

Wesley of Middle Tennessee
John Weaver

Each year our Student Council creates a covenant. This covenant defines our vision of who God has called us to be and to hold us accountable as we partner with God. Here is the Wesley of Middle Tennessee 2024 Student Council Covenant:

Who We Are

We are imperfect disciples of Christ who aim to grow a community of passionate inclusivity, servant leadership, and theological curiosity. Despite our differences, we aspire to be more Christ-like everyday and be a living example of His leadership and love. In this endeavor to create a safe space for invitation, empowerment, spirituality, connection, and opportunity, we open our hearts by welcoming all people (and backgrounds) as made in the image of God.

How We Are

In this pursuit toward a relationship with Christ and Koinonia, we encourage communication surrounding struggles, successes, and support. We aim to build the community through our prayers, presence, gifts, service, and witness. We will meet people where they are, inviting challenges and offering support. Our doors are always open.

Why We Are

Matthew 25:35-40. We seek to continue the cycle of unconditional love shown to us by God through the legacy of this student-led campus ministry, responding to a call and longing to serve this community that has graciously served us. To gain a deeper understanding of our Lord so we may be better equipped to serve Him and His kingdom, we desire to share the Good News so others may receive the love of God, be a disciple of Jesus Christ, and be inspired by the Holy Spirit.
