following manner:

1. The Trustees shall receive reimbursement for any documented cost accrued for caring and maintaining the closed or abandoned property from the date the Trustees acquired the property until the closing date of the sale of the property to provide ongoing care for other conference owned properties.
2. The balance of any unfunded Connectional Commitment remaining for the year the church was closed or abandoned shall be paid to the Conference Treasurer.
3. If items one and two have been met, and if ¶2549.7 is applicable, then 100 percent of the remaining proceeds shall be given to the TWK New Church Development (NCD) for new church starts, missional faith community development, or grants as stipulated by ¶2549.7 and approved by NCD.
4. If items one and two have been met, and if ¶2549.7 is not applicable, then NCD shall receive 75 percent of the remaining balance to support new church starts, missional faith community development, or grants for immerging ministry as directed and approved by NCD; The Cabinet Reserve Fund shall receive 22 percent of the remaining balance to support ministry needs in the districts as approved by the Cabinet; and finally, The TWK Committee on Archives and History shall receive 3 percent of the remaining balance to support its ministry purposes in the conference.

5. The Board of Trustees shall create from the existing closed church fund a Small Membership Church Improvement Fund of $1 million dollars for the benefit of churches worshipping 50 or less as determined by Table 1, Line 7 of the church's most recent statistical report. The fund would be used to assist small churches with major building repair issues. An application and approval process for access to such funds by small churches is to be developed by the Administration and the Discover/Send Strategy Teams.

Iglesia Metodista Unida Ebenezer – Faith Story

Beginning - 2011

Our history begun at West Nashville UMC as part of the Hispanic ministry. Out of tension and misunderstanding our pastor was let go, the Hispanic families were asked to congregate in the English worship service and asked to put headphones for translation. A couple weeks later tension grew, and we were asked to leave the church. Families were left without a place to worship. Out of pain and confusion we started meeting in a home.

- Small group in homes
  - Blasa and Marco Segovia house
  - 4 woman and 9 children
  - Upper Room devotional guide—El Aposento Alto
- Monroe West Park
    - Soccer ministry (42 children and youth)
    - Two boys' team and 1 girl team
    - Girls team won championship U10 division

Our mission is to offer Christ to a hurting world one person at a time. Pastor Miriam became known as the "soccer pastor." We connected to more than 40 families in the community and all the small business in the area knew us.

- Started to meet at 61st Avenue UMC
  - Letter to John Collet, our DS
    - We need a place to worship
    - We are UM and want to stay connected to our brothers and sisters
  - September 2011
  - Love, compassion, service
  - Connection to other UMC

    - Belmont UMC

Families began gathering for Bible studies, worship, house gatherings, and different trainings. With the love that was pouring into us we began serving others and sharing the Good News.

People were accepting Christ's love and asking to be part of this exciting ministry that welcomed them, accepted them, and loved them. We grow from 4 woman and 9 children to 50 in the first two years and 110 by 7 years. Each baptism, confirmation, membership, and wedding was and is a celebration of God's faithfulness and the congregation's humbleness to walk by faith.

During these years, God strengthen our faith and prepared us for the next transition in our lives.

  - Parks, balconies, parking lots
    - Gathering during the pandemic
    - Help of UMC congregations during our sorrows

We didn't know what the future hold for us as a congregation, but we knew God was present in the midst of things. We knew that the pain we felt of the selling of the building/home church was not going to deter us from sharing God's Good News. We were determined to stay together as a family no matter where we would go, and we knew that we want to stay in our beloved UMC.

During this journey, tears of pain and sorrow became tears of joy. All our friends from other UMCs came to worship with us in the Conference office and Hickory Bend. They continued nurturing the connection and partnership, and we started building relationships with the staff at the Conference Office. People started to get to know us, this Hispanic/Latino congregation from West Nashville.

We are a church on the movement.

- Home—West Nashville

- Next chapter . . . Connecting and serving our community

Yes, our story is somewhat painful and hard to listen, but it's also the story of faith, resurrection, and new beginnings.

When we couldn't see what the next step would be, we trusted God. We trusted that He would lead us to a better tomorrow. We trusted.

We experienced grace upon grace in every step of the journey. We experienced love and kindness from folks close to us and brothers and sisters we have not met. In our pain and hardship, we have the experienced God's presence in the connection with UMC. I truly can say that in the struggles we have experienced the best of the UMC, and I can surely say that it was in the struggles we became alive.

Greater things are yet to come.

Exhibit I: Sharing Our Stories: Project Transformation

Through Deep Waters I Call Thee to Go

As one of the hosts of the Project Transformation afterschool program in Nashville, I get the opportunity to lead Bible time every Wednesday evening, before elementary students connect with their families and head home. On one such day, I realized, that nobody in our group (15-20 scholars) had heard, what I contend is the most important story in the Hebrew Bible: the crossing of the red sea and the Jordan River—God liberating the people from hardship/oppression.

And so, one week I had our students start out in the hallway of downstairs classrooms; at Matthew's Memorial, we have a back stairwell that leads up to the sanctuary. I told the story and we reenacted what it would be like to run away from an army that was chasing us from behind and what it would be like to have God leading us to a new place. We sat down at campfires. Who can lead us with fire? Who wants to be the cloud? "I want to be the cloud!" But the time was up for the day so I promised we would conclude the story next week – "Pastor Luke, is it Bible time today?"

The next week we got up to the sanctuary and I had taken blue/green streamers and strung them across the aisle from pew to pew. And so they had to work as a team in, in sort of a relay-style race to cross these deep waters altogether. And inevitably they left someone behind. I said "you're going to leave your teammate behind!?" He said, "yeah." No, you gotta take everybody with you! And they eventually ended up at the front of our sanctuary around the baptismal font. It was there I taught them (some knew most did not) that water is really important to our faith because it reminds us of this great story that whenever we go on great journeys and cross deep waters, God is with us all the way.

I told them that when I was a kid, I also had a pastor who put water on me & taught me every time that I touched it, every time that I took a shower, a bath, or it rained outside or splashed in a puddle reminded me of this story; it meant I never had to take the journey alone. So, I let them touch feel the water, they giggled, and I smiled amazed that I get to be a part of this work.

I've been on a journey of my own, a faith journey, a vocational journey— the journey to full-time ministry. I didn't know it then, but first started to understand what God was doing with my life when I first interned with PT in the summer of 2014 in East Nashville. It was my own baptism and my faith community (FHUMC) that formed me and sent me into the local church — ones different from the context in which I was raised.

In college, I studied theology through textbooks and manuscripts and in the summer put on theology; a theology of one celebrating diversity and mutual relationship, - I tried it on, got proximate with those whom we call poor, and found abundance, the richness of community, held heavy stories & shared stories and learned…the stories of Jesus in a new way through the lens of a child. In 2016 to a room of volunteers, I called that doing ministry in the deep waters — a journey through the complexities of how & why literacy was connected to housing connected to food deserts connected to healthcare connected to transportation connected to the criminal injustice system connected back to education. And all these challenges were actually happening to not just real people, but real neighbors of mine in the city.

For those who have seen their communities change in recent years because of housing prices and business and developers, you might understand when I say, what East Nashville was 10 years ago, has moved up Gallatin pike into our zip code in Madison. And so what I was learning back in 2014 is the type of regentrification that's happening in the community that I now pastor. It is a profound privilege to live in the same neighborhood as most of our children & families. In addition, I get to teach, learn, and traverse these deep waters with young adults who thirst for justice & righteousness, who are on their own journey.

I stepped away from PT for a couple years when I pursued Masters of Divinity (which PT helped me apply for btw) but even in Atlanta, seminary students who had worked in other chapters captured a vision that this sort of work could work in North Georgia AC where churches are filled with volunteers but not necessarily a neighborhood to cling to while other churches had empty pews during the week that might be filled with young readers! I was doing a student pastoral internship at the first church that hosted in Atlanta — ok, now I was done. 5 summers is enough.

I did know that our Bishop McAlilly heard me that night in 2016 as I shared about "deep water ministry." What I didn't know is that the TWK conference leadership would remember me/genuinely consider that young folks are equipped to lead local churches… but 6 years later through some pretty deep waters, that's the journey I'm now on. Living out my vocation as a community leader, an advocate for young people, and steward of the local church. It's a story of a church connecting a college student with children. And God is with us all the way. The pews at Matthews Memorial do not only hold holy stories like the one I have shared today, they continue to host holy storytellers. Which is what you become when you partner with God's work through Project Transformation. Blessed are the storytellers for they will remember the goodness of God.

How Firm a Foundation

(United Methodist Hymnal 529, verse 3)
When through the deep waters I call thee to go,
The rivers of sorrow shall not overflow;
For I will be with thee, thy troubles to bless,
And sanctify to thee thy deepest distress.

Exhibit J: Cabinet Report

Rev. Chip Hunter, Stones River District
Rev. Nancy Johnson Varden, Purchase District
Rev. Cynthia Davis, Mississippi District

Chip: What an easy year we as a Cabinet have had—not much to report really!

But seriously, and in complete honesty, this year has been a difficult one for all of us. It was marked by dramatic/anticipated change, continued grief amid loss, and uncertainty in all corners of our shared life together. There have been days we, all of us, wanted to walk away. But our better angels showed up and we prayed for calm souls and the firm conviction that all is subject to God's holy will.

Nancy: We are sure it is not surprising to you all that whenever we gather as a Cabinet, we take Holy Communion together. We don't however conclude our time together at the Table, we make it our starting point. We share the bread and the cup, a practice that was suspended for almost 2 years due to Covid-19.

We were grateful for our February gathering that saw the bread and cup returned, and not in the form of a plastic peel back cup with a foil enclosed dry wafer, but real Hawaiian Bread and Welch's—intinction never felt so profound.

Table fellowship shaped the life Jesus had with his disciples as well as alongside meals with Mary and Martha, the Cana wedding feast, dining at the tax collector's home, breaking bread on hillsides, and as the risen Christ, sharing a meal on the way to Emmaus —the Table of Life therefore becomes our starting point for us as a Cabinet for our shared ministry, discernment, conversation, and sharing whenever we come together.

We know the Table is extended even further than us who make up the Cabinet. We know this because we have gotten through this year because of you all. Your prayers and support have been generous; calls, text messages, cards– we give thanks for the ways each of you have shown up for us!

Cynthia: At the start of our 2021-2022 Cabinet year a devotion helped us center our work together. The devotion given by one of our team centered on Ezekiel 37. Let me read some of those verses:

The hand of the Lord came upon me, and he brought me out by the spirit of the Lord and set me down in the middle of a valley; it was full of bones. 2 He led me all around them; there were very many lying in the valley, and they were very dry. 3 He said to me, "Mortal, can these bones live?" I answered, "O Lord God, you know." 4 Then he said to me, "Prophesy to these bones, and say to them: O dry bones, hear the word of the Lord. 5 Thus says the Lord God to these bones: I will cause breath to enter you, and you shall live. 6 I will lay sinews on you, and will cause flesh to come upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and you shall live; and you shall know that I am the Lord."

7 So I prophesied as I had been commanded; and as I prophesied, suddenly there was a noise, a rattling, and the bones came together, bone to its bone. 8 I looked, and there were sinews on them, and flesh had come upon them, and skin had covered them; but there was no breath in them. 9 Then he said to me, "Prophesy to the breath, prophesy, mortal, and say to the breath: Thus says the Lord God: Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live." 10 I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood on their feet, a vast multitude.

11 Then he said to me, "Mortal, these bones are the whole house of Israel. They say, 'Our bones are dried up, and our hope is lost; we are cut off completely.' 12 Therefore prophesy, and say to them, Thus says the Lord God: I am going to open your graves, and bring you up from your graves, O my people; and I will bring you back to the land of Israel. 13 And you shall know that I am the Lord, when I open your graves, and bring you up from your graves, O my people. 14 I will put my spirit within you, and you shall live, and I will place you on your own soil; then you shall know that I, the Lord, have spoken and will act," says the Lord.

Our fellow team member reminded us in their reflection that God did what God promised in Ezekiel 37: 1-14—the exiled did return from Babylon. With that reflection we were invited this year not to focus only on our concerns and predictions of what might occur this year but wisely we were asked to focus on our hopes and dreams as valleys presented themselves. Our collective hope this year has been…

(Cynthia says) That the People called United Methodist would live by the light and love of Jesus Christ.

(Nancy says) That the People called United Methodist would not fear.

(Chip says) That the people called United Methodist would be unified.

Chip: In order to do our work, we live in covenant with one another. We have differences too; we are the makeup of you all. One of our greatest joys is that we can celebrate with churches, communities, and individuals in ministry across our districts and entire TWK Conference. We get to see the whole orchestra; rural, urban, suburban, economic growth, economic hardships, county seats, hamlets, river ports, and a state capital.

We get the honor of showing up, supporting, and helping churches embrace their gifts and vulnerabilities. As we enter each conversation, charge conference, consultation, or church conference we are guided by prayer and the desire to help United Methodists be attuned to hear God's voice guiding their way forward. Whether a church is thriving or struggling, it is Spirit-led discernment that we pray is at the center of our efforts—we are all looking for Resurrection!

Nancy: At the December 4 Organizational Meeting for the TWK Conference there was an atmosphere of joy and thankfulness as the long work of birthing a new Conference was wrapped up. We could not imagine that less than a week later, on December 10, 2021, a long-tracked tornado would move across several counties and communities in Western Tennessee and Kentucky. The scale of the destruction and the number of lives lost was heart wrenching. Recovery isn't new to our area and after the December 10th event we know that it will continue to be a focus of our shared ministry together– one that is already seeing Resurrection.

Cynthia: A powerful moment for us as a Cabinet this year was being with the pastors and leaders of our connection that lost churches in the December tornado.

We all traveled to Mayfield, Kentucky in February where we were warmly welcomed at Christ UMC. Christ UMC, just down the road from First UMC Mayfield, has been housing and hosting not only work teams helping to build back homes in the community, but the staff and weekly worshiping community of Mayfield First UMC since Sunday, December 12. It was a reminder of how we are stronger together even when and especially when a crisis strikes. We set out from Mayfield to see as many communities in the area that time allowed. Our final stop was in Dresden, TN. We stood on the pavement of the cleared site where Dresden First UMC once stood. Every brick, piece of sheetrock, and wood that was the church's sanctuary and activity building were gone– already cleared away. But the pastor shared stories of the church working and being present for the community. Even though the physical structure of the church is gone it doesn't mean the church is gone. What hope we had as the bishop prayed for the pastor, the church, and the community.

It makes us think of Romans 12:12, "Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer." We have had hope this year, we have seen Resurrection, and it is with faith that we move forward rejoicing and praying for our TWK Annual Conference.

PART II PERTAINING TO ORDAINED AND LICENSED CLERGY

Note: A (v) notation following a question in this section signifies that the action or election requires a majority vote of the clergy session of the annual conference. If an action requires more than a simple majority, the notation (v 2/3) or (v 3/4) signifies that a two-thirds or three-fourths majority vote is required. Indicate credentials of persons in Part II: FD, FE, PD, PE, and AM when requested.

13. Are all the clergy members of the conference blameless in their life and official administration (¶¶604.4, 605.7)?

Question 13 does not require a vote; however, the 2016 Book of Discipline requires that a report be made to the Bishop and the conference in open session as to whether all clergy members of the conference are blameless in their life and official administration.

All but one, and yet all of us need to earnestly confess our sin before God and before one another.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Let us pray. Holy God of grace and mercy, you are always more ready to hear than we are to pray, and always ready to give more than we desire or deserve. Knowing our need to confess and your longing to forgive, we come before you in humility and lament. Though the answer to the question of our conduct and character is answered in the affirmative, and although we may be fit for appointment as prescribed in the Book of Discipline, we are all too keenly aware that our life together does not yet embody the realities of hope, redemption, and forgiveness that we proclaim.

In these moments, we confess to you our failure to live faithfully in covenant with our brothers and sisters, and the ways that we cause harm to one another both in what we say and what we do not say, both in what we do and what we do not do. Forgive us, we pray. Pour down upon us the abundance of your mercy, and help us to forgive one another as you first forgave us. Amen (Silence for personal confession)

The Rev. Dr. Mary Beth Bernheisel, TWK BOM Chair.

REPORTS

CAMP AND RETREAT MINISTRIES

Russell Casteel, Executive Director

The 2021 camping season started the return of campers, churches, and guests to Beersheba Springs Assembly and Cedar Crest after many months of change and unrest after Covid-19. During this season, our sites continued to invest in the infrastructure of their grounds by furthering repairs, remodeling, and renewing their hospitality. Early in 2022, bookings are returning for retreats and camps, with new opportunities for discipleship and sabbath being created for conference churches and communities.

If you are interested in creating a church retreat, a staff gathering, or creating a unique camp experience please contact executive director of Camp and Retreat Ministries, Russell Casteel, at russell.casteel@twkumc.org.

Camp and Retreat Ministries is grateful to the conference and her churches for their unwavering support and the opportunity to create and partner to make stronger spiritual leaders to empower discipleship!

Beersheba Springs Assembly
Under the leadership of Director Sarah Ratz, Beersheba Springs Assembly continues to expand its offerings and partnership with local churches. Alongside a women's retreat, Beersheba has offered a men's retreat, storytelling retreat, and crafting retreat with more retreats to debut in the years to come. After her completion of courses to become a certified spiritual director, Ratz has helped Beersheba to increase its capacity to offer churches, clergy, and lay leaders the opportunity to grow as spiritual leaders while on retreat. If your church is interested in one of these experiences, in creating a retreat for your congregation or in-person spiritual direction please contact Ratz at sarah.ratz@twkumc.org.

Upcoming Retreats:
Prayer Shawl Retreat, June 3–5, 2022
Introduction to Soul Collage, June 24–26, 2022
Men's Retreat August 12–14, 2022
Rest and Reset Retreat: A Women's Restorative Retreat, September 16–18, 2022

Cedar Crest Camp
2021 saw the return of summer camp to Cedar Crest after Covid forced closure during 2020. Operating at half capacity per American Camp Association accreditation guidelines, Cedar Crest welcomed back campers from over 150 churches to its grounds! Elementary, junior high, and senior high campers got to experience the debut of the camp zipline, its perimeter trail, and mountain biking on the campgrounds. Most importantly, campers were able to grow in their faith, and camp counselors were able to respond to a call to ministry to serve! Director Russell Casteel reports that the summer 2021 staff was among the best he had ever served with in 20 years of summer camp.

2022 has brought the return of retreat programs at Cedar Crest as well. Hosting its first ever Trail Run, Cedar Crest hosted runners from throughout Tennessee to its perimeter trail in January. In addition, the return of BE Retreat for children was a welcome kickoff to upcoming retreats for the seasons to come. Guest groups have also returned to Cedar Crest, and bookings continue for 2022 and beyond. If your youth and children's groups or churches are interested in our programming — including ropes courses, zipline, lake, perimeter trail, mountain biking, team building and low ropes — contact Casteel for more information. Announcements about 2023 BE Retreat, youth events, and beyond are right around the corner.

BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

Rick Quinn, Chair

In the last year since the Memphis and Tennessee 2021 annual conferences, the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry (TWK BHECM) has been at work bringing together a cadre of unique and diverse campus ministries ranging from the Mississippi River up into Western Kentucky and East toward the Cumberland Plateau. In total, the TWK BHECM represents 15 campus ministries with UMC presence on both state and private institutions of higher learning as well as historically black colleges and universities in geographic locations that reflect the diversity of our region in terms of rural and city settings and the diverse economic regions of our conference.

During this year, the TWK BHECM has worked with consultants from the UMCommission from the Georgia annual conferences during this year. The UMCommission has utilized site visits, individual and group meetings, and surveys in order to gather a picture of the promise and possibilities residing within our network of campus ministries in order to assist the board in conjunction with campus ministries to identify and develop strategies around leadership and local board support and development, financial stability and funding development, and strategic planning.

Our conferences campus ministries have also embodied the connectional spirit in both formal and informal ways with examples ranging from informal cooperation between ministries to aid with board development and recruitment, and job search assistance as well as more formal partnerships across campuses in joint ministries.

BOARD OF LAITY AND LAY SERVANT MINISTRIES

Janice McCallen and George Brown, TWK Conference Lay Leaders

The laity of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference have shown great resilience and adaptive leadership during this transitional year that challenged us spiritually, physically, and emotionally.

As we bid a fond farewell to our beloved Memphis and Tennessee conferences, we joyfully celebrate the uniting of these conferences as we officially became the laity of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference on January 1, 2022.

We are so much stronger together! As the laity of the TWK Conference continue to fulfill our calling to live out the Great Commission and to work together in mission and ministry, we are building exciting new relationships throughout the conference. This past year, God has inspired laity in new ways to minister to our neighbors by feeding the hungry, giving a drink to those who are thirsty, providing shelter for the homeless, donating clothing for those in need, and visiting the sick and those in prison.

Laity throughout our conference and beyond have banded together to provide disaster relief efforts, as our geographic area was battered with severe tornados, flooding, and fires over the past year. As a result of these efforts, the TWK Conference has partnered with the Kentucky Conference and volunteers have helped clean up and rebuild in the aftermath of several tornadoes that caused significant damage throughout the state of Kentucky.

As our churches continue to adapt to the ever-changing COVID-19 pandemic, lay people have partnered with their clergy to provide in-person and virtual worship opportunities for their churches all throughout the conference. Stories abound about how these new ways of worship have brought more people into our church buildings and our online communities. Although many of our churches have now returned to in-person worship, many more are continuing to maintain and build their online presence and are reaching a worldwide community of believers.

Our laity continued to participate in Lay Servant Ministries courses that were offered virtually and in person throughout the year. These classes have made it possible for laity all over the conference to meet online and be part of these class offerings, without having to leave their homes. Our virtual classes continue to be popular and provide many more opportunities for training than would otherwise be possible with only in-person classes.

We experimented with a new approach to our nominations process this year, and as a result, several hundred lay and clergy offered themselves for service on various ministry teams that have been formed or continue to be formed. We have many, many talented and extremely gifted laity that are now leading and guiding many of our ministry teams as we continue to build the structure of our new conference.

We appreciate that our 2022 annual conference will offer opportunities to participate in person and online. Some of our lay delegates will serve as hosts both in-person at Brentwood and in our online community. We look forward to our first annual conference as the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference.

Our report would not be complete without offering thanks and praise to God for the dedicated and faithful leadership of Holly Neal, who served eight years as the Tennessee Conference lay leader. Holly retired at the end of 2021. She was an integral part of bringing our boards of laity together and offering wisdom and guidance as we began meeting together several years ago. Holly leaves a legacy of leadership that will not soon be forgotten.

The laity of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference are committed to partner with our clergy leaders to fulfill the mission of our conference. Together we will “discover, equip, connect and send lay and clergy leaders who shape congregations that offer Christ to a hurting world, one neighborhood at a time.” We are honored to be part of this great work.

God bless the laity and clergy of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference!

BOARD OF PENSION AND HEALTH BENEFITS

Steve Curry, Chair

Most of our full-time active and retired clergy participate in defined benefit (DB, or traditional pension) plans. Our plans were funded by the annual conference and are administered by Wespath Benefits and Investments (Wespath), formerly known as General Board of Pension and Health Benefits.

The annual conference, this board, and their predecessors have been good stewards of the funds entrusted to us. As a result, the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference has pension reserves that should protect our retirees well into the future.

The 2023 Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan for the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference will be prepared and submitted to Wespath as required by the Book of Discipline (2016), ¶1506.6. We have sufficient projected revenues and reserves to fully fund all the conference's benefit obligations for the foreseeable future.

The 2023 Past Service Rate for Pre-82 Plan is $770.

I want to express my appreciation for the extraordinary commitment and dedication by the members of the Board of Pensions & Health Benefits. Their service is utmost important and invaluable.

Active Clergy Health Insurance
Wespath, through Healthflex Exchange, is opening medical insurance plan options for full-time clergy and their families, billing the annual conference a blended rate. For churches with full-time clergy on the conference plan, premiums billed to the churches will reflect that blended rate in the form of a fixed premium credit. Each church will be billed the same amount of no more than $14,400 annually. The full-time clergy then choose the insurance plan that best fits their needs and pay the premium appropriate to their selection through a pre-tax salary reduction.

Dental and vision coverages remain optional, and those premiums may also be paid in full or in part through a pre-tax salary reduction. Through Healthflex Exchange, there are three dental and two vision plan options from which the clergy may choose.

The due date for submitting premium payments is the 25th of each month, and a 2 percent late fee will be added for payments received after the due date. Insurance may be subject to cancellation after 90 days of nonpayment.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Erv Walker, Chair

The purpose of the Board of Trustees is to receive, hold in trust, buy and sell real and personal property, and to invest funds, if any, as prescribed in The Book of Discipline, 2016, Section IV. Annual Conference Property, ¶ 2512. 1 – 8, in the name of and on behalf of the Memphis Annual Conference. Additionally, pursuant to ¶2517 Responsibilities of Annual Conference Trustees Related to Health and Welfare Institutions, the conference trustees have the responsibility of establishing and maintaining statements of relationship between the conference and related health and welfare organizations within the bounds of the conference.

The Board of Trustees has two regular meetings each year, spring and fall. The board also routinely conducts business via e-mail and Zoom conferences in order to minimize the impact of time and travel on the board members as well as to be effective and timely in its work.

The Board of Trustees oversees and/or contributes to the maintenance of properties on behalf of the conference and provides assistance to the districts in completing property transactions approved by prior annual conference resolutions. It provides guidance and information as requested in matters pertaining to the full range of former and current property issues.

The trustees voted to approve a property management and brokerage program with A. Anthony Corporation to effectively manage discontinued and abandoned churches across the conference.

COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

Linda Scott, Chair
Gratia Downs Strother, Conference Archivist
David Martin, Conference Historian

The Commission on Archives and History preserves and makes available archival documents and artifacts that chronicle our TWK Conference heritage. We are located at the John Abernathy Smith Heritage Center, 520 Commerce Street, Suite 205, Nashville, Tennessee, 37203. Open by appointment.

Making most of these archival documents available online continues to be our focus for both 2022 and 2023. To make the collections easily searchable and provide quick results, updated equipment replaced outdated technology. Standard archival practice recommends three copies of each item in an archive: the original, a copy/photograph or digital record onsite on a different type of media, and a copy/photograph or digital record offsite. Scanning and digitizing documents allows us to save the second copy in a digital format and use cloud storage to meet the offsite requirement. This practice will eventually reduce our physical space requirements and increase access to our collections for clergy, laity, and the public.

For the 2021-2022 grant year, we received a $3,600 grant from the Tennessee State Library and Archives. It was an American Rescue Plan Act grant for improving digital platforms and online services at non-profit archives, museums, and libraries. The grant is made possible by the U.S. Institute of Museum and Library Services. With these funds, we were able to convert 144 rolls of microfilm — containing some of the only record evidence of our history — into searchable PDF documents which we will soon have posted online.

Gathering the records of closed churches and preserving a copy of the records of disaffiliating churches is an ongoing part of our work. Using scanning and photography also helps us to limit our square footage needs and allows records to stay in the community where they originated but still keep a copy in our conference archives.

The conference archivist and conference historian manage approximately 200 patron requests annually. Response time has slowed considerably as we are implementing digitization and cataloging, as these are slow processes. Our most requested services are:

1. Baptism and membership records
2. Family history/genealogy of clergy/laity
3. Conference and church staff requests related to church, district, and conference administration
4. Requests from historians and authors. Recent research areas have been:
    - TWK predecessor conference activity and clergy activity at the start of the 20th Century related to Sam Jones and the Holiness Movement
    - The history of Black congregations within the Methodist, United Methodist, and United Brethren denominations
5. Coordination with churches experiencing tornado and flood damage to mitigate damage to church records

We continue to preserve the UMC historic sites in our care: the Asbury-Babb House in Wilson County, the Green Hill Cemetery in Williamson County, and Strother's Meeting House on the campus of Scarritt-Bennett in Nashville.

The majority of our commissioners are new as of January 2022. They are a skilled team of both professional and amateur archivists, historians, and museum staff. Their counsel is helping shape the archives into a readily accessible and easy-to-use entity for the TWKUMC.

We are immensely thankful for the commissioners who have served in this ministry of memory over the years and worked hard to preserve the treasured documents and artifacts of our history. Special recognition goes to Rev. Leland Carden, who served faithfully first on the commission, and then as chair, for many years. His enthusiasm for this work is boundless and his commitment to preserving our Methodist history unwavering. The entire TWKUMC and SEJ have benefitted immensely from his work. Thanks and appreciation to you, Leland!

COMMISSTION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

Dell King, Chair

The purpose of the Equitable Compensation Commission (ECC) is to support full-time clergy serving as pastors in the charges of the annual conference by: (a) recommending conference standards for pastoral support; (b) administering funds to be used in base compensation supplementation, and (c) providing counsel and advisory material on pastoral support to district superintendents and committees on pastor-parish relations; and (d) submitting an arrearage policy to be adopted by the annual conference. This purpose is consistent with the provision of ¶ 625 of The Book of Discipline, (2016).

We recommend the following to the conference for action:

I. MINIMUM COMPENSATION LEVELS:

The commission recommends the following minimum compensation levels which brings minimum salary levels to approximately 75% of the conference average compensation (CAC). Compensation does not include housing, which is the obligation of the charge, ¶252.4e however a charge without a parsonage is expected to pay a minimum of 25% of the minimum compensation amount for housing. Also note that this does not include the local church's fund for reimbursement to pastors for expenses incurred in the fulfillment of their professional responsibilities ("accountable reimbursement"). That reimbursement is in addition to the pastor's salary ¶ 627.

Clergy serving as pastors	With Parsonage	Without Parsonage
Ordained, Associate, and Commissioned Members	$45,350	$56,675
Full Time Local Pastors	$44,350	$55,675

II. QUALIFICATION PROCESS FOR EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

To qualify for an Equitable Compensation Grant, a charge must submit an application to the Commission on Equitable Compensation through their district superintendent. The application will explain in detail why conference funds should be used for this charge, and what efforts have been made to raise the funds needed to pay the pastor's salary. Additionally, the application must explain the goals for the charge and pastor, and how it is engaging in its mission field. The following information must be included with the application:

1. Equitable Compensation Commission questionnaire
2. Current clergy compensation package approved by charge conference
3. Church audit or financial statement (income statement and balance sheet)
4. Current year church budget
5. Current year church statistical report (Table 1, 2, 3)
6. Direct deposit form (all payments will be direct deposited into church's account)

The application must be signed by the SPRC or council chair, and district superintendent, and recommended by the cabinet to the Equitable Compensation Commission. If a grant application is approved by the commission, Administrative Services will be instructed to forward the funds monthly to the church's bank using ACH (direct deposit).

