

Youth Curriculum

Cokesbury offers a robust selection of youth and student curriculum for Sunday schools, church camps, and retreats.

Bible Lessons for Youth is a curriculum that helps teens apply the Bible to their real life. This trusted curriculum has been refreshed while keeping everything you love about the resource. Its teacher-friendly, easy-to-teach format is built around a step-by-step sequence with thought-provoking activities designed to help youth understand Scripture and apply it to their individual experiences.

LinC: Living in Christ is a fresh, timely, and biblically-based resource, LinC helps you help your teens examine relevant faith and life issues, using the latest music, movies, news, and current events.

Fathom is a Bible study for teens that covers the Old and New Testaments in 18-4 session studies. The lessons are a blend of narrative and traditional theological approaches to understanding the bible story.

The Groove Bible study series invites teens to learn the essentials of their faith, own their story, and engage the world in serving Jesus. Each topical study consists of four weekly sessions that are easy to lead and relate to life issues teens face.

Echo the Story 36 is a 36-week Bible overview for youth using storytelling, creative reflection, and dialogue. Through this experiential approach, students find meaning and identity in the biblical narrative.

re:form is a youth faith formation series with 40 sessions featuring engaging videos, the Anti-Workbook, and easy-to-use Leader Guide.

Think.Believe.Do \(T.B.D.\) will help you to truly engage your youth in their faith formation, it requires giving them a sense of ownership as they dig into what they believe and why they believe it. T.B.D.: Think. Believe. Do. offers a resource for youth leaders to engage youth to actively participate in their own faith development and embark on a journey of exploration. As a result, youth begin to ask and answer questions about their faith while also building their own belief system.

The Foundation Book for the These Are Our Bodies program for various age level modules (Middle School, High School, children, etc.) teaches sexuality and faith—formation for a lifetime. Easily accessible, theologically progressive, mainline Christian Education resource on human sexuality

The We Believe confirmation curriculum, Professing Our Faith, provides youth with a foundational understanding of the Reformed-Presbyterian faith.

Canvas, a collection of five four-week youth studies, is designed to empower students to lead the lessons themselves, which will not only draw students to learn about theological beliefs, foundational concepts, and their own faith, but will give them an opportunity to practice service and teaching others.

Confirm is an easy-to-follow and fully customizable confirmation program that can be used in any church setting and with a wide variety of schedules. Also available in Lutheran, Methodist, and Presbyterian editions.

Affirm — A six-week discipleship resource —will inspire students to learn their place in in God's story as they prepare to cross the threshold into young adulthood.

BE BOLD Sunday school curriculum gives your preteens exactly what they need—validation of their faith questions, and a place to connect as they explore those questions together. And we'll guide you every step of the way as you become their conversation guide...and fellow explorer.

Colaborate allows students to discover the history and richness of the Old and New Testaments using proven learning methods such as problem-based learning. Help youth take an honest look at the holy mystery and the complexity of Scripture to move them onto a path of growth and discovery.

Grapple Series: Preteens' Toughest Questions. The Bible's Smartest Answers is based on real questions asked by real 10 to 12-year-olds that grab their attention and won't let go. These quarterly, non-dated Sunday school lessons focus on 12 unique questions for preteens to grapple with.

Learning to Study the Bible will give students the right tools to understand the Bible. By the end of this eight-week class, their small group will have learned about biblical genres, historical contexts, the Revised Common Lectionary, and how to use resources including study Bibles, commentaries, and maps.

CORE \(Connect, Own, Reveal, Empower®\) is a resource designed to help teenagers discover their true identity, value, and worth as God's children and empower them to reach their potential in faithfully following Christ with others.

I Will with God's Help confirmation program, developed with the help of Episcopal educators, clergy, and theologians across the country, encourages youth and adults to enter into a uniquely Episcopal—yet profoundly Christian—faith journey.

Spice Rack was created by Mark DeVries for the volunteer junior and senior high school Sunday school teachers. The curriculum is designed to move from a lecture-style teaching method and instead provides teachers with options for creating a fast-paced, interactive, faith sharing experience.

Echo the Story 12 is a 12-week Bible overview for youth using storytelling, creative reflection, and dialogue. Through this story-based approach, students find meaning and identity in the biblical narrative.

Making Disciples is a 13-session mentor-based confirmation program that pairs confirmands with adult mentors and guides them through a variety of learning experiences that will strengthen the student's understanding of the faith while connecting him or her with the community of believers in a personal way. It can be used as a stand-alone program, or in conjunction with your current curriculum as a special experiential unit.