At the date of this submission, the appointments for 2021-22 have not been finalized. Therefore, the Commission on Equitable Compensation will meet with the bishop and cabinet from time to time as needed to determine the amount that will be awarded to various charges from this budgeted amount based on justified need and availability of funds.

III. ARREARAGE POLICY

According to The Book of Discipline (2016), ¶¶624.1 and 625.2d, the Commission on Equitable Compensation is to submit "an arrearage policy to be adopted by the annual conference". This policy is to address the situation where a church is slow or unable to pay the agreed upon compensation of its pastor.

1. In the event the local church treasurer becomes aware that the church will be unable to provide to the pastor full payment of a regularly scheduled payroll or housing allowance installment, the church treasurer shall immediately notify both verbally (within 24 hours) and in writing (within three days) the pastor, the lay leader, and the chairs of S/PPRC, finance, trustees, and the administrative/church council of the impending arrearage. Upon receipt of such notice, the chair of S/PPRC and/or the pastor shall immediately (within three days) notify the district superintendent of the impending arrearage. If the pastor does not receive an agreed upon payment and does not receive written notice from the local church treasurer required above, the pastor may initiate this process by notifying the district superintendent within 30 days of the missed payment. It is the pastor's responsibility to keep copies of all such written notifications, and to provide additional written confirmation (see #8 below) to the district superintendent when an arrearage has taken place. Failure to document salary or benefit arrearages may result in a loss of compensation and/or forfeiture of benefits.

2. Upon receipt of notice of a pending arrearage, the chair of S/PPRC shall immediately (within three days) call a meeting of the pastor, lay leader, and chairs of finance, trustees, the administrative/church council, and the district superintendent to discuss the financial situation and seek remedies to prevent an arrearage from occurring. Such remedies might include:

- Drawing from invested funds, including short-term borrowing from board designated funds
- An emergency appeal for special giving from the congregation
- Emergency grants or loans from the district or conference

According to The Book of Discipline ¶624.1, such remedies cannot include a reduction in the pastor's compensation until the beginning of the next conference year.

3. If, after consultation among the lay leader and chairs of S/PPRC, finance, trustees, the administrative/church council, and district superintendent, it becomes apparent that the church may be facing a long-term financial crisis, the chair of S/PPRC shall notify in writing the pastor and district superintendent that an Equitable Compensation Subsidy Grant may be necessary to maintain compensation for the remainder of the conference year, or a change in pastoral compensation or appointment may be necessary at the beginning of the following conference year.

4. If the local church becomes delinquent in the pastor's compensation (i.e., more than 30 days delinquent), then the district superintendent shall notify the Commission on Equitable Compensation, which on its own initiative may do any or all the following, but not limited to:

- Sending a representative from CEC to meet with the local church and pastor to seek resolution of the issue
- Developing with the local church a payment plan so that the pastor receives full payment of compensation by the end of the conference year

The district superintendent shall be invited to participate in this process.

5. If the local church is already receiving a subsidy grant from the Commission on Equitable Compensation, the commission may also:

- Examine the original subsidy grant application to determine if the amount requested to meet minimum compensation was reduced
- Require an outside audit of all church funds in compliance with GCFA Guidelines (www.gcfa.org)
- Notify the district superintendent of its findings and recommendations in writing

6. ¶ 2543.1 of The Book of Discipline (2016) makes clear that no real property on which a church building or parsonage is located shall be mortgaged to pay for the current or budgeted expenses of a local church (including arrearages), nor shall the principal proceeds of a sale of any such property be so used. This provision shall apply alike to unincorporated and incorporated local churches.

7. In extreme and unresolved circumstances, the local church and/or pastor may petition a session of the annual conference, following proper procedures, for assistance in payment of the arrearage not to exceed the minimum conference compensation standards. However, it is the responsibility of the local church to provide a minimum compensation for its appointed clergy (¶624).

8. It is the responsibility of the pastor to provide evidence of an arrearage by providing documentation such as: treasurer's reports, charge conference reports of adopted salary and compensation, check stubs, W-2 forms, and a Certification of Payment form signed by the pastor, S/PPRC chair, trustee chair, treasurer, and administrative/church council chair. If such persons are not making themselves available to sign, the information will be provided with the signature of the pastor and the district superintendent.

9. The statute of limitations for filing a claim for funds from the annual conference (i.e., notification to the district superintendent of the arrearage) for any salary arrearage is one year from the date of the initial arrearage. Once an appointment ends the pastor no longer has claim on the local church for compensation funds (¶342.4).

COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

Rev. Dr. Erin Beasley, Chairperson

The Book of Discipline ¶643 states that the Conference Commission shall follow the general guidelines and structure of the General Commission which are stated in ¶2002: The purpose of the Commission on Religion and Race shall be to challenge, lead, and equip the people of The United Methodist Church to become interculturally competent, to ensure institutional equity, and to facilitate vital conversations about religion, race, and culture.

The newly formed Commission on Religion and Race is committed to leading the way with this work for the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference. If you have questions about how your congregation can embark on this work or if you're interested in sharing your transformative experiences while engaging in this work, please contact Rev. Dr. Erin Beasley, ebeasley@burdetteumc.org.

COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS RELATIONSHIPS

Rev. Nick Baird-Chrisohon, Chair

The Committee on Christian Unity and Interreligious Relationships (CUIR) builds relationships with ecumenical and interfaith partners throughout the Tennessee-Western Kentucky area. Our committee encourages and facilitates connections through direct partnerships and interactions on the local level and participation in representative bodies at the national level. We are active participants in the denominational United Methodist Ecumenical and Interreligious Training (UMEIT) and their online gatherings UMEIT:Zoom.

This year, our team is delighted to welcome three new members. With new faces comes new perspectives and ideas, so we are exploring ways to offer ecumenical and interfaith training to local churches and district teams that seek to better know their non-Methodist neighbors. We also look forward to announcing our new initiative to visit churches, mosques, temples, and synagogues to those who are interested in learning about other faith traditions, beginning in summer of this year. It is our goal to offer opportunities for the theologically curious to experience the world of religion through the experience of shared hospitality. If you are interested in joining us, please email n.bairdchrisohon@twkumc.org.

As always, we welcome any who are interested in ecumenical and/or interfaith partnerships to join our team.

COMMITTEE ON EPISCOPACY

Rev. Randy Cooper and Dr. Lynn Hill, co-chairs

In his 10 years as our Episcopal leader, Bishop William T. McAlilly has often been heard to say that as Christians we are "to leave it all on the field." Clearly it can be said that through his faithful leadership, he has done just that. Over and over again, he has left it all on the field. He has challenged the people called Methodists of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference to keep the main thing, the main thing. That main thing is making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. His challenge to us comes through his blogs, videos, teaching, and preaching. His leadership has been clearly seen in the ways he has risen to the unprecedented challenges of a global pandemic.

One of these challenges was keeping the forward movement of launching a new conference by merging the Tennessee and Memphis conferences. This endeavor had been unsuccessfully attempted before. However, with the leadership of Bishop McAlilly and strong leadership from the laity and clergy from both annual conferences, on December 4, 2021, the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference was born. The future of The United Methodist Church in Middle and West Tennessee and Western Kentucky is bright.

The role of the Conference Episcopacy Committee is given in paragraph 637 of the 2016 Book of Discipline. In part, this committee is to "support the bishop of the area in the oversight of the spiritual and temporal affairs of the Church, with special reference to the area where the bishop has presidential responsibility and to be available to the bishop for counsel." The members of the Conference Episcopacy Committee are grateful for the opportunity we have had to work with Bishop McAlilly, Rev. Dr. Rob Martin, and H.G. Stovall in continuing to strengthen the ministries of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference. It is our prayerful desire that Bishop McAlilly be our bishop at least until the next General Conference in 2024.

We are also grateful for the leadership given by Lynn McAlilly through her participation with Project Transformation, Miriam's Promise, and the Mama Lynn Women's Center in the East Congo Conference.

Bishop McAlilly will be giving his all to our conference in these next few years. As many of his general church responsibilities come to an end, he will be able to devote nearly all his time and energy to the churches and communities in Tennessee and Western Kentucky.

The above quote from the Book of Discipline reminds us that the Committee on Episcopacy functions in many ways as a Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee in our churches. Our greatest service as a committee is thus to pray for our bishop and his staff who facilitate his ministry. We pray with our eyes open to the challenges Bishop McAlilly faces. We pray asking God to give him strength to share his greatest gift — his willingness to be present among us, to stand in the midst of the fray, and to reach out to all people within our churches. May he be wise as serpents and innocent as doves in his oversight of our churches. May he not be discouraged by the knowledge that our United Methodist Church is both wounded and wounding, and may he be an instrument of God's peace and healing. As our "chief pastor," may he help us all to find ways to love one another, which is his own deepest hope.

We urge all delegates to invite your congregations to pray each week, if not each day, for Bishop Bill and his wife Lynn, for Rev. Rob Martin, Bishop McAlilly's assistant, and for H.G. Stovall, the Executive Office administrator.

Let us encourage one another.

COMMITTEE ON NATIVE AMERICAN MINISTRIES

Mary T Newman, Coordinator of Native American Ministries

In 2021 the Committee on Native American Ministries (CONAM) was co-chaired by Pat Bryan and Debbie Fitzhugh. Coordinator of Native American Ministries, per CONAM, was Mary T Newman. The committee is inclusive; approximately one-half of its membership is Native American. In 2020, we added two youth, one young adult. and one representative to the UMW.

Native American Ministry Sunday (NAMS) is one of the UMC six Special Sunday offerings. We average 40 churches contributing to the offering with an average of $6,000. Due to the COVID pandemic, this was drastically lower. One-half of money received remains in the annual conference and is used by CONAM and one-half is used for seminary scholarships by Native Americans and other educational endeavors. Recognition and celebration of Native American Ministry Sunday is a challenge. On the church calendar, NAMS follows Easter and is in the time frame of Golden Cross and Mother's Day so we encourage celebrating any time of the year.

Our scholarship program is in memory of Allison Fitzhugh who left us too soon. The scholarship is to be used by Native Americans for higher ed or trade school.

We continue to maintain a 6' x 12' enclosed trailer and are seen on the roads and at events. With the logos so visible, we have opportunity for conversation and can pull up to an event and have everything on hand for our booths. Pages are also maintained on moccasinfootprints.org.

Our annual Native American Resource Day is held the first Sunday of March. 2019 was our 17th year. As with other programming, this time together was on hold due to restrictions. We continued to be available for resources and speakers. As an example of our commitment, we have a traditional Native American meal, present audio/video resources, and speakers to engage the participants. We have large displays and book resources. Every church receives a binder full of re-printable materials. Distribution of current and accurate information is vital and we have garnered materials which validate the importance of Native Americans at the table. We concentrated on personal contact with churches.

We acknowledge that there are individual churches with their own personal ministries with Native Americans. The resource day is valuable to those churches also and CONAM gladly offers the resources, displays, and scheduling of speakers to all churches. Our committee has developed or gathered resources that are available to the local church. They can be used for services, study groups, youth and children's groups, or as part of an ongoing opportunity for understanding through education. Gone are the days of missionizing, rather, the goal is in partnership and being in mission together.

We were blessed in 2020 with a partnership with Ashland City United Methodist church offering us office space for our ministry. Mary T Newman maintains the office. Our ministry continues. We were a part of Zoom services and as the restrictions lightened, participated in services at some of our churches.

Native Moccasins Rock (NMR) is our annual weekend of interactive learning and it returned in 2021. All guidelines from the CDC were followed. Medical personnel were on hand. Mocs Rocks is based on fellowship and friendship. Understanding through education remains one of our primary goals. 2021 was our 19th year. The Memphis Conference has also been a partner in the sponsorship of the event. Our leadership is internationally and nationally known.

Held every August, we have an age span of babies to grannies which highlights Mocs Rocks as an intergenerational event. There is a focus in our activities for children, youth, and adults with breakout sessions per age groups. Culturally based workshops in the area of arts and music attract the participants. The interactive workshops are drawn from traditional skills and taught by dedicated leadership. A Time for Spirit is one of the foci when everyone is together to cover the theme of the year. The theme in 2021 was Native Leadership in the Native Community. We end with a powerful prayer circle. Tears of joys, sadness, and lifting up of the ones who have crossed over are shared. Of great joy is the continued relationship with the Mississippi Band of Choctaw who bring youth every year. In 2019, we were blessed with the addition of a Choctaw youth group who travels with the focus on education and interaction at events, which broadens their horizons and opportunities. We now have five in college who have attended for 15 years. The members of CONAM share who we are in Christ, our connectional system of the UMC and celebrate opportunities to form relationships. Sadly, one of the young men from Mississippi Band Choctaw passed on from COVID, and Sybil Tubby, wife of pastor Daniel Tubby also passed over from COVID.

Native American Indian Association of Tennessee (NAIA) has the longest running NA charter with the state. We formed a relationship to sponsor a health fair at their powwow which is the largest powwow in the state. We are the first denomination to have this relationship. Their words are “someone always wants something for themselves”. Our reassurance was “we just want to share”. We distribute multiple resources relating to health concerns and have materials with a focus on spiritual health.

We continued our relationship with Meharry Medical College. With a tent for testing blood glucose and blood pressure checks, we have enlarged our health fair by including the dental tent with an average of 17 students and presiding instructors. Every year the comments such as, “We didn’t know the UMC is involved”, and, “I am United Methodist and didn’t know”, reminds us that there is more to do to grow the connection and enlarge the circle of God’s kingdom. The powwow returned in 2021 with safety protocols set by the state park system and the state health protocols. We sponsor the EMT’s and their ambulance service.

We see this sponsorship and partnership as wise investment from our offering funds. Where we can be of service which is a part of our Social Principles, we are there. UMCOR responds to disasters. We work toward the visioning of the future seven generations. Our partnerships also include Native American Indian Services and Native American Educational Resources. Both groups work with the public and with Native Americans across the state. There are still 569 federally recognized tribes and there are state recognized tribes. To date, there are 363 native languages. It’s quite a challenge for us to be aware of the different cultures and traditions but we are committed to enlarging the breath of life our great Creator gifts us with.

We have dedicated committee members who have been committed to the work of CONAM. Individuals on the committee also have personal ministries. Wes and Pat Bryan have contacts across the U.S. and during their travels, they schedule stops at reservations and churches. They sent school supplies and new coats, etc. There has been a long-standing partnership with Gary and Kathy Collier of the Memphis Conference. The ministry is called Volunteers for Cherokee Children. Quarterly trips to Cherokee are made to deliver coats, clothing, and hygiene supplies. There is an emphasis on school supplies. The relationship with a social worker and partnership with the Cherokee UMC Mission Church as home base enables them to learn and work with the community. There is an emphasis also on Elder Project. Christmas was special as our CONAM worked with the social worker to have Christmas presents and baby supplies sent to Cherokee as the tribe restricted incoming supplies due to the pandemic. We have a system in place to deliver supplies locally to N.A.I.A. which benefits their efforts of working with Native Americans across Tennessee. This was still accomplished during the pandemic. We have dedicated funds to emergency relief efforts also.

As a part of the connection, we work with Native American Comprehensive Plan (NACP) and Southeast Jurisdictional Association of Native American Ministries (SEJANAM). Mary T Newman serves on NACP with the executive team and is on the council board of SEJANAM. We are also represented in the southeast as Newman is chair of the Southeast Regional Native American Caucus (SERNAC), which places her on the Native American International Caucus (NAIC). NAIC is the advocacy arm of the UMC. We continue to be in prayer and work toward raising the level of awareness so we can all call upon our great Creator God for discernment and healing.

CONAM continues to stand on our Social Principles. Environmental concerns and socio-economic challenges have come to the forefront with the Water Protectors at Standing Rock who took a stand to protect the water. Thirty waterways branch off the Missouri River. Although the land seemed in dispute, Federal Tribal Law states that unless a treaty is nullified, land remains Indian Land even though the size of a reservation changes. Although this seemingly past event is not in the news, we are still involved with environmental concerns. The challenges raised at Standing Rock are not over and we stay informed of the continuing struggles. We uphold the work of Creation Cares also.

Our CONAM is still known as one of the stronger CONAMS in the U.S. Members of CONAM continue to participate nationally in leadership training opportunities. Of course, due to restricted travel, a lot of work was continued with Zoom calls, webinars, etc. Very few Native Americans are representatives within jurisdictions and thankfully Newman serves the Southeast Jurisdiction on Global Ministries (GBGM). Newman also works on the task force concerning the mascot issues and serves on the Program Advisory Group with the UMW and the By-laws and Legislation Committee.

A resolution was presented at the Tennessee Annual Conference in 2021. May 5 was lifted up as a day of prayer to remember missing and murdered indigenous women and girls. The resolution passed and we are prayerful that people begin to understand this ongoing tragedy.

We continue to walk what is known as the red road of ministry. The committee continues our current relationships within the Native American communities, the local church, and the secular community. We strive to create new paths of understanding through fellowship and friendship which continues to establish trusting relationships. Native American and indigenous peoples see our great Creator God in many ways and with many names from many languages. As United Methodists, we speak of making disciples for the transformation of the world. Our challenge as the Church may be to see Jesus as they do, then there will truly a transformation of the world. Claiming Acts 17:26, we share that God, as we know him, understood the concepts of tribes. If Jesus was, is and always will be a tribal man, how better to say, “We know a tribal man who would love to know you”.

CREATION CARE

Martha Lyle Ford, Ann Cover, and Daniel Joranco

Creation care begins in Genesis where God artfully crafts the universe in ways that nourish and connect every component part, even opposites — light, dark, water, soil, heavenly bodies, plants, animals — before finally setting humans in this sumptuous garden to tend to creation life. It was clear early on that if you push in on any part of creation, it will pooch out somewhere else. Overstepping the limits God sets for us has devastating impacts for both humanity and the earth. Witnesses to creation care continue in the Psalms and the prophets where mountains sing and forests applaud at righteous faithfulness and worship. Jesus understood that salvation extends to the creation, "For God so loved the 'cosmos' that He sent . . .." Paul knew the "whole creation waits with eager longing for the arrival of the sons and daughters of God" in order to undo the ways we humans have dragged down the creation with all our unfaithfulness. The Book of Revelation culminates in the arrival of the new creation heralding the new age where God reigns, leaves of trees heal, and nourishing relationships of every kind are restored. Our Creation Care ministry grows out of Scripture and those who dare follow this Word.

We are grateful to our emerging TWK Conference for its early support and encouragement, especially with its attention to excellent communication resources that have served us well at the beginning. Each TWK Conference newsletter has included pertinent Creation Care information and event schedules. We trust you will come to count on that trustworthy information we will help to provide and edit.

The blended conference that has arisen out of the legacy Tennessee and Memphis conferences has allowed us to combine resources and successes from our various geographies to strengthen our Creation Care witness:

- We have spent this first year getting acquainted with and learning to trust many of the faithful witnesses from both sides of the Tennessee River, working hard to understand the methods our neighboring United Methodists have used in service to Creation Care.
- Ann Cover and Martha Lyle Ford provide excellent leadership in their local regions and also for us at the TWK Conference level. Daniel Joranko serves as our ministry director and connects us to the national church's Creation Care ministry, often by leading national events here in Nashville. Paul Slentz, Tom Smedley, and Gregory Waldrop offer financial oversight to our shared work.
- Lakeshore Camp hosted a retreat for our early conversations; Lakeshore, Beersheba Springs, and Cedar Crest with their Creation Care focus and curriculum are excellent partners in our work.
- Other identified partners include trustees of local churches and conference properties as well as the many leaders in disaster relief across the conference who are eager to build back in sustainable and just ways.
- We continue to support Creation Care witnesses throughout the TWK Conference who organize Creation Care committees in local churches or who recycle and renovate in ways attentive to Creation Care insights.
- Our website — creationcaretwkumc.org — offers many exceptional resources for individuals and local churches. Our email address is creation.care@twkumc.org.

Goals for our new year include:

1. To discover all the Creation Care work that is happening within the bounds of our emerging conference and providing support and encouragement for each site. We are budgeting seed money for local projects.
2. To offer national and local resources to our local churches concerning Creation Care.
3. To make connections in each district and with each Wesley Foundation to offer insights and services concerning Creation Care, including devotions, Bible studies, worship resources, best practices, articles, renovation/rebuild checklists, webinars, EarthKeeper training, recycling information, certifications, etc.
4. To organize events throughout the TWK Conference which care for God's unreplaceable creation.

Like a good jigsaw puzzle, Creation Care is not complete without every piece in its place. How are you called to be a part of this basic work of discipleship we call Creation Care? Contact us with your good ideas and your concerns for the world in which we live and love. If your heart is as our hearts, give us your hand. Take your place within the network of life that restores vibrant relationships and works to redeem the whole of creation.

GENERAL AND JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCE DELEGATIONS

Harriet Bryan and Jim Allen,
Heads of the Delegation from the former Tennessee Conference
Autura Eason-Williams and David Reed,
Heads of the Delegation from the former Memphis Conference

One of the loose ends from the merger of the Tennessee and Memphis conferences is the composition of your delegations to the General and Southeastern Jurisdictional conferences. As provided by the Plan of Merger and the Discipline, persons elected to those conferences continue to serve through the next General and SEJ conference. But even though your delegates from the former Memphis and Tennessee conferences were elected pre-merger, we are coordinating our work and continue to pray for one another and meet periodically by Zoom in order to stay abreast of information and expectations regarding our roles. Each delegate prepares in their own way, and there are multiple resources from which to glean the latest facts, which we collectively attempt to distinguish from the rumors du jour.

Over the past year, the delegation prepared for an abbreviated virtual General Conference called for May 2021, which was subsequently canceled, and the next General Conference scheduled for August 29–September 6, 2022, in Minneapolis, which has also been postponed until 2024. You can keep up with the latest news, legislation, and other resources at https://www.resourceumc.org/en/churchwide/general-conference-2020.

A virtual Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference was held July 21, 2021, when the official vote on the formation of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference finally happened, bringing this new conference into existence as of January 1, 2022

We are grateful for the trust you have placed in us and remain committed to serving faithfully.

Kent McNish, Executive Director

ENCORE Ministry is an older adult ministry resource in the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference of The United Methodist Church which provides support for church leaders and congregations to meet the needs of the fastest growing demographic group in the conference. There is no cost to congregations or districts for its service.

ENCORE Ministry provides:

- Training and support for local church leaders in planning older adult ministries

- One-on-one consultative ministry with local church and district leadership teams in reframing aging and designing older adult ministries
- Seminars and resources that assist local churches in developing and sustaining intentional older adult ministry
- Network opportunities for leaders in older adult ministries to learn from one another and from other sources and agencies
- Grant funding for congregations in several areas related older adult ministry

ENCORE Ministry is comprised of members from the various districts in the conference. Members review grant applications and approval and provide training workshops in older adult ministry throughout the conference.

As an extension ministry of the conference, ENCORE Ministry's grant funding purpose is to provide:

- Assistance in funding new and ongoing ministries by, with, and for older adults
- Expertise and strategic planning to the districts and conference for the expansion of innovative and intentional older adult ministries

Financial grants are provided to United Methodist churches and districts within the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference to meet the needs and challenges of older adults. With few exceptions, grants are matching grants. Since 2013, ENCORE Ministry has awarded 94 grants to conference churches totaling $747,380.

In the midst of the COVID-19 pandemic, ENCORE Ministry began publishing ENCORE Ministry Connection, a monthly e-newsletter for church leaders and older adults. Each issue is filled with relevant articles, resource information, and suggested books and websites to visit. To sign up for a free subscription, email csolomon@encoreministry.org.

Additional resources are located on the revised and updated ENCORE Ministry website at www.encoreministry.org. Here, leaders will find a wealth of information that supports their intentional ministry by, with, and for older adults.

To learn how ENCORE Ministry can help make a significant difference in the life of your congregation in older adult ministries, contact:

GENERAL BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND MINISTRY

Greg Bergquist, General Secretary

The General Board of Higher Education and Ministry (GBHEM) seeks to promote innovative and experiential opportunities for transformative learning, higher education, and ministry formation worldwide. The agency works with key partners, churches, and institutions in Africa, Asia Pacific, Europe, and Eurasia, Latin American and the Caribbean, and North America to offer connectional, contextual, and collaborative programs to support the Church, the Academy, and the world. Among its various activities, GBHEM is responsible for two initiatives approved by General Conference: The Methodist Global Education Fund for Leadership Development (MGEFLD) — which includes the Grants and Scholarships Program (GRASP) — and the Central Conference Theological Education Fund (CCTEF). The agency also maintains Regional Hubs for Leadership, Education and Development (LEAD Hubs) in various locations around the world, has helped create and support the International Association of Methodist Schools, Colleges, and Universities (IAMSCU), and works with regional education associations on five continents. GBHEM is currently partnering with general agencies and other organizations to support important projects on COVID-19 vaccine equity, mindfulness and wellbeing, net-zero emissions, human rights, and the promotion of a culture of generosity throughout the United Methodist worldwide connection.

In 1972, The United Methodist Church reaffirmed its support of the 11 historically black colleges and universities related to the denomination by creating the Black College Fund and this year we celebrate its 50th anniversary. Support for the Black College Fund supports the education of world-changing leaders by investing in the hopes and dreams of students from around the world. Continued support for the Black College Fund renews the vision for the next generation of transformational leaders.

We celebrate GBHEM awarding more than 2,250 students a total of $4,084,979 in scholarships in 2021. These future leaders range from first year freshmen to doctorate level students across the denomination. We are grateful for the support received in recognizing United Methodist Student Day, World Communion Sunday, and Native American Sunday which helps fund a portion of our scholarships. The remaining funds for these awards come from gifts, annuities, and endowments GBHEM has invested and administered for decades.

Worldwide Inclusion, Diversity, Equity, and Access (WIDEA) is a strategic focus area for GBHEM to align its work with the mission and ministry of congregations and constituents around the world. This renewed commitment includes advanced staff development in intercultural competency, active listening, and a deeper understanding of and appreciation for difference so relevant programs and services may be developed, offered, and implemented more equitably and effectively.

GBHEM remains committed to building and sustaining collaborative cross-conference networks that foster collegiality and guide credentialing for ordained and licensed ministry. We have partnered with conference leaders to clarify the role of those in ministry while assisting in the interpretation and application of relevant paragraphs within The Book of Discipline. We have supported the work of recruiting, guiding, and credentialing candidates and clergy through the development of Passage — a comprehensive registry resource — as well as a virtual onboarding module for new district and conference board members.

Hundreds of years before amazon.com, John Wesley stuffed the saddlebags of circuit riders with books of theology and biblical interpretation — selling them to fund the movement while spreading it literally. GBHEM continues this innovative spirit by leveraging social enterprise opportunities and creative partnerships as a way of reducing its reliance on apportionments while continuing to focus on delivering the very best services, products, and programs to United Methodist constituents around the world.

The same spirit of service and leadership that first inspired John Wesley lives on in each of us. Today, GBHEM looks confidently to the future taking bold and creative action, remaining good stewards, and continuing to support The United Methodist Church in innovative and meaningful ways.

GOLDEN CROSS SENIOR MINISTRIES

Kristi H. Owens, Executive Director

The mission of GOLDEN CROSS Senior Ministries: To enhance the quality of life for all seniors served by Wesley Living.

2022 celebrates the 25th anniversary of GOLDEN CROSS Senior Ministries. What began as a need for affordable housing for seniors has grown into caring for nearly 2,200 seniors in 31 affordable Wesley Living housing communities throughout West Tennessee, Murray, Kentucky, and Jonesboro, Arkansas.

100 percent of all donations to GOLDEN CROSS Senior Ministries directly benefits seniors served by Wesley Living. For the past 25 years, we have sought to ensure that donations designated for seniors have not been used for operational cost. This has been possible through the generosity of our board of trustees, growth of the endowment, and proceeds from the Annual Golf Classic, which will be held September 8, 2022.

GOLDEN CROSS Senior Ministries relies on donations made by members of churches in the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference. We receive little funding outside the amazing generosity shown through offerings and responses to donation requests. These donations help to transform the lives of seniors — one need at a time.

There are three main initiatives of GOLDEN CROSS Senior Ministries: The Resident Fund provides individual residential support as well as monetary resources to Wesley Living communities for social and recreational activities for residents. The Homeless Initiative provides interventions for homeless seniors moving into a Wesley Living community with new basic furniture pieces and a move-in kit containing all of the basic necessities needed to restart in life. The Endowment Fund represents a permanent lasting gift protecting the future.

In 2021, $50,031.19 was spent on funding for community-wide social events; $42,449.37 for basic new furniture and move-in kits for homeless seniors; $44,202.20 was used to provide a catered holiday meal and a gift for every senior resident at GOLDEN CROSS Senior Ministries; and $10,507.65 helped provide direct assistance to 23 residents who needed a helping hand.

A senior resident served by GOLDEN CROSS Senior Ministries, Mr. David, writes a salient reminder, “Some younger people are on their way up. They set goals pertaining to family, friends and living…older people are at a loss for setting goals — family and friends have either passed or fallen away. We are on our way down and out — SAD! The main goal is to live — another day, another month, another year — by God’s gracious will. Nonetheless, the small things in life mean the most when you have the least. Thank you, GOLDEN CROSS Senior Ministries!”

Your support, prayers, encouragement, and donations are much more than a blessing for the seniors we serve; they are things that matter the most to those who have the least. Rev. Jerry Corlew, founder of GOLDEN CROSS Senior Ministries, had a vision for this ministry 25 years ago that was based on Matthew 25: “Whenever you have done these things to the least of these, my brother and sister, you have done it unto me.”

HANNAH'S HOPE

Rev. Trina Bell Morrison, Executive Director

Dear Friends of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference,
I bring you this report on behalf of the staff and Board of Trustees of Hannah's Hope as we prepare to celebrate the first in-person gathering of the newly formed TWK Annual Conference. We are completing our 19th year of ministry with pregnant women in crisis and their vulnerable children all over West Tennessee and prospective adoptive families. Like everyone, we have experienced another year of pandemic life which has required us to adapt the ways in which we provide our services on almost a day-to-day basis based upon the ever-changing policies of hospitals and courts. But we persevere and are thankful for abundant grace which has seen us through each challenge.

Our board has continued its diligent work of fundraising to ensure that we continue to be able to serve the pregnant women and their vulnerable children who need us. We are seeking creative ways to forge new paths of fundraising via social media and other uses of technology. These efforts are even more important as the vast majority of our pregnant clients are able to make healthy, responsible parenting plans and this significantly impacts the agency revenue from adoption fees. We are so very thankful for each individual donor, each small group and Sunday school class from around the conference, our Partners in Hope churches, each congregation or small group that fills Baby Bottles of Hope, the JOY Circle of Germantown UMC, and the TWK Conference whose financial support enabled us to continue our ministry with pregnant women in crisis and their vulnerable children during another tumultuous pandemic year.

During the past year, despite the challenges of ministry during global pandemic we are proud that Hannah's Hope has been able to:

- Provide 2000+ hours of counseling and/or case management to vulnerable mothers and their children
- Support over 60 women as they have made parenting plans for their baby
- Support five women as they made adoption plans for their baby
- Provide over 600 hours of care to a medically complex child and ongoing case management to his adoptive family
- Provide approximately $17,000 in fee assistance making adoption affordable for people across the economic spectrum
- Work with more than 140 adoptive and prospective adoptive families in 2021 providing consultations, education, home studies, post placement services, and post-adoption counseling

We are proud to be a growing, loving ministry dedicated to the healing of God's children (pregnant women, families seeking to adopt, and children who need to be adopted) through adoption and pregnancy counseling. Our ministry is focused on Engaging the Mission Field all over West Tennessee and we live out the mission statement of the conference as well by offering Jesus Christ to a hurting world daily.

We are so thankful for the individuals, UMW Circles, Sunday school classes, and congregations who support the ministry of Hannah's Hope through contributions to the Partners in Hope initiative and by filling Baby Bottles of Hope. It is only with this support that we can provide birth mother care bags for our clients after they give birth, provide free counseling to pregnant women in crisis situations, offer free consultations to couples seeking to discern whether God is calling them to adopt, and stand in the gap for children in need of a new, forever home. We also appreciate each one of you who has taken the time to add a link to the Hannah's Hope website (www.hannahs-hope.org) and our Facebook page to your church website to that we may better connect with those who need us around the conference.

May the grace and peace of Christ be with you all.

HEALTH AND WELLNESS INITIATIVES

Rev. Marie C. King, Chairperson

Health and Wellness Initiatives of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference of The United Methodist Church shall provide resources and educational opportunities for support and engagement of health initiatives which are wholistic (focused on the whole-person) and therefore multifaceted.

The Health and Wellness Initiatives Committee recognizes that individual, local, regional, and global healthcare concerns are multifaceted: physical, mental, spiritual, environmental, financial, and political, which requires advocacy for equity, justice, human, and socio-economic rights. The ministry work for Health and Wellness Initiatives is also guided by the expressed ministry and outreach needs of the TWKUMC and the Social Principles 2020 of the General Board of Church and Society (https://www.umcjustice.org/news-and-stories/social-principles-2020-607).

Health and Wellness Initiatives co-hosted with Scarritt Bennett Center and Steal Away Women, a Holiday Blues and Jazz Worship Service and resources event. This worship service focused on healing and resources for individuals and communities facing holiday blues and depression. Music for the worship service was from the blues and jazz genre. Mental health agencies and organizations, state and national, were present onsite to provide resources for the in-person audience. Links were shared for the virtual audience on Facebook and YouTube in real-time. Some attendees came to the worship service specifically seeking assistance for mental health because of depression and PTSD. The combined in-person and virtual attendance was around 150.

We provide resources for overall healthcare concerns by sharing connections to individuals, agencies, organizations, website links, and communication resources that are also shared on the TWKUMC website. Our primary focus has been resources for mental health, depression, and suicide prevention. We have also shared resources and information for National Family Caregiver Month and Mental Health America.

Our team has partnered with Steal Away Women, a ministry founded to focus on wholeness and well-being for women through being refreshed, restored, and renewed. Workshops and retreats were provided in 2021 for women (clergy and laity), United Methodist and ecumenical.

Our team has contributed to providing resources for updates on COVID-19, COVID variants, and the COVID vaccine. Three members of the committee have participated in the focus group to design the Guidelines for Churches During COVID-19.

We continue to follow the leading of the Holy Spirit to be flexible to the needs of the community we are called to serve. As members of the body of Christ, as Christian ministers, we are called to use our God-given gifts to teach, preach, and heal. As members of The United Methodist Church, we seek to, "Do all the good we can, by all the means we can, in all the ways we can, in all the places we can, at all the times we can, to all the people we can, as long as ever we can." We pray that in doing so, the ministry of Health and Wellness will make disciples of Jesus Christ, for the transformation of the world.

HINTON RURAL LIFE CENTER

Jacqueline Gottlieb, CEO and President

In 2021, Hinton Rural Life Center celebrated 60 years of serving annual conferences in the Southeastern Jurisdiction through equipping clergy and local churches (particularly small, rural churches) and offering opportunities for individuals and church groups to serve in Safe and Healthy Home Repair missions and/or come for retreats and renewal time, experiencing God's presence at our 33-acre campus in the Appalachian Mountains. (Check out Embracing Our Roots and Sharing the Fruits videos at www.hintoncenter.org/about-us to learn about Hinton's beginnings and the impact of our ministries.)

With the support of local volunteers and mission teams, as well as generous support from individual, organizational, and United Methodist churches (Board of Global Ministries Advance Project #731372), Hinton was able to offer relational and impactful ministries. Highlights of 2021 include:

- Completed 123 home repair projects on 25 different homes and four nonprofits in our area, prioritizing and addressing the health and safety of homeowners
- Hosted over 400 mission participants
- Installed vegetable gardens for homeowners to support their nutritional well-being
- Provided over 570 loads of firewood to over 480 families/individuals, who heat primarily with wood
- Premiered our House on Wheels (HOW) mobile teaching unit to promote home safety awareness and practices in our local community and with our volunteers
- Provided local and missional leadership training for more than 35 adults and young people
- Provided over 300 children with new clothes at Christmas through Christmas Care
- Began installation and enhancements of trails and sanctuary gardens on our campus for individuals and groups to experience rest and renewal for mind, body, and soul

Another exciting highlight was the planning and promotion of Theotokos Confirmation Retreats, which launched in March 2022. Registration for all four weekends reached capacity, with groups from North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, and Tennessee in attendance. Content focus is on the vows of membership (prayers, presence, gifts, service, witness), biblical stories of call, and services of baptism renewal and Holy Communion. Hinton also developed and now offers a digital confirmation resource, Theotokos Connections, designed to be small-church relevant and accessible, but available for any size church.

LAKESHORE CAMP AND RETREAT CENTER

Rev. Gary D. Lawson, Sr., Executive Director

Our mission statement is one that practically every person on our summer staff and all the permanent staff can quote from the heart. It is as follows:

Offering ways for ALL to encounter life, love, and the God of Grace.

The word ALL is in all caps because we mean it. We are intentional in our outreach to children, youth, and vulnerable adults who would not normally be able to participate in a Christian camp opportunity. We have raised and offered $120,000 in camperships during many of the previous pre-pandemic seasons. It is our hope that no person be denied the potentially life-changing and heart-lifting experience of a Christ-centered camping experience where the grace of God comes through committed and loving counselors and staff.

Our Camp Hope series of decentralized camp programs were pioneering in their creation to reach out to young persons often classified as at-risk because of life circumstances that they had little control over. Camp Hope was designed to reach out to campers who had to deal with substance abuse issues in their homes, Camp Grace is for teenage girls who have experienced sexual abuse, and Camp Peace focused on teens dealing with anger management issues of their own. The Camp Hope program is in its 27th season of life-changing ministry. These camps are small (10 to 14 participants) in order for us to give the individual attention each camper needs. All fees are paid through camperships. If you have at-risk youth who would benefit from exposure to this wonderful ministry, please register them on our website www.lakeshorecamp.org or contact us at office@lakeshorecamp.org for more information.

We have long believed that camp and retreat ministry is a natural environment for the development of principled Christian leaders. You might say that camp is a leadership lab where young people can get hands-on experiences working with others, managing conflict, and leading in worship and activities. Pre-pandemic we offered 39,000 volunteer hours across a spectrum of opportunities mostly dominated by counseling and leading with young persons. We are able to celebrate many who hear their calling to ministry or other serving professions through their camping, counseling, and staff experiences.

From age-level camping to wilderness outpost camps to specialty camps, along with our Camp Hope series, we offer over 40 camp programs during a 9- or 10-week summer season. We celebrate resident camping participation of over 1,900 on average during a normal summer. In addition, we offer DayShore, a day camp partnership with local churches and communities who want to do camp right in their own backyard. Our two teams saw 800 participants in 2019 with a full schedule waiting us for the 2022 season. We are proud to be offering a fee paid DayShore experience for our friends in the Mayfield, Kentucky community that was so devastated by recent tornados. We are thankful for all of those helping us to coordinate this effort.

As we enter this inaugural annual conference as the new TWK Annual Conference, we wanted to take this opportunity to share a bit about who we are and invite any who are unfamiliar with us to take a day trip and pay us a visit. If preferred, reach out with an invitation for us to come to you to share our story and answer any questions. We are proud to be in covenant partnership with Cedar Crest and Beersheba as we go forward into these new days. Thank you for your prayers and support.

MCKENDREE VILLAGE FOUNDATION

McKendree Village Foundation, Inc. Board of Directors

McKendree Village Foundation, Inc. Board of Directors McKendree Village Foundation (MVF) is a non-profit extension ministry of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference founded in 1998 to financially support McKendree Village and its residents. McKendree Village founded in 1963, remained a ministry of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference (TWK) until September 2011.

With the purchase of McKendree Village in September 2011 by a private, for-profit company, the foundation became a self-operating entity with responsibility only for benevolent care of eligible residents. The eligibility those residents was based upon residents having a contract with McKendree Village, Inc. prior to September 30, 2011. The McKendree Village Foundation affirms a past and continuing shared heritage with eligible residents of McKendree Village and the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference.

For over 57 years, the McKendree Village Foundation has kept the promise of benevolent care to eligible McKendree residents through the extravagant generosity of its donors.

The McKendree Village Foundation is self-sustaining — receiving no funds from the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference. Funding for its mission comes from the income of the donor-designated endowment for this purpose, wills and bequests, and individual donations.

The current donor-designated endowment for benevolent care is now approximately $5.2 million. The United Methodist Foundation for the Memphis and Tennessee Conferences is the custodian of the endowment. Additionally, the MVF Endowment has enabled the McKendree Village Foundation to give approximately $2.5 million dollars to the ENCORE Ministry Foundation, an extension ministry of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference. ENCORE Ministry is the official older adult ministry of TWK. ENCORE Ministry Foundation provides grants to TWK congregations for the expansion of older adult ministries and services in the TWK.

In December 2021, McKendree Village Foundation gave the TWK Cabinet $100,000 to help in disaster relief from the tornadoes in the TWK area. In partnership with ENCORE Ministry, the McKendree Village Foundation, commits $500,000 to a new Church Accessibility Fund to enable all churches to make their facilities accessible to older adults and to persons with handicapping conditions. ENCORE Ministry has set a goal of raising $250,000 by September 2024 for the Church Accessibility Fund.

MEMPHIS CONFERENCE RELIEF ASSOCIATION

Rev. Gary D. Lawson Sr., Vice-Chair/Acting Chair

We recognize with some sadness that our beloved association is making its final annual conference report as we prepare to complete plans for our merger with the Ministerial Fellowship that served the legacy Tennessee Annual Conference. We look forward to our continued work as the new TWK Ministerial Fellowship beginning January 1, 2023.

Over the past conference year, we received and delivered Love Gifts to 11 families of friends and colleagues who fought the good fight. We ask for continued prayers for the following families:

Rev. Hugh Don Barksdale, May 27, 2021
Rev. Paul Wesley Clayton, September 25, 2021
Rev. James Richard Haley, April 2, 2021
Rev. W. Glenn Hill, July 16, 2021
Rev. Hercy Wayne Holmes, March 19, 2022
Rev. Benny D. Hopper, November 17, 2021
Rev. James Harmon Holmes, Sr., June 29, 2021
Rev. Helen C. Knepper, August 8, 2021
Rev. John Michael Pilcher, January 28, 2022
Rev. Charles Henry Pittman, February 26, 2022
Rev. Merle Douglas Thomas, July 12, 2021

The current Board of Directors of the 2021/2022 conference year will remain in place throughout the remainder of the 2022 calendar year and work to make the transition a smooth one. We invite our current membership to contact any of our board members with any concerns they may have as we move forward and assure each of them that the process and future work will carry on as it has in the past apart from a change in the letterhead.

We nominated representatives for the four districts of the legacy Memphis Conference to be presented along with Ministerial Fellowship nominees for the legacy Tennessee Conference districts at the inaugural TWK Annual Conference meeting in June. We are offering no nominations for executive committee positions, however, some of the nominees for the district committees might be open to an invitation. Our amazing treasurer, Bill Lawson, has asked to NOT be nominated for a role in the newly merged organization and we want to thank him for a job well done. The district reps are nominated as follows:

- Mississippi River – Awaiting acceptance of the nomination
- Tennessee River – Gary D. Lawson Sr.
- Purchase – Dean Emerson
- Metro – Awaiting acceptance of the nomination

METHODIST LE BONHEUR HEALTHCARE

Michael Ugwueke, President and Chief Executive Officer

At Methodist Le Bonheur Healthcare (MLH), our mission is to collaborate with patients and their families to be the leader in providing high quality, cost-effective, patient and family-centered care. Services are provided in a manner which supports the health ministries and Social Principles of The United Methodist Church to benefit the communities we serve.

Leading MLH is our president and chief executive officer, Michael Ugwueke. 2021 continued the global struggle with the COVID-19 pandemic, and healthcare systems around the world were called to heroic lengths. At MLH in 2021, our associates provided inpatient care for 4,249 COVID patients, provided monoclonal antibody infusion to more than 4,200 COVID patients, and performed 168,595 COVID tests. Additionally, MLH continued its mission in so many other ways, caring for 287,650 patients in our emergency departments, bringing 5,677 newborns into the world, and performing 312 organ transplants, just to highlight a few areas. MLH did this life-saving work while committing to the highest standards of service and care. MLH earned straight A grades on our 2021 Leapfrog report cards for both quality and safety. MLH also continued its commitment to serving our community outside the clinic and hospital, as the system secured a $4.5 million grant from the Tennessee Department of Education for our Community Collective for Reading Literacy, a social determinants of health initiative. MLH also supported Shelby County Schools with Le Bonheur's Back to School task force, providing guidance for safely bringing children back into classrooms, expanded early reading support through our BookNook literacy program, and provided health services to 14,000 Shelby County Schools teachers and staff.

The faith-based mission of MLH continues to be the foundation of all that we do. Leading us in that mission is Dr. Albert Mosley, senior vice president and chief mission integration officer for MLH. Mosley leads the Mission Integration Division, which includes all of our clinical chaplaincy services, volunteer services, the Employee Assistance Program and Dennis H. Jones Living Well Network, the MLH Foundation, Clinical Pastoral Education, the Center of Excellence in Faith and Health Equity, the Humanitarian Fund, United Methodist annual conference connections, the Office of Community Outreach, the Congregational Health Network, and many other initiatives and projects. Mission Integration offers guidance and direction for the integration of MLH's mission, vision, values, and guiding behaviors, especially from the perspective of the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church. Additionally, Mission Integration ensures that the relationship with The United Methodist Church and relevant social, ethical, and pastoral teachings are understood and integrated appropriately and consistently across the entire system.

In 2021, Mission Integration programs and associates continued their life-changing work in so many different ways. Our chaplains offered spiritual care for patients, families, and associates and also responded to the wider community through a spiritual care helpline. The My Sister's Keeper program continued its work to empower and highlight the voices of black women in our community on healthcare, leadership, advocacy, and more. The Congregational Health Network and Office of Community Outreach helped distribute thousands of COVID-19 vaccines to the community at hospitals, clinics, and pop-up sites. Our partnerships with local churches continued to be crucial, as leaders and congregations repeatedly used their voice to raise the profile of important education and awareness about COVID safety, COVID vaccines, and equally important community needs, like mental health. Our EAP and Living Well Network responded directly to districts and pastors who sought support and education for how pastoral leaders could both care for their people and for themselves in the midst of such difficult circumstances. Our foundation raised thousands of dollars for a dedicated COVID relief fund and for our MLH Humanitarian Fund, which distributes hundreds of thousands of dollars to MLH associates and their families in need of emergency assistance.

We are deeply appreciative of the support of the three annual conferences who founded our system and continue to be vital partners. The healing ministry of Christ continues to be at our center.

MIRIAM'S PROMISE

J. Dietz Osborne, M.S., President & CEO and Hailee Hunt-Hawkins, Chair, Board of Directors

Since 1985, Miriam's Promise has offered hope and healing to thousands of Middle Tennessee expectant parents, birth parents, children, and adoptive families coping with issues of grief, loss, and transition. We are excited to celebrate our 37th year of ministry. The heart of our mission is to ensure the well-being of the child by nurturing individuals and families. Miriam's Promise continues to meet this mission by offering the following programs:

- Non-directive, option-based pregnancy counseling at no charge to the expectant parent
- Holistic parenting coaching which includes attachment work
- International and domestic adoption services including home studies and adoption training and education

Miriam's Promise is a licensed child-placing agency serving Middle Tennessee, and is Hague Accredited by the Intercountry Adoption Accreditation and Maintenance Entity (IAAME) and a member of the National Council for Adoption. Miriam's Promise offers services without regard to race, creed, gender, color, national origin, religion, disability, veteran status, sexual orientation, or gender identity/expression.

According to recent studies, the birth rate in the U.S. is the lowest it has ever been. In addition, the teen pregnancy rate in the U.S. is also the lowest it has ever been. Both of these factors have led to fewer and fewer infant adoptive placements across the country, and Miriam's Promise is no exception. At the same time, couples and singles hoping to grow their families through adoption continues to rise. The staff and the board of directors continue to evaluate our programing in order to meet the expressed needs of the Middle Tennessee community. Priorities identified include parenting classes, comprehensive post birth services for clients who choose to place a child for adoption or to parent the child, Trust Based Relational Intervention (TBRI) attachment therapy, and specific child counseling for adoptive children.

Over the past year, Miriam's Promise has worked hard to understand our place in helping to dismantle the systems of racism and white supremacy. We have been intentional about diversifying our suppliers, focusing on minority-owned businesses. We have offered educational webinars taking a deep dive into transracial and cross-cultural adoption, better preparing prospective adoptive parents to parent a child of a different race or culture.

As an affiliated agency started by The United Methodist Church, we continue to be a vital part of ministry within the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference. Miriam's Promise is an avenue for the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference to uphold the Social Principles of the UMC on adoption:

Adoption
"Children are a gift from God to be welcomed and received. We lament that some instances, birth parents are unable or unwilling to fulfill their caregiving obligations. Under these circumstances, we applaud the willingness of extended families and foster and adoptive parents to step in as primary nurturers. Even in these situations, however, we recognize the trauma that may be caused by separating children from their families of origin and urge that such actions be handled justly, sensitively, and compassionately. Where appropriate and possible, we encourage open adoption so that children may know all information relevant to them, both medically and relationally (Social Principles, 2020. Page 21, paragraph A)."

The relationships with the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference and local churches are vital elements of the agency's mission and outreach. We have seen when the conference and Miriam's Promise work together to share the story more expectant parents find hope, more children find homes, and more families are grown. We are grateful for the support and engagement of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference.

NEW CHURCH DEVELOPMENT

Rev. Dr. Vona Wilson, Chair

The New Church Development (NCD) Team 2.5 comes to this 2022 TWK Annual Conference in amazement for all that God is doing. Despite a pandemic with the most bizarre disruptions we could have ever imagined, the clergy and laity of our new Conference continue to birth new faith communities and visions.

Our Vision and Mission remained unchanged, but our context has shifted our strategy and requires adaptive change. We encourage TWK members to pray for the church plants and faith communities being birthed. Check the website for a current list.

We are celebrating:
North-West Corridor Visioning team in the Red River District seeing fruit from their work. Ebenezer Iglesia Metodista and the Wesley Foundation of Tennessee State University birthed a new ministry with African American and Latino middle school girls called Growing in Grace. Eighteen students completed this adventure and are giving witness to their growing faith and spiritual development.

Home Church, a church plant in the Cumberland River District has matured and is preparing to charter. This is a great step in the church planting world!

Bluff City, a church plant in the Metro District has weathered the pandemic disruption and is exploring new partnerships for a future that gives them a home and new avenues for reaching people for Christ.

Cosecha, an innovative community partnership in the most diverse zip code of Nashville, has reignited a historic congregation while serving children, families, and neighborhoods with the harvest of food and love.

Our challenge in the past year has been shared by many across the TWK Conference. How do we respond to a new context in ways that glorify Christ and fulfill our call? While we continue discern and provide resources for new churches, the following descriptions are helping us develop strategies that launch a variety of ways God is calling us to be the body of Christ, the Church.

Traditional Church Plants. These are faith communities that make covenant with one another and the TWK Conference to be in communal relationship with Christ and one another as they grow in the faith and serve as the body of Christ in the world. Grounded in the sacraments of Baptism and Holy Communion, these faith communities practice rhythms of discipleship formation, service, and worship. Examples of recent traditional plants: Home Church Nashville and Bluff City in Memphis.

Essence Plants. New faith communities that exist in traditional or non-traditional ways and may or may not be able to support themselves. Examples of current Essence plants: Circle of Grace operates in a prison and meets once a month. Cosecha Community Center is a collaborative partnership that creates environments and fellowship for relationships to develop in the community.

Experiments that help people experience the love and grace of Christ. These creative expressions may lead to something else, but they may also simply serve as expressions that help us explore where we see Jesus being present. A portion of our funds help encourage the local church to lead faithful experiments. Example: Trinity Community Commons. TCC leverages sacred space in new ways that reconnect with the surrounding community and develop relationships that embody the kingdom of God on earth.

NCD Vision
The Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference unleashes, establishes and generates faithful strategies for the fulfillment of the kingdom of God on earth.

NCD Mission
Establish new faith communities in the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference for the glory of the resurrected Christ; faithfully using what God has placed in our basket.

NCD Current Objective

PROJECT TRANSFORMATION TENNESSEE

Courtney Aldrich Lawson, Director

Much of Project Transformation's ministry centers around the three C's:

- Children: Our summer and afterschool programs support children in literacy and holistic activities that engage the mind, body and spirit.
- College-age young adults: Planning and leading these programs are our talented young adult staff, who serve as mentors and role models to our children. All the while, they are developing as principled, Christian leaders and exploring various vocations in ministry and service.
- Churches: We partner strategically with neighborhood congregations to provide safe spaces to cement new relationships that invest both in our young people and our community.

If we look at the three C's separately, each is navigating significant challenges, socially-constructed barriers that can steal their joy and God-given promise. And yet, each has been uniquely gifted with significant strengths, just waiting to be discovered, affirmed, honed, and unleashed.

Project Transformation ignites the potential of young people by creating space for these three C's to converge. Through books, nutritious meals, playtime, and just plain silliness — but more importantly through meaningful mutual relationships grounded in caring and respect — young people are reminded of their belonging, their belovedness, their God-given potential. That is what inspires our approach. Our vision is a world that is rooted in love, pursues the equity of all people, and amplifies God's call on every life. If we believe, magnify, and replicate that, imagine what our world would become!

Across 10 years at Project Transformation Tennessee, we have much to celebrate:

- 4,330 children have participated in our programs, with 98% improving or maintaining their reading
- 378 young adults have served on staff and 81% continue to be engaged in some type of ministry or service
- Nearly 6,300 volunteers have invested themselves in the potential of these children and young people
- Four new PT chapters have launched, as young adults who have served with us in Tennessee have gone on to replicate our model in Indianapolis, Washington DC, North Georgia, and Arkansas
- In 2022, we celebrate two young adults — who once were youth participants in our summer program in West Nashville — and who are serving with us as young adult staff members this year.

That's a lot of relationships, and relationships have always been our focus. But now more than ever, as we emerge from a season of isolation, our understanding of the need and hunger for authentic relationship is deeper than we could ever have anticipated. Today, God's faithfulness towers over the deep waters of anxiety, fear, trauma, and grief — and beckons us toward new relationships that comfort, encourage, celebrate, and inspire.

As we begin our 11th year of ministry, we are taking intentional steps to drive our mission. First, we are complementing our literacy program by continuing to grow our emphasis on social-emotional health so that our children develop into problem-solvers who are relational, empathetic, and optimistic. Second, we are embedding practices of diversity, equity, and inclusion into the fabric of our organization. And third, we are partnering with parents, youth, and neighbors to align our ministry to the unique assets of each of our communities.

REELFOOT RURAL MINISTRIES INC.

Robert Craig, Executive Director

The mission statement of Reelfoot Rural Ministries (RRM) defines how the organization seeks to live out the command of Jesus Christ to "Love our neighbor." The mission statement is: Following Christ in building relationships, we provide resources and offer hope to our Reelfoot Lake neighbors.

The daily work of RRM is succinctly defined in this brief purpose statement: Restoring hope, one relationship at a time. This is how the staff and volunteers at RRM seek to offer Christ to a hurting world. The RRM neighborhood includes counties in northwest Tennessee and southwest Kentucky around Reelfoot Lake and beyond.

Over the past year, service to our neighbors has expanded in several areas. The RRM Dental Clinic has increased from an average of three to six days per month. Demand for affordable dental services continues to grow. We are actively seeking additional funding to expand the clinic days of operation. The RRM Dental Clinic constantly maintains a three month wait list.

The need for household financial assistance has become a much larger part of our work. Assistance with rent, mortgage, utilities, and household emergencies has more than tripled over the previous year. With the rising costs of living, households have more frequent shortfalls with family necessities. RRM cannot assist with every need, but we rejoice in the blessings we do have to share.

Another ministry expansion was the RRM garden. Our one-acre garden produced over 17,000 pounds of produce including tomatoes, sweet corn, okra, squash, zucchini, potatoes, sweet potatoes, watermelons, cantaloupes, and green beans. Over the growing season, more than 1,100 clients received approximately 14 pounds of produce in addition to the regular grocery assistance.

During the season of Advent and into Christmas, RRM continued to offer hope to families through the RRM Christmas Toy Store. In 2021, over 300 families were able to select five new gifts for each of their children. The result was 730 children experiencing a joyful Christmas morning with new gifts to open that otherwise would not have been available.

RRM has been heavily involved in response and recovery efforts following the devastating tornado outbreak on December 10, 2021. While Mayfield, Dawson Springs, and Bowling Green, Kentucky received the breadth of the national news coverage, several communities in the Reelfoot Rural Ministries' service area were also devastated. RRM responded in the immediate days following the disaster with community and survivor support through donations and volunteer coordination. Several United Methodist Committee on Relief Early Response Teams were housed and coordinated through RRM for communities in Lake, Obion, Gibson, and Weakley counties in Tennessee as well as Fulton and Hickman counties in Kentucky. RRM will continue to serve these communities for years to come through the long-term recovery groups formed in each county.

Reelfoot Rural Ministries has several exciting ministry efforts planned for the coming year. The RRM board continues prayerfully visioning for how to best be in ministry with the asset of the former East Dyersburg UMC location. Repairs and modifications are underway for a satellite community service office as well as an additional dental clinic at this site. Generous donors are sponsoring a disaster ministry warehouse at the RRM site in Obion County, Tennessee. This will serve as a collection and distribution point for recovery supplies as well office space for disaster recovery work for the December tornado event. RRM will continue to house and engage volunteer repair teams for Reelfoot Housing Outreach Ministry Exercises accessibility repairs and modifications while adding long-term disaster recovery projects this year.

Obedience to God's call continues to adjust the way we serve at RRM; however, our supporters and clients can rest assured that RRM will continue the work of restoring hope, one relationship at a time on behalf of Christ and the Church.

SOUTHEASTERN JURISDICTION COMMITTEE ON EPISCOPACY

Harriet Bryan and Jim Allen, representing the former Tennessee Conference
Sky McCracken and David Reed, representing the former Memphis Conference

The Southeastern Jurisdiction Committee on Episcopacy continues to be comprised of persons elected to the (postponed) 2020 Jurisdictional Conference. Notwithstanding the merger of Tennessee and Memphis into Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference, we continue to have four representatives on the SEJ COE, whose terms continue to the end of the 2020 (postponed) regular Jurisdictional Conference.

We have struggled to ascertain the best interim episcopal coverage. In the southeast, our challenge is that five bishops retired in 2020-21, but we cannot elect replacements until the next regular Jurisdictional Conference meets in 2024.

Our struggles come in part from financial challenges presented by reduced funding to and from the Episcopal Fund, which funds salaries and operating expenses for all bishops worldwide, including our own.

We give thanks for our bishops and the ways in which they have given their lives to form and bless the church.

SPECIAL SUNDAYS WITH OFFERINGS FOR OBSERVANCE IN 2022-2023

The United Methodist Church

From the 2016 Book of Discipline:

¶ 263. Six churchwide special Sundays with offerings shall be celebrated in each United Methodist Church. Purpose—General Conference shall determine the purpose of the churchwide offerings upon recommendation of the General Council on Finance and Administration, after consultation with the Council of Bishops and the Connectional Table. The purpose of these offerings shall remain constant for the quadrennium, and the net receipts shall be distributed on ratio to the administering agencies by the treasurer of the General Council on Finance and Administration (see ¶ 824.7 and ¶ 805.6). The General Commission on Communication shall promote these offerings in cooperation with the agencies responsible for the administration of these funds. (See ¶ 1806.12.) Each offering shall be promptly remitted in full by the local church treasurer to the annual conference treasurer, who shall transmit the funds in full, except where noted differently below, to the General Council on Finance and Administration within thirty days of receipt in the office of the annual conference treasurer.

World Communion Sunday – October 2, 2022

World Communion Sunday is the first Sunday in October. The offering supports a diverse mix of national and international ethnic young adults to make a global impact for Christ. The offering supports the Ethnic Scholarship Program and the Ethnic In-Service Training Program through the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry which provides ethnic scholarships for graduate students from the U.S. and other countries. It also supports the World Communion Scholarship Leadership Development Program administered by the General Board of Global Ministries. This offering provides ethnic scholarships for U.S. and international undergraduate students studying in the U.S. and funds In-Service Training Programs for racial and ethnic persons.

United Methodist Student Day – November 27, 2022

The United Methodist Student Day offering is collected on the last Sunday in November and provides for over 70 scholarships available for United Methodist students to further their education and enrich the life of the Church. The Gift of Hope Scholarship is administered by the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry. One hundred percent of the offering received goes to this scholarship fund.

Human Relations Day – January 15, 2023

Human Relations Day is the Sunday before the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. national holiday and supports outreach to underserved communities, ministries that respond to non-violent youth offenders, community advocacy, and faith-based volunteer programs for community developers, and other programs that work with at-risk teens. It also supports at-risk youth through the Youth Offender Rehabilitation Program administered by the General Board of Church and Society. The offering also supports community developers and community advocacy through the United Methodist Voluntary Service administered through the General Board of Global Ministries. One hundred percent of the offering goes to the General Council on Finance and Administration.

UMCOR Sunday – March 19, 2023

UMCOR (United Methodist Committee on Relief) is the fourth Sunday of Lent. This offering supports disaster and emergency relief administered by the United Methodist Committee on Relief. It enables emergency grants and supplies immediately after a disaster, provides for sustainable sources of food, water, and shelter, and allows UMCOR workers and volunteers to be among the earliest to arrive and the last to leave when people are in need. This offering helps strengthen communities through both disaster preparedness and long-term recovery. The special Sunday offering underwrites UMCOR's costs of doing business, allowing UMCOR to keep the promise that 100% of any gift to a specific UMCOR project will go toward that project (through Advances), rather than administrative costs. The offering is also used to create grants for partners around the world under UMCOR's different programmatic areas.

Native American Ministries Sunday – April 23, 2023

Native American Ministries Sunday is the third Sunday of Easter. This offering supports the development and strengthening of Native American ministries in the annual conferences, Native American rural, urban, reservation ministries, and communities relating to the General Board of Global Ministries. This offering provides scholarships for Native Americans attending United Methodist schools of theology and it is distributed by the General Board of Higher Education and Ministries and The General Board of Global Ministries with 50% remaining in the annual conference for the Committee on Native American Ministries (CONAM) to administer.

Peace with Justice Sunday – June 4, 2023

Peace with Justice Sunday is the first Sunday after Pentecost. The General Board of Church and Society has a vision to promote justice, by advocating public policies that protect the rights of all people. This offering supports the fostering of a better world by educating leaders and change-makers to become grassroots activists and global advocates who challenge systems of inequality. It also supports the connection of networks with ecumenical communities to advance peace and justice. Fifty percent provides grants to local churches, districts, conferences, and other affiliated organizations that advocate for peace with justice while the other 50% remains in your annual conference to develop local peace with justice ministries and support a peace with justice coordinator.

TENNESSEE-WESTERN KENTUCKY CONFERENCE DISASTER RESPONSE

Rev. Stacey Harwell-Dye, Chairperson, Disaster Response Leadership Team

The mission of United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR) disaster response is to offer a caring Christian presence to communities that have experienced disaster. The primary focus of disaster response ministry in the TWKUMC is to prepare churches and individuals with training and resources to respond when their neighborhoods are impacted by disasters. Large-scale disasters occasionally make it necessary to partner with conferences outside of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference.

Early response and long-term recovery efforts are made equitable and efficient by quality preparedness training. COVID remained a barrier to large scale gathering and training efforts, though we are seeing pockets of hope in the ability to gather on Zoom. Clifton Tackett has engaged and trained new Early Response Teams (ERT) and has scheduled at least one training per quarter for the coming year. You don't need to wield a chainsaw or hammer to serve in disaster response. UMCOR has introduced an improved Connecting Neighbors training program. TWKUMC offered the introductory training this spring to begin identifying possible volunteer trainers (ambassadors). This team of trainers will help ensure that every congregation has the opportunity to be prepared when a disaster impacts their community. The Connecting Neighbors training focuses on family, church, and community preparation and response.

The conference remains involved in the vital work of disaster case management with survivors of the multiple disasters in Tennessee and Western Kentucky, and we will remain involved in this work until the recovery is complete. As of March 2022, there were 1,909 cases between the four disasters from 2020 and 2021 that were case worked by dedicated professionals who walk alongside survivors. Hundreds of other survivor cases will be opened in the coming months for both the flood in and around Waverly and the December tornado recovery. This work does not happen in a vacuum — TWKUMC disaster case managers are part of a network of long-term recovery partners who each take a piece of their own community's recovery, from volunteer coordination to spiritual care to supplies and donations. Our hope is that Methodists will be part of preparation, relief, and response efforts in their own community before a disaster strikes so that when disasters occur, relationships are already built, and a plan is in place to bring survivors to a place of new wholeness and healing.

One of the great successes of the past year was getting a family impacted by the tornado of March 2020 back into their home. Through the case management of Rev. Marie King, the family in Nashville has their home rebuilt, thanks to Project Christmas House, a group of amazing volunteers from the Purchase District. The volunteers spent a week building this home on the lot where the survivor's home once stood before the tornado of 2020. Local churches stepped up and sponsored meals for the team as well as landscaping for the front yard.

The conference's ability to respond to our neighbors impacted by disaster is made possible by donations and grants. Churches and individuals responded in amazing ways to the disasters of 2020 and 2021. The need for financial and volunteer donations remains a priority for the conference to be able to continue to walk with these neighbors. Additionally, grants from UMCOR and other organizations have helped make the relief and recovery work of the conference possible for these disasters. UMCOR awarded the conference another Solidarity Grant for immediate relief needs for the tornado survivors and for the flooding in Waverly. More funding will be required for this recovery to be successful. The support of our connection makes the ministry of restoring hope possible.

UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION FOR THE MEMPHIS AND TENNESSEE CONFERENCES

The Reverend Dr. Philip Jamieson, President

"…and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us approach with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who has promised is faithful. And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching." (Hebrews 10:21-25)

One of the things I like best about the work of the foundation and Development Fund is its future orientation. At the center of our work is investing money today for use in the future. We are helping churches and individuals plan today for future good work through wise investing. When I put on my theologian's cap, to talk about our work, hope becomes my primary category. The present is always a challenge, but these days seem particularly difficult. We appear to be emerging from the Covid pandemic only to see the daily horror of a war in Europe. Along with that comes the strife of denominational disharmony and a potentially smaller annual conference. Yet, even and perhaps especially in the midst of these difficulties, the author of Hebrews encourages us to hold on to our hope. You and I are invited to look past present circumstances to the future Day of the Lord. And how best do we do that? Well, the author tells us to "provoke one another to love and good deeds." Provoke! I like the sound of that! I have provoked my share of folks over the years and every once in a while, in a good way.

In 2021 we provoked one another to good works in a number of ways. First, we did so with Saving Grace groups. Approximately 45 pastors were introduced to the Saving Grace curriculum. This study of personal financial planning from a Wesleyan perspective has the potential to help many build better financial practices in order to live more generous lives.

Second, in 2021, the Development Fund gave over $360,000 in capital improvement grants to 42 churches. Projects of various sizes were funded, strengthening local churches in their ability to perform their crucial work. Simultaneously, the Development Fund paid out over $585,000 in interest to individuals, churches, and other ministries.

Third, the foundation distributed over $3.9 million to various churches and other ministries. In addition, the foundation distributed approximately $75,000 in stewardship grants and other ministry support. 2021 was an excellent year for the foundation with a net return of over 12 percent. Over the last 10 years, the foundation has averaged an 8 percent return net of all fees.

In 2022, we hope to be even more provocative! We are currently in our second round of Development Fund grants. We are working with churches and pastors in various forms of consultation regarding financial ministry. These services include capital campaign consulting, asset mapping, planned giving introductions, coaching, and financial counseling. This fall, we are planning to offer a Zoom course called Faithful Fundraising. More information will be released soon.

In conclusion, I am certain that our Lord is doing remarkable work in the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Annual Conference. We at the foundation and Development Fund are thankful for the role that we have been invited to play in that wonderful endeavor. Let us continue to provoke one another to stay alert to our hope and to remember always that in the words of John Wesley "the best of all is that God is with us!"

UNITED WOMEN IN FAITH

Meredith Bingham, President

United Women in Faith is having a very busy and interesting 2022. This time has been full of changes, growth, new adventures, new branding, and new faith for the future. We have a new name, mission, vision and plan of action which are:

Our mission: We seek to connect and nurture women through Christian spiritual formation, leadership development, creative fellowship, and education so that they can inspire, influence, and impact local and global communities.

Our vision: We are a powerful, fearless force driven by God's love and united in sisterhood. With a focus on women, children, and youth, we act for justice and transform communities. We face the realities we see in the world, even when they are not the ones we would like to see. However, our goal is not to bear witness simply to identify harms but also to show God's love by acting boldly to change those harms.

Our action: Bold action, like faith, takes courage. Our bravery is inspired by God's love and our powerful commitment to improve the lives of women, children, and youth. United Women in Faith works for justice through compassionate service and advocacy to change unfair policies and systems that harm women, children, and youth — from racial and gender injustice to economic inequality, climate issues, and more.

What we do: We connect spiritual women to act boldly for justice and transform communities.

This year, the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference United Women in Faith embraced the conference merger as well as our name change and rebranding. We have done so with grace and a commitment to continuing our work with women, children, and youth throughout the world. No programs or commitment of funds were dropped or changed from either former conference to execute the merger. I am very proud to say this merger was an easy, faithful process for us.

By the time you read this, we will have attended Assembly 2022 of United Women in Faith in Orlando. This will be the largest in-person Methodist gathering in almost three years and will be a historic assembly filled with worship, special speakers, and learning more about our rebranding.

July 14 - 16 we will gather in Nashville at Scarritt-Bennett for Mission u. A social action event is being planned for August and our fall retreat will be held at Lakeshore September 30 - October 1. All women of the church are invited to these events and we welcome your attendance.

United Women in Faith for the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference will continue to work diligently to change the school-to-prison pipeline, climate change, injustice, etc. We are a sisterhood acting in faith to tackle the hard work of the world without hesitation. Driven by God's love, we work to improve the lives of women, children, and youth every day. We show up. We take action. We get it done.

UNIVERSITY OF TENNESSEE HEALTH SCIENCE CENTER CAMPUS MINISTRY

Dr. Jonathan C. Lewis, DMin, BCC, Chaplain and Campus Minister
Rev. Adam Gordon, Chaplain and Campus Minister

At the University of Tennessee Health Science Center (UTHSC) in Memphis, the United Methodist campus ministry continues to grow and explore new opportunities. In March 2011, Dr. Jonathan C. Lewis started as the campus minister and he continues to serve in that position. Lewis is also the director of Community Partnerships in the Mission Integration Division at Methodist Le Bonheur Healthcare (MLH). Rev. Adam Gordon began serving part time at the campus ministry in 2021.

UTHSC is composed entirely of graduate schools, all of them specializing in some form of health science — from dentistry to medicine to nursing to laboratory science and much more. Lewis and Gordon relate well to UTHSC because of their own immersion in the hospital and healthcare setting, where they minister to patients, families, and medical professionals of all kinds.

The campus ministry student group at UTHSC is called the Faith Health Collaborative (FHC). For more information, visit www.faithhealthcollaborative.com. FHC engages the entire UTHSC community — all colleges and programs, all students, faculty, and staff. FHC connects UTHSC to MLH, including its clinical work, its fruitful partnerships with community organizations and congregations, its missions and service opportunities, and its unique educational initiatives through the Center of Excellence in Faith and Health Equity. Since being officially approved as a campus student group in 2016, FHC has recruited student vice presidents from all six of the colleges that make up UTHSC and maintains an active membership of about 50 students. Specific initiatives for FHC include:

Connection to United Methodist Congregations and Programs
Through FHC, students, faculty, and staff connect to Lewis, Gordon, and The United Methodist Church. Relationships and partnerships with United Methodist congregations and programs are a significant goal of FHC. FHC aims to be an innovative vehicle that increases student exposure to the Church and especially its health ministries.

Support and Service
Lewis is a board certified chaplain, experienced spiritual caregiver, and holds a Doctor of Ministry degree in pastoral counseling. Lewis' engagement at UTHSC enables him to offer support and care to the entire UTHSC community, witnessing to the love of Christ that can work through The United Methodist Church and its people, reflecting the call of the Gospel to love God and love our neighbors. Gordon has recently come on board to serve the UTHSC community through the work of the Faith Health Collaborative. Gordon is an ordained elder in the Mississippi Conference and also a professional chaplain at MLH. Together, they are able to respond to the needs of the UTHSC community and provide care, support, and ministry to all of its students, faculty, and staff.

Education
In partnership with Church Health and UTHSC, Lewis and Gordon continue to help design and facilitate the Serving The Underserved certificate course. Serving The Underserved seeks to create a space for productive dialogue among health science students on the components of healthcare among underserved populations and the ways in which poverty shapes the health lives of people and communities. FHC helps to expand and develop that educational experience, aligning itself with the Wesleyan emphases on health, education, and personal formation. Serving The Underserved has enrolled nearly 1,000 students throughout its history. Lewis was also invited to serve on the board of directors for Cope, a student-led project in the College of Medicine that leads students to form their own practices of resilience, mental wellness, and healthy communication in the midst of the rigors of medical school and clinical practice.

WESLEY LIVING / WESLEY SENIOR MINISTRIES / WESLEY MISSION

Jim Nasso, Chief Executive Officer

Wesley Housing Corporation of Memphis, Inc. d.b.a. Wesley Living, Wesley Senior Ministries, Inc. and Wesley at Graceland, Inc. d.b.a. Wesley Mission is essentially about people — elderly residents and at-home clients, staff, pastors, executives, and boards of directors — all necessary to the mission of enhancing the lives of older generations. Please visit our website at www.wesleyliving.com.

For those familiar with the 1993 movie "Groundhog Day", 2021 was much like 2020 in how the pandemic effected the daily activities of each one of us including the more than 2,200 residents and clients Wesley Living cares for daily.

Wesley Living's Core Values of Service, Compassion and Integrity were on display and lived daily. The virus made its way to almost every community and with it we lost five additional residents since the last annual conference.

Also, since last year's annual conference, our organization's focus has not wavered from its service-oriented areas with the goal of enhancing the quality of life for the elderly. These areas are ministry, preservation, staff development and the future. Ministry is at the heart of our purpose and pastoral care is a key to the lives of those we serve. We are finding more and more residents wanting one-on-one care requiring more dedication to this and what is sometimes a very specialized service. The Rev. Dennis Neenan, now fully retired from the conference, gracefully continued to serve our residents on a contractual basis while Wesley Living excitedly welcomed the Rev. Camille Bradley in September 2021. She brought her heart and energy for ministry at the perfect time as Neenan fully retired at the end of the year. Almost every community continues to be served by a United Methodist pastor located in close proximity. This would not be possible without the ongoing cooperation of the active clergy and several retired clergy who remain committed to serving, in addition to their respective district superintendent.

Providing affordable housing and assisted living is the largest part of our ministry. The goal is to continually update the existing portfolio while expanding the services being provided. During 2020, our ministry was once again notified that two additional communities will be awarded Low Income Housing Tax Credits to acquire and preserve: St. Mary Manor in Jackson, Tennessee, and Wesley Pine Ridge in Paris, Tennessee. Again, the pandemic slowed the closing of these projects to the early part of 2022 and delayed beginning the physical work.

Wesley Home Services provides non-medical, in-home assistance services which range from companionship to housekeeping to personal assistance. Despite the pandemic, it has been a refuge for many seniors who have remained in their homes.

No amount of ministry, preservation, or genuine caring can be provided without a compassion-filled quality staff committed to our core values. Our efforts to provide a living wage and competitive benefits have not wavered although the labor market remains difficult. Once again, the minimum entry level wage was raised $1 per hour in 2021. Careers are to be found at Wesley Living and we encourage everyone to inquire if a faith-based organization is of interest for their career.

The number of elderly needing quality, affordable housing and services continues to grow. Wesley Living is a premier provider and remains committed to solving these social issues. Wesley Living also remains committed to expanding the number served when possible.

GOLDEN CROSS Senior Ministries, Inc. continues to be a strong partner providing answers to resident needs. Kristi Owens became the new executive director during the 4th quarter of 2021 to assure the partnership will continue to flourish as they celebrate 25 years.

We sincerely appreciate your prayerful support and continue to value our effectiveness in how the lives of the elderly are improved every day. Today, we recommit ourselves to honor this connection and to live out our mission "In response to the love of God…."

WESTERN KENTUCKY UNITED METHODIST FAMILY SERVICES

Timm Fair, Chair

Western Kentucky United Methodist Family Services (WKUMFS) is a 501(c)(3) Foster Care Support Agency of The Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference of The United Methodist Church. Its ministry aligns perfectly with The Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference mission; especially offering Jesus Christ to the hurting world, one neighborhood at a time. The Bible says, "Speak up for those who cannot speak for themselves; ensure justice for those being crushed. Yes, speak up for the poor and helpless, and see that they get justice" (Proverbs 31:8-9).

The oppression of children entering foster care comes primarily from neglect or drug abuse by their birth parents. There are about 8,888 children in foster care in the state of Kentucky deprived of the normal blessings of a healthy family environment. WKUMFS engages this mission field in the Purchase District by establishing connections with social workers and foster parents as it prays for and serves these hurting children.

WKUMFS' mission is threefold: 1) Provide for the care and maintenance, support, and education of foster children and foster families. 2) Transform local churches by informing them of the ever-present need for foster parents, respite parents, and adoptive parents. 3) Develop foster children into good citizens of the community through experiencing the love of Jesus Christ.

The WKUMFS Board of Trustees consists of volunteer laity and clergy from local area United Methodist churches along with Purchase District ministry leaders.

"When doubts filled my mind, your comfort gave me renewed hope and cheer." (Psalm 94:19)

Local United Methodist Congregations

You Can Provide Comfort to Foster Children and Foster Parents!

When congregations are inspired and equipped to help foster and adoptive families, every child is cared for, every family has hope, congregations are strengthened, and communities are healthier and safer.

- Become a foster or adoptive parent or provide respite care to parents
- Start a prayer initiative for foster children and parents
- Host an adoption/foster care awareness training event
- Host special events for foster children such as Easter egg hunts and fall festivals
- Volunteer to serve on a Citizen Foster Care Review Board
- Join the WKUMFS Board of Trustees or donate

Improving the life of foster children is the measure of success. The Kentucky foster care program measures success against its permanency goals. They are 1) return to birth parent, 2) permanent relative placement, and 3) adoption. There are 231 children awaiting adoption in Western Kentucky. Foster parents often adopt their foster children after bonding with them. Jesus described the final judgment like this, "And the King will say, 'I tell you the truth, when you did it to one of the least of these my brothers and sisters, you were doing it to me'" (Matthew 25:40).

Thank you to all who have supported this ministry!

YOUTH MINISTRY

Tennessee-Western Kentucky Youth Ministry Transition Team 2021-2022

Despite the challenges the 2021-2022 ministry year brought, the Holy Spirit has been at work within the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference Youth Ministry. In fall 2021, the Youth Ministry Transition Team launched. Consisting of youth and adult volunteers who are passionate about youth ministry, this team shepherds the continuing alignment and creation of ministry with youth in the new conference. After holding virtual listening sessions with youth ministry partners throughout districts to discern the immediate pressure points facing youth ministry in the transition to a new conference amid a continuing pandemic landscape, our team spent fall 2021 building trust and relationship and establishing consensus for the Spirit-led direction of conference youth ministry. After a successful Vision Summit in February 2022 and through continued conversation in team meetings, we adopted the following mission statement:

The youth ministry of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference exists to connect, equip, and invest in youth and their leaders in order to develop communities of faith in which students from all backgrounds find belonging, serve their neighbors, and grow as followers of Christ.

As we continue to build structures and strategies for ministry with youth across the conference, the Youth Ministry Transition Team meets on a monthly basis to review our goals as a team, set progress benchmarks for measuring success, and work together to accomplish our mission. As we do this work, we embrace these shared core values:

- BOLD – Trusting in God's Spirit to provide, we confidently walk forward, unapologetically passionate in our conference's commitment to ministry with young people.

- GRACEFULLY ENGAGING – We seek to create meaningful connections with youth and their leaders while embracing people where they are.

- INTENTIONALLY INCLUSIVE – We seek to create a safe environment where every voice is valued and every youth is welcomed with love.

- EMPOWERING – We purposefully invest in youth, encouraging them as they learn and lead in ministries for, with, and by youth.

- SUSTAINABLE – We are committed to ministries, systems, practices, policies, and programs that maximize the future of the conference youth ministry.

The work of this team also includes overseeing conference youth ministry programming and events. We are happy to announce that the inaugural TWK Youth Gathering will take place in October 2022, bringing together youth from across the conference for worship, spiritual growth, connection, and celebration. In addition to this important work, our team is also actively designing the next phase of youth ministry leadership and structure. As we move forward, we continue to trust and believe that God is up to something beautiful and that the Holy Spirit has, can, and will work through the youth among us in particularly special ways to make disciples for the transformation of the world. Thanks be to God for the privilege it is to partner together in this work.

Respectfully Submitted: Tennessee-Western Kentucky Youth Ministry Transition Team 2021-2022

BOSTON UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

G. Sujin Pak, Dean

I am profoundly grateful for your partnership, prayers, and support in these challenging times. A year like 2021 makes even more relevant BUSTH's historic and ongoing commitments to peace and justice in cultivating transformational leaders. We remain hopeful and vigilant in our continued partnership with you.

Breaking News

- Return to Campus: Faculty, administrators, and library returned to in-person instruction and work in fall 2021, with many events reaching hybrid audiences. Strict COVID-19 precautions continue to ensure the safety of students, faculty, and administrators.
- Students: Our fall 2021 entering class was among our most diverse, with 108 new students enrolling in September.
- Faculty: In September we celebrated the appointment of Cristian De La Rosa as associate dean for Students and Community Life. Professor Shelly Rambo leads the Lilly-funded project on Trauma-Responsive Congregations, and two faculty members — professors Dana Robert and Wesley Wildman — were each honored with festschrifts. Professor Jonathan Calvillo's book The Saints of Santa Ana received the HTI Book Award, and professor Choi Hee An published A Postcolonial Leadership. BUSTH is conducting two faculty searches with anticipation of welcoming new faculty in the fall.
- Launch of a New Online Degree: BUSTH's first fully online master's degree — the Master of Religion and Public Leadership (MARPL) — is currently enrolling students for its first cohort in fall 2022. MARPL seeks students who wish to be prepared for leadership roles that creatively engage the challenges of public life.
- Peale Foundation Grant: Professor Steven Sandage and his research team were awarded a $2.19 million, five-year grant by the Norman Vincent Peale Foundation for a project that fosters a network of communities for relational care and support to spiritual leaders and therapists to offer resources to reduce trauma risk and vocational burnout and foster flourishing.
- Scholarships: We continue to offer free tuition to UMC-registered candidates for ordained ministry and leadership fellowships that support students in ethnic, gender, and sexuality studies. New funds include the Sacred Worth Scholarship Fund and the Dean Thurman & Bishop Easterling Fellowship Fund.
- Online Lifelong Learning: BUSTH offers online workshops for professional and spiritual enrichment of religious leaders. Recent workshops include Practices of Grief in a Time of Pandemic and Reflecting with Howard Thurman. To learn more, visit bu.edu/sth/oll.
- Development: Recent accomplishments include endowing the Center for Global Christianity and Mission upon its 20th anniversary and new funding for student scholarships and academic programs.

Commitment to Justice and Compassion

- BUSTH's Office of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion offers webinars on timely inclusion efforts, such as Increasing Participation of Students of Underrepresented Backgrounds.
- The 2021-22 Lowell Lectures are dedicated to cross-advocacy and intersectionality in racial justice efforts. This fall, Dr. Kwok Pui Lan advocated for broader understandings of political theology and greater awareness of anti-Asian sentiment and violence. A diverse panel response fostered rich conversation.
- Work continues to improve accessibility, sustainability, and responsible investing. BUSTH is the first certified Green School at BU and active in the Green Seminary Initiative.

CANDLER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Jan Love, Mary Lee Hardin Willard Dean and Professor of Christianity and World Politics

Since 1914, Candler School of Theology at Emory University has lived into our mission, educating faithful and creative leaders for the church's ministries throughout the world. This year, as we leaned into this critical work and continued to adapt to a world changed by the coronavirus pandemic, we imagined new possibilities for students who are called by God to pursue serious theological study and preparation for ministry. For some, opening avenues to graduate theological education requires moving financial obstacles, and for others, geography or family responsibilities may be the barriers. Candler is committed to assisting students in removing these barriers and opening new pathways to ministry.

An official seminary of The United Methodist Church, Candler holds true to the Methodist value of ecumenical openness, enthusiastically welcoming students from 43 denominations, with 45 percent of Master of Divinity (MDiv) students coming from the Wesleyan tradition. Our student body reflects the diversity and breadth of the Christian faithful, with an enrollment of 466 from 16 countries and 38 states, 45 percent persons of color (U.S.), and a median age of 28 among MDiv students. This diversity is a blessing, enriching our students and our larger community and providing a learning laboratory for ministry in the 21st century — ministry that reaches across difference, works to resolve injustice, and embodies Christ's love in and among us.

Candler offers six single degrees: MDiv, Master of Theological Studies (MTS), Master of Religious Leadership (MRL), Master of Religion and Public Life (MRPL), Master of Theology (ThM), and Doctor of Ministry (DMin); Candler also offers 10 dual degrees. Our DMin is 90 percent online, so students can remain in their places of ministry while earning their degrees. Its high 87 percent completion rate illustrates both the quality of our students and Candler's commitment to their success. This year, we increased online offerings in other degrees as well. Now students can complete the MRPL completely online; the MRL with concentrations in Youth Ministry, Justice, Peacebuilding and Conflict Transformation, or Wesleyan Leadership and Heritage in a hybrid format; and MDiv students can complete core classes online. Plus, our new Remote Teaching Parish (RTP) program allows MDiv students who have jobs in ecclesial settings far from our Atlanta campus to take core classes online and complete their contextual education requirements at their place of ministry, participating in mentor-led online groups with other RTP students.

Alleviating student debt through generous financial aid is a top priority. In 2020-2021, we awarded more than $6.8 million in financial aid, with 100 percent of MDiv and 98.5 percent of all students receiving support. All MDiv students who are certified candidates for ordained ministry in the UMC receive full-tuition scholarships, and all MDiv, MTS, MRL, and ThM students who are enrolled part-time or more receive a scholarship covering at least 50 percent of tuition for the length of their program.

Hundreds of laity and theology students alike have joined in classes and events offered through The Candler Foundry, our innovative program to make theological education accessible to all. Through short and semester-length courses taught by Candler faculty, videos and discussion guides to spark conversation in groups or one-on-one, and online panel discussions, those who want to delve more deeply into theology and the Bible have the chance to do just that. View the latest offerings at candlerfoundry.emory.edu.

Associate Dean of Methodist Studies, the Rev. Dr. Anne Burkholder, will retire from Candler at the end of the 2021-22 academic year. We are grateful to God for her energetic and skillful leadership in this vital area as she strengthened the connection between our students and conferences throughout the UMC, mentoring them as they discerned their call and navigated the ordination process.

Candler's ability to fulfill our mission to provide the church with the faithful and creative leaders it needs depends upon your prayers, partnership, and support. Thank you for the countless ways you advance this essential ministry in the life of our denomination. We invite you to visit us online at candler.emory.edu.

DUKE DIVINITY SCHOOL

Dean Edgardo Colón-Emeric

Edgardo Colón-Emeric, the Irene and William McCutchen Associate Professor of Theology and Reconciliation and director of the Center for Reconciliation, began his two-year term as the dean of Duke Divinity School (DDS) on July 1. Colón-Emeric earned both his M.Div. and Ph.D. from Duke and has been a member of the faculty since 2008. An ordained elder in the North Carolina Annual Conference, he directs the Central American Methodist Course of Study and the Peru Theological Initiative and serves on the United Methodist Committee on Faith and Order. He is the first Latino dean of the school.

A new partnership with North Carolina Wesleyan College will enable qualified undergraduates to take courses at DDS beginning in 2022. The Duke Accelerated Pastoral Formation Program offers select undergraduates the option to begin coursework toward the Hybrid M.Div. or Master of Arts in Christian Practice (M.A.) degrees while completing their baccalaureate degree. Funded by the support of the Kern Family Foundation, the accelerated program will help lower educational debt and accelerate timeline to engage in ministry. DDS launched the Asian House of Studies, to support Asian and Asian-American students; build a network of Asian and Asian-American students, alumni, and church leaders; and provide resources for Asian theological studies under the leadership of Sangwoo Kim, a consulting professor and senior director of the Methodist House of Studies, and Jung Choi, a consulting professor and senior director of Wesleyan Formation Initiatives.

Three new certificates were approved this year, and all can be earned as part of the residential M.Div., Hybrid M.Div., M.T.S., and M.A. degree programs. The Certificate in Methodist/Wesleyan Studies is aimed at pan-Methodist/Wesleyan students who want to engage in robust training in Wesleyan theology and spiritual practice in preparation for leadership positions in organizations and churches such as The United Methodist Church, AME Church, AME Zion Church, and Korean Methodist Church. In the Certificate in Latinx Studies, students will hone skills for ministry while becoming part of a learning community that is committed to and seeks to learn from Hispanic/Latinx traditions and cultures. The Certificate in Worship is designed to prepare DDS students to engage in practical formation and theoretical reflection on the worship of God in Christian congregations.
In January, the school announced 12 full-tuition fellowships to support incoming residential M.Div. degree program students who pursue a certificate in Black Church Studies or Latinx Studies. In addition to providing full-tuition scholarships, the fellowships provide vocational formation and mentoring and up to $24,000 in stipend and internship opportunities through the Office of Field Education. The fellowships begin in the fall of 2022.

The Office of Wesleyan Engagement announced the "Rediscovering the Heart of Methodism," an initiative of DDS with the support of the Kern Family Foundation. It seeks to nurture innovative leadership within the Wesleyan tradition as a constructive and hope-filled response to a turbulent ecclesial landscape. Supported by the Duke Endowment, the school launched To Heal the Wounded Soul, a project to strengthen Wesleyan pastors in the Carolinas who are Black, Indigenous, or people of color, including from the AME, AME Zion, CME, and UMC churches.

This academic year DDS welcomed the largest incoming class in the school's history, with 259 new students. Enrollment in the M.Div. degr ee program increased to 133 students. The growth was heavily driven by the first cohort of 52 Hybrid M.Div. students. The Doctor of Ministry (D.Min.) welcomed 36 students, the Master of Theological Studies (M.T.S.) gained 33, and the M.A. 17. The Master of Theology (Th.M.) enrolled 12 students, and the Doctor of Theology (Th.D.) enrolled seven. The Certificate in Theology and Health Care welcomed five residential students and 14 students in the hybrid program.

Three new faculty members joined the faculty in 2021. Polly Ha is an associate professor of the History of Christianity. Ronald K. Rittgers is the chair in Lutheran Studies and professor of the History of Christianity. Daniel Castelo is the William Kellon Quick Professor of Theology and Methodist Studies.

GAMMON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY - 2022 REPORT

Rev. Dr. Candace M. Lewis, President-Dean

Gammon Theological Seminary, located in Atlanta, Georgia, is the Interdenominational Theological Center's United Methodist constituent member. The Interdenominational Theological Center (ITC) is a Christian Africentric ecumenical consortium of seminaries and fellowships that educate students to commit to practicing justice and peace through a liberating and transforming spirituality to become leaders in the church and local/global communities.

Gammon was founded in 1883 by The Methodist Episcopal Church, with assistance from the Freedman's Aid Society. Today, Gammon Theological Seminary is the only predominately Black seminary of the 13 approved United Methodist-related theological institutions. The faculty and administration of Gammon at the ITC create an environment in which critical thinking, investigative reflection, decision making, and responsible action happen. The ITC's accreditation is with the Association of Theological Schools and the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges.

Gammon/ITC offers the following degree programs: the Master of Divinity, the Master of Arts in Religion and Education, and the Doctor of Ministry. Admission is open to qualified men and women. The support given to The United Methodist Ministerial Education Fund by United Methodist Conferences continues to enable Gammon students to be grounded in the Wesleyan tradition of theological education. The Gammon Board of Trustees elected our 17th president-dean, Rev. Dr. Candace M Lewis, and she is the first woman to lead the seminary in our 138-year history. Dr. Lewis began her tenure on April 1, 2021.

Our new initiatives and celebrations this year at Gammon include:

- The Rev. Geraldine Williams-McClellan $100,000.00 Endowment Fund launched with Bishop Kenneth Carter and the Florida Annual Conference.
- Commissioned our first Gammon Seminary national research project focused on COVID-19's impact on Black United Methodist clergy, laity, and congregations – partnership with SBC21, BMCR, BCW, Discipleship Ministries and Convocation Pastors Black UMC. Please visit our website at www.gammon-itc.org for the findings.
- Hosted a virtual church leadership training event, Navigating Next, in January 2022 to equip leaders for effective ministry 2022 with over 700 registered attendees.
- Gammon student participates in the 2021 – 2022 Ecumenical Institute at Bossey. Tavis Tinsley, a Gammon senior, was invited by the United Methodist Council of Bishops (COB) the World Council of Churches. He completed the "Complementary Certificate in Ecumenical Studies" through the University of Geneva in Switzerland.
- Celebrated our 138th anniversary and Founder's Day.

The greatest challenge facing Gammon Seminary is the rising cost of theological education and the significant amount of debt our students are incurring as they answer their call to full-time ministry. Therefore, Gammon is committed to raising a million dollars in the next two years to offer full-tuition scholarships to students who are called and committed to full-time ministry in The United Methodist Church.

We are grateful to this annual conference for your support of theological education and your commitment to ensuring pastoral leadership is theologically trained to lead us forward in the Wesleyan tradition.

METHODIST THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL IN OHIO

Danny Russell, Director of Communications

Thank you for this opportunity to bring you news from Methodist Theological School in Ohio (MTSO).

With $1 million grant, MTSO supports existing religious leaders and helps form new ones

MTSO has received a five-year grant of $999,665 to establish Connecting Pathways: A Multi-Faceted Approach to Strengthen and Sustain Current and Future Faith Leaders. The project is being funded through Lilly Endowment Inc.'s Pathways for Tomorrow Initiative.

The project utilizes MTSO's distinct strengths in two distinct parts. Part one, Connecting Pathways: Congregations and Other Ministry Partners, supports existing religious leaders, focusing on anti-racism training and resourcing. Working with partner organizations, MTSO helps faith leaders to assess land use and church food programs to assist in building community engagement. Part two, Connecting Pathways: Vocational Exploration Intensive for Young Adults, invites young adults to imagine the possibilities for lifelong faith, offering experiential learning, theological reflection, worship, and relationships with healthy community leaders and vibrant faith communities. It introduces the whys and hows of ministry, connecting participants with faith leaders, including some of those involved in part one of the project.

New initiative enhances scientific literacy for seminarians

MTSO has a longstanding commitment to preparing religious leaders who are conversant in and respectful of science. An important part of that effort is Questioning Science with Good Faith: Shifting the Engagement of Science in Seminaries, a project that integrates science into church history and theological studies curricula while also contributing to the public discourse on intersection of science and religion. The project is made possible by a $75,000 grant from the American Association for the Advancement of Science Dialogue on Science, Ethics, and Religion program. The grant is funded by the John Templeton Foundation. In September 2021, MTSO offered an online, multi-professional conversation, Pastors, Pandemics and Public Health: Building Collaborative Responses to COVID-19.

Full-tuition scholarships extended to those pursuing United Methodist candidacy

MTSO and the school's donors pledged to extend a full-tuition pledge to all prospective students who are pursuing United Methodist elder or deacon candidacy. The MTSO admissions staff is happy to answer questions about this initiative at 800-333-6876 or admissions@mtso.edu.

SAINT PAUL SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Rev. Neil Blair, President, spst.edu

Educating tomorrow's leaders by offering on-campus, online, and hybrid learning courses at a FLEXible schedule, Saint Paul School of Theology is a seminary of The United Methodist Church committed to the formation of people for innovative, creative ministry. Grounded in the academic study of faith and ministry, theology is practiced in a traditional classroom and a contextual curriculum.

As the global pandemic continues to bring challenges to our daily lives, Saint Paul School of Theology began the 2021-2022 academic year, again offering students an option to attend courses via Zoom or on-campus while maintaining safety protocols. Our weekly chapel service continues to be available online, allowing staff and students to come together as one institution where all are invited to create a sacred atmosphere wherever they are.

This year, we have had many faculty and staff changes. After many years of tremendous service to students and the Seminary, Dr. James Brandt and Dr. Hal Knight announced retirement plans effective at the end of the 2021-2022 academic year. In addition, Dr. Jeanne Hoeft will step down from her role as vice president of Academic Affairs and dean at the end of the academic year but will continue as faculty. New additions to Saint Paul include Dr. Joshua Bartholomew, assistant professor of Ethics, Church and Society; Dr. Tiffany Nagel Monroe, executive director of the Oklahoma Campus; Dr. Lucas Endicott, COS School regional director; and Rabbi Michael Zedek, rabbi-in-residence.

The faculty of Saint Paul School of Theology maintains high standards of scholarship, research, publication, and engagement. Over the past year, their many activities and publications have been so numerous that space permits only the sharing of selected highlights:

- Dr. Nancy Howell, professor of Theology and Philosophy of Religion and Oubri A. Poppele Professor of Health and Welfare Ministries, was re-elected to a second term on the executive committee of the International Society for Science and Religion
- Dr. Casey Sigmon, assistant professor of Preaching and Worship and director of Contextual Education, was invited to be a writer for Lent Another Way, an e-course, with The Plural Guild and The Many
- Dr. Joshua Bartholomew, assistant professor of Ethics, Church and Society, was the guest speaker at a

Kansas City event, Black Theology and the Black Panthers: A Conversation with Dr. Joshua Bartholomew.

Saint Paul welcomed 45 new students for the 2021-2022 academic year. New student enrollment for the fall semester increased by 44 percent (34 new students), with an overall increase for the year of 73 percent. Enrollment remained strong for the Master of Divinity (M.Div.) program with promising growth in our newly designed Master of Arts in Theological Studies (MATS) and Master of Arts in Christian Ministry (MACM) programs. Saint Paul Course of Study School educated 228 individual students, 49 of which were new students, with approximately 550 registrations and offering a total of 50 courses. Serving 32 conferences, 121 full-time and 106 part-time licensed local pastors comprised these registrations.

As we have happily reported in years past, Saint Paul is financially sound and operates with a balanced budget. These last years' changes have established a solid financial foundation for years of sustainability. As always, we continue to be grateful for donations from the community that provide technology, scholarships, and evolving academic programs to students.

Our aim has always been to utilize technology as a conduit to bring faculty and students together regardless of whether they are on-campus or joining remotely through Zoom. All our classrooms began upgrades in fall 2021 with offerings from neat. Each smaller classroom added a 65-inch neat.board, a self-contained screen that functions as a full Zoom room, as well as an electronic whiteboard. We implemented neat.bars in other classrooms that connect to our classrooms' existing screens. We are currently implementing neat.bar pros, just released at the end of 2021, in each of our large classrooms. At Saint Paul School of Theology, we have always tried to be pioneers with distance-learning technologies.

UNITED THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Dr. Kent Millard, President

For the past 150 years, United Theological Seminary has educated men and women for Christian ministry within the historic traditions of the United Brethren, Evangelical United Brethren, and United Methodist churches. On October 11, 1871, United Theological Seminary, then Union Biblical Seminary, held its first classes in Dayton, Ohio. From a starting class of 11 students, the seminary has grown to 488 students in its most recent academic year,* representing 39 denominations, 11 countries, and 39 states. Today's seminary serves a diverse student body that is 53 percent African American.

On October 10, 2021, the seminary celebrated its 150th anniversary and burned the mortgage on its current campus facilities, freeing up $400,000 annually to support student scholarships.

In 2021, United received a grant of $1 million from Lilly Endowment Inc.'s Pathways for Tomorrow Initiative to expand the seminary's Houses of Study, which offer specialized master's tracks to equip students for the unique ministry needs of the communities, movements, and denominations they serve. The seminary has introduced six Houses of Study, currently enrolling for 2022-23:

- Fresh Expressions, directed by Dr. Michael Beck
- Mosaix, in partnership with Mosaix Global Network and directed by Rev. Chip Freed
- Hispanic, 100 percent in Spanish for Spanish-speaking leaders, directed by Dr. Jorge Ochoa
- Black United Methodist, directed by Dr. Vance Ross

- Global Pentecostal, directed by Dr. Mark Chironna
- Global Wesleyan, directed by Rev. Gregory Stover
- Because United believes so passionately in this initiative, the seminary has dedicated additional resources to offer half-tuition scholarships for inaugural students in its Houses of Study programs.

United also introduced the Academic Dean's Scholarship, which provides 50 percent tuition for the duration of a master's degree program, and the Presidential Scholarship, awarding up to $5,000 per year to new students.

In honor of United's 150th anniversary year, a generous donor gave $2 million to help graduating students reduce their educational debt. Each graduate in the 2021-22 academic year will receive up to $20,000 toward student debt from theological and previous academic studies.

As United looks forward to the next 150 years with gratitude and anticipation, the seminary remains committed to the preparation of faithful and fruitful Christian leaders to make disciples of Jesus Christ.

RESOLUTIONS

SPECIAL SUNDAYS OBSERVANCE RESOLUTION

Whereas, GOLDEN CROSS Senior Ministries, Inc. is an extension ministry of the former Memphis Conference whose purpose is to enhance the quality of life for all seniors served by Wesley Living, and

Whereas the Golden Cross Sunday offering has been observed in churches on the first Sunday in May by action of the former Memphis Conference, and

Whereas the Golden Cross Sunday offering is a primary means of funding the ministry of GOLDEN CROSS Senior Ministries, and

Whereas, the Golden Cross Foundation, now the ENCORE Ministry Foundation, is a self-funded extension ministry of the former Tennessee Conference whose purpose is to provide training, resources, consultation, and funding to local congregations to enhance older adult ministry, and

Whereas the special Sunday offering for ENCORE Ministry has been observed in churches on the second Sunday in September by action of the former Tennessee Conference, and

Whereas this special Sunday offering is a primary means of funding the ministry of ENCORE Ministry;

Therefore, be it resolved, that the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church, through the passage of this resolution, affirms the observances of two special Sundays with offerings — Golden Cross Sunday to benefit GOLDEN CROSS Senior Ministries (May 2023) and ENCORE Ministry Sunday to benefit ENCORE Ministry (September 2022).

Be it further resolved that local congregations could observe the Golden Cross Sunday offering on another Sunday in May and the ENCORE Ministry Sunday offering on another Sunday in September.

Be it further resolved that each local congregation shall remit the two offering receipts to the treasurer/director of Administration and Finance of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Annual Conference.

Be it further resolved that the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Annual Conference affirms its support for Golden Cross Sunday, May 7, 2023, and ENCORE Ministry Sunday, September 11, 2022.

Respectfully submitted:

Ms. Kristi Owens, Executive Director
GOLDEN CROSS Senior Ministries

Mr. Kent McNish, Executive Director
ENCORE Ministry

A RESOLUTION TO DIRECT THE TRUSTEES OF THE TENNESSEE-WESTERN KENTUCKY CONFERENCE (TWK) ON THE DISBURSEMENT OF THE PROCEEDS FROM THE SALE OF CLOSED OR ABANDONED CHURCH PROPERTY

Whereas, financial resources acquired from the sale of closed or abandoned church property should be used to both continue ministry and to develop new ministries consistent with the mission, vision, and values of the TWK;

Whereas, Resurrection is not only a future hope, but a present reality expressed through situations where financial resources obtained at the sale of closed or abandoned church property can begin new ministry in the closed or abandoned church's community and/or in a new community;

Whereas, direction to the Trustees on the disbursement of funds acquired after the sale of closed or abandoned church property brings clarity and efficiency;

Whereas, ¶1504.23 of The Book of Discipline directs the payment of the pro rata share of any aggregate unfunded pension obligations by the closed or abandoned church be made to the annual conference;

Whereas, ¶2549.7 of The Book of Discipline directs the disbursement of proceeds from a property sale located within an urban area of 50,000 or more;

Therefore, Let It Be Resolved, after the stipulation of ¶1504.23 has been met, the Trustees of the TWK shall disburse the remaining proceeds from the sale of closed or abandoned church property in the following manner:

1. The Trustees shall receive reimbursement for any documented costs accrued in (a) maintaining and protecting the closed or abandoned property from the date the Trustees acquired the property until the property is transferred and (b) for marketing and transferring the property.
2. The balance of any unfunded Connectional Commitment remaining for the year the church was closed or abandoned shall be paid to the conference treasurer.
3. If items one and two have been met, and if ¶2549.7 is applicable, then 100 percent of the remaining proceeds shall be given to the TWK New Church Development (NCD) for new church starts, missional faith community development, or grants as stipulated by ¶2549.7 and approved by NCD.
4. If items one and two have been met, and if ¶2549.7 is not applicable, then NCD shall receive 75 percent of the remaining balance to support new church starts, missional faith community development, or grants for emerging ministry as directed and approved by NCD; the Cabinet Reserve Fund shall receive 22 percent of the remaining balance to support ministry needs in the districts as approved by the Cabinet; and finally, The TWK Committee on Archives and History shall receive 3 percent of the remaining balance to support its ministry purposes in the conference.
5. The Board of Trustees shall create from the existing closed church fund a Small Membership Church Improvement Fund of $1 million dollars for the benefit of churches worshipping 50 or less as determined by Table 1, Line 7 of the church's most recent statistical report. The fund would be used to assist small churches with major building repair issues. An application and approval process for access to such funds by small churches is to be developed by the Administration and the Discover/Send Strategy Teams.

Dr. Rob Martin on behalf of the TWK New Church Development Committee.

RENTAL/HOUSING ALLOWANCES FOR RETIRED, DISABLED, OR FORMER CLERGYPERSONS OF THE TENNESSEE CONFERENCE

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church (the "Church"), of which the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference (the "Conference") is a part, has in the past functioned and continues to function through ministers of the gospel (within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 107) who were or are duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed ministers of the Church ("Clergypersons");

WHEREAS the practice of the Church and of this Conference was and is to provide active Clergypersons with a parsonage or a rental/housing allowance as part of their gross compensation;

WHEREAS pensions or other amounts paid to active, retired, terminated, and disabled Clergypersons are considered to be deferred compensation and are paid to active, retired, terminated, and disabled Clergypersons in consideration of previous active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized the Conference (or its predecessors) as an appropriate organization to designate a rental/housing allowance for Clergypersons who are or were members of this Conference and are eligible to receive such deferred compensation;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

THAT an amount equal to 100% of the pension, severance, or disability payments received from plans authorized under The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (the "Discipline"), which includes all such payments from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits (now also known as "Wespath Benefits and Investments", or "Wespath"), to each active, retired, terminated, or disabled Clergyperson who is or was a member of the Conference, or its predecessors, be and hereby is designated as a rental/housing allowance for each such Clergyperson; and

THAT the pension, severance, or disability payments to which this rental/housing allowance designation applies will be any pension, severance, or disability payments from plans, annuities, or funds authorized under the Discipline, including such payments from Wespath and from a commercial annuity company that provides an annuity arising from benefits accrued under a Wespath plan, annuity, or fund authorized under the Discipline, that result from any service a Clergyperson rendered to this Conference or that an active, a retired, a terminated, or a disabled Clergyperson of this Conference rendered to any local church, annual conference of the Church, general agency of the Church, other institution of the Church, former denomination that is now a part of the Church, or any other employer that employed the Clergyperson to perform services related to the ministry of the Church, or its predecessors, and that elected to make contributions to, or accrue a benefit under, such a plan, annuity, or fund for such an active, a retired, a terminated, or a disabled Clergyperson's pension, severance, or disability plan benefit as part of his or her gross compensation.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance that may be excluded from a Clergyperson's gross income in any year for federal (and, in most cases, state) income tax purposes is limited under Internal Revenue Code section 107(2), and regulations thereunder, to the least of: (a) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the Clergyperson's employer or other appropriate body of the Church (such as this Conference in the foregoing resolutions) for such year; (b) the amount actually expended by the Clergyperson to rent or provide a home in such year; or (c) the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances (such as a garage), plus the cost of utilities in such year. Each clergyperson or former clergyperson is urged to consult with his or her own tax advisor to determine what deferred compensation is eligible to be claimed as a housing allowance exclusion.

RESOLUTION FOR Y03 END SLAVERY

Whereas, our baptismal vows call us to resist every form of evil, injustice, and oppression; and

Whereas, Jesus declares "The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because The Spirit has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. The Lord has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to set the oppressed free." (Luke 4); and

Whereas, Isaiah 58 calls us to "loose the bonds of injustice, to undo the straps of the yoke, to let the oppressed go free, and to break every yoke!"; and

Whereas, John Wesley called Slavery "an execrable villainy" and called us to banish it from under the sun. (Thoughts Upon Slavery (1771); and

Whereas, the 2016 Book of Resolutions (paragaph 164 A) "The Church regards the institution of slavery as an infamous and atrocious evil;" and

Whereas, in the constitution of the State of Tennessee, Article 1 Section 33 states "That slavery and involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime, whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, are forever prohibited in this state"; and

Whereas, this language provides a caveat allowing slavery in the state of Tennessee, potentially allowing slavery for State prisoners; and

Whereas, in the State of Tennessee, the Legislature has overwhelmingly passed and the Governor has signed a resolution to abolish slavery in the State Constitution. This resolution will be on the November 8th ballot in the State of Tennessee, appearing as Amendment Number 3. The ballot measure would remove language from the Tennessee Constitution that allows the use of slavery and involuntary servitude as criminal punishments. The ballot measure would replace the language with the statement, "Slavery and involuntary servitude are forever prohibited." The ballot measure would also state that the language does not prohibit an inmate from working when the inmate has been duly convicted of a crime;

THEREFORE, the Tennessee Western Kentucky Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church endorses ballot measure three to amend the Tennessee Constitution to end slavery. We call on all TWK churches to remind their members of our vows to resist all forms of evil, injustice and oppression and as they inform and educate their congregations about the upcoming resolution.

GUN VIOLENCE RESOLUTION

Whereas, on May 24th, 2022, an 18 year old entered Robb Elementary School in Uvalde, Texas and murdered 19 elementary school children and 2 teachers; and

Whereas, on May 18th, 2022, an 18 year old entered the Tops Market in Buffalo, New York and murdered 10 African-American people; and

Whereas these events are only two of the 213 mass shootings that have taken place in the United States in the first 145 days of 2022; and

Whereas, mass shootings have been occurring across the United States with alarming frequency over the past 23 years, from places such as schools in Columbine and Newtown and Parkland, to a movie theater in Aurora, to a nightclub in Orlando, to houses of worship like the Tree of Life Synagogue and Mother Emanuel AME Church; and

Whereas the 2016 United Methodist Book of Resolutions states that "as followers of Jesus,.... we must address the epidemic of gun violence" and calls on "United Methodist to prayerfully address gun violence in their local context," and

Whereas the May 25, 2022 statement from the United Methodist Council of Bishops calls on the church to "move from words to actions," and "actively work to transform lives from violence to peace, elect officials that will not settle for inaction, and inject communities with the grace and love of Christ that will alter the course of our current behaviors;"\

THEREFORE, the Tennessee Western Kentucky Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church calls on President Joe Biden, U.S. Senators Marsha Blackburn, Bill Haggerty, Mitch McConnell, and Rand Paul; Governors Bill Lee and Andy Beshear; as well as other members of local, state, and U.S. governments to implement specific laws at the local, state, and national level that prevent or reduce gun violence. Specifically, we call on these representatives to implement the following measures as listed in resolution #3428 in the 2016 United Methodist Book of Resolutions:

Universal background checks on all gun purchases;

Ratification of the Arms Trade Treaty;

Ensuring all guns are sold through licensed gun retailers;

Prohibiting all individuals convicted of violent crimes from purchasing a gun for a fixed time period;

Prohibiting all individuals under restraining order due to threat of violence from purchasing a gun;

Prohibiting persons with serious mental illness, who pose a danger to themselves and their communities, from purchasing a gun;

Ensuring greater access to services for those suffering from mental illness; Establishing a minimum age of 21 years for a gun purchase or possession;

Banning large-capacity ammunition magazines and weapons designed to fire multiple rounds each time the trigger is pulled; and Promoting new technologies to aid law-enforcement agencies to trace crime guns and promote public safety.

FURTHERMORE, the Tennessee Western Kentucky Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church calls on all United Methodist churches, clergy, and laity, in the words of Bishop Bickerton, "to find a way to keep these stories on the front page of our consciousness and let nothing detract from our commitment to curb violence, fight for justice, end systemic racism, elect politicians with courage, deeply listen to those who have been harmed, and genuinely seek the power of the Holy Spirit to lift us from this posture of paralysis into a mode of action." This includes standing in solidarity with communities who have experienced gun violence, preaching against a culture of violence, and making conscious efforts to dismantle systems of oppression.

Awards & Elected Delegates

DENMAN AWARDS

The Harry Denman Evangelism Award is awarded jointly by the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Annual Conference and The Foundation for Evangelism. In memory of the lifelong ministry and witness of Dr. Harry Denman, the award honors individuals, selected by their annual conference, for their exceptional ministry of evangelism that invites people into a life-transforming relationship with Jesus Christ. For two months every year, the opportunity to nominate clergy, laity and youth for this award is offered to everyone throughout the conference.

Standing Rules, Human Resources Handbook, and Media Crisis Response Plan

STANDING RULES OF THE TENNESSEE-WESTERN KENTUCKY CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

The Standing Rules of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Annual Conference (also referred to herein as "TWK" or "the Conference") represent the means by which we organize and oversee our work of making disciples for the transformation of the world. The standing rules are the organizational rules for sessions of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Annual Conference, setting forth the rules by which sessions of the Conference operate, in compliance with ¶604 of the 2016 United Methodist Book of Discipline. As our Book of Discipline says about itself, our Standing Rules reflect the "...most current statement of how United Methodists [in the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Annual Conference] agree to live together and 'maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.'"

The Committee on Standing Rules presents these rules for renewal and adoption by each session of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Annual Conference.

Section 1 – Authorization for the Committee on Standing Rules

1.1 The Committee on Standing Rules has the responsibility to:

a) Propose new policies and standing rules;

b) Propose needed amendments to existing policies and standing rules;

c) Provide guidance to the annual conference at any point where conference action may be at variance with a policy or standing rule.

1.2 The Standing Rules of the Annual Conference must be in compliance with the provisions of ¶604 of the current edition of The United Methodist Book of Discipline.

Section 2 – Annual Conference Session Procedures

2.1 The conference shall follow the latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order except where it is in conflict with these Standing Rules or the current Book of Discipline.

2.2 All motions and resolutions shall be supplied to the conference secretary in writing on a form provided for this purpose by the conference secretary.

2.3 Any entity planning to present a report at any annual conference session shall submit the report to the Conference Secretary or his/her designee by the date designated by the Annual Conference design team, but no later than 60 days prior to the opening day of annual conference for inclusion in pre-conference materials.

2.4 All resolutions not included in the pre-conference materials shall be submitted to the Committee on Resolutions at least 60 days prior to the first day of the annual conference session. The chair of the Committee on Resolutions shall submit to the annual conference, in their original form, all resolutions so submitted. In addition, the Committee on Resolutions may present to the annual conference for consideration a revised version of any such resolution.

2.5 The roll call of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Annual Conference shall be taken from the list submitted by the Conference Secretary.

2.6 The agenda of the annual conference shall be that as it is corrected and distributed on the first day of annual conference with the understanding that the Bishop may adjust the agenda for the good of the order.

2.7 All speeches other than reports shall be limited to three minutes.

2.8 Voting eligibility will be determined by the Conference Secretary, as guided by the Book of Discipline. The Conference Secretary shall determine, in consultation with the Annual Conference Design Team, the appropriate means of identifying who is eligible to vote on all issues requiring a vote.

2.9 The annual conference session shall meet at a location accessible to persons with disabilities. Where it is impractical or impossible to meet in person, meetings may be conducted electronically to the full extent permitted by law.

2.10 All annual conference reports to be included in the journal shall be e-mailed to the Conference Secretary 60 days prior to the opening day of annual conference. Any corrections and/or additions received after this date shall, at the discretion of the Conference Secretary, be included in the succeeding journal. Handwritten and typewritten reports shall not be accepted for publication in the journal. All reports should be typed, using Microsoft Word according to the specifications on the conference website. Photos must be submitted as separate JPG files and must include permissions from all persons pictured. Photos submitted will be used as space permits in the journal. Use Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference Journal Style Sheet posted on the conference website for guidance on capitalization, punctuation, and so forth to ensure that the journal has a consistent look and flow. Files that contain tables should be submitted in Microsoft Excel format. No PDF or directly scanned images will be accepted.

2.11 There shall be a consent agenda that will include the following:

a) Agenda items and reports not requiring action by the Annual Conference other than receipt of the item for publication in the journal or acceptance of the report;

b) All nominations made pursuant to Section 6 below; and

c) Closures, mergers, charge line changes and disaffiliations of local churches.

In order for any item or report to be eligible for placement on the consent agenda, it must have been available online with the pre-conference materials at least seventy-two hours prior to the opening date of the Annual Conference session. Any item may be removed from the consent agenda if ten members of the Conference who are eligible to vote petition for removal.

2.12 Equalization: Whenever it shall occur that the person serving as the director of Administrative Services or Connectional Ministry Officer is a lay person, then each person so serving shall be an at-large lay member of the annual conference. The conference secretary shall determine annually the number of laypersons needed to equalize lay and clergy members of the annual conference. A maximum of 20% of the at large delegates should be reserved for those serving in conference leadership roles as determined by the Conference Connectional Table. The remaining at-large members are to be allocated as nearly as possible on a pro-rata basis as determined by the church membership (reported in the previous year's statistical report) to the districts. The at-large members are to be selected by each district leadership team and shall include diverse representation of leadership.

Section 3 – Election of Delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conference

3.1 Clergy and lay delegates to General and jurisdictional conferences shall be elected as provided in the Constitution of The United Methodist Church (paragraphs 34-36 of The Book of Discipline).

3.2 Ballots:

d) Ballots will be provided by the office of the conference secretary

e) Fifty percent plus one valid ballots cast shall be necessary to elect

f) Ballots with more or less than the number of delegates to be elected shall be rejected as invalid

3.3 Candidacy of persons eligible to serve as delegates, whether clergy or lay to General and/or jurisdictional conference, may be established either by declaration or nomination:

a) To declare candidacy for election to serve as a General or jurisdictional conference delegate, the eligible person must submit to the Conference Secretary, no later than 60 days prior to the opening day of annual conference, for inclusion in the pre-conference materials a statement concerning:

1. His/her activities at the local church, district, and annual, jurisdictional, and general conference levels;

2. An assessment of the principal needs of the general Church and how those needs should be met; and

3. Any other information felt pertinent to introducing himself/herself to those members of the annual conference who may not be familiar with his/her views on issues confronting the Church.

b) To nominate a person for candidacy to be elected to serve as a General or jurisdictional conference delegate and have the nomination included in the pre-conference materials, the nominator(s) must:

1. Determine the eligibility of the person to be nominated.

2. Secure from the person to be nominated and submit to the Conference Secretary the proposed nominee's written consent to accept the nomination.

3. Submit to the Conference Secretary, no later than 60 days prior to the opening day of annual conference, for inclusion in the pre-conference materials, a statement concerning:

a. The activities of the nominee at the local church, district, and annual, jurisdictional, and general conference levels,

b. An assessment of the views of the nominee regarding the principal needs of the church and how those needs should be met, and

c. Any other information (such as age and ethnicity) felt to be pertinent to introducing the nominee to those members of the annual conference who may not be familiar with that nominee's views on issues confronting the church.

c) Statements submitted in the establishing of candidacy, whether by declaration or nomination, shall be limited to 200 words and shall be submitted to the Conference Secretary via e-mail.

d) Persons do not have to declare candidacy or be nominated for candidacy in order to be eligible for election to serve as a General or jurisdictional conference delegate.

e) The initial ballot for election to General Conference will have a ballot number assigned only to those who, by declaration or nomination, have expressed their desire to be considered as a candidate. All subsequent ballots will assign numbers to write-in candidates during the election process.

3.4 Reserve delegates: After the general and jurisdictional conference delegates are elected, two lay and two clergy reserve delegates shall be elected. The delegation's budget will include funding for one lay and one clergy reserve delegate to attend General and jurisdictional conferences. In the event of a tie in the election for reserves, the delegation shall be provided funding for two lay and two clergy reserves.

Section 4 – Suspension, Adoption, and Amendment of Standing Rules

4.1 Any standing rule, with the exception of SR 4.1 and SR 4.2, may be suspended at any session of the annual conference by a two-thirds majority vote of those present and eligible to vote.

4.2 Any proposal for the adoption of a standing rule, or for the amendment of an existing standing rule, shall be submitted to the Committee on Standing Rules at least 45 days prior to the first day of the annual conference session. The Committee on Standing Rules will present their recommendations to the annual conference, and their recommendations may be adopted or amended from the floor by a two-thirds majority of those present and eligible to vote.

4.3 Any additions or amendments to the Standing Rules shall take effect at the conclusion of the annual conference session in which they are adopted.

Section 5 – Nominations, Boards, Commissions, Committees, and other Entities

5.1 The Annual Conference Committee on Nominations shall be chaired by the bishop and elected by the annual conference.

5.2 The Committee on Nominations shall nominate persons in alignment with the conference ministry structure as authorized by the annual conference.

5.3 The Committee on Nominations shall develop a system for nominating leaders which utilizes the conference communication tools, enhances the desire to invest in young and diverse leadership, and seeks the input of leaders across the area. The system will adhere to the appropriate provisions in the current Book of Discipline. Particular attention will be paid to focus on the guiding values adopted for the TWK conference.

5.4 No person shall serve as a member of the same conference board, council, commission or agency, or on an associated or underlying committee (such as one which has as its parent body a conference board or agency), for more than eight years in a period of 12.

5.5 No person shall serve as a chairperson of any conference entity or as conference secretary or conference lay leader for more than eight years in a period of 12.

5.6 No person shall serve as a member of any entity of the annual conference when there is real or potential conflict of interest of an ongoing and thoroughgoing nature. When such conflict arises, that person shall be replaced immediately by the appropriate nominating committee, provided, however, that when a real or potential conflict of interest arises on a single issue, the person affected shall withdraw from the meeting until the discussion of and voting on that issue is complete.

Section 6 – Administration

6.1 The fiscal year of the annual conference shall be the calendar year.

6.2 All financial requests of the annual conference shall be presented to the Council on Finance and Administration for consideration and recommendation, using the format requested by the Council on Finance and Administration.

6.3 The authorization for the establishment of short-term committees related to the annual conference may include reimbursement for expenses incurred by committee members, in accordance with Council on Finance and Administration policies and oversight.

6.4 The expenses of at-large members necessary for the equalization of lay and clergy members of the annual conference shall be paid by the annual conference from the annual conference expenses line item not to exceed a per diem for lodging and food established each year by the Conference Council on Finance and Administration. In addition, reimbursement for travel shall be at the conference's current mileage rate.

6.5 The conference treasurer is authorized to pay all invoices clearly related to budgeted lines which they determine to be a proper conference expense, subject to available funding. In the case of requests that are not clearly related to a single budgeted line item, invoices under $10,000 are delegated to the treasurer with the authority to approve the request. Requests between $10,000 and $25,000 must also be approved by the CFA executive committee. Requests above $25,000 must be approved by a poll of a majority of CFA members. CFA will defer any requests above $250,000 to the annual conference for its decision.

6.6 Personnel policies will be developed and approved by the Human Resources (HR) Committee.

6.7 Annual conference records are maintained by various persons representing the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, Board of Pensions, Commission on Archives and History, district boards of ministry, the conference secretary, the bishop's office, and the offices of the district superintendents. These records are the property of the annual conference and shall be maintained, disposed of, or archived according to The Book of Discipline, G.C.F.A. Guidelines, and/or applicable law.

WELCOME

Welcome to The Tennessee-Western Kentucky (TWK) Conference of the United Methodist Church!

We are delighted that you have chosen to join our organization and hope that you will enjoy a successful career with us. As you become familiar with our mission and values, we hope you will take advantage of opportunities to enhance your career and further the mission of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference of The United Methodist Church.

The Conference is unique in many ways. It is a place where "ministry happens" - where people serve other people. Nevertheless, like other organizations, it requires certain policies and procedures to ensure its smooth operation and the fair treatment of each employee. With your active involvement, creativity, and support, The Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference of the United Methodist Church will continue to achieve its goal to offer Christ to a hurting world, one neighborhood at a time.

We sincerely hope you will take pride in being an important part of The Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference of the United Methodist Church's success. Each employee is an essential part of the total ministry of the Conference. All employees are encouraged to build and maintain a sense of community. Many people come to the Conference with many kinds of needs. They should find in our employees a model of the Christian community that is Christ's Church.

This Handbook covers all employees of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Annual Conference. From time to time, revisions and additions to this Handbook will be made and those changes will be effective upon communication to Conference employees. This Handbook and the policies within it, including Appendices, are not intended to be and do not constitute a contract of employment, and may be changed by the Conference at any time in its sole discretion. Any questions or concerns that you may have about the application of these policies or procedures should be addressed to your immediate supervisor.

Occasionally a question will arise which has not been discussed in this Handbook or clarification will be needed on a topic already addressed. In this case, if the question cannot be answered by your supervisor, please contact the Chairperson of the Human Resources Committee.

Please take time to review the policies and procedures contained in this handbook and retain it for your future reference.

POLICIES AS APPLICABLE TO UNITED METHODIST CLERGY

Whenever there is a conflict between these Personnel Policies and Procedures of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference and The Discipline with respect to United Methodist clergy or other matters addressed in The Discipline, The Discipline will control.

INTRODUCTION

This Handbook is intended to provide employees with a general understanding of the personnel policies of the Conference. However, it cannot anticipate every situation or answer every question about employment. Neither this Handbook, nor any provision in it constitute a contract of employment or any other type of contract, and revisions may be made in the Conference's sole discretion at any time. All employees are considered employees at will and the employment relationship may be terminated by the employer or employee at any time, with or without cause, so long as termination is not for an unlawful purpose. While this Handbook provides general guidelines for employee discipline, failure to adhere precisely to the disciplinary procedures described will not preclude the Conference from moving forward with discipline or termination when in the sole opinion of the responsible Director or other decisionmaker, the employee's job performance and/or conduct justifies discipline up to and including termination.

DEFINITIONS AND APPLICATIONS

The following definitions apply to all references in this document where the acronym or words/phrases are used:

"TWK" or "CONFERENCE": Refers to the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference of the United Methodist Church which is comprised of the Office of Administrative Services, Connectional Ministry Office, District Offices, Camps and Retreats Ministries

"CFA": Refers to the Conference Council on Finance and Administration. See ¶611 - 618 of The Discipline.

"EXEMPT EMPLOYEES": Refers to employees who are exempt from the overtime requirements of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended (FLSA).

"NON-EXEMPT EMPLOYEES": Refers to employees who are subject to the overtime requirements of the FLSA. These employees must be paid at least minimum wage and are entitled to overtime pay when they have worked over forty (40) hours during the workweek.

"CMO": Refers to the Connectional Ministry Officer, See ¶608 of The Discipline.

"DIRECTOR": Refers to the individual who is considered to have the final authority in a given office/section or department.

"THE DISCIPLINE": Refers to The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (2016).

"CONFIDENTIALITY": Refers to the duty of Conference personnel to maintain the privacy of certain information. To the extent practical consistent with operational necessity, sensitive legal, personal, salary and disciplinary information shall be maintained in a confidential manner, shall be shared with only those persons who have a business need to know, and shall not be disseminated outside of the organization except as required by law or other policy, or as necessary to protect others. .

"IMMEDIATE FAMILY": Refers to an employee's father, mother, sister, brother, spouse, daughter, son, daughter-in-law, son-in-law, grandparent, or grandchild. This would include persons who are "step" relatives and persons who are relatives by virtue of adoption.

MISSION, VISION AND VALUES

MISSION

The mission of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference is to discover, equip, connect, and send lay and clergy leaders who shape congregations that offer Jesus Christ to a hurting world one neighborhood at a time.

VISION

Our vision is uniting to embody the love of Christ in Spirit-led actions one community at a time.

VALUES

1. The local church as the disciple making center.

2. Transparency and integrity in our communication.

3. Seeking a purposeful and more generous way of love.

4. Courage to explore possibilities and take risks by being nimble, experimenting, permitting failure, and staying the course.

5. Empowering all leaders and enabling leaders with gifts and graces for the task.

6. Seeking input from both people and useful data.

7. We welcome diversity, rooted in Christ, a deep love of one another, celebrating our differences.

HISTORY

Initially formed as the Western Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1800, the Tennessee Conference consisted of all lands west of Pennsylvania, Virginia, and the Carolinas.

- The Western Conference was divided in 1812 into the Ohio (the territory north of the Ohio River) and Tennessee (lands south of the Ohio River) Conferences.

- The rapid growth of Methodism on the frontier, combined with the westward movement of an increasingly mobile nation, led to multiple sub-divisions of the Tennessee conference—Illinois (1816), Indiana (1816), Arkansas (1816), Missouri (1816), Louisiana (1816), Mississippi (1816), Kentucky (1820), Holston (1824), Memphis (1840), and North Alabama (1870).

- January 1, 2022 the Tennessee conference (formed in 1812) and Memphis conference (formed in 1840) combined to form the Tennessee-Western Kentucky conference of the United Methodist Church.

EMPLOYMENT PRACTICES

Equal Employment Opportunity

The TWK is an equal opportunity employer and will base employment decisions related to all staff members and applicants upon a consideration of the individual's qualifications. No person shall be discriminated against in employment because of race, color, sex, veteran's status, national origin, age, disability or any other status protected by law. This policy applies to all terms, conditions and privileges of employment. Under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, religious organizations are permitted to give employment preference to members of their own religion and depending upon the position to be filled, the TWK may take an employee's religious affiliation into account in order to best serve the mission of the Conference. However, religions of all persons shall be respected and no employee shall be subjected to harassment or other hostile conduct based upon religion. Any concerns related to equal employment opportunity shall be referred to Human Resources.

Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and Reasonable Accommodation

To ensure equal employment opportunities to qualified individuals with a disability, the Conference will make reasonable accommodations for the known disability of an otherwise qualified individual, unless doing so would cause undue hardship on the operation of the Conference.

An employee who may require a reasonable accommodation should contact his/her Director in order to initiate an interactive process regarding whether an accommodation is needed and what accommodation is reasonable and appropriate under the circumstances. .

Immigration Law Compliance

All offers of employment are contingent on verification of the right to work in the United States. Newly hired employees must provide original documents verifying the right to work and as required by federal law, to sign Federal Form I-9 Employment Eligibility Verification Form. If at any time the Conference cannot verify an employee's right to work in the United States, the Conference may terminate his/her employment.

Diversity

The Conference values diversity. It is our policy and goal as an employer and organization that everyone be respectful of the heritage and culture of others. We also demand this respect for the uniqueness of each individual. All of us must strive to reach beyond our own experience to understand and to interact effectively with a wide range of others who are truly different from ourselves. Our organizational practices and norms will include many styles and approaches in the pursuit of excellence. Therefore, everyone will be able to contribute in his/her own unique way. We intend to build a work environment where the inclusion of many kinds of people leads to excellence in ministry, service and organizational climate. This appreciation of differences is built into hiring and employee development. We also emphasize self- knowledge (learning the patterns of one's own biases and interpersonal skills) as well as learning specifics about the cultural history and characteristics of many different groups. As followers of Christ, we have a moral and social obligation by our example to treat everyone fairly and with respect. If we are to help create an inclusive workplace and church, everyone who works for the Conference must be personally committed to these standards.

Staff Member Qualifications

In addition to the skill set necessary to each individual position, all staff shall have the following minimum qualifications:

- Sympathetic with the Christian faith and purposes of The United Methodist Church
- Possess aptitudes, skills and capacities required in their respective fields of work
- Have the ability to win and hold the cooperation and goodwill of the people they serve as well as their associates
- Can maintain and keep confidences
- Have a willingness and ability to learn and improve his/her performance
- Are legally available to work for the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference

Selection/Hiring Procedures

A consistent pattern in the selection of employees, both lay and clergy, on the basis of necessary qualifications, including education, work experience, and skills and abilities will be followed. All hiring will comply with all federal and state laws and regulations. The HR Committee, in consultation with the appropriate Director, establishes salary levels. Authorization from Human Resources (HR) Committee is required to initiate any action for an open position, including recruitment expenditures, advertising, interviewing and offers of employment. The Conference is committed to developing a diverse pool of applicants by using internal and external job posting capabilities; however, in appropriate circumstances the HR Committee may authorize a Director to fill a position internally without formally posting the position.

Procedures for Conference Staff /District Office Positions

1. The Conference Treasurer/Director of Administrative Services is interviewed and nominated by the Council on Finance and Administration and elected by the Annual Conference. The Connectional Ministries Officer (CMO) is appointed by the Bishop.

2. For all other positions not specifically addressed in The Discipline, the following process will be followed: The appropriate hiring director (including CMO, District Superintendents, Treasurer, Executive Director of Camps & Retreat Ministries) responsible for the vacant position notifies the Chairperson of the HR Committee that the position needs to be filled.

3. The Chairperson of the HR committee assures that:
   a. there is a budgeted vacancy;
   b. the salary range and job description are current;
   c. a recruitment plan is created for the position.

If there is not a budgeted vacancy, further consultation is needed with the Conference treasurer and CF&A to determine funding options.

4. Unless the HR Committee has authorized the Director in question to fill the position without posting, the HR manager will advertise position(s) via the conference website and established media channels.

5. The HR manager receives all resumes/applications, screens all for a "match" with position qualifications and provides the matches to the hiring director responsible for the vacant position.

In consultation with the hiring director, the HR Committee appoints a screening committee, which includes the hiring director, to narrow the field to no more than three candidates to be interviewed.

6. HR staff in collaboration with the hiring director prepares and presents a written letter of offer to the selected applicant. The offer letter will provide the starting date and all conditions of the offer, specify the full scope of compensation and benefits.
   a. Offers will all be contingent upon favorable referencing, including background checks and employment eligibility verification (I-9).
   b. No other terms and conditions of employment will be recognized except those contained in the Letter of Offer and in the current HR Handbook.

Post-Offer

1. HR staff will assure that references are obtained and that Background Check and Employment Eligibility Verification documents are provided.

2. The appropriate hiring Director will determine how to announce the hiring and to whom and will initiate the Orientation for the newly hired employee.

Background Checks

To ensure prospective employees have been thoroughly researched for any criminal records, and for financial circumstances that make them a high risk for criminal activity, the TWK will perform background checks on all staff. All offers of employment are contingent on the results of a background check and references check. Agreeing to a background check is a condition of continued employment by the TWK.

Hiring of Relatives

A regular full-time or regular part-time employee shall not be hired by or in the direct chain of command of an "immediate family"* member currently employed by the TWK. Rare exceptions may be considered by the HR Committee. (*See definition of "immediate family")

Orientation

A new employee shall receive an orientation which shall include (but is not limited to): explanation of the vision, mission, values, and expectations of the organization; introductions to people within and outside the organization with whom she or he may routinely work; review of the office facility and equipment; and the relationship of the organization with respect to the Conference, the districts and the local churches.

The responsible Director shall be responsible for coordinating the orientation and monitoring the employee's progress. The Director should give special attention to providing feedback to the employee during the introductory three-month period of employment in order to ensure that information provided at orientation is incorporated into the employee's work.

Job Descriptions

The hiring director in consultation with the HR committee shall provide a job description for each position within the organization that outlines responsibilities of the employee and relationships within and outside the organizations. Every job description should be reviewed annually for accuracy, preferably during the employee's annual performance review.

Policy on Sexual Misconduct

Any form of sexual misconduct is incompatible with biblical teachings and ethical standards and all steps will be taken to protect the vulnerable and to discipline those guilty of such behaviors. Any reasonable suspicion of sexual abuse will be reported to appropriate authorities in addition to the District Superintendent and/or Bishop. All employees are responsible for familiarizing themselves with, and complying with, the provisions of the Conference Sexual Misconduct Policy.

Anti-Harassment and Complaint Procedure

Harassment based on a characteristic protected by law, including race, color, ancestry, national origin, gender, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, marital status, religion, age, disability, or veteran status will not be tolerated by the Conference.

It is Conference policy to provide a work environment free of unlawful harassment. To that end, harassment of employees by directors, supervisors, co-workers, or non-employees who are in the workplace is absolutely prohibited. Further, any retaliation against an individual who has complained about unlawful harassment or retaliation against individuals for cooperating with an investigation of a harassment complaint is unlawful and will not be tolerated. The Conference will take all reasonable steps necessary to prevent and eliminate unlawful harassment.

Definition of Unlawful Harassment. "Unlawful harassment" is conduct based upon a person's membership in a protected class that has the purpose or effect of creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment; has the purpose or effect of substantially and unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance; or otherwise adversely affects an individual's employment opportunities.

Unlawful harassment includes, but is not limited to, epithets; slurs; jokes; pranks; innuendo; comments; written or graphic material; stereotyping; or other threatening, hostile, or intimidating acts based on race, color, ancestry, national origin, gender, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, religion, age, disability, veteran status, or other characteristic protected by state or federal law.

Definition of Sexual Harassment. "Sexual harassment" is one form of unlawful harassment and is generally defined as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature where the conduct is based upon "sex" (including gender, pregnancy, sexual orientation or gender identity) and:

- Submission to or rejection of such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of any individual's employment or as a basis for employment decisions; or
- Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment.

Other sexually oriented conduct, whether intended or not, that is unwelcome and has the effect of creating a work environment that is hostile, offensive, intimidating, or humiliating to workers may also constitute sexual harassment.

While it is not possible to list all those additional circumstances that may constitute sexual harassment, the following are some examples of conduct that, if unwelcome, may constitute sexual harassment depending on the totality of the circumstances, including the severity of the conduct and its pervasiveness:

- Unwanted sexual advances, whether they involve physical touching or not;

- Sexual epithets, jokes, written or oral references to sexual conduct, gossip regarding one's sex life, comments about an individual's body, comments about an individual's sexual activity, deficiencies, or prowess;
- Displaying sexually suggestive objects, pictures, or cartoons;
- Unwelcome leering, whistling, brushing up against the body, sexual gestures, or suggestive or insulting comments;
- Inquiries into one's sexual experiences; and
- Discussion of one's sexual activities.

As with all forms of unlawful harassment, retaliation against an individual who has complained about sexual harassment or retaliation against individuals for cooperating with an investigation of sexual harassment complaint is unlawful and will not be tolerated.

Complaint Procedure

Any employee who believes he or she has been subject to or witnessed discrimination or unlawful harassment, is requested and encouraged to make a complaint. The employee may, but is not required to, complain first to the person the employee believes is engaged in discrimination or harassment. The employee may also complain directly to an immediate supervisor, HR director, or any supervisory Conference employee with whom the employee feels comfortable bringing such a complaint. Similarly, an employee who observes acts of discrimination toward or harassment of another employee, should report this to one of the individuals listed above.

No reprisal, retaliation, or other adverse action will be taken against an employee for making a complaint or report of discrimination or harassment or for assisting in the investigation of any such complaint or report. Any suspected retaliation or intimidation should be reported immediately to one of the persons identified above.

All complaints will be investigated promptly and, to the extent possible, with regard for confidentiality. Investigations of sexual harassment complaints against Church Professionals shall be conducted in accordance with the Conference Sexual Misconduct Policy for Church Professionals. Investigations of other complaints of discrimination or unlawful harassment shall be conducted either by the responsible Director, HR staff, or the Conference Chancellor, depending upon the circumstances and after consultation with the Conference Chancellor.

If the investigation confirms conduct contrary to this policy has occurred, the Conference will take immediate, appropriate corrective action calculated to end the conduct, including discipline up to and including immediate termination if justified by the circumstances. If the complaint is validated but action short of termination is taken, the accused individual will be advised that any further harassment or retaliation of any kind will be grounds for immediate termination. While the complaining party may not be informed of the details of specific disciplinary action taken, he/she will be advised of whether the complaint was validated, and if so, that appropriate action was taken that is intended to stop the conduct. The complaining party will also be asked to report any further events of harassment and/or retaliation. Any such validated events will result in additional corrective action, up to and including termination of employment.

Personnel Files

The Conference maintains a personnel file for each staff person. The Conference attempts to maintain those documents which are, have been or are intended to be used in determining a staff person's qualifications for employment, promotion, transfer, additional compensation, discharge or other disciplinary action.

A staff person has the right to inspect certain portions of his/her personnel file. Personal information is not to be released to a third party without authorization by the appropriate Director.

COMPENSATION/FINANCIAL REMUNERATION

Employment Classifications

An employee is defined as a person who performs services for the Conference whose work is under the Conference's control and direction regarding what will be done and how it will be done. Volunteers are persons who are not paid a wage or payment for the services they perform under the Conference's direction and control. Any relationships with the Conference that require remuneration by the Conference, including possible contract work, must be reviewed, and approved in advance by the Office of Administrative Services.

A. Regular, Full-Time: Employees who are not in a temporary status and work a minimum of 30 hours weekly and maintain continuous employment status. Generally, these employees are eligible for the full-time benefits package and are subject to the terms, conditions, and limitations of each benefits program.

B. Regular, Part-Time. Employees who are not in a temporary status and who are regularly scheduled to work fewer than 30 hours weekly, and who maintain continuous employment status are considered part-time. Part-time employees who work at least 20 hours weekly, are eligible for some of the benefits offered by the Conference and are subject to the terms, conditions, and limitations of each benefits program.

C. Temporary/Seasonal Employees: Employed for a specific short duration of time. Ordinarily, a temporary/seasonal position will not exceed six (6) months in duration.

Exempt & Non-exempt Classifications

In order to determine eligibility for benefits and overtime status and to ensure compliance with federal and state laws and regulations, the Conference classifies its employees as shown below. TWK may review or change employee classifications at any time.

Exempt. Exempt employees are paid on a salaried basis and are not eligible to receive overtime pay. Exempt employees are required to accurately record their vacation and sick time away from work.

Non-exempt. Nonexempt employees are paid on an hourly basis and are eligible to receive overtime pay for overtime hours worked.

All nonexempt employees are required to complete accurate weekly time reports showing all time actually worked. These records are required by governmental regulations and are used to calculate regular and overtime pay. At the end of each pay period, the employee and his or her supervisor must verify and approve the time sheet attesting to its correctness before forwarding it to payroll processing in the Office of Administrative Services.

Work Schedule

In the hybrid/remote work environment, non-exempt employees are expected to be immediately accessible and available during the core business work hours of 8am to 4pm Monday through Friday.The responsible Director may allow a deviation from these hours or days when the Director deems it appropriate.

Exempt employees are often expected to work schedules that do not fit the ordinary schedule of office hours. These persons are responsible for their areas of ministry and will demonstrate by their results that they are faithful to their ministries.

Work From Home/Remote Work Policy

Working from home/remote work is the process of performing regularly scheduled job duties during regular business hours at a remote location. In certain circumstances, remote work may be allowed, subject to the needs of the Conference, and also, subject to the discretion and approval of the applicable Director. It is not an entitlement, it is not a Conference-wide benefit, and it in no way changes the terms and conditions of employment with the TWK Conference. Since remote work is based on ordinary job duties during ordinary business hours, the employee who works remotely must be easily accessible to other Conference personnel and must be available to come into the Conference offices or work in person at the annual conference or other conference meetings, if Conference needs dictate. Employees must report to his/her director if he/she is ill, if equipment or power fails, or if for any other reason he/she will not be working.

Overtime for Non-exempt Employees

Actual time worked is the basis for computing overtime. For purposes of computing overtime, the work week begins on Monday and ends on Sunday.

1. All requests for overtime must be approved in advance by a director or equivalent. Employees and supervisors should attempt to provide as much advance notice as possible when required to work overtime.

2. All time worked up to and including 40 hours is computed at straight pay; all overtime worked in excess of 40 hours is computed at time-and-one-half pay. Overtime is paid for hours worked in excess of 40 hours during a regular work week. Holiday, vacation and sick pay are not counted towards overtime

3. All overtime is to be clearly reported on the attendance record (i.e. timecard).

Adjustments to Compensation

A wage assignment or a garnishment is a legal order requiring an individual's employer to withhold part of the employee's wages in order to pay a debt or obligation. Wage assignments which meet legal requirements will be honored when issued and withheld from employee's compensation.

All lay employees are covered by the Federal Old Age and Survivors Benefits Act to provide the protection offered by Social Security. Social Security tax is paid half by the lay employee and half by the employer. Clergy pay the total cost for Social Security coverage as "self-employed" persons for Social Security purposes. Clergy may also have part of their compensation designated as a "housing allowance." Please see the annual conference resolution related to clergy /staff housing allowance.

Pay Period

Compensation shall be issued by the Conference on the 15th and 30th of each month (except when those dates fall on a Saturday or Sunday; then, the issuance will be made on the last workday immediately preceding the 15th or 30th). Paychecks are directly deposited into the checking and/or savings accounts that the employee designates. The work week begins on Monday and ends on Sunday. All employees will be paid by direct deposit

Accountable Reimbursement

All employees will receive reimbursement for Conference related travel in accordance with TWK rules, subject to IRS rules defining business expense and appropriate contemporaneous documentation.

The Conference will reimburse employees for reasonable and documented expenses they incurred while traveling on Conference business, including mileage, meals, and lodging.

All expense records, including credit card receipts and mileage logs/documentation must be turned in to the Treasurer's office no later than 60 days from the date the expense was incurred.

All Conference employees will be reimbursed mileage at the current IRS business rate. The current year's business rate will be published in the Treasurer's report at Annual Conference each year. Travel between the place of employment and the place of residence shall not be reimbursed.

For a more detailed explanation of accountable reimbursements, please see the Conference Accountable Reimbursement Policy.

Cell Phones

While cell phones are an essential part of our daily lives, the Conference requires the safe use of cell phones by employees while conducting business. Employees shall not use the cell phones while driving unless they are using the handsfree option. Employees shall refrain from responding to texts and emails while driving. Employees who use their personal cell phones for Conference business will be provided a monthly allowance.

EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

The Conference recognizes the value of benefits to clergy, lay employees and their families. The Conference supports this by offering a comprehensive and competitive benefits program. For more information regarding benefit programs, please refer to the Conference Summary Plan Descriptions (SPD) or contact the Assistant Benefits Officer. To the extent of the information provided here conflicts with the SPD or full plan document, the full plan document will control.

Group Insurance

Health Plan Benefits

All fulltime employees who regularly work at least 30 hours per week are eligible to participate in the Conference Health Plan, beginning upon the time of employment. Health insurance plans are provided through Wespath Healthflex. Contact Administrative Services or Wespath at 1-800-851-2201 for more information about this program.

Death and Disability Insurance

Comprehensive Protection Plan – Clergy only: The Comprehensive Protection Plan provides long- term disability, death, and other benefits for clergy and their families. An Employee who is a clergy member of a Conference under full-time Episcopal appointment may participate in the Plan.

UNUM – Laity only: UNUM provides death and other benefits for lay employees. Lay employees who are employed 30 hours or more with the Conference may participate. Employees are eligible for this benefit on the first of the month following 90 days of service. The life benefit is $100,000. The cost of this coverage is paid for in full by the Conference.

Employee Assistance Program

The Conference cares about the health and well-being of clergy and lay employees and recognizes that a variety of personal problems can disrupt their personal and work lives. Although many employees solve their problems either on their own or with the help of family and friends, sometimes employees need professional assistance and advice.

Through the employee assistance program (EAP), the Conference provides confidential access to professional counseling services for help in confronting issues including but not limited to alcohol and other substance abuse, marital and family difficulties, financial or legal troubles, and emotional distress. The EAP is available to all clergy and lay employees, fulltime or parttime, and it offers problem assessment, short-term counseling and referrals to appropriate community and private services.

The EAP is strictly confidential and is designed to safeguard an employee's privacy. Information given to the EAP counselor may be released to the TWK only if authorized by the employee in writing or required by law. All counselors are guided by a professional code of ethics.

Personal information concerning employee participation in the EAP is maintained in a confidential manner. No information related to an employee's participation in the program is entered into the employee's personnel file.

There is no cost for an employee to consult with an EAP counselor. If further counseling is necessary, the EAP counselor will describe community and private services available. The counselor will also let participants know whether any costs associated with private services may be covered by their health insurance plan. Costs that are not covered are the responsibility of the employee. Contact the Conference Benefits Officer for more information about the EAP.

Workers' Compensation

Workers' compensation is a "no-fault" system that provides compensation for medical expenses and wage losses to employees who are injured on the job or who become ill because of employment.

The Conference pays the entire cost of workers' compensation insurance. The insurance provides coverage for related authorized medical and rehabilitation expenses and in some circumstances, a portion of lost wages to employees who sustain an injury on the job.

The Conference abides by all applicable state workers' compensation laws and regulations.

An employee who sustains a job-related injury or illness shall notify the responsible Director and Human Resources immediately. The Director will complete an injury report with input from the employee and return the form to Human Resources for filing with the insurance provider. In cases of true medical emergencies, report to the nearest emergency room and notify the Director and HR as soon as practical.

Workers' compensation benefits (paid or unpaid) will run concurrently with FMLA leave, if applicable, where permitted by state and federal law.

Assisting Employees with Disabling Illnesses

Fulltime staff will be covered by the Conference's long term disability coverage but should consider purchasing their own policies to provide additional short-term disability benefits.

Pension Plan

Clergy appointed to serve as employees of the Conference are participants in the TWK's Clergy Retirement Security Plan (CRSP). For lay employees, the Conference will contribute 12% of the employees' compensation to the UMPIP account if (1) the employee is scheduled to work at least 20 hours per week, and (2) the employee contributes at least 3% of their compensation to their UMPIP account. If the lay employee does not contribute 3% of his/her compensation to the UMPIP account, a 9% contribution will be made by the Conference.

All pension participants may make additional contributions to their UMPIP account up to the amount allowed by IRS regulations and the plans. Contact Administrative Services or Wespath for more information about these programs.

Holidays

The TWK fulltime staff shall observe the following 14 holidays and employees shall be paid for these authorized holidays:

- New Year's Eve and New Year's Day
- Martin Luther King's Birthday
- Good Friday and Monday after Easter
- Memorial Day
- Juneteenth
- Independence Day (July 4)
- Labor Day
- Thanksgiving Day and Day after
- Christmas Eve, Christmas Day and the Day after Christmas

These are paid holidays with the following provisions:

A. Part time/temporary/seasonal employees are not eligible for holiday pay.

B. Persons on leave of absence are not eligible for holiday pay.

If one of these holidays falls on a Sunday, it will be observed on the following Monday. If the holiday falls on a Saturday, the Conference will select either the following Monday or the preceding Friday as a substitute holiday.

Religious Participation

Each employee is encouraged to participate in a local congregation of a Christian church.

Continuing Education

Conference staff may request up to two weeks of work time to be used for continuing education. The continuing education must benefit or improve the employee's job performance, skill set, or knowledge base. The Conference may pay any related expenses, and the request must be submitted to the responsible Director for approval, which may be granted or declined in the Director's sole discretion.

WORKPLACE SAFETY

Drug-Alcohol-Free Workplace

It is the policy of the TWK to maintain a drug- and alcohol-free work environment that is safe and productive for employees and others having business with the Conference.

The unlawful use, possession, purchase, sale, distribution, or being under the influence of any illegal drug and/or the misuse of legal drugs while on Conference or client premises or while performing services for the Conference is strictly prohibited. The Conference also prohibits reporting to work or performing services while impaired by the use of alcohol or consuming alcohol while on duty or during work hours.

To ensure compliance with this policy, substance abuse screening may be conducted in the following situations.

For Cause: Upon reasonable suspicion that the employee is under the influence of alcohol or drugs that could affect or has adversely affected the employee's job performance.

Compliance with this policy is a condition of employment. Employees who test positive or who refuse to submit to substance abuse screening will be subject to termination. Notwithstanding any provision herein, this policy will be enforced at all times in accordance with applicable state and local law.

Any employee violating this policy is subject to discipline, up to and including termination.

Smoke-Free Workplace

Smoking is not allowed in Conference buildings or work areas at any time. "Smoking" includes the use of any tobacco products, electronic smoking devices, and e-cigarettes containing nicotine cartridges.

Smoking is only permitted during break times in designated outdoor areas. Employees using these areas are expected to dispose of any smoking debris safely and properly.

Firearms or Concealed Weapons

Possession or use of firearms or concealed weapons on TWK premises is strictly prohibited.

While on duty, employees may not carry a weapon of any type.

Workplace Violence Prevention

The TWK is committed to providing a safe, violence-free workplace for our employees. Due to this commitment, we discourage employees from engaging in any physical confrontation with a violent or potentially violent individual or from behaving in a threatening or violent manner. Threats, threatening language, or any other acts of aggression or violence made toward or by any employee will not be tolerated. A threat may include any verbal or physical harassment or abuse, attempts to intimidate others, menacing gestures, stalking, or any other hostile, aggressive, and/or destructive actions taken for the purposes of intimidation. This policy covers any violent or potentially violent behavior that occurs in the workplace or at Conference-sponsored functions.

All employees bear the responsibility of keeping our work environment free from violence or potential violence. Any employee who witnesses or is the recipient of violent behavior should promptly inform the Director or Human Resources. All threats will be promptly investigated. No employee will be subject to retaliation, intimidation, or discipline as a result of reporting a threat in good faith under this guideline.

Any individual engaging in violence against the Conference, its employees, or its property will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. All acts will be investigated, and the appropriate action will be taken. Any such act or threatening behavior may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.

Inclement Weather Policy

Conference-wide offices will be closed during inclement weather if the county or city school system in which the office is located is closed for inclement weather. Employees who are authorized to work from home/remote are not affected by this policy. Those employees who regularly work at the Conference center should ask for approval from their supervisor to work from home on inclement weather days. Conditions caused by ordinary inclement weather require each employee who ordinarily works at the Conference center to make a personal decision regarding safety in traveling to and from the workplace.

STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

Environment

Employees of the TWK are expected to maintain a quality work environment by:

- Being respectful of each employee as a person with individual rights and differences
- Being courteous and offering assistance, as appropriate, to persons or groups calling or visiting the offices
- Exercising responsible stewardship in the use of Conference funds and property
- Keeping internal and external personal telephone calls brief and few
- Honoring that all TWK buildings are non-smoking facilities.
- Refraining from use of abusive and obscene language

Conference employees represent The United Methodist Church to people who visit Conference-wide offices. Each contact made is an opportunity to create good will for the church. This places an important responsibility on each employee answering the telephone, responding to a request in writing, or talking face to face. This responsibility requires employees to conduct themselves professionally at all times.

Absence

Employees are expected to be at work as scheduled or as agreed between supervisor and employee, whether in the Conference office or in their home office. However, if illness or an unexpected emergency requires the employee to be absent, it is the employee's responsibility to contact his/her supervisor/Director within an hour of the employee's expected arrival/start time.

If an extended absence is anticipated, the employee is to notify his/her supervisor of the expected date he/she is able to return to work

If an employee is unable to complete the workday due to injury on the job, he/she will receive compensation for the remainder of the workday.

Regular attendance and punctuality are essential to an employee's effective performance on the job. Every employee is expected to maintain a good attendance record and act responsibly in the use of sick leave.

Employee Performance Reviews

The appropriate Director/supervisor shall evaluate annually the job performance of each person under his/her supervision. This evaluation shall be based upon the employee's work as related to his/her job description and performance goals. A performance review is intended to provide an annual means of appraising a staff person's performance on the job. These reviews include a written performance appraisal and discussion between the employee and the supervisor about job performance as well as expectations for the coming year.

Communication between employees and supervisors or managers is very important. Discussions regarding job performance are ongoing and often informal. Employees should initiate conversations with their supervisors if they feel additional ongoing feedback is needed.

In the event that there are deficiencies in an employee's performance, the director shall schedule interim reviews with the employee to assess the needed improvement.

An evaluation is a confidential matter that shall remain with those who have a need to know: the employee, the supervisor(s), and appropriate entity. A copy of the evaluation shall be placed in the employee's personnel file.

Disciplinary Action

Disciplinary action may be initiated for various reasons including but not limited to:

- violations of Conference standards and policies;
- poor job performance;
- poor attendance.

The Conference reserves the exclusive right to evaluate employee performance and conduct on which to take disciplinary action. The Conference has the sole discretion to determine whether disciplinary action is to be taken in a given instance and to decide what type of discipline is appropriate. Each disciplinary action will be handled on a case-by-case basis, and there is no routine procedure or sequence of disciplinary action. The appropriate Director in consultation with the HR Committee will decide in each case what action is appropriate based on all the facts and circumstances. The severity of the disciplinary action depends on the nature of the offense and the employee's past record and may range from verbal counseling to immediate dismissal. Disciplinary action may consist of any of the following:

- Oral warning with note to personnel file
- Written warning with a copy to personnel file
- Suspension
- Discharge/Termination from employment

The Conference does not guarantee that one form of disciplinary action will necessarily precede another, and immediate termination is possible in any given instance in the Conference's sole discretion.

Grievance Procedure

Except in the context of discrimination and harassment issues, in which context it is recognized that employees may not feel empowered to address the harassing or discriminating party directly and are not required to do so before making a report, Employees should in most cases make reasonable efforts to resolve differences by communicating with those with whom they have a difference. If the difference cannot be worked out, the supervisor should be notified within 30 days of the incident and with the supervisor's help, resolution will be attempted. If the dispute involves the supervisor, the grievance may be taken to the Director and/or HR who will work toward achieving a fair resolution of the problem within 30 days, with allowance for one extension, based on the nature of the grievance

Dress Standards

Employees of the TWK are expected to be dressed in comfortable business attire, which is appropriate for job function, and expresses individuality and professionalism in equal proportion. Employees of the TWK represent The United Methodist Church.

Social Media Acceptable Use

The Conference encourages employees to share information with co-workers and with those outside the Conference for the purposes of gathering information, generating new ideas, and learning from the work of others. Social media provides inexpensive, informal, and timely ways to participate in an exchange of ideas and information. However, information posted on a website is available to the public and, therefore, the Conference has established the following guidelines for employee participation in social media.

Note: As used in this policy, "social media" refers to blogs, forums, and social networking sites, such as Twitter, Facebook, LinkedIn, YouTube, Instagram, and MySpace, among others.

Off-duty use of social media. Employees may maintain personal websites or web logs on their own time using their own facilities. Employees must ensure that social media activity does not interfere with their work. In general, the Conference considers social media activities to be personal endeavors, and employees may use them to express their thoughts or promote their ideas, however, employees should ensure that personal social media use does not undermine the Conference's mission or reflect negatively on the Conference or The United Methodist Church.

On-duty use of social media. Employees may engage in social media activity during work time provided it is directly related to their work, approved by their Director, and does not identify or reference Conference stakeholders or vendors without express permission. The Conference reserves the right to monitor employee use of Conference computers and the Internet, including employee blogging and social networking activity. Employees have no expectation of privacy when using Conference equipment or technology for posting on social media or communicating electronically.

Respect. All social media posts should demonstrate respect for the dignity of the Conference, its stakeholders, its vendors, and its employees. Employees should avoid inappropriate comments on social media, as sites can be accessed by groups of individuals or in some cases, all members of the general public. For example, employees should not use ethnic or racial slurs, personal insults, or obscenity, or use language that may be considered inflammatory. Even if a message is posted anonymously, it may be possible to trace it back to the sender and such posting reflects poorly on the employee and the Conference.

Post disclaimers. If an employee identifies himself or herself as a Conference employee or discusses matters related to the Conference on a social media site, the site must include a disclaimer on the front page stating that it does not express the views of the Conference and that the employee is expressing only his or her personal views. For example: "The views expressed on this website/Web log are mine alone and do not necessarily reflect the views of my employer." The employee should place the disclaimer in a prominent position and repeat it for each posting expressing an opinion related to the Conference or the Conference's or Church's business. Employees must keep in mind that if they post information on a social media site that is in violation of Conference policy and/or federal, state, or local law, the disclaimer will not shield them from disciplinary action.

Employees should not use a social media to criticize The United Methodist Church or the Conference or to speculate or make predictions regarding the future of The United Methodist Church.

Confidentiality. Employees may not identify or reference Conference stakeholders or vendors without express permission. Employees may write about their jobs in general but may not disclose any confidential or proprietary information. For examples of confidential information, employees should refer to the confidentiality policy. When in doubt, an employee should ask before publishing.

New ideas. New ideas related to work or the Conference's business belong to the Conference. Intellectual property developed while working for the Conference is Conference property. Employees may not post such information on a social media site without the Conference's permission.

Links. Employees may provide a link from a social media site to the Conference's website during employment (subject to discontinuance at the Conference's sole discretion).

Trademarks and copyrights. Employees may not use the Conference's or others' trademarks on a social media site or reproduce the Conference's or others' material without first obtaining permission.

Legal. When using social media or any internet forum, Employees are expected to comply with all applicable laws, including but not limited to, Federal Trade Commission (FTC) guidelines, copyright, trademark, and harassment laws.

Discipline. Violations of this policy may result in discipline up to and including immediate termination of employment.

Note: Nothing in this policy is meant to, nor should it be interpreted to, in any way limit the rights of employees under any applicable federal, state, or local laws, including the right under the National Labor Relations Act to engage in protected concerted activities with other employees to improve terms and conditions of employment, such as wages and benefits.

Computers, Internet, Email, and Other Resources

The Conference provides a wide variety of communication tools and resources to employees for use in running day-to-day business activities. Whether it is the telephone, voice mail, scanner, Internet, intranet, e-mail, text messaging, fax or any other Conference-provided technology, use should be reserved for business-related matters during working hours. All communication using these tools should be handled in a professional and respectful manner.

Employees should not have any expectation of privacy in their use of Conference computer, phone, or other communication tools. All communications made using Conference-provided equipment or services including email and internet activity, are subject to inspection by the Conference. Employees should keep in mind that even if they delete an email, voicemail or other communication, a copy may be archived on the Conference's systems.

E-mails that are not job-related have the potential to drain, rather than enhance, productivity and system performance. Employees should also be aware that information transmitted and received through e-email is not completely secure, and information transmitted and received by employees could damage the reputation of the Conference.

The Conference encourages employees to use email only to communicate with fellow employees, suppliers, customers, or potential customers regarding Conference business. Internal and external e-mails are considered business records and may be subject to discovery in the event of litigation. Be aware of this possibility when sending e-mails within and outside the Conference.

Refrain from using e-mail in a manner that violates any of our Conference guidelines/policies, including but not limited to the Equal Opportunity and Harassment policies. Delete any e-mail messages prior to opening that are received from unknown senders and advertisers.

It is the Conference's goal to respect the dignity of employees at all times. Because e-mail, telephone and voice mail, and internet communication equipment are provided for Conference business purposes and are critical to its success, employee communications may be accessed without further notice by Information Technology administrators and Conference management to ensure compliance with this guideline.

The electronic communication systems are not secure and may allow inadvertent disclosure, accidental transmission to third parties, etc. Sensitive information should not be sent via unsecured electronic means.

Office telephones are for business purposes. While the Conference recognizes that some personal calls are necessary, these should be kept as brief as possible and to a minimum. Likewise, use of personal cell phones, tablets, or other equipment for personal communications during work hours should be kept to a minimum. Abuse of these privileges is subject to corrective action up to and including termination.

It is against policy to turn off antivirus protection software or make unauthorized changes to system configurations installed on Conference computers. Violations of this policy may result in termination for a first offense.

Time Off and Leaves of Absence

Vacation

A vacation is a time for rest and renewal and is granted with pay to all full-time employees who work at least 30 hours per week (except temporary/seasonal employees) after 6 months of satisfactory employment. Time employed is based on the hire date and includes employment within the United Methodist Connection. Hire date is the first day an employee began working.

Employees receive the following:

- 6 months – 1 year employment – 1 week
- 1-5 Years employment – 2 weeks
- 5-10 years employment - 3 weeks
- 10 years or more employment - 4 weeks

Vacation requests should be submitted to the Director at least two weeks prior to the desired vacation time. Employees should have reasonable flexibility in determining vacation dates, but requests for vacation may be denied or deferred by the responsible Director based upon operational needs. Pay for vacation time will be at the employee's regular rate of pay. A week of vacation is five business days. Vacation time is not cumulative from one year to the next. However, the HR Committee in consultation with the director, may permit, under extenuating circumstances (such as illness at year end), a person to carry over vacation time, provided the vacation is taken at the earliest opportunity after the beginning of the vacation year. An employee shall not be granted pay in lieu of vacation, except in case of employee's termination.

Fulltime employees whose employment ends with voluntary resignation, and he/she works his/her full notice, will be paid for unused vacation time that has accumulated during the calendar year of the termination. Employees who are involuntarily terminated for cause are not entitled to receive accrued vacation.

Leave for Illness/Annual Sick Leave

An employee shall be permitted absence for illness with pay according to the categories listed below:

Annual Sick leave is available at the time of employment, up to twelve days per calendar year and non-accumulative

Use of annual sick leave includes:

A. Employee's own illness

B. Serious illness of a member of the employee's immediate family

C. Medical and dentist appointments

Extended Sick Leave

Accrues at the rate of one (1) day each month of active employment up to a maximum of 60 working days and applies only to employee's own illness and recuperative time with written physician's orders.

Use of Extended Sick leave may include:

1. Hospitalization and post hospitalization recuperative time

2. Medical testing and out-patient surgery
3. Disability due to injury
4. Complications due to pregnancy

A statement may be required from the attending physician in the event of extended or repeated illness. At retirement or termination of employment by either party, the employee shall not be compensated for unused sick leave.

If the need for sick leave is foreseeable, employees are required to give at least 30 days' advance notice (e.g., a planned medical treatment) whenever possible. If the need for sick leave is not foreseeable, employees are asked to notify their supervisor as soon as is practical.

If an employee misses 3 days or more consecutive days because of illness, the Conference may require the employee to provide a physician's written permission to return to work.

Parental Leave

Parental leave may be granted and counted as sick leave and charged to time accrued in Extended Sick leave. Parental leave may be granted as leave without compensation pursuant to the criteria of the Family and Medical Leave Act, outlined below, not to exceed 12 weeks , if accrued Extended Sick leave time is not available. The employee is responsible for notifying the appropriate Supervisor as soon as s/he knows s/he will require maternity or paternity leave.

Family and Medical Leave

In compliance with the Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA), the Conference provides covered employees with up to twelve (12) weeks of job-protected leave each calendar year for certain family and medical reasons. Available sick and vacation time as well as any paid long-term or short-term disability will run concurrently with any such leave, and once all such accrued paid time has been used in accordance with this policy, the balance of any remaining leave will be unpaid. Employees are eligible for FMLA leave if they have worked for the Conference for at least twelve months. It is not required that the twelve months be consecutive. The employee must also have worked at least 1250 hours in the twelve-month period immediately preceding the application for leave. If an employee does not expressly request FMLA leave, the conference reserves the right to designate a qualifying absence as FMLA leave and will give notice of the FMLA designation to the employee.

The following list indicates reasons for leave covered under FMLA:

1. Birth of a child or the placement of a child for adoption or foster care.

2. A serious health condition of the employee, or the care of a child, spouse or parent who has a serious health condition. A serious health condition is an illness, injury, impairment or physical or mental condition requiring inpatient care or continuing medical treatment by a health care provider. To qualify as serious, the condition must result in either an overnight stay in a medical care facility or absence from work and/or regular daily activities for more than three days.

3. Any work-related injury that results in an employee having to miss work, if such an injury or illness meets the criteria stated above for a serious health condition.

Benefits provided while on FMLA leave will be administered in accordance with federal law. If an employee was a covered employee prior to the commencement of the leave period, coverage will stay in effect during the FMLA leave period under the same conditions as if the employee was not on leave

During periods of unpaid leave, an employee will not accrue additional seniority or other such employment benefits, unless the Policy related to childbirth and adoption is applicable.

The right to leave under this policy shall apply equally to male and female employees who meet the eligibility requirements. Employees requesting medical leave for their own medical condition or the serious health condition of a parent, child or spouse must use the balance of any available sick leave or vacation leave accrued prior to the commencement of unpaid leave.

The employee must give 30 days' advance notice to his/her supervisor of the need for leave, where the need is foreseeable. Emergency conditions and unforeseen events, such as a sudden serious health condition or a premature birth, do not require such notice. Under such circumstances, the employee should give as much notice as reasonably possible.

The Conference has the right to verify an employee's request for family/medical leave. If the employee requests leave because of a serious health condition or to care for a family member with a serious health condition, the Conference requires that the request be supported by certification supplied by the health care provider responsible for the treatment of the serious health condition on a form prescribed by the Conference. The certification must include the date the serious health condition began, how long the condition is expected to continue and what medical facts form the basis for these findings. If leave is taken for the serious health condition of a family member, the certification must also include a statement that the individual needs the care of the employee, and, if applicable, an estimate of the amount of time the employee is needed to care for the family member. To the extent allowed by law, the medical certification will be treated as confidential and privileged information.

An employee is required to report in periodically to his/her Director while on FMLA leave. The employee shall report in weekly, or, if the employee is suffering from a serious health condition, as frequently as is possible given the employee's condition. The employee is expected to indicate whether he or she intends to return to work.

Leave taken under this policy can be taken intermittently or on a reduced leave schedule when certified to be medically necessary. Intermittent or reduced leave schedules for routine care of a new child may be taken only with your supervisor's approval, on a schedule mutually agreed upon by the employee and Director.

Ordinarily, employees are entitled to be returned to the original position or an equivalent position upon return from Family and Medical Leave. However, in the case of a key, salaried employee in the top 10% of paid employees, the Conference may not be able to hold the job. In these circumstances, the Conference must show that the denial is necessary to prevent substantial and grievous economic injury to the operations of the Conference. The Conference must also notify the employee that it will not be able to hold the original position at the time it is determined and must give the employee the option to return to work within a reasonable period of time after receiving this notice.

Return-to-Work Policy

When such work is available, the Conference may, in its sole discretion, attempt to provide an employee with a temporary modified or light-duty assignment in accordance with documented medical restrictions. Nothing shall require the creation of such a position if meaningful work is not available, nor shall an employee who is entitled to protected leave be required to accept a light or restricted duty position in lieu of leave.

Military

The Conference supports and complies with the Veteran's Reemployment Rights Act, the FMLA provisions applicable to service member leave, and applicable state laws.

FMLA

Except where otherwise noted, the general rights and responsibilities outlined in the Family & Medical Leave policy shall apply to service member leave taken pursuant to the FMLA.

The FMLA allows eligible employees to take leave for the following qualifying events or circumstances:

Exigency – Employees with a spouse, son, daughter, or parent (the "service member") on active duty or called to active duty in the National Guard or Reserves may use leave to address certain qualifying exigencies arising out of the active duty or impending active duty.

Examples of qualifying exigencies include:

1. Short notice deployment;
2. Attendance at military events and related activities;
3. Arranging childcare, providing childcare on an urgent basis, and attending school activities;
4. Financial and legal arrangements;
5. Counseling for the employee, the service member or child;
6. Rest and recuperation (up to 5 days);
7. Post-deployment activities;
8. Additional activities to address other events that arise out of active-duty status, provided the employer and employee agree that it is an exigent circumstance and agree to the timing and duration of leave.

An employee may take up to twelve (12) weeks of leave per calendar year (January 1 – December 31). An employee whose family member is on active duty or called to active duty as a member of the Regular Armed Forces is not eligible to take leave because of a qualifying exigency.

Caregiver for Service member Injury or Illness – Employees may also take leave to care for a covered current service member ("the service member") who has a serious injury or illness incurred in the line of duty that may render the service member medically unfit to perform his or her own duties for which the service member is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy; or is in outpatient status; or is on the temporary disability retired list.

In order to care for the covered service member, the employee must be the spouse, son, daughter, parent, or next of kin of the service member.

An employee may take up to twenty-six (26) weeks of caregiver leave during a twelve (12) month period, such period to be calculated beginning on the first day of leave.

Notice and Documentation – When the need for leave is foreseeable, the employee shall notify his/her Director at least thirty (30) days before the need for leave. When the need for leave is not foreseeable, the employee shall notify his/her Director as soon as possible. An employee requesting leave must explain the reasons for the needed leave so as to allow the employer to determine whether the leave qualifies under the policy.

The employee must provide complete and sufficient documentation in support of a request for service member FMLA leave. Failure to provide such documentation may result in the denial or delay of FMLA. The employee may also be required to provide documentation of the familial relationship to support service member leave.

TWK supports the military obligations of all employees and grants leaves for uniformed service in accordance with applicable federal and state laws. Employees taking part in a variety of military duties are covered under this policy. Such military duties include leaves of absence taken by members of the uniformed services, including active duty, reserve or National Guard, for training, periods of active military service, and funeral honors duty, as well as time spent being examined to determine fitness to perform such service. Subject to certain exceptions under the law, these benefits are generally limited to five years of leave of absence.

Any employee who needs time off for uniformed service should immediately notify his/her supervisor and HR, who will provide details regarding the leave. If an employee is unable to provide notice before leaving for uniformed service, a family member should notify the supervisor as soon as possible. National Guard members (and National Disaster Medical System reservists) are protected under the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act (USERRA).

Upon return from military leave, employees will be granted the same seniority, pay, and benefits as if they had worked continuously. Failure to report for work within the prescribed time after completion of military service will be considered a voluntary termination.

All employees who enter military service may accumulate a total absence of 5 years and still retain employment rights.

Bereavement Leave

An employee will be allowed up to three days with pay to attend the funeral of an employee's Immediate Family.

Civic Duty

Employees are encouraged to accept their responsibilities by voting in elections. Employees are supported in serving as a juror or appearing in court as a witness. Employees must present any summons to jury duty to their supervisor as soon as possible after receiving the notice to allow advance planning for an employee's absence.

Employees are expected to return to work when the service is completed for the day if there is reasonable time to do so. For example, if an employee is released from jury duty within core business hours, they are expected to notify their Director. Likewise, if for example, the jury is excused from reporting for a day or more, the employee is expected to report to work.

Employees will be paid for up to 2 weeks of jury duty service at their regular rate of pay. Employees are expected to let his/her Director know and provide the summons if jury duty will extend for 2 weeks or longer.

Time for appearance in court for personal business will be the individual employee's responsibility. Ordinarily, vacation days will be used for this purpose.

SEPARATION FROM EMPLOYMENT

Unemployment Insurance

Unemployment insurance is not provided for employees of religious organizations under the provisions of Tennessee and Kentucky state law. Accordingly, the Conference does not provide unemployment insurance for its employees.

Resignation

Should a staff person decide to leave the employment of the TWK, it is expected that at least two weeks written notice will be given. Any accrued unused vacation balance will be provided on the final direct deposit if he/she provides and works a satisfactory written notice.

Any employee who resigns or has been terminated will have the option for continuation of health care coverage for up to 18 months at their own expense.

Retirement

Lay employees who are retiring are requested to provide written notice to his/her Director at least 60 days prior to the effective date of retirement. Clergy who are retiring should provide written notification at least 120 days prior to the effective date of retirement.

Severance

If a termination or discharge is made because of reorganization, shortage of work or lack of funds, the Conference may consider appropriate severance pay. No employee is entitled to such severance pay, and the decision to award severance pay is solely within the discretion of the Conference. Staff leaving employment must return all Conference property to his/her Director, such as office keys, credit cards, and equipment before receiving the separation pay. The Administrative Services office will determine if the terminating employee has any outstanding debt owed to the Conference.

Exit Interview

Before a staff member leaves employment, the Director should conduct an Exit Interview when possible. Documentation of the exit interview will become part of the exiting staff person's personnel file.

Life of the Document

This Policy shall be reviewed and approved by the Conference Human Resources Committee at least once every two years, or more frequently if changes in circumstances or legal standards warrant. The updated manual shall be disseminated to all employees when changes are made.

EMPLOYEE HANDBOOK ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND RECEIPT

I hereby acknowledge receipt of the personnel/HR handbook of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference of The United Methodist Church. I understand and agree that it is my responsibility to read and comply with the policies in the handbook.

I understand that the handbook and all other written and oral materials provided to me are intended for informational purposes only. Neither it, Conference practices, nor other communications create an employment contract or term. I understand that the policies and benefits, both in the handbook and those communicated to me in any other fashion, are subject to interpretation, review, and change by the Conference at any time without notice.

I further agree that neither this document nor any other communication shall bind the Conference to employ me now or hereafter and that my employment may be terminated by me or the Conference without reason at any time. I understand that no representative of the Conference has any authority to enter into any agreement for employment for any specified period of time or to assure any other personnel action or to assure any benefits or terms or conditions of employment or make any agreement contrary to the foregoing.

Confidentiality Statement

During the time that I serve the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference of The United Methodist Church as an employee I realize that I will have access to information that is considered to be confidential and/or proprietary.

Since confidential and proprietary information – verbal and written – is crucial to the operation of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference of The United Methodist Church,, and because the Conference has the obligation to protect such information, I agree that I will not use, publish, or disclose such information during or subsequent to my employment with the Conference. Such information might be received as an employee or might be overheard in passing. I will preserve the restricted nature of this information except to the extent that it becomes publicly available or is otherwise lawfully obtained outside the scope of this agreement from third parties.

This agreement applies retroactively to the beginning of my relationship with the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference of The United Methodist Church as an employee, volunteer, or member of a Conference board or agency and remains in full effect at all times during and after my service.

►I hereby certify that I have read, understand and agree to the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference of The United Methodist Church Personnel Policy as described in this statement, with respect to confidential information, and that the information given in this statement is complete and accurate to the best of my knowledge.

TENNESSEE-WESTERN KENTUCKY CONFERENCE
MEDIA CRISIS RESPONSE PLAN

A Media Crisis in the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference is:
An event or emergency associated in some way with the Church but beyond its control, which can be expected to become public. It presents potential for damage to individuals, or the image of the Church, and hinders the ability to be in ministry. In other words, a media crisis is anything that could cause the public to lose faith in Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference leadership or in The United Methodist Church.

Media Crises Come in Several Packages

- Personnel crisis (clergy, church staff, or lay member's misconduct, death, illness, or injury)
- Threatened criminal or legal action
- Violent acts, demonstrations
- Corporate crisis (lawsuits against the conference, an agency or institution)
- Positive crisis (donations exceed what can be handled, etc.)

Purpose of Crisis Response Plan

- Provide compassion for victims
- Meet needs of the media
- Project positive image of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference and The United Methodist Church

Immediate Crisis Response Team
The Immediate Crisis Response Team will consist of five persons:

- Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference bishop
- Assistant to the bishop
- District superintendent of the affected area
- Connectional Ministries officer
- Conference director of communications

Media Crisis Management Team
The Media Crisis Management Team will include:

- The Immediate Crisis Response Team
- The Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference connectional table or cabinet
- The Tennessee Conference chancellor
- The Tennessee Conference treasurer
- Other leaders as deemed appropriate by the bishop

Actions - Media Crisis Management Team

1. The bishop will decide whether to notify the Media Crisis Management Team.
2. If asked to release information about the crisis, the Media Crisis team will:
    - develop a strategy for dissemination of information
    - determine how much and what kind of information can be released
    - decide when and to whom the information will be released
    - develop an official statement regarding the situation (brief, confirmed facts, the Church's response, and an expression of compassion for all concerned).

3. The bishop or alternate spokesperson and local church pastor* or agency director* must be thoroughly and regularly briefed before making any appearances or statements. The spokespersons may refer news media to others who can speak with authority on a particular subject.
   *If the local church pastor or agency director is intimately involved in the crisis, she/he will not be a spokesperson.
4. The Media Crisis team will determine whether the spokesperson should leave immediately for the location of the crisis (such as a church camp or church building). This may be necessary if reporters are already on site and there is no spokesperson present.
5. The bishop or alternate spokesperson must establish a schedule for regular briefing sessions of team members for the purpose of updates and discussion during the first few days of the crisis when media interest will be most intense.
6. The team is authorized to engage other professionals as needed. The bishop or his/her designated representative and the team will determine who receives information, updates and copies of all statements and releases.
7. The team agrees to provide 24-hour availability and access to one another.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF TEAM MEMBERS

The Bishop and/or Bishop's Assistant and Alternate Spokespersons will:

- review public reports on crisis
- clear calendar when press conference is necessary
- be available for key media interviews
- work with team to review facts and anticipate questions
- provide background information to team
- provide contact phone numbers to director of communications when out of state

The Director of Communications will:

- gather pertinent information
- assist spokespersons in preparing public statements
- prepare background information handouts for media
- monitor flow of information
- monitor and report media activity to members of Media Crisis Management Team
- advise support staff on how to handle calls relating to the case
- provide the bishop and support staff with personal itinerary when trip is planned
- provide training of lay personnel, cabinet, staff, etc.
- be available to support pastor if crisis involves local church
- If the crisis is of large proportions, will notify clergy and laity in the conference using email, email newsletter, letter, website, and/or social media. (Notices will also be emailed to district offices.)

The Conference Chancellor/Legal Counsel will:

- provide information on liability related to the crisis
- review statements and releases to the media for legal implications
- provide a list of alternate lawyers to be contacted if chancellor is unavailable
- be available 24 hours a day for consultation when necessary, during a crisis

The Media Crisis Management Team will:

- provide 24-hour availability at least during first few days of crisis

- develop a strategy for dissemination of information
- develop an official statement regarding the crisis
- determine how much, what kind and to whom information will be released
- provide communications with phone number if outside the area

Conference/Church Support Staff will:

- not answer questions; this is the sole responsibility of the spokespersons
- take written messages before allowing the caller to leave a voice message
- keep a time chart of all messages pertaining to the crisis using the log sheet
- direct calls as instructed by the Media Crisis Management Team
- keep copies of all messages related to the crisis
- assist the information flow as directed
- assist in collection of public statements and articles about crisis

Remember:

- If the crisis involves personnel, the bishop or appropriate authority may reassign or remove the individual immediately from his/her position. He/she can be reinstated if found innocent of charges.
- Team members and members of the support staff are required to document all conversations relating to the crisis, as well as keep a log of all media contacts.
- A log of all public statements should be kept in addition to any developments in the crisis. Be prepared to answer questions as to who is in charge, biographies of personalities, background information, knowledge of the church.
- If the crisis warrants it, the Media Crisis Management Team will make arrangements for security personnel to limit access to offices and for people to handle the telephones and serve as "runners" or provide hospitality.
- If the crisis is of large proportions, the director of communications will notify clergy and laity in the conference using whatever means necessary: email, email newsletter, letter, website, and/or social media. (Notices will be emailed to district offices that will be responsible for immediate distribution.)
- Prepare a pressroom with Internet connection as available. The site will be determined by location of crisis and availability of facilities.

Crisis Review

The Media Crisis Management Team will meet to review how the crisis unfolded and how it was handled. The team will consider:

1. What went well?
2. What missteps were made?
3. What problems could have been foreseen or avoided?
4. What adjustments in the crisis management plan are needed?
5. What loose ends need to be tied up?

MEDIA PROCEDURES FOR CHURCH AND CONFERENCE STAFF

Handling Telephone Calls from Reporters

- Take a written message (don't transfer to voicemail without taking message)
- Use the Crisis Communications Telephone Log for Media Calls
- Get reporter's name, media outlet, direct phone number, and deadline
- Ask for topic of story
- Explain that church spokesperson will return the call
- Don't answer questions yourself
- Be polite, but firm
- Keep a copy of all written records of media calls

Hold Response

Telephone:

"I want to make sure we give you the most accurate and up-to-date information. Our_____ (appropriate person) can best help you. If you give me your contact information, deadline, and topic that you're calling about, I'll have that person return your call as soon as possible."

On-site:

"Our job right now is to keep everyone safe. We understand that the media have a job to do. We're gathering information and our spokesperson will speak to reporters shortly."

Handling Reporters On-Site

- Refer questions to pastor, conference communicator, or district superintendent
- Don't be hostile
- Don't give your personal opinion
- Don't speak "off the record"
- Don't use the term "no comment"
- Be polite, but firm

Handling Casual Conversations or Questions about Crisis

- Don't speculate, repeat unconfirmed information, or express personal opinions
- Don't feel like you have to answer questions
- Do respond with a brief, positive, general statement

Contact Information for_____(Appropriate Contact)

Office# _____ Mobile# _____

Email: _____

Notification Process - The First 60 Minutes

If you learn of the crisis through a media contact (not unusual), you have 60 minutes to make your first formal response. If you learn of the crisis through another contact, be prepared to be contacted by the media. Your immediate responsibility is to contact your district superintendent. This will activate the Immediate Crisis Response Team to prepare an initial statement.

Instruct staff to follow Media Procedures for Church and Conference Staff guidelines.

If notified by media outlet requesting information, use the Hold Response and complete the Crisis Communications Telephone Log for Media Calls. (see Media Procedures for Church and Conference Staff guidelines)

Use this Hold Response to respond to requests for information. "I want to make sure we give you the most accurate and up-to-date information possible. Our spokesperson can best help you. If you will give me your contact information, deadline, and the topic that you're calling about, I'll have that person return your call as soon as possible."

First person aware of crisis contacts his/her district superintendent. (If this personcannot contact his/her district superintendent, then call must be placed to bishop's office.)

Bishop Bill McAlilly Office: (629) 203-7260

Assistant to the Bishop Office - Rev. Rob Martin: (629) 203-7261

- District superintendent calls bishop's office, speaks to bishop or bishop's assistant, explaining the crisis in a five-minute or less conversation.
- Bishop or bishop's assistant makes decision whether or not to contact Immediate Crisis Response Team. If the decision is made that a media crisis might occur, the team will immediately assemble via conference call.
- The team will assess the nature and extent of crisis by asking the following questions:
  1. What is known about the situation? What is not known?
  2. Who knows about the situation? What do they know?
  3. What can we expect to occur during the next few hours/days?
  4. What information can we release to the media and public immediately?
- Quickly uncover as many FACTS as possible before calling together the Media Crisis Management Team.
- The response team will prepare a one-paragraph statement to be distributed as soon as the facts are known. The statement will include facts (no suppositions) about what happened and what the Church intends to do. The statement will express compassion for all persons involved. This IS the Church!

Crisis Communications Telephone Log for Media Calls

1. Duplicate this sheet so a new page is available for logging every media call related to the crisis.
2. Every call from the media related to the crisis is to be noted using a log sheet. An electronic log may also be used, but it is recommended that a paper log be maintained for convenience of those returning logs AND for possible court cases.
3. Copy the completed log sheet before giving it to the spokesperson. Place the copy in a file to be maintained for several years.
4. Never transfer a call to voicemail OR to the spokesperson before completing this log.
5. Support staff must not answer the reporter's questions. Decline politely and refer the reporter to the spokesperson.

Chapter 11
Audit Statement & Statistics

A. 2021 AUDITED FINANCIAL STATEMENT

Tennessee Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc.

Consolidated Financial Statements
For the Years Ended December 31, 2021 and 2020

BLANKENSHIP

Independent Auditor's Report

Council on Finance and Administration
Tennessee Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of the Tennessee Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc. and its subsidiaries (a not-for-profit organization) (the Conference), which comprise the consolidated statements of financial position as of December 31, 2021 and 2020, the related consolidated statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements (collectively, the financial statements).

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Conference and its subsidiaries as of December 31, 2021 and 2020, and the change in their net assets and their cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion
We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Tennessee Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc. and its subsidiaries and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Emphasis of Matter
As discussed in note 2 to the financial statements, the 2020 financial statements have been restated to correct a misstatement. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements
Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Conference's ability to continue as a going concern one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Conference's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Conference's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Note 1. Nature of Organization and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of Organization

The Tennessee Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc. (the Conference) is a regional body of The United Methodist Church comprised of the lay members, clergy, and 600+ churches in 42 counties in middle Tennessee. The Conference is primarily responsible for all the ministries that are jointly provided by and for the United Methodists in its geographic area. The Conference administers Conference operating and program funds that are received from churches, boards and agencies, and individuals of the Conference, in accordance with the budget and other directives of the Annual Conference, the respective boards and agencies and donors.

Principles of Consolidation

The accompanying financial statements include the accounts under the accounting of the Conference Treasurer and the Caney Fork River District, Cumberland River District, Harpeth River District, Red River District, and Stones River District (the Districts) which are collectively, the Conference, after elimination of all material intercompany accounts and transactions.

Effective July 1, 2017, the Districts were incorporated into the Conference. Accumulated unrestricted reserves held previously by the districts prior to July 1, 2017 were renamed the Tennessee Cabinet Reserve Fund. These funds are assets of the Conference, controlled and previously reported by the Nashville Area Episcopal Office. During 2019, Council on Finance and Administration developed policies for control and administration of these funds that were subsequently approved by Annual Conference.

Basis of Accounting

The financial statements have been prepared using the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (US GAAP).

Financial Statement Presentation

The Conference follows the recommendations contained in the Presentation of Financial Statements, Not-For-Profit Entities topic of the Financial Accounting Standard Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC). Under those provisions, net assets and revenues, gains, and losses are classified based on the absence or existence and nature of donor-imposed restrictions as follows:

Net assets without donor restrictions – Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed stipulations.

Net assets with donor restrictions – Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that can be fulfilled by actions of the Conference pursuant to those stipulations or that expire by the passage of time and net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that may be maintained permanently by the Conference. Generally, the donors of such assets permit the Conference to use all or part of the income earned on the assets. Donor restricted contributions are reported as increases in net assets with donor restrictions. When a restriction expires, net assets are reclassified from net assets with donor restrictions to net assets without donor restrictions in the consolidated statements of activities.

Note 1. Nature of Organization and Significant Accounting Policies

Use of Estimates
The preparation of financial statements in conformity with US GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents
The Conference defines its cash, designated cash, and cash equivalents to include cash on hand, demand deposits, and commercial paper and other investments with initial maturities of three months or less.

Investments
Investments in marketable securities with readily determinable fair values and all investments in debt securities are reported at their fair values in the statements of financial position. The Conference holds investments which are reported at net asset value (NAV) per share or its equivalent as a practical expedient, to determine the fair value of investments in funds which (a) do not have a readily determinable fair value and (b) either have the attributes of an investment fund or prepare their financial statements consistent with the measurement principles of an investment fund.

Unrealized gains and losses are included in changes in net assets. Investment income and gains restricted by a donor are reported as increases in net assets without donor restrictions if the restrictions are met in the reporting period in which the income and gains are recognized. However, if a donor contributes an investment required to be held in perpetuity, gains and losses on the investment are subject to the same permanent restriction unless the donor explicitly states otherwise.

Fair Value Measurements
The fair value of financial assets and liabilities is measured according to the Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures topic of the FASB ASC. Fair value is required to be evaluated and adjusted according to the following valuation techniques:

Level 1 – Fair value is determined using quoted market prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities.

Level 2 – Fair value is determined using quoted market prices in active markets for similar assets and liabilities.

Level 3 – Fair value is determined using unobservable market prices in a market that is typically inactive.

Income Taxes
The Conference is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Receivables
Apportionments receivable represent apportionments received after year-end for the budget year ended December 31, 2021 and 2020. No allowance for doubtful collections has been recorded.

Note 1. Nature of Organization and Significant Accounting Policies

Fixed Assets
Fixed assets are carried at cost if purchased and estimated fair market value if donated. Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, excluding land, which are 5 to 30 years. Depreciation expense for the years ended December 31, 2021 and 2020 was $397,866 and $368,401, respectively.

Donated closed churches actively marketed for sale are not depreciated but accounted for according to the Property, Plant, and Equipment topic of the FASB ASC. The Conference owns land and buildings that are currently being held for sale. These assets are closed churches. As required by ¶2549 of The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church, when a church closes the Conference may retain, sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of the property in accordance with the direction of the annual conference.

PPP Loan
On January 30, 2020, the World Health Organization declared the COVID-19 outbreak a "Public Health Emergency of International Concern" and on March 11, 2020, declared it to be a pandemic. The Conference received a loan in accordance with the Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) section of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act (the CARES Act). US GAAP provides organizations with two alternatives for reporting the loan and any future forgiveness: 1) proceeds can be treated as debt and future forgiveness recognized as income when the loan or any portion thereof is formally discharged; or 2) proceeds can be treated as a conditional contribution where they recognize a refundable advance and derecognize the liability, and recognize income, as the conditions for forgiveness are substantially met or explicitly waived. The Conference has elected to treat the PPP loan as a conditional contribution.

Donated Services
Contributed services are reflected in the financial statements at the estimated fair value of the services received only when those services either (a) create or enhance nonfinancial assets, or (b) require specialized skills that are provided by individuals possessing those skills and would typically need to be purchased if not provided by donation. Unpaid volunteers make contributions of time in various administrative and program functions. The Conference has not valued these donations.

Revenues and Support
Contributions are received and recorded as with or without donor restrictions depending on the existence and/or nature of any donor restrictions. Contributions received and unconditional promises to give are measured at their fair values and are reported as an increase in net assets without donor restrictions. When a donor restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished, net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the statements of activities as net assets released from restrictions. Donor-restricted contributions whose restrictions are met in the same reporting period are reported as unrestricted support.

The primary source of support are apportionments received from the local churches in the Conference. Apportionments expire at the end of each calendar year and, therefore, have been recorded as unrestricted support. Contributions and other revenues are primarily receipts by programs that have external sources of revenues such as registration fees, reimbursements, or receipts of the Districts.

Advertising Costs
Advertising costs are expensed as incurred and are included in program expense.

Note 1. Nature of Organization and Significant Accounting Policies

Functional Expenses

The costs of providing program services and supporting services have been summarized on a functional basis in the statements of activities. Some costs have been charged using specific identification. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among program services and supporting services. Such allocations are determined by management on an equitable basis. The expenses that are allocated include the following:

	Method of allocation
Campus ministries	Time and effort
Depreciation	Square footage
Salaries and benefits	Time and effort
Telephone and internet	Square footage
Utilities	Square footage

Note 2. Restatement of Net Assets

The Organization has restated its previously issued 2020 financial statements to correct an error related to the following previously reported items: assets held for sale and net assets. The total increase to net assets as of January 1, 2021 was $2,410,000.

The following is a summary of the restatement for 2020:

	Without Donor Restrictions	With Donor Restrictions	Total
Net assets as of December 31, 2020	$ 32,415,562	$ 6,046,833	$ 38,462,395
Restatement of net assets	2,410,000	-	2,410,000
Net assets as of December 31, 2020- restated	$ 34,825,562	$ 6,046,833	$ 40,872,395

The effects of the Organization's previously issued 2020 financial statements is summarized as follows:

Statement of Financial Position as of December 31, 2020:

	Previously Reported	Increase (Decrease)	Restated
Assets held for sale	$ 378,150	$ 2,410,000	$ 2,788,150

Fees	(107,602)	(94,084)
Investment income (loss)	$ 3,890,720	$ 3,496,579

Note 5. Fair Value Measurements

The following assets carried at fair value are reviewed and adjusted on a recurring basis based on quoted market prices. Fair values at December 31, 2021 are as follows:

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Development Fund	$ -	$ 5,639,599	$ -	$ 5,639,599
Foundation investments	7,306,391	-	-	7,306,391
Mutual funds	12,650,489	-	-	12,650,489
Investments in fair value hierarchy	$ 19,956,880	$ 5,639,599	$ -	$ 25,596,479
Investments measured at NAV using practical expedient
Wespath benefits and investments				$ 6,057,463

Note 5. Fair Value Measurements

Fair values at December 31, 2020 are as follows:

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Development Fund	$ -	$ 6,504,940	$ -	$ 6,504,940
Foundation investments	7,168,044	-	-	7,168,044
Mutual funds	10,854,227	-	-	10,854,227
Investments in fair value hierarchy	$ 18,022,271	$ 6,504,940	$ -	$ 24,527,211
Investments measured at NAV using practical expedient
Wespath benefits and investments				$ 7,117,044

Certain investments that are measured at fair value using the net asset value per share practical expedient have not been classified in the fair value hierarchy. The amounts presented in this table are intended to permit reconciliation of the fair value hierarchy to the amounts presented in the statements of financial position.

Note 6. Assets Held for Sale

The Conference is actively marketing the properties and expects to dispose of the assets by selling the properties. Properties are recorded at fair value upon transfer to the Conference based on an analysis of the various data points available, including but not limited to: appraisals, property tax assessments, insurable value, and comparable property sales in the area. For the year ended December 31, 2021 there was a loss of $25,190 related to the sale of assets held for sale. For the year ended December 31, 2020 there was no loss or gain related to the sale of assets held for sale. As of December 31, 2021 and 2020, the balance of the assets held for sale was $138,461 and $2,788,150, respectively.

Note 7. Concentrations

The Conference had bank deposits in a financial institution that were approximately $3,554,000 and $1,038,000 in excess of the $250,000 insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation at December 31, 2021 and 2020, respectively.

The Conference has certain investments insured by the Securities Investor Protection Corporation, which covers a portion of investor losses, in some cases, attributable to bankruptcy or fraudulent practices of brokerage firms. The Conference also has $5,639,599 and $6,504,940 invested with the Development Fund (note 8) in unsecured participation accounts (note 4 and 5) as of December 31, 2021 and 2020, respectively.

Note 8. Related Party Transactions

The Conference is a related party to the United Methodist Foundation for the Memphis and Tennessee Conferences (the Foundation) and the United Methodist Development Fund of Tennessee/Kentucky, Inc. (the Development Fund). The Conference pays routine expenses of the Foundation and Development Fund including salaries, retirement, and insurance and is reimbursed by the Foundation and Development Fund. The total amount paid to the Conference by the Foundation and Development Fund for these routine expenses was $400,217 and $415,408 in 2021 and 2020, respectively.

Note 8. Related Party Transactions

The Conference has investments with both the Foundation and the Development Fund (see note 4 and 5).

The Foundation and Development Fund lease office space from the Conference for $1,500 per month. The lease renews annually. The Nashville Area Episcopal Office is the administrative office of the resident Bishop of the Tennessee Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc. and the Memphis Conference of the United Methodist Church. The Conference pays routine expenses of the Nashville Area Episcopal Office including salaries, retirement, and insurance and is reimbursed by the Nashville Area Episcopal Office. The total amount paid to the Conference by Nashville Area Episcopal Office for these routine expenses was $79,390 and $160,069 in 2021 and 2020, respectively.

The Conference owes $376,183 to the Memphis Conference of the United Methodist Church (Memphis Conference). Effective January 1, 2022, the Conference will merge with the Memphis Conference. See Note 15. During 2021, approximately $86,000 support was provided by the Memphis Conference to the Conference.

Note 9. Retirement Plans

The Conference provides pension benefits for clergy serving churches in the Tennessee Conference under Episcopal appointment, and full-time permanent staff of the Conference through various retirement plans. All plans are multi-employer plans administered by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits of The United Methodist Church (Wespath). Wespath operates under the authority of the church's General Conference and implements the plans in accordance with the plan documents. Pension benefits for clergy are a combination of defined benefit and defined contribution plans. Pension benefits for Conference lay staff are all defined contribution plans. Total Conference contributions to all plans for the years ended December 31, 2021 and 2020 were $2,890,997 and $3,057,072, respectively. The various retirement plans are listed below.

Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP)
CRSP is a multi-employer 403(b) retirement plan that provides pension coverage to eligible clergy. CRSP is both a defined benefit plan, which provides benefits based on years of credited service, and a defined contribution plan, which provides a retirement account balance established and funded by the Conference.

Effective January 1, 2014, contributions to the defined benefit plan are actuarially determined and contributions to the defined contribution plan equal 2% of the clergy's compensation, plus a matching contribution of up to 1% of the clergy's compensation, for a maximum of 3%.

Supplement One to CRSP (Pre-1982)
Pre-1982 is a multi-employer 403(b) defined benefit plan for Conference clergy entering service prior to January 1, 1982. General Conference 2000 required each annual conference to adopt a formal funding plan to retire the Conference Pre-1982 pension obligations. The Conference's Pre-1982 plan has been fully funded since the mid-1990s. The Conference approves a minimum distribution (past service rate) each year for participants in the Pre-1982 plan, based on a recommendation by the Conference Board of Pensions. The past service rate for the years ended December 31, 2021 and 2020 was $714 and $714 for pre-1982 service years, which is 1.04% and 1.05% of the Conference average compensation, respectively.

Note 9. Retirement Plans

United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP)
The UMPIP is a multi-employer 403(b) defined contribution plan providing eligible clergy and employees of the Conference with retirement savings. Conference employees and clergy may contribute up to the dollar limits set by current Internal Revenue Service regulations under both pre-tax and after-tax elections. The Conference makes no contributions to this plan for full-time clergy, who participate in CRSP. Effective January 1, 2014, the Conference contributes 12% of part-time clergy's compensation into UMPIP. The Conference matches non-clergy contributions of 3% or more of compensation with a fixed 12% matching contribution. No matching contribution is provided for employee contributions less than 3% of compensation.

Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP)
CPP is a multi-employer health and welfare plan that provides death and disability benefits as well as other supplemental benefits to eligible clergy and their beneficiaries. CPP is funded by the Conference at a rate of 3% of compensation.

Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP)
MPP covers clergy who served from 1982 through 2006. It is a multi-employer defined contribution plan, but differs from a true defined contribution plan in that upon retirement, participants must annuitize 65% of their account balances, and the Conference is responsible for funding the annuities should the need arise. Upon annuitization, the monthly benefit becomes a defined benefit.

Some amounts designated for pension benefits have been transferred to the legal title of Wespath multi-employer plans and are not reported in these financial statements as net assets of the Conference. The December 31 value of these Wespath accounts was as follows:

	2021	2020
Pre-82 pension	$ 22,595,176	$ 23,106,908
Corpus of Tennessee Superannuate	80,279	80,279
	$ 22,675,455	$ 23,187,187

Note 10. Health Care Plan

The Conference sponsors the Tennessee Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc. Health Benefit Plan (HBP). The HBP is open to all eligible plan participants including clergy, full-time Conference staff, designated students who are part-time local pastors, and their respective eligible dependents. The Conference director of administrative services is the plan administrator. The plan administrator uses a third-party administrator for processing claims and other duties but retains responsibility for benefits payable. The HBP is a self-funded plan paying covered benefits out of Conference assets. Plan participants help cover some costs of covered benefits through contributions, deductibles, and out-of-pocket expenses. This plan was closed to new participants in 2021 and will be ending in 2024. Beginning with 2021, most former participants moved to an insurance offering provided by the Conference, which is not self-funded.

Note 10. Health Care Plan

Conference payments to the HBP for the years ended December 31, 2021 and 2020 were $1,935,813 and $1,935,813, respectively.

Participation in the HBP can continue upon retirement under the Conference's formal retirement plan provided the participant makes required contributions to the plan. This coverage can continue until age 65 with stipulations. The Conference uses the fiscal year as the measurement date for its plan.

The Conference has not pre-funded its postretirement healthcare plan but operates instead on a pay-as-you-go basis. Unfunded Postretirement Healthcare Benefits have been recognized representing the underfunded status of the Conference HBP as of December 31 as follows:

	2021	2020
Plan assets at fair value	-	-
Accumulated unfunded postretirement healthcare benefits obligation	$ (130,000)	$ (1,939,703)

The amounts recognized in the consolidated statements of activities for the years ended December 31, 2021 and 2020 are as follows:

	2021	2020
Net periodic cost
Interest cost	$ -	$ -

The following table summarizes the weighted average assumptions used to determine the Conference's net postretirement cost for the years ended December 31:

	2021	2020
Discount rate	3.0000%	3.0000%
Healthcare cost trend rate	6.19%	1.0241%

Following are the changes in the accumulated benefit obligation and net amount accrued at December 31:

	2021	2020
Accumulated postretirement healthcare benefit obligation at January 1	$ (130,000)	$ (1,939,703)
Interest cost	-	-
Accumulated postretirement healthcare benefit obligation at December 31	$ (130,000)	$ (1,939,703)

Note 11. Tennessee Cabinet Reserve Fund

The following table summarizes the activity of the Cabinet Reserve Fund which is included in the consolidated statements of activities for the years ended December 31:

	2021	2020
Beginning balance	$ 638,340	$ 959,332
Contributions	-	-
Disbursements	(210,036)	(322,360)
Interest income	445	1,368
Ending balance	$ 428,749	$ 638,340

Note 12. PPP Loan

On April 20, 2020, the Conference received a loan in the amount of $935,800 in accordance with the PPP section of the CARES Act. The Conference elected to treat the PPP loan as a conditional contribution and presented it separately in the financial statements. The Conference received forgiveness of the PPP Loan on February 16, 2021.

Note 13. Net Assets

Net assets with donor restrictions as of December 31, have been restricted for the following purposes:

	2021	2020
Temporarily Restricted Net Assets
Board of Higher Emerging Needs	$ 85,434	$ 83,744

Tillett Fund	70,208	65,867
Green Fund	63,905	59,954
Lyle Fund	7,368	6,913
Rozelle Fund	19,290	18,097
James M. Davis Scholarship Fund, Caney Fork	5,484	4,886
Total permanently restricted net assets	666,790	625,305
Total with donor restrictions	$ 5,226,650	$ 6,046,834

Note 13. Net Assets

Net assets without donor restrictions as of December 31 have been designated by the Conference for the following noted purposes:

	2021	2020
Pension Reserve Trust	$ 17,396,874	$ 16,872,680
Healthcare postretirement	2,520,171	2,352,016
Congregational development	1,783,836	2,032,108
Other purposes	2,008,974	1,791,014
Total designated	$ 23,709,855	$ 23,047,818

The 2017 Conference created the Pension Reserve Trust (Trust) for the purpose of better protecting the pension assets that have been accumulated by the Conference in excess of the amounts needed to fully fund plans (Pension Reserves). All Pension Reserves were conveyed or redirected into the Trust effective July 1, 2017. The Treasurer is authorized to make routine transactions into and out of the Trust as provided in the approved budget; but otherwise, the Trust assets are designed for uses approved by its elected trustees, who are all members of the Conference Board of Pensions.

Note 14. Disaffiliations

In 2019 the General Conference of the United Methodist Church passed legislation that allowed local churches to disaffiliate from the denomination over disagreements related to Human Sexuality. The legislation (Book of Discipline para. 2553) which was scheduled to go into effect following the 2019 General Conference was delayed due to a Judicial Council challenge which was resolved in March of 2021. Paragraph 2553 requires several steps a local church must take to complete the process, the financial requirements are the previous 12 months of Connectional Commitment, an additional year of Connectional Commitment and payment of the church's share of Conference's Unfunded Pension Liabilities as calculated by Wespath on a market-basis. This amount is allocated to the local church pro-rata using a ratio of their Connectional Commitment to the Conference approved Budget.

In 2021, the Conference recognized approximately $547,000 in payments related to disaffiliations which are reflected in the contributions and other revenues line of the statement of activities. The Conference notes this disaffiliation option has seen increased utilization in 2022 and could materially impact financial results in the future.

Note 15. Subsequent Events

Management has evaluated subsequent events through September 26, 2022, the date on which the financial statements were available for issuance.

Effective January 1, 2022, the Tennessee Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc. merged with the Memphis Conference of the United Methodist Church to become the Tennessee-Western Kentucky United Methodist Conference.

BLANKENSHIP

The following are observations made by Blankenship CPA Group in consulting with the Tennessee-Western Kentucky United Methodist Conference (the Consolidated Conference) as they were consolidating the Tennessee Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church (former Tennessee) and the Memphis Conference of the United Methodist Church (former Memphis) as of January 1, 2022. These observations were made outside the scope of the audit of the Tennessee Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church for the year ended December 31, 2021.

Observations regarding the Memphis Conference of the United Methodist Church trial balances:

Overall

1. Districts should be legally organized consistently and accounted for the same for both former Memphis and former Tennessee Conferences. The former Tennessee conference includes the districts in their consolidated audit. The former Memphis conference does not.
2. What is the plan for the Memphis Conference building? Is it being held for sale? Or retained for use? Depending on the answer, the Consolidated Conference will need to present appropriately on the consolidated statement of financial position.

Balance Sheet

1. Cash
    a. Observations:
        i. Significant and material bank balances are uninsured by FDIC, SPIC, etc. insurance
    b. Recommendation:
        i. Discuss multiple options for additional insurance with bank representatives.
2. Investments
    a. Observations:
        i. Balances recorded in trial balance did not all agree to provided statements
    b. Recommendation:
        i. Confirm balances agree to provided statements following the posting of adjusting entries and reconcile to supporting documentation monthly.
3. Investments: Wespath
    a. Observations:
        i. Inconsistencies exist between Tennessee and Memphis' significant accounting policies regarding recording of "Trust" funds.
        ii. Wepath-Pre-82: Memphis paid part of Tennessee's 2021 YE obligation, while is this not a problem, did want to point out the audit entry to add a payable to Memphis is not needed under the joint Conference.
    b. Recommendation:
        i. Determine appropriate accounting treatment for all Wespath funds and record consistently.
4. Accounts Receivable
    a. Memphis has no connectional commitment receivable recorded while Tennessee does. Should these be consistent?
5. Prepaid – no observations

6. PP&E
    a. Vehicles and Equipment
        i. Observations:
            1. Memphis has no vehicles or equipment on their books
            2. Tennessee has both
            3. This may be related to districts being incorporated into Tennessee and not Memphis, however, it seems there should at least be computers?
        ii. Recommendations:
            1. Confirm Memphis capitalization threshold aligns with Tennessee and add assets if needed for Memphis
    b. Closed church property
        i. Observations:
            1. Significant Accounting policy and treatment are different between the two conferences. We issued formal management comment regarding this in the former Tennessee conference audit.
            2. Value in Memphis is much lower, gives concern about completeness of population
        ii. Recommendation:
            1. Adopt policy as discussed with Tennessee Conference regarding closed churches
            2. Treat consistently across the new conference
    c. Campus locations
        i. Observations:
            1. Clarity on the relationship with the Conference is needed – are they subsidiaries? Or are they independent?
                a. Campus locations are owned by the Conference
                b. Campus ministry directors are employed by the Conference
                c. Yet the financial activity and position of the campus ministries are not included in the entity's records. Is that appropriate?
        ii. Recommendations:
            1. Align related accounting with result of inquiry on campus ministries:
                a. Either all assets and liabilities; as well as all income and expenses on the Conference's books
                b. OR shift to record in-kind rent and employee time as donation to the campus ministry
7. A/P
    a. Post-Retirement Healthcare Benefits Liability
        i. Observation:
            1. Memphis has a significantly more generous plan. Need to clearly differentiate the liability in the ongoing financials (not combine them). This may go away if plans are redesigned.
8. Equity
    a. Beginning net assets did not roll until we added the prior auditor's entries
    b. Align presentation –
        i. Memphis reflects "Board Designated" line items on the face of the statement of financial position, Tennessee defines in the notes
        ii. Tennessee deducts board designations from assets available for general expenditures, Memphis does not

Expenses:

c. Compare Memphis functional expense statement and Tennessee's – decide what level of presentation you prefer for future financial statements. Memphis has a smaller number of categories, but more programs differentiated vs. Tennessee.
